Medical Master

Chapter 101: All I Want Is Money!

Fang Qiu walked around.

When Fang Qiu was going to take the medicinal materials and the treasure out for sale, he found that all the good places, however, had been occupied by others.

He had no choice but to come to a corner.

#

He took out a piece of black clothes from the bag behind him, directly spread it on the ground, and then took out the wild ginseng and two wild ganoderma lucidum out from his bag.

After setting them in order.

With a little hesitation, he just took out the red miraculous jujube and placed it together with the wild ginseng and the wild ganoderma lucidum.

Then he sat on the spot, quietly waiting for people to come with no call.

Because this place was the site of the trade fair, no matter where the stall was, people would go to see it. In a little while, a middle-aged man came over.

This man looked kind and benevolent. He was about 40 years old with a hale and hearty body.

“Hmm?”

A few steps away from Fang Qiu's stall, the middle-aged man purred and then quickly walked over. Looking at the things on Fang Qiu's stall, his eyes lit up.

"It's worthy of the treasure. No sooner did I set it in order than somebody came over."

"It seems that the trade fair is small, but there are also many connoisseurs."

Fang Qiu thought in his heart.

Coming up to the stall, the middle-aged man squatted down and stretched out his hand to touch the things on Fang Qiu's stall.

"Wait a minute."

Fang Qiu immediately reached out to stop him and said, "You can have a look, but don't need to stretch out your hands."

After all, the place was full of martial arts practitioners and he was afraid that someone with bad martial art ethics would take the things and run away.

"Although the strength of these people is not a threat to me, if something really happens, isn't it a waste of time?"

"Aren't they just two wild ganoderma lucidum and one wild ginseng?"

The middle-aged man curled his lips as if he was a little dissatisfied with the fuss that Fang Qiu was making.

"I only do business."

Fang Qiu made a cool reply.

But he felt depressed in his heart.

“Finally, a person came, but he is not a connoisseur.”

Fang Qiu thought this middle-aged man was coming for the red miraculous jujube, but he did not expect that what the man wanted were the wild ginseng and wild ganoderma lucidum.

“Fine. I will take these two wild ganoderma lucidum and the wild ginseng.”

The middle-aged man carefully observed the three medicinal materials and then asked, “What do you want for trading?”

“All I want is money.”

Said Fang Qiu.

At the sound of this.

The middle-aged man was immediately surprised.

“The trade fair in Wulin is almost by means of barter. How come somebody wants money?”

“How could people in Wulin talk about money?”

“It will degrade us!”

“It will make our Kung Fu practitioners lose face!”

Of course, in real life, they still needed to talk about money, however, the martial arts group rarely talked about money but only the level of Kung Fu.

“However.”

“Thinking carefully, money is also a kind of goods.”

“Since he wants money, then I will trade with him by money, which will help me save a good thing to exchange for other items.”

“All right. How much are the three herbal medicine?”

Asked the middle-aged man.

“You bid.”

Said Fang Qiu.

“50,000.”

The middle-aged man didn’t hesitate, immediately offering a price. Then he asked, “How about that?”

Fang Qiu shook his head at once.

“This price is too low.”

“I would rather sell it in a drugstore.”

“Haha...”

“Sure enough, it’s not easy to fool you.”

The middle-aged man chuckled and said thoughtfully, “100,000. It’s the highest I can give.”

Upon hearing that.

Fang Qiu muttered to himself for a while and then nodded.

“In Shide Drugstore, three wild ganoderma lucidum and a wild ginseng are only sold for 100,000. Now, there are only two wild ganoderma lucidum and one wild ginseng ; he still offered a high price of 100,000. I absolutely agree with that.”

Of course.

He also knew.

The Shide Drugstore’s purchasing and selling medicinal materials were aimed at ordinary people.

But in this trade fair, these medicinal materials were aimed at the people in Wulin, so the price difference was also reasonable.

After all, for some martial arts practitioners in need, the price of medicinal materials was not a big problem.

“OK, I’m going to transfer money to you now.”

The middle-aged man took out his mobile phone to transfer money to Fang Qiu.

“I only accept cash.”

Said Fang Qiu at once.

It was not a big deal for him to give his bank account information to the owner of Shide Drugstore, but it would matter if his account information were known by the people in Wulin.

Because he didn't want to expose himself in Wulin for the time being.

He needed a quiet environment to study medicine.

“Only accept cash?”

The middle-aged man was surprised and asked, “Isn't the transfer the same?”

“I don't have a bank card, so I only accept cash.”

Replied Fang Qiu.

“This is a bit of a problem.”

The middle-aged man scratched his head and said glumly, “Who would bring so much cash to the trade fair?”

Fang Qiu ignored what he said.

The middle-aged man had no choice but to say, “Cash is OK, but you have to promise to keep the three medicinal materials for me. There are a few ATMs nearby. I'm going to withdraw money now, OK?”

“Sure.”

Fang Qiu nodded in agreement.

After that.

The middle-aged man immediately turned away and hurried to withdraw money.

Fang Qiu sat still in place, waiting for others to come.

After all, in his stall, the most valuable red miraculous jujube hadn't been sold.

“Although these people are all martial arts practitioners, the general strength of them is not high. Can't no one recognize this red miraculous jujube?”

Fang Qiu muttered to himself.

He felt a little depressed.

“If they all don't know it, then I just came in vain?”

Just at this time.

“Hmm? These are wild ganoderma lucidum and wild ginseng, aren't they?”

Suddenly, a very surprised voice came.

Fang Qiu looked up.

A young man with his eyes lit up came over with two men.

“How much are your wild ganoderma lucidum and wild ginseng?”

Asked the young man as he squatted down.

“They have been sold.”

Said Fang Qiu.

“Oh?”

The young man was surprised. Then he shook his head and said gloomily, “I’m late.”

As he spoke, he also glanced at the red miraculous jujube and then stood up to leave.

During the next dozen minutes.

A lot of people also went to Fang Qiu’s stall to ask about the wild ganoderma lucidum and the wild ginseng. No one paid attention to the extremely unappealing red miraculous jujube that was put together with the wild ginseng.

20 minutes later.

A rush of hurried footsteps was heard.

The middle-aged man who ran to withdraw money ran towards Fang Qiu with a stack of flat red bills in his arms.

Seeing the wild ganoderma lucidum and the wild ginseng still there.

The middle-aged man smiled with satisfaction. Then he handed the money to Fang Qiu and said, "Check it out. If there is no problem, I will take the medicinal materials away."

Fang Qiu took the money.

He took a good look at it and then said while shoving the money into his bag, "No problem."

The middle-aged man nodded with a smile and picked up the medicinal materials from Fang Qiu's stall.

"Shall we exchange our contact details so that you can call me when you have good medicinal materials later?"

Fang Qiu shook his head.

He pointed to the mask on his face.

The middle-aged man understood immediately.

"Since he is wearing a mask, he certainly doesn't want to expose his true identity and naturally will not leave any contact information."

He sighed with regret.

As soon as the medicinal materials were taken away.

There was only the red miraculous jujube left which looked like a crystal.

"What is this?"

When the middle-aged man was about to go, he suddenly stopped. He curiously picked up the red miraculous jujube and asked.

“I don’t know.”

This time, Fang Qiu did not stop him.

Because in his opinion, if he really didn’t let these people touch the red miraculous jujube, they may not recognize it.

“Anyway, there is only the red miraculous jujube left.”

“If they want to see it, I’ll let them.”

“If someone tries to rob it, I can just take the opportunity to reveal what the red miraculous jujube is so that it can be sold before the trade fair is over.”

Of course.

Fang Qiu wouldn’t disclose in advance, because he was waiting for the person that could recognize the treasure to appear. He knew that the person who could recognize the treasure was the one with real strength and the person could offer a high price to buy it.

Unless he had no choice, otherwise, he wouldn’t easily reveal the information of the red miraculous jujube.

“It doesn’t look like a medicinal material either.”

The middle-aged man took a careful look and immediately put the red miraculous jujube back. Then he left with the medicinal materials that he just bought.

After the middle-aged man left.

Soon, others wandered to Fang Qiu's stall.

Because there was only one red miraculous jujube in the stall, many people just took a look and left.

Just when Fang Qiu was thinking gloomily whether he should reveal the information of the red miraculous jujube, another young man with a thin face came to the stall.

Not like everyone else.

The young man first glanced over the stall. When he was about to leave, he suddenly stopped and squatted down doubtfully. Then he picked up the red miraculous jujube and began to watch it carefully.

As he watched it.

His eyes suddenly lit up!

“What is this?”

The young man looked at Fang Qiu and asked a little deliberately.

Fang Qiu shook his head and did not answer.

“Since you don't know, what do you want for exchange?”

Asked the young man as he acted rather bored.

“Money.”

Said Fang Qiu.

“How much?”

Asked the young man again.

“You bid.”

Replied Fang Qiu.

Hearing that.

The young man with a thin face sucked his mouth and shook his head. He acted as if he didn't much care about it and slowly said, “This thing is so small and doesn't look like good medicinal material. You also don't know what it is and this small thing is the only one left in your stall. How about 5,000 yuan? I will take it and you can pack up your stall.”

Hearing the price.

Fang Qiu chuckled in his heart and shook his head at once.

Fang Qiu had noticed that this person must have found the red miraculous jujube was unusual. “Even if he doesn't recognize the red miraculous jujube is a treasure, he must know it's a good thing. That's why he has been talking to me here for so long.”

“However, the price that he offered is really too low.”

“It seems that he really thinks I don't know the red miraculous jujube, so he is playing tricks on me.”

“You don’t accept 5,000 yuan?”

The young man gave Fang Qiu a look and said, “If you don’t sell it now, you probably won’t be able to sell it until the trade fair is over.”

As he said that.

The young man waved his big hand and said rather generously, “I will add 5,000 more. How about that?”

Fang Qiu shook his head.

Seeing this, the young man raised his eyebrows and discontentedly said, “You are a little mean. I’m trying to help you. But do you take this little thing as a treasure?”

Fang Qiu ignored him.

“Fine. Fine. Fine...”

The young man sighed slightly and said. “Let me be considerate. I will add 20,000 more. There is a total of 30,000 yuan to buy your small thing. Shouldn’t you be satisfied?”

Fang Qiu shook his head again.

“Hmm?”

The young man raised his voice and said, “Why are you so insensible?”

Although he said that.

A faint trace of anger emerged on his thin face and in his eyes that were slightly sunken.

“You don’t even know what it is. I have offered such a high price, but you still don’t accept it. Are you deliberately wasting my time?”

Queried the young man angrily.

“Get out of here!”

Fang Qiu said coldly.

The young man darkened his face, immediately grasping the red miraculous jujube, which was originally pinched between his two fingers for observation, in his palm. He just didn’t let go of it.

Chapter 102: Someone Tried to Rob the Treasure!

“Fellow, don’t you have the measure of yourself or you have an exaggerated opinion of your abilities?”

The young man said in a gloomy and cold voice as if he was about to rob it.

“Put it down!”

A cold light flashed across Fang Qiu’s eyes. Before the young man could stand up, he suddenly reached out his hand and grabbed the young man’s hand which was clutching the red miraculous jujube.

He put forth his strength without any hesitation.

“Crack!”

Suddenly a crispy sound came.

Despite the crack, he didn't hurt the young man.

"Awoo."

The young man's face clouded suddenly and he felt an unbearable pain coming from his hand. He tried to bear the pain and get rid of his hand, but he found that he was unable to resist under the terrible force of Fang Qiu.

Even if he tried putting forth his strength, he completely couldn't do it.

"Let... let go!"

The young man cried out in pain and quickly opened his hand to reveal the red miraculous jujube.

"Humph!"

Fang Qiu coldly snorted, took over the red miraculous jujube, and then said coldly, "Get out of here!"

Hearing that.

The young man glared darkly at Fang Qiu and then stood up unwillingly, turning around to leave.

But he just took one step forward.

The young man turned around suddenly and punched heavily toward Fang Qiu with his left fist.

"Attack me?"

Fang Qiu's face immediately clouded.

Before the young man's fist went down, Fang Qiu got up instantly and moved his right foot.

He was very fast.

Before the young man could react, he had got a heavy kick on the chest.

His fist still had a good distance from Fang Qiu when he was kicked by Fang Qiu.

