Chapter 1761

After going back to the town, Fang Qiu immediately entered the clothing store where he had bought clothes used to disguise himself before and secretly observed the three military vehicles in the town.

Because of the tense situation, the Autranssy authorities did not dare to ask Mason to escort the car again. They could only send a few ordinary Autranssian soldiers over.

Undoubtedly, it gave Fang Qiu a suitable environment to sneak into.

Soon, the vehicle stopped in front of the convenience store in the town.

The convenience store was not big. The vehicle stopped at the intersection of a street in front of the store.

The driver and co-driver of the first vehicle got out of the car together and entered the convenience store to carry things. The driver and co-driver of the second car also got out of the car and went into the convenience store to help.

The two people in the third car took out a pack of cigarettes from their trouser pockets and walked into the fork to smoke together after getting out of the car.

Fang Qiu seized this opportunity.

He bought some camouflage products from the clothing store. After disguising himself, he walked out of the clothing store and went straight to the fork in the road.

As soon as he arrived at the fork in the road, two Autransian soldiers smoking immediately came up, pointed at Fang Qiu with unhappy faces, and shouted in Anglanish, "This is a forbidden area. You are not allowed to come into contact with military vehicles. Get out of here immediately!"

As the person spoke, he raised his gun.

Seeing this, Fang Qiu looked around.

After making sure that no one was paying attention to him, Fang Qiu immediately knocked out the two soldiers and threw them into two large empty trash cans.

Then, he quickly changed into one of them's clothes and walked out of the fork.

When he walked into the convenience store, Fang Qiu suddenly noticed something strange. In the distance, some people were lowering their heads and approaching quickly. These people were all emitting aura of energy.

Fang Qiu pretended not to notice.

He went straight into the convenience store and began to transport supplies.

He secretly released his Divine Consciousness and located these people soon.

With the help of his Divine Consciousness, Fang Qiu saw something beyond his expectations.

These people were from various forces from all over the world.

They didn't even change their clothes. After arriving at the town, they took advantage of the time when the soldiers were transporting supplies to rush to the bottom of the three vehicles and were ready to leave with the cars!

There were two people under each vehicle. It seemed that each force had sent a person over, ready to take this opportunity to break in.

Seeing this, Fang Qiu didn't expose them even though he knew that people from various forces from all over the country had sneaked in.

The Autranssy authorities had only sent ordinary soldiers.

Even if he exposed them at this time, these people would die in the end. Since the people of various countries had the same idea as Fang Qiu and they were discovered by Fang Qiu, Fang Qiu could only trick them by the way!

After transferring the supplies, Fang Qiu got in the vehicle, and it started the engine.

The two vehicles in front didn't notice anything strange and drove straight back to the desert.

Because someone had sneaked in, people from various countries and forces were standing far away this time. No one dared to rob the supplies.

It was rare for them to have such an opportunity to sneak in.

It seemed sneaking in was the only way to break the Autranssy authorities' trap.

When the major forces saw the Autranssy authorities' vehicles from a distance, everyone smiled and waited for the plan to succeed.

Fang Qiu was driving the third car and observing the Little Saint Lord of Nirvana with his Divine Consciousness.

At present, Little Saint Lord was the only one at the scene who could be a threat to him.

Under the detection of his Divine Consciousness, Fang Qiu noticed the Little Saint Lord had already woken up from his meditation with his eyes closed. It seemed he had abandoned the intention of continuing to investigate his whereabouts at this time.

When Fang Qiu was aware of this, Fang Qiu took action immediately without any hesitation.

A stream of internal Qi suddenly burst out.

It bypassed the car in the middle, rushed to the front, and knocked over the first car in an instant.

The sudden accident made the faces of the people of the various forces waiting to sneak into the country change in an instant.

No one expected such a thing to happen suddenly.

It was too surprising.

However, the Autranssy authorities were the most surprised, not the people from various forces from various countries.

Like the people of the surrounding forces, all the attention of the Europa officials focused on the three military vehicles.

The moment when the military vehicle was suddenly overturned, the Autransssian authorities were also shocked.

However, what happened next made them shocked and angry in an instant!

They saw two people under the car.

They were from Anglan and L'hexagone.

The moment seeing the two of them, the faces of all the Autranssy authorities immediately changed.

The scene in front of them had already told them that all the forces were ready to take action. They wanted to use the military vehicles escorted to sneak into the camp of the Autranssy authorities.

This was a good plan.

The faces of the spokesman and the strongest of Autranssy authorities, Mason, became dark when seeing this scene.

“There are two people under the first car. What about the second one?”

Mason’s face turned cold.

The spokesman of Autranssy authorities also raised his eyebrows in an instant. He waved his hand and said, “Surround the cars escorting the supplies. I want to see how many people have been hidden under these three vehicles!”

As soon as he finished his words, more than a dozen S-class experts flew out and surrounded the three vehicles. Mason also rushed forward to check in person.

Seeing this, the faces of the people of all the forces around changed.

It was not the time for them to think about who had caused the accident. The only thing they could do was to find a way to solve the current situation as soon as possible.

Otherwise, those lurking under the car would be surrounded by the Autranssy authorities!

After surrounding the three military vehicles, the Autranssy authorities immediately began to check.

They immediately saw the people hidden under the second and third vehicles!

As soon as the people hiding under the car were discovered, they rushed out without hesitation.

“Damn it!”

Mason scolded angrily and ordered, “Kill them!”

He knew the current situation was very unfavorable to them. Fortunately, the other party’s plan did not succeed.

It was precisely because of this failure that his side suddenly occupied an advantageous position.

He had to seize this opportunity to maximize his benefits as much as possible.

The way was to kill these people who were ready to sneak in, so as to weaken the strength of the surrounding forces and reduce the pressure on their own forces when guarding the Yuan Yang Fruit!

Everyone in the Autranssy authorities knew this.

Therefore, after Mason ordered, the people who surrounded the three vehicles immediately took action and attacked the people hiding under the vehicles.

The other members of the Autranssy authorities also immediately gathered around to kill all the people who tried to sneak in!

Seeing this, Fang Qiu knew there would inevitably be a big battle.

Although the surrounding forces did not pay attention to the cause of the accident, Little Saint Lord of the Nirvana Organization frowned and immediately closed his eyes as if he was looking for something.

Fang Qiu knew Little Saint Lord began to doubt.

Therefore, he immediately covered his head with his hands, jumped out of the car in a panic, and ran away quickly.

At this time, the battle began.

The people of Autranssy authorities attacked the people who were surrounded crazily.

The entire battlefield was thrown into chaos in an instant.

A stream of energy Qi suddenly rushed over.

Without any resistance, Fang Qiu was directly bombarded by this energy Qi on his back, sending him flying more than ten meters away and falling heavily on the sand.

However, the heavy energy Qi could not cause too much damage to Fang Qiu's body.

After all, Fang Qiu had tempered his body several times. Attacks below the SS level rarely injured him.

After being sent flying and falling to the ground, Fang Qiu noticed that Little Saint Lord glanced at him and stopped paying attention to him.

Fang Qiu took advantage of the opportunity and quietly dived into the sand.

In the chaos, he quickly approached the area where the Yuan Yang Fruit was located.

At the same time, all the forces on the periphery found that their plan to sneak in had been exposed and their own people had been surrounded and about to be killed. When their people were about to be defeated, all the forces took action one after another to save their own people.

The surrounding forces immediately formed an encirclement and rushed toward the Autranssy authorities.

This time, the Autranssy authorities did not back down.

Mason took the lead.

He rushed straight to one of the forces, ready to kill a few more.

The other S-class experts also gathered in twos and threes and kept attacking the people of the various forces.

The battle became even more intense!

The crazy sounds of the fighting spread out in all directions.

Almost everyone was involved.

Only Nirvana Organization didn't move.

Little Saint Lord was still on the top of the sand dune not far away, frowning and carefully observing and sensing the surrounding situation.

"It shouldn't be like this. How could there not be?"

"Could it be them?"

When thinking, Little Saint Lord fixed his eyes on the other forces other than Murica.

As the strongest in Autranssy, Mason had a good time rushing and killing!

However, when he was having a good time fighting, he found his people had been surrounded by various forces. Now the experts of each force were chasing after them, and his people retreated again and again.

It seemed they couldn't resist anymore.

"Damn it!"

With an angry curse, Mason immediately shouted, "Follow me!"

As he spoke, Mason led everyone into the area where the Yuan Yang Fruit was located. After leading everyone in, he immediately led all the Autranssy authorities to break out of the encirclement in one direction.

After entering the area where the Yuan Yang Fruit was located, everyone was excited.

Then Autranssy authorities took the initiative to lead the people into the area where the Yuan Yang Fruit was located. When they rushed out of the 120 meters area, they immediately took out the remote detonator without hesitation!

Chapter 1762

As soon as the remote detonator appeared, the people of various forces still chasing and trying to take this opportunity to defeat the Autranssy authorities in one move fell into a panic in an instant.

They stopped in panic and rushed to the periphery. They didn't dare to stay within a radius of 120 meters at all.

When the various forces quickly spread out, Mason and the spokesman of Autranssy authorities immediately returned to the area within a radius of 120 meters with all the Autransssians.

The great battle came to a sudden stop!

No one expected the battle that had just erupted to end like this.

However, it seemed to be the best result. After all, although both sides were injured, no one died.

No one suffered too much loss.

"Humph."

After going back to their territory, the spokesman of Autranssy authorities glanced at the people of the surrounding forces with an angry face and snorted angrily, saying, "A group of lowlifes!"

The people of those big countries couldn't stand it anymore.

They really used dirty tricks.

The Autranssian authorities also used dirty tricks.

In their opinion, Autranssy authorities burying bombs on the ground was a dirty trick!

"Do you still want to struggle?"

Suddenly, Tony, the leader of Murica side, came out with a disdainful snort and said, "Do you think you can threaten us with bombs?"

Hearing this, the faces of the people of the Autransssian authorities were gloomy.

"You all know very well that you can't be a match for us."

Tony continued with a mocking expression, "You are too weak. If you were only facing one of us, you might be able to fight. Unfortunately, you are facing all of us, so you are powerless and don't know what to do at all."

"You used bombs to protect your dignity!"

Tony pointed it out with some words.

Although the faces of all the Autranssy authorities were a little dark, everyone knew this was the reason why the Autranssy authorities fought desperately!

Although they were seen through, the Autranssy authorities didn't think there was anything wrong with it. Even if it was known by others, so what? They didn't feel embarrassed but felt very proud.

That was because they were risking their lives for their country and dignity. There was nothing to laugh at. On the contrary, they were worthy of admiration.

Seeing the smug looks on everyone's faces, Tony smiled and added, "Of course, I admire your courage and the efforts you've made for your country. Unfortunately, everything you've done is futile!"

Hearing this, the people of various forces from various countries laughed.

The Autranssy authorities didn't care at all.

“Don’t you believe me?”

Tony continued, “The spiritual fruit is about to ripen. Please tell me, how will you take it away?”

