Chapter 1721 A Guardian?

On the side of the mountain, there was a narrow stone path.

Fang Qiu hid in a corner and observed the situation in the mountain stream below carefully.

After changing into a black robe, the owner of the garage quickly jumped all the way into the mountain stream.

There was a flat grassland.

At this time, more than a dozen people in black robes had gathered there.

Unlike the situation in the manor before, the weakest among this group of people was in the eighth class, and the strongest had reached the guru level.

They were not like those sixth-class or seventh-class people in the manor, bragging to each other. Instead, they gathered in twos and threes, discussing cultivation techniques with each other.

Seeing these people, Fang Qiu felt a little shocked.

These people were above average in the Nirvana Organization in Autranssy. Just like the boss of the garage, each of them must have a lot of people working for them.

According to the number of people working for the owner of the garage, each of them should have more than 40 subordinates.

In this way, there were hundreds of them in total!

Nirvana Organization had just begun to develop outside Huaxia in recent years. For example, it had developed in Austranssy not long.

Fang Qiu didn't expect Nirvana Organization would develop so fast in Australia. Under his surveillance, there were already hundreds of people appearing. If all the members of the Nirvana Organization in Nirvana Organization were added up, how many would there be?

With this thought...

Thinking of this, Fang Qiu secretly rejoiced.

Fortunately, he was here. Otherwise, if the Nirvana Organization continued to develop like this, the world would be in danger.

Fang Qiu continued to observe secretly.

He was waiting for someone from a higher level to come.

After waiting for a long time, he found that no one had come at all.

Fang Qiu was very confused.

"Could it be that the time of gatherings of the people of different levels is different from the time of reporting? Is it not at the same time?"

With doubts, Fang Qiu continued to wait.

However, when the gathering was about to end, Fang Qiu found that the person who taught the technique in this gathering had already arrived early. It was that expert at the guru level.

It was not until the end that this guru expert began to teach more than a dozen people a technique.

When this group of people was about to leave, Fang Qiu raised his eyebrows and knew it was time for him to take action.

He immediately moved and rushed out.

When this group of people saw Fang Qiu, they were all stunned.

“Who are you?” A nine-class expert questioned.

“John Doe?”

Before Fang Qiu could answer, the expert at the guru level suddenly widened his eyes and shouted the name, John Doe, in panic.

“John Doe?”

At the scene, more than a dozen people were confused.

They had never heard of John Doe. Nor did they know who he was!

After all, compared with the core members of the Nirvana Organization, they were just peripheral followers. They were not qualified to know anything about John Doe at all.

Therefore, except for the guru expert, the others were at a loss.

Judging from their daily lives, there was nothing to be confused about.

Except for the regular gatherings, these people were all members of the public. They had their own things to do. Because of their identities, they could not even enter the underground-force forum. Therefore, they had never heard of John Doe before!

Seeing the panicked look of the guru, the others immediately became serious.

However, it was a pity that Fang Qiu didn't give them any chance at all.

Fang Qiu clenched his right hand.

Whiz!

An earth-shattering sound of the sword was heard, and the divine sword in his hand was instantly condensed. Then, with a wave of his arm, the divine sword was waved in the air.

A stream of bright sword Qi instantly flew out of the sword and rushed straight to one of them.

Swoosh!

There was a sharp sound breaking through the air.

The sword Qi rushed to the person in an instant.

Before the man could react, his body was pierced by the bright sword Qi and was cut into two halves!

It happened just like that.

All the people around were shocked!

No one expected that the man named John Doe would kill the friend standing beside them with a wave of his hand.

The others began to resist one after another.

However, only when Fang Qiu locked his target on them did these people feel the power of John Doe. When John Doe's aura enveloped them, they felt as if the whole sky had collapsed. They couldn't breathe under the pressure.

Under this tremendous pressure, they didn't even have the strength to resist. They could only watch John Doe slash down with his long sword.

The sounds of the sword kept ringing.

With each slash of his sword, one person would die.

After all, the gap between their strengths was too big. These people couldn't escape Fang Qiu's fierce attack at all.

When killing people, Fang Qiu deliberately chose those people below the level of guru, leaving some time for the guru.

After all, no more people came this time. Fang Qiu would not let the clues be cut off here. He had to leave some time for the guru to take action.

However, the guru didn't want to escape.

In this case, even if he wanted to escape, he would never go to a place related to the Nirvana Organization. Since he was doomed to die, he would not take John Doe to find clues about the Nirvana Organization.

In this case, that guru expert didn't run away at all.

Instead, he quickly sent a message while John Doe was not attacking him.

There was not much time left. Therefore, the other party sent the short message very quickly. He didn't even have time to edit the content of the text message carefully.

This was what Fang Qiu wanted to see.

By the time the guru sent the text message, Fang Qiu had already killed the other people.

Only the guru was still alive.

"Kill me! Please kill me!"

The expert at the guru level stared at Fang Qiu with a crazy look. He was courting death.

Seeing this, Fang Qiu raised his brows.

Sure enough, those who had been taught by the Nirvana Organization were all lunatics!

With a stir of his mind, Fang Qiu rushed forward and waved the long sword in his hand. Without any defense, the man's heart was pierced by the sword.

The person smiled.

When his heart was pierced and his body began to fall back feebly, a crazy smile appeared on the face of this expert at the guru level.

He was the same as the Nirvana people Fang Qiu had killed before!

After being killed, the man fell to the ground.

Fang Qiu stepped forward.

He took out the mobile phone from the man's trouser pocket to check.

There was an encrypted text message on the mobile phone. It was about the location and the attack. There were no other words, nor did it mention John Doe.

Fang Qiu looked at the phone number that accepted the text message but found that it was a row of X's. It meant that the number was hidden. Even if he checked the phone list, he couldn't see the number at all.

Just as he was about to continue to search for more information, abruptly, the phone began to heat up.

Fang Qiu seemed to have noticed something and immediately threw the phone out.

Boom!

As soon as he threw it out, the phone exploded in the air.

It should have been blown up by the control center.

Fang Qiu was quite depressed about this situation.

"I wonder if someone will come. I can only hide and wait."

After carefully searching the people at the scene and finding nothing, Fang Qiu looked around and soon found a place to hide.

It was a lush forest.

Fang Qiu went straight in, hid his body, and began to wait without hesitation.

Although Fang Qiu was not sure if this message could attract higher-ups of the Nirvana Organization in Autranssy, he had to wait to see.

Once someone came, there would be more clues to follow.

If no one came, he couldn't find more clues.

It was not so easy to find more clues that could be tracked down.

He waited for one hour.

Swoosh! Swoosh! Swoosh!

A sound of breaking the air suddenly sounded out from afar.

When he heard the sound, Fang Qiu immediately woke up from his cultivation and spread out his Divine Consciousness in an instant.

His Divine Consciousness moved.

Fang Qiu immediately found five auras in the direction of the sound.

These five auras were all at the guru level.

"Could this be the strongest local force of the Nirvana Organization in the local area?"

Fang Qiu didn't believe it.

It was impossible for five gurus to develop Nirvana to be like this in Autranssy.

There should be someone stronger.

Soon, the five gurus came to the mountain stream.

As soon as they arrived, they immediately began to look around.

After making sure that there was no one around, they began to check the corpses all over the ground.

One of them even took photos of the corpses.

"Report the situation here immediately. Tell the higher-ups that an expert has come here. It seems that the person is targeting our organization. Not only here, but also more than 40 people in the manor in the suburbs of Stuart have all died unnaturally." A guru said.

"Okay."

The guru who had taken the photos nodded and said, "It seems we need to be careful. This person must be powerful since he has killed all of our people in Stuart in such a short time. We can't be a match for him. We can only leave him to the higher-ups!"

After finishing his words, the guru who had taken photos immediately sent a message.

"It's done."

Not long after the message was sent, the person who had taken the photos received a reply and said, "The higher-ups sent us a message. They asked us to guard here first. They will immediately report it to their higher-ups and wait for them to decide how to deal with it."

The others nodded in understanding.

"Is there a Guardian?"

When Fang Qiu heard that, his eyes immediately lit up.

Unexpectedly, after waiting for so many days, he finally got big news.

However, he might not have a chance to deal with the other party.

It seemed he had to work hard to deal with the other party.

Chapter 1722 An Expert Came

Swoosh!

Just when the five new gurus of Nirvana were collecting the bodies of these people, a sound of movement suddenly came.

At this moment, Fang Qiu, who had been hiding in the lush forest, quietly flew out.

The sounds were suppressed to be very small.

The attention of five people was all focused on the dead people, so they didn't notice the arrival of Fang Qiu at all.

Poof!

Suddenly, a piercing sound was heard.

In confusion, four people turned their heads to look at the same time.

They found the chest of one of them was pierced by a sharp blade, and there was also a hand covering the person's mouth, making him unable to make a sound.

Fang Qiu was standing behind them. With the person whose chest had been pierced blocking their lines of sight, the other four people couldn't see Fang Qiu at all.

"Who is it?"

The four of them were shocked and immediately screamed.

In a flash, Fang Qiu rushed to the back of the second person extremely fast. Before the other party could react, he pierced through the person's chest with his sword.

The man didn't even have time to react.

When his face changed dramatically and his eyes were full of panic and horror, he was feeble.

Fang Qiu had killed two people.

The other three's faces changed dramatically, and they immediately flew away.

Fang Qiu flashed again and caught up with the third man in an instant. Then he pierced through the other party's heart with his sword.

“Call for help! Hurry up and call for help!”

The fourth person shouted at the fifth person.

The fifth person was the person who had taken photos of more than a dozen corpses and sent the news to the higher-ups.

Fang Qiu didn't take him as a target.

He wanted to use the person to send the news to the Guardian of Nirvana and lure him out.

Anyway, the only person who had seen his appearance and knew his identity was dead. In a panic, the person did not spread the news about John Doe.

Therefore, Fang Qiu was not worried that his identity would be exposed.

Originally, Fang Qiu wanted to use himself to lure the Nirvana Organization out. After all, Nirvana wanted to kill him the most.

If the news of his arrival in Autranssy got out, he was afraid it would arouse the vigilance of the Nirvana Organization. Many people who had been focused on him would start to investigate why he came to Autranssy.

To not arouse the vigilance of the Nirvana Organization and not to affect his search for the Yuan Yang Fruit, Fang Qiu decided to hide his identity.

When the fifth person saw three people die in an instant, he was scared.

As a guru, he knew very well how powerful a guru was and how difficult it was to kill a guru.

But the veiled person in front of him had killed three gurus in such a short time. This kind of strength was terrifying.

Without delay, he immediately took out his mobile phone to ask for help.

After killing the third guru, Fang Qiu moved and immediately chased after the fourth guru.

He moved extremely fast.

In the blink of an eye, he caught up with the fourth person.

This time, Fang Qiu didn't kill the other party directly. Instead, he stretched out his left hand, covered the person's mouth, and put the long sword directly across his throat.

Seeing this, the fourth man struggled in horror in an instant.

The fifth person panicked even more.

"An expert, an expert whose face can't be seen, kill them all. He has killed them all. Help! Come and help!"

In horror, the fifth person sent a message.

After sending the news successfully, he saw the long sword across the fourth man's throat suddenly pulled.

Blood spurted out.

The fourth person died!

When the blood splattered in all directions, the face of the fifth person instantly turned pale.

In the next moment, it was his turn.

Just as the fourth person died, Fang Qiu, who was hiding behind the person, moved and rushed toward the fifth person quickly.

