Chapter 1681 Using the Underground River to Escape

In a flash...

Fang Qiu ran dozens of meters away.

The snow monster wiped away the snow before its eyes and roared angrily at Fang Qiu. Then it moved quickly to catch up with Fang Qiu and jumped behind Fang Qiu with just one step. The snow monster tried to grab Fang Qiu, but as soon as its palm fell, Fang Qiu already rushed out another dozens of meters.

In this way, the snow monster kept jumping and tried to catch Fang Qiu.

Behind Fang Qiu...

“John Doe, go to hell!”

First Venerable yelled furiously.

When First Venerable was slapped away, he couldn’t help spitting out a mouthful of blood. It was obvious that he was injured.

But even so...

First Venerable still burst out all his strength in a rage to chase after Fang Qiu crazily.

This was the third time that First Venerable got the short end with John Doe. He had been tricked by John Doe using the avalanche twice in a row earlier, and now, he was injured by a sneak attack from John Doe, which made him even angrier with John Doe.

Ahead of Fang Qiu...

“Can’t you stop chasing?”

Seeing the snow monster keep chasing him crazily, Fang Qiu raised his eyebrows.

Fang Qiu had thought that as long as he ate the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus, the snow monster could not sense it and would naturally give up. Unexpectedly, the snow monster caught up with him, even though he had eaten the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus.

Fang Qiu was quite depressed about this situation.

In fact...

After eating the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus, the urgent thing Fang Qiu needed to do was to get rid of the snow monster and make a chance for himself to fight with First Venerable alone. He needed to find a chance to kill First Venerable, who was a great threat to the Huaxianese people.

In a one-on-one fight, Fang Qiu was not afraid of First Venerable at all.

With the snow monster around, there was no telling what would happen if a fight broke out.

Not to mention that...

This snow monster was terrifyingly powerful.

The key point was that the snow monster knew that Fang Qiu had swallowed the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus, so Fang Qiu became its only target.

In this case...

It was a must for Fang Qiu to shake off the snow monster.

“How to shake off it?”

Fang Qiu began to ponder carefully.

Just then...

Behind Fang Qiu, a terrifying huge energy axe blade suddenly shot over from a distance.

First Venerable had caught up as well.

Fang Qiu murmured inwardly, “How can I shake off the snow monster?”

“It’s not workable to rely on speed. This guy’s speed is as fast as mine. And judging from its current state, even if I run out of Hemalaya Mountain, it will chase me angrily for sure. Once it goes to the ordinary people’s world, it will cause panic and may even hurt many ordinary people.”

Fang Qiu immediately shook his head and gave up the idea of escaping from Hemalaya Mountain.

Since he couldn’t escape from Hemalaya Mountain and the linked snow mountain highlands were so wide, what should Fang Qiu do to shake off the snow monster?

“Its body size?”

In an instant, Fang Qiu focused on the huge body of the snow monster.

“In such an open terrain, the body size of the snow monster did not seem to affect its movements.

“But, what if it is underground?”

A bright idea occurred to Fang Qiu.

And Fang Qiu’s eyes lit up.

“Yeah, lead this guy underground!”

Fang Qiu thought of the huge crack in the abyss where the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus grew.

Since a crack in the abyss was found there, there must be a lot of cracks under this huge mountain range.

Although it snowed all year round, there must be a lot of water in the snow mountains.

So...

In this case...

Where would the water on the snow mountain flow to?

Surely, it would flow into the mountain cracks, and once a large amount of water melted by ice and snow surged into the cracks, it would form rushing streams.

With these rushing streams, there was a high chance that an underground river would form in the mountain cracks.

In the snow mountain...

Probably, only the mountain cracks and the underground river could stop the snow monster.

No matter how powerful the snow monster was, it couldn't possibly break open the entire mountain with brute strength, could it?

"That's right. Find an underground crack.

"The previous crack in the underground area is too big. The snow monster has been living there all year round, so it must be very familiar with the inside. So I can't go to that area. Instead, I'll have to continue to go forward and see if there is a more suitable place."

Fang Qiu schemed in his mind.

As he moved forward quickly, Fang Qiu observed the surroundings carefully.

In the current place...

Just like those places he had seen before, there were many peaks.

But it was different. although there were many mountains here, they were not as dense as the previous ones. In this case, even if it caused an avalanche, the force would be much less powerful.

In contrast...

The mountain was relatively wide, and they did not mutually compress, the possibility of large cracks appearing would be very small, and the number of small cracks would increase.

Judging from this point...

This area would be a very suitable place to get rid of the snow monster.

“Wind. Find the wind!”

Fang Qiu not only observed carefully but also began to be concentrated to hear.

On the snow mountain, it was covered with snow deeply.

The only way to find the underground crack where Fang Qiu could get rid of the snow monster was to listen to the wind.

It was because the snow mountain was very high.

The higher a place was, the stronger the wind blew.

The sound of the wind spreading from the hole in the mountain must be different from the wind outside.

In that case...

To find the underground crack, Fang Qiu had to listen to the wind.

It was nothing wrong to go by following the sound of the wind.

Of course...

While looking for the underground crack, Fang Qiu didn't slow down at all. Moreover, he had to keep dodging the attacks of First Venerable behind him.

Under such a situation...

Fang Qiu kept running for dozens of kilometers before he finally heard the conch-like rustling.

“There it is.”

Hearing the sound, Fang Qiu immediately turned around and rushed over quickly.

Behind him...

The snow monster continued chasing Fang Qiu furiously, keeping a distance within 100 meters from him. First Venerable, who was behind the snow monster, was also exerting his strength crazily. He disturbed Fang Qiu by using his attacks while catching up with Fang Qiu gradually.

“Swoosh...”

Following the sound of the wind, Fang Qiu rushed straight to an area between the two snow-capped peaks. Before he got close, he waved his right hand.

A wave of energy storm suddenly flew out of his hand, instantly blowing away the snow ahead, where the wind came from.

As expected...

A long and narrow underground crack filled with thick ice cover appeared before Fang Qiu.

Fang Qiu activated his internal Qi immediately.

As the internal Qi burst out of his body, it quickly hit the ice cover that sealed the underground crack.

The ice cover was very thick.

But it was just ordinary ice after all.

Under the impact of the huge force brought by Fang Qiu, the ice cover was smashed. Fang Qiu burrowed into the narrow underground crack with a swoosh.

He looked down.

Surprisingly...

Below the crack, it was getting narrower and narrower. The opening of the crack was only enough for one person to pass. In the place about 10 meters down, it was hard to even fit sideways.

Fang Qiu dropped down about five meters quickly, keeping the freedom of his body unrestricted.

Just then...

“Bang!”

There was a loud sound.

The snow monster jumped onto the crack. Looking at Fang Qiu who had jumped into the crack, it suddenly roared. Then it waved its hand violently, trying to grab Fang Qiu out of the crack.

Although the snow monster had a giant size and sturdy arms, the width of the underground crack was bigger than that of his arm.

Fortunately...

The snow monster was nearly six meters tall, but its arm was only about three meters long. It was no threat to Fang Qiu who had dropped down about five meters.

“ROARRR...”

The snow monster roared wildly. It leaned to one side, trying hard to stuff itself into the underground crack. It even crushed the ground on both sides of the crack, but it couldn't get in.

Behind the snow monster...

First Venerable, who followed them closely behind, immediately brandished the axe in his hand and split the ice in the underground crack ahead of the snow monster. Then, he quickly rushed in and continued to chase Fang Qiu, who had already flown forward.

“ROARRR...”

Watching Fang Qiu and First Venerable fly farther and farther away, the snow monster became more and more anxious. Its roar was getting louder and louder. In the crazy roar, it retracted its hand from the underground crack. Then it clenched its fists, raised them high, and smashed down fiercely.

It seemed that it didn't feel the pain.

The snow monster crazily swung its fists and smashed the cracks, one punch after another, shaking the mountains and the earth.

As a result...

Under the violent smashes...

This narrow crack was blocked by the big rocks smashed by the snow monster. The more the snow monster smashed, the tighter it blocked. The more it was blocked, the less it could get in, and the angrier the snow monster became.

“ROAR!!!”

The earth-shattering roar shook the entire Hemalaya Mountain, causing avalanches of varying degrees in several places.

In the underground crack...

After flying out for dozens of meters, Fang Qiu saw the water flow at the end of the crack ahead of him.

“Underground river?”

Fang Qiu was a little excited.

He immediately rushed forward and dived into the underground river.

Behind him, First Venerable, who was coming in close pursuit, also followed Fang Qiu to dive into the underground river, continuing his pursuit.

In the underground river...

The river water was extremely cold.

Fang Qiu paced forward quickly along the water flow.

It was unknown how far he had walked.

A hint of hazy light finally appeared in front of Fang Qiu.

It was a gap.

It was similar to the opening of the underground crack.

Just like the entrance, it was also sealed in a thick ice cover.

Without hesitation...

Fang Qiu broke out of the ice directly.

“Crack, crack, crack...”

With the constant sounds of breaking ice, Fang Qiu rushed out of the underground river and came to a vast snowfield.

Glancing to the left and the right, Fang Qiu was sure that this was an empty area, which was quite far away from the snow monster. Then, he stopped immediately.

A while later...

“Whoosh!”

A sound of splashing water was heard.

First Venerable flew out from the underground river and rushed over.

When First Venerable was about to turn his head and look around for John Doe, he found that John Doe was standing right in front of him, staring at him.

“Not escaping anymore?”

Looking at Fang Qiu, First Venerable sneered. He narrowed his eyes to stare at Fang Qiu and acted like he was ready to fight at any time.

“Escape?”

In the face of First Venerable’s questioning, Fang Qiu sneered and said, “Since I could kill Lord Virtuous, Crowning Lord, and those Venerables, of course, I can also kill you!”

“Who do you think you are?”

First Venerable immediately laughed disdainfully as if he had heard something ridiculous.

“Not to mention now, even if I’m injured, I can kill you.”

Fang Qiu said indifferently, “The reason why I didn’t stop to fight with you just now was that there was a Murican distracting me. Now that I have already swallowed the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus, do you think you can escape?”

Chapter 1682 Fang Qiu Versus First Venerable

On the snowfield...

Fang Qiu stared coldly at First Venerable.

“Humph!”

First Venerable was staring at Fang Qiu, too. Then, he squinted at Fang Qiu with disdain and said, “You have such strength at such a young age, and you have killed so many members of our Nirvana Organization. Well, I have to admit that your talent and strength are really amazing. But do you think you can confront me with your current strength?”

“Why don’t you give it a try?”

Fang Qiu said with a cold face, “You crowd of people cruelly killed ordinary people and humiliated Huaxia. You all deserve to die!”

With that...

Fang Qiu waved his right hand.

The divine sword was immediately condensed in his hand. Then an extremely violent Qi power burst out of Fang Qiu’s body, and a stream of unparalleled internal Qi rushed into the divine sword in Fang Qiu’s hand.

In a breath’s time...

An extremely sharp Sword Intent immediately burst out from the divine sword.

First Venerable’s eyes narrowed.

He took a closer look.

And he saw a touch of golden light on the long sword in John Doe’s hand.

The energy aura emitted by the touch of golden light gave him a faint sense of crisis.

First Venerable was staring at Fang Qiu’s long sword.

Just then, Fang Qiu waved the long sword in his hand without a word.

“Whiz!”

The sound of the sword rang out.

“Three-point Shadowless!”

Fang Qiu shouted.

Fang Qiu hadn’t used this move for a long time, but as his strength improved, the power of this move also got improved a lot.

Now, it was good to use it to warm up though.

As Fang Qiu shouted, three beams of dazzling light immediately burst out on the long sword in his hand, like the silver moon.

Almost at the same time, three beams of silver light instantly merged into one and condensed into an extremely sharp sword light, shooting straight at First Venerable fiercely.

As soon as the silver sword light burst out, First Venerable waved his hand and fought back with his axe.

“Boom!”

A loud explosion sounded.

First Venerable’s body trembled violently, and Fang Qiu couldn’t help but shudder.

When the two forces collided, a terrifying energy Qi burst out and fluctuated out in all directions.

Then...

First Venerable sneered disdainfully and said sarcastically, "Kill me? Is that all strength you've got? If so, you'd better lose your life here obediently!"

As First Venerable talked...

His right hand, which was wrapped in root-like energy, suddenly felt as if something had surged into it. His whole arm immediately swelled and instantly doubled in size.

Then...

"Swoosh."

A sharp wind-breaking sound was heard.

First Venerable's axe in his hand drove a phantom and instantly slashed at Fang Qiu at the speed of lightning.

Fang Qiu moved like a flash and retreated backward.

"Humph, let's see where you can run to!"

After failing to hit Fang Qiu, First Venerable sneered and tapped the snowfield with his tiptoes. His whole body immediately shot out and rushed madly toward Fang Qiu.

The killing intent in his cold eyes soared.

Seeing First Venerable rushing over, Fang Qiu put on a straight face. In an instant, a layer of dazzling golden light burst out from the divine sword in his hand.

Then, Fang Qiu swung his arm.

And he went straight to fight back First Venerable.

On the divine sword, the golden internal Qi covered the edge of the sword blade. With a Qi power that felt very light but could penetrate everything, it collided fiercely with the huge axe in First Venerable's hand.

Previously, Fang Qiu had used his spiritual force and detected that First Venerable's axe was completely condensed from energy.

Under such a situation...

Fang Qiu wanted to have a test. The golden internal Qi, which had always been all-conquering, could penetrate everything, so he'd like to see if it could cut off First Venerable's axe condensed from energy.

If the axe could be cut off, it would definitely cause great damage to First Venerable. After all, the energy of condensing the axe was integrated with his body, just like his arm.

This was what Fang Qiu considered right now.

The divine sword in Fang Qiu's hand, with an extremely sharp energy aura, collided with the axe in First Venerable's hand fiercely.

The next moment...

It was visible to the naked eye.

The golden light on the divine sword suddenly twinkled, and just like half of the candle had been melted, it really cut into the axe in First Venerable's hand.

It ripped an opening right through it!

But...

It didn't cut off First Venerable's damaged axe.

But even so...

"Ah!"

When the golden sword light slashed into the axe, First Venerable suddenly screamed crazily. As he screamed, he quickly took back the axe.

"Sure enough..."

Fang Qiu narrowed his eyes.

This axe looked very heavy and powerful, but in reality, this axe was First Venerable's weakness.

In the eyes of others, First Venerable had almost no weaknesses.

It was because everyone was afraid of his axe, as well as his incomparably powerful strength.

In such a fear of the mind...

No one could have imagined that the most powerful aspect of First Venerable was his greatest weakness.

Nevertheless...

It seemed that...

Among the experts at the same level, only Fang Qiu could hurt First Venerable's weakness!

It was not so easy for others to attack First Venerable's weakness.

"You... What sort of power is that?"

First Venerable screamed and jumped a step back. He stared at the long sword in Fang Qiu's hand in panic, and his face turned a little gloomy.

"It's the power to kill you!"

Fang Qiu snorted coldly.

Then his left hand slapped out in the air.

It was Great Hand of Nihilism!

Along with a layer of energy fluctuation rippling, the Qi of Heaven and Earth within ten kilometers was instantly controlled by Fang Qiu.

First Venerable rarely absorbed the Qi of Heaven and Earth.

However, it didn't mean that he wouldn't absorb the Qi of Heaven and Earth.

Therefore...

As soon as he controlled the domain, Fang Qiu vacuumed the space within three meters around First Venerable.

Then, Fang Qiu waved the long sword in his right hand.

He immediately rushed toward First Venerable.

First Venerable, who had an annoyed look on his face, instantly looked even worse when he noticed that the Qi of Heaven and Earth around him suddenly disappeared.

He didn't expect it.

John Doe had the ability to control the Qi of Heaven and Earth.

"With this alone, you are not qualified!"

In shock and anger, First Venerable let out a furious roar.

And a trace of madness gradually welled up in his eyes.

Staring at Fang Qiu, First Venerable took a deep breath and raised his right arm. The axe that had been damaged by Fang Qiu instantly transformed into vine-like energy and back into First Venerable's body.

Then, First Venerable raised his left arm again.

A fist-sized black hole immediately emerged from the heart position of his sturdy upper body. Then the vine-like energy...

No, to be exact...

The black energy, which was like the tentacles of an octopus, suddenly stretched out of the black hole. As if it were alive, it quickly climbed up in all directions.

It was climbing to his heart, throat, hands, lower abdomen, and feet.

The energy, which was like an octopus' tentacles, wrapped around his whole body in rapid winding.

Then, another axe was condensed in his hand, but it was much smaller than the previous one.

It seemed that...

First Venerable had used half of his energy to defend his body.

It was obvious that he was ready to fight recklessly with John Doe!

But...

This layer of energy, which was similar to armor, was obviously not enough. When this layer of armor-like energy condensed firmly, a faint cold aura immediately spread out from First Venerable's body and quickly enveloped him all over.

As soon as this aura appeared, the overall Qi power of First Venerable suddenly soared wildly.

"Do you no longer hide the internal Qi stored in your body?"

Fang Qiu sneered.

Even if a master at the peak of the One-flower Core Realm used most of his internal Qi to strengthen his body, there must be a lot of internal Qi in his body.

First Venerable had not activated his internal Qi for such a long time, but he only used the energy that could switch its form.

So, it was most likely that the energy hidden in his body was his trump card.

And now...

His axe was suppressed by Fang Qiu's golden sword Qi, and the Qi of Heaven and Earth around him was isolated by John Doe. Therefore, First Venerable had to show his trump card.

As he played his last trump card...

First Venerable took a deep breath and raised his hands. A layer of blazing black flames suddenly burned on the axe blade in his right hand.

It was visible to the naked eye.

The octopus' tentacle-like thing on First Venerable's body suddenly bulged from his chest.

With a closer look...

Four of the tentacles had bulged to the size of a fist.

Fang Qiu could feel that the four fist-sized bulging areas were full of internal Qi.

The next moment...

Four visible internal Qi balls were formed.

With the four tentacles wrapped around First Venerable's arms as a medium, they suddenly drilled up and fully poured into the axe that was raised over his head.

“Boom...”

Following the pouring in of these energies, the black flame on the axe suddenly soared.

The axe didn't change.

However, the black flame, which had only been burning on the edge of the axe, instantly soared out with the infusion of internal Qi, paving the way to the sky. Then it turned into a black sea of fire above First Venerable's head, rushing straight into the sky.

From a distance...

Shockingly, the sea of fire was exactly a huge battleaxe!

Compared to this axe, First Venerable's body size appeared tiny.

On the ground...

Following the appearance of the battleaxe...

Under their feet, the thick snow and ice on the snowfield began to melt rapidly, and the air was filled with violent elements as if it could be ignited at any time. An extremely dangerous and horrible aura was all over the place.

On the opposite side...

Fang Qiu looked up at the black flame battle axe, which was as huge as a dark cloud pressing down on the city.

And Fang Qiu's face also became very serious.

“It’s incredible!”

Just as First Venerable didn’t expect John Doe to restrain his attack and control the Qi of Heaven and Earth, Fang Qiu didn’t expect First Venerable to hide so much powerful internal Qi in his body.

Fang Qiu no longer dared to hesitate.

With a wave of his right hand...

The long sword in Fang Qiu’s hand emitted a clear ringing sound as it pointed at the black flame battle axe.

Chapter 1683 First Venerable Dies

“Whiz...”

The clear sound of the sword was heard. With layers of fluctuation of sword Qi, it spread out in all directions, shaking the whole space over there.

In all directions between heaven and earth...

The Qi of Heaven and Earth quickly gathered from all directions as if it was greatly attracted by something. It lingered around Fang Qiu and condensed into beams of silver sword Qi, whistling in the air.

Fang Qiu took a deep breath.

With a grave face, Fang Qiu fixed his eyes on the black flame battle axe opposite, which kept expanding. Fang Qiu gritted his teeth, and a crazy look immediately appeared in his eyes.

Since things had been up to this point...

Fang Qiu had no choice but to confront First Venerable head-on.

Ruthlessness rose in his heart.

Fang Qiu no longer hesitated, and he raised his hands high.

Fang Qiu raised his divine sword over his head.

In an instant...

The Qi of Heaven and Earth, which was surging from all directions and condensing the silver sword Qi, instantly formed a sword Qi hurricane. With Fang Qiu's body as the center, it rapidly rotated, and the silver sword Qi immediately rushed toward the divine sword and injected it into the divine sword.

Under the control of Fang Qiu...

All the Qi of Heaven and Earth within a radius of ten kilometers had gathered. The hurricane formed by the sword Qi was getting stronger and stronger, along with waves of the sharp gale, smashing more than half of the melted ice cover under the ground and rising up to the sky.

The ice crystals all over the sky, swept up by the hurricane of sword Qi, reached the sky.

It was a stark contrast to the black flame battle axe on the opposite side.

As all the sword Qi pouring in...

A broad beam of colorful sword light burst out from the divine sword in Fang Qiu's hand instantly. The ice crystals all over the sky, which were driven by the sword Qi, attached to the sword. It looked like a huge ice sword.

“Creak...”

Under his feet, it came the creaking sounds.

Under the impact of the two energies, the snowfield was completely damaged. In the depth of the shattered ice cover, a thick ice pillar, which was lying across the underground crack, could no longer bear the suppression of the destructive aura and burst out an ear-piercing sound.

The ice pillar fell into the dark underground crack with a loud crash.

In the meantime...

“Go to hell!”

First Venerable’s furious roar suddenly sounded.

In the blink of an eye, the black flame battle-axe above his head finally stopped expanding. Then, he wielded his arms, and the battle axe descended from the sky with a violent and destructive aura. It seemed that John Doe was not his target. Instead, he seemed to want to slash Hemalaya Mountain into halves.

Just then...

An even more terrifying destructive aura suddenly descended from the sky.

The appearance of this destructive aura caused First Venerable, who had already launched an attack, to turn pale instantly. He stared at the opposite side firmly, as though he had seen something that could not happen. A trace of fear surged into his eyes.

A sword was reflected in his eyes.

It was a long sword completely condensed by sword light.

This long sword was not terrifying, but the golden internal Qi was. John Doe kept pouring it into the long sword clenching in his right hand.

With the pouring of the golden internal Qi, the long sword in John Doe's hand burst out an extremely dazzling aura.

It was visible to the naked eye.

Around the long sword, there were thin golden lines, which looked like peeled fibers. They were so sharp that people would hesitate to approach them at first glance.

In contrast to the black flame battle axe, the divine sword in Fang Qiu's hand appeared much smaller.

However, the colors on the long sword were gorgeous. Against the golden light, it was like a great art craft that was unbearable to damage.

However...

Even Fang Qiu himself was a little surprised by the energy aura naturally emitted from this eye-catching long sword.

This was the first time Fang Qiu had poured all the Qi of Heaven and Earth within ten kilometers into the divine sword.

The Qi of Heaven and Earth was too much, so Fang Qiu had no idea what the result would be.

To his surprise...

The body of the divine sword could withstand the Qi of Heaven and Earth within ten kilometers and turned all the Qi of Heaven and Earth into sword light. It looked like a very long sword, but in fact, this bright and dazzling great sword was just a sword light naturally formed by the divine sword after it stored a large amount of Qi of Heaven and Earth.

Since the sword light was so broad and powerful, what horrible power would the divine sword contain?

In the face of such a force...

Even the expert at the peak of One-Flower Core Realm, First Venerable couldn't help changing his expression greatly after launching an attack.

"How could it be?

"How could he have launched such a powerful attack?"

First Venerable stared at Fang Qiu in disbelief, with a ferocious look appearing on his face.

First Venerable sensed a crisis.

It was a big crisis.

"I'll kill you. Go to hell!"

In horror, First Venerable roared wildly at Fang Qiu with a ferocious face and bloodshot eyes.

The next moment...

Under his control, the layer of octopus' tentacles-like energy on his body quickly poured into the black flame battle axe that descended from the sky.

As the special energy poured in...

The Qi power of the black flame battle axe expanded again. With tremendous pressure, it straightly slashed toward Fang Qiu.

The hurricane around Fang Qiu was fierce. In the face of the tremendous pressure from the black flame battle axe, Fang Qiu did not retreat but advanced.

“Rumble, rumble, rumble...”

Muffled thunder echoed between heaven and earth.

When the black flame battle axe slashed down, it seemed to have shaken the whole space.

And under this tremendous pressure...

Fang Qiu narrowed his eyes and pointed his sword at the sky.

As the owner who condensed this sword, Fang Qiu could feel the terrifying energy contained in the divine sword. After all, this was the terrifying energy that even shocked him when he condensed it.

Luckily...

It was supported by the divine sword.

If it were any other weapon, it would have been blasted by the terrifying Qi of Heaven and Earth.

“Sword Shattering the Universe!”

The moment the black flame battle axe fell...

Fang Qiu waved his right hand.

Using this dazzling divine sword, Fang Qiu burst out the strongest sword move that he created based on the three moves of “Ren”.

“Swoosh!”

The sword move was released.

The dazzling sword Qi that burst out from the divine sword instantly got out of the sword, driving the wildly surging sword Qi in all directions, and shot toward the black flame battle axe from below to above.

Wherever the sword light passed...

In the void space, there was a series of extremely harsh sounds. Even Fang Qiu wanted to cover his ears because he couldn’t bear it.

Watching the sword Qi which was several times smaller than the black flame battle axe rush over in a peerless manner, First Venerable suddenly shrank his pupils.

The next moment...

“Bang!”

At the peak of Hemalaya Mountain...

The dazzling sword light, with an indomitable Qi power like a meteor, collided fiercely with the black flame battle axe falling from the sky.

In an instant...

“Bang!”

An incomparably loud sound suddenly erupted, resounding between heaven and earth.

With a closer look...

At the collided place of the sword and the axe, there was an incomparably dazzling seven-colored energy that soared into the sky. Led by a thread of golden light, it swept out from the black flame battle axe like the sharpest needle tips.

What a dazzling seven-colored energy light!

It burst out from the sword light, which was several times smaller than the black flame battle axe, like a huge mouth of an abyss. While penetrating the battle axe, it went straight to devour the overwhelming black flame battle axe in an instant.

Afterward...

“Boom!”

Enormous explosions suddenly sounded.

Like sea waves, the dazzling energy Qi, which was dozens of meters high, spread out in all directions with the sound of the explosion in midair. It instantly wiped out the thick clouds around, leaving a void.

In an instant...

The energy in the place where the two energies collided suddenly contracted. It instantly turned into a stream of needle-like sharp energy and flashed past at a speed invisible to the naked eye.

In the blink of an eye...

In the distance...

“Bang...”

With a loud bang, several huge snow peaks were smashed and fell to the ground in unison. After cutting off three snow peaks in a row, the energy smashed half of the fourth snow peak before dissipating completely.

In the sky...

A faint layer of energy fluctuation was rippling in all directions.

Fang Qiu gazed forward.

Over there...

First Venerable’s body had been sliced in half by the sharp energy, which had cut off three of the snow peaks in a row, falling from midair.

“Swoosh.”

The moment First Venerable’s body was about to reach the crack of the abyss below, Fang Qiu waved his right hand, turned the Qi of Heaven and Earth into flames, and burn First Venerable’s body into ashes before it fell into the crack.

“It’s so powerful...”

Fang Qiu let out a long breath, and he couldn't conceal the shock on his face.

This was totally out of his expectations.

How could this strike be so powerful? Even First Venerable, who was at the peak of the One-Flower Core Realm, was killed in a split second. First Venerable did not even have the slightest ability to resist.

How terrifying it was!

However, on second thought...

Here was the top of Hemalaya Mountain, where the intensity of the Qi of Heaven and Earth was much stronger than in other places. Moreover, the Qi of Heaven and Earth within a radius of ten kilometers was all gathered in the sword. It was terrifying beyond imagination.

Fang Qiu couldn't figure out how he managed to pour so much Qi of Heaven and Earth into the sword.

He shook his head.

Fang Qiu stopped thinking about it.

He immediately turned around and left Hemalaya Mountain.

However, as soon as he moved...

"Uh..."

Fang Qiu suddenly felt a sharp pain in his body.

He looked at his right arm.

His entire right arm appeared blood red.

“Sure enough, It has great side effects.” Fang Qiu murmured to himself.

To pour the Qi of Heaven and Earth into the divine sword, Fang Qiu had to use his arm as a medium. Therefore, his arm was severely injured, and even several of the meridians on his chest were about to burst apart.

“I’d better not use such a move in the future.”

Fang Qiu quickly mobilized his internal Qi to treat the injury.

Afterward...

Fang Qiu quickly flew down Hemalaya Mountain.

On the way...

Fang Qiu took out his phone with his left hand, logged into the underground-force forum, and quickly edited a post.

“Iryens is just so so!”

It was just a title, and the content was a very sarcastic emoji.

Then he released the post.

In just a few minutes...

The entire underground-force forum was in an uproar.

Chapter 1684 Resolve the Hidden Danger of Swallowing the Heaven Treasure

“What does it mean?”

“Has John Doe embarrassed Murica again?”

“Damn. Could it be that Iryens was also killed by John Doe?”

“It was said that Iryens was with First Venerable, right? Since John Doe has the time to post, does it mean that he has killed Iryens as well as the No. 1 expert of the Nirvana Organization?”

“Oh, my gosh! First Venerable is a super expert, and he even dared to block the gate of Huaxia Lao Zi Relic!”

“Iryens and First Venerable of the Nirvana joined forces, but they were both killed by John Doe!?”

“How... How could that happen?”

“How powerful is John Doe on earth? It’s so terrifying!”

On the underground-force forum, various countries and forces were shocked by John Doe’s post.

At the same time, Huaxia also received the news.

When Li Ji heard the news...

He immediately texted Fang Qiu.

“Did you kill Iryens? Is First Venerable of the Nirvana also dead?”

At this very moment...

Fang Qiu was heading to Beijiang in a hurry.

He simply replied: “Killed!”

As soon as Li Ji received the message, he was deeply shocked.

Then Li Ji got very excited.

Fang Qiu not only killed Iryens, but he also killed First Venerable.

How could John Doe be so powerful?

Li Ji didn’t even dare to imagine it.

Before Fang Qiu set off...

Li Ji had been worried about the safety of Fang Qiu, for fear that Fang Qiu would be at a disadvantage if he fought against First Venerable on a whim and be injured or even killed.

It was not that he didn’t believe in Fang Qiu, but that the strength that First Venerable had shown was too powerful.

First Venerable came to the door of the relic in Huaxia to stop others from going in and out.

Who else would dare to do that in the world?

Unexpectedly...

First Venerable was killed by John Doe!

This result was far beyond the expectation of Li Ji.

In Murica...

The high-ups of Murica also received the news.

They had been full of confidence to think that First Venerable was invincible, coupled with Iryens, a remarkable talent, they would definitely kill John Doe. But now, they were so embarrassed by the result.

In a secret conference room somewhere in Murica.

“How could this happen? Why?”

“He is John Doe, but not Qingyun. How could he be so powerful?”

“One more died. We lost another super expert at the SS level. We don’t have much time left!”

The high-ups of Murica were all dumbfounded at the news.

They felt bitter, but they could do nothing.

“Damn! Is John Doe really the nemesis of Murica?”

In the host seat, Nash Wilson shook his head in disappointment. Then a touch of madness appeared in his eyes. He said in a ghastly tone, "No matter what the result is, it's time for us to join forces with the Nirvana Organization!"

...

In Huaxia...

Fang Qiu returned to Laozi Relic.

As soon as he entered the door, Fang Qiu saw that everyone below the clouds was gathered together.

Seeing Fang Qiu coming back...

Everyone was stunned at first, and then they cheered immediately.

The news on the underground-force forum had been reposted on the Wulin online forum, so everyone knew that Iryens from Murican was dead.

Then what about First Venerable from the Nirvana Organization?

The crowd gathered around Fang Qiu and asked one after another.

"First Venerable has been dead."

In the midst of everyone's inquiry, Fang Qiu said, "You can come and go freely now."

Upon hearing that...

They all cheered excitedly.

Everyone looked at John Doe with great admiration.

Others may not know about First Venerable's strength.

But they had a deep understanding of it. After all, First Venerable had come to the door to provoke, and many experts had been beaten back by his two moves.

That sort of strength was far beyond what they could imagine.

Even so...

First Venerable had died at the hands of John Doe. Moreover, John Doe had also conveniently killed Iryens, who was ranked fourth in the world.

Fang Qiu's strength and achievements were enough to make all these people admire him!

Seeing everyone cheering...

Fang Qiu gave a faint smile and then flew up.

He stepped onto the Heavenly Ladder and went above the clouds.

High above the ground...

Hearing the cheers of the crowd...

People from the Sword Sect, the Pear Garden, and the Four Great Families, as well as He Gaoming and the brothers, all came forward to greet Fang Qiu.

They were above the clouds, but they had heard John Doe announce the news that First Venerable was already dead. Therefore, the way they looked at Fang Qiu was full of admiration.

Speaking of the understanding about First Venerable...

These people knew him the best without a doubt, for they had personally fought with First Venerable.

Even Iryens didn't join the fight.

As soon as they went out of Laozi Relic, they were beaten back by First Venerable.

To them, that sort of power First Venerable had was far beyond what they could contend against.

First Venerable, who couldn't be defeated by more than a dozen experts together, was killed by John Doe alone. Moreover, John Doe even killed one more expert ranked fourth in the world.

Such a strength shocked everyone above the clouds.

Diwu Qian and Yun Yangzi were particularly shocked.

When they heard that John Doe had killed First Venerable, both of them were too surprised to close their mouths.

For them, the impact was too great.

Back then...

John Doe, who was at the same level as them and was of the same generation, had already reached such a level, which was totally out of their reach. They couldn't catch up with him.

How bitter they felt!

...

After chatting with everyone for a while, Fang Qiu thanked them for their compliments. Then he hurried back to his place. He sat cross-legged at the place where the bamboo slips used to be placed and was immersed into cultivation.

He had a great victory in this battle.

But he had no choice but to swallow the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus during the battle.

Fang Qiu had forcibly swallowed the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus when he didn't need it. This would cause a potential problem on his cultivation path. He forcibly swallowed the Heaven Treasure, which would probably result in more difficulties for him to form the two-flower core.

The Candle Wick Cyan Lotus helped his cultivation improve, but such progress was not made by himself. So it was obviously flawed.

He had to seize the time to observe and see if he could fix this flaw.

Nearby...

As John Doe had just returned from a fierce battle, everyone was very excited.

However, when they saw John Doe sitting cross-legged to practice cultivation, they did not disturb him. Instead, they volunteered to guard John Doe in the surroundings.

As for Fang Qiu...

He just closed his eyes and started carefully checking the condition of his body.

Surprisingly...

To protect the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus and prevent it from affecting his cultivation, Fang Qiu stored the energy of the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus in his Dantian after swallowing it. He had thought that his Dantian would naturally merge with the energy of the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus so as to help improve his cultivation realm in case it was out of his control.

Unexpectedly...

The energy of the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus was locked by the golden internal Qi in his Dantian. Until he used the last move and caused damage to his meridians, the golden internal Qi released part of the energy of the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus to nourish the meridians from his heart to his whole right arm.

And the remaining energy was still locked by the golden internal Qi.

This situation made Fang Qiu very surprised.

He did not expect that...

The golden internal Qi had such an effect.

“So, if I refine and absorb the energy of the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus with the golden internal Qi, will it be nothing wrong?”

Fang Qiu was a little excited at this thought.

He immediately activated his golden internal Qi and began to try the energy of the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus.

As a result...

As soon as he moved, the golden internal Qi, as if it had been starving for a long time, couldn't wait to devour all the energy of the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus and started to refine it rapidly.

Then...

In the process of refinement...

Fang Qiu realized that the golden internal Qi was growing.

It grew very slowly.

However, it was indeed growing.

"Can I increase my golden internal Qi by devouring and refining the energy of the Heaven Treasure?"

Fang Qiu was puzzled.

Then he mobilized his Divine Consciousness and carefully began to explore the golden internal Qi.

After the exploration...

As expected, Fang Qiu found it true. The golden internal Qi had really grown a lot after devouring and refining the energy of the Candle Wick Cyan Lotus. However, there was another particularly critical point that attracted Fang Qiu's attention.

He found that...

The internal Qi in the meridians of the whole body was running through his body and finally entered the Dantian. After it circulated through the blurred flower in his Dantian, it was stained with a touch of golden color and turned into golden internal Qi quietly.

It only transformed a hint of golden internal Qi every time, but this sort of transformation made Fang Qiu very happy.

That was to say...

He only needed to follow this method to turn all the internal Qi in his body into golden internal Qi.

With this in mind...

Fang Qiu immediately accelerated the flow of the internal Qi in his body.

In the case that he took the initiative to accelerate, the transformation speed of his internal Qi indeed became much faster.

Moreover, the amount that was transformed each time was not much greater than what he had observed.

In this way...

Fang Qiu began to transform his internal Qi crazily.

Fang Qiu wasn't sure how long had passed, but all the internal Qi in his Dantian had turned golden. As the amount of the golden internal Qi increased, the transformation speed was getting faster and faster. Even newly absorbed internal Qi in his body would immediately turn golden after circulating his body once.

There was only one problem. After the absorbed internal Qi in his body transformed into golden internal Qi, only one-tenth of the amount remained.

But...

It was not a big deal for Fang Qiu, who had the three moves of “Ren” and could control the “domain” within ten kilometers.

When all the energy in his body turned golden, Fang Qiu distinctly felt that his strength had improved to the next level. The flowers in his Dantian had also become more ethereal, and they seemed to have become afterimages.

This was the sign of the appearance of two flowers.

When the afterimages were completely separated and solidified, it would be the Two-Flower Core Realm.

...

In a city in Huaxia.

In the prosperous and lively commercial area...

A middle-aged man in a black suit trotted in a hurry to a young college student and said, “Sir, First Venerable is dead!”

“Oh?”

The young man raised his eyebrows, calmly took a cigarette out of his trouser pocket, and lit it up. Then he smiled and said, “Interesting. It seems that John Doe is indeed worthy of my fight. He can even kill First Venerable. I’m afraid that this guy’s combat capability is even more powerful than Qingyun’s.”

“I wonder who cultivated him,” the young man asked himself.

He smiled slightly, threw the cigarette that he had just lit to the ground, and stepped on it. After that, he walked up to a scantily clad woman with a particularly good figure ahead of him and greeted her with a smile.

Chapter 1685 Nirvana Issues a Statement

As the young man stepped out, a sinister smile suddenly appeared on his face. He said, "The next plan is important. Let's talk about John Doe later."

"Yes."

The middle-aged man in a black suit nodded knowingly and then turned to leave.

Soon after...

On the world underground-force forum, a piece of news that shocked all the countries and forces in the world was suddenly reported.

"Nirvana's Statement!"

No doubt.

It was a statement made by the Nirvana Organization.

And it was a public statement.

The Nirvana Organization, which had been hiding and was regarded seriously by all countries in the world until it was exposed by John Doe, made an appearance in public at this time and even issued a public statement.

“Nowadays, many countries around the world are researching and investigating our Nirvana Organization. Since everyone was eager to know about us, we’d like to hold a public event and let people around the world get to know our Nirvana Organization well.

“As a greeting gift.

“We will take out a technique that can quickly improve the strength of a metahuman to show our goodwill.

“This technique is the foundation of our Nirvana Organization in this world. If you learn this technique, whoever you are, wherever you are from, you can directly improve your strength to S-class in a very short time.

“Of course, we, the Nirvana Organization never make a losing deal. In five days, in Nirway, this technique will be auctioned to all countries and all major metahuman forces across the world. In the meanwhile, there are spiritual herbs, Green Spiritual Flame, Jade in Stone, and other precious items for auction!

“Everyone is welcome to come to the auction by then!”

Above were the full contents of the statement.

Those who had read it were deeply shocked.

S-class?

A technique that could improve one’s strength to S-class in a short time?

It was hard to believe that there existed such a terrifying technique in the world. If it was true, wouldn’t it directly cultivate an S-class metahuman army?

Just thinking about it was scary.

But...

On second thought...

Those members of the Nirvana Organization, who had shown up and killed by Huaxia and John Doe, seemed to be all in the S-class, and it was rare to see those who had not been improved to S-class.

Thinking of this, the people of all the countries and major organizations from all over the world were shocked.

Such an organization that could mass produce S-class experts had secretly developed under the noses of various countries in the world for so many years. Why?

If this organization had not been exposed by John Doe and Huaxia, which country or force in the world could stop them when they were fully developed?

In shock...

People from all over the world expressed their opinions one after another.

"I didn't expect the Nirvana Organization to come out by themselves?"

"They actually have a way to quickly improve a metahuman to S-class? This is too terrifying."

"No wonder the Nirvana Organization is so powerful!"

"It seems that the Nirvana Organization is not as bad as John Doe said. At least they not only stand out but are also willing to share their good things with everyone."

“The Nirvana Organization has been hiding for so many years, but why do they suddenly stand out openly?”

“According to the information John Doe mentioned before, the Nirvana Organization used to have big plans in Zhongdong and Africo, and every plan was ambitious to gather a lot of people to go. So is this also their plan this time?”

In most people’s opinions...

The sudden statement made by the Nirvana Organization was indeed unusual.

But...

No one knew exactly what was going on.

Except for John Doe and Huaxia...

People from other countries rarely had the chance to fight with Nirvana Organization, and What they know about the Nirvana Organization was very limited. Therefore, when they were at a loss and ignorant of their opponent, most of them only questioned them. However, what really drew their attention was the word “auction” mentioned in the statement of the Nirvana Organization.

“Does the Nirvana Organization want to auction off the method of rapidly cultivating an S-class expert ?”

“That is to say, everyone has a chance to get this technique. Right?”

“Well, they say so, but who knows if the method of rapid improvement they’re talking about is true?”

“If it’s true, no one will be so stupid to auction the method in public, right?”

In the public opinions of countless people...

The high-ups of all countries were also secretly paying attention to it.

Nowadays...

It was a world of the strength of the metahuman for respect. For example, Huaxia had the experts ranked first and third on the World's Individual Strength Ranking List, so it had been taken as the world's first major power by many countries.

Some small and medium-sized countries did not even have an S-class expert.

In this case...

There was no doubt that the method of rapid improvement to the S-class was fatally attractive to the higher-ups of all countries.

Of course, Huaxia was not included.

After all, Huaxia had already obtained the method of rapid improvement through John Doe. Moreover, it had been modified by John Doe into two sets of techniques that had few side effects for soldiers to cultivate.

Therefore, Huaxia had no interest in the Nirvana Organization's method of rapid improvement in the auction.

But...

What was the Nirvana Organization trying to do?

They suddenly came to the stage from behind the scenes and showed their trump card which shocked the whole world. What was their purpose?

In various shock and suspicion, the Nirvana Organization once again released some information fragments on the underground-force forum.

The content of these fragments was about the technique that could help people quickly improve to S-class.

Seeing these fragments...

All the countries and metahuman forces around the world were shocked.

“An ordinary human, just by using this method, could directly rise to S-class?”

“Oh, my gosh. is there really such an amazing technique in the world?”

There was no doubt.

When all people were deeply shocked...

All the countries in the world were extremely interested in the method of rapidly improving the strength proposed by the Nirvana Organization. Every country was eager to get this method.

The S-class experts were nothing compared with Qingyun, John Doe, and the others in Huaxia. However, if one was nothing, ten, one hundred, and one thousand of them could not be underestimated.

Thought about it...

After obtaining this method of improvement, a country could cultivate tens of thousands of S-class experts in a short period of time. How big of an improvement would that be?

If a small or medium-sized country could get this technique, it would directly become one of the world's top countries in a short time.

What a fatal temptation for most countries in the world!

It was not only for the small and medium-sized countries.

Even the world's top-notch major powers coveted this method of rapidly improving one's strength to S-class.

Especially Murica...

In order to deal with Huaxia and John Doe, they had lost too many metahumans.

Even Iryens, who finally ranked fourth on the World's Individual Strength Ranking List, was also killed by John Doe. Now they were short of experts.

At least...

This improvement method of the Nirvana Organization was more direct, faster, and more stable than the genetic technology they secretly researched.

In Huaxia...

The news was also spread to the Wulin online forum.

"I've long heard that there is a way at the Nirvana Organization to quickly become a guru, but I didn't expect it to be true."

“No wonder the gurus from the Nirvana Organization we met in the relic before were so weak. It seemed that they were all forcibly improved in this way.”

“It’s better to cultivate by yourself on the martial arts path. It won’t end well if you take some shortcuts.”

“Well, how could the Nirvana Organization have the Green Spiritual Flame and the Jade in Stone?”

“They are even going to take out the first and third Earth Treasure for auction. What the hell is the Nirvana Organization going to do?”

Besides these Wulin people...

As various news came out...

The high-ups of Huaxia also frowned, and their faces became gloomy.

Huaxia had been fighting against the Nirvana Organization for the longest time in the world, and it also had spent the longest time investigating the Nirvana Organization. Therefore, the higher-ups of Huaxia knew very well that the Nirvana Organization had no good intentions.

The speed-up technique for a guru could be considered a powerful weapon that the Nirvana Organization had been developing on its own for a long time. Then, would they really make this method public?

No.

Of course not.

The Nirvana Organization would never make the complete method public. It would not let all the countries get it and then suppress the Nirvana Organization by their own means.

Then, why did the Nirvana Organization issue such a blatant statement?

Could it be another big conspiracy?

The higher-ups of Huaxia began to worry about it.

In Laozi Relic...

Fang Qiu had been sitting cross-legged on the top of the mountain for cultivation all the time. After turning all his internal Qi into golden internal Qi and completely stabilizing his strength, he finally opened his eyes and stood up.

The brothers, who had been guarding Fang Qiu around for a long time, immediately came up to him.

"The oldest."

He Gaoming took the lead in walking to Fang Qiu and said, "Something happened in the past few days of your cultivation."

"Oh?"

Fang Qiu raised his eyebrows and asked, "What's wrong?"

"The Nirvana Organization has issued a statement."

He Gaoming didn't explain anything extra. He logged on to his phone and handed it to Fang Qiu.

Fang Qiu took it and had a look.

On the phone screen...

It was the statement posted by the Nirvana Organization on the underground-force forum

Fang Qiu read it carefully.

The more he read, the tighter he frowned.

“Are they going to make that technique public?”

Fang Qiu was very surprised.

Fang Qiu couldn’t understand the purpose of the Nirvana Organization by doing so.

He had no idea what the Nirvana Organization meant.

Fang Qiu was very clear about the harm that the technique could cause to the cultivators

“Does the Nirvana Organization want to use this technique to harm people?”

When this idea popped into his mind, Fang Qiu immediately shook his head and said, “It has great side effects, but that technique can indeed help improve one’s strength.

“This is absolutely attractive to all countries. Even if Nirvana announces the side effects of this technique, there must be many countries willing to use this method to cultivate metahumans.

“But the conflict is that the Nirvana Organization is strengthening the power of all countries by doing this, isn’t it?”

“Now, all the countries are investigating and researching them.

“In contrast, they are doing this to help all countries. What’s their purpose?”

Chapter 1686 The Strength of Nirvana

In Zhongdong.

As the statement of the Nirvana Organization was released, the entire Zhongdong was in an uproar.

This had always been a chaotic place composed of countless forces of all sizes. Over the years, there had been constant war. Even if the military of all the countries tried their best to suppress those forces, they were still unable to suppress them.

Now, the eyes of all the major forces in Zhongdong, including the Gospel Division and the Truth Division, turned red when they saw the statement issued by the Nirvana Organization.

It was especially true for the two top forces, the Gospel Division and the Truth Division.

It could be said that the two forces occupied most of the territory in Zhongdong. However, they could not unify Zhongdong at all because of the resistance of the military of various countries and the various small and medium-sized forces that resisted each other every day.

The reason for that was strength.

Among the two top forces, the most powerful Divine Envoy was only a Half-step Guru.

This kind of strength was indeed very strong in Zhongdong, but it was obviously not enough to unify the entire Zhongdong.

And now, the Nirvana Organization actually was about to announce how to quickly improve to S class.

Whether it was the Gospel Division or the Truth Division, once they got this method of improvement and used it, they would absolutely have the power to dominate Zhongdong.

In the headquarters of the Truth Division in Esfahan, Zhongdong.

“This is an opportunity.”

In the hall, a middle-aged man in fine clothes, carrying a tablet computer, said with great excitement, “There is actually such a method. There is such a method in the world that can promote people to S class in a short time. We must seize this opportunity. We must seize it!”

A fat man standing on the left was also flushed with excitement.

He was the Divine Envoy of the Truth Division.

He had been stuck in the Half-step Guru Realm for a long time and had never been able to really break through to the S class. Now he finally saw hope.

The fat Divine Envoy said heroically, “We must get it. We must get this method. With my strength, as long as I get this method, I will definitely be promoted to S class in the shortest time. When that happens, I will destroy the Gospel Division as soon as possible and help our Truth Division unify Zhongdong!”

Hearing that, the middle-aged man in fine clothes turned to look at an old man in a white robe holding a cane on the right side of the hall.

“Military Counselor.”

The middle-aged man in fine clothes asked respectfully, “What do you think?”

Sitting on the sofa, the old man in a white robe closed the book in his hand and said directly, "We must be fast. We must get this method before them. This is a great opportunity for us and them. But there can only be one king in Zhongdong. Whoever can seize the initiative in time will be the final king!"

...

At the headquarters of the Gospel Division in Halcyon City.

A middle-aged man in ancient-style armor stood in front of the chairman's seat. Beside him were two old men. One of them had gray hair and looked very tough.

The other had a stooped back and a snake staff in his hand.

"Contact the Nirvana Organization immediately."

The middle-aged man in armor said directly to the two people next to him, "We must get it. We must get this method before the Truth Division!"

"I'm afraid it's a trap."

The old man with the snake staff frowned and said, "The Nirvana Organization is ambitious. They have been lurking for so many years. As soon as they showed up, they are offering this kind of thing that can cause chaos in the world. They must have bad intentions. It's good to contact them as soon as possible, but we must be very careful."

"That's right."

The gray-haired old man nodded in agreement and said, "Not only do we have to keep an eye on the Truth Division at all times, but we also have to pay attention to other countries and forces. Although the Nirvana Organization made it public this time, it said it was going to auction. It seems that it's not easy to get this method of quickly improving strength."

“No matter what, we must get this method!”

The armored man nodded and said, “Start trying to get in touch with the people of the Nirvana Organization immediately and ask them what they want!”

Not only the Truth Division and the Gospel Division but also all the countries in Zhongdong began to take the initiative to contact the Nirvana Organization.

At present.

However, the only way to get in touch with the Nirvana Organization at present was to contact its spokesperson through the underground-force forum.

For a moment, all the countries and metahuman organizations around the world sent private messages to the spokesperson of the Nirvana Organization to try to contact them.

However, not long after the news from these countries sent out their messages, the Nirvana Organization took the initiative to respond and said that they would send people to the countries that asked for contact.

Of course, Huaxia was not included.

In Huaxia, both the high-level officials and the Wulin members had been paying attention to the development of this matter.

In an office in the government building in Murica.

A group of high-level leaders sat silently at their desks, as if they were waiting for someone.

Suddenly-

“Knock, knock, knock...”

There was a series of knocks on the door.

The next moment-

Creak!

The tightly shut office door suddenly opened.

A middle-aged man in a black robe came in with a smile on his face.

He was a Murican, who looked very kind, like a priest from a church.

“I’m honored to meet you on behalf of the Nirvana Organization.”

The black-robed man walked into the conference room, sat down with a smile, and said, “Sorry to keep you waiting. Let’s talk about the cooperation now, shall we?”

In the chairman’s seat, a fat high-level official of Murica said, “Okay. The basis of our cooperation is that we have a common enemy – Huaxia!”

“That’s right.”

The black-robed man nodded and said, “We have the same stance on this matter. You need our help, and we also need your cooperation.”

“What do you need us to do?” asked the fat senior official of Murica.

The black-robed man smiled faintly and said, "The rise of Huaxia is something we don't want to see. This time, the auction that our Nirvana Organization is about to hold will definitely attract people from all over the world. If Huaxia sends people to attend this auction, why don't we kill them together? What do you think?"

"That's exactly what I am thinking."

The fat senior official of Murica chuckled and said, "You have to be prepared. Huaxia will surely not send someone weak to attend the auction."

"Of course."

The black-robed man nodded quickly and said, "Besides, this is just the beginning. We'll use the blood of the Huaxianese to celebrate our cooperation..."

...

While the Nirvana guy and the Muricans were negotiating, the high-level personnel of various countries and forces all over the world came into contact with the members of the Nirvana Organization who were also wearing black robes at different times and places.

Similar negotiations were taking place all over the world.

Even in Southern Murica, a very large tribe, which was almost like a city, welcomed a man in a black robe.

This tribe, the Water Clan, was a top metahuman force in Southern Murica.

Although the Water Clan had not yet reached the world's top level, it was still very famous because it had powerful metahumans.

After learning that the Nirvana Organization had a way to improve one's strength quickly, the Water Clan contacted the Nirvana Organization as soon as possible, hoping to get some technique that could help them improve their strength rapidly.

In order to welcome the arrival of the Nirvana Organization, all the members of the Water Clan welcomed a black-robed Nirvana envoy into the tribe.

The person from Nirvana was a guru who was not very strong but had become a guru in a short time.

Under the respectful welcome of the Water Clan, he walked in with a calm face.

However, before he could get seated, he was surrounded by all the people of the Water Clan.

Apparently, the people of the Water Clan did not want to negotiate with the Nirvana Organization. They only had one purpose, which was to get the technique that could quickly improve their strength from the organization.

In the beginning, the whole clan was welcoming member of the Nirvana Organization. Suddenly, their warm welcome turned into a cold and murderous atmosphere.

This caught the man of the Nirvana Organization off guard.

"Contact the leader of your organization immediately and hand over the method to quickly improve one's strength, or I'll kill you!"

The Water Clan was a barbaric tribe. They didn't reason with the man of the Nirvana Organization at all. After leading him here, they directly showed their true colors and began to threaten him.

"You... your sins need to be expiated!"

The member of the Nirvana Organization was not afraid at all. Instead, he burst into laughter.

The next day, a piece of news spread and shocked the whole world.

“The Water Clan of Southern Murica was attacked by the Nirvana Organization. No one was left alive.”

This news appeared on the underground-force forum.

There were also several bloody photos of the scene. In the tropical jungle, there were corpses everywhere, and the river was dyed blood red.

Of course, this news was released by the spokesperson of the Nirvana Organization.

In the post, the spokesperson also thoughtfully explained why Nirvana Organization eliminated the Water Clan.

Those forces and organizations all over the world, who had the same idea as the Water Clan, but didn't have time to take action, couldn't help shivering when they saw this post.

Even if the Water Clan was not a top force, it was definitely a first-class force. It had many experts of the S plus level.

How could it be destroyed by the Nirvana Organization overnight?

Also, not a single one of its members was left alive.

This was terrifying.

In the past, everyone had only heard about the strength of the Nirvana Organization. Although they knew that the organization was very powerful, they always felt that the rumors related were not real.

Now, upon hearing the news of the destruction of the Water Clan, the whole world was shocked.

“That’s the Water Clan. How could all the people of such a powerful tribe be killed?”

“That is to say, even a first-rate force can’t survive under the attack of the Nirvana Organization?”

“How could the Nirvana Organization be so powerful?”

“This sort of strength is truly too terrifying!”

Chapter 1687 The Envoy from the Nirvana Organization

As the news of the destruction of the Water Clan spread, all the major forces in the world knew that the strength of Nirvana was completely beyond their imagination.

“So, why is the Nirvana Organization so powerful?”

“Without a doubt, that is because they possess a technique that can quickly improve people to the S class!”

All the countries and forces in the world were sure that it was because of this technique that the Nirvana Organization could develop to such a powerful extent.

This opinion also caused people from all over the world to be even more envious of the Nirvana Organization. Almost every country and every force wanted to get that technique very much.

They felt that as long as they got that technique, they would definitely develop to be as powerful as the Nirvana Organization, or even stronger than the organization.

In the Laozi Relic in Huaxia.

Just when the whole world was in turmoil because of a statement made by the Nirvana Organization, a piece of news reached the Sword Sect.

In the meantime, Fang Qiu heard his phone ringing.

“Hello?”

Seeing that it was a call from Li Ji, Fang Qiu immediately picked it up.

“Someone from the Nirvana Organization has arrived.”

On the other end of the line, Li Ji said directly, “Nirvana Organization took the initiative to contact us, and they have sent a man to Huaxia. At this time, that man is in Beijiang. After careful investigation, we found that the person sent by Nirvana is not a martial arts practitioner.”

“Hmm?”

Fang Qiu was stunned and asked, “Is there anyone in the Nirvana Organization who doesn’t know martial arts?”

“According to the information we have, it is true.”

Li Ji paused for a moment and said, “The higher-ups hold the same opinion as you. They don’t believe in Nirvana Organization at all, so they have informed the Sword Sect and are ready to contact the person sent by the Nirvana Organization. They also hope that you can go over and see what’s going on because you have fought with the organization many times and are more familiar with it than they do. Maybe you can see what’s fishy within.”

“Okay.”

Fang Qiu immediately nodded and agreed.

Li Ji added, "Also, the higher-ups have specifically instructed that we can't kill their envoy, even if we are at war with their country. What's more, the man they sent doesn't practice kung fu."

"I see."

Fang Qiu nodded knowingly and said, "Even if I want to take action, I'll only do it after he sends the news back first!"

After that, Fang Qiu hung up the phone and stepped down the mountain.

At this time, the people of the Sword Sect were already waiting at the foot of the mountain.

It seemed that they had just received the notice.

The leader was still Wei Jian.

"Brother Wei."

Coming closer, Fang Qiu made a hold-fist salute to Wei Jian.

"Brother Fang."

Wei Jian nodded with a smile and said, "Let's talk as we walk."

"Okay."

Fang Qiu nodded and walked side by side with Wei Jian. They directly flew out of the ruins with several disciples of the Sword Sect.

As they flew out of the relic, Wei Jian asked, "What do you think of the Nirvana Organization's envoy?"

"I'll know when I see him."

Fang Qiu shook his head and said, "I have a feeling that something is wrong. The Nirvana Organization has been hiding for decades and has been very careful. It only showed a little activity in recent years, but it has been suppressed by us.

"Generally speaking, after losing so much manpower and having so many plans ruined by me, and having all their strongholds cleaned up by your Sword Sect in Huaxia, they should be hiding again and recuperating for some time. Why did they suddenly become so high-profile?"

"Brother Fang."

Wei Jian nodded in agreement and said, "That's what we think as well. Although we don't know what the Nirvana Organization is up to yet, we must be very careful. We can't fall into their trap!"

As they talked, the two of them came to the military-restricted zone.

They got in a car that had been arranged for a long time and rushed all the way to the downtown of Beijiang.

In less than ten minutes, the car stopped at the entrance of a cafe in Beijiang.

"Let's go."

Wei Jian got out of the car and said, "Let's have a good look at this Nirvana guy who dares to negotiate with us alone!"

Fang Qiu nodded and got out of the car.

Under the guidance of the waiter, the group of people soon arrived at a completely closed private room.

At this moment, a young man with long yellow hair was sitting in the private room. He was wearing the black robe of the Nirvana Organization and gently stirring the spoon in the coffee cup.

Clack!

When the door was opened, the young man immediately stood up.

The moment he turned his head, he couldn't help but tremble.

He saw the killing god, John Doe.

Although it was the first time he had seen John Doe, the name John Doe had been spread in the Nirvana Organization for a long time.

For the members of the Nirvana Organization, John Doe was like a killing god.

All those who had a grudge against John Doe would eventually die an unnatural death. Not only ordinary disciples of the Nirvana Organization but also all the Venerables would die because of John Doe. Even the Crowning Lord and Lord Virtuous had died.

In this case, all the members of the Nirvana Organization were afraid of John Doe from the bottom of their hearts, for fear that they would also be killed by John Doe.

At the sight of John Doe, the foreign young man immediately reached out to make a hold-fist salute and said clearly in Huaxianese, "I didn't expect to see you here, John Doe."

Hearing this, Fang Qiu looked at Wei Jian behind him and walked toward the table with a smile at the same time.

The four people from the Sword Sect, who followed them, stood guard outside the door in twos.

From the moment Fang Qiu entered the room, he had been observing the foreign young man in front of him.

Fang Qiu really didn't feel any energy aura from him. It seemed that the young man was really an ordinary person who didn't practice kung fu at all.

"I didn't expect that I would sit face to face with a Nirvana guy in Huaxia one day."

Fang Qiu sat down and looked at him indifferently.

The foreign young man looked at Wei Jian and asked with a smile, "If I'm not mistaken, you should be from the Sword Sect, right?"

"If you have something to say, just say it."

Wei Jian snorted and said, "I'm not in the mood to do chit-chats with you here."

"Ha-ha."

The foreign young man laughed out loud and said in Huaxianese, "In that case, let's get straight to the point."

Fang Qiu and Wei Jian both stared at him.

They were waiting to see what he was going to say and why the Nirvana Organization had come to them so openly.

“Although I’m a foreigner.”

The young man said, “I know very well that Nirvana originated from Huaxia, so Nirvana has always been in awe of Huaxia. No matter what plans we have, we will not list Huaxia as the first place to implement, which you should know better than us.

“Since we, Nirvana, are so respectful to Huaxia and know it so well, do you also know about the Nirvana Organization?”

As soon as the question was raised, Fang Qiu couldn’t help sneering.

“Actually, you don’t know much about our Nirvana Organization.”

The young man didn’t care about John Doe sneering at all. Instead, he said faintly, “The purpose of our Nirvana is to expiate sins, to save everyone from all the sufferings and disasters, to expiate all the pain, and to free this world so that everyone can live in a perfect world.

“We are doing good for mankind, aren’t we?”

At this point, the young man put on a questioning face and stared at Fang Qiu and Wei Jian, waiting for their answers.

“The Nirvana members I killed have said things countless times better than what you said.”

Fang Qiu sneered, shook his head, and said, “But it doesn’t mean that you can kill people at will and control the life and death of others at will. If you want to keep talking about bullshit, you can leave now.”

“Of course not.”

The young man smiled faintly and said, “Well, let me tell you my purpose of coming here this time.

“As I said just now, our purpose is to free the world, so this time we are willing to share the speed-up technique with people all over the world. Our purpose is to tell the world that we are not bad people.

“We don’t want to be enemies with Huaxia. I hope we can be friends.”

Hearing that, not just Fang Qiu, even Wei Jian couldn’t help sneering.

“Friends?”

Fang Qiu shook his head disdainfully. He narrowed his eyes, stared at the foreign young man coldly, and asked, “What are you plotting?”

“Believe it or not, I just want to tell you that we are serious this time. We are not bad people.”

In the face of Fang Qiu’s question, the young man was unusually calm and said with a smile, “What I want to say has been delivered. As for what you think, I can’t intervene, so...”

The young man shrugged, stood up, and walked away.

When he walked to the door, he was stopped by the members of the Sword Sect.

“Let him go.”

Wei Jian waved his hand.

“Thank you.”

The young man turned around, thanked him with a smile, and then walked out.

As soon as he left, Wei Jian turned his head and looked at John Doe with a frown, “Does he mean that the Nirvana Organization really wants to publicize the method of quick success and make friends?”

Fang Qiu shook his head repeatedly.

Now, he was also confused by the Nirvana Organization.

“What is the Nirvana Organization up to?”

“The reason why they sent someone here is to tell Huaxia that they are good people?”

“They want to be friends with people all over the world?”

“It sounds ridiculous.”

“Nirvana Organization wants to make friends with people?”

“Isn’t that ridiculous?”

Of course, Fang Qiu and Wei Jian didn’t believe that the original intention of the Nirvana Organization sending a member over was so simple.

So, what was their purpose?

Was their purpose of sending a powerless person here to say such rubbish?

Wei Jian asked, “What do you think?”

“This means they are up to something.”

Fang Qiu said, "It seems that the so-called special envoys sent by Nirvana are preparing for the auction they mentioned in their statement. They want to show their peace first and invite everyone there."

At this point, Fang Qiu suddenly stood up.

"He has left the city. I'll follow him and find out what's going on."

With that, he left in a flash.

Chapter 1688 A Fake Ordinary Person

Fang Qiu had always been full of doubts.

Of course, he believed that some members of the Nirvana Organization didn't practice kung fu. In Philipeanes, he met an old doctor who had joined the Nirvana Organization.

However, the envoy sent by Nirvana Organization to Huaxia for negotiation didn't practice kung fu, which was quite suspicious.

As was known to all, the Nirvana Organization had sent people to negotiate with major organizations all over the world. Each of these envoys was powerful, and the weakest one was at least an incapable guru. But why did it send a person without any force to Huaxia?

Fang Qiu didn't believe that when he learned from Li Ji that someone from the Nirvana Organization had come.

Therefore, after the short negotiation, Fang Qiu had been focusing his Divine Consciousness on the foreign young man. He wanted to see what the Nirvana Organization was up to.

After leaving the cafe, Fang Qiu quickly left the city.

Under the surveillance of his Divine Consciousness, he clearly knew that the young man from Nirvana had already gotten in a car and was rushing to the border of Beijiang.

“He’s going to Zhongdong?”

Fang Qiu carefully sensed it. He then moved his body, went straight into the desert, and quickly chased after the young man.

Half an hour later, the foreign young man stopped about three kilometers away from the border.

It was a barren mountain.

“Hmm?”

When Fang Qiu noticed that the man stopped, he raised his eyebrows. His figure, which was still flying quickly in the desert, suddenly turned around and immediately approached the man.

Arriving at a place about a thousand meters away from the foreign young man, Fang Qiu immediately suppressed all his aura and stopped on another barren mountain in the distance.

Looking carefully, he saw that the foreign young man abandoned the car on the barren mountain, looked around vigilantly, and then walked toward the other side of the mountain.

Fang Qiu still followed him from a distance.

The young man climbed over the mountain.

When he was about one kilometer away from the border, he stopped again and looked around. After making sure that no one was following him, he continued to move forward.

Just like that, he stopped every kilometer.

After crossing the border of Beijiang and entering the territory of Zhongdong, the foreign young man stopped.

In the jungle.

“Phew...”

The foreign young man looked around and let out a long sigh. His serious expression instantly relaxed a lot.

After that, he twisted his body.

Clack! Clack! Clack!

The crisp sound of knuckles rubbing came.

With these crisp sounds, the body shape of the foreign young man actually changed in an unbelievable way. His bones and muscles began to swell.

In an instant, his whole body actually grew a size bigger than before.

With the change in his body shape, there was actually a strange energy fluctuation in the body of the foreign young man.

In the distance.

“As expected!”

Fang Qiu gathered all his attention.

He had already sensed it the moment the aura of energy appeared in the foreign young man's body.

Moreover, Fang Qiu also clearly felt that the man's Qi power was growing rapidly.

After a while-

"He's a guru!"

The man's energy aura was finally completely stabilized and stopped at the guru level.

"You've hidden it quite well."

Fang Qiu's eyebrows furrowed.

This foreign young man was the only hidden martial arts practitioner he had met since he started practicing martial arts. After Fang Qiu followed him for so long, he did not reveal any energy aura at all.

This made Fang Qiu worry involuntarily.

"How could the Nirvana Organization have such a hidden method?"

"Even a guru can hide himself like an ordinary person, making it impossible for others to see through him!"

"If so, how many members of the Nirvana Organization would be among the billions of people in the world?"

"Could it be that the members of the Nirvana Organization have infiltrated the crowd?"

“If that’s the case, how terrifying will the day the Nirvana Organization truly goes all out be?”

“I have to study this carefully and see how that guy hides his aura completely!”

On the other side.

When his body was completely stretched out, a smile appeared on the foreign young man’s face. Then, he turned his head and took a deep look at Huaxia. After that, he moved and immediately flew into the depths of Zhongdong.

Fang Qiu followed closely behind.

He went all the way deep into Zhongdong.

For the next two days, Fang Qiu kept following him, trying to find some information about the Nirvana Organization from him.

However, in the past two days, Fang Qiu had not found any clues.

This foreign young man didn’t return to any base of the Nirvana Organization. He just made a phone call and spread the result of the negotiation with Huaxia. After returning to a building in a small city in Zhongdong alone, he lived like an ordinary person without doing anything unusual.

Two days later, Fang Qiu was sure that there would be no clues if he continued to spy on that man.

He immediately moved and entered the building in the middle of the night.

At this time, the foreign young man was sitting cross-legged to do cultivation.

Fang Qiu was like a ghost. When he appeared in the building, the man didn't even notice him.

Without any hesitation, Fang Qiu went straight to the foreign young man who was sitting cross-legged for cultivation. He stood behind him and waved his right hand.

Whiz!

The faint sound of a sword rang out.

A streak of sword Qi swept past.

The young man from Murica, who was doing cultivation, felt that something was wrong. He suddenly opened his eyes and saw a red light in front of him.

Upon closer inspection, he shockingly found that it was blood.

It seemed that the blood came from his body.

The next moment, a chill ran down his throat.

The face of the Murican young man changed. He immediately reached out to cover his throat and then suddenly turned his head to look behind him.

The moment he turned his head, he suddenly felt a sharp pain in his throat. Then, something warm surged out and quickly covered his palm.

Meanwhile, he finally saw the figure standing behind him clearly.

"John Doe!"

The moment he saw John Doe, there was undisguised horror in his eyes.

Poof!

In shock, the young man couldn't help but open his mouth and spit out a mouthful of blood.

Then, his whole body trembled.

He opened his mouth wide. As the blood kept gushing out of his throat, the young man fell back powerlessly, and his eyes gradually dimmed.

In the blink of an eye, he was dead.

Looking at all this, Fang Qiu sighed softly. He shook his head, squatted down, and searched the man for a while, but found nothing. Then, he searched the whole building but still found no clue.

Fang Qiu was well aware that it was practically impossible to obtain any useful clues from the Nirvana guy.

Therefore, even if he caught the young man alive, that guy would definitely not reveal any clues and would try every means to commit suicide.

Therefore, Fang Qiu didn't intend to keep him alive from the very beginning. He killed him right away.

After the search, Fang Qiu returned to the corpse and began to examine the body structure carefully.

He wanted to know how the young man had managed to hide his aura to the extreme like an ordinary person.

During the examination, Fang Qiu immediately found that there were some wrinkles on the surface of the man's body, which made him look like an old man.

The weirdest thing was that when Fang Qiu felt the body slightly, he found that there was something obviously wrong with the man's bones, which seemed to be different from ordinary people's bones.

In confusion, Fang Qiu carefully examined the man's bones with the bone-feeling technique.

It turned out that all the young man's bones were dislocated.

It was as if his joints had been deliberately polished.

"The Bone Shrinking Skill?"

Fang Qiu suddenly came up with an idea.

He immediately thought of the Bone Shrinking Skill that had appeared in the Huaxia Wulin in ancient times.

Fang Qiu vaguely remembered that the Bone Shrinking Skill was also a kind of kung fu of Shaolin schools in ancient times. It was said that when a person's cultivation reached the Transforming Realm, he could not only use his internal Qi to narrow the gaps between joints of the whole body but also fold the bones in order according to his will. In this case, the human body would naturally shrink.

It seemed that this Murican young man had been practicing the Bone Shrinking Skill.

"Did he hide his strength by using the Bone Shrinking Skill?"

Fang Qiu frowned and thought for a while. Then, he shook his head repeatedly and murmured, "It's impossible. Bones have nothing to do with the energy aura. The only thing that has something to do with the energy aura is the meridians!

"He managed to hide his aura so well. Could it be that even his meridians can shrink?"

With a heart full of doubts, Fang Qiu directly controlled his spiritual force to penetrate the young man's body to check.

He was surprised to find that not only this young man's bones but also his meridians were different from ordinary people's.

His meridians seemed to have been folded.

It seemed that when he used the Bone Shrinking Skill to change his body shape, he folded his meridians as well.

It was like a straw used for drinks.

Internal Qi was the liquid in the straw. When the straw was unobstructed, the smell of the drink could be clearly smelled. But if the straw was folded, the drink in it would be intercepted and completely blocked in it. Not a trace of it would flow out, and the aura would naturally be hidden.

It was obvious that this foreign young man had used this method, and it worked well.

However, after thinking about it carefully, Fang Qiu found that there were also some drawbacks in this method.

This method had a lot of restrictions on the body. First of all, the premise of folding the meridians as well as bones and flesh was to learn the Bone Shrinking Skill, because only when the whole body became smaller could the meridians have folding space. Only in this way could the meridians be locked, and then the energy aura of the whole body would be completely surrounded by the Dantian and some of the same meridians.

From this young man's body, it could be clearly seen that the sequelae of this method were that the physical injury was very serious.

If he stayed in this state for a long time, his combat strength would be greatly weakened, and he would not be able to fight against others at all.

After figuring it out, Fang Qiu was finally relieved of his worries.

Even if it was the Nirvana Organization, they would never dare to use this method to hide on a large scale. Even if they used it, those who used this method would definitely not have a strong combat capability and would not pose a great threat.

Waving his right hand, Fang Qiu directly burned the body to ash with the Qi of Heaven and Earth.

He had spared the young man alive for two days. It was absolutely impossible for Huaxia and Nirvana to reconcile. They would definitely be mortal enemies in the future.

Chapter 1689 John Doe Leading the Team

In an extremely luxurious villa somewhere.

The fashionably dressed Little Saint Lord was sitting on the sofa in the living room with one leg crossed and the other stretched out on the ground. He was lying on the sofa without caring about his image at all. He was smoking a cigar leisurely and watching TV.

Suddenly, a middle-aged man in a black suit and black sunglasses came in from outside the door. He knelt directly on the side, lowered his head, and said, “My Saint Lord, the news comes that Huaxia is very firm. They are not reconciling with us.”

“I knew this would happen.”

The Little Saint Lord smiled disdainfully.

“The negotiation with Murica has also ended. Murica is willing to join hands with us and try their best to cooperate with us.”

The man spoke again.

When the Little Saint Lord heard this, he couldn't help laughing and said, “Very good. It's all the same as planned.

“Next, everything will remain the same!”

...

On the other side.

As the statement of the Nirvana Organization spread, all the countries and major forces around the world were shocked while sending people out to Nirway.

Meanwhile, many countries and top forces had made requests to the Nirvana Organization to purchase the method privately, and the prices they offered were incredible.

However, they were all rejected by the Nirvana Organization.

The organization also told these countries and forces who tried to purchase the method secretly that only the winner of the auction could get the speed-up technique.

Their meaning was very obvious.

Only by winning the auction could one get the speed-up technique. Otherwise, no matter how much one spent, it was absolutely impossible to get it.

Although many countries and forces noticed that something was wrong, they didn't pay much attention to it. Perhaps it was because everyone's attention was focused on the speed-up technique.

It was not that they didn't want to care, but because there were too many people targeting the technique. They had to do their best to compete with other countries and forces. No one was willing to let go because of this little problem.

After all, the speed-up technique would bring them great power in the next few decades, centuries, or even thousands of years.

Under such circumstances, metahumans from all over the world were rushing to Nirway.

The forces dispatched more people than they did in the operations in the ruins of Egyptt and the Laozi Relic.

As for the Huaxianese, almost everyone, including the higher-ups and the Wulin members, did not believe in the speed-up technique that the Nirvana Organization claimed to auction at all since the Huaxianese had already obtained that method.

In a conference room somewhere in Huaxia.

"Nirvana Organization is now so high-profile. They must be planning something."

A high-level leader said with a serious face, "They are too influential this time. It's completely different from before. It's not just a simple regional involvement, but the whole world is involved. No matter what the conspiracy of the Nirvana Organization is, we can't let them succeed."

"That's right."

Another high-level official nodded in agreement and said, "Nirvana Organization is actually holding such a high-profile auction. Do they need money?"

Apparently no.

As everyone knew that the Nirvana Organization was not short of money at all.

That organization was destined to be rich. Even if they were short of money, they could rob and extort. No one could control them at all.

Since they were not short of money, why did they offer the speed-up technique and the first and third Earth Treasures to auction?

Obviously, their purpose was to attract more people to attend the auction.

So, what was the purpose of holding this auction?

This was the key to their entire plan.

“Although we all know that this is a trap set up by Nirvana Organization and we can’t jump into its trap ourselves, we have no choice but to do so.”

Another high-level official shook his head and said, “In other words, this is also a good opportunity for us to get to know the Nirvana Organization.”

In the chairman’s seat, a kind-looking middle-aged man said, “Let’s prepare to send our men over too.”

After a pause, he continued, “I think we can let John Doe lead the team there.”

“Yeah.”

The others nodded in agreement.

“John Doe is the one who has fought the most with the Nirvana Organization. It can be said that he knows Nirvana best. This operation is very dangerous. It’s best if he can be the one to deal with it.”

The middle-aged man in the chairman’s seat explained a little and then added, “In addition, inform the Sword Sect to choose a few people to go with him. We don’t need too many people but elite people!”

After the higher-ups made a decision not long after that, the news soon reached the Sword Sect and Li Ji.

After receiving the order, Li Ji immediately called Fang Qiu.

“Hello?”

As soon as Fang Qiu returned to Huaxia and was on his way back to the relic, he received a call from Li Ji.

“What’s the situation over there?”

Li Ji’s voice came through.

“I got no clues at all.”

Fang Qiu shook his head and said, “But I’ve killed him!”

“Okay.”

Li Ji nodded with understanding and said, “That doesn’t matter. Nirvana Organization has no time to deal with such a nobody now. The auction certificate in Nirway is in full swing.”

“Do you mean that many people have already gone there?”

Fang Qiu raised his eyebrows.

“Yeah.”

Li Ji nodded and said, “According to the information we got, all the countries and major forces have sent people to participate in the auction of the Nirvana Organization to compete for the speed-up technique. In this case, after discussion, the high-level leaders hope that you can lead a team to Nirway on behalf of Huaxia and investigate the purpose of Nirvana Organization’s public auction.”

“Okay.”

Without any hesitation, Fang Qiu nodded and said, “I’ll do it.”

“The higher-ups have informed the Sword Sect.”

Li Ji continued, “This time, you will lead the team. In addition to you, the Sword Sect will also send some people to go with you. The sect should be ready by now.”

“Okay, I’ll go back to the relic right away.”

Fang Qiu nodded knowingly and hung up the phone.

After that, he rushed all the way.

It didn’t take long for him to return to the Laozi Relic.

Just as Li Ji said, the Sword Sect had sent three people over.

Fang Qiu was very familiar with the two of them.

One was Wei Jian, and the other was Luoyun, who had entered the ruins of Egyptt with him before.

As early as the first time Fang Qiu saw Luoyun, he was already a guru.

After returning from the ruins of Egyptt, Luoyun had been in closed-door training in the Sword Sect for a long time, which had greatly improved his strength. At present, he had reached the Venerable level, and he had great combat capability.

The third person was called Luohua. He was fellow martial brothers with Luoyun. His strength had also reached the Venerable level. He was even a bit stronger than Luoyun.

After seeing the three of them in the relic, Fang Qiu immediately led the team to Beijiang Airport and got on the plane to the capital.

On the other side.

Li Ji had booked the flight to Nirway in advance.

As soon as they arrived in the capital, the four of them immediately transferred to Nirway.

Nirway was one of the five countries in Northern Ou. Its territory stretched from north to south, and its coastline was long and winding. There were many islands on the coast. This country was called the Kingdom of All Islands.

Nirway was a highly developed industrialized country.

However, the auction held by the Nirvana Organization this time was not held in the capital of Nirway, but in a city called Belgon located on the coastline of the country.

