Chapter 1671 Let John Doe Die!

“This house is too big. Isn’t it great?”

Fang Qiu’s mother’s eyes lit up and she said, “It would be even better if we could invite all the relatives and neighbors. What a pity.”

“It’s a pity that we don’t have a chance to show off, right?”

Fang Qiu’s father walked around, nodded with satisfaction, and then said to Fang Qiu’s mother.

“Yeah.” Fang Qiu’s mother chuckled and said, “I still have their WeChat accounts. I’ll send them a few photos and let them see the big house my son has prepared for me.”

Beside them, Fang Qiu could only stand there and smile.

“It’s really a good place.” Fang Qiu’s mother nodded with satisfaction and said, “Okay, go ahead with your work. The company’s affairs are important. Let’s take a walk by ourselves for a while.”

“Okay.” Fang Qiu nodded, went out with He Xue, and walked toward the office.

“Thank you.” Downstairs, Fang Qiu said to He Xue with a smile.

“Although this matter is not within my scope of work, as a friend, I can’t just stand by, can I?”

He Xue said, “By the way, your parents are quite easy to get along with. Our cultivation base will definitely become more and more lively in the future.”

“Yeah.” Fang Qiu nodded.

Now, the cultivation base was still recruiting people. It even reached an agreement with the military. After some soldiers retired, they directly went to work in the cultivation base. Their salary was quite high, and they could often meet with their brothers in the military. Everyone was satisfied with the distribution.

In this case, there would definitely be more and more people in the cultivation base, which would become more and more lively. In the end, it would definitely develop into a small city.

Two hours later...

When Fang Qiu was almost done with his work and was about to go back to see what his parents were doing, he happened to see that Jiang Miaoyu was strolling around the cultivation base with his parents.

Seeing Jiang Miaoyu holding his mother’s arm, Fang Qiu smiled from a distance.

He was about to step forward.

“Beep! Beep! Beep!”

The phone in his trouser pocket suddenly rang.

He took it out and had a look.

It was a call from Li Ji.

Fang Qiu sensed that something was wrong and immediately answered the phone.

“Hello?”

Fang Qiu answered the call.

“There’s an emergency.”

Li Ji said in a grave tone, “According to your previous report, the higher-ups sent an engineering team with a guard from the Sword Sect to investigate the secret stronghold of the Mysterious Realm of the Nirvana Organization in Zhongdong. When they were investigating, they were attacked.”

“What?”

When Fang Qiu heard that, his expression instantly became serious.

“The Mysterious Realm of the Nirvana Organization in Zhongdong!

“It was the Mysterious Realm where the fast cultivation method of the guru of the Nirvana Organization was found!

“Didn’t all the people of the Nirvana Organization in Zhongdong die in the battle for the Laozi Relic? Even the Lord Virtuous was dead. How could they be attacked again?

“Could it be...

“Did someone from the Nirvana Organization take action again?”

“A few people who managed to escape brought back a message.”

Speaking of this, Li Ji suddenly stopped.

“What is it?”

Fang Qiu asked with a frown.

“Tell John Doe to come and accept his death, or more people will die!”

Li Ji took a deep breath and said.

Heard this, Fang Qiu felt anger rising in his heart in an instant.

But at this time, Jiang Miaoyu, who accompanied his parents in the distance, was smiling and waving to him.

“Got it. I’ll come to you tonight.”

Fang Qiu said in a heavy tone, but on the surface, he could only smile. He waved at Jiang Miaoyu and her parents, then hung up the phone and walked up.

Fang Qiu knew that the man must be a member of the Nirvana Organization!

But, who could it be so shameless that even killed innocent ordinary people in the construction team?

He couldn’t suppress the rising anger in his heart at all!

However, he couldn’t show any anger in front of his parents.

After walking around with his parents and trying the car with his father, the family went to the restaurant for lunch.

At the dining table, Fang Qiu’s mother had been asking Jiang Miaoyu all sorts of questions, which made her embarrassed.

“Mom, Dad.” Just as Jiang Miaoyu was about to give in, Fang Qiu suddenly said, “I have something to deal with. I may have to leave for several days.”

“You just came back. Why are you leaving?” Fang Qiu’s father asked.

“There’s something urgent.” Fang Qiu explained.

“He has always been very busy, and rarely returned to the base. It was not easy for him to come back, and he would run away in a few days.” Said Jiang Miaoyu.

“En.” Fang Qiu’s father nodded knowingly and said, “It’s always right for a man to be a little busy.”

After lunch...

Fang Qiu left the cultivation base and rushed all the way to the military base.

Knowing his arrival.

Li Ji came out to welcome him in person.

After taking Fang Qiu to the office, he said, “According to the information we’ve received, the person who assassinated the engineering team is very likely to be the First Venerable of the Nirvana Organization. Judging from his style and purpose, it’s obvious that he’s here to take revenge on you.”

“After all, you’ve killed almost all the Venerables in the Nirvana Organization. He’s the only one known to be alive now. As the only superpower of the Nirvana Organization, he definitely wants to save face for it. The purpose of his action this time is very clear. He wants to push you to go there and fight with him.”

Fang Qiu nodded.

What Li Ji said was similar to what he had thought.

It was unlikely that the Nirvana Organization would send its members of the last generation to work. The only person who could do anything this time was the First Venerable. The other Venerables were all dead, and so were the Crowning Lord and the Lord Virtuous. It seemed that the First Venerable was the only remaining combat capability of the Nirvana Organization on the surface.

“The higher-ups have already discussed it.”

Li Ji continued, “They suggest you don’t go, because the First Venerable’s strength is unfathomable and rarely appears. So far, no one knows how powerful he is.”

“If I don’t go, what about the ordinary people in our country? He has already attacked ordinary people so crazily. If I don’t go there, no one can guarantee that he won’t attack other ordinary people. At that time, it will be too late.”

Fang Qiu Said with a frown.

“Yeah.” Li Ji nodded and said, “Yes. The high-level leaders also worry about this. Originally, the bottom line is not to disturb ordinary people. But it seems that because of the excessive losses, Nirvana is obviously not going to hold on to this bottom line.”

“Of course, actually their has never followed this bottom line. It’s just that this time, they changed from the dark to the open, and they acted more brazenly!”

Fang Qiu nodded.

That was indeed the case.

The members of the Nirvana Organization had never considered whether the other party was an ordinary person or not. There were countless ordinary people who had died in their hands!

“By the way,” Speaking of this, Li Ji suddenly said, “you came at the right time. There’s one thing I need your help. It’s about the technique that can quickly improve one’s strength.”

“Hmm?”

Fang Qiu was stunned and asked, “You’ve asked people to cultivate it?”

Fang Qiu knew what Li Ji talked about was the technique that was found in the stronghold of the Nirvana Organization in Zhongdong, which could help people to cultivate into gurus in a short time. He had thought that this technique would be completely sealed by the country.

But now it seemed that it was not the case.

“Not yet.”

Li Ji shook his head and said, “The leaders asked seniors to try to adopt a set of technique with fewer side effects, but we don’t know how many side effects this technique has at present. Because you are a doctor, the leaders want you to see if this technique can be used after adaption.”

“Fine.”

Fang Qiu nodded.

Afterwards, Fang Qiu followed Li Ji to check the technique.

...

In Murica...

“An engineering team of Huaxia under the protection of metahumens was attacked in Zhongdong. According to information, the attacker is suspected to be from the Nirvana Organization.”

At the same time, the high-level officials of Murica also received the news.

In the conference room...

“Nirvana Organization?”

Nash Wilson, who was sitting in the host’s seat, asked, “Is this news confirmed?”

“Confirmed.” Said the reporter.

“Excellent.” Nash Wilson immediately sneered and said, “I heard that many members of the Nirvana Organization died in the battle for Laozi Relic. It seems that the Nirvana Organization wants to take revenge on Huaxia.”

“Shall we...” A senior executive asked.

“Not for now.”

Nash Wilson immediately shook his head and said, “Let’s wait and see. Let them fight for a while. We’ll just sit back and watch, and then we’ll reap the benefits!”

“Maybe we can also use the hatred of Nirvana Organization for Huaxia to consume Huaxia’s capability.

“Even the whole world.

“Then, we’ll take advantage of the situation and find an opportunity to kill John Doe!”

Speaking of that...

Nash Wilson suddenly clenched his fists and ordered, "Ask the intelligence department to analyze the feasibility of making use of the Nirvana Organization immediately!"

"However, it seems we can get in touch with them ahead of time. It's still possible to provide convenience..."

...

This side.

Led by Li Ji, Fang Qiu came to a secret cultivation room.

"This is the technique modified by those seniors."

Li Ji took out the technique and handed it to Fang Qiu.

Fang Qiu took it and took a closer look and suddenly frowned when he saw some places.

"How is it going?"

Li Ji asked.

"It's hard to be sure."

Fang Qiu shook his head and said, "I'll try it first and see what's going on."

"Don't." Li Ji immediately shook his head and stopped him, saying, "Those seniors told us that we can't try it before we figure out the side effects of this technique. Otherwise, once there is something wrong, it is very likely that we will forcibly consume Yuan Yang to shorten our lifespan, and it will bring great pain to our bodies.”

“Don’t worry.” Fang Qiu said with a smile, “I’m a doctor. I’m just trying to run it once to find the problem. It won’t do any harm to my body. If there’s anything wrong, the internal Qi will flow normally.”

“That’s good.”

Li Ji nodded with understanding and reminded him, “Take care.”

Fang Qiu began his cultivation.

The internal Qi began to run in his body according to the cultivation method in the technique.

Finally, after one lap, Fang Qiu found that this technique still couldn’t work. Not only would it reduce the Qi and blood, but it would also shorten the cultivator’s life as before and cause great pain!

Chapter 1672 Modify the Technique!

Seeing that Fang Qiu had stopped running and practicing, Li Ji immediately stepped forward and asked, “How’s it going? Does it work?”

“No.” Fang Qiu shook his head and said, “There are still a lot of side effects. Although it has been improved a lot compared with before, when it comes to cultivation, it will still consume one’s Qi and blood. It will also consume the Yuan Yang in the human body forcefully and will still bring great pain to the cultivator and shorten his lifespan!”

“Sure.” Li Ji shook his head and sighed softly.

It seemed that he had expected it.

On reflection...

If it were so easy to find a solution, the Nirvana Organization wouldn't have used such a rough method to cultivate people to become a guru quickly.

"However, these seniors have given me some clues on how to adapt it. I can have a try."

Fang Qiu frowned and thought for a moment. He was going to combine the previous technique with this improved technique and make some modifications.

Li Ji didn't disturb him.

As he knew...

Since Fang Qiu had said that there were clues to modify, it was very likely that he could modify it successfully. After all, Fang Qiu never did anything that he was not sure of.

After working together for so long, Li Ji had a deep understanding of Fang Qiu.

Fang Qiu closed his eyes.

He began to replay these two methods in his mind, as well as the route of the internal Qi when he was in cultivation, to find a point that could be modified.

...

In Zhongdong...

Just as Fang Qiu was immersed in the modification of the speed-up method.

A burly middle-aged man who looked very rough crossed a large area of Zhongdong and came to one entrance of Laozi Relic, which was only dozens of kilometers away from Huaxia.

With a closer look...

This burly man had a very broad face.

It seemed that his face had grown horizontally, and his eyebrows were very thick. At first glance, he looked like a boorish man.

His exposed chest had well-developed muscles, and there was a very dazzling white scratch mark on his chest.

It looked like it was caused by a sharp claw, from his left shoulder all the way to the center of his chest!

Except for his exposed upper body.

He was wearing a pair of black cloth pants, which were tied tightly with boots by a black cloth, just like the cultivation clothes of those martial arts practitioners in the Republic of China Era, just lacking a white T-shirt!

“Is this the entrance to the relic?”

The big man landed beside the pool that had become clear. He looked around, searching for the entrance to the relic.

After searching for a long time, he didn’t find anything and then fell into the water.

He carefully searched the pool up and down.

In the end, he still found nothing.

With no other options...

The big man could only break out of the water and continue to look around.

While searching.

Suddenly...

“Swoosh...”

The sound of rushing wind came from a distance.

The large man’s expression changed, and he immediately turned his head to look.

There...

Layers of energy fluctuation appeared in the distant sky, but no one could be seen at all.

“Umph.”

The burly man snorted coldly and raised his right hand horizontally to the right side of his body. Suddenly, a few black, root-like energy flows surged out from his shoulder.

As soon as this energy flow appeared, it immediately climbed up along the man’s arm like a vine. Finally, it tied up the man’s whole arm, crossed the cut, and quickly condensed and spread out in his palm. In the blink of an eye, it turned into a huge axe.

With the appearance of the ax.

The Qi power of this strong man quietly changed, and he directly exuded an extremely cold killing intent, which made people dare not approach him at all.

“Clap! Clap! Clap!”

Suddenly, there was a round of applause.

Right after that...

A gust of wind blew across the field.

A figure, shrouded in the wind, directly appeared in front of the man. With a smile and goodwill on his face, he said, “You deserve to be a top-notch super expert. You are indeed very strong.”

“You want to die?”

The big man glanced at the man indifferently.

Reflected in his eyes.

It was a man with white skin and yellow hair. He looked very thin, but his whole body exuded a very piercing aura.

“Of course not.”

The man quickly shook his head as if he was afraid of being misunderstood and said, “Please allow me to introduce myself.

“My name is Iryens, and everyone likes to call me white wizard. I’m Murican, and I’m currently ranked fourth on the world’s individual strength ranking list.”

At this point, the man named Iryens paused for a moment and then continued to add, “I’m not here to fight with you, but to cooperate with you!”

“Umph.”

The brawny man harrumphed coldly, clearly displeased.

“We all have the same goal, that is John Doe from Huaxia, right?”

Iryens said with a smile, “I’m very sure that you also want to kill John Doe very much, but it’s not so easy to kill him, so I want to join forces with you, because I know where the entrance to Laozi Relic is!”

“Are you know?”

When the burly man heard this, his eyes narrowed.

“That’s right, I know.”

Iryens nodded and said, “If you agree to cooperate with me, I’ll take you to the entrance of Laozi Relic. But for the sake of our pleasant cooperation in the future, I think I need to know your name so that I won’t call you wrong.”

“The First Venerable!”

The sturdy man loosened his right hand, and the axe in his hand immediately shrank back, turning back into vine-like energy, returned to his shoulder, and disappeared.

“Nice to meet you, the First Venerable.”

Iryens laughed and said, "I hope we can have a pleasant cooperation in the future!"

"Where is the entrance to the relic?"

The First Venerable asked with an indifferent expression.

That's right, he was the only remaining fighter in the Nirvana Organization, the First Venerable. He rarely showed his face, and his strength was unfathomable!

Of course, Iryens knew this as well.

However, he did not mention the identity of the First Venerable in the Nirvana Organization. It seemed that he was deliberately unwilling to mention it.

"In Huaxia.

"The entrance to the relic here has been destroyed by John Doe. According to information, John Doe built an entrance in the desert in Huaxia, which is the only entrance to the relic at present. I'll take you there now. You should be able to keep up with me, right?" Iryens asked.

Finished speaking.

Iryens chuckled and moved. He suddenly turned into a gust of wind and flew toward Huaxia at a speed invisible to the naked eye.

The First Venerable moved with an indifferent expression. His speed was actually not inferior to Iryens' at all.

They maintained at the same speed. They passed through the mountains and forests, crossed the border of Huaxia, rushed straight into the desert of Beijiang, and kept rushing into the depths.

Before long...

Iryens stopped on a sand dune.

“Here we are.”

Seeing the First Venerable behind him who had stopped at the same time, Iryens smiled and pointed to the sand dune below, saying, “The entrance to Laozi Relic is below.”

The First Venerable directly jumped down.

He sensed a little.

He did feel that there was a formation underground. Immediately, his right hand patted the ground, and a burst of violent internal Qi was quickly injected into the underground formation.

With the infusion of internal Qi.

The underground formation immediately lit up.

Afterward, as expected, the entrance to a spatial passage appeared in the center of the formation array.

With a scoff, the First Venerable moved and entered the spatial passageway. Iryens followed him closely behind.

As a result...

As soon as they entered the space passage.

Before he could even see what was going on inside, they felt that an incomparably overbearing Qi of Heaven and Earth suddenly surged from their bodies.

Then, with the fluctuation of the Qi of Heaven and Earth, their bodies seemed to have suffered a violent blow. Shaking violently, they were directly sent flying by the hammer.

“What’s going on?”

The First Venerable looked at the entrance to the spatial passageway, and his face flickered as he threw a punch at it.

His fist fell, but nothing happened.

The spatial tunnel was simply not a material body at all. A single fist strike would only be able to reach the empty space within the spatial tunnel. It wouldn’t cause any harm to the spatial tunnel at all.

The First Venerable was furious.

He tried to enter again.

But he was sent flying again.

In this situation, the anger in his heart rose sharply!

Laozi Relic is right here, but there’s no way to enter.

This was like they were guarding a flock of lambs that were waiting to be slaughtered, yet they could only watch.

John Doe had killed so many people from the Nirvana Organization and so many Venerables.

He wanted revenge.

He had long known that the masters in Wulin in Huaxia had entered Laozi Relic for cultivation. Laozi Relic was completely open to the public in Huaxia.

“That’s why he came to the entrance of the Laozi Relic.”

Unfortunately, he couldn’t find it.

In fact...

As long as he searched a little in Huaxia Wulin, he could find the entrance to the relic on the Wulin online forum or the underground-force forum. Unfortunately, he didn’t know those things.

He was so angry that he was ready to rush into the relic to kill all the people and let Huaxia Wulin suffer!

However, he was blocked by a spatial tunnel.

This caused him to be extremely furious!

“Everyone in the relic, listen. I am the First Venerable of the Nirvana Organization. I’ll guard the entrance of the relic. Anyone who wants to die, get out of it!”

In a rage, the First Venerable actually shouted angrily at the space channel, directly revealing his body, and even added, “John Doe, you’d better come out and accept your death!”

A spatial tunnel.

Since it could allow people to get through.

Naturally, the sound could pass through it as well. After all, space itself could transmit sound waves.

This side.

The furious roar of the First Venerable was completely transmitted to the relic.

Originally, the people in the relic were practicing their cultivation with one another. Some of them were also trying to ascend the Heavenly Ladder.

Suddenly, First Venerable's angry roar sounded, drawing everyone's attention in the relic.

Although no one knew what was going on, when they heard that the First Venerable had revealed his identity, everyone in the relic immediately became furious.

Many people were ready to go out and accept the challenge.

These people had no idea what kind of person the First Venerable of the Nirvana Organization was!

Chapter 1673 Block the Door, Call the Door!

"Are the members of the Nirvana Organization so arrogant?"

"We haven't gone to find you yet, but you've come to us yourself?"

"Does this person want to die? How dare he come here to make trouble?"

"He's simply courting death!"

“Everyone, follow out and kill him!”

In the relic, under the clouds, all the rogue cultivators in Wulin made a sound one after another, eager to go out and fight against the First Venerable.

At this time...

“Everyone, listen to me!”

A shout suddenly came from above the clouds.

Then, everyone turned to look.

The people from the various major powers above the clouds were rapidly descending the Heavenly Ladder.

As soon as the people below saw it, they immediately got there and surrounded.

“Everyone, calm down.”

Arriving below, Master Numinous stood up and said, “We’ve all heard what happened just now. Most of the people who are practicing cultivation above the clouds have fought against the members of the Nirvana Organization, so we know that it’s not easy to deal with them, especially the Venerables. You can’t fight against them at all.”

Hearing this, everyone immediately quieted down.

“According to what he said, he should be targeting John Doe. Since he dares to rush here to challenge John Doe, it means that he has the strength to do so here.”

Speaking of this, Master Numinous shook his head and said, "You'd better continue to cultivate. This matter is beyond your control. Of course, we have to deal with the Nirvana Organization. We will find a way to discuss countermeasures. Don't go out and court death on impulse."

The people of the Four Great Families and the Sword Sect also nodded in agreement.

Everyone was amazed.

Even the expert above the clouds was so dignified. If people like them, who couldn't even get up to the clouds, really ran out impulsively, they would probably die.

With this thought...

Everyone stopped making noise and quietly waited to see how this matter would be dealt with.

This side.

The four patriarchs, Master Numinous, and Wei Jian from the Sword Sect gathered together.

"According to the news that we are fighting against the Nirvana Organization, this First Venerable is quite mysterious. No one knows his real strength at present, but the news shows that his real strength is very strong."

Wei Jian said, "Although almost all the gurus of the Nirvana Organization have been killed by John Doe, this First Venerable is very special. He is almost out of anyone's control and rarely appears in public, as if he has always been hidden."

"It seems like this First Venerable isn't that simple after all."

Master Numinous nodded and said, "I once fought with the Seventh Venerable. At that time, his strength was on par with mine. From this point of view, I was definitely no match for the First Venerable. Moreover, during the battle in the relic, everyone saw how powerful the Second Venerable was. Since the Second Venerable was already so powerful, the strength of the First Venerable must have exceeded our expectations. Otherwise, he wouldn't have dared to come here alone to challenge us!"

"In that case, what shall we do?"

Diwu Mingchuan raised his eyebrows and asked.

"It seems that the restriction set by John Doe is effective, so he can't enter the relic and can only shout outside."

Patriarch Qian thought about it and said, "We can make use of this to attack him together. If he is not strong enough, we can kill him directly. If his strength exceeds our expectations, we can return to the relic as soon as possible to ensure our safety!"

"En." Master Numinous nodded and said, "I agree."

"Although it sounds indecent, there's no need to talk about fairness with the members of the Nirvana Organization." Xi Fengling said.

"Then it's settled." Wei Jian nodded and made the decision.

"Who will be the first one?" Wei Jian stood up and asked.

"Leave it to me." Master Numinous stepped forward and said, "I've fought with the Venerables of the Nirvana Organization, so I know their fighting methods. It's the best choice for me to be the first one."

"Okay."

Everyone agreed.

At this time...

Yun Yangzi and Diwu Qian also rushed over at the same time to join the siege.

Because Yun Yangzi had passed the Heavenly Ladder, his strength had increased to the level of a Venerable. Of course, there was still a big gap between Yun Yangzi and the four patriarchs as well as Master Numinous.

Diwu Qian had just broken through to the guru Realm and had not completely stabilized her strength so far. This battle was also a good experience for her.

In this case...

Both Master Numinous and Diwu Mingchuan agreed to their request to join the siege.

After all, it was also time for them to see the real power of the Nirvana Organization and the real opponents that John Doe was facing!

A group of people came to the exit.

“Go.” Master Numinous shouted and took the lead to get into the space passage, followed by the others.

Outside the spatial tunnel.

Iryens stood at the top of the sand dune in the distance, looking at the furious First Venerable with a faint smile on his face.

The First Venerable guarded the entrance to the spatial passageway.

Just as he was about to shout into the space passage again...

Suddenly...

A figure flew out of the spatial tunnel.

It was none other than Master Numinous.

The moment he rushed out of the space passage, Master Numinous did not hesitate at all. He immediately activated all the internal Qi in his body, gathered it in his right fist, and threw a fierce punch at the First Venerable.

“Some of you are courting death. Come and let me vent my anger!”

The First Venerable roared angrily.

When Master Numinous was about to punch him, he threw a fierce punch at Master Numinous.

Next moment.

“Boom!”

A loud explosion sounded.

When the two fists collided, an incomparably huge force directly burst out from the First Venerable. Like a bomb, the force sent Master Numinous flying.

Wei Jian, who had just flown out of the space passage, hurriedly reached out to support Master Numinous.

Afterwards...

“Swoosh! Swoosh! Swoosh!”

One figure after another flashed out of the spatial tunnel.

“Master.”

In the end, Yun Yangzi, who appeared together with Diwu Qian, immediately rushed up with Master Numinous who was supported by Wei Jian and asked nervously, “Are you okay?”

“I’m fine.”

Master Numinous stared at the big man in front of him and said, “Be careful, everyone. His strength is stronger than we thought. He has at least reached the Flower Core Formation Realm.”

“Flower Core Formation Realm?”

Hearing this, everyone suddenly became nervous.

Yun Yangzi also looked up at the First Venerable in front of him.

In other words, did this person have the same strength as John Doe?

On the other side...

“Tsk, tsk...”

“Ha-ha.” The First Venerable suddenly sneered. Then he stretched out his right hand. The root-like energy once again drilled out of his right shoulder. Like a snake, it completely wrapped his whole arm and then quickly condensed into a huge axe in his hand.

“I’ll kill a few first!”

Finished his words.

With a wave of his right hand, the newly condensed axe immediately broke through the air and slashed at Master Numinous with a terrifying sharp sound.

Yun Yangzi immediately took action.

Around him, Wei Jian and the others also took action to resist.

“Boom!”

There was a huge bang.

The First Venerable released an attack at the same time as everyone else attacked, colliding.

Finally, They were actually sent flying by the opponent’s ax even though they attacked together.

A huge force gushed out of the axe like an explosion. Not only did it shatter all the joint attacks of the crowd, but it also sent everyone flying.

In such a case, everyone’s expression changed!

No one had expected the other party to be so powerful. It was simply too terrifying.

Especially Yun Yangzi and Diwu Qian.

With this huge force, he felt like he was a small boat in a violent wave. He had no strength to resist at all and would be easily destroyed!

Only then did they realize how big the gap between them and John Doe was!

“Be careful!”

After stabilizing himself, Wei Jian said with a serious face, “His strength has reached the peak of the First Flower Realm. We are no match for him at all, and he has a helper who is casting eyes on us covetously.”

Hearing this, everyone turned and looked at Iryens immediately.

Standing on the top of the sand dune.

Iryens shrugged his shoulders at everyone. He had no intention of fighting, nor did he have any intention of not fighting.

He was sitting on the mountain and watching a good show. Why did he have to fight?

Seeing this.

Everyone was a little flustered.

“Are you afraid? Do you want to run away?”

The First Venerable laughed coldly before his figure flashed, and he waved the axe in his hand once more as he charged toward everyone.

No one dared to separate.

They gathered together again and fought back together.

This time...

It took them a lot of effort to completely block the opponent's attack.

"Go."

Master Numinous shouted.

Knowing that they were no match for the First Venerable, he immediately grabbed Yun Yangzi and led them into the space passage.

The others did not hesitate and quickly ran into the relic.

The First Venerable fiercely chased after him.

The axe in his hand hacked into the space passage, but he didn't even touch a single person's butt.

Fortunately...

Everyone made a prompt decision.

Knowing that they couldn't match with the enemies, they immediately entered the relic. The First Venerable was also stopped outside.

Back in the relic, everyone's faces turned pale.

Outside...

Seeing that the First Venerable was suppressing a group of people from Huaxia alone and almost killing them, Iryens couldn't help but feel shocked.

“The First Venerable is actually that powerful?”

“He’s just one member of the Nirvana Organization. How powerful is the Nirvana Organization on earth?”

Iryens was extremely shocked, but at the same time, he secretly sighed with emotion.

Especially when he saw the axe in the First Venerable’s hand, he revealed an expression of disbelief.

He felt that even if it was him, it would be very difficult for him to resist the axe.

It was because the First Venerable’s power was just too great!

“A bunch of trash, you think you can fight me? If you have the ability, don’t run. Come out, I’ll chop you up!”

The First Venerable continued to yell angrily at the spatial passage. His words were particularly unpleasant to hear.

Chapter 1674 Done, Two Sets of Techniques!

In the relic.

After hearing the First Venerable’s words.

Everyone’s face turned livid.

When had they ever suffered such humiliation?

But there was nothing they could do.

The other party was too powerful.

Except for the group of people who went out to fight with the First Venerable at the beginning, the others couldn't help being furious when they heard the curses of him. They rushed over one by one, trying to fight to the death!

"All of you, shut up."

Seeing that the situation was about to get out of control, Wei Jian shouted, "We've only fought with each other for two moves, but each of us has consumed a lot of internal Qi. Some have even been injured. What's the point of rushing out? You can only give your lives to enhance his arrogance!"

Only these words suppress the impulse in their hearts.

"This senior is correct."

Yun Yangzi stood up and said, "It's true that I've only exchanged two moves with him just now, but I've already been slightly injured. Moreover, all of us are in a defensive state together and have suffered injuries caused by one of his attacks. If you go out now, you'll only be courting death!"

His words were heard.

Everyone's expression changed.

Although Wei Jian was a senior and looked very dignified, no one knew who he was, so others didn't listen to him.

But Yun Yangzi was different.

Yun Yangzi had a high reputation in Huaxia Wulin. After all, he was a high-level official who often appeared in Wulin.

Hearing what Yun Yangzi said, everyone also suppressed the impulse in their hearts.

“It seems that we can only hide in the relic for the time being and wait for reinforcements.” Wei Jian said.

Everyone nodded.

Indeed, the only way was to wait for help. If they went out now, they would be courting death.

...

At the border of Huaxia.

Since John Doe made the location of the Laozi Relic public, people from all over the world had been sent to spy on the relic outside the border of Huaxia.

Although they didn’t dare to cross the border of Huaxia, there was still no problem for them to spy on the relic.

More importantly...

The entrance of Laozi Relic was in the depths of the desert, where there were very few people, so they would not sneak in to observe the situation and then run out.

As the battle at the entrance of the relic broke out...

The spies sent by various organizations also noticed the situation here and quietly ran forward to check. After hearing the angry shout of the First Venerable, they knew that it was the people of Nirvana Organization who took the initiative to find trouble with Huaxia Wulin.

Soon.

The spies from all over the country reported the news.

Before long...

The news that the first Venerable of the Nirvana Organization came to make trouble for Huaxia Wulin and defeated a large group of Huaxia Wulin masters on his own spread all over the world.

Hearing the news, people from all over the world were shocked.

“Does the Nirvana Organization really exist?”

“Is he so strong? How dare he come to Huaxia and openly declare war on Huaxia Wulin?”

“Oh my god, are the members of the Nirvana Organization really so strong?”

“It seems that John Doe is right. The Nirvana Organization does exist in this world, and from the news, they are really very powerful. They are even so powerful that they are not afraid of Huaxia.”

...

At the same time.

The news spread quickly on the underground-force forum.

“It has finally appeared.”

“The Nirvana Organization has finally appeared, but no one did expect that they would appear in front of the world in this way. The first time they appeared, they directly announced that they were going to be enemies with the world’s strongest metahumen, Huaxia. In other words, the strength of Nirvana Organization is not inferior to that of Huaxia, isn’t it?”

“If that’s the case, it’s really terrifying.”

“Huaxia is peaceful. If Nirvana Organization is really as powerful as John Doe said, the existence of such an organization is very terrible for the whole world!”

“Is the Nirvana Organization so strong?”

“He went to Huaxia, blocked the Laozi Relic, and made no expert in Huaxia Wulin dare to come out. It’s amazing?”

“Where is John Doe? Shouldn’t he have stood up and fought the Nirvana Organization head-on?”

“Isn’t John Doe here?”

Shocked by the strength of the Nirvana Organization, everyone on the underground-force forum gradually shifted their attention to John Doe.

None of them had expected this.

In their eyes, John Doe was the representative of Huaxia. No matter what happened in Huaxia, John Doe would definitely be the first to stand up. But this time, John Doe didn’t seem to appear.

Then, where did John Doe go?

Would John Doe rush over as soon as he heard the news? Would there be a big battle?

On the other side...

Iryens also reported what he had seen to the high-level officials of Murica.

In Murica...

In a secret meeting room.

“How could the Nirvana Organization be so powerful?”

“According to the news sent by Iryens, the strength of the Nirvana Organization has completely exceeded our expectations. Their strength is completely enough to confront Huaxia head-on!”

“Mn, this is a power that cannot be underestimated.”

The senior executives expressed their opinions one after another.

“It seems that it’s indeed necessary for us to unite with the Nirvana Organization to deal with Huaxia and reap the benefits!”

As Nash Wilson spoke, the corners of his mouth curled up coldly.

...

In the relic.

In the situation where the space passage was blocked.

The people of the Sword Sect immediately sent out the news to ask for help.

After all, the Nirvana Organization had already come to their doorstep, and the whole world was watching. If this matter was not solved as soon as possible, it would definitely become a joke in the eyes of all the countries in the world finally. Therefore, they had to spread the news as soon as possible and ask the higher-ups to send people over to deal with the First Venerable of the Nirvana Organization!

As the news came out.

Soon, Li Ji received the whole news.

When he heard the news, he knew that the first Venerable of the Nirvana Organization was definitely here for John Doe. But he didn't expect that the First Venerable would look for them after killing someone in Zhongdong.

However, at this time, Fang Qiu was focusing on modifying the rapidly improving technique in the cultivation room, while Li Ji was waiting for him outside the room.

Therefore, he didn't tell the news to Fang Qiu immediately. Instead, he continued to wait outside the door.

This wait lasted for half a day.

Half a day later.

Fang Qiu finally came out of the cultivation room.

Different from before, when Fang Qiu came out, he was injured and held two sets of techniques.

"How is it going?"

The moment Fang Qiu came out, Li Ji immediately went up to him.

Fang Qiu nodded. As he handed over the two technique books to Li Ji, he said, “The first set of techniques can keep the cultivator alive without worries. But people will feel pain when they practice it, and their cultivation progress will be faster.”

“The second set of techniques has no hindrance to one’s life span. When practicing it, one won’t feel any pain, but the cultivation speed will be relatively slow.”

These are two sets of techniques.

It was transformed from the technique that Fang Qiu had obtained before.

The first set of techniques was improved more quickly, but the foundation was not solid.

Although the foundation of the second set was a bit more solid, it wasn’t that fast.

As the saying goes, fish and bear paws cannot be shared.

This was the best result that Fang Qiu had come up with.

In terms of speed and side effects on the cultivator, it could no longer be improved any more.

“Really?”

Hearing what Fang Qiu said, Li Ji was overjoyed.

Even if it didn't have the fast speed of the Nirvana Organization, Fang Qiu had modified it to be much slower. Moreover, he had made two sets of techniques.

This was perfect.

For soldiers, the most important thing was to be able to endure hardships.

The soldiers had to face pain all year round. They could even use techniques to improve their strength quickly, which would only make them feel pain.

"Well, I've tried it myself. It can be assured to cultivate."

Fang Qiu nodded affirmatively.

"That's great!"

Li Ji said in great surprise. Then he immediately called an aide, handed over the two technique books to him, asked him to give them to the higher-ups, and personally called to report it.

Afterward...

After the phone call...

Li Ji took Fang Qiu back to the office of the military base.

"How's the situation over there?"

As soon as he came back, Fang Qiu immediately asked.

"Not good."

Li Ji shook his head and said, "The First Venerable is crazy. He is no longer in Zhongdong. Six hours ago, I received a piece of news that the First Venerable of the Nirvana Organization has already broken in. Now, he is blocking the entrance of Laozi Relic, making it impossible for the people inside to get out."

"It's blocked?"

Fang Qiu was stunned.

"According to the information we received, the First Venerable is very powerful, at least at the level of One-Flower Core Formation. Master Numinous, the four patriarchs, and the expert from the Sword Sect attacked him together, but they were all defeated. Moreover, the opponent only used two moves. His strength is completely beyond everyone's imagination."

"Umph."

