

MEDICAL GOD CHAPTER 663

Ye Wan'er's face changed. She knew these two were capable of becoming troublemakers. She did not want to cause a commotion and put Jun in an awkward position.

Just when Ye Wan'er was thinking of a solution, Qin Jun walked over.

"What's wrong?"

Before Ye Wan'er could respond, Chi Mei said, "We want to exchange seats with you. You two should move to the back. If you refuse to cooperate, I'll tell the security that you stole the tickets, and they'll throw you out!"

Qin Jun could not help but frown.

Qin Jun had been turning a blind eye to their ridiculous behavior since dinner. Yet, these two women still tried to push their luck and forced Ye Wan'er to give up her seat. Absolutely ridiculous!

Qin Jun turned around and gave the security an eye signal. The security immediately ran over, "Yes, Mr. Qin?"

Chi Mei and Liu Yu were stunned when they heard the guard addressed him as Mr. Qin.

What was going on? Why did this guard talk to him in such a respectful manner?

Qin Jun pointed at Chi Mei and Liu Yu and instructed the guard, "These two are potential troublemakers. Get them out of the studio."

The guard nodded and replied, "Yes, sir!"

“Ladies, please leave.”

Chi Mei and Liu Yu were at a loss for words, and they frowned, “Why should we? We have tickets! You can check our names! We were invited to watch the show!”

The security responded, “Whether you’re invited or not, it’s not important anymore. Since you two are potential troublemakers, we’ll have to escort you out of the studio!”

Since the head of the panel wanted them out of the building, how could the guard say no?

Besides, the program would go on live soon. If something went wrong during the session, then the security guards would have a hard time tackling the mess. Hence, It would be safer for them to kick the two women out first.

Seeing the security’s firm reaction, Chi Mei was shocked.

“What are you doing? Stop touching me! I’m a woman, for goodness sake! I’ll sue you for sexual harassment!”

Of course, CCTV’s security guards would not easily be threatened.

Since she was causing a din in the studio, they had no choice but to grab hold of her.

“Please get out before we do this by force! This is our first warning!”

“Second warning!”

“Third warning!”

The guards started using pepper spray on them.

Chi Mei and Liu Yu fell and started rolling on the floor. Four security guards came up and lifted them out of the studio.

Ye Wan'er turned around and ignored what was going on. She did not feel sorry for them at all. Now that they were gone, she could finally watch the show in peace.

“Jun, are we about to start?”

Qin Jun nodded and put on a mask.

Ye Wan'er was surprised, “Jun, why are you wearing a mask?”

Qin Jun grinned and explained, “Since we're in CCTV, and I have so many arch-enemies, I better stay under the radar.”

Besides the three prominent families, Qin Jun might have other enemies too. Hence, it was better for him to remain low profile.

Qin Jun put on a mask, exposing only his mouth and eyes. He then wore the doctor's coat and a tie, looking like a swordsman.

He would still want to maintain a good image since audiences from all over the country would watch the live telecast.

The director looked at the watch and gave everyone a signal, "Alright, let's get ready. We'll begin in 5 minutes!"

A woman wearing a doctor's coat then rushed into the studio. It was Lin Yueyao.

"So sorry, I'm late."
