Chapter 1281: Ten Gurus!

“Slaughter?”

When he heard this, Fang Qiu, who was about to escape, stopped instantly.

At this time...

“Whoosh.”

As expected, one of the six Nirvana gurus moved and instantly darted off at an astonishing speed.

Fang Qiu looked in the direction where he went.

Shockingly, he headed for the Hippo tribe!

“Damn it!”

With a cold snort in his heart, Fang Qiu ignored the five Nirvana gurus who were about to surround him. Instead, he shifted aside and summoned forth all his strength.

Like a heavy iron ball fired from a cannon, he shot toward the man who was flying away.

Here...

The five people discerned his intention.

In unison, they rushed at Fang Qiu as they attempted to stop him!

However...

They weren't fast enough.

Even Venerables couldn't catch up with Fang Qiu. As incompetent gurus, how could they make it?

A few seconds later...

Fang Qiu darted toward the back of the guru who was on his way to slaughter the tribes. With a wave of his right hand, he mobilized all his internal Qi and gathered forth an all-conquering Qi power that delivered a mighty punch to the guru's head from behind him.

But right at this moment...

The guru abruptly flashed aside to dodge his attack. Then he immediately summoned all his strength to stall John Doe while waiting for the five companions behind them to catch up.

However...

Fang Qiu would show no leniency toward him.

"Die!"

The second the man turned around, Fang Qiu pounced on him. He swung his right arm and raised his fist wrapped in immense energy and mercilessly shoved his fist into the man's abdomen like dropping a bomb.

“Bang!”

There was a loud sound.

The guru had just released all his Qi power, but when Fang Qiu’s punch fell, his eyes bulged like that of a toad. As he looked at Fang Qiu, his eyes narrowed sharply. The tremendous force from Fang Qiu’s fist didn’t send him flying. Instead, it ran through him, as the impact was focused on one point.

His lower abdomen looked fine and was not even bruised.

But...

The considerable force that passed through his body shattered his Dantian, viscera, and everything else in there.

Before the guru could gasp in shock...

He collapsed to the ground and lost all his vitality!

Just then...

“Swish, swish, swish...”

The harsh sounds of something breaking through the air came.

The five gurus caught up with them at lightning speed, rushed up to Fang Qiu, and besieged him.

Without pause...

They surrounded Fang Qiu and launched an all-out offensive against him. From five different directions, they frantically attacked Fang Qiu with incomparably fierce energy Qi.

“Oh, crap.”

Fang Qiu burned with anxiety.

He could kill a guru with ease. Finishing off two gurus was not difficult for him, and he could seek every opportunity to wipe out three gurus. But how could he win when there were four or five gurus?

A boxing expert hardly needed to break out in a sweat to defeat ten ordinary people. Also, he could easily handle another boxer who was slightly weaker than him. But if he fought against five people alone, wouldn't he be beaten to death?

No matter how peerless he was, he couldn't fight against hopeless odds!

Besides, they were experts who were at the same level as him.

This desperate situation struck fear into his heart.

Fang Qiu quickly turned around as he tried to search for an opening to break the siege.

But before he could find a way out, the five gurus had already come near and charged at him.

There came continuous sounds of crackling.

Five different kinds of energy smashed wildly into him, each of which carried devastating energy Qi — they were delivering vital blows to bring Fang Qiu down!

“Damn it!”

With a curse in his heart, Fang Qiu unleashed a layer of internal Qi, which condensed into an energy shield around him. Meanwhile, he summoned his Divine Sword and slashed hard at the most potent guru. When the sword Qi erupted, he quickly turned around to resist the attacks coming from other directions.

However...

These energy attacks came rapidly. Even though Fang Qiu had tried his best to react, he failed to block all these blows in the first place!

“Bang, bang, bang...”

His sword Qi ward off one attack, and he waved his sword to block another. Fang Qiu dodged nimbly and managed to avoid the danger.

But just as he escaped unscathed...

Streams of energy from the three parties collided with each other. Immediately, an exceedingly lethal energy Qi erupted and instantly caused an explosion.

The eruption of the all-out energy from the three gurus collided with each other!

Even Fang Qiu couldn't get himself out of this without avoiding getting injured.

“Boom!”

Following a loud explosion, Fang Qiu was knocked into the air by the terrifying energy Qi caused by the collision of the three energy streams.

Fortunately, with his energy shield, Fang Qiu only suffered a slight injury.

In the next moment...

“Whoosh, whoosh, whoosh...”

The five gurus lost no time in surrounding him again and launched a new round of fierce attacks!

Fang Qiu’s face clouded over.

He quickly put the backpack on his back to his chest to protect the pills. Then he summoned all his strength and frantically fought against the vicious attacks of the five people.

However...

The five of them were overly cunning.

They wouldn’t get anywhere near Fang Qiu. Each time they were within two meters of Fang Qiu, they would deliver a nasty blow, slashing at Fang Qiu with their powerful energy Qi. Then they withdrew quickly.

They repeatedly assaulted and retreated.

Fang Qiu could only focus on resisting their attacks. When they released their energy, they were very close to Fang Qiu. Therefore, he could hardly keep himself away from their attacks. The only way was to block them head-on.

In this case...

Even if Fang Qiu had plenty of chances to fight back, his counterattacks would be knocked away by their strikes.

“Withstand the attacks of four gurus, and kill one first!”

They exchanged dozens of moves.

The anger in Fang Qiu’s heart soared.

He knew that if it went on like this, he would be exhausted to death, no matter how sufficient internal Qi he had.

Moreover, judging from the current situation, Fang Qiu knew Nirvana Organization must have begun a large-scale search for him. Now five gurus came at him. If he delayed any longer, there might be six, seven, eight, or even more gurus!

At that time, he would be screwed.

Thus, he had to end the battle quickly!

Seized by a sense of urgency...

Fang Qiu secretly gathered all his internal Qi and locked onto one guru with his Divine Consciousness. Just as this guru rushed forward to launch a fierce attack, Fang Qiu suddenly sent out an overwhelming burst of sword Qi to take him down.

“Bang!”

When the man saw this, he flashed aside to dodge.

After all, he was a guru. Although Fang Qiu’s sudden and violent outburst caught him off guard, he managed to stay away from most of the sword Qi. The sword Qi didn’t hit him head-on, but his whole arm was cut off with a crack.

And over at this end...

“Clap, clap, clap...”

The fierce attacks of the other four gurus landed on Fang Qiu ruthlessly.

One mighty force came after another. The four beams of energy shattered Fang Qiu’s shield of internal Qi and thumped against Fang Qiu before exploding with a bang.

The collision of four energy streams caused a terrifying explosive force, which instantly sent Fang Qiu flying.

“Clatter.”

On the verge of falling onto the ground, Fang Qiu turned around and immediately stabilized himself. He landed on his feet and looked grimly at the five gurus. His throat moved, and he couldn’t help but open his mouth and spat out a mouthful of blood.

Seeing this...

The five gurus exchanged glances, their eyes glittering.

Once again, they resumed their joint fierce attacks.

At this sight...

Fang Qiu gritted his teeth and quickly stepped back.

In such a situation, the only thing he could do was flee!

Fortunately...

He had killed the guru who was going to slaughter the tribes. As long as he led the remaining five people away, those tribes would be temporarily safe.

If he didn't lure these people away, the tribes on the grassland would inevitably become Nirvana Organization's targets. At that time, all the people in those tribes would die!

Fang Qiu had no option but to slow down when escaping.

If he tried his best to escape, he could get rid of all the five gurus in a short time, but he didn't dare to do that.

Once he shook off the five gurus and these people couldn't get him, they would turn to attack the tribes.

This was contrary to Fang Qiu's original intention!

If the lives of people in the tribes on the grassland had not been at stake, he would have escaped long ago. How could he have been injured?

"Lure them away first. Then I must make a breakthrough in a quiet place to become a guru!"

As he ran, Fang Qiu thought to himself.

Since he had just become a Half-step Guru after his re-cultivation, he couldn't fight against so many gurus. In Africo, a great many people were determined to hunt him down. In the following days, he would have to face many more enemies than these few gurus!

He couldn't avoid it, so he could only confront the challenge.

The only way to deal with this crisis head-on was to break through and become a guru!

Once he became a recultivated guru, he would no longer fear these unqualified gurus and dared to fight no matter how many of them came at him!

With the Seven-storey Tower he obtained from the relic, he only needed a quiet and safe place to break through and reach the Guru Realm.

On the grassland, a hair-raising cat-and-mouse game was going on!

While he made his getaway, Fang Qiu would soon lead these people away from the grassland.

Abruptly...

“Swish, swish, swish...”

Another wave of ear-piercing sounds tore through the air.

He turned his eyes and looked around.

Four more people rushed over from four different directions.

“More gurus!”

Fang Qiu’s face instantly turned deathly pale.

Five gurus were chasing after them, but now four more gurus were coming fast.

Moreover...

Judging from their auras, none of them were Venerables!

How many such gurus did Nirvana Organization have?

Fang Qiu was greatly taken aback in his heart.

At the same time, he felt a great sense of crisis.

Nine gurus...

Although he had chopped off the arm of one guru, he would die under the siege of nine gurus!

Would he resign himself to this tragic end?

Of course not!

Fang Qiu reached his top speed as he tried to shake off all these people.

Unfortunately, it was already too late.

“Whoosh, whoosh, whoosh...”

Amid the whizzing sounds and before Fang Qiu could fly out, the nine people had already surrounded him.

“Phew, phew...”

Panting heavily, Fang Qiu loosened his right hand and brandished the Divine Sword in his hand.

The nine people saw this.

They eagerly jumped on him.

They did not want to give Fang Qiu any chance to survive!

“Grand Hand of Destruction!”

When the nine people attacked, Fang Qiu immediately unleashed the most potent power, attracting all the Qi of Heaven and Earth within dozens of kilometers around him in an instant, which then condensed into a protective layer of internal Qi around him.

When the nine people approached him...

“Great Hand of Formlessness!”

“Explode!”

A furious roar was heard.

Fang Qiu suddenly threw a palm strike.

It was a combined attack of the Great Hand of Destruction and Great Hand of Formlessness.

In an instant, a terrifying energy erupted, which shocked everyone. The blast sent a giant mushroom cloud into the air that violently knocked everyone back.

After pushing all the people far away, Fang Qiu made his getaway, leaving a shadow as he quickly fled into the distance.

Chapter 1282: The Great Escape in Africon Savannah!

“Pitter-patter...”

Fang Qiu dashed out of the encirclement swiftly. Just as he distanced himself from the nine people behind him, he heard the sound of rain falling heavily.

Although Fang Qiu was injured, he didn't consume much internal Qi.

In the rainstorm...

Fang Qiu quickly activated his internal Qi to protect all the pills in the backpack. After that, he flew off toward the south without looking back.

Using this explosive strike, he blasted the nine gurus far away.

But...

The explosion was not powerful enough to disable the gurus and they continued chasing after him.

Thereafter, Fang Qiu didn't dare to stop at all. He exerted every ounce of his energy and zipped away at full speed. Meanwhile, he spread out his Divine Consciousness to explore the surroundings within 50 kilometers. If he detected any tribe, he would avoid flying near it in advance.

He didn't want to get those tribes into trouble.

If he passed by a tribe, the nine gurus of Nirvana Organization chasing after him would definitely conduct a search among the tribe and kill them!

Not forgetting...

They had planned to massacre the grassland tribes.

In addition to avoiding these tribes, Fang Qiu would leave a little energy aura along the way to lead them to him.

Fang Qiu was injured but had to check his surroundings and protect the pills. Focused on several tasks, he inadvertently slowed down in the air.

And behind him...

The nine people who had been sent flying caught up with him quickly.

Seeing this...

Fang Qiu felt slightly relieved in his heart.

Since these people found them, it meant that they hadn't attacked the tribes on the grassland.

They would soon be leaving the vicinity of the grassland.

As soon as he left the grassland, Fang Qiu would find a way to get rid of them completely!

"Whoosh, whoosh, whoosh..."

Sounds of gurus passing through the air lingered incessantly on.

A group of gurus...

They followed Fang Qiu, moving rapidly forward. Soon, they rushed into the area full of wild animals where grassland and rainforest met.

Unexpectedly...

As soon as he entered this territory...

Fang Qiu saw a large group made up of different kinds of animals running wildly to the south in the distance.

“The great migration of wild animals?”

