

The billionaire and his son want me back novel

Chapter 260

Chapter 260 Huh ? Gary checked the time it was still a while until mealtime .

Whos so generous to treat the whole crew ? There were hundreds of people in the crew , and treating them all to a meal wasnt cheap .

Even he would avoid doing something like this if possible .

Not only was it expensive , but it was also a hassle .

35 % +231 The agent remembered that Sam had just mentioned buying snacks for the crew , so hearing Garys question , she stepped forward and admitted , Its from Sam .

He wanted to show appreciation for the crews hard work , so he had someone buy some snacks .

Gary looked at Sam , feeling a hundred times more unhappy .

If he could , he really wouldnt want to work with Sam .

But to get Sheela , he had to deal with Sam .

Thankfully , although Sam wasnt great with his personality , his acting was decent , and as long as he didnt mess up , the chances of this project being a hit were high .

With that in mind , Gary held back his frustration .

Everyone , take a break and have some snacks .

He added , Thanks , Sam ! With the director saying it , the studio was filled with voices of thanks to Sam .

Sam , hearing all the thanks , started to feel a bit smug .

The staff opened the studios big doors , and when the crew saw the luxury food trucks outside , filled with chefs , waiters , and a variety of foods , they couldnt help but exclaim in surprise .

They had seen crew wide meals before , but this was the first time something like this had happened .

These werent food trucks , this was a luxury buffet ! They even had a station to grill steaks and slice sashimi on the spot .

Even the ice cream in the dessert section was an expensive brand .

Not only were the staff shocked , but Sam himself was also stunned .

The agent looked at Sam uncertainly .

I thought it was just snacks .

Whats all this ? How much did this cost ? Sam was also confused .

He called his assistant , but no one answered .

If it werent for so many people around , he wouldve smashed his phone and cursed at them .

Damn it , does he even know how to handle things ? I just asked him to buy some desserts , and he brought the whole restaurant over ! Sam felt a sharp pain in his wallet , but now that the deed was done , he couldnt back out .

Seeing Sams discomfort , the agent quickly spoke up , Dont worry , Ill apply for reimbursement from the company .

Later , well shoot more footage and post it , buying more trending topics .

This way , youll get another boost in traffic .

Knowing someone had his back , Sam relaxed and acted like everything was fine , calling the crew over .

Come on , Gary , everyone , dont be shy , lets all eat together .

He then looked at Paisley .

Nion , dont just watch , come eat too .

Thanks , but Im not hungry .

Paisley politely declined .

She really wasnt hungry .

And she didnt like how Sam interrupted the filming .

Sam thought Paisley was just being shy , so he walked over and reached out to grab her .

Come on , Nion , you dont have to be shy .

You work hard writing scripts , so you should eat more to refresh your brain .

The agent , following Sams lead , added , Yeah , you dont get opportunities like this often .

Now that you have one , why not take advantage of it ? Take some pictures , post on social media .

Dont girls like you always do that ? Perhaps because Paisley hadnt given this agent face earlier , the agent now spoke with a bit of sarcasm .

The tone was as if Paisley had never seen the world before .
