Chapter 1821 National Medical Products Administration's Full Support

"It seems that someone has pulled some strings," said Fang Qiu.

"Alas..."

Mr. Wang sighed bitterly.

He was definitely the top leader of Zhongzhou TV Station, but now the higher-ups were involved. He had no choice but to follow their orders. After all, he still had to consider their opinions.

"It doesn't matter to me."

Seeing Mr. Wang's helpless look, Fang Qiu said indifferently, "Even if I can't be on TV, I can do the show offline. There are things that need to be done, and these things require certain efforts. As long as I have a clear conscience, that's all that matters!"

As soon as Fang Qiu said so, Mr. Wang was stunned.

"There are things that need to be done?"

"These things require certain efforts?"

Those words gave a profound shock to Mr. Wang.

At first, he didn't even understand what Fang Qiu meant, but after thinking about it for a while, he suddenly found that what Fang Qiu said had a profound meaning.

As he was pondering, he fell silent.

In front of the office desk, Fang Qiu sat still without making a sound or disturbance.

He knew that Mr. Wang was pondering at this time. He believed that it would not be long before he made a decision.

A while later-

“That’s okay now.”

After much consideration, Mr. Wang suddenly raised his head. The bitterness on his face had completely disappeared, replaced by a relieved smile. He said, “Forget what I just said. You can continue to do Xiao Fang’s Lecture Room, and the TV station will continue to give you our full support and handle the rest!”

“Thank you.”

Fang Qiu nodded to express his gratitude.

Mr. Wang said with a smile, “There’s no need to thank me. This is our TV station’s own business. After all, I can’t bear to see such a good show come to an end like this.”

After they finished their discussion, Fang Qiu left the TV station and went back to the hotel.

Fang Qiu knew very well that the bosses of those healthcare product promotion companies were behind this. After all, in this world, it seemed that only those in the higher echelons could put pressure on the higher-ups of the TV station.

Of course, those in the higher echelons would not target Fang Qiu’s show directly for no reason. If they wanted to target him, they would have done so from the first episode. Why would they wait until the end of the second episode?

Therefore, those who put pressure on the higher-ups of the TV station must have been bribed.

However, not only the bosses of the healthcare product promotion companies had connections.

Fang Qiu was backed by the National Medical Products Administration.

With the continued popularity of Xiao Fang's Lecture Room in the past few days, people's discussions about health products and Chinese Medicine have also become more and more heated.

Taking this opportunity, some media reporters began interviewing people in the relevant industries.

The media in the capital seized the opportunity to interview the leader of the National Medical Products Administration.

At the gate of the National Medical Products Administration.

A media reporter asked, "Director Xie, do you watch Fang Qiu's new show, Xiao Fang's Lecture Room?"

"I do."

The middle-aged man, who was called Director Xie, nodded with a smile and said, "Fang Qiu has made great contributions to the development of traditional Chinese medicine not only in Huaxia but also in the whole world. It can be said that Chinese Medicine has been made international by Fang Qiu. The National Medical Products Administration has a certain connection with traditional Chinese medicine. Since Fang Qiu's show has been broadcast, we naturally have to watch it."

"So, what do you think of Fang Qiu's show? Do you agree with what he says in the show?"

The reporter asked more questions.

"Of course, I agree with what he says."

Director Xie immediately laughed and said, “Let’s put aside the fact that all the figures that Fang Qiu said in the show can be verified. With his identity as a divine Chinese Medicine doctor, we can be sure that what he says is absolutely right. If there’s something wrong with his statement, the National Medical Products Administration would definitely correct it and refute it at the first possible moment, but that hasn’t happened yet.”

“Do you mean that what Fang Qiu says in the show is all right and that the show is amazing?”

The reporter continued to raise questions.

“Undoubtedly.”

Director Xie nodded matter-of-factly and said, “Fang Qiu is the best Chinese Medicine doctor in the world, and his understanding of medicine is also top-notch. His show is wonderful. From the online reaction, we can see that everyone likes this show very much, and so do I!”

...

Soon, this interview spread.

On the Internet, countless netizens liked it crazily.

Not only Fang Qiu’s fans but also those neutral netizens gave likes and supported Fang Qiu one after another.

For the vast majority of people, as long as it was good for the people, it was worthy of their support.

Fang Qiu’s show was undoubtedly very beneficial to the whole country, and it was reasonable for him to get everyone’s support.

However, unlike the general public, the bosses of the healthcare product promotion companies were dumbfounded when they saw this interview video.

“What does it mean?

“At this critical moment, the director of the National Medical Products Administration is actually praising Fang Qiu openly?

“What does this mean?”

The more they thought about it, the uneasier they got.

They were terrified.

After all, health products were also regulated by the National Medical Products Administration.

Moreover, almost all health products had to be put on record by the administration before they were on the market.

Now, the director of the National Medical Products Administration took the initiative to support Fang Qiu. Would the next step be to start a strict investigation of health products?

The bosses of the healthcare product promotion companies immediately panicked.

If that was the case, they would be completely doomed.

Fang Qiu’s show would make them lose their customers, but if the National Medical Products Administration was involved, these healthcare product promotion companies would face not only bankruptcy but even serious lawsuits.

In a state of panic, the leaders of the healthcare product promotion companies were frantically looking for all kinds of connections to inquire about what the National Medical Products Administration planned to do.

However, before they could pull some strings, there was a TV report.

“Today, the National Medical Products Administration has officially issued an order to conduct a thorough investigation and attack on all kinds of health products with unrealistic effects on the market at present, as well as all kinds of violation of the rules!”

As soon as the news was released, all netizens immediately cheered.

Everyone immediately thought of Fang Qiu and Xiao Fang’s Lecture Room.

Although there had already been an investigation targeting Yangjian Health Products Company previously, only the products of this company were investigated.

However, Yangjian Health Products Company was not the only company that sold fake health products.

Everyone knew that not only that company but also many others conducted false advertising.

Because those health product companies had not been exposed or punished by the authorities, they kept promoting their fake products.

With the outbreak of the Yangjian Health Products Company incident, the confidence of the masses in health products had completely disappeared, and they were full of worry.

Everyone was very eager to see the health products market be regulated, where they could rest assured to buy the health products that truly worked.

At that time, Xiao Fang’s Lecture Room was aired.

Xiao Fang's Lecture Room was in line with what the masses needed, so it attracted so much attention since it was aired.

Now, the National Medical Products Administration finally took action.

Wasn't this what the masses needed the most?

In everyone's opinion, the reason why the National Medical Products Administration took action was that the super popularity of Xiao Fang's Lecture Room had attracted the administration's attention.

Therefore, many netizens left comments and cheered for Fang Qiu on Weibo.

"The National Medical Products Administration has taken action."

"Fang Qiu is awesome. Take all these fake health products down!"

"That's how it should be. Let these guys who make fake health products go to jail!"

"They've made such a big scene. If the National Medical Products Administration doesn't take any action, I'll suspect that there's something wrong with them."

"This is a great thing worth celebrating. I hope the National Medical Products Administration can conduct a strict inspection. We must get rid of all the fake health products in one fell swoop!"

The netizens were very excited.

After watching two episodes of Fang Qiu's show, many people who had been scammed by health product promotion now hated fake health products very much.

After watching Fang Qiu's show, people also thought that those fake health products were so terrible that they could even kill people so that people didn't even dare to buy them.

On the other side.

As the order of the National Medical Products Administration was issued, the whole health product industry was on tenterhooks.

Some regular healthcare product companies were still operating and selling, not worried about the strict investigation of the National Medical Products Administration at all.

On the other hand, those companies that had made illegal health products and fake advertisements were all panicked and scared. If they were found to be selling one or two kinds of illegal health products, they would be fined and banned from selling those products at most.

The companies with nothing but non-compliant health products and fake advertisements were truly panicked.

Once these companies were investigated, they would only be closed down, and the higher-ups might even go to jail.

Originally, those healthcare product promotion companies that violated the rules were ready to deal with Fang Qiu, but unexpectedly, as soon as they made a move, they were in big trouble.

They were completely unable to resist this sort of trouble.

The only way to solve this trouble was bribery. But they were now dealing with the National Medical Products Administration, so how could they conduct bribery?

When the whole health product industry was on tenterhooks, Fang Qiu began to fight back.

After leaving the TV station, Fang Qiu carefully thought about the health products he introduced on TV. "It seems that I still haven't made these healthcare product promotion companies suffer enough.

"How dare they use their connections to deal with me?

"Since they dare to do that, I'll make them know what it means to get what they deserve!"

Chapter 1822 Fang Qiu Fights Back

Back at the hotel, Fang Qiu used the computer in the hotel room to check the domestic top law firms on the Internet and then called them one by one.

Fang Qiu found the ones he needed by comparing information online.

Almost in every law firm, there were talents that Fang Qiu needed.

When it came to the matter of health products, Fang Qiu spent some money to sign contracts with all the major law firms and formed a powerful legal team.

This legal team almost included the best lawyers in the country.

Of course, the talents of the major law firms also knew what Fang Qiu was doing, so when Fang Qiu reached them, they knew what Fang Qiu meant.

When they were invited by Fang Qiu to join his crew, most of them agreed directly without even negotiating the commissions.

Although they were all top lawyers in the country, they were only famous among lawyers. Ordinary people didn't know who these lawyers were and what they did at all.

As a result, although those top lawyers were very famous in their industry, almost all the jobs they received were recommended by their peers.

The only way to resolve this situation was to expand their popularity.

However, why would ordinary people pay attention to a lawyer?

People would only learn about the profession of a lawyer when they needed it.

Therefore, there was a very limited way for lawyers to expand their popularity.

But working for Fang Qiu this time was a different situation.

Those top lawyers not only do a good job for the general public but also strengthen their reputation by working for Fang Qiu.

Of course, they didn't want to miss such a great opportunity to kill two birds with one stone.

Therefore, when Fang Qiu called them, they didn't even think about it before agreeing.

With a verbal agreement, the legal team of Fang Qiu had taken shape.

After calling those lawyers, Fang Qiu dialed He Xue's number.

"Hello?"

He Xue answered the phone in no time.

Fang Qiu said, "It's me."

“Aren’t you on a show? Do you have time to call me?” He Xue asked with a smile.

“There’s something I need your help with.”

“I knew you called me for something.”

He Xue smiled and said, “Tell me, what can I do for you? I’m off work these days. I won’t have time after my break.”

Fang Qiu said, “I just contacted all the major law firms in the country and made verbal agreements with some of the top lawyers. I’m going to set up a legal team.”

“Are you serious?”

He Xue was stunned for a moment and then said with a wry smile, “I thought you were just doing this lecture show to have fun and intimidate those who make fake health products. But now it seems that you’ve begun to take it seriously.”

Fang Qiu sighed softly and said, “Well, the show can’t intimidate them, so I can only use some real means.”

“Okay.”

He Xue nodded with understanding and said, “Tell me, what do I need to do?”

“I’ll send you all the contact information of the lawyers I contacted later. Some of them are now in the capital, and some are rushing over. I need you to take over and meet these people, and then sign a contract with each of them to establish a legal team.”

Speaking of this, Fang Qiu suddenly thought of his own group, which didn’t seem to have a legal team yet. He immediately added, “If you find some of them capable, you can sign a long-term contract with those lawyers. You'll make the call. After my business is done, they can continue to cooperate with Renyi Group."

"No problem."

He Xue immediately nodded.

Originally, Fang Qiu had thought about setting up a legal team for Renyi Group a long time ago, but every time there was a problem with the group, it was solved by Fang Qiu himself. Moreover, the Renyi Group had the support of the higher-ups, and even the cultivation base was placed in a military-restricted zone.

In this case, why would the group need a legal team?

Therefore, He Xue did not go to get a legal team.