Because he had been staring at Fang Qiu, the fifth person finally saw the face that he couldn't see just now.

It was John Doe!

As one of the core members, he had seen John Doe and knew John Doe. Most of the time, he was glad that he was working in Autranssy. He didn't expect to meet John Doe here.

When he saw the face of John Doe, he was completely stunned.

"Why?"

"Why is John Doe here?"

John Doe had already rushed to him and waved his right hand before he could think more.

Despite the opponent's all-out resistance, the long sword in John Doe's hand pierced through the opponent's chest without any hesitation!

Boom!

Then the phone in the man's hand suddenly exploded.

It directly smashed his arm into pieces!

After resisting the impact of the explosion with his internal Qi, Fang Qiu threw the man down speechlessly. Then he exhaled gently, turned around, and pulled over all the bodies of the other four people he had just killed. He piled them up with the bodies of the previous dozen people.

After that, Fang Qiu turned around and returned to the lush forest where he had been before and continued to wait.

In an ancient church in a not big seaside city of Autransy, there was a burly middle-aged man with long white curly hair. He wore a black robe and had a necklace with a blood-red cross around his four fingers.

At this time, he stood in the innermost part of the church, praying to a stone statue.

It was silent in the church.

Creak!

Just as the middle-aged man was praying, there was a sudden sound of opening the door.

The doors of the church opened, and a warm ray of sunlight shone in. However, before it could illuminate the church, the doors were closed.

“What happened?”

The middle-aged man standing in the innermost part of the church opened his eyes from his prayer and asked without looking back.

The man who entered the room said, “A subordinate reported that a mysterious expert had killed more than 40 people at the bottom level and more than 10 people at the middle level.”

“A mysterious expert?”

The middle-aged man turned his head and looked at the man in a black robe who had just entered the door. He raised his eyebrows and asked, “How did you arrange it?”

“I’ve already sent some people over.”

The person who reported said, “But on the way, I received news that the five S-class members sent by the local organization seemed to have been killed!”

“Really?”

The middle-aged man’s face immediately darkened. He said, “We have met an expert!”

“Yes.” The person who reported immediately nodded.

“There is no point in sending more S-class members over. This time, I will personally head over.”

The middle-aged man thought for a moment and said, “Let everyone get ready. Let’s go there together. Stewart is an important stronghold. No matter what, we must ensure that it will develop smoothly!”

“Do you want to go there in person?”

The person who reported was shocked and said, “Seventh Guardian, even if the other party is an expert, you don’t have to deal with the person personally.”

“We’ll know if it’s worth it when we get there.” The middle-aged man, called the Seventh Guardian, shook his head and said indifferently.

Then he turned around and continued to pray.

Fang Qiu did not return to the city.

Instead, he continued to wait in the forest.

He knew since the other party had sent the message, someone would come.

A big battle was about to come. It would not be easy for him to deal with the other party. Before the people of the Nirvana Organization arrived, Fang Qiu had to recover to the best state.

From the conversation between the five people just now, it was confirmed that there was a Guardian in Autranssy.

There was no Guardian among the new generation of the Nirvana Organization.

Their Guardians were from the last generation.

According to Master Qingshan, there were only ten Guardians left in the last generation of Nirvana. However, Tenth Guardian, Ninth Guardian, and Eighth Guardian had been killed by Fang Qiu.

There were only seven Guardians left.

Most crucially, among the three Guardians he had killed before, two of them were super strong people in the One-Flower Core Formation. In that way, the strength of the Guardian in Autranssy must not be low.

The person must also be in the Flower Core Formation Realm.

If Fang Qiu wanted to kill the other party, it would take him some effort.

Soon, the sky began to darken.

Three hours later, at nine o'clock in the evening, dozens of figures rushed over from the horizon under the extremely attractive starry sky.

The leader was a middle-aged man with four fingers tied to a red cross necklace on his left hand, followed by dozens of gurus.

These people were all dressed in black robes.

They rushed to the mountain stream extremely fast.

Because his Divine Consciousness had been spreading out, the moment this group of people appeared, Fang Qiu noticed their arrival.

"As expected, the Guardian is in the Flower Core Formation Realm."

Fang Qiu didn't expect an expert in the Flower Core Formation Realm would come.

There were also 15 guru experts.

However, these 15 gurus were all incapable gurus. He could distinguish their cultivation from their auras.

Fang Qiu used a skill in his heart and directly rushed out of the woods.

He rose into the air with a long sword in his hand, waiting for his opponents to come.

Before that, Fang Qiu also took out a black mask and put it on, not wanting the other party to recognize him.

Swoosh!

Five minutes later, the group of people finally arrived with a rush of wind.

In the distance, when the leading Seventh Guardian saw the person standing in the air, he narrowed his eyes.

His eyes were full of coldness.

“Did you my people?” The Seventh Guardian stopped in the air ten meters away from Fang Qiu, stared at Fang Qiu, and asked coldly.

“Yes.”

Fang Qiu nodded matter-of-factly. Then he pointed at them and said, “I’ll also kill you!”

After hearing his words, the face of the Seventh Guardian immediately darkened.

“Who are you?” The Seventh Guardian asked coldly.

“The one who will kill you.” Fang Qiu smiled indifferently.

“You’re courting death!”

The Seventh Guardian was furious. He loosened his left hand and put the cross necklace on his four fingers into his pocket. Then he stretched out his right hand. A milky white energy suddenly surged out of his palm and quickly condensed into a combat spear in his hand!

Wisps of black Qi were visible in the dense milky white energy that had turned into a combat spear, giving people a sense of conflict as if it had been eroded by evil.

Chapter 1723 Fighting Against the Seventh Guardian!

“Go to hell.” The Seventh Guardian let out a deep shout.

The Seventh Guardian held the combat spear in his right hand. With a fierce aura of battle, he suddenly jumped high. His right hand, which was holding the Combat tightly, shrank back. He got up in the air and pulled the combat spear back for a certain distance. When he rushed to Fang Qiu, he stabbed it fiercely at Fang Qiu.

With this stab, the milky white combat spear instantly condensed powerful energy. It formed a layer of energy Qi, rotated, and swept out of the arrow of the combat spear like an electric drill with terrifying power.

Seeing this, Fang Qiu raised his eyebrows.

He didn’t expect that this Guardian would make a killing move.

Without hesitation, Fang Qiu waved his left hand.

Slap.

He slapped his palm in the air and hit the ground.

“Great Hand of Nihilicity!”

With the spread of the shout, a layer of energy fluctuation, centered on Fang Qiu’s palm, spread out in all directions and instantly covered the area within a radius of ten kilometers around him.

Fang Qiu hadn’t used this move for a long time.

He didn't use it because those opponents were not easy to be restricted by the Great Hand of Nihility.

But this time was different.

When the other party made a move, Fang Qiu clearly felt that the person was absorbing a large amount of energy from the surrounding space.

This was the best time to use the Great Hand of Nihility!

Fang Qiu sent out a palm strike and took control of the area within ten kilometers of him. Then Fang Qiu waved his right hand. The long sword in his hand went straight to the opponent's attack.

Boom!

The sound of metal clashing rang out.

Under the opponent's fierce blow, Fang Qiu forcibly resisted the huge power bursting from the person. Although he was not injured, he was still forced back by the huge force from the combat spear in the opponent's hand.

"Humph." After forcing Fang Qiu back with one blow, the Seventh Guardian snorted disdainfully.

Fang Qiu also smiled.

The Seventh Guardian had spent nearly ten percent of his energy on that attack just now. Now that he had control over the place within a radius of ten kilometers, any trace of energy he had used up would not be restored.

Next, as long as he was in an independent vacuum, everything would soon come to an end.

“Retrieve.” Fang Qiu shouted softly.

The Qi of Heaven and Earth within ten kilometers immediately surged.

With the surge of the Qi of Heaven and Earth, the face of the Seventh Guardian immediately changed.

He found when he wanted to absorb the Qi of Heaven and Earth, the space around him inexplicably turned into a vacuum. He couldn’t absorb any energy at all.

“You did it, right?” Staring at Fang Qiu, the Seventh Guardian questioned angrily.

“Are you afraid?” Fang Qiu sneered.

“Interesting.”

Although the Seventh Guardian looked grim, he sneered disdainfully and said, “I’ll kill you in the next move!”

Hearing that, Fang Qiu loosened his right hand.

The divine sword in his hand quietly dissipated.

In the dark, the disappearance of the divine sword was like the energy dissipating. In addition, the Seventh Guardian had never seen Fang Qiu before. He couldn’t confirm Fang Qiu’s identity through the divine sword in Fang Qiu’s hand.

“Go to hell!” Staring at Fang Qiu, the Seventh Guardian shouted coldly.

Then a milky-white energy suddenly burst out from under his feet and directly condensed into a layer of energy aura around him like Gang Qi. It rose wildly into the sky.

With the appearance of this energy aura, the Qi power emitted by the Seventh Guardian instantly soared.

Even if there was no Heaven and Earth energy to absorb, the Qi power that it burst out was still amazing.

The gurus of the Nirvana Organization who followed him were all dumbfounded.

This was the first time that they had seen the Seventh Guardian use all his strength.

Merely his terrifying might caused them to tremble with fear.

When all the gurus were shivering, the Seventh Guardian slowly raised his hands and put them above his head.

As he raised his arms, the layer of milky white energy, which looked like an energy Qi, quickly gathered from all directions to the space between his hands on the top of his head and quickly condensed into an energy ball.

As the energy rapidly boiled and transformed, it gradually turned into a large tip of the spear!

Wisps of black energy kept tearing and flickering like lightning on the tip of the spear.

Seeing this, Fang Qiu's face darkened.

He could feel that the other party had used up the remaining 90% of his energy.

The Seventh Guardian was the smartest opponent Fang Qiu had ever met.

When there was no energy supply, the only way was to use all his strength to concentrate on one blow and strike out fiercely.

Under the circumstances that the energy was limited, the longer the battle lasted, the more unfavorable it would be for him. He couldn't absorb the Qi of Heaven and Earth, but the other side could absorb the Qi of Heaven and Earth to recover. In this way, the battle situation would undoubtedly be in favor of the side that could absorb the Qi of Heaven and Earth.

Therefore, the Seventh Guardian chose to launch his strongest attack, trying to kill Fang Qiu in one blow.

After sensing the other party's intention, Fang Qiu did not dare to hesitate at all.

His hands moved.

He used the Great Hand of Destruction in his left hand and the Great Hand of Formlessness in his right!

The Qi of Heaven and Earth within ten kilometers was instantly mobilized and gathered around him at will.

"Formless Destruction!"

He put his hands together.

Under the control of Fang Qiu, all the Qi of Heaven and Earth within a range of ten kilometers quickly merged with each other.

When the two kinds of energy merged, Fang Qiu had to activate his internal Qi.

With the flow of the golden internal Qi in his body, a round ball of cannonball-like energy immediately condensed in front of him.

Along with the appearance of this energy ball, the golden light expanded.

It illuminated the dark sky!

The spear condensed above the head of the Seventh Guardian was getting bigger and bigger, and the power it emitted was getting stronger and stronger. A terrible destructive aura was spreading in all directions.

When this aura of energy was just released, it was pushed back by a layer of golden energy Qi.

“Go to hell.”

The Seventh Guardian seemed to have felt the energy fluctuation from Fang Qiu. It was beyond his tolerance. In a hurry, he immediately injected all the energy in his body into the tip of the spear. Then, he raised his hands above his head, stretched forward violently, and pressed down!

