

MEDICAL GOD CHAPTER 696

Yu Qiang's action was too hilarious. Everyone kept talking about how impressive he was and how he was so accustomed to situations like this. However, it turned out that he did not even know that the bread was supposed to absorb oil. He even thought that it was to be eaten!

Evidently, the bread was very crudely baked. It was used to absorb oil, not to be eaten. Judging from Yu Qiang's expression, it must taste horrible.

Everyone remained silent. No one followed Yu Qiang's example anymore. Instantly, the mood became very awkward.

Ai Ling was a tactful person, so she tried to diffuse the situation with a smile.

"I didn't know that this bread has such a function! Let's try it out too, darling."

Only then did Yu Qiang's tensed expression ease up. He started eating the remaining bread like Qin Jun.

Most in the crowd were just normal people. Even if they were rich, Yu Qiang was, at the most, a well-off man.

However, Qin Jun came from a truly wealthy and noble family. For some reason, Yu Qiang had the audacity to think of outsmarting Qin Jun to find a sense of superiority.

During the meal, Qin Jun chatted a lot with Ren Lu. Although they had not seen each other for ten years, they were still as close as before. They talked like old friends.

"I remember that your family was quite rich. Why are you a salesman now?"

Ren Lu used to come from a wealthy family. Although his family was not as wealthy as Qin Jun's, he was much richer than their classmates.

"Don't mention it. When my father was trading in the stock market, he got obsessed and invested all the assets in the family. In the end, we became bankrupt and couldn't even afford food," he sighed.

Qin Jun shook his head helplessly. Although one could get rich overnight by trading in the stock market, the risks were huge.

Even a rich family like Ren Lu's could not bear the consequences if they bet all their chips in the stock market.

"What about you?"

Ren Lu glanced at Yu Qiang and said, "I'm a salesman and Yu Qiang is the manager of 4S shop. I secured my job as a favor from him and he gave me a lot of commissions too."

Ren Lu whispered, "Yu Qiang loves to brag all day. After buying a second-hand Mercedes, he keeps showing it off. However, I just let him be. A foolish manager like him will not create trouble for me. At least, I can work without any worries."

Qin Jun chuckled. Ren Lu was still like before. He could see through everything clearly.

When Ren Lu worked for Yu Qiang, it was quite annoying for him to witness the latter showing off and displaying his superiority every day. However, looking from another perspective, Yu Qiang would give him some benefits to show-off his generosity.

For instance, because Yu Qiang wanted to show-off his status in front of his classmates, he gave Ren Lu leave and even paid for this meal.

Although it was inevitable that Ren Lu would do a poor job at work, Yu Qiang never deducted his salary for the same reason.

He treated Ren Lu as his minion, while the latter treated him as a fool. It was a win-win situation.

Watching Qin Jun and Ren Lu conversing excitedly, the other classmates became more enthusiastic too.

“Yu Qiang, all our classmates are here, right? You even invited Qin Jun! Why didn’t you ask Goddess Tian to come?”

Goddess Tian was a nickname for Tian Lu. She was a special figure in class because she became a celebrity.