But now it seemed that it was not a bad idea to take this opportunity to set up a legal team.

At least in the future, when there was something wrong with the companies under the group's command, they didn't need to hurry to hire some lawyers.

Fang Qiu instructed, "Give me the contact information of the legal team as soon as possible."

"Okay," He Xue replied. She then hung up the phone and flew straight to the capital to deal with the legal team's business.

As for Fang Qiu, he stayed in his room in the hotel and began to look for the health products he would focus on introducing in the third episode, preparing for the start of the third episode.

Four hours later.

Beep! Beep! Beep!

Fang Qiu heard his phone suddenly ring.

He Xue was calling.

“Hello?”

Fang Qiu answered the call.

He Xue said, “I have already sent you the contact information of the legal team. At present, I am discussing with these lawyers the formation of the team, and I believe that after the team is finally formed, there should not be too many changes in the current staffing.”

“Great.”

With a nod, Fang Qiu ended the call.

Then, Fang Qiu checked the contact information of the legal team sent by He Xue, then directly logged into Weibo with his mobile phone and quickly posted a brand new post.

“Today, I set up a legal team. This newly established legal team will be responsible for all the victims of health product promotion. As long as you’re a victim of this scam, feel free to dial this number...”

After this post was sent, it immediately attracted likes from countless netizens.

“A legal team? Master Fang Qiu is so thoughtful!”

“He’s avenging those who have been wronged.”

“Brothers and sisters who have been scammed by health product promotion, hurry up and make the call.”

“Master Fang Qiu really does everything for the country and the people!”

“Setting up a legal team is such a great move. He’s offering another option for those who have been scammed by health product promotion but have no way to seek justice!”

“Is this charity?”

“Fang Qiu is still the same generous man who does the Three Billion Foundation!”

On the Internet, netizens were talking about it.

Everyone was very supportive of what Fang Qiu did and cheered for him one after another.

After all, now in Huaxia, the high-level people didn’t need to hire lawyers at all, because very few people would mess with them. Even if they did get in trouble, they were willing to spend money to solve it.

As for the ordinary people at the middle and lower levels, they couldn’t afford to hire a lawyer at all. Even if they tried their best to hire one, they wouldn’t get a famous nice lawyer.

Therefore, lawyers served the middle and upper classes mostly.

It was simply because no ordinary people could afford to hire a good lawyer.

And the legal team set up by Fang Qiu this time undoubtedly helped the public and perfectly solved the whole problem.

Everyone on the Internet was praising Fang Qiu crazily.

However, after seeing Fang Qiu's Weibo post, the bosses of the healthcare product promotion companies felt even more troubled.

They had been severely struck by the National Medical Products Administration before.

And now Fang Qiu has a legal team.

Wasn't Fang Qiu taking revenge too quickly and ruthlessly?

This was a double blow to those bosses.

Once they were sued by Fang Qiu's legal team and strictly investigated by the National Medical Products Administration, they would be doomed.

The leaders of these healthcare product promotion companies all panicked.

If Fang Qiu was targeting them alone, they could still deal with him.

After all, there were so many healthcare product promotion companies. If they worked together, they could deal with him. But things became troublesome for them after Fang Qiu hired a legal team to stand up for others.

The next night.

Fang Qiu had the main contact information of the legal team, its email address.

It had been a day since his post was sent.

Fang Qiu took the initiative to log into the mailbox to see if the legal team had received any emails.

Unexpectedly, when Fang Qiu logged into the mailbox, he found that it was filled with all kinds of emails.

“Alas, there are so many people who have been scammed.”

Fang Qiu secretly sighed with emotion.

If he didn't hold this show and set up a legal team, more and more people would be scammed by those healthcare product promotion companies.

Fang Qiu also hoped from the bottom of his heart that this time, he could completely solve this problem so that no one would be bewitched and scammed by fake health products ever again.

After closing the mailbox, Fang Qiu logged into Weibo.

As soon as he logged in, he saw a private message.

Previously, many people sent private messages to Fang Qiu, but he almost never replied. Gradually, no one sent private messages to him. Everyone was used to leaving comments under his new posts, so Fang Qiu might reply to them.

In addition, it hadn't been long since he last logged into Weibo, so this private message was particularly obvious this time.

Clicking on the private message, Fang Qiu found that it was an effusive article.

Fang Qiu read it carefully from the beginning.

After reading it, he sighed with emotion.

Then, he copied it directly on his mobile phone and sent it to the computer. Then, he borrowed a printer from the hotel and printed this private message.

Soon, it was Sunday again.

The third episode of Xiao Fang's Lecture Room was not affected at all. At eight o'clock in the evening, it officially aired.

Countless people were waiting for it in front of the TV.

This episode was quite special.

The host of the opening was not Liu Qingshi.

The TV station was afraid that Liu Qingshi, the top TV worker, would be affected, so they temporarily removed Liu Qingshi from the host seat and let Fang Qiu do the opening himself.

"Hello, everyone. Welcome to Xiao Fang's Lecture Room.

"I'm Fang Qiu."

At the beginning of the show, Fang Qiu appeared on the camera. After saying those words, he added, "First of all, I need to thank Mr. Liu Qingshi for doing the opening of the previous two episodes. Because of the conflicts in his schedule, I will take over as the host for the following episodes.

"Today is the third episode of Xiao Fang's Lecture Room.

“It will be different from the previous two episodes. In today’s episode, I want to read a letter to you first.

“This letter was sent by a netizen via Weibo private message. I’ve printed it and hope you can listen to the contents of this letter with me.”

Chapter 1823 No More Covering

“Hello, Fang Qiu.

“I was scammed by healthcare product promotion. I have no way to complain for many years. I’m very grateful to you for giving me such an opportunity now. No matter whether those healthcare product promotion companies will be punished or not in the end, I have to vent all the resentment in my heart. I hope there will be a chance to let others know that healthcare product promotion is enough to destroy people!”

Fang Qiu began to read the letter.

In front of the TVs, computers, and mobile phones, countless viewers began to listen carefully.

“My father, who was only 54 years old when he died, was a farmer. He was honest when he was alive and never had any disputes with anyone. After he first ate the aloe vera mineral crystals produced by a company called Dongmei Healthcare Product Company, in less than half an hour, he suddenly foamed at the mouth, had convulsions of the limbs and neck, and had difficulty in breathing, among other symptoms.

“At that time, I immediately dialed the emergency number and sent my father to the People’s Hospital, but he died before he could get on the operating table.

“More than a year has passed, but Dongmei Company has no explanation for this matter!

“In the past year, my family held the simplest and kindest wish and thought that Dongmei Company would give us an explanation. Who would have thought that a branch of this company would threaten me and my family through media and other despicable means? Not only did they not compensate for my father’s death, but they also caused countless harm to my family.

“Now I’ve told you everything. Fang Qiu, I hope you can seek justice for me and let the public know what this company has done!”

At this point, Fang Qiu frowned and took a gentle breath. After getting ready, he continued reading the letter. “On January 27th of last year, my mother went to a clinic to get medicine for my father because he had a mild case of Parkinson’s Syndrome. The director of the clinic told my mother that there was a medicine that was very effective, that he was taking it himself, that he used to have blood in his stools, and that it was gone after he took this medicine.

“The director of the clinic also said that there was a local old man in his 70s who also had Parkinson’s Syndrome. After taking this medicine, he could even write with a brush.

“When my mother heard this, she was a little excited and asked him if it was true. The director’s answer was affirmative. He said that he had only purchased three boxes. He ate two boxes himself, and there was still one box left. He asked my mother if she wanted it.

“After my mother’s inquiry, the box of medicine cost 458 Huaxia coins.

“At that time, my mother said that she didn’t have that much money and only brought 50 Huaxia coins with her. The director of the clinic said that it didn’t matter and that she could pay when her son came back from work.

“Because there was only one month left before the festival, my mother spent 50 Huaxia coins on that set of Dongmei health products. She also got instructions from the clinic director that the patient should take the nutritional meal and high-fiber medicine first followed by the Dongmei mineral crystals.

“The day before the incident, on February 3rd last year, the director of the clinic went to my home to buy pork for the festival. My father was the one who slaughtered the pig and delivered the pork to him personally.

“On the day of the accident on February 4th, my father picked up manure to fertilize the land as usual.

“In order to cure Parkinson’s Syndrome as soon as possible, my father followed the director’s instructions and ate high-fiber medicine and a nutritious meal first. After dinner, my father began to make aloe vera mineral crystal potion. The first time he made a third of it, he went to bed at about 8:30. At about 9 o’clock, my mother heard a noise in the kitchen. She ran over and found that my father suddenly foamed at the mouth, had convulsions of the limbs and neck, and had difficulty in breathing, among other symptoms. He was already in a coma.

“My mother called my sister-in-law over right away. After discovering my father’s condition, my sister-in-law called the medical team of our village and the director of the clinic.

“After the director came, he gave my father a few minutes of massage and drew some blood from my father’s injury with a syringe.

“After the first aid, my father’s spasms eased, but they returned to normal in a few minutes. The director told us to call the ambulance as soon as possible.

“About half an hour later, the ambulance arrived. My father was sent to the People’s Hospital for emergency treatment, but before the doctors could perform resuscitation, he died.”

As Fang Qiu read the letter, he kept frowning.

In front of the TV screen, all the viewers who were watching the show couldn’t help frowning, and their faces were very serious.

“The day after the incident, on February 5th last year, the director of the clinic called the medical staff of Dongmei Company to come to my house. However, after the medical staff arrived, they didn’t show any sympathy. Instead, they said that their company sold omnipotent health products, which couldn’t be poisonous, let alone poison people to death. They even asked us to go to the hospital to get a death certificate. They didn’t offer any solution at all!

“My family was very angry, but we had no evidence. We immediately went to the Municipal Public Security Bureau to report the case and ask the forensic laboratory to conduct a medical evaluation for my father. The next day, the forensic laboratory came to my house to decapitate my father and identify the cause of death.

“We refused to have my father’s body cremated in such a hurry because we were afraid that there would be no proof of his death. At that time, the forensic doctor told us that it might take a month to get the appraisal results. He asked us to trust him, that we shouldn’t be impulsive or do stupid things, and that we should believe in government law and medicine. He said that no matter what the reason was, they would give us a conclusion by then.

“Since then, our family had a tough time. My mother was in tears every day, looking forward to the appraisal results.

“However, the forensic doctor said that this situation was rather complicated. He said that my father died not because of his own reasons and the drugs, so we still needed to go to the medical research institute for further testing. We still needed to wait.

“It wasn’t until April 6th last year that we finally got the appraisal results of the forensic laboratory. The first conclusion was that the deceased had taken aloe vera mineral crystals. About half an hour later, he foamed at the mouth, had convulsions of the limbs and neck, and had difficulty breathing before he died.

“The second conclusion was that the deceased died as a result of a strong systemic allergic reaction, also known as anaphylaxis, caused by an external antigenic substance entering the organism for a short period through the immune mechanism, resulting in sudden death.

“The forensic doctor said that all kinds of substances in nature can cause allergies in the organism, and in severe cases can lead to anaphylactic shock causing sudden death. The first time my father took Dongmei Company’s aloe vera mineral crystals, he suffered from foaming at the mouth, convulsions of the limbs, and coma, while the instruction manual of that product labeled the main ingredients as rapeseed pollen, aloe vera, and royal jelly powder.

“The forensic doctor ruled out death by mechanical injury and death by poisoning.

“As for the people from Dongmei Company, after meeting the heads of the Health Bureau, the National Medical Products Administration, and so on, they have never paid a visit to my family members. So far, they have not given us an explanation.

“What’s even more shameless is that in order to prevent us from reporting the situation everywhere, this foreign company even sent a lawyer’s letter to threaten me and my family. When they saw that it didn’t work, they even took the police of other regions to threaten us and did not allow us to slander them.

