

The billionaire and his son want me back novel

Chapter 218

Chapter 218 The surroundings werent quiet , but even so , Dominick could hear his own frantic heartbeat .

He stared at Paisley , desperate for answers .

Paisley I dont want to talk to you about anything right now .

Paisley avoided his gaze and walked away .

But 1- Dominick tried to follow her , but Max stepped forward , blocking his path .

Dominicks eyes darkened , glaring coldly at Max .

Move , No , Max said , wearing his usual infuriatingly smug expression .

This is between me and Paisley its a family matter .

It has nothing to do with you , Dominick said , his tone laced with menace Family matter ? Max smirked .

Last I checked , you two are divorced .

Seeing Dominicks face , Max casually rubbed his brow .

Dont get so worked up its bad for your liver .

And stop frowning so much ill make you look old .

You Dominick was about to lose control .

At that moment , Jonathan emerged from the emergency room again , his face tense but not as grim as before .

Paisley , your daughter has a ruptured spleen .

Ruptured spleen .

Paisley repeated softly , her mind already racing with thoughts .

Yeah , fortunately , we caught it in time .

Its not too severe yet , but she needs surgery immediately , Jonathan explained Serenas condition to Paisley , Can her spleen be saved ? Paisley asked .

Without seeing the test reports or scans , she could only rely on Jonathan for information Paisley had a good understanding of the human bodys basic structure .

The spleen was the largest lymphatic organ in the body .

It stored blood , produced blood cells , removed aging red blood cells , and aided in immune responses .

For an adult , removing the spleen after a rupture didnt have too much impact on daily life .

But Serena was just three years old .

If her spleen was removed , it would definitely affect her body .

Jonathan frowned slightly but didnt make any definitive statements .

I know , Weve arranged for a consultation to try our best to save her spleen .

Graysons nal check up results came back normal .

Other than external injuries , he had no other issues .

He was discharged that night and returned to Vanderbilt Manor .

Having been scared , injured , and crying nonstop at the hospital , Grayson fell asleep as soon as he got home .

Meanwhile , the other three members of the Vanderbilt family couldnt fall asleep .

My brother is still at the hospital .

He just called and said the surgery is done , Kayla said , glancing at the clock .

It was already very late Lauren and Reginald exchanged glances but didnt speak .

The living room atmosphere felt a little heavy .

Mom , Dad , do you think Serena could really be my brothers ? 家 33 % 血 13 Lauren and Reginalds eyes lit up .

When they thought that she could be their granddaughter , a subtle wave of happiness washed over them .

Earlier at the hospital , I overheard my brother and Paisley .

It seemed like my brother already suspected Serena was his daughter , so he asked Paisley , and she told him the child was blood type A But today , she said her daughters blood type is O .

If the child wasnt my brothers , there'd be no reason for her to lie about it , even if shes type O .

So- Kayla suddenly stood up and declared , Shes likely my brothers daughter ! Your granddaughter ! Reginald and Lauren both felt Kaylas reasoning made sense .

Just as she said , if Serena werent from the Vanderbilt family .

Paisley couldve easily stated her real blood type .

There was no need to deceive Dominick .

With that in mind , both of them smiled .

Especially Lauren , who was over the moon .

She had been dreaming of having a cute granddaughter .

She imagined dressing her up like a little princess every day and taking her out for shopping and afternoon coffee .

Reginald was just as delighted .

The thought of that adorable child bouncing over to him and calling him Grandpa made him beam with joy .

However , he kept a level head and didnt let his excitement get the better of him .

Lets not jump to conclusions.

Ive already arranged for a genetic sample to be taken .

Once we do a paternity test with Dominick , well know for sure .

Kayla rolled her eyes .

Paisley wont agree to that , especially after what youve said , Mom .

She turned to her mother .

Theres no way shed let you claim her daughter .

From what she saw , Paisley made it very clear today she wanted nothing to do with them even going as far as slapping her mom .

Besides , who would want a grandmother who called them illegitimate ? Lauren suddenly remembered the slap she got from Paisley earlier .

She instinctively touched her cheek , still recalling the sting of it .

Angrily , she furrowed her brows and said , Who said I want to claim a granddaughter ? We havent even done the paternity test yet .

Who knows if the child is even my granddaughter ? Kayla glanced at her mom and said nothing , unimpressed .

Mom , keep denying , she thought to herself .