Fang Qiu snorted and said, "Humph. I'd like to see how powerful this so-called First Venerable is!"

"Don't."

Li Ji immediately shook his head and said, "It's been a few hours. The higher-ups must have sent people over. You don't have to worry."

"It's so wired"

Fang Qiu frowned and said, "Aren't the members of the Nirvana Organization always keeping a low profile? Why is the First Venerable of the Nirvana Organization suddenly so high-profile?"

"Or rather, the Nirvana Organization, which has been keeping a low profile, suddenly became high profile. What does it mean?"

This question came as a surprise.

Li Ji couldn't help but frown.

Fang Qiu was right.

The Nirvana Organization was always very low-key. This time, it suddenly became high-profile, which seemed to be a very bad signal!

With the thought of this...

Li Ji immediately reported.

Far away...

"No."

Fang Qiu shook his head and said, "I'm still a little worried about the situation in the relic. Anyway, it's close to here. I'll go and have a look first."

"Don't be impulsive."

Li Ji knew that he couldn't stop Fang Qiu, so he could only remind him with a serious face, "The First Venerable is very powerful. Even if you want to go over and check the situation, don't fight him head-on. You must be careful."

Chapter 1675 John Doe, I've Been Looking for You for a Long Time!

"I know what to do."

Hearing what Li Ji said, Fang Qiu nodded with a smile. Then, he immediately left the military camp and rushed to the entrance of the relic.

At the entrance of Laozi Relic.

“You cowards, don’t you even have the courage to come out?”

“What? Are you afraid of being beaten?”

“All of you are hiding. Are you afraid that I will cut off your heads if you come out?”

The First Venerable has been cursing in front of Laozi Relic for a long time, but his fury still hasn’t subsided.

But just as he couldn’t stop cursing...

“Whiz!”

In the distance, a pleasant sound of the sword suddenly came.

Hearing the sound of the sword.

The First Venerable and Iryens, who had been standing on the sand dune, immediately turned to look.

With this look, both of their expressions changed in an instant.

Only to see a wisp of green light and Sword Intent flashed swiftly through the clouds in the sky like a bolt of lightning.

Seeing the cyan sword Qi.

The First Venerable was immediately given a fright.

As he knew...

He must be Qingyun, who ranked first on the world's individual strength ranking list.

Because in the world, he was the only one who could release the cyan light and sword Qi!

Although he was powerful, the First Venerable's heart couldn't help trembling when he saw the cyan sword Qi.

Qingyun's strength was so formidable that it wasn't something he could deal with!

"Swoosh!"

Without any hesitation, the First Venerable turned around and fled. In the opposite direction of the cyan sword Qi, he fled quickly.

He didn't want to die here.

If Qingyun caught up with him, he would really be in danger!

Iryens also glanced at the blue light and sword Qi that flew over quickly towards him. Then, without hesitation, he immediately followed the First Venerable and fled at high speed.

Although he had not fought with Qingyun face to face, Qingyun's strength had already spread all over the world. Moreover, Qingyun was a real super expert at the SSS level. He was at most at the SS level, similar to John Doe. Even if he joined forces with the First Venerable together, they would definitely be no match for Qingyun!

Hence, he did not hesitate to escape.

“Huh?”

On the way out.

Iryens suddenly heard the sound of something tearing through the air from another direction.

He immediately turned his head and looked over.

Only to see a figure appeared in the other direction as well.

At a glance...

It was John Doe.

At the sight of John Doe, Iryens’s eyes immediately lit up!

He found that John Doe was flying toward the entrance of the Laozi Relic.

He felt surprised but helpless.

To his surprise, John Doe finally arrived.

Helplessly, they didn’t expect that John Doe would arrive so late, even later than Qingyun.

In this way, how could they fight?

Now, if they turned back.

They would definitely encounter Qingyun. With John Doe, they would really have to die!

However, once this opportunity was missed, it would not be so easy to lure John Doe out again.

With this thought, Iryens's heart skipped a beat. He immediately shouted to the First Venerable in front of him, "The person over there is John Doe!"

After his shout, the First Venerable immediately turned his head and walked over.

At the same time, his face suddenly lit up with joy. He shouted directly to John Doe, "John Doe, if you are powerful enough, come with me. Otherwise, I'll kill everyone in Huaxia until you appear in front of me!"

Fang Qiu, who was rushing over, also saw the First Venerable and Iryens, but he was not sure who was the First Venerable for the time being.

Only when Fang Qiu heard the First Venerable's shout did he confirm it.

He then looked at Iryens. "A Murican?"

Seeing Iryens, Fang Qiu suddenly narrowed his eyes and glanced at him coldly.

To his astonishment, there was actually a Murican with the First Venerable together.

"What's the matter?"

How could the Murican collude with the First Venerable of Nirvana, or was that Murican also a member of the Nirvana Organization?

With a heart full of doubts, Fang Qiu also glanced in the direction of Laozi Relic.

When he saw the azure sword flash, his heart instantly calmed down quite a bit.

Since Qingyun had arrived, there would be no problem with the relic. Besides, the First Venerable was right in front of him, and that one had just shouted at him.

Fang Qiu looked cold.

Without any hesitation, he immediately chased after the First Venerable.

Fang Qiu knew very well that his strength still needed to be improved. With his current strength, it was very difficult to confront the Nirvana Organization head-on.

After all, the previous tenth Guardian of the Nirvana Organization had already reached the Flower Core Formation Realm.

Then, what about the ninth and eighth ones?

“How are the top three Guardians?”

Apparently...

With Fang Qiu’s strength in the Flower Core Formation Realm, he definitely couldn’t resist them head-on.

Therefore, Fang Qiu had to improve his strength.

Now one flower in his Dantian had begun to etherealize. If he wanted to continue to divide the words in his Dantian into two flowers, he had to fight!

The most important thing was that Fang Qiu was eager for strength.

He had to improve his strength as soon as possible and reach the Two Flowers Realm. Only in this way could he see the old master and really start to find a way to treat his injuries!

“Swoosh!”

Fang Qiu was very fast.

He followed closely behind the First Venerable and Iryens.

Afraid that Qingyun would catch up with them, the First Venerable and Iryens didn't dare to stop at all. They led Fang Qiu to run quickly in the direction of the Snow-mountain Sect in the distance.

...

On the other side...

The spies from all over the world who had been monitoring the entrance of the relic were also ready to retreat when Qingyun arrived.

Although they were also very afraid of Qingyun, they did not do anything to Huaxia, so there was no reason for him to attack them. At most, he would drive them out of the Huaxia border.

But to everyone's surprise...

Just as these spies were about to leave...

The First Venerable's shout suddenly sounded.

“John Doe is here?”

“John Doe has arrived?”

“It seems that the First Venerable of the Nirvana Organization must have been frightened by Qingyun. He doesn’t dare to fight with him at all, so he can only provoke John Doe with words.”

“Who is that Murican?”

“I think he’s ranked fourth on the individual strength ranking list, Iryens?”

Watching the First Venerable and Iryens lead John Doe away, the spies from all over the world left the border of Huaxia one after another.

They didn’t want to trouble Qingyun to drive them out personally.

After they left the Huaxia border.

The spies from all over the world immediately reported the news.

“John Doe showed up and was led away by the First Venerable.”

“Iryens, the fourth-ranked super expert of the new generation in Murica, seems to have been involved. I wonder what role he plays?”

The news soon spread to every corner of the world.

In the meantime...

The news was also released on the underground-force forum.

With the appearance of this news, all kinds of heated discussions immediately broke out on the underground-force forum.

“John Doe really showed up.”

“The first Venerable of the Nirvana Organization is so powerful that he can block Laozi Relic on his own, and John Doe is also the one who protects the relic on his own. Who will win the battle?”

“It seems that there will be another big combat!”

“Iryens?”

“Why did Murican get involved in it again?”

“It seems that John Doe may suffer this time. After all, he has killed so many Muricans. If Iryens is really involved, he will definitely not stand on his side, will he?”

“I really want to see this big battle!”

“I think John Doe must have suffered the revenge of the Nirvana Organization after he announced the news of the Organization. Since he dared to chase after the First Venerable, he should not be afraid of him.”

“Let’s see who will live and who will die!”

On the underground-force forum...

Everyone began to discuss the battle.

Everyone had expected John Doe to appear, so they had been looking forward to this battle, especially the countries that were paying close attention to the Nirvana Organization.

The battle between John Doe and the First Venerable of the Nirvana Organization was a great opportunity for them to learn more about the Nirvana Organization!

...

Running wildly all the way, Fang Qiu followed closely behind the First Venerable.

The First Venerable seemed to be really afraid of Qingyun and didn't dare to stop at all.

He ran straight to the Snow-mountain Sects of Hemalaya Mountain, at the border of Huaxia.

He kept rushing out of the border.

When he arrived at the hillside of a relatively large Snow-mountain Sect, the First Venerable stopped and turned to look into the distance. After making sure that the cyan sword light had not caught up with him for the time being, he was a little relieved and turned his eyes to John Doe, who was chasing after him.

He looked at John Doe with unconcealable anger in his eyes in an instant!

It was John Doe.

He had killed so many of his subordinates, his brothers, and even the Lord Virtuous. This made the First Venerable feel extremely humiliated.

If it weren't for the order of the little Saint Lord, he wouldn't have known that all the people on his side were dead.

In his eyes...

John Doe was their sworn enemy.

Only by killing John Doe could he vent his hatred in his heart.

What's more, there was an order issued by the little Saint Lord to kill John Doe!

Behind him...

When he saw the First Venerable stop.

Fang Qiu immediately stopped and stared coldly at the First Venerable in front of him. He looked him up and down carefully and then turned his head to look around.

Around them...

Iryens had disappeared.

On the way to chase after them, Fang Qiu targeted the two of them with his Divine Consciousness. But when he was halfway there, Iryens turned around and fled in another direction, directly escaping the range of Fang Qiu's Divine Consciousness to monitor.

At present.

The only person standing in front of Fang Qiu was the First Venerable!

"I've been looking for you for a long time, John Doe."

Looking at Fang Qiu, the First Venerable said angrily, "Now, I'm going to kill you!"

As he spoke.

He waved his right hand.

The energy immediately drilled out from under the skin of his shoulder. It quickly grew like roots and wrapped around his arm. Finally, it quickly condensed into a wooden axe in his hand.

"If I can kill your Crowning Lord and Lord Virtuous, I can also kill you!"

Fang Qiu snorted coldly.

As he clenched his right hand, the divine sword instantly condensed!

Chapter 1676 I've Been Waiting for You a Long Time

"Humph! Who do you think you are?"

Hearing Fang Qiu's words, First Venerable snorted disdainfully. Then he waved his right hand, and the axe that was tied to his arm suddenly slashed out horizontally. With a huge force as if it was going to break through space, it dragged First Venerable's body and smashed toward Fang Qiu fiercely.

In the face of such a violent attack...

Fang Qiu was not afraid at all.

With a wave of his right hand, Fang Qiu confronted it head-on.

"Bang!"

There was a loud collision.

At the moment of collision, Fang Qiu distinctly felt an irresistible force impact him violently. The axe in First Venerable's hand seemed to be condensed by energy, but it was like a solid axe. It was like heavy waves in the sea, surging over from all directions. It looked like no matter how hard Fang Qiu tried to stop it, he would be injured and didn't know how to fight against it.

But...

For Fang Qiu...

When his opponent's attacks were violent, his attacks would be even more violent.

There was not much of a gap in strength between Fang Qiu and First Venerable. Since First Venerable tried to suppress him with force, Fang Qiu would fight back with all his might.

"Boom!"

A domineering Qi power burst out of Fang Qiu's body.

Meanwhile...

All the internal Qi in his body was running quickly under the control of Fang Qiu. It was quickly injected into the divine sword through his arm.

The divine sword, which was about to be suppressed by the axe, suddenly burst out a huge amount of energy, colliding with the power of the axe.