This made the young man completely shocked.

Because he could not see Fang Qiu's movement at all.

It was too fast.

He was a real martial arts practitioner and his punch was several times faster than the average man. But even so, Fang Qiu was able to get up and kick him back before his fist went down.

It could be imagined that how fast Fang Qiu was!

Most importantly.

Fang Qiu's strength was incredibly great!

At the moment when the young man was kicked, he immediately rose high into the air, directly flying backward.

“Bang!”

A crash was heard.

The young man thumped heavily against the wall behind him.

It shook the space inside the whole rockery suddenly.

With the loud sound spread.

All the people of Wulin turned their heads to have a look in a moment.

Most of them rushed straight up to see what was going on.

“What happened? What happened?”

“Why are you fighting?”

“What are you doing?”

“This is a trade fair, not a battle field.”

“Do you two know the rules? How can you fight here?”

The people rushed forward, surrounding Fang Qiu as well as the young man and starting to rebuke two of them.

Just at this time.

“Ouch!”

The young man who thumped against the wall and fell to the ground suddenly cried out in pain and then struggled to stand up with a miserable face.

He stretched out a hand to point at Fang Qiu with a wronged look and said loudly, "Everyone, please judge between right and wrong! This fellow promised to sell the goods to me, but when I took out my money, he not only went back on his word suddenly and refused to sell it but also hit me heavily. Everyone, please uphold justice for me!"

Hearing that.

Everyone turned their eyes to Fang Qiu.

With unkind eyes!

Although they were all martial arts practitioners who were aggressive.

Each of them had a strong sense of justice and ready to help the weak.

"How can you do that? How can you go back on the business that you have promised?"

"That's right. We, as Kung Fu practitioners, should keep our words. What you did totally violated the spirits of martial arts!"

"Just drop the matter if you went back on your word and refused to sell it. Why did you hurt him?"

"Are you too lawless?"

"As a Kung Fu practitioner, how could you do that?"

"You are too unreasonable. You are just insulting your identity as a martial arts practitioner."

“How can you be a martial arts practitioner since you know no rule. Go back and raise pigs!”

People all rebuked Fang Qiu harshly.

The sound of criticism lingered in his ears.

But Fang Qiu did not care what they said at all.

Instead, he went straight to the young man who was guilty but filed a suit first.

Seeing Fang Qiu walking over, the young man immediately darkened his face. As he was worried whether Fang Qiu would make an attack again to kill him, he was on second thought.

“So many Wulin fraternities are here, he should not dare to continue attacking me.”

“Is this fellow going to apologize to me under the pressure of them?”

The young man rolled his eyes with a little anticipation in his heart.

“According to the current situation.”

“If he doesn’t apologize, it won’t be over.”

“If he dares to attack me again, there are so many Wulin fraternities here who will not let go of him!”

As he thought of this.

The young man had more expectations inwardly.

“Let me see what this fellow is going to do. If he apologizes, I will let him sell that treasure to me in front of everyone. If he doesn’t apologize and hits me, I will incite everyone to hit him and then take the opportunity to get the treasure!”

As he thought inwardly.

The worried look on the young man’s face faded quietly, replaced with a look of fearlessness.

Here.

Fang Qiu walked all the way to the young man.

Just when everyone thought he was going to apologize to the young man.

At the next moment, what he did shocked everyone on the scene.

“Bam!”

Without any hesitation, he walked to the young man. With a movement of his right foot, he used a small round house kick, which directly tripped the young man to the ground.

Right after that.

He lifted his right foot and stepped on the young man’s arm neatly.

“Crack!”

A crispy sound spread.

That crack sounded painful.

On the ground.

“Ah...”

Cried the young man as he clasped his hand in pain.

He didn't expect that Fang Qiu not only dared to attack him but also made an attack that was far beyond his expectations!

This step unexpectedly broke his hand bone directly.

“If you rob things again afterward, I will destroy all your Kung Fu!”

After disabling one hand of the young man, Fang Qiu shouted coldly.

At this moment.

All the people present were all shocked.

No one had ever expected that the fellow who was wrapped tightly all over his body was actually so ruthless!

“He not only blew a person off far away.”

“He also disabled one hand of the young man!”

“If what the young man said was true, then what he did was really too much!”

“But was what the young man said true?”

“If it’s true, why did he say it was the young man who robbed his stuff?”

“If not, how dare the young man to rob things when he can’t beat his opponent?”

As they were shocked.

They also didn’t know what to do.

“But anyway, this guy is too ruthless!”

“Nowadays, Kung Fu practitioners, at most, just compare notes. Generally, we don’t hurt others.”

“What’s more, we won’t hit others so hard at the beginning!”

“The most important is don’t you know hitting a person is law breaking!”

And in the field.

Fang Qiu who disabled one hand of the young man, under the shocked gaze of all the people, slowly squatted down beside him.

Seeing this, everyone was panicked.

The young man, who was screaming in pain on the ground, kicked his feet in panic and moved backward, trying to escape.

“Humph!”

Fang Qiu snorted coldly.

He immediately grabbed the young man’s trampled arm and put both of his hands on the arm.

“Crack!”

From top to bottom, Fang Qiu quickly pinched it.

In a trice, the young man’s hand bone was reset.

“Don’t move. I have done bonesetting for you. If you move and become disabled, I won’t reset it again!”

Fang Qiu said coldly.

The young man was too frightened to move immediately.

After finishing everything.

Fang Qiu stood up.

Turning around and glancing over the people who were angry but couldn’t be, Fang Qiu said, “I set up a stall in this corner. It was he who robbed my thing first, so I attacked him. You know?”

This made everyone even more puzzled.

“What’s going on?”

At this time.

“Patter patter...”

Some light footsteps were heard.

It could be seen.

A group of young people in their 50s came inside through the crowd.

See this group of young people, the martial arts practitioners around all stepped back to give way to them.

He looked carefully.

The leader of the young people was dressed in a traditional white silk tang suit with a kind look, sending forth a flavor of detachment.

With a careful telepathy, Fang Qiu found that this person was actually a first-class expert at Martial Superior Level.

Seeing this person.

The young man, who was lying on the ground, immediately got up and ran behind this person with a frightened face.

“Elder Yi, please uphold justice for me!”

The young man pointed to Fang Qiu injuredly and cried loudly, "This fellow was going to sell something that he even doesn't know to me. I asked him what he wanted for trading and he said he only wanted money. Then I offered him a price of 30,000, but he hit me and also hurt my hand. This kind of person is not qualified to be a martial arts practitioner. Elder Yi, you must uphold justice for me."

The middle-aged man in his 50s who was called as Elder Yi glanced at the young man behind him and then turned his eyes to Fang Qiu.

"Is it the thing in his hand?"

Elder Yi looked at the red miraculous jujube in Fang Qiu's hand and asked.

"Yes."

The young man nodded.

"May I have a look?"

Asked Elder Yi as he looked at Fang Qiu.

"Yes."

Fang Qiu reached out to hand over the red miraculous jujube.

Taking over the red miraculous jujube confusedly, Elder Yi simply felt it by telepathy. Then his eyes lit up suddenly. He immediately clutched it in his palm and didn't let go of it.

Anyway, he wouldn't let go of it!

"This Wulin friend, I hear that you only accept money?"

Asked Elder Yi in an excited and trembling voice.

“Right!”

Fang Qiu nodded.

“How much do you want for it?”

Asked Elder Yi hastily.

“You bid.”

Fang Qiu looked at Elder Yi and said.

From the point of people’s giving way to him, Fang Qiu knew this Elder Yi should be a man of some fame in the Wulin of Jiangjing, otherwise, people wouldn’t be so respectful to him.

Moreover, Elder Yi’s strength was the first-class Martial Superior, so his field of vision was naturally much higher than others.

Seeing the way he clutched the red miraculous jujube in his palm, Fang Qiu knew that he had recognized it.

At last.

Although Elder Yi was in old clothes, it was extremely luxurious. He shouldn’t be the one who was lack of money.

Because of these and Elder Yi had an intention to buy the red miraculous jujube, Fang Qiu naturally talked to Elder Yi.

“How about 200,000?”

Asked Elder Yi tentatively.

He wanted to know whether Fang Qiu knew the value of it or not.

Fang Qiu shook his head.

“I have sold a wild ginseng and two wild ganoderma lucidum for 100,000. How can I sell the grand treasure for only 200,000?”

“Then... 300,000?”

Elder Yi added another 100,000.

Fang Qiu shook his head again.

Seeing this.

The people around are a little surprised inexplicably.

“For that little thing, he is even unwilling to sell it for 300,000?”

“Why is it so expensive?”

Chapter 103: Auction! The Highest Bidder Wins!

“Yi, what the heck is this?”

“Is it worth 300,000?”

“I don’t think it’s medicine. It looks rather like a gem. But it’s not a gem. How could it be worth 300,000?”

“Yi, think carefully. Spending 300,000 on this might not be a good idea.”

The young people around Elder Yi questioned one after another.

At last,

Elder Yi didn’t answer any of them. He grabbed the Red Spirit Date in his hand even tighter.

“How much do you want?”

Locking his eyes on Fang Qiu, Elder Yi asked for the price.

Hearing his question,

The crowd on the scene was astonished.

The deal couldn’t be closed at 300,000 and Elder Yi was willing to further raise the price?

What on earth is going on?

What the heck is that tiny little thing?

“You name it.”

Faced by the shocked crowd, Fang Qiu responded to Elder Yi’s question calmly.

“500,000?”

Said Elder Yi in a questioning tone, gazing at Fang Qiu closely.

His words were telling everyone that its value was more than 500,000.

The crowd grew more curious.

All the eyes were turned to the Red Spirit Date in Elder Yi’s hand though the majority of them had no idea at all what they were looking at.

“500,000?”

Fang Qiu burst into a laugh and asked, “That’s what you’re willing to pay for an earth treasure?”

Hearing that,

Bam!

All those present were stunned!

An earth treasure!

All the martial arts practitioners on site opened their eyes wider, carrying the same look of shock at once.

They were all martial artists.

They had all heard about the fabled heaven materials and earth treasure.

However, for them, the so-called heaven materials and earth treasures remained in tales and legends since they had never seen a real earth treasure.

A legendary earth treasure was there?

On such a small trade fair?

Who could have guessed?

Earth treasures had occasionally appeared on big trade fairs before but they were exclusively taken by the senior martial arts masters.

These people had no chance of attending a trade fair at that level.

That day, an earth treasure was right in front of them.

Stunned!

Matchlessly stunned!

They all came to realize

Why Elder Yi had been holding this little thing in his hand ever since he first saw it and why he continued to raise the price for Fang Qiu. It was an earth treasure.

Seeing how eagerly Elder Yi intended to take it, they were certain it was an earth treasure.

Rumble.

As the shock faded slowly, a stir was made in the trade fair.

There was light in every pair of eyes.

No one was buying anything so those martial artists closed their stalls and gathered around the earth treasure.

At once,

Everyone on side gazed at the red spirit date in Elder Yi's hand with shock in their eyes.

He knew it!

Keeping his eyes on Fang Qiu, Elder Yi's grip on the earth treasure tightened.

The heat and longing in those eyes gave him pressure.

He desperately wanted this earth treasure!

At that moment,

Fang Qiu suddenly turned to the young man with a broken arm behind Elder Yi and asked, "How much did you say you would pay for my earth treasure?"

The young man lowered his head in silence.

However, people remembered.

Thirty grand.

Thirty grand for an earth treasure?

It would be robbery!

It was a ridiculous joke!

No one would believe this offer if he hadn't said it himself when begging for Elder Yi to uphold justice for him.

Obviously.

This was quite clear.

This man was courting death.

First, he wanted to pay Fang Qiu 30,000 for the earth treasure. Without a deal, he then attempted to take it by force. With no luck in fighting, he turned around to slander Fang Qiu. Wasn't he courting death?

Those who had felt sorry for him then felt ashamed.

Those close to him threw a few fierce glares at him and pushed him out of the crowd.

“An earth treasure?”

“This is really an earth treasure?”

“I thought I would never get to see a legendary earth treasure in my life. What a surprise to see it here!”

“Earth treasures are rare and precious. Most of us won’t be able to see one in our lifetime.

“I heard earth treasures can help martial arts practitioners improve their strength but I don’t know if it is for real.”

