Chapter 441: Chapter the Outer Mongolian Wulin Community

That horrible force appeared like a huge mountain and instantly pressed down heavily on the middle-aged man.

“%*%#...”

As the middle-aged man felt this terrifying aura, his face changed greatly and he said something crazily. The arrogant and confident expression on his face, which was determined to kill Fang Qiu, disappeared and replaced by extreme shock and disbelief.

“It’s time to destroy them all!” Fang Qiu said coldly.

With a thought in his mind, Fang Qiu rushed out in an instant.

Before the middle-aged man could react, Fang Qiu rushed to him.

Under the pressure of the horrible power, there was no room for the middle-aged man to resist.

Fang Qiu smashed down heavily, breaking his Dantian and destroying his meridians.

No one could escape when it came to the supreme power.

In a flash, Fang Qiu stripped the four men of their Kung Fu.

Then, he returned to the spot where the Earth Bead was and sat cross-legged to recover.

The four people who had lost their Kung Fu were disheartened and ran away in a panic.

Naturally, Fang Qiu also discovered that Zu Liancheng and Guisha had disappeared.

However, he was not worried.

He had long been familiar with the scents of the two people. In addition, they had lost their Kung Fu, so they had already become ordinary people. It was not difficult to track them down.

At present, it was better for Fang Qiu to recover first.

Sitting cross-legged next to the Earth Bead, Fang Qiu suppressed the sense of breakthrough while mobilizing the internal Qi in his body to cure his injury.

Nothing happened in the night.

Early the next morning, Fang Qiu opened his eyes at dawn.

After a night's recovery, the injury in his body had mostly recovered, and the remaining slight injury was not a problem for him at all.

At the same time, the strong sense of breakthrough was finally suppressed by him.

According to the current situation, he should be able to suppress it for a few more days.

After looking around and making sure that there was no one around, he turned to look at the Earth Bead, which was shining with black light and looked like a deep dark hole.

The black light around the Earth Bead had faded a lot, and the fruit that was originally invisible before was now partly visible in the fading black light.

“It’s finally about to mature!” Fang Qiu let out a sigh of relief.

According to the record of the Scroll of Heaven Materials and Earth Treasures, the Treasure would be mature as its black light faded and the fruit appeared.

In other words, when the black light completely dissipated, and the fruit was exposed, the Earth Bead would be mature.

Looking at the Earth Bead that was about to mature, Fang Qiu immediately began to be vigilant, afraid that someone would suddenly show up to rob it.

But as a result, when all the black light on the bead dispersed, the fruit fell down and rolled on the ground like a black Buddha bead, but there was still no figure showing up.

Fang Qiu picked up the fruit.

He was surprised to find that the fruit was round and transparent. It was really like a bead at first glance.

After taking a careful look, Fang Qiu put away the bead safely, and then he moved quickly toward the outside of the grassland while constantly using his mental power to search within a radius of five kilometers with himself as the center.

He didn’t find anything along the way.

When he arrived in Batuo City, Fang Qiu immediately sensed the scents of Zu Liancheng and Guisha.

One was hiding in the east of the city, and the other was hiding in the west of the city!

Without hesitation, Fang Qiu rushed straight to an abandoned building because he was relatively close to the east of the city,

At this time, Zu Liancheng was hiding in one of the rooms. He got a pot of hot lamb milk and a roast lamb leg from nowhere and gorged himself on them.

As soon as he entered the room, Fang Qiu stared at Zu Liancheng and said, "You've got yourself a decent meal."

Hearing this, Zu Liancheng didn't even dare to turn his head around.

The lamb leg fell from his hand with a thud.

Then, he swallowed hard to calm himself down.

Only then did Zu Liancheng slowly turn around.

The moment he saw Fang Qiu, his eyes narrowed and his face was full of horror!

He was so unfortunate! After running for a whole night, he ran back to Batuo City from the grassland. He thought that Fang Qiu was already dead, and he was too hungry to take revenge. Therefore, he bought some food to celebrate his survival and then planned to log into the Wulin forum to show off.

But he didn't expect that Fang Qiu arrived before he had even eaten a few mouthfuls of this lamb leg.

Ten minutes later, Fang Qiu took Zu Liancheng to the west of the city.

Guisha, who was sleeping soundly on the bed in his villa, was woken up by Zu Liancheng.

At the moment when he saw Fang Qiu, he was also dumbfounded.

There were a total of four super experts, including a seventh-class Martial Superior with three meridians and three seventh-class Martial Superiors with two meridians.

In his eyes, Fang Qiu was bound to die, so he dared to go back to his villa to sleep.

But now, Fang Qiu actually came back alive!

How could this be possible?

While he was in shock, Guisha, who had no way to resist, was taken away by Fang Qiu.

Fang Qiu had done all the things he needed to do, so he didn't intend to stay either.

He went back to their country directly with the two of them.

Then he handed them over to the police.

Of course, Fang Qiu called Li Ji in advance, so no one would ask his identity.

But he didn't expect that after the police's investigation, Zu Liancheng and Guisha were both A-level wanted criminals.

Since they had lost their Kung Fu, they could only plead guilty and wait for the sentence.

Fang Qiu handed them over to the police in Inner Mongolia.

He then directly bought a flight ticket and got on the plane back to Jiangjing.

“Breaking news! A mysterious Huaxia martial arts practitioner challenged the entire Outer Mongolia martial arts world. Almost all the powerful fighters of the Outer Mongolian martial arts world were defeated!”

A post suddenly appeared on the home page of the Wulin forum.

As soon as the post appeared, it immediately attracted the attention of countless people.

“Oh my! We couldn’t be more proud of him!”

“Awesome, who is this mysterious master?”

“Hey, the mysterious man, John Doe, happened to go to Outer Mongolia. Is this mysterious master John Doe?”

“Mysterious? John Doe has always been very mysterious.”

“In that case, it seems possible!”

“No way. Although the Outer Mongolian martial arts world is not as strong as ours, there are many experts. Although John Doe is powerful, it’s not realistic for him to challenge the whole martial arts world, isn’t it?”

“I also think that John Doe can’t be so strong.”

“But, it’s obvious that John Doe went to Outer Mongolia.”

“Is he John Doe or not?”

