

MEDICAL GOD CHAPTER 705

Initially, the others did not know that Yu Qiang had left. However, they realized that something was amiss afterwards.

“Why hasn’t Yu Qiang come back yet?”

A girl left to look for him. Yet, she could not find him anywhere, even at the counter.

“Did he run away?”

“Huh? No way! His clothes are still here.”

“That doesn’t mean much. Call Yu Qiang now!”

Someone called Yu Qiang’s number. However, the call was hung up after a few seconds. When the person called him again, his phone was switched off.

Everyone paled.

“We’re doomed! He really ran away. What a bastard!”

“Yeah! After showing-off, he just abandoned us here!”

A few of them glanced outside, wanting to run away too. However, there were already a few waiters keeping their eyes on them. Yu Qiang’s escape must have alerted them too.

It would not be easy for any of them to escape now.

Everyone exchanged glances and were no longer in the mood to sing. Even if the one and a half million were split equally amongst so many people, each person still needed to pay eighty thousand. This was not a small sum of money for them.

Then, everyone directed their eyes to Tian Lu.

Tian Lu was the wealthiest person in the group. After all, she was a singer and earned more than the average person.

She frowned. "Why are you looking at me? I don't drink wine. The people who drank the wine should pay up."

Although Tian Lu was richer than them, she could not fork out one and a half million instantly either. Furthermore, they were just her secondary school friends and she did not have a close relationship with them. Who in their right mind would pay one and a half million to buy a few bottles of wine for them?

The girls turned ashen. They did not know that the wine was so expensive. Initially, they only chose the better wines because Yu Qiang was going to pay the bill. When they opened the bottles, they had asked Yu Qiang beforehand too and he told them to go ahead.

However, it turned out that they needed to pay for the bottles of wine they had opened!

When Tian Lu saw how troubled they were, a trace of disdain appeared on her face. They were on the brink of tears just because of a few hundred thousand.

"Don't worry, I'm just going to the toilet. I won't escape."

When Tian Lu saw that everyone was staring at her, she rolled her eyes. Leaving the suite in annoyance, she went to the toilet.

While everyone was troubled, only Qin Jun and Ren Lu were chatting away happily, even drinking as they talked.

Both of them drank several bottles of the wine that cost more than ten thousand.

The girls became upset.

“Qin Jun! Ren Lu! Are you even concerned about this? How can you continue drinking at this juncture?”

Stunned, Ren Lu frowned. “What happened?”

As they were chatting continuously, they did not overhear what had happened.

The girls recounted the incident to them and Ren Lu’s face paled.

More than one million? How could the wine be so expensive?

When Qin Jun heard that, he said casually, “Forget it. Continue having fun. I’ll foot the bill.”

As Qin Jun was chatting happily with Ren Lu, he did not want a minor issue like that to disturb them. Furthermore, he and Ren Lu drank the most wine. Footing the bill was nothing much for him.

When everyone heard what Qin Jun said, they were stupefied.

Is he for real?

Can he even afford to pay one and a half million?

“Are you joking, Qin Jun?”

He shook his head. “Do I look like I’m joking?”

The girls were very puzzled. “Qin Jun, I’m sorry for being too direct. However, I remember that your family...”