“Of course it is for real. Earth treasures are magical gems that bear internal Qi. Take one earth treasure and your strength will be improved for sure. However, earth treasures are so rare and they are all well hidden in secret places. Even if you are really determined to look for it, you probably won’t have the luck.”

“This is a great thing.”

“Better than great! Earth treasures are divine items for martial artists!”

The martial artists around marveled in shock one after another.

“Yi!”

All of a sudden, a middle-aged man chuckled and said to Elder Yi, “The earth treasure is not sold to you yet. Don’t you think it’s not very good for you to hold it so tight in your hand?”

“And it’s not very decent for you to have it all to yourself!”

Elder Yi blushed, obviously embarrassed.

To be honest,

He knew this red spirit date was an earth treasure but he didn't tell anyone; instead, he kept it in his hand, attempting to purchase it without anyone else noticing.

At last, Fang Qiu laid bare the truth.

As a prestigious figure, he certainly felt awkward there.

The middle-aged man continued, "Since we haven't seen any earth treasure yet, why not pass it around?"

The crowd nodded in unison.

"That doesn't sound good!"

Elder Yi hesitated and replied, "What if someone took it and ran when we passed it around? What if someone ate it? That would be awful."

Hearing this,

The crowd was lost for a moment.

To be fair,

That would be very possible.

However, most of them hadn't thought about it until this reminder.

That was an earth treasure after all. No one knew how it would taste like. Who wasn't curious?

"I'm taking this earth treasure."

Said the middle-aged man generously, "I give you my words that I'll compensate for your loss in case of any accident. It is passed out from my hands and I'm here to see who has the balls to make trouble."

Elder Yi heaved a sigh helplessly, looking at Fang Qiu and seeking his opinion.

"You are very rich?"

Asked Fang Qiu, turning to the middle-aged man.

"Very!"

Answered the middle-aged man at once.

Elder Yi nodded his approval.

Fang Qiu gave his consent by nodding his head.

He was not afraid of anyone robbing the earth treasure. Considering his strength, no one on site was capable of taking it from his hand.

If someone devoured it, he couldn't kill that person anyway.

But he would lose a fortune if the earth treasure eater was a rascal who would rather die than pay for the loss.

It would be real trouble if some greedy man swallowed the red spirit date.

He couldn't kill.

He already made an exception to let Elder Yi and young man have a look at it.

However, since someone had offered to take the risk, he couldn't care less.

Seeing this, Elder Yi had no choice but to say, "As you have given your words, fine."

The crowd gazed at the red spirit date in Elder Yi's hand, their eyes bright and shiny.

"Take a look."

Under numerous eyes, Elder Yi handed the red spirit date out, looking reluctant.

The middle-aged man took it over at once and began looking at it carefully.

After, it was passed around and the crowd took turns to observe it.

Everyone handled it with extreme care, afraid of putting forth their strength.

As the crowd observed it in turn, Elder Yi followed the Red Spirit Date closely, scared of any accident.

It didn't matter to him that someone had promised to take responsibility for any accident..

He wanted this earth treasure.

"This is an earth treasure?"

“This is magical. The touch is so very unique.”

“I’ve never seen anything like this. This is my very first time.”

“I can tell it is extraordinary from the first touch. An earth treasure indeed.”

“There seems something inside. Could that be the internal Qi?”

“I’m touching an earth treasure! I’m touching a bloody earth treasure!”

“How lucky I’m today to see a legendary earth treasure with my own eyes!”

As it was passed around, it won more admiration.

Fortunately,

No one crossed the line. After all, Elder Yi had his eye on it closely.

“Young brother, how much would you sell this earth treasure for? I’m taking it!”

“I want it. May I exchange something for it?”

“He takes cash only. Young brother, how much?”

Questions flooded in from the crowd.

However,

When the last person was looking at the red spirit date, Elder Yi snatched it and said, "I have reserved it already!"

"Reserved it? You haven't bought it yet, have you?"

"That's right, Yi. You can't kill us all with one strike."

"Give us an opportunity."

"Why not auction it off?"

"The highest bidder wins. How does it sound?"

People in the crowd shouted one after another.

Elder Yi was apparently displeased and gloomy.

He was the first one who had noticed it.

"Everyone, shouldn't we line up in order of arrival?"

Called Elder Yi, cupping his fist in the other hand before the chest in front of the crowd.

The crowd returned the same gesture in unison and shouted, "The highest bidder wins!"

Elder Yi was speechless, turning to seek Fang Qiu's opinion.

Everyone else also turned to Fang Qiu, looking forward to his decision.

“Up to you. I’ll take as much money as possible.”

Said Fang Qiu calmly, glancing across these people.

“Great!”

The middle-aged man chipped in at once, “In this case, we’ll have an auction and the highest bidder gets it.”

After saying that,

He turned to Elder Yi and added, “Yi, give the earth treasure back quickly and get ready to bid.”

Elder Yi had no choice but to return the red spirit date to Fang Qiu.

Fang Qiu accepted it and held it in his hand.

Seeing this, the middle-aged man forced himself to move his eyes away from the earth treasure and said, “Brothers, let’s use Elder Yi’s previous offer, 500,000, as the base price. Whoever wants to bid, raise your hand and shout out your price.”

“Start!”

Shouted the middle-aged man.

Surrounded by the crowd, Elder Yi fell in a very dark mood.

Everyone else seemed extremely excited as if being injected with chicken blood.

“550,000!”

As soon as the auction started, a young man raised his hand and called.

“560,000!”

Another man raised his hand.

“600,000!”

Shouted Elder Yi loudly.

“650,000.”

Called the middle-aged man who had put on a rival show against Elder Yi.

In a blink,

The price for this red spirit date rose from 500,000 to 630,000.

Most people in the crowd were unable to afford this price but several wealthy men were still eyeing covetously.

Fang Qiu finally felt relieved.

He had gathered 300,000 in no time.

However, the more money the better. From then on, he didn’t need to worry about money again.

“700,000!”

Elder Yi held his breath and shouted loudly!

It was obvious that he was determined to take the red spirit date at all costs.

Hearing that, more people put on a wry smile.

700,000 was not a small amount. Quite some people on site had over 700,000 in their account but they had to live. They could spend all their saving on this earth treasure but how should they live after and how could they provide for their family?

Every time when someone offered a higher price, more people were eliminated inevitably.

“800,000.”

The middle-aged man called again.

Medical Master

Chapter 104: I Offer 1,500,000!

“Yin! Don’t you add trouble! You are bidding against me, aren’t you?”

Elder Yi glared at the middle-aged man with anger and shouted at once, “850,000!”

“I don’t want to bid against you but I really want this earth treasure. This is to be found only by chance!”

The middle-aged man chuckled and raised his hand, “900,000!”

Soon after his call.

“One million!”

A powerful voice came.

Shocked onlookers turned around and saw two young men stepped out of the crowd. They were none other than those two rich second generations.

“1,050,000.”

The two rich second generations’ bid was quickly followed by another voice from the crowd.

Tracing the voice.

The bidder was a man in suit in his 30s, wearing a pair of glasses with a gold frame. A rich man for certain.

“1,100,000!”

The two rich second generations shouted through their clenched teeth.

“1,150,000!”

The man in suit raised the price with a smile.

Elder Yi and the middle-aged man were dumbfounded. Where did these two come from?

Hearing this offer, the two rich second generations exchanged a glance, shaking their head with a bitter smile.

No more raise!

It was not like they didn't have more money. They certainly wanted to get this precious earth treasure. However, they were surrounded by many experts and quite some of them who had their eyes on it were their seniors. Their hands were tied.

First, with so many people coveting it, they might not be able to bring it back after the purchase.

Second, they didn't want to offend any senior on this small trade fair or their future in martial arts would become tough.

They had raised the price to feel out the crowd. Now someone was determined to take it.

After some pondering, they didn't think it was a good idea to buy it. So they gave up.

And at this time.

The price had risen to 1,150,000. The majority of the crowd was scared away.

Not many of them had this money.

Elder Yi was not one of them.

He had sworn in front of them all that he would take this earth treasure.

“1,200,000!”

As expected, Elder Yi shouted his bid.

Money was no big deal for him, but this earth treasure was different.

As long as the final price wouldn't be too much higher than his expectation, he felt it was worthy.

“Elder Yi.”

The man in suit turned to Elder Yi and asked respectfully, “I really need this earth treasure. Could you please let me have it?”

“No way!”

Elder Yi shook his head immediately and answered, “Today I’m taking this earth treasure. I need it as well.”

“Then we’ll have to continue bidding!”

The man in suit put on a wry smile and shouted, “1,400,000!”

Goodness.

This price startled onlookers terribly.

At first, the raise was between 10 grand and 50 grand. Then, the price went up by 50,000 each time until then. All of a sudden, this man insuit added 200,000 in one bid.

How could onlookers stay cool?

The middle-aged man ceased bidding.

It was a bit too much for him to pay over a million for an earth treasure.

“1,500,000!”

Elder Yi called through his clenched teeth.

The crowd was shocked.

The base price was 500,000. Then the price for this earth treasure went all the way up to 1,500,000, three times of the base price.

“Only Elder Yi has such strength!”

“Sigh... I wish I had made more money!”

“That’s right. But people at this trade fair mainly exchange one item for another. Who could have guessed the appearance of an earth treasure here for sale?”

The crowd remarked with emotion.

“Elder Yi, it’s all yours!”

The man in suit laughed bitterly before continuing, “1,400,000 is the best I can offer.”

He certainly had more but it wasn’t worth more.

Hearing that.

Elder Yi burst into a smile.

He then glanced across the crowd and asked, “Anyone wants to raise the price?”

The crowd shook their head in unison.

“Hand over the earth treasure then.”

Elder Yi turned to face Fang Qiu with a smile.

No one offered a higher price.

1,500,000?

Fang Qiu nodded with a smile and replied, “The highest bidder wins. This earth treasure is yours. However, I have a request to make before closing the deal.”

“What request?”

Asked Elder Yi.

“I want it in cash.”

Answered Fang Qiu.

“Cash?”

Elder Yi was taken by surprise. He then said, “Wait here. I’ll call someone to send it over.”

“Deal.”

Fang Qiu nodded with a smile. He didn’t hand over the red miraculous jujube to Elder Yi yet.

Soon.

After a phone call, the crowd began to congratulate Elder Yi.

“This precious treasure is in your pocket in the end.”

“Elder Yi is very generous indeed.”

“Elder Yi, what is a fair price in your opinion?”

A question stood out among congratulations.

“Haha.”

Elder Yi laughed loud and answered, “I’ve already got it. I guess it is okay to talk about it. This earth treasure is exactly 1,500,000 in my mind. Of course I would continue to raise the price if there was someone bidding. However, I won’t pay over three million.”

The crowd nodded.

For martial arts practitioners, money was just a worldly possession. However, this large amount of money was not easy to make.

Fang Qiu agreed.

The price for this red miraculous jujube should be around this number.

After all, the red miraculous jujube was an earth treasure ranked rather behind. This kind of junior earth treasures was in great demand on those grand trade fairs but the final price never went beyond two million.

Earth treasures were precious but they were also divided into classes.

If it was an earth treasure ranked in the middle or in the front, it would be a totally different story.

An earth treasure ranked in the middle would cost a few times more than one ranked low.

An earth treasure that ranked very high, let's say top ten, wouldn't be in the market at all no matter how high an offer was made.

The earth treasures were called earth treasures.

Because it was extremely precious.

15 minutes later.

A man with a password protected suitcase approached quickly and handed the suitcase to Elder Yi.

"1,500,000. Check carefully!"

Elder Yi passed the password protected suitcase to Fang Qiu.

Fang Qiu was not at all hesitant.

He opened the suitcase and felt with his hand with Absolute Touch. He was sure the money in the suitcase was real and the amount was correct.

“Nice doing business with you!”

After setting a new password for the suitcase and locking it up, Fang Qiu handed the red miraculous jujube to Elder Yi.

Elder Yi laughed with great excitement.

And over here.

Holding the suitcase full of money, Fang Qiu couldn't help sighing with emotion.

Finally I've got the money!

The days worrying about money and looking for money are finally over!

Everything comes to him who waits!

At this moment.

“Brother, can we have a word?”

