Chapter 1631 What to Do?

Before long...

The news that John Doe had killed Steven the Devourer also spread to the underground-force forum.

After all, the observer assigned by the underground-force forum was on the spot. As soon as John Doe killed Steven the Devourer, the observer immediately edited the post and uploaded the news to the underground-force forum.

As soon as this news was released...

In an instant, the entire underground-force forum was in an uproar.

Everyone was shocked.

“John Doe of Huaxia killed Steven the Devourer!”

“How could that happen?”

“Was the news sent by mistake?”

In the beginning, many people doubted it.

But...

When they saw that the person who posted this news was from the underground-force forum, they were all stunned immediately.

“Really, it’s true!”

“I’ve also heard the news. John Doe killed Steven the Devourer on the spot in front of the forces of all the countries.”

“John Doe is awesome!”

“John Doe’s right hand was injured, right? How could John Doe kill Steven instead when he couldn’t use his right hand?”

“It’s amazing! He wins honor for Huaxia. Under the circumstance of being targeted repeatedly, John Doe killed all the experts sent by Murica one by one. Murica has suffered a big loss.”

“It’s more than a big loss. Murica has been disgraced in public around the world.”

“This is something we’d like to see. Being schemed against by Murica shamelessly, John Doe still killed Steven. He taught a big lesson to a certain superpower on his own. What’s more, that superpower is not capable to fight back. It’s so satisfying!”

“Shameless Murica deserves to be humiliated!”

John Doe had been targeted from the very beginning, so almost everyone on the underground-force forum was partial to John Doe, and they supported John Doe from the bottom of their hearts.

Now, they were overjoyed upon getting the news about John Doe’s victory.

Then...

Who were the happiest and most excited?

The people in Laozi Relic were, of course.

When the news that John Doe had killed Steven was posted on the underground-force forum, He Gaoming saw it immediately and cheered like crazy.

His loud cheers attracted the attention of everyone in the relic.

When everyone was confused...

Someone reposted the news on the underground-force forum to the Wulin online forum.

Many people got the news, and they cheered one after another.

The others inquired in curiosity.

Then they quickly logged into the Wulin online forum to check it out.

As expected, they saw the news that John Doe had killed the world's third-ranked, Steven the Devourer, and they all cheered immediately.

No one had expected this result.

Everyone had thought that it would be hard for John Doe to fight Steven.

But surprisingly...

John Doe won. Not only did he win, but he also killed Steven.

This was too much morale boost!

The Four Great Families and the Sword Sect also received the news as soon as possible.

They were all very surprised.

They had witnessed John Doe's growth all the time.

However, they didn't expect that John Doe had developed so rapidly. Now his individual strength ranked third in the world, and on behalf of Huaxia, he taught Murica a big lesson. They were so proud of John Doe.

But...

When the four patriarchs thought of how the boy, whom they had witnessed his growth, had surpassed them in the blink of an eye, they sighed with emotion.

And so did Master Numinous.

Of course...

Speaking of which...

The most emotional people were those martial arts practitioners in Jiangjing Wulin, especially Elder Yi.

During the two or three years, the boy who used to compete in martial arts in Elder Yi's manor had become the third-ranked in the world. It was what Elder Yi had never imagined

In addition to Elder Yi...

Yun Yangzi and Diwu Qian, who had just broken through the Magpie Bridge and returned to the place above the clouds, couldn't help smiling bitterly when they got the news about John Doe.

Yun Yangzi had just broken through to the guru realm. While John Doe already had Flower Core Formation, and he killed the world's third-ranked super expert. If John Doe continued to develop at this speed, Yun Yangzi was afraid that he could not catch up with John Doe for the rest of his life.

Diwu Qian was even more frustrated.

Diwu Qian connected the Magpie Bridge on her own and successfully reached above the clouds, relying on her strength. Besides, she crossed the last step on the Heavenly Ladder, successfully broke through, and became a guru.

However, compared with what John Doe had achieved, those were not worth mentioning. So, Diwu Qian had to shake her head and smile bitterly, feeling ashamed of her inferiority.

All the people in Laozi Relic were celebrating excitedly.

The higher-ups of Huaxia also heard the news.

At first, they heaved a sigh of relief, and then they were particularly delighted.

This time...

It was a clear slap in the face of Murica!

John Doe was so great that he resisted and killed all the enemies from Murica on his own.

Even though he was injured badly, he had taught Murica a big lesson.

Murica suffered such a big loss this time.

Murica must have been at a loss.

While laughing at Murica, the high-ups of Huaxia felt more proud and elated.

They thought, “If you dare to challenge to fight us, We’ll take it.

“When we take it, we dare to kill you.

“No matter how many people you send, we’ll kill them all!”

...

In Murica...

Somewhere, in a secret conference room where almost all the high-ups presented, it was dead silent.

Just like other countries...

Murica also received the news as soon as possible.

From the moment they heard the news...

All of them fell silent.

It was shocking.

It was hard to believe.

They couldn't believe it, and they didn't want to believe it either.

Various emotions changed back and forth on the faces of the high-ups of Murica.

They even felt that they were dreaming.

In their opinion...

There was no way for Steven the Devourer to lose.

Moreover, John Doe was already injured.

However, no matter how long they were silent...

The fact was right there.

Steven the Devourer died!

He was killed by John Doe, a 22-year-old evil-like genius from Huaxia.

What bad news!

It was too hard for them to accept the fact.

They had no idea how to face the fact.

They kept silent.

All their faces darkened.

Even if they didn't want to believe the news, they had to calculate their losses this time.

Putting aside the S-class and S-plus experts who were sent to fight for the relic at the beginning.

Ballor, who ranked fifth in the world, was killed by John Doe.

Steven, who ranked third in the world, died at John Doe's hands.

Lingyin, the world's No. 1 killer, whom they had been secretly supporting, was ready to take action to deal with Huaxia, but he also died.

And most importantly, it was about the image of Murica!

This time...

They were completely disgraced.

If they had won this battle, then all queries, accusations, and complaints against Murica for targeting and bullying John Doe would have completely disappeared as if they had never existed.

But, the fact was that they had lost.

It was not only an ordinary failure, but a failure of the strong against the weak, a failure of continuously exerting pressure and commanding, and a failure of launching a sneak attack on John Doe.

They were a complete loser!

And, they had no temper as a loser.

The most terrific thing was...

They not only lost, but they also became stepping stones for John Doe and Huaxia, holding John Doe up to the altar and pushing Huaxia to be the top of the world.

This was the last thing they wished to see!

However...

It happened just like that.

“What should we do now?”

After a long silence, a hoarse voice sounded in the secret conference room.

Right now...

This was a problem that all the high-ups of Murica had to face.

The moment this question was raised...

The already oppressive atmosphere in the conference room instantly became even more oppressive. The whole atmosphere was terrifyingly gloomy!

“John Doe.”

One of them opened his mouth and said in the same hoarse voice, “Let him go for the time being. We all want him to die, but we can’t afford to have any more super experts to be killed by John Doe. This time, it’s Steven. Who will be the next?”

Everyone nodded in silence.

Murica could not afford it anymore.

If it went on like this, the gap of capability and power between Murica and Huaxia would grow wider and wider, and Murica would eventually be completely defeated by Huaxia.

They hated John Doe like hell, but they couldn't do anything to him now.

Besides...

According to the message brought back by the killers who were sent to assist Steven to kill John Doe...

If Murica didn't let go, John Doe would probably not play with them as openly as he was now. By then, what if John Doe sneaked into Murica and played dirty with them?

Then they would have to suffer.

"I mean, shall we do anything to John Doe now?"

In the Chairman's seat...

The middle-aged man named Nash Wilson, who was purple-faced, asked angrily.

"Keep our status!"

Another high-level official said, "The most important thing now is maintaining our international status.

"We lost Ballor and Steven this time. Both of their rankings on the world's individual strength list are gone. To maintain our international status, we must fill these two places. At present, John Doe is ranked third on the individual strength list. The fifth and sixth places are currently vacant. It is very likely that the seventh and eighth places will be filled orderly.

“In order to let all countries know the power of Murica, we must hold these two rankings in our hands, no matter what. We’ll show the world that we not only have Ballor and Steven but also more experts!”

When Nash Wilson finished his speaking...

In the conference room...

All the high-ups nodded in agreement.

Sure enough...

In this era, the metahuman represented many resources and strengths. As the world’s top major power, Murica must have metahumans who could support it.

“It seems that we’ll have to mobilize our hidden power.”

Nash Wilson punched the conference table heavily. Originally, these trump cards were kept for the last minute to use. Unexpectedly, now they have to make appearances in advance because of a mere nobody, John Doe.

This made Nash Wilson quite unhappy.

But he had no choice.

“Besides...”

Nash Wilson continued, “According to John Doe, the existence of the Nirvana Organization is indeed a great threat to the whole world. Give the order immediately to step up the investigation into the Nirvana Organization. Don't let any piece of news go. Find out the Nirvana Organization, no matter what!"

"Agreed."

The other high-level officials nodded one after another.

One of them said, "I didn't expect that the Nirvana Organization really exists. There is such a powerful force in the world that was out of our control. It's too dangerous. We must know more about it. If possible, we should control it and make use of it!"

Chapter 1632 Little Saint Lord of the Nirvana Organization

At the border of Huaxia...

Somewhere in the desolate Gobi Desert, the wind kept blowing under the scorching sun.

Sand and gravel swept across the air.

It seemed that this place was always like this all year round.

But...

Taking a closer look, there was a large group of figures outside the sand-covered area. Among them, only several people were standing at the forefront of the crowd, and the others were all kneeling on the ground, looking like they were doing a religious ritual or welcoming someone respectfully.

Unknowing how long they had been kneeling...

Suddenly...

The ground began to shake slightly.

Ahead of the crowd, in the area of sand and gravel flying around, a touch of earth-colored light appeared, as if the space had been ripped with an opening.

Just then, the sand and gravel sweeping over the sky suddenly stayed still.

Then...

One foot stretched out of the space rift.

It was very strange.

It was a foot in modern cloth shoe.

If it was in a big city, one could tell from this cloth shoe that its master should be a college student who had been admitted to the city from the countryside.

However...

The foot in a modern cloth shoe stepped steadily in mid-air.

As this foot stood steadily, a figure came out of the space rift that had been ripped.

At this very moment...

All the people, who were kneeling outside, lowered their heads nervously. They did not dare to look up at all.

And over there...

In the plenty of still sand and gravel...

The man in modern cloth shoes looked up at the sky with a smile. He took a long deep breath and then exhaled slowly with great enjoyment.

With a closer look...

He had short hair that reached his eyebrows. He was wearing a set of fashionable clothes. He looked imposing. If he were in a college, he would be an object to make fun of.

"It's been a long time since I've had such fresh air. Finally, I come out!"

The young man chuckled and shifted his eyes to the right ahead. Then he put on a careless and casual look, put his hands into trouser pockets, and walked in mid-air. The sand and gravel all over the sky around him naturally dispersed quickly, making way for him.

"Welcome, Little Saint Lord!"

The thunderous shouts sounded from the large group of people in black kneeling on the ground in front of the young man.

"Be good."

Walking out of the area filled with sand and gravel and listening to everyone's shouts, the young man smiled with satisfaction.

Then he continued to walk.

He was high up in the air, stepping on above the crowd of kneeling people, and continuing to walk into the distance.

After taking more than a dozen steps...

Suddenly...

The young man, called Little Saint Lord stopped, frowned, and said, "Get up, all of you. You don't have to kneel to me."

With that, he continued to move forward.

The men in black kneeling on the ground immediately got up, but they still lowered their heads.

Just then...

Little Saint Lord stopped again.