Seeing this, Fang Qiu struck upon a bright idea. He glanced at the nine people behind him and moved toward these animals during their migration.

When he reached the site, Fang Qiu landed among these wild beasts without hesitation.

Soon...

The nine gurus also rushed up and followed Fang Qiu into the group of wild animals.

At this time...

Fang Qiu, who had dropped into the midst of the animals first, moved fast and found a wildebeest. Secretly, he pressed himself against its belly and completely hid his aura.

The nine gurus followed Fang Qiu’s aura all the way here. But just as they flew into the midst of the wild animals, they lost track of his aura.

This time...

The nine people immediately frowned. They quickly dispersed to look for him.

However, since there were a large number of animals, they could only scatter in all directions, and each looked for Fang Qiu in one direction.

Coincidentally...

The guru, whose arm had been cut off by Fang Qiu, moved toward Fang Qiu's direction.

With his Divine Consciousness, Fang Qiu noticed him and secretly began to run his internal Qi.

The man stepped on the wildebeest's back and rushed past above Fang Qiu. Abruptly, Fang Qiu swung himself from the wildebeest's belly to its back. Then, he gently patted the beast's back with his palm and immediately rose into the air, carrying a mighty blast of energy Qi. Then he threw a powerful punch onto the back of the man who had lost an arm.

Fang Qiu had cut off the guru's arm. Besides, the huge explosion he caused violently knocked the guru back. After these injuries, the guru had weakened considerably. Worse still, with a great many wild beasts galloping around him, he could hardly concentrate.

When he felt a blast of energy Qi coming from behind him, Fang Qiu's fist had already landed heavily on his back.

In the next second...

"Bang!"

There was a resounding thud.

A spray of implausibly powerful energy Qi erupted from Fang Qiu's fist and brutally blew the guru into the distance.

The moment he fell to the ground, the guru who had already lost an arm, was seriously injured and was dying. Before he could struggle to get up, he was trampled by countless beasts passing by.

No one helped him up.

The guru was crushed and mangled beyond recognition when all the wild beasts rushed past.

Within the pack of beasts...

Fang Qiu's sudden burst of power immediately attracted the attention of the other eight gurus.

They reacted quickly.

Rapidly, they fought their way to Fang Qiu and tried to surround him from eight different directions.

But when they came closer...

Fang Qiu vanished.

He was not a fool.

Right after he put the one-armed guru to death, Fang Qiu blended into the crowd of beasts again and ran in a different direction by moving rapidly among the animals.

In a threatening manner, the eight gurus rushed up to him.

They were eager to teach Fang Qiu a good lesson, but he was nowhere to be found.

This sudden change upset the eight people.

“Let me do it!”

Before the eight gurus slaughtered all the animals, one of them suddenly spoke up.

“Screech...”

An ear-piercing cry of an eagle came out of his wide-open mouth. Layers of sound waves surged out of his mouth.

As soon as this sound rang out...

These wild animals were scared and rushed away quickly.

They fled like frightened wild horses.

Regardless of everything, each one kept running ahead madly.

In just a minute or so...

This massive tide of beasts split into many groups, moving fast and in all directions.

After this...

The huge herd of beasts became less densely packed.

Each of the eight gurus kept a wary eye in one direction, as they looked around carefully for Fang Qiu.

And over here...

Fang Qiu chose a few large buffaloes and hid directly under their bellies, moving along with these buffaloes that were dashing about madly.

Their gazes swept around the area.

But the eight gurus couldn't find any trace of John Doe.

On the spot...

The eight of them discussed for a while.

To avoid another sneak attack from John Doe, they divided themselves into four teams, each of which had two gurus. The four groups set off to look for Fang Qiu in four directions. If any of them found Fang Qiu, they would send a signal.

Here...

Fang Qiu, hiding under the buffalo's belly, still locked the eight gurus with his Divine Consciousness.

After he found they had paired off...

He was a little stunned.

He had wanted to take this opportunity and wipe out two more gurus. However, on second thought, these gurus would be more cautious after his previous swift action, although he could kill two gurus.

It shouldn't be as easy as before to ambush and kill them.

In this situation...

Once his attack was blocked by the other party...

The other six gurus would rush over as fast as possible. Then it would be troublesome.

At the thought of this...

Fang Qiu forcibly suppressed the urge to kill. Secretly, he mobilized his internal Qi to cover the buffalo herd. By constantly stimulating them, he kept them running wildly all the way.

After a while...

The herd of buffaloes came to a river bank.

After Fang Qiu withdrew his internal Qi, the buffalo herd finally calmed down a little. They went straight into the river and began to drink water.

Unexpectedly...

As soon as they were in the river...

Fang Qiu saw a few crocodiles there.

Obviously...

These crocodiles had been hiding in advance, ready to hunt.

Although wild buffaloes were very strong...

A whole group of crocodiles could easily drag a buffalo to the bottom of the river.

The moment he spotted these crocodiles...

Fang Qiu immediately left the buffalo's belly and quickly isolated the pills in his backpack from the water with his internal Qi. Then, he swam toward the riverbed.

Right now...

The herd of buffaloes had been ambushed by the crocodiles.

Most of the buffaloes thrashed about wildly in the water. After swimming rapidly to the shore, they shook their heads and swung their tails to throw the crocodiles off.

However, one of the buffaloes had been besieged by four crocodiles.

It was attacked because...

This buffalo had been running wildly with Fang Qiu all the way. After the mad rush, it didn't have as much strength as its companions. As Fang Qiu was under its belly, it walked into the river and swam much more slowly than others.

That was how it ended up like this.

Of course...

Fang Qiu didn't intervene.

After swimming quickly to the river bottom, he sat cross-legged, closed his eyes, and prepared to make a breakthrough.

He had just closed his eyes.

The internal Qi in him slowly flowed out.

As soon as the internal Qi emerged, the crocodiles that were besieging the buffalo were suddenly pinned down and couldn't move. Seizing this chance, the buffalo swam quickly to the other side of the river, shook its body, and hurriedly left.

The buffalo successfully crossed the river.

All the crocodiles floated motionlessly on the water as if they were dead. Although they knew that food was under the water, they did not dare to approach it.

They could sense the aura of death from Fang Qiu!

At the bottom of the river...

Fang Qiu held his breath with his eyes closed.

He was once a guru and had made a breakthrough, so breaking through to the Guru Realm was not difficult for Fang Qiu at all.

However...

Although he was already a guru before re-cultivation, there was a difference between re-cultivation and the first cultivation: the re-cultivation emphasized the expansion of meridians.

If he was determined to become a guru through re-cultivation...

He would have to maximize his strength before he made the breakthrough.

His body should match these wide meridians after re-cultivation. Only in this way could he become a recultivated guru!

In the cold river water...

Fang Qiu kept a cool head. No longer caring about the situation outside, he withdrew all his Divine Consciousness and only left some to deter the crocodiles in the river.

With the withdrawal of his Divine Consciousness...

Fang Qiu's aura stabilized completely.

"Next, I'll draw the Qi of Heaven and Earth."

Fang Qiu shouted in his heart.

He immediately closed his eyes and concentrated on absorbing the Qi of Heaven and Earth.

Of course...

This time, he didn't create any vortex or anything like that. Although the river could hinder the Qi of Heaven and Earth, its effect was limited to the control and use of Qi of Heaven and Earth.

The Qi of Heaven and Earth to be absorbed was like an electric current — it could pass through lots of things. The Qi of Heaven and Earth to be used was like a battery, which existed like a material object. The two kinds of Qi of Heaven and Earth were totally different.

Hence...

Fang Qiu could easily absorb the Qi of Heaven and Earth, even in the water.

Soon...

As soon as Fang Qiu applied his technique, the Qi of Heaven and Earth continuously merged into the current. Taking the water flow as a conductor, it kept seeping into Fang Qiu's body.

In the process...

Fang Qiu took out Seven-storey Tower from his backpack and took a massive quick swallow.

Medical Master

Chapter 1283: Breaking Through to the Guru Realm!

"Gurgle, gurgle..."

From the muddy riverbed, a few bubbles floated and passed by Fang Qiu's eyes.

However...

Fang Qiu did not see them.

He was currently assimilating the Qi of Heaven and Earth, which gushed through every inch of his body!

In his mouth, the Seven-storey Tower had been chewed into pieces, which then turned into a stream of warm current that flowed down his throat and entered his body.

The Seven-storey Tower ranked nine on the list of Heaven Treasures and it contained abundant energy, which was exceptionally pure and unique.

The Seven-storey Tower did not look any different from other herbs but it had a vibrant aura of life.

Because of the vigorous aura of life, the Seven-storey Tower could continuously grow in the same place.

Under normal circumstances...

Once they were picked, most Heaven Treasures would disappear and show up in other places because they could not be duplicated.

Of course, there were also some exceptional cases.

For example, there were the Three Lives of Earth Treasure and the Seven-storey Tower in the ancient relic.

It contained a large amount of life energy. So, even if it matured and was picked, it would gradually grow and eventually bloom again as long as a small part of the root remained!

Its unflagging energy could boost the growth of all Heaven Treasures and greatly help cultivators.

Compared to other types of energy, life energy could heal the human body and significantly strengthen it.

After all...

What the human body needs most was life energy!

The Seven-storey Tower transformed into energy and flowed down his throat.

It instantly surged into Fang Qiu's wound, nourishing it. The injury was healing. Meanwhile, under the guidance of the Qi of Heaven and Earth that Fang Qiu had just gained, the remaining energy was constantly flowing through every inch of Fang Qiu's body, including his meridians, blood and flesh, bones, and so on.

When the energy flowed into him, Fang Qiu felt very comfortable.

It was as though every cell in his body had been cleansed, and all the pores had been stretched to welcome the energy.

Soon, Fang Qiu was immersed in this supremely joyful state.

Outside the river...

On one side was the rainforest, and on the other side were the wild animals.

Since herds of wild beasts had just moved over, no animal was at the riverside.

But it was visible that...

Several large crocodiles were floating motionlessly on the river!

Abruptly...

"Whoosh, whoosh, whoosh..."

Whizzing sounds could be heard.

From both ends of the river, eight figures rushed over quickly.

Eventually, they gathered at the riverside, where the footprints of wild buffaloes could be seen.

“We’ve checked the other animal groups, except for the beasts in this place.”

“I’ve examined the area where the footprints of the buffalo herd appeared. There was no sign of any aura there. I found no human footprints and other useful clues.”

“Not long ago, I sensed a strange flicker of energy fluctuation here. However, I didn’t discover anything unusual when I rushed over.”

“Are we going to let him go just like this?”

The eight of them frowned, their faces gloomy.

At this time...

“Something’s not right!”

One of them surveyed the surroundings again. Suddenly, he stepped forward, pointed to the crocodiles floating on the river, and said, “When I passed here just now, I saw these crocodiles. And now, they are still in the same place and haven’t moved at all.”

As soon as he said that...

The eight gurus immediately turned to look at the crocodiles in the river.

The gurus stared intently at them.

Sure enough, the crocodiles floated motionlessly on the water.

“Weird.”

One of them immediately frowned and said, “Crocodiles in Africo are different from those in other places. The environment here is exceedingly good, so many wild animals live there, and crocodiles here are particularly fierce. Not to mention humans, they will also jump up and attack the lions. A crocodile even dares to prey on a lion, and there is a group of such crocodiles in this river.”

Upon hearing his words...

Everyone noticed that something was wrong.

Since crocodiles here even had the guts to attack lions, how could they fear people?

The eight of them were standing by the riverbank. Usually, these crocodiles would have pounced on them instantly. However, these crocodiles had not moved even a muscle since they arrived here.

They were not out hunting for prey. Instead, they seemed to be suppressed by something and couldn't move!

In Africon Savannah, what could scare these crocodiles and render them motionless?

Besides...

They were within their territory!

For a moment, all eight people focused on the water.

“Hiding in the water?”

“He is so good at hiding!”

“Let’s see if my strike can drive him out!”

“Wait a minute.”

“Everyone, get ready. John Doe is overly cunning. We must be fully prepared and take him down in one go!

Even as they spoke...

All eight of them began to make preparations.

After a while...

They were ready.

The eight gurus split up into two groups. Four people stood on each side of the river. They mobilized all their internal Qi, ready to attack at the same time — they would blast the river and force Fang Qiu, who was hiding at the bottom of the river, out.