Swoosh!

The tip of the spear, emitting a devastating aura, instantly cut through the sky and rushed toward Fang Qiu like a bullet.

However, right at this time, a dazzling golden light suddenly burst out.

The next moment, the golden energy ball in front of Fang Qiu suddenly expanded rapidly.

In just an instant, it swelled to the point that two people couldn't hug it together, and it was still growing.

Just as the tip of the spear was about to reach him, the golden energy ball in front of Fang Qiu had grown to a diameter of five meters.

Boom!

An explosion shook the sky.

The huge golden energy ball in front of Fang Qiu also rushed out like a bullet at this moment.

In seconds, the two forces collided with a boom.

However, the scene made all the people of the Nirvana Organization on the scene dumbfounded.

The tip of the spear, which was emitting a strong destructive aura from the Seventh Guardian, was swallowed up by the huge golden energy ball when rushing toward it.

After devouring the energy bursting out from the other party, the huge golden energy ball began to twist violently.

After twisting, it became quiet again.

The huge golden energy ball seemed to want to swallow and digest the opponent's energy attack.

The next second, the huge golden ball rushed toward the Seventh Guardian.

After the blow, the Seventh Guardian had no energy to defend. He didn't even have the strength to escape. As he turned around in a panic, the huge golden ball flew up and swallowed him from behind.

This scene frightened the other gurus of the Nirvana Organization.

They all wanted to go up and save their leader but didn't dare.

They knew they would be courting death if they went up now.

A loud explosion was suddenly heard.

After devouring the Seventh Guardian, the huge golden energy ball exploded.

In an instant, the golden energy exploded and filled the sky like fireworks.

It lit up the entire sky.

“Where is the Guardian?”

“Where is the Seventh Guardian?”

“Is he gone?”

At this moment, all the gurus of the Nirvana Organization were dumbfounded.

They had always believed that the Seventh Guardian would be alive.

However, when the aftermath of the explosion dispersed, they found the Seventh Guardian was gone.

He disappeared from this world just like that!

It was obvious the Seventh Guardian had been blown to pieces.

Thinking of this, the gurus of Nirvana immediately panicked. They didn’t even dare to think about it, immediately scattered, and fled in all directions.

Even the Seventh Guardian couldn’t defeat this mysterious expert, not to mention them.

If they continued to stay, they would die.

If they didn't run now, they wouldn't live.

"Do you want to run away?"

Seeing these people running away, Fang Qiu snorted and immediately chased after them.

The divine sword condensed in his hand again.

With each of his moves, he killed a person.

He acted as if he was a Killing God.

Fang Qiu killed from in all directions with his sword.

In just three minutes, among the 15 gurus of Nirvana, 14 were quickly killed by Fang Qiu, leaving only one who was frantically running away. Fang Qiu did not immediately chase after him. Instead, he turned around and gathered all the corpses in the mountain stream. Then he lit a fire and burned them all!

After doing all this, the last guru had only fled five kilometers away.

Fang Qiu leisurely chased after him.

He left the person alive because he wanted to track him down and find the main stronghold of Nirvana in Autranssy.

These people were all core members of the Nirvana Organization in Autransssy. They had completely abandoned their secular identities. The only place that could give them a sense of security was the base of the Nirvana Organization!

Chapter 1724 Are You Talking About Me?

Fang Qiu followed the person all the way.

To not arouse his suspicion, Fang Qiu deliberately distanced himself from the person by 20 kilometers.

Under the surveillance of his Divine Consciousness, the man had nowhere to hide no matter where he ran. Fang Qiu was not in a hurry at all.

Twenty kilometers away from Fang Qiu, the only one escaping was a guru. He kept running forward and looking back in panic for fear that the mysterious expert who had killed the Seventh Guardian would catch up with him.

He ran in the opposite direction of the downtown area of Stuwart and headed for the coastal cities quickly.

Fang Qiu followed him at a constant speed.

An hour later, the guru came to a small city called Tennanticrik.

Fang Qiu thought the base of the Nirvana Organization was here. However, he didn't expect this person to rob a car in the small city, quickly drove out of the city, and continued to escape.

Fang Qiu was confused.

He had only waited for about four hours in the mountain stream. Logically speaking, if these people got ready and rushed over, their stronghold should not be too far away from the mountain stream.

Why did he keep running?

In confusion, Fang Qiu went after the person immediately.

It was night. Fang Qiu was chasing behind the car, and the driver didn't notice him.

He quietly landed on the roof of the car.

Fang Qiu observed the person in the car carefully.

However, he discovered that the man was panicky. Apart from panic, there was nothing unusual about him.

Beep! Beep! Beep!

About an hour later, all of a sudden, the cell phone of the driver rang.

Hearing the ringtone of his mobile phone, Fang Qiu immediately began to listen carefully.

"I'm on my way."

"Seventh Guardian is dead. He's dead."

"I don't dare to go back to Tennanticrik anymore. He's a devil. He'll catch up with me. I can't stay there. I'm going to the stronghold."

A few simple words immediately made Fang Qiu understand.

It seemed the place where the Seventh Guardian used to be should be the base of the Nirvana Organization in Autranssy, and the only remaining guru should have been in charge of the small city just now.

The other 14 gurus should be temporarily transferred from different places.

The remaining guru didn't contact the people in the nearby cities. It meant that there were no people from the Nirvana Organization in the nearby cities.

That was why he chose to escape to the stronghold in a panic.

It seemed he had already contacted the stronghold before he fled, and it was now waiting for him to return.

Fang Qiu came up with an idea. He immediately slowed down, fell behind five kilometers again, and continued to follow the person.

On the morning of the next day, the car stopped in a small town called Windom.

This was a small town near the sea.

When the car entered the town, Fang Qiu was in the forest five kilometers away.

Under the supervision of his Divine Consciousness, Fang Qiu saw that the man drove to a church and stopped outside. Then he quickly walked into the church.

With Divine Consciousness, Fang Qiu found the other party's aura disappeared after entering the church.

With doubts, Fang Qiu quickly approached and went straight to the door of the church. He carefully sensed the situation inside, only to find no one inside.

“He’s quite cautious.”

With a sneer, Fang Qiu went straight forward and pushed open the doors of the church.

There was nothing in the church except for the five empty seats and a prayer platform.

It reminded Fang Qiu of the biological base of Nirvana in Zhongdong.

Now, it seemed the base of the Nirvana Organization was in this church.

“It should be underground.”

Fang Qiu began to search.

The Divine Consciousness wouldn’t lie. Fang Qiu noticed that the man had walked into the church, so even if Fang Qiu couldn’t see him, Fang Qiu was sure that this was the base of the Nirvana Organization.

As soon as he entered the church, Fang Qiu noticed that the whole church had been enveloped by a layer of strange energy. It prevented Fang Qiu, who was outside, from sensing the situation inside.

At present, Fang Qiu didn’t know where this layer of energy came from.

He began to search carefully.

After Fang Qiu searched for a long time, he found no entrance to the passage on the ground.

It meant...

That was to say, the base of the Nirvana Organization was not underground.

Since it wasn't underground, where could it be?

In confusion, Fang Qiu continued to examine the walls carefully.

After a while, he found a door on a pillar in the middle of the church.

He pushed the door open and walked in.

He found a one-meter-wide passage. It looked to be parallel to the church, with only a wall between them.

It was extremely dark inside the passageway. There was no light at all.

However, Fang Qiu could still see everything clearly.

He advanced through the passageway.

Soon, Fang Qiu came to the end of the passage.

A voice came from outside the passage.

"That's all. The Seventh Guardian was swallowed by the golden light ball erupted by that mysterious expert. After the golden light ball exploded, he disappeared."

Hearing it, Fang Qiu smiled.

He was right.

The base of the Nirvana Organization was indeed in this church.

However, it was not underground but in the hidden space of the church. The purpose of the church's construction was to deceive people.

"What should we do now?" The person inside continued.

Fang Qiu continued to walk inside quietly.

"I've already informed the brothers in other regions. They're all waiting for orders from above. The Seventh Guardian is dead, and no one knows what to do next.

"Now, all the members of the Autranssy know the existence of such a mysterious expert. Many people have expressed their intention to join forces to deal with this mysterious expert!

"Let's wait here first. Brothers from other places will be here soon. At that time, let's take action together, find the mysterious expert, and kill him!"

Fang Qiu continued to walk.

He didn't deliberately hide his footsteps.

His footsteps were very light. In addition, these people were hiding in this place. They should be at ease. They would never have thought the mysterious expert they mentioned would appear here.

Clatter! Clatter! Clatter!

The sound of light footsteps came.

This was a hall.

It was not narrow. There were lights and chairs.

It was like the bandit strongholds in ancient Huaxia.

Fang Qiu followed the light and went up. After a while, he came to the hall.

However, more than a dozen gurus in black robes seemed not to have heard the footsteps. They gathered together and continued to talk seriously.

“Are you talking about me?”

Just as more than a dozen people were talking in high spirits, Fang Qiu, who had already walked to the hall, suddenly spoke.

Hearing these words, more than a dozen black-robed men were stunned and full of doubts. After looking at each other, they quickly turned their heads to check.

When they saw Fang Qiu, they were all stunned and puzzled.

Fang Qiu was also wearing a black robe.

The only difference was that he was wearing a black mask.

“It’s him!”

Suddenly, a scream of horror was heard.

Everyone turned around to look.

The guru who had just arrived was now staring at Fang Qiu in horror. His eyes were full of horror as he shouted, "It's him. He killed the Seventh Guardian. He killed all of my companions."

As soon as he said that, the faces of more than a dozen people around him changed dramatically in an instant.

"Is this man in front of us the mysterious expert?"

"Is he the one who killed the Seventh Guardian and more than a dozen S-class experts?"

"How did he get here?"

For a moment, the dozen or so people looked at the survivor who had just arrived.

"Did he bring the person here?"

However, while they were still in shock, Fang Qiu had taken action.

Whiz!

The sword light burst out.

Fang Qiu flashed like a ghost quickly. With a flip of his wrist, the divine sword burst out rays of sharp energy Qi. It left the sword and instantly penetrated the heart of one of them.

Seeing this, the others began to resist one after another.

Since the mysterious expert had chased them all the way here. Now they didn't even have a chance to escape. They could only fight back as soon as possible. Or else, they would die!

However, even if they had the will to resist, they lacked the ability to do so.

They were no match for Fang Qiu at all.

The sharp sword Qi directly pierced through all their defenses and penetrated their throats and hearts.

In a situation where there was no way to escape, more than a dozen S-class experts were wiped out by Fang Qiu in less than three minutes.

After killing people, Fang Qiu activated his internal Qi immediately.

He immediately began to search and collect information around the base.

It was like the stronghold in Zhongdong.

Although there was nothing crucial in this stronghold, Fang Qiu still found some information about the forces of Nirvana in Autranssy.

This document recorded the location of the small strongholds of Nirvana in Autranssy.

As Fang Qiu left with the document, he set a fire and burned down the entire church.

After leaving Windom Town, Fang Qiu carefully read the contents of the information in his hand, took out his mobile phone, and opened the map to compare.

Although Autranssy was very large, Nirvana Organization had not been in Autranssy for a long time. Therefore, there were not many Nirvana strongholds in Autranssy.

Most of them were in some regions and cities with many people.

For example, the most famous places in Autransssy were Adalaide, Melborne, Sidney, Golden Coast, Darwin, and so on.

These cities were all coastal cities on the edge of Autransssy. They were in all directions and connected to each other with Stuwart as the center.

