

The billionaire and his son want me back novel

Chapter 269

---- Hearing her call him that, Jonathan's heart melted instantly.

He walked over with a broad smile, his voice exaggeratedly high-pitched.

Rena, you're getting discharged today! Are you excited?" "Yap!" The Rena had already fully recovered and had been itching to leave the hospital for a while.

Follow new episodes on the Crushnovels.Com

Remember to miss me after you leave." Serena obediently nodded.

"I'll come back with Mom to visit you." Jonathan waved his hand.

If you miss me, just ask your mom to tell me, and I'll come see you." He thought a hospital was no place for a child if they could avoid it.

After saying that, Jonathan looked at Paisley, who was wearing a hat, and his face instantly turned cold.

How are you?" Huh?" Paisley instinctively played dumb.

---- Don't act clueless! You think you can still hide it from me? What with you?" Jona pointed .

\\) Note had planned to, A, injury, but in the end, t| i it from Maria.

Paisley thou knew, then it wah de itely Maria'who told him.

ye e A) ge turned to look at Matia»but Maria was straightforward about it.

"Why are you looking at me? | was just worried and wanted to ask." Maria knew Paisley was skilled in medicine, but many doctors were terrible at treating themselves.

Especially when it came to head injuriesno matter how capable she was, Maria still couldn't feel at ease.

Jonathan also looked disapproving.

No matter how good you are, a head injury isn't something to be treated at some small clinic.

What if the doctor there wasn't skilled enough and messed up the stitches? Paisley showed a playful side.

She thought, It really feels nice to be cared for.

---- It's really nothing.

Besides, | checked the wound myselfthe doctor's stitching skills were actually pretty good." But no matter what Paisley said, Jonathan insisted on checking her wound.

Only after con rming it was just a super cial injury did he nally let her go.

You're such a handful," Jonathan scolded, his expression sternjust like any parent who cared deeply but didn't want to be too indulgent.

Paisley hadn't known Jonathan for very long.

That year, a pandemic broke out, and as the hospital director, Jonathan personally led a team to provide aid in poor villages.

By chance, Paisley was there as well.

They went from not getting along to ghting side by side, then to having a bond like that of an elder and a younger generation.

Paisley believed that relationships weren't measured by how long people had known each other.

She indeed had families.

She had Serena, Maria, Jonathan, Emery, and even those troublemaking disciples who constantly gave her headaches.