This city was similar to a port, surrounded by water on three sides.

Because of its beautiful scenery, it was also a rare tourist attraction.

After 12 hours of flight, Fang Qiu and the other three finally landed at the Belgon International Airport.

After getting off the plane, the four of them rushed straight to the largest hotel in the local area, which was also the world-famous Kleista Hotel.

When the taxi stopped in front of the Kleista Hotel, Fang Qiu clearly sensed that almost all the people staying in this hotel were metahumans from all over the world.

Of course, if it weren't for the fact that this hotel was full of metahumans, Fang Qiu and the other three wouldn't have come here on purpose.

Li Ji had already received the news that almost all the metahumans who came to Belgon were staying in this hotel, so when Fang Qiu and the others were still on the plane, he had already booked rooms for them.

Fang Qiu and the others got out of the taxi and entered the hotel lobby.

Fang Qiu didn't hide it at all. He directly took Wei Jian, Luoyun, and Luohua to the reception desk in the lobby and asked for the keys to their rooms. Then, he went straight upstairs.

He did it very fast.

However, the moment John Doe appeared in the lobby of the hotel, all the people fixed their eyes on him.

The photos of John Doe had already spread all over the world.

Therefore, almost all the metahumans in the world knew John Doe.

When these people saw John Doe, they couldn't help but take a deep breath. Obviously, they didn't expect that Huaxia would send him over.

It should be noticed that John Doe was now ranked third on the global individual strength ranking list.

John Doe had killed two super experts of SS level from Murica in succession. Such strength was definitely not something that those people could afford to offend.

Many people looked at John Doe.

Some even took photos and posted them directly on the underground-force forum.

"The Huaxianese have arrived at Belgon, led by John Doe!"

The photos of John Doe leading the team into the Kleista Hotel were also posted in the post.

Everyone clicked on the post.

"It's really John Doe!"

"I didn't expect that John Doe would lead the Huaxianese team again this time."

"I thought John Doe would be silent for a while after the battle with Murica. I didn't expect him to appear in public so soon."

"This should be the first time that John Doe has appeared in the world in public, right?"

"He's really young."

"He's really young and handsome."

“I still can’t believe that John Doe is already a super expert at the SS level at the age of 22.”

“John Doe has always been hostile to the Nirvana Organization, right? If it weren’t for John Doe’s expose, it would be impossible for us to know about the existence of the Nirvana Organization. I wonder if John Doe’s arrival at this high-profile auction will trigger some unexpected changes...”

Chapter 1690 Tapping Devices

In Murica.

As usual, the news on the underground-force forum directly reached the ears of the high-level officials of Murica at the first possible moment.

“Ha-ha.”

In the conference room, when Nash Wilson, who was sitting in the chairman’s seat, saw the news, he couldn’t help laughing and said, “As expected, Huaxia has taken action.”

Around him, the high-level officials of Murica also burst into laughter.

They had been waiting for this day for a long time.

John Doe had been damaging their forces and even made Murica fall directly from the position of the largest country, making Huaxia the most powerful country.

The Murican higher-ups couldn’t stand it at all, but they couldn’t do anything to John Doe because there were too many people who had been defeated by John Doe. They couldn’t afford John Doe making trouble for them.

But now, the situation was completely different.

Now it was an auction of the Nirvana Organization, which was the mortal enemy of John Doe. In addition, Murica had joined forces with the Nirvana Organization. The auction was held in the territory of Northern Ou, so John Doe would have no way to escape.

“We will get the speed-up technique.”

A senior executive’s eyes lit up as he said, “And we will also take John Doe down!”

“Yes.”

Another person said, “I don’t know what Nirvana Organization is up to. Even though they have joined forces with us, they are unwilling to sell the method to us in private.”

“I don’t care.”

Nash Wilson waved his hand and said, “Nirvana is just a bunch of bad people. We are just taking advantage of each other. Now we can focus on them. After all, we need them to help us kill John Doe. They also possess the speed-up technique we need.

“Once we obtain the speed-up technique, our relationship will change.

“They’re just an organization. We’re the most powerful country in the world. With the speed-up technique and the power of our country, we’ll soon surpass the Nirvana Organization. At that time, we can use them, and we will crush Huaxia and make them never be able to rise again!”

After finishing his words, Nash Wilson couldn’t help but clench his fists. As his blue veins bulged, his knuckles cracked.

In Soviety.

“Sure enough, it’s John Doe!”

After learning that John Doe appeared in Belgon in Nirway on behalf of Huaxia, the high-level officials of SoviETT were also very surprised.

“Judging from the way Huaxia handled things, they shouldn’t have dispatched John Doe now, who has just experienced so many great battles. He should be just like Qingyun, who wouldn’t fight anymore after he made himself famous with one battle. He can shock the world with his remaining power!”

“It seems that the purpose of Huaxia this time is not simply to attend the auction.”

“They didn’t send many people over but had John Doe act as the leader. There will be a good show at this auction.”

...

In Anglan.

“Nirvana Organization and Huaxia are absolutely hostile to each other, and Nirvana is mortal enemies with John Doe. This is a well-known fact. Why would Huaxia send John Doe to attend the auction at this critical moment?”

“It seems that there should be a deeper meaning to what Huaxia is doing.”

“I heard that the Nirvana Organization has also sent an envoy to Huaxia, but I don’t know what the result of their negotiation is.”

“It seems that the Huaxianese are very likely to go there for the sake of the speed-up technique. In addition to that, there is nothing worth sending John Doe out.”

"I think they want to use John Doe to deter the Nirvana Organization with his famous deeds recently. At the same time, they're trying to deter us, who are capable to compete with them for the speed-up technique!"

"Humph, now, Huaxia is not facing a few countries, but all the people who are going to attend the auction in the world. Set the hostile relationship between Huaxia and Nirvana aside. Huaxia has merely dispatched four people, and they want to fight against the whole world. Even if it's John Doe leading the team, they absolutely won't succeed!"

"Maybe this is why Nirvana Organization is unwilling to sell the speed-up technique to us in private. They hope to use the power of the whole world to suppress Huaxia."

"This time, the Huaxianese won't get what they want."

...

In L'hexagone.

"Why did Huaxia do this? Aren't they afraid that John Doe will be besieged by the Nirvana Organization in Nirway? Are they so confident in John Doe?"

"The Huaxianese are not stupid. They never do anything against themselves. They made it known that they've dispatched four people, but in fact, there may be more of them."

"It makes sense. I guess the reason why Huaxia sent John Doe is to attract everyone's attention and then do something secretly."

"Huaxia has risen. It's no longer the same country that takes peace as its priority. Although the speed-up technique is very important to us, we don't have to compete too much with Huaxia. We just need to do nothing while looking for opportunities. We can't become the first target of Huaxia. It's not so easy to stand out."

...

It was not just these four countries, which were known as the five major countries with Huaxia that were discussed.

When the news of John Doe appearing in Belgon spread, other countries and major forces also began to discuss it in private.

As was known to all, there was a grudge between Huaxia and the Nirvana Organization, especially between John Doe and the Nirvana Organization.

Therefore, everyone could feel that the atmosphere in Belgon was already quite solemn and depressing before the auction officially began.

In Auslord in Nirway.

“John Doe has arrived?”

A middle-aged man in a black robe and dark red clothes saw the photo where John Doe appeared in the Kleista Hotel in Belgon through his mobile phone. He immediately chuckled indifferently and murmured, “He killed so many people in our organization. Now we’re finally going to meet. He came at the right time. I shall see what John Doe, who is famous all over the world, can do!”

“Eighth Guardian.”

Beside him, a man in a black robe also lowered his head and made a hold-fist salute, saying, “I have detailed news. The Huaxianese is doing nothing for the time being except for dispatching John Doe and the other three people.”

“Okay.”

The middle-aged man, known as the Eighth Guardian, nodded gently and said with a smile, “Get ready. It’s time for our auction!”

...

At the Kleista Hotel in Belgon.

After Fang Qiu and the others got the keys to their rooms, they took the elevator directly to the fourth floor.

The hotel had a total of eight floors.

The fourth floor happened to be in the middle.

Li Ji booked a super-large suite for Fang Qiu and the others. This suite occupied the whole floor. There were four rooms in total, which were just suitable for four people and each of them could live in one.

The elevator stopped.

As soon as the four people came out and turned around, they saw an ordinary door.

After opening the door, there was a particularly spacious room with a living room in the middle. There were four rooms in each corner, and everything needed was available.

“We’re finally here.”

Walking into the room, Luoyun stretched his muscles and bones and looked at John Doe while sighing. When he was about to speak, John Doe suddenly raised his finger and put it to his mouth, making a gesture of silence.

Everyone was stunned.

Fang Qiu shook his head gently.

Then, under the gaze of Wei Jian, Luoyun, and Luohua, he closed the door and began to examine the suite carefully from the door.

Suddenly-

Clack!

With a move of his right hand, John Doe directly grabbed a bean-sized black object from an extremely hidden groove in the door frame and crushed it into pieces.

Everyone stepped forward to take a look.

It was a tapping device.

The three people's faces changed.

They didn't expect this suite to be bugged.

Fang Qiu made a gesture of silence again and then continued to check.

The three others followed behind him.

Before long, Fang Qiu found a waterproof tapping device in a flowerpot filled with water and a surveillance camera among the branches in the pot.

The moment he discovered those devices, he destroyed them.

After clearing the living room, Fang Qiu entered four rooms in turn to search.

After looking around, he found three monitors and three tapping devices in each room. With the ones in the living room, he found a total of 15 monitors and 15 tapping devices.

“Alright.”

After clearing the rooms, Fang Qiu breathed a sigh of relief and said, “There’s no problem now, and you can rest assured to talk.”

Only then did the three men relax a little.

In a building not far from the hotel, a man was sitting in front of the monitor. He clearly saw that John Doe had destroyed all these monitors one by one. The 15 surveillance screens blacked out one by one.

The face of the man who was monitoring instantly darkened.

When the last screen blacked out and all the tapping devices were beeping, the person in charge of monitoring picked up his mobile phone in a panic and dialed a number.

The person in charge of monitoring said bitterly, “John Doe has checked in, but he has destroyed all the monitoring and tapping devices we installed in his suite.”

“It doesn’t matter. Anyway, this little trick won’t be a problem for John Doe.”

A voice came from the other end of the line. He didn’t sound surprised at all. After saying those words, he hung up the phone directly.

...

In the suite of the hotel.

“It seems that it’s not an easy trip.”

Looking at the 15 monitors and 15 tapping devices thrown into the trash can by John Doe, Wei Jian couldn’t help but shake his head. He smiled bitterly, saying, “How dare they use this kind of trick on us?”

“It would’ve worked on us.”

Luoyun gave a wry smile and said, “If it weren’t for John Doe, our conversation and actions these days would be exposed.”

“Yeah.”

Luohua also nodded, looked at John Doe with a serious face, and asked, “Do we need to check again? There may be some other tapping devices that haven’t been discovered.”

“No.”

Fang Qiu shook his head and said with a smile, “But if you’re worried, you can check the suite several more times. I can take advantage of this time to go out and do something.”

Luoyun asked, “Where are you going?”

“I need to find the Muricans.”

Fang Qiu stood up and said, “We don’t know what Nirvana is plotting yet, so we have to take the initiative. If we keep waiting here to attend the auction, we won’t make any progress. Before attending the auction, I have to tell our concerns to other countries and try to persuade them. And Murica is undoubtedly the most difficult one. If I can handle the Muricans, I will have no problem talking down other countries.

“However, if I can’t even handle the Muricans, we can only be very cautious in our actions.”
