

MEDICAL GOD CHAPTER 567

After she finished, Su Wenqi immediately started feasting. The huge spread on the table had originally looked really appetizing. Now that there was a gorgeous woman eating as well, the stream suddenly became all the more pleasing to the eye.

Su Wenqi attacked the food ravenously. Although she wasn't that famous as a streamer back then, she certainly loved her food.

Subsequently, Wang Dongxue and Lan started eating as well. The three women then began chatting as they savored the food.

On the other side, Beibei was telling jokes in her love stream. When she noticed that she had suddenly lost more than two hundred thousand people from her audience, her brows knitted into a frown. She even thought that there had been some kind of error in the system.

After that, the answer was revealed in the bullet text.

"Ms. Su is here! I want to go see her!"

"Wow, Ms. Su sure can eat! Guys, you've got to see this. She is literally chomping down all that food."

"Ms. Su, have those foreigners been apprehended? And has Lu Fan been apprehended as well?"

"..."

Half of Beibei's live stream viewers left her live room to go see Su Wenqi. Although the other half remained here, their attention was diverted towards discussing about Su Wenqi.

Stunned, Wang Tiantian proceeded to whip out her phone. As expected, Ms. Su was in Dongxue's live stream.

Wang Tiantian hastily got to her feet and apologized, "I'm so sorry, Mr. Liqiang. But I've got to make a move."

Wang Tiantian was extremely clear about who she was. The reason she had come this time was to help Beibei stand out against the other streamers.

But now that her own teacher was on the other side, she certainly didn't have the guts to continue. And even if she did, she was in no place to do so. Thus, she could only choose to leave.

"Tiantian! Tiantian!"

Beibei got to her feet and tried to convince her to stay. However, Wang Tiantian was very firm in her decision. No matter how many times Beibei called after her, she didn't even look back as she left.

The expression on Beibei's face soured.

Xu Liqiang felt quite awkward as well. After a moment of hesitation, he said, "Er, Beibei. I've got something on as well. I'll take my leave as well."

Up till now, Xu Liqiang felt that he had done enough. He had helped her on account of her being one of his old classmates. This was as far as he was willing to go for her.

If he were to continue, he might offend both CCTV and Ms. Su. After all, he was just some host in a certain television station. He was still hoping to be able to go further down his path. Offending big shots like Ms. Su was the last thing he wanted to do.

As Beibei's eyes began to redden, she gnashed her teeth together and refused to make a sound whilst Xu Liqiang left.

Now all alone, Beibei stared at the dwindling number of her audience. As her audience slimmed down from hundreds of thousands to a couple thousand, she could feel her heart starting to ache.

And the people who remained were probably bots as they didn't even leave a single bullet text.

This time, Beibei didn't use an admission ticket. This was because she didn't even manage to get her hands on one.

As they were eating, Wang Dongxue suddenly asked a question.

"Ms. Su, how did you find out about my address?"

Although they did talk a bit on WeChat, Su Wenqi had arrived at her house before Wang Dongxue could even send her the address.

Su Wenqi was slightly stunned. She had forgotten that Qin Jun was the one who had informed her of the address.

And judging from Wang Dongxue's reaction, she didn't seem like she was aware of Qin Jun's relationship with her. Furthermore, they were currently on a live stream. Su Wenqi definitely wasn't about to spill the beans.

“Haha, it was Tian Dongsheng who sent me the location.”

Standing behind the camera, Tian Dongsheng made a face and thought to himself, Since when did I send you the location?

Never mind. She probably had her reasons for saying so.

All of a sudden, a bullet text appeared. “Aunt Feng was the one who gave you the address, right?”