All of a sudden, the crowd began to gossip.

The forum was also divided into two groups.

One side thought it was John Doe, otherwise, it wouldn't be so coincidental. He had just been there for a few days and this kind of news just came out. The other side firmly believed that John Doe didn't have that strength and couldn't do such a thing.

Just as the people of the two sides were arguing, someone commented, "What's point to quarrel about? You'll know when you check the List of Martial Superiors. If he's really John Doe, his ranking will definitely rise again, right?"

Seeing this comment, everyone immediately rushed to check the List of Martial Superiors.

As a result, Fang Qiu was still ranked No.788. There was neither rise nor fall.

"His ranking remains the same, which can prove that he's not John Doe."

"It seems that he is really not John Doe."

"Hum, you guys are so silly. The List of Martial Superiors in our forum belongs to Huaxia. Outer Mongolia was a foreign country. It's not included at all."

"That's right. If John Doe really defeated those people, his ranking on the List won't be raised either."

"Yes, foreign experts are not on the list either. Even if they are defeated, there will be no record of related information on the list."

"I still think that the mysterious man who challenged the whole Outer Mongolian martial arts world is John Doe!"

Soon, the proof based on the List of Martial Superiors was overturned by everyone.

Most of them still believed that the mysterious master must be John Doe.

Several hours later, the plane landed at Jiangjing Airport.

As Fang Qiu walked out of the airport, he took out his mobile phone and called He Gaoming.

“Master, are you back?”

As soon as the number was dialed, someone immediately answered, and he heard He Gaoming’s joyful voice from the other side of the phone.

Fang Qiu responded and said, “Help me inquire about the Heaven Treasure immediately. No matter how much it costs, you have to find it to me as soon as possible.”

“No problem,” He Gaoming immediately patted his chest and assured him. “This is what I do for a living. As long as there is a Heaven Treasure appearing recently, I’ll know. Master, don’t worry. I will absolutely accomplish anything you ask me to do.”

“All right.” Fang Qiu nodded.

“Oh, I have something to ask you,” He Gaoming said.

“What is it?” Fang Qiu asked.

“Is that you the mysterious martial arts practitioner who challenged the Outer Mongolian martial arts world?” He Gaoming asked with expectation.

“Outer Mongolia, mysterious practitioner?” Fang Qiu froze.

“Yes,” He Gaoming immediately explained. “This thing has been spread all over on the Wulin forum, and everyone in the world knows it. It’s said that it is a mysterious Huaxia practitioner who defeated lots of Outer Mongolian fighters in a row. All their elite fighters were defeated. Is it you?”

“I was not challenging the whole circle and I didn’t defeat all of them,” Fang Qiu pursed his lips and said. “I just stripped dozens of people of their Kung Fu.”

“Damn,” Hearing this, He Gaoming was shocked and immediately said, “Master, you are really awesome!”

Fang Qiu did not answer but hung up the phone directly.

He Gaoming was extremely ecstatic.

It seemed that he really got a fine master.

How many people would be scared to death if they heard that he just challenged the entire Outer Mongolian martial arts circle with his own strength?

Giving it some thoughts, He Gaoming even began to regret that he didn’t take the initiative to ask Fang Qiu to take him with him when they found that Zu Liancheng was in Outer Mongolia. If he had been there, his name would have rung in the martial arts world by now.

“What a pity!” Shaking his head with a smile, He Gaoming left the detective agency and was busy inquiring about the Heaven Treasure.

Fang Qiu took a taxi back to school, frowning along the way.

The reason why he called He Gaoming as soon as he got off the plane and asked him to help him find the Heaven Treasure was because he was under too much pressure now, and he had enough savings of internal Qi in his body to break through to the fifth class.

However, he didn't dare to break through.

Although there was the Earth Bead in his hand, it was just the Earth Treasure. It didn't have the effect of protecting and repairing meridians.

Without the Heaven Treasure, he wasn't even able to break through to the fourth class, let alone the fifth class.

Chapter 442: An ID Without Face in It

Now, he didn't even dare to circulate his Internal Qi too much, because the Internal Qi stored in his body was so much that even the slightest move could cause it to explode.

According to the current situation of his suppression, he could only hold it back for seven days at most. He must find the Heaven Treasure within seven days, otherwise, he could only reopen his meridians by force!

On the second day after Fang Qiu returned to school, it was Monday.

The show of the Young Physician of Huaxia Competition was officially announced. There were plenty of titbits and previews everywhere on the Internet, and the advertisements on TV were also quite intensive.

Sunday was the third day of May, which was the official opening day of the show.

In the end, the program was decided to be shown at prime time, on Channel 3 of Central Television.

Although it was on Channel 3, it was directly broadcast at the prime time, which showed how much importance that Central Television had attached to the show.

Seeing the constant previews of the show, those who didn't look forward to it all began to look forward to it, while those who were already eager to see the show became more expectant.

In the morning, Fang Qiu went back to his dormitory to read books after breakfast.

As soon as he entered the dormitory, the phone in his trouser pocket suddenly rang.

"Dee-dee-dee..." It was a text message.

Fang Qiu took out his mobile phone and took a look.

It was a text message from the crew of the Young Physician of Huaxia Competition.

He tapped on the text message. "Please come to record the third episode of the show in Jinlong Hotel in Linxia City of Ganzhou Province before eight o'clock on the evening of May 4th." There was only a simple notice in the text message.

Obviously, not only Fang Qiu but also the other top 50 contestants received the same text message.

After reading the text message, Fang Qiu put the phone on the table and began to read his book.

But a short while later, the phone suddenly rang again.

It was from Jiang Miaoyu.

"Hello?" Fang Qiu answered the phone with a smile.

"Hey, what are you doing?" Jiang Miaoyu asked.

"I'm reading in my dorm, preparing for the next competition," Fang Qiu said frankly.

“I just received a text message from the program group, asking us to go to the Ganzhou Province. The third episode seems to be no longer recorded in the capital city. Have you received a text message?” Jiang Miaoyu asked.

“Yeah, I just got it,” Fang Qiu nodded and said. “I’m also very curious. They’ve already prepared the broadcast hall, but why did they change the place after shooting only two episodes? I think the program group might have other intentions since they want to go to Ganzhou Province this time.”