A man suddenly moved close to Fang Qiu and asked quietly, “Where did you get the earth treasure?”

His voice was very low but people's attention was drawn.

“Yeah! Where did you find it?”

“The earth treasure is so tiny. How did you notice it?”

“Is there anything special about the origin of this earth treasure?”

“Share with us! Give us an opportunity!”

“That’s right. Tell us! Where did you find it? And how did you find this earth treasure?”

The crowd closed in, throwing questions at him.

In the face of so many questions.

“No comment.”

Said Fang Qiu before walking out of the cave with the suitcase of money and jumped down.

No comment?

The crowd was unwilling to give up yet.

Once he left, the people at the trade fair followed out in pursuit.

Very soon.

A group of people was exerting great effort chasing Fang Qiu out of this quiet park.

Fang Qiu felt helpless.

This group of men kept on chasing him.

When he was about to reveal his true ability to fly away...

“Rumble... Rumble...”

A loud engine noise came abruptly.

He saw.

A car charging rapidly on the road in front of him.

The car’s front light was very bright, blinding them all.

Thanks to the bright front light, they saw clearly there was a girl in the middle of the street.

“Ah!”

Seeing how fast the car was coming, the girl knew she could not get away. She closed her eyes and screamed in fear.

This side.

“Ah! Watch out!”

“Get away quickly!”

“Be careful...”

Those martial arts practitioners shouted loud.

However, it was too late.

The car running at full speed was already very close to the girl.

“Damn it!”

Fang Qiu narrowed his eyes.

Without thinking, he dashed out immediately.

But.

He was ten meters away from the girl while the car was under two meters away.

He couldn't save her.

In a flash, Fang Qiu widened his eyes.

He reached his palm out subconsciously.

“Great Hand of Destruction!”

He let out a shout in his heart.

The energy in the air waved rapidly, gathering around his right hand.

When the car was only one meter away from the girl, Fang Qiu running quickly reached out his right hand and padded the air with great force.

“Bam!”

A loud sound came.

Fang Qiu's right hand padded and the vehicle was pushed away by some horribly force after a loud bang, missing the girl by an inch. It rocked a little on the road before coming to a sudden halt.

In the middle of the road.

The girl was still screaming with her eyes closed.

"You are okay."

Fang Qiu exhaled slowly next to the girl and spoke to her before leaving quickly.

The girl opened her eyes.

The car was gone and she froze there. One second later, she dashed across the road and left in a panic.

But on the other side.

Seeing this.

The martial arts practitioners following behind Fang Qiu were all dumbfounded.

They froze there with their mouth open wide, unable to believe what they had just saw.

Holy crap!

What just happened?

He pushed the car away with one palm?

This...

Could this be a movie set?

Although they were martial arts practitioners in Wulin, they found it hard to accept.

As the group was stunned.

Fang Qiu left quickly.

Fang Qiu suddenly came to a stop after travelling through a street in the dark and heaved a sigh of helplessness. He turned around to face the dark corner and said, "Come out."

After that.

Two figures flashed out of the corner.

Taking a close look, these were none other than the two rich second generations.

"Master!"

At once one of them bowed respectfully, "We have no ill intention. We'd like to make a deal with you."

"Speak."

Said Fang Qiu.

“Master, you just sold an earth treasure. I guess you are in urgent need of money.”

The rich second generation looked at Fang Qiu from head to toe and continued, “I wonder if you are willing to help us defeat a person. The payment will be 200,000.”

He saw the palm earlier. It was very powerful.

An expert!

An absolute expert!

Medical Master

Chapter 105: Plan to Find the Mysterious Man!

Hearing that,

Asked Fang Qiu,

“The person has a hatred for you and is very powerful?”

If there was no hatred and he was not powerful, why would they pay such a high price to hire someone?

“Martial warrior level.”

The rich youth answered, “Stronger than us. But this would only be a friendly sparring, without real harm. Master, you accept this, all you need to do is to defeat him.”

Fang Qiu shook his head slightly.

He wasn't interested in such a petty fight.

More importantly,

He had enough money. Since the person wasn't extremely wicked, he had no reason to get involved. After all, he had no intention to participate in matters in the martial arts field yet.

He didn't answer.

After shaking his head, he turned around to leave.

“Master!”

Seeing this, the rich youth became anxious but he dared not block the way. He shouted hastily, “My number is 138 XXXX XXXX. Master, call me if you need money.”

Fang Qiu vanished before his voice faded.

However, he remembered the number. He might need it one day.

In the dark,

Fang Qiu ran quickly across the empty streets.

He was thinking while walking.

Then he pulled out his mobile to search for an address.

He confirmed the direction and carried on rapidly.

Soon after, he was outside an orphanage. It was the address he had searched.

He sneaked into the orphanage.

And went to the president's office

He opened the suitcase and took out 550,000. Putting it on the president's desk, he grabbed a paper and a pen from the desk and left a note.

Among this 550,000, 50,000 Yuan was taken from the village. Now he donated double the amount. It was all good.

The other 450,000 was from Fang Qiu himself.

After leaving the money and note, Fang Qiu left the orphanage.

He hoped these children without parents could have a better life.

In the meantime,

News about the earth treasure spread out like a storm.

Without a doubt,

This news made a stir at once.

Everyone in the martial arts circle in Jiangjing was shocked.

“An earth treasure appeared on this trade fair?”

“Wasn’t this just a very small trade fair? Why would an earth treasure appear there?”

“Did I hear it wrong? Why would anyone sell an earth treasure for money?”

“This was too strange.”

“No way... This trade fair was so small that I didn’t even attend. Why would an earth treasure appear when I was not there?”

“God damn it! I regret so much! Holy cow! Why didn’t I go?”

Hearing this news, martial artists in Jiangjing felt stunned with deep regret.

Because earth treasures were too rare.

It would be a great treat if they could have a look at it. Let alone buying it.

Some well-off ones were much annoyed. They didn’t attend this small trade fair or this earth treasure would be in their pocket no matter how much it would cost.

As the news about the earth treasure spread in the martial arts circle in Jiangjing,

A post about the earth treasure and a mysterious master in Jiangjing was published on a forum exclusively for martial arts practitioners.

An earth treasure appeared. A mysterious master performed a shocking rescue!

The title of the post was very appealing.

“The Jiangjing Martial Arts Trade Fair took place as planned. On this small trade fair, a mysterious man came out of blue. He sold an earth treasure in public and demanded the payment to be cash only.

“At last, the earth treasure was sold at 1,500,000 to Elder Yi from Jiangjing.

“What’s more,

“After the trade fair, a group of martial artists who had attended the trade fair pursued the mysterious man in hopes of finding out the origin of the earth treasure. They encountered a road accident.

“At that time, a girl was standing in the middle of the street, about to be hit by a car running at 60 km

“This was true as I was there in person. If you have any doubt, feel free to verify it with martial arts practitioners in Jiangjing.”

The entire event was summarized into a short paragraph in the post.

Very soon, numerous martial artists were drawn.

“Holy crap! For real? Why would anyone sell an earth treasure?”

“Was there really an earth treasure?”

“It sounds like a fairy tale.”

“Post opener, wake up!”

“Post opener, are you working on a novel? Fine, someone was selling an earth treasure. But how could he push a fast car away with one palm? Impossible. Done.”

“Who would believe this?”

“The post opener is dreaming again.”

This incident was probably too strange. All the readers of this post couldn't believe it. They found it impossible to be true.

Of couses.

The theory of relativity was meaningful in practice. Wherever there were disbelievers, there would be believers.

Although questioned by many,

This post became a hit and soon the appearance of the earth treasure spread across the entire martial arts circle.

Many people with connections in the Jiangjing martial arts circle phoned to verify the authenticity of this story. And the reply they got was mostly positive.

This time,

The entire martial arts world was shocked.

After all, earth treasures richly endowed by nature were rare.

If someone was lucky enough to chance upon an earth treasure, he would hide it securely. There was no way he would reveal it in front of others. Let alone auctioning it off.

Without a doubt,

It was the very first time in the martial arts circle that an earth treasure was sold in public. Only Fang Qiu could do such an odd thing.

Some of them sent Elder Yi a visit request as soon as the news about the earth treasure came out, falling over each other in their eagerness to see Elder Yi.

Upon returning home,

Elder Yi's face lit up with pleasure seeing all the visit requests.

He thought to himself that this 1,500,000 was totally worth it.

At the same time,

Officer Li Ji in civilian clothes was sitting on the passenger seat of a cross-country vehicle.

The driver was a young man in his early 20s.

He as well was an military officer and a master of Grade One Hero stage.

“Li, the man you’ve mentioned to me before can’t be in the Guru Realm. I bet you’ve mistaken.”

The officer said confidently with a grin.

“Luo Shu, I saw it with my own eyes. It was not hearsay.”

Li Ji pursed his lips and continued, "You've reached the first-class martial superior stage at such a young age. I admit that you are an extremely rare talent in martial arts. However, you can't just refuse to believe it because of your pride."

"I watched him leaping onto roofs and vaulting over walls. If he was not a guru, how could you explain this?"

Officer Luo Shu shook his head with a smile.

"I just can't believe it. It was too convenient for you to so casually run into a super expert in the Guru Realm."

Luo Shu chuckled, looking at Li Ji.

"Impossible to talk with you!"

Li Ji rolled his eyes at Luo Shu helplessly.

Then, he took out his mobile to kill some boring travel time by browsing the internet.

He logged on the martial arts forum.

He opened the Jiangjing section and checked the latest news.

Li Ji was stunned at once.

"Look! What did I tell you?"

Li Ji moved his mobile to Luo Shu's face and asked him to slow down. He said, "Tonight an odd incident took place in the martial arts circle in Jiangjing. A man openly sold an earth treasure on a very small trade fair."

“What?”

Asked Luo Shu, in shock. “Sold an earth treasure?”

“That’s right!”

Replied Li Ji while browsing down on his phone. “It has been verified by many martial arts practitioners in Jiangjing. It sounds legit.”

“My goodness. Someone sold an earth treasure.”

Luo Shu muttered, completely astonished. He then added, “Bad luck. If we could have got there earlier, this earth treasure might be in my pocket now.”

Over here,

Li Ji didn’t respond to Luo Shu. He continued to reveal his discovery, “According to a leak on the martial arts forum, this man sounded very young and appeared in a gym suit.”

At this point,

Li Ji suddenly became very excited. He remarked, “This might be that mysterious man I’ve been telling you!”

“Bullshit.”

Luo Shu burst into a laugh. “Still thinking about your mysterious man? You just won’t give up until all hope is gone.”

“Hmm!”

Li Ji snorted with some attitude and said, “You’ll see when it comes.”

“Hahah...”

Luo Shu laughed loud and sneered, “When it comes, I’ll dig your mysterious man out and show you what I’ve got.”

Li Ji curled his lips.

Thinking about that mysterious man, he couldn’t help taking a deep breath.

He believed that he could break through the warrior level to reach the hero level if he could figure out that mysterious man’s move at the Central Lake.

As he thought of this.

Li Ji was desperate to find that mysterious man.

“What method do you have?”

Asked Li Ji, looking at Luo Shu.

If the mysterious man refused to come out, who could make him?

“Isn’t this simple? I’ve got a plan!”

Luo Shu returned a mysterious sneer.

“What plan? Tell me!”

Li Ji urged.

Luo Shu refused to share.

“Tell me or not?”

Li Ji grabbed a prayer wheel in front of the seat.

Luo Shu raised his brows.

He smiled appeasingly and answered, “I’ll tell you.”

“That’s good.”

Li Ji put down the prayer wheel.

This prayer wheel was acquired from a Buddha incarnate in Tibet. His friend cherished it dearly.

Threatening him with this prayer wheel never failed.

“What plan?”

Asked Li Ji.

Luo Shu chuckled and replied two words,

“Police dogs!”

Hearing this,

Li Ji’s body shook with excitement.

“Yeah! How could I not get this?”

Li Ji continued excitedly, “Police dogs have so great sense of smell. They can find the mysterious man for sure. That night I used my night vision glasses so I know exactly where the mysterious man was standing. It has been a few days but that place is rarely visited. There might still be some scent left.”

“Impressive! You’ve come up with such a brilliant idea.”

Li Ji complimented.

“Of course!”

Luo Shu said proudly.

