Chapter 1731 Besieging John Doe

“You’re alone over there. Do you need help?”

Li Ji asked with concern.

“No need.”

Fang Qiu immediately shook his head and said, “It’s not proper to use the state power to solve my problem. I won’t let my affairs weaken my country’s strength.”

Fang Qiu knew the case well.

There was no need for Huaxia to compete for this Yuan Yang Fruit.

Huaxia already got the speed-up technique without side effects, so the Yuan Yang Fruit was unnecessary. Most critically, Huaxia needn’t waste any military strength on the competition for it!

The reason was simple.

Huaxia had enough experts, so there was no need to take the risk for a fruit. Besides, it was uncertain if it could upgrade people to the SS level.

Huaxia’s international status would not change even if other countries got it.

After all, John Doe and Qingyun had slaughtered quite many experts at the SS level.

If a hostile country got the Yuan Yang Fruit...

At worst, another expert must be killed!

Something like the Yuan Yang Fruit was better than nothing. Yet, the Huaxia higher-ups knew well that it was not just a simple fight for a fruit.

Very likely, Nirvana Organization would participate. Since it was a great chance to improve themselves, other metahuman forces would also not let it go.

If all the major metahuman forces worldwide scrambled for it, there would be an extraordinary scene of disorder.

This chaotic situation might cause considerable casualties for any country or force!

As such...

There was no need for Huaxia to take risks.

Since they had decided not to run the risks, the Huaxia higher-ups let Li Ji ask Fang Qiu if he needed support.

If Fang Qiu needed help, Huaxia would send out reinforcements immediately.

They asked in advance out of respect for Fang Qiu.

It was because...

The higher-ups had heard from the Sword Sect what John Doe had done in Belgon.

Even three gurus at the Venerable level could be a burden to him.

The higher-ups felt quite helpless.

In this case...

Even gurus might not be helpful when Fang Qiu asked for support. Huaxia would at least send someone at the same level as John Doe, who wouldn't become a burden to him.

"Okay."

Hearing what Fang Qiu said, Li Ji nodded with understanding and said, "If you need help, call me at any time. We will make all the preparations. As long as you need us, we will set off immediately!"

"Okay, thank you."

Fang Qiu nodded to express his gratitude.

After Fang Qiu ended the call...

He also began to ponder over the problem.

In the next 15 days, major forces worldwide would come to vie for the Yuan Yang Fruit. The first ones to arrive would be the local forces in Autranssy.

A chaotic battle might happen when the people of the significant forces arrived. Then, it would be more challenging to keep the Yuan Yang Fruit.

However, no matter what...

Fang Qiu had to guard the Yuan Yang Fruit against others. In the end, he must obtain it!

Not far away from him...

Those metahumans were kept 50 meters away from the fruit by Fang Qiu. A long time had passed, yet the people sent by their forces hadn't yet come. As they looked at each other while waiting, some thought of discussing and solving the problem together.

In addition to these metahumans from different forces, some metahumans belonging to no organization appeared later. They found a person guarding the Yuan Yang Fruit near it. When they learned it was John Doe from Huaxia, they gathered together with great fear and began discussing secretly.

100 meters away...

To let John Doe hear it, these people gathered together quietly 100 meters away from him and whispered.

"He is John Doe, right?"

"I never expected to see John Doe in Autranssy."

"I heard John Doe is exceedingly powerful. Even Murica and Nirvana Organization have suffered a great loss because of him. Much to my surprise, he came here so early and drew a circle to stop us from approaching the fruit. He must have determined to get this top-notch spiritual fruit."

"He indeed possesses unmatched strength, but he is guarding the spiritual fruit alone? I must say this is almost entirely his wishful thinking!"

"When other forces arrive, he can't fight against the heavy odds he faces. At that time, the spiritual fruit will fall into the hands of others."

"Since we must fight to get it, why don't we make the first move!"

When those who gathered together heard it...

They instantly perked up.

“Snatching something from John Doe?

“Is that possible?”

With suspicion and fear, the others all looked at the person who proposed to grab the fruit.

Apparently...

They all had the idea of snatching it. But before taking action, they still hesitated.

To be honest...

Even the world’s top large-scale forces couldn’t do anything to John Doe. Some even suffered losses because of him. In contrast, these people were backed up by no organizations or small and medium-sized forces. How could they have the guts to go against John Doe?

However, on second thought...

This seemed to be their advantage.

After all...

Unlike the people of large forces, they attracted little attention as lone practitioners. Therefore, even if they snatched away the treasure, they could leave at any time without too much consideration.

“Do you think we can snake it from John Doe and take it?”

One of them asked suspiciously.

“Will we take it from John Doe?”

Another person immediately shook his head and said, “Listen, that spiritual fruit is a priceless treasure for metahumans worldwide. John Doe guards here to wait for the fruit to ripen. Only a fully-grown spiritual fruit can be the most effective.”

“We all know that. Tell us something useful.”

One curled his lips and suggested.

“I just want you to know that keeping the spiritual fruit won’t be good for people like us. The moment we get the ripe fruit, we will become the target of various large forces in the world. At that time, we won’t even notice the danger before we are killed.”

“So, we can only take the immature spiritual fruit.”

Speaking of this, the man who proposed to rob the fruit glanced at John Doe and said, “Now is the best time to do it. There is still half a month before the spiritual fruit ripens. Now that more people from other forces haven’t yet arrived, we must take the chance. We should pick up the immature spiritual fruit and take it away in time. Only in this way can we avoid being tracked by those large forces.”

The people around him nodded in approval.

Indeed...

This was the best way.

However, how could they snatch away it from John Doe?

“I’ve done some research.”

The man who offered this plan added, “I have noticed his strange behavior. He only kills people from Nirvana and Murica. According to his performance in Huaxia Wulin, he would at most seriously injure the person who provoked him, even if he was in a towering rage.”

“This is the key to the success of our robbery!”

When all the people heard that...

Their eyes lit up.

He dared to propose to rob John Doe because he had thoroughly surveyed John Doe.

“There are less than 15 people here.”

The man who proposed this idea glanced at everyone and said, “We can choose ten or even fourteen people to hold John Doe back together. The rest will go and pick the immature spiritual fruit. The moment we get the spiritual fruit, we can retreat. Anyway, we can’t eat it even after getting it. After snatching it, we can sell it and divide the money evenly!”

Over a dozen people at the scene heard his plan.

Their eyes were alight with excitement.

In their eyes...

This method was indeed feasible.

Since John Doe wouldn't kill them, ten people were enough to stall John Doe.

Even if John Doe was to deal a death blow, they could sense it with their strength and retreat in the first place. They believed John Doe would not abandon the spiritual fruit and chase after them.

The more they thought about it, the more faith they had in their success!

Once they succeeded, the benefits would be unimaginable. Even if they failed, they wouldn't suffer any losses.

Through the analysis...

Carrying out this plan would be the best choice!

"Okay, let's do it."

One of them immediately nodded in agreement.

"I'm in."

"Me too."

"Count me in."

More than a dozen people spoke one by one, ready to have a good fight.

On the other side...

Those who worked for their forces also saw the situation here. Without thinking much about it, they knew the purpose of these lone practitioners. Therefore, they were not in a hurry to discuss countermeasures with other forces. Instead, they looked on with a critical eye.

They were curious if this group could take advantage of John Doe.

Of course, Fang Qiu was aware of the Banker Town.

They would not let these people take away the spiritual fruit.

Over there, next to the Yuan Yang Fruit...

Fang Qiu closed his eyes.

He used his Divine Consciousness to observe the surrounding situation carefully.

The 15 people happened to be 100 meters away from Fang Qiu. Every word they said and every nuance of their expressions didn't escape his detection!

Ten minutes later...

"Attack!"

With the order, the 15 people deliberately stepped forward and walked straight to the line drawn by Fang Qiu 50 meters away from the fruit.

Afterward...

Abruptly, 13 people jumped up and threw themselves on Fang Qiu.

As for the other two, they followed behind the 13 people. Under the cover of them, they sneaked toward the Yuan Yang Fruit.

Seeing this, Fang Qiu couldn't help sneering.

He heard every word of this group.

They were right.

He wouldn't kill people casually and didn't mean to finish off the 15 attackers. But since they were daring enough to rob him, they must bear the corresponding punishment and pain!

When the 15 people dashed toward him...

Fang Qiu whizzed up.

Afterward...

He waved his right hand and clenched his hand into a fist.

With a loud bang, an incomparably violent force erupted from his body. Then, he fiercely threw a punch at the group charging at him.

Fang Qiu had no interest in playing with them. His first unleashed a burst of horrifyingly destructive aura. With aggressive energy Qi, it smashed its way into the group.

Before the punch arrived, the strong wind from its motion whipped these people charging at Fang Qiu, freaking them out.

As these people felt the gust of wind...

They were immediately dumbfounded.

Little did they know that John Doe's Qi power was so overpowering. Merely with it could John Doe entirely pin them down!

Chapter 1732 Where There Is a Heaven Treasure, There Is John Doe

The 15 people turned pale with fear.

But since they had started, they couldn't abort their mission now. They had no choice but to hold on and rush to Fang Qiu.

The next moment...

"Boom!"

There was a terrific bang.

As their blows bumped against each other, a huge force burst out from Fang Qiu's fist. Like a flood breaking through a dam, it roared and crashed into this group.

In an instant, this group of people were all sent flying into the air.

Of course, Fang Qiu was aware of the Banker Town.

Because Fang Qiu deliberately limited the force he exerted, the energy bursting from Fang Qiu hit these people but didn't injure them. They were just knocked back into the air.

With a closer look...

The 13 people launching the attack were blown into the sky, yet the remaining two were fine.

But...

As their shield, the 13 attackers, were blown away, they stood facing Fang Qiu.

The three of them stared at each other.

"I won't kill you, but I will give you a great deal of pain!"

Looking at the two people, Fang Qiu said indifferently. Then he moved and rushed straight to one of them. He grabbed the man's arm with both hands to disjoin his bones.

The best way to tackle these people was to capture and dislocate their limbs!

"Crack, crack..."

The noise of bones grinding together came.

In the distance, those people coming for their forces did not dare to act rashly. Hearing the sound, they could not help but shudder.

Over there...

The 13 people were knocked far away. But since they didn't feel John Doe's killing intent, they rushed up again, trying to press ahead with their plan.

But the next moment...

Regret filled their faces!

Almost all of them were experts at the guru level.

In Autranssy, they were top-notch fighters, but there was a big difference between them and Fang Qiu in their abilities. They were much weaker in terms of strength, speed, and reaction speed.

In this situation...

After dealing with the first man's arms and shoulder blades, Fang Qiu moved to the second attacker, dislocating his bones in one leg and one hand.

In addition...

While forcing their bones out of their correct positions, Fang Qiu injected his internal Qi into their joints. This way, he could stop them from resetting their bones. They had to wait until all the internal Qi that Fang Qiu injected into the joints was exhausted. Only then could they heal their dislocated joints.

When he finished dislocating the joints of the second raider, Fang Qiu threw him away.

He lunged at the 13 people rushing toward him again, punishing them at lightning speed.

"Clatter, clatter, clatter..."

The sounds of bones rubbing against each other went on.

Just five minutes later...

The 15 people were all thrown out of the line 50 meters away from the Yuan Yang Fruit drawn by Fang Qiu.

“Ah...”

“Ouch...”

“It hurts so much!!!”

A series of moans were heard.

John Doe disabled all 15 experts at the guru level. Who would have thought that?

In Autranssy, these people with great power could do whatever they wanted. But today, they were knocked to the ground and groaned with great pain. How could they have ever thought of this?

