Maybe , at that moment , he would have impulsively told her he was Serenas father .

But he was glad he didnt say it in the end .

Otherwise , he wouldnt know how to face Paisley now .

The image he had left in Paisleys mind was already bad enough .

He didnt want to make it worse .

Wanting to acknowledge his daughter was important , but Paisley meant more to him .

Good .

You should go back now , there are guests in the hospital room , its not convenient for you to stay , Paisley said as she walked towards the room without even saying goodbye .

Dominick stood there , turning to look at Paisleys back with a sorrowful gaze .

Paisley returned to the hospital room , and Emery looked behind her , not seeing Dominick .

He left ? Yeah , he left .

Paisley rubbed her forehead , feeling a bit tired .

She was indeed tired today , not physically , but mentally .

First , she had to go to the studio and handle the accumulated work urgently .

Then , on her way back , she ran into some things with the ladies association .

She barely had a moment to rest before meeting Dominick .

Emery noticed Paisley didnt look too well , so she walked over and started massaging her shoulders .

When Emery touched Paisleys tense shoulders , she frowned , Wow , your shoulders are even stiffer than mine after years of sewing .

And your neck is so tight , havent you been resting well lately ? After asking , Emery rolled her eyes .

Like you could get any rest .

Paisley closed her eyes , enjoying Emerys massage .

Its ne , I have you to help me .

Emery chuckled .

Of course , my skills are the best .

Hey , didnt Dominick take this doll with him ? Paisley opened her eyes and saw the limited edition doll beside Serenas bed .

Mom , I said I dont want it .

I already have one , Serena said .

Paisley picked it up and looked at it .

Yeah , Rena already has one of these .

She handed it to Emery .

Here , for your massage fee .

I dont want anything from that man .

Besides , Im too old to play with dolls .

Emery threw the doll onto the side table with a look of disdain .

The next moment , Paisleys voice came up softly .

That doll is worth 400 thousand .

Oh my ! Emerys face changed faster than a page turning .

She rushed over to the side table , hugged the doll , inspecting it from all angles .

400 thousand Yeah , Paisley nodded .

Its handmade by a famous designer .

The eyes are made of gemstones , and the clothes are from luxury high end brands .

See the logo ? Thats the brand .

Emery started inspecting the logos on the doll and the clothes that came with it .

After looking , she couldnt stop marveling .

What kind of doll is this ? The diamonds are real ! Emery held the doll , unable to speak for a long time .

After a while , she nally said , Rich people are crazy .

Paisy , are you saying that all the dolls Rena has at home are worth millions ? Marias voice was full of disbelief .

If she had known she was tossing around millions of dollars worth of dolls , she would have been much more careful .

Paisley looked at Marias pale face and smiled , Not all of them are that expensive , some are cheap .

Even though Paisley said this , Maria decided to go back to the villa and carefully store all those dolls away .

In the hospital room , the atmosphere was harmonious .

In contrast , the Sullivan family villa was a picture of gloom .