It seemed the development trend of Nirvana in Autransssy had been determined. Next, they only needed to develop internally from the outside. It wouldn't take long for the Nirvana Organization to cover the entire Autransssy!

Chapter 1725 Gather to Fight Against the Enemy!

Nirvana Organization in some scattered small towns.

However, there weren't many people in these small strongholds, and their strength wasn't great.

Fang Qiu took a closer look and found the closest small stronghold of the Nirvana Organization to Windom Town was 250 kilometers away. It was the place called Ordriver.

That place seemed to be a small village.

"I'll start from here."

After confirming the target, Fang Qiu put away the document, found the direction, and immediately rushed to Ordriver.

At this time, Fang Qiu focused all his attention on dealing with the Nirvana Organization.

From the document in his hand, he saw the development route of the Nirvana Organization in Autransssy. The strongholds were so dense that they were almost about to be like a spider web.

If this spider web formed, it would be difficult for Fang Qiu to stop the Nirvana Organization.

Now, it was undoubtedly the best time.

In the early days of the Nirvana Organization's development in Autranssy, Fang Qiu found an opportunity to kill Nirvana.

He couldn't let Nirvana Organization develop!

At least, before Fang Qiu set off to find the Yuan Yang Fruit, he must get rid of all the remaining members of the Nirvana Organization here!

Fang Qiu didn't take the road but directly rushed out of the forest for 250 kilometers.

It only took an hour for him to arrive at Ordriver.

After coming here, Fang Qiu found it was actually a village, and there were very few people.

According to the document obtained from the Nirvana stronghold, Ordriver's Nirvana stronghold was not in the village but in a factory on a high mountain.

When arriving at the factory, Fang Qiu found there were a lot of people inside.

There were about 30 of them, and their strength was between the seventh class and the eighth class. The strongest one was only in the eighth class.

This small stronghold was at the bottom of the Nirvana Organization, just like the manor in the suburbs of Stuart.

Without the slightest hesitation, Fang Qiu rushed straight in and waved his sword to kill people.

These people were unable to resist at all.

In just three minutes, Fang Qiu killed all the people in this small stronghold.

“The next stronghold is Loy Town.”

After leaving Ordriver, Fang Qiu headed for Loy Town 400 kilometers away.

There was a medium-sized Nirvana stronghold.

Judging from the information, there were nearly 40 people in this stronghold, all of whom had strong fighting capacity. There were also several fast-moving incapable gurus.

It seemed to be quite important to the Nirvana Organization.

It took Fang Qiu two hours to arrive at the place 400 kilometers away.

Nirvana Organization built a very luxurious villa in the small town called Loy. All the local members of the Nirvana Organization were gathered here.

The villa was similar to the stronghold of Nirvana that Fang Qiu destroyed in Zhongdong.

At that time, he could destroy the villa in the stronghold of Zhongdong because it was built on grassland. But it was different this time.

This stronghold villa was built in a small town.

There were no rich families in the town. Therefore, almost everyone's eyes in the town were focused on this villa.

Once the villa was destroyed, it would cause panic among the locals.

Therefore, after Fang Qiu arrived, he bought a trench coat from a local clothing store. After putting it on, he entered the villa from the front door.

There were guards in front of the villa.

When Fang Qiu went in, he scared the guards.

Because they were wearing the black robes of the Nirvana Organization, Fang Qiu killed these people with a wave of his hands before they could step forward to stop Fang Qiu.

Fang Qiu closed the door and walked into the corridor and all the rooms on the first floor of the villa.

Every time he saw a person in a Nirvana black robe, he would kill the other party without hesitation.

Soon, layers of energy Qi fluctuations burst out on the first floor.

After the people on the second and third floors sensed it, they were all confused and went downstairs.

However, when they came down the stairs, Fang Qiu had already slaughtered all the people on the first floor.

Seeing Fang Qiu and smelling the smell of blood coming from the first floor, the black-robed people coming down from the second and third floors immediately attacked Fang Qiu.

However, they were all too weak.

In the face of Fang Qiu, they were vulnerable.

The group of people was defeated in an instant.

Holding a long sword, Fang Qiu fought from the first floor to the second and third floors.

Seeing the strong momentum of Fang Qiu, some people were ready to break the windows to escape, only to find the window was blocked by an invisible energy. Even if the glass was broken, they couldn't jump out.

Under such a situation, these people could only unite and fight back.

Finally, as expected, more than 40 people in the villa were killed by Fang Qiu. None of them survived!

After leaving the villa, Fang Qiu closed the door again.

"The next place is big."

After renting a motorcycle in the town, Fang Qiu drove to Porth, the largest coastal city in the west of Autranssy.

Porth was the metropolis of the west of Autranssy and the fourth-largest city in Autranssy.

It had once been ranked sixth in the list of the most livable cities in the world.

Therefore, it was favored by many tourists. Because of the large number of tourists, the Nirvana Organization naturally took a fancy to this place.

To develop the organization, the Nirvana Organization allocated one-sixth of the manpower in Autranssy to Porth.

After all, to develop in a big city, an organization needed to show enough strength. If it could not, it would be difficult to develop.

After careful calculation, Fang Qiu found it was more than 240 kilometers from Loy Town to Porth. Since there were no big cities nearby, he couldn't take a plane. He could only drive there by himself.

To be more quickly, Fang Qiu raised the speed of the motorcycle to the extreme.

Anyway, for someone like him, even at the extreme speed of the motorcycle, it was easy for him to react. There would be no problem at all.

Therefore, moving forward at a speed of nearly 400 kilometers per hour, Fang Qiu spent seven hours before he arrived in Porth.

This was a real coastal city.

The city was unimaginably large, several times bigger than Stuart.

According to the information in the document, the base of the Nirvana Organization was located at the edge of the city, near the coastline, a place called Sorento.

After arriving, Fang Qiu found this was a large residential area.

In this area, there were many houses in the community. There were also an aquarium and other places near the sea.

After searching for a while, Fang Qiu finally found a member of the Nirvana Organization in a yacht club next to the aquarium.

The stronghold of the Nirvana Organization turned out to be a five-story cruise ship.

Although it was already nighttime, this was a tourist attraction. Therefore, there was a continuous stream of people on the coast, and there were many people in the yacht club.

After observing for a while, Fang Qiu went straight to the cruise ship, ready to get on it first.

However, before he could go up, he was stopped by a man in a Nirvana black robe.

Fang Qiu observed carefully. After making sure that no one around was paying attention to him, he broke the man's neck immediately.

Pretending to hold a person in his arms, Fang Qiu walked to a room on the first floor of the cruise ship, put on the man's clothes, and threw the other party under the bed in the room. After that, he came out calmly.

Then he walked into the control room.

He grabbed the steersman by the neck and asked him to start the cruise ship and sail toward the sea.

The cruise ship moved.

Soon, someone got off the cruise ship and asked what was going on immediately.

As a result, Fang Qiu killed every one of them.

When the cruise ship was a few kilometers away from the port and people couldn't see the situation on the cruise ship clearly, Fang Qiu asked the steersman to stop and killed the man.

Then, he began to kill the people of the Nirvana Organization.

Although Fang Qiu encountered resistance, the other party was too weak for him.

All the Nirvana people on the cruise ship were killed by Fang Qiu in a short time.

“Windom’s stronghold has been set on fire. Seventh Guardian has gone missing. All of our people in the stronghold are dead.”

“The stronghold of Ordriver has also been destroyed.”

“More than forty people in the stronghold of the Loy Town have all died!”

“Porth’s stronghold disappeared. According to our intelligence, some people saw the cruise ship go to sea, and we can’t get in touch with any of our people on the ship right now.”

The members of the Nirvana Organization all over the country received the news one after another.

As the news spread, some of the weaker Nirvana people began to hide. They didn’t even dare to go to the strongholds they used to frequent in the past for fear that they would be killed.

Another piece of news came.

“A mysterious expert appeared in Stuart and destroyed the stronghold of Stuart. Seventh Guardian personally led a team to check it out. So far, there has been no news. According to the intelligence, it is very likely that the things that have happened in these strongholds were because of the mysterious expert!”

The news spread out.

All the members of the Nirvana Organization in Autranssy immediately became more vigilant.

Almost all the terminal and high-end combat forces began to gather, ready to attack the mysterious expert together.

Even though they knew it was very likely that the Seventh Guardian had been killed by the mysterious expert, they were not afraid.

They still had trump cards that belonged to them. Even the Seventh Guardian did not dare to underestimate them.

“According to the route of this mysterious expert, the next place he will be heading for is very likely to be Adalaide. Then he will go to Melborne, Sidney, and the Golden Coast.”

“Everyone, hurry to the Golden Coast and get ready to take action!”

The strongholds in the various regions contacted each other.

Soon, the people of the remaining large and medium-sized strongholds in Autranssy began to rush to the Golden Coast one after another.

At the same time, the news began to spread to the Nirvana Organization outside Autranssy.

After killing all the members of the Nirvana Organization on the cruise ship, Fang Qiu quietly returned to Porth. Then he went straight to the local airport, bought a plane ticket to Adalaide, and boarded the plane.

Chapter 1726 Winning by Force of Numbers?

“Adalaide...”

On the plane, Fang Qiu looked at the information in his hand, his face slightly serious.

Adalaide was the capital of South Autranssy. Like Porth, it was also a port city. There were many tourists here. After all, it was even more livable than Porth.

According to the recorded information...

The Nirvana base of Adalaide was located in a place called Stirrling.

In addition to the dense residential area, there was a vast mountainous forest with botanical gardens and wildlife parks.

The Nirvana Organization's base was in a large mountainous forest.

After nearly three hours of flight...

Finally, Fang Qiu's plane landed at Adalaide International Airport.

As he got off the plane...

Fang Qiu immediately hurried to Stirrling.

He had a pretty good idea.

If he weakened the might of Nirvana in Autranssy, he had to hurry up and be quick!

Nirvana must have perceived something unusual. After all, he had destroyed so many fortified points of Nirvana in succession.

Therefore...

He had to make the best use of his time and ruin as many strongholds as possible. As for other problems, he could think of other ways to deal with them.

Soon...

Fang Qiu arrived at Stirring.

According to the information, he came to the Nirvana stronghold.

This time, the Nirvana stronghold was in an air-raid shelter in the forest. Seemingly, this shelter existed for a long time. Recently, Nirvana Organization had been using it.

When he came to the shelter, Fang Qiu was very cautious for fear of alerting the enemy.

The intelligence information showed...

A large number of gurus were in this Nirvana fortified point, including incapable gurus and experts at the guru level.

After all, this was one of the large-scale Nirvana strongholds in Autranssy.

Outside it...

Fang Qiu first probed around with his Divine Consciousness.

He found no trace of energy aura.

Fang Qiu couldn't detect the situation inside since a layer of peculiar energy covered this shelter.

Helplessly, he walked straight in.

As a result...

There was indeed no one inside when he entered and searched the air-raid shelter.

This situation surprised Fang Qiu a lot.

He was about to look around for a secret passage or hidden space. Suddenly, he saw a note nailed to the wall at the shelter entrance.

“You’ve been exposed.

“Making an enemy of Nirvana will be doomed to perish.

“We’ll wait for you at the Golden Coast!”

Only three sentences were on the note.

“They discovered me so quickly?”

Fang Qiu raised his eyebrows in surprise.

But...

Judging from this provoking message left by Nirvana, they didn’t know his identity. Otherwise, they would never have dared to irritate him like this.