In front of him, a man in black, who had just stood up, got in his way.

Behind Little Saint Lord...

A leader, who led the group of people to kneel down, suddenly narrowed his eyes and quickly caught up.

But it was too late.

"Bang!"

The man in black in front of Little Saint Lord seemed to have been hit by some horrible force before he could react. Instantly, he was sent flying sideways, along with hitting several people.

With a closer look...

The man in black was dead when he fell to the ground, and the several people who were accidentally hit by him were badly injured. Blood gushed from their mouths.

Little Saint Lord turned around and smiled at the leader who just ran over.

“My Young Lord, I have something to report.”

The leader was so anxious that he immediately knelt on the ground.

“I said, don’t kneel to me!”

Little Saint Lord curled his lips and said, “Stand up and say it.”

“My Young Lord, please be informed that both Lord Virtuous and Crowning Lord are dead!”

The leader of the men in black quickly stood up and said.

“Huh?”

Little Saint Lord raised his eyebrows. He continued to move forward while asking, “How did that happen?”

The leader of the men in black went behind Little Saint Lord carefully.

The leader reported, "John Doe has only risen in Wulin of Huaxia for two or three years, but his strength has grown very fast. At first, he killed a few people from our organization, which didn't attract the attention of our organization. Later, some members of our organization especially went to him for revenge. As a result, they all died at his hands.

"As John Doe is a martial arts practitioner of Wulin in Huaxia, the several Venerables decided to let go of him temporarily and focus on completing the organization's plan and missions. Unexpectedly, John Doe went to Zhongdong. He ruined our organization's plan and even told the whole world about our existence.

"Soon afterward, our organization carried out a plan in Africo, but it was ruined by John Doe again.

"From then on, John Doe has attracted the attention of the Venerables. They gave the order to find his whereabouts and kill him. Unexpectedly, John Doe killed the members who were assigned to kill him. In a rage, Crowning Lord chased to kill John Doe himself, but unfortunately, he died at John Doe's hands.

"After Crowning Lord died, John Doe showed up in Zhongdong again. Not only did he destroy our Mysterious Realm in Zhongdong, but he also killed several Venerables.

"Lord Virtuous chased John Doe to the border of Huaxia. He had already killed John Doe, but for some reason, John Doe came back to life."

Speaking of that...

The leader of the men in black paused for a moment. Then he added, "Since then, Lord Virtuous had been tracking John Doe, but he couldn't find John Doe anywhere.

"Not long ago, in the mountainous area of Ahanf that was only dozens of kilometers away from Huaxia, Laozi Relic was discovered. On behalf of Huaxia, John Doe went to guard the relic and fought against all the countries. Lord Virtuous also went there with Second Venerable. But in the end, Lord Virtuous, Second Venerable, and all our brothers in Zhongdong were all killed by John Doe."

His voice faded.

Little Saint Lord, who had been moving forward, stopped walking.

It was a steep cliff at a depth of tens of thousands of meters at his feet. Below it was a boundless Gobi Desert.

Right now...

Little Saint Lord and the group of men in black stood at the highest point of the Gobi Desert.

“John Doe?”

Looking out over the magnificent mountains and rivers of Huaxia outside the Gobi Desert, Little Saint Lord smacked his lips and said, “It seems that the world has become more interesting during my closed-door cultivation.

“That’s good though.

“Men should become independent at the age of 30. I’m turning 30 next year. One year is enough for me to do a lot of things.”

Then...

Little Saint Lord asked, “Is there anything else you want to say?”

“I just received the updated information.”

The leader of the men in black immediately nodded and said, “John Doe was targeted. He killed the world’s sixth-ranked Bart, the world’s fifth-ranked Ballor, and the world’s top killer Lingyin in a row. In the end, he also killed the world’s third-ranked Steven the Devourer!”

“Oh?”

Little Saint Lord was stunned. Then he suddenly laughed and said, “Another Qingyun?”

“But, judging from his achievements, he seems to be more dangerous than Qingyun.

“Huaxia has spent so much effort to cultivate a Qingyun to deal with me. I wonder who has cultivated John Doe. Well, whoever has cultivated him, he is a Huaxianese after all.

“Huaxia does have a strong foundation. No wonder Saint Lord was defeated back then, and he has had to remain dormant all these years.

“But Huaxia has not been idle these years.”

As he spoke...

Little Saint Lord smiled, and a faint cold light shot from his eyes.

“What should we do next, My Young Lord?”

The leader of the men in black asked.

“Carry out all our plans as scheduled.”

Little Saint Lord said, “As for John Doe, keep an eye on his movements. After finding him, let First Venerable take action. John Doe is just a boy at the SS level with One-Flower Core Formation. With his strength, it is not worthy for me to take action personally. If he were Qingyun, I would like to. After all, it’s exciting to combat with someone at the level as Qingyun.”

After he said that...

Little Saint Lord stepped forward and walked out in the air. It looked like he was taking a walk, his speed was very fast.

All the men in black flew up and followed Little Saint Lord behind, flying toward the distance in a formidable array.

Little Saint Lord murmured inwardly, "Lord Virtuous? Crowning Lord?"

"Humph, two losers!"

...

Two days later.

In the depths of an ice cave on one of the mountain peaks of Hemalaya Mountain.

Fang Qiu woke up from his cultivation.

At this moment in time...

The injury on his right hand became better, and his whole body had returned to its peak state.

"No wonder that guy likes to cultivate at the peak of the snow mountain. In such a cold situation, all the impurities in the air are expelled by the extremely cold Qi. The cultivation effect is indeed better than that at the foot of the mountain." Fang Qiu thought to himself.

Fang Qiu stood up, stretched his right hand, and then smiled confidently.

It wasn't just healing.

In the past two days, Fang Qiu did not forget cultivation while healing his injuries.

The flower in his Dantian blurred out again.

His overall strength had improved quite a lot.

But...

So far...

The flower had not blurred out much yet. To break through the current realm, Fang Qiu had to wait until the flower was completely blurred out before he could start to impact the Two-Flowers Core Formation Realm.

“Swoosh!”

Fang Qiu moved and immediately flew to the entrance of the ice cave.

When Fang Qiu first arrived, to prevent a sneak attack from malicious people, he did not enter the ice cave until he was sure no one was around. Then, he used Steven’s method to activate the ice and snow energy to condense a thick layer of ice at the cave entrance and had it completely sealed. There were some small holes in the cave connected to the outside world, so Fang Qiu had no concern about the amount of oxygen, even though it was over 5,000 meters above sea level.

With a wave of his right hand...

The thick layer of ice at the entrance of the cave immediately broke and crumbled.

Fang Qiu flew out of the ice cave.

This time...

Instead of returning the way he came, he chose the direction of Huaxia. He crossed Hemalaya Mountain and went straight back to the Zangjiang region in Huaxia.

After flying high in the air at an altitude of 10,000 meters for a long time, Fang Qiu finally arrived in Sala.

He got on the plane.

And he took the direct flight to Beijiang.

A few hours later, the plane landed in Beijiang. Fang Qiu went straight into the desert, heading for the entrance of Laozi Relic. When he was nearly 100 meters away, an idea popped into his mind, and he directly showed up in the clouds above Laozi Relic.

At this very moment...

Everyone was excited about John Doe's victory.

They were all particularly happy. He Gaoming generously transported many bottles of Heaven Dew and enjoyed drinking with the brothers for three days in a row, waiting for John Doe to come back.

Chapter 1633 Have You Become a Guru at 19?

In Laozi Relic...

Above the clouds...

After the party, everyone was waiting for John Doe to come back. When John Doe showed up, He Gaoming and the others, who had been looking forward to seeing John Doe for so long time, immediately rushed to Fang Qiu with great excitement.

People from the Four Great Families, Sword Sect, and Pear Garden stood on both sides to welcome Fang Qiu.

This time...

The performance of John Doe was really beyond all their expectations. No one had expected that the big battle caused by Laozi Relic would finally end by John Doe.

“Congratulations on your triumphant return, Brother John Doe. You’ve shown the dignity and power of Huaxia to the world!”

Wei Jian walked up with some disciples of the Sword Sect to congratulate Fang Qiu with a hold fist salute.

All the people from the Four Great Families and the Pear Garden also came out to congratulate Fang Qiu.

Fang Qiu saluted back one by one.

For a moment...

Everyone began to chat with each other happily and warmly.

First, Wei Jian, Master Numinous, and the four patriarchs greeted Fang Qiu. Then, Yun Yangzi and the others, who were the same generation as John Doe, started to talk with Fang Qiu.

“To my surprise, you have grown so much in the last two years.”

Yun Yangzi and Diwu Qian came to Fang Qiu’s side together. The way they looked at Fang Qiu was filled with helplessness, sighs, and bitterness.

Back then, John Doe was an expert at the same level as them, competing for the ranking on the Wulin Young and Talented Martial Arts Practitioner List.

And now...

They were still competing for the ranking on the Wulin Young and Talented Martial Arts Practitioner List, but John Doe had already begun to compete for the place on the world's individual strength ranking list. The former was in Huaxia Wulin, and the latter was in the whole world. Moreover, John Doe had rushed straight to third place.

Such a good result was totally out of their reach, so they felt ashamed.

"Actually, our starting points are different."

Fang Qiu shook his head and comforted them, "Your talents are as good as mine. When I first met you, I had been practicing cultivation for more than ten years. I believe that you can do it better than me if you keep working hard."

"The way of cultivation is not so easy to pass through."

Diwu Qian smiled wryly and said, "It's already a blessing for us to become gurus. Next, the breakthrough will be thousands of times more difficult than before. We've been far behind you."

"That's right."

Yun Yangzi nodded in echo. Then, he rolled his eyes and asked with a smile, "Brother John Doe, may I ask how you cultivate the Flower Core Formation?"

As soon as this question was asked...

All the people on the scene immediately turned their heads to look at John Doe.

Yun Yangzi was not the only one who was curious.

Everyone from the Sword Sect, the Pear Garden, and the Four Great Families, including Sword Fanatic, was particularly curious about how a guru could cultivate Flower Core Formation

This was a path that almost no one had ever taken. In other words, no one had ever made this path so that everyone could see it.

Nowadays...

There were some experts who reached the Flower Core Formation Realm in Huaxia. However, it was too difficult to meet them, let alone ask for any methods of breakthrough.

And John Doe was the only one who was close to them.

In Laozi Relic, John Doe was the only expert who had reached the Flower Core Formation Realm. Therefore, everyone was very curious about what on earth a guru should do to cultivate Flower Core Formation correctly, and they wished to get the answer from John Doe.

Of course...

Fang Qiu was very clear about everyone's thoughts.

Therefore, he'd like to share the information and his experience with them.

"Everyone, do you know what Flower Core Formation is?"

In the face of all the people who were curious about it, Fang Qiu asked.

“Actually, Flower Core Formation is an undisclosed saying. It’s not because it has something special, but because very few people can reach this realm. It’s almost only talked about among the high-ups in Wulin. Therefore, Flower Core Formation is tacitly regarded as the secret of the high-ups in Wulin.”

Diwu Mingchuan stood out and said, “All the big families and forces in Wulin know a phrase, which is ‘accumulate internal Qi’.”

Hearing that...

Everyone nodded in agreement.

They did know this phrase.

“Those who have broken through to become gurus should have heard this phrase. If accumulating internal Qi successfully, it will be formed into a flower in the cultivator’s Dantian.

“This is what the masters in Wulin know about the Flower Core Formation Realm. Except for this phrase that cannot be simpler, almost no one knows the specific method of cultivating Flower Core Formation. Everyone has to feel their way forward. Even those seniors in the Sword Sect who have already broken through the Flower Core Formation Realm said the same thing. They can’t say anything else at all. They don’t know how to make it clear even if they want to say.”