In the distance...

The people from different forces felt pain ever at the sight of this miserable scene.

Just by looking at them, they felt a sharp pain and swallowed hard with fear.

Meanwhile, they congratulated themselves privately on having chosen to stay put.

Luckily, they were not stupid enough to attack Fang Qiu with these fools.

Otherwise, they would be the ones in agonizing pain now.

Near the Yuan Yang Fruit...

Fang Qiu looked toward those guys 50 meters away. A sneer flitted over his face as he heard them moaning and whining continuously.

That was precisely the result that he wanted.

Those people in the distance who didn't dare to move seemed daunted by this.

Fang Qiu punished these attackers as a warning to others.

Although he didn't kill anyone, he successfully intimidated others into staying where they were. He was pretty satisfied with this result!

Fang Qiu returned and sat back beside the Yuan Yang Fruit.

Well, 50 meters away from him...

The group of people stood up one by one, their faces full of pain. Those with dislocated legs could only get up with the help of others.

They looked at Fang Qiu with horror instead of contempt in their eyes.

They had thought that they could pin down John Doe.

To their astonishment...

John Doe was such a formidable opponent.

How could a human be so overwhelmingly strong?

This group of people criticized and abused angrily. But after that, they didn't dare to stay there for a little longer and quickly retreated.

They feared that if they didn't leave now, John Doe might rush up and dislocate all their bones.

In the distance...

Those people from all forces had been watching the battle. Seeing their miserable condition, they took out their mobile phones to photograph the 15 people. They appeared in a complete mess after John Doe dislocated their arms and legs. Quickly, they sent these photos back to their respective forces, and some even posted them on the underground-force forum.

Anyway, this was not confidential news. Everyone in the world knew about the existence of the Yuan Yang Fruit. Those who came would see John Doe.

Therefore, there was nothing wrong with publishing these photos.

"The Battle for the Spiritual Fruit, John Doe Fought in Cold Blood!"

The person who uploaded the post on the underground-force forum used such a sensational title — the painful looks of the 15 people must have come as a terrible shock to him.

"The Autranssy Desert, the Yuan Yang Fruit appeared there. Then, John Doe arrived first. He drew a line 50 meters around the Yuan Yang Fruit, forbidding anyone from stepping within 50 meters near it."

"In the end, 15 S-class experts came, trying to snatch the Yuan Yang Fruit from John Doe."

"As a result, John Doe dislocated their arms and legs."

"That's terrible!"

In the end...

He uploaded the photos of the 15 people fleeing in panic.

As soon as this post appeared...

It immediately caused a heated discussion among countless people.

“Sure enough, John Doe is in the Autranssy Desert.”

“The rumor seems right: where there is a Heaven Treasure, there is John Doe!”

“The first one who got to the Yuan Yang Fruit? It seems John Doe went there for the Yuan Yang Fruit. Otherwise, as a foreigner, how could he be the first one to arrive?”

“Ha-ha, awesome, John Doe! He dislocated the joints of 15 S-class experts without killing anyone. His counterattack is indeed ruthless!”

“I didn’t expect John Doe to be here so early. It looks like he is ready to fight against all the others for the Yuan Yang Fruit.”

“There were 15 S-class experts? Weren’t these people stupid? They knew it was John Doe, yet they still plucked up the courage to grab the treasure. It was merciful enough that John Doe didn’t kill them. They should be grateful that they were not from Nirvana or Murica. Otherwise, instead of putting their limbs out of joint, John Doe would have wiped them out already!”

As this matter sparked a heated discussion...

People from all the major forces worldwide received the news in the first place. They all knew John Doe was at the scene.

It was evident...

John Doe came to Autranssy for the Yuan Yang Fruit!

...

Murica...

In a secret conference room somewhere...

“John Doe must have obtained a treasure map. That was why he went to Autranssy. On the way to find this top-notch spiritual fruit, he destroyed the fortified points of the Nirvana Organization and killed its members.”

“Isn’t it obvious?”

“John Doe has already reached the SS level. Why does he need this top-level spiritual fruit? It won’t improve him much?”

“Humph, who cares? We must not let him get whatever he wants.”

“Absolutely. No matter what, we can’t give John Doe any chance to improve!”

“In the past, we were no match for him, but this time, we can make a difference.”

A group of high-ranking officials in Murica expressed their opinions one after another.

“Hee, hee...”

Nash Wilson suddenly sneered in the host's seat, "He provoked the Nirvana Organization and still wants to get the top-notch spiritual fruit. But he is only daydreaming. Let's see how you can run away this time!"

...

In a bar somewhere in Autranssy...

"What?"

A middle-aged man held a large glass of wine and drained the cup with one gulp, his cheeks burning. Then he wiped his bushy beard around his mouth. Turning to look at a young man beside him, he asked, "Hey, did you say a top-notch spiritual fruit appeared in the Autranssy Desert?"

"Yes."

The young man smiled. "I heard people from various countries wanted it real bad. Some forces have taken action."

"Really?"

The middle-aged man with a shaggy beard pondered for a moment. Then, with understanding, he nodded.

Evidently...

He flushed bright red after drinking a lot of wine, but he was fully conscious.

"And..."

The young man continued, "John Doe is also there. I heard he was the first to arrive. He drew a circle with a radius of 50 meters around the top spiritual fruit and claimed it to be his territory. No one else is allowed to enter it."

"That's interesting."

The middle-aged man with a beard laughed.

"Listen..."

The young man patted the middle-aged bearded man hard on the shoulder and said, "Uncle Mason, your strength is not bad. You can make the top ten in the world. You have concealed your strength, hiding in this small bar and drinking wine. But the treasure is discovered in Autranssy, our territory. You can't just watch our treasure being snatched away by people from other countries, can you?"

"But the top-grade spiritual fruit is useless to me."

Uncle Mason laughed, saying, "However, we should preserve our country's dignity. Besides, I'm very interested in John Doe."

"Tell me: where are the people our country sent over?"

Uncle Mason asked. Eyes on the young man, he seemed to have seen through everything.

"They're right outside the door."

The young man scratched his head in embarrassment and pointed outside the bar.

"Ha-ha."

Uncle Mason laughed and stood up, revealing his plumpy figure like a wine bucket. He said, "You little cheat! When I come back, buy me a drink!"

"Okay. I'll treat you to the most expensive stuff."

The young man immediately responded with a smile.

"Forget about the most expensive one. I only drink the strongest liquor."

Uncle Mason's voice echoed in the tavern, but he had already walked out of the entrance.

"How could you guys be qualified to stop John Doe with me?"

"Well, well, forget about it. Be careful, all of you. Stay alive when you follow me there."

"Go ahead. Let's go!"

...

In the Autranssy Desert...

Fang Qiu kept on cultivating. Recovering all the internal Qi he had consumed, he opened his eyes.

There were already many people coming from all directions.

They all belonged to local metahuman forces!

But...

A powerful aura rushing over from a distance was the most noticeable for Fang Qiu!

Chapter 1733 The SS level Expert in Autranssy!

“There’s finally an expert here!”

Looking far into the distance, Fang Qiu felt the mighty aura coming. He slightly raised his eyebrows and reached out to touch his chin, lost in thought.

Around them...

Seeing Fang Qiu looking toward something, everyone turned around and looked in the same direction.

Over there...

The people of the local forces here immediately saw a group rushing over from a distance!

“It’s him?”

“Why is he here?”

“The government must have invited him out, right?”

“There’s going to be a good show!”

They were all local forces. Thus, these people recognized the newcomer as soon as they saw him. He was the only super expert at the SS level in Autranssy, Mason!

In Autranssy...

Almost everyone knew Mason was the strongest in Autranssy. However, Mason had a strange temper and was unwilling to participate in significant events. From time to time, he would disappear. Others usually found him in some small countryside bars. All in all, he did not look like a top expert at all.

So...

When the Yuan Yang Fruit was discovered, no metahuman in Autranssy thought of Mason.

To everyone's surprise, the government took up the matter and persuaded him to handle the trouble.

This time...

Could John Doe still be puffed up with pride and arrogance?

Most of the metahumans in Autranssy knew Mason's strength was matchless. He was known as a nuclear bomb in human shape. Since he had no desire to compete, he was unwilling to challenge others. As such, there is no statistical proof to back up his power, no matter how mighty he was. Thus, he was not on the World's Individual Strength Ranking List.

But...

All the members of the Autranssy forces at the scene thought highly of him.

Everyone felt from the bottom of their hearts that Mason was no worse than John Doe. Therefore, they were all looking forward to the upcoming battle!

But near the fruit...

Fang Qiu was still absorbed in meditation, as if he was weighing something.

“Swoosh, swoosh, swoosh...”

Something coming fast penetrated the air.

In just a few minutes...

From a distance, the chubby middle-aged man with a beard brought a large group over. They landed on the line John Doe drew 50 meters away from the Yuan Yang Fruit.

“John Doe?”

The leading middle-aged bearded man looked at Fang Qiu and called out as soon as he stopped, appearing a bit tipsy.

“Yes.”

Glancing at him, Fang Qiu nodded matter-of-factly and said, “I’m John Doe.”

“I’m Mason.”

The bearded man laughed and said, “You’re in Autranssy’s territory. Thank you for helping us guard this place. Now that we’re here, you can leave now!”

“Help you?”

Fang Qiu shook his head with a smile and said, “Not exactly. I’m helping myself.”

“Then what do you mean?”

Mason asked.

“This fruit is mine now.”

Fang Qiu pointed to the Yuan Yang Fruit beside him and said, “It doesn’t matter who comes.”

“But this fruit belongs to Autranssy.”

Mason shook his head and said, “I won’t let anyone take away what belongs to us. This treasure to us is just like Laozi Relic to Huaxianese.”

As he talked...

Mason stepped forward with a large beer belly and crossed the line Fang Qiu drew.

“The relic has an owner. Even if Huaxia doesn’t take action, people from other countries can’t enter the relic. But the spiritual fruit belongs to no one. It is just a small fruit and won’t stop anyone from picking it.”

Fang Qiu smiled and added, “It seems you also want this spiritual fruit very much!”

“No.”

Unexpectedly, Mason shook his head and said, “I don’t want the spiritual fruit. I’m more interested in you.”

With that...

Mason reached out and took a wine pot the size of a grenade from his trouser pocket. Opening the pot, he poured all the wine into his mouth. Then he smacked his lips and hung the wine pot on his waist again.

In an instant...

“Swoosh...”

Mason suddenly flashed aside, his obese body leaving a succession of flexible shadows. At lightning speed, he charged fiercely at Fang Qiu.

He looked like a war chariot made of flesh.

This guy...

Seemingly, he was going to push Fang Qiu with his enormous belly.

“Interesting.”

Fang Qiu narrowed his eyes and met his approaching enemy head-on with his fist.

Unexpectedly...

When the two people were about to collide, a tremendous amount of energy Qi burst out of the middle-aged man. It took shape and condensed into a huge hammer before him, hanging there like the pendulum of a clock. Then, carrying a steam of exceedingly terrible impact force, he violently bumped into John Doe with the forward momentum.

“Boom!”

There came a loud bang.

Fang Qiu smashed his fist against the giant energy hammer erupting from his rival.

At the moment of collision...

Waves of energy Qi surged in all directions, instantly covering the area 100 meters around it.

The people of the local forces had been standing 50 meters away. Under the impact of this energy Qi, they were forcibly pushed out.

Though not injured, these people of the local forces were instantly frightened by the tremendous impact of the energy Qi.

This was merely the energy fluctuation caused by the two sides. How could it be so overwhelming?

If others bore the clash between them...