The key was...

Since these people dared to leave a provocative message, it meant they were prepared.

With this in mind...

Fang Qiu shook his head in his heart.

He was still a step slower than his opponents.

However, there was nothing he could do about it. He thought back on this matter. It had been two days since he killed Seventh Guardian. Most of the time, he was on his way. Only occasionally would he deal with these Nirvana Organization members.

There was no other way. Autranssy was excessively vast.

Besides, these Nirvana strongholds were very far away from each other.

“Since I’m ready, I have to go and have a good look.”

Fang Qiu threw the note onto the ground.

Immediately, he rushed to the airport in Adalaide.

Fang Qiu was a little surprised that Nirvana discovered his movement so quickly. But just because of this, he felt slightly relieved in his heart.

Finally, he didn’t have to run around.

This time...

Even when Seventh Guardian was killed...

Nirvana Organization dared to make a deliberate provocation. It meant they must have been fully prepared. They would gather all the powerful combat forces in Autranssy to deal with him.

It saved Fang Qiu the trouble of looking for them one by one.

He arrived at the airport.

Fang Qiu bought a plane ticket and flew to the Golden Coast.

On the plane...

Fang Qiu took out the information sheets he got from the church. Glancing over them, he confirmed the location of the Nirvana stronghold on the Golden Coast.

It was a narrow and long island on the Coral Sea.

The island was uninhabited.

Usually, there was almost no one around.

It seemed...

These Nirvana members must have assembled there.

They should have left some information there even if they weren't there.

After two and a half hours of flight, Fang Qiu finally landed at the airport on the Golden Coast.

As he got off the plane...

Fang Qiu immediately rushed to the Coral Sea.

At the coast...

Finding the right direction, Fang Qiu jumped into the water and dived 100 meters into the water. Quickly, he swam fast toward the island where the Nirvana stronghold was located.

When he arrived at the island...

Fang Qiu found it was an island composed of black reefs. There was no sand beach at all.

The island looked small on the map, but Fang Qiu found it unimaginably large when getting there.

The Nirvana Organization base...

It was right in the middle of the island!

Arriving at the coast, Fang Qiu broke out of the water. Because he was very far from the land port, Fang Qiu flew up and rushed to the island center.

In the distance...

High up in the air, Fang Qiu saw a round one-story building in the island center.

It looked like a bamboo hat.

At this time...

The lights on all sides of the building were burning.

These people seemed to be waiting for Fang Qiu's arrival.

In the face of such a situation...

Fang Qiu scanned around with his Divine Consciousness.

He found this building looking like a bamboo hat to be enveloped by a layer of special energy. Thus, he could not detect the situation inside.

Well...

Although he couldn't see the situation inside this building...

Fang Qiu had fully grasped the situation outside the building!

He found that...

There were hundreds of energy auras hidden around the building.

In other words...

Hundreds of people surrounded the building. Obviously, they were lying in ambush!

With a little effort, Fang Qiu explored around.

Fang Qiu soon perceived that these people were at the guru level. Not a single one of them was weak.

This situation shocked Fang Qiu deeply.

To his surprise...

There were more than 100 gurus in Autranssy!

Most of them were incapable gurus.

Seemingly...

Nirvana had put in a lot of effort to develop the forces in Autranssy!

“They want to win by force of numbers?”

An idea came into his mind.

Fang Qiu immediately flew out and rushed to the top of the building.

As soon as he landed...

“Swoosh, swoosh, swoosh...”

Immediately, waves of terrifying energy Qi ran fast to all sides, smashing wildly onto Fang Qiu.

In the meantime...

Hundreds of hidden gurus flew up and surrounded Fang Qiu from all directions.

“Anyone against Nirvana must die!”

“Kill him!”

An expert at the average guru level thundered. Instantly, he took action to attack Fang Qiu fiercely.

But...

Unlike before...

The 100 energy blows didn't crash down onto Fang Qiu separately. Instead, the strikes of 100 people gathered together and condensed into four enormous beams of energy. They swiftly surged toward Fang Qiu from four directions at lightning speed.

“Gee?”

Seeing this, Fang Qiu froze.

He finally understood why these people dared to provoke him.

Because they had formed a formation.

The Hundred People Formation!

This formation looked very scattered, but it took shape as more than 100 people moved. All the energy in every direction would burst out and get together. Very smoothly, they merged into a super-powerful attack without conflict. Then it launched a general offensive at the enemy!

“Does Nirvana have a formation?”

Fang Qiu was quite taken aback.

However, when he thought about it carefully...

Nirvana Organization had entered a lot of ancient ruins. So, it was reasonable for them to learn some formations.

“I have to break the formation first!”

Then Fang Qiu acted.

When these attacks from all directions fell on him, he began to dodge dexterously.

While he evaded the attacks...

He carefully observed the more than 100 people around him.

With this observation...

Surprisingly, this densely packed crowd was divided into four areas.

The number of people in each area was different.

But...

They got something in common.

The energy of all the people in each area was connected. It was evident that they had prepared in advance.

“This formation is not easy to break.”

Fang Qiu murmured with a frown.

From the present situation revealed by this formation...

Even if he annihilated all the people in one of the four directions, those in the other three directions would quickly reassemble and form the formation again.

“A formation must have the Base of Formation and Eye of Formation.

“More than 100 gurus form the Base of Formation. Then what about the Eye of Formation?”

Fang Qiu scrupulously checked the formation.

Carefully, he searched for the Eye of Formation in this Hundred People Formation.

After Fang Qiu searched for a long time...

He fixed his eyes on the average guru who had shouted.

He found that...

This average guru had never made a move.

When others launched their attacks, he hid aside. Though he could move, he didn't dare to use any energy. It looked as if his whole body had been restrained by something.

“I found it!”

He stared at that person.

Without the slightest hesitation, Fang Qiu moved and immediately rushed toward him.

As he darted forward...

Fang Qiu clenched his right hand.

The divine sword quickly took shape in his hand!

Over there...

The ordinary guru saw this mysterious expert rushing toward him. All of a sudden, his face changed, and he immediately retreated.

The others on his side seemed to have noticed this as well. Successively, they surged forward to protect him.

This scene was meaningful.

Fang Qiu was even more confident this person was the Eye of Formation.

“Thunderbolt-absorbing Technique!”

As Fang Qiu gave a loud shout, the divine sword in his hand suddenly let out thunder crashes and lightning bolts.

Centered by the divine sword, the thunder and lightning emitted a devastating aura, quickly spreading on all sides. They covered an area within a radius of more than 10 meters.

“Break it!”

With a loud cry...

Fang Qiu suddenly waved his right hand.

In an instant, all the lightning within a dozen meters around him shrank back into the sword and condensed into a dazzling lightning bolt. Then, as Fang Qiu brandished it, it suddenly broke away from the blade and slashed forward with a blast of destructive energy Qi!

Chapter 1727 John Doe, Are You John Doe?

“Crack, crack, crack...”

With a loud crash, dazzling lightning suddenly flashed across the sky.

“Swoosh!”

Carrying a powerful destructive aura, thunder and lightning enveloped the long sword in Fang Qiu’s hand. Instantly, a streak of earth-shattering sword light burst out from the long sword, breaking the air with exceedingly domineering power.

Over there...

Dozens of people stood before the normal guru and assaulted Fang Qiu simultaneously.

Everyone in the other three directions also broke forth energy.

The next moment...

Four balls of domineering energy immediately rushed toward Fang Qiu in four directions.

Just as the four energy clusters condensed and darted toward him, Fang Qiu clearly saw a round image of energy formation appear in the high sky.

Ordinary people couldn't see the formation, but as a martial arts practitioner, Fang Qiu got a clear sight of it.

When more than 100 people activated their energy to launch fierce attacks at the same time...

The formation image in the sky began to rotate slowly. As it turned, the energy burst out by all the people in it merged together. During the rotation, a stream of tremendous force was hence formed!

From it...

Fang Qiu could clearly sense that...

As the formation image was operating, a stream of energy constantly changed. What connected with the strange power was the average guru under the protection of the group before him!

In other words...

Once he cut off the stream of energy activating the formation image, it would stop operating.

"Boom!"

There was a huge bang.

Fang Qiu saw through the formation when the giant beam of sword Qi carrying lightning and thunder rushed forward. Then, it crashed into the energy ball condensed by the formation of more than 20 people before him.

More than 20 people made significant contributions to building the energy ball. Yet, it was slightly weaker than the sword Qi with thunder and lightning that Fang Qiu burst out.

After all...

Most of these people were incapable gurus. There were only a few authentic gurus.

Unlike them, Fang Qiu was a creditable expert who had achieved the Flower Core Formation Realm.

They could never close the gap between them and Fang Qiu by sheer force of numbers.

Nevertheless...

“Buzz...”

The energy ball erupted from the more than 20 people bumped against the sword Qi of thunder and lightning. At this moment, it trembled uncontrollably.

After vibrating for a while, the energy ball suddenly dissipated — the sword Qi of thunder and lightning instantly devoured it.

The sword Qi of thunder and lightning could not be blocked.

With an irresistible force, it surged toward the crowd of more than 20 people ahead.

And behind them...

When the energy balls bursting out from the other three directions came at Fang Qiu, he waved his right hand.

The long sword in his hand immediately released an enormous wave of overwhelming energy Qi. It knocked against the three energy balls head-on.

Bursts of massive force surged vehemently like seismic sea waves. One after another, they lashed against the divine sword in Fang Qiu's hand.

They quickly pushed Fang Qiu backward.

Luckily...

Behind Fang Qiu, the sword Qi of thunder and lightning hewed out a vacant space.

Over half of the more than 20 people blocked before him were killed!

The others felt the unstoppable aura from the sword Qi of thunder and lightning. In horror, they all retreated hurriedly.

With no obstacles...

Under the impact of the three energy balls, Fang Qiu was pushed straight toward the average guru.

The leading average guru had been hiding behind the crowd. At this moment, he was dumbfounded.

Initially...

He was a genius under Seventh Guardian.

A genius like him should be cultivated to be a Venerable.

Therefore...

Even after Seventh Guardian died, he could gather so many people. This time, he wanted to put up a good show. With this chance, he could become a Venerable of Nirvana Organization.

But he had never expected his enemy to be so mighty.

How could there be such a powerful person in Autranssy?

In shock...

He suddenly fixed his eyes on the sword in Fang Qiu's hand.

"Sword, the divine sword..."

He landed his eyes on the divine sword in Fang Qiu's hand, and his face instantly paled. In horror, he asked, "John Doe, are you John Doe?"

As soon as he said that...

Many people's faces changed on the spot.

"John Doe?"

Unlike members from inferior forces, these fighters here were all gurus with great fighting capacity in Nirvana Organization. A small part of them were trained in local areas by Nirvana Organization. These people did not know about John Doe. Except for this small number of people, most of them were transferred from other places.

These people had long heard of John Doe!

Also, they knew John Doe and Nirvana Organization were sworn enemies.

Any member of the Nirvana Organization would inevitably become John Doe's target when encountering him. In the end, John Doe would kill them.

To their surprise...

They heard John Doe's name in this place where he was never supposed to be.

"Whiz!"

While everyone was shocked...

An earth-shattering sword cry suddenly sounded.

Three energy balls forcefully drove Fang Qiu to the ordinary guru, the Eye of Formation. In this case, Fang Qiu mercilessly pierced his chest under the monstrous sword Qi!

As the sword fell...

High above the ground...

The enormous formation image in the sky instantly collapsed.