Speaking of this, Diwu Mingchuan gave a wry smile and said, “But how can break through the Flower Core Formation realm with mere one phrase? It’s easier said than done. Actually, it’s very dangerous and difficult to accumulate internal Qi, for the internal Qi can be held in the human body is limited. Once the internal Qi is accumulated to a certain amount, it’s very easy to burst the meridians and Dantian, leaving a slim chance of survival.

“The amount of internal Qi needed to form a flower core in the Dantian is far beyond the limit that can burst the human body. That was why many people are stuck in the Guru Realm and can’t move on at all.”

On the scene...

Except for He Gaoming and the brothers, almost all the comers were gurus.

Therefore, they had a deep feeling about what Diwu Mingchuan said.

Each of them tried to accumulate internal Qi into their Dantians, but it was eventually defeated by the internal Qi they had absorbed into their bodies.

It was as if...

They clearly knew that there was a road to success with a threshold under their feet. As long as they could cross the threshold, they would succeed. However, no matter how hard they tried, they couldn't cross it as if they didn't know how to lift their feet.

Such a feeling made everyone frustrated.

After saying that, Diwu Mingchuan looked at John Doe.

And the others also looked at John Doe, waiting for him to say something.

Noticing everyone's eager eyes...

Fang Qiu thought for a while.

Then he said, "Since everyone is bothered by this problem, I'd like to tell you the secret I've hidden at the bottom of my heart."

Fang Qiu had figured it out.

He didn't think it was necessary to continue hiding the secret.

Moreover...

At present, the strength of the masters in Wulin was too weak. If they fought against the Nirvana Organization in the current situation, it would be difficult for them to win.

It was the same even when the combat capability of the Nirvana Organization had been greatly reduced.

After all...

If the strength of the masters in Wulin improved to a certain powerful level, each of them could absolutely resist thousands of enemies. Lord Virtuous of the Nirvana Organization was already powerful to this extent. How powerful would Saint Lord be?

According to the legend...

A guru was not even qualified to keep alive if he encountered Saint Lord of the Nirvana Organization.

Thus...

Fang Qiu decided to tell everyone what he knew. When the time came to deal with the Nirvana Organization, with more experts who had reached the Flower Core Formation Realm, it would increase the rate of winning.

“Like what I said to Brother Yun just now...”

Fang Qiu pointed to Yun Yangzi and said, “The starting point of mine is different from yours. I used the Heaven and Earth Treasure to help stabilize my meridians at the beginning.”

Hearing that, everyone was a little confused.

“Stabilize the meridians?”

Master Numinous raised his eyebrows and said, "Some Heaven and Earth Treasures do have the effect of stabilizing the meridians, but this has nothing to do with Flower Core Formation in Dantian."

"No."

Fang Qiu shook his head and said, "It matters a lot."

Everyone was puzzled.

They all perked up and listened to what John Doe would say next.

"Just like the physical quality, the meridians in the human body can also be strengthened."

Fang Qiu explained, "Have you seen the fitness athletes? Take them as an example. The muscles of ordinary people looked nothing special, but if you'd like to spend more time and effort working out, in addition to the help of auxiliary materials, your muscles will be more muscular than ordinary people, and even grow to a terrifying extent."

Everyone agreed with a nod.

"Then, how to strengthen the meridians?"

A guru from the Sword Sect asked.

"The simplest and roughest method I used is to recultivate. Starting from the martial arts practitioner, run the internal Qi to expand the meridians until getting to their limit while recultivating. Then, using the characteristics that Heaven Treasure can stabilize the meridians, completely stabilize the meridians so as to increase the width of the meridians and the amount of internal Qi the body can hold."

Fang Qiu explained.

Everyone was shocked when they heard that.

At this point...

Everyone figured out one thing.

As it was said, John Doe had been looking for the Heaven Treasure before, and he even spent a lot of money at the auction to exchange the Heaven Treasure with the underground. It turned out that he wanted to expand the meridians in the process of recultivation.

“It’s very painful to do it this way, and it’s very easy to fail. However, this is the path I’ve been through on my own to success.”

Fang Qiu said with certainty.

“Which Heaven Treasure did you use? And which meridians did you expand?”

The guru of the Sword Sect asked immediately.

“Every time I broke through in expanding my meridians, I used one sort of Heaven Treasure. For a cultivator below the eighth-class level, it’s okay to use any Heaven Treasure, and those above the eighth-class level must use the top 20 of the Heaven Treasures. For those ninth-class to break through to the guru realm, it’s better to use the top 10 of the Heaven Treasures.”

Fang Qiu paused to ponder for a moment. Finally, he said honestly, “What I did was not widening a few meridians, but a complete recultivation. In other words, when I first showed up in Wulin, I was just a martial arts practitioner. That was the beginning of my recultivation.”

Even if this secret spread out, it would not affect him any longer.

Fang Qiu had succeeded in recultivation, and he had reached the point of Flower Core Formation.

Except for the top three of the Heaven Treasures, which were in the legend, Fang Qiu didn't need any other Heaven Treasures. Therefore, he didn't need to compete with others for the Heaven Treasures anymore.

He already had a clue about the third-ranked Heaven Treasure. As for the first two Heaven Treasures, they only appeared in his imagination.

The most important thing now was to improve everyone's strength. No one knew how much strength the Nirvana Organization had hidden.

After saying that...

Fang Qiu turned his head and said to Yun Yangzi, "I have a different starting point from you. When I made an appearance in Wulin, I was already a guru. But you are not yet."

Yun Yangzi was stunned.

He was dumbfounded.

"John Doe was a guru from the very beginning?!"

Diwu Qian was also dumbfounded.

In the surroundings...

Hearing that, everyone was speechless.

It turned out that John Doe was a guru from the very beginning. No wonder he could improve to such a level in just two or three years. Actually, his goal was to break through the Flower Core Formation Realm from the very beginning!

But...

Everyone shook their heads and sighed with emotion while being shocked.

“Hey, you’re really lucky. In just two or three years, you’ve gotten so many Heaven and Earth Treasures. If it were us, it would be good enough to get one in such a short time.”

“Who says no? But I’m afraid that the competition for the Heaven and Earth Treasures in Wulin will start again from today on.”

“Everyone, you’ve stored a lot of Heaven and Earth Treasures at home, haven’t you? If anyone wants to sell them, feel free to contact me. I’ll meet all your requirements.”

Everyone joked while sighing with emotion.

Just then...

“Wait, that just can’t be right.”

All of a sudden, Master Numinous was stunned, and then he thought of the key point of what John Doe had just said.

“You said that you were already a guru when you joined Wulin. That was three years ago, right? According to your announced age now, you were only 19 three years ago. So, you became a guru at the age of 19?”

Master Numinous asked in disbelief.

“To be exact, I was 17 at that time.”

Just like what he did at the top of the snow mountain, Fang Qiu added another two years old to himself according to the rules. If he told them the truth that he became a guru at the age of 15, he was sure that this group of people would be scared out of their wits.

Chapter 1634 Let John Doe Lead the Next Generation

“Seventeen years old?”

Hearing the answer from Fang Qiu, everyone on the scene was stunned.

“A 17-year-old guru?”

“How could that be?”

These people present were all gurus over 50 years old, but they were stuck in the Guru Realm without any progress. Speaking of the time when they became gurus, it could be dated back to one or two decades ago. Some of them had little talent and became gurus in their 30s or 40s. In Wulin, a lot of people had not broken through to the guru Realm until they turned their 50s or 60s and even in their 70s or 80s.

Among all the people present, except for John Doe, Yun Yangzi and Diwu Qian were probably the youngest ones who had become gurus.

However...

How old were they?

Both of them were in their 20s, and they became gurus five years later than John Doe. What were they five years ago? Probably, they just got promoted to Martial Superiors by then.

Leaving the past aside, according to the current situation, it only took John Doe five years to break through the Guru Realm to One-Flower Core Formation Realm.

No.

Exactly speaking, it took him three years.

John Doe had not shown up in Jianghu at all during two out of the five years.

From a nobody to a super expert who ranked third in the world in three years, was such an extent of progress something they could make?

They couldn't make it.

In the extreme shock of the groups of seniors, Yun Yangzi and Diwu Qian smiled with bitterness full of their faces.

How could they compare with John Doe?

John Doe was already a guru when he debuted in Wulin.

Thinking back to the battle with John Doe that year, both of them thought that it stood to reason that they lost to John Doe. It would be strange if they could win against a guru, even though John Doe had hidden his strength.

In this case, Yun Yangzi and Diwu Qian couldn't help having a sense of failure.

At first...

Although John Doe improved very quickly, they had been chasing after him with great effort. The gap between them and John Doe was only one or two levels or realms, which was not too big to be made up for. So they still had a chance to catch up with John Doe. Even if they couldn't catch up with him, they could at least keep up with him closely.

But now...

They realized that the gap between them and John Doe was not simply as one or two levels or realms, but a whole recultivation, or even more!

How could they catch up to such a gap?

They couldn't even keep up with John Doe, let alone catch up with him.

Without a doubt...

The existence of John Doe was destined to surpass his peers.

After a long time of shock...

Everyone learned how a guru could break through to the Flower Core Formation Realm, and they all came up with plans in their minds.

They were thinking about how to make a breakthrough in their cultivation after going back. Suddenly, a pattern of footsteps was heard.

Fang Qiu turned to look.

He recognized that it was another group of disciples from the Sword Sect.

"Brother John Doe."

The leader was Luoyun, who had participated in the fight over the ruins of Egyptt with John Doe previously. He walked up to Fang Qiu, gave a hold-fist salute to Fang Qiu, and said, "Congratulations, Brother John Doe. Now you are famous all over the world."

Fang Qiu shook his head and smiled.

"Senior Brother Wei Jian on behalf of our Sword Sect has come to congratulate you with some disciples. I shouldn't be here, but I received a piece of news at the last minute. So I have to rush over here to inform you as soon as possible."

Luoyun explained with a smile.

"What is the news?"

Fang Qiu asked curiously.

"Here's the thing. The higher-ups hope that you can give lectures to all the masters in Wulin below the clouds."

Luoyun said directly.

"Huh?"

Fang Qiu was stunned. He didn't understand what the higher-ups meant.

However...

Since the higher-ups attached so much importance to it that they sent the disciples of the Sword Sect to come to inform him in a rush, it meant that the high-ups took this matter quite seriously.

"Okay."

Thinking of this, Fang Qiu nodded with understanding. He said, "It happens that I am going to tell everyone something."

After all...

It was not the time to keep cultivation methods for himself.

So Fang Qiu agreed.

Fang Qiu didn't hesitate and went straight to the Heavenly Ladder beneath the clouds.

Below the clouds...

When the news that John Doe had won a great victory in the battle with Steven spread out, everyone fell into ecstasy.

Suddenly...

"Rumble..."

A muffled thunder sounded, attracting everyone's attention. The eight factions and sixteen sects, as well as all the rogue cultivators from all over Huaxia, all looked in the direction of the sound.

Then...

A shocking scene came into their sight.

In the high sky, clouds were suddenly split with an opening, and a ladder extended out of the rift.

The ladder extended from up to down slowly.

As the ladder appeared...

A figure walked down from the clouds.

“John Doe?”

“It’s John Doe. It’s John Doe!”

Recognizing that the man who walked down the Heavenly Ladder was Fang Qiu, all the people below the clouds got excited. Many disciples of the eight factions and sixteen sects, who had never seen John Doe before, rushed out of the crowd one after another. All the rogue cultivators below the clouds also rushed up.

“It really is John Doe!”

“What the fuck! I’ve finally seen him in person.”