However, he still couldn’t believe the mysterious Li Ji had been talking about was at the master stage.

“Hey! Why are you driving so slowly?”

Having got a plan, Li Ji urged, “Hurry up! Get us to Jiangjing as soon as possible. This time I’ll find that mysterious man!”

“Didn’t you ask me to slow down?”

Luo Shu rolled his eyes at Li Ji and stepped on the gas, speeding up towards Jiangjing.

Chapter 106: Asking for Face Slapping

The next morning.

After one night of rest in his college dorm, Fang Qiu got up and had breakfast after exercise. He then secretly took the suitcase to a bank outside his school.

“I’d like to make a deposit.”

The bank was not busy in the morning. Fang Qiu walked straight to a counter to conduct his business.

“How much?”

Asked the person behind the counter, reaching one hand out to take his money.

“850,000.”

Answered Fang Qiu.

1,500,000 for the earth treasure and 100,000 for the medicinal plants. He had 1,650,000 in total. Minus the 550,000 he had donated to the orphanage, he had 1,050,000 left.

After making a deposit of 750,000, he would have exactly 300,000 left.

“How much?”

Asked the clerk again, raising her head as if she didn’t hear the answer.

“750,000.”

Fang Qiu repeated.

The clerk was shocked when Fang Qiu confirmed the number.

Working in the front of a bank, she had seen a lot of money. This amount was not enough to shock her.

However, to her surprise, standing in front of her was obviously a student!

How much money could a student have? Those who were able to save up some could make a deposit of a few thousand at most. Very few had asked to deposit ten grand.

She didn't expect this young man to make such a big deposit.

Besides shock, she was instantly filled with excitement. She saw an opportunity of promotion.

She asked a colleague to take her position at once and went out to serve Fang Qiu in person.

750,000 would be a great help for her savings performance!

How could she be not excited?

Soon,

With this clerk's help, Fang Qiu deposited 750,000 into his bank account and the balance reached 870,000.

Leaving the bank,

Fang Qiu returned to school with that password protected suitcase which still had 300,000 cash inside.

At the school gate, Fang Qiu saw an old acquaintance, Li Qingshi.

Seeing Fang Qiu,

Li Qingshi approached directly.

“Fang Qiu!”

Li Qingshi looked left and right as he walked towards Fang Qiu. Then he asked in a disappointed yet anxious tone, “Where is your female school mate?”

Fang Qiu continued walking into the school without reply.

“Hey! I’m talking to you!”

Ignored by Fang Qiu, Li Qingshi strode forth quickly. His voice became cold. “I’m your senior. Your senior is asking you a question!”

Fang Qiu threw him a disdainful glance.

He walked sideways on.

Li Qingshi became furious but he couldn’t show his anger yet. He stopped Fang Qiu once again and said,

“I met a girl outside the school gate on Monday. She claimed to be a school mate of yours so I took her in to look for you. It turned out you were not at school. Then she left.

“I saw her outside the school gate a few days ago. How come she’s not coming anymore?”

“After all, I’m the president of the student union. When there is a female student coming from another school, it’s my duty to show her around and introduce our school to her...”

His nonsense went on.

Fang Qiu gazed at Li Qingshi and asked, “What on earth do you want?”

“I want her phone number!”

Li Qingshi answered directly.

That was right.

He did walk Jiang Mengjie into the school that day. But they didn’t find Fang Qiu and Jiang Mengjie said goodbye without giving him her contact.

These couple of days,

He knew Jiang Mengjie was outside the school gate so he came on a daily basis to chat her up. Jiang Mengjie usually greeted him politely and then paid no more attention to him.

This made him feel awful.

He couldn’t understand why Fang Qiu was so popular with girls, especially those pretty ones!

Jiang Mengjie became more and more beautiful in his eyes and he wished to dream about her at night. Then Jiang Mengjie disappeared. He couldn’t find her anywhere.

Without no other options, Li Qingshi came to ask Fang Qiu for Jiang Mengjie's phone number.

"I don't have!"

Knowing Li Qingshi's intention, Fang Qiu gave a point-blank answer.

Li Qingshi's face darkened.

"Fang Qiu, you can't be eyeing the pot while eating from a bowl."

Said Li Qingshi with a trace of anger, staring at Fang Qiu. "Listen. I'll quit Jiang Miaoyu if you give me that girl's contact. I promise to never bother Jiang Miaoyu again. The conflict between us can come to an end as well. I can give you my words that the student union won't pick fault with you in school. What do you say?"

Hearing that,

Fang Qiu couldn't help sneering.

Is he a retard?

Any normal person wouldn't have said that.

He took a step to leave.

This time,

Li Qingshi's face turned grey.

Fang Qiu was humiliating him!

He, the student union present, spoke so humbly under his breath to make peace with Fang Qiu for a phone number but Fang Qiu was cold and indifferent. How could he stand this?

He had already lowered himself for Jiang Mengjie's number but Fang Qiu had to give him cold shoulders when he was already feeling awkward.

It felt like Fang Qiu was laughing at him.

How could a man proud as him stand such disregard?

Watching Fang Qiu striding away from behind, the dark-faced Li Qingshi clenched his fist and reached out to his mobile in his trousers pocket.

Dialing Gao Fei's number.

At that time.

Gao Fei was having a stamina training with other members of the track team.

"Dee-dee-dee..."

A mobile ringtone came among a pile of clothes on the grass.

A track team member sitting on the grass with sweat all over his forehead began searching about immediately.

"Gao Fei, your phone."

Taking out the ringing phone, the member shouted loudly at the sprinting Gao Fei.

Hearing the call,

Gao Fei slowed down at once and jogged over.

“Hello.”

Panting heavily, Gao Fei answered the call.

“Fang Qiu is back.”

Li Qingshi’s cold voice came from the other end.

“Perfect!”

Gao Fei sneered grimly before continuing, “I was waiting for him! I know what to do. Sit down and wait for a show.”

“I’m counting on you!”

Li Qingshi hung up angrily.

This side, after the phone call,

Gao Fei turned around to rejoin the training but noticed a familiar figure on the road by the sports ground.

It was none other than Fang Qiu.

“Talk of the devil and here he comes!”

Gao Fei’s lips curved up as he ran towards Fang Qiu.

The sweaty Gao Fei stopped in front of Fang Qiu, blocking his way with his well-built body.

Fang Qiu glanced at Gao Fei.

He stepped out and brushed by Gao Fei.

“Ha?”

Gao Fei was lost.

Then he came to realize that he had just been utterly ignored!

New grudge was added to old hatred!

Students specialized in sports had nothing but a lot of anger and a bad temper.

Glaring at Fang Qiu, he narrowed his eyes and lifted his leg to kick Fang Qiu’s back.

He intended to run away after the kick.

As he ran fast.

However,

Fang Qiu suddenly moved right as he threw the kick. He missed completely.

It was fortunate that he didn't put forth much strength or he would fall hard due to the inertial force.

Over there.

Fang Qiu turned around suddenly after dodging the sudden attack and gazed at Gao Fei coldly, his face dark and grim.

Gao Fei felt embarrassed.

But the embarrassment lasted no longer than half a second.

"So? You want to get physical with me?"

Gao Fei put on a disdainful sneer and then lowered his voice, "You were lucky that I didn't kick your ass last time. What can you do now? We are on holiday. Fighting is forbidden by school regulations!"

Then he burst into a laugh.

Fang Qiu gave a scornful smile.

As a Guru Realm expert, he had zero interest in fighting Gao Fei who was no different from a toddler.

However, he wouldn't mind teaching him a lesson dared he advance.

Resentment from last time was not solved yet!

At that time,

“The two of you. What are you doing?”

A loud shout came.

Before Gao Fei could strike a blow, Mr. Ma in charge of the track team’s stamina training noticed the abnormality and ran towards them.

Hearing Mr. Ma’s voice,

Gao Fei’s face turned.

With a teacher present, would he have the balls to beat me up?

But how could I punish Fang Qiu without throwing several blows?

He rolled his eyes.

The incident during that morning run suddenly hit Gao Fei and the suppressed desire for revenge gushed up.

As Mr. Ma arrived in front of them,

Gao Fei put on a smile as he turned to face Mr. Ma and said, “Mr. Ma, this student Fang Qiu wants to compete with me on running. We are getting tired from the training. Let’s have a match!”

“Yeah?”

Mr. Ma threw a glance of surprise at Fang Qiu.

Gao Fei was a member of the track team and one of the best runners. Why would this young man ask for a match with Gao Fei?

Looking at Fang Qiu,

Mr. Ma raised his brows.

He seemed rather familiar.

Then he suddenly remembered that very fast runner that morning.

That figure was very similar to this young man.

Could Fang Qiu be that man?

It must be otherwise Gao Fei wouldn't initiate a match with him.

This young man wanted a competition with him? What a lie!

Glancing at Fang Qiu up and down, Mr. Ma asked, "You want to have a running match with Gao Fei?"

Fang Qiu shook his head.

"Nope."

"What is it? Are you scared?"

Gao Fei cut in to sneer at Fang Qiu's refusal.

His laugh sounded provocative.

How could Gao Fei easily let go such a great opportunity?

That morning, he was played by Fang Qiu ruthlessly.

Today, he was determined to get even.

He couldn't accept that Fang Qiu ran faster than him last time.

There must be some trick last time.

However,

Under Gao Fei's provocation,

Fang Qiu glanced at Gao Fei as if looking at an idiot.

Then he turned to Mr. Ma and said, "Mr. Ma, I have things to do. See you."

"Since you are already here, why not have a match?"

Seeing this, Mr. Ma blurted out.

He also wanted to find out if Fang Qiu was that very fast runner and how fast he could actually run.

He wanted to see how great this man was having the courage to challenge Gao Fei for a run.

In his opinion, Gao Fei had a good eye.

He must be a decent runner if Gao Fei had his eyes on him. Gao Fei wouldn't be interested if he was no good.

Fang Qiu looked at Mr. Ma and then turned to Gao Fei.

He was asking for some face slapping.

It would be rude if he refused to slap his face.

“Fine. We'll have a match.”

Said Fang Qiu.

Medical Master

Chapter 107: An Amateur Beat A Professional!

In fact.

At first, Fang Qiu did want to settle an old score with Gao Fei but he was still carrying the suitcase with 300,000 in cash.

But now, even the teacher stepped in to help, there was no need to refuse again.

At this point, this old score was to get settled with Gao Fei.

“Okay. You guys come with me.”

Mr. Ma nodded with satisfaction as he moved toward the starting line of the track.

Gao Fei threw a defiant glance at Fang Qiu before following up.

Fang Qiu remained cool.

Very soon.

The three of them came to the meter dash starting line.

“Take a break.”

Standing at the starting line, Mr. Ma blew the whistle hanging from his neck and waved to those sports special students who were training in school during the holiday. He said, “Assemble!”

Very soon.

All the students specially enrolled into the Sports School gathered over.

“Everyone, take a rest, and clear the track for students Gao Fei and Fang Qiu.”

Said Mr. Ma as he glanced at Fang Qiu and Gao Fei. He then added, “Today, students Gao Fei and Fang Qiu are going to have a friendly running match.”

Hearing that,

Those students looked at Fang Qiu in surprise.

Studying in the Sports School, most of them, though not part of the track team, had heard of Gao Fei before.

In the track team, Gao Fei had always been in the top position, known for his speed.

What about Fang Qiu?

Everyone was confused.

Most of them had no idea who Fang Qiu was.

“Student Fang Qiu is not in our Sports School, is he?”

“Never heard of such a man.”

“I think I’ve seen this name on our school BBS. He should be from the School of Chinese Medicine.”

“No way!”

“A Chinese Medicine student competes with Gao Fei on running?”

“Wouldn’t this be self-inflicted abuse?”

“Yeah. Gao Fei’s track and field performance has no match in the entire school. Doesn’t this Fang Qiu know that?”

“How boring! What’s the point of this match? That Fang Qiu guy will lose for sure. Why would Mr. Ma arrange such a match?”

“A freshman is looking for some torture. Of course we are going to satisfy him.”

“This year’s freshmen really suck. He looks dumb in every way.”

Those sports special students pointed finger at Fang Qiu.

No one had faith in Fang Qiu.

They all felt the result of this match was too obvious that Gao Fei would defeat Fang Qiu by far.