Hearing this, the faces of all the Autranssy authorities changed.

They had never considered this problem.

With so many forces guarding in all directions, even if they got the top-level spiritual fruit, how could they take it out?

“You won’t be able to get out. You will only stay here. Either blow yourselves up or be surrounded by us until you die.”

As he was speaking, Tony waved his right hand, and a stream of blood-colored energy burst out from his palm. It rushed to the sand dune in the distance like an arrow and flattened it with a boom.

“Most of us have this kind of power. From today on, we will no longer hold back. Everything within a kilometer of us will be destroyed as soon as possible. You will never get supplies, let the reinforcements. Therefore, even if you get top-level spiritual fruit, there is only one way to wait for you. That is to be surrounded to death by us!”

Hearing Tony’s words, the people of the surrounding forces all burst into laughter.

Although they felt helpless about Autranssy planting the bombs from the very beginning, after more than ten days of besetting, they realized that the Autranssy authorities were not only threatening them but also themselves!

Now, they were not afraid anymore.

At worst, all of them would die.

As long as Atranssians dared to use the bombs, they would suffer the greatest loss in the end!

“Instead of fighting to the death, why don’t we give everyone a fair chance to compete for the top-class spiritual fruit together?”

Tony suggested, “In this way, although you won’t have much chance to get the top-level spiritual fruit, you will no longer be targeted. Isn’t this a good deal?”

Hearing his words, everyone from the Atranssy authorities sneered.

“I’ll remind you again!”

The spokesman of the Atranssy authorities stood up and said, “You’re on our country’s land. This is our country’s territory. The top-level spiritual fruit also belongs to our country. It has nothing to do with you. Foreign people are not allowed to invade our country. You’re robbing us openly. In the face of your domineering behavior, we will never make any concessions. At worst, we’ll fight to the death. If we can’t get it, you can’t get it either.”

“Fighting to death?”

Tony immediately shook his head and said with a smile, “We won’t fight to the death. You will be the only one to suffer in the end. We won’t suffer any losses!”

“At worst, we’ll take it as a trip to Atranssy, but you’ll lose not only this top-class spiritual fruit but also your lives.”

“You will either be killed by the bombs you buried yourself or by us. None of you will survive!”

“I promise!”

Murica continued to argue with the Atranssy authorities.

Some people had secretly taken this opportunity to sneak into the sand and began to destroy the bombs.

In the face of such a tricky situation, the elites of each country would not just wait for this matter to be solved by itself.

During the period when Fang Qiu left, the people of various forces had already contacted their respective countries to seek solutions.

Murica finally got a solution.

Its people knew how to destroy the bomb array set up by the Autranssy authorities!

After learning the method, it would not be difficult to destroy the array.

They didn't dare to destroy it before because they were afraid that something would happen and detonated the bomb array.

But it was different now. In the case of safety, they could quickly defuse and destroy the bomb array bit by bit.

Moreover, the people of Murica knew the general location of each bomb because they had seen Autranssy authorities set up the bomb formation.

Tony stepped forward at that moment because he wanted to delay the Autranssy authorities so that the person who secretly removed the bombs would have enough time!

At the same time, Fang Qiu, who had been hiding in the sand, soon heard the noise.

With the exploration of his Divine Consciousness, he could see the people of various forces appearing in all directions. They began to demolish the bombs from different places.

In this way, the demolition speed would be much faster.

He was on the side in a corner of the sandland.

After finding the movements in all directions, Fang Qiu didn't care about them at all. He just waited for the Yuan Yang Fruit to mature. As long as there was no accident with the Yuan Yang Fruit, he would do everything he could to fight for it.

From his point of view, these people were helping him.

Of course, Fang Qiu would not refuse the help of these people.

Nevertheless...

However, from the current situation, what worried Fang Qiu was not the people above but something hidden underground.

After sneaking into the sand, when Fang Qiu used his Divine Consciousness to explore the situation, he found a powerful aura deep underground.

There should be an unusually powerful thing hidden below.

Actually, from the day he found the Yuan Yang Fruit, Fang Qiu had been thinking about what kind of guardian beast it would be. However, he didn't find any creature in the desert after guarding it for a few days.

Now, he finally found it.

Unexpectedly, the guardian beast of the Yuan Yang Fruit was hidden deep underground.

Judging from its aura, this guardian beast was not easy to deal with!

"I need a plane ticket to Autranssy. It's best if the destination is Adalaide. The other cities are okay. The earlier, the better."

At the airport of the capital in Huaxia, a man in his thirties was booking a ticket.

"I'm sorry, sir."

"Your order has been rejected!" The ticket operator said!

"What?"

The man was stunned and frowned.

"I heard Autranssy has been very strict recently. Most of the orders from Autranssy's airline have been rejected. We are contacting them now and don't know what's going on yet." The ticket seller said.

"Please help me find a ticket to another country that can let me transfer to Autranssy. As long as I can go to Autranssy, I can accept wherever it is." The man asked.

"Please wait a moment. I'll help you check it out."

The ticket seller nodded and began to check.

"I'm sorry. I've checked it for you. I can't book any flight tickets to Autranssy at present. All the flight orders from other countries have been rejected."

The ticket operator gave a wry smile.

"What's going on? Is it because of me?"

In confusion, the man walked to the side, dialed a number, and asked, "Hurry up and find out what's going on. Why can't I buy a plane ticket to Autranssy?"

"All countries refuse to let you enter them."

A wry smile came from the other end of the phone. He said, "Which country dares to let you enter the border?"

"What about John Doe?"

The man raised his eyebrows and said, "He can't win against the Little Saint Lord by himself!"

"Alas! There's nothing I can do."

A moment later, a sigh came from the other end of the line. "All we can do now is to hope he will be cautious!"

Chapter 1763

"I hope he will be lucky."

The man nodded, hung up the phone, and took the ID card that could not be used to buy flight tickets from the ticket seller.

The name, Qingyun, was written surprisingly on the ID card.

There were still more than ten hours before the Yuan Yang Fruit ripened deep in the Autranssy Desert.

Seeing that the Yuan Yang Fruit was protected by the Autranssy authorities, the red light became stronger and stronger. The only trace of candlelight-like light was swaying as if it had been blown by the night wind. Maybe it would go out in the next second and turn into a dazzling red light.

The surge of the Heaven and Earth energy was swaying around him.

The cloud cover, which had existed in the sky and was condensed by the Qi of Heaven and Earth, gradually shrank as time went by and disappeared. It seemed all the Qi of Heaven and Earth had been absorbed by the Yuan Yang Fruit.

Because of the disappearance of the cloud cover, the immature Yuan Yang Fruit still needed to absorb a large amount of Qi from Heaven and Earth to grow. It led to all the Qi of Heaven and Earth in the surroundings flowing over from all directions under the attraction of the Yuan Yang Fruit.

People felt the unusual movement of the Qi of Heaven and Earth.

The expressions of everyone in the desert became unusually grave.

Not only the Autranssy authorities guarding the 120-meter area around the Yuan Yang Fruit but also all the forces that surrounded the Autranssy authorities were staring nervously at the Yuan Yang Fruit about to be ripe!

Of course, in addition to the Yuan Yang Fruit, these people were most concerned about the underground.

Each force occupied an area and sent one person to sneak into the ground to eliminate the bombs.

It was a matter of life and death.

Therefore, they were worried about if they handed it over to other forces.

Before taking action, all the forces had divided their own areas. The bombs in their own areas would be eliminated by their own people.

People from other forces were not allowed to interfere.

Therefore, the people of every force were paying special attention to the underground movements on their side, waiting for the bombs to be eliminated.

The people sent by each force were extremely careful. There was quicksand existing in the desert. Therefore, the Autranssy authorities did not notice this.

“Charge!”

After a long time, someone shouted. The people of all the forces who had been staying around suddenly rushed to the Autranssy authorities from all directions and surrounded them again!

Seeing that all the forces around suddenly surrounded them, the Autranssy authorities were stunned. Then everyone’s expressions changed in an instant.

They knew their people couldn’t be a match for these countries and forces at all.

Therefore, at the moment of being surrounded, Mason, the official leader of Autranssy authorities immediately shouted, “Follow me to rush out together!”

As soon as he shouted, with he taking the lead in the charge, all the Autranssy authorities immediately left the area.

It was different this time.

It was strange that the people of the major forces who surrounded them from all directions did not attack them but rushed in.

Seeing this, the people of the Autranssy authorities frowned at the same time.

“It is unreasonable.”

“Aren’t they afraid of being killed by the explosion?”

The spokesperson of the Autranssy authorities raised his eyebrows and asked doubtfully.

The people of all the major forces had rushed in. Although it looked chaotic, each force occupied an area as if it had been divided in advance.

However, the chaotic scene made it difficult for others to see the situation.

In the chaos, people came out of the sand one after another.

There were people in the camps of various forces!

As soon as they came out of the sand, they immediately nodded to the people of their forces. Then they worked together to fill up the sand on the ground as if nothing had happened.

The spokesperson of the Autranssy authorities couldn’t see the situation inside clearly. Moreover, he was very worried about the Yuan Yang Fruit about to mature. Therefore, he could only immediately take out the remote detonator.

“It seems all of you want to be blasted to death!”

As he raised the remote detonator, he shouted coldly.

The people of the various forces who had rushed in immediately turned their heads in unison when hearing the cold shout from the spokesman of the Autranssy authorities.

When they saw the remote detonator held by the spokesman of the Autranssy authorities, the people of various forces were stunned.

Then, they quickly ran out of the 120-meter range.

Seeing this, the people of the Autranssy authorities sneered. They stepped in and continued to guard the Yuan Yang Fruit.

The people of the various forces all returned to their respective positions.

After returning, these people looked at each other, and those who came out of the sand nodded to show that they had succeeded.

After confirmation, the people of the various forces looked excited.

They knew the bomb formation within a radius of 120 meters set up by the Autranssy authorities had been destroyed!

They all came back after receiving the news that their people had eliminated all the bombs because they wanted to create an illusion for the Autranssy authorities.

As they were excited, the people from the various forces all looked at their surroundings with great vigilance.

Previously, they had been on guard against the Autranssy authorities and had been keeping an eye on the other party.

But now, the Autranssy authorities were no longer a threat.

Now, the real threat was the people from the other major forces around them.

With the destruction of the bomb array, these people had changed from allies to fucking competitors!

In the center of the field, the Atranssy authorities, who were kept in the dark, were still paying close attention to their surroundings with great vigilance. They were also carefully observing the Yuan Yang Fruit.

For them, the only thing they needed to do was to pick the Yuan Yang Fruit as soon as it matured.

Even if they couldn't take it out, they would never let it fall into the hands of others.

Besides, the Yuan Yang Fruit was also a bargaining chip they used to deal with the people outside!

As long as they obtained the Yuan Yang Fruit, they could use it to force the others.

At that time, these foreign forces didn't dare to fight against them head-on.

Both sides had their own plans.

Soon, it was midnight.

There were still 12 hours left before the Yuan Yang Fruit ripened.