“He’s so cool. No wonder he is called ‘Legendary John Doe’.”

“Is this the legendary figure who ranks third in the world? How lucky I am! I can see him at such a close distance.”

It shocked everyone.

Everyone ran to the bluish-waved area with ripples of the Qi of Heaven and Earth, watching John Doe walk down step by step from the sky.

The Heavenly Ladder stopped descending when it was about three meters away from the ground.

“Hello, everyone.”

Fang Qiu stood on the stone stairs three meters above the ground and gave a hold-fist salute to everyone.

Everyone returned a hold-fist salute to Fang Qiu with excitement, all together.

“Nice to see you, everyone.”

Fang Qiu said with a smile, “Thank you for your concern about me. Thank you for being delighted about my victory. Now I’m back. If you don’t mind, I’d like to share with you my comprehension and experience in martial arts cultivation, as well as the key points of promotion below the guru stage.”

Hearing that...

Everyone became even more excited.

For them, John Doe was far beyond their reach.

It was particularly difficult for them to even hear a motto from John Doe, so no one really thought about asking John Doe for advice one day.

Unexpectedly, John Doe was willing to take the initiative to share it with them.

This made everyone feel a little flattered.

“No, of course not.”

“That’s exactly what we want. We don’t mind, of course.”

“Thank you, Legendary John Doe.”

“I’ll go to inform everyone in our sect to come here to listen.”

Hearing everyone’s cheers...

Fang Qiu smiled knowingly.

Hearing the calling out from their leaders, all the disciples of the eight factions and sixteen sects ran over.

Everyone below the clouds...

They were all gathered in the bluish-waved area, waiting for John Doe to start his lecture.

“The blue waves are condensed by the Qi of Heaven and Earth, which can strengthen your physics. Although the effect is light, it will help you improve a lot if it accumulates in your body all year round.”

Fang Qiu pointed to the bluish-waved rippling area filled with the Qi of Heaven and Earth under the Heavenly Ladder and said, “Please have a seat, everyone.”

Hearing that...

Everyone sat cross-legged one after another.

Fang Qiu stood on the step of the Heavenly Ladder, walking back and forth and beginning to explain.

He had written down all these things before.

They were stored in his memory. If he recalled it a little, he could say it.

Fang Qiu started his lecture.

Everyone closed their eyes and listened attentively.

Above the clouds...

Everyone stood at the entrance of the Heavenly Ladder and saw the grand occasion of John Doe giving a lecture below.

“He looks sort of cool while giving a lecture.”

Luoyun said with a smile.

“It’s not just as simple as having a cool look.”

Wei Jian shook his head and said, “The higher-ups give John Doe a chance to show his kindness to more people. It’s obvious that they’ve decided to let John Doe lead the next generation.

“Think about it. A century later, the entire Wulin will be moved to this relic. By then, there will be a perfect system in the entire Wulin. From the bottom to the top, every sect and every organization will have its own heritage of promotion. In this case, John Doe will be the only person whom all the masters in Wulin will look up to and even worship to.

“It’s because John Doe is the preacher of all people, the master of this relic, and the leader of the entire Wulin.”

Hearing that...

Luoyun immediately understood.

“I thought that this would be Martial Uncle Qingyun’s mission.”

Luoyun said.

“It’s a pity that Martial Uncle Qingyun was born dozens of years earlier. If he were as young as John Doe, Wulin would be much livelier.”

Wei Jian said and burst into laughter.

Just then...

“Boom.”

A Qi explosion suddenly was heard from below.

Everyone immediately looked over.

Surprisingly...

Not long after John Doe started giving his lecture, suddenly, someone, who was sitting in the crowd and listening to John Doe’s lecture, made a breakthrough.

Seeing this...

Everyone in the clouds couldn’t help but be surprised.

No one had expected that someone would make a breakthrough so quickly.

Was what John Doe taught really so workable?

Not just people up there...

The people below the clouds were the most shocked and excited.

No one expected that someone began to make a breakthrough when John Doe had just started his lecture. If they continued to listen carefully, could they also make a breakthrough?

At this thought...

Everyone was all ears to John Doe's lecture.

...

Outside the relic...

Something big happened in the world while Fang Qiu was giving his lecture.

Bart and Ballor had been defeated by John Doe in succession. According to the rules, there were two people who took the sixth and seventh places on the World's Individual Strength Ranking List, one of whom was John Doe.

But, when John Doe defeated Steven and successfully rose to third place, the place was vacant again.

In the end...

When that place was just filled in...

All of a sudden, two strange men popped up. They challenged the fifth and sixth places and successfully took over the places of these two people.

People from all over the world were particularly curious about the two strangers. Why did they suddenly show up?

The investigation into these two strangers was carried out.

As it turned out...

They were both Murican.

When all the countries were inquiring about this point, another piece of news spread out, saying that Wolf King received a challenge from the newly ranked sixth from Murica.

The final result was released.

Wolf King, who was defeated, fell to sixth place.

The fourth and fifth places were firmly in the hands of Murica.

All other countries sighed with emotion at such a situation.

After all, Murica was the world's most powerful country. Even though it had suffered such a great loss in the matter of targeting John Doe, it still had the foundation belonging to the most powerful country in the world.

However, on the world's individual strength ranking list, they could only win fourth place at most. There was no way for Murica to compete for third place.

Chapter 1635 Hundreds of People Make Breakthroughs!

The two pieces of news spread out in succession.

Everyone in the world began to look forward to seeing if those two Muricans could continue to strive for a higher ranking.

However, after waiting for a long time, there was no news about them challenging third place.

It seemed that Murica's side did not dare to provoke John Doe anymore.

For such a performance of Murica...

All the countries attached more importance to Huaxia. Since even Murica no longer dared to provoke John Doe, which country in the world dared to provoke Huaxia?

After all, it was a superpower that had Qingyun and John Doe.

...

In Huaxia...

In Laozi Relic...

It took Fang Qiu three whole days to finish his lecture on the breakthrough and cultivation of the nine levels. With the in-depth narration, more and more people made breakthroughs.

In just three days...

There were hundreds of people who had broken through their current realms.

This came as a surprise...

All the people above the clouds were utterly shocked.

It was not easy for a martial arts practitioner to make a breakthrough.

The strengths of the people who broke through were uneven. However, each breakthrough was like a threshold. It was not a simple thing to cross any threshold.

Some people couldn't even cross one threshold after three, five, or even ten years of cultivation.

Took those who came to listen to the lecture as an example.

Most of them had no way to make a breakthrough, but they couldn't do anything about it.

To their surprise...

After taking John Doe's advice in his lecture, they made breakthroughs unexpected.

It seemed that...

John Doe was not talking about the key points and skills of cultivation he had comprehended. Instead, all he talked about was Tao.

However, the shock of everyone above the clouds was not comparable to the ecstasy of the people below the clouds who were listening to the Tao.

Even those who hadn't made a breakthrough would be overjoyed when they sensed their companions around them had made a breakthrough, and they would listen to John Doe more attentively.

Three days later...

John Doe completed his lecture.

Below the clouds, in a bluish-waved rippling area, countless people were sitting cross-legged and practicing cultivation, with their eyes closed.

The Qi of Heaven and Earth in the relic was already very rich, but when Fang Qiu saw that so many people were only one step away from breaking through, he couldn't help controlling the Qi of Heaven and Earth in the relic and gathering them to this place from all directions. Finally, the Qi of Heaven and Earth in this area became richer under Fang Qiu's control.

As a result...

Under the circumstance that the Qi of Heaven and Earth was as dense as water, various breaking-through sounds were heard one after another. In the end, more than 1,000 people made breakthroughs.

The sounds of breakthroughs caused by the eruption of internal Qi, like firecrackers, kept cracking.

Those who had broken through earlier were all utterly shocked by such a spectacular scene.

In the entire relic...

Everyone was deeply shocked by such large-scale breakthroughs.

Especially people above the clouds...

When the people of the Sword Sect, the Four Great Families, and the Pear Garden saw this scene, they fixed their eyes on Fang Qiu, who was mobilizing the Qi of Heaven and Earth to help everyone break through. "Monster" was the only word in their minds.

“What a monster he is!”

How did John Doe make it?

As they all knew...

Among those people, apart from a few rogue cultivators, the others all came from the eight factions and sixteen sects, each of which had their own heritage.

After so many years of inheritance, the eight factions and sixteen sects definitely had their own way of thinking and conclusion of key points for the improvement of each level.

In this case...

The disciples of the eight factions and sixteen sects were easily stuck in their current realms.

But, with John Doe’s simple explanation...

They made breakthroughs just like that!

That was to say, the key points mentioned by John Doe were more workable than the long-term heritage records and summary of the eight factions and sixteen sects.

How could that be?

How could a 22-year-old man see through the cultivation path so clearly?

But...

When they remembered that John Doe became a guru at the age of 17...

All the people from the major forces and great families felt relieved.

They could do nothing about it.

John Doe had the gifts. No one could take it from him even if they wished to.

Fang Qiu finished adjusting the Qi of Heaven and Earth.

Everyone was working harder on their cultivation to break through. Even those who had broken through once before sat down again to continue their cultivation.

Seeing this, Fang Qiu smiled.

An idea came to his mind.

Then, he disappeared from the relic.

“Rumble...”

As Fang Qiu disappeared, the Heavenly Ladder gradually contracted back into the clouds.

The sound was hard to hide.

But it did not affect the people who were immersed in deep cultivation.

After a long time...

When everyone opened their eyes, they realized that John Doe had disappeared.

Outside Laozi Relic...

Fang Qiu showed up.

He had planned to make a trip to the military base, discuss with Li Ji about the recent situation, and see if there was any information about the Nirvana Organization.

However, when he just set off, the phone in his trouser pocket rang.

He took it out and had a look.

It was a call from He Xue.

Fang Qiu's expression changed. He said to himself, "Oh, no!"

Thinking back, he had been out of the company for a long time. There was plenty of business to deal with in the company, and his phone had not been turned on yet. He did not turn on the signal on Fang Qiu's phone until he returned from Hemalaya Mountain. It seemed that He Xue was calling to make trouble.

"Hello?"

Fang Qiu answered the phone guiltily.

"How are you doing? Did you have a good time, my dear president?"

As expected, He Xue's mocking voice was heard from the other end of the line.

"Not bad."

Fang Qiu replied.

“I don’t think it’s just ‘not bad’. You’ve got too much fun, right?”

He Xue curled her lips and said, “If not, why did you turn off your phone as soon as you went out? I couldn’t even get through to your phone or find you. Should I report this situation to your future wife and ask her to take more care of you? Otherwise, who knows if you have kept a young mistress or something?”

Hearing that...

Fang Qiu shivered immediately. He hurriedly said, “Please don’t. I’m still a student!”

“Can a student do such a big thing?”

He Xue teased, “Otherwise, why are you out of contact every time you go out? And why do you look in low spirit every time you come back?”

“When do I look in low spirit?”

Fang Qiu gave a wry smile and said, “All right. Don’t make fun of me. Let’s get down to business.”

Hearing that...

He Xue stopped joking. She changed the subject and said in a serious tone, “At present, the amusement park project you proposed is under construction. Yaowang Mountain has been completed, and various medicinal herbs have been cultivated. Should we start publicizing it?”

“I am on the way to the base. Let’s talk about it when I get there,” Fang Qiu replied.

Then Fang Qiu hung up the phone and headed to the cultivation base.

On the halfway...

He met the patrol car of the army and took a ride to the cultivation base.

When he arrived at the base...

He Xue had been waiting at the entrance to welcome him.

Seeing Fang Qiu getting out of the patrol car of the army, she didn't make fun of Fang Qiu anymore. Instead, she went straight to the point and got down to business.