They would be instantly killed, right?

In shocked...

These people retreated one after another for fear of being affected.

On the battlefield...

“Ha-ha.”

In this crash, Mason and John Doe reached a draw. Mason, slightly drunk with a red face, suddenly burst out laughing. He stretched out his hands and grabbed the big hammer condensed by energy before him.

Without saying a word, he lifted the hammer and threw it at Fang Qiu.

“Well.”

Fang Qiu looked over.

“This guy looks too fat to be a blacksmith.

“But how could he use a hammer as a weapon?”

Though he thought so in his heart, Fang Qiu did not dare to let his guard down!

After all, his enemy was an authentic expert at the SS level. Besides, he was outstandingly strong and could draw with him!

This situation surprised Fang Qiu.

It should be noted that...

Because of his recultivation, Fang Qiu had an absolute advantage in strength and speed when fighting against a matched rival.

But this guy's power had reached the same high level as his.

This surprised Fang Qiu very much.

Nevertheless, although they were evenly matched in strength, Mason acted much more slowly.

“Swoosh.”

Fang Qiu moved in a flash.

When Mason swung the hammer down, Fang Qiu reacted fast and dodged aside. Then, he clenched his right hand. As the divine sword was formed in his hand, he deftly attacked his opponent.

“Hoo!”

Before the long sword fell, Mason waved his right hand.

When the long sword in Fang Qiu’s hand was about to fall, the huge hammer transformed by energy quickly turned around. It happened to block the long sword in Fang Qiu’s hand.

“Clang!”

There was a sound of metal colliding.

However...

Just as the sound of metal colliding rang out, Fang Qiu suddenly disappeared on the spot. In an instant, he appeared in another direction. Like the viper’s sharp fang, it slithered forward to attack Mason’s back.

“Humph.”

Mason seemed very dissatisfied as John Doe changed his way of fighting. After an angry snort, he raised the hammer to resist the attack.

But as soon as he turned around, he saw a layer of golden radiance burst out from the long sword in John Doe’s hand.

As this layer of golden sword light appeared...

The energy hammer in his hand was torn apart when knocking against the sword light released by the sword in John Doe's hand.

Fang Qiu's weapon ripped the weapon formed by his energy. Mason's expression changed drastically, and he immediately retreated.

Unlucky for him...

Fang Qiu had no intention of giving him this chance.

He changed his position again like a ghost and darted forward, blocking his route to retreat. With a wave of his right hand, he brought his sword down!

"Swoosh..."

Mason, who was retreating, noticed that John Doe was attacking him from behind. His face fell suddenly. Once again, a tremendous amount of energy aura burst out of him. Suppressed by this energy, he instantly stopped moving. Then, like before, he suddenly lurched forward and pulled away from John Doe.

"Eee?"

Fang Qiu didn't expect his rival to make a move against the laws of physics.

"Sure enough, John Doe is an unparalleled expert."

Out of John Doe's attack range, Mason immediately turned around. Watching Fang Qiu with a serious face, he said, "Take another blow of my hammer!"

With this...

He suddenly raised his hands above his head.

The golden sword Qi ruptured the energy hammer but was instantly repaired. Then it expanded rapidly and turned into a giant hammer. As Mason waved his arms, claps of thunder fell from the sky and fiercely crashed down on Fang Qiu.

“Just in time!”

Fang Qiu looked serious.

Clenching the longsword in his right hand, he abruptly slashed forward!

“Great Hand of Destruction-Forming a Sword!”

He cut the sword down.

The surrounding Qi of Heaven and Earth burst out from the blade and turned into a huge beam of sword Qi. Wrapped by a layer of fierce golden radiance, it quickly slammed into the giant hammer falling from the sky.

In an instant...

“Boom!!!”

An earth-shattering boom shook the air.

A massive explosion occurred when the two forces crashed into each other.

With tempestuous Qi power, the blast wave caused by the explosion surged out on all sides. The horrible impact even brought up enormous sand waves from the ground. In a great panic, those onlookers in the distance retreated quickly, not daring to face the horrifying scene.

On the battlefield...

When the two streams of energy knocked against each other...

Though the golden sword Qi appeared weak, it tore the giant energy hammer in half while they were fighting against each other. Then, with an overwhelming aura, it moved on to bombard Mason.

In the face of such a situation...

Mason's expression changed, and he quickly raised his hands to fend off the blow.

When he stretched out his hands, a stream of energy immediately gushed out from the center of his palm. Quickly, it condensed into an energy shield as tall as a man.

The golden sword Qi hit the energy shield hard.

A tremendous force erupted, sending Mason flying away in an instant!

Chapter 1734 Pretending to Be Defeated and Retreating!

Mason, lost?

As the only super expert at the SS level in Autranssy, Mason was the best one in Autranssy. How could he lose to John Doe?

A sudden gust of energy Qi swept past the battlefield. Under its impact, everyone from the local forces on the scene widened their eyes. In disbelief, they looked incredulously at Mason, who was sent flying 50 meters away by Fang Qiu's sword strike.

They were all dumbfounded.

No one expected Mason to lose.

Well...

They never thought Mason would lose, but on second thought, they didn't believe that John Doe would be defeated. Just because the loser represented Autranssy, they felt it hard to accept this result.

"You're amazing."

Mason dusted himself down. It looked as if he was not injured. Staring at Fang Qiu, he said, "But we won't allow anyone to take away Autranssy's treasures!"

As he said that...

He stretched out his hands. At a terrifying speed, the energy hammer crushed by John Doe formed in his hands again.

Meanwhile, the fighters sent by the Australian government, who followed him here, took out their weapons one after another. Led by Mason, they threw themselves forward, trying to drive John Doe away.

"Your performance is also very impressive!"

Seeing all the people rushing up together, Fang Qiu smiled and responded. Then he got ready and retreated to the distance without saying a word.

This scene...

It stunned Mason and all the fighters.

“Is John Doe going to escape?

“How could he take the initiative to give up the area he occupied?”

In the distance...

The people from the local forces looked at what was happening before them in confusion.

In their eyes...

Everything happening before them was incredible.

These people had done thorough research on John Doe.

They knew John Doe would never let go of the things he wanted to collect!

For example, the Laozi Relic...

Even if he had to fight against the world, John Doe never took a step back.

But now...

What was going on?

John Doe had occupied the most advantageous position and defeated Mason. With the matchless strength he had shown, even Mason and all fighters sent by the Autranssy government might not be his match. Then, how could he initiatively take the initiative to retreat?

What the hell was going on?

Over here...

Under the gazes of the expectant crowd, Fang Qiu didn't let them down. He retreated 100 meters away, turned around, and walked away.

Suddenly, the fighters sent by the Autranssy government and local forces just stopped there, rooted to the spot.

"What the hell is John Doe doing?"

In the distance...

Fang Qiu turned around and glanced toward the Yuan Yang Fruit. Then, he monitored the Yuan Yang Fruit, Mason, and others with his Divine Consciousness.

When he saw Mason and others appearing at the very start, Fang Qiu thought of giving up guarding the Yuan Yang Fruit!

The reason for his idea was simple.

Just as Li Ji said, this time, all the major forces in the world had their eyes on the Yuan Yang Fruit. At present, they were all on their way here.

In such a situation...

More and more people would come here to snatch the Yuan Yang Fruit.

Moreover, since the Yuan Yang Fruit was excessively tempting, many experts gathered here this time. After all, the Autranssy authorities even invited an expert at the SS level over.

Fang Qiu had thought about it for a long time. Whatever would happen, he was determined to keep the Yuan Yang Fruit. However, achieving his aim by force was not feasible.

At that time, he would inevitably become the public enemy.

That method would be arduous but fruitless.

Therefore...

The moment Fang Qiu sensed Mason here, he was thinking about how to shift the blame to Mason.

Then, he could leave rightly without damaging the reputation of himself and Huaxia.

To his surprise...

Mason made the first move, giving Fang Qiu such a chance!

When he defeated his opponent, he protected his reputation and Huaxia's. Afterward, in the case that his opponents rose in a mass to attack him, he could withdraw in the right and proper way.

After all, this was Autranssy, the other party's territory.

Without a doubt, this local group in Autranssy was a perfect scapegoat!

Of course...

Fang Qiu was also very clear.

After driving him away, these people in Autranssy would go on guarding the Yuan Yang Fruit confidently. Never would they pluck the fruit before it matured.

So...

Fang Qiu ran away without hesitation.

He threw all the problems that might happen in the next dozen days to the Autranssy government.

Soon...

Some forces and lone cultivators at the scene posted everything happening on the underground-force forum.

“The Autranssy Government Took Action! A Battle Between Super Experts at the SS Level Ended, John Doe Escaped!”

A post with a particularly attractive title appeared on the underground-force forum.

The moment the post appeared...

Everyone exclaimed.

Many people had been discussing and spreading various news about John Doe. Thus, everyone knew John Doe was in the Autranssy Desert. Besides, he had forcibly occupied the area within 50 meters of the Yuan Yang Fruit.

Initially...

People worldwide were waiting for the confrontation between the major forces and John Doe.

Unexpectedly...

The Autranssy government drove John Doe away?

“John Doe escaped? Did I hear it right?”

“How could the Autranssy government be so powerful?”

“How could it be? It’s impossible. How could they get rid of John Doe?”

“If the news is true, Autranssy’s strength can’t be underestimated!”

“What a surprise. Autranssy has an expert at the same level as John Doe. If the post was true, the Autranssy authorities indeed had the power to drive John Doe away!”

“Not to mention John Doe, the Australian authorities, as the local tyrant, sent over a super expert at the SS level as soon as they took action. It instantly upgraded the level of this battle for the Yuan Yang Fruit. Other countries can’t get the Yuan Yang Fruit without dispatching experts. If they send experts, this battle will be much more thrilling!”

There was a heated discussion on the underground-force forum.

Here...

In the international airport of each big city in Autranssy...

All the forces finally landed at the airports of the major cities in Autranssy.

For Soviett...

“Did the Autranssy authorities drive John Doe away?”

When they got off the plane, these people from Soviett received a text message. Then they immediately logged into the underground-force forum to check it. As a result, they found the Autranssy authorities took the lead in driving John Doe away from the Yuan Yang Fruit.

In this case, all the people from Soviett couldn't help frowning.

“What's going on?”

“With John Doe's matchless ability, how could the Autranssy authorities drive him away?”

“Perhaps, it was John Doe's trick: retreating to advance?”

“No. The Autranssy government took it seriously this time. They even asked an expert at the SS level to go there. According to the intelligence information, this expert was not at a disadvantage when fighting with John Doe. Though John Doe defeated him, he was not injured at all. He seems a highly competent expert!”

“If that's the case, it will be troublesome.”

“That's right. It would be fine if John Doe were there, for the whole world would only deal with one expert. But now, we have to fight against the Autranssy authorities. It is a tougher job. After all, this battle is in Autranssy. These people on the Autranssy side have the geographical advantage. We will be in an unfavorable position during the fight.”

“Let's wait and see. Some other countries will take the lead in scrambling for the treasure.”

The leader said, leading the crowd to leave the airport quickly.

At the airport in another city...

“John Doe escaped?”

As soon as the plane landed, the people from Anglan received the news.

However...

No one was willing to believe the news they heard. After all, John Doe had done too many surprising things. Not long ago, he made such a big scene in Belgon. With John Doe’s temperament, how could he escape?

“The Autranssy authorities have sent an expert at the SS level, a well-matched rival of John Doe?”

“Is there such an expert in Autranssy?”

“This time, we might have a hard time fighting for the Yuan Yang Fruit.”

...

As for these people from L’hexagone...

