Chapter 1381: He Is Nirvana Organization's Crowning Lord!!!

"Swish..."

The sharp arrow was covered with a layer of frost, emitting an ice-cold aura. It shot from a distance and went straight to Fang Qiu's heart.

The sharp arrow was traveling with astonishing speed.

When Fang Qiu rushed up to Crowning Lord, the frost arrow already reached him and was about to hit Fang Qiu.

Heading forward in midair, Fang Qiu forcibly turned around.

"Whoosh."

The frost arrow flew right past Fang Qiu's chest. However, the arrow carried sharp energy Qi. It made a big split in Fang Qiu's shirt and left a blood mark on his chest.

Fortunately...

A fast-achieving guru shot this frost arrow. Thus, the energy it carried was not as strong as it looked. But even so, it still made Fang Qiu suffer a little. If the comer was a Venerable or as strong as the silver-haired man, this arrow could seriously injure Fang Qiu.

"Despicable!"

On the neighboring peak, Sword Fanatic widened his eyes and burst out all his internal Qi with a roar. Like a sharp sword out of its sheath, he rushed up to Fang Qiu with a loud bang.

Right at this moment...

On the large rock before Fang Qiu, Crowning Lord had been lying feebly after the blow. Suddenly, he took a deep breath and slapped the stone with his palm. With the help of his last internal Qi, he immediately retreated far away.

“Four gurus!”

After dodging the arrow, Fang Qiu finally stabilized himself. In a hurry, he moved his internal Qi to his shoulders and chest. While treating his injuries, he stared gloomily at the four gurus popping up before him.

“Sure enough, Nirvana!”

Crowning Lord, covered with wounds, had retreated far away. Fang Qiu turned to look at him, narrowing his eyes, and said coldly.

Before this, he couldn't confirm it.

Even...

When Fang Qiu knocked his rival into the air and ended the battle, he was not sure of his identity. But as the four gurus showed up, Fang Qiu instantly confirmed the identity of the silver-haired man.

In this world, only Nirvana Organization could send so many gurus to fight together!

Besides...

One of the four was a middle-aged man holding a bow in a steward's uniform. Except for him, the other three were all dressed in black, like gurus of Nirvana Organization that Fang Qiu had met before!

"Shameless villain!"

Seeing that Fang Qiu was fine, Sword Fanatic glared at the silver-haired man supported by the steward.

"Hehe."

Hearing his angry rebuke, Crowning Lord didn't look embarrassed at all. Instead, he laughed naturally and said, "To achieve great things, the most important thing is to stay alive!"

"What is your position in Nirvana Organization? First Venerable or Second Venerable?"

Fang Qiu narrowed his eyes and asked.

"I'll tell you when you die."

Crowning Lord snorted, waved his right hand, and ordered, "Don't worry about me. Seize him when he's seriously injured and weak!"

"Yes."

The steward immediately responded. Taking a step forward, he stopped before Crowning Lord, holding an ancient snake-head black iron bow. On the spot, he drew the bow to the full with both hands. There, the pointed arrow was fitted to the string. With the surge of internal Qi at his fingertips, a layer of frost spread and expanded wildly, instantly covering the whole sharp arrow.

As he loosened his fingers, the long arrow shot out, aiming straight at Fang Qiu.

At the same time...

The other three gurus brandished their weapons and charged at Fang Qiu together.

“Do you think you can win by sheer force of numbers?”

Sword Fanatic shouted angrily, “I’m still here!”

With this...

Sword Fanatic moved. A mighty sword Qi burst out from him. Like a sharp sword out of its sheath, he darted toward the three people rushing over to besiege with exceedingly sharp sword intent.

As a result, the three gurus coming together scattered in an instant. One of them confronted Sword Fanatic, while the other two went to attack Fang Qiu from two directions.

“Can the four incapable gurus protect you?”

Glaring at Crowning Lord, Fang Qiu flashed aside. Ignoring his injuries, he immediately threw himself upon Crowning Lord.

“What?”

When Crowning Lord sensed the aura John Doe erupted, his expression suddenly changed.

The battle had consumed all his internal Qi. John Doe had used nearly the same internal Qi. In his mind, John Doe should have no more internal Qi to use. In this case, destroying John Doe and Sword Fanatic was a piece of cake for the four gurus.

However, to his surprise...

John Doe still had some strength left!

Moreover, there seemed to be a lot of strength.

“What the hell is going on?”

“How could John Doe still have so much internal Qi?”

“How could he still have the strength to fight after such a fierce battle?”

This time...

Crowning Lord suddenly panicked.

For the first time in decades, he got flustered.

The strength John Doe showed was a little stronger than his. Now he had no more combat capabilities. If John Doe caught up with him, could he survive?

With this in mind...

“Go ahead! Kill him!”

Crowning Lord immediately shouted at the steward in front of him.

The steward did not hesitate at all.

He flashed aside and threw the black iron bow with a snake’s head in his hand on the ground. A layer of cold energy Qi immediately burst out from him, mounting a charge against John Doe.

The other two also arrived.

In the blink of an eye...

The three gurus surrounded Fang Qiu to protect their master.

Behind the three gurus, Crowning Lord gritted his teeth with a gloomy face. Though he looked unwilling to give up, he immediately turned his head. Activating a little internal Qi that he had just recovered, he fled quickly into the distance.

He knew what would happen.

Four fast-achieving gurus were no match for John Doe. Therefore, he had to seize this chance and escape immediately. He wanted to use the lives of these four gurus to buy him some time to live.

Not far away...

"John Doe."

...

Sword Fanatic confronted a fast-achieving guru. It was the first time that he had burst out his guru-level power. Though he had no sword in his hand, he roared and waved his right hand. In a twinkling, energy swords condensed in front of him.

At a glance...

There were at least dozens of energy swords.

These energy swords were as dexterous as Sword Fanatic's hands. Moving swiftly, they repulsed the attacks of his opponents. After that...

"Sword Dragon!"

When he resisted the opponent's assault, he waved his right hand. Then, the dozens of energy swords suddenly merged into one, and he dashed to his rival like a frenetic dragon.

The next moment...

"Pitter! Patter!"

There came a succession of knocking sounds like raindrops.

The incapable guru held a shield before him, but the dense energy swords almost pierced his shield in a flash. After breaking the shield, the thickly dotted energy sword burst out a stream of sharp energy Qi. Instantly, it penetrated the guru.

Before Sword Fanatic could have a good time fighting...

His rival died!

However...

Sword Fanatic's strength was indeed much greater than his. After all, his opponent was an incapable guru, while Sword Fanatic was an expert in swordsmanship. When he became a Half-step Guru, his combat capability was comparable to that of a guru. After he broke through and became a guru, his fighting capacity doubled.

In this situation...

How could Nirvana Organization's incapable guru be a match for him?

Sword Fanatic slayed one guru.

He turned his head to look.

The other three gurus had fallen to the ground — John Doe slaughtered them all!

This scene was surprising.

Sword Fanatic got a shock.

John Doe acted exceptionally fast.

However, after thinking about it carefully, Sword Fanatic thought the result made sense. John Doe had unleashed all his energy in the previous battle. With such unconquerable Qi power, it would not be difficult for him to slaughter three gurus quickly!

Not to mention three gurus, Fang Qiu killed more than ten incapable gurus in Africo. What was more, Fang Qiu was now completely different from how he used to be!

They died before Fang Qiu.

The three dead incompetent gurus, especially the steward, looked terribly surprised!

In their eyes...

Crowning Lord was a top-notch super master. Except for the supreme one, no one else could be his match. After John Doe fought with Crowning Lord, he must have been seriously injured and powerless to fight back like what Crowning Lord had told them. But when they jointly attacked John Doe, they felt a powerful and terrifying force from him. The situation frustrated them!

They knew they could never withstand that power.

Therefore...

Even before they died, they did not close their eyes with a shocked look.

“Buddy, how could make that like a freak?”

Sword Fanatic rushed over in surprise and said, “I wanted to show off the sword move I just created myself, but just after I got rid of one, I found you had killed the other three.”

“Whoosh...”

Fang Qiu heaved a deep sigh.

“Beep, beep, beep...”

Just as he was about to speak, the phone in his trouser pocket suddenly rang.

He took it out to have a look.

It was a call from Li Ji.

“Hello?”

Fang Qiu answered the phone.

“I found it.”

Li Ji's extremely solemn voice came from the other end of the phone. "The silver-haired man who challenged you is the third in command of Nirvana Organization on the surface. He is regarded as Crowning Lord by Nirvana Organization members! If there is any chance, you must kill him!"

"Crowning Lord?!"

Fang Qiu was shocked when he heard that.

He didn't expect that.

Nirvana Organization actually sent out its third-best member. No wonder he was so powerful. In the battle, Fang Qiu was severely wounded by Crowning Lord but failed to slaughter him.

Now it looked...

Since he was Nirvana Organization's Crowning Lord, everything made sense!

"You're a step too late."

Hearing Li Ji's words, Fang Qiu immediately turned to look in the direction where Crowning Lord escaped and said, "He has run away, but in his current state, he shouldn't be able to flee fast. I'll catch up with him now."

"Are you alright?"

Li Ji asked hurriedly.

"I'm fine. It's just a minor injury."

Fang Qiu replied, "Don't worry. I still have some strength. Since he is such a significant figure of Nirvana Organization, I won't let him run away this time, no matter what. Otherwise, he will bring us endless trouble!"

After they finished talking...

Fang Qiu hung up the phone. He got ready and chased after Crowning Lord in the direction that he escaped.

Sword Fanatic followed closely behind!

Chapter 1382: Three Gurus Came

"Whoosh, whoosh, whoosh..."

Fang Qiu soared down from the mountaintop and chased after Crowning Lord.

At this time...

Fang Qiu couldn't find any trace of Crowning Lord with the naked eye. Thus, he expanded his Divine Consciousness to the maximum and covered an area within a radius of 100 kilometers around him.

Under the detection of his Divine Consciousness...

Fang Qiu easily located Crowning Lord, who was escaping. At this time, Crowning Lord didn't run far away.

In the fierce battle with Fang Qiu, more than half of his internal Qi had been consumed. In addition, the Great Hand of Destruction launched by Fang Qiu hit him. He was so seriously injured that he could not move at full speed. Helplessly, he could only heal himself while absorbing the Qi of Heaven and Earth. Meanwhile, he used his newly converted internal Qi to escape.

“Nirvana Organization really thinks so highly of me.”

Fifteen kilometers away, Fang Qiu locked Crowning Lord with his Divine Consciousness. With his internal Qi surging, he ran after him as fast as he could.

Of course...

While hunting him, Fang Qiu applied the Great Hand of Destruction and attracted all the Qi of Heaven and Earth on the way. Gathering it around him, he kept absorbing the Qi of Heaven and Earth and transforming it to replenish his internal Qi!

In addition, except for the fast-moving internal Qi in him, Fang Qiu also controlled part of his internal Qi to restore the wounds on his shoulders and chest continuously.

The bleeding wound on his chest was superficial. Nourished by his internal Qi, it had scabbed over.

Yet, his shoulders were still severely mutilated.

Some broken pieces of flesh were even burnt.

Fortunately, it was just an external injury.

Nourished by internal Qi, the flesh and blood were slowly regrowing, and the wounds were healing little by little. Although the healing speed was very slow, his condition must be much better than that of Crowning Lord, whose chest had been smashed.

Behind him...

“Swish...”

Sword Fanatic followed John Doe. Like a sword breaking through the air, he chased after him speedily. But gradually, he found he was getting farther and farther away from John Doe. In the blink of an eye, he was hundreds of meters behind.

“This guy, isn’t he a bit too fast?”

Seeing Fang Qiu pursuing their fleeing enemy at lightning speed, Sword Fanatic was rather startled.

He still didn’t know the real identity of the silver-haired man. But even though he was seriously injured, John Doe chose to chase after him. From this aspect, Sword Fanatic could tell that the silver-haired man must be a big fish.

Moreover, their enemy was obviously not alone. When John Doe caught up with him, he might fall into their trap or encirclement. Sword Fanatic was worried about John Doe’s safety but couldn’t keep up with him.

John Doe and Crowning Lord had just experienced a bloody battle. How could they advance so fast when suffering terrible injuries?

It sounded terrifying!

All the way south...