"Regarding Yaowang Mountain, everything has been prepared according to your requirements. However, the medicinal herbs cultivated in it grow relatively slowly. It can't compare with those in our cultivation base or the indigenous medicinal herb cultivation base in various provinces at all, so we can only rely on you next."

Picking up Fang Qiu, He Xue said.

"Mmm."

Fang Qiu nodded knowingly and said, "That's why you called me, right?"

"Or what?"

He Xue rolled her eyes at Fang Qiu and said, "What else do you think the company needs you except for this?"

Fang Qiu felt deeply ashamed.

He could tell that He Xue was joking.

But he couldn't help but smile bitterly.

"Didn't I invite you here to help?"

With a wry smile, Fang Qiu quickly praised He Xue, "With you here, I don't have to worry about anything. Isn't that great?"

He Xue immediately rolled her eyes at him again.

"I've always suspected that you hide a big secret."

Staring at Fang Qiu, He Xue put on a puzzled look and said, "But..."

"I've been hiding my charm so deeply. Have you discovered it?"

Fang Qiu immediately took the topic.

As a result...

He Xue rolled her eyes at him once again.

"Well, let's start publicity."

Fang Qiu said, "It's time to do it."

"It's already done."

He Xue replied casually, "Just need your signature!"

"I'll approve it as soon as possible."

Fang Qiu gave a bitter smile.

After that...

Fang Qiu asked He Xue to arrange a truck for him, and he went to take a shower.

Then, he loaded some jade stones into the truck himself and drove alone to the large-scale Yaowang Mountain.

It was an artificial Yaowang Mountain.

The Yaowang Mountain was located in Jingjiang, which had beautiful scenery of mountains and rivers.

Jingjiang was a world-famous scenic tourist city, an important international tourist city, an international tourism and shipping hub, a national health tourism demonstration base, and a holy land of ten thousand years of wits.

It was an international tourist attraction designated by Huaxia Congress. It was a permanent venue of the International Forum on Tourism Trends and Prospects hosted by the United Countries.

Jingjiang belonged to the hills and uplands region with a typical Karst Landform. The limestones all over the city had been eroded by the wind for hundreds of millions of years, forming a unique landscape of fancy lava caves and beautiful rocks, with thousands of peaks standing surrounding a river in the city.

Similarly...

Jingjiang was one of the first famous national historical and cultural cities. It was one of the important birthplaces of Huaxianese civilization.

Why did He Xue choose Jingjiang to develop a large-scale artificial Yaowang Mountain? Actually, she wanted to take advantage of Jingjiang's attraction to people all over the world to increase the cultural output of the herbal garden in Yaowang Mountain, enabling more tourists to experience and feel what Chinese Medicine was personally.

This location was chosen by He Xue.

Fang Qiu was very satisfied with it.

After all, it was indeed not easy to find such a place that combined the favorable climate, terrain and popularity into one.

Of course...

Yaowang Mountain was located quite far from the tourist area.

After all, it was forbidden to destroy the ecological environment in Jingjiang. Even if the development of Yaowang Mountain was quite beneficial to the ecological environment, it could not be developed in the case of destroying the existing environment.

Soon, they arrived at Yaowang Mountain.

Fang Qiu found that the whole of Yaowang Mountain was exactly the same as he had imagined.

It was a ring-shaped mountain like a crescent moon.

In addition to the wide tall ring-shaped mountain range, there was a vast ring-shaped valley.

In the valley...

They had even set up guesthouses ready.

Moreover, the environment in the whole valley was pretty good. There were flowers and grass, and all the vine plants had been cleared up. The grassland was very flat, leaving the impression to people with a very comfortable feeling at a glance.

On the mountain...

Everything was ready. All the medicinal herbs had been cultivated and were waiting for Fang Qiu to arrange the layout of the terrain.

Chapter 1636 The Announcement of the Medicine King Valley!

“Did they do so many things in these two months?”

Fang Qiu parked the car outside the valley. Led by the people from the company, he went into the valley to have a look first. He found the scenery inside was good, the air was fresh, and the place was like a paradise.

Most importantly, not only had all the folk in the valley been set up, but even the supporting facilities had also been set up. As long as people came here, they could live in peace.

Under the guidance of the staff, Fang Qiu went up the mountain to inspect it. The crescent-shaped mountain range was very wide. There were almost all kinds of herbs planted. The soil and environment of the mountain had been modified by Zhao Shanlin. Fang Qiu could see a different environment every time he took a few steps.

After a lap, Fang Qiu was indeed hit by a lot of visual impact.

However, the growth of medicinal herbs was indeed slow. The medicinal herbs that had been planted were as quiet as ordinary medicinal herbs. Some of them were even about to wither.

“Well, go ahead with your work. I’ll do the rest myself.” After they came down from the mountain, Fang Qiu said to the staff.

Then he took out all the mysterious jade stones he brought from the train, put them into the backpack on his back, and went up the mountain alone.

When the staff led the way, Fang Qiu had already mastered the terrain of the whole mountain.

After taking the jade stone, as he went up the mountain, he dug a pit and buried the jade in the place he had planned.

This place would be open to everyone in the world in the future. Therefore, Fang Qiu buried the jades deeper.

After all the jades were buried, Fang Qiu sat in the center of the whole mountain range. With a fist-sized jade as a medium, he propped up the entire terrain.

Then he buried the whole jade as a medium deeply.

The terrain took shape.

The Qi of Heaven and Earth in all directions began to flow in this direction and kept surging underground.

“With the speed, it will only take a few days for the terrain formation to be set up.”

After finishing it, Fang Qiu rested in the valley.

He Xue came at night.

“I can feel that it is different.”

He Xue went to the valley and felt that this place was like a paradise. The air was fresh. She couldn’t help but praise, “You are worthy of being the chairman of our Renyi Group. You have done a great job!”

“This is just the beginning.”

Fang Qiu said with a smile, “It will be better in a few days.”

“What will happen?”

He Xue asked, “Will it be the same as our cultivation base?”

“I think so.”

Fang Qiu nodded.

“It’s strange. When I worked in the capital, I became very tired after working for a few days. But after I returned to the cultivation base, I didn’t feel so tired. The more I worked, the more energetic I became. Do you know the reason?” He Xue asked.

“Of course, it’s because you have regarded the cultivation base as your home. In addition, the air in our cultivation base is much better than that in the capital.” Fang Qiu said with a smile.

Although He Xue had learned the cultivation method, she couldn’t absorb the Qi of Heaven and Earth now. But she could feel it more deeply than ordinary people. Before others could find it, she had already noticed it.

“Are you sure the air in the desert is good?”

He Xue stared at Fang Qiu suspiciously.

“Who said that the desert in the air can’t be good? Isn’t our cultivation base good at growing green plants? There are so many Desert Cistanches. The green plants are so good. The air can’t be bad.” Fang Qiu answered casually.

“It makes sense.”

He Xue knew she couldn’t get the answer she wants, so she didn’t continue to ask. Instead, she went straight to the point and said, “I’m here to discuss something with you.”

“What’s it?” Fang Qiu asked.

“You have a lot of friends in the entertainment circle, right? Every time we released a new product, we sent some to them. They also help us advertise on Weibo, and the effect is not bad. So I want to ask you to contact them. Our Yaowang Mountain will enter the publicity stage. Can you ask them to make a trailer with us, right?” He Xue asked with a smile.

“There shouldn’t be a problem.” Fang Qiu answered.

Then he paused for a moment and added, “As long as the price is high enough, there will be no problem.”

“I think you’re mistaken.”

He Xue shook her head and said, “I want free publicity, not paying them to do it. If I wanted to spend money, why did I come all the way here to discuss it with you? Why don’t I hire them?”

“Won’t you give them money?”

Fang Qiu raised his eyebrows.

“Of course, the trailer director should be paid for the work. Your celebrities and friends will be visited here to play. Let them bring their families and children here to play for a few days for free. We’ll provide everything they need.”

He Xue said, “If they are free, they can come. If they have work, we won’t force them. What we need to do is to make them willing to advertise for Yaowang Mountain instead of doing us a favor. It’s in line with our original intention of opening Yaowang Mountain!”

Fang Qiu nodded knowingly and said, “Okay. I’ll give it a try.”

“I’ve already decided who we should invite.”

He Xue said, “Chen Xiaogang is suitable for the director of the trailer. Recently, he is still popular because of the online TV series coming online. You can invite all of your friends in the entertainment circle here for fun, but you should pay more attention to the six masters of ceremonies led by Liu Qingshi.”

“The six of them have always given people a lively impression on TV. It’s rare for the public to see them with their families and children. Moreover, the loyal audience of these six people is all interested in tourism, games, and other entertainment activities. These people are necessary for the early development of our Yaowang Mountain.”

“The others’ fans only like these stars. Even if the publicity is wide, it will be of little use.”

Fang Qiu nodded repeatedly.

He Xue was capable of doing everything like this.

If she entered Wulin, she would probably become a terrible existence who didn’t fight with people head-on and could kill people with schemes.

“Okay! I’ll try to contact them now.”

Fang Qiu took out his mobile phone.

First, he called Director Chen Xiaogang.

“Hello?”

The moment the call went through, it was immediately picked up. The voice of Director Chen Xiaogang came from the cell phone.

“Hello, Director Chen. How do you do?” Fang Qiu asked with a smile.

“Why did you take the initiative to call me?”

Director Chen Xiaogang was also puzzled.

He often called Fang Qiu in the past. Why did Fang Qiu call him today?

“I want to cooperate with you.”

Fang Qiu didn’t waste time and said, “I want to invite you to make a trailer.”

“A trailer?”

Chen Xiaogang was stunned and asked, “What is it about? Although I have made a lot of trailers, they are all about movies. You have to tell me clearly what kind of trailer you want me to make. I wonder if I have the ability to make it for you.”

“It’s about a leisure and cultural scenic spot.”

Fang Qiu said, "I think you can do it."

"When will it be shot?" Chen Xiaogang asked.

"The sooner, the better."

Fang Qiu said, "It'd better be in the next few days."

"Okay."

Chen Xiaogang immediately replied, "I happen to be free these few days. I will participate in a variety show a few days later. Since it is a tourist and leisure place, I also want to go and rest for a few days."

"Okay! I'll send you the address later. I'll welcome you here myself."

Fang Qiu hung up the phone with a smile.

Then he immediately called Liu Qingshi.

He said he wanted to make a trailer and invite Liu Qingshi to travel and rest.

Unexpectedly, Liu Qingshi agreed without any hesitation. He also took the initiative to contact the other MCs.

At the same time, Fang Qiu also sent invitation text messages to his friends in the entertainment circle. It happened that everyone was busy. They all replied that they would come if they were free.

At this time, Liu Qingshi called back.

When the other MCs heard that it was an invitation from Fang Qiu in person, they were all happy to agree.

Fang Qiu expressed his gratitude.

Then, he sent text messages to the other Mcs to thank them for their help.

“It is done!”

In less than fifteen minutes, Fang Qiu made a gesture meaning it was OK to He Xue.

“You’re popular.”

He Xue nodded with a smile.

“Do you think this valley lacks something?” Fang Qiu asked.

“Yes. It lacks some treasures.”

He Xue nodded and said, “I’ll get someone to prepare it right away.”

“I mean, don’t you think it’s too empty in such a natural and beautiful place?”

Fang Qiu shook his head and said with a smile, “I think you should get the Tianshan Rat Hare here.”

“Good idea.”

He Xue immediately nodded in agreement and said, “I’ll ask some people to prepare some treasures and put them in every corner of the Medicine King Valley. It will have an unexpected effect.”

She took action without hesitation.