“My 86-year-old grandmother is really poor. She was grieved over the loss of her only son and was frightened. She passed away with hatred in June last year.

“After my father and grandmother passed away, our whole family buried them under debt and pressure. My mother is in a trance every day and can’t do anything. I also have a brother who needs special help. I work in another city, and all my income is sent to my family to support them. I haven’t gotten married yet at the age of 30!

“According to the information I have, Dongmei Company is a healthcare product promotion company that conducts pyramid schemes. Moreover, its products are being sold all over the country, causing many families to break apart.

“This company killed people, but no department has ever investigated it. It’s unbelievable!

“At the beginning of last year, a shocking list of deaths has been spread all over Huaxia. More than 20 people have been killed, and more than 30 have been injured and disabled. The ones behind this list of deaths are not the most vicious criminals, but this kind of health product is under Dongmei Company.

“In March last year, an authoritative magazine under the Xinhua News Agency reported on Dongmei Company’s health products causing death and disability under the title of ‘Dongmei Health Products Causing Death and Disability’.

“Dr. Fang Qiu, I’m telling the truth, but I know that my personal strength is limited. I hope you can uphold justice for our family. I’ll never forget your kindness!”

Finally, Fang Qiu finished reading the letter.

Looking at the livestream camera, he let out a long sigh and slowly put the printed private message on the table.

He was silent.

About a minute later, Fang Qiu, who had been staring at the livestream camera, asked angrily, “To those bosses who make dirty money – how can you live with yourselves? Do you feel great with the dirty money you earned?”

When he finished speaking, all the viewers who were watching the show were touched.

Even the bosses of healthcare product promotion companies who had always hated Fang Qiu were silent.

At the TV station.

The leaders knew that they had done the right thing.

This show was something that they had to do. This was a great thing that could save lives and families.

“I have a request.”

After a short silence, Fang Qiu turned to the director who was doing the livestream and said, “From today on, I hope the TV station won’t cover the brand names any longer, and the brands of these supplements won’t need to be labeled with white tape. Any viewers who think this may be inappropriate can come to me directly. I’ll respond if you want to sue me. This has nothing to do with the TV station. All major companies are welcome to sue me!”

Right after Fang Qiu said so, everyone couldn’t help clenching their fists.

They all clearly heard what Fang Qiu said, and they were all cheering for him.

“That’s how it should be.

“It’s only right to show the brand names of these harmful products so that more people can see them and no longer be deceived!”

After saying those words, Fang Qiu directly picked up the health products on the table, tore off the white tape on them one by one, and showed all the brands of these health products in front of the camera.

Chapter 1824 The End of Xiao Fang’s Lecture Room

After tearing off the white tape on the health products, Fang Qiu directly showed the brands of these products to the camera without any scruples.

Then, he continued with the show.

Just like in the first and second episodes, Fang Qiu roasted all kinds of health products that had been prepared in advance. The only difference was that in this episode, Fang Qiu was not as obscure as before. Instead, he exposed everything about those products, including all the false publicity as he introduced the products to the public.

Although the third episode was not as peaceful and funny as the first and second episodes, Fang Qiu’s letter at the beginning of the show touched everyone, so Fang Qiu was very agitated and the audience listened attentively.

Those healthcare product promotion companies that were shameless and harmful to the people, and harboring evil intentions deserved to be stuck to the moral shame pillar forever and despised by everyone.

As Fang Qiu began to openly roast those companies on TV, the ratings of the third episode of Xiao Fang’s Lecture Room were also soaring.

The ratings of the third episode exceeded 5% after the highest ratings, 4.5%, of the second episode.

When the show was over, the news that the ratings exceeded 5% soon spread throughout Zhongzhou TV Station.

At this moment, Mr. Wang, the head of Zhongzhou TV Station, was in his office, frowning and thinking about how to explain it to the higher-ups.

After all, the person he couldn't afford to offend personally called him and clearly asked him to take down the show first.

Over the past few days, he had been thinking about how to explain it to those higher-ups.

He had promised Fang Qiu that he would never stop Xiao Fang's Lecture Room from airing.

But now, a week had passed, and it was time for Xiao Fang's Lecture Room to broadcast again. The person who called him personally was watching.

The show was broadcast normally, so the one who had called him would definitely be displeased.

"What should I do to deal with it?"

Because of this problem, Mr. Wang didn't even pay attention to the ratings of the third episode of Xiao Fang's Lecture Room. Instead, he had been sitting in the office and waiting for the blame call from the higher-ups.

It was obviously impossible for him to take the initiative to call the higher-ups to solve this matter. He could only wait for punishment.

Strangely, he waited until the end of the show, but the phone on his desk did not ring. But even so, he did not dare to be careless. He continued to stay in front of the desk and wait for the call.

At this moment-

“Knock, knock, knock...”

There was a knock on the door.

The head of the TV station tightened his body and immediately asked, “Who is it?”

“Mr. Wang, it’s me.”

Outside the door, a familiar voice came. The one who had arrived said, “There’s good news.”

As the staff member spoke, he pushed the door open and came in.

He didn’t care about the worried look on Mr. Wang’s face at all. Instead, he ran over excitedly and said, “5%. The ratings of the third episode have exceeded 5%!”

“Got it.”

Mr. Wang, who was annoyed, raised his eyebrows, waved his hand, and asked the staff member to leave.

The staff member took a look and found that Mr. Wang didn’t seem to be as passionate as he was in the past two weeks.

“There seems to be something wrong with him.”

Not daring to disturb Mr. Wang, the staff member quickly turned around and left.

But when he reached the door-

“5%. 5%...”

Mr. Wang, who was sitting in front of the desk, suddenly came to his senses. Then, he stood up and said, “What did you say? Say it again!”

The staff member turned around and said, “The ratings of the third episode of Xiao Fang’s Lecture Room have exceeded 5%!”

“The show is over?”

The top leader of the TV station was confused.

“It’s been ten minutes since it was over.”

The staff was stunned.

“In the first two episodes, Mr. Wang paid the most attention to this show. Every time, he seized the right time to greet Fang Qiu and took the initiative to invite everyone to a dinner to celebrate. But today, it seems that something’s wrong with him.”

“Ten minutes?”

The head of the TV station looked at the telephone on the desk. He then immediately bypassed the desk, rushed to the door of the office, and looked out.

He heard cheers everywhere in the whole building.

Apparently, everyone was cheering for the rise of the ratings.

“Is it really over 5%?”

Mr. Wang grabbed the shoulder of the staff beside him. The sadness on his face gradually disappeared and was replaced by excitement.

“Yes, really!”

The staff immediately nodded with a smile and said, “The ratings of this episode are higher than this year’s Young Chinese Medicine Doctor!”

“5%!”

Mr. Wang laughed excitedly.

He knew that more than ten minutes had passed since the show was over, but the higher-ups had not called yet, so probably, no one would hold him accountable. Moreover, the ratings were definitely the best at the moment.

Even the higher-ups found it difficult to overlook this kind of achievement.

That was to say, it was very likely that the higher-ups were also shocked by this rating.

“Send me the recording of this episode. I want to watch it now.”

Mr. Wang gave an order and then couldn’t wait to go back to his desk and sit down. After receiving the recording, he immediately clicked on it to watch it.

As soon as he started watching, his expression changed.

He figured out why the ratings were so high.

It was because Fang Qiu got serious in this episode.

If this went on, the ratings would definitely be higher.

There were three more episodes to go.

After watching this episode, Mr. Wang decided that no matter whether the higher-ups would continue to target this show or not, even if he had to risk his current position, he must keep this show going. He must let more audience see this show and assist Fang Qiu to make more people realize the scam and harm of healthcare product promotion.

In the following week, the legal team set up by Fang Qiu began to take action, helping many people who were incapable but were scammed by healthcare product promotion to seek justice.

All the major healthcare product promotion companies were also deeply troubled by this legal team.

However, this group of people was still discussing how to deal with Fang Qiu and completely solve this problem.

Unfortunately, before they could come to a conclusion, the National Medical Products Administration had already taken action, and health products all over the country had been strictly cracked down.

In the blink of an eye, the businessmen who had been deeply troubled by Fang Qiu's legal team were even more embarrassed by the severe striking. They hid everywhere, looking for various ways to get through this period of severe striking.

Therefore, their plan to target Fang Qiu was set aside.

The whole country was in turmoil.

However, Fang Qiu didn't care about any of the ongoing events.

He continued to prepare for his show.

In the blink of an eye, another week passed.

The fourth episode officially began.

Because of the effort of the third episode, the whole show received a lot of discussion and attention from netizens.

The fourth episode received more viewers.

Fang Qiu still openly targeted the major healthcare products without covering the brand names on the show.

Whether it was the original audience or the new ones who were affected by the third episode, after seeing the performance of Fang Qiu on the show, they all applauded.

On the Internet.

Under the siege of the netizens, those companies that conducted healthcare product promotion were exposed and targeted by everyone.

At the same time, the ratings of the fourth episode of Xiao Fang's Lecture Room had also reached 5.6%.

This rating caused a huge sensation all over the country.

No one could expect that after the record made by the third episode, the ratings of the fourth episode could be even higher.

The leaders of Zhongzhou TV Station were very excited.

The higher-ups never called again, as if the previous request to take down Xiao Fang's Lecture Room had never happened.

Of course, those healthcare product promotion companies didn't have time to pay attention to the show at all.

A week later, the fifth episode was on air.

The ratings increased slightly, and the highest ratings reached 5.8%, which was unprecedented.

Although the rise in the ratings for this episode was not high, this kind of achievement was enough to make everyone at the TV station excited.

After all, this was record-breaking.

At the end of the fifth episode, there was only one episode left.

Not just the members of the TV station but also countless netizens were very expectant. They were very eager to see if the last episode of Xiao Fang's Lecture Room would break the record again and have ratings of 6%.

Under the expectation of everyone, the sixth episode of Xiao Fang's Lecture Room was aired smoothly without any hindrance.

With the support of the public, including all Fang Qiu's fans and the netizens who supported him, the ratings for the last episode of the show successfully exceeded 6% and reached 6.2%.

“At last, I want to thank the leaders of Zhongzhou TV Station for giving me a free hand and such a good platform. Secondly, I want to thank all the viewers and thank you for your support. It is your support that allows more people to watch this show and realize the harm of healthcare product promotion.”

At the end of the sixth episode, Fang Qiu stood in front of the livestream camera and made a speech.

“Thank you, everyone. At the same time, I also want to give those healthcare product promotion companies a special warning. Although this is the last episode of the show, the end of the show doesn’t mean that this matter is over. If there are more scams, I WILL be back!”

His words were met with cheers from the crowd.

With the applause of the netizens online, Xiao Fang’s Lecture Room officially came to an end.

Early the next morning.

A bombshell showed that the bosses of several notorious healthcare product promotion companies had been arrested, and some other healthcare product companies suspected of violating the rules and false advertisements had also been closed down.

The news made everyone in the country clap and cheer.

“I’ve done a good deed.”

Seeing the news, Fang Qiu also sighed with a smile and began to pack up his luggage, ready to leave the capital.

But at that moment, his phone rang.

Chapter 1825 Invitation from the Sword Sect

Beep! Beep! Beep!

As soon as Fang Qiu put away his backpack, the phone in his trouser pocket rang.

He took out his phone and saw that it was a call from an unknown number.

Moreover, the caller had dialed not Fang Qiu's but John Doe's number.

"Who could it be?"

Fang Qiu was stunned.

The phone number of John Doe was completely confidential. Except for Li Ji and some of his friends in Wulin, no one else knew this phone number.

Why was there an unknown number calling at this time?

"Hello?"

Fang Qiu picked up the phone and spoke in the way that John Doe spoke.

"Is this John Doe?"