He was 15 kilometers away from Crowning Lord. At full speed, Fang Qiu shortened the distance from 15 to 10 kilometers.

Ahead of them, Crowning Lord had been fleeing to the south. It seemed that he noticed the energy aura coming from behind. Suddenly, he looked back and saw that John Doe had almost caught up with him. His face immediately fell. He no longer dared to escape while recuperating. Instead, he burst out all his internal Qi that he had just rebuilt, though it was less than ten percent of his previous internal Qi. He increased his speed, running away with all his might.

Crowning Lord knew very well what might happen.

If John Doe caught up with him in this situation, he would be killed!

Therefore, Crowning Lord couldn't care about anything else.

Fortunately...

Along the way, there were only primary forests.

Moreover, they were at Huaxia's border, so they didn't meet anybody along the way.

In hot pursuit...

Fang Qiu maintained his high speed. Though Crowning Lord fleeing ahead had accelerated, the distance between them narrowed little by little.

Ten minutes later, the distance was shortened by one kilometer. After another ten minutes, it was reduced by another kilometer!

An hour later...

The distance between them was less than three kilometers.

After one hour of nourishment and repair, the injuries on Fang Qiu's shoulders had recovered a lot. The burnt skin and flesh had also fallen off, while new flesh and blood grew and began to take shape.

Up ahead...

After an hour of pursuit, Crowning Lord's internal Qi had finally recovered by 25%. While keeping his speed, he could finally use 10% of his internal Qi to heal himself.

From afar...

It was clear that his chest was still in a mess. There was a palm-sized hole. The skin and flesh inside and outside the hole were burned black. Even his ribs could be seen.

Before the energy palm caused the explosion, he gathered all his remaining internal Qi to protect his heart. Otherwise, the Great Hand of Destruction could have instantly taken his life away!

“Liaos.”

Feeling that John Doe was getting closer and closer, Crowning Lord gritted his teeth and looked ahead. It turned out that he had fled to Huaxia’s border. Once he crossed the border, he would be in Liaos!

Liaos...

It was an inland country in Aesia located in the northern part of the Zhongnan Peninsula. Its neighbors were Huaxia to the north, Cabodia to the south, Southern Yue to the east, Bourma to the northwest, and Tailand to the southwest!

In this country, the plant industry was very highly developed. Like Huaxia, it was also a country in Aesia with a rich history and Wulin.

As the saying went, “Keep good men company and you shall be of the number.” As a country near Huaxia, how could it not learn something?

Liaos mainly depended on agriculture. As a result, its manufacturing industry and service industry were weak. However, it was rich in water resources and produced all kinds of precious wood. So, it often provoked wood robbers from other countries in addition to Huaxia.

Liaos’s military forces could not guard the border in this case. Therefore, it sent an eighth-class expert with two opened meridians to defend the border!

The expert was sitting cross-legged in a tree house similar to a watchtower.

All of a sudden...

The man suddenly opened his eyes and stood up. He jumped onto the treetop and looked into the distance.

He saw a figure with silver hair flying toward him at a terrifying speed.

“Who is it?”

Standing on the tree top, the eighth-class expert with two opened meridians in Liaos suddenly shouted, “I’m warning you; this is Liaos. Don’t cross the border, or don’t blame me for being rude!”

As soon as he finished speaking...

“Get lost!”

Crowning Lord, who was flying over, released a cold snort.

“Stop!”

As soon as he heard that, Liaos’s Martial Superior guard went furious. Especially when he saw the serious injury on Crowning Lord’s chest, his face turned severe. He jumped up high and delivered a palm strike to Crowning Lord, trying to stop him.

As a result...

“Bang!”

Crowning Lord that flew over took Liaos's Martial Superior guard lightly. Casually, he slapped the man away.

When the Martial Superior guard was knocked back into the air, his face changed dramatically. Before he could attack again, Crowning Lord had already turned into a fast-moving shadow and flew away.

With a thought...

Liaos's Martial Superior guard was ready to warn his comrades inside the border.

But before he could do so, another ear-splitting sound came through the air to him.

He turned to look.

Another figure flew over.

Like the former one, this person was also covered in wounds. His shoulders, especially, were covered in blood.

"Damn it!"

This guard cursed angrily. The anger in his heart flared up. He called out without hesitation when seeing Fang Qiu with seriously wounded shoulders. Then he bounced up into the air to stop him.

"Get lost!"

A cold voice sounded.

Before he could move, Fang Qiu, flying over at high speed, waved his left hand. A burst of intense internal Qi swept out and pushed him far away into the air.

This time...

Liaos's Martial Superior guard was dumbfounded.

He had thought he could succeed in stopping the invader this time, but the comer had no intention of stopping and fighting with him. He just casually waved his hand and sent him flying.

It was a shattering blow to the guard's pride!

After all, he was one of the top experts in his country, but the two comers carelessly played with him as if he was a bug on their way. How could he not feel aggrieved?

Just as he was upset, he was suddenly stunned.

"It's not right. The two people were fucking flying over in the sky. They are gurus!"

When he thought of this, his face lit up with surprise.

The most powerful practitioner in their country was only a ninth-class Martial Superior with one opened meridian. They had heard of some stories about gurus, but they had never seen one.

It was precisely because of this that he didn't realize the truth in the first place.

Now, he began thinking carefully about this matter.

"Why would two gurus come here?"

“Is something big going to happen?”

An idea came to his mind.

He quickly returned to the treehouse, grabbed the phone, and reported to his superiors, “Two gurus from Huaxia have crossed the border and entered our country. Their purpose is unknown. I don’t know if there is a third one coming!”

As soon as his warning message was received...

The whole Liaos, from the government to Wulin, was in an uproar.

To better protect this small country, the Wulin and the government were united. Upon receiving the news, the Wulin and the government immediately became vigilant. What exactly the two gurus wanted to do? To get the answer, they began mobilizing people to confront the two gurus from Huaxia.

The warning message was issued.

The Martial Superior guard of the Liaos heard another harsh sound of something penetrating the air.

One more person flew over.

The guard fixed his eyes on the newcomer.

There were no injuries on this man. He was enveloped by a transparent sword-like energy Qi. Although he looked incredibly majestic, he was much slower than the previous two gurus.

“Well, I don’t believe I can’t stop this one.”

With a roar in his heart, the Liaos's Martial Superior guard moved and jumped to the tree top. He tapped the tree lightly like a dragonfly skimming the water surface. Then, he leaped high into the air and punched at Sword Fanatic, who was flying over.

"Get lost!"

He heard the same roar.

This time...

A terrifying gust of wind blew over and overturned him when he lurched forward.

This result made the guard completely speechless.

"Another guru!"

"There are fucking three gurus already."

Looking into the distance, he warned his country again and called someone else to guard here. After that, the eighth-class Martial Superior with two opened meridians hurried to catch up with them.

After all, he could be considered a top-notch fighter in his country. He must catch up with them even if he couldn't defeat them!

Three gurus?

The warning message was received.

Suddenly, the Liaos's Wulin and government fell silent.

How could they fight against three gurus?

They couldn't win over even one guru, let alone three.

They represented a country, after all. Therefore, they couldn't look intimidated even if they couldn't defeat a guru!

Over there...

Entering the Liaos, Crowning Lord looked back and found John Doe was still chasing after him. With a livid face, he immediately changed his direction and flew quickly toward a mountainous area. As he fled, he contacted the Nirvana members in this country, ordering them to come over and intercept John Doe!

Medical Master

Chapter 1383: Leave These People to Me

"Fuck!"

While escaping at a dizzying speed, Crowning Lord turned around and glanced at John Doe. When he found John Doe was only about two kilometers away, his face turned gloomy.

If he didn't well treat his injuries in time, his condition would worsen.

He used his internal Qi to stop the bleeding and save his life after being seriously injured. On the run, he spared some internal Qi to heal himself. Nevertheless, he had been moving fast all the time.

The last thing he should do was move when he had such a severe injury.

He couldn't control his Qi and blood when he didn't have sufficient internal Qi. Even if he had stopped bleeding, the Qi and blood in his body kept rushing to the wounds.

In this way, it would be very difficult for his wounds to heal.

Most importantly...

His speed of absorbing the Qi of Heaven and Earth and converting it into internal Qi was obviously not fast enough to meet his demand.

He had to run away fast while treating his injuries.

In this situation...

It would be instantly consumed whenever he obtained a trace of internal Qi by absorbing and transforming the Qi of Heaven and Earth. As such, he couldn't keep internal Qi at all. If John Doe chased after him all the way, he would have no time to recover. Sooner or later, John Doe would drain his energy, and he would die of exhaustion.

At this time, he was filled with shock and anger.

Crowning Lord was quick to take out his phone.

Then he dialed a number and said, "Everyone, immediately come to the position of my phone and assist!"

After that...

He quickly put away his phone.

Then he continued to escape. In a flash, he dashed toward the endless deep forest of Liaos.

Behind him...

“You have no way to escape!”

Fang Qiu still narrowed his eyes. As he moved forward, he secretly tried to run the guidance technique he had obtained from the ancient tomb.

After the improvement, the guiding technique became doubly effective. But only when he sat in meditation could he achieve such high efficiency. Now, he had to run it on the move. Even Fang Qiu himself didn't know whether it could work.

However...

To catch up with Crowning Lord, he had to give it a try.

He had to recover his internal Qi as soon as possible. Then, he could have a greater chance of getting and killing him!

In the chase...

Fang Qiu began to run the guiding technique.

With the operation of the guiding technique, his internal Qi started circulating rapidly in his meridians.

As soon as he put the technique into practice...

A modest, attractive force immediately emerged in Fang Qiu, enabling him to devour the surrounding Qi of Heaven and Earth quickly.

Fang Qiu’s eyes lit up.

In this operation, the guiding technique didn’t accelerate his cultivation speed eight times, not to mention sixteen times. Nevertheless, his absorption speed became twice his usual speed, which was great.

“Double my speed. What if I add the Great Hand of Destruction?”

With a stir of his mind...

When Fang Qiu started to chase, he activated the Great Hand of Destruction. As a result, he attracted all the Qi of Heaven and Earth wherever he passed.

He had already made up his mind. Even if every bone in his hands might be crushed, he must kill Crowning Lord in one blow.

It was just like how he killed Seventh Venerable back then.

Crowning Lord’s strength was much higher than that of the Seventh Venerable. Yet, this time, Fang Qiu had gathered several times more Qi of Heaven and Earth than last time.

Once he reached Crowning Lord...

His palm strike would take his life away!

They flew past hundreds of kilometers.

Behind Fang Qiu was a vast area of intense Qi of Heaven and Earth surging like waves. Of course, Fang Qiu had deliberately stretched the Qi of Heaven and Earth with his spiritual force. Since it was far behind him, it wouldn't be discovered by Crowning Lord.

Now...

The Qi of Heaven and Earth was so much that Fang Qiu could no longer pull it.

"Come!"

Fang Qiu shouted inwardly.

He moved his palm.

Immediately, a stream split from the Qi of Heaven and Earth dragged behind him and quickly surged forward.

Then...

As if the guiding technique had created a black hole. The stream of the Qi of Heaven and Earth was instantly swallowed up when approaching Fang Qiu. Under the guiding technique's rapid operation, the stream was refined into internal Qi in a flash. It greatly replenished Fang Qiu.

"Now, how could you possibly get away?"

Fang Qiu smiled.

The Great Hand of Destruction could attract and gather the Qi of Heaven and Earth. It was like he was equipped with a fuel tank of an endless supply. With it, he could get the Qi of Heaven and Earth anytime. In the past, the fuel filler was very narrow. No matter how much Qi of Heaven and Earth he attracted, he could only absorb and refine it little by little.

But now...

With the guiding technique, he needed only a slight effort to absorb a large amount of the Qi of Heaven and Earth.

From now on...

Fang Qiu no longer had to worry about the internal Qi in his body. The rest of Qi of Heaven and Earth had been left far behind him. He had no hesitation in pulling it before him. With the guiding technique, he started absorbing it crazily at full speed.

As the Qi of Heaven and Earth entered his body, the guiding method operated at an increasingly faster pace. Meanwhile, the Qi of Heaven and Earth was transformed into internal Qi more and more rapidly.

Before long...

He regained 10% of his internal Qi. In total, his power reached 60% of its peak amount.