The Hundred People Formation collapsed!

The second the formation was broken...

Fang Qiu went on wielding the long sword in his hand. Rushing straight into the crowd, he madly chopped the enemies!

In the distance...

Seeing this, dozens of people in the other three directions also rushed forward, trying to besiege and slaughter John Doe.

But it was a pity that...

They were too weak.

Well...

They swarmed upon John Doe from all sides, intending to surround and kill him. Meanwhile, a person was hiding in the distance. Quickly, he wrote the news about what had happened here and spread it out.

Of course, in addition to the Nirvana higher-ups, he also passed on this news to all Nirvana members in Autranssy.

All the Nirvana members with high combat effectiveness in Autranssy had gathered here.

But...

Many people with relatively low status hid in different places and didn't dare to show up.

From afar...

Dazzling rays of light flickered above the island.

It seemed as if firecrackers were set off there.

But in reality, a cold-blooded massacre of many Nirvana members was going on!

Flying above the island, Fang Qiu locked everyone on the scene with his Divine Consciousness, not allowing anyone to escape.

“Swish, swish, swish...”

The sword light burst out. In the meantime, flashes of bloody light bloomed in the air.

One, two, three...

Each time Fang Qiu swung his sword, one person would die!

In just three minutes...

Fang Qiu was covered with scarlet blood.

On the island in the sea...

The corpses were in heaps.

The sky was still filled with many people coming at Fang Qiu from all sides.

To their dismay...

Their blows were rather weak for Fang Qiu.

However, these people couldn't withstand Fang Qiu's strikes at all!

Five minutes later...

Only more than 60 people were left on the spot.

Ten minutes later...

There were less than 20 people.

Fifteen minutes later...

As a chilling sound pierced through the air, Fang Qiu chased to the coast and penetrated the chest of the last person with his sword.

In less than an hour...

More than 100 people were wiped out!

The whole island was filled with a strong smell of blood.

All enemies were wiped out.

Hanging in the air, Fang Qiu controlled the Qi of Heaven and Earth and moved all the corpses on the island to the top of the building like a bamboo hat in the island center.

Then, he entered the building and carefully searched around. However, he found almost all the useful things had been destroyed. Not even a trace was left.

Fang Qiu flew out again and waved his right hand.

He turned his internal Qi into flames and activated the Qi of Heaven and Earth, burning the entire building and more than 100 corpses.

After all...

There were more than 100 corpses here.

If others saw it, they would be scared to death.

In fact...

Although Fang Qiu had slaughtered a lot of people, he couldn't help but feel a little nervous in the face of more than 100 dead bodies.

After all, the massacre looked scary.

But he had to do it. After all, these people belonged to Nirvana!

That night...

All the primary members of Nirvana Organization in Autranssy who survived received the news, and all their faces darkened.

“Did he kill them all?”

“More than 100 super experts at the S-class were annihilated?”

“By only one enemy?”

“How could it be?”

“How is it possible?”

“His name is John Doe? Who is John Doe?”

Panic filled the air.

At the same time, the primary members of the Nirvana Organization began to search for John Doe online.

When these people found the information about John Doe...

They were all dumbfounded!

John Doe had the strength of SS level?

Was his personal strength ranked third in the world?

The Nirvana Organization’s mortal enemy?

Seeing the information about John Doe, these Nirvana members at the bottom were horrified.

All of them did all they could to hide. On tenterhooks, these people didn't dare to show up at all.

Somewhere else...

In a luxurious suite of a hotel...

"Report."

A man in black was kneeling on the ground, facing the suite's living room — a young man was floating cross-legged in the air one meter above the ground.

"Is there any news?"

"Little Saint Lord."

Immediately, the man kneeling on the ground said, "There is news sent from Autranssy through a secret channel. John Doe appeared in Autranssy and wiped out almost all our strongholds there. More than 100 gurus from Autranssy were killed, even including the local director, Seventh Guardian!"

"What?"

Hearing the news, Little Saint Lord jumped to his feet. He flashed aside and turned into a shadow. Dashing to the man kneeling on the ground, he grabbed his collar and lifted him high. Shocked, he barked, "Why would John Doe go to Autranssy? What did he do there? Did any spy inside our organization leak the news?"

"Little, Little Saint Lord."

In a great panic, the man who reported it said, "I've investigated it: there is no mole. But we haven't yet found out why John Doe went to Autranssy. The matter is under investigation. However, John Doe nearly finished off all our people in Autranssy. Only a few low-level martial arts practitioners survived. So it's a little difficult to investigate. It may take a long time to get accurate information."

"Good-for-nothings!"

Little Saint Lord cursed and abruptly threw him out.

Chapter 1728 Little Saint Lord Will Take Action in Person!

"Little, Little Saint Lord."

After the man was tossed out, he knelt on the ground in panic and asked, "John Doe is still in Autranssy. Should we send more people over?"

"Send some people?"

Hearing that, Little Saint Lord raised his eyebrows and said with a gloomy face, "Do you think you can do that? Sending you to do this suicide mission?"

His loud roar reverberated in the room.

The person kneeling on the ground was shivering, too scared to say anything.

After a long time...

"John Doe..."

Little Saint Lord clenched his fists tightly and said in a towering rage, "How dare you ruin my plan? This time, I'll kill you son of a bitch!"

When Little Saint Lord mentioned that...

His face darkened. Waving his hand, he barked out an order, "Go to Autranssy!"

...

Autranssy...

The local authorities also received the message: abnormal energy fluctuations and murder cases appeared in many parts of this area.

Nevertheless...

Research showed that the locations of these abnormal energy fluctuations were related to Nirvana Organization.

In the beginning, the local official forces of Autranssy noticed the arrival of Nirvana Organization members. A growing number of people know about it. Therefore, as Nirvana Organization members entered Autranssy, the local authorities were quite worried about it. Though they had been investigating Nirvana Organization, they didn't dare to deal with it.

It was because Nirvana Organization was the source of the speed-up technique. Techniques all over the world were from Nirvana Organization.

In this case...

How powerful would Nirvana Organization be?

The Autranssy authorities were very slow in acting against Nirvana Organization for fear of its power. They were afraid of confronting it openly. Very likely, they were no match for Nirvana Organization.

Unexpectedly...

In the past three days, more and more pieces of news came in succession.

“More than 40 dead bodies appeared in a manor during the massacre in Stuwart. They were all Nirvana Organization members.”

“The Windham Church was burned down. According to our investigation, that church should be one of the main strongholds of Nirvana in Autranssy.”

“In Porth, a large cruise ship was found drifting on the sea five sea miles away from the shore at night. Our people boarded the ship and searched, finding all the people on the ship dead. They are all members of the Nirvana Organization. According to reliable information, that large cruise ship seems to be one of the strongholds of the Nirvana Organization!”

New messages came one after another.

It made the Autranssy government very confused and worried.

They feared some people were eager to sow discord between the Autranssy government and the Nirvana Organization. Their ultimate goal was to provoke a war between the Nirvana Organization and Autranssy.

Hence...

The Australian authorities immediately sent people out to check.

As a result, they happened to see over 100 burned corpses of Nirvana members on a narrow island in the Coral Sea near the Golden Coast.

At the sight of these corpses, the Autranssy officials were dumbfounded!

When they received this message...

The Australian authorities were even more panicked.

In their eyes...

This must be an attempt to foment discord.

The Nirvana Organization was very powerful. Only the Autranssy authorities were capable of murdering over 100 Nirvana members.

Just as the Autranssy authorities were alarmed...

A message came.

John Doe?

It was John Doe!

It was John Doe who wiped out so many Nirvana members.

At this point...

Shocked by John Doe's incomparable power, the Australian authorities were pleasantly surprised that John Doe had come to Autranssy.

Since John Doe did all of this, they didn't need to take the blame.

Everyone knew John Doe and the Nirvana Organization were deadly enemies implacably hostile to each other. In this case, it was natural for John Doe to clean up the strongholds of Nirvana Organization in Autranssy.

Even if the Nirvana Organization knew about these tragedies, they wouldn't blame these things on Autranssy.

In the meantime...

When the Australian authorities got the news...

Soon...

Some messages were also exposed on the underground-force forum.

"Shocking news! John Doe appeared in Autranssy and concentrated on destroying the strongholds of the Nirvana Organization. He has killed over 100 people from the Nirvana Organization!"

"According to reliable information, John Doe has almost ruined all the strongholds of the Nirvana Organization in Autranssy. He slaughtered hundreds of Nirvana Organization members. Hundreds of S-class experts died!"

Two posts appeared on the underground-force forum.

It was unknown who posted them.

The two posts disclosed that...

All the strongholds of the Nirvana Organization ruined by John Doe were listed. They even clearly presented how many members of Nirvana Organization were killed by John Doe.

Some suspected that this was a message secretly released by the Autranssy authorities.

However, the Autranssy authorities did not stand up to admit it.

That was all they could think of for the time being.

Nevertheless...

They all knew that...

Only the Australian authorities could release such precise data!

After these people on the underground-force forum saw the two messages...

They burst into an uproar.

“John Doe went to Autranssy?”

“Nirvana Organization is developing power in Autranssy, but how did John Doe know it?”

“It seems John Doe and Nirvana would fight to the death before they give in to each other. Nirvana is developing its force in Autranssy, but John Doe hurried there and destroyed its strongholds?”

“It’s too horrifying. I could hardly believe he destroyed so many Nirvana strongholds and slaughtered such a large group of people.”

“There were over 100 S-class experts. How could John Doe kill them all?”

“The Nirvana has suffered substantial damage this time, right?”

“This kind of loss is much greater than what John Doe inflicted on Murica during their fight!”

“John Doe lives up to his formidable reputation. It’s appalling!”

“After this, Nirvana and John Doe will resolve to destroy each other or die in the attempt!”

...

In other places...

Countries all around the world received the news at the same time.

Murica...

“John Doe went to Autranssy?”

As soon as the Murica higher-ups received the news, they were confused.

“Why would John Doe go to Autranssy? Did he go there only to deal with the Nirvana Organization?”

“It may not be true, right?”

“The Nirvana Organization is developing its power in Autranssy, but we haven’t found any trace. How did John Doe discover it?”

“John Doe and Nirvana have a deep hatred for each other. John Doe must have discovered the Nirvana Organization’s development in Autranssy through special means. That was why he deliberately went there and accurately attacked Nirvana.

A group of Murica high-level officials were discussing fiercely in a secret conference room.

John Doe was a topic that they could never get rid of.

Of course...

The situation was the same with Nirvana.

“Humph!”

Hearing them discussing animatedly, Nash Wilson, sitting in the main seat, suddenly snorted and said, “Since they are so utterly immersed in fighting against each other, let them do it!”

Hearing this, the other high-level officials smirked in triumph.

“Anyway, we have obtained the speed-up technique. We don’t need to compete or join forces with anyone. The most important consideration for us is time!”

Nash Wilson added, “We are the first to get the speed-up technique. Next, we should focus on developing as fast as possible. Nowadays, the speed-up technique is available to the whole world. We may fall behind others forever because of a slow pace of development. Thus, we must seize our time and do well in this war of development!”

...

In Soviett...

“It seems that the Nirvana Organization is indeed ambitious. They have even gone to develop in Autranssy.”

“John Doe is awesome. He went straight to Autranssy and destroyed so many strongholds of the Nirvana Organization.”

“Neither Nirvana nor John Doe is friendly to us. Then, why don’t we stand by and watch them fight? The more people die, the better it will be for us!”