At this time...

In the depths of the river...

Fang Qiu, who had been cultivating with his eyes closed, suddenly opened his eyes and sneered.

After this short period of cultivation, he had healed his previous injury with the life energy of the Seven-storey Tower!

Moreover...

Under the impact of the Qi of Heaven and Earth and the life energy of the Seven-storey Tower, Fang Qiu successfully made a breakthrough and became a guru. Not merely did his meridians expand by thirty percent again, but his flesh and bones had also been greatly strengthened!

In the past, Fang Qiu had guru-level strength and realm. But now, it could be said that every cell in his body had reached the guru level.

Even in the water...

Fang Qiu could feel a flow of unprecedented power in him, and even he himself didn't know the extent of his power!

The power made him feel fulfilled.

In addition...

Just now, when he was submerged in the special feeling of energy flowing through his body, Fang Qiu comprehended something: a move that he was particularly interested in, but he didn't know how mighty it would be!

"They are all here?"

With a stir of his Divine Consciousness, Fang Qiu immediately noticed the situation outside when he woke up.

He knew the eight gurus were about to take action!

"All of you should die!"

He snorted coldly.

Fang Qiu readied himself for a fierce battle.

“Splash!”

With a loud crash, Fang Qiu shot out of the water.

The tremendous energy Qi erupted in a split second and pushed the river water in all directions.

At the sight of this scene...

The eight of them who were guarding both sides of the river were greatly taken aback.

They had never imagined that John Doe would suddenly rise like a bolt of lightning at this time.

At first, the eight people were shocked.

Then, they acted fast to besiege and strike Fang Qiu.

But at this moment...

“Swish.”

An earth-shattering sword sound rang out.

Fang Qiu, who had just broken through to the surface, suddenly clenched his right hand. The moment the Divine Sword appeared, the surrounding Qi of Heaven and Earth also began to boil.

This move...

It was the move he had just attained when he broke through and became a guru!

He created the Space-splitting Sea-cracking Sword by combining the Great Hand of Destruction and the Divine Sword. So, why couldn't the Great Hand of Formlessness do it?

Anyway, it could disperse the opponent's power!

Since both fist and palm strikes could smash the rival, so could a sword strike!

Besides...

The Great Hand of Formlessness was not competitive enough, but adding the sword to this move could make up for this shortcoming. If he could mobilize enough Qi of Heaven and Earth, the explosive power of the Great Hand of Formlessness would be unparalleled, even stronger than that of the Great Hand of Destruction.

However, when real experts fought a decisive battle, how could they have time to mobilize so much Qi of Heaven and Earth? Even if they successfully made a start, experts at the same level would inevitably notice it and stop them in advance.

In this case...

The Great Hand of Formlessness would soon be suppressed.

But the sword could make a substantial difference to it.

The Great Hand of Formlessness could attract the Qi of Heaven and Earth to condense the strongest sword Qi. Beyond that, it could disperse the opponent's internal Qi with the sword Qi.

The sword Qi was sharp, which could break any defense.

Thus, the sword could ensure the success of the Great Hand of Formlessness!

When this move hit its target, it would disperse the opponent's internal Qi. In addition, the sword Qi could do real harm to the enemy. The Great Hand of Formlessness and the sword Qi could be said to be a match made in heaven.

"Supreme Sword!"

As soon as the Divine Sword formed in his hand, Fang Qiu immediately stabbed it fiercely at a guru before him.

After this strike...

Suddenly, the surrounding Qi of Heaven and Earth flooded in wildly. With the tip of the Divine Sword in Fang Qiu's hand as the center, it surged rapidly and formed a cone-shaped layer of energy that completely enveloped the Divine Sword and Fang Qiu. The energy cone, with its pointed end leaning to the right, was like a well-sharpened needle. With irresistible momentum, it flashed forward and thrust itself at the guru!

The matchless incisive sword Qi was simply all-conquering!

With a horrified face, the targeted guru hurriedly summoned all the internal Qi in his body to block the blow. He even condensed a very thick energy shield in front of him.

But the next moment...

"Crack."

An incomparably crisp sound was heard.

That sword strike directly penetrated the thick energy shield in an instant. Then, mercilessly, it ran through the guru's heart!

The guru created this lifesaving shield with all his might and main. But even when his heart was pierced, he didn't understand how his shield could be so easily shattered, and why his internal Qi would instantly dissipate after that!

Here...

After he witnessed the success of his sword strike, Fang Qiu couldn't be more surprised and satisfied.

Surprisingly, when his Divine Sword smashed the enemy's internal Qi, it seemed to possess an unparalleled defense-breaking ability!

His enemy's energy shield was made of internal Qi!

After Fang Qiu delivered this strike...

The energy shield was easily shattered because of the unique blow of the Great Hand of Formlessness, which dispersed more than half of the internal Qi. Since most of the internal Qi that formed the shield was dispersed, how could it display its defensive capability?

Fang Qiu was pleasantly surprised by this discovery.

He was also particularly delighted with the power of this move!

He had slaughtered a guru with one blow.

Fang Qiu flashed aside and immediately flew toward the other side of the river without any hesitation.

It was the rainforest over there!

Right now...

In the forest not far from the river, a group of wildebeests was migrating leisurely.

“Come and chase me if you can!”

Before the seven people surrounded him, Fang Qiu rushed straight into the rainforest and taunted them with this remark. Then he deftly ran up and slipped into the herd of wildebeest.

The seven gurus instantly chased after them with scowls on their faces.

This time...

They were frightened and no longer dared to act alone. Therefore, they went ahead in pairs. The last person teamed up with two gurus and formed a three-person squad. Afterward, they dashed straight into the wildebeests to look for John Doe!

Chapter 1284: The Strength of a Guru!

“Clatter, clatter, clatter...”

As the seven gurus intruded into the territory of wildebeests, they started running everywhere in shock.

The seven gurus were in three groups.

After a careful search, they found that John Doe had disappeared again.

Then they looked at each other.

The three groups immediately separated to search for him.

The rainforest in Africo was one of the three major tropical rainforests in the world.

It was distributed mainly in Congo Basin, the east coast of Madagascar Island, and other islands.

After going through the escape and slaughter in the grassland...

Fang Qiu went all the way south and almost reached the coastal area.

It was because Comores, located in the sea in the south of Africo, was between the Africo continent and Madagascar Island.

Hence...

Fang Qiu already had a series of plans in mind.

In the beginning, with his strength as a Half-step Guru, he could fight against four opponents, who became incompetent gurus by taking shortcuts. After a real breakthrough and becoming a recultivated guru, he could resist the attacks of eight similar gurus without getting injured. He could even wipe them out.

But Fang Qiu didn't do that.

The reason was that he had arrived in the rainforest!

On the open grassland, the party with more people had the upper hand.

But when they were in the rainforest, it was hard to say which party would win.

At this moment...

Under cover of the wildebeest herd, Fang Qiu blended into the rainforest.

The rainforest was covered with various types of tall and luxuriant trees. Even better, all kinds of small plants grew lushly there. Fang Qiu would never be short of great hiding spots in there.

When the three squads made up of the seven gurus began to search around, Fang Qiu had completely suppressed his aura. He hid in an exuberant bush like a venomous snake as he waited for the arrival of his prey.

Soon...

One squad approached Fang Qiu's hideout.

"Supreme Sword!"

When the two people near him were looking elsewhere, Fang Qiu raised his long sword like a poisonous snake showing its fangs. With terrifying precision, he swiftly pierced it through the chest of the guru who was closest to him.

One down.

Immediately, Fang Qiu pulled out his sword to stab another person,

"He is here!"

The second guru roared, trying to stall Fang Qiu. So, as he tried to dodge, he promptly evoked all his power to ward off Fang Qiu.

Unluckily for him...

He was nothing but a guru in name only!

Fang Qiu had come close to him in the blink of an eye.

“Swish.”

Without delay, Fang Qiu waved his right hand. From his Divine Sword, a burst of overwhelming energy Qi exploded and slashed violently at this guru.

With the tremendous sword momentum brought by the Supreme Sword, Fang Qiu smashed half of the guru’s internal Qi with one sword strike.

After that...

Under the puzzled and shocked gaze of the guru, Fang Qiu decisively pierced through his heart!

He finished off two gurus in no time.

Fang Qiu turned around to conceal himself again.

But just then...

With gloomy faces, the remaining five gurus rushed over and hemmed Fang Qiu in from all sides.

“Humph.”

When he saw his five enemies...

Fang Qiu responded with a sneer, loosened his grip on the Divine Sword in his right palm, and said, "Now, my counterattack begins!"

Upon hearing his words...

All the five gurus looked extremely grave.

At first, there were ten gurus who went after John Doe. One was killed at the very beginning. Then, when they were in hot pursuit of John Doe, he launched a surprise attack and slaughtered another.

Even so, there were still eight gurus that chased him all the way here!

But in a twinkling of an eye...

Only five of the eight gurus were still alive!

They were all gurus. How could they die so quickly?

They were enraged at John Doe's announcement. No matter how upset they were, they had to admit that John Doe's strength was indeed much greater than theirs.

John Doe could slay a guru in a flash. How could they not take him seriously?

"Kill!"

In a towering rage, the white-haired guru, who had blocked Fang Qiu first, frantically dashed over with two burly men who wore boxing gloves.

The other squad of two gurus also joined in and pounced on Fang Qiu together with the three gurus.

Facing the sudden onslaught of attacks from the five...

Fang Qiu responded at a more relaxed and unhurried pace than before.

“Clap, clap, clap...”

There came continuous sounds of intense collisions.

Like before, the five gurus of Nirvana Organization didn't dare to engage in close combat with Fang Qiu. They would only release powerful energy to attack him whenever they got close to him. Then, they would retreat hurriedly.

In this way, the five gurus, repeatedly went back and forth as they kept delivering fierce assaults and tried to suppress John Doe.

What a pity.

John Doe was a vastly different person now!

After the radical improvement in his strength, Fang Qiu could handle the five people's attacks more calmly and confidently.

Though the five gurus took turns to release their strikes, he fended off all their attacks.

But...

Since they delivered their blows so frequently, Fang Qiu could hardly find any chance to fight back.

“I can't let them push me into a passive condition again. I'd better seize the initiative in this battle!”

With a sudden inspiration...

Fang Qiu didn't hesitate and broke out with a crushing force.

With his energy several times more powerful than before, a spray of terrifying Qi power spewed forth like lava from his body.

The momentum of this Qi power that was full of energy was completely different from his previous guru-level one. This one was far superior!

And...

Most importantly...

The momentum was beyond the five people's expectations.

As gurus, they had never felt such a devastating aura from a guru. They didn't even sense it from Venerables.

The five were taken completely by surprise at the scene.

But right at this moment...

"Supreme Sword!"

Fang Qiu unleashed his power again.

This move combined the Great Hand of Formlessness and the Divine Sword. In addition, it used the Qi of Heaven and Earth and consumed very little of Fang Qiu's internal Qi, so his consumption was almost negligible.

Therefore, Fang Qiu could make this mighty move repeatedly.

"Swish."

The sound of the sword rang out.

The five gurus were petrified by the momentum he created. Seizing this chance, Fang Qiu brandished the long sword and drove it ruthlessly through the person before him.

The man met the same fate as the previous two gurus.

As a fast-achieving guru without substantial ability, he was instantly butchered by Fang Qiu before he could react!

Another one was dead.

This guru group was reduced from five to four.

When the remaining four gurus saw this, their expressions turned ghastly.

Fang Qiu glanced at them.

Three of the four people had blocked his way in the first place.

He immediately turned his attention to them.

At this point, he switched from defense to offense and pounced fiercely on the three men.

Of course, the four of them did not dare take him lightly.

Unfortunately...

Even the five gurus couldn't pin down Fang Qiu, let alone the four of them.

Under the siege of the four people, Fang Qiu could easily find an opportunity to fight back. Obviously, the four people were shocked by the horrible killing power displayed by Fang Qiu. Thus, when they besieged Fang Qiu, none of them had the guts to get too close to him. They would stop before they went any further!

They were scared.

However, Fang Qiu was not afraid at all!

One blow after another, Fang Qiu would launch a fierce attack whenever there was a chance.

These swashbuckling gurus couldn't resist the attacks of the Supreme Sword at all. Each time Fang Qiu wielded the Supreme Sword, one guru would be killed. In no time, there were merely three of them left.