With the recovery of his internal Qi, Fang Qiu quickly moved more internal Qi to his shoulders. While stimulating his acupoints, he nourished his body and treated his wounds.

His bloody shoulders had been burnt. During the chase, his wounds had recovered a lot. Now, a large amount of internal Qi was nourishing him. Plus, stimulating acupoints could promote healing. His bloody shoulders soon began to scab. Even better, new skin appeared at the periphery of his wounds.

Of course...

Even during the treatment, Fang Qiu never slowed down.

A few minutes later, the distance of two kilometers was shortened by half. He was merely one kilometer away from Crowning Lord.

But at this moment...

Crowning Lord had fled into the remote mountainous area of Liaos.

“Eh?”

All of a sudden, Fang Qiu was shocked.

He had fastened his Divine Consciousness onto Crowning Lord and didn't withdraw it. As he moved closer to Crowning Lord, the coverage area of his Divine Consciousness became smaller. Now it only covered the place a kilometer around him.

But...

He chased after Crowning Lord and flew into the endless mountain range. Abruptly, within the coverage area of Fang Qiu's Divine Consciousness, countless energy auras popped up.

Just as he was about to catch up with Crowning Lord...

“Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!”

In the deep forest below, a large group of men in black rushed out like a swarm of locusts. Each of them held a weapon and burst out powerful offensives. Gathering in crowds and groups, they aggressively pounced at Fang Qiu.

“Fuck off, all of you!”

Fang Qiu roared.

He was so close to Crowning Lord with the sole purpose of killing him. Even if all the people below him were Nirvana Organization members, Fang Qiu was not interested in them before killing Crowning Lord.

However...

Fang Qiu's angry shout didn't work at all.

"Kill him."

A loud shout suddenly burst out from the massive crowd like locusts in large numbers. Then, a person holding a long-handled giant hammer flashed out of the forest. Grasping the hammer behind his back with both hands, he rushed to a high place and violently brought his hammer down. With tremendous explosive power, he fiercely smashed the hammer down at Fang Qiu.

"Go to hell!"

Fang Qiu snorted and stepped aside to avoid this attack. Then he clenched his right hand into a fist. The man's back was bowed under his hammer's weight. Seeing this, Fang Qiu punched him hard on the back.

"Crack."

There was a crisp sound of bones cracking.

As the punch fell, the guru with the long-handled hammer didn't even have time to react. He loosened his grip. As the hammer dropped onto the ground, he spat out a mouthful of blood. Then, when the sharp energy Qi erupting from Fang Qiu's fist lashed against him, he fell from the high sky at a terrifying speed like a meteor!

"Pa!"

He hit the ground and smashed a big pit there. As he sank into the hole, he breathed his last!

This horrifying scene...

It shocked all the others.

After all, the man with a hammer was the strongest and only guru among them. How could John Doe kill him with one blow?

Even though they were horrified, none withdrew.

They must protect Crowning Lord. Thus, they took death calmly and came at John Doe, wielding their weapons.

Quick as a flash...

“Leave these people to me.”

Sword Fanatic spoke up from behind.

“Alright.”

Fang Qiu immediately nodded in response. Then he turned to another direction and bypassed the crowd, going the way Crowning Lord had gone.

After the disturbance of these people, he lost the 10% internal Qi he had just regained.

What was worse...

Crowning Lord moved further away from him — he was now five kilometers before him.

However, none of this was a big deal.

The distance between them was five kilometers. When Fang Qiu caught up with him, his internal Qi could be restored to at least 80%. He had dragged the Qi of Heaven and Earth behind him along the way. This time, he no longer hid it. Instead, he pulled it before him and began to devour and refine it frantically.

Over there...

“Anyone who doesn’t want to die can retreat quickly!”

Sword Fanatic shouted.

As a result...

These people from Nirvana Organization didn’t listen to him at all. Since they couldn’t get John Doe, they immediately turned to attack Sword Fanatic jointly.

“Ungrateful and ignorant. You deserve to die!”

Sword Fanatic sneered coldly, letting out his guru-level Qi power. In an instant, he turned into a sharp sword, rushed straight into the dense crowd, and began to slaughter crazily.

Most of them were eighth- or ninth-class Martial Superiors, and there were a few Half-step Gurus.

Even if they fought together, they were no match for Sword Fanatic.

Sword Fanatic and these Nirvana Organization members were locked in a fierce battle.

“Whoosh, whoosh, whoosh...”

There suddenly came sounds of flying.

Liaos's experts had also arrived.

However, upon arrival, these experts were struck dumb.

There were densely packed eighth-class and ninth-class experts. As masters in Liaos's Wulin, they had never seen these people before. Thus, they didn't recognize any of them.

How could there be such a terrifying force hidden in their country?

In this case...

Liaos's experts hesitated. They didn't know whether to deal with the guru or these strange experts.

In the end, they chose to watch in safety while the two sides fought.

After a long time...

Sword Fanatic wiped out all these Nirvana Organization members. Then, he turned his head and glanced at these local experts, ready to leave.

"Who are you? Whom did you kill?"

These local experts knew they couldn't stop Sword Fanatic from leaving, so they could only ask loudly.

"All of them were from Nirvana Organization!"

Sword Fanatic answered and left.

He was not stupid.

John Doe didn't give up after chasing the man for so long. Thus, he figured out that the silver-haired man must be an important figure in Nirvana Organization. Regardless of the mortal danger, these people were still willing to fight and protect the silver-haired man.

Up ahead...

Fang Qiu chased Crowning Lord closely without giving up.

Seeing John Doe, Crowning Lord knew his people must have failed to stop him. His face turned ferocious, and a fierce look appeared in his eyes!

"Well then, I can only use it in advance."

"John Doe, just wait for death!"

Chapter 1384: Gunshots in Precious Triangle!

Crowning Lord continued to flee.

A ferocious smile spread over his face.

When his subordinates held John Doe back, Crowning Lord ran away quickly. At present, the distance between them increased to five kilometers. However, because he lacked internal Qi, it was not easy for Crowning Lord to maintain his speed. Behind him, John Doe was getting faster and faster, with his momentum growing stronger.

Crowning Lord saw a large amount of Qi of Heaven and Earth behind John Doe. As John Doe went after him, the Qi of Heaven and Earth poured wildly into his body.

In this case...

John Doe's internal Qi would become more abundant, and his recovery speed would increase. Naturally, behind his rival, he advanced faster and faster.

Under normal circumstances, Crowning Lord should feel panic.

However, he remained unruffled.

More surprisingly, he sneered ferociously!

He knew the situation.

John Doe would keep hunting him. So, he could never get away wherever he went. Killing John Doe was the only way to get rid of him!

With a ruthless glitter in his eyes, Crowning Lord glanced at John Doe, who was less than two kilometers away from him. Suddenly, he turned his head and looked ahead.

That was the Precious Triangle!

Precious Triangle...

It was a triangular area in Southeast Asia at the border of Thailand, Burma, and Laos. Since it had produced drugs like opium for a long time, it had become a world-famous central producing area of drugs.

This district, with range upon range of hills, was very hard to get to. It covered a total area of about 150,000 to 200,000 square kilometers.

Because of those mountains at different heights, this area had a unique three-dimensional climate. When the people at the mountain foot experienced sweltering hot days, those at the mountain top might have to move toward the fire to get warm. Relatively speaking, life was more challenging for residents at high altitudes.

Around the world...

Precious Triangle was an independent place intimidating even to the underground forces. Because it came within no organization's jurisdiction, all kinds of local forces formed. Besides, countries had no intention of interfering with the business in this area. As a result, many underground forces preferred setting up their strongholds in Precious Triangle.

Nirvana Organization was very likely to be one of them.

Crowning Lord ran all the way from Huaxia to the border of Liaos. In fact, he had been anxious to rush into deep mountains along Liaos's border, heading for the Precious Triangle.

Therefore...

It didn't take long for them to reach Precious Triangle.

"If you want to die, follow me."

Upon entering Precious Triangle, Crowning Lord cast a glance back at John Doe, who was in hot pursuit of him. Then he got in position and dived straight down, landing into a dense jungle in Precious Triangle.

Plants and trees in the jungle were extremely luxuriant. Looking down from above, John Doe could see nothing but a vibrant green field. The moment Crowning Lord fell into it, he was out of sight.

“I’d like to see what tricks you have up your sleeve!”

Fang Qiu snorted and dived sharply down as well.

Although he couldn’t see Crowning Lord with the naked eye...

His divine sense had targetted Crowning Lord. Thus, Fang Qiu could easily find his whereabouts wherever Crowning Lord went.

With the position Information provided by his Divine Consciousness, Fang Qiu knew Crowning Lord was still fleeing under cover of the trees in the forest.

“Woosh.”

Fang Qiu followed him closely and rushed into the jungle.

But right at this moment...

“Crack, crack, crack...”

A burst of dense gunshots sounded in the thick jungle.

Countless bullets were frantically fired at Fang Qiu from all directions, covering this place.

“Eh?”

Fang Qiu was slightly shocked.

“Why are so many ordinary people hiding in this forest?”

His Divine Consciousness could effortlessly detect martial arts practitioners, but he didn't notice these ordinary people. The key was that the jungle was excessively dense. When high in the sky, he couldn't find these people hidden here with his naked eyes.

"Boom!"

When numerous bullets flew over from all sides, Fang Qiu vigorously activated his internal Qi and condensed it into an energy shield around him. With this, he kept out all the bullets coming at him.

At the same time...

He tilted his head. According to the directions in which the bullets came, he tracked back to these people hiding in the jungle.

These people were all wearing old-fashioned military uniforms, yet the weapons in their hands were the most advanced. They plastered grease paint on their faces and even tied branches and leaves to their heads and bodies. Since they hid themselves well, it was hard for ordinary people to find them even if they walked past them.

However, Fang Qiu was a guru.

And he was a recultivated guru!

How could they fool him with these hidden tricks?

"Swish."

His energy shield was thickly covered with bullets. As Fang Qiu waved his right hand, all the bullets fell to the ground in unison.

Meanwhile...

Fang Qiu moved his feet and spun around on the spot. Stretching his right hand, he swept across the plants around him and grabbed a handful of sharp, long leaves. Afterward, he scattered them.

These leaves immediately shot out fast, moving faster than bullets.

“Swish!”

All the people hiding around and pointing guns at him collapsed to the ground, their eyes wide open. They were as dead as a doornail.

This must be something entirely unexpected to them!

They were actually killed by a leaf!

After Fang Qiu finished off these people...

He immediately looked up in the direction where Crowning Lord escaped.

However, Fang Qiu noticed Crowning Lord’s aura had disappeared — he must have hidden it when this group ambushed Fang Qiu.

“Could it be that Precious Triangle is also a stronghold of Nirvana Organization?”

Fang Qiu raised his eyebrows.

Precious Triangle was extensive, but it had only one core area.

This place was also under the control of the armed forces in the core area. If Nirvana Organization had no strongholds or members here, how could Crowning Lord order these people to set up an ambush for him?

“However, this place is one of the places producing drugs that makes people degenerate and suffer. It doesn’t match the Nirvana Organization’s doctrine of releasing people in great misery!”

Thinking of this, Fang Qiu frowned in deep thought.

“I have to ask a nearby force about it first.”

With this idea...

Fang Qiu immediately released his Divine Consciousness to detect the energy auras around him.

After all, it was a lawless area within nobody’s jurisdiction. There must be martial arts practitioners. Therefore, if Fang Qiu wanted to know more about this place, he should find a martial arts practitioner and ask him for more information.

After a while...

When his Divine Consciousness spread three kilometers away, Fang Qiu finally sensed a trace of energy aura. It happened to be in the direction that Crowning Lord escaped.

He moved his feet.

Fang Qiu flew quickly in that direction. Flying in the air, he carefully observed the surroundings.

In the end, he confirmed that Crowning Lord wasn’t hiding in the jungle but had already run far away.

He rushed out of the jungle.

Fang Qiu saw a medium-sized cultivation area. There were several wooden buildings about two or three meters above the ground. This place seemed to be a territory of a small force. The cultivation area before him was covered with opium poppies!

“They do people great harm!”

Seeing the field of poppies, Fang Qiu clenched his right hand. As the divine sword was formed, he brandished it fiercely.