A familiar voice came from the other end of the line.

"Yes."

Fang Qiu nodded.

“Haha.”

The person on the other end of the line laughed and said, “What’s wrong? Can’t you recognize my voice?”

“Wei Jian?”

Fang Qiu thought for a moment and then laughed.

“Brother John Doe, it’s been a while! Where have you been? If I hadn’t shamelessly come to your mountain gate to ask for your phone number, I’m afraid I wouldn’t have been able to reach you,” said Wei Jian with a laugh.

“I’m doing secluded cultivation abroad.”

Fang Qiu replied, “Brother Wei, what can I do for you?”

“It’s not an urgent matter.”

Wei Jian smiled and said, “A disciple of our Sword Sect invited you before, but you have never come to our sect. Recently, the higher-ups have thought of this matter, and you have made great contributions to the country, so they want to invite you to our sect!

“Because you and I have cooperated before, I’m the one who’s taking this heavy responsibility.”

At this point, Wei Jian paused for a moment. Without waiting for a definite answer from Fang Qiu, he said directly, “Please accept my invitation. If you don’t come over, I’ll be embarrassed.”

Hearing this, Fang Qiu immediately laughed and said, “I’m going back to Beijiang. I should arrive tomorrow. I’ll go to you as soon as I get back to the relic.”

“Okay. It’s a deal then. I’ll wait for you in the relic.”

Wei Jian immediately nodded in response.

After hanging up, he put away his phone with a satisfied smile.

Because he had cooperated with Fang Qiu twice, he had a certain understanding of Fang Qiu’s temperament. He knew that Fang Qiu was not the kind of person who sought power, but a relatively carefree person.

Even if the Sword Sect was a top metahuman force in Huaxia, if Fang Qiu didn’t want to go over, he wouldn’t do it even if the state gave an order.

Moreover, the government would not issue such an order.

Therefore, when Wei Jian called Fang Qiu, he was very worried that he would be rejected by Fang Qiu, which would make him embarrassed.

Fortunately, Fang Qiu agreed.

In fact, Fang Qiu had always been very curious about the Sword Sect. He had always wanted to go there to learn about the strongest metahuman force in Huaxia.

He never got to do so previously.

Now, it was just the right time.

After packing his luggage, Fang Qiu left the hotel directly, came to the capital airport, and got on the plane to Beijiāng.

On the way, Fang Qiu called He Xue.

When he arrived at the airport, a staff member of the cultivation base came to the airport to pick him up because He Xue was busy working in the capital.

Back at the cultivation base, Fang Qiu went to see his parents first.

They didn't blame Fang Qiu because Fang Qiu had disappeared for such a long time. Instead, they kept praising him. In particular, they were very satisfied with the show Xiao Fang's Lecture Room.

Later, Fang Qiu met Jiang Miaoyu and invited her to have dinner with his family.

After dinner, Fang Qiu dealt with the affairs in the cultivation base.

Then, he left the cultivation base directly and came to the desert. After he disguised as John Doe once again, he rushed all the way back to the Laozi Relic.

As the Wulin people entered on a large scale, the Laozi Relic became more and more lively.

Back in the Laozi Relic, Fang Qiu went straight to the top of the clouds, where the Sword Sect's territory was located.

Fang Qiu said to the gatekeeper of the Sword Sect, "Please inform Wei Jian that I'm here."

The gatekeeper of the Sword Sect seemed to be frightened by John Doe's sudden appearance.

After being stunned for a while, he said, "Martial Uncle Wei Jian has been waiting for you for a long time, senior. I'll take you in now."

"Great."

Fang Qiu nodded with a smile.

This gatekeeper was very young. It seemed that he had just joined the Sword Sect. His strength was only at the middle stage of the eighth class.

Look at this young gatekeeper, Fang Qiu sighed with emotion in his heart.

He didn't expect that in the blink of an eye, he had become a senior of the new generation of Wulin.

It had only been three years.

In fact, he should have been in the same generation as the gatekeeper.

"Alas..."

Thinking of this, Fang Qiu shook his head and sighed.

He felt as if he was only 20 years old, but he was called uncle by a 17- or 18-year-old person, which was really uncomfortable.

"Brother John Doe, why are you sighing?"

The voice of Wei Jian rang out.

Fang Qiu looked up and saw that Wei Jian had come out of the built pavilion of the Sword Sect to welcome him.

"Brother Wei."

Fang Qiu made a hold fist salute to Wei Jian.

“Haha, you’re indeed a man of his word.”

Wei Jian also gave a hold-fist salute in return and said, “You just came back from a tiring trip. Would you like to have a rest first?”

“No, thanks.”

Fang Qiu reached out to grab Wei Jian’s shoulder and said, “Do you need to give some instructions to your disciples?”

“There’s no need for doing that. We’ll just be making a small trip,” said Wei Jian with a smile.

“Then let’s go.”

After running his power a bit, Fang Qiu disappeared from where he was with Wei Jian and instantly appeared in the desert 100 meters away from the entrance of the relic.

Because Wei Jian had already known that Fang Qiu had this ability, he was not surprised.

“Where are we going?” Fang Qiu asked.

He didn’t know where the Sword Sect was, and it was inappropriate to ask about it in detail, so he could only ask this question.

“Shaan Gan Province.”

Wei Jian said, “The plane is ready. As long as we arrive at the airport, we can set off at any time.”

The two of them immediately rushed to Beijiang Airport.

The Sword Sect was powerful and important after all.

The higher-ups had sent over a private plane.

After arriving at the airport, Wei Jian and Fang Qiu got on a private plane and rushed all the way to Shaan Gan Province.

Soon, they arrived at their destination.

Wei Jian led Fang Qiu straight into a car that had been prepared outside the airport in advance and soon arrived at Mount Li.

Mount Li, located in Shaan Gan Province, was a branch of the Qinling Mountains. It was 1302 meters above sea level. It consisted of the East and West Peaks. Mount Li was an abrupt formation of the late rise of the Qinling Mountains. It was in the Wei River rift zone within an isolated basement-type section of a fault-block mountain. The mountain peaks there were winding and tree-lined. Mount Li looked like a horse from afar.

Mount Li had always been regarded as the royal garden by the Zhou, Qin, Han, and Tang dynasties.

Rumors had it that in ancient times, a goddess refined stones here to mend the sky. In the late Western Zhou Dynasty, King Zhouyou performed the historical story of “the Duke of Fire Beacon”. Emperor Qin Shihuang built his tomb at the foot of Mount Li and left the world-famous Terracotta Army Formation of the Qin Dynasty there.

In the Tang Dynasty, Emperor Tang Xuanzong and Imperial Noble Consort Yang had a sad and beautiful love story there.

Mount Li was the witness to the history of the Huaxia nation.

After arriving at Mount Li, Fang Qiu took a look from a distance.

“I didn’t expect the Sword Sect to be here.”

Fang Qiu sighed with emotion.

Thinking about it carefully, he found that this place was indeed suitable.

After getting out of the car, Wei Jian said with a smile, “You didn’t expect that, did you?”

“I didn’t expect it.”

Fang Qiu nodded with a smile.

Then, led by Wei Jian, Fang Qiu avoided the scenic spot and went straight into the depths of Mount Li.

In the mountain area where there was no road.

After passing through the foggy area for a while, they landed on a very quiet blue stone path in a mountain stream.

Next to the blue stone path, there was a small river, which was gurgling.

Fang Qiu asked, “Outsiders can’t enter this place, right?”

“That’s right.”

Wei Jian nodded and said, “There is a formation outside that has completely isolated this area from the outside world. Not to mention ordinary people, even a guru can’t come in without knowing the formation.”

“A formation?”

Fang Qiu was stunned.

Wei Jian replied with a smile, “I don’t know the details about it.”

“Okay.”

Fang Qiu nodded to show that he understood.

He raised his head and looked forward.

On the left side of the blue stone path was a mountain wall with moss attached. The mountain wall was winding along the blue stone path, and it was less than 20 meters away. The path connected to the left and the road ahead could not be seen.

The two walked 20 meters.

After they made the turn, the scene in front of Fang Qiu became clear.

With a closer look, he found that in front of him was an incomparably vast world. Clouds and mists swirled around it, and immortal mountains were towering. At a glance, it gave people the impression that they were in an immortal realm.

Moreover, the Qi of Heaven and Earth in this area was also very rich.

Looking along the blue stone path, Fang Qiu found that he was halfway up the mountain.

The blue stone path extended from the top to the bottom like a slide. Among the dense clouds, the path extended from the other end of the cloud layer in the distance and connected to the huge sword mountain.

“Is that where the Sword Sect is located?” Fang Qiu asked.

“That is Sword Mountain.”

Wei Jian smiled, touched the long sword he carried with him, and said, “Sword Mountain is full of swords. Everyone who enters the Sword Sect must climb up the Sword Mountain.”

“Is that so?”

Fang Qiu was stunned.

Wei Jian explained, “This Sword Mountain is full of swords of the fallen people of the Sword Sect. Since ancient times, many people from the Sword Sect have come here to look for swords.”

“It seems that I’ll have to climb up the mountain as well,” said Fang Qiu with a smile.

“This is the only way to enter the Sword Sect.”

Wei Jian pointed forward and motioned for Fang Qiu to advance.

“Okay.”

Fang Qiu nodded. As he stepped forward, he said, “Then I’ll see what’s so special about this Sword Mountain.”

As he spoke, he quickly stepped forward.

Wei Jian followed closely behind.

Soon, they passed through the cloud area and arrived at the foot of the Sword Mountain.

Standing at the foot of the mountain, Fang Qiu clearly saw that there were indeed countless swords inserted into the mountain, and the bodies of these swords had all pierced into the mountain, leaving only the hilts outside.

A gust of extremely majestic sword Qi enveloped the entire mountain.

Just by standing at the foot of the mountain, Fang Qiu could clearly feel the terrifying Sword Intent coming from the Sword Mountain.

Chapter 1826 Ascending Sword Mountain

It was not cold.

Although Fang Qiu was standing at the foot of the mountain, he felt a gust of cold wind blowing in his face as if he were standing in the icy sky or a snow cellar, enduring the biting cold wind like a blade.

This was the sword Qi on Sword Mountain.

“What strong sword Qi.”

Even Fang Qiu couldn't help exclaiming as he looked at the huge Sword Mountain. “If Sword Fanatic is here, I'm afraid he won't be willing to leave the mountain for the rest of his life.”

Standing aside, Wei Jian looked at Fang Qiu with a smile.

For the people of the Sword Sect, swords were alive and were their companions.

Therefore, everyone had different feelings when they came to Sword Mountain.

The mountain Wei Jian saw was peaceful. Although the huge mountain gave him a sense of oppression, it was only a spiritual sense. As long as he entered the mountain, the oppression he felt would naturally disappear.

He could indeed feel some sword Qi, but it was completely different from what Fang Qiu felt.

Everyone saw and felt Sword Mountain differently. If everyone felt it the same way Fang Qiu did, then the mountain would probably be too difficult for most people to pass.

“They are all good swords.”

Glancing at the hilts inserted in the stone wall of the Sword Mountain, Fang Qiu nodded in admiration.

Although the quality of these swords varied, each one of them was much better than the Guru Sword he had forged back then. Even the weakest and worst one was not something that modern swords could compare with.

“We can climb Sword Mountain now.”

Wei Jian reminded him.

“Okay.”

Fang Qiu beamed and nodded.

Having stood at the foot of Sword Mountain for some time, he had a clear view of the terrain of the entire mountain.

Although the mountain was called Sword Mountain, it did not look like a sword.

The mountain was tall and straight.

The blue stone path had ended where Fang Qiu was standing.

In front of Fang Qiu were mountain rocks, where he could hardly find a place to step.

Looking from bottom to top, the Sword Mountain seemed to soar into the sky.