“Now, only John Doe is in this struggle. It’s best if Huaxia can also get involved.”

“It would be great if Huaxia also joins the battle.”

In Anglan...

“When dogs bite each other, each gets a mouthful of fur. But why does the Nirvana Organization solely target John Doe? Do they think it’s interesting?”

“Huaxia backs up John Doe. When Murica fought against John Doe last time, Huaxia had made it clear that they would never allow anyone to hurt John Doe. After all, John Doe’s combat capability is now the second strongest in Huaxia. And he is ranked third in the world.”

“This time, John Doe made such a big scene. Nirvana Organization will never let him go. Next, I hope to see a fierce battle between Huaxia and Nirvana. That will be the most thrilling!”

...

In L’hexagone...

“Finally, they started fighting against each other.”

“Ha-ha, just let them make trouble with each other. Anyway, the whole world is watching the show.”

“Now it’s our time to develop. Every country and force is seizing this chance to grow. If they want to fight, let them do whatever they want.”

...

Autranssy...

People from all over the world were talking about the battle between John Doe and Nirvana in Autranssy...

After slaughtering over 100 people on the island in the Coral Sea, John Doe burned all their bodies and hurried to the Autranssy Desert.

The Autranssy Desert was the biggest desert in Autranssy and the fourth largest in the world. It was composed of the Great Sandy Desert, Victoria Desert, Gibson Desert, and Sampson Desert.

Autranssy Desert was located in the northeast of Autranssy, covering an area of 1.55 million square kilometers.

Here...

It was a barren area.

According to records, there was little rain in the Autranssy Desert. It had been unusually dry.

The highest temperature in summer there could reach 50 degrees Celsius. Without the obstruction of tall trees, gales roared over this desert all day.

Wind!

It made the only sound here.

In Autranssy, everyone thought that this was a land of death.

Nevertheless...

About ten years ago, a botanist from Autranssy traveled here. He found about 3600 kinds of plants flourishing and coexisting in this desert.

Therefore, the discoverer regarded this place as a desert garden.

Plants in it only needed a tiny amount of water and nutrients.

Fang Qiu came to this desert because the information about Yuan Yang Fruit on the sheepskin scroll pointed right to this desert!

After he solved the problem of the Nirvana Organization...

He certainly turned to focus on his actual purpose of coming to Autranssy: Yuan Yang Fruit!

According to the sheepskin scroll...

Fang Qiu hurried on with his journey overnight and came to the Autranssy Desert.

Walking in one direction, he released his Divine Consciousness to explore and search.

Divine Consciousness was originally a method of searching for Heaven and Earth Treasure passed down from ancient times. But after getting Divine Consciousness, Fang Qiu merged it with the Great Hand of Destruction. Hence, he developed a new monitoring and exploring method.

Now...

It was time for his Divine Consciousness to play its original role: chasing down the Heaven Treasure!

Chapter 1729 Yuan Yang Fruit Appeared!

In Zhongdong, with the breakthrough of his strength, the range of his Divine Consciousness had been expanded to 60 kilometers. Since then, Fang Qiu had never tried to expand the coverage area of his Divine Consciousness.

However...

During this period, his strength and spiritual force had been improved!

Previously, because it was unnecessary, Fang Qiu did not deliberately enlarge the coverage of his Divine Consciousness.

But...

This time...

He would frequently use his Divine Consciousness.

Entering the Autranssy Desert, Fang Qiu immediately spread out his Divine Consciousness. Then, he began trying to enlarge the coverage of his Divine Consciousness.

As a result...

With this attempt...

His Divine Consciousness began to spread even though it had expanded to the limit.

In particular, its expanding speed wasn't slow!

Soon, its coverage radius increased from 60 kilometers to 65, 66, 67, 68... His Divine Consciousness kept spreading.

In the end, the coverage radius was raised to 80 kilometers before it stopped!

"It has increased by 20 kilometers."

Fang Qiu nodded in his heart.

He was rather satisfied with this improvement.

The radius was 20 kilometers longer, allowing him to reach larger areas with his Divine Consciousness.

With satisfaction...

Fang Qiu immediately closed his eyes and concentrated on activating his Divine Consciousness.

As a result...

With his eyes closed, he could clearly see the area within 50 meters around him, but now he had doubled this capacity.

He could see everything within 100 meters accurately.

Fang Qiu was very pleased with the result.

“Start looking for the treasure!”

As this thought came to his mind...

Following the sheepskin scroll’s instructions, Fang Qiu immediately went deep into the Autranssy Desert and began to search carefully.

After all...

The Yuan Yang Fruit was not ordinary.

It was the authentic third-ranked Heaven Treasure.

When something superfine like this appeared within his detection range, he could immediately detect it.

Therefore...

Fang Qiu moved exceedingly fast in the desert.

There were hints on the sheepskin scroll. The Yuan Yang Fruit’s exact location was not revealed, but the marks on it clearly pointed to where the Yuan Yang Fruit lay.

Therefore, Fang Qiu didn’t run around like a headless chicken.

However, the desert was too large.

After running for more than half an hour, Fang Qiu still didn’t sense any aura of the Heaven Treasure.

Nevertheless...

Fang Qiu didn't give up.

Instead, he went deeper in the direction indicated on the sheepskin scroll.

Half an hour later...

"Mm."

Fang Qiu suddenly stopped and looked up into the distance.

After more than an hour of searching, he finally felt a trace of abnormal energy aura.

This streak of abnormal energy aura had just entered his sensing range!

In other words...

It was still 80 kilometers away.

Fang Qiu looked up toward the abnormal place.

However, he saw nothing special.

Nevertheless...

With his Divine Consciousness, he felt the Qi of Heaven and Earth in the sky moving slowly in an unusual direction.

It was not an artificial but natural flow.

Usually, Fang Qiu would not be curious about it.

But...

He was in a desert.

The wind in this desert was fierce.

In the gales, the Qi of Heaven and Earth in the desert would never flow so orderly.

“Well, it should be up ahead.”

With a stir in his heart, Fang Qiu immediately flew forward.

“I hope I come just the right time.”

Fang Qiu prayed in his heart as he moved forward quickly.

He was well aware that...

He had just devastated so many strongholds of the Nirvana Organization and Nirvana members. The Nirvana Organization could never endure it without a protest. So, it would send people over.

As the third-ranked Heaven Treasure, Yuan Yang Fruit would cause abnormal movements between heaven and earth when it was ripe.

In this case...

Once Nirvana members came, the unusual movement between heaven and earth would draw them to it. Besides, metahumans dispatched by the Autranssy authorities would be attracted there.

Then, it would be challenging to pick the Yuan Yang Fruit.

It would be best if the Yuan Yang Fruit became ripe when he found it.

Even if there was a guardian beast, Fang Qiu was confident he could snatch the Yuanyang Fruit before it acted.

Well...

Could things really go so smoothly?

He launched an all-out effort, moving forward at full speed.

Soon...

Fang Qiu arrived at the place 80 kilometers away where the Qi of Heaven and Earth showed strange changes.

Upon arrival...

Fang Qiu was dumbfounded.

He withdrew his Divine Consciousness.

Fang Qiu raised his head and stared at something before him.

The thing came into his view...

It was a huge cloud cover condensed by the Qi of Heaven and Earth, like the mushroom cloud formed in the air after a nuclear explosion.

Only metahumans could see the cloud cover.

Ordinary people couldn't see it.

Even as a super expert in the Flower Core Formation Realm, Fang Qiu couldn't help but be shocked at the sight of this massive layer of cloud!

Without a doubt...

This cloud cover caused the unusual movement of the Qi of Heaven and Earth that he had sensed.

Then, what triggered the Qi of Heaven and Earth to form this cloud cover? It was very likely to be the aim of Fang Qiu's trip this time — Yuan Yang Fruit!

"It is quite a stir. Others must have noticed it, haven't they?"

Fang Qiu smiled wryly.

With a sudden idea, he dashed to the cloud cover of Qi of Heaven and Earth ahead.

...

On the other side...

A few metahumans in the desert also perceived the abnormal change of the Qi of Heaven and Earth. Therefore, they rushed over one after another.

Coastal cities were usually of dense population. In contrast, inland cities were relatively small. Lots of metahumans lived in Autranssy, yet many of them did not like to live and cultivate in coastal cities. Instead, they were especially fond of these uninhabited cities where they could cultivate without scruples.

The desert was one of their best choices.

There...

At the same time, many Autranssy metahumans cultivating in the desert noticed the abnormal movement of the Qi of Heaven and Earth. Astounded, they hurriedly headed for the place where the Qi of Heaven and Earth changed strangely.

Here...

Fang Qiu had come to the cloud cover condensed by the Qi of Heaven and Earth.

From a distance...

At the center point right below the cloud cover, he saw a ball of flame like a red lantern in the darkness. It looked particularly warm.

“Yuan Yang Fruit!”

Fang Qiu narrowed his eyes, looking closely at it.

And he saw it.

It was a plant growing in the desert.

A single red fruit hanging on the top of the long stalk as thick as a finger. There were no branches or leaves. The fruit glowed red like a lantern emitting red rays of light.

The fruit was shining with red radiance. Upon closer inspection, Fang Qius saw a redder area in the middle.

It looked like...

It was very much like an eyeball.

According to the Scroll of Heaven and Earth Treasures...

Yuan Yang Fruit: the third-ranked Heaven Treasure...

It was similar to an eye with a red eyeball and a redder pupil, giving off red light like a lamp or a candle.

At the beginning of its birth, it was like an eye with a closed eyelid. Its entire body was bright red, like a burning candle. As it grew, it opened little by little from the horizontal line in the middle, like an eye with a rising eyelid. Behind the eyelid was a stretch of crimson glow.

When the redness like red candle flames faded away, it became crimson all over. At that time, it became ripe.

It contained priceless pure Yuan Yang power between heaven and earth. It was said that it could bring the dead back to life, awake seven apertures, and clear eight opened meridians. It was one of the divine fruits for the masters in Wulin!

The moment Fang Qiu saw the Yuan Yang Fruit...

The description of the Yuan Yang Fruit in the Scroll of Heaven and Earth Treasures immediately appeared in his mind.

Not to mention other things...

Only because it could make the dead come back to life, everyone was willing to risk their lives to get it!

But...

Fang Qiu knew that...

That was only hearsay. Otherwise, Qingshan's master would have said that the Yuan Yang Fruit could cure the old master! But he only told Fang Qiu that it could be an effective way to treat his injury.

Even so...

Very likely, the fruit could awake seven apertures and clear eight opened meridians.

After all...

Every Heaven Treasure could strengthen the meridians. The energy converted from each Heaven Treasure would automatically impact the congested places in meridians.

As the third-ranked Heaven Treasure, the energy in the Yuan Yang Fruit must be enormous.

In this case...

It was possible that a Yuan Yang Fruit could clear Eight Extraordinary Meridians!

When the description of the Yuan Yang Fruit came to his mind...

Fang Qiu didn't dare to hesitate and immediately rushed up.

When he approached it...

There was no one around.

Yet Fang Qiu felt several streams of energy auras surging over from different directions.

Seemingly...

Some other people also discovered it.

Fang Qiu flew straight to the Yuan Yang Fruit to observe it carefully. It had reached the maturation period. But from its current state, it would fully ripen after at least half a month.

Fang Qiu couldn't help smiling bitterly.

His original plan appeared good but turned out to be impractical. If the Yuan Yang Fruit was ripe when he came here, he could pick it up and leave. It would save him a lot of effort.