All the forces had different channels to determine the date of the Yuan Yang Fruit's maturity. Therefore, everyone was clear that the fruit would mature at noon tomorrow!

It was silent.

Everyone made preparations and adjusted their state. They hoped to put themselves in the best state when the Yuan Yang Fruit matured.

After all, once the Yuan Yang Fruit matured, the competition that each of them would face would be fierce.

Fang Qiu quietly came to a place about 100 meters away from the Yuan Yang Fruit underground and secretly adjusted his breath in the sand. While adjusting his breath, he carefully observed the surrounding situation with his Divine Consciousness.

Fang Qiu was most concerned about the powerful aura hidden underground.

Before this, Fang Qiu had faced countless guardian beasts before, and many of them were quite powerful.

For example, he met the big snake in the ruins of Egyptt.

However, Fang Qiu was sure that the aura of energy he felt under the sand belonged to the strongest guardian beast he had ever encountered.

It was not because the energy aura emitted by the other party was too strong. He could feel that the guy hiding below seemed to be adjusting its state.

Although he didn't what it was, the guardian beast was very familiar with the date of the Yuan Yang Fruit's maturity.

It was different from other guardian beasts.

This guardian beast was not in a hurry at all.

It was as if it knew how to think. It also knew to adjust its body to the best state before the Yuan Yang Fruit matured.

In the beginning, when Fang Qiu sensed this, he was surprised. He didn't expect a guardian beast to be so smart.

Then he had a second thought carefully.

This was the Yuan Yang Fruit, a super Heaven Treasure ranked third in the Scroll of Heaven and Earth Treasures.

According to the sheepskin scroll that Fang Qiu had obtained, this Heaven Treasure seemed to have appeared here for a long time. If the Heaven Treasure was rarely found during this long period, it would become the food of the guardian beast.

It was said that a Yuan Yang Fruit could promote a person to the SS level. What if a guardian beast ate one, two, or even three Yuan Yang Fruits?

How strong would it become?

Fang Qiu knew it was impossible that no one knew about the appearance of the Yuan Yang Fruit in this place for hundreds of years. In the case that it was very likely to be known by others, this guardian beast could still emit such a strong aura. It meant that it was very likely that the people who had found the Yuan Yang Fruit before were dead!

They might have all died in the mouth of this guardian beast!

Thinking of this, the more Fang Qiu thought about it, the more he felt this battle for the Yuan Yang Fruit would be much more fierce than he had imagined!

The faces of every one of the Autranssy authorities around the Primal Yang Fruit darkened.

They all knew what situation they would face!

"Distribute food."

The spokesperson of the Autranssy authorities commanded his men to distribute food to everyone.

As locals, the information they got was much more comprehensive than that of other countries.

They all knew when the Primal Yang Fruit would ripen accurately.

Everyone knew it was their last time to eat.

After this meal, they would have to face a life-and-death battle!

Soon, the food was distributed.

Beep! Beep!

Mason had just received a bottle of spirits from the spokesperson of the Autranssy authorities when the phone in his pocket suddenly rang.

He ran out to have a look.

It was a text message!

Seeing the number which had sent the message, Mason frowned and immediately clicked on the text message to check.

“I suggest that we destroy the top-level spiritual fruit and evacuate everyone from the scene immediately. We can’t let the situation be out of control!”

Seeing the message, Mason frowned again.

At the same time, the Autranssy authorities' spokesperson's phone rang.

Chapter 1764 Are You Cowards?

The spokesperson of the Autranssy authorities also received the same message.

"Everyone, come here."

He looked around carefully and made sure that the people of all the forces around were meditating and cultivating. There was no movement for the time being. Then he waved to all the S-class experts and gathered them together.

Under the call of the spokesperson of the Autranssy authorities, Mason and 10 S-class experts gathered at the same time.

A total of twelve people gathered together and began to discuss.

"This is a suggestion from the higher-ups. What do you think?"

The 12 people sat in a circle next to the Yuan Yang Fruit. The spokesperson of the Autranssy authorities placed his mobile phone in the middle so that everyone could see the text message he had received.

Upon reading this message, the faces of the ten S-class experts darkened.

Unexpectedly, the higher-ups gave such a suggestion at the most critical moment!

"Mason, what do you think?"

The spokesperson of the Autranssy authorities looked at Mason and said, "You are the most powerful person on our side. You should have the most perfect judgment on this battle. We believe in your judgment."

Hearing this, the ten S-class experts also nodded at Mason.

They also thought so.

Mason was the leader of all the Autranssy authorities on the scene. He was the strongest, so only he had a chance to keep the top-level spiritual fruit.

Therefore, everyone was willing to listen to Mason.

“I have also received the same text message.”

Mason took out his mobile phone and showed the text message to everyone. Then he deleted it in front of everyone.

“I only have one question for you.”

Seeing the ten S-class experts, Mason gulped down a big mouthful of wine and asked, “Am I a coward?”

“No.”

“Of course not.”

“If you are a coward, everyone in the world is a coward!”

Everyone responded one after another.

“Then, are you all cowards?” Mason continued to ask.

“No.”

“Of course not.”

“We are not cowards, nor will we become cowards!”

The people immediately nodded in response.

“Then why should we hide?”

Mason said with disdain, “It’s easy to let us destroy it and leave. The suggestion doesn’t take our lives seriously at all. It also underestimates our courage!”

“We’ve been guarding here for so long. We lost so many men. Two military vehicles and a helicopter were destroyed!”

“Are we going to turn a blind eye to all these losses?”

Hearing that, the faces of the ten S-class experts and the spokesman of the Autranssy authorities in the relic immediately changed.

That was right.

They had been stationed here for half a month.

Everyone knew how they got through this half a month.

If they left just like that, the casualties would be negligible.

“Can’t we protect our own country’s things?”

Mason said righteously and continued to add, "We can only refuse this suggestion!"

"Why?" The spokesperson of the Autranssy authorities said.

"It's very simple."

Mason pointed at the people from various countries around them and said, "Not only us, but these people have also been guarding here for half a month. I believe everyone knows how they got here. And you have also seen their determination to get the spiritual fruit."

"Once we accept this suggestion and destroy the spiritual fruit, this group of people will go crazy. At that time, we will be their targets to vent their anger!"

"Even if we destroy the spiritual fruit, we will die here. Moreover, these people are not ordinary people. Once we drive them crazy, they will be out of control."

"Those politicians must be out of their minds!"

Speaking of this, Mason narrowed his eyes, looked around, and said, "As the saying goes, when a general is outside, he doesn't obey some inappropriate military orders. Besides, this is not a military order!"

"Everything will proceed according to plan!"

"The great war of the century is about to break out. The last 12 hours after the Yuan Yang Fruit ripens!"

Someone suddenly posted such a post on the underground-force forum.

Originally, all the people on the underground-force forum were paying attention to the battle for the Yuan Yang Fruit in Autranssy. However, there was no intense news.

Moreover, half a month had passed since the Yuan Yang Fruit appeared. If it was delayed for too long, everyone's attention to this matter would decrease.

However, with the appearance of this post, the entire underground-force forum immediately became lively again.

Almost everyone got excited when they saw this post.

"Will it finally come?"

"After waiting for half a month, the Yuan Yang Fruit is finally about to ripen."

"They haven't fought for half a month. The last moment is about to come!"

"There are only twelve hours left. Does that mean that the Primal Yang Fruit will ripen tomorrow?"

"I wonder who will get the Yuan Yang Fruit in the end."

"This time, all the major forces from all over the world must have put in a lot of effort and will never let go of any chance. It can be imagined how fierce the competition on the scene will be!"

"Who will be the final victor?"

"It must be the Little Saint Lord of the Nirvana Organization. With his strength, he is the top one among all the people. It's almost impossible for others to take the Yuan Yang Fruit from him!"

"Maybe it will be Murica."

“The Murica side is also strong. Although they sent some unknown experts this time, according to the information on the scene, the leader named Tony seems to be powerful!”

“Yes. The Nirvana Organization and Murica are most likely to become the final winners. Moreover, these two sides have already joined forces on the surface. That is to say, when they fight for the spiritual fruit, they will join forces to deal with people from other countries and forces to ensure their status. In this case, the spiritual fruit will fall into the hands of these two forces!”

“There is no doubt that the spiritual fruit has been reserved by these two forces!”

“You may have forgotten about the Autranssy authorities!”

“The 120-meter bomb array is powerful. If the major forces press on step by step, I think the Autranssy authorities are likely to choose to destroy the spiritual fruit directly in the end. In that way, no one will get it!”

“Speaking of the Autranssy authorities, I suddenly thought of John Doe. It seems John Doe hasn’t appeared for a long time.”

“That’s right. According to the news, John Doe has never appeared since he was injured by the Little Saint Lord last time. Does he think that he is no match for the Little Saint Lord, so he chose to give up the competition for the Yuan Yang Fruit and go straight back to Huaxia?”

“Yes. I also think John Doe must be hiding in the dark.”

“Anyway, John Doe has done earth-shattering things in the world. I don’t think he has left so soon.”

“I support John Doe! Of course, it’s friendly support.”

“Ha! Ha! Your support is very precious because you are the only one who supports John Doe.”

“Compared with other forces, John Doe is too weak. The Huaxia authorities have no intention of helping him at all. It’s difficult for him to survive in Murica and Nirvana alone, let alone fight for the spiritual fruit!”

“Yes! John Doe is too weak, and his combat capability is not as good as that of the Little Saint Lord. It’s impossible for him to snatch the Yuan Yang Fruit from these forces!”

Countless people began to talk about it on the underground-force forum.

The topics were circulating back and forth between various forces and figures.

This time, John Doe was no longer an eternal topic. On the contrary, he became an existence that everyone deliberately ignored.

They were all clear that John Doe was the weakest among all the forces that fought for the Yuan Yang Fruit!

It was almost impossible for him to get the Yuan Yang Fruit alone.

The night passed quickly under everyone’s vigilance in Autranssy.

The sun rose from the east at six o’clock the next morning and illuminated the entire desert in a golden color.

At this time, there were still six hours left before the Yuan Yang Fruit ripened.

The Yuan Yang Fruit, which was surrounded by the Autranssy authorities, was completely red at this time. There was only a small spot at the top, which had not matured yet.

Upon closer inspection, the body of the Yuan Yang Fruit, which had turned scarlet, became crystal clear. It looked like a kaleidoscope with countless cuts of different sizes, particularly dazzling and gorgeous.

Outside of the battlefield, the people of all the major forces had adjusted themselves and woken up from their cultivation one by one.

The moment they woke up, the people of various forces immediately began to distribute food.

They had robbed the food from the Autranssy authorities, so they didn't bother to buy it at all. Although they didn't get much, as metahumans, they could have three days without meals.

In the past 15 days, they had only eaten a few meals and almost kept all the food until now.

They had all recovered to their peak strength.

Now, as long as they had a good meal, everyone's spirit and body would reach their peak. Although their reaction would slow down after eating, they still had time now. After a good meal and a few hours of rest, they would become in their peak state.