The two of them flew straight back to Beijiang.

After finding the little hare in the cultivation base, Fang Qiu took it to the Medicine King Valley. It had changed. This little hare was more cute because of its good living environment. People liked it when seeing it.

After arriving at the Medicine King Valley, the little fellow was not happy at first.

But when it felt the Qi of the Heaven and Earth gradually becoming richer and the various medicinal herbs on the Relic Mountain, it ran out happily.

In just an hour, all the harmful and threatening animals in the Yaowang Mountain and the Medicine King Valley had been eliminated by it.

Fang Qiu took out what He Xue had carefully prepared.

A bag of gold!

It was the real gold. Pieces of gold were distributed to every corner of the Medicine King Valley in an irregular manner.

After doing all this, Fang Qiu finished his work with satisfaction.

Next, he would wait for these stars and big shots.

This place was located in Jingjiang. After they came here, they could go to the scenic spots to have a tour. It would be a rare holiday for these big stars!

Chapter 1637 The Young People's Extraterritorial Exploration of Treasure Hunt

Two days later, Director Chen Xiaogang came.

Of course, he brought the whole shooting team with him.

After receiving the news, Fang Qiu stood outside the Medicine King Valley to welcome them.

Everything had been completed, and a parking lot had been built outside the valley.

As soon as the car was parked, Director Chen Xiaogang got out of the car and took the lead in looking around. Then, he took a deep breath and exhaled comfortably.

"Director Chen." Fang Qiu stepped forward with a smile.

"It's a good place."

Director Chen Xiaogang laughed and said, "This mountain is quite special. But aren't you setting up the Three Billion Foundation now? Why are you working on an entertainment project?"

Boom!

As soon as he finished speaking, there was a roar of the engine.

He turned his head and saw some cars coming.

A total of six cars drove to the parking lot in an orderly manner.

"Who are they?" Chen Xiaogang asked.

“The protagonists of the trailer.” Fang Qiu answered with a smile.

All the people in the six cars got out. A strong man in a hat got out of the first car.

Holding a little boy, he got out of the car.

It was Liu Qingshi!

“Director Chen, nice to meet you.”

Liu Qingshi also saw Director Chen Xiaogang. He immediately held the child in his arms and greeted him with a smile.

“There are six cars. Are all the six MCs here?” Chen Xiaogang said with a smile.

“I heard from Fang Qiu that he wanted to make a trailer. Is the director of this trailer you?”

Liu Qingshi also asked in surprise. Then he looked at Fang Qiu and said, “You even invited Director Chen to make the trailer. Isn’t this too extravagant?”

When they were talking, Zheng Weilian, Zhang Junhe, and Gu Jianguo got out of the other cars with their children. The remaining two young idols, Huang Huachao and Ying’er, chatted with each other and walked over together.

Soon, a group of people gathered.

Under everyone’s teasing, praise, and inquiry like old friends, Fang Qiu hurriedly said, “This is not my place. It was developed by the Renyi Group. I’m just here to be a consultant, just like when I was in the dining hall of medicated diets.”

“It turns out to be the Renyi Group. No wonder.”

Everyone understood.

“Let’s go. I’ll take everyone to the Medicine King Valley first and arrange a place for you to live.”

With that, Fang Qiu led everyone into the valley.

“What a good place.”

As soon as they entered the valley, Director Chen Xiaogang could not help but praise it. “It is indeed a good place. The air is so fresh. We haven’t breathed such fresh air for many years.”

Everyone nodded.

“The guesthouses are not bad.”

Liu Qingshi pointed to the guesthouses built against the mountain in the valley and the pavilions around them and said, “They look very beautiful. There are all kinds of facilities. It’s a good place to relax.”

“There are mountains and rivers. Many people in the cities have never seen such rivers before.”

“These buildings are so beautiful. Not only are there pavilions, but there are even open-air balconies for rest. There are also hammocks. This place is immortal.”

Every star’s family liked this place very much, and all of them were curious and satisfied with the place.

“It looks good. But there seems to be no restaurant here.” The foodie Ying’er said.

“Rest assured.”

Fang Qiu laughed and said, "You can play as you want. Renyi Group will pay for all of your expenses, and food will be delivered on time. I promise that there will be different dishes every day, and the food and drinks will be enough for you."

Hearing his words, they all smiled with satisfaction.

"I think there should be a study room here. This place is for people to rest. We can bask in the sun, breathe in the fresh air, and lazily spend the whole day here. Since we are here, it's not good to play with mobile phones all the time. You should get more books so that everyone can learn some knowledge while resting." Huang Huachao said.

"Of course, there are."

Fang Qiu reached out his hand with a smile, pointed to one of the glass rooms, and said, "That's the study. You can read books and drink coffee in it every day. If there is no sunlight in it, you can also read books outside."

"Good. It's perfect." Everyone nodded in praise.

Then, under the leadership of Fang Qiu, everyone was assigned to the rooms of the guesthouse. Each family of the MCs had one room. Director Chen Xiaogang and his staff occupied three rooms, and Fang Qiu occupied one.

They filled all the rooms in the Medicine King Valley.

After moving into the rooms, under the guidance of Fang Qiu, everyone went to the mountain and found that the herbs on the mountain were from all over the country. Only then did they understand that the existence of this place was also to promote Chinese Medicine and traditional Chinese medicines. That was why Fang Qiu was hired as a consultant.

After walking around the mountain, everyone was more relieved and satisfied.

They didn't find any poisonous or harmful animals on the mountain.

It was a perfect place for leisure.

After going back to the valley, under the proposal of Fang Qiu, everyone had a picnic dinner next to the stream in the valley.

The children ran back and forth in the valley, playing happily.

At this time, the Tianshan Rat Hare came back from the mountain.

Seeing the Tianshan Rat Hare, the children went crazy. They all rushed to the Tianshan Rat Hare because the little hare was too cute.

Even the adults were fascinated by the Tianshan Rat Hare.

Everyone wanted to catch the Tianshan Rat Hare and have a good look.

However, this little guy was so fast that no one could catch it at all.

Seeing that everyone liked it so much, Fang Qiu could only bring the little hare here and let everyone take turns holding it. Then he let it play with the children.

These things were all recorded by Director Chen Xiaogang's assistant and assistant director.

In addition to playing with the rat hare, Fang Qiu also recommended the treasure game in Yaowang Mountain to everyone and encouraged them to look for the treasures. The adults were not interested in it at all. Only children went to look for treasures.

Finally, the son of Liu Qingshi found the gold.

When the child appeared with the gold, everyone was dumbfounded. They didn't expect that there were treasures. It was gold.

Everyone worked hard and began to search for the treasures.

Fang Qiu also recommended the Shennong Card to everyone. It was a card game similar to the Three Kingdoms Kill. The people could feel the fun of battles and learn the efficacy and distribution of various Chinese medicinal herbs.

In addition to these, Fang Qiu didn't introduce more games.

After all, this place was used for publicity and for everyone to learn Chinese Medicine. If other games having nothing to do with Chinese Medicine were arranged, it would inevitably affect the overall structure and uniqueness of the Medicine King Valley.

However, with touring, chatting, and drinking, these games were enough for everyone to play.

When these stars came, they planned to take the Medicine King Valley as a place to rest. They planned to visit the scenic spots in Jingjiang to have fun when they were free.

Unexpectedly, they had been playing crazily for three days, and they hadn't even had enough fun here.

Time was running out.

Everyone could only leave the Medicine King Valley in low spirits.

"This place is too great. In the future, when I retire, I will come here. You are the management consultant of this place. Can I book a room first?" When they were leaving, Director Chen Xiaogang asked with a smile.

"No problem."

Fang Qiu immediately nodded and said, "If you need anything, call me as you please."

"I also want to book one."

"I want to book a room next year. No matter how busy I am next year, I will find time to come again."

"In the future, I won't have to go abroad. I'll choose this place for my vacation in the future."

Everyone asked for a reservation.

Fang Qiu also agreed.

After seeing Liu Qingshi and the others off, Director Chen Xiaogang and his team began to rush to produce the trailer day and night.

Fortunately, Fang Qiu would give them chiropractic to relieve their fatigue every day.

Although they worked hard, they didn't feel tired at all.

Three days later, the trailer was finished.

After completing the task successfully, Director Chen Xiaogang quickly left to participate in the variety show as a judge.

After Director Chen Xiaogang left, Fang Qiu immediately sent the trailer to He Xue.

After receiving the trailer, He Xue did not tell anyone about it and released the trailer on the official Weibo account of the Renyi Group.

“Medicine King Valley — Young People’s Treasure Seeking Ground.”

Not long after the trailer was posted, some people were attracted.

“Medicine King Valley?”

“What is it?”

“Is it the place to plant traditional Chinese medicines?”

They were filled with doubt.

All the people who saw this video clicked on it to watch it.

After seeing it, all the people were stunned.

“Wow! The view is simply wonderful!”

“What kind of place is this? Why haven’t I heard of it before?”

“Isn’t it too beautiful?”

“It looks like a modern paradise. The scenery is so beautiful.”

“Sure enough, it has something to do with herbal medicine. Picking Chinese medicinal herbs in such a beautiful environment is completely natural.”

“Treasure hunt?”

After seeing it, everyone knew it was not a trailer but a documentary.

They saw many stars and Fang Qiu.

They saw a nervous and exciting exploration of treasures, and the people even found gold.

Everyone heard that Fang Qiu promised that the gold was pure, and there were still many treasures for them to explore in the Medicine King Valley.

Hearing the news, everyone was shocked.

No one expected this treasure-hunting game was actually about finding gold and treasures.

Apart from that, they also saw very delicate folk activities, bookstores, streams, hammocks, and so on. They also saw Fang Qiu perform with his guests and barbecued with the families of the stars in the Medicine King Valley. The atmosphere was particularly good.

In that kind of atmosphere, Fang Qiu even sang.

Hearing Fang Qiu's singing, everyone knew Fang Qiu was a singer!

In the end, everyone also saw the extremely cute Tianshan Rat Hare. The appearance of this little hare instantly attracted the attention of countless people. The hearts of women were hooked up. They were impressed by this cute little hare!

Chapter 1638 Our Family Had Lost Gold!

Because of the appearance of Fang Qiu, this trailer became popular soon.

"Oh, my god. This place is amazing. Fang Qiu hasn't shown his talent for a long time. He sang in this recording!"

“What is this place? Where is it?”

“I’m going to look for gold!”

“Fang Qiu hasn’t shown up for a long time. We can only see him in the video.”

“We can have entertainment, leisure, and make money there! I like this place!”

“It will be great if I can barbecue in such a beautiful place.”

All kinds of heated discussions came one after another.

Not only Fang Qiu but also everyone began to be obsessed with this place. There was an extremely beautiful environment, and they could barbecue there. They could read books while bathing in sunlight, and they could also play extremely exciting and thrilling treasure-hunting games. The most important thing was that they could find gold.

With the popularity of this place, many people regarded the Medicine King Valley as a tourist attraction. Everyone was eager to experience it as soon as possible.

When the heated discussion began, the official Weibo account of Medicine King Valley was also open.

The first message was that the Medicine King Valley would launch a point system.

“From now on, the Medicine King Valley will be open to all tourists. But because the guesthouse is limited, John Doe can only allow ten people to stay at a time. People who want to play normally can stay here from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. At the same time, we will launch a point system.”

“The treasures found in our special treasure-hunting game in the wild belong to the treasure hunters. The herbs collected in Yaowang Mountain and the Medicine King Valley can also be taken away as specimens. All the herbs not taken away can be exchanged for points. Of course, only the ripe medicinal herbs can be exchanged for points. Medicinal herbs having not been ripe are not allowed to be picked.”