The two forces collided with each other head-on.

“Huh?”

First Venerable raised his eyebrows.

He distinctly felt the great power burst out of the divine sword in Fang Qiu’s hand.

Before...

Except for fighting with super experts like Qingyun, First Venerable had never lost in terms of strength. But now, John Doe’s strength was on par with his, which surprised First Venerable a lot.

Like First Venerable, John Doe’s strength was also at the level of the One-Flower Core Realm, but how long had John Doe been breaking through to this realm? First Venerable had long reached the peak of the One-Flower Core Realm.

In this case...

How could John Doe withstand First Venerable’s attack?

How could that be?

“What a powerful strength!”

Fang Qiu was also shocked.

Fang Qiu had been through recultivation, so he was a little stronger than an expert at the same level as him in terms of strength and speed. Unexpectedly, First Venerable’s strength was far beyond that of an expert at his level. Fang Qiu used almost 60% of his strength to be on par with First Venerable.

Apparently, First Venerable had not used his full strength.

Judging from this point...

First Venerable was much more powerful than Lord Virtuous.

Otherwise, the Nirvana Organization would not have sent First Venerable to kill John Doe!

“How dare you challenge me with such little strength?”

First Venerable grunted angrily.

“You make it sound like you can beat me.”

Fang Qiu sneered.

When First Venerable heard that...

His face turned gloomy. Suddenly, he pressed on his right arm wrapped in root-like energy with his left hand.

He just pressed it lightly.

The power on the axe suddenly surged.

Once again, the divine sword in Fang Qiu’s hand was forced to draw back by the axe.

Fang Qiu’s face turned gloomy.

He realized that First Venerable was completely a monster!

In the confrontation with First Venerable, Fang Qiu distinctly felt that there was no energy aura around First Venerable, but the energy in First Venerable's body was unusually powerful.

In other words...

First Venerable didn't rely on absorbing the Qi of Heaven and Earth to fight, but purely on his physical strength.

In this case...

The Great Hand of Nihilism worked not well for First Venerable.

If First Venerable refined his body by using all the Qi of Heaven and Earth to strengthen his flesh and blood, the internal Qi in his body must be very little or even almost none.

Then...

The Great Hand of Formlessness could not suppress First Venerable.

The only thing Fang Qiu could aim at was probably the axe condensed from energy in First Venerable's hand.

After a thought...

Fang Qiu continued running his internal Qi to fight against First Venerable, and at the same time, he controlled his spiritual force to penetrate straight into First Venerable's axe.

As soon as the spiritual force seeped into the axe...

Fang Qiu felt the terrifying density immediately.

It was energy.

First Venerable compressed all the energy together and condensed it into an axe.

Fang Qiu figured it out.

The reason why First Venerable had such a powerful strength was largely because of the weight of the axe.

Under such a high density, the weight of this axe was quite terrifying. That was why First Venerable used his entire arm to brandish the axe instead of holding it with his hand.

“Everything changes but the same principle!

“Since it’s a sort of energy, the Great Hand of Formlessness can suppress it for sure.”

Fang Qiu thought of a way to deal with First Venerable.

However...

It was not the time to fight to the death now.

It was a rare chance to meet such a powerful opponent, who liked close combat and confrontation head-on, so Fang Qiu was not willing to let it go so easily.

The next moment...

“Bang!”

All of a sudden, Fang Qiu burst out a huge force in the long-time confrontation. It shook both of them backward at the same time.

“Tsk, tsk...”

First Venerable thought that Fang Qiu couldn't hold on any longer, so he immediately sneered, “Go to hell!”

As soon as he finished speaking...

First Venerable slashed the axe toward Fang Qiu fiercely.

Fang Qiu waved his right hand and immediately raised his sword to block it.

“Clank, clank, clank...”

The sound of metal colliding sounded constant.

Fang Qiu and First Venerable engaged in a fierce battle.

Just then...

“Swoosh...”

There was a sudden gust of cold wind on the snow mountain.

Fang Qiu had been covering the surrounding area with his Divine Consciousness, so he sensed the cold wind immediately. He raised his eyebrows slightly, turned his head, and took a glance in a certain direction.

Just now...

Fang Qiu distinctly felt something unusual with the Qi of Heaven and Earth in the gust of wind. He realized that it was an energy fluctuation.

But...

Fang Qiu didn't pay much attention to it.

Instead, he continued to fight intensely against First Venerable.

During their fight...

First Venerable noticed that John Doe was a little weaker than him in terms of strength, but John Doe's flexibility and reaction speed were much better than his. No matter how hard First Venerable erupted his explosive power, it was difficult for him to completely suppress John Doe.

Therefore...

The more it went on like this, the more aggrieved and furious First Venerable felt.

He was First Venerable with great honor, yet he could not suppress a kid of the new generation!

As he got angrier and angrier...

First Venerable continued to erupt with even greater power, continuing to exert pressure on John Doe.

“Bang!”

Almost every blow felt like smashing an iron hammer furiously. Each blow carried an extreme domineering force as if it was going to smash the long sword in John Doe’s hand.

Fortunately, what Fang Qiu held in his hand was a divine sword, not an ordinary weapon.

If it were not Fang Qiu but anyone else...

The weapon in his hand had probably been smashed dozens of times.

After dozens of collisions...

First Venerable’s explosive power was like waves, and his attacks were getting more and more violent. Under such a situation, Fang Qiu was gradually pushed to step backward. From the way he resisted the attacks, it could be seen that he began to be at a disadvantage and had been suppressed by First Venerable.

Just then...

“Whistle...”

Not far away, another gust of cold wind blew.

Hearing the blowing wind...

Fang Qiu sneered inwardly.

At the same time, he waved his right hand, and the long sword in his hand met the axe that slashed fiercely toward him.

“Bang!”

A loud bang sounded.

When First Venerable exerted all his strength, Fang Qiu was sent flying by the axe.

“Uh...”

It was a tremendous shaking force!

Fang Qiu felt something sweet in his throat. The next second, a mouthful of blood surged into his throat.

“Hiss...”

As Fang Qiu was sent flying, he took a deep breath. He forcibly stabilized his steps and said, “You deserve to be at the peak of One-Flower Core Realm. Your strength is indeed unexpectedly strong!”

With that...

Fang Qiu reached out to wipe the stained blood from the corner of his mouth.

Just then...

“Whistle...”

A gust of cold wind suddenly sounded around Fang Qiu.

In the next second...

A strand of extremely sharp energy suddenly reached the side of Fang Qiu. It stabbed straight at Fang Qiu's throat like a sharp blade.

"I've been waiting for you for a long time," Fang Qiu snorted coldly.

Suddenly, Fang Qiu turned around and dodged to the side. Then he waved his right hand, and the divine sword in his hand immediately stabbed straight into mid-air from a very tricky angle.

In mid-air...

A figure suddenly appeared in the gust of cold wind.

Fang Qiu took a closer look.

It turned out that it was Iryens, a super expert from Murica, who ranked fourth on the World's Individual Strength Ranking List.

When Iryens fled with First Venerable, Fang Qiu already noticed that Iryens was a wind-element remarkable talent and very powerful.

In Fang Qiu's view, Iryens' strength should be on par with Steven, the third-ranked on the World's Individual Strength Ranking List, the ice-element remarkable talent who had been defeated by him.

At first...

Under the surveillance of his Divine Consciousness, Fang Qiu thought that Iryens had left.

However, during the contest with First Venerable, Fang Qiu noticed something unusual in the Qi of Heaven and Earth in the cold wind that suddenly blew around.

So Fang Qiu immediately became vigilant.

As expected...

Iryens really hid in the dark and got ready to launch a sneak attack.

“Whiz!”

The direction of the long sword was pointing to completely exceeded Iryens’ expectations.

Iryens’ wind-hiding technique was comparable to real Invisibility. It could suppress his aura to the lowest extent while hiding himself.

In this case, almost no one could discover him.

Therefore, Iryens didn’t expect that he would fail to launch a sneak attack, nor did he expect that John Doe would fight back.

So Iryens was caught off guard.

Iryens had no choice but to rely on the characteristics of his own energy. He immediately gave up the sneak attack and quickly retreated. He was going to distance himself from John Doe.

But, as soon as he moved...

“Whiz!”

The sound of the sword came into Iryens’ ears.

The long sword in Fang Qiu's hand followed Iryens' figure and rushed over. Iryens had nowhere to dodge. Fang Qiu's long sword slashed across Iryens' arm, instantly cutting a deep bloody wound.

Iryens quickly stepped backward.

When Iryens saw the bloody wound on his arm, his face instantly turned extremely gloomy, full of ghastly anger.

Iryens had wanted to take this chance to play tricks on John Doe for the shame he had caused Murica.

Unexpectedly...

He not only failed to launch a sneak attack but he was also injured by John Doe.

Iryens' face became ashen in an instant. The way he looked at Fang Qiu was with a hint of maliciousness.

Chapter 1677 Causing An Avalanche!

"Why haven't you made a move yet?"

After staring at Fang Qiu for a while, Iryens turned to look at First Venerable beside him and said, "Don't forget. It was me who guided you to find the entrance of Laozi Relic, and you promised to join forces with me to kill John Doe."

Unexpectedly...

"Hee, hee..."

When First Venerable saw Iryens' anxious look, he took a step back instead. First Venerable crossed his arms and grinned, looking like he was watching a show.

Opposite him...

Fang Qiu stared at Iryens coldly and said, "I've warned you that I'll kill every Murican who comes for me. You're courting death!"

With that...

Fang Qiu waved his right hand.

"Swish, swish, swish..."

Several beams of sword Qi burst out from Fang Qiu's hand, flowing in all directions.

With the appearance of these beams of sword Qi...

Fang Qiu moved and rushed straight to First Venerable at lightning speed. A peerless sharp aura of energy erupted from all over his body.

The next moment...

Fang Qiu rushed straight to Iryens' side. Without any mercy, he slashed the long sword in his hand toward Iryens' head.

"Wind!"

Iryens narrowed his eyes and suddenly waved his hands before him. Then, a gust of cold wind suddenly rose up. Like a transparent layer of energy, it kept out in front of Iryens, forming a windshield.

Apparently...

Iryens knew that he could not stop the long sword in John Doe's hand with the windshield alone.

Therefore, he immediately backed off at the moment the windshield appeared.

While retreating quickly...

Iryens moved his hands moved quickly in front of him, and then it swarmed with condensed dense wind blades in mid-air.

"Clap!"

Fang Qiu smashed the windshield with his sword.

Just then...

"Swish, swish, swish..."

Iryens pushed his hands forward. Then, those dense wind blades, with peerless sharp energy Qi, immediately rushed wildly toward Fang Qiu like raindrops.

"Get lost!"

Fang Qiu shouted angrily.

As he twisted his wrist, the long sword slashed out from left to right quickly.

With the movement of the blade...

A peerless sharp sword Qi burst out from the sword blade in a split second. Like a layer of waves, it swept forward with a domineering energy Qi.

Wherever it passed...

All the wind blades were crushed and cut into pieces.

What a terrifying scene!

It frightened Iryens at once.

Iryens had heard of the battle between John Doe and Steven. He knew that his strength was on par with Steven's, and he might even be weaker than Steven.

But he didn't expect it.

John Doe was so powerful that John Doe could break his wind blades so easily.

Iryens became nervous.

"Hide!"

Iryens clasped his hands together.

As a gust of wind whistled past him, it was like a curtain, wrapping him up completely.

In the next moment, Iryens disappeared in mid-air.

"Do you think you can hide yourself?"

With a sneer, Fang Qiu moved and disappeared from where he was in an instant.

The next moment...

Fang Qiu showed up 30 meters away, and at the same time, he stuck out a palm in the air.

It seemed that he had missed his target.

But...

When his palm fell.

“Bang!”

With a sudden vibrating sound...

A huge energy fluctuation burst out with a loud bang.

In an instant...

A figure appeared in the completely void space.