It was even easier for him to fight against three.

Fang Qiu got in position.

No longer hopelessly outnumbered, he felt much less stressed and displayed his astonishing speed. Instantly, he dashed to one of the people who had gloves on.

The man thought that John Doe would use his Supreme Sword again, so he quickly activated his internal Qi to protect himself.

But who knew?

Fang Qiu moved slightly and flashed behind him and waved his right hand gently.

The long sword in his hand quietly slid across his throat.

Another guru was put to death.

Of the ten gurus from Nirvana Organization, only two were still alive!

When they saw this desperate situation, the white-haired guru and the muscular guru who wore boxing gloves beside him immediately panicked.

Five gurus failed to take him down, so how could the two of them win?

“After killing so many people, he must have consumed a lot of energy. Remember? He has been seriously injured by us before. If we hold on a little longer, he will be exhausted. Let’s go together and take the credit!”

The white-haired man encouraged the other man.

Upon hearing that...

The brawny man with the black iron gloves was about to charge at Fang Qiu.

Unexpectedly, he turned around to escape instead.

But who would have thought that...

The white-haired man seemed to have known that the other guru would flee, so he made his escape first.

The strong man in the black iron gloves reached out and tried to grab the white-haired man.

“Get lost!”

The white-haired man was furious. He brandished his dagger and released a stream of energy Qi, which he hurled toward the burly man.

The burly man quickly raised his fist to block it.

To his dismay...

After that, he was pushed back and instantly landed before Fang Qiu.

“Pathetic!”

Seeing this, Fang Qiu shook his head and sighed with emotion. Without showing any mercy, he pierced the strong man’s chest with the long sword.

The death of the burly man bought the white-haired man a few seconds.

The white-haired man fled frantically.

Fang Qiu drew out his long sword and chased after him.

However, he didn’t exert his full strength. Instead, he leisurely followed behind.

He remembered that a day ago...

This group of people had chased him the whole day and night without a break, but in the blink of an eye, he had turned from prey to a hunter.

This change was indeed... satisfying!

He stared at the white-haired man who was fleeing ahead.

Fang Qiu pretended he could not catch up with him, and the distance between them grew wider and wider. When the man couldn't see him, Fang Qiu flashed aside and vanished.

In front of him...

The white-haired man remained fully alert. Even though he saw that he had gotten rid of John Doe, he still fled at full speed and constantly changed his direction and position!

"You're quite vigilant, aren't you?"

Secretly, Fang Qiu sneered.

It looked like...

Fang Qiu seemed to have lost track of him. But in fact, he had been following the white-haired man from a distance with his Divine Consciousness glued to him. He wanted to take the opportunity to find out where Nirvana Organization's base in Africo was.

Since these people dared to surround and kill him, they had to pay the price they deserved!

He had been called "Revenge King".

He hadn't demonstrated his power of revenge for a long time!

Fang Qiu secretly estimated his current strength as he followed the guru.

"Judging from the battle just now, I can defeat five fast-achieving gurus. But the result might be different if there were more gurus."

"Although they became gurus fast by taking shortcuts, these people were still gurus."

"Also, the four patriarchs."

Suddenly, Fang Qiu thought of the four patriarchs. He had learned about their strength before. He didn't know them well enough, but he knew something in general.

According to Fang Qiu's assessment of the strength of the four patriarchs...

With his current strength, he could handle the four patriarchs. He could easily fight against two of them at a time and would never fall into a desperate situation. As for fighting against the three patriarchs, Fang Qiu thought he could play for a draw.

The four patriarchs had been gurus for a long time, but even gurus had different strengths. A guru who had never recultivated was no match for a recultivated guru!

Medical Master

Chapter 1285: Your Sweetheart Is a Real Man of Great Power!

Fang Qiu tailed the white-haired guru.

Fang Qiu followed him all the way from a distance and hid well.

Before him...

Even though the white-haired guru had run a long way, he still looked panic-stricken and had not completely calmed down. He kept turning his head and looking around in fear that he had failed to shake off John Doe.

Fang Qiu could tell that he was scared to the marrow.

A total of ten gurus...

In a flash, he was the only one alive.

This was truly too terrifying!

Ever since he became a guru, he had always considered himself superior. After all, all the enemies he had encountered were no match for him. He even had a feeling that he could own the whole world. Even if he met a real guru, his life wouldn't be threatened in any way. Some gurus who had fought with him had a deep-seated hatred for him, but they couldn't kill him.

He felt he was invincible. No one in the world could endanger his life.

But now...

He could only watch helplessly as nine gurus like him died one after another before him, even without putting up a fierce struggle to survive!

His long-lost sense of fear crept into his heart.

He did not want to die.

He possessed all-conquering power. If he died, how could he enjoy it?

To stay alive, he had been running desperately!

When he was on the run, he had even carefully set up some anti-trace traps.

Of course...

He feared death and John Doe.

However, what frightened him most of all was his organization!

He hoped he could escape and survive, but he was also afraid that he would become John Doe's guide and expose something.

Unluckily for him...

The various anti-trace traps he planted were well hidden and easy to trigger, but he didn't know Fang Qiu had been watching his every move.

Along the way, Fang Qiu avoided all the small traps made by the white-haired guru.

None of his traps had been triggered, and he was getting farther and farther away, so the highly stressed white-haired guru calmed down a little.

He continued moving forward at a constant speed.

Soon...

Fang Qiu followed the white-haired guru out of the rainforest. They returned to the grassland from another direction.

“On the grassland?”

Fang Qiu wondered.

The previous biological base was on the grassland. Was Nirvana Organization’s base also in Africo?

The grassland was flat, so the views were extensive. Fang Qiu had no choice but to widen the distance between himself and the guru.

Fortunately, the breadth of his Consciousness was wide enough.

Even though the guru wasn’t within his range of vision, Fang Qiu could still accurately pinpoint his location!

He continued to follow up.

They had walked a long way.

When they were in the depths of the grassland and the rainforest was out of sight, Fang Qiu felt the white-haired guru stop 25 kilometers away.

Fang Qiu slowed down, approaching quietly.

After a few minutes...

Fang Qiu reached the place where the white-haired guru had paused — it was in a hollow zone in the grassland a hundred meters away.

After concealing himself there, Fang Qiu raised his head and looked forward.

Unexpectedly...

In front of them was a luxurious villa!

Before this and using the biological base as an example, Fang Qiu had thought the Africo base of Nirvana Organization would be deep underground. There would be no buildings on the surface. The organization would hide everything under the vast grassland.

To his great surprise, such a big villa appeared before him!

He was truly amazed...

Fang Qiu gazed at it fixedly. Then, he took out his phone, recorded the position, and quietly turned to leave.

He had become a recultivated guru and followed him all the way here. Yet, it was not the right time to fight because time was running out.

He had to give Jiang Miaoyu the pills in his backpack as soon as possible without any delay.

Otherwise, there would be big trouble over there.

Anyway, he had already taken down the location.

After he delivered the medicine...

It would be his time to take revenge.

Since Nirvana Organization desperately wanted to kill him, then let's see who would be the first to die!

Fang Qiu was well aware of this.

After this series of events in Africo, John Doe became Nirvana Organization's sworn enemy. Hunting him down in Africon Savannah was just the beginning.

In the following days, more and more Nirvana Organization members would join together to slaughter him, and their methods would be increasingly brutal!

In this case...

Fang Qiu couldn't keep dodging like a coward.

The first day he learned about Nirvana Organization, Fang Qiu was irreconcilably hostile toward them. For him, this inhuman and crazy organization shouldn't exist in this world at all.

In the past...

He had never feared Nirvana Organization even when he was not that powerful.

Now he was even more courageous. Since there would be a battle sooner or later, why would he wait?

But he had been concerned about the safety of Jiang Miaoyu and her classmate infected with the virus. Otherwise, Fang Qiu would have rushed in directly and turned the place upside down!

"Just wait! I'll be back soon!"

Before he left Fang Qiu glared coldly at the villa.

He withdrew a long distance away. After ensuring that the people in the villa couldn't see him, Fang Qiu took out his mobile phone to check his exact location. It turned out he was quite far from the cities along the coast: he had to cross a whole country to reach the coastline.

However...

A city that was not small, was located nearby.

After confirming the location, Fang Qiu made for the city. To avoid exposing his whereabouts, he went straight to the airport and sneaked into a plane.

He first hid. When the plane took off, he came out and found an empty seat to rest.

He had to cross a country to get to her and it seemed like a distance away.

But it was not far away.

The plane landed at the Comores airport in about two hours.

When the plane finally stopped...

Fang Qiu rushed out of the cabin at lightning speed before the air hostesses could even react. As he was familiar with the route, he left the airport quickly.

It was already evening when he arrived at the medical assistance base.

Right now...

The people in the medical assistance base had just finished their dinner and were resting in their dormitories.

Fang Qiu found Jiang Miaoyu's dormitory easily as he had been there before.

The door of the dormitory was open.

Jiang Miaoyu seemed to have gone out.

Fang Qiu flashed inside and waited for Jiang Miaoyu to come back.

After a few minutes...

"Clatter, clatter, clatter..."

A brisk sound of footsteps was heard.

Fang Qiu looked out.

There, Jiang Miaoyu walked toward the dormitory, carrying a plastic basin filled with her freshly washed white coats.

The moment she entered the door...

Fang Qiu stood up to greet her.

However...

Jiang Miaoyu seemed to be too focused on the clothes in the basin to notice him. After walking in, she turned around and closed the door while humming a tune. Then she took out the laundry from the basin, ready to hang it in the dormitory and leave it to dry naturally.

She let her clothes dry out in the wind. Since the virus was so prevalent in Africo, she would hang them under the sun outside when the weather was better.

Yet...

When she took her white coat to hang it up...

Jiang Miaoyu trembled all over and stood rooted to the spot.

She looked terrified...

However, this expression lasted only a few seconds before she calmed down.

“Surprise! Are you happy to see me?”

Fang Qiu, who saw her expression change, asked with a smile.

“What are you doing here?”

Instantly, Jiang Miaoyu dropped the white coat into the basin and ran to Fang Qiu, her face full of surprise and disbelief.

“Shh, don’t get so agitated.”

Fang Qiu immediately put his index finger to his lips, motioning her to lower her voice.

Immediately, Jiang Miaoyu stopped talking.

“Don’t tell anyone about this.”

With a smile, Fang Qiu brushed back a few strands of hair on Jiang Miaoyu's forehead and said, "Don't let others know I was here. You can't say it now and in the future."

"Why?"

Jiang Miaoyu was stunned. Then, she took a step back and looked at Fang Qiu from head to toe. When she saw his abashed expression, she immediately frowned and asked worriedly, "Why are you in such a disheveled state? What did you do? What happened?"

"I'm fine."

Fang Qiu smiled to comfort her and said, "I just encountered a little trouble, but it's all in the past."

On the way here...

Fang Qiu tore off the human-skin mask on his face. However, he only had those clothes on him. During the continuous battles on the grassland, he had stayed underwater and even hidden under the buffalo's belly. It was impossible for him to keep himself neat!

Anyway, he couldn't...

How could he especially have a change of clothes before he came here? He didn't bother to do that when he had been in such a hurry.

"Are you sure you're okay?"

Jiang Miaoyu asked.

"Don't worry. I'm fine!"

Fang Qiu nodded in affirmation. Then, with a smile, he took off one of the backpacks on his back, opened it, and said, "I've found a cure for the mutant Ebala virus. Here it is."

As he spoke...

Fang Qiu took out a pill and put it into Jiang Miaoyu's palm.

"Really?"

Jiang Miaoyu was pleasantly surprised.

"Mmm."

Fang Qiu nodded and said, "Yes. One pill can kill all the mutant Ebala viruses in the severely infected patient. I made these pills myself. Now, I'm giving you all these pills. You can give them to the infected patients here first. After they are cured, you can contact the government and tell them about the curative effect of these pills. After that, these pills can be distributed to various countries in Africo."

"This is great!"

Jiang Miaoyu joyfully took the backpack with great surprise.

She had thought that there was no other way. Worse still, she even began to think about how she would have to accept the reality if her classmate died from the virus.

Little did she think...

Fang Qiu found a cure and even brought the pills.

"I will leave the rest to you."

Reaching out to touch her face, Fang Qiu said, "I still have some urgent things to attend to. Remember not to tell anyone that I've been here."