“Wow. I’m stunned. A person like you would be afraid of this change?” Jiang Miaoyu jested.

“Yeah! Of course, I’m afraid,” Fang Qiu chuckled and continued. “What I’m most afraid of is that Mr. Xu can’t find a wife.”

“Humph,” Jiang Miaoyu snorted and said. “I got to go. I have to ask Mr. Chu some questions. With Mr. Chu’s guidance, just wait for me to surpass you.”

“All right, I’m looking forward to it.” Fang Qiu answered with a smile and then hung up the phone.

However, the phone rang again before he was about to put it away.

This time, it was He Gaoming.

“Hello?” Fang Qiu answered the phone.

“Master, I got some news about the thing you asked me to inquire.” He Gaoming’s voice came from the other side of the phone.

“Oh? What is it?” Fang Qiu asked.

“It’s hard to say on the phone. Let’s talk about it when we meet,” He Gaoming said.

“Okay,” Fang Qiu nodded and said. “Let’s go to the teahouse we met last time.”

“Just as I thought. I’m halfway there now, and I’ll be there in five minutes,” He Gaoming said.

“Okay, I’m coming. see you there,” Fang Qiu nodded and hung up the phone.

Then Fang Qiu stood up, immediately put on the mysterious man’s outfit, and rushed to the teahouse on the street not far from his school.

It was still in the previous box.

The difference was that He Gaoming didn’t order any food this time.

After entering the box, Fang Qiu asked, “Go ahead. Tell me the details.”

“Master, have a seat, please.” He Gaoming grinned. While asking Fang Qiu to sit down, he quickly poured a cup of tea for Fang Qiu, and then said, “I heard that there will be an auction in Yangzhou on Thursday, and the last item of the auction is a Heaven Treasure ranked 19th—Mei Leaf.”

“Mei Leaf?” Fang Qiu started to ponder.

In his mind, he immediately thought of the record about the Mei Leaf in the Scroll of Heaven and Earth Treasures.

No.19 on the Heaven Treasure List: Mei Leaf.

Its shape was like an eyebrow, as sharp as a blade. It showed a blue glimmer and was produced after the mutation of a bamboo leaf. Although it was a Heaven Treasure, it was incomparably sharp and tough, which could compare to a magic weapon.

“Is this piece of news reliable?” Fang Qiu asked.

He made a rough estimate. According to his current situation, he could only suppress the sense of breakthrough until Sunday, so he must get the Heaven Treasure before Sunday.

In addition, there was vast and powerful Internal Qi in his body that was strong enough to allow him to reach the fifth class, so the Heaven Treasure he needed had to be ranked at the top.

He believed that the 19th Mei Leaf should be able to do that.

“Of course! It’s me who got the news!” He Gaoming nodded and said. “Don’t worry. This source is absolutely reliable. It’s just that it’s a little tricky to attend this auction.”

“Why?” Fang Qiu asked.

“Because, this is a closed-off auction, which means only those who got the invitation could get into the auction. Without an invitation, you can’t enter. And the people who don’t receive the invitation doesn’t know this thing at all. It took me a lot of effort to inquire about it,” He Gaoming said.

“Oh?” Fang Qiu frowned.

It was indeed a bit tricky if they could only get in with invitations.

“Is there any other way to enter besides the invitation?” Fang Qiu asked.

“Yes,” He Gaoming nodded immediately and said. “We just need to target a person who received the invitation and knock him out. Then we can steal his invitation and directly get in as that person.”

Fang Qiu was speechless.

Why did this guy always think about doing this kind of thing?

However, after giving it some thoughts, this seemed to be the only feasible way.

“Then... Let’s do it.” Eventually, Fang Qiu agreed.

“Okay,” He Gaoming clapped his hands and immediately said. “I’ll go to check the list of people getting the invitations immediately. I’m sure I’ll choose the easiest one.”

“All right,” Fang Qiu nodded and said. “You’ve been stuck in the first-class Martial Superior for a long time, right? To return this favor, I will find an opportunity to help you improve your strength to the second-class Martial Superior.”

“Really?” He Gaoming was surprised and said. “Thank you, master. You have no idea how long I have been waiting for this day. I think I’m going to cry out loud if I still have to wait for it.”

Fang Qiu rolled his eyes.

He got up and was ready to leave.

At this time, He Gaoming suddenly shouted. “Master, why don’t you take me with you? Let me see the world.”

Fang Qiu stopped and turned to look at He Gaoming.

“Fine, find the target as soon as possible.” Fang Qiu nodded.

He Gaoming was extremely ecstatic.

He finally made progress after calling him as his master for so long.

If things kept going on like this, not to mention the second-class Martial Superior, he would be able to make it to the third class, fourth class, or even fifth class.

After Fang Qiu left, He Gaoming drank up the tea on the table and hurriedly went to inquire about the list.

There was no denying that He Gaoming wasn't blowing his own trumpet for claiming that he was a professional detective.

The next day, Fang Qiu received a phone call from him saying that he had already targeted two people.

Then they had determined the target.

That afternoon, Fang Qiu got in He Gaoming's car, and the two of them rushed to Yangzhou together. Anyway, it was not far from Jiangjing.

On the way to Yangzhou, Fang Qiu asked, "Who are these two people?"

"There is not much to tell." He Gaoming thought for a while and said, "Frankly, these two people are just rich, and their strength is not very powerful, but their fathers are quite powerful. It is said that they are both sixth-class Martial Superiors."

"Sixth-class? Huh? That's not quite impressive," Fang Qiu said.

Hearing that, He Gaoming was speechless at once.

"It's the sixth class, for heaven's sake! The sixth class! Maybe it's not powerful for you, but for others, it's almost invincible!" He Gaoming thought to himself.

As if he suddenly thought of something, He Gaoming said, "By the way, there is trouble at this auction. The price of the auction is at least eight million yuan. The Mei Leaf must be above ten million yuan. Although you have sold a lot of Earth Treasures, do you still have so much money now?"

Hearing that, Fang Qiu pondered for a moment.

He only had ten million yuan now.

He had taken the Earth Bead with him, so it was sure to be worth some money, but it might not be enough.

“It seems that I have to prepare something.” Fang Qiu secretly thought.