A beam of sword Qi instantly flew out of his sword.

In an instant, it surged out.

The aggressive sword Qi instantly cut all the poppies into pieces.

The next moment...

Fang Qiu changed his posture and sprinted toward the wooden building on the other end of the cultivation area.

However, he found only two guards, one on the first floor and the other on the second floor of a wooden building. There was no one else at all. Only a person in the middle room on the second floor emitted an energy aura.

“It’s impossible for one force to have only five people.”

“From their clothes...”

“The people I killed in the jungle belonged to this small force!”

With this in mind...

Fang Qiu waved his right hand, launching several beams of internal Qi. They darted out and killed the four guards on the spot.

The four of them fell dead before they noticed the danger.

“Who is it?”

A shout came from the wooden building.

However...

Before he could run out of the building, Fang Qiu had already darted in. A middle-aged man was about to leave, but Fang Qiu grabbed his neck, carrying the man to the innermost part of the room. There, he pressed him against the wall.

As Fang Qiu finished the series of moves, the middle-aged man involuntarily shivered and broke out in a cold sweat.

“Eighth-class?”

Fang Qiu squinted at the man.

“Who are you?”

The middle-aged man asked in the most popular international language.

“Damn it!”

Fang Qiu loosened his grip. Before the man's feet touched the ground, he turned his wrist and slapped him on his Dantian. A turbulent stream of internal Qi outburst from his palm. It shattered the man's Dantian and flooded into his meridians. Like this, all the meridians all over his body were snapped!

"Where is the person who mobilized your men to ambush me?"

After destroying the man's Kung Fu, Fang Qiu reached out to pick him up again and asked in a cold voice.

"I, I don't know."

The middle-aged man shook his head in pain.

He didn't even have time to react. "How could I suddenly be beaten up? How could my kung fu suddenly be abolished? What the hell was going on? What happened?"

"If you don't tell me, you'll die!"

Fang Qiu abruptly tightened his grip on the man's throat.

"Please, no."

The middle-aged man hurriedly pleaded and said weakly, "I, I'll confess."

"Where is the person?"

Fang Qiu asked.

"A few years ago, a potent force came here. The person you mentioned should be there."

The middle-aged man said with a pale face, "I, I can take you there."

“Very good.”

Fang Qiu smiled lightly and let go of his hand.

Then, he pressed a few points on the man to help him relieve the pain.

The middle-aged man had already learned about John Doe’s powerful strength. Thus, he had no guts to hesitate. When the excruciating pain stopped, he immediately pointed outside. Then, he dragged his seriously injured body and walked out with Fang Qiu.

They went down the wooden building.

The middle-aged man led Fang Qiu into the jungle.

Over there...

Somewhere in Precious Triangle...

In a large stockaded village, the severely wounded Crowning Lord was in the biggest local building in the center. It was unknown when he had arrived here. In meditation, he sat on a rush cushion weaved by grass, cultivating while healing. With his eyes closed, he said, “How’s the plan going?”

“My Lord, the person has been led to that place.”

His subordinate answered.

“Great!”

Crowning Lord's eyes narrowed, and a cold glint suddenly flashed in his eyes.

Medical Master

Chapter 1385: A Trap to Kill John Doe!

"John Doe, this time, it's impossible for you to escape your doom!"

When Crowning Lord heard his subordinate's report, his eyes suddenly emitted chilling light. There was even a thread of pity in his eyes.

That place...

It was the interior of a jungle deep in the mountains of the Precious Triangle.

There was a hollow zone in the middle of a flat jungle.

In jungles, trees and vines full of vitality were thriving luxuriantly. Since this hinterland was full of vines and plants, the hollow zone couldn't be seen at first glance.

Lots of bombs were buried there. Initially, Nirvana Organization prepared this trap to murder and bury Huaxia experts. They had planned to kill some counter-narcotics police officers at the border. Then, Huaxia would send experts over. After leading these experts into the jungle, they would slaughter and bury them here!

But unexpectedly...

This hollow zone would be used at this time.

Crowning Lord still felt a bit reluctant to use it.

After all...

The trap in the hollow zone was a critical point of the plan. Once it was used, there was no way to rebuild and reuse it.

However, when he thought about this matter carefully...

John Doe was undoubtedly more valuable than a group of Huaxia experts.

Even Crowning Lord was no match for him.

Killing John Doe was equivalent to annihilating dozens of Huaxia experts.

More than that, John Doe belonged to the Huaxia military!

Even if he had to use this brilliant trap on John Doe, it was completely worth it!

“Hiss...”

Crowning Lord took a deep breath and said, “Bring me the monitoring equipment and remote control. I’m going to send John Doe to hell!”

“Yes.”

A subordinate replied and quickly turned to go out.

Before long...

A laptop and a remote control were brought over.

He pulled them before his eyes.

Crowning Lord saw a radar map displayed on the screen of the laptop. The map looked very simple and straightforward. There were pieces of land like swamps. In the middle of the map was an area circled by red lines. Close and numerous red dots filled that area.

Those red dots were bombs.

Moreover, they were all the top-class and most powerful bombs in the world!

At this time...

A flickering green spot suddenly emerged at the edge of the map. It was slowly moving toward the red area.

“Go ahead. Get in...”

Crowning Lord clenched his fists excitedly. With considerable passion, he looked at the remote control near the laptop.

...

There...

“Patter, patter, patter...”

The middle-aged man’s kung fu was utterly destroyed. Fang Qiu had stimulated his acupoints to ease the pain. But even so, the middle-aged man walked particularly slowly. It could be seen that he remained very calm on the way. Either anxious or afraid, he kept his eyes straight ahead. He was leading the way with a strong sense of purpose.

“How far is it?”

Fang Qiu, following behind the middle-aged man, asked with an indifferent look.

As they advanced...

Fang Qiu cautiously observed his surroundings. At the same time, he released his Divine Consciousness to explore the situation around him. Once he detected anything unusual, he would immediately withdraw.

But after walking for a long time, nothing abnormal happened.

The strangest thing was...

According to the middle-aged man's words, that powerful force should be right ahead. But even though Fang Qiu's Divine Consciousness covered three kilometers around him, he didn't feel any energy aura.

Since it was a mighty force, how could there not be any martial arts practitioners?

Just because of this...

Fang Qiu asked this question.

“The straight-line distance is about four kilometers.”

The middle-aged man gave a brief reply.

At once, Fang Qiu expanded the radius of Divine Consciousness to four kilometers, but still, he didn't detect any energy aura.

"Courting death!"

Fang Qiu's face darkened. He grabbed the middle-aged man's neck, stared at him coldly, and said, "How dare you lie to me?"

"No."

The middle-aged man explained with a pallid face, "You have ruined my kung fu. I know I'm about to die. There's no need for me to lie to you. The base of that force is four kilometers away. It's a hollow place. I've never been there before. I've only seen them enter in the distance once."

"A hollow place?"

Fang Qiu raised his eyebrows and asked, "Underground?"

As he spoke...

Fang Qiu immediately thought of what had happened to him in Africo. "Nirvana Organization's Africo stronghold was in a luxurious villa, but the biological lab was built underground, wasn't it?"

"Could it be..."

"This is indeed a fortified point of Nirvana Organization, and it is hidden underground."

Fang Qiu got a sudden idea.

He immediately used his Divine Consciousness to check.

After the investigation...

He found a sunken place four kilometers away!

After confirming it, Fang Qiu didn't lose his grip on the man's neck. Instead, he slid his hand down an inch and grabbed his collar. Then, he got ready and rose into the air, rushing to the sunken zong four kilometers away.

Over there...

In the stockaded village...

Crowning Lord had been healing and nourishing himself. When the green dot on the laptop suddenly began to move quickly, he trembled all over excitedly with a trace of madness in his eyes.

In the jungle...

"Whoosh, whoosh..."

It only took Fang Qiu two minutes to travel four kilometers.

They arrived at the hollow zone.

Fang Qiu released his Divine Consciousness to explore.

As a result...

When his Divine Consciousness reached seven or eight meters down the hole, it could not extend further. Seemingly, something had blocked it.

Fang Qiu's heart tightened.

He was very clear about this situation.

There were only two explanations for this.

First, Nirvana Organization's experts had set up an energy seal in the hole to prevent others from searching it. Given Crowning Lord's strength, they could make it as long as there was a way. Moreover, Crowning Lord was only Nirvana Organization's third-in-command. There were two figures more powerful than Crowning Lord. They must be capable enough to achieve that goal!

Second, his Divine Consciousness had reached the bottom of this pit, and there were no such things as basements at all.

The middle-aged man before him was lying!

"I know I'm about to die..."

All of a sudden...

What the middle-aged man had said echoed in Fang Qiu's mind.

"Is it there?"

Fang Qiu grabbed the man by the collar, pointed down toward the pit, and asked.

"Yes, there it is."

The middle-aged man responded indifferently.

“You go in first.”

Fang Qiu immediately landed and threw him aside. Then, he asked, pointing to the hollow place full of flourishing vines and plants before him.

“I... Can I not go?”

The middle-aged man turned to look at Fang Qiu and said, “If I go into there, I’ll die!”

“But if not, you will die now.”

Fang Qiu snorted.

He became more suspicious.

When the middle-aged man heard Fang Qiu’s words...

He shook his head with a bitter face and sighed. Then, he stepped forward and slid smoothly down along the hollow place’s edge as if playing on a slide.

A few seconds later, there came the sound of someone landing.

Then...

The man seemed to have stopped moving down there.

Because Fang Qiu had destroyed his kung fu, Fang Qiu couldn’t detect him with his Divine Consciousness. He could only judge his location with his ears.

But...

After the man landed, he couldn't hear any more sound.

However, Fang Qiu could still hear the sound of his breathing.

That was to say, the middle-aged man was still alive and could speak. However, he remained silent and sat motionlessly down there.

"What's going on below?"

Fang Qiu asked.

But the middle-aged man made no response.

He clenched his right hand.

Fang Qiu condensed a divine sword and slashed down. From the place where the man entered the pit, he chopped all the vines and plants in this direction into pieces.

When these plants were smashed, the middle-aged man's figure came into view.

...

In the stockaded village...

"Come on, get down there."

Crowning Lord stared at the red circle on the radar map. At this time, the green dot remained outside the red ring, so he had not yet made a move. He was waiting for the moment when he could blow John Doe to pieces.

...

In the jungle...

When Fang Qiu saw the middle-aged man at the bottom of the pit...

He brandished his hands, and several beams of sword Qi cut all the plants in the pit into pieces.

After that, he looked around. There was nothing inside, let alone any underground base.

"My guess is correct."

Fang Qiu narrowed his eyes, stared coldly at the middle-aged man at the bottom of the pit, and said, "Sure enough, you lied to me!"

"Don't come down."

The middle-aged man lay feebly at the bottom of the pit as if he had lost all his strength.

"Eh?"

Fang Qiu was startled.

"Is there something in this pit?"

In doubt...

Once again, Fang Qiu released his Divine Consciousness to probe, but after searching around, he found nothing. There was nothing in it.

He sent his Divine Consciousness deeper into the ground to explore.

Like before, he found his Divine Consciousness was blocked by something. It couldn't fall further. He couldn't detect the situation underground at all.

"Perhaps, Nirvana Organization's base is really down there?"

Fang Qiu wondered in his heart.

"If that is not the case, why could the pit's bottom block the Divine Consciousness?"

"Or..."

"Is this a trap?"

Confused, Fang Qiu immediately released his Divine Consciousness to cover the area within 50 kilometers quickly. Some energy auras scattered in all directions, but they were not strong.

There was no one watching them nearby.

Moreover, the middle-aged man had already gone down. If anything had been wrong inside, it should have happened when the man went down.

This place couldn't be so calm.

With this in mind...

Fang Qiu was on the alert. Then he moved and rushed down.

“I told you not to come down.”

When Fang Qiu emerged before him, the middle-aged man shouted in a tearful voice. Then, he pointed at the corner of Fang Qiu’s clothes.

Fang Qiu turned to look.

There, he was astonished to see a black signal receiver as big as a soya bean!

...

In the stockaded village...

“Yes, yes, yes... It’s now.”

When the green dot on the radar map entered the red circle, Crowning Lord couldn’t help but get thrilled. He suddenly reached out and patted the remote control next to the laptop!