Fang Qiu asked, "Can I fly?"

"Of course. However, I have seen those who have climbed Sword Mountain before. I have never seen anyone who can fly up the mountain."

Wei Jian shook his head and said with a smile, "Sword is the emperor among weapons. Each sword has its own pride. The Sword Mountain is equivalent to the home of these swords. In Sword Mountain, every sword is a king. You'll be treated like a passer-by if you climb over the mountain. But I don't know how they will react if you fly over."

"I'll try it, and we'll know."

Fang Qiu answered with a smile and then stretched out his right foot. At the end of the blue stone path, he gently stood on a piece of black rock covered with a lot of dark green moss. He immediately flew up, rushed out ten meters in an instant, and came to five meters above the foot of the Sword Mountain.

Buzz!

As expected, as soon as Fang Qiu moved, the long swords inserted into the mountain wall five meters below began to vibrate rapidly in unison.

While vibrating crazily, the hilts of the swords kept moving outward little by little, and the blades were slightly revealed.

It seemed that the swords were very dissatisfied with Fang Qiu.

When Wei Jian saw this scene at the foot of the mountain, his expression changed, and a trace of bewilderment appeared on his face.

If it were any other disciple of the Sword Sect, these long swords wouldn't even move. Those who disrespected them would be directly driven down by the sword Qi on the mountain.

However, it seemed that Fang Qiu was not affected at all.

"What's happening?"

"Could it be that he's able to ascend the mountain?"

As Wei Jian looked at Fang Qiu, a bold idea came to his mind.

He had never seen anyone who could reach the top of Sword Mountain.

According to the seniors in the Sword Sect, the higher one went up Sword Mountain, the stronger the Sword Intent and sword Qi would be. Ordinary people would be blocked by the Sword Intent and sword Qi easily. They wouldn't even have the chance to take another step forward.

Even Wei Jian, when he climbed up Sword Mountain, only reached a hundred meters up the mountain to get the long sword he now possessed, and then he couldn't go higher.

However, the entire Sword Mountain was three thousand meters high above sea level.

This showed that it was utterly difficult to reach the top of Sword Mountain.

Five meters up from the foot of the mountain.

“Interesting.”

Fang Qiu stood on a big black stone without a long sword. He glanced at the densely packed hilts that were vibrating violently below and immediately laughed.

“I don’t mean to be disrespectful.”

Fang Qiu had always been a person who admired the sages, so he said to the densely packed long swords that were trembling below with his hold fist salute. Then, he turned back, looked at the Sword Mountain that was 3,000 meters high above sea level, and said, “Let’s only focus on the swords!”

After that, he moved his toes.

Swoosh!

There was a sharp sound of something breaking through the air.

In an instant, Fang Qiu shot up to the sky.

As he moved, a layer of Qi of Heaven and Earth gathered from all directions, lingered around him, and instantly condensed into a sword-shaped layer of energy, completely enveloping him.

Buzz! Buzz! Buzz!

The trembling of the long swords became louder.

Wherever Fang Qiu passed, all the long swords inserted into the mountain began to shake wildly, and many swords were pulled out of the mountain at the same time.

For a time, cold lights rose from the originally pitch-black Sword Mountain.

Wherever Fang Qiu passed, the sword light lit up one after another.

Above the entire mountain, streaks of extremely sharp Sword Intent burst out and rushed toward Fang Qiu from all directions. These streaks of Sword Intent seemed to be tangible.

It could be clearly seen that it was the Sword Intent gathered from the energy of each long sword that had been crossed by Fang Qiu and was shaking wildly.

“What’s going on?”

When Wei Jian saw this, he was shocked.

He didn’t expect that he could see the Sword Intent materializing.

Fang Qiu rushed to a height of 100 meters in an instant, still looking calm.

It was just as Wei Jian had expected.

As Fang Qiu moved up, he clearly felt the enhancement of the Sword Intent.

The violent Sword Intent coming from below directly formed an invisible energy, which rushed to the front of Fang Qiu and tried to suppress him.

However, it merely reached a height of a hundred meters.

The sword Qi that burst out from all the long swords within a hundred meters below was too weak for Fang Qiu. He couldn't even feel any resistance.

Swoosh!

After reaching a hundred meters in an instant, Fang Qiu continued to rush up at a faster speed.

"Well, um..."

Wei Jian's eyes widened when he saw this. He said in disbelief, "You broke my record just like that?"

But before he could finish his words, Fang Qiu had already rushed to a height of 500 meters.

At this moment, the pressure Fang Qiu felt obviously increased a lot.

All the Sword Intent bursting out from the long swords within 500 meters below gathered together, finally making him feel some resistance. However, this resistance alone could not stop him.

He continued to rush forward.

In the blink of an eye, Fang Qiu rushed to a height of a thousand meters.

By then, the Sword Intent that surged out of each long sword and converged into a stream was twice as strong as before.

It was still too weak for Fang Qiu.

When Fang Qiu rushed to a height of 1,500 meters, the strength of the Sword Intent had grown to that of a guru, and it even seemed to surpass the guru level, but Fang Qiu still didn't slow down.

Below him, when Wei Jian saw Fang Qiu rush all the way to 2,000 meters high like fireworks, his face was full of shock.

“He definitely won’t be able to make it to the last thousand meters!”

Wei Jian clearly remembered that according to the records of the Sword Sect, the area within 1,000 meters of the top of Sword Mountain was very strange. While all the long swords below that area would burst out the Sword Intent to stop the intruders, the long swords above that area were inviolable.

They would not allow anyone to climb over them, much less fly over them.

Fang Qiu easily broke through the height of 2,000 meters.

However, after breaking through 2,000 meters, Fang Qiu obviously paused.

Along the way, Fang Qiu could clearly feel that all the Sword Intent that tried to stop him had gathered from below. But when he reached the height of 2,000 meters, he clearly felt that although all the long swords within a kilometer of the top of the mountain were not shaking, the moment he reached that height, they directly burst out a streak of extremely huge sword Qi, aiming at him.

It was the appearance of this sword Qi that made Fang Qiu pause.

This sword Qi not only stopped Fang Qiu from advancing but also gave him a stunned feeling.

He instantly fell into the sword Qi.

Fang Qiu only felt that if he were a monster, he would definitely be crushed into ashes by this sword Qi in an instant.

While feeling shocked, Fang Qiu clearly felt that the sword Qi was cleansing his mind, just like the tremendous pressure he felt when he faced the towering stone tablet in the Laozi Relic. As that pressure overwhelmed and exploited him, it was also tempering him little by little. The only difference was that his body had tempered by then, and now his mind was being tempered.

Under such a situation, Fang Qiu still didn't slow down and continued to rush toward the top of Sword Mountain.

In the confrontation with the sword Qi that burst out from above and the Sword Intent that rushed up from below, Fang Qiu still didn't stop to advance.

Buzz! Buzz! Buzz!

When Fang Qiu rushed to a height of 2,500 meters, all the long swords on the whole mountain began to vibrate.

Even the long swords on the top of Sword Mountain were shaking wildly.

This shocked Wei Jian at the foot of the mountain.

On the other side, many disciples of the Sword Sect who were seeking swords on Sword Mountain were frightened by this inexplicable situation.

In a short period, Fang Qiu directly rushed to the height of 2,600 meters. Under the impact of the huge sword Qi, the terrifying speed of Fang Qiu was finally limited.

However, Fang Qiu didn't stop there.

"Break!"

With his body as a sword, he directly tore through the Sword Intent all over the sky and rushed out.

Just then-

Whiz!

An earth-shattering sword cry rang out in all directions.

All the long swords inserted into Sword Mountain were unsheathed at the same time. With a harsh sword cry, they rushed to the sky and pointed at Fang Qiu together.

Chapter 1827 The Twelve Swordsmen of the Sword Sect

Swoosh! Swoosh! Swoosh!

The ear-piercing sound of long swords breaking through the air came from all directions.

Just as Fang Qiu was about to rush to the height of 3,000 meters, all the long swords on Sword Mountain flew to the top of the mountain at this moment and surrounded him from all directions.

In the sky, the densely packed long swords were like thousands of arrows shooting at the same time, making people shudder.

Below, there were also numerous long swords, which were like a bamboo net, completely surrounding Fang Qiu.

The incomparably sharp tips of the swords were all pointing at Fang Qiu.

It seemed that the swords were going to suppress Fang Qiu forcibly.

Seeing that as long as he took a step forward, he could reach the top of the mountain, Fang Qiu immediately shouted, "I WILL ascend this mountain!"

Before the long swords in all directions could suppress him, he moved his right hand.

In an instant, the divine sword condensed in his hand.

Swoosh!

All of a sudden, an incomparably sharp screech rang out in the distant sky.

Fang Qiu didn't even take any action.

The divine sword, which had just condensed in his hand, directly dragged Fang Qiu to the sky. With a swoosh, it burst out a gust of extremely terrifying sword Qi and instantly rushed up.

The sword Qi directly cut the long swords in the middle of the air in front of Fang Qiu.

Fang Qiu had been stopped.

At this moment, a gust of unparalleled Sword Intent burst out from him.

In all directions, the Qi of Heaven and Earth surged over and turned into energy swords, which surrounded Fang Qiu, whistling and surging.

With the outbreak of this Sword Intent, the tens of millions of swords that were trying to suppress Fang Qiu were all forced to retreat at this moment.

In the meantime, Fang Qiu rushed straight to the top of Sword Mountain with the divine sword in his hand.

He loosened his right hand.

Whiz!

The divine sword flew out of his hand like a swimming dragon, went straight up to the sky, and let out a long cry. Then, it fell and circled Fang Qiu, emitting a kind of Sword Intent exactly the same as that of Fang Qiu. It directly pressed down on the thousands of swords flying out of the mountain wall.

Under the suppression of this Sword Intent, the thousands of sharp swords flying in the air all trembled at this moment, making a series of trembling sounds.

The next moment-

Swoosh! Swoosh! Swoosh!

The sharp swords all over the sky, like cherry blossoms, twisted in the air, retreated and returned to their original positions.

At the foot of the mountain.

“Damn!”

Looking at this scene, Wei Jian was shocked.

He had never imagined that such a scene would occur on Sword Mountain.

In the end, not only did the energy of all the swords on Sword Mountain fail to stop John Doe, but he even successfully ascended the top. Moreover, he suppressed all the swords of the mountain with his Sword Intent.

That was utterly shocking.

Wei Jian was completely stunned.

In the distance.

Behind the misty clouds at the back of Sword Mountain, there was a square flat area at the top of a high mountain. There seemed to be a thin and wide white stone, and the surface of the white stone was engraved with some very strange patterns.

In the sky above the white jade stone, three old men were sitting on the ground, and a young man was standing respectfully behind them. The four of them fixed their eyes on the distant Sword Mountain, which was surrounded by clouds and mist.

The three old men seemed to be able to see through everything. The figure standing on the top of Sword Mountain was clearly reflected in their eyes.

Standing behind the three old men was the one who wanted to go to Autranssy to protect John Doe at that time.

His name was Qingyun.

“The myriad swords are crying at the same time. It means that a king has descended!”

An old man with black eyebrows and white hair on the far left looked at the top of Sword Mountain with bright eyes and said, “This boy’s Sword Intent is very strong. He is the strongest person I have ever seen among the younger generation.”

“How can a nobody get the recognition of the divine sword?”

On the far right, an old man with black hair and white eyebrows said with a gentle smile, “No one in Wulin can compare with him. Even the younger generation of our Sword Sect can’t compare with him.”

“Yeah.”

In the middle, an old man with a withered face and a Taoist hair crown, who looked particularly ordinary but always had a smile on his face, gently nodded as he said, "I remember that when Qingyun climbed up the Sword Mountain, he didn't show this performance."