Soon, arriving in Yangzhou, He Gaoming took Fang Qiu directly to a hotel.

They came to the front desk. He Gaoming took out his ID card, ordered a room for himself, then turned to look at Fang Qiu, waiting for Fang Qiu to take out his ID card.

“Ha-ha, I finally get to see your face. There’s no way you can escape this time.” He Gaoming thought to himself.

He Gaoming couldn’t help smiling quietly.

Fang Qiu was not hesitant.

He took out an ID card from his pants pocket and handed it to the receptionist at the front desk.

He Gaoming rushed forward to have a look.

However, he was dumbfounded as he saw the card.

The photo on the ID card turned out to be masked, and even the name on it was written “John Doe”.

It was not just He Gaoming, the receptionist at the front desk of the hotel was also stunned.

“Err.. sir, did you get the wrong ID?” the waiter asked.

“That’s the right one. You can swipe it,” Fang Qiu said.

Hearing that, the receptionist frowned and swiped.

As a result, the computer actually showed his identity information. It was really a photo of him with a mask, and the name was also John Doe.

This really made the receptionist and He Gaoming confuse.

How could there be such an ID card in this world?

People couldn’t even see his face.

What kind of ID card was this?

Just when the two were extremely shocked, Fang Qiu reached out to the receptionist and said, “Can I have it back now?”

As she heard what he said, the receptionist didn’t dare to hesitate and immediately handed the ID card back to Fang Qiu.

She was not stupid.

Those who could hold such an ID card must have a powerful background.

Even if this was a fake ID card, she couldn’t mess with him.

After all, this kind of ID card was not something that ordinary people would dare to make.

Taking his ID card, Fang Qiu took the room card and turned to walk upstairs.

In fact, it was not surprising that Fang Qiu had this ID card. When he was on the plane, he had already thought that it would be easy to be found out who he was if he used his real identity to take the plane.

Therefore, after returning from Bhutan, he asked Li Ji to give him such a completely legal ID card.

With the ID card in his hand, Fang Qiu turned upstairs and entered his room.

Medical Master

Chapter 443: Getting the Invitations!

Returning to the room, Fang Qiu immediately began to write.

“Dong, dong, dong...”

“Master, are you asleep?”

He heard He Gaoming’s voice.

“What’s the matter?” Fang Qiu asked.

“Yeah.” He Gaoming immediately nodded and said.

Fang Qiu got up and opened the door.

Entering the door, He Gaoming immediately said, "I just received a message. The two people we chose will arrive tomorrow night, and they also booked this hotel."

"Okay." Fang Qiu nodded.

"There's still one more thing," He Gaoming raised his eyebrows and said. "I heard that these two people also brought bodyguards with them. We're not sure about the strength of the bodyguards yet."

"I see." Fang Qiu nodded and signalled him to leave.

He Gaoming didn't hesitate and turned to leave.

But Fang Qiu suddenly paused and said, "Three o'clock tomorrow morning, which is three o'clock tonight. I'll help you break through."

"All right." He Gaoming was overjoyed.

He was willing to reach the second class at any time, let alone three o'clock in the morning. Even if he couldn't sleep for ten days or a month, he would like to do so!

On the evening of that night, Fang Qiu sat cross-legged in the hotel room to practice after he finished writing.

He Gaoming set the alarm clock and went to bed early.

At 2:50 a.m, He Gaoming came to Fang Qiu's door on time to wait.

At three o'clock, Fang Qiu went out on time.

When Fang Qiu went out, He Gaoming thought Fang Qiu was going to open the door for him, so he rushed into Fang Qiu's room as soon as the door opened. Therefore, he bumped into Fang Qiu directly.

“Master, are you going out?” He Gaoming was confused.

“Yes,” Fang Qiu nodded and stepped out, followed by He Gaoming.

Actually, he couldn’t blame He Gaoming for it. Fang Qiu asked him to come at three o’clock in the morning, which made him think that he was going to do it as the people in the TV show. He thought the reason why Fang Qiu let him enter the room in the middle of the night was to teach him great cultivation methods.

But he didn’t expect that Fang Qiu was going out.

As soon as he thought of his behavior just now, He Gaoming felt embarrassed.

They didn’t say a word along the way.

With this embarrassing atmosphere, he followed Fang Qiu all the way to a park not far from the hotel.

At this time, the park was extremely quiet.

There was no one around within a kilometer, not to mention the surrounding area.

They walked to the center of the park and stopped in front of a huge stone that was more than three meters high.

Fang Qiu pointed to the boulder and said to He Gaoming, “Go up the stone and sit with your legs crossed.”

He Gaoming didn’t hesitate.

As soon as he moved his feet, he immediately leaped up, stepped on the wall, and quickly rushed to the boulder.

“Master, I’m seated.” He Gaoming shouted at Fang Qiu below.

But before he could finish his words, he found that Fang Qiu was already gone under the boulder.

He turned around, took a look and suddenly found that Fang Qiu was behind him.

At this moment, He Gaoming was almost scared out of his wits.

If he were an enemy, He Gaoming wouldn’t even have a chance to react, and he would be dead by now.

Fortunately, this was his master.

“Calm down and prepare to absorb,” Fang Qiu said.

He Gaoming immediately closed his eyes and did as he said.

Seeing that He Gaoming was almost ready, Fang Qiu immediately waved his hand and directly used the Great Hand of Destruction to slowly attract the energy between Heaven and Earth, which lingered around He Gaoming so as to let him absorb.

“Concentrate!” Seeing He Gaoming, who felt that the Heaven and Earth energy was too strong and had the intention of opening his eyes to take a look, Fang Qiu immediately shouted. “Get rid of the distracting thoughts and absorb Heaven and Earth energy that is needed.”

He Gaoming did as he said.

A while later, he absorbed enough Heaven and Earth energy.

Fang Qiu tapped on the top of He Gaoming's head with his right index finger.

As his mental power surged in, the condition of He Gaoming's body appeared in front of his eyes.

He felt that He Gaoming had absorbed enough energy.

Fang Qiu channeled his internal Qi and slowly penetrated it into He Gaoming's body.

"Remember this route." Fang Qiu reminded him.