While eating, the people of the various forces fixed their eyes on the Autranssy authorities and the Yuan Yang Fruit.

Many people were paying attention to the people of other major forces around them.

All of them were eyeing the others covetously.

Fang Qiu didn't eat anything under the sand.

Fang Qiu knew people could only keep calm when they were hungry!

For him, not eating for a few days had no effect at all.

More importantly, he was hiding in the sand. Even if he wanted to eat, he couldn't.

After all, there was the Little Saint Lord up there. The person was constantly sensing the surrounding situation. Fang Qiu didn't want to expose his position in the last few hours!

Chapter 1765

It was at 9 a.m.

There were still three hours before the Yuan Yang Fruit ripened.

The Autranssy authorities had begun to set up defenses. Although they had the 120-meter bomb array, they did not dare to relax at all.

They all knew once the Yuan Yang Fruit matured, they wouldn't be able to stop these people on the periphery from rushing in!

Under these circumstances, they could only resist with all their might unless they detonated the bombs from the very beginning and fought to the death.

However, if they really wanted to fight to the death, they didn't need to stay here any longer.

Unless it was a critical moment, they would never detonate the bombs.

In the distance, a few days later after the spread of the news that the indigenous divine doctor had been killed and disappeared in Canbara, great parades happened in Autranssy.

People could see the parade teams in every city.

Many cities were even in traffic paralysis due to the outbreak of traffic, especially large tourist cities like Sidney, Adalaide, Melborne, the Golden Coast, Porth, and so on.

After the eruption of the tour, all aspects of the cities suffered heavy losses.

All the tourists were shocked by this event and returned to their homelands.

Tourists from all over the country who were going to visit Autransssy also gave up the idea of traveling when seeing the news of the parades in Autransssy.

In Autransssy, those rebels rose. Some of them mixed in with the people who guided public opinions and gradually transferred their dissatisfaction with Autransssy's national security work to the Autransssian government. Then they criticized the Autransssy government's poor protection of talents and the omission of the leader of Autransssy.

Soon, there were voices of opposition from the leaders of the major cities in Autransssy. The voices were getting louder and louder.

The situation in Autransssy became turbulent, and the leader of Autransssy could not stand these tourists.

"What's happening?"

In the Prime Minister's office in Canbara, the leader of Autransssy looked at the newspaper news and parade events and felt anxious. In the face of his subordinate who came in to report, he asked anxiously, "Haven't you found the body of the native divine doctor yet?"

"No."

The subordinate immediately shook his head and said, "We've searched the whole river from downstream to upstream, but there's still no news."

"Damn it!" The leader of Autransssy was speechless.

In the face of the parade events all over the country, he could not refute it at all.

If he stood out now, all the people in the country would ask him a question. Where was the native divine doctor? No matter if the person was dead or alive, where was he?

He couldn't answer this question because he couldn't find the person at all.

Moreover, even if he could think of a way to find a person or a corpse to be used as the native divine doctor, people all over the country would ask him another question. Why did such a talent as a native divine doctor encounter such an accident in the capital of Autranssy, where the defense of the country was the strongest?

Why did the bridge in the capital explode inexplicably?

Why did the indigenous divine doctor die after coming out of his manor?

Why?

There were too many questions.

As the leader, he couldn't give everyone a perfect explanation at all!

Therefore, he could only remain silent.

However, with his silence, the parade events across the country would inevitably become more and more intense.

This situation was utterly impossible to stop, and his status and identity would be shaken.

Of course, the leader of Autranssy was not stupid.

In the past few days, he had been thinking about it very carefully.

How did this happen? Why did it happen? Why did everything happen so suddenly?

Finally, he believed that someone must have slandered him!

Moreover, the slander was too ruthless.

Everyone was fine in the car accident, except for the Heavenly God worshipped by all the people in the country. Moreover, the Heavenly God was very capable.

The more he thought about it, the stranger it became in his heart.

Who wanted to slander him?

He guessed that it was a group of villains!

Unfortunately, there was no evidence.

Except for the villains, he could not think of anyone else.

He even wondered if the indigenous Heavenly God had been captured and imprisoned by the villains. Otherwise, how could his body not be found for so many days?

However, it was just speculation. He had no evidence at all.

He could do nothing about it!

Jaydon was the mayor of Banker Town of Jusa Island. His mind went blank as if he had been struck by lightning when he heard the indigenous Heavenly God had been killed in a car accident and disappeared. He couldn't figure out what had happened at all.

The indigenous Heavenly God was the cash cow of their town and the key to the development of Jusa Island.

Why did such a thing happen in Canbara, the capital, just a few days after he went out?

What on earth had happened?

Not only the mayor, Jaydon, even the mayor of Heiland and the local government of the relic couldn't believe it when they heard the news.

They had all seen how powerful the Heavenly God was with their own eyes. They couldn't believe that Heavenly God had encountered such an accident.

At the same time, they were also very skeptical.

Why did Heavenly God meet such an accident in Canbara?

With the rumors among the people spreading, they even felt the leader wanted to control Heavenly God, so he deliberately made such an accident to imprison Heavenly God and take advantage of the person.

Otherwise, why hadn't there been any news after searching for so many days?

The government hadn't replied yet.

The citizens of Banker Town were all enraged.

When they saw on the TV that all the major cities in the country were having parade events, they also began to take the lead in the tour.

Of course, they didn't make parade events in the town.

They went to Heiland.

Even all the cities in the province took the lead in traveling.

Because of the losses, the disappearance of the cash cow, and because they couldn't know the truth clearly, the residents of the town began to encourage the province they were to build independence.

As a result, many people in other provinces agreed on it.

This time, the government of Autranssy was dumbfounded.

The leader of Autranssy did not expect things to become like this. Even the country began to split from the inside.

What the hell was going on?

Without any other choice, the leader had no choice but to immediately gather the important government officials to discuss how to deal with the crisis in Canbara.

Of course, the governors of the major provinces were also invited to attend this meeting.

After all, if the leader of Autranssy wanted to reduce the impact of this matter, he first had to explain to the governors of the major provinces what was going on and tell them he knew nothing at all!

Currently, the most important thing was to stabilize the situation of the province where Banker Town was as soon as possible.

Otherwise, once something bad broke out on the other side, all the provinces in the country would inevitably make a scene with it. At that time, everything would be finished!

Autranssy Desert was different from the major cities in Autranssy.

The atmosphere here was no longer as lively as before. Instead, it was oppressive and tense.

It was already 11 o'clock in the morning.

There was only one hour left before the Yuan Yang Fruit ripened.

At this time, the sesame-sized dot on the Yuan Yang Fruit had shrunk to the size of a needle tip. The rest of the fruit was shining with red light, dazzling and gorgeous.

All the people of the Autranssy authorities surrounding the Yuan Yang Fruit became nervous. Under Mason's arrangement, they formed three walls of people and completely surrounded the 120-meter area. It was as if they were ready to fight at any time.

However, the forces of the surrounding countries were not nervous at all.

On the contrary, all the forces stood up and surrounded the people of the Autranssy authorities from all directions again.

This time, the people of all the forces were not in a hurry. They stopped at the periphery of the 120-meter area and surrounded all the people of the Autranssy authorities.

"You are the landlord. We can give you a chance now. If you leave now, we will let you off."

Tony, the leader of Murica, stood up and said to all the Autranssy authorities with a disdainful sneer.

“Humph!”

The Autransian official spokesperson snorted and said, “This is our territory. You’re the ones who should leave!”

“It seems you’re going to refuse a toast only to be forced to drink a forfeit.” Tony sneered.

Then, he took the initiative to step forward.

The people of other countries and forces also stepped forward one after another.

Seeing this, Autransians retreated.

These people guarding the periphery were too weak to withstand the powerful Qi power of these experts from various countries.

Seeing that the people of various forces from various countries dared to approach step by step, Mason’s face suddenly darkened. He stepped forward, glanced at these people coldly, and asked, “Aren’t you afraid of dying with us?”

As soon as he said that, all the people from the major forces who surrounded his people from all directions burst into laughter.

Mason’s face immediately became puzzled.

He couldn’t figure out what these people meant. Were they not afraid of bombs?

Seeing that his men were sweating under the pressure, Mason made a prompt decision. He waved his right hand and said, “Everyone, go out with me. If you are not afraid of death, come in!”

As he spoke, all the people of the Autranssy authorities immediately followed Mason out and came to the periphery in the distance.

On the other side, all the people of the major forces walked in, each occupying a place, and began to be on guard against each other.

“You’re courting death!”

Seeing this, Mason, who had retreated to a distance, immediately sneered and said to the spokesperson of the Autranssy authorities, “Carry out the plan. Let them all die!”

As he spoke, the spokesperson of the Autranssy authorities immediately took out the remote detonator from the inner pocket of his clothes, laughed wildly at the major forces over there, and shouted, “Go to hell!”

As he roared, he pressed the detonating button on the remote detonator again and again.

Chapter 1766 The Yuan Yang Fruit Has Ripened

Beep!

With the press of the spokesperson of the Autranssy authorities, an ear-piercing alarm immediately sounded on the remote control detonating device.

Hiding in the distance, all the Autranssian officials sneered.

They all looked forward to the death of the people of various countries in front of them as they looked at that group of people within 120 meters of the Yuan Yang Fruit.

Within a range of 120 meters, there were world-class bombs buried in the sand. What would happen if so many bombs exploded at the same time?

However, just as the Autransian officials were frantically waiting for the explosion, nothing happened at the place where all the major forces gathered.

Moreover, the people of the various forces turned to look in their direction.

“Hmm?”

Noticing that something was wrong, the Autransian spokesperson’s face changed. He immediately put down the remote detonator that was held high in the air. Then, he pressed the detonation button again and again.

It didn’t work.

No matter how hard he pressed, it didn’t work at all.

This situation made the spokesperson’s face change dramatically in an instant. All the Autransian officials, including Mason, were shocked and found it inexplicable.

“What the hell is going on?”

“Why aren’t the bombs bursting?”

“We’ve all seen the bombs being installed with their own eyes. There cannot be any accidents.

“Then why is it that the bombs aren’t working?”

At this moment, all the Autransian officials suddenly thought of the possibility that all the bombs buried underground had been destroyed.

“How is that possible?”

Over the past few days, they had been guarding that area. Even though the forces of various countries had rushed to the battlefield several times, the area had never left their sight. In this case, how could the bombs buried in the sand be destroyed?

However, if the bombs hadn't been destroyed, how could the forces of all the countries have dared to rush in so brazenly without taking the remote detonator in the Autransssians' control seriously at all?

The Autransssian officials were all confused and didn't know what was going on.

Just then, the people of all the other forces laughed one after another.

They were mocking the Autransssians undisguisedly.

Everyone looked at the Autransssian officials with ridicule in their eyes, as if they didn't take them seriously at all.

The faces of all the Autransssian officials darkened.

Only then did they realize that this group of people had been plotting in secret for a long time.

“Damn it!”

The Autransssian spokesman cursed angrily and shouted in anger, “Since you're doing this, don't blame me for showing no mercy!”