But now it seemed that taking this Yuan Yang Fruit would not be so easy!

Just as Fang Qiu was observing...

People from several other directions arrived. One after another, they stopped 30 meters from the Yuan Yang Fruit, taking out their mobile phones to take photos and report the news.

Over there...

Fang Qiu wanted to stop him, but it was too late.

Without any other choice...

Fang Qiu could only stay near the Yuan Yang Fruit to guard it, preventing anyone from destroying it.

But after a while...

A person who finished taking photos quickly rushed up and tried to get closer to the Yuan Yang Fruit.

“Whiz!”

Fang Qiu waved his right hand.

A beam of sword light burst out and darted straight to the man. The man’s face changed, and he immediately stopped. Meanwhile, the sharp ray of sword light from Fang Qiu violently slashed against the ground under the man’s feet. It ferociously tore a deep crack in the desert as if it could split the sand in half!

This sword strike...

It instantly daunted the man.

“What the hell are you doing?”

The man was visibly stung all of a sudden. Pointing at Fang Qiu, he questioned furiously, “Do you want to keep it all for yourself?”

Hardly had his voice faded away...

Fang Qiu rose into the air.

With a wave of his right hand...

A beam of sword Qi flew out of his hand and shot toward the desert below. There, taking the Yuan Yang Fruit as the center, he drew a circle with a radius of about 50 meters. It encircled the Yuan Yang Fruit.

"From now on, no one is allowed to cross this line!"

Fang Qiu gave a cold warning.

"Who the hell are you?"

Unconvinced, the people moving swiftly to this place questioned, raising their brows.

"Me?"

Fang Qiu scanned the crowd indifferently and said, "Huaxia, John Doe!"

Chapter 1730 The Situation Becoming Unstable Again!

"John Doe from Huaxia?"

All metahumans, the ones who approached it on his initiative and those 100 meters away, heard this resounding name. Instantly, they were all astounded!

As metahumans, they certainly knew very well about the world of metahumans. In recent years, John Doe was the most outstanding one in this world.

They didn't even need to ask about John Doe on purpose because his name was frequently mentioned.

But this place was far away from Huaxia. Although these people had heard of John Doe's incomparable strength, they had never thought of seeing him in the flesh.

But today...

They actually met John Doe here?

How could John Doe come to Autranssy and enter the Autranssy Desert?

Fang Qiu's sword Qi suddenly erupted, blocking the native metahuman from Autranssy. Stunned, he stopped 50 meters away. Staring at Fang Qiu in shock, he did not dare to take a step forward.

Of course...

Like in Huaxia, those local metahumans in Autranssy also had their forces.

These people before him came from different forces.

Blocked by John Doe, these people didn't even have a chance to get close to the Yuan Yang Fruit. Yet, they never intended to leave. After all, they had taken photos of the fruit 100 meters away and sent them back to their forces.

In such a situation...

Before long, the forces these people belonged to would immediately send people over.

By then...

Even John Doe couldn't stop them!

Before these people...

Fang Qiu sat cross-legged next to the Yuan Yang Fruit.

He looked a little solemn.

The Yuan Yang Fruit would be ripe in half a month. He didn't expect it to be discovered by the local metahumans so early!

This situation came as a complete surprise to him.

After all...

The Autranssy Desert was a vast stretch of desert. Only under the sheepskin scroll's guidance could he find the unusual movement of Qi of Heaven and Earth

Then, how did these local metahumans discover it?

"Judging from the time they arrived here, these guys should have discovered them at the same time as me."

Fang Qiu murmured and thought, "So, not long before I noticed the Qi of Heaven and Earth's abnormal change, the Yuan Yang Fruit in the shape of an eye formally started opening its 'eyelid'. A crimson line appeared in the middle, showing it had entered the maturation stage?"

According to the Scroll of Heaven and Earth Treasures...

No Heaven Treasure would cause too much of a stir before it reached maturity!

This showed that...

As Fang Qiu hurried over, he felt the usual move of the Qi of Heaven and Earth and saw the cloud cover condensed by the Qi of Heaven and Earth in the air. These scenes must have just formed.

It seemed that...

These people were cultivating nearby when the changes happened. Then, they were attracted here by the strange energy fluctuation and energy cloud cover.

The cloud cover of energy was huge, but people could see it only when they were within a certain distance from it.

It was like air.

In different places, the air densities varied. Ordinary people knew the existence of air, but could they see the different air densities?

Obviously not...

The same situation happened when martial arts practitioners viewed the Qi of Heaven and Earth.

It was true that mighty martial arts practitioners could see the Qi of Heaven and Earth without using their sensing ability. But the Qi of Heaven and Earth filling every corner of the world usually looked transparent from a distance.

Only when they were close enough could they see the shape of the Qi of Heaven and Earth.

From this aspect, all these people must be cultivators nearby.

In fact...

As soon as Fang Qiu saw these people coming, he wanted to find a way to get them out of this place.

However, their reaction was totally beyond his expectations.

They started taking photos of the Yuan Yang Fruit even when they were far away.

Moreover, these people were taking photos in different directions.

When he took action, he would be photographed by these people in other directions. Once these photos got out, wouldn't he become a bad guy in public?

If these people were from the Nirvana Organization, Fang Qiu would never hesitate to wipe them out.

But they were not. Besides, these people didn't look like evildoers.

Fang Qiu couldn't slaughter innocent people.

The most important thing was...

These people had already taken photos and sent them out when Fang Qiu observed the Yuan Yang Fruit. Thus, although Fang Qiu knew it, it was too late for him to stop them.

Therefore...

He could only stay near the Yuan Yang Fruit to prevent others from approaching it.

To heal the old master's injury, he must get this Yuan Yang Fruit, no matter what!

Autranssy...

Some metahuman forces soon received the news that a spiritual fruit had appeared in the Autranssy Desert.

Its photos were even spread among metahumans in Autranssy.

Not long after that...

Almost all the metahuman forces in Autranssy heard the news.

Moreover...

Seeing the photos of the spiritual fruit, members of these metahuman forces immediately recognized it. At once, they were wild with joy.

No one had expected that.

How could such a supreme spiritual fruit emerge from the Autranssy Desert?

Nevertheless...

From its appearance, this spiritual fruit still needed some time to mature.

All the major forces instantly began to make preparations.

In the meantime...

Some busybodies uploaded the news to the underground-force forum.

As soon as this news appeared...

The entire underground-force forum exploded with comments.

“A spiritual fruit?”

“This is a top-grade spiritual fruit.”

“What the fuck. How could such a superb spiritual fruit appear in the Autranssy Desert?”

“Absolutely! I’m sure it’s the world’s top spiritual fruit.”

“Yuan Yang Fruit? The third-ranked Heaven Treasure, Yuan Yang Fruit, appeared in Autranssy?”

“Heavens! Is this real?”

“Anyone who gets the Yuan Yang Fruit can attain the highest level within one step after taking it. It is said that the person can directly break through and become a super expert of the SS level without any side effects.”

“SS level?”

“That is to say, anyone having it can become John Doe and as powerful as him?”

“Awesome. It is a Heaven Treasure enabling people to have a meteoric rise!”

“I heard John Doe has gone to Autranssy?”

“Could it be that John Doe went to Autranssy for this spiritual fruit? Perhaps, he just destroyed the Nirvana stronghold in passing?”

“There is a saying in Huaxia: wherever there is a Heaven Treasure, there is John Doe!”

“Such a superfine Heaven Treasure should be out of John Doe’s reach.”

“Such a spiritual fruit can make an SS-level expert in one step. No matter what, I must get it.”

“At present, Qingyun is the No. 1 on the World’s Individual Strength Ranking List. Except for him, the second to ninth places are all taken by experts at the SS level. Only the tenth on the list is at the S-plus level. Therefore, whoever gets this spiritual fruit can become the top ten on the World’s Individual Strength Ranking List!”

“This treasure is even more tempting than the fast-track technique.”

For a period of time...

There was a heated discussion on the underground-force forum.

Only one person could take the Yuan Yang Fruit, yet the speed-up technique could be effective in helping everyone. But in comparison, Yuan Yang Fruit was obviously more valuable!

Everyone in the world knew the shortcoming of cultivating the speed-up technique. Those depending on such a technique would never become an expert above the S level, and their strength could never be improved.

However...

Yuan Yang Fruit could directly promote a person to SS level without side effects. After that, they could go on cultivating and improving.

How many incapable gurus an SS-level expert could defeat?

Not to mention it was an SS-level expert with great potential!

Without a doubt...

As Yuan Yang Fruit appeared, it tempted countless people.

Somewhere at the airport...

“Little Saint Lord, please take a look.”

A middle-aged man walked up to Little Saint Lord, raised the tablet computer in his hand before him, and said, “This is the latest news from Autranssy.”

With a closer look...

There was a photo on the tablet computer.

“A Yuan Yang Fruit!”

His eyes lit up when Little Saint Lord saw the photo on the tablet computer. Immediately, he reached out his hands and grabbed the tablet computer to watch it closely.

As he observed it, a smug smile gradually appeared on his face.

“Yuan Yang Fruit. I never dreamt it would grow in Autranssy!”

“Haw-haw...”

Little Saint Lord laughed out loud and said, “A blessing from heaven indeed. I was just about to go to Autranssy but never expected such a thing to appear. This time, it seems I have to change my destination in Autranssy. I have to get the Yuan Yang Fruit and kill John Doe in passing!”

...

In the Autranssy Desert...

“Beep, beep, beep...”

As Fang Qiu drew a circle 50 meters around the fruit, no one around dared to cross the line. Fang Qiu was sitting cross-legged by the Yuan Yang Fruit. Suddenly, the phone in his trouser pocket rang.

He took it out and had a look.

Li Ji was calling him.

“Hello?”

Fang Qiu answered the call.

“Are you in Autranssy now?”

Li Ji’s voice came from the other end of the phone.

“Mm.”

Fang Qiu nodded and asked, “What’s the matter?”

“Well, you must have ruined these Nirvana strongholds.”

Li Ji said in a severe tone, “You did a good job in punishing the Nirvana Organization, but I’m afraid you’ll soon be in big trouble.”

“What’s up?”

Fang Qiu was confused.

“Are you in the Autranssy Desert now?”

Li Ji asked candidly.

“You saw my location?”

Fang Qiu asked.

“No.”

Li Ji shook his head and said, “The third-ranked Heaven Treasure appeared in Autranssy Desert. The news has spread all over the world. I guess you must have gone there for the Yuan Yang Fruit. Now, it is known to people worldwide that whoever gets the Yuan Yang Fruit can reach the SS level in strength. As the news has got about, many forces are tempted to get it.”

“The news spread so fast?”

Fang Qiu was also surprised.

The Yuan Yang Fruit showed up in the Autranssy Desert. In just one day, the news reached every corner of the world.

Such a fast speed of spreading was quite surprising.

“The world opinion demonstrates that the Yuan Yang Fruit matters much more than the speed-up technique to everyone. The fruit has an overwhelming appeal to the people of all the major forces and countries in the world!”

Li Ji said seriously, “I guess many forces will try their best to snatch the Yuan Yang Fruit. Since you are there for it, handling the situation this time won’t be easy.”

“Surely, it will be tough.”

Fang Qiu smiled wryly.

Initially, only he knew about the Yuan Yang Fruit.

However...

The commotion caused by the Yuan Yang Fruit completely exceeded his expectations. It attracted these people, who soon spread the news all over the world.

This made Fang Qiu very depressed.