“Pa!”

There came a crisp sound.

He hit the remote control.

...

In the pit...

Just as Fang Qiu saw the signal receiver at the corner of his clothes, his nerves were instantly on edge. He jumped up, ready to rush out.

Unfortunately, it was too late.

“Boom...”

Enormous explosions suddenly sounded.

There seemed to be dozens of bombs exploding together at the top of the pit. From top to bottom, deafening explosions happened layer by layer.

“Not good.”

Seeing that the explosion started from above, Fang Qiu panicked and immediately burrowed into the earth.

What a pity...

It was too late!

Medical Master

Chapter 1386: How Could He Still Stay Alive?!

“Bang, bang, bang...”

Terrifying explosions happened one after another.

The pit was about seven or eight meters deep. From its edge above to the bottom, bombs occurred like continuous firecrackers.

This was not the end.

As the explosions reached the pit bottom, dozens of bombs went off at the same time.

“Buzz.”

The black smoke caused by the explosions spurted out of the pit and shot straight into the sky.

From a distance...

The horrifying scene could be seen clearly. The rising flame pushed a figure tens of meters into the air. Burnt by the raging flames, he was instantly scorched black. Before he fell to the ground, the destructive power of the explosion hit him. He was knocked away and bumped against a large tree. The huge impact tore the figure into two halves.

After a long time...

The explosive sounds dissipated. A cloud of smoke floated over the whole pit. Everything around was scorched black.

Fang Qiu had chopped the lush vines and plants in the hollow place into pieces. When terrifying explosions happened, all things turned into ashes.

As the smoke of gunpowder gradually dissipated...

The ashes all over the sky slowly fell and piled up in the pit, forming a thick layer of ash.

At a glance...

It was a scene of devastation. Even the earth and rocks had blasted into ashes!

“Haha, haha...”

As the explosions were heard, crazy laughter came from a village.

“Sizzle!”

Crowning Lord had used this perfect period to heal and nourish himself. After the explosions, he anxiously stood up.

At this time, his internal Qi had recovered more than 50%. In fact, he had regained nearly 60% of his internal Qi!

Not too much time was needed.

As long as he cultivated in meditation for another hour, he could recover 80% or even 90% of his internal Qi!

But...

He couldn't wait any longer.

Along the way, John Doe had been chasing him crazily. As a result, he had been holding back a lot of anger in his heart. He was the mighty Crowning Lord in Nirvana Organization. However, he had to fly past two countries to escape. John Doe had been following him from Huaxia to Liaos. In the end, they arrived at Precious Triangle.

This was too embarrassing, and the person named John Doe who disgraced him must die!

“Is everything ready over there?”

Crowning Lord asked with a sneer.

“Everything is ready. I’m just waiting for your order.”

One subordinate answered.

“Alright.”

With a wave of his right hand, Crowning Lord flew quickly to the place where the explosion happened. He laughed proudly and said, “John Doe, I’ve long prepared the explosive pit. Today, I exploded such a value trap for you. You die a worthy death!”

The building that Crowning Lord stayed in was not far from the explosion site.

Because he had been hiding his aura, Fang Qiu didn’t detect Crowning Lord’s location. Before Fang Qiu jumped into the trap, he had noticed many people’s energy auras on all sides, and Crowning Lord was among them in a stockaded village.

Crowning Lord was full of excitement.

He reached the sky above the hollow zone in less than three minutes.

When he arrived...

This hollow place was in a state of devastation. Everything had been blown up. The only things left were soil and stones.

He looked at the periphery.

Fang Qiu had destroyed the eighth-class Martial Superior's kung fu. At this time, the Martial Superior had been bombarded into pieces.

"Haha..."

Down the pit, the explosion area was scorched black, and nothing remaining there looked like humans. Crowning Lord couldn't help laughing out loud. He grinned wildly and said, "The winner takes all. You were capable enough to follow me here, so what? I took your life in the end.

"What a pity. I wanted to put you in my Reborn Tomb, but I can't do that since you've become ashes and smoke.

"John Doe, see you in the next life.

"Haha..."

The crazy laughter began to reverberate throughout the forest.

But right at this moment...

"Cough, cough..."

Someone suddenly coughed.

Crowning Lord's laughter came to an abrupt stop!

"Well, but... the result is uncertain."

After the explosion, the sound of heavy breathing suddenly came from the ruins.

Crowning Lord's eyes widened.

With a shocked look, he quickly looked into the pit.

There...

A hand suddenly stretched out from the pile of thick ashes.

Like a living dead crawling out of the grave...

A man struggled to climb out of the yellow soil covered with ashes. He was in rags. His hands, face, and neck were covered by ash.

This person...

Who else could it be but John Doe?

At a glance...

John Doe had no injuries. Only the old wounds on his shoulders had been torn open. A trace of blood flowed out of the corner of his mouth. He looked pathetically embarrassed!

Crowning Lord saw John Doe.

His smile completely disappeared, and his face became heavily overcast!

Unexpectedly...

John Doe didn't die!

It should be noted that...

Crowning Lord ordered his men to place many bombs that were enough to kill more than ten gurus. He himself would not come out alive if he went into the trap.

So, how did John Doe survive?

Over there...

Although there were no wounds on the surface of his body...

Fang Qiu had suffered a severe internal injury.

In fact...

When he entered the big pit, he was already on guard. He had even guessed that it was a trap. But since he was in a hurry to find Crowning Lord, he couldn't help but jump in.

He destroyed that man's kung fu but never expected him to put a signal receiver on him. Especially, it was inside his clothes that he usually wouldn't notice.

In addition, the man was okay after he jumped in.

Most critically, his Divine Consciousness was blocked by an energy layer covering the pit's bottom. Fang Qiu couldn't go on exploring it. It was the most crucial reason for Fang Qiu going down.

Either a Nirvana Organization base or a trap was down there.

There were only two choices.

Fang Qiu could only choose to go down on full alert.

The moment he went down...

Fang Qiu had been vigilant. When the explosions began, he immediately absorbed all the Qi of Heaven and Earth that he had dragged behind him.

After he dived into the ground, he found bombs everywhere. He didn't dare to hesitate. Right on the spot, he used all the Qi of Heaven and Earth to perform the Great Hand of Formlessness.

He pushed out all the bombs underground.

With the power of the Great Hand of Formlessness...

He fought against the surrounding explosions.

In the end...

By utilizing the features of the Great Hand of Formlessness, he scattered a lot of energy from the explosions. But he suffered a violent backlash when fighting against the explosive power.

It caused terrible internal injuries.

When he ran across three countries, he accumulated a lot of Qi of Heaven and Earth. However, to survive the explosions, he consumed 90% of it, leaving only a little.

"Tsk, tsk..."

Looking at John Doe's sorry figure, Crowning Lord sneered with a sinister smile and said, "Even if you are still alive, you are seriously injured, aren't you? It's good that bombs didn't kill you. I'll send you to the Reborn Tomb now!"

With this...

He waved his right hand and shouted, "Do it!"

Right after his words...

"Whoosh, whoosh, whoosh..."

Three figures suddenly darted toward Fang Qiu in three directions and surrounded him. They must have been hiding nearby for a long time.

"Gurus again!"

Fang Qiu narrowed his eyes.

"There are too many gurus in Nirvana Organization, aren't there?"

"I've encountered more than 20 gurus including those I killed in Africa!"

"Besides..."

"These gurus' auras are very strong, better than that of incapable gurus."

"Now, you will surely die!"

Crowning Lord grinned hideously and said, "I prepared this place for those Wulin experts in Huaxia. Today, I'll bury you here!"

Fang Qiu heard that.

He immediately understood what had happened.

He had been chasing Crowning Lord. How could he set up such a flawless trap? It turned out that Nirvana Organization had built it for a conspiracy long ago. Crowning Lord just led Fang Qiu here before they could use it. Then, they activated the explosion area in advance.

But that was good.

At least he was on guard and managed to stay alive. If Huaxia experts were lured here, how many people would die after the explosions?

"Hiss..."

He took a deep breath.

Fang Qiu waved his right hand and immediately performed the Great Hand of Destruction.

He quickly attracted the surging Qi of Heaven and Earth gathered around. At the same time, without the slightest hesitation, he ran his guiding technique and began to absorb the Qi of Heaven and Earth at high speed.

He had recovered 80% of his internal Qi. But because of the explosions just now, he had consumed 30% of his internal Qi. In addition, he had suffered a serious internal injury and needed internal Qi to nourish himself. Thus, he had to absorb the Qi of Heaven and Earth as quickly as possible.

When his enemies saw this...

“Kill!”

Crowning Lord widened his eyes and waved his hand violently.

He took the lead in rushing toward John Doe, trying to kill him on the spot with three gurus.

Opposite them...

Fang Qiu also narrowed his eyes.

“Tiangang Kills Demons!”

The moment the divine sword formed in his right hand, Fang Qiu immediately displayed the third move of the divine sword.

Only with this skill could he launch a continuous and large-scale attack. Given his current situation, it was undoubtedly difficult for him to confront Crowning Lord and the three gurus. Therefore, he could only try his best to buy himself time. He might as well fight after regaining some internal Qi!

A loud shout came out.

“Swish, swish, swish...”

The divine sword in Fang Qiu’s hand dispersed. Then, there seemed to be thousands of blades floating in the air. Surprisingly, they merged with the surrounding Qi of Heaven and Earth rushing over. At last, countless beams of astral energy of the sword formed, covering the sky.

“Buzz.”

After a breeze blew through the forest...

Within a radius of 40 to 50 meters, a terrifying tornado of astral energy of the sword immediately sprang up. The astral energy of the sword, in the shape of sharp blades, rushed wildly toward the four people like a myriad of raindrops.

When the four gurus saw this...

They stopped and retreated together.

“Come with me. Let’s break it.”

Crowning Lord roared anxiously.

He knew well what was going on.

John Doe was buying time to recover. As a result, he had to seize the opportunity to kill John Doe as soon as possible. Otherwise, there would be endless troubles in the future!

He shouted.

Crowning Lord united the other three gurus. Together, they launched a powerful attack, which slammed into the tornado of astral energy of the sword!

“Boom...”

Suddenly, there came a thunderous bang.

As soon as the four gurus’ joint attack fell, the incomparably powerful tornado of astral energy of the sword stopped spinning.

Then...

“Bang!”

An explosive sound rang out.

Their joint attack actually broke the massive tornado of astral energy of the sword.

All beams of astral energy of the sword froze for a moment and collapsed.

In a flash, the tornado of astral energy of the sword dissipated between heaven and earth.

The next moment...

“Now!”

A cold glint burst out of Crowning Lord’s eyes. He waved his right hand, and a silver ball of energy gathered before his palm. Then he slammed it hard. The silver ball of energy with devastating explosive energy immediately dashed to Fang Qiu with the other three gurus!

Chapter 1387: An Extreme Battle!

The four gurus charged at Fang Qiu after breaking the third move of his divine sword. At this sight, Fang Qiu was furious and outburst all his internal Qi.

“Fuck off!”

With a roar, an incomparably powerful energy Qi gushed out of Fang Qiu. With extremely fierce power, it burst out sharp rays of energy Qi. They gushed out in all directions like thousands of horses galloping.

The energy Qi stopped the three gurus that came near him.

At the same time...

The silver energy ball shot out by Crowning Lord exploded when blocked by Fang Qiu's energy.

"Bang!"

There was a loud explosion.

The silver ball of energy exploded. Then a layer of terrifying energy Qi surged out in all directions, slashing at the other three gurus.

Fang Qiu blocked the three gurus, who were then affected by the energy explosion Crowning Lord erupted. They couldn't help but take a few steps back.

At this moment...

"Fight!"

After shaking off the three gurus, Fang Qiu waved his right hand, and the divine sword condensed in his palm. Then a touch of golden energy poured into the sword and appeared on the blade.

"Flexibility Secret!"

When he repulsed the four guru's siege, Fang Qiu moved aside and displayed the Flexibility Secret in the set of ancient swordsmanship. As he flashed, he jumped over the three gurus like an agile monkey. Afterward, he targeted Crowning Lord only and eagerly charged at him!

When Crowning Lord saw this...

He was shocked, and his face instantly changed.

It had never occurred to him that John Doe still had internal Qi. How could he still burst out such a huge combat capability? It was really terrifying!