"You're leaving so soon?"

Jiang Miaoyu asked, reluctant to part from him.

"Mmm."

Fang Qiu nodded and tried to comfort her. "Yes. When the matter in Africo is over, we can see each other every day after we return home."

"I don't know what you've been doing, but you must be careful."

Jiang Miaoyu went forward and hugged him, reluctant to part from him.

"Don't worry."

Fang Qiu smiled, "Your sweetheart is a real man of great power!"

After that...

He left quietly while no one was looking.

Fang Qiu hid his trace to protect his identity as Fang Qiu, not John Doe. Once others found Fang Qiu had appeared here, they might suspect the relationship between Fang Qiu and John Doe.

In addition, John Doe and Nirvana Organization were at daggers drawn, so Fang Qiu had to be more cautious!

Medical Master

Chapter 1286: Master of Your Fate, John Doe, Is Here!

At the Comores airport...

After coming out of the medical assistance base, Fang Qiu secretly boarded another plane to the city where he came from. After all, the distance by air was short, and the city was close to Nirvana Organization's Africo base.

In fact...

Fang Qiu had also thought about secretly leaving by boat.

But taking the boat would mean he had to cross the rainforest, which was a waste of time.

He didn't know how many gurus were in the stronghold of Nirvana Organization, but he guessed there couldn't be many of them. Besides, when the white-haired guru returned, he would likely have run away with the others.

Therefore, Fang Qiu had to go back as soon as possible!

It was a two-hour flight.

Fang Qiu hid on the plane and adjusted his state to its peak.

As soon as he got off the plane, Fang Qiu immediately rushed out of the airport. When nobody paid attention to him, he found a hidden corner, put on Lin Yu's human skin mask, and disguised himself as John Doe!

As for the skin mask as Well Known, it was of no use now.

After he turned into John Doe...

Without stopping, Fang Qiu rushed to the stronghold of the Nirvana Organization in Africo.

An hour later...

Finally, Fang Qiu came to the depths of the grassland. In the darkness, he could see the lights in the villa from a distance.

Right now...

It was already ten at night.

The moon hung in the night sky.

It was late at night. Yet, under the moonlight, he could see his surroundings.

“Whoosh...”

The sound of the wind rushing by lingered in his ears.

Fang Qiu didn’t intend to stop after he approached the villa. Instead, he rushed straight to it.

He had come to seek revenge.

There was no need to act on the sly!

“Swish.”

As he flew over rapidly, Fang Qiu clenched his right hand, and the Divine Sword took shape within seconds!

Inside his body...

The internal Qi surged violently.

When his power surged forth mightily, Fang Qiu unleashed the mighty force that had been in a murderous frenzy. It then flooded into the Divine Sword.

Abruptly...

“Crash...”

As a large amount of internal Qi flowed rapidly into the Divine Sword, azure tongues of energy flame shot up from it!

“Um?”

Fang Qiu was a little stunned.

“My internal Qi is taking form?”

Before that, Fang Qiu could easily form his internal Qi, but he had to absorb a specific kind of energy. For example, he could ignite a fire above his palm after taking in enough fire-type energy.

But...

It was just a simple application of energy attribution. However, applying this attribute to weapons was challenging because weapons also had their features. For example, after the internal Qi was poured into a sword, the astral energy of the sword would come into being. The key feature of weapons was their sharpness. The better the weapon was, the sharper it would be!

However, Fang Qiu had never seen such a thing as bestowing a weapon with a new feature.

“Is it because I became a guru?”

Fang Qiu’s heart thumped with excitement.

Suddenly, he found he could feel the attributes of all the Qi of Heaven and Earth around him. More than that, he saw a great deal of fire-type energy attached to the sword.

At that moment, Fang Qiu figured it out.

It was his Spiritual Force!

After the breakthrough, Fang Qiu became a recultivated guru, and his Spiritual Force greatly improved. It became more in tune with the Qi of Heaven and Earth. Besides, it could automatically choose and mobilize the surrounding Qi of Heaven and Earth of various attributes to strengthen the attack!

Just now, Fang Qiu was keen to take revenge. He was in a towering rage and he unwittingly attracted so much fire-type Qi of Heaven and Earth.

“It looks quite cool. Could it increase my attacking power?”

He whispered.

Fang Qiu had flown into the villa. With a cold sneer, he raised the long sword and pointed it to the sky.

“Flap, flap, flap...”

The energy flames on the sword soared with the whistling of the wind.

“Thunderbolt-absorbing Technique!”

Fang Qiu’s eyes were fixed on the villa. As his eyes widened, a thin layer of thunder and lightning immediately erupted from him. Then these flashes of lightning streaked back and forth around him.

“Boom!”

When the lightning appeared, Fang Qiu released all his energy aura without hesitation.

Over at his end...

“Sizzle!”

Abruptly, as if being stimulated by something, the flashes of lightning which surrounded him suddenly shot out in all directions and covered the area within ten meters around him.

Fiercer waves of thunder and lightning came up, constantly rushing up along the Divine Sword held up high by Fang Qiu.

“Bastards of Nirvana Organization! John Doe, the master of your fate, is here!”

After a furious roar...

Fang Qiu swiftly waved his right arm.

At this moment, his Divine Sword was wrapped in lightning and energy flames. Fang Qiu waved his hand and slashed violently downward with his Divine Sword!

“Boom...”

On the grassland at night, muffled thunder sounds rumbled out of the blue.

Over there...

As Fang Qiu swung the Divine Sword, lightning flashed on it together with the sounds of rumbling thunder. After a loud crash, a vast and half-moon-shaped beam of lightning sword Qi broke out from the sword and dashed toward the villa with a destructive aura.

Fang Qiu’s eyes were fixed on it.

There was still a layer of azure energy flames on the huge beam of lightning sword Qi. As the wind blew over, energy flames shot high into the air.

When the sword Qi shot out about ten meters away, a long tail of azure energy flames formed behind it.

In the next second...

“Rumble!”

The sword Qi of lightning and thunder crashed into the villa.

When the collision happened, the energy flames attached to the sword Qi erupted in all directions with a loud bang.

In the process...

Bolts of lightning rose suddenly.

The dazzling light glowed in the night sky and brightly illuminated the grassland!

Under the enormous impact...

The beams of lightning sword Qi...

It pitilessly destroyed more than half of the villa in an instant.

The energy Qi caused by the explosion surged wildly in every direction. Like terrifying ocean waves, layers of energy Qi crushed everything in its path and left behind a trail of blackened ground.

And even...

The energy flames charred the bricks of the collapsed villa.

“Amazingly powerful!”

Fang Qiu was surprised. He didn’t expect the flames formed by the Qi of Heaven and Earth to be so mighty.

But right at this moment...

“Boom!”

A burst of explosion rose from the collapsed villa.

There...

A streak of energy Qi went off like a bullet from the ruins, sending the bricks flying.

Then, four figures quickly flew out of it.

Fang Qiu took a closer look.

“Sure enough, gurus again!”

Fang Qiu’s eyes narrowed as he glanced at the four gurus who had just rushed out of the villa ruins. One of them was the white-haired guru.

Three new gurus joined him.

That was to say...

With those Fang Qiu had slaughtered in the grassland and rainforest, this Africo base had 13 gurus in total!

What a horrific number!

Notably...

Even a country like Egyptt only had two gurus!

In addition to Egyptt, no guru had appeared in any of the other countries in Africo. These countries might not even have one guru.

In this case...

What could an organization with 13 gurus do?

It could commit all kinds of outrageous acts in Africo!

Although they were 13 incompetent gurus who achieved their guru status in a short period, they were still gurus.

“A stronghold has so many gurus. How powerful was this Nirvana Organization here on earth?”

Fang Qiu was shocked.

Besides Africo, Fang Qiu was sure that Nirvana Organization had a stronghold in Zhongdong and Huaxia. As for Europa, Fang Qiu had never been there, so he didn't know if there were any.

But all of this was already very scary.

“John Doe?”

After rushing out of the ruins, the white-haired guru instantly panicked.

He didn't expect this.

John Doe caught up with him.

Aside...

When they heard that, the expressions of the other three gurus immediately became severe.

At this time...

“Whoosh, whoosh, whoosh...”

A large group of men in black continuously jumped out from where the four gurus had come out.

Fang Qiu swept his eyes over the crowd.

They were all eighth-class and ninth-class martial arts practitioners.

“Are these people the backup gurus?”

Fang Qiu glanced at them.

In his eyes, like those incompetent gurus, these people also upgraded their strength rapidly by force. Many of them had not even established a sound foundation yet.

It seemed that their quick method did not directly promote a person to a guru. Instead, it must have been done step by step.

“Maybe, this stronghold is hiding their secret of becoming a guru in the shortest time?”

Fang Qiu suddenly had an idea.

Immediately, he brandished his sword and rushed toward the white-haired guru.

Fang Qiu saw deep fear in the eyes of the white-haired guru. Although he could wipe out all four of them with his current strength, he didn’t want to spend so much effort if there was a simpler way.

In this world, who could be killed with the least effort?

It should be the one who feared his opponent most!

A person who was afraid of his opponent would not be able to stop his hand from trembling in a fight.

How could he have any chance to fight and win in this case?

“Whoosh.”

The sound of something breaking through the air could be heard.

Just like that, the white-haired guru saw John Doe rush toward him. While his pupils suddenly contracted in fear, he immediately turned around to dodge.

But right then...

“Supreme Sword!”

Fang Qiu’s ghost-like voice reached his ears.

The white-haired guru shivered all over and moved quickly to evade this attack.

Meanwhile...

The other three gurus also flashed over together as they attempted to help the white-haired guru block Fang Qiu’s attack. Their internal Qi instantly condensed into an energy shield as firm and thick as a wall before the white-haired guru.

However...

The next second...

In Fang Qiu's hand, the long sword instantly emitted a penetrating stream of energy Qi that dashed fiercely against the energy shield.

"Crack."

A crisp sound was heard.

The four men's faces changed drastically at the same time!

Their energy shield which was as thick as a wall, collapsed instantly when Fang Qiu's sword fell. This scene sent a chill through the four gurus. They felt that more than half of their internal Qi had dissipated in a fraction of a second.

The four of them were dumbfounded by this abrupt change.

They were no match for John Doe at all. As soon as they collided, half of their internal Qi was scattered. How could they continue to fight?

Without the slightest hesitation...

The three gurus immediately retreated.

The white-haired guru also tried his best to withdraw, but the long sword in Fang Qiu's hand was extremely swift.

Over there...

A cold light flashed!

The Qi of Heaven and Earth kept surging through the Divine Sword in Fang Qiu's hand. Effortlessly, it pierced through the white-haired guru's heart like passing through a piece of paper.

Blood spurted out in midair.

The white-haired guru didn't even have time to turn around before he fell to the ground powerlessly. His eyes were still wide open. It seemed he was unwilling to accept the defeat even before he died!

Chapter 1287: The Pill Is Effective!

Fang Qiu butchered a guru in a flash!

Just after these men in black hastened out of the collapsed villa, they witnessed his death, and they were rooted to the spot in terror.

The white-haired man was a guru!

How could he instantly get killed just like that?

In particular...

The four gurus had tried to put up a resistance with all their strength, but the white-haired guru was still killed in seconds.

How was this possible?

In a flash...

All the Nirvana Organization members looked at Fang Qiu in shock and disbelief.

The strength John Doe had shown was utterly appalling!

Not far away...

The three gurus whose internal Qi had been smashed stared at Fang Qiu in horror.

When the white-haired guru returned, he told them in detail how terrifying John Doe was, but they didn't believe it. How could anyone be so preeminent?

But before them...

John Doe showed up and demonstrated the strength that drove them to despair.

At this moment, they finally understood why there was such fear in the eyes of their white-haired companion when he saw John Doe.

This time, they were also scared.

In their eyes...

The man named John Doe standing before them was not a human being at all. He was simply a monster, an incredible monster!

"It looks like there are no other experts."

After slaying the white-haired guru, Fang Qiu glanced around but found no suitable rivals. While murmuring to himself, he turned his eyes to the other three gurus who were ready to escape.

“Whiz!”

Not daring to say a word, the three ran off in different directions at breakneck speed.

“You want to get away?”

Fang Qiu snorted coldly.

Before he made a breakthrough and turned into a recultivated guru, his speed was much faster than that of an ordinary guru. After he succeeded in breaking through, he became several times faster as a recultivated guru.