“Does Autranssy want to keep the Yuan Yang Fruit all to itself?”

“In my opinion, they are using John Doe as an example to warn us.”

“Perhaps. Yet, it was never easy to drive John Doe away. The Autranssy authorities achieved this. It is enough to prove that they are highly competitive. Moreover, they have an excellent geographical advantage.”

“That is to say, the Autranssy authorities, instead of John Doe, become the enemy of the whole world?”

“Now it’s tough to deal with the current situation!”

...

Murica also sent over some people.

They landed at the international airport in Porth, which was the closest to the Autranssy Desert.

Just as they got off the plane...

Soon, these Murican people received the news from their country.

“John Doe escaped?”

Receiving the news, the leader immediately frowned and said, “The higher-ups ordered that we must find out where John Doe has gone, whatever the price is!”

“John Doe fled in a hurry.”

“This guy is too cunning.”

“Did he run away because he knew we were coming?”

“He was lucky last time. We failed to kill him even when we cooperated with the Nirvana Organization. But this time, he was confronting the whole world. I had wanted to take this opportunity and invite all the major forces in the world to kill him together. But I didn’t expect him to escape in advance!”

“Damned. We must find out where John Doe is!”

...

At the international airport in Adalaide...

Little Saint Lord got off the plane with his people.

“Little Saint Lord, I have something to report.”

Just as they got off the plane, a middle-aged man quickly walked to Little Saint Lord and whispered in his ear, “Someone revealed on the underground-force forum that the Autranssy authorities have taken action and driven John Doe away.”

“Eh?”

Hearing the news, Little Saint Lord paused. Taking out his mobile phone, he logged into the underground-force forum to check the information. Then, he frowned in confusion and murmured, “Did John Doe run away?”

“John Doe escaped?”

“Does he fear us or the Autranssy authorities?”

As Little Saint Lord said this, a cold light flashed in his eyes. He murmured, “I hope we can successfully find him!”

But...

Various forces arrived at the international airport in the major cities of Autransssy. One after another, they received the news that the Australian authorities had driven John Doe away. In the meantime, many people had their eyes on these foreigners!

Chapter 1735 Banished for Using Phones...

At the international airport in Sidney...

The people from SoviETT got off the plane.

Four SoviETT citizens came, each with outstanding capabilities.

When they were waiting to pass customs...

The four people took out their phones and logged into the underground-force forum. Carefully, they checked all kinds of relevant news there to see if they could find any information about John Doe.

A group of people kept an eye on them. But because they were absorbed in searching for the information, the four didn't notice it.

The customs...

As the name suggested, it was the official organization responsible for checking people entering the country. Most of the people coming here had to wait in a long line. Eventually, they would reach the identity confirmation area. Only when their identities were confirmed could they go into the country.

Since a lot of tourists visited Autransssy, these people needed to wait for a long time.

But...

Oddly...

Almost all the people were queuing in a well-behaved way. Except for the four people from Soviett, no one was playing with their mobile phones.

But the four people were too absorbed in browsing the information online to notice this.

When they were engrossed in playing with their mobile phones...

Several local customs officers in Autranssy suddenly rushed toward the four people with some security guards.

When the four people from Soviett noticed the abnormal condition, they raised their heads one after another.

There, they were surprised to see that...

The customs officers in Autranssy took out a notice board for phones: "No phones are allowed in this area."

When the sign was placed before them...

A customs officer warned seriously, "You are not allowed to use mobile phones in this area. This is the law of our country, and you have broken the law!"

After he said that...

The four people from Soviett were immediately stunned.

“Phones are not allowed?”

“What kind of weird rule is this?”

Then...

They looked around...

To their astonishment, they found a warning message on the wall nearby. It read, “In the border control area, phones, cameras, video cameras, and other similar equipment are prohibited!”

Here, the customs staff also presented the rules and regulations.

According to the record...

In the restricted area of Autranssy’s airport, the following four things were absolutely not allowed:

First, no photos...

Second, no phone calls...

Third, no cameras or video cameras...

Fourth, strictly comply with laws and regulations in Autranssy’s customs border area!

As the four people from Soviett saw these...

They were even more startled.

How could they imagine this? How could any country ban such things at the airport? Phones had become part of everyday life, right? Why would anyone impose restrictions on the use of phones?

“I’m sorry.”

The SoviETT leader came to his senses. Right away, he put away his mobile phone and cast a meaningful glance at the other three people aside, telling them to put away their phones.

The four people quickly pocketed their phones.

“It was our fault. We didn’t know this rule. We are sorry for causing you the trouble. We promise we won’t do it again!”

The leader from SoviETT hurriedly apologized and begged for forgiveness.

“All of you must be punished!”

The customs officer said angrily.

“We accept it.”

Immediately, the leader nodded and said, “We can accept the penalty of a fine. We are willing to pay it as long as the fine is within a reasonable range!”

When the customs officer heard that...

He said, “You will have to receive three kinds of punishment for breaking laws in the border control area. The first punishment: we will take your phones and keep them for the time being. After checking the content on your phones, we will give them back to you.”

“The second one: pay the fine!”

“The third one: you will face a lawsuit or be sent back!”

After he finished speaking...

The faces of the four people from Sovieth suddenly changed.

“They asked us to hand in our phones!

“But our phones are used to contact the Sovieth higher-ups. If our phones are confiscated, won’t these top secrets be revealed?”

“We must not hand over our phones!

“Then, we can only choose to pay the fine.”

“We are willing to pay the fine.”

The leader from Sovieth said, “We can pay the fine right now, as much as you want!”

“Look at your aggressive attitude.”

The customs officer said unhappily, “So, we have decided not to accept your apology and fine. We will send you back to your country!”

...

At the international airport in Porth...

“Hello, please hand over your mobile phones. You have transgressed against the law!”

Led by a customs officer, a group of security guards surrounded all the Muricans using phones and stretched out their hands to check their mobile phones.

Of course, the Muricans would not obediently hand over their mobile phones.

After all...

They were not ordinary people, so their phones were undoubtedly not common ones used by ordinary people.

“We can pay a fine but refuse to hand over our mobile phones. We’re from Murica. If you dare to take away our mobile phones by force, we’ll sue you in the international court!”

These Muricans were all very angry.

It was illegal to use phones at the airport in Autranssy. How could they ever think of that? It was simply overly unreasonable.

To their dismay...

There was such a law in Autranssy!

“You are so rude and aggressive. We will send you back to your country!”

The customs officer roared angrily and said, “You’ve broken the law. We won’t allow you to enter our country. You’ll be sent back home immediately!”

“I repeat, we accept the fine!”

These people from Soviëtt became even more furious.

They had been on the plane for such a long time. However, as soon as they landed, they would be sent back. How could they accept it?

Was this a fucking joke?

“You must follow our arrangements!”

As the customs officer waved his right hand, the security guards around them immediately came forward and sent these people away under escort — they would be forcibly repatriated.

...

At the airport in Melbourne...

“What? We will be sent back?”

The customs also targeted these people from L’hexagone.

“I’m sorry, kind customs officer. We didn’t hear you clearly. Can you say it again?”

The leader of this L’hexagone team said. Meanwhile, he took out a thick stack of money and handed it to the customs officer, saying, “It is nothing serious. We broke the law, but we didn’t do it on purpose. So, I hope you can give us a chance. We are willing to pay the fine!”

“No.”

The customs officer immediately shook his head. What was worse, he pointed to the money in the hand of the L'hexagone leader and criticized, "How dare you bribe the customs staff in public? The security cameras here have recorded all your illegal activities. Your appearance will pose a serious threat to our country. Therefore, we will send you back to your country immediately!"

...

At the international airport in Canbara...

These people from Anglan landed at this airport.

"Is this the capital territory in Autranssy?"

"It looks pretty good."

Getting off the plane, a group from Anglan immediately took out their mobile phones. While talking to each other, they logged into the underground-force forum to check the latest news.

As a result...

Just when they opened the underground-force forum...

A customs officer immediately came over with a group of security guards.

Without saying anything, they snatched the phones from the hands of this Anglan group.

Well...

Though their phones were not taken away, they immediately received a warning from the local customs!

Just like what happened to the people in other countries...

They would be sent back!

This situation stunned all the people from Anglan.

How could they be repatriated just because they looked at their phones?

Even if there was such a law, there should be a corresponding process to enforce it. Since they broke the law for the first time, they usually only needed to pay a fine.

How could they be sent back at the very beginning?

Beyond doubt...

All these people from Anglan, L'hexagone, Murica, and SoviETT knew about it.

Obviously, the Autranssy authorities were using their strange airport regulations to force them to leave Autranssy!

The people from various countries were in a rage...

But...

It was a fact that they had broken the law.

Besides...

No one could use phones in the airports in Autranssy. This rule did not appear recently but a long time ago. In any case, the Autranssy authorities could not be blamed.

In this situation...

Even if the four countries were burning with rage, they could only follow the instructions of the customs officers.

Somewhere else...

At the airport in Adalaide...

The young Little Saint Lord also encountered the same situation.

“Ridiculous airport rules!”

When the customs staff furiously argued against Little Saint Lord, he was at a loss for words.

The customs officer did not know his identity...

But...

He still gave them the relevant punishment.

It was evident...

The Autranssy authorities did not target just one or two people, but all the foreigners.

It seemed that...

Anyone who came to Autransssy during this period and violated the airport regulations would receive only one punishment — they would be sent back to their countries. They couldn't get away by paying the fine or accepting other light punishments.

In the meantime...

The customs staff of these major international airports escorted the forces of various countries into the airport security houses. These people were only allowed to live in a restricted area.

Then, the police in the airport bought flight tickets for them, ready to send all these people back!

But when the police were busing buying tickets...

The people in restricted areas ran away from the airports with their different skills!

After all...

They were ordinary people.

When escorted by the police, they did not dare to make trouble at the airports or use their unique skills. But it was different after they were sent to the security houses. These people could escape from any place in the airports.

As such...

Some people left through the ventilation ducts. Part of them jumped out of the windows in the corridors. Well, some others vanished when they went to the toilet.

Anyway, the powerless customs of Autransssy could never hold these people from different countries in custody, not to mention sending them back to their countries.

After all, they came here for the Yuan Yang Fruit!

But the Atranssy authorities wanted to repatriate these people without sending a metahuman to help. How could it be possible?

Soon...

All these trapped experts from all over the world left the airport. Then, they looked for opportunities and rushed to the Atranssy Desert.

Of course...

On the run, these people had a tacit understanding — none dared to mention this matter on the underground-force forum.

Because it was too embarrassing.

After investigating the origin of the misfortune, they knew the Atranssy authorities had done nothing wrong. It was their fault. They had no idea of the airport rules in Atranssy even when they had arrived here. If the news spread widely, countless people would sneer at them and say they deserved it!

Chapter 1736 Military Trucks Arrive to Threaten

In the Atranssy Desert...

In the depths of the desolate and uninhabited desert, it gradually welcomed some people who had never been here before. Hence, this area which usually only had the sound of the wind gradually become lively.

A few hundred kilometers away from the edge of the desert...

All people from the Autranssy authorities, led by Mason, were densely surrounding the gradually ripened Yuan Yang Fruit.

It wasn't just 50 meters.

The Autranssian officials were more overbearing than John Doe.

After driving John Doe away from here, they copied John Doe's example to draw a circle with a diameter of 100 meters and drove all the people out of the circle.

The people from local forces, who came earlier than the Autranssian officials, did not need to be reminded at all, and they stepped back one after another.

They were in their territory.

However, the real owner of this territory was official.

Any local force of any country that went against the official would result in self-destruction only.