Behind him, Qingyun's eyes also lit up.

Different from the three old men, although there was the reflection of the top of Sword Mountain in Qingyun's eyes, there was a thin layer of mist covering it, which was not as clear as what the three old men could see.

"In fact, John Doe didn't need to climb Sword Mountain."

The black-browed and white-haired old man smiled leisurely and said, "According to his performance in Wulin, I can clearly see what kind of person he is. Ascending the Sword Mountain is just a small game to welcome him."

"That's not the case."

The white-browed, black-haired old man shook his head and said, "There are two sides to a person's personality. If he doesn't climb up Sword Mountain, no matter how good his performance is, we can't be sure of his temperament. Ascending Sword Mountain can prove that there is no problem with his temperament."

"Yeah."

Among them, an old man with a Taoist hair crown nodded and said, "I heard that this boy killed all known forces of Little Saint Lord and the Nirvana Organization. Now he can even reach the top of Sword Mountain, which is enough to prove that his strength is high."

The white-haired old man with black eyebrows asked with a smile, "Then how high is that?"

"Why don't we try it out?" said the black-haired, white-browed old man.

“Sure.”

The old man in the middle nodded and said, “As we can see, this boy is at the top of the One-Flower Core Realm. If we want to know his strength, we need to send the Twelve Swordsmen over.”

The three old men nodded at the same time and smiled.

Standing behind the three old men, Qingyun also narrowed his eyes and smiled gently.

The first time he saw John Doe fighting was at the top of Mount Himulaya. At that time, although he didn’t show up, he clearly saw the battle between John Doe and an expert from Murica.

At that time, he was very curious.

John Doe was obviously more than a little stronger than those at the same level.

However, he didn’t take it to heart.

Later, when he got the exact news that John Doe had killed the Little Saint Lord of Nirvana, he was really surprised.

Now, he also wanted to see exactly how powerful John Doe was and if the Twelve Swordsmen of the Sword Sect could stop John Doe.

...

At the peak of Sword Mountain.

As the ten thousand swords returned to their original positions, the divine sword around Fang Qiu quietly dissipated and disappeared after two soft cries.

The Sword Intent that Fang Qiu sent out also dissipated at this moment.

Finally, Fang Qiu landed on the top of Sword Mountain.

Glancing down the mountain, Fang Qiu found that Wei Jian, who had been standing at the foot of the mountain, had passed the road on the side of the mountain and had come to the back.

There were also many disciples of the Sword Sect gathered there, looking up at him who was standing on the top of the mountain.

He turned to look into the distance of the back mountain and saw a sea of clouds behind Sword Mountain, where there was a path leading to the sea of clouds.

He focused his gaze on the distance.

Fang Qiu could vaguely see the reflection of some mountains in his eyes, as well as a few people.

A while later, Fang Qiu moved and fell from the sky.

It did not take long for him to land at the foot of Sword Mountain.

“Brother John Doe.”

Wei Jian came up and made a hold-fist salute to Fang Qiu in shock.

“Brother Wei.”

Fang Qiu made a hold-fist salute as well and nodded with a smile. Then, he looked back at the mountain and said, “It seems that Sword Mountain is the best barrier for the Sword Sect.”

Wei Jian couldn't help but smile and give Fang Qiu a thumbs-up.

Sword Mountain was indeed a barrier to the Sword Sect, and it could be said to be a screen that covered the entire sect.

"He is John Doe, right?"

"It turns out to be John Doe. I've long heard that he was coming. I didn't expect that he would cause such a big stir since he came here."

"He is now the best among the younger generation in Wulin, and he even has a divine sword."

"Even so, what he just did is stunning!"

"He deserves to be the No.1 among the younger generation in Wulin. Not to mention reaching the top, I'll be satisfied as long as I can get a sword within 1,000 meters of the top of the mountain."

Around, the disciples of the Sword Sect were whispering and discussing, but they didn't dare to be too loud or talk to Fang Qiu. They just stood aside and watched from a distance.

"That's enough. Stop staring at our distinguished guest."

Hearing the whispers around him, Wei Jian waved his hand and said, "Go and do what you should do."

The disciples of the Sword Sect turned around one after another, went up the mountain, and continued to seek swords.

"Brother Wei."

Fang Qiu smiled and pouted at the misty area inside, asking, "Is the Sword Sect in there?"

"Yes."

Wei Jian nodded affirmatively and said, "I didn't expect that you would reach the top of Sword Mountain in such a shocking way. I'm afraid that our fellow apprentices in the Sword Sect now all know you."

"I didn't expect these swords to react so strongly either."

Fang Qiu smiled wryly.

Wei Jian smiled as well and thought to himself, "If you hadn't flown over them, would they have reacted so strongly?"

"They thought you were disrespecting them, so of course, they would do that!"

Of course, Wei Jian was just secretly complaining. Not only did he not say it out loud, but he did not show it at all.

After the laughter, Wei Jian reached out his hand and pointed to the blue stone path that led to the front, which was filled with clouds and mist, and said, "After you, Brother John Doe."

"Thanks."

Fang Qiu responded with a hold-fist salute and then stepped onto the path.

Wei Jian followed closely behind.

In just a few short steps, Fang Qiu walked into the mists. Although the clouds were very thick, Fang Qiu didn't feel anything special with them. Instead, he felt refreshed and very comfortable.

After they walked for some time, the clouds gradually faded, and an area appeared in front of Fang Qiu.

Seeing the area in front of him, Fang Qiu felt as if he had suddenly seen the light.

“This is the Sword Sect!”

Wei Jian pointed to the area ahead of them and introduced it to Fang Qiu with a smile.

Fang Qiu gazed over.

The first thing that he saw was a square made of blue stones. Some disciples of the Sword Sect were cultivating in this square.

Among them, the most eye-catching were the few tall towers that were scattered out in an irregular manner in the square.

Chapter 1828 I'm Going to Start Cracking the Formation

There were a total of four towers.

Three of them were Seven-storey Towers, and the other was a Nine-storey Tower.

“What are these towers?” asked Fang Qiu curiously, pointing at the four towers in the square.

“These are Seven-storey Seclusion Towers and a Nine-storey Practice Tower.”

Wei Jian replied with a smile, “These Seven-storey Towers are specially prepared for the disciples of the Sword Sect for secluded cultivation. They can prevent all sounds and interference from the outside world. Moreover, they can easily make one enter a meditative state. They are great treasures for cultivation. The effect of the first floor is similar to that of the Laozi Relic, and it gets better on every floor. I heard that the effect of the seventh floor is twice as good as the first floor.”

“Really?”

Fang Qiu was astonished.

If the cultivation effect of the seventh floor was twice as good as the first floor, didn’t that mean that the cultivation effect on the seventh floor would be twice as good as that in the Laozi Relic?

The Qi of Heaven and Earth contained in the Laozi Relic was extremely rich.

The effect of cultivation on it was very obvious. Although the Qi of Heaven and Earth in the place where the Sword Sect was located was not weak, it was still a little inferior to that in the Laozi Relic.

In this case, how could the cultivation effect in the Seven-storey Towers be so much stronger?

“Have these towers existed since ancient times?”

Fang Qiu observed carefully and found that the four towers were very old. At first glance, they looked like ancient buildings.

“Yes.”

Wei Jian nodded and said, “These four towers have existed since ancient times. The square and the pavilions behind them were built by later generations.”

“Only things that have been passed down since ancient times can be so nice.”

Fang Qiu nodded.

Since those towers were ancient buildings, it was natural for them to have some special effects.

“What about the Nine-storey Tower?”

Fang Qiu turned to look at the Nine-storey Tower.

“Let’s go over there first.”

Wei Jian pointed to the pavilions built against the mountain behind the square and said, “Because the Seven-storey Towers are crowded all year round, under normal circumstances, it is difficult to enter them to observe. But the Nine-storey Tower is different. Because it is a Practice Tower, you can enter it at any time. But before entering, we’d better go there first and report to the higher-ups.”

“Okay.”

Fang Qiu nodded to show that he understood.

After all, this was the territory of the Sword Sect.

It was permitted by the higher-ups of the Sword Sect that Fang Qiu could come here.

Since he was a guest in the Sword Sect, he had to at least go to see the higher-ups and inform them of his visit. Otherwise, it would be too impolite of him to start looking around as soon as he arrived.

“After you.”

Wei Jian reached out his hand to the pavilion against the mountain behind the square and motioned for Fang Qiu to go over.

He took the lead and was ready to lead Fang Qiu forward.

Just then-

Clatter! Clatter! Clatter!

The sound of running could be heard.

“Martial Uncle Wei Jian.”

A young disciple of the Sword Sect ran over and blocked Wei Jian’s way. With a smile on his face, he pointed at the Nine-storey Practice Tower and said, “The Twelve Swordsmen have asked you to go over!”

“The Twelve Swordsmen?”

Wei Jian stopped, raised his eyebrows, and said, “Don’t they know that I’m entertaining a guest? What do the Twelve Swordsmen want?”

“They know that.”

The young disciple of the Sword Sect nodded with a smile and said, “They wish to see this distinguished guest. The Twelve Swordsmen asked me to bring a message. If he wants to enter the important place of the Sword Sect, he must pass their test!”

After that, the young disciple of the Sword Sect grinned and left.

Wei Jian was stunned.

“The Twelve Swordsmen are all here?”

Wei Jian turned around with a blank face, looked at Fang Qiu, and said, "And they're asking us to go to the Nine-storey Practice Tower?"

However, Fang Qiu looked calm.

His eyes fell on the young disciple of the Sword Sect who had just left.

"He's in the ninth class!"

He clearly felt that the strength of this young disciple of the Sword Sect was at the peak of the ninth class, only one step away from being a guru.

Moreover, this man was obviously much younger than Yun Yangzi when he made himself famous.

In Wulin, he was definitely a top genius.

However, he was merely ordinary and above average in the Sword Sect.

Fang Qiu couldn't help sighing with emotion.

The Sword Sect was indeed the No.1 force in Huaxia, which was terrifyingly powerful.

The thing was that everyone in the Sword Sect was strong, not just one person was talented. That was to say, everyone who joined the Sword Sect would be valued and cultivated, and no one would be ignored.

It would be strange if such a force wasn't powerful.

Moreover, the resources of the Sword Sect must be very good. Otherwise, it would be impossible to cultivate so many geniuses at the same time.

“What do you think?”

Wei Jian didn’t notice that Fang Qiu was absent-minded at all. Instead, he said with a wry smile, “It’s quite unreasonable for the Twelve Swordsmen to do this. If you don’t want to go over, I’ll tell them.”

“That’s alright.”

Fang Qiu shook his head with a smile and said, “Since it’s an invitation from the Twelve Swordsmen, I shall oblige.”

Then, led by Wei Jian, Fang Qiu walked to the Nine-storey Practice Tower.

They arrived at the Practice Tower.

A disciple guarding the entrance said, “Martial Uncle Wei Jian, the Twelve Swordsmen have said that you may just wait here.”

“Here?”

Wei Jian curled his lips and said, “Didn’t they ask me to wait at the Dragon Gate?”

“No.”

The disciple replied honestly, “The Twelve Swordsmen asked you to wait here.”

“I have to go to the Dragon Gate to wait.”

Wei Jian snorted and then said to Fang Qiu, "This is the Nine-storey Practice Tower. The Twelve Swordsmen should be waiting for you inside. I guess they will have to have a spar with you. If you lose, you can only exit from where you entered. Only if you win can you go up to the tower and come out of the Dragon Gate."

"I see."

Fang Qiu nodded knowingly and asked, "Do you really believe that I can come out of the Dragon Gate?"

"It's not that I believe that."

Wei Jian shook his head with a wry smile and said, "After all, the strength of the Twelve Swordsmen is amazing. I'm just staking my claim."