Notably...

In their battle at the top of Infinite Mountain, he consumed a lot of internal Qi. Then, John Doe chased after him all the way. They flew across two countries and arrived at Liaos. The chase must have consumed a large amount of internal Qi. Crowning Lord absorbed it while escaping. But even so, he could barely replenish the internal Qi he used to flee.

Moreover, along the way, John Doe encountered several groups of enemies. He had been fighting against various forces.

The most important thing was...

Just now, John Doe had experienced a tremendous explosion powerful enough to blow a guru into ashes!

In this case, John Doe still had such a strong combat capability and so much internal Qi. How was this possible?

Where did he get so much internal Qi?

In shock...

Crowning Lord moved his hands. On his pair of gloves, two silver energy balls as large as basketballs immediately formed. With a wave of his hands, he released the two balls, which rolled to bombard Fang Qiu.

“Humph.”

Fang Qiu snorted coldly and waved the divine sword in his hand. All of a sudden, golden light appeared on the blade, bursting out a glaring layer of astral energy of the sword. Waving his hands, he slashed down fiercely.

The next moment...

“Sizzle.”

A sword cry rang out!

The keen-edged astral energy of the sword pierced the two silver energy balls that Crowning Lord burst out. This time, the balls didn’t even have a chance to explode. With one sword strike, Fang Qiu cut them in half.

This scene frightened Crowning Lord.

“Kill him!”

A furious roar came from Crowning Lord’s mouth.

The three gurus who were temporarily forced to retreat rushed up again.

“He doesn’t have much internal Qi left. He can’t hold on for long. Let’s kill him together!”

Crowning Lord cried out in alarm.

He knew what might happen.

John Doe focused all his attention on him, determined to kill him first. However, Crowning Lord's internal Qi had only recovered by 50%, and the severe injury on his chest had not yet healed. Therefore, even if John Doe only had half of his previous internal Qi now, he could get the upper hand!

If he were in John Doe's hands, he would be doomed.

Fanatically and relentlessly, John Doe chased him all the way here. At the thought of this, Crowning Lord started to panic.

Here...

John Doe only had 50% of internal Qi left. Just now, he displayed the third move of the divine sword and burst out a large-scale energy Qi. During the process, he used up another 10% of his internal Qi.

With the guiding technique, he kept taking in the Qi of Heaven and Earth attracted by the Great Hand of Destruction. The Qi of Heaven and Earth entered his body and transformed into internal Qi. But disappointedly, the conversion speed was not as fast as he had imagined.

It would take at least an hour for him to fully recover, but Fang Qiu obviously didn't have that much time.

What was more, he was still in a fierce battle!

"All of you must die! I will kill all of you!"

Fang Qiu was in a towering rage.

Instantly, the remaining 50% of internal Qi in his Dantian began circulating wildly. As the internal Qi was on the move, all the meridians in Fang Qiu suddenly expanded to their full extent.

As his meridians expanded, the operating speed of the internal Qi in him reached its maximum in an instant.

For a time...

When the internal Qi worked frantically...

A terrifying destructive aura surged out of Fang Qiu's body.

Indeed, it was a mighty aura with catastrophic power. It intimidated everyone on the battlefield. Even Fang Qiu tensed up. At this moment, he felt as if all his blood vessels, meridians, and muscles contracted.

"Is this the limit?"

Fang Qiu clenched his fists.

He felt an explosive force rising in him.

To his astonishment, this power was even stronger than when he was at his best.

In him, the 12 meridians had realized their full potential. In this case, the internal Qi in him could move rapidly without any resistance. With the operation of the internal Qi, all the internal Qi in his blood vessels, flesh, and cells were greatly affected and gradually toughened. Thus, he burst out the power he could not usually have.

At this moment, Fang Qiu fully demonstrated his limit after recultivation for the first time.

Even if he had only 40% internal Qi...

It was enough to deal with these four people!

“Swish!”

An incomparably high-pitched sound suddenly tore through the air.

Fang Qiu was faster than ever. Like a phantom, he dodged the attacks of the three gurus in a flash. Then, carrying a tremendous force, he punched one of the gurus hard.

“Bang!”

There was a loud bang.

Before the guru could react, Fang Qiu punched his chest. Then, like a kite with a broken string, he fell from the air and hit the ground hard, making several cracks in the boulders.

The other two gurus were shocked when they saw this.

They looked at Fang Qiu as if he were a monster.

A terrifying series of explosions had just hit John Doe. How could he still be so aggressive?

Just when they were shocked...

John Doe moved.

He rushed straight to the remaining two gurus. When he approached them, he brandished the divine sword in his hand. An extremely sharp energy Qi suddenly broke out of the sword and penetrated the chest of one guru like a thunderbolt. It acted so fast that others didn't see how it happened. After that, he casually wielded the long sword.

He pierced through the neck of the last guru who rushed to him.

The dagger in the man's hand was right before Fang Qiu. If Fang Qiu were a little slower, he would be injured instead!

However...

How could Fang Qiu give him this chance?

Now that his 12 meridians had gone all out, Fang Qiu spent less than a minute killing all three gurus.

This scene...

Crowning Lord suddenly widened his eyes in great shock.

John Doe slaughtered the three gurus without making an effort. Crowning Lord couldn't believe it.

Though they were three incapable gurus, they had been gurus for a long time, and their strength had stabilized. Even if they could not compare with authentic gurus, they were only a step away.

How could John Doe wipe them out casually like that?

When he was startled...

Crowning Lord's face also became ugly.

Fang Qiu lunged forward, dashing to Crowning Lord with his sword.

"You're not qualified to kill me!"

With a roar, Crowning Lord immediately rose all the internal Qi in his body and violently bumped into John Doe.

The next moment...

“Bang, bang, bang...”

Metallic sounds of collision rang out crazily.

In the fierce collision, Fang Qiu mercilessly waved the divine sword in his hand. Crowning Lord blocked Fang Qiu’s fierce attacks with his silver gloves.

But as they were fighting...

Crowning Lord’s face changed.

In the crashes with John Doe, he couldn’t even trigger one explosion with the energy gathered by the silver gloves. As a result, John Doe had been hacking with his sword, but the silver energy balls he made could only be used for defense.

Most terrifyingly, John Doe was getting increasingly stronger. Every time he struck, his strength would increase!

“How is this possible? How can he still be so energetic?”

Crowning Lord was flabbergasted and had nothing to say.

However...

At this time...

“Er?”

Suddenly, Crowning Lord’s face darkened — he felt a threatening aura flying fast toward him.

It was Sword Fanatic!

It was already challenging for him to handle John Doe. Once Sword Fanatic joined John Doe, Crowning Lord would have to battle against two mighty enemies. There would be only one road open to him, the road to extinction.

With this in mind...

“Explode!”

With an angry roar, Crowning Lord suddenly turned his head, his hands erupting a matchless stream of silver energy Qi. It thrust forward and exploded when it condensed into a giant silver energy ball!

When it exploded...

Crowning Lord turned around and immediately transformed into a streak of light, frantically fleeing into the distance.

Here...

Fang Qiu’s Divine Consciousness vibrated. Quickly, Fang Qiu evaded the explosive energy. Meanwhile, he locked his Divine Consciousness on Crowning Lord again, waiting for the explosion.

Fang Qiu sat cross-legged, sparing no effort to run the guiding technique. Then he began to absorb and recover crazily.

Sword Fanatic arrived.

Fang Qiu opened his eyes, got up, and said, "Big brother, do me a favor here. Nirvana has a stronghold here. It's best to destroy it and kill all the bad guys!"

"Alright."

Sword Fanatic immediately nodded in response.

"I'll go after him first."

Fang Qiu nodded and flew out again. Soothing all his highly taut meridians, he sped up to the extreme and vigorously pursued Crowning Lord, who had fled ten kilometers away.

He traced Crowning Lord all the way.

They reached Southern Yue!

Seeing Fang Qiu in hot pursuit, Crowning Lord knew Fang Qiu must have made up his mind to kill him. Crowning Lord gritted his teeth when thinking about this. As soon as he rushed into Southern Yue, he took out his mobile phone and called a high-level official of the Southern Yue military!

Medical Master

Chapter 1388 Join Hands!

"Beep, beep, beep..."

In a conference room of the Southern Yue Ministry of Defense, lots of senior officers were having a meeting. Suddenly, someone's cell phone rang.

The ringing of the mobile phone froze everyone in the meeting for a moment.

Everyone followed the sound.

There...

A middle-aged man with grey, grizzled hair sat on the first chair on the left side of the host seat. His face was thin, and his eyes were sunken. Under everyone's gaze, he was taking out his mobile phone from his pocket.

In general, no one was allowed to answer the phone in this conference room. Only a few people with high status could bring their mobile phones in. Usually, all those taking their phones into the conference room would turn them on silent mode.

The middle-aged man took out his ringing phone and was about to refuse to answer it. Before turning off his ringer, he suddenly saw the caller ID: a strange row of numbers.

All of a sudden, he trembled all over.

"Please excuse me, but it's an important phone call."

The middle-aged man stood up with his phone and said to everyone in the conference room. Right after that, he turned around and left the conference room, holding his mobile phone. He walked to a quiet place with no one around, tapping on the screen to answer the call.

"Hello?"

The middle-aged man said.

“John Doe, your enemy who killed your son, came. Do you want to take revenge?”

A question came from the other end of the line.

“Who are you?”

The middle-aged man asked.

“General Ruan Shibei, you don’t have to know who I am!”

The voice on the phone belonged to Crowning Lord. “You just need to know that John Doe is here. He is our enemy. How about we join forces to kill him?”

The middle-aged man was stunned.

A long time had passed, but in the middle-aged man’s heart, the bitterness and hatred didn’t reduce at all.

Absolutely...

Since Ruan Changhong died, he had been thinking about avenging his son and trying to find a way to kill John Doe. However, his plans failed time and time again. In order to avenge his son’s death, he even offered a billion dollars to Thomas, the world’s second-best killer!

He had prepared one billion dollars, but unlucky for him, he only paid part of the deposit.

It was because...

Thomas was dead in the end.

John Doe took his life away!

After that, Ruan Shibei felt hopeless. Even Thomas, the world's second-best killer, couldn't kill John Doe. And Lingyin, the world's best killer, was nowhere to be found. Even if he knew where Lingyin was, Lingyin must be unwilling to accept the task of killing the Huaxia people. Under the circumstance, no one in the world could kill John Doe for him.

None!

At least, Ruan Shibei believed he couldn't find anyone to do it.

Therefore, he gave up. After his last failure, he made no other plan to attack John Doe. The main reason was that John Doe threatened him. The terrible threat scared him. He feared he would be the next one to die because John Doe was too unbelievably strong.

However, to his surprise...

He received this call when he was about to let go of his hatred.

As Southern Yue's general, he was in frequent contact with these underground forces. Thus, many people from underground troops called him, but he didn't dare to add their names to his address book!

Therefore, every time he saw an unknown number, he panicked.

This time, he didn't even know who called him.

However...

What he said tempted Ruan Shibei again.

"Did John Doe come to Southern Yue again?"

He didn't know who the other party was. But since he provided the information, the man must need his help. Perhaps the caller could murder John Doe.

But what are the odds of that?

"Kill John Doe?"

Ruan Shiben frowned and asked the person on the other end of the phone, "Even the world's second-ranked killer couldn't kill John Doe. How can you do that? Who are you? I can cooperate with you, but at least I need to know your identity and plan!"

"Trust me."

Crowning Lord's voice came, "My strength is no worse than the world's second killer. I have seriously wounded John Doe, but he is not dead yet. Now, because I am also injured, I need your cooperation!"

"Oh?"

Ruan Shiben paused for a moment.

"He had seriously injured John Doe but didn't kill him. So, he wants my help?"

"Okay!"

Seeming to see hope, Ruan Shiben immediately asked, "How can I help you?"

"Find a place and cause further damage to him. You are free to use modern weapons or other things. He has serious injuries, after all. If you do what I say, I can kill him eventually!"

Crowning Lord added, "Remember, the power of modern weapons must be strong!"

"..."

Ruan Shibei gritted his teeth hesitantly. After thinking about it for a long time, he finally made up his mind and said, "Okay, I'll cooperate with you!"