Hence...

With the presence of the officials, these local forces naturally had no nuts to be presumptuous.

In addition...

During this time, informants from other non-native forces also arrived.

Just as Huaxia had informants from all over the world, other countries naturally had some informants in Autranssy. At this critical moment, these informants played a big role.

Before people from various countries arrived, these informants had received the order of going to the site soonest, so as to observe the whole situation and provided information and clues to the intelligence departments of the corresponding countries. So the intelligence departments of various countries could analyze the situation on the spot before they arrived.

All the news at the scene spread so fast mainly because of the information and clues provided by the local informants.

Obviously, under the strict management of the intelligence department of each country, no one would directly pass on the information to the intelligence department of each country during such a sensitive period. The supervision of the local authorities was very tough, so no one dared to take the risk to get in contact with these countries.

This led to various latest news always appearing on the underground-force forum in time.

After all...

No one could stop news from sending on the underground-force forum, and the whole world could see it. No one dared to say that the news was deliberately sent to which country or force.

Soon...

The news that the Autranssy authorities had marked out a 100-meter-diameter forbidden area around the Yuan Yang Fruit spread to the underground-force forum.

All the forces in the world learned of this through the underground-force forum.

No one had expected that...

The Autranssian officials would be so aggressive.

It seemed that...

The Autranssy authorities declared to those who escaped from the airport from the various forces all over the world that the Yuan Yang Fruit was theirs and that no one was allowed to touch it.

Yet...

Obviously, those people who came from afar would not be frightened by the Autranssy authorities.

Not long after they escaped from the airport...

The people of various forces received the same news as soon as possible.

Everyone couldn't help but frown and feel embarrassed when they got the news. However, this news couldn't suppress any force, and these people didn't even hesitate for a moment because of it.

Not surprisingly...

After receiving the news, people from various countries and forces quickened their paces to the desert.

Through various channels of information...

They had known the specific location of the Yuan Yang Fruit earlier.

Before long...

The group of people from Soviety, who first escaped from the airport, got to the location of the Yuan Yang Fruit.

They watched from afar.

In addition to the first group of people who drove John Doe away, it was obvious that the Autranssy authorities sent two more groups of people over. They formed a 100-meter-diameter circle outside, then a second 50-meter-diameter circle inside, and a third 10-meter-diameter circle inmost, surrounding Mason and the Yuan Yang Fruit in the center.

They formed three human chains.

In the outermost, which had the most headcounts, almost all the soldiers were not very strong. They seemed to be sixth-class or seventh-class experts, and the strongest one was only at the peak of eighth-class.

In the second circle, there were some metahumans between eighth-class and ninth-class.

At last...

There were very few people who formed the 10-meter-diameter circle. They were only 10 in total, but all were S-class experts.

Such a formation was really extraordinary.

“Ten S-class experts?”

As soon as they arrived, the leader of Soviety looked at the center of the crowd and immediately raised his eyebrows. He fixed his eyes on the stout man who was drinking next to the Yuan Yang Fruit and said, “It seems that the Autranssy authorities are going to show their strength to the world this time. They sent one SS level and ten S-class experts here.”

“He looks really strong.”

One of them said, “According to our investigation, this guy at the SS level is named Mason. He is the only SS-level expert in the entire Autranssy. The other ten S-class experts have all been cultivated by the Autrassy authorities over many years. Their strength is very strong, absolutely incomparable to that of average S-class experts.”

“Mm, it is already very good to cultivate 10 S-class experts.”

The leader of Soviety nodded and said, “Even in the whole world, whoever can send out such a force at one time. It is enough to overawe many countries and forces.”

They chatted in low voices.

The people from Soviety did not take action. They just stood 100 meters away and stared at the Yuan Yang Fruit inside.

With the arrival of the people from Soviety...

The atmosphere at the scene immediately became solemn.

No one had expected that the people from Soviety would be willing to stand 100 meters away after they arrived. They had no intention of fighting for it at all.

When everyone was surprised by the calmness of the people from Soviety...

“Swoosh, swoosh, swoosh...”

The people from Anglan also arrived.

From a distance, the people from Anglan had observed the situation on the spot all way along.

After seeing the situation at the scene, the arrived people from Anglan sensibly stopped 100 meters away. Like the people from Soviety, they shifted their eyes to observe the surrounding situation, and they had no intention of taking action at all.

However, with the arrival of the people from Anglan, the atmosphere at the scene became more solemn.

Shortly after...

The people from L'hexagone arrived closely behind.

In addition to all countries in the world, the forces in other regions also arrived in succession.

The last one was Murica.

When the people from Murica arrived...

The atmosphere at the scene dropped straight to freezing point.

The various forces occupied a direction each. No one made a move, but they just stared straight at the Autransian officials.

The atmosphere became more and more solemn.

In a distance greater than 300 meters away...

Fang Qiu hid in the underground sand, completely suppressed his energy aura, and observed the situation on the spot very carefully.

Seeing all the people from various forces arrive, Fang Qiu secretly rejoiced.

"Fortunately, I have put the blame on the Autranssy authorities. Otherwise, facing so many forces alone, I will be under great pressure."

At the scene...

With the arrival of the group of Murica...

All the people from various forces rolled their eyes.

It could be seen that they all wanted to take action.

“Now that every party is here, shouldn’t we discuss what to do next?”

The leader of Murica glanced at the crowd around and said to everyone as if he were the protagonist.

Hearing that...

The people of other countries and forces nodded in agreement.

However, the Autransian officials changed their expressions in an instant.

What did he mean by discussing what to do?”

The Autransian officials knew it very well.

“Since everyone has agreed, what about you guys from Autranssy?”

The leader of Murica grinned and said, “After all, this is your place. As friends of yours from all over the world, we will try our best to listen to the advice from your local Autransian people.”

As soon as he finished speaking...

The Autransian officials' faces turned gloomier immediately.

They didn't expect it at all.

The Murica authorities would sum them up just in one sentence.

In this regard...

The official spokesman of Autranssy immediately stood up with dissatisfaction and said, "This is Autransian territory, and you are all foreigners. We are not like you, what you want to discuss has nothing to do with us. But, if it involves our interests, we won't be afraid of anyone!"

As soon as the spokesman finished speaking...

The eyes of the Autransian officials immediately lit up.

"Don't take me wrong."

The leader of Murica laughed and said, "We don't have that idea. What I'd like to discuss with all of you is the supervisory right of this top-notch spiritual fruit.

"Since everyone is here for this spiritual fruit and it has no owner, I think this spiritual fruit should be supervised by all of us, do you agree?"

All the forces nodded in agreement. They all thought that what the leader of Murica said was right.

"No way!"

The official spokesman of Autranssy snorted coldly and said, "This spiritual fruit grew in Autranssy, and it belongs to Autranssy. It has nothing to do with you. If you want to snatch this spiritual fruit, it means that you want to encroach on the interests of Autranssy. We will never agree."

Hearing that...

All the people from Autranssy immediately became alert. They stared at the people around them and put on an air that they were ready to fight at any time.

"Well, the matter of spiritual fruit is similar to the relics. Didn't the Autranssian fight over the relics in countries worldwide? You did send your people to fight over the relics and spiritual fruit that appeared in other countries. Why do you not allow others to fight over the spiritual fruit in your territory?"

The leader of Murica sneered and said, "I don't think Autranssy will want to be enemies with the world, will you?"

When the Autranssian officials heard this...

Everyone from Autranssy looked embarrassed.

The surrounding various forces took out their weapons one after another, ready to take action.

For a moment...

Both sides were on the verge of breaking out a fight.

Just then...

"Roar..."

A fleet of modified military trucks, which could drive quickly in the desert, rushed over quickly in the roar of engines and were put in the area 100 meters away from the Yuan Yang Fruit by the Atranssy authorities.

Seeing these military trucks in place...

All the people from various forces present were confused.

What was the game the Atranssy authorities playing? Why did they arrange so many military trucks here? Did they want their soldiers to deal with metahumans from other countries?

Chapter 1737 Whoever Dares to Attack Will Die Together!

All the people from various forces could not figure out what the Atranssy authorities were going to do.

Just then...

The official spokesman of Atranssy suddenly stood up with a sneer.

"These trucks are fully loaded with bombs!"

Glancing at all the people from various forces at the scene, the official spokesman of Atranssy said, "If anyone dares to make a move, we will all die together. No one can escape."

Hearing that...

All the people present were so scared that they couldn't help but take a few steps back.

Everyone's face revealed a surprised look.

No one had expected that the Autranssy authorities would ship so many bombs here.

At a glance, there were a total of four military trucks in the fleet.

One vehicle in each direction.

If the four military trucks were filled with bombs as the official spokesman of Autranssy said, once the bombs were ignited, no one at the scene could escape.

Three hundred meters away...

“Damn, they played the game a little far!”

Hearing what the official spokesman of Autranssy said, Fang Qiu immediately frowned.

He didn’t expect it either.

The Autranssy authorities were so crazy that they got so many bombs here. Even four trucks of most ordinary bombs were enough to blow up all the people around.

It seemed that the Autranssy authorities were going to risk their lives to keep the Yuan Yang Fruit this time.

However...

All the people of the various forces were so scared by the four trucks of bombs that they didn’t know what to do for a while.

“Swoosh...”

Suddenly, a gust of rustling was heard from a distance.

Everyone turned to look in the direction of the sound.

They saw a young man flying over quickly with a group of people.

Everyone was curious.

Who was it?

Everyone shifted their eyes to the young man, with their faces full of confusion. They had no clue who the person in front of them was, where he came from, and which country or force he belonged to.

“Bombs?”

As soon as he approached, the young man flew straightly into the air above the heads of all the people from Autranssy authorities. He said with a smile, “Now, I’m right here. Go ahead and blow it up if you have the guts.”

Hearing that...

Everyone present was shocked.

They were all startled by the young man who suddenly appeared.

What did this man mean? Why did he incite the Autransssian officials to detonate the bombs?

All the people from various forces at the scene were flustered when they saw the four trucks of bombs. They didn’t want to mess with the Autranssy authorities, let alone see the bombs explode.

After all, once the four trucks of bombs exploded, it would cause great damage to them undoubtedly. Even if they were lucky enough to survive the explosion, the Yuan Yang Fruit surrounded in the center would probably be blown up.

Even if everyone subconsciously protected the Yuan Yang Fruit, the amount of explosives was so large that no one was confident that they could keep the Yuan Yang Fruit safe.

Therefore...

Under the circumstances that they couldn't get to a good solution, all the people from the various forces didn't dare to mess with the Autranssy authorities easily, and they even had a backup plan to make concessions.

However, it was screwed up by this young man who suddenly showed up. Everyone was dumbfounded.

The Autranssian officials were even more shocked.

In their opinions...

It was no doubt that the four trucks of bombs could scare everyone away. But they didn't expect that such a young reckless man would get involved at this critical moment.

Was this guy a fool?

The official spokesman of Autranssy was pissed off. He immediately stood up, stared at the young man angrily, and asked in a cold voice, "Who are you? What force do you represent?"

"Me?"

The young man grinned and said, "You can address me 'Little Saint Lord'. I represent the Nirvana Organization."

Hearing that...

All the people present were stunned in an instant.

They wondered, "He represents the Nirvana Organization?"

"Call him Little Saint Lord?"

"You... You... You are Little Saint Lord of the Nirvana Organization, aren't you?"

The leader of Murica immediately asked.

"That's right."

Little Saint Lord nodded, then looked at the official spokesman of Autranssy and asked, "Is this identity counted?"

In the distance...

Fang Qiu who hid under the sand and suppressed all his aura was also shocked when he heard what the young man said.

