

The billionaire and his son want me back novel

Chapter 257

Chapter 257 Seeing people looking at them , Christina reminded , Alright , lets go home rst .

35 % It wasnt until Brittany was leaving the police station with Christina and Gregory that she saw a man waiting for her outside .

The man wasnt very tall , but his imposing demeanor made him look far from ordinary ,
Worried that he might smell the stench on her , Brittany instinctively took a step back .

But even then , the sharp nosed Dylan smelled something and couldnt help but frown .

This must be Brittany , right ? Christina really didnt want to bring Brittany to see Byron in such a state , so she said to Dylan , Ill take Brittany home to change clothes and freshen up , then well take her to see Byron .

Dylan looked at Brittany who was a mess and nodded .

Anyway , he had found the person in the picture .

Ill see you later .

Get some rest , Brittany , Dylan respectfully nodded and left .

Brittany looked at the unfamiliar man in confusion .

Once he got into his car and left , she turned to Christina and asked , Mom , who was that man ? Well talk about it at home .

The entrance to the police station wasnt the right place for this conversation , so Christina and Gregory took Brittany back to the Sullivan familys villa .

As soon as Brittany stepped into the villa , she noticed that it looked completely different .

The antique paintings and calligraphy that were once displayed were gone .

The place was messy as if it had been ransacked .

She looked around but couldnt nd the housekeeper .

Mom , wheres the housekeeper ? she asked , wanting them to prepare her bath .

Gregory looked slightly awkward .

I dismissed them .

However , his discomfort didnt last long he knew it wouldnt be long before he could live a life of luxury again .

Brittany , take a bath and change your clothes .

Once youre ready , we have something to tell you , Christina urged , while she herself went to handle another matter .

She walked to her room and made a phone call .

By the time the call ended , Brittany had nished her bath and come downstairs , What ?
Mom , are you saying that Im the sole bloodline of the Godard family ? Brittany was in disbelief , thinking she must have misheard .

She kept grabbing Chris asking for con rmation .

Yes ! Gregory hoped to rebuild their bond .

Your mother and I have already met with the patriarch of the Beaumont family .

This matter is practically set in stone .

As long as you and your biological father complete the DNA test , youll of cially be recognized as part of the family .

Brittany listened to Gregorys explanation , her eyes sparkling with excitement as she turned to Christina .

Christina nodded rmly .

Not only are you the sole heir of the Godard family , but youre also a distinguished member of the Beaumont family .

Really ? Is that true ? Brittanys eyes lit up with joy as she imagined a future where Dominick revolved around her and Paisley knelt at her feet .

* Meanwhile , in the hospital room , Paisley sneezed and casually rubbed her nose .