With a closer look...

Shockingly, it was Iryens!

Moreover...

Iryens was staring at John Doe with his face full of horror.

It was totally out of Iryens' expectations. After he became invisible, John Doe could find out his position so quickly and gave him such a powerful attack.

"You... How did you know where I was?"

Iryens was a little panicked.

"Don't forget. I'm Huaxianese!" Fang Qiu snorted coldly.

He didn't intend to give Iryens any chance. so he waved the long sword in his hand again and slashed straight at Iryens.

Just then...

"Swoosh!"

The sound of something breaking through the air was heard.

First Venerable, who had been an onlooker for quite a while, saw that Iryens was frightened by John Doe. First Venerable was afraid that he would be killed by John Doe before he could fully exert his strength, so he immediately rushed up to help. With a wave of his right hand, First Venerable swept the axe straight at John Doe's face and forced Fang Qiu to distance himself from Iryens.

"Huh?"

Fang Qiu narrowed his eyes and stared coldly at First Venerable.

"I don't like him either, but I need to keep him alive for future use."

First Venerable took a glance at Fang Qiu. Then he put the axe that was tied to his right arm in front of his chest. It seemed that he wanted to continue attacking, but he was quite hesitant.

Fang Qiu didn't bother to ask further.

Anyway, First Venerable and Iryens were in cahoots with each other.

"I'm very curious now."

Looking at First Venerable, Fang Qiu shook his head while saying, "Previously, the Nirvana Organization I met always kept a low profile particularly, for fear of being exposed. But today, you dare to rush into Huaxia blatantly. With such a high-profile action, are you going to tell the world that the Nirvana Organization is about to make an appearance openly?"

"Tsk, tsk..."

"Of course, and we will use your head as a sacrifice," First Venerable said with a sinister smile.

"Are you true?"

Fang Qiu grinned.

Then...

"Swoosh..."

Fang Qiu turned around and ran away quickly.

Fang Qiu had a clear mind.

Since First Venerable took action, it meant that he had decided to join forces with Iryens to deal with Fang Qiu.

If it was a one-on-one fight, Fang Qiu was not afraid at all.

But in the face of both First Venerable and Iryens, Fang Qiu knew well that he was no match for them.

Thus...

He had no choice but to run away.

As Fang Qiu fled, he looked in the direction of Beijiang.

He had wanted to see if Qingyun would catch up. When the time came, he could join hands with Qingyun to kill First Venerable and Iryens.

However, Fang Qiu didn't see Qingyun's figure at all.

Fang Qiu thought, "Looks like..."

"Qingyun trusts me very much, and so do the higher-ups of Huaxia.

"Otherwise, Why didn't they send reinforcements to catch up?

"Well...

"I cannot hope to get some help.

“So I have to deal with it on my own!”

Thinking of this...

While running away, Fang Qiu carefully observed the surrounding situation.

Fang Qiu was superior to Lord Virtuous in terms of speed.

What was more, after killing Lord Virtuous, Fang Qiu’s strength had been further improved. If he was unwilling to be chased up by First Venerable and Iryens, they would never catch him up. The best they could do was to get a little closer to Fang Qiu at most.

Fang Qiu carefully observed his surroundings.

Fang Qiu clearly saw snow mountains in all directions, and as far as he could see, it was all snow-white, nothing else.

Judging from the current situation...

It could be estimated with the naked eye that the snow in all directions was at least one meter thick. In many places, the snow was even over three meters thick.

Besides...

The snow mountains in all directions were very high, and the slope of the mountains was very steep. Some places were almost vertical at a 90-degree angle.

It was very easy for a landslide to occur in such a place.

Well...

What was the landslide on the snow mountain?

It was an avalanche, of course.

“No matter how powerful their strengths are, can they contend with the power of nature?”

An idea came into Fang Qiu’s mind.

Fang Qiu immediately found a particularly dangerous position. Then he quickly turned his head to glance at First Venerable and Iryens who were chasing after him, and led them to rush to that place.

In the chase...

First Venerable and Iryens didn’t think much about it at all.

Seeing that John Doe was fleeing in that direction, they just chased after him.

Seeing this...

Fang Qiu sneered in his heart.

Before long...

Under the guidance of Fang Qiu...

First Venerable and Iryens got to a place where three peaks met. Each of the three peaks was covered with thick snow.

“Do you think you can catch up with me at such speed?”

Arriving at the intersection of the three peaks, Fang Qiu turned his head and shouted sarcastically at First Venerable and Iryens.

Hearing such words...

First Venerable and Iryens were instantly enraged.

“Stop right there if you have the guts!”

“Do you only know how to run away?”

They shouted angrily.

As a result...

As soon as their voice spread...

“Bang!”

A violent shaking suddenly sounded.

First Venerable and Iryens looked up.

Above their heads, at the intersection of the three peaks, thick snow, which had been accumulated for years, suddenly fell from the sky as their voices sounded.

It brought along the snow covers on the slopes on both sides of the mountain to rush down wildly like a tide.

First Venerable and Iryens changed their expressions dramatically.

They realized that they fell into the trap set by Fang Qiu. However, the avalanche occurred too suddenly.

They didn't even have time to react.

The terrifying snow waves hit them instantly, rolled them up, and wildly rushed toward the foot of the snow mountain.

They were both very powerful.

However, when they encountered such a situation, they were a little caught off guard.

They had to control their internal Qi to protect themselves from injury and roll to the foot of the mountain with the avalanche.

The mountain was too high.

When they rolled all the way down...

They had been spinning their head.

"Rumble..."

The muffled thunder caused by the avalanche echoed in the mountains.

Overhead...

Fang Qium had dodged early. Looking at First Venerable and Iryens who were rolled into the avalanche, he couldn't help laughing.

Of course...

Fang Qiu knew that the avalanche would hurt First Venerable and Iryens, but they wouldn't get hurt badly.

However...

Fang Qiu had no intention of running away.

Anyway, his life was not in danger. No matter what, Fang Qiu had to find a way to get rid of First Venerable and Iryens. If they were alive, there would be endless troubles in the future.

Ten minutes later...

The rumbling thunder finally faded away.

And the avalanche stopped.

Fang Qiu took a closer look.

At the foot of the mountain where the three snow mountains intersected, it had been piled up a blanket of snow at least ten meters deep. The surface of the snowfield was extremely smooth.

As the avalanche stopped, the world fell into a dead silence.

After a little while-

“Bang!”

Two violent auras of energy suddenly burst out from the snowfield at the foot of the mountain.

First Venerable and Iryens broke out of the snow and rushed straight up in the high air, aiming at Fang Qiu in rage.

Just then...

“Crack!”

There was a loud sound.

The ice cover on one of the mountains, which had just collapsed, suddenly burst crushing, revealing a huge crack on the mountain.

Surprisingly...

The crack led to the other side.

“Swoosh.”

Fang Qiu rushed out without hesitation.

It was because he distinctly felt an unusual energy fluctuation coming from the crack when the ice cover burst.

There was something over there.

Moreover, based on what Fang Qiu had sensed from the unusual energy fluctuation, it was very likely that there were Heaven Treasures in the space behind the crack.

Chapter 1678 The Fifth-Ranked Heaven Treasure

First Venerable and Iryens also noticed it.

They stopped right away and looked at each other. Then they immediately went to the crack and burrowed through it.

In the space behind the crack...

Fang Qiu, who was the first to pass through the crack, suddenly stopped in mid-air.

A beam of cyan light shone on his body from under his feet. Like a piece of jade, the cyan light was particularly eye-catching and beautiful.

At this point...

In Fang Qiu's sight...

It appeared a huge crack.

It was a different space.

After passing through the crack covered with ice and snow on the surface of the mountain, Fang Qiu got to another area. Below it, where there was no snowfield, but a huge crack, which looked like the cracked crust itself forming a wide staring eye of an ancient giant.

There was no ice or snow.

There were only dark rocks that looked like coral reefs.

In the huge crack, a lotus, which was cyan in its entire body, was budding.

The cyan light shining on Fang Qiu was released by this lotus.

Fang Qiu was stunned.

Even First Venerable and Iryens, who closely caught up with Fang Qiu, were stunned in place upon seeing this lotus. Then, they instantly distanced themselves from each other.

“Candle Wick Cyan Lotus!

“It really is the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus!”

First Venerable looked at the lotus in the crack in shock.

None of them had expected this.

On the Hemalaya Mountain...

They would have encountered the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus.

This was the fifth-ranked Heaven Treasure on the Heaven Treasure List.

What was Candle Wick Cyan Lotus?

It was ranked fifth on the Heaven Treasure List.

It was a pure Yang Heaven Treasure with its entire body in cyan. It looked emerald, touched warm, and tasted crispy. It was a sort of pure Yang Heaven Treasure with enormous energy.

When it was ripe, the heart of the lotus seed looked like a candle wick, hence its name.

How could the pure Yang Heaven Treasure grow on the snow mountain?

They were all very surprised.

No wonder there was no snow in this huge crack, and not even an icicle.

With the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus here, all ice and snow had been evaporated.

At this very moment...

They all fixed their eyes on the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus. No one dared to act rashly.

Perhaps the Nirvana Organization was not short of Heaven Treasure, since they could even use the Heaven Treasure to set up a trap to kill people. However, this was not an average Heaven Treasure but the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus, which was ranked fifth on the Heaven Treasure List.

Even the high-ups of the Nirvana Organization saw it, they would be attracted in an instant.

A Heaven Treasure at such a high grade...

It was absolutely the best thing in the world.

Fang Qiu made up his mind not to let his enemy get it, even if he couldn't obtain it.

Looking at the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus...

Fang Qiu noticed that the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus had not ripened yet. Every time the lotus became one-tenth riper, a layer of its leaves would extend out. Right now, there seemed to be two layers of lotus leaves that had not yet extended out.

It seemed that...

It shouldn't be long before it ripened.

"It seems that we're quite lucky."

Fang Qiu looked at First Venerable and Iryens opposite of him and said, "I didn't expect to meet such a rare thing like Candle Wick Cyan Lotus. This is the top-notch pure Yang Heaven Treasure ranked fifth on the Heaven Treasure List. Even for you and me, it is of great help and improvement. How would you like to divide it?"

As soon as Fang Qiu finished speaking...

First Venerable and Iryens looked at each other. First Venerable's expression was indifferent, but Iryens' brows instantly burrowed tightly.

According to their previous performances...

Among the three people present, without a doubt, First Venerable was the strongest. John Doe was next to the strongest, and Iryens was the weakest.

In this case...

The only way for Iryens to get the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus was to join hands with John Doe!

Iryens couldn't wait to kill John Doe. However, in contrast to the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus, his desire to kill John Doe was not as strong as that to get the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus.

After all...

It was extremely difficult to encounter a rare thing like the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus in one's entire life.

How lucky he was to encounter it!

So Iryens would not give up the chance, no matter what.

As for John Doe, he was right there.

Iryens thought that he could think of a way to kill John Doe at any time.

However, once he missed the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus, there wouldn't be a second chance.

With this in mind...

Iryens glanced at First Venerable warily and then said to Fang Qiu, "I can put aside my hatred for now and join forces with you to deal with him. After getting the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus, I want half of it!"

Fang Qiu smiled indifferently.

Fang Qiu had guessed that Iryens would take the initiative to join forces with him to deal with First Venerable.

Wasn't this exactly what Murican was good at?

"Okay."

Fang Qiu didn't decline but nodded in agreement.

Iryens immediately moved a little closer to Fang Qiu cautiously.

Iryens was very clear about one thing.

If First Venerable wanted to target him, it would be hard for him to hold on.

But...

Iryens had watched the battle between John Doe and First Venerable. Although John Doe was somewhat suppressed by First Venerable, as long as he joined in, he and John Doe could completely fight against First Venerable head-on.

"Do you really think it's feasible?"