After that, he took out his mobile phone and immediately sent the coordinates to the nearest military base.

Then, he immediately dialed a number and said, "Prepare the guided missiles. Wait for my notice and fire at any time!"

Undoubtedly, all the Autranssian officials were furious.

They didn't expect that as the local tyrant, they would be fooled by these foreign forces. They had no way to accept that.

After mocking the Autranssian officials, everyone withdrew their attention and focused on the surrounding forces again.

They didn't know that the Autranssy authorities were going to launch guided missiles. Instead, they focused on their competitors.

In their opinion, the Autranssian officials had completely withdrawn from the competition, and they did not need to pay any attention to the Autranssians at all.

As everyone was on guard against the people of all the forces around them, they all fixed their eyes on the Yuan Yang Fruit that was about to ripen.

But they merely stared at it. No one dared to take a step forward.

At this very moment, everyone was well aware that whoever walked up first would become the target of everyone's gunpower.

The outstanding usually bore the brunt of the attack, and no one was willing to be the outstanding one.

Everyone maintained the distance between themselves and the Yuan Yang Fruit like the others.

In this way, when they really fought for it, they wouldn't lag behind or become the target of others.

Of course, this was under the circumstance that the Yuan Yang Fruit had not fully matured yet.

Seeing that it was getting closer and closer to the ripe time of the Yuan Yang Fruit, these people chatted with the people around them while looking around vigilantly. At the same time, they secretly and slowly moved toward the location of the Yuan Yang Fruit.

It looked peaceful.

In the dark, the battle between the various forces had begun.

However, just when everyone thought that their movements were the safest and the least likely to be discovered, they found that the distance between them and the Yuan Yang Fruit was still the same after they moved for a long time.

Everyone was embarrassed.

Obviously, they had all moved in secret.

Soon, it was half past eleven.

There was still half an hour before the Yuan Yang Fruit ripened.

The atmosphere at the scene was very tense and depressing. At this moment, each force could only take themselves as the center, and the rest were all their enemies.

In the distance, all the Autranssian officials did not get any closer.

Under Mason's order, everyone was on standby.

As the strongest Autranssian official, Meis had been standing far away, observing the situation on the spot while thinking about when to launch the guided missiles.

Although the decision to launch the missiles was made by the Autransian spokesperson, this decision was exactly in line with what Mason was thinking.

In his opinion, since they had been driven out, there was no need for them to go in again.

If they went in again, they would put themselves in danger.

Now, his target had completely changed.

They didn't need to protect the top-tier spiritual fruit but to prevent these foreign forces from taking it away.

Since they couldn't fight to the death, then they would risk everything to throw the entire battle into chaos and make everyone return in defeat.

Half an hour later-

Buzz! Buzz!

In the sky, there was a burst of energy surging.

It was visible to the naked eye that streaks of Qi of Heaven and Earth, like streams of water, gurgled over from all directions and poured into the Yuan Yang Fruit surrounded by various forces from all over the world.

Upon closer inspection, one could see that at the top of the Yuan Yang Fruit was an extremely tiny beam of golden light that looked like an embroidered needle.

With the Qi of Heaven and Earth coming from all directions, the beam of light was constantly shrinking.

In the sky, the speed of the Qi of Heaven and Earth that poured over gradually increased, and there was even a series of cracking sounds.

It was as if the Qi had turned into chains that filled the sky.

At this moment, everyone was holding their breaths as they watched this scene before their eyes.

They didn't even dare to make a sound.

Finally, when all the Qi of Heaven and Earth surging from all around was poured into the Yuan Yang Fruit, the remaining small light beam finally dimmed completely.

The entire Yuan Yang Fruit was completely covered in a layer of scarlet red color.

In an instant, the crimson light surged.

A layer of energy fluctuation immediately spread out in all directions with the Yuan Yang Fruit as the center.

Wherever the energy fluctuation passed, everyone felt an extremely pure aura of energy.

Just the ripples caused everyone's eyes to be filled with desire.

This was just a layer of energy fluctuation.

Judging from the energy contained in the energy fluctuation, how terrifying would the Qi of Heaven and Earth contained in this Yuan Yang Fruit be?

There was no doubt that everyone had gone crazy.

A complete, ripe Yuan Yang Fruit, which one could clearly feel its energy, was right in front of them. How could they hold back?

Swoosh!

Just when everyone was staring greedily at the Yuan Yang Fruit, among the Nirvana members, the Little Saint Lord acted and rushed to the Yuan Yang Fruit in an instant at the speed of lightning. He immediately reached out to grab it, trying to pick it up directly.

When everyone saw this scene, they all burst out with all their strength in an instant and attacked the Little Saint Lord fiercely.

The speed of energy attacks was clearly much faster than one's moving speed.

Therefore, before the Little Saint Lord could touch the Yuan Yang Fruit, he was hit by the dense attacks coming from all directions.

Although his strength was super strong, these people were all super experts of SS level. Even if he had mastered the Two-Flower Core Formation, he would never dare to resist the fierce attacks of so many SS-level experts head-on.

The Little Saint Lord immediately retreated with a darkened face.

If he was a step slower, he would have been hit by the attacks from all directions.

He turned his eyes and looked around.

Everyone's faces were filled with madness.

The Yuan Yang Fruit might be the only top-level spiritual fruit they could ever see.

This was an opportunity that they could never let go no matter who they had to offend.

Therefore, although they were very afraid of the Little Saint Lord at the beginning, at the moment, for the sake of the Yuan Yang Fruit, they had completely set aside their fear.

If they could get this Yuan Yang Fruit, it would definitely be worth it to offend the entire Nirvana Organization, let alone the Little Saint Lord.

The Little Saint Lord was well aware of that, so he immediately looked at the Muricans.

On the other side, Tony from Murica also immediately replied with a look, indicating that they could join forces to get rid of the other forces first, and then they could compete with each other.

However, all the forces had long known that Murica had joined hands with the Nirvana Organization.

Therefore, when they saw that the two sides were ready to join forces, they immediately gathered together. It seemed that all the other forces were ready to unite to fight against the Muricans and the Nirvana Organization.

Seeing this, the Muricans and the Little Saint Lord immediately looked gloomy.

They didn't expect that the forces of various countries would be so united as soon as the Muricans and Nirvana were ready to join forces to deal with them.

It was obviously much more difficult to get the Yuan Yang Fruit than they had imagined.

Chapter 1767 What's Going On?

It seemed that the forces present were divided into two camps again. The Muricans and Nirvana were a team, and the rest were the other.

Looking at the Yuan Yang Fruit that had just ripened and feeling the pure energy aura emitted by it, everyone on the scene was ready to take action. Almost everyone couldn't hold back the restlessness in their hearts and wanted to snatch the Yuan Yang Fruit as soon as possible.

Unfortunately, under such circumstances, no one dared to make a move rashly.

They could only stand in a deadlock like this.

In the distance, all the Autransian officials, led by Meiles, also looked at the two sides in a stalemate. They wanted to see if the two sides would really fight.

If a fight broke out, they would have a chance to get the spiritual fruit.

Just then-

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Suddenly, there was a violent tremor on the ground.

The people of the two teams, who were in a deadlock, looked around with inexplicable panic, not knowing what was going on.

Even the Little Saint Lord was at a loss.

However, what happened next caused everyone's expressions to change drastically.

Buzz!

An extremely powerful airflow suddenly rose from the sand to the sky.

With the Yuan Yang Fruit as the center, the sand within a ten-meter radius was carried by the huge airflow to the sky.

This extremely powerful airflow suddenly rushed out from underground like a pillar.

What happened caused everyone's expressions to change.

When the Little Saint Lord saw the pillar-like airflow, he was also extremely shocked.

He was wondering why there was such a strong force here.

It should be noted that he had been stationed here for half a month.

In the past half a month, in order to find John Doe, he had been monitoring this area all the time and had never slacked off.

However, after so many days of monitoring, he didn't find any aura that could pose a threat to him at all.

But now, the appearance of this pillar-like airflow was obviously beyond his expectation.

"What is it?"

"Could it be a guardian beast?"

"We have been guarding here for half a month, but we haven't seen any other creatures. I thought there was no guardian beast."

"If this is a guardian beast, it's too powerful."

“What strong pressure! This guardian beast is not an ordinary one.”

Everyone retreated one after another.

But while retreating, they were ready to attack the guardian beast.

In their opinion, the guardian beast definitely came out at this time to eat the Yuan Yang Fruit. They had been guarding the spiritual fruit for so many days. How could they let the guardian beast eat it so easily?

The next second-

Buzz! Buzz! Buzz!

All of a sudden, the sand around the Yuan Yang Fruit began to surge like boiling water.

During the rapid surge, the sand all over the ground suddenly sprayed into the air like a fountain.

On closer inspection, one could see that a huge black shadow appeared in the cloud of sand that suddenly spurted out and covered the sky and the sun.

Shockingly, it was an Autransssian giant lizard.

In Autranssy, the giant lizards were referred to as the Giant Ripper.

According to historical records, the Autransssian giant lizards had been at the top of the food chain in Autranssy for a long time. Not only would they take the initiative to hunt, but they would also eat rotten food. They could easily catch prey twice as heavy as them and even deal with opponents ten times heavier than them.

It was recorded in the document that the giant lizards in the Autranssy Desert were the largest ones. Ordinary giant lizards could reach 1.5 meters in length and 400 kilograms in weight.

In recent years, adult lizards, which could reach six meters long, were also very commonly seen.

These lizards were generally light brown or yellow-gray, and they resided in deserts, sand dunes, or dry wastelands. Their temperaments were extremely violent. They would swell their bodies and necks, bend their bodies, and emit low growls when threatened.

These desert giant lizards were experts at digging as they lived underground in the desert.

This kind of giant lizard was also thought to be poisonous. It contained a special composition in their saliva. According to the experiments people had done, if the saliva of the desert giant lizard was injected into the bird's body, the bird would be completely paralyzed in a few seconds.

It was unexpected that the guardian beast of the Yuan Yang Fruit was actually a desert giant lizard.

When everyone saw the giant lizard, they were all startled.

Some people who knew about the giant lizard retreated one after another, for fear of being contaminated by its saliva and being poisoned.

The Little Saint Lord also knew that.

Since it was a giant lizard, he could figure out what was going on.

This kind of giant lizard living deep underground in the desert could not only use the desert to cover up its energy aura but also reduce its vitality to the minimum when it was resting, making it hard for others to discover it.

However, this one on the scene was huge.

Just its length alone was five times that of an ordinary adult giant lizard. It was about 30 meters long. Its whole body was very wide and looked extremely strong, which made people feel intimidated at first glance.

Yet, everyone present was a metahuman, so no one was curious.

After all, they had seen all kinds of monsters before. Moreover, the giant lizard in front of them had grown up by devouring the Yuan Yang Fruit. It would be strange if it hadn't grown so big.