Fang Qiu controlled his internal Qi and made his internal Qi go through the Heart Meridian of Hand-Shaoyin and the Pericardium Channel of Hand-Jueyin in He Gaoming's body.

"Do you remember it?" Fang Qiu asked.

He Gaoming nodded heavily.

"Okay." Fang Qiu nodded and said, "Let's start the breakthrough."

As he absorbed the Heaven and Earth energy, He Gaoming felt a sense of breakthrough rising in his body. As the accumulated energy increased, the sense of breakthrough became more and more obvious.

Until now, he had clearly seen the shackles.

Therefore, as Fang Qiu finished his words, he immediately controlled his internal Qi and rushed toward the shackles!

As for Fang Qiu, he was standing by the side to protect him.

It seemed that because he had absorbed enough Heaven and Earth energy, He Gaoming had not been hindered at all. It was just a matter of course. With only one move, he broke through the shackles directly.

“Done!” He Gaoming opened his eyes and stared blankly at his hands.

He didn’t expect that it was so easy for him to make a breakthrough.

This was completely different from the breakthrough he had experienced before.

How could it become so easy?

“How do you feel?” Fang Qiu asked.

“Good. No, it’s great!” He Gaoming laughed excitedly, clenched his fists, and said, “Now I feel that even if a guru is in front of me, I’m not afraid!”

Fang Qiu was speechless as he heard that.

How could he dare to say such a thing when he just reached the second class?

After the breakthrough, they returned to the hotel.

At nine o’clock in the evening, Fang Qiu and He Gaoming were waiting in the lobby of the hotel.

Half an hour later, it was 9:30 p.m.

A car stopped at the door of the hotel.

Four people got out of the car.

“That’s the target,” He Gaoming said in a low voice.

Fang Qiu nodded slightly and looked at the four of them.

The two young men raised their heads and walked into the hotel with confident smiles.

Behind them, each of them was accompanied by a bodyguard.

“These two bodyguards seem to be very powerful. I can’t tell their strength,” He Gaoming said in a low voice.

“Fourth-class,” Fang Qiu said.

“Well, that’s tough.” He Gaoming smiled wryly.

However, Fang Qiu only stretched out one finger.

“No wonder you’re my master. You’re amazing!”

He Gaoming immediately fawningly asked, “You can defeat them with one move?”

“One finger,” Fang Qiu replied.

He Gaoming was speechless.

That was insane!

How could he defeat forth-class Martial Superiors with just one finger?

Although he was shocked, He Gaoming did not doubt it at all, because he knew that Fang Qiu had such powerful strength.

However, as an apprentice, he didn't even know how to flatter Fang Qiu.

If he had known it earlier, he would have said it in an exaggerated way, like "He could definitely defeat them with just one fart."

"When are we going to make a move?" He Gaoming asked in a low voice.

"Wait for a while," replied Fang Qiu.

"Okay, I'll go and remove the monitor of this spot first," He Gaoming said.

For him, this kind of thing was just so easy.

As a detective, he would always need to destroy the monitor.

"No need." Fang Qiu shook his head.

Although he knew that He Gaoming was capable of this, it was not hard for him to deal with two fourth-class Martial Superiors and two martial arts practitioners who were weaker than them. Even if there was a monitor, it probably wouldn't catch him.

The two of them went back to their rooms.

At twelve in the evening, confirming the two rich young men's rooms, Fang Qiu jumped out of the window and flew to their rooms.

He found that one of the rooms was empty.

It turned out that the two of them were having a meal and chatting in the same room.

Seeing the two people, Fang Qiu did not hesitate to enter directly through the window. It felt like wind blowing through, and the two men in the room had not even noticed before they were knocked out by Fang Qiu.

Of course, Fang Qiu was not using an ordinary technique.

Although it seemed that they were knocked out, Fang Qiu actually used the nerve-blocking method that he learned from Li Zhengtang.

Through controlling the strength, Fang Qiu could control the time when they were in a coma.

After the two of them passed out, Fang Qiu immediately began to search.

“Why do they become so quiet now?” Next door, the two bodyguards who stayed together for supper were suddenly confused.

They were always listening to the movements in the next room.

Only when they heard the two young men talking could they rest assured.

But they didn't expect that there was no movement in the next room as they were having the meal.

This situation caused the two to frown and look at each other and then they hurried over to knock on the door.

“Dong, Dong.” While Fang Qiu was searching, a knock came suddenly.

With a thought in his mind, Fang Qiu went straight to open the door.

He knew that there were two bodyguards knocking on the door.

Therefore, the moment the door was opened, he knocked them out and dragged them into the room before they could react.

“Master.” At this moment, a shout was heard.

Looking around, he saw He Gaoming jumping in from the window and said, “The fourth floor is too high, and it’s almost 20 meters. I almost fell down...”

He was looking at the room before he finished his words.

In the room, all four men fell to the ground.

He was stunned. “Damn!”

Looking at the four people who passed out, He Gaoming raced all the way to Fang Qiu and said, “Master, you are too awesome. You don’t even give me a chance to make a move. And you’ve already taken them down?”

“Go and find the invitations,” Fang Qiu ordered.

“Okay,” He Gaoming answered, and then immediately began to look around.

Fang Qiu came to the side of the two young people and searched their bodies.

Fang Qiu thought since this auction was closed-off, the invitation letters would definitely be very precious. They were wealthy people, and they would certainly not bring the invitation letters with them.

But he didn't expect that he actually found the invitation letters from their pockets.

"Let's go." He said to He Gaoming who was still looking at the bedside safe and then passed him an invitation letter.

"Wait." After receiving the invitation, He Gaoming hurriedly came over, pointing at the four people and saying, "Let's find some ropes and tie them up, otherwise we would be found when they wake up."

"It's okay. I've set the time for them to wake up," Fang Qiu said.

"What?" He Gaoming was startled and immediately asked, "This can be timed? How? Please teach me!"

"You don't have a medical foundation, so you won't understand even if I teach you." Fang Qiu then jumped out of the window and returned to his room.

He Gaoming was standing there with a bitter smile on his face.

The next day, He Gaoming went out early and dressed like Fang Qiu. He bought black clothes and a black mask and then went to the auction with Fang Qiu at 7:30 in the afternoon.