Those ‘instant’ gurus were even slower than ordinary gurus. In his eyes, they were ridiculously slow!

“Woosh.”

Fang Qiu flashed aside.

He rushed over quickly. Like a meteor shooting across the sky with a tremendous impact force, he instantly caught up with one of them and swung his long sword.

The guru hurriedly turned around to stop him.

But he was utterly helpless.

Half of his internal Qi had been dispersed, so his resistance made no impression on the horrific strike. The sharp Divine Sword mercilessly broke his defense and brutally pierced his heart.

After this strike...

Fang Qiu grabbed the man by the collar and flung him into the ruins of the villa.

Then he turned and rushed toward the second enemy.

Right now...

The second guru had already fled hundreds of meters away.

Seeing John Doe flashing toward him, the man turned around in panic and hastily approached another guru who was trying to escape in another direction.

“Sure enough, every member of Nirvana Organization never hesitates to betray their brothers.”

Fang Qiu gave a cold laugh.

He had seen Nirvana Organization members do the same thing countless times.

Fang Qiu could have closed in on him in an instant, but he was not in a hurry. Instead, he accelerated and zoomed over until the two of them were running shoulder to shoulder.

They were painfully aware that they couldn't escape.

The two gurus immediately turned around and took action in unison, trying to defend by attacking.

“Supreme Sword!”

Fang Qiu didn't want to waste his time fighting against these two people. So, he instantly displayed his move that combined the Great Hand of Destruction and the Divine Sword. With this single move, he smashed their attacks and ran through them with one sword!

For Fang Qiu...

The combat experience was no longer of much use, for he had already become a recultivated guru. Battling with these gurus who progressed through shortcuts was of no benefit to him.

Beyond that...

Nirvana Organization was full of cunning tricks. Fang Qiu was afraid that more gurus would come if he delayed any longer, so he had to take the initiative and end the battle quickly!

Of course...

Most importantly, Fang Qiu was still thinking about the secretive express method of becoming a guru. The four gurus had to die, but many Nirvana Organization members were still around the villa.

There was no escape for these people. Once they discovered this, they could probably return to the villa and destroy all the information about Nirvana Organization.

To ensure the information was not destroyed, Fang Qiu could only fight a quick battle.

There would be a massacre!

None of those men in black could survive.

“Buzz.”

Grabbing their collars, Fang Qiu threw their corpses toward the villa without any warning.

He didn't feel like tossing corpses.

And he didn't intend to clean up the bodies of the four gurus, either. By doing this, he simply wanted to deter those men in black to prevent them from acting rashly!

However...

When they saw the corpses being tossed over, one after another...

These men in black were panic-stricken. Yet, there were still a few who attempted to run into the villa.

They were within the range of Fang Qiu's Divine Consciousness.

Therefore, he already perceived their intention.

Unhesitatingly, he darted back and waved his right hand. Several beams of sword Qi shot out, instantly slaying all the people on their way to the villa.

He went back to the villa.

Looking at the men in black running away in chaotic disorder, Fang Qiu showed no mercy.

"Grand Hand of Destruction."

He delivered three palm strikes in a row.

One strike sent seven or eight people flying.

Three palm attacks killed all the men in black and left none alive!

After all this...

Fang Qiu took a deep breath and explored the area with his Divine Consciousness. No new energy aura appeared within 50 kilometers. After ensuring that, he tried to expand the detecting scope of his Divine Consciousness.

As his Divine Consciousness spread out, Fang Qiu got a great shock.

“Sixty kilometers!”

Fang Qiu was quite taken aback.

After his last breakthrough, the coverage radius of his Divine Consciousness reached as far as fifty kilometers. This time, it increased by ten kilometers.

In particular, the coverage area gave a better view of the growth of the Divine Consciousness than the coverage radius. As the radius grew larger, the same increase in radius would produce a larger width of the coverage area. In this case, it would be increasingly difficult to increase the coverage radius. Thus, it was fantastic enough for him that his radius had been widened by ten kilometers at a time.

In shock...

Fang Qiu carefully checked around and found nothing unusual within the sixty kilometers range. Only then did he withdraw his Divine Consciousness. He got ready and rushed into the villa ruins.

The villa appeared to have been destroyed by him at the beginning. But only the top two stories of the villa had collapsed. The first floor was not destroyed.

He dashed into the ruins.

Fang Qiu scanned the ruins with his Divine Consciousness but found nothing worthwhile.

After that...

Fang Qiu entered the villa's first floor from the entrance that had been cracked open by the four gurus. Then he started a diligent search.

"Huh?"

After searching around the villa, Fang Qiu was surprised that there was nothing useful.

Fang Qiu wrinkled his brows in disbelief.

"It's the Africo base, guarded by thirteen gurus. How could there be nothing at all?"

He was filled with doubt.

Fang Qiu continued to scout around.

Eventually...

During the second search, Fang Qiu found an entrance to the basement in a place buried by these collapsed bricks.

He walked into it.

What appeared in front of him was a basement even bigger than a villa.

It was very spacious with a lot of food and looked like a food storage area. There was a separate room in the innermost part.

He looked around this place.

Fang Qiu didn't find any helpful information, not to mention the method of how to become a guru very quickly.

After ensuring there was no useful information in this area, Fang Qiu went deeper and stepped into a separate room.

He glanced around the room.

It was still empty. There was nothing in it except a desk and a laptop.

Fang Qiu carefully tapped on the ground and wall but found no secret compartment. After he checked around, he picked up the laptop on the desk and turned to leave.

This computer was the only thing in the whole villa that might contain Nirvana Organization's secrets. How could he miss it?

After he took the laptop...

Fang Qiu searched around the basement again, unwilling to give up.

In the end, he still could not find their secret method of producing a guru quickly.

He walked out of the villa.

Once again, Fang Qiu used the Great Hand of Destruction.

A palm strike was sent out.

"Boom!"

The devastating force instantly shattered the villa's first floor and the basement.

This time...

The villa was destroyed!

After that, Fang Qiu took the laptop and quickly left. He then took out his mobile phone to call Li Ji.

"Hello?"

The phone was connected, and Li Ji's voice came.

"I just destroyed a base that belonged to Nirvana Organization in Africo and took away a laptop that may be useful. Find a computer expert, and I'll come back right now!"

Fang Qiu briefed him on his schedule.

"Okay."

Li Ji answered and hung up.

In Comores...

On the night after Fang Qiu left, Jiang Miaoyu hurriedly visited her classmate who was in quarantine and brought with her the pill from Fang Qiu. Not long after the patient took the pill, all the viruses in the patient's body miraculously disappeared. Seeing how the student became better, Jiang Miaoyu couldn't be more excited.

That night, she shared the good news with all the medical assistance personnel from Huaxia in the medical assistance base.

Of course...

Jiang Miaoyu didn't tell them that Fang Qiu had delivered these pills. Instead, she said an acquaintance in Huaxia sent the drug to her by mail and asked her to test its effect. She didn't expect it to work and exterminate all the mutant Ebala viruses!

In the evening...

Everyone in the medical assistance base was so agitated that they couldn't fall asleep.

Early the following day...

Jiang Miaoyu, brought along the Knight's Medal and the pills from Fang Qiu and went to the Comores Presidential Palace and talked to the Comores President in detail.

Afterward...

At the President's behest...

Jiang Miaoyu personally tested the pills on ten patients who had the most severe symptoms.

Without exception, all ten patients were cured. After a careful examination, it was found that all the viruses in them were wiped out. Not a single virus remained in their bodies.

This result made the Comores president particularly excited.

Instantly...

He contacted the leaders of the other Africo countries.

Then, he quickly distributed Jiang Miaoyu's pills to all the countries.

One by one, all the countries verified the effect of the pills.

As expected, the pills worked!

At this moment, everyone in Africo celebrated. All the countries in Africo simultaneously announced that there were pills to deal with the mutant Ebala virus.

The news reached many organizations, like vaccine production companies, disease prevention and control organizations, and national scientific research departments.

All the people there were stunned.

They hadn't yet developed a cure. How could any drugs work?

What was going on?

In an instant...

Every country began to investigate the matter.

Through their investigation, they discovered that the drug that could wipe out the mutant Ebala virus was made using traditional medical skills and was connected to Huaxia!

The official statements of Comores and other countries had made this clear!

This time...

The news shocked all the countries in the world.

Traditional medical skills again?

Could traditional medical skills be that amazing?

All of a sudden, all the countries wanted to regain these traditional medical skills and put in a lot of effort to study them. At the same time, they also began introducing the most well-preserved traditional set of medical skills in the world: Huaxia Chinese Medicine!

Chapter 1288: Time to Meet John Doe in Person!

The scorching sun hung high in the sky.

Africon Savannah baked in an unbearable heatwave.

Deep in the grassland...

“Buzz, buzz...”

Swarms of mosquitos and insects hummed around the ruins of the villa. They lingered around the corpses strewn all over the place, wantonly enjoying the feast — the blood that flowed into the ground had congealed under the scorching sun and the decayed corpses were starting to reek.

In the distance...

A figure, riding on the wind like a kite, zoomed over and abruptly stopped in the air before the villa.

Under closer scrutiny...

This person was in a hooded robe seemingly made of snakeskin. The patterns and scales on the robe gave off a chilly vibe even though it was under the sun.

His hooded robe covered his entire head.

Even the front side of this figure was dark.

Only his eyes held a glimmer of light.

This person...

He was none other than Lord Virtuous of Nirvana Organization!

“Ah...”

Hovering in midair, Lord Virtuous slowly turned around and carefully scanned the scattered corpses on the ground. He let out a light sigh, and his gaze fell back on the ruins.

“Hah.”

“I seem to have underestimated John Doe.”

With this...

Lord Virtuous raised his head and said in a slightly bitter voice, “It’s time I met you in person, John Doe!”

After that...

Lord Virtuous turned to leave.

The second he turned around, a blazing ray of sunlight shone upon the loose hoodie and lit up a young face!

Here...

Fang Qiu left the grassland with the laptop. Then, he went to a country that had not taken part in the battle for the relic and boarded the plane back to Huaxia.

On the plane...

“Great changes have taken place. It won’t be as easy as before.”

Fang Qiu’s brows furrowed.

He was well aware of this.

After this incident in Africo, the whole situation became different.

The Africo incident brought about changes to the situation in Africo, Zhongdong, Huaxia, and even the whole world.

The existence of Nirvana Organization shocked all the countries!

Right after the countries worldwide received the video from Huaxia...

They began investigating Nirvana Organization frantically. It was not a short-term investigation but something that entailed long-term planning. No matter what, they were determined to eradicate Nirvana Organization!

And in this case...

Fang Qiu, who shot this video, became a thorn in Nirvana Organization's side. Also, Nirvana Organization hated Huaxia, as they were the ones who had sent this video to all the countries.

After the failure in Zhongdong, its Africo plan failed too.

Of course, Nirvana Organization wouldn't take its defeat lying down.

Next...

They would carry out other plans. Under the investigation and surveillance of countries around the world, they would press ahead with their plans more meticulously!

Nirvana Organization had sent some people to hunt down John Doe in Africon Savannah, so it wouldn't let him go in the following period.

Even then...

Due to their hatred for John Doe and Huaxia, Nirvana Organization would very likely cause a great disturbance in Huaxia Wulin.

A storm was brewing.

Then where would the rain come down?

John Doe, the central figure who caused this storm, was bound to be involved.

In the face of danger, Fang Qiu was fearless even if he was alone.

But...

He was not alone in this.

By living as Fang Qiu most of the time, he could avoid this storm, but the people around John Doe couldn't.

Fang Qiu knew very well Nirvana Organization would continue with their frenzied wrecking activities.

He had just destroyed one of their strongholds and slaughtered thirteen gurus and dozens of eighth and ninth-class martial arts practitioners. So, how could Nirvana Organization let go of this?

He could avoid them, but He Gaoming and the others couldn't!

"What can I do to help them improve their strength fast?"

Fang Qiu pondered hard over it.

From what he had seen...

Nirvana Organization had an excessive number of gurus.

If one stronghold had thirteen gurus, what about all the other strongholds?

How many strongholds did they have in total?

Three, five, or ten?

Or even more?

He couldn't figure out the exact quantity, but he was sure it had many gurus. Even if those gurus achieved by shortcuts were weaker than authentic gurus, they were more capable than real Half-step Gurus.

