

MEDICAL GOD CHAPTER 451

Little Miss Fox's words were quickly re-shared in the live stream. This immediately whipped all the viewers in a frenzy.

"How dare she say that Dongxue is acting sexy to attract men! Does she have a death wish?"

"Looks like we need Aunt Feng to teach her a lesson. Does anybody know how to get in touch with Aunt Feng? We need her to keep Little Miss Fox in line!"

"What's happened to Aunt Feng? She doesn't seem to have done anything today."

"If she doesn't intervene, I'm afraid the rest of us won't be able to stop that little wench."

Just as everybody was at a loss for what to do, something flooded the screen.

"Xue has sent a super rocket."

"Xue has sent a super rocket."

"Xue has sent a super rocket."

"..."

Fifty super rockets zipped past the screen and immediately caused a commotion to erupt in the comments section.

“Holy Hell, it’s Young Master Xue!”

Xue Dalin was certainly no stranger when it came to livestreams. This was a media outlet frequently consumed by people like him. As children of the rich, they were used to tipping any streamer they liked. And their tips were usually tens of thousands.

Thus, Xue Dalin’s account was quite famous throughout various live streaming platforms. Everybody knew who was the person behind this Xue account.

His onslaught of rockets quickly helped Wang Dongxue’s earnings overtake Little Miss Fox’s. What he did was very similar to what ‘Qin Family’s Aunt Feng’ had done back then.

Seeing all the gifts that she had been presented with, Wang Dongxue was about to say her thanks when she realized that they were from Xue.

She naturally knew who he was. Looking at Xue Dalin who was sitting in front of her, she smiled and fried a piece of foie gras as a token of gratitude.

Everybody in her stream quickly started teasing her.

“Oh, Dongxue, you’ve changed! You don’t even say a simple thank you when you got tipped a million.”

“Haha, Xue’s going to be so heartbroken! One million! And she didn’t even thank him.”

“Hey, our Dongxue isn’t some country bumpkin, alright? A million is peanuts to her. My only regret is that Aunt Feng is not around. With Xue and her combined, I can barely imagine what would happen.”

“That’s going to be too cruel. Little Miss Fox is going to be so stunned. Haha...”

Wang Dongxue's live streams were always creating such miracles.

And that was exactly what the viewers liked.

As expected, the expression on Little Miss Fox's face hardened. She had originally assumed that without 'Qin Family's Aunt Feng', Wang Dongxue would certainly pose no threat to her. Never would she have expected 'Xue' to come along and turn the tides!

How on earth did Wang Dongxue even managed to get in touch with a person as rich as Xue Dalin?

Little Miss Fox was green with envy. Xue Dalin was literally made of money. If she ever got into the good books of someone like him, Forget live streaming! She could do nothing and still get millions a year.

Little Miss Fox discreetly fished out a phone and sent him a text message.

"Mr. Xue, I've just recently made my debut. Please have a look at some of my content as well. Muah!"

This little trick of hers had never failed. Although children of the rich like them were in no shortage of women, what they were really after was the thrill of someone new. With the text message that she just sent out, she had portrayed herself as a pure and innocent little girl. It was the perfect bait for people like him.

However, she waited in vain for his response. After a while, she sent out another message.

"Mr. Xue?"

What she got in return was a little message that popped up informing her that the other party had blocked her.

Little Miss Fox gnashed her teeth in anger. You think you're so great just because you've got some filthy money?

Pretty soon, her viewers were starting to lose hope.

"Oh, it's over now. With Young Master Xue on the other team, we've definitely lost."

"I really thought that we'll be able to win this time. Never did I expect us to lose even more badly."

"What's the point? Dongxue is too powerful."

Little Miss Fox's expression hardened as she snorted, "Hmm, what's so great about him? He's just a loser who squanders his mother's money on live streamers! Hmph!"