But on the other side,

In the crowd, members of the track team saw Fang Qiu and looked at one another in spite of themselves.

“Is that him?”

Asked one track team member, surprised and unsure.

“Maybe.”

Answered another track team member, just as unsure.

“It’s him! “That morning I watched him closely. I’m certain that was him. Absolutely him.”

Said another one, very positively.

Hearing the comments from those track team members,

Other sports special students began to feel curious.

“Who? “Who are you talking about?”

“Do you guys know him?”

Asked one, pointing at Fang Qiu.

“Not really. I saw him once.”

One of the track team members recalled the situation and replied, “one morning we met him while training at the Central Lake. He was running there, very fast. Even faster than Gao Fei.”

Hearing that,

The crowd was shocked.

“Holy crap! Faster than Gao Fei?”

A remark of shock came from the crowd.

“Actually, I don’t know.”

The track team member put on a wry smile, his heart still fluttering with fear, and said, “I just remember I met him four times over two laps and every time he ran past us. Gao Fei was sprinting at that time but I didn’t look closely which one of them was fast. Anyway, I can tell you that Fang Qiu was pretty badass. I’m not sure if he can beat Gao Fei though.”

Hearing that,

Those sports special students breathed a sigh of relief.

Gao Fei was already very fast. If Fang Qiu was even faster, he would be a monster.

However.

According to that track team member, this Fang Qiu should be alright so he wouldn't suffer too miserable a defeat.

As this thought came to his mind,

Those sports special students, originally with zero interest, now suddenly had expectations.

“According to those track team members, it's going to be an exciting showdown.”

“Getting interesting.”

“If this Fang Qiu is really that good, it would be hard for Gao Fei to keep his reputation as the best in the school.”

“Nonsense. Gao Fei is the best in the entire school. This Gao Fei isn't even specialized in sports. How could he defeat Gao Fei?”

“That's right. The victory is certainly Gao Fei's.”

“I can understand Student Fang Qiu is looking for a challenge, but I just don't get it why he has to pick Gao Fei among so many people in the track team. Why does he want to torture himself?”

“I heard all Chinese Medicine students are kind of weird. Maybe this student Fang Qiu just loves to be abused.”

“Hahah...”

All sorts of comments and secret laughter came from this group of sports special students.

Even with the endorsement of the track team member, they still had no trust in Fang Qiu.

It was agreed that Fang Qiu was doomed to fail in the face of Gao Fei's absolute strength.

Over here,

"Let's warm up first."

Mr. Ma looked at Fang Qiu and said, "Gao Fei has been doing physical training here. You are fine."

"No need."

Fang Qiu shook his head directly.

"Umm?"

Mr. Ma was surprised. He reprimanded, "Student Fang Qiu, some warm-up exercise before a run can help you avoid ligament injury and other accidents. Are you sure you want to skip it?"

"Thank you, teacher, for your concern. It's really not necessary."

Fang Qiu repeated with a nod.

Next to him,

Gao Fei glared at Fang Qiu with a sneer.

He said to himself, "Soon you'll see.

"It's my opportunity to prove myself!"

Around them, the other sports special students also raised their eyebrows.

"No warm-up? So arrogant?"

"No wonder he's not specialized in sports. He doesn't even know the importance of warm-up."

"I hope he won't twist his ankle in the middle of the run!"

"He's a Chinese medicine student. He needs no warm-up. He can treat his own injury."

Again, everyone laughed.

Over here.

"So no warm-up. You guys get ready. First, 100-meter dash."

Said Mr. Ma after some thought.

After,

He signaled at one track team member to time the race at the finishing line 100 meters away.

Gao Fei jumped in place gently, with the same sneer hanging around the corner of his mouth.

Fangled Qiu loosened up his clothes and moved to the starting line, getting set to run.

Very soon.

Everything was ready.

Mr. Ma stood aside, put the whistle into his mouth, and then raised his right hand.

A moment later,

“Bi...”

The whistle blew.

Mr. Ma swung his right hand down quickly.

At this moment, Gao Fei pushed his right foot and his entire body sprang out as if he had wings.

But just over ten meters into the race,

Gao Fei heard the wind whistling in his ears.

He turned around to look.

Fang Qiu was running neck and neck with him, and his speed was increasing.

Before he could react, Fang Qiu had taken the lead.

Seeing this,

Gao Fei began to feel anxious. He ran desperately, his teeth clenched and eyes shut.

Behind them,

Seeing this,

All those sports special students were dumbfounded.

Gao Fei was overtaken?

That Fang Qiu actually overtook Gao Fei?

In their opinion, Gao Fei should be way ahead of Fang Qiu in no time on this 100-meter dash. The reality in front of them was a completely contrary picture.

“How is this possible? How can Student Fang Qiu be this fast?”

“Overtaken. This guy has overtaken Gao Fei?”

“Check out Student Fang Qiu’s posture while running. How could his body be so well coordinated?”

The crowd was shocked.

Who could have guessed?

A student from the School of Chinese Medicine overtook a track team member in a 100-meter dash. Actually, the member was Gao Fei, the fastest runner of the track team.

One hundred meters was very short.

The race ended when the audience was still in shock.

The track team member for timekeeping and the two of them returned to the starting line.

Fang Qiu appeared calm, breathing evenly.

Looking at Gao Fei,

Just like Fang Qiu, he wasn't panting at all but his face was very dark.

"How did the School of Chinese Medicine get such a great runner?"

"Damn! The speed was incredible."

"Even Gao Fei couldn't beat him. This young fellow is really good!"

The crowd gazed at Fang Qiu in shock.

The shock and feelings they were experiencing at that moment were impossible to put into words.

That scene replayed in their minds again and again.

And continued challenging their cognition.

An ordinary student just beat a specially enrolled student for his sport talents in 100-meter dash?

This... Where could this make sense?

It crushed their cognition!

“Announce the time.”

Once the trio returned, Mr. Ma immediately called out.

“Gao Fei, time, 11.01 seconds!”

“Fang Qiu, time, 10.3 seconds!”

Hearing the result,

Everyone was dumbfounded.

10.3 seconds?

That should be enough to qualify him for the National University Games 100-meter dash finals?

Last year the National University Games 100-meter dash champion finished in 10.28 seconds.

And Fang Qiu finished in 10.3 seconds!

It was in defiance of the natural order!

Even the well experienced Mr. Ma was stunned.

“He dashed out without any warm-up and finished in 10.3 seconds?”

“He would have been even faster with some proper warm-up...”

As this thought came to his mind,

The well surprised Mr. Ma couldn't help feeling excited.

Gao Fei's 11.01 second result was already pretty good.

But this Fang Qiu was absolutely marvelous!

Under the dazzling light of this result, no one paid any attention to Gao Fei's performance.

Great potential!

Mr. Ma's eyes on Fang Qiu sparkled.

“I don't accept!”

When everyone was shocked by Fang Qiu's performance, the dark-faced Gao Fei suddenly declared. “It was only a 1-second difference. It was all because of the over one hour exercise I've done before the race. Otherwise, I would have been faster than him!

“And he was so close to me that he interfered with my running rhythm. Otherwise, I would have done better!”

Medical Master

Chapter 108: He Is Nothing Less Than A Flying Man!

Hearing Gao Fei's words.

Fang Qiu shook his head in disdain.

“No hurry. There’s another race next.”

Mr. Ma appeased Gao Fei and then hurriedly announced, “The next will be a 200-meter dash.”

He wanted to see how capable Fang Qiu was!

Without waiting for Fang Qiu’s reply, he looked straight to Gao Fei.

“I will give you a break. How long do you need to take a break?”

Asked Mr. Ma.

“Give me five minutes.”

Gao Fei glared at Fang Qiu coldly and said, “In five minutes, I can do that definitely!”

He averred but he had already considered Fang Qiu as a vigorous opponent in his heart!

“I didn’t expect that this boy is really something!”

However, he did not leave Fang Qiu far behind him in the beginning as he expected. Instead, Fang Qiu overtook him, which interrupted his mind and running rhythm.

“The result is not as good as I expected.

When I throw myself into running, I’m sure that I won’t lose to Fang Qiu!

In the next race, I will concentrate on running!”

“OK!”

Mr. Ma nodded.

He also did not want to see the student that was trained by him overtaken by an average student.

That would mean his training was a great failure!

Very soon.

Five minutes passed.

Fang Qiu and Gao Fei stood abreast on the starting line again.

“I won’t give ground to you this time!”

Gao Fei turned his head and said to Fang Qiu who was three tracks away from him.

Such a long distance was Gao Fei’s request.

“Noisy!”

Said Fang Qiu.

Gao Fei snorted coldly and looked ahead.

His expression was serious and cold.

“I can’t lose in this race!”

“200-meter dash starts!”

As the whistle sounded, the two of them rushed out again.

It seemed to be the reason for five minutes’ rest, Gao Fei did run faster than before.

However.

Just when he sprinted like crazy, thinking he was going to win Fang Qiu!

Fang Qiu’s figure, however, appeared again in front of him and left him behind in a very short time.

“I can’t lose. I can’t lose!”

Gao Fei desperately gritted his teeth and quickly adjusted himself, afraid of being disturbed again.

He didn’t think about anything else.

He ran forward like crazy.

But.

Before he caught up.

Fang Qiu had already stopped.

The race had been over.

Two timekeepers ran over, looked in shock at the stopwatches in their hands, and announced the results.

“Gao Fei, 20.57 seconds.”

“Fang Qiu, 19.59 seconds.”

The results shocked all the people present.

Because it was a 200-meter race, all of them were not sure who finished first and they were waiting for the results announced.

The results instantly caused the discussion of all the people present.

“How is it possible for him to spend less than 20 seconds and almost break through 19 seconds?”

“Too awesome!”

“This explosive power is absolutely perfect.”

“Sprints rely on explosive power. Fang Qiu’s explosive power is very strong.”

The sports special students all looked at Fang Qiu in shock and everyone couldn’t help marveling at him.

Without any doubt.

“Gao Fei’s result of 20.57 seconds for 200-meter is already very scary.

Because the record of 200-meter race in the National College Athletics Games is 20.47 seconds!

But Fang Qiu actually ran less than 20 seconds???

“Hiss—

“This is just too terrifying!

“That’s impossible!”

The moment Gao Fei heard the result, his face clouded a lot!

“How could it be possible?

“How could Fang Qiu run so fast?

“Couldn’t they make a mistake while keeping account of time?

“20.57 seconds is already my best result of 200-meter, but now, Fang Qiu is actually faster than me!

“That’s impossible!

“I couldn’t accept the fact!

“No way!

“We have to compete once again!

“I can win definitely!”

But Mr. Ma at the side was more excited.

“Not only the 100-meter race, but this fellow could also insist during the 200-meter race and his speed was faster and faster.”

In general.

Sprinters were all about explosive power. The result of 100-meter couldn't be used to measure the one of 200-meter because people's explosive power had a certain duration.

And the duration of explosive power was directly proportional to the result.

“One more race!”

When everyone was still in shock, Gao Fei said with a gloomy face as he gritted his teeth, “This time, 400-meter!”

“400-meter?”

Everyone took a deep breath.

They took a deep look at Gao Fei.

Then they had a deep look at Fang Qiu.

“Although four hundred meters doesn't look like long and it is just a lap.

“Before this, Fang Qiu and Gao Fei have already run 100 meters and 200 meters once.

“The so-called explosive power is the maximum strength that a person can explode in a short period of time.

“And this kind of power can’t be exploded for several consecutive times.

“Although in the 100-meter dash and 200-meter dash, Fang Qiu’s results are better than everyone’s imagination, but can Fang Qiu hold out for another 400-meter race?

“As is known to all.

“Those who have not been specially trained can’t stand this kind of hassle.

“As a track special student, there will definitely be no problem for Gao Fei to last four hundred meters.

“But what about Fang Qiu?

“He is just an ordinary student of the School of Chinese Medicine. Although he does exercises every day and he can win Gao Fei in the 100-meter dash and 200-meter dash, can he still do it in the next 400-meter race?”

At once.

Everyone did not dare to judge.

Everyone knew that the most important thing about these three races was the last 400-meter race.

Having known the difficulty of the last race very well, everyone couldn’t help looking forward to it.

“This time.