Hearing what Iryens said, First Venerable sneered and said to Iryens, "Even if you team up with him to defeat me, I am sure he will kill you the next moment. Do you think that he will give half of the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus to you and then let you go back to Murica?"

Hearing that...

Iryens immediately glanced at John Doe warily.

Iryens, who had just approached John Doe, quickly distanced himself a little from John Doe. Then he came to a position, keeping the same distance to John Doe and First Venerable. Now, they three formed an equilateral triangle, surrounding the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus in the huge crack below.

"If you join hands with him, he will also kill you."

Fang Qiu said indifferently, "Moreover, he can kill you more easily than I do."

Iryens' face became gloomy and turned pale.

It seemed that his existence was very important to both John Doe and First Venerable. However, being in this position, Iryens knew very well that he was like a ball, at the mercy of John Doe and First Venerable.

Such a situation frustrated Iryens.

Iryens knew it himself.

Trusting either of them was not a good thing.

"I've promised to join forces with you, haven't I?"

Looking at Iryens who was in a dilemma, First Venerable said, "Besides, I saved your life just now. If I hadn't wanted to join forces with you sincerely, why wouldn't I have let him kill you, and then I would have killed him? Why would I have bothered to save your life to go against me?"

Upon hearing this...

Iryens thought it seemed to make sense.

"In addition..."

First Venerable continued, "I know that Murica is eager to cooperate with our Nirvana Organization. If the cooperation of Murica is sincere, then I can give you the whole Candle Wick Cyan Lotus as a kind gift from our Nirvana Organization."

Hearing First Venerable's promise...

Iryens was instantly attracted.

He thought, "What First Venerable said is true. He did save my life just now.

"And the key point is...

"First Venerable is willing to give me the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus as a gift. Anyway, it's worth a try."

"Attack!"

Seeing Iryens in hesitation, First Venerable shouted in a deep voice. He took the lead to fly out and rushed toward John Doe.

Iryens gritted his teeth and immediately joined First Venerable to attack John Doe.

Meanwhile...

"Damn! You are falling out so quickly."

Fang Qiu cursed angrily and waved the long sword in his hand, immediately confronting First Venerable and Iryens who were attacking him fiercely.

Fang Qiu knew that he had no choice but to take it head-on.

This place was not wide, so it was easy to be pushed into a dead end if he tried to dodge. By then, he would not even have a chance to fight back.

Of course...

Fang Qiu had no intention of running away.

Firstly, Fang Qiu would not let First Venerable get the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus, for he didn't want to see the Nirvana Organization grow stronger again.

Secondly, since Fang Qiu came to this place that was above the huge crack, he had sensed a very strong aura hidden under the crack.

Fang Qiu guessed it.

This aura was supposed to be emitting from the guardian beast of the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus.

Moreover, judging from the growth of the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus, it was about to ripen. Once it ripened, the guardian beast would appear on time.

By then, it would not be as simple as three people fighting for it.

"Bang, bang, bang..."

The sounds of violent collisions were heard.

First Venerable and Iryens attacked Fang Qiu like crazy.

Fang Qiu wielded his sword and directly displayed the ancient swordsmanship. Numerous Sword Lotuses danced around him, blocking their attacks, and at the same time, he kept moving like a flash.

The ancient swordsmanship could easily resist the enemy's attacks.

However, First Venerable's strength was too powerful.

Even if Fang Qiu could block it, he would be shaken by the huge force. Therefore, Fang Qiu had to retreat while fighting, and constantly changed positions to stall for time.

First Venerable and Iryens seemed to have gone crazy.

The more they fought, the more violent they became.

It seemed that they wouldn't stop until they killed John Doe.

Just then...

Suddenly...

"Buzz."

A wave of cyan energy fluctuation rippled out from the huge crack beneath their feet.

At the moment when the energy fluctuation rippled...

Fang Qiu, First Venerable and Iryens were all stunned.

Then they all lowered their heads and looked toward the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus in the crack.

Over there...

The last layer of the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus' leaves extended out.

With the opening of the last layer of lotus leaves, a small candle-like object appeared in the center of the lotus seat.

With a closer look...

The candlewick-like object was glowing golden red like burning flames.

It was emitting an extremely blazing aura.

At a glance...

It was like the flame on a lit candle, giving people a particularly bright and dazzling feeling.

The Candle Wick Cyan Lotus had ripened!

Seeing this scene...

They all instantly forgot that they were fighting against each other.

Especially First Venerable, who immediately flew out and rushed toward the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus quickly. He was going to pick it.

Just then...

“Hoo!”

An angry roar suddenly was heard from the huge crack of the abyss.

They all looked in the direction of the sound.

Over there...

A giant white shadow, looking like a human being, quickly leaped from the deepest part of the abyss crack and climbed up the cliff.

Its movement was extremely fast.

It was like it had encountered silver lightning.

In the blink of an eye, it rushed from the deepest part of the abyss crack to the top. With an incomparably sharp sound of breaking wind, it roared and suddenly jumped up high. Then it jumped down vertically and rushed toward First Venerable with incomparable ferocity.

“As expected, it is here.”

Seeing this, Fang Qiu was overjoyed. He immediately turned to stare at Iryens.

Chapter 1679 Grab the Heaven Treasure and Run!

“ROAR...”

The furious roar sounded and formed layers of sonic waves, spreading out in all directions. At the same time, the snow and icicles on the surrounding mountains were all shattered, falling one after another.

However, when it was falling three to five meters away from the enormous crack, the snow water and icicles all evaporated.

Upon closer inspection, the one letting out a furious roar was a monster.

The gorilla-like monster, with a short layer of white hair on its body, looked particularly like a human. This monster not only could stand upright, but even its eyes, nose, and mouth were very similar to human. However, its teeth were very sharp, especially the four long teeth, which were as sharp as the tips of needles and looked particularly scary.

“Snow monster?”

Seeing this giant monster, Fang Qiu was shocked inwardly.

Previously...

Fang Qiu had seen it in a book of anecdotes. According to the record, someone had seen a two-meter-tall strong-built snow monster in Hemalaya Mountain and even taken a photo of it. Moreover, after verification and testing by the authority, the photo had no problem because it had not been edited at all.

Back then, the country of the discoverer of this bizarre event sent an exploration team to Hemalaya Mountain to look into it. As a result, they spent several months investigating but didn't make any progress at all.

In the end...

That bizarre event came to nothing.

Every time the media mentioned it, they always said that someone was deliberately pretending to be a snow monster to attract attention.

Fang Qiu didn't believe there was a snow monster in the world when he finished reading that anecdote.

But now...

He saw the snow monster with his own eyes.

This snow monster was the same as what was recorded in the book of anecdotes. The only difference was its size. The snow monster in front of him was at least as tall as three people, and its burliness was far beyond his imagination.

At this time...

The angry snow monster roared furiously at First Venerable, who was attempting to pick the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus.

Its fists smashed toward First Venerable with tremendous force.

Apparently, it was out of First Venerable's expectations.

There was actually such a powerful guardian beast in this place. First Venerable was startled by the appearance of this guardian beast. Then he immediately waved the axe tied to his right arm and slammed into the snow monster's fists.

But the next moment...

"Bang!"

A loud collision was heard.

In this collision, First Venerable's axe failed to split the snow monster's fist, and not even cut off the snow monster's fur.

However...

His huge force shook the snow monster back a step, but he was also shaken back a step by the huge force of the snow monster's fists.

It seemed that...

This snow monster's strength was on par with First Venerable's.

Seeing this, Fang Qiu was completely relieved.

The snow monster kept punching First Venerable fiercely and was not willing to stop at all.

On the side...

Iryens' face gradually turned pale.

Especially when he saw Fang Qiu turning his head and looking at him with a smile, Iryens' face instantly turned ashen.

"Unfortunately, you chose the wrong side."

Fang Qiu held the long sword in his hand.

Immediately, Fang Qiu burst out strands of furious sword Qi around him.

In the meantime...

"Great Hand of Nihilicity!"

Fang Qiu threw a punch in the air.

In an instant, he took control of the area within ten kilometers. Then, Fang Qiu didn't disturb the battle between the snow monster and First Venerable. Instead, he rushed straight toward Iryens fiercely. While waving the long sword in his hand and preparing to attack, Fang Qiu secretly controlled the Qi of Heaven and Earth around Iryens and instantly pushed out all the Qi, forming a vacuum of about three meters around Iryens to completely envelop him.

“Wind Blade!”

In the face of John Doe who was rushing over, Iryens quickly waved his hand with a gloomy face, ready to fight hard with John Doe.

However...

When he was about to attack, he realized that there was no Qi of Heaven and Earth around him at all. He couldn't absorb the Qi of Heaven and Earth to attack at all, so he had to use the Qi of Heaven and Earth in his body.

This sort of situation caused his expression to change dramatically.

But at this time...

John Doe had already attacked in front of Iryens. The incomparably sharp long sword, with several streaks of sharp energy sword Qi, stabbed straight at Iryens' chest.

“Storm Slash!”

Shocked, Iryens waved his hands in front of his chest and activated all the energy in his body to burst out. All the energy gathered in front of him and turned into a madly rotating blade-like storm, shooting toward Fang Qiu with an ear-piercing sharp aura.

The next moment...

“Boom!”

There was a loud sound.

The long sword in Fang Qiu's hand collided fiercely with the Storm Slash launched by Iryens, causing a huge explosion in midair.

Terrifying energy fluctuations shot out in all directions with sharp thin wind blades.

On the battlefield...

The attack from Fang Qiu was withstood by Iryens.

Iryens suddenly turned around and was about to escape.

However...

Before Iryens could escape, John Doe rushed toward him again with a terrifying impact force.

"Great Hand of Destruction-Forming a Sword!"

Taking advantage of the time when Iryens had no energy supply, Fang Qiu quickly launched a powerful attack.

Fang Qiu knew very well.

Iryens was just the weakest point.

Fang Qiu had to kill Iryens as soon as possible to ensure that he would not be at a disadvantage in the upcoming battle.

Most importantly, he couldn't waste too much energy on Iryens.

Next, he would have to fight First Venerable and even the snow monster.

Fang Qiu would never let First Venerable get the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus, nor would he let the snow monster eat such a precious Heaven Treasure. Therefore, Fang Qiu had to reserve a certain amount of power to fight over the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus.

In this case, he had no choice but to use the quickest method to kill Iryens in the shortest time.

Thus...

He used the Great Hand of Nihility directly.

“Hurricane Hammer!”

The moment Fang Qiu displayed the Great Hand of Destruction-Forming a Sword, Iryens gritted his teeth to release all the energy in his body to keep his life.

The next moment...

“Whoosh, whoosh, whoosh...”

The terrifying gale directly condensed into a hurricane eye in front of Iryens. The violent and sharp hurricane power condensed into a big hammer in the air above the hurricane eye.

As the hurricane grew, the hammer kept getting bigger.

In just three minutes...

The Hurricane Hammer grew to a height of seven or eight meters, emitting waves of terrifying energy fluctuations in the high air.

Then...

Under Iryens' control, it smashed down fiercely from above.

"Rumble..."

Wherever the huge hammer passed, a burst of muffled thunder sounded in the air.

At the same time...

The long sword in Fang Qiu's hand turned into a huge sword blade and confronted the Hurricane Hammer.

The next moment...

The two energies collided with each other violently.

Instantly, the strong energy fluctuations burst out from the place where the two energies collided and spread out in all directions.

Just then...

"Great Hand of Destruction!"

A cold snort suddenly sounded out.

Iryens saw...

When the energy explosion had not dispersed yet, John Doe directly passed through the energy explosion. The divine sword in his right hand had gone. When he spread out his palm, a very powerful energy Qi was brought out, which straightly hit on Iryens.

“Clap!”

A clear sound was heard.

Before Iryens could even react, his eyes bulged, and he suddenly opened his mouth and spat out a mouthful of blood. His body was instantly sent flying.

The moment he was about to hit the mountain, Iryens clenched his teeth and then suddenly turned around. Holding his breath hard, he fled into the distance.