“When the points are accumulated to a certain number, they can be exchanged for the qualification to eat in the restaurant of medicated diets.”

“After reaching a certain level of points, you can even ask Fang Qiu to treat you as a private doctor once. The point privileges are as follows.”

It was a long text with a form for points.

The official Weibo account of Yaowang Mountain had just been opened, and there was no publicity. The text did not attract much attention.

Soon, the news was reposted by the official Weibo account of the Renyi Group and Fang Qiu.

Then many people knew the news.

They were amazed and tempted.

“Oh my god! I’m attracted!”

“There is beautiful scenery, fresh air, and gold. We can also exchange some points for the dining opportunity at the restaurant of medicated diets and even invite Fang Qiu to be our private doctor. Oh! Yaowang Mountain is too attractive!”

“I can’t hold on anymore. Hurry up! Tell me where it is. I’m going now!”

“Please give me the address. I’m going to get points now. I want to live there for a year!”

“He deserves to be Fang Qiu. His moves are so different.”

“He first established the restaurant of medicated diets. Now he publicizes the Medicine King Valley. Master Fang Qiu has made up his mind to promote Chinese Medicine.”

Soon, under the heated discussion of countless people, the Medicine King Valley directly rushed to the top ten trending topics on Weibo.

There was even a large amount of information about Medicine King Valley on the search engine.

There was no doubt that the Medicine King Valley went viral before it even opened.

However, just as Medicine King Valley was famous, they complained about it after the people in the related tourism industries saw it.

“The Medicine King Valley? Who the hell developed this?”

“Did the Renyi Group work with the Three Billion Foundation to develop it?”

“It’s John Doe again?”

“Fuck! This guy has just finished his meal business, and now he wants to compete with us in tourism.”

“What can we do?”

Although there was no shortage of tourists in the fixed scenic spots every year, many tourists would inevitably be attracted to the Medicine King Valley by Fang Qiu. At that time, the tourists of the other scenic spots would inevitably decline greatly, which would also have a great impact on other scenic spots.

Although it didn’t have much of an impact, people in tourism still complained.

In addition, the people in the real estate industry couldn't bear it the most.

The Medicine King Valley made many people in the real estate industry complained.

"You and John Doe have competed with us for the land and established the cultivation base. Now you also set up the Medicine King Valley. Do you want to enter the tourism and real estate industries?"

"They are simply robbing across the border."

"I thought he would calm down a little after running the restaurant of medicated diets, but I didn't expect this guy to come to make such a strange thing again."

"How did he come up with such a meaningless and boring industry and make it so colorful? Did I enter a fake business circle?"

All the major developers of the real estate industry were depressed.

For businessmen, not only was the investment too big, but the project was also very likely to not make profits. They could even predict the loss in advance.

However, Fang Qiu loved to make this kind of thing, which was very difficult to make money, and he succeeded every time. Wasn't it annoying?

Although that was the case, these big shots in the real estate industry could still see the advantages of Fang Qiu. At least, Fang Qiu had enough courage and resources.

Which company in this industry would dare to use gold for tourists to explore?

In addition, Fang Qiu was rich in capital.

The Renyi Group and the Three Billion Foundation were behind him, and he had medical skills!

Moreover, his medical skills were also one of the most attractive points.

Except for Fang Qiu, who else could use a point system to attract tourists?

In the business circle, a project that seemed to have no profit at all was completed by Fang Qiu just like that. It was because of the right time, the right place, and the right person!

After thinking about it carefully, these businessmen found that they really couldn't be a match for Fang Qiu.

Fang Qiu was not only engaged in real estate but also in health.

The real estate industry was not an advantage for Fang Qiu at all. His advantage was health.

They couldn't resist Fang Qiu who sold healthy products at all!

At the cultivation base in Beijiāng, with the popularity of the media, He Xue soon received countless calls from media reporters.

He Xue answered all the calls but was asked if Renyi Group was ready to enter the real estate industry. In this regard, she could only smile bitterly.

When the meeting decided on this project, they didn't even think about making money.

She just wanted to fulfill the dream of Fang Qiu and promote Chinese Medicine so that it could serve the public better.

Who would have thought that it would be so popular?

Of course, He Xue denied the rumors of entering the real estate industry one by one and told all the reporters that the Medicine King Valley was just one of the projects of the Renyi Group this year. At present, they could not give a definite answer whether the Renyi Group would continue to move forward to real estate or tourism in the future.

This was the official answer.

However...

No one was willing to believe it.

Since Renyi Group had done it, the project was getting popular. Was the Renyi Group not going to enter the real estate industry?

After all, He Xue couldn't tell the public about their original intention of building the Medicine King Valley. If everyone knew her original intention was to help Fang Qiu promote Chinese Medicine and serve the public, they would probably vomit blood after hearing her words.

Finally, since no one believed her, He Xue could only add all the reporters to her WeChat group.

She unanimously replied that the Renyi Group would not enter the real estate industry!

It was a very positive response.

He Xue also asked all the reporters to help her announce a piece of news.

Before the opening of the Medicine King Valley, the Renyi Group would invite some people in for a tour for free. They welcomed everyone to send emails to sign up. The age limit was between 8 and 15 years old, parents could accompany them, and the number was 50 people!

She also told them the guesthouses in the Medicine King Valley would continue to increase without affecting the environment.

For the reporters, this was real-time news.

As soon as they got it, the reporters of the major media immediately released the news.

Soon, two pieces of news spread on the Internet.

When the netizens saw the news, they all had different feelings.

The young people between 8 and 15 years old were extremely excited and happy. They rushed to sign up as soon as possible. They wanted to be the first to go to the Medicine King Valley.

The netizens who were over 15 years old pounded their chests and stamped their feet when seeing the news.

“I’m also young. I look a little old.”

“Can I not use my ID card to register? The date of birth on my ID card is wrong.”

“Can I go on behalf of my future child?”

“I’m 30 years old this year. Can I take up two 15-year-old spots?”

“Don’t ask me why. Anyway, I must go even if I’m 25 years old. My family has lost a lot of gold. These gold pieces told me in my dream they were in a place called Medicine King Valley of Yaowang Mountain and asked me to take them home as soon as possible.”

The netizens played all kinds of jokes and made a scene on the internet.

Everyone was also very happy.

On the other side, hearing the positive reply from the Renyi Group, those real estate companies who had been worried that the Renyi Group would come to rob the business all breathed a sigh of relief.

Since they hadn't to worry about competition, these real estate companies all had their own thoughts.

It seemed that merging health with real estate was also a good project!

As the news spread, countless people began to sign up. The children who knew about this matter rushed to sign up. Some parents signed up before their kids knew it.

The staff of the Renyi Group were also busy. As the registration officially began, these staff members were also carefully selected from the candidates. Of course, the first choice was some people who had bought the medicine produced by the Renyi Group. This kind of benefit could be regarded as repaying the customers.

Chapter 1639 The First Batch of Guests!

Under the supervision of He Xue, the 50 candidates were quickly selected and contacted one by one through emails.

As the emails were sent out, these selected children or their parents were surprised after receiving the emails.

They all posted it on their WeChat Moments to show off.

Nowadays, Fang Qiu could be regarded as the most popular star in Huaxia. People of all ages liked him because he had been involved in too many industries, including the entertainment industry that young people liked and worshiped, the charity industry that the elderly advocated, health care products that adults liked, the health care industry that old people liked, and so on.

Now, he even built a place for children to play.

It was simply a win-win situation for all four generations.

Moreover, the media also liked to report on the cooperation between Fang Qiu and the Renyi Group. In this way, everyone knew Fang Qiu and Renyi Group!

There were 1.4 billion people in Huaxia, and at least tens of millions of people came to fight for the 50 spots at the same time.

The 50 people out of tens of millions were selected.

This probability made those chosen people feel as if they had won the lottery. They couldn't believe it at all.

The sudden ecstasy made them very proud and post the news that they had been selected in their WeChat Moments, WeChat groups, and Weibo.

As soon as the news was sent out, it immediately aroused the congratulations and envy of countless people.

Being selected was enough for them to show off.

After all, there were only 50 spots.

Under the invitation of the staff, these 50 people gathered together in only two days and were picked up and sent to the Medicine King Valley by the Renyi Group.

Everyone arrived at the scene.

To welcome these 50 families, He Xue also asked some people to make some tents and speed up the construction of some guesthouses.

Everyone was full of expectations on the way here. In a total of five buses, everyone was imagining everything in the Medicine King Valley. They were looking forward to seeing a place as perfect as they had imagined.

When the buses stopped outside the Medicine King Valley, they immediately packed up and got out. After looking around, they immediately walked into the Medicine King Valley.

As soon as they entered the valley, everyone was stunned.

No one expected the scenery in the Medicine King Valley to be so beautiful.

“What a beautiful place.”

“Wow! This place is so comfortable.”

Everyone began to express their admiration one after another.

“Will there be a lot of small bugs and mosquitoes in it, such as particularly harmful ticks?” A child’s parent grabbed the staff member and asked.

“Don’t worry.”

The staff member smiled and said, “The Medicine King Valley is under strict control. There are no animals that pose a threat to people, not even a mosquito. You can play with ease.”

“Really? Is there no mosquito? I don’t believe that there is no insect in it!”

The group of parents shook their heads in disbelief.

The staff did not explain.

Even he himself couldn't explain it.

It was all thanks to the little hare, Tianshan Rat Hare. Since it followed Fang Qiu, its strength had been growing day by day. After it came to the Medicine King Valley, although it had only driven away harmful animals, it was much stronger than other small animals. With its own pressure, all the insects in the valley were scared away. Therefore, there was not even a single insect.

After going into the rooms, they observed for a while. The adults found there were no animals on the grass and the mountain, not to mention the rooms. There were not even any ants.

This made the parents of the children very surprised.

However, they still didn't believe it. They wanted to observe again. Maybe they missed it. They didn't believe that there were no insects.

Although they didn't believe it, they were sure that the environment here was harmless to the children, so they immediately let the children out and let them play in the Medicine King Valley.

There were a lot of children. Soon, the children went crazy playing.

The adults took photos without stopping.

There was also a pair of slightly younger parents dancing, singing, and shooting short videos of the Tsunami in the Medicine King Valley, asking for attention.

The video was about the Medicine King Valley. As soon as it was sent out, the reviewer of the short video on Tsunami directly presented it as a fine product.

Everyone also gave likes.

Countless people left envious comments.

Many people couldn't go there in person and could only keep leaving messages and strongly asking for updates.

The young parents took a look and became pleasantly surprised.

Judging from the number of views, there were tens of millions of people watching the short video they shot. Even the number of likes exceeded 5 million in half an hour.

The data made the young parents popular, and the number of fans directly reached nearly one million.

Under the request of countless people, the young parents continued to update.

The second video recorded the living conditions of the Medicine King Valley.

15 guesthouses had been built in the Medicine King Valley, and the number was still growing. Each guesthouse was the same.

In addition to the guesthouses, there were open-air tents about one meter above the ground.

The couple made a short video of all the living conditions and sent it out on Tsunami again.

It was another high-quality product.

In less than five minutes after the video was posted, the number of views had reached more than one million, and the number was still growing rapidly. The number of likes was also growing rapidly.

More and more people saw it.

Many people also shared the video on Weibo so that many people who didn't use Tsunami could see it.

More and more people downloaded and registered accounts for short videos on Tsunami just to watch the videos of the Medicine King Valley. The more people registered and watched the videos, the more popular the couple's videos would be.

As more and more people saw the videos, everyone couldn't help exclaiming one after another.

"Is this just a guesthouse?"

"It's so great!"

"Oh, my god! Even the guesthouse is so good. It's simply hotel-level."

