

Medical M 1915

Chapter 1915 It's all an expression of nature

Look at your hands.

Turn your head and look at the space in all directions, then look up at the sky and down at the earth.

Fangchu found out.

Everything around us has remained the same.

The only thing that had changed inside the entire Cangjie ruins was himself!

"A breakthrough?"

Even after waking up in the midst of a very certain breakthrough, at this moment, Fang Qiu was still a bit taken aback in the face of this breakthrough of his own, as if he hadn't yet come to his senses from the breakthrough.

After all, it took so much time to work for the breakthrough.

The breakthrough passed, but only for a moment.

It's like there's no breakthrough.

This breakthrough.

Did it come too easy?

Mindfulness.

Fang Qiu stood up with a mischievous sound and immediately closed his eyes and looked inward, observing the situation within his body.

Results.

This look.

However, it was very obvious to see the two lotus flowers in the dantian.

Seeing that, his dantian was obviously a circle larger, the golden inner qi in his dantian was also much thicker, and inside his entire body, all the inner qi was incomparably pure.

“Power?”

End of internal view.

Fang Qiu squeezed his right hand.

A force several times more powerful than before immediately surged up from within his body, quickly pouring into his arms and fists.

Feeling this power, Fang Qiu himself couldn't help but smack his lips at it.

“With this power, even if one were to face the Eight Exalted Ones of the Upper Nirvana Organization once again, one would be able to directly fight hard without losing, and even if one were to face that Herculean God of the Three Flower Realm in the Sacred Ground of the Ancient Heath Country, one definitely wouldn't be in such a sorry state as the Eight Exalted Ones.”

Fang Qiu marveled in his heart.

This gap between the Second Flower Realm and the peak of the First Flower was really surprisingly large!

“Try speed again.”

Fang Qiu had always placed special emphasis on speed.

With every battle he experienced, Fang Qiu could feel the importance of speed more clearly.

If it weren't for his speed.

I'm afraid I would have died at the hands of the Nirvana people a long time ago.

“Whoosh

Think it and do it.

Fang Qiu's body moved and instantly disappeared.

After a blink of an eye, it stood still again.

In just this blink of an eye, Fang Qiu had actually run a circle around the lake dozens of meters away, this speed, although not doubled from before the breakthrough, had at least increased by more than fifty percent.

“Whew.”

After trying the speed, Fang Qiu took a long breath and then smiled.

This breakthrough came so hard and yet the breakthrough was so easy.

Sure.

A little thought.

Fang Qiu knew it.

The reason why one's breakthrough went so smoothly was entirely because of one's hard conditions, which had completely reached the standard for breakthrough, after remaining in the peak great circle of the First Flower for a long period of time, one had long since exceeded the standard for breaking through to the Second Flower, and was only being restricted by the seals.

So.

In really starting to break through.

Once the opportunity came and the seal was broken, the breakthrough would naturally come!

"I don't know what's going on out there."

Fang Qiu suddenly thought about the situation outside.

Although the spatial passageway had been completely destroyed, Nirvana's people had definitely arrived at the entrance of the spatial passageway, and it was very likely that they had even arrived before the spatial passageway was destroyed.

Sure.

Fang Qiu was only worried, he had no way of guessing what was happening outside, and even if he wanted to know, he couldn't get in touch with the outside world.

Shake your head.

Fang Qiu regained his senses and threw away the distractions in his mind.

Re-look towards that one green colored wordless stone monument.

"Inside the stone tablet, what exactly is there?"

Breakthrough though.

Although he had seen a lot of things through the stone tablet before his breakthrough, Fang Qiu's heart was still full of doubts and curiosity.

He's pretty sure.

He really was inside the monolith, and he saw something moving, as if it were a living thing, with streamlines.

That thing.

Definitely not the sights he had seen before his breakthrough.

So, what's inside the stone tablet, exactly?

This time.

Fang Qiu didn't sit down cross-legged.

Instead, he just stood upright and stared at the green colored wordless stone tablet in front of him.

Just a glance.

Fang Qiu saw something inside the stone tablet again.

As before, it seemed like there was a something that was swimming around inside the is being.

“It can’t be a dragon, can it?”

Fang Qiu’s heart shook.

Because, from this distance at this angle it really looks too much like it.

Fang Qiu tried his best to open his eyes wide and stared at the green colored stone monument, but no matter how much he looked at it, it still felt blurry, and he still couldn’t see what was inside the monument clearly.

“What the hell?”

Deadly staring at the green color wordless is being, Fang Qiu seemed to be attracted to it, involuntarily taking a step forward, trying to close the distance and see clearly what was inside the green color wordless stone tablet.

Take a step.

Fang Qiu wasn’t able to see clearly what was inside the green colored wordless stone tablet.

Then.

One more step forward.

Still can't see clearly.

Keep moving forward.

One step after another, Fang Qiu quickly arrived at a place that was only ten meters away from the green colored wordless stone monument.

As the distance approached, what was inside the green-colored wordless stone monument seemed to gradually become clearer.