Chapter 444: Bid for the Heaven Treasure

This was a private manor, much larger than Elder Yi's. There were many rockeries, trees, flowers, and ponds in the manor.

The path in the manor was winding and there were many fork roads.

There was a direction mark in front of each fork.

Following the marks, the two of them arrived at the entrance to an attic in the manor.

It was a huge rugged attic with a dark red door that looked extremely majestic.

There were two people standing in front of the door of the attic.

“Please show us your invitation letters!” As soon as they saw people coming, the two of them immediately came up and blocked the door.

Fang Qiu and He Gaoming didn’t say anything and directly handed out the invitation letters.

“Come in, please.” These two gatekeepers didn’t even check, nor did they deliberately look at the faces of Fang Qiu and He Gaoming. The moment they saw the invitation letters, they immediately stepped aside.

Fang Qiu and He Gaoming then looked at each other and stepped forward directly.

“This isn’t strict, is it?” He Gaoming said in a low voice.

“Actually, the way they did was much stricter. As long as the invitation letter in your hand is real, no matter how you get it, you will be acknowledged by the auction house. It proves that you are powerful, at least more powerful than the original owner of the invitation letter.”

Fang Qiu continued, “From this point of view, since the original owner of the invitation letter can enter, then you, as a person who got his letter, are more qualified. That’s why they only look at the invitation letter rather than the person who gives it!”

As He Gaoming heard that, it suddenly dawned on him.

At this time, the two of them walked to the door.

“Crack!” The door opened.

What came into view was a very wide and huge space.

This was a rectangular auction room.

There was a natural stone platform with an item-displaying cabinet and an auction table in the room.

Obviously, that was the auction block.

Looking from the door to the inside, one would find that it looked like an American church. There were chairs on both sides, leaving only a small path in the middle for people to walk.

Every chair had a unique number.

Fang Qiu opened the invitation letter and saw that it was No.38.

He Gaoming was in chair No. 39.

Both of them were in the fourth row.

After a careful calculation, they found that there were twelve rows of chairs in the auction room.

Therefore, the two of them were really lucky to be able to make it to the fourth row.

On the way to the chair, Fang Qiu looked up and found that the space of the auction room was like a cave with bright lights everywhere. The most special thing was that there was a second floor in this space.

There were several seats on the second floor.

However, no one was sitting there.

While observing, Fang Qiu and He Gaoming walked to their seats and sat down.

After observing the environment of the auction, Fang Qiu sat down and began to observe all the people present, including the people who came to participate in the auction.

As a result, he immediately found that there were a lot of experts in the auction house.

The most special thing was that Fang Qiu also felt a particularly strong aura.

Judging from his strength, this person should be an eighth-class Martial Superior with one meridian.

The location of this expert was behind the auction stage.

Obviously, he belonged to the auction house.

By the time Fang Qiu and He Gaoming arrived, it was already eight o'clock in the evening.

They sat in the room for half an hour.

At half-past eight, the auction officially began!

At this moment, as soon as the door of the auction house was closed, a woman in a white gauzy dress came out behind the auction stage and stepped onto the stage. She looked ethereal and illusory.

“Ladies and gentlemen, welcome.” On the stage, the woman made an ancient etiquette to everyone. She folded her hands on the right side and squatted slightly. Then she said with a smile, “I believe that everyone is tired of waiting, so I won’t waste your time. Now the auction begins. The first item!”

Then the help immediately carried a tray to the auction stage.

Taking a closer look, Fang Qiu found that there was a long sword on the platform.

“This sword is called Thin Snow.”

When the servants put the item on the auction block, the auctioneer in a white gauzy dress walked forward and picked up the long sword.

“Hiss!” She pulled it, and the long sword was directly drawn out of the sheath.

Suddenly, a cold light flashed.

A layer of cold Qi slowly spread out from the sword.

At first glance, it seemed that the long sword was not a sword, but a piece of ice.

“Thin Snow is made of the iron ore that is frozen underground in the far north. The edge of the blade can easily cut off the stainless steel, and the cold Qi will frighten people. Those who take the blow of this sword will suffer from the cold Qi about three months to ten years at most. It can’t be cured.”

Speaking of this, the auctioneer smiled and put the sword back into its sheath, then said, “The minimum price of this sword is one million, and each rise should not be less than 100,000. The auction begins!”

Under the stage, the crowd who could no longer keep their cool began to bid crazily.

“This sword is amazing,” He Gaoming exclaimed.

“Useless.” Fang Qiu shook his head.

“Why?” He Gaoming was confused.

“The sword is a good sword, and the cold Qi it carries is also very strong. However, those who can really exert its true strength must be above the eighth class. However, for an eighth-class Martial Superior, this weapon is no longer of much use. Besides, although the sword is good, the cold in the sword is not something that ordinary people can endure. Although the hilt and scabbard are built to isolate the cold Qi and prevent the cold from leaking, the one carrying this sword for a long time will inevitably be eroded by the cold Qi.

“People who can use it are disdainful of it. Those who want to use it can’t use it. Of course, it’s useless.”

Hearing that, He Gaoming suddenly nodded. “Well, it seems to be the truth.”

While the two of them were discussing, the Thin Snow had been auctioned off, and the final price rose to 1.6 million.

This also proved that the sword was not really valuable.

“Now, the second item, Cloud-patterned Amber Fish.” On the stage, the auctioneer began to introduce the second item.

The Cloud-patterned Amber Fish was tea-colored and round in the shape of a jade plate. It was about the size of a ping-pong ball. There was a very rare small fish inside the amber.

How did a fish turn into amber?

Everyone was curious.

“The Cloud-patterned Amber Fish comes from the deep sea. No one knows how it’s formed. It has the function of attracting the Heaven and Earth energy. It can increase the speed of the user’s cultivation by 5%!”

“The starting price of the auction is 800,000, and each rise mustn’t be less than 100,000 yuan.

“The auction begins!” Just as the auctioneer finished her introduction, the crowd under the stage went crazy.

However, for everyone, 5% was already a very high percentage.

Maybe it didn’t make any difference for a day or two.

But if the person wore it for one year to ten years, its effect was absolutely impressive.

The most important thing was that this amber was a rare treasure that could help one’s cultivation.

Many people at the auction came here for this treasure.