"You only have half an hour to make the arrangements. Or John Doe and I will leave Southern Yue."

Crowning Lord reminded him.

"Fifteen minutes is enough. You go to the southeast coast first. I'll call you in 10 minutes."

Ruan Shibei replied.

High above the forest of Southern Yue...

"Alright."

Crowning Lord, who was running away at high speed, quickly put away his mobile phone. After confirming the direction, he turned and rushed to the southeast.

Behind him, Fang Qiu was now five kilometers away. In addition, he was still accelerating. The distance between them was getting closer and closer.

"Is he heading for the sea?"

When Crowning Lord suddenly changed his direction, Fang Qiu was slightly stunned. Then he frowned deeply and sped up.

“It seems he just made a phone call, didn’t he?”

“Do you want to lure me into another trap?”

Fang Qiu snorted in his heart.

Fang Qiu had fallen into his trap in Precious Triangle. How could he foolishly make the same mistake?

However...

Running toward the sea would leave no chance for Crowning Lord to escape.

It seemed Crowning Lord was ready to risk his life!

“The coast is also Southern Yue’s border. If he doesn’t go out to sea, the furthest place he can run to is Southern Yue’s coastline. Is Nirvana Organization’s stronghold on the coastline?”

As Fang Qiu chased after him, he analyzed the situation carefully, “No, Southern Yue has been strictly managing and controlling its coastline. After all, they have their territorial sea. If Nirvana Organization’s stronghold is on the coastline, Southern Yue’s government will discover it. So... why is he running to the coast?”

Here...

Fang Qiu was chasing after him in confusion.

For his enemies, ten minutes had passed.

The phone Crowning Lord had been holding firmly in his hand finally rang.

“Hello?”

Crowning Lord hastily picked up the phone.

“I’ve sent you the location information. You can go there. That’s my personal military base. In addition to the world’s top thermal weapons, there are also biological and chemical agents. I believe those things are enough to help you achieve your goal.”

Ruan Shibei’s voice came.

Indeed...

Ruan Shibei, as a general, seemed to have gradually let go of his old grudge against John Doe. But in fact, he did not let it go. Instead, he has transferred his hatred from John Doe to Southern Yue’s high-level officials. He was Southern Yue’s five-star general, who could even be regarded as one founder of his state. John Doe killed his son Ruan Changhong. However, he was advised to remain low-key about the matter.

The government’s passive attitude provoked him to anger. Thus, he secretly established his military base. Almost all the munitions there were bought from underground forces. As for troops in his military base, he selected and trained them in person.

If it weren’t for what had happened today... Well, if John Doe didn’t come to Southern Yue, he would launch a military coup in a year at most!

He was ready to go against the present government and be the ruler of this country.

He had planned out many details for this coup, including these biological and chemical agents!

Unexpectedly...

He had deliberately suppressed the hatred in his heart. But hatred flared up inside him again when there came a chance to kill John Doe. He was strongly stimulated to avenge his son!

The intense desire to kill John Doe overwhelmed him. He no longer cared about other things.

For him...

It didn't matter if this military base was exposed. Even so, he must take this rare chance to kill John Doe in one fell swoop.

Otherwise, even if he became the head of a country, it would be almost impossible for him to kill John Doe.

If the military base was exposed, he could rebuild it, but he mustn't miss this chance to kill John Doe!

"Alright."

Hearing Ruan Shibben's words, Crowning Lord couldn't help laughing excitedly.

The world's top thermal weapons and biological and chemical agents!

"John Doe!

"I wonder how you are going to escape this time?"

After hanging up the phone, Crowning Lord immediately checked the location information sent by Ruan Shibben. He quickly found it was an isolated spot at the coast. It did not seem to be a place the country would pay attention to!

With this murder plan in mind...

Crowning Lord immediately sped up and charged forward.

Fang Qiu followed closely behind.

Before long...

They rushed to the coastline and flew over a military base.

Ruan Changhong sent fighter planes from that military base to attack him that year. With one punch for each fighter plane, he smashed all of them.

After Crowning Lord flew past it...

He still advanced forward frantically.

Fang Qiu looked ahead.

Soon...

He saw a strait with steep terrain before him. There was a military base deliberately built in the shape of a strait. Looking from afar, he saw many people walking back and forth in that base.

"Is this Nirvana Organization's stronghold in Southern Yue?"

Fang Qiu made a guess.

Fang Qiu chased for a long time. On the way, he had been attracting the Heaven and Earth energy with the Great Hand of Destruction. Meanwhile, he operated the guiding technique to absorb the energy.

Like that, the internal Qi in his body had returned to 90% of its original state. It would take him at most half an hour to return to his peak state.

However...

Even with 90% of his strength, he believed he would win!

Soon...

After flying over the military base on the coast, Crowning Lord immediately swooped down and instantly landed in the military base.

Fang Qiu followed closely behind.

When he came to the sky above the base one minute later, he also made a dive to the base.

As a result...

Just as he dived, he suddenly saw a large group of soldiers in military uniforms running out of the base. Each of them was holding a weapon and shooting wildly at Fang Qiu!

“Eh?”

Fang Qiu frowned as soon as he saw it.

Medical Master

Chapter 1389 Biochemical Weapons!

“What’s going on?”

Looking at Southern Yue soldiers, Fang Qiu couldn't help frowning and asked, "Perhaps, this place is not a Nirvana Organization base but a military base. Or is the Southern Yue government in contact with Nirvana Organization?"

As this thought came to his mind...

Below him, the group of soldiers had come up to him and attacked.

From the military base like a strait, close and numerous bullets whistled toward Fang Qiu. The scene was like a siege to a city in ancient times with ten thousand arrows shot at once.

"Buzz!"

When a dark cloud of bullets drew close, Fang Qiu summoned up and released his internal Qi. The invisible internal Qi formed an energy shield and completely enveloped him. As the dense bullets were fiercely fired at him, the energy shield kept all of them from hurting Fang Qiu.

For a moment, it seemed that all was quiet and still.

When the bullets all over the sky speedily reached Fang Qiu, they all stopped in midair.

This scene was rare to see.

In the base below John Doe, soldiers who launched this vicious onslaught on him were shocked.

They were all ordinary people.

They didn't expect to meet such kind of people. Nor did they know some people in this world mastered mysterious power like superheroes.

Upon receiving the order to attack John Doe, they got everything ready. Yet, they were still greatly astonished when seeing two people flying over.

However, obedience is the first duty of a soldier. They had no choice but to complete their tasks. No matter how shocked they were, they had to stand up bravely and shoot at John Doe.

But at the sight of this scene, they gave a little cry of astonishment.

“He isn’t even afraid of bullets?”

“How are we supposed to take him down?”

When these soldiers were in complete bewilderment...

In midair...

“Swish.”

With a wave of Fang Qiu’s right hand, the bullets freezing around him suddenly fell wildly like a windy downpour.

But even so...

Still, many people were shot and fell to the ground.

As he fought back...

Fang Qiu got in position and rushed straight into the base.

But as soon as he stopped, he couldn’t help raising his eyebrows.

He noticed something wrong with the air in the base. Though he couldn't smell anything strange, he felt something floating in the air.

This feeling made Fang Qiu's heart tremble.

In particular...

He had memorized the entire Canon of Poison in his mind and had completely mastered it.

"Poisonous gas?"

He looked around.

Fang Qiu found it was indeed a military base. However, he saw no one at a glance. He felt a little threatened by the bizarre scene.

He didn't think much about it.

Fang Qiu, controlling his internal Qi, exhaled the abnormal Qi circulating in his body. Meanwhile, he sealed all his pores from head to toe. In this case, harmful gas could not enter his body.

Then...

He moved his right hand.

Secretly, he performed the Great Hand of Destruction. By gathering the surging Qi of Heaven and Earth, he churned the air in the entire military base.

When the airflows reached a satisfactory state...

“Great Hand of Formlessness!”

The move was just like the one he used in Africon Savannah.

Fang Qiu struck out with the Great Hand of Formlessness when gathering enough Qi of Heaven and Earth. All the Qi of Heaven and Earth and various airflows were sandwiched between the two forces produced by the Great Hand of Formlessness and the Great Hand of Destruction.

“Boom...”

An explosive sound rang out.

As Fang Qiu slammed down the Great Hand of Formlessness with his body as the center...

Under the impact in this brief moment, all the airflows and Qi of Heaven and Earth around Fang Qiu surged up high like billows, forming a ring centered around him. Then, with a tremendous bang, the ring burst out and spread in all directions.

Incredibly...

The second Fang Qiu's palm hit down, the hard rock ground seemed to have turned into soft liquid and rolled toward all sides like waves.

The next moment...

“Boom!”

A loud explosion resounded in the whole base.

The blast, powerful as a missile explosion, sent a giant mushroom cloud of impact waves. In an instant, it blew up all the military base's outer buildings.

Heavy weapons such as battle planes, tanks, and armored fighting vehicles were exposed!

Of course...

As the explosion took place, the poisonous gas in the air was burned away by the high heat caused by the explosion. With a gust of sea breeze, the matter that remained all dissipated!

Fang Qiu finished one strike.

He uttered a soft sigh and continued to look around.

But after a brief glance...

His face instantly became severe again.

There...

All the heavy weapons in the shattered areas of the military base were pointing at him.

In addition...

Fang Qiu saw more than one layer of weapons. A few more floors of cannons, rocket launchers, tanks, and guided missile trucks were pointing at him.

"Boom!"

Right after Fang Qiu noticed them, all the heavy weapons aimed at him fired simultaneously.

Countless cannonballs...

They crashed down from all directions.

At the same time, those tanks and armored cars began attacking him fiercely. Even the fighter jets flew up and wildly shot at him, throwing down two guided missiles. m

A myriad of bombs falling might nearly blow the entire base into ashes.

Fang Qiu didn't expect it either.

How could Crowning Lord get the help of a military base?

However...

It seemed that...

Crowning Lord must have decided to flee here on the spur of the moment. Once he escaped to this place on the coast, he had no other places to go. Since Crowning Lord made this decision, he should have planned to end this running fight.

Nevertheless...

Fang Qiu was not sure if Crowning Lord would run away again.

Crowning Lord might use the military base's power to delay John Doe. If he chose to escape, it would be harder for John Doe to find his whereabouts.

After all, he had been chasing Crowning Lord for a long time.

Nirvana Organization must have received the news and would send reinforcements. At that time, it would be challenging to slay Crowning Lord.

Most crucially...

In Nirvana Organization, Crowning Lord was only the third-in-command. There were two leaders stronger than him. Either one could come and rescue him from John Doe.

When Fang Qiu considered that...

He wasted no time in mobilizing his internal Qi and dodged those shells crazily. After all, cannonballs fell at different speeds. Even a top-notch expert like Fang Qiu needed a fraction of a second to react. He flashed here and there to stay safe.

With the protection of the internal Qi shield, the energy impact of each shell explosion could not hurt him.

It was just that...

He constantly dodged and moved, yet Fang Qiu indeed looked a little pathetic under heavy artillery fire.

Well...

From time to time...

Fang Qiu would deliberately remove the energy shield, letting energy from these explosions hit him and burn his clothes black.

When Fang Qiu thought it was time to stop avoiding blasts...

And when these soldiers slacked off in their firing...

Fang Qiu, in the bombing area, gradually showed signs of weakness. At first, he gasped for breath. Then he pretended to become feeble and even began to stagger.

In the end...

After barely dodging a cannonball, he suddenly fell to the ground powerlessly. Then, after the cannonball exploded, the blast shock wave knocked him back for several meters. There, when he fell heavily to the ground, he struggled to get up.

Gunpowder fumes gradually dissipated.

Everyone saw John Doe in a mess, lying on the ground and struggling. Only then did they breathe a sigh of relief.

Fortunately...

He was defeated.

Otherwise, they really didn't know how to take John Doe down.

The strength that John Doe had shown was impressively strong.

He was terrifyingly mighty!

In the meantime...

"Haha..."

A loud laugh came from an armored vehicle on the top floor of the military base.

With a closer look...

Surprisingly, Crowning Lord jumped out of the armored car, giving a sudden bellow of laughter. After he waved his hands, two basketball-sized energy balls erupted from his silver-thread gloves, one for each hand.

“Whoosh!”

Crowning Lord got ready.