Under everyone's gaze, the giant lizard soaring into the sky directly rushed to a height of nearly 50 meters like a whale leaping into the water. Then, it landed freely, turned around, and went down to bite the Yuan Yang Fruit directly, trying to swallow it in one bite, regardless of the crowd.

"Attack!"

Someone shouted.

The people of all the forces in the surroundings immediately took action at the same time. They attacked the desert giant lizard that fell from above and was about to bite the Yuan Yang Fruit.

In an instant, all kinds of fierce attacks rushed to the front of the desert giant lizard and bombarded it fiercely from all directions.

Enormous power erupted.

In an instant, the giant lizard, which was about to eat the Yuan Yang Fruit, was sent flying.

Only then did the people present feel a little relieved.

Boom!

There came a loud bang.

The 30-meter-long desert giant lizard fell heavily to the ground.

Although it was attacked by many people at the same time, the giant lizard that fell to the ground didn't seem to be injured at all. Instead, it instantly adjusted its body and used its huge head to look back and forth at the human beings in front of it, letting out muffled roars.

It seemed that it was very angry.

At this moment, everyone's eyes were focused on the desert giant lizard.

Everyone could feel how powerful it was. They all knew that the desert giant lizard would definitely try its best to devour the Yuan Yang Fruit. Therefore, they could not be careless when dealing with it. Maybe it would swallow the fruit once they were not careful.

"Kill it first."

Tony stepped forward, stared at the giant lizard with a serious face, and said, "Only by killing it can we fight over the spiritual fruit with peace of mind."

The people of other forces nodded in agreement.

At this moment-

"Raaaaaargh!"

The desert giant lizard suddenly roared. Then, it twisted its 30-meter-long body and rushed toward the Yuan Yang Fruit, trying to devour it again.

At the same time, the people of the various forces immediately took action. They attacked the giant lizard that was rushing over and kept attacking it fiercely.

It looked like they wanted to kill the giant lizard on the spot.

Just then, Fang Qiu, who had been hiding under the sand a hundred meters away, had quietly come to the sand near the Yuan Yang Fruit. Under the supervision of his Divine Consciousness, he found that everyone was besieging the giant lizard. Almost no one paid attention to him. Without hesitation, Fang Qiu immediately seized the opportunity to break out of the sand.

He grabbed the Yuan Yang Fruit and pulled it hard.

“Hmm?”

After pulling, Fang Qiu found that he couldn't pick the Yuan Yang Fruit. Instead, he pulled it out by its root.

But the thing was that the Yuan Yang Fruit's root was very long. Its root was pulled out a meter long, but Fang Qiu still couldn't see the end of it.

Fang Qiu directly rose to the sky, ready to drag the root of the Yuan Yang Fruit and quickly leave the battlefield.

Unexpectedly, he flew dozens of meters high in the air, but the root of the Yuan Yang Fruit was not completely pulled out. Instead, there was a huge force at the bottom of the desert, pulling Fang Qiu who was about to leave, and keeping him there.

Fang Qiu found it strange and immediately looked down.

As he looked over, he was dumbfounded instantly.

From the sky, he could see that the root of this Yuan Yang Fruit was like a huge spider web, spreading out in all directions. It seemed that it was completely rooted in the whole desert.

This scene shocked Fang Qiu a lot.

He didn't expect that the root of the Yuan Yang Fruit would be so terrifying.

On the other side.

All the people who were hunting the giant lizard also noticed the situation. When they saw that John Doe almost stole the Yuan Yang Fruit, their faces darkened.

"Sure enough, John Doe hasn't left yet!"

However, when they saw that the root of the Yuan Yang Fruit held by John Doe was buried deep in the desert in the distance, this group of people was also shocked.

They had thought that snatching the Yuan Yang Fruit was a simple task. All they needed to do was pluck it.

However, judging from the current situation, it seemed that it was not easy to pick the Yuan Yang Fruit.

Dozens of meters up in the air, Fang Qiu clenched his right hand when he saw that he had been noticed by everyone, and the divine sword immediately condensed in his hand. Then, he activated the golden internal Qi in his body and injected it into the sword. He fiercely slashed at the root of the Yuan Yang Fruit.

Clang!

The sound of metal colliding could be heard.

When the divine sword hit the Yuan Yang Fruit, it only left a slight mark and couldn't cut the root of the fruit at all.

Now, Fang Qiu was completely shocked.

"What the hell?"

"The root of the plant can't even be cut off by the divine sword and the golden internal Qi?"

"Is this happening?"

As he was shocked, Fang Qiu glanced at the crowd below.

"Go to hell, John Doe!"

As Tony's roar came, the Muricans directly withdrew from the battlefield against the giant lizard and immediately rushed toward Fang Qiu.

"How are you going to escape now?"

The Little Saint Lord also sneered and immediately rushed at John Doe at full speed.

The current situation was the best for him.

His two targets, John Doe and the Yuan Yang Fruit, were now gathered together. As long as he killed John Doe, he could get the Yuan Yang Fruit and achieve the purpose of this trip perfectly.

Chapter 1768 Guided Missiles in Place

Seeing the Muricans and the Little Saint Lord of Nirvana taking action together, the people of the other forces were also unwilling to fall behind and immediately attacked John Doe.

Originally, for them, there was no need to get involved in the battle between John Doe, the Muricans, and Nirvana. But the problem now was that the Yuan Yang Fruit was in John Doe's hands.

They were afraid that the Yuan Yang Fruit would be taken away by the Muricans and the Nirvana Organization together.

Therefore, they had to take action.

High up in the sky.

Seeing that everyone was rushing toward him, Fang Qiu waved his right hand.

Whiz!

An incomparably crisp sound of the sword suddenly rang out.

As Fang Qiu waved his hand, a gust of incomparably terrifying Sword Intent immediately burst out around him, and the surrounding Heaven and Earth energy madly poured into the divine sword in his hand from all directions.

The sword light on the divine sword burst out in an instant.

With a gust of extremely sharp energy Qi, Fang Qiu waved his arm.

With a boom, the sword light shot forward.

It directly charged at the people from various forces who were attacking from all directions.

The sword Qi crushed everything.

In an instant, all the people who were rushing up were blocked by the sword strike.

The next moment-

“Tiangang Kills Demons!”

In the face of these people, Fang Qiu did not hesitate to directly perform the third move of the divine sword.

Fang Qiu hadn’t used this move for a long time.

However, it was just the right time to use it now.

As his shout rang out, there was a tremor in the air.

The Qi of Heaven and Earth, which had been rushing wildly toward Fang Qiu, suddenly froze. An extremely powerful Sword Intent burst out of Fang Qiu.

Under the cover of this Sword Intent, the surrounding Qi of Heaven and Earth soon turned into the astral energy of the sword all over the sky.

With the appearance of the astral energy of the sword, the whistling of the wind suddenly sounded.

With Fang Qiu as the center, a huge tornado of Gang Qi instantly took shape and began to rotate wildly.

Although the attack of this move was not strong for these experts, it could completely stop these people’s attacks.

And what Fang Qiu needed to do was to stop these people from attacking and then try his best to find a way to get the Yuan Yang Fruit.

At the same time, he used the tornado of Gang Qi to stop everyone's attack.

Fang Qiu immediately began to study the Yuan Yang Fruit.

He carefully searched for a way to pluck the fruit.

At this time, the Little Saint Lord, who had not made a move yet, acted all of a sudden.

Swoosh!

Like a sharp arrow, he shot out violently. With a gust of extremely sharp energy Qi, he directly broke through the tornado of Gang Qi around him and then rushed toward Fang Qiu with his sharp energy Qi.

The moment the energy in the Little Saint Lord burst out, Fang Qiu turned his head and looked over.

Seeing the Little Saint Lord rushing toward him quickly, Fang Qiu made a prompt decision. He immediately threw away the Yuan Yang Fruit in his hand and then immediately flew out. At the same time, he put away the tornado of Gang Qi all over the sky.

Without the obstruction of the tornado, everyone immediately fixed their eyes on the Yuan Yang Fruit thrown away by John Doe.

They rushed forward one after another, ready to snatch it.

However, they weren't fast enough.

Also, the Little Saint Lord had taken the initiative to rush to John Doe before them, so when everyone flew out, he had been to the place where Fang Qiu was just now and grabbed the Yuan Yang Fruit that hadn't fallen down yet.

Just like John Doe, the moment the Little Saint Lord grabbed the Yuan Yang Fruit, he immediately tried to cut down its root.

However, he failed just like John Doe.

This result shocked the Little Saint Lord.

Then, he grabbed the root of the Yuan Yang Fruit with one hand and the fruit with the other, trying to pick it by force.

But even if he used all his strength, it still didn't work at all. He couldn't pick it.

At this time, all the major forces had come over.

They attacked the Little Saint Lord fiercely one after another, not wanting him to get the Yuan Yang Fruit.

The Little Saint Lord had been taking everyone's attacks head-on. A layer of energy shield in front of him blocked all their attacks.

Seeing this, Fang Qiu, who had already run far away, immediately turned back.

He raised the divine sword with his right hand.

He directly activated the golden internal Qi in his body and slashed wildly at the Little Saint Lord again and again. The golden sword Qi instantly cut apart the energy shield around the Little Saint Lord.

With two consecutive strikes, he directly broke the energy shield of the Little Saint Lord.

Instantly, wave after wave of attacks rushed toward the Little Saint Lord.

His face changed as he immediately took action to block the attacks.

Just then-

“Raaaaaargh!”

The desert giant lizard, which had been besieged by the crowd and injured before, suddenly roared, and a huge pressure suddenly burst out from its body. With the help of this pressure, it suddenly jumped up and pounced on the Little Saint Lord with endless anger.

Seeing the Little Saint Lord being besieged, the Muricans did not dare to go forward.

After all, there were too many opponents.

Not only the people of various forces but also John Doe and the desert giant lizard were there. In this case, wouldn't they be courting death if they went to help the Little Saint Lord?

However, since the Muricans and Nirvana had joined forces, the former would not defect so quickly. After all, John Doe was still alive.

If they wanted to kill John Doe, they must get the help of the Little Saint Lord.

With that in mind, the leader of the Muricans shouted.

“Little Saint Lord, we'll help you stall John Doe.”

He then suddenly waved his hand and rushed toward Fang Qiu with all his men.

However, Fang Qiu narrowed his eyes slightly as he looked at the fierce giant lizard.

There must be a way to get the Yuan Yang Fruit.

Otherwise, this desert giant lizard would have no way to grow this big.

From the very beginning, this desert giant lizard wanted to eat the Yuan Yang Fruit directly. That was to say, it had a way to get the Yuan Yang Fruit, and that method was to bite it with its mouth.

When Fang Qiu thought of that, he moved and immediately dodged aside.

While dodging the Muricans' fierce attacks, he waved his sword to attack the Little Saint Lord.

Behind him, the Muricans pretended to be working very hard and only attacked John Doe occasionally, which did not pose a big threat to him at all.

Seeing this, the Little Saint Lord suddenly looked gloomy.

Under the fierce attacks of the desert giant lizard and John Doe, he had no way to pick the Yuan Yang Fruit at all. In addition, with the fierce attacks of various forces from various countries, he had even less of a chance.

