

The billionaire and his son want me back novel

Chapter 214

Chapter 214 You need to calm down .

Ill call Jonathan However , when Reginald tried calling , Jonathans line was busy .

It made sense .

With such an emergency happening at the hospital , Jonathan would be busy handling the situation .

Lets wait a bit longer .

If its really bad , we can transfer Sonny to another hospital .

Lauren felt helpless and could only stand by Graysons bed , crying uncontrollably .

My poor Sonny , hes never been through anything like this Kayla thought her mom was going a bit overboard , but she couldnt say anything because she knew shed get scolded .

So , she just quietly stood by , offering comfort every now and then , The more Lauren fretted over Grayson , the louder his cries grew as though he had been wronged terribly .

Finally , Dominick couldnt take it anymore .

He coldly reminded Lauren , Stop crying .

Youre embarrassing yourself .

Lauren froze at the coldness in her sons voice and stared at him in shock .

Dominick didnt pay her any attention and instead turned to Grayson .

Grayson , youre a big boy .

Stop crying .

Be brave .

Grayson , already hurt and now being scolded by his dad , felt even more wronged and cried even louder .

But it really hurts ! I think Im going to die from the pain ! Lauren angrily pushed Dominick away .

What kind of father are you ? Sonnys in so much pain , and youre still scolding him It was at that moment that Dominick realized how overly spoiled Grayson had been by his mother , to the point where the boy seemed unable to handle any kind of hardship .

Both of them had been through this traumatic experience , both had been injured .

Although Serenas injuries werent as severe as Graysons , she was only three years old , and after going through such a terrifying ordeal , she hadnt cried out or thrown a tantrum If she did cry , it was just quietly , tears in her eyes .

She would silently wipe them away .

She was so well behaved that it was heartbreaking Thinking about how sweet and understanding Serena was , and that she was Paisley and Maxs daughter , Dominick felt a pang in his heart It was as though his heart had shattered into pieces , and even when pieced together , there were cracks all over it .

It wasnt fatal , but the pain was unbearable .

So , if back then , he hadnt been so focused on work , hadnt neglected Paisley and his family , hadnt allowed his family to coddle and spoil Sonny so much .

Wouldnt everything be different now ? On the way to the hospital , Paisley almost counted the seconds she rushed there .

Each red light they had to wait at filled her with anxiety .

Fortunately , Maxs excellent driving skills brought the car to the hospital in no time .

As soon as the car came to a stop and the locks clicked open , Leyanked the door open from the outside .

Only when Paisley got out of the car did she notice that Leo , along with others , had been tailing Maxs car the entire way .