This kind of strength was not mediocre.

Notably...

In addition to those gurus, Nirvana Organization had a few Venerables. All of them were genuine gurus far more powerful than those incompetent gurus.

It was unknown...

Did Nirvana Organization have members who were even greater than Venerables?

However hard he tried, Fang Qiu couldn't find out how many gurus Nirvana Organization had.

In comparison, the current strength of He Gaoming and the others were too weak. Not to mention gurus, any ninth-class martial arts practitioner dispatched by Nirvana Organization could wipe them out!

To prevent this tragedy from happening, Fang Qiu had to find a way to help He Gaoming and the others quickly improve their strength. The more powerful they were, the safer they would be!

"I have to find a speedy solution to the problem."

Fang Qiu sighed softly.

His force, composed of He Gaoming and the others, was an embryonic form of his power. It couldn't be destroyed before they even achieved anything!

He thought long and hard about this.

Eventually, Fang Qiu came to his senses and glanced out of the window. Then he closed his eyes to recuperate and consolidate his cultivation.

This time, he managed to break through in the face of imminent danger.

With the Seven-storey Tower, he succeeded in making a breakthrough and became a recultivated guru. However, for Fang Qiu, it was a pity he did it in a hurry.

Under siege, he had no choice but to break through forcibly. Otherwise, he would have cultivated for a few more months and made the breakthrough when each cell in his body was fully prepared.

However...

Sometimes, events would take an unexpected turn.

Although the process was not perfect, it was an unforgettable experience for Fang Qiu.

This was the first time he had made a breakthrough in the water!

After that...

Fang Qiu had been fighting all the way until now. He did not have time to familiarize himself with his strength or to stabilize his realm in the first place.

It was rare for him to get such a peaceful night, and he would seize this chance.

Anyway, he had nothing else to do on the plane.

He could use this period to stabilize his new realm as a guru!

He shut his eyes.

Fang Qiu completely suppressed his aura.

By doing so, he could prevent himself from absorbing the Qi of Heaven and Earth. After all, the process might stir up the air currents and cause an accident.

Fortunately...

The energy of the Seven-storey Tower had not been fully assimilated, and some of the energy remained in his flesh, blood, and meridians.

He started running his internal Qi.

Fang Qiu started by trying to mobilize the remaining energy transformed by the Seven-storey Tower in his body. After he cleansed his body again, he absorbed all the energy and turned it into internal Qi.

He then began to stabilize his realm.

In fact...

For martial arts practitioners, enhancing their realms was not for them to comprehend what they would get after a breakthrough. Instead, it was meant to stabilize their foundation after breaking through.

Martial arts practitioners, Martial Superiors, and gurus, all had their foundations!

With the growth of strength, the cultivator's foundation would expand, which required more effort to stabilize it.

What was a recultivated guru's foundation?

It was the body!

Every inch of the body, such as the meridians, flesh and blood, and bones, was included.

This was the most significant change that Fang Qiu got after the breakthrough. To stabilize his foundation, he needed to get used to his body, strength, and the operation of his internal Qi after the breakthrough. He should learn to run his internal Qi as effortlessly as before the breakthrough!

Not only his body but his internal Qi had to adapt to the change brought about by the breakthrough. This process was the stabilization of the foundation!

"Hoot, hoot..."

He controlled his internal Qi and ran it speedily through his meridians.

It circulated for a few cycles inside his body.

After he familiarized himself with it, Fang Qiu lifted his control and let the internal Qi move independently inside him.

At this time...

He suddenly thought of the strange black substance in his body.

Upon a closer look...

He noticed the strange black substance had secretly grown bigger after this period. After he boiled the dark matter, only a hair-like strand was left. To his surprise, it was now as thick as his pinkie.

“I had fought too many battles.”

Fang Qiu still remembered it.

The faster and more violent the internal Qi ran, the more rapidly the black substance would absorb and grow.

In the past few days...

Fang Qiu had indeed been fighting all the time.

His battlefield almost covered the entire Africon Savannah and even extended to the rainforest.

In this case...

It would be strange if the black substance didn't grow.

“When I broke through and became a guru, it should have grown to a bigger size, right?”

Fang Qiu muttered to himself while he observed the black substance.

Compared to a fight...

A breakthrough would speed up the internal Qi to the extreme. At that time, his Qi and blood had surged with incomparable vigor. It was simply a feasting time for this black substance.

No wonder the thread of back matter that had been as thin as a strand of hair, was now as thick as a little finger.

“The issue about the mutant Ebala virus has been solved, but this substance still exists.”

Fang Qiu thought of the conversation between Sixth Venerable and Eighth Venerable he overheard in the biological base.

The mutant Ebala virus was the last half of the Africo plan of Nirvana Organization, and the first half was this eerie black substance.

Notably...

Unlike the part with the mutant Ebala virus, Nirvana Organization successfully accomplished the first half of the plan.

Metahumans worldwide had been planted with this kind of black substance. Once this substance broke out, it would produce a result many times more terrifying than the mutant virus!

“This thing is rather like the Gu poison which comes from toxic worms, insects, or other animals known as the Gu.”

Fang Qiu murmured, “But Gu poison can’t split up and is not contagious.”

“I wonder how Li Ji’s research is going. If they can find a solution, it’ll be fine. But if not, it’ll be troublesome. According to the growth speed of this strange substance, I’m afraid it would erupt very soon.”

Fang Qiu was worried.

He thought of the pheasant he had used for his experiments.

The pheasant had been suc

Medical Master

Chapter 1289: Seeking Out Nirvana Organization Bases!

Fang Qiu didn't dare to delve too much into it.

He immediately began to think and try to find a way to deal with this strange black substance.

Like before...

Fang Qiu thought for a long time and came up with one method after another, but in the end, he discarded all of them because none of those methods seemed to work!

"Back then, I didn't make the breakthrough and become a guru again. Now, as a recultivated guru, I should be able to find a new solution."

Fang Qiu murmured to himself.

This strange black substance would be excessively daunting if even a recultivated guru couldn't do anything about it.

"After I became a recultivated guru, my internal Qi is purer and stronger. Perhaps, it will have some effect on this black substance?"

With this sudden inspiration...

Fang Qiu immediately drove his internal Qi to attack the black matter.

Unexpectedly...

When Fang Qiu was about to control his internal Qi, he was stunned.

He had allowed the internal Qi to run on its own, so he hadn't observed the situation of the internal Qi in his meridians. In this instance, he discovered a ray of golden light glinting among his meridians.

He gazed at it fixedly.

It turned out to be a trace of golden internal Qi.

"Huh?"

Fang Qiu was surprised.

He clearly remembered that only internal Qi existed in his meridians. How could a trace of golden internal Qi appear from nowhere?

"Perhaps, it appeared after I became a recultivated guru and completely stabilized my realm?"

Feeling extremely puzzled...

Fang Qiu carefully attempted to control this wisp of golden internal Qi.

"Um?"

When he tried, Fang Qiu immediately noticed this golden wisp was exceedingly pure and tough, utterly different from the ordinary internal Qi.

Ordinary internal Qi was like water flow, while this trace of golden internal Qi was similar to non-Newtonian fluid flow!

“Or did it form naturally after my body was strengthened?”

Fang Qiu cracked a smile.

He could control this thread of golden internal Qi as easily as using his hands and feet. Besides, the overall quality of this particularly overwhelming trace was several times better than that of ordinary internal Qi.

In this situation...

This trace of golden internal Qi was something rather extraordinary!

“Will such pure internal Qi be able to overpower that trace of the strange black substance?”

Fang Qiu thought in his heart.

But...

He was also a little worried.

Indeed, this trace of golden internal Qi was eminent. But, on second thought, he realized the unusual black substance grew by devouring internal Qi. The golden trace was hard to come by, so it would be a great loss if the black matter swallowed it.

But...

Ordinary internal Qi had proved to be ineffective!

“I’ll give it a try!”

Fang Qiu, seized by a sudden impulse, maintained a firm and careful grip on the golden internal Qi. He had determined to give it a try. If the golden internal Qi didn't work, he would immediately withdraw it.

He did it as soon as he came to this realization.

All his Spiritual Force was concentrated on this trace of golden internal Qi. It was as thick as a grain of rice and about the length of a finger; it appeared to be very small but was almost the same size as the black substance. It kept swimming and wriggling, like an earthworm.

Soon...

Under Fang Qiu's control, the wisp of golden internal Qi approached the black substance and tried to get closer to it.

In the next second...

When he saw what happened, Fang Qiu couldn't help being pleasantly surprised.

Over there...

When the trace of golden internal Qi moved closer, the unshakeable black substance twisted and quickly dodged to one side!

At the sight of this, Fang Qiu was overjoyed.

"It's effective!"

He was finally relieved.

The black matter actually feared this trace of golden internal Qi. When he discovered that, Fang Qiu went straight to activate the golden internal Qi and made it chase after the black matter quickly.

As a result, the black substance immediately began to flee wildly within Fang Qiu's body.

Unfortunately...

It did not belong to this body, but the golden substance was a part of Fang Qiu.

Therefore, no matter how fast the black trace fled, the golden thread could catch up with it instantly. Like a small keen-edged sword, it stabbed into the black substance.

As soon as the two traces made contact...

"Sizzle..."

Instantly, the part of the black substance that touched the golden internal Qi vanished as if it had fallen into boiling water. Right after that, the golden trace surged forth.

The black matter barely had time to escape. In a flash, it was destroyed by the golden internal Qi.

Not a single trace was left!

"Finally, I found a solution."

After he managed to exterminate the black matter, Fang Qiu felt both thrilled and deeply relieved.

Everything would be fine as long as he managed to find a way to destroy the black substance.

A few hours later...

The plane landed.

As soon as Fang Qiu got off the plane, he was led by the security guard inside the airport to a private plane.

He looked up.

Li Ji was waiting for him inside the cabin.

Without wasting any time, Fang Qiu reached into his bag, grabbed the laptop he found in the Africo base of Nirvana Organization, and quickly got on the plane.

“How is everything going?”

When Fang Qiu boarded, Li Ji took him in, and they sat down in a place similar to a hotel room.

In addition to Li Ji, a few other people were also on the plane.

One of them was a young man who wore a cap and had headphones on. He was sitting alone by the window, listening to music.

After observing the surroundings, Fang Qiu turned to Li Ji and said, “It’s okay. I found nothing unusual along the way. But this laptop is protected by a password, so I haven’t yet opened it and don’t know what’s inside.”

“Let me have a look?”

Li Ji reached out and took the laptop from Fang Qiu.

Then, he opened it and took a look.

He found that no one could use it unless they had a password.

“I’ve already found the person for this. Let’s begin to crack it.”

Even as he spoke.

He waved to the young man sitting by the side. The young man took off his headphones. When he stood up and was about to come over, the plane took off and dipped a little and he almost lost his balance.

The young man no longer dared to move for fear of losing his balance.

“This guy is a top computer hacker and is serving our state now.”

Li Ji introduced him briefly.

“Oh?”

Fang Qiu cast a curious glance at the young man.

The young man responded with a smile.

Li Ji stood up and walked straight to the young man. Without uttering a word, he put the computer on the table before him. The young guy made an “OK” gesture, nodded, and began to work on the laptop.

At this time...

The plane was already in stable flight mode.

“By the way,” after Li Ji returned, Fang Qiu asked, “Regarding the black matter in Luoyun and the others? Have you found a solution?”

“The situation doesn’t look good.”

At once, Li Ji shook his head and said solemnly, “The black matter is still within them. Only Luoyun found it, while the others did not even know about it. In their eyes, they were under quarantine because we thought they were infected with the mutant Ebala virus.”

When Li Ji mentioned this...

He took a deep breath and continued, “I’ve heard something from the people who participated in the competition for the relic. Before the Egyptt guru passed out, he said all the people going out of the relic would be cursed by the Pharaoh. So, I suppose this black substance is related to the Pharaoh’s curse. Nirvana Organization lured everyone in, but they must have just made use of this black substance, which should belong to the Pharaoh relic in the first place.”

“However, we’ve been searching for a long time but haven’t found a way to break the Pharaoh’s curse. Worse still, we haven’t made any progress in our research on this black substance!”

Li Ji talked a lot about it.

His expression grew increasingly serious.

Sure enough, he feared this black substance would break out after learning how terrifying it was.

“I’ve found a way.”