“It will be Fang Qiu who will continue to win and become the biggest dark horse?

“Or it will be Gao Fei who will prove the real strength of sports special students by vigorous counter-blow?”

Hearing Gao Fei’s word, Mr. Ma at the side couldn’t wait to kiss him.

“How does he know that I want to learn more about Fang Qiu’s strength.”

So again, before Fang Qiu spoke, he immediately said, “Rest for ten minutes and after that, we will start again!”

Fang Qiu had no choice but to agree.

They went to get some rest.

Ten minutes later.

“Are you ready?”

Mr. Ma glanced at Fang Qiu.

“Yes.”

Fang Qiu nodded his head.

Over there.

Gao Fei could hardly wait.

After the previous two dashes, he finally understood that Fang Qiu's explosive power was stronger than him.

“However, Fang Qiu was just taking advantage of his good physical strength. Before the races, I have been trained for a long time, so my explosive power was not enough.

“Now, Fang Qiu has run twice, so his explosive power should almost be run out.

“Now, we are really at the same level!”

But no one expected that Fang Qiu was still as calm as before.

“Ready!”

Under the expectant gaze of everyone, Mr. Ma walked to the sideline and raised his right hand high.

“Bi—”

The whistle blew.

Mr. Ma's right hand swung suddenly.

At the starting line, Fang Qiu and Gao Fei rushed out in the standard posture at the same time.

This time.

Gao Fei was still very fast, but not as crazy as before. Instead, he peeked at Fang Qiu next to him.

But he found.

Fang Qiu's speed was still not slow, even faster than before.

Fang Qiu overtook him in a trice.

Gao Fei suddenly felt anxious inwardly.

But he couldn't care that much.

“Dash forward!”

Gao Fei suddenly exerted all his strength and used all the running skills at the same time, quickly chasing up.

However.

No matter how hard he chased, the distance between Fang Qiu and him was getting farther and farther.

This made Gao Fei completely desperate.

Not far away from here.

All the sports special students and Mr. Ma were all stunned.

Because they saw two totally different speeds.

Gao Fei was very fast.

He was so fast that they couldn't help raving.

But Fang Qiu was faster. He was so fast that he left Gao Fei behind instantly!

"It, it is too fast, isn't it?"

"Is he still a human? He is nothing less than a flying man!"

"My god, he is just faster than a rabbit!"

"Crap. Gao Fei will lose this time and he will lose to a student of the School of Chinese Medicine! The name of our sports special students will also be done for!"

"Isn't Fang Qiu a freshman? Isn't his speed too incredible? Didn't this fellow go to the sports high school?"

Everyone is shocked and stunned, their words full of horror!

For the first time in their lives, they saw someone who could run so fast.

At one side.

Mr. Ma also stared and flushed bright red with excitement.

“Genius. He is just an athletic genius!”

“His body, his pace, and his physical coordination are just perfect!”

As a college PE teacher.

Mr. Ma was very clear about human mechanics. He knew which muscles were needed to exert strength and knew what kind of physical cooperation was needed to achieve perfect coordination and thus enter the real running state.

“In that state.

“Every strength of the runner won’t be wasted and the exercise effect will be the best. Besides, the burden that the runner feels while running will be reduced.

“Everyone can achieve that state.

“But the premise is that a lot of exercises are needed.

“For example, when a person who loves running runs five kilometers, he will feel relaxed. When he runs five to ten kilometers, he will start to get tired. When he runs twenty kilometers, he will be exhausted. But if he continues and runs thirty kilometers, the runner will find that his body seems to be running mechanically, even it can’t be controlled by himself. If he continues running, he will find that the physical exhaustion will gradually decrease and then he will be energetic again.

“But in fact, it is because when a person is doing long running, every muscle of his body is gradually adapting to the running process.

“When he repeats the same movement for a certain number of times, his body will automatically divide the force according to this movement, thereby entering a perfect state of exercise.

“And Fang Qiu is just in this state.

“He doesn’t need to let his body adapt to the running process. His body can immediately enter this state as soon as he moves.

“Such a person, in the sports field, especially in the track field, is called a genius.

“Because other people need to spend a few years, even decades to barely control the state. But he is born with this ability.

“Isn’t this a genius?”

Mr. Ma was very excited and happy.

Because he found the person he was looking for!

A person who could bring him countless glory by speed and results!

But that time.

The race had become white-hot.

Fang Qiu had already arrived at the place that was only ten meters away from the finish line.

However.

Instead of rushing to complete the race, he stopped in place and turned his head to look at Gao Fei who was still 50 meters away, waiting with a smile.

At this moment, Gao Fei had already been furious.

His face went purple.

When he was twenty meters away from the finish line, Fang Qiu who was waiting for him suddenly smiled at him.

Fang Qiu made a movement, quickly passing the finish line.

The race was over.

Until Fang Qiu and Gao Fei had turned back, everyone was still in shock.

“He was waiting for Gao Fei just now?”

“Oh, my God. This is a burning shame. Gao Fei is actually reduced to being waited for?”

“Just now, he waited for at least a few seconds?”

“Where does this monster come from? His speed is so terrifying.”

The sports special students all looked at Fang Qiu as if looking at a monster.

“Announce the time.”

Mr. Ma's voice sounded.

Medical Master

Chapter 109: Got A Running Result That Could Rival Olympic's!

"Gao Fei, 45.21 seconds."

Hearing this result, all the people present including Mr. Ma were shocked.

"45.21 seconds?"

"So fast!"

Even Mr. Ma couldn't believe it.

"The record of 400-meter race at the National University Games is only 45.25 seconds, but Gao Fei unexpectedly broke the record!"

"It's just a miracle!"

Just when everyone was shocked.

"Fang Qiu, 44.11 seconds."

The timekeeper spoke again.

At this moment.

The whole playground quieted down.

“The Olympic 400m world record is 43.03 seconds!!!

“Fang Qiu unexpectedly spent 44.11 seconds!

“And this is based on the fact that he waited for Gao Fei for a while!!

“That is to say, Fang Qiu is qualified to participate in the Olympic Games and even compete for the Olympic champion!!!”

Everyone was stunned by the result.

They were fully shocked.

No one had expected Fang Qiu to get this result.

“This result...”

Gao Fei was totally dumbfounded and his mind was down.

He never thought Fang Qiu could get a running result that could rival Olympic’s.

“How could it be possible?

“It’s absolutely impossible!

“What’s the point if I broke the national record? My result is just nothing in the Olympics Games!

“A difference of a second is like between heaven and earth!”

At this moment, Gao Fei kind of doubted himself.

He doubted the point of all this training these years.

“I even can’t win an ordinary student!

“Is the training over the years all in vain???”

“I still have a business to do, so I’ll leave first.”

Fang Qiu said to Mr. Ma who was in surprise.

Before Mr. Ma said something, suddenly a word was heard.

“Hold on!”

All the people looked with astonishment at Gao Fei whose face was terribly gloomy.

They didn’t know why Gao Fei still spoke since he had lost three times.

Under the puzzled gaze of all the people, Gao Fei stared at Fang Qiu and said as he gritted his teeth,
“Another race! It will be the last time and it will be a 10,000-meter race!”

“Even if your explosive power is strong, I don’t believe your endurance is also strong!”

“Another race?”

All of them looked at Gao Fei who was a little out of control, falling into silence.

Gao Fei had got a quite heavy blow this time and his pride was almost destroyed.

The long-distance race was Gao Fei's strength and also his bottom line.

Once it was lost.

He would lose all his confidence.

Mr. Ma did not say anything but looked at Fang Qiu full of excitement, waiting for his answer.

All the sports special students were also staring at Fang Qiu.

They all hoped that Fang Qiu would take up the challenge of the 10,000-meter race.

They hoped Gao Fei to win once to prove the existence of their sports special students!

Like Gao Fei said.

Although Fang Qiu had won three times in a row, these three races were all sprints which were about explosive power. In these three races, Fang Qiu had proved how terrifying his explosive power was.

It was so terrifying that everyone took him as a monster.

“Judging from the explosive power, Fang Qiu has proved himself. But what if judging from high-intensity endurance?”

“Strong explosive power does not mean strong endurance!”

“There is a big difference between training and not training in endurance!”

“So there is a big chance for Gao Fei to win this race!”

“OK! As you wish.”

Said Fang Qiu as he nodded.

At the sound of this.

Everyone present became expectant.

Besides, Mr. Ma was extremely excited.

He had seen the result that he wanted to see, but unlike other students, he wanted to see what extent could Fang Qiu’s endurance arrive at and whether he could continue to win Gao Fei.

“Since you both agree, let’s do it again.”

Mr. Ma smiled and stood up. He said as he looked at Fang Qiu with a satisfied look, “Just take the previous few races as a warm-up. Don’t warm up because the 10,000-meter long-distance race is about to start. Ready to take your place.”

Fang Qiu and Gao Fei came to the starting line.

This time Gao Fei didn't look at Fang Qiu.

He stared forward.

He only focused ahead inwardly.

“Bi—”

A clear whistle blew.

The 10,000-meter long-distance race officially started.

This time, neither Fang Qiu nor Gao Fei rushed out but ran at a fairly fast speed.

Along the way, Gao Fei evenly breathed.

Fang Qiu, however, had begun to speed up gradually and quickly ran away, leaving Gao Fei behind.

But Gao Fei was not hurried.

“10,000-meter running is not that easy.

“It needs tactics!”

He was going to save strength for the last kilometer and overtook Fang Qiu.

After a lap.

Fang Qiu was faster.

Gao Fei also began to speed up, but not very much.

“Gao Fei deserves to be the representative of the track team. He has mastered the method of gradual improvement very well.”

“Yes. In the 10,000-meter long-distance running, he needs to divide his energy neatly. Once he overexerts the energy early, he will be weak later.”

“Fang Qiu has great explosive power as expected. After three laps, he still keeps speeding up.”

“It seems that Fang Qiu can’t win this time if he keeps running at this speed.”

“Why?”

“Look, although Fang Qiu has been continuing exerting strength, he has only run for three laps. Every lap has one kilometer and the race needs a total of ten laps. Although Gao Fei is falling behind a lap, his speed is gradually increasing. According to this trend, in the last two laps, he can certainly overtake Fang Qiu and even leave Fang Qiu way behind, directly crossing the line.”

Watching the two of them running, the sports special students all talked about it.

At one side.

Mr. Ma had been paying his attention to Fang Qiu and nodding his head secretly.

The race was still in progress.

The fourth lap. The fifth lap...

Halfway through the running, Fang Qiu had surpassed Gao Fei by two full laps and his speed was constantly increasing.

“Jesus! It has been five laps. How can Fang Qiu not even have any sign of slowing down?”

“He is so good at running!”

“Look at Gao Fei. Now he has only run for three laps. Although his speed has been raised, he still can’t keep up with Fang Qiu.”

“Don’t worry. When the fifth lap is finished, Gao Fei will really exert his strength.”

...

The sixth lap.

The seventh lap.

When Fang Qiu finished seven and a half laps, Gao Fei finally finished the first five laps. As the track team expected, just after the fifth lap, Gao Fei immediately speeded up and began to chase Fang Qiu.

At the same time.

Fang Qiu was running ahead of him.

Seeing Fang Qiu’s figure, Gao Fei snorted coldly while speeding up.

“You will see how I will leave you behind.”

...

“Gao Fei is starting to put forth his strength.”

“His speed has improved a lot indeed, but... I feel that he is still not as fast as Fang Qiu?”

“No way. Why does Fang Qiu speed up again?”

“How is Fang Qiu faster than Gao Fei?”

Looking at the two people on the track, the sports special students were all shocked as on-lookers.

Because they found.

Gao Fei's speed had risen to a very high level and now he was preparing for the final sprint. But Fang Qiu who kept speeding up was also accelerating again at the same time, faster than Gao Fei.

This scene made everyone dumbfounded.

“Having been running for so long, Fang Qiu can still accelerate again. He seems not tired at all. Isn't he too awesome?”

“Sure enough!”

Mr. Ma was very excited inwardly.

He had already found that the physical coordination of Fang Qiu had reached a perfect level. At that time, he had already guessed that because of the strong physical coordination, Fang Qiu's endurance should not be bad either. "Now it seems so and it's still far beyond my expectations."

Because Fang Qiu's speed was really too fast.