As his face darkened, the Little Saint Lord directly resisted the attacks of all the people. He suddenly stretched out his hands, activated all the energy in his body, and pulled violently, trying to pull off the Yuan Yang Fruit.

However, even though he had used all his strength, he was still unable to pull it off.

"Damn it!"

The Little Saint Lord cursed.

Right then, another round of fierce attacks landed on him, and a huge force burst out in an instant. He couldn't help trembling all over, and a trace of blood gushed out of the corner of his mouth.

He was injured.

Even a Two-Flower Core Realm expert couldn't withstand such a fierce attack, not to mention that John Doe was attacking him crazily.

"If I can't pick it, I should just eat it!"

The Little Saint Lord flapped out.

He knew that if things went on like this, he would soon be seriously injured. At that time, he would probably be chased and beaten by John Doe, and he would have no chance to kill John Doe.

In order to kill John Doe, he had to stay in a good state and could no longer withstand this kind of fierce attack.

With that in mind, the Little Saint Lord opened his mouth and tried to stuff the Yuan Yang Fruit into his mouth.

At the sight of that, everyone present suddenly became nervous.

One by one, their attacks became extremely fierce.

Even the Muricans immediately stopped their attacks on John Doe after seeing this scene. Although they did not take the initiative to stop the Little Saint Lord, if they relaxed their pursuit of John Doe, it was equivalent to stopping the Little Saint Lord.

Fang Qiu did not hesitate.

He directly burst out a gust of extremely huge energy sword Qi and slashed at the Little Saint Lord.

As soon as the Little Saint Lord put the fruit in his mouth and was about to eat it, all kinds of attacks reached him.

In particular, the fatal blow from John Doe made the Little Saint Lord change his expression. He directly threw away the Yuan Yang Fruit in his hand and immediately dodged to the side.

He was well aware that once he was hit by this round of attacks, he would definitely be seriously injured.

When that happened, John Doe would never let him go, nor would the other major forces. If the Little Saint Lord really swallowed the Yuan Yang Fruit, the desert giant lizard would not let him go either.

At that time, he would die.

Therefore, he had to let go.

In the distance.

All the people from Autranssy had been observing the situation in the field.

“The root of that top-level spiritual fruit is so hard that it can’t be cut off?”

“The guardian beast has appeared. Those people have no chance to snatch the fruit!”

“They can just fight. The more lively the better.”

Every Autransian official was filled with anger.

They were displeased to see their thing being robbed.

“However, since this group of people is fighting so fiercely, we can just have them all die on the battlefield and die with the Yuan Yang Fruit that belongs to us!”

Looking at the scene in front of him, Mason directly dialed a number and said, “Lock on to the target and launch the missiles!”

“Yes, sir!”

A response came from the other end of the line.

Mason hung up.

A minute later-

Beep! Beep!

Mason received a text message.

The guided missiles were in place.

Seeing the text message, Mason raised his right hand and said, “Everyone, let’s withdraw together. Now!”

As soon as he finished speaking, he immediately led everyone to retreat further away.

On the battlefield.

The moment the Little Saint Lord threw away the Yuan Yang Fruit, everyone immediately rushed forward to fight for it like crazy.

While they were restraining each other, the Yuan Yang Fruit fell from the sky. When it was about to fall to the ground, the desert giant lizard suddenly rushed up. With a flick of its tail, it burst out an incomparably huge force, which scared everyone so much that they didn't dare to move forward. At the same time, it suddenly opened its mouth and bit the Yuan Yang Fruit.

At this moment, the Little Saint Lord waved his right hand.

A ball of grayish-white energy burst out and hit the mouth of the desert giant lizard.

In that instant, the desert giant lizard's mouth just happened to miss the Yuan Yang Fruit and bit down on its tough root.

Chapter 1769 Getting the Yuan Yang Fruit

Crack!

A crisp sound rang out.

As the sawtooth-like sharp teeth of the desert giant lizard bit down, the Yuan Yang Fruit's root, which could not be cut off no matter how hard it was cut, was cut in half.

With the crisp sound of the root breaking, all the people present were stunned.

Then, everyone's faces were full of surprise.

They were surprised that the root of the Yuan Yang Fruit even John Doe and the Little Saint Lord couldn't cut off was bitten off by this huge desert giant lizard.

This showed how powerful this desert giant lizard was.

If anyone was bitten by it, he would probably be torn into pieces in an instant.

The good news was that the desert giant lizard didn't bite the Yuan Yang Fruit. Instead, it helped everyone cut off the root of the fruit so that they could take the fruit away.

Because the fruit was about to land on the ground, although the giant lizard didn't swallow the Yuan Yang Fruit in one bite, it was right next to it.

"Raaaaaargh!"

After failing to bite the fruit, the Giant Desert Lizard let out a furious roar. It abruptly turned its head and once again opened its mouth to bite the Yuan Yang Fruit.

Everyone's body quivered as they were all terrified.

That was because the distance between the Yuan Yang Fruit and the desert giant lizard was too close. With the giant lizard's speed, it would probably be able to devour the fruit in the blink of an eye.

Therefore, when the people present saw that the desert giant lizard was about to bite the Yuan Yang Fruit again, they immediately took action and attacked the giant lizard from all directions.

The face of the Little Saint Lord also darkened. He waved his right hand and made a slashing gesture in the air.

With the wave of his arm, a stream of grayish-white energy instantly surged over and condensed in the void, turning into a huge Horse-chopping Saber.

When the mouth of the desert giant lizard approached the Yuan Yang Fruit once again, the Horse-chopping Saber slashed at it without hesitation.

Enormous power erupted.

In an instant, the huge desert giant lizard was sent rolling.

Seeing this, all the people around immediately flew out and charged straight at the Yuan Yang Fruit.

Just then-

Swoosh!

An extremely sharp sound of something breaking through the air suddenly came.

A figure broke out of the ground. As suddenly as lightning, he grabbed the Yuan Yang Fruit that had just landed on the ground and then suddenly soared into the sky like a gust of wind.

Everyone's faces tightened in shock.

They found that the person who broke out of the ground was actually John Doe.

Everyone came back to their senses.

When John Doe threw away the Yuan Yang Fruit, all of their attention was shifted from him to the fruit. When the Little Saint Lord got the fruit, everyone's attention was focused on him. When the Little Saint Lord threw the fruit away, everyone shifted their attention back to the Yuan Yang Fruit again.

As they did that, everyone seemed to have forgotten the existence of John Doe.

Who would have thought that John Doe had once again lurked in the sand?

Who would have thought that John Doe would actually take away the Yuan Yang Fruit again?

In fact, since Fang Qiu thought that the desert giant lizard might help him solve the problem of picking the Yuan Yang Fruit, he had been focusing on the giant lizard.

The moment Fang Qiu saw the giant lizard bite off the root of the Yuan Yang Fruit, he didn't hesitate and immediately fled to the ground.

At that time, no one paid attention to him at all.

Everyone's attention was focused on the Yuan Yang Fruit whose root had been bitten off.

Therefore, Fang Qiu soon hid right under the Yuan Yang Fruit.

Under the supervision of his Divine Consciousness, he found the perfect time to break out of the sand and snatch the Yuan Yang Fruit.

The moment he rose into the air, Fang Qiu immediately flew away and rushed to the distance.

Seeing that John Doe was about to run away, everyone immediately went to chase after him.

However, before they could take action-

Swoosh!

An extremely sharp sound of something breaking through the air suddenly came from a distance.

Hearing that, all the people present immediately got alert and looked over.

A missile was shooting wildly from a distance.

With a closer look, they found that behind the missile, there were three identical guided missiles, which were rushing over like raindrops.

This scene startled Fang Qiu.

He didn't expect that there would be so many guided missiles.

Beyond doubt, only the Autranssy authorities could launch so many missiles.

Thinking of this, Fang Qiu secretly rejoiced.

Fortunately, he rushed out in time. If he had rushed out a few minutes later, he would have been blown up by these missiles.

However, these guided missiles came at the right time.

With that in mind, Fang Qiu immediately activated all the internal Qi in him. At the same time, a powerful Qi power burst out, and his whole body instantly shot out, turning into a shadow. Like a meteor falling from the sky, he rushed into the distance at an extremely fast speed.

Just as Fang Qiu flew out, the guided missiles had arrived.

Boom!

The first missile mercilessly fell toward the area below.

Everyone's face was filled with horror.

How powerful was a missile?

Even if they were all the top experts in the world, it was absolutely impossible for them to resist so many guided missiles.

Swish! Swish! Swish!

With the fall of the first missile, the three guided missiles followed closely behind, bringing with them a terrible and horrifying sound of falling.

Under such a situation, the Little Saint Lord, who had been ready to chase after John Doe, couldn't help but look terrified.

He immediately took action.

He was well aware that if these missiles landed and exploded, even he would not be able to withstand the explosion. If he was not careful, he might be seriously injured.

In this case, he had to protect himself.

"Explode."

Just as everyone held their heads and fled, for fear of being hit by the guided missiles, the Little Saint Lord waved his right hand.

A stream of grayish-white energy immediately surged over from all directions and quickly condensed into a huge Horse-chopping Saber in his hand.

Then, with a wave of his arm, four rays of incomparably strong saber light immediately burst out from the Horse-chopping Saber condensed by energy.

The saber light flew out of the blade.

With a gust of extremely sharp energy Qi, it instantly burst out and rushed toward the four guided missiles.

The next moment-

Boom! Boom! Boom!

A violent explosion shook the sky.

Four huge balls of fire directly erupted in the sky, which gave people an extremely shocking feeling at first glance.

It was not just fire.

With the explosion of the four guided missiles, the terrifying aftermath of the explosion also spread out in all directions in an instant.

Those fleeing people couldn't help but shudder when they were struck by the aftermath of the explosion, their expressions changing.

Feeling the terrible energy contained in the aftermath of the explosion, everyone was a little scared and embarrassed.

It was hard to imagine what would happen if the four guided missiles really landed.

Even if they were super experts among the metahumans, they wouldn't be able to withstand this kind of explosion, would they?

However, as they were secretly scared, everyone immediately turned their eyes to John Doe again because the crisis was resolved.

At this time, everyone could vaguely see that John Doe had run far away, dragging the root of the Yuan Yang Fruit that was dozens of meters long.

The desert giant lizard was also chasing after John Doe at an extremely fast speed.

The desert giant lizard must have gone mad.

It only had the Yuan Yang Fruit in its eyes and didn't care about the guided missiles at all.

Therefore, at the same time when John Doe grabbed the Yuan Yang Fruit and fled, the giant lizard chased after him crazily.

No one dared to hesitate.

One after another, they began to chase after John Doe.

"The missiles have been stopped?"

Fang Qiu saw everything that happened behind him with his Divine Consciousness.

Initially, when he saw the four guided missiles, he felt that those guided missiles should be able to stop everyone and buy him some time to escape.

However, he didn't expect the Saint Lord to directly detonate the guided missiles in mid-air.