Fang Qiu looked hard, trying to get a good look.

But just as his feet pulsed forward, closing the distance between the stone monuments once more.

Suddenly.

Fang Qiu saw a black hole.

Inside the monolith was a black hole that was spinning rapidly.

In the non-stop rotation, an inexplicable magic seemed to emanate from inside this black hole, as if it was a pair of hands, pulling Fang Qiu.

One caught off guard.

"Swish."

Fang Qiu suddenly had a flash before his eyes.

In an instant, everything around him changed again.

This time.

Fang Qiu felt as if his entire being was pulled in, not his consciousness, but his true body.

Look down.

Fang Qiu could see his lower body very clearly and could see his hands and feet.

“It’s being inside, and there’s room?”

Fang Qiu was surprised.

Immediately Brick looked around.

It is a land of ghostly floods.

Being in it, Fang Qiu could very clearly feel an incomparably thick and heavy flood atmosphere, as if he was really in the ancient flood.

The sky was different from outside, not as calm, not to mention the so-called blue sky.

Here.

The sky is changing.

At times black clouds filled the sky, at times thunderstorms rose, at times the sky was filled with blood red.

Standing between this kind of heaven and earth, even Fang Qiu couldn't help but feel a sense of insecurity in his heart.

Fang Qiu even saw a huge black shadow in the sky, as the black clouds filled the sky, flying past the clouds as if it had been a huge bird!

Fang Qiu strained his eyes, but his vision was blocked by the black clouds, so he couldn't see clearly at all.

When the black clouds dissipate and the thunder and lightning begin.

Everything around them suddenly began to change.

Far away.

A high mountain that had just appeared in front of Fang Qiu's eyes, surprisingly at this time, suddenly began to become blurred, and then that high mountain was transformed into a layer of earth-colored mist-like energy.

It was as if the entire mountain had materialized out of thin air.

When the mountain was completely transformed into earthy yellow energy.

These earth-colored energies, which were like mists, unexpectedly began to gather and surge in a cheering manner, and even condensed into the character for mountain in an oracle bone script!

Although the high mountain had disappeared, the presence of this word mountain was a complete replacement for the one seen before, and was almost indistinguishable from before.

Then.

“Buzz

In his ears, there was a whistling wind.

Fang Qiu turned his head.

That whistling wind, even in the blowing, gradually transformed into a layer of greenish green also like a mist of energy, this energy appeared, quickly condensed into an oracle bone in the word wind!

Then.

A river appeared in front of Fang Qiu.

The river is in flow.

It transformed into an azure-colored energy that turned into the word water.

Subsequently.

Trees and animals, one by one, appear.

All of them, after they appeared, kept on transforming and turned into a single oracle bone character.

Soon, all kinds of oracle bone characters appeared all around Fang Qiu, every scene was transformed into a character, not only mountains, water, wind, even the black clouds in the sky, thunder and lightning were all transformed into oracle bone characters one by one.

It didn't take long.

Fang Qiu's body was then surrounded and shrouded by densely packed oracle bone characters.

Then.

A group of people appeared before Fang Qiu's eyes.

It's a tribe from the Flood.

The sky stabilized and the morning sun rose.

People from the tribe, came out to dig for medicine, to hunt, to get water.

Fang Qiu just watched.

A hunter, with a stone tool in his hand, immediately ran up furiously after seeing his prey, swinging the stone tool in his hand and smashing it fiercely towards the prey.

But just as the stone tool was about to slam down on its prey, the man suddenly fixed himself.

Then, the figure suddenly collapsed, scratched into a stream of energy, and transformed into an oracle bone character again.

Looking at the other side.

The man who fetched the water, who came to the river to get it, was similarly transfigured into another oracle character.

The people who dig up the medicine, too.

Among the tribes.

Each one, doing something different.

Each one of them also transformed into an oracle character as they did their work.

The words look particularly like what the person is doing, even like a painting depicting what the protagonist is doing in general.

Seeing around him, one more oracle bone character, Fang Qiu seemed to understand something.

In his eyes, a shimmering light gradually lit up.

“Naturally, naturally

“The word is the expression of nature.”

“A move and an expression of nature!”

Fang Qiu figured it out.

Earlier, when he realized that nature was natural, he understood that everything in the world was natural, and now he understood that not only everything in the world, but even his every move and stance was natural.

One time.

In Fang Qiu’s mind, the Human Three Styles suddenly appeared.

While thinking of other moves, he couldn’t think of anything but the human three!

Fang Qiu didn't dwell on this to think and recall the other moves, but directly started to do it, demonstrating the Human Three Styles.

Each demonstrates a style.

One's own body and strokes are then transformed into a word, a word that looks nothing like a word, that has never existed before.

After the three styles were demonstrated, three more words appeared in front of Fang Qiu.

Seeing these three strange words, the Human Three Styles in Fang Qiu's brain was actually experiencing some subtle changes.

Tailgate demonstrates and learns from these subtle changes.

Fang Qiu realized.

The Human Three Styles, surprisingly, evolved and sublimated again and again!