“Why is such a good thing useless again?” He Gaoming looked at Fang Qiu in surprise.

“The thing is good, but the effect is not as good as people expect.”

Fang Qiu shook his head with a smile and said, “Why don’t you ask the auctioneer, why does this kind of treasure only increase the martial arts practitioner’s training speed by 5%?”

“Martial arts practitioner?” He Gaoming heard the key point.

“That’s right.” Fang Qiu nodded and said, “In my opinion, it can only help the martial arts practitioners. It won’t offer enough help for Martial Superiors.”

He Gaoming was stunned.

It turned out that the auctioneer was fooling everyone.

No wonder this kind of thing, which sounded like a divine treasure, only could be bidden at the minimum price of 800,000 yuan.

As a result, everyone was bidding for the treasure. The price of the Cloud-patterned Amber Fish skyrocketed and eventually reached 2.8 million.

Fang Qiu did not expect it.

Such a little thing could be sold at an auction price of more than two million yuan, which was simply robbing money.

If it went on like this, how much the Mei Leaf would be raised?

The auction continued.

Under the introduction of the auctioneer, all kinds of dazzling things, including various swords and halberds, sold a lot of money.

“I’ve learned a lot this time.” Looking at the auction, He Gaoming shouted, “I want to make money. I must make more money!”

The auction went to the middle stage.

A very special item appeared on the auction table.

It didn't have a basic price because it was a treasure that a fifth-class Martial Superior worked for his whole life.

As a result, it was sold at three million.

Seeing this, Fang Qiu nodded his head secretly.

At ten o'clock, the last item finally appeared on the auction table.

"This is the most eye-catching item of this auction!"

"The Heaven Treasure, Mei Leaf!"

As soon as the auctioneer claimed, everyone in the room was immediately excited.

Many people even stood up, looking at the Mei Leaf.

A large wooden box was put on the auction table.

"Mei Leaf ranked 19th on the Heaven Treasure List.

"Since everyone knows about this Mei Leaf, I won't say much.

"Here I announce.

"Mei Leaf, the bottom price: six million.

"As the rule goes, the price should be increased by no less than 100,000 per time."

The moment the auctioneer finished the introduction, a loud shout was heard at once. "Eight million!"

"Nine million." Another shout came.

"Ten million!"

At this moment, everyone seemed crazy, and they started to raise prices constantly.

In less than a minute, the price of Mei Leaf had exceeded ten million.

This rate of rise made Fang Qiu frown.

Ten million was exactly the total amount of his cash.

If it went on like this, it would go beyond his budget.

However, just when Fang Qiu was worried, the price of Mei Leaf was raised to 15 million.

Many people were shocked by such a huge figure.

This number was far beyond the actual value of a Heaven Treasure.

However, the Heaven Treasure was too rare. Many people wouldn't be able to buy it even if they had the money.

However, with the bid of 15 million, many people, who were eager to get the treasure, were forced to quit and dared not to offer the price again.

For a moment, all the people present were silent.

Just when everyone thought that the man who offered 15 million would get the treasure, a young man shouted his offer, "17 million."

He stood up, folded his hands in front of everyone at the scene, and said, "I want this Mei Leaf, and do me a favor since I'm from the Ling Family."

Hearing that, all the people present were shocked!

The Ling Family?

Medical Master

Chapter 445: Twenty Million! I Don't Have Any Money

The Ling Family?

Everyone looked at the young man who stood up with a smile and a confident look on his face. They were all worried.

"Everyone seems to be a little afraid of this person, right?" Fang Qiu murmured.

"They're not afraid of him. They are afraid of the Ling Family." He Gaoming explained quickly, "He is Ling Tianxiao, the young master of the Ling Family, which is one of the rare ancient martial arts noble families in the martial arts world. He is only 24 years old, and his strength has reached the fifth class. It is said that he will soon break through to the sixth class. In the entire martial arts world, his talent is second to none."

"Oh." Fang Qiu nodded.

Ancient martial arts noble family?

It was the first time he had heard of it.

Did ancient martial arts really exist?

Nobody knew whether it was because they were showing some respect to Ling Tianxiao or the auction price exceeded the actual value of Mei Leaf, no one offered to raise the price after Ling Tianxiao gave his offer.

Obviously, this was good news for everyone.

Ling Tianxiao was able to buy the Heaven Treasure smoothly and made a good offer. The others thought that it would be a loss to raise the price again, so they could also do the Ling Family a favor.

Why wouldn't be happy to do something like that?

"17 million once." On the auction block, the auctioneer in a white gauzy dress shouted with a smile, "17 million, twice."

"Anyone else?"

Under the stage, there was silence.

Everyone was waiting patiently for the auction to end.

"17 million..." It seemed that no one was bidding anymore. The auctioneer shouted, picked up the small wooden hammer on the auction block, and was ready to knock it down.

But just as she was about to knock, Fang Qiu, who had not bid yet, finally raised his hand in the last second. "18 million!"

On the auction stage, hearing that someone was going to raise the price, the auctioneer smiled at once. She quickly put down the wooden hammer in her hand and pointed in the direction of Fang Qiu, saying, "This gentleman bid 18 million yuan. Does anyone else want to offer another price?"

Under the stage, the crowd burst into an uproar.

Everyone was staring at Fang Qiu.

"Who is this?"

"How dare he take the Ling Family's thing?"

"Ling Tianxiao is not a person to be trifled with. Besides, he has already revealed his identity, and this man still dared to take it. Isn't he too reckless?"

Ling Tianxiao, who was slightly thinner, dressed in a suit and had black curly hair, frowned at the moment he looked at Fang Qiu.

"Sir?" Staring at Fang Qiu, Ling Tianxiao smiled and asked, "Are you not going to give it up and do me a favor?"

"No, I don't think so," Fang Qiu shook his head gently and said. "This is an auction. If no one makes an offer, it will mean that we don't respect the owner here. If I don't raise the price, won't the owner of this place lose money? So I think it's better to compete fairly."

"Hmph!" Ling Tianxiao snorted coldly and said, "19 million!"

Although the Ling Family was a noble family in the martial arts world, it didn't have too much money to squander randomly. What was more, all the people of the Ling Family were concentrated on practicing ancient martial arts. Naturally, the money they earned couldn't be compared with that of those large enterprises.