At the same time...

Fang Qiu stepped into the void.

With a grasp of his left hand, the Qi of Heaven and Earth quickly surged into his right hand and condensed into a long sword. At the same time, the divine sword in his right hand was hung on the bowstring and then pulled to the full extent.

“Whiz!”

A sharp sound breaking through the air was heard.

Wrapped in a layer of golden light, the divine sword shot out at lightning speed in an instant.

The next moment...

Iryens, who was frantically fleeing in panic, suddenly came to a halt in midair.

The divine sword went straight through the back of his neck and completely penetrated it before dissipating in the air.

Iryens couldn't help but flip over and fall from the air.

In the meanwhile...

“ROARRR...”

The snow monster roared wildly. It didn't give in at all and crazily fought First Venerable. After several consecutive fights, First Venerable couldn't bear the snow monster's crazy attacks and was sent flying by a punch.

First Venerable began to panic.

He had never expected the strength of the guardian beast to be so amazing.

However...

When he was sent flying...

The snow monster jumped to the place where the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus was. It threw its palm to grab the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus and uprooted it.

Then it opened its mouth and was about to eat the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus.

In the distance...

Fang Qiu, who had just killed Iryens, turned his head. When he saw this scene, it was too late. His heart skipped a beat.

When First Venerable, who was not far from the snow monster, saw this scene, his expression instantly changed greatly.

First Venerable immediately waved the axe in his right hand.

He slashed the axe from the high air.

A black axe blade of energy immediately shot out and landed on the snow monster's mouth, hitting its head to the side and preventing it from swallowing the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus.

Upon closer inspection, a large portion of the snow monster's white hair was cut off by First Venerable.

The snow monster was in a daze by the huge force.

Just then...

"Swoosh!" Fang Qiu moved.

Fang Qiu rushed up to the snow monster at his highest speed. With a wave of his right hand, a beam of golden sword Qi slashed out and cut into the snow monster's fist that was holding the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus tightly. In an instant, it cut a bloody wound into the snow monster's fist.

"ROAR..."

The snow monster suddenly exclaimed.

Its tightly clenched fists were loosened at once.

The next moment, Fang Qiu didn't dare to hesitate at all. He immediately reached out and grabbed the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus in the snow monster's hand. Without a word, he turned around and ran away.

Chapter 1680 Causing Avalanches Again!

In an instant, Fang Qiu snatched the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus from the snow monster's hand.

Then, Fang Qiu immediately burst out all his strength, rushing toward the snow mountain on the other side of the crack like crazy.

He had observed it carefully.

It was a group of snow mountains over there.

The terrain was very steep, and the snowy peak forest was the best escape route.

Now...

Iryens was dead.

Only First Venerable remained of his opponent.

After snatching the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus, Fang Qiu was no longer in the mood to fight First Venerable. His first priority was to keep the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus safe. Then he would find an opportunity to kill First Venerable.

"ROAR..."

The snow monster roared at the sky and then lowered its head to look at the wound on its hand and noticed that nothing was in its palm. It didn't realize that the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus had been taken away until then. Suddenly, the snow monster turned its head to take a glance at First Venerable, but it didn't sense any energy aura of the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus on First Venerable. Then it suddenly turned to look at Fang Qiu, who was fleeing.

As a result...

It didn't feel any aura of the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus on Fang Qiu either.

The snow monster couldn't find the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus, so it instantly flew into a rage, and its eyes immediately turned bloody red.

On the side...

First Venerable had witnessed John Doe snatch the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus away, so he became anxious. Immediately, he chased after John Doe quickly like crazy.

First Venerable didn't expect at all that John Doe could kill Iryens in such a short time and take away the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus when he interrupted the snow monster.

Initially...

First Venerable kept Iryens alive to contain John Doe and then find a chance to kill John Doe. However, he didn't expect to encounter the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus in this place.

In First Venerable's eyes, the importance of the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus was definitely greater than that of Iryens.

Therefore...

First Venerable didn't intend to give the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus to Iryens at all. Instead, he made use of Iryens to keep John Doe at bay so that he could get the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus safely.

As it turned out, a powerful guardian beast, the snow monster appeared through halfway.

The snow monster completely disrupted his plan.

After fighting with the snow monster for a long time, First Venerable found that he had worked so hard to get everything done for John Doe. John Doe not only found a chance to kill his helper, but he also seize the chance to snatch away the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus that belonged to First Venerable.

"Stop right there, John Doe!" First Venerable shouted angrily to the sky.

Then he moved and burst out a wave of huge energy from his body. Like a bullet shot out of a gun, First Venerable chased after John Doe at lightning speed.

Ahead of First Venerable...

Fang Qiu turned his head and took a look.

The snow monster was looking for the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus in great anger. At this moment, it saw the thing in Fang Qiu's hand, the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus.

"ROAR..."

The snow monster roared at Fang Qiu with a very powerful sound wave. It suddenly jumped forward, moved its hands and feet at the same time, and chased after Fang Qiu fiercely like crazy.

"Oh No!"

Fang Qiu was quite taken aback.

Fang Qiu really didn't expect that the snow monster and First Venerable would discover it in such a short time and be so angry.

In a furious situation...

The snow monsters and First Venerable ran extremely fast.

Fang Qiu could maintain his speed to escape, but First Venerable and the snow monster behind him were already ready to attack him.

"Whiz!"

First Venerable madly wielded the axe that was tied to his right arm. It burst out very sharp blades and instantly rushed to the back of Fang Qiu.

On the other side...

In the fierce pursuit, the snow monster grabbed a boulder out of the crack below and threw it at Fang Qiu fiercely.

With a closer look, it appeared a scorched area on the boulder that had been grabbed by the snow monster. It looked like it had been burned. With particularly blazing energy, it melted all the snow and icicles wherever it passed and smashed toward the back of Fang Qiu.

There was a bit of distance between the boulder and Fang Qiu, so Fang Qiu quickly dodged.

But the two pursuers didn't have the intent to stop at all.

The blades of the axe and the big rocks constantly smashed toward Fang Qiu fiercely like rain.

“If this goes on, I’ll be slowed down even if I’m not hit, and they’ll catch up soon!”

While dodging the fierce attacks from the snow monster and First Venerable behind him, Fang Qiu raised his eyebrows to look for a way to crack it.

After a little while...

Fang Qiu shifted his eyes to the large group of snow-capped peaks in ahead of him again.

“It seems that I have to do it again.”

Fang Qiu noticed that most of these snow-capped peaks were connected together, for there was too much snow and they belonged to the same mountain range.

In other words...

Once an avalanche occurred in this place...

It must cause more avalanches.

By then, Not only the two pursuers behind but also Fang Qiu himself would be rolled into the avalanches.

“I can’t care so much.”

Fang Qiu made up his mind.

Fang Qiu looked back at First Venerable and the snow monster behind him. Right after making sure that both of them had entered the range of the avalanches, Fang Qiu opened his mouth and roared to the sky.

“Roar!”

A loud roar echoed in the snow mountains.

As he ran the internal Qi and let out the roar, a layer of sound wave energy quickly rippled out from Fang Qiu’s mouth in all directions.

Behind Fang Qiu...

Hearing Fang Qiu’s roar, the snow monster seemed to think that Fang Qiu was provoking it, so it immediately threw its head back and roared furiously.

The two roars to the sky spread out.

Around them...

“Boom...”

Under the vibration of the sound wave, the snow on the top of the snow mountain in all directions immediately rolled down wildly.

For a moment...

Waves of snow crashed down from all directions.

When First Venerable saw this scene, his expression changed greatly.

John Doe was so shameless that he caused avalanches again and again. First Venerable was so angry that he wanted to curse.

To his dismay...

Before First Venerable could curse...

The surging snow waves had rushed over, with a huge irresistible force, rolling First Venerable completely into the avalanche.

Next to First Venerable...

The giant snow monster couldn't withstand the impact of the snow waves at all. It struggled crazily, but it was impacted to the ground by the terrifying snow waves. Then, it rolled over with the snow and fell into the cracks below.

However...

The crack was too large.

When the snow monster and First Venerable were wrapped in the snow waves, they quickly grabbed the rock walls on both sides of the huge crack below and hung themselves on the crack, preventing them from falling.

On the other side...

Fang Qiu had escaped early, so he was already outside the huge crack of the abyss when he was rolled into the avalanche.

"Rustle, rustle, rustle..."

Fang Qiu heard the horrible sound of snow flowing.

The moment he was swept up by the avalanche...

Fang Qiu immediately activated his internal Qi and forcibly condensed an energy shield around him. Afterward, under the protection of the energy shield, he was swept up by the snow and rolled down wildly.

Fang Qiu was startled by the power of the avalanche. It was too terrible! Under the horrible impact, he kept rolling, and his mind was in a daze.

After some time...

Fang Qiu finally stabilized his body.

“Clack!”

A clear sound was heard.

All of a sudden, cracks appeared on the energy shield protecting Fang Qiu, and it was about to shatter.

Fang Qiu quickly activated his internal Qi to repair the energy shield.

Then he took a look.

He found that he was in an upside-down state and was buried in an unknown depth.

“Divine Consciousness!”

Fang Qiu immediately activated his Divine Consciousness to detect.

As it turned out, he found that about 15 meters above him, there were two domineering energy auras. When Fang Qiu concentrated on it, he saw First Venerable and the snow monster digging up the snow violently, trying to dig themselves out.

“Damn it!”

Fang Qiu cursed angrily. To his surprise, First Venerable and the snow monster were not buried by the avalanches. Instead, they even saw the place where Fang Qiu was engulfed.

Fang Qiu had planned to hide in the avalanche and use the method of hiding his aura to disappear from their senses. Then, he would find a place in the snow to leave first. After hiding the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus, he would come back to deal with First Venerable.

But right now, this plan did not succeed.

At this speed, First Venerable and the snow monster could probably dig their way here within a few minutes.

“I’ll eat it!”

Fang Qiu gritted his teeth and looked at the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus in his hand. Then he put it into his mouth and swallowed it.

The recultivation had ended, and he did not need the Heaven Treasure so urgently. However, Fang Qiu was very clear that the Heaven Treasure could help improve his strength.

It might result in the opposite of what he wished, but right now, he had no other option but to eat the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus.

If First Venerable were alone, Fang Qiu would have kept the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus.

But the snow monster was also present.

Therefore, Fang Qiu had to eat the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus Core. If not, the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus would be a burden, causing trouble for him to escape.

Now, Fang Qiu couldn't care less.

He swallowed the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus.

Closed his eyes, Fang Qiu stored all the energy transformed by the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus in his Dantian.

Then, he moved out a small part of it. While recovering his physical functions, he was also constantly recovering his internal Qi.

Of course...

When Fang Qiu recovered his internal Qi, he didn't use the energy transformed by the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus. Such energy was quite so rare that it would be a big waste to use it to recover his internal Qi.

When Fang Qiu controlled all the energy transformed by the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus in his Dantian...

"Splash!"

Even with his eyes closed, Fang Qiu could feel a strong light shining on him suddenly.

Beyond doubt...

First Venerable and the snow monster must have dug up the snow that had buried them.

An idea popped up in Fang Qiu's mind.

Fang Qiu reached out and grabbed a handful of snow.

The moment First Venerable and the snow monster shattered Fang Qiu's energy shield, Fang Qiu abruptly splashed the snow in his hand toward the eyes of First Venerable and the snow monster.

Obviously, First Venerable and the snow monster did not expect that John Doe, who was standing upside down, would suddenly launch an attack.

So they were caught off guard.

As a result, First Venerable's and the snow monster's eyes were covered with some snow.

Just then...

"Great Hand of Destruction!"

With a loud shout, Fang Qiu fiercely slapped First Venerable on the chest.

This slap was so hard that First Venerable spat out blood. Following that, Fang Qiu immediately rushed out of the snowfield and continued to flee ahead like crazy.