"Little Saint Lord. It's Little Saint Lord of the Nirvana Organization!"

Fang Qiu did not dare to stare at Little Saint Lord, and he observed him with his Divine Consciousness only.

Under such a situation...

Observing with his eyes was easy to be noticed by Little Saint Lord. But, Fang Qiu could observe Little Saint Lord as he liked by using his Divine Consciousness and would never be found by Little Saint Lord, unless Little Saint Lord had also cultivated the Divine Consciousness, and the intensity of the Divine Consciousness was stronger than that of Fang Qiu.

That was obviously impossible.

Under the detection of his Divine Consciousness...

Fang Qiu could tell that Little Saint Lord's strength was very overbearing and it was much stronger than that of Lord Virtuous.

It was hard to imagine.

How could such a young man have such formidable strength?

The Nirvana Organization was really terrifying!

...

At the scene...

"Blow up if you have the guts."

Little Saint Lord was flying in the air above the people of Autranssy authorities. With an indifferent sneer on his face, he said, "Even if you detonate the four trucks of bombs, none of you can escape, but I can.

"Come on, detonate it, and let me see!"

In this situation...

It was hard for the Autransian officials to make a decision.

In their eyes, Little Saint Lord was simply a rogue.

His appearance was rascal to the extreme.

“Detonate it?”

“Or not detonate it?”

The Autransian officials were all in a dilemma. Even Mason, who had been silent, stood up and looked at Little Saint Lord with a gloomy face.

Mason could also distinctly feel the powerful strength of Little Saint Lord. He knew that he was no match for Little Saint Lord, so he didn't want to conflict with Little Saint Lord directly!

As for others...

The people of the various major forces standing around sneered when they saw the hesitation on the faces of the Autransian officials.

The first to speak out was the Murican team, which previously cooperated with the Nirvana Organization twice.

“Haha, Little Saint Lord is right. Now that you dare to ship the bombs over, why don't you dare to detonate them?”

The leader of Murica mocked.

“Yeah. Go ahead and detonate the bombs. Let’s see how powerful your Autransssian bombs are.”

The leader of Anglan also spoke up.

“At worst, we’ll die together. Even if we die, our country won’t decline because of this. But if your experts here die, all the elites of Autranssy will be gone. Let’s see whether you’ll detonate the bombs or not.”

The leader of L’hexagone echoed ironically.

“If you want to detonate the bombs, hurry up.”

“Let’s see how badly the desert can be blown up by the four trucks of bombs.”

“Don’t just stand there. Go ahead!”

Almost all the surrounding forces began to complain and mock the Autransssian officials.

It seemed that...

These forces firmly believed that the Autransssian officials did not dare to detonate the bombs, so they threatened them with words. Their purpose was very simple. They wanted to take this opportunity to force the Autranssy authorities to give in somewhat so that they could gain a chance to touch the Yuan Yang Fruit.

In the center of the circle...

Seeing the various major forces pressing forward step by step and hearing the ridicule of them...

Mason, who had been silent all this time, suddenly got angry.

“Do it. Bury all the bombs and get ready to detonate them.”

As the most powerful person in Autranssy, Mason knew that he had to stand out. So he shouted loudly.

In his opinion...

No matter what, Autranssy could not be disrespected.

Hearing Mason’s shout...

The people from Autranssy authorities, who had been in a dilemma, did not hesitate at all.

They immediately got into positions. The ten S-class experts, who were standing 10 meters away from the center, immediately moved forward to replace the circle of people, who were standing 50 meters away from the center. As for the group of people who had been replaced, they immediately divided into four teams and quickly walked to the four military trucks.

“Crack...”

They opened the door of the military truck respectively.

Piles of bombs were revealed in the military trucks.

Then...

Without any hesitation, those people immediately started to install the bombs.

First, they started installing the bombs close to the Yuan Yang Fruit and quickly spread and covered the entire area within 100 meter-diameters. Moreover, the bombs had not been used up yet. The people from Autranssy authorities were not afraid at all. Then, they continued to set up bombs outside.

At last, they installed bombs in the entire area within 120 meters surrounding the Yuan Yang Fruit.

Every time the people from Autranssy authorities took a step forward, the surrounding forces would take a step back.

No one dared to approach.

They were afraid that the people from Autranssy authorities would really detonate the bombs.

Before long...

All the bombs were installed.

The remote trigger was handed to Mason.

"Is this what you want to see?"

Holding the remote trigger in his hand, Mason said angrily, "Since you all want to see the explosion, I'll fulfill your wish. Let's die together."

As he spoke, he was about to press the trigger.

Seeing this scene...

People from all the major forces were dumbfounded.

They had never thought that the Autranssy authorities would be so crazy that they really wanted to detonate the bombs.

Besides...

The most shameless thing for the Autranssy authorities was that they did not bury all the bombs together and detonate them. Instead, they spread them out.

Under such a situation...

No one dared to approach within 120 meters surrounding the Yuan Yang Fruit.

When they installed the bombs, everyone saw that there was enough quantity of bombs at each explosion spot, and the explosion spots were very dense. Once they exploded, the power was definitely not what they could bear. Even an expert at S-class or S-plus might be blasted to death at once.

Everyone present could feel the madness of the Autranssy authorities.

People from various major forces retreated one after another.

They just wanted to take this opportunity to push the Autranssy authorities, but they didn't expect that the Autranssy authorities would really want to detonate the bombs.

They didn't wish to die.

In just a few seconds, almost everyone around, regardless of whether they were from various major forces across the world or local forces, was scared away.

As the saying went, a beggar could never be bankrupt. This was the current situation. The Autranssy authorities were at a disadvantage, like a beggar, who was fearless. The various major forces from all over the world were rich and powerful, but they were afraid of the Autranssy authorities.

Three hundred meters away...

Fang Qiu, who had been hiding in the sand and didn't dare to move, couldn't suppress the excitement in his heart at all. He wished to go out now because he really needed the Yuan Yang Fruit. He was afraid that it would be blown up by the Autranssy authorities like this.

But he couldn't.

Once Fang Qiu showed up on the spot, he would inevitably attract the hatred of Little Saint Lord of Nirvana, and very likely, he would also attract the hatred of Murica. By then, Fang Qiu would be the one to bear the pressure for the Autranssy authorities.

At the scene...

"Are you serious?"

Seeing this, Little Saint Lord immediately shook his head and said with a smile, "I was just joking. I didn't expect you to have the nerve to detonate the bombs. So I'll come back in a few days."

With that, Little Saint Lord flew away.

Chapter 1738 Where Does John Doe Go?

As soon as Little Saint Lord left...

The scene immediately turned void.

The area which looked extremely lively instantly became quiet.

Next to the Yuan Yang Fruit...

The Autranssy officials, who were pushed into a desperate situation by the various major forces, immediately breathed a sigh of relief. Their solemn and nervous expressions were also completely relaxed now.

After all, Little Saint Lord had already left, so they didn't need to detonate the bombs.

Three hundred meters away...

When Fang Qiu saw this scene, he heaved a sigh of relief.

Fortunately, the bombs were not detonated. Otherwise, it would have been big trouble.

At this thought, Fang Qiu secretly dived under the sand, ready to retreat and hide for the time being.

At the scene...

"They're all gone."

The official spokesman of Autranssy walked up to Mason and said, "Although they were scared away, I am sure these people will not give up. When the time comes, they will come again."

"Yeah."

Mason nodded and said, "Although we dodged for a while now, it will be very difficult to handle this in the end."

"Then what should we do?"

The official spokesman of Autranssy smiled bitterly.

“We can do nothing.”

Mason shook his head and said, “As you’ve already seen, too many people came here from all over the world, and these people are all very strong. I can deal with a few of them but not all of them. Even if all of us work together, we are no match for them.

“What’s more, John Doe is watching us in the dark.”

As soon as Mason finished speaking...

The Autranssy official spokesman’s face turned gloomy.

He had witnessed John Doe’s strength. Even Mason had been defeated by John Doe. Moreover, judging from the combat capability that John Doe had shown, even if all of them worked together, they might not be a match for John Doe, let alone other forces.

“Are we going to give up just like this?”

The official spokesman of Autranssy couldn’t help but say with a wry smile, “This is our country’s territory, and the spiritual fruit belongs to us. Can we just watch them snatch it away?”

“Well, we can only take things one step at a time.”

Mason shook his head and said, “If we fail, we’ll have to resist them till the last minute. By then, we’ll try our best to evacuate the crowd and minimize the losses. With me here, at least I can save some lives.”

...

In the distance...

Moving under the sand layer, Fang Qiu was like a sandworm, arriving one kilometer away at a high speed.

The place where he emerged his head...

It happened to be the top of a sand dune.

Before Fang Qiu emerged his head entirely, he saw what was going on outside.

The moment Fang Qiu saw the situation outside, he immediately dived into the sand again and didn't dare to emerge his head anymore.

It was because he saw people from various forces all over the world.

Fang Qiu had thought...

These people were supposed to have returned to the city to replenish their supplies and find a solution before coming back.

Therefore...

Along the way, Fang Qiu didn't use his Divine Consciousness to explore.

Fang Qiu didn't expect to bump into these people a kilometer away.

With this in mind...

Fang Qiu immediately concentrated on activating his Divine Consciousness. Then, everything within 100 meters around instantly appeared in his sight.

Fang Qiu noticed that...

People who gathered here were from various forces all over the world. Even Little Saint Lord was here. However, the local forces of Autranssy were not in this place.

It seemed that...

These forces did not intend to go far, but they wanted to discuss and get a conclusion here.

Under the detection of his Divine Consciousness...

Fang Qiu was aware that these forces had not planned to unite with each other for the time being. They all had their own discussions and had no intention of taking the initiative to cooperate with others.

But...

Among these forces, the Nirvana Organization was an exception.

Little Saint Lord only brought two people with him, but people from other countries and forces all peeked at Little Saint Lord's side.

Some of them even walked toward Little Saint Lord with smiles and greeted him kindly.

It was obvious that they tried to establish a relationship with Little Saint Lord.

They took action one after another.

The first one who approached the Nirvana Organization was Anglanish.

The leader of Anglan kept flattering Little Saint Lord with a smile. However, Little Saint Lord looked indifferent and did not take his flattery seriously.

In the beginning...

When the people around saw the leader of Anglan take the initiative to flatter Little Saint Lord, they were all very resentful and felt ashamed of Anglanish.

Later, when they saw that Little Saint Lord ignored the leader of Anglan, everyone felt secretly happy.

People from other forces went to visit Little Saint Lord one by one, trying to establish a relationship with him.

On the side...

The leader of Murica sneered again and again.

In his opinion, Little Saint Lord of the Nirvana Organization would definitely ignore those people, for only Murica could join hands with the Nirvana Organization, and only their strength could be recognized by the Nirvana Organization, not to mention that they had already cooperated twice before.

But...

Murica was not in a hurry to seize the position, but let other forces contact Little Saint Lord. It would be a good thing if Little Saint Lord took a fancy to any force.

After all, the Nirvana Organization even sent Little Saint Lord this time, so their purpose must be to deal with John Doe. According to their previous twice experience in dealing with John Doe, it was obviously not so easy to kill John Doe.

Therefore, if they could gather more people to deal with John Doe, they would have a better chance of winning.

Nearby...

After exploring for a while...

Fang Qiu didn't stay. He left quietly.

He knew that if he continued to detect the situation here, he would not find out any useful information. What he saw was all flattery. It was better to leave and find a place to think about what to do next.

Before long...

Fang Qiu moved for another kilometer under the sand. Then he poked his head out again. After making sure that no one was around, Fang Qiu got out of the sand and flew quickly into the distance.