Just as Li Ji was weighed down with anxiety, Fang Qiu spoke.

After that...

Li Ji's face drastically changed.

"Really?"

In an instant, Li Ji was beside himself with joy.

"Um, it should work."

Fang Qiu nodded with certainty and said, "I've managed to eradicate all the black matter in my body."

"That's fabulous!"

Li Ji enthused.

Just then...

"Bravo."

Next to them, the young man who had been hard at work, trying to crack the code on the laptop suddenly stopped and said, glowing with pride, "I did it. There are some pictures in this laptop."

Upon hearing his words...

Fang Qiu and Li Ji immediately went up to him.

The young man turned the laptop toward them. As he clicked on what he had found in it, he explained, "This computer has very little content. There is almost nothing else except for the system files. So, I scanned all the hard disks and discovered a hidden folder. See? It contains these pictures."

Fang Qiu and Li Ji looked over.

The pictures on the computer showed some maps with marks.

“A map of the bases!”

Li Ji and Fang Qiu were petrified. From this picture, they could see many marks scattered worldwide!

“This information is of immense significance.”

Li Ji said seriously, “So many years have passed, but we haven’t even found a shred of information about Nirvana Organization. This time, we found the distribution map of the bases of Nirvana Organization! This information is critically important to us!”

“Mmm.”

Fang Qiu was also delighted at the result.

He didn’t expect this laptop to have the information on Nirvana Organization’s bases. What an incredible piece of good fortune.

“But it’s a pity...”

Seeing Fang Qiu and Li Ji beaming with pleasure, the young hacker pursed his lips and said, “This picture is not complete, but I can only restore it to this extent for the time being. The remaining part seems to have been destroyed or doesn’t exist at all.”

Fang Qiu and Li Ji said that at the same time.

As they talked...

The two of them closely scrutinized the map.

Then, their faces grew grave.

“It’s Huaxia!”

Li Ji pointed to an area in the picture and said.

“Nine bases. Seriously?”

Fang Qiu found it hard to believe either.

Nirvana Organization had as many as nine bases in Huaxia. If each base were like the one in Africo, there would be hundreds of gurus in these nine bases.

As soon as Fang Qiu thought of this, his face instantly darkened.

“I’ll report this to higher-ups right now!”

Li Ji didn’t dare to hesitate. He immediately sent out the picture and reported this startling discovery.

He knew the consequences.

Once Nirvana Organization found the computer was gone, those bases would soon be vacated. At that time, the important information would be useless, so he had to act decisively!

Chapter 1290: Help Others Kill Black Matter

Half an hour later...

Somewhere among the lofty mountains in Huaxia...

From a gate deep within the mountain, a group of people carrying long swords on their backs flashed out one by one. They looked bright and dashing and their demeanor was like that of immortals. These people then split themselves into nine detachments and left swiftly in different directions.

In Beijiāng...

The plane landed.

Of course, it was not at Beijiāng Airport but at an independent biological research base in the restricted military zone.

“Specifically, this strange black substance is more frightening than the mutant Ebala virus. At least, people can study the virus and seek out a solution. But when it came to dealing with this black matter, we were in a hopeless muddle. The higher-ups have ordered everyone to be taken straight here for isolation to prevent it from spreading. No matter what, there should be no accidents in the capital.”

As he got off the plane, Li Ji said to Fang Qiu.

“Mmm.”

Fang Qiu nodded.

Soon...

After they got off the plane, Li Ji took him to the biological base and came to a fully enclosed room. At this time, Luoyun and the others were sitting cross-legged in the room.

“There were other people with them on the plane. Had any of them been infected?”

Fang Qiu was worried about this, though he knew the others had little chance of being infected. After all, the black substance hadn’t yet grown much in these people’s bodies. However, this dangerous thing could spread like a plague among ordinary people. What was worse, neither doctors nor instruments could detect it.

“The higher-ups have invited people to conduct a careful examination. In addition to these people who participated in the competition for the ancient relic, some ordinary people were also infected accidentally, but all those infected people are here.”

Li Ji said.

“That’s good.”

Fang Qiu nodded and said to Li Ji, “I’ll go in and help them first.”

After that...

He opened the door and went in.

“Crack.”

Since Luoyun and the others had been isolated for several days here, they had long been used to the quietness of this fully enclosed room. Suddenly, the sound of the door opening attracted everyone’s attention, and they all opened their eyes.

When they took a closer look...

They were shocked to find John Doe standing at the door!

They knew John Doe but were not very familiar with him. When they saw him, everyone in the room was quite taken aback. Though they knew John Doe had fought with them in Africo, Fang Qiu was in the guise of Well Known back then. But now, he showed up as John Doe, whose intimidating image was known far and wide in the world.

“John Doe?”

Luoyun took the lead to stand up, looked at Fang Qiu curiously, and asked, “You’re back? Why are you also being isolated?”

“No, it’s not that.”

Fang Qiu smiled and shook his head, saying, “I’m here to save you.”

“You have a solution?”

Luoyun was delighted.

As a guru, he could see the strange black substance in his body. He had been trying to deal with this tricky problem. But no matter hard he tried, he couldn’t make it disappear. On the contrary, the black substance absorbed a lot of his internal Qi and had grown bigger, even to the size of a fist.

As the small lump of black substance grew, it obtained ever-increasing drawing power. Worse still, it had begun to forcibly absorb all his internal Qi and blood.

Of course...

Luoyun didn’t tell others about this situation, including the black substance. So, the others had no idea about it. They all thought they were infected with the Ebala virus in Africo.

“Mmm.”

Fang Qiu nodded and said, “I’ll start with you.”

After that...

He turned to the others in the room. “Everyone, now I’m going to help you remove the infection source in your bodies, one by one. During this process, you should try your best to control your internal Qi and not resist!”

“Come on.”

Luoyun couldn’t wait any longer.

The black substance in his body had grown too big. If this continued, he could no longer suppress it.

Fang Qiu didn’t waste any time.

When a master healed a wounded person in the martial arts TV series, he would sit down cross-legged and put his hand on the person’s back. Fang Qiu did likewise. While he gently ran his internal Qi, he let Luoyun relax.

After Luoyun was completely relaxed, he controlled the trace of golden internal Qi in his body and injected it into Luoyun.

When his wisp of internal Qi entered Luoyun’s body...

Luoyun, who was pretty relaxed up till now, suddenly tensed. The Qi and blood in his whole body surged. Subconsciously, the internal Qi in his body began to resist vigorously.

Then...

Like a runaway horse, his internal Qi sprinted toward the trace of golden internal Qi. Unexpectedly, it was suddenly pushed and stopped by an invisible force. While the golden internal Qi moved forward, his internal Qi kept retreating as if it was too weak to fight against the golden Qi!

Luoyun was visibly shocked by this scene.

The golden internal Qi was excessively overwhelming!

However...

Though in shock, Luoyun focused his attention on the thread of golden internal Qi. After he suppressed his restless internal Qi, Luoyun followed Fang Qiu's golden internal Qi and soon came to the fist-sized black substance.

"My goodness."

Fang Qiu exclaimed. Without missing a beat, he drove the wisp of golden internal Qi into the black lump. Like a loach going through a piece of tofu, it darted back and forth in the black substance.

Each time it made a dash, it crushed all the black substance in its path.

Soon after...

The black substance tried to flee.

Unluckily for it, the golden substance moved about speedily and was quick to kill the black matter

In just three minutes...

The fist-sized black matter was destroyed and left no trace.

The detoxifying process was finished.

Fang Qiu retracted his golden internal Qi.

“Alright, let’s go out first.”

After eradicating the black matter, Fang Qiu walked out with Luoyun. When he saw them coming out, Li Ji immediately came up to them.

“Is it done?”

Li Ji asked.

“Yes.”

Luoyun nodded, beaming with pleasure.

“Luoyun is fine.”

Fang Qiu nodded in agreement and said with a smile, “But many people are waiting for my help!”

At this time...

“You, you’ve broken through and become a guru?”

Luoyun, no longer able to restrain his curiosity, finally got a chance and asked with an amazed look.

Fang Qiu nodded.

“Clap!”

At once, Luoyun immediately gave Fang Qiu a hold fist salute, his eyes filled with admiration.

At the sight of this...

Li Ji was startled and felt a little puzzled.

“But didn’t Fang Qiu become a guru long ago?”

“Take a rest first. I’ll go and help the others.”

After he spoke to Luoyun , Fang Qiu turned around and returned to the isolation room.

He began to treat the next person.

Luoyun sat cross-legged outside the door and began to recuperate.

Li Ji followed Fang Qiu into the isolation room with a puzzled look on his face. Although the black substance was quite weird and terrifying, Fang Qiu had a solution now, so Li Ji was not afraid.

In the isolation room...

“Hey, you became a guru long ago, didn’t you?”

Li Ji couldn’t help asking. The more he thought about it, the more confused he became.

“That’s not the same.”

Fang Qiu shook his head.

But Li Ji failed to understand what he meant...

He was even more perplexed.

In the end...

After looking around the isolation room, Li Ji then turned around and left to report the news to his superiors.

Here...

Fang Qiu had already begun to heal them, one after one.

Like Luoyun, the others also had been infected long ago, so they also had a lot of black matter. It was not so easy for Fang Qiu to clean up so much black substance.

When Li Ji returned...

Fang Qiu had already helped most of the people to remove the black matter.

However...

In the isolation room, those ordinary people didn’t have a clue about what was going on. When they witnessed John Doe’s moves, they looked stunned and puzzled. After spending a quiet time here, they had become much less agitated. If they hadn’t known John Doe worked for the country, they would even have considered him a deceitful Qigong master.

“What the hell is going on?”

“Is he playing some dishonest juggling tricks to fool us?”

“Can you extract the black substance?”

After he returned, Li Ji walked up to Fang Qiu first and whispered, “Insert this thing into the bodies of animals, so we can carry out some research. If any incident happens in the future, it will be more convenient for us to deal with it. At least, don’t let Nirvana Organization make any trouble with this.”

As soon as Fang Qiu heard that...

“Okay, you can go and find an animal.”

Fang Qiu said.

Soon...

Li Ji came in with two people in biological protective suits, carrying a glass box — there was a gerbil in it.

They opened the glass box.

On the spot, Fang Qiu used the previous method and forced the black substance out. After wrapping it in the Qi of Heaven and Earth, he directly shot it into the gerbil.

“Isolate it!”

When the black substance dived into the target, Li Ji immediately barked out this order.

The two men in biological protective suits closed the glass box right away!

“Your methods are getting increasingly fantastic.”

Li Ji sighed with emotion.

Fang Qiu didn't reply and continued to treat the patients.

By the time he had cured everyone, he was drenched in sweat.

“The job is done!”

Fang Qiu walked out of the quarantine room and wiped the sweat from his forehead.

“Have a rest first.”

Seeing that Fang Qiu's forehead was dripping with sweat, Li Ji spoke up, “High-ups want you to document everything about your experience in Africo, especially the information about Nirvana Organization!”

“Okay.”

Fang Qiu nodded knowingly and said, “I don't need to rest. I can write it now.”

As he spoke...

Fang Qiu left the biological base with Li Ji.

“How is the epidemic in Africo?”

Fang Qiu asked on the way.

“According to the latest news, it has been brought under control. Your pills are now being distributed to these patients.”

Li Ji said.

“That’s good.”

Fang Qiu let out a sigh of relief.

When he sent the video back, he told Li Ji that he had made the pills for the mutant Ebala virus.

“Don’t associate this matter with John Doe.”

Fang Qiu reminded him.

Li Ji nodded knowingly and said, “We will erase all the clues that might lead to your real identity as soon as possible.”

“Great.”

Fang Qiu nodded with satisfaction.

When they talked...

Li Ji led him to an office.

Without further ado, Fang Qiu began reviewing everything he had experienced in Africo.

As he ran through the whole process in his mind, Fang Qiu already had some speculations in his heart.

In his opinion...

Undoubtedly, Nirvana Organization elaborately planned this series of incidents in Africo. Using Spiritual Herbs, they succeeded in attracting the attention of metahumans worldwide. When each metahuman kept a close watch on that place, they took this opportunity and uncovered the ancient relic.

The relic was much more attractive than the Spiritual Herbs.

Therefore, as soon as the news about the relic came out, the forces and metahumans flocked there from all over the world. Afterward, Nirvana Organization took action and led everyone into the ancient ruin!