Like mad, he dashed toward John Doe.

His purpose was clear.

John Doe was a little stronger than him. Although John Doe was poisoned, it was not difficult for him to resist his long-range attacks. Killing John Doe with a distant onslaught was almost impossible.

Therefore, Crowning Lord chose to rush up to John Doe as soon as he fell. Without giving John Doe any time to react, he was anxious to bombard John Doe closely.

Only when John Doe’s heart was shattered entirely could he rest assured!

In the distance...

Fang Qiu, who had collapsed to the ground, lay there defenselessly.

Without anyone noticing it, he had spread out his Divine Consciousness in advance to monitor Crowning Lord’s every move.

Seeing Crowning Lord appear, he was not in a hurry to get up and attack. Instead, Fang Qiu hid his strength, waiting for him to strike.

As he had expected...

Crowning Lord came.

In just a few seconds, he zipped up to John Doe.

At this time, the energy in Crowning Lord had recovered to 60% of its normal state. In particular, the power bursting from his palms was the greatest he could exert now!

If this blow could land on John Doe's chest, it would be exploded into pieces!

When the time came...

No matter how strong John Doe was, he was doomed to death.

However...

Just as he came up close and pressed the energy balls in his hands down hard on Fang Qiu's chest...

"Sizzle."

A crisp sound of the sword rang out.

There...

A ray of golden light flashed across them.

It cut the two silver energy balls in half before they could explode.

“Three-point Shadowless!”

A thunderous shout was heard.

When the energy balls were chopped, three sword shadows rose all at once before Crowning Lord. Though the two energy balls were broken in half, they were still in Crowning Lord’s control. However, the three sword shadows chopped the six pieces up and dispersed in midair.

Soon after...

The three sword shadows merged into one long energy sword. Maintaining a powerful offensive, it slashed at Crowning Lord.

As the incomparably sharp blade was brought down, it pierced through the air, causing a string of sonic booms!

Near John Doe...

Crowning Lord had been confident that he could eradicate John Doe here. Obviously, he had never imagined John Doe was capable of making such a violent attack on him. His pupils suddenly contracted when he saw the energy sword coming at him!

Medical Master

Chapter 1390: Crowning Lord, Die!

“Ah!!!”

Suddenly, a roar of shock and anger came out of Crowning Lord's mouth.

Against all his expectations, John Doe made a fool of him. Even more distressing, he took the bait!

"Pa!"

There came a chopping sound.

Crowning Lord was caught off guard. The energy sword outburst by Fang Qiu bashed him hard. A massive amount of power instantly broke out.

As the power outbroke, Crowning Lord instantly suffered a considerable blow. With a boom, he was sent flying and smashed violently into the ruins of the military base!

"Whoosh."

Such an opportunity was hard to obtain. Fang Qiu didn't hesitate at all. As he knocked Crowning Lord into the air, he jerked and sprinted to stab Crowning Lord's chest with the long sword in his hand.

"Target on him. All of you, fire at him!"

Crowning Lord bellowed.

The sword strike just now only slightly injured him. After all, most of its power was used to cut the energy balls. As such, it did not have the extra power to cause an explosion when hitting him.

However, John Doe's second sword strike following closely behind the first one was fatal!

At that moment, Crowning Lord got into a real tizzy.

For decades Crowning Lord was in charge of the Nirvana Organization. He had lived delightedly for years and murdered countless people in cold blood. At this moment, when facing death, the demon taking pleasure in killing people finally knew the feeling of terror.

Therefore...

He could only shout for help.

He hoped these soldiers could launch another attack to help him temporarily hold John Doe back.

But it turned out that...

His shout spread out, but the soldiers remained motionless. They all looked at him without sympathy and had no intention of obeying his order.

These soldiers only took orders from General Ruan Shibei.

Even if General Ruan Shibei issued an order, they had done everything possible. A batch of ammunition had been used up. They would need time to load the ammunition to organize another attack. At this time, they didn't replenish the supply of ammunition.

Moreover...

Who was Crowning Lord?

They didn't know him at all.

So, why should they listen to his orders?

"Drop dead!"

No one helped him while Fang Qiu had nearly driven his long sword into Crowning Lord.

The next moment...

“Boom!”

His life in danger, Crowning Lord no longer dared to hide his strength. He erupted all his recovered internal Qi in an instant, making a silvery white energy shield before him.

“Crack!”

The silver energy shield was instantly cut into two halves as the long sword approached.

However, by taking advantage of this 0.1 second, Crowning Lord quickly retreated five meters away.

But on this side...

Fang Qiu followed him closely behind.

“Whoosh...”

Flashing aside, he lost no time rushing up again and instantly popped up before Crowning Lord, who was frantically retreating.

“You want to kill me? I’ll make you die a miserable death!”

Crowning Lord found himself cornered, his eyes bloodshot.

In a towering rage, he raised his hands. Then, all the internal Qi in him instantly surged out through the silver gloves, condensing into a giant silver energy ball before him!

This energy ball was even bigger than the ones he had created before.

“Do you want to risk your life?”

Fang Qiu frowned immediately.

He knew that...

Crowning Lord was no match for him if he didn't use his secret skill.

Before this...

Crowning Lord had consumed too much internal Qi and utilized his secretive technique once. Even if his internal Qi had recovered a lot, it was not enough for him to apply his secretive method again.

Therefore...

Hotly pursued by Fang Qiu, he could only make a last desperate effort.

But would Fang Qiu give him the chance?

Never!

Fang Qiu slashed down hard in the face of the enormous silver ball.

As a result...

“Pa!”

He failed to cut into the ball. Instead, there came the metallic clang.

Fang Qiu took a closer look.

There...

When blocking the divine sword, Crowning Lord savagely tore a large slit in the silver energy ball with both hands. Then he stepped into it and was completely enveloped by the silver energy ball.

“Eh?”

Fang Qiu frowned.

But he saw...

The silver-thread gloves on Crowning Lord’s hands and the silver energy ball fused completely. Slowly, he began to rise with the ball.

“John Doe, it’s your honor to die with me.”

“Haha...”

Under everyone’s gaze, the silver energy ball wrapped around Crowning Lord gradually went up.

At the same time...

The energy ball emitted a faint dangerous aura that sent cold shivers down people's spines. Even more amazingly, lightning flashes appeared on the periphery of the energy ball.

"Does he want to explode himself?"

Fang Qiu felt shocked in his heart.

Apparently...

Crowning Lord knew he was at the end of his resources. If he continued to fight, he would die. That was why he wanted to put up a desperate fight.

"Powerful energy!"

In shock, Fang Qiu distinctly felt that the silver energy ball produced the force of attraction. All the lightning-type energy between heaven and earth around them was madly converging toward the energy ball.

As flows of energy gathered, the destructive cold aura became increasingly dense!

The next moment...

"Boom!"

All of a sudden, a muffled thunder sounded in the sky.

The silver ball rose to midair, emitting dazzling silver radiance. In the sky, it looked like a tottering, scorching sun, which panicked all the people watching it below.

"If you want to gather energy, I'll disperse it!"

With this...

Fang Qiu got in position and drew closer to the ball with flying feet, waving his right hand.

He approached the silver ball shining with dazzling light. With a vigorous wave of his right hand, he delivered a hard slap!

“Great Hand of Formlessness!”

“Pa!”

He slammed his palm heavily on the silver energy ball.

There was another sound of metal colliding.

It was different from before.

Fang Qiu sensed that this palm strike had scattered much energy on the silver energy ball.

However, the ball wasn’t split in half. Something seemed to have blocked the attack.

Besides...

The silver energy ball was still frantically absorbing the lightning-type energy, the fiercest energy in the world.

“Haha...”

Seeing Fang Qiu's action, Crowning Lord burst out laughing and said, "It's useless. This pair of gloves is a divine weapon. I got it from an ancient ruin. It can utilize the energy after devouring and assimilate it!"

Fang Qiu heard that.

Instantly, his face changed.

The next moment...

"Rumble..."

Thunder sounded.

"Go to hell!"

Crowning Lord threw his head back and cackled with laughter.

The next moment...

The silver energy ball enveloped and protected him. Instantly, it burst out rays of light, so glaring that people couldn't look straight at the ball.

Right after that...

"Crack, crack, crack..."

Countless bolts of lightning burst out from it. Like thunderclaps in the sky, each beam of lightning carried a destructive and terrifying energy.

In an instant, they destroyed the entire military base. Many things like soldiers, tanks, high-flying warplanes, and armored vehicles hid high above. But the thunder and lightning still blew them into powder flying over the sky!

Fang Qiu, who faced Crowning Lord, was hit by several thunderbolts instantly.

Afterward...

The energy ball, hanging in the sky like a silver sun, exploded with a loud rumble.

In an instant...

The whole world became a vast expanse of whiteness stretching to infinity. Everything seemed to have vanished.

After a long time...

The dazzling silver light gradually faded away.

The military base was in an awful mess. Even the soldiers had disappeared without a trace.

Everything was turned into fine powder covering the ground!

Two figures...

They fell to the ground from midair at the same time.

“Puff!”

The two of them opened their mouths and spat out a mouthful of blood. Then, they turned to look at each other.

“Hehe... Haha...”

As he had expected, everything had turned into powder. Better still, John Doe had also fallen to the ground and vomited blood. Seeing John Doe seriously injured like him, Crowning Lord couldn't help laughing.

But right at this moment...

“Cough, cough...”

Two coughs were heard.

Under Crowning Lord's shocked gaze, Fang Qiu, who had fallen to the ground feebly, struggled to stand up with a painful look.

A large area of his skin was burnt black. What was worse, some parts were even severely mutilated. His viscera suffered severe internal injuries because of the violent impact. Nevertheless, he managed to stand up.

When Crowning Lord saw John Doe get up...

He also gritted his teeth with determination. It looked as if he wanted to compete with John Doe.

He raised his right hand and gave his upper body a yank, trying to pull it up. To his disappointment, he stopped only after raising it a little.

“Clang.”

Just as he raised his arm, the silver-thread gloves he had been wearing suddenly fell.

With a closer look...

The silver-thread gloves were not real gloves. There were many long black needles on the wrists of the gloves. When he put on this pair of gloves, he had to pierce those needles into his flesh and blood!

There were indeed a few deep holes in Crowning Lord's forearms. This pair of gloves seemed to have badly emaciated his entire arms — all his arm muscles were gone.

Seeing this, Fang Qiu couldn't help shaking his head.

Fortunately...

The gloves were utterly destroyed.

This pair of gloves enabled Crowning Lord to ignite the explosions.

At this moment, Fang Qiu figured out everything.

Opposite him...

"He, hehe..."

After several attempts, Crowning Lord failed to prop his upper body up. Suddenly, he gave up trying and lay powerlessly on the ground, laughing. "So, this is the smell of death.

"Waking from a long dream, seeing all froth and fantasy; freeing the world from suffering, following the teachings of Nirvana..."

“Bullshit!”

Before Crowning Lord could finish his words, Fang Qiu endured physical misery and cursed angrily, “I’ve read Buddhist sutras, studied the Taoist scriptures, and comprehended Confucianism. I see no suggestion of helping people in pain by killing them!

“Buddhists are filled with benevolence. Mercifully, they give happiness, and sympathetically, they remove pain.

“But Nirvana Organization promotes wrong teachings. How dare you do such evil things?

“Your death is not worthy of pity!”

Crowning Lord heard his words...

He didn’t stop smiling but just looked at John Doe with contempt.

“I only have one question for you.”

Staring at Crowning Lord, Fang Qiu took a deep breath and asked, “When you are alive, do you think you are really Crowning Lord?

“Where would Crowning Lord go after you die?

“Crowning Lord is your current self, and everything you have done is for Crowning Lord. But you are not born with the title of Crowning Lord. So, who is doing everything? Who is the real you? Freeing everyone in misery by killing? You are not helping people but merely dealing with your pathetic mental projections on them!

“Nonsense!

“All your teachings are fucking evil preaches. How dare you address yourselves as Nirvana? Arrogant and ignorant. You are nothing but a group of people selfish to the extreme!”

Crowning Lord heard his speech...

The smile on his face froze, and a trace of confusion flashed in his eyes.

“I’d love to think about your words carefully, but it’s too late...”

With this...

Crowning Lord’s eyes became unfocused. He twitched and died!