Fang Qiu didn't stop until he got to a place about 15 kilometers away.

While monitoring the area within 80 kilometers with his Divine Consciousness, Fang Qiu started to think.

"Three days have passed. There are 12 days left before the Yuan Yang Fruit fully ripens. Judging from the attitude of the Autransian officials, there will definitely be no problem with the Yuan Yang Fruit in these 12 days."

Fang Qiu nodded and murmured, "However, those forces will continue to press the Autranssy authorities step by step. In the case of no retreat, the Autranssy authorities are very likely to choose to destroy indiscriminately. By then, the Yuan Yang Fruit will be gone. This is absolutely not acceptable.

"I have to find a way!"

On the underground-force forum...

Everything that happened at the scene was posted in time by informants and detectives sent by the local forces of Autranssy and some other forces.

“The Autranssy authorities are using bombs to surround us!”

As soon as this headline was released...

It immediately attracted the attention of enormous people on the forum.

They clicked on the post to check it out.

In the post, the whole process of the incident was described in detail, even including the number of bombs. Of course, photos were attached.

Seeing these contents and photos, everyone on the forum was dumbfounded.

“Holy shit. Seriously?”

“Even get bombs there?”

“Four trucks of bombs. Oh my gosh, are the Autranssy authorities making such a big deal out of it?”

“Little Saint Lord of the Nirvana? He is very young, isn’t he?”

“He is so bold! How dare he force the Autranssy authorities like that? Sure enough, the Nirvana Organization is extraordinary!”

“I didn’t expect the Autranssy authorities to be so decisive. They even shipped the bombs and installed them blatantly. The key point is that they handed over the remote trigger to an SS-level super expert for safekeeping. This is clearly telling everyone not even bother to try to snatch the remote trigger of the bombs.”

“Snatch it? What a joke! It’s as difficult as finding a needle in a haystack to snatch something from an SS-level expert.”

“In my opinion, the measures that Autranssy authorities have taken are very wise. Although they have sent out a very strong force, they can’t fight against so many forces from all over the world alone, as those forces are not easy to deal with.”

“It seems that the Autranssy authorities have made up their minds. They will detonate the bombs immediately once they are under great threat, I suppose.”

“This incident gives the Autranssy authorities a good chance to catch their breath. Since the bombs have been installed, they don’t have to worry about whether the bombs can be detonated or not, for all bombs are bound to explode. If they want to do it ruthlessly, they can continue to ship more bombs there during this period of time and expand the scope of the explosion to 500 meters.”

“If that is the case, probably, no one will be able to obtain the Yuan Yang Fruit in the end.”

“Indeed, it’s very likely.”

“By the way, where is John Doe?”

When everyone was in a heated discussion about how the major forces in the world would deal with the Autranssy authorities and how Autranssy authorities would deal with coercion from worldwide, someone suddenly asked this.

Hearing that...

Everyone on the scene, as well as the people on the forum, was immediately stunned.

“Yeah, where did John Doe go?”

“If you don’t mention it, I have almost forgotten about John Doe.”

“John Doe hasn’t shown up since he was driven away and even after such a big thing happened. What’s going on?”

“Where on earth did this guy go?”

“It seems that the Autranssy authorities haven’t counted John Doe in yet. John Doe is also a big obstacle for them.”

“Is there any news about John Doe? Where on earth did he go?”

...

A kilometer away from the Yuan Yang Fruit...

In an area blocked by a very high sand dune, the forces from various countries in the world were resting and discussing here.

These people have been trying their best to please Little Saint Lord of the Nirvana Organization. But in the end, they found that Little Saint Lord did not bother to speak to them at all.

On the side, after seeing all the forces fail in flattering Little Saint Lord, the leader of Murica walked forward.

“Little Saint Lord, nice to meet you.”

Coming to the front of Little Saint Lord, the leader of Murica introduced himself with a smile, “I’m Tony Rang.”

“Hello.”

Hearing the self-introduction of the leader of Murica, Little Saint Lord nodded and spoke unexpectedly.

Chapter 1739 They Are All Looking for John Doe

“Haha.”

Hearing Little Saint Lord’s voice, Tony Rang, the leader of Murica, immediately glanced at the people of the surrounding forces. Then he laughed out loudly and asked, “Mr. Little Saint Lord, can I sit here?”

“Please.”

Little Saint Lord nodded with a smile.

Tony immediately took a seat next to Little Saint Lord with a smile. Then he said, “Well, Murica and Nirvana have always been allies. Previously, the result of our cooperation was not very good, but I believe that our alliance friendship will not change. If I had known you would come over in person, I would have personally welcomed you at the airport.”

“Thank you.”

Little Saint Lord smiled indifferently.

“I wonder if the purpose of your arrival here this time is the same as ours, Little Saint Lord.”

Tony looked at Little Saint Lord expectantly.

Tony had cooperated with the Nirvana Organization before, but this was the first time for him to meet Little Saint Lord. He didn't know much about Little Saint Lord, so he didn't dare to talk about joining forces with Little Saint Lord in a hurry. Instead, he began to inquire about Little Saint Lord in a roundabout way.

“Your goal isn't just the Yuan Yang Fruit, is it?”

Little Saint Lord asked in reply.

“Of course not.”

Tony immediately laughed and said, “In addition to the Yuan Yang Fruit, we want John Doe to die!”

Hearing that...

Little Saint Lord smiled.

It seemed that Murica had not given up yet.

“Although we have the same purpose, John Doe has been driven away by the Autranssy authorities before we arrived, and we can't even find him. How can we kill him, then?”

Little Saint Lord asked with a smile.

“Little Saint Lord, do you really think that John Doe was driven away by the Autranssy authorities?”

Tony shook his head and said, "I don't think so. According to the information we have collected in the past, with his strength, John Doe cannot be suppressed by the Autranssy authorities. Apparently, he left on his own."

"Oh?"

Little Saint Lord looked at Tony with a smile.

"If you ask me..."

Tony said, "John Doe came for the Yuan Yang Fruit at the beginning, but he didn't expect that the news of the Yuan Yang Fruit would spread all over the world in such a short time. Of course, he knew that we would make trouble for him when we arrived, so he deliberately pretended to be driven away by the Autranssy authorities to avoid us."

"So?"

Little Saint Lord asked.

"So, I don't think John Doe will leave so easily. Instead, he has been hiding in the dark. It's very likely that he's hiding nearby, as he will never give up the Yuan Yang Fruit."

As Tony spoke, he observed the surroundings vigilantly.

On the side...

The two middle-aged men who followed Little Saint Lord turned their heads and rolled their eyes at Tony.

For such a thing...

It didn't need Tony to say.

Everyone at the scene knew about it.

However...

Unlike the two middle-aged men, Little Saint Lord looked at Tony with great interest. He said, "I thought the same. But, I'm not interested in such speculations. What I'm interested in is how you are going to cooperate with me?"

"We will find John Doe, and you will kill him."

Tony immediately said, "Little Saint Lord, with your strength, there should be no problem, right?"

"What about the Yuan Yang Fruit?"

Little Saint Lord asked.

"You rely on your ability, and I rely on my luck. Of course, if I am not able to obtain it, I am willing to go all out to help you."

Tony said.

"Great."

Little Saint Lord nodded with satisfaction.

Killing John Doe was laborious, but Little Saint Lord was absolutely confident that he could kill John Doe on the spot as long as John Doe appeared in his sight.

Even if the Murican was willing to help kill John Doe, Little Saint Lord would not be willing.

After all...

He was Little Saint Lord of the Nirvana Organization.

To deal with a nobody like John Doe, Little Saint Lord did not need to join forces with the Murican at all.

Besides...

Little Saint Lord looked down on the strength of the group of people from Murica.

The key point was that Little Saint Lord had learned about John Doe in detail. He knew that Lord Virtuous had killed John Doe once, as it turned out, John Doe did not die. Instead, after his return, he found a chance and killed Lord Virtuous.

Little Saint Lord would never allow such a thing to happen a second time.

Therefore, he must personally face John Doe in person, take action, and kill John Doe completely.

"Then, is it settled?"

Tony smiled and reached out to Little Saint Lord, saying, "Happy cooperation!"

"I hope so."

Little Saint Lord shook hands with Tony with a smile.

After their conversation...

Tony returned to the camp of Murica.

“Contact domestic immediately to find John Doe by all means. You guys also go out to look for him immediately. If there is any news, report it to me in time.”

Hearing that...

The groups of people from Murica immediately began to look for John Doe everywhere.

As the Leader of Murica, Tony started to visit the forces of other countries one by one, hoping that these forces could search for John Doe together, and he promised to give them a satisfactory reward as long as they could find John Doe.

Under the promise of Murica...

Instantly...

All the major forces started to look for traces of John Doe.

In fact...

For these forces, what they really wanted was not the so-called reward offered by Murica, but that they knew Little Saint Lord of Nirvana was also looking for John Doe.

If they found John Doe, they could get closer to Little Saint Lord.

That was their real goal.

In the distance...

Dozen kilometers away...

After pondering for a long time, Fang Qiu began to carefully observe the surrounding terrain, trying to see if there was any place that he could make use of.

After all, this was desert.

Except for the sand all over the ground, there was nothing else. The ground was the only thing that could be used. Moreover, there were so many bombs buried under the sand. To obtain the Yuan Yang Fruit, Fang Qiu had to cross that layer of bombs first.

Apparently, the Autranssy authorities would not allow anyone to cross that area easily.

Therefore, Fang Qiu had to think of a way from the terrain.

After all...

The sand in the desert was flowing.

Fang Qiu looked around but didn't find anything unusual.

Then, he looked at the time and wondered how things were going over there.

Under the surveillance of his Divine Consciousness, Fang Qiu could see that people from all countries had dispersed. He wondered how were these people going to deal with the Autranssy authorities.

With his mind full of doubts...

Fang Qiu dived into the sand again. Under the detection of his Divine Consciousness, he quickly approached two people who were searching for something around together.

Fang Qiu got close to them under the sand.

“We can see the end of the desert at a glance. Where can we find John Doe?”

“Who says no? How can we easily find an expert like John Doe?”

“The Murican really is unwilling to give up. They actually joined forces with Nirvana to deal with John Doe. Unfortunately, John Doe was very vigilant this time. Before they arrived, John Doe had already hidden himself.”

“Without Nirvana, how can those people from Murica fight with John Doe?”

“There’s nothing we can do about it. Little Saint Lord of the Nirvana Organization is too powerful. If we don’t establish a good relationship with him, we will inevitably be targeted by him in the fight for the top-notch spiritual fruit.”

“Everyone is scared. That is why everyone tries to establish a good relationship with Little Saint Lord. However, Little Saint Lord only responded to the Murican, so we have to try our best and see if we can find any clues about John Doe. Even if we can’t get close to him, at least let him not hate us.”

Fang Qiu heard it.

And he immediately frowned.

“Are they looking for Me?”

An idea popped into Fang Qiu's mind.

With a swoosh, Fang Qiu broke out of the ground and rushed out of the sand. Then he rushed straight to the two persons and subdued them in an instant.

The two men were not very strong. They were startled upon seeing Fang Qiu.

Just now, they were talking about it.

How could they find John Doe, who was so powerful, so easily?

Surprisingly...

In the blink of an eye, John Doe showed up in front of them.

When they saw John Doe...

Both of them were dumbfounded.

"Which country are you from?"

After subduing them, Fang Qiu knocked out one of them, pinched the throat of the other, and asked.

"Ang... Anglan."

The man replied immediately.

"How are Murica and Nirvana going to deal with me?"