"It would appear that I am in trouble."

Fang Qiu laughed and stepped into the Nine-storey Practice Tower.

The space on the first floor was extremely large.

It was just that there wasn't a single person there. It was completely empty, with only an ancient stone staircase that led to the second floor.

Fang Qiu stepped up the stone staircase.

The same went for the second floor.

The third floor was still empty.

Fang Qiu didn't stop until he reached the eighth floor.

Unlike the previous seven floors, the space on the eighth floor was comparatively smaller, but the overall space was still very large.

Twelve chairs were placed around the eighth floor.

From 12 different directions, they surrounded the walls of the eighth floor, surrounding the entire space.

At this moment, there was one person sitting on each of the twelve chairs.

The first thing that came into view was a young man with long snow-white hair. He was sitting on the largest chair, holding a long black sword in his hand.

Everyone else was holding a long sword in their hands.

“Welcome to the Sword Sect.”

The man with snow-white long hair stood up and made a hold-fist salute to Fang Qiu with a smile.

“You’re the Twelve Swordsmen, right?”

Fang Qiu nodded with understanding and asked, “May I know your name?”

“Mu Bai.”

The white-haired man said, “I heard that you are one of the few top experts in Wulin who have studied formations. That’s why we invited you to come here, John Doe. We want to ask you for advice. What do you think of it?”

“Formations?”

Fang Qiu glanced at the 12 people. He then shook his head and said with a smile, “You don’t seem to be merely asking for my advice by doing this.”

“Since we’re doing this, there will be a challenge.”

Mu Bai replied, “But don’t worry, John Doe. We won’t go too far!”

“It seems that it will be really difficult for me to exit from the Dragon Gate.”

Fang Qiu shook his head and said, “This is troublesome.”

“Haha.”

Mu Bai laughed and said, “Brother John Doe, please don’t mind. Dragon Gate is only set up for the disciples of our Sword Sect. Besides, you are facing 12 people alone. Even if you go back the way you came, no one will dare to laugh at you.”

“That’s not so correct.”

Fang Qiu twisted his wrists and ankles and said, “Since I’m having a challenge, I can’t go back the way I came. It’s rare for me to come to the Sword Sect. I really have to go to the Dragon Gate.”

When he finished speaking, the Twelve Swordsmen all laughed.

Standing in the middle, Fang Qiu took a deep breath.

He could clearly feel that the strength of these 12 people was very strong. Each of them was at the peak of the One-Flower Core Realm, about the same as him.

Although they seemed to be equal in terms of strength, it was not necessarily the case when it came to combat capability.

After all, Fang Qiu was the one who had killed the Little Saint Lord in the Two-Flower Core Realm.

“Form the formation!”

Mu Bai shouted in a deep voice.

The other eleven people stood up in an instant.

The six of them, whose positions were arranged in odd numbers, drew their long swords at the same time, stepped forward, and surrounded Fang Qiu.

On the other hand, the other six were in the outer circle, which was the opposite of the inner circle.

Buzz!

A strong aura suddenly burst out from the twelve people, as if they were a whole. Fang Qiu didn’t even feel the distribution of energy.

The energy erupted from the 12 people directly condensed into an energy formation, covering all the space on the eighth floor of the tower.

A gust of incomparably powerful Sword Intent immediately spread out.

“Sword formation?”

Fang Qiu raised his surprised eyebrows.

He immediately thought of the Combined Attack Sword Formation that he had taught He Gaoming and the others.

However, it seemed that the sword formation displayed by the Twelve Swordsmen was much simpler than the Combined Attack Sword Formation.

Although there were a lot of participants in this sword formation, the changes in the sword formation were nothing more than the rotation and changes of the outer and inner circles.

As for the Combined Attack Sword Formation, although the number of participants was slightly smaller, it focused on fighting styles. It had different fighting styles while dealing with different numbers of opponents. It was more flexible in battle and had more variations.

The formation performed by the Twelve Swordsmen was a rigid fixed one with only the moving inner and outer circles.

Moreover, the 12 people formed a whole. Once one of them was hurt, the effect of the formation would be greatly reduced. If both the inner circle and the outer circle were breached, the formation would be directly ruined.

Compared with the Combined Attack Sword Formation which was almost uncrackable, it was indeed not so perfect.

After all, the Combined Attack Sword Formation was brought by the divine sword and was extraordinary.

“Then, I’m going to start breaching the formation!”

After carefully observing the formation, Fang Qiu moved and immediately acted.

Chapter 1829 Where’s the Eye of Formation?

Swoosh!

His figure flickered and instantly turned into a shadow.

Fang Qiu rushed straight to Mu Bai, who was taking the lead in the formation.

His internal Qi also burst out of his body at this moment. The terrifying energy Qi, like a tide, rushed wildly around and rushed directly to the six swordsmen in the inner circle led by Mu Bai.

A series of sword hums sounded, and the six people waved the long swords in their hands at the same time.

The extremely sharp sword Qi burst out from the long swords in the hands of the six people in an instant, wandering in the space of the entire eighth floor. Every streak of sword Qi carried extremely sharp energy Qi, which made people feel as if it was a bone-piercing cold wind.

Fang Qiu felt that it was raining sharp swords in this space.

With the appearance of the horrible sword Qi, Fang Qiu, who was originally rushing toward Mu Bai, was instantly stopped.

He was dealing with twelve super experts at the peak stage of the One-Flower Core Realm after all. He couldn't be careless.

However, the moment Fang Qiu stopped, an ear-piercing roar of a long sword suddenly came.

With the long swords in the hands of Mu Bai and the other five people waving, the dense and sharp sword Qi in the whole space, like puppets at this moment, attacked Fang Qiu fiercely from all directions under the control of the six swordsmen in the inner circle.

It was swift and sharp.

Swoosh!

Fang Qiu dodged quickly, constantly twisting back and forth to avoid the dense sword Qi.

All the energy was moving faster than people.

The speed of the flow of the Qi of Heaven and Earth was very fast, and it was faster when the Qi was transformed into internal Qi energy. Because the sword Qi was much sharper than other energies, it was the fastest among all the energies.

The Practice Tower was very large.

However, each higher floor would be smaller than the previous one. The eighth floor was almost at the top, and the space was neither small nor large.

Under such circumstances, the sword Qi bursting out of the sword formation was almost at the extreme.

It was dazzling.

However, in the midst of such dazzling sword Qi, Fang Qiu kept dodging the sword Qi from all kinds of tricky angles.

One could see that Fang Qiu had twisted his body into a strange shape in the air. His body was surprisingly flexible, perfectly avoiding every attack of the sword Qi.

Mu Bai and the others were all shocked to see this.

The most terrifying thing about their sword formation was the extremely fast and aggressive sword Qi, but John Doe could actually stay in it without being injured at all.

“How is that possible?”

Not only the six swordsmen in the inner circle, but also the other six swordsmen in the outer circle who had not moved all the time were shocked.

No one had expected that John Doe was so fast, agile, and flexible. It was simply incredible.

However, how long could John Doe hold on in this state?

With an idea in mind, Mu Bai waved the long sword in his hand.

The other five swordsmen in the inner circle also brandished their swords at the same time.

In the sword formation, the dense sword Qi, like embroidery needles that were about to penetrate one’s heart, shot wildly toward Fang Qiu from all directions.

Fang Qiu had no extra space to deal with it.

He could only keep dodging.

Under such enormous pressure, the moving space of his body continued to decrease. In the end, he was forced to the center of the sword formation.

“Phew...”

Fang Qiu took a deep breath as he dodged quickly, and his face darkened slightly.

He had seen through the nature of the formation.

He just didn’t expect the formation in the inner circle to be so powerful.

The only way to break this formation was to break out directly, break the inner circle, and then break the outer circle.

Only in this way could he crack the entire sword formation.

But now, it seemed that it was not so easy to break the inner circle.

“It seems that I have to use more strength.”

Feeling the huge pressure coming from all directions, Fang Qiu suddenly clenched his fists.

Boom!

Just as the six people in the inner circle were madly attacking him, Fang Qiu directly activated all the internal Qi in his body and suddenly exploded like a bomb.

A layer of golden internal Qi burst out in all directions, forcing back the sword Qi that attacked Fang Qiu fiercely from all directions.

Meanwhile, Fang Qiu took advantage of the situation and moved. He immediately found an opening. He rushed out directly and rushed to Mu Bai at full speed.

In no time, Fang Qiu rushed straight to the edge of the inner circle.

He was about to reach Mu Bai.

Although John Doe had rushed to the front and his attack was about to land on Mu Bai, who was listed as the target, Mu Bai was not panicked at all. He was still controlling the long sword in his hand.

Fang Qiu did not hesitate. Since Mu Bai was not on guard, he would break the inner circle as fast as he could to make his opponent regret it.

However, just then-

Whiz!

A wave of heaven-shaking sword cries suddenly resounded.

Just as Fang Qiu was about to hit Mu Bai with his hand, a sharp feeling suddenly came to him.

When Fang Qiu felt the sharp aura, his expression changed drastically.

He immediately looked up.

The six people who had been standing in the outer circle and hadn't made a move yet acted at this moment.

They drew their swords at the same time.

As they waved their long swords, six incomparably sharp energies immediately left the swords and shot toward Fang Qiu through the inner circle.

As the sword energies flew out of their hands, the six people in the outer circle began to control the six energy swords quickly. With the sword Qi controlled by the six people in the inner circle, they attacked John Doe crazily.

Fang Qiu had been having a hard time dealing with the sword Qi of the six people in the inner circle. It was not easy for him to find an opportunity to break through, but he was forced back by the six people in the outer circle.

“They’re closely linked?”

While rushing to dodge, Fang Qiu was forced to return to the center of the formation.

“I see.”

Fang Qiu figured it out.

What he saw at first was just a presentation.

The true essence of this formation lay in the fact that it was interconnected.

In other words, it seemed that the six people in the inner circle were a whole, the six people in the outer circle were a whole, and the twelve people were a whole. But in fact, the changes of this formation were far more than that.

It appeared that the outer circle was tightly clasped with the inner circle.

As for the people in the inner circle, even if they were breached and one of them was sent flying, the sword formation could still continue to operate. Except that the strength of the whole formation was slightly weakened, it would not affect their individual combat capability.

After all, although this formation was one, the twelve of them did not need to cooperate with one another. Instead, they were each controlling their own attacks.

Under these circumstances, not to mention losing one person, even if three or five of them were killed, the others would still be able to maintain the operation of the formation.

“Amazing.”

After thoroughly seeing the nature of the formation, Fang Qiu couldn’t help praising it secretly.

However, he was also carefully observing the formation.

Since it was a formation, there must be functions of the formation.

After sensing carefully, Fang Qiu found that the energy used by the six people in the inner circle of the formation seemed to be completely combined, so they could control the sword Qi together.

That was to say, the energy of the six people in the inner circle was all merged together, forming a brand-new energy supply for them. The energy of the six in the outer circle was also completely integrated for those six to use.

In such a situation, the only way to crack the formation was to find the Eye of Formation.

Only by destroying the Eye of Formation could Fang Qiu completely disperse their energy.

While the twelve could not control and use other people's energy, their fighting capacity would be weakened.

Also, because they might hurt each other, they would definitely have some scruples when they took action.

By then, Fang Qiu would be the winner.

But where was the Eye of Formation?

While Fang Qiu was thinking, he was once again suppressed to the center of the sword formation by the 12 people's fierce attacks. He clenched his right hand.

Whiz!

A series of earth-shattering sword cries rang out.

The divine sword instantly took shape in Fang Qiu's hand.

The incomparably violent Sword Intent swept out of Fang Qiu's body.

"Tiangang Kills Demons!"

Fang Qiu waved his right hand.

