

MEDICAL GOD CHAPTER 488

He Real Estate's events were always extremely lavish, and the guests were not ordinary folk. Those who received invitations were industry giants. Meanwhile, Zhu Pharmaceutical was a small company that was just getting started, and it certainly did not qualify for such events.

In the past, the company had a brief contact with He Real Estate only because of a commercial building.

Ouyang Yanyan was elated. Being able to attend such an event meant that Zhu Pharmaceutical had joined the ranks of other industry giants. Her family company was no longer considered a small business.

Manager Sun presented a total of three invitation cards and said, "Madam, the invitations cards are here. We'll take our leave then."

"Okay, take care!" Ouyang Yanyan was on cloud nine and she glowed with happiness.

The three invitation cards were like precious treasures to her.

Wang Yun walked up to her and saw the cards.

"Mum, there are three cards in total?" she asked.

The three invitations were meant for Zhu Linlin's family of three. However, Manager Sun did not know the structure of the Zhu family, so she left it to the family to discuss which members would attend.

Based on what she knew, Zhu Linlin's branch of the family held the highest status in the Zhu family.

She heard that President He personally said that she wanted to give special care to the Zhu family, mainly because of Zhu Linlin.

But in actual fact, this was far from the truth.

Ouyang Yanyan held on tightly to the three invitation cards and gave Wang Yun a hawk-eyed glance, saying, "There are only three cards. Let's discuss how we should move forward."

"Mum would definitely have to go. A grand occasion like that would require someone with mum's position," said Zhu Ming.

Ouyang Yanyan nodded in agreement. Although she was prepared to retire, that day hadn't come yet, thus she still had the final say in the Zhu family.

Moreover, she wasn't going to miss out on such a grand event. She still wanted one last moment of glory before she retired.

By hook or by crook, she was going to attend this event.

"Yes, I definitely have to go. Ming will take over as the next head of the family, so he would have to go too. It will be good for him to broaden his horizon and expand his network," she stressed her point.

"As for the last one..." Ouyang Yanyan hesitated before finishing her sentence.

She looked at Zhu Linlin, then shifted her sight to Zhu Wentao.

Finally, she said, "Even though Linlin is young and capable, but since she is a female, the last invitation will go to Wentao."

Zhu Wentao was shocked beyond words upon hearing that.

Ever since the rise of Zhu Linlin, Zhu Wentao was of little importance within the Zhu family and he relied heavily on his father Zhu Ming.

But even Zhu Ming himself didn't perform as well as Zhu Linlin.

Zhu Linlin and Zhu Wentao were of the same generation, and Zhu Wentao was older in terms of seniority. So when Zhu Linlin overshadowed him, he was greatly displeased.

Now that his grandmother's intentions were clear, he felt a sense of superiority. No matter how amazing Zhu Linlin was, she was still a woman after all, and she would be married off to someone else's family in the future.

Who knows, she might even marry to Qin Jun. It wouldn't be good for the Zhu family business to fall into the hands of an outsider.

Wang Yun was disgruntled. "Mum, you are clearly playing favorites. Wouldn't it be better for each branch of the family to send one representative? Zhu Ming and Zhu Wentao are father and son from the same family. It's unfair that both of them get to attend," she grumbled.

The Old Madam answered plainly, "I'm not being biased. I'm only doing this for the sake of the entire family. For the Zhu family to improve, we cannot keep relying on Linlin alone. We must focus on nurturing Wentao too."