Fang Qiu asked again.

“I don’t know.”

The man immediately shook his head and said, “We didn’t hear their conversation. It’s just that Murica promised to give us a reward and asked us to look for you.”

“How are you going to deal with the Autranssy authorities?”

Fang Qiu asked again.

“I... I have no idea.”

The man shook his head in panic and said, “I know nothing.”

As soon as he finished speaking...

“Clack!”

Fang Qiu turned his right hand into a knife.

He slashed straight at the man’s neck.

The man totally lost consciousness.

The two men had made it very clear in the conversation just now. Their purpose of coming out to find John Doe was to curry favor with Little Saint Lord of the Nirvana Organization.

Actually, it was unnecessary to show mercy to those who would eventually be in the same boat with the Nirvana Organization.

However, the two Anglanish were not members of the Nirvana Organization, so Fang Qiu let them go.

Fang Qiu looked at the other man who was knocked unconscious on the ground. Instead of killing him, he turned around and fled immediately.

When Little Saint Lord showed up...

Fang Qiu had carefully sensed the aura emitted by Little Saint Lord, which was very powerful. If they fought each other, it would be difficult for Fang Qiu to defeat Little Saint Lord.

Moreover...

Little Saint Lord had allied with the Murica.

In this case, Fang Qiu had to escape for the time being and deal with other things later.

Before long...

The man who was knocked unconscious on the ground woke up.

He looked around and found that John Doe had disappeared and his peer next to him was still unconscious.

Thinking of the scene just now, he instantly became panic-stricken.

He immediately stood up and shouted, "Someone come over!"

His shout was heard.

People from Murica, who were looking for John Doe around, immediately rushed over.

Over there...

Little Saint Lord of the Nirvana Organization kept sitting cross-legged in the place. He knew that it was not John Doe. If it was John Doe, with Little Saint Lord's strength, he was sure that he could sense John Doe's aura.

Therefore, Little Saint Lord didn't need to get up at all.

Soon...

Led by Tony, the group of Murican rushed over quickly.

"Where is he?"

As soon as Tony arrived, he immediately asked loudly.

"He... He disappeared."

The man who recovered from unconsciousness immediately replied, "It's John Doe. It's John Doe!"

Upon hearing that...

Tony immediately flew up to a height of ten meters high air and looked far in all directions, trying to find traces of John Doe. But after looking for a long time, he didn't see John Doe's figure at all.

Chapter 1740 Cut Off the Supplies!

"What's going on here?"

After confirming that there was no trace of John Doe, Tony stopped with a gloomy face and asked.

Just then...

The Anglanish also came over in a hurry.

Everyone's eyes fell on the man and the other man who fell into a coma.

"Just now..."

The man, who had just recovered from unconsciousness, recalled and said, "We came here to look for traces of John Doe, but we couldn't find anything after a long time. When we were about to turn back, John Doe suddenly showed up. I didn't see where he came from clearly, but he subdued us as soon as he appeared.

"Then, John Doe knocked me out. When I woke up, I saw my peer had fallen into a coma, and John Doe disappeared."

When all the people present heard that...

Their faces became solemn.

This was especially true for the Anglanish.

"Do you mean that John Doe has been lying in ambush nearby to defeat us one by one?"

The leader of Anglan stepped forward with a straight face.

Apparently, those who targeted John Doe were from Murica and Nirvana, which had nothing to do with Anglan at all. But in the end, the first one to die was from Anglan.

This made the leader of Anglan very angry.

Of course...

Instead of blaming John Doe, he looked at Tony with a faint trace of gloom in his eyes.

If Murica and the Nirvana Organization had not joined forces to target John Doe, and if Murica had not offered the reward, they wouldn't have sent their people to look for John Doe, and his subordinate wouldn't have died.

"Humph!"

Tony turned his head, snorted coldly, and said, "If John Doe did want to kill him, could he have survived?"

Hearing that...

Everyone nodded in agreement.

Indeed, if John Doe's purpose was to kill someone, he could not leave such a person alive.

"If John Doe's purpose was not to kill anyone, then what else could be?"

The leader of Anglan asked in a cold voice.

"Can't you see that?"

Tony said in disdain, "John Doe left this guy alive because he was knocked out. It seems John Doe must have got some information from the dead man. This guy is still alive because he doesn't know what John Doe has inquired.

"There is the other reason. John Doe wants to use this guy to let us know that he has discovered our plan, as well as that we are going to target him."

Speaking of that...

Tony's face turned ugly to behold.

Unexpectedly...

He had just discussed with Little Saint Lord of Nirvana about how to join forces to deal with John Doe, and it was perceived by John Doe.

"Humph."

Tony snorted angrily and was about to turn to leave.

"Stop right there!"

The leader of Anglan shouted coldly, "My subordinate had fallen into a coma, and whether he will survive is uncertain. You haven't given me an explanation yet!"

"Explanation?"

Tony turned his head, took a glance at the leader of Anglan, and said, "You should go for John Doe. He crippled your guy, but not us. If you want to blame, you can only blame him for being a good-for-nothing, trash!"

As soon as he said that...

All the people from Anglan were instantly irritated.

However, they didn't dare to say anything.

After all...

No one dared to go against Murica, no matter which country he was from. The reason was that Murica had joined forces with the Nirvana Organization. Messing with Murica was equivalent to provoking the Nirvana Organization.

Therefore, even though he was angry...

People from Anglan had to watch Tony swagger away with his men.

Meanwhile...

People from Murica led by Tony were very depressed.

They all knew that they had alerted the enemy this time. It would not be so easy to find John Doe next time.

Tony turned back.

Tony walked up straight to Little Saint Lord.

"John Doe escaped."

Looking at Little Saint Lord, Tony said in embarrassment, "As I expected, John Doe is cunning. He is exactly hiding nearby. I didn't expect that our plan would be discovered by him, too.

"He was alerted and scared away by the Anglanish this time, but with John Doe's obsession with the Yuan Yang Fruit, I am sure that he will not leave like that. As long as the Yuan Yang Fruit is here, John Doe will definitely come back again."

Hearing that...

Little Saint Lord, who had been silent, frowned slightly.

He had been sitting there the whole time, sensing the surroundings.

He knew it very well.

John Doe would not leave far away.

The purpose he sat here was to sense John Doe's aura and lock his location.

But according to Tony's information...

John Doe should have shown up just now and injured someone.

Then...

Why didn't Little Saint Lord sense the aura of John Doe at all?

Such a situation alerted Little Saint Lord.

"Sure enough, John Doe... has something up his sleeve."

Squinting his eyes, Little Saint Lord murmured to himself inwardly, "He can hide from my senses. It seems that he has learned a certain technique that can hide his aura.

"However, it's a daydream for him to compete with me with a technique to hide his aura!"

...

After leaving the desert...

Fang Qiu came to a small town on the edge of the desert hundreds of kilometers away.

There were not many people in this town, but there were all sorts of shops in the town because of the tourists' visits.

Fang Qiu walked into the small town.

Fang Qiu immediately came to a clothing store and quickly bought a set of local clothes. He dressed himself up as a local before finding a place to stay.

As Fang Qiu knew...

Based on the current situation, he could not show up for the time being.

Fang Qiu had just killed one man in the desert and deliberately kept the other man alive. So the message must have been passed.

In this case...

Murica and the Nirvana Organization would be more cautious.

And the forces of other countries would be more cautious than before.

Hence, Fang Qiu could not stay in the desert any longer. If he continued to stay there, he probably would be exposed.

Therefore, Fang Qiu had to return and hide himself for the time being.

Staying in this small town, he could carefully think about how to break this trap.

Fang Qiu's identity was quite different now.

Compared with other forces, it was particularly different.

First of all...

Fang Qiu was alone.

Secondly, two of the forces were hostile to him. In this battle for the Yuan Yang Fruit, Fang Qiu was in the most unfavorable position.

Fang Qiu must obtain the Yuan Yang Fruit. In this competition, he didn't dare to be a bit careless. He had to fully calculate all the possibilities.

That night...

Fang Qiu rested in the small town.

In the desert.

People from all the forces took turns to keep watch at night.

Everyone was very cautious and careful. While keeping watch at night, they tried to find traces of John Doe.

However...

No matter how hard they searched, they couldn't find any clues.

The next day.

In the small town.

Fang Qiu just went out and was about to grab something to eat.

"Roar, roar, roar..."

The roar of engines suddenly sounded in the town.

Fang Qiu looked in the direction of the sounds.

He saw that...

A fleet of military trucks arrived at the town, stop-and-go, and purchase some things in the town.

Fang Qiu came to a street stall to buy breakfast and ate while observing.

When he was almost done eating...

The military trucks were almost filled with purchased goods.

After the purchase, the military trucks drove out of the town, heading for the desert.

Seeing that...

Fang Qiu quietly followed behind.

The military trucks looked very mighty, leaving an impression of not getting close to them. When they drove into the desert and were about to reach the place where the Yuan Yang Fruit was...

The forces of other countries saw the military trucks one after another.

Under the instruction of Murica...

All the forces immediately took action and stopped the military trucks.

"It's the supplies!"

When the military trucks were stopped, a man from Murica went straight to the back of a military truck, opened the door, and took a look. When he saw the food and beverage inside, he immediately shouted.

Hearing that...

All the people from various forces showed a smile on their faces.

With no hesitation...

Everyone rushed forward and robbed the military truck.

The man driving the military truck couldn't stop them at all, so he had to run to report it.

"Do you want the supplies?"

"If you want to blow us up, we won't give you anything to eat or drink. Let's see what you can do!"

"The Autransian officials are so kind-hearted. They know that we don't have enough supplies, so they sent us water and food. How considerate they are!"

All the people from various forces burst into laughter after robbing the supplies.

Clearly, they took revenge on the Autranssy authorities in this way.

In the meanwhile...

The driver of the military truck that had been robbed quickly ran to the location of the Yuan Yang Fruit. He briefly informed the official spokesman of Autranssy and Mason that the supplies had been robbed.

Such a situation made the Autranssy authorities in a dilemma.

They were clear that...

Their opponents would not let the truck loaded with supplies pass through easily. It seemed that it was not so easy to carry the supplies by trucks.

Without any other choice...

The Autranssy authorities had to contact the helicopter and make airdrops.

The key was that airdrops might not be so accurate. Moreover, those people were all metahumans. Maybe they would snatch away the supplies as soon as they were dropped from the air.

However, since things had come to this point, the Autranssy authorities had no choice but to take it one step at a time.

Nearby...

After witnessing that the supplies in the military trucks were robbed by the forces of various countries, Fang Qiu immediately retraced his way and quietly returned to the town.

"It seems that it's a little troublesome to sneak in by taking a military truck."

Back in his room in the town...

Fang Qiu began to think carefully.

Fang Qiu followed the military truck into the desert because he wanted to see if there was a chance to use the military truck to sneak in. After all, the most dangerous place was the safest. Once he sneaked in, people of Murica and Nirvana would never imagine that John Doe was in the camp of Autranssy authorities.

But...

Judging from the tracking and tailgating this time, Fang Qiu could tell that the forces from other countries around the periphery wanted to surround the people inside.

In this case, it was not so easy to sneak in with the help of a military truck.

Even if it was workable, Fang Qiu had to observe the situation more carefully before taking action.

In the evening.

“Buzz, buzz, buzz...”

In the quiet town where only the sound of the wind could be heard, there were sudden sounds of the propeller spinning rapidly.

The helicopter sent by the Auteurssy authorities arrived.

High in the dark sky...

With an air-drop box hanging on the helicopter, it moved fast toward the direction of the Yuan Yang Fruit.