As for Ling Tianxiao, 20 million yuan was his bottom line.

So, when he shouted out 19 million yuan, he stared at Fang Qiu with a cold face, hoping that Fang Qiu would not add any more, and his eyes were still threatening.

If he met someone else, he might be able to take down this Mei Leaf with 17 million yuan.

Unfortunately, the person he encountered was Fang Qiu!

“20 million!” Fang Qiu raised his hand and shouted.

As Ling Tianxiao heard that, his face darkened.

After thinking for a while, it was not until the auctioneer was about to make a deal with Fang Qiu that Ling Tianxiao gritted his teeth and shouted, “21 million!”

Then Ling Tianxiao immediately said to Fang Qiu, “Brother, let’s be friends. I really need this very much.”

“Sorry.” Fang Qiu shook his head and said, “I’m in need of it more urgently than you. I’ll get it no matter what I have to do today.”

“22 million!” Fang Qiu raised his hand and shouted again.

This time, all the people present were in a tumult.

Everyone looked at Fang Qiu and then at Ling Tianxiao, as if they were watching this drama. Everyone’s face was faintly full of expectation, hoping that the two of them would continue to fight.

After all, they’d like to be lookers-on.

Ling Tianxiao glared at Fang Qiu in anger!

He was the young master of the Ling Family!

At the auction, he had already persuaded Fang Qiu. He didn't expect that Fang Qiu didn't show him any respect at all, which made him fly into a rage.

Now Fang Qiu's offer had completely exceeded his expectations.

Even if he wanted to raise the price, there was not enough money there for him to do that.

"Humph!" Ling Tianxiao snorted and sat down, no longer bidding up the price.

All the people present began to talk about it as they saw it.

"So he doesn't want to fight anymore?"

"That's rare. The young master of the Ling Family lost to a nobody."

"Yeah, I didn't expect that there was such a fool who dared to challenge the Ling Family."

"I heard that Ling Tianxiao was the most important person in the Ling Family and also the favorite son of the host of the Ling Family. Presumably, he wants this Mei Leaf to help him break through to the sixth class. If this thing is spread out, I'm afraid that the person who is going to take the Mei Leaf away from him will be screwed."

"Yes, although the Ling Family has been living in the Ganzhou Province, their influence is not limited there."

Under everyone's heated discussion, the auctioneer had knocked on the wooden hammer three times.

“Congratulations.” The auctioneer looked at Fang Qiu and said with a smile, “The final bid of this auction is at a price of 22 million yuan. Please go to the side hall to make a deal.”

“Please wait.” Just as the auctioneer was about to step down, Fang Qiu suddenly stood up.

Everyone turned to look at Fang Qiu in confusion.

“I don’t have enough money with me,” Fang Qiu said.

As soon as he said that, the entire auction room was in an uproar right away.

“What’s going on?”

“Oh my god, it’s a good show.”

“No way, he’s so good at making trouble. He was so straightforward when he offered a price just now, but now he said that he didn’t have the money?”

“Why bother if you don’t have money?”

“How dare this guy says that he doesn’t have enough money when he actually participates in the auction?”

“Is this guy digging his own grave?”

“It’s the first time that I’ve seen someone do such a thing in an auction house. He’s messing with the people of the auction house.”

All the people present were talking about it.

Everyone was dumbfounded.

No one had expected that such a thing would happen at the end of the auction.

Not only the people who participated in the auction but the host of the auction was also furious.

On the auction block, the auctioneer wearing a white dress was also dumbfounded.

What was going on?

He didn't have any money?

She was dumbfounded.

She was just an auctioneer, and she didn't know what to do.

“Clap!”

At the backstage of the auction, with a sound of banging the table, a middle-aged man shouted angrily, “Are you kidding me? You're digging your own grave!”

Under the auction block, compared to everyone's shock, Ling Tianxiao, who had been suppressed by Fang Qiu during the auction, sneered after hearing Fang Qiu's words.

“Ha-ha...” Staring at Fang Qiu with disdain and contempt, Ling Tianxiao mocked, “I was wondering who would dare to compete with me. It turned out to be a loser without any money!”

Hearing that, many people present also laughed.

They really liked to watch such things.

Anyway, no matter how things developed, it would not have anything to do with them. They wanted to see who dared to look down on the Ling Family and mess with the hosts of the auction in such a way.

At this moment, footsteps suddenly came from the auction floor.

The crowd looked around.

A middle-aged man and an old man in a blue robe stepped out and stood on the auction floor.

Seeing the two of them, the auctioneer hurried to step aside.

“They are the hosts, right?”

“The middle-aged man is the master of this manor, who is named Xuan Yiqing. The one who is next to him is his housekeeper, the keeper of the entire manor.”

“There is a good show here. Even Xuan Yiqing has appeared. Let’s see what this kid is going to do.”

“I heard that Xuan Yiqing also invited a super expert to come in order to hold the auction.”

“I’ve heard about it too. I’m afraid this boy is going to die today.”

“He did this by himself.”

Just as everyone was discussing, Fang Qiu also looked up at the two people on the auction stage.

Xuan Yiqing was wearing a simple white practitioner suit. He was neither fat nor thin. He had a square face and looked extremely dignified.

Beside him, the old man was amiable and looked at Fang Qiu with kindness in his eyes.

Fang Qiu could see that this old man was an ordinary person without any martial arts.

The eighth-class expert with one meridian was still sitting in the back of the stage.

While Fang Qiu looked at the two, they also gazed at Fang Qiu.

“Pitter-patter...” Just as he was about to speak, there was a sound of footsteps.

A man ran up from the backstage of the auction block and whispered a few words to Xuan Yiqing.

“Oh, you’re the eldest son of Xiangxi,” Xuan Yiqing said and held fist salute. “I don’t know if you can reveal your face. As long as I am sure you are the eldest son of Xiangxi, I will definitely not make it difficult for you.”

Xiangxi’s eldest son?

They were rich. No wonder they could sit in the third row.

But it didn’t make sense.

Would Xiangxi’s eldest son worry about 22 million?

Obviously not!

There were more than 20 million that the eldest son could spend, not to mention how rich his family was.

Since he was the eldest son, how would he end up in this situation?

In everyone's exclamations