Wherever the long sword went, waves of trembling sounds came from the surrounding air. Under the impact of the sword Qi and the energy swords in the sword formation, there was actually a large amount of Qi of Heaven and Earth on the eighth floor of the Practice Tower. It gathered from outside the tower and directly formed layers of Gang Qi inside the tower.

Swoosh!

The Gang Qi condensed out to form a hurricane, which spun furiously within the tower.

Although the extremely sharp Gang Qi was not as powerful as the sword Qi and energy swords, there were too many streaks of it. Those streaks of Gang Qi rushed forward one after another, completely blocking the sword Qi and the energy swords.

Buzz! Buzz! Buzz!

The divine sword in Fang Qiu's hand seemed to be trembling with excitement.

As for Fang Qiu, he took this opportunity to quickly look for the Eye of Formation.

This sword formation looked a bit similar to the Hundred People Formation of the Nirvana Organization, but one thing was certain, which was that the Eye of this sword formation was not its users, the Twelve Swordsmen.

Since it wasn't the Twelve Swordsmen, it must be something inside the tower.

The tower was empty.

With the tornado of Gang Qi, the seats of the Twelve Swordsmen had been crushed into powder all over the sky.

The only thing that remained in the tower was the twelve long swords held by the Twelve Swordsmen.

With that in mind, Fang Qiu immediately focused on the long swords in the hands of the 12 people.

He looked around and found that the Eye of Formation was the long sword in Mu Bai's hand.

The whole sword formation was changing with the dance of the long sword.

"Found it!"

Fang Qiu narrowed his eyes.

While the tornado of Gang Qi blocked the attack of the sword formation, Fang Qiu flashed and rushed to Mu Bai again.

However, he was now not aiming at Mu Bai but at the dark long sword in his hand, which seemed to be made of ink stones.

When Mu Bai saw John Doe staring at the long sword in his hand, his whole body stiffened, and his face changed drastically.

The others seemed to have noticed this as well.

They frantically activated the golden internal Qi and their energy swords, trying to drive John Doe away from Mu Bai.

However, the tornado of Gang Qi was too powerful.

Chapter 1830 We Lost and You've Passed!

Smack!

A crisp sound rang out.

Just as the dense sword Qi and six energy swords broke through the Gang Qi and rushed toward Fang Qiu in the sword formation, Fang Qiu fiercely pinched the blade of the dark long sword in Mu Bai's right hand.

Golden energy burst out and covered the palm of Fang Qiu, which seemed to be made of gold.

"Hmm?"

Mu Bai's eyes widened and he suddenly exerted force, trying to pull his long sword out of Fang Qiu's palm.

However, no matter how hard he tried, Fang Qiu kept holding the blade of his long sword tightly.

"Humph!"

When the other people's attacks rushed to Fang Qiu, he felt a chill behind his head, he snorted coldly.

A dazzling golden light suddenly burst out from his right hand, which was holding the blade tightly.

It was a cluster of golden energy that looked like the sun.

“Break!”

With a loud shout, the golden energy cluster instantly expanded enveloped the entire long sword, and then exploded.

Boom!

A loud explosion sounded.

At this moment, the entire eighth floor of the tower was completely enveloped by a dazzling golden light.

Outside the tower.

Suddenly, golden light shot out in all directions in the square of the Sword Sect, which was originally peaceful and surrounded by clouds and mist, like a fairyland.

All the people in the square, who were cultivating, looked shocked the moment the golden light appeared and turned their heads to look at it in unison.

They shockingly found that the golden light was coming from the eighth floor of the Practice Tower.

“What a powerful energy!”

“What’s going on?”

“Did anyone enter the Practice Tower today?”

“Just now, Martial Uncle Wei Jian brought a distinguished guest over. He was about to enter the building, but he was stopped by a senior brother halfway, who said that the Twelve Swordsmen invited the distinguished guest into the Practice Tower.”

“Do you know who the distinguished guest is?”

“Who is it?”

“It’s John Doe! I was the one who passed on the message. The distinguished guest brought over by Martial Uncle Wei Jian is the leader of the younger generation in Wulin, John Doe!”

“It’s actually him?”

“So, it’s him. No wonder he caused such a ruckus in the Practice Tower.”

“I don’t know which swordsman personally invited him to the Practice Tower. The first time he came to the Sword Sect, he was able to receive an invitation from one of the Twelve Swordsmen. John Doe really lives up to his reputation.”

“Which one? The Twelve Swordsmen are all here!”

“What?”

“How is that possible?”

“Moreover, I heard that John Doe ascended the top of Sword Mountain and made all the swords submit to him!”

“Damn!”

In the square, all the disciples of the Sword Sect gathered together to discuss. One could clearly see the undisguised shock on their faces.

In addition to the shock, there was also a hint of envy and reverence.

...

Behind the pavilion built by Sword Mountain behind the square.

Seeing the dazzling golden light rushing out of the eighth floor, the three old men, who had stood up at some point, showed a look of shock on their faces.

“Who did this?”

The white-haired old man with black eyebrows stared straight at the eighth floor of the Practice Tower and said, “It’s not the Twelve Swordsmen. Their auras have been completely suppressed by this energy.”

“He’s like the bird in the cage.”

The black-haired old man with white eyebrows raised his eyebrows and said, “Let’s see if he can breach it.”

The old man in the middle said with a smile, “The bird in the cage is the fiercest!”

...

On the eighth floor of the Practice Tower.

The golden light gradually dissipated.

Fang Qiu was still grabbing the long sword in Mu Bai's hand tightly.

By then, the connection between the long sword and the sword formation had been completely cut off. After all, the golden light just now was formed by Fang Qiu who didn't hesitate to detonate his internal Qi.

As the Eye of Formation, the long sword couldn't withstand the explosion of internal Qi at all.

Without the support of the sword formation, this sword would have needed a long time to recuperate.

Although the connection between the long sword and the sword formation had been completely cut off, the sword formation did not dissipate. Instead, it scattered into a larger sword formation.

It was like a birdcage that trapped Fang Qiu completely.

"There're two Eyes of Formation?"

This scene shocked Fang Qiu.

"Never would I have imagined that you would discover it."

Mu Bai smiled and put away his long sword. Then, he moved and immediately retreated.

The six people in the inner circle retreated in unison.

Fang Qiu clearly felt that the connection between the six people in the inner circle and the sword formation had been completely cut off. In other words, the sword formation had nothing to do with them, so the six of them quickly retreated.

At the same time, the other six people in the outer circle stepped forward in unison.

They immediately entered the inner circle from the outer circle.

The six people, led by Mu Bai, waved their swords again and were about to form the sword formation once more.

“Hmm?”

Fang Qiu raised his surprised eyebrows.

He didn't expect that this formation could have such a change.

If this went on, wouldn't it mean that the formation could be maintained forever and would never be breached?

Swoosh!

While Fang Qiu was surprised, he no longer held back.

After he activated his Divine Consciousness, it instantly covered the entire eighth floor.

He knew that he had to break this sword formation at this time, otherwise, he would have no chance to do it.

Once Mu Bai and the other five people formed the sword formation to attack again, he would have no means to stop them. After all, the tornado of Gang Qi that he had just displayed had dissipated with the explosion of his internal Qi.

“The second Eye of Formation. Found it!”

Under the exploration of his Divine Consciousness, Fang Qiu almost instantly found the location of the second Eye of Formation. He immediately turned around and stared at the white jade sword in the hand of the twelfth swordsman behind him with burning eyes.

Swoosh!

Without hesitation, Fang Qiu moved and rushed to the twelfth swordsman in an instant. Before that man could retreat, Fang Qiu punched hard on the body of the white jade sword.

Smack!

A crisp sound rang out.

The sword formation that locked Fang Qiu, like a birdcage, suddenly exploded the moment Fang Qiu punched down. Like a glass that had been hit by a huge force, it shattered as the cracks spread in all directions.

When the sword formation was broken, the six swordsmen who had just rushed in seemed to have been hit by the huge force and were forced to take three steps back in unison.

Mu Bai and the other five, who were about to form the formation again, were also stunned.

“The sword formation is breached!”

“This sword formation is actually breached by John Doe?”

“What, what’s going on?”

The Twelve Swordsmen’s expressions changed at that moment.

None of them had expected John Doe to break their sword formation so easily.

“Stop!”

Seeing that John Doe, who had broken the sword formation, was about to take action, Mu Bai immediately took a step forward, stretched out a palm, and said, “We lost. You’ve passed.”

Fang Qiu was stunned.

“We joined forces and you broke the sword formation. Even if we continue to fight, the result will be the same.”

Mu Bai gave a wry smile and said, “You deserve to be the one who can kill the Little Saint Lord of the Nirvana Organization. It’s not shameful for us to lose, but if we continue to fight, it will be shameful.”

Hearing that, Fang Qiu smiled.

He could tell that Mu Bai was beating around the bush, asking him not to embarrass them.

After all, they were in the Sword Sect. There were still so many disciples of the Sword Sect watching outside, not to mention that the Twelve Swordsmen had all been dispatched. If they were really defeated, they would probably be laughed at in the future.

“So, can I go up now?”

Fang Qiu pointed to the ancient stone staircase without handrails leading to the ninth floor.

“Do as you please.”

Mu Bai nodded.

“I’m quite curious about what Dragon Gate looks like.”

Fang Qiu stepped forward with a smile.

...

On the high mountain behind the pavilion in the distance.

The white-haired old man with black eyebrows was shocked.

“Even this can’t stop him?”

The black-haired, white-browed old man said in shock, “It seems that he has also studied sword formations.”

“Interesting.”

The old man in the middle nodded with a smile. Although he looked quite calm, the shock in his eyes could not be concealed.

“I want to have a fight with John Doe!”

Suddenly, Qingyun, who was standing behind the three old men, spoke.

The three old men, who had been staring at the Nine-storey Practice Tower, turned their heads in surprise and looked at Qingyun. The shock in their eyes was even more intense.

It should be noted that Qingyun was the most amazing disciple they had cultivated over the years.

Except for the Little Saint Lord of Nirvana, no one could arouse Qingyun's desire to fight.

Was Qingyun itching for a fight as well now?

"Elder Yuan?"

Qing Yun glanced at the old man with white hair and black brows, and then he turned to look at the old man with black hair and white brows. "Elder Qu?"

The two old men laughed.

"Elder Qian?"

Qingyun then looked at the old man standing in the middle.

"Go ahead."

The old man, who was called Elder Qian, chuckled. He then waved his hand and said, "Since you want to fight, take the initiative to challenge John Doe."

"Okay."

Qingyun immediately nodded and turned to leave.

The three old men turned their heads and fixed their eyes on the ninth floor of the Nine-storey Practice Tower once again.

The ninth floor of the Practice Tower was smaller than the eighth floor.

However, when Fang Qiu came to it alone, he still felt that it was very spacious.

He glanced around and found that in addition to a rush cushion in the center, there was nothing on the ninth floor.

“Dragon Gate?”

Looking around, Fang Qiu finally fixed his eyes on a gate.

The words “Dragon Gate” were written on the gate.

Fang Qiu strode forward.

He was surprised to find that when he stepped out of the Dragon Gate, a rainbow staircase made of energy appeared outside the gate, connecting to the ground below.

Standing next to the rainbow staircase, Wei Jian looked at John Doe, who had just come out of the Dragon Gate, in surprise.

“Did he really make it?”

Wei Jian was dumbfounded.

Although he knew that there were no normal trials in the Practice Tower at all and that John Doe had only participated in one trial, the quality of this one was definitely more difficult than that of the nine trials in the Practice Tower.

It was because John Doe had to deal with the Twelve Swordsmen.

In the entire Sword Sect, there were very few people who could pass such a trial.

But John Doe actually did it.

In other words, John Doe had defeated the Twelve Swordsmen.

“How... how is that possible?”