"This place seems to be heaven on earth."

Countless viewers praised the place with great envy.

After seeing the videos, everyone continued to urge the update.

The couple continued to look for other things to shoot.

Then they saw the Tianshan Rat Hare playing with the children.

They immediately went up to shoot.

"Isn't this little guy too cute? I want one. Can you tell me its name and where it was bought?"

When shooting the video, the parents were melted by the little fellow.

As soon as the video was released, it attracted much attention.

After they saw the cute look of the Tianshan Rat Hare, everyone's hearts softened.

"Is this the one my family lost? I don't want to eat or drink now. Can a kind-hearted person help me get it back? I'm willing to pay a lot of money to thank you!"

"I also lost one. It's the same as the one in the video!"

"This is called Tianshan Rat Hare. It lives in Tianshan Faction and is a rare special protected animal. According to the label of the National Protection Animal Association, this little hare came here with Fang Qiu and planned to settle down in the Medicine King Valley. The experts called on everyone not to feed it too much because Tianshan Rat Hare doesn't eat ordinary food. If you feed it with your food, it will affect the environment of the Medicine King Valley."

When everyone liked its cute look, some particularly rational people introduced it to everyone.

As a result, everyone found the value of this little guy was even higher than that of a panda.

It made everyone like this little guy even more.

The parents began to shoot all kinds of scenery in the Medicine King Valley and the scenes that the children wanted. Seeing the children carefully picked Chinese medicinal herbs and were very close to nature, all the people who watched the video gave likes to it crazily.

That scene was too heartwarming.

Everyone also saw the scenery of Yaowang Mountain, the situation in various regions, the terrain, and so on. They were dazzled.

Just as everyone was attracted by the scenery of Yaowang Mountain, the layout of the guesthouses, and the Tianshan Rat Hare, a child suddenly found a treasure on Yaowang Mountain.

That was a piece of five grams of gold!

It was even placed in a small treasure chest.

The video of the child finding the treasure was also recorded by the parents. They couldn't wait to send it out.

"Wow! There is a treasure!"

The title of this short video was also attractive.

Many people waited for the update.

As soon as the short video was posted, it immediately attracted a lot of fans.

"Wow. There's gold!"

"Awesome! They can find gold and treasures!"

"I thought there would be advertising effects in the documentary. I thought there would be real treasures, but they would only be some small things. I didn't expect that there was gold. They are so generous!"

"I'm going to find gold! I'll go to dig gold!"

“I want to apply for a job there. Medicine King Valley, do you need any staff members? I don’t want a salary. I want you to let me dig the ground and search for treasures!”

“Choose me. My ancestors are farmers. I’m not good at anything but farming. If you want to employ people, please contact me at any time!”

There was no doubt that the appearance of the gold shocked everyone.

Of course, everyone knew although the gold was real, it was not too much. Moreover, it was hard to say whether the game would continue. After all, the Renyi Group was not short of money. It could afford the gold.

What surprised everyone was that there were no mosquitoes or even small insects in Yaowang Mountain.

The news finally came out after the confirmation of 50 families.

It surprised everyone!

Chapter 1640 The Rat Hare Guiding People to Find Gold!

No insects?

What kind of place was that? How could there not be a single insect?

Not to mention the mountains and valleys in the tourist area, even the top villas in big cities inevitably had insects. How could there be no insects in the Medicine King Valley?

On the Internet, countless people who heard the news questioned it one after another.

Just as people were raising doubts, an expert stood up and said that the Yaowang Mountain was a cultivation base of all kinds of Chinese medicinal herbs across the country. Many medicinal herbs had the effect of repelling insects. Moreover, in addition to the various Chinese medicinal herbs, it was also related to strict management.

The official Weibo account of the Medicine King Valley immediately reposted his words and agreed with him.

Although people were still unwilling to believe it, since the expert had said so, they were not interested in getting to the bottom of it. Instead, they continued to focus on the Medicine King Valley.

Soon, the next Tsunami video appeared.

This time, it was a one-minute video. Since the number of fans had met the requirements of Tsunami, the young parents could release the one-minute video.

The moment the video was posted, it attracted a lot of attention.

Everyone clicked on it.

The first thing that caught their eyes was a child playing with the Tianshan Rat Hare. The child was holding a herb that had just been picked.

Obviously, this herb had completely matured.

At first, the Tianshan Rat Hare didn't move at all. The child and it looked at each other. After a long time, the Tianshan Rat Hare might be a little embarrassed, so it reluctantly took the herb handed over by the child.

Although this herb was not big, it absorbed the Qi of Heaven and Earth and grew quickly. It also contained some of the Qi of Heaven and Earth.

Although the rat hare didn't like it very much, it was edible.

It took over the herb and quickly ate it.

The rat hare rolled its eyes, turned around, and ran to a big tree at the bottom of the valley.

Then it turned around and pointed to a flat lawn under the big tree at the little child who handed it the herb.

Seeing the action of the rat hare, the child was curious at first and didn't know what it meant.

Then, the child quickly ran over with a smile, dug a few times at the place pointed out by the rat hare, and found a small treasure box in the ground.

This treasure box was only half the size of the ping-pong ball and looked quite exquisite.

The child grabbed it to take a look.

It turned out that this small treasure box actually contained gold!

It was pure gold!

There was even a certificate!

So far, all the people who saw the video couldn't help exclaiming, "Oh, my god!"

"Gold again?"

"Are all the treasures in the Medicine King Valley gold?"

“This little rat hare is awesome. It’s a piece of living treasure-hunting equipment. I’m going to find it. I must find it and take me to treasures.”

“This little guy is not only cute but also helps to search for treasures. It’s so cute and amazing. How wonderful it would be if I could get a little guy like this.”

“I want to raise one!”

In the blink of an eye, the netizens made comments one after another. In addition to their love and appreciation for the little fellow, everyone had a stronger expectation for the Medicine King Valley.

In the blink of an eye, travel agencies from all over the country were called by countless people.

There were too many attractive places in the Medicine King Valley. In addition, it had not been officially opened yet. Even its location could not be found. Therefore, everyone wanted to experience it before others.

After being called by countless people, all the people of the travel agencies from all over the country were stunned.

Most of the calls they received were about if there was a tourist project called the Medicine King Valley.

At first, only one or two people asked.

As more and more people asked, travel agencies from all over the country found something wrong. They quickly searched on the Internet and finally knew the Medicine King Valley.

Seeing that the environment of the Medicine King Valley was so good and that it was so popular now, travel agencies from all over the country immediately became interested.

Knowing that it was developed by the Renyi Group and Fang Qiu, these travel agencies were not worried at all. They began to contact the Renyi Group one after another and asked if they could join in the tourism project of the Medicine King Valley.

As soon as He Xue in Beijiang received contact from people all over the country, she immediately sent people to negotiate.

She knew the Medicine King Valley really went viral this time.

Before the first batch of tourists was confirmed, Fang Qiu had left the Medicine King Valley. Everything was ready here, and he still had a lot of things to do.

It was rare for Fang Qiu to have time to relax. He thought that since he had nothing to do, he might as well take advantage of this period of free time to sit in some places to see patients in advance and pave the way for the following actions and plans.

As soon as Fang Qiu arrived at the first place to see patients, he received the news that everything in the Medicine King Valley was officially on the right track.

Hearing the whole news, Fang Qiu also breathed a sigh of relief.

He believed that with the arrival of group after group of children, these things, such as sightseeing in the Medicine King Valley, studying, picking herbs, and so on, would effectively leave a concept of traditional Chinese medicine in the hearts of these children.

Perhaps a decade or decades later, when these people became the mainstay of the country, Chinese Medicine would be recognized by all the people in the country and revived!

In the Medicine King Valley, when the place was hot, the first group of 50 families played for three days and left unwillingly.

After the group of people left, the reputation of Medicine King Valley became better!

“There isn’t a single bug. I’ve been searching for bugs for three days in the Medicine King Valley, but besides the cute rat hare, I’ve never seen a single bug. It’s safe for children to play in such a place!”

“The Medicine King Valley is not just for fun!”

“It’s so enjoyable. You can relax there, enjoy the fun of life, learn a lot of knowledge about Chinese Medicine, and breathe the fresh air that you can’t breathe in the city. It’s like heaven, a paradise that people are obsessed with!”

The 50 families all posted their feelings on their WeChat Moments and Weibo.

Someone else even wrote an article.

The title was Stay Away from the City and Mobile Phone — Let the Children Get Close to Each Other.

In this article, there were a lot of benefits of getting close to nature, which were beneficial to the children’s growth.

As soon as it was posted, countless parents and friends reposted it, and it quickly became popular in the circle of parents.

After reading the article, countless parents agreed with the content of the article and began to discuss the article and the benefits of the Medicine King Valley.

“Now, the children in the countryside and in the city like to play with their mobile phones as long as they go home from school. They even don’t watch TV or use computers. As parents, we don’t know what to do. Now, the Medicine King Valley is a good place for the children to stay away from mobile phones and nature.”

“Yes. The mobile phones are bound to bank cards. The children play and spend the money their parents have earned through hard work. Technology gets more and more advanced, and children play less and less outside. It’s not easy to find a place like the Medicine King Valley.”

“The Medicine King Valley is so awesome. Not only can it help children quit using their cell phones, but it can also help children learn medical knowledge. This is the knowledge that can be used in the future.”

“Who doesn’t want their children to live healthily for the rest of their lives? Learning medical knowledge and recognizing herbs are beneficial for their children’s growth.”

The parents were full of praise for the Medicine King Valley.

After communicating with the Renyi Group, all the travel agencies in the country launched the registration of the tour groups of the Medicine King Valley quickly.

At the same time, many people signed up for research groups hotly.

Due to the fact that the Medicine King Valley could accommodate a large number of customers every day, various travel agencies and research teams began to compete for the spot and line up for signing up.

In Huaxia, a single thing’s popularity would inevitably lead to the rise of many industries, for example, variety shows.

An outdoor variety show in the country saw the popularity of the Medicine King Valley. They immediately saw the opportunity to make a show there. After all, the scenery of the Medicine King Valley was not worse than that of foreign scenic spots. It would be a pity if they did not come to the Medicine King Valley to do their show.

This outdoor variety show was quite well-known in the country. Although it was not particularly popular, there were many loyal viewers. The show had been filmed for several seasons.

Soon, the director of this variety show found the phone number of He Xue through various connections.

“Hello, I’m the chief director of Three Days and Three Nights. My name is Hu Dayong.”

He Xue picked up the phone, and the other party's voice came from the other end. "Our team plans to shoot a show in the Medicine King Valley. Our show's ratings are in the top three in each episode. If you want, we can coordinate the shooting time.

"Of course, we won't ask you to pay the publicity fee. We hope that Medicine King Valley will be responsible for all the expenses and accommodation on our trip.

"This is good for both of us. The expenses you cover will be regarded as the publicity fee, and we will put in a lot of effort to help you promote your Medicine King Valley.

"If there's no problem, I'll ask my team to contact your side to negotiate!"

The other party didn't even bother to ask.

After saying all he wanted to say, he put on an arrogant look as if he didn't mind the other party at all.

"Have you finished?" He Xue asked patiently with a smile.

"Yes. Do as you please." On the other side, Director Hu said indifferently.

"Get lost!"

He Xue sneered and hung up the phone directly.

The director surnamed Hu was stunned by the scolding of He Xue in an instant. After the phone was hung up, he was angry. He didn't expect to be scolded in the end after he said that he would help promote the place out of kindness.

"Damn it! You don't know what's good for you. I, Hu Dayong, promise here today that I will never go to the Medicine King Valley to shoot!" Hu Dayong swore angrily at the whole shooting group.