This situation made Fang Qiu look serious.

Now, those people would definitely chase after him desperately.

In addition, the desert giant lizard, which was 30 meters long, was chasing after him. It seemed that it would not be so easy for him to take away the Yuan Yang Fruit safely.

Clatter! Clatter! Clatter!

The desert giant lizard was extremely fast.

As it chased after Fang Qiu, its eyes completely turned blood-red because of anger. After it approached Fang Qiu little by little, the giant lizard suddenly jumped up high in the running. Then, it suddenly opened its mouth, stuck out its slender and flexible tongue, flicked it out, and directly wrapped it around the end of the Yuan Yang Fruit's root in Fang Qiu's hand. Then, the giant lizard paused and pulled hard, trying to stop Fang Qiu.

At this moment, feeling the pulling force coming from behind him, Fang Qiu looked back at the desert giant lizard and then directly activated his internal Qi. A huge force burst out from his hands and forcibly pulled the giant lizard, which had its tongue wrapped around the root of the Yuan Yang Fruit, into the air.

Then, Fang Qiu swung it violently.

An enormous force erupted.

As soon as the desert giant lizard let go of the root, its huge body was immediately thrown far away by Fang Qiu and smashed toward the crowd chasing after Fang Qiu crazily.

After all of this was done, Fang Qiu continued to run wildly.

As he moved forward, he placed the Yuan Yang Fruit on his right hand. Next, he quickly wrapped the root of the fruit around his arm.

The tens of meter-long root completely curled up.

Seeing the desert giant lizard fall, all the people who were chasing after John Doe couldn't help but stop.

The next moment-

Bang!

With a loud bang, the huge body of the desert giant lizard fell from the sky and hit the ground hard. It rolled several times before it stopped.

Fortunately, there was some distance between them, so everyone made way in advance. Otherwise, who could bear such a big force?

After rolling and rolling for a while, the desert giant lizard stood up again, shook its head, roared at Fang Qiu, and chased after him crazily again.

Seeing that John Doe had widened the distance again, the Little Saint Lord was immediately furious. He immediately burst out all his strength to chase after him.

The others were the same, continuing their pursuit.

Chapter 1770 Go After Him

In the distance.

"What?"

"How could this happen?"

“John Doe took the spiritual fruit away?”

The faces of the Autransssian officials who were watching all this from a distance changed when they saw John Doe holding the Yuan Yang Fruit in his hand and fleeing quickly.

In their opinion, all of this should be part of their perfect plan. All those who wanted to snatch the spiritual fruit should be killed by the guided missiles launched by the Autransssians.

To their surprise, although the guided missiles were launched, they didn't hurt anyone. Instead, they indirectly helped John Doe snatch the spiritual fruit.

This had completely gone against the Autransssians' wishes.

They would never allow their spiritual fruit to be taken away by people from other countries no matter what.

“What should we do?” asked the Autransssian spokesperson.

“Go after him.”

Mason's face turned cold, and he said directly, “Take everyone away immediately and ask our men to monitor John Doe at all times. I'm going to catch up with him now and try my best to keep the spiritual fruit. Even if I can't keep it, I must destroy it!”

“Okay.”

The Autransssian spokesperson nodded.

He knew very well that with their strength, even if they chased after John Doe together, it would not be of much use. They would only get themselves killed.

Since they had even launched guided missiles, it was time for them to move to another battlefield.

Going to the military base was more useful than chasing after John Doe.

Swoosh!

After that, Mason moved and immediately burst out all his strength to chase in the direction of John Doe.

Fang Qiu directly increased his speed to the extreme.

He was fleeing frantically in the desert at an extremely fast speed.

However, the aura emitted by the Yuan Yang Fruit in his hand was too strong. Wherever Fang Qiu passed, all the animals in the desert, including lizards, scorpions, giant lizards, and snakes, rioted because of the aura of the Yuan Yang Fruit.

Countless animals that lived in the desert frantically came out of the sand and chased after Fang Qiu who was flying wildly in the air.

Behind him, the Little Saint Lord and the others were also chasing after Fang Qiu desperately.

The Muricans were moving side by side with the Little Saint Lord. It seemed that they were the strongest. They seemed to want to catch up with John Doe and kill him to get the fruit.

Fang Qiu sensed it carefully.

These people were not weak. When they went all out, although they were not as fast as him, they could at least keep up with him. Especially the Little Saint Lord, his strength was terrifying.

Under such a situation, it was obviously impossible to slip away under these people's noses.

“Since I can’t escape from the sky, I’ll go underground.”

Fang Qiu looked down and found that there were all kinds of desert animals. He immediately waved his right hand, and a sword light flew out and slashed directly on the sand in front of him.

As the sword light fell, a huge crack appeared on the sand.

Without any hesitation, Fang Qiu rushed straight in.

Densely packed small animals followed closely behind.

When Fang Qiu got into the crack in the sand, the sand on both sides immediately poured into the crack like water.

The next moment, the sand that surged like water quickly filled up the crack.

However, as soon as Fang Qiu rushed into the ground and separated himself from the sand with his internal Qi, there was a swooshing sound from all directions.

In the sand in all directions, a large number of various desert animals rushed out and rushed toward Fang Qiu as if they had gone mad to attack him.

“Humph.”

Fang Qiu waved his right hand.

He directly loosened the root of the Yuan Yang Fruit wrapped around his arm and then drove his internal Qi into the root. While the animals in all directions were attacking him, he waved his right hand fiercely.

The root of the Yuan Yang Fruit, which had been infused with internal Qi, immediately rushed out. With Fang Qiu as the center, it instantly swept away all the desert animals within a radius of dozens of meters.

After all of this was done, Fang Qiu immediately hid in the sand. He didn't wrap Yuan Yang Fruit's root in his hand around his arm again because the resistance was too great by wrapping it tightly.

On the contrary, it would be easier for him to carry it after he loosened it.

With the whole body's internal Qi running, Fang Qiu soon rushed to the ground dozens of meters away and kept rushing down diagonally.

When Fang Qiu flew in midair, everyone could clearly see his figure and know his track. As long as they didn't exhaust all their energy, they could chase Fang Qiu to death.

However, it was different underground.

Under the barrier of the sand, no one could see Fang Qiu. Even the aura of Fang Qiu's energy was not as obvious as that when he was in the sky.

Therefore, it was undoubtedly the best choice for Fang Qiu to escape underground.

Of course, Fang Qiu wouldn't stop to hide his aura immediately after he was lucky enough to reach a certain depth because he was still holding the Yuan Yang Fruit in his hand.

He could completely hide his aura, but he couldn't hide the aura emitted by the Yuan Yang Fruit.

Therefore, he couldn't stop. He could only run.

"I hope I can find an underground river!"

Fang Qiu prayed silently.

He knew that there were many underground rivers in the desert.

As long as he could find an underground river, it was very likely that he could get away.

After all, no one knew where the underground river connected, and the place where the underground river connected must be in the crust. It was definitely not in the sand.

Inside the crust, there were places similar to caves. Once Fang Qiu arrived at those places, he would have a chance to use the terrain to get away.

Just as Fang Qiu fled dozens of meters underground, the people of various forces led by the Little Saint Lord and Tony immediately went underground without hesitation.

Obviously, they were not as familiar with going underground as Fang Qiu.

However, they were all powerful metahumans, so it was not difficult for them to go underground.

The desert giant lizard, which had been following closely behind, followed everyone and went straight into the ground.

It was an underground creature, and its ability to dig was much better than that of these metahumans. To it, sand was like water to fish.

While quickly diving into the depths of the sand, Fang Qiu directly released his Divine Consciousness and began to explore the surrounding terrain to find the location of the underground river.

As soon as he released his Divine Consciousness, he immediately noticed countless people following him and the huge desert giant lizard. At the same time, he also clearly detected everything within 80 kilometers around him.

“Not a single one?”

During detection, Fang Qiu was dumbfounded.

“There isn’t even a single underground river within eighty kilometers of me?”

It was very simple to use Divine Consciousness to explore the underground river because Divine Consciousness could clearly sense the existence of the Qi of Heaven and Earth.

The sand contained the most earth-type Heaven and Earth energy, and the water contained the most water-type Heaven and Earth energy, undoubtedly.

As long as there was a stream of water-type Heaven and Earth energy, it meant that there was an underground river.

It was a pity that at present, within the range of 80 kilometers was all earth-type Heaven and Earth energy. There was not even a trace of water-type Heaven and Earth energy.

Helplessly, Fang Qiu could only continue to move forward.

While exploring the situation behind him, he kept sensing the energy aura around him.

After advancing for more than ten kilometers, Fang Qiu finally sensed an aura of water-type energy.

It was a very majestic water-type energy that was constantly flowing.

That place must be the underground river.

After confirming the direction, Fang Qiu immediately rushed to the place where the underground river was.

Because it was underground, it took Fang Qiu a lot of time to get to the place where the underground river was located, which was 80 kilometers away. It was a very strange entrance.

When he came to the entrance, Fang Qiu directly got in and rushed into the underground river like a fish.

Because it came from upstream to downstream, the current in this underground river was particularly turbulent.

As soon as Fang Qiu entered, he rushed down along the current as if he was taking a slide.

After rushing for dozens of meters, he gradually slowed down. The current became slower, and the slope was not so high.

Fang Qiu didn't care about that.

He kept moving forward along the current and swam for a very long distance.

It was unknown how far he had advanced.

Just as Fang Qiu was about to find a place to stick his head out and observe the situation around him, his arm suddenly tightened and he immediately stopped.

The root of the Yuan Yang Fruit in his hand was straightened.

It was clear that something was pulling it from the other side.

Fang Qiu's brows furrowed.

Along the way, he didn't observe the situation around the underground river. Because of the darkness in front of him, he didn't know where he had passed.

Now that he thought about it, he found that tens of meters behind him, there seemed to be a space where he had just passed by.

With that in mind, Fang Qiu immediately turned back.

After all, the roots of the Yuan Yang Fruit had been caught. If he didn't go back, he could only forcibly pull it over from the other side.

If he pulled, he would inevitably encounter resistance, which would slow him down, and the people behind him would take the opportunity to catch up with him.

That was what he didn't want to happen.

Therefore, he had to go back and see what was going on. If there was really a space in that place, there might be another way.

Even if he went against the current, it would only take Fang Qiu a few seconds to cover a distance of tens of meters.

He arrived at the place where the Yuan Yang Fruit's root was being pulled.

Fang Qiu immediately popped his head out of the water.

He took a closer look and found that this was indeed an underground cave. It looked very spacious and huge.

Right now, an extremely ugly monster was standing on a rock, using its incomparably ugly mouth to tightly bite the end of the root of the Yuan Yang Fruit.

It was a creature about three to five meters long. It looked like a horse, with bristles on its head and back.

Its limbs looked very strange, like the tentacles of an octopus, but they could support its dog-like body. Its mouth looked very strange, like a big horn. There were fist-sized eyes on its head, which looked particularly scary.

“Is it... a Bunyip?”