On the track.

"What?!"

Gao Fei, who instantly sped up and was ready to chase and overtake Fang Qiu, however, found that the distance between Fang Qiu and him was farther away.

This surprised him.

His breathing was immediately disordered.

But he couldn't care that much.

"Dash forward!"

He didn't dare to slack off again but immediately broke out all the strength, chasing up crazily.

But ahead.

Fang Qiu was still accelerating.

"It has been eight laps. Fang Qiu should slow down."

"What? He is still speeding up?!"

“My goodness, is the speed of the first few laps his lowest speed?”

“It has been nine laps. Fang Qiu begins to sprint.”

“Gao Fei has only run for six and a half laps.”

“Fang Qiu has accelerated again and his speed is as fast as when he ran in the 400-meter.”

“He is just a monster!”

On the grass surrounded by the track, all the onlookers were shocked.

They thought that in the last two laps, Fang Qiu would slow down because of the lack of physical strength. But what they saw was the totally opposite situation.

Not only did Fang Qiu not slow down, but also he accelerated.

“After running eight kilometers.

“Fang Qiu actually has the strength to accelerate?”

Having been dumbfounded, all of them just saw Fang Qiu rush past the finish line at nearly terrifying speed.

At this moment.

All the people were shocked and dumbfounded, even including Mr. Ma.

No one could use words to express their shock. They could only open their mouths wide, looking at Fang Qiu in disbelief.

After a long time.

All the people turned their eyes.

But they saw that Gao Fei had stopped. He was sitting on the track like a deflated ball with his head deeply down.

He was so depressed.

“Fang Qiu has finished 10,000-meter running.

“But I have only run seven kilometers.

“During the same period, Fang Qiu could run ten thousand meters, but I could only run seven kilometers. The gap between us is very obvious.

“As a track special student, should I get this result?”

At the moment when he found that he could not catch up with Fang Qiu, he had given up.

He completely gave up.

Fang Qiu’s performance was like a sudden rainstorm, completely extinguishing the flame of anger in his heart.

Of course.

It was far more than that.

Gao Fei had always been proud of his identity as a track special student and the first ranking of running in the university.

But now.

His pride and arrogance were all destroyed by Fang Qiu mercilessly.

“Failed!

“I completely failed!

“Why?

“Why is it on earth?”

Sitting on the track, Gao Fei kept crying.

He kept asking himself “why on earth” in his heart.

“Why couldn’t I win an ordinary student after practicing for so many years?

“I’m a track special student. I’m a special student!”

Thinking of the hardships and pain he had been suffering these years, he was dispirited.

“Having put in so much work and suffered so many years’ hardships, all these practices from dawn to night have been in vain.

“I couldn’t even win a student of the School of Chinese Medicine in running!”

Gao Fei was desperate.

His most confident and proud specialty was just torn by Fang Qiu mercilessly.

He sat alone there like a deflated balloon.

Fang Qiu took a look at Gao Fei when he finished.

He went straight over.

Medical Master

Chapter 110: The Tools That Are Used By The University!

All the sports special students and Mr. Ma who had been watching the races in the distance all ran over.

The shock in everyone’s heart had just dissipated. They all didn’t care how long Fang Qiu had run.

They only knew that Fang Qiu had won.

They sighed for Gao Fei inwardly.

“Fang Qiu.”

Just as Fang Qiu walked in front of Gao Fei, Mr. Ma who trotted over all the way grabbed Fang Qiu’s shoulder with great excitement and said, “Very good. You are very good! As the head coach of the School of Sports, I am now officially inviting you to join us. I hope that you can join our track team and participate in the Provincial Sports Meeting on behalf of our university in one month to win glory for our university!”

“I’m wondering if you will agree or not?”

“He is inviting Fang Qiu to join?”

The sports special students around were dumbfounded as they heard that. Then they all sighed with emotions.

“Fang Qiu will definitely win glory for our university with this kind of result.”

“Join us!”

“That’s right. You are so awesome that it will be a pity if you don’t join the track team.”

“Yes. Yes. Our track team welcomes you!”

All of them persuaded.

Fang Qiu had conquered them with his strength.

But no one had ever noticed Gao Fei who was sitting aside with his face down.

Only Fang Qiu kept looking at Gao Fei.

Without any joy of victory but with sympathetic eyes.

Especially when Mr. Ma invited him to join the track team to win glory for the university.

His sympathy was more.

Alas!

He heaved a sigh.

Fang Qiu looked up at Mr. Ma and asked a little coldly, "Mr. Ma, I want to ask you a question. If these sports special students win glory for the university at the sports meeting, will the university assign jobs to them after they graduate?"

Mr. Ma who was waiting with excitement for Fang Qiu's consent was dumbfounded as he heard that.

"No."

Replied Mr. Ma with confusion.

"This is common sense!"

"So what benefit can they get if they win glory for our university?"

Fang Qiu continued to ask.

Mr. Ma was dumbfounded.

All the sports special students around were also dumbfounded.

"Benefit?"

“Yes. As sports special students, no matter how hard the training is, we will participate on time in order to win glory for the university at the sports meeting.

“But since we are working so hard, is there any reward?

“Yes.

“We can show off after taking a place.

“But overall.

“It seems no!

“They win glory for the university, which is good either for the university or for you, but it does no good to themselves. They have wasted so much studying time in practicing various sports hard and win glory for the university full of zeal, but they will finally get nothing except for the loss of their youth. Even so, you can’t provide them with a path to the future, which is the most basic thing.”

As Fang Qiu said this, he suddenly smiled.

He said as he smiled in anger, “They have put in so much hard work and even paid their own college tuition to win glory for the university and you! What’s the result after running and winning glory? There is no result!”

Mr. Ma was dumbfounded.

All the sports special students around were dumbfounded.

About this... they had never thought about it.

“Just like now.”

Fang Qiu reached out to point at Gao Fei who was sitting on the ground and said, "Before I won him, he was your favorite. But now I have won him and he is feeling depressed alone. However, you don't even look at him. Instead, you are inviting me. Is honor really so important that it makes you inhuman?"

Hearing this.

Mr. Ma's face immediately clouded.

"Inhuman?"

"This is nothing less than an abuse!"

The sports special students were shocked indeed.

Looking at Gao Fei, everyone was lost in deep thought with a wry smile.

"Yes!"

"Is honor so important?"

"Is it really worthwhile to waste our youth for an honor that will ultimately belong to the school?"

"Gao Fei, I don't know why you are so confident and proud just because you can run fast."

Fang Qiu looked at Gao Fei who was sitting on the ground and said, "Can you find a job because of running fast? Can you set up a company or become a PE teacher because of running fast?"

"You can't do all of these, even the PE teacher!"

“You are just the tools that are used by the university.”

Fang Qiu looked at all the sports special students present.

“There are some things that I hope you to think out. Why are you going to do them and whether is it worth to do so? Because your youth is only once!”

After that, he turned his head to look at Mr. Ma and said, “Sorry, I won’t waste my time on running.”

“What’s more, if I participate, what about these people who have put in so much hard work! The qualifications for the game and good results should be theirs. These are what they deserve to get, not me!”

After that, he turned back to the starting line and left with the lockbox.

Only left the sports special students who were lost in deep thought and Mr. Ma who went purple in the face.

Fang Qiu truly felt pity and sorry for the sports special students

Before he went to college, he had heard about the sports special students, most of whom could not find a job after graduation.

“Even if the college gives them a degree in management or other related degrees, it still doesn’t help if they don’t have abilities.

“They will be eliminated by society sooner or later.

“Almost all the sports special student won’t do sports-related work.

“Those who can have good jobs are from rich families.

“Maybe others think that sports special students can go to college with fewer scores, but they can’t sacrifice all their college time to win glory for others because of this!

“Wake up!

“Spare more time to improve your various skills and qualities!”

This was what Fang Qiu truly hoped.

On the playground.

As Fang Qiu left, all the sports special students were lost in deep thought.

It seemed that they hadn’t thought about this problem at all before.

They felt that they were happy and fulfilling every day.

If it wasn’t for Fang Qiu who mentioned it, perhaps only after graduation, they would just realize that their precious youth had gone.

“Is training really so important?

“Is it really so important to run faster than others?”

They thought that it was necessary to make it out.

Gao Fei, sitting on the ground, stared blankly.

Mr. Ma could only darken his face without any word.

He knew what Fang Qiu said was true.

But he couldn't admit it!

Because he needed good results to get honors and senior titles!

“The university has provided good education to the sports special students. Who can be to blame if they don't study hard!”

However, he didn't plan to let go of Fang Qiu.

“It will be a pity if he doesn't win glory for the university with such a good result!”

I can't persuade him, but I can go to the leader. If the leader knows that Fang Qiu is so awesome, he will definitely be interested.

“How will you refuse by then, Fang Qiu?”

Here.

After leaving the playground, Fang Qiu returned directly to the dormitory.

At this moment, his mood didn't appear to swing because of winning Gao Fei. On the contrary, he looked unusually calm. For him, the race between Gao Fei and him was just a small episode in life.

There was no one in the room.

Zhou Xiaotian had sent a message to Fang Qiu, saying that he would return to the university after playing tomorrow.

Fang Qiu closed the door and put the lockbox with three hundred thousand yuan inside in the closet which was next to the desk and under the bed.

The furnishings in the room were very simple.

There were two high beds with only upper berths respectively beside the left and right walls. Between the two beds was a wooden ladder like a stack of boxes that were piled up. Under each bed, there were a wardrobe and a duplex desk that was integrated with a bookcase.

After putting the money away.

Fang Qiu took a book out of the bookcase and then gently jumped up to sit on the bed directly.

Since there was no one in the room, he could do whatever he wanted.

“The 100th time.”

While lying down, Fang Qiu opened the book “Inner Canon of the Yellow Emperor” in his hand and began to study it again and again.

At the school gate.

And at the same time.

Outside the university.

A black off-road vehicle, with a low roar, quickly rushed to University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine like a roaring beast and stopped at the university gate.

Li Ji and Luo Shu got off the car.

Then they opened the rear door. Inside the car, there was a police dog with black and yellow fur and an army green cloth rope around its neck.

“Shall we just go inside while walking the police dog?”

Luo Shu said as he pulled the police dog, “Isn’t this inappropriate? If someone sees us, he will think that we come to the university for arrest and investigation. If the reputation of the university is damaged by the time, we will be in big trouble.”

“Or shall we drive in?”

Li Ji suggested.

“Luo Shu is right.

“Who walks a police dog in the university in free time?”

What’s more, they came here with some purposes. Once they were seen by the university leaders, it would be really difficult for them to explain.

“You should say that early, otherwise, I won’t park my car here.”

Luo Shu gave Li Ji a look.

“I forgot it just now.”

Li Ji embarrassedly smiled.

In a short while.

Li Ji, holding the police dog, sat in the co-pilot's seat. Luo Shu drove the car directly toward Yaowang Mountain after entering the university.

They came to Yaowang Mountain.

Li Ji got off the car directly, led the police dog, and quickly ran to the back of the big tree where Fang Qiu was that morning. Then he let the police dog begin to smell.

As a result.

The police dog smelled for a long time, but it did not smell anything.

“Are you sure it's here?”

Asked Luo Shu as he looked at Li Ji.

“I'm certainly sure.”

Li Ji nodded with absolute certainty and said, “I still remember that he was standing in this place and we were hiding there. No sooner did he appear than he gave us a cold look.”

“Why can't the police dog smell it? Could the smell of the mysterious man has dissipated after so long?”

Luo Shu murmured.

“It's drizzly seemingly these two days...”

Li Ji checked his phone.

Hearing that.

Luo Shu immediately gave Li Ji a look.

“How long has it been? And it’s also drizzling. No wonder the police dog has no response. It will be strange if it can smell it.”

“What should we do now?”

Luo Shu asked gloomily.

“No hurry.”

Li Ji thought for a while and said, “We have asked for a leave of five days anyway. We can stay at the university for five days, waiting for the mysterious man come out and catching him!”

Luo Shu nodded and then left as he took the police dog on the car.

That night.

At 2:30 am.

Li Ji and Luo Shu took the police dog to Yaowang Mountain again. They found some secluded grass and lied prone. They each held a military thermal imaging night-vision viewer and began to look around.

Very soon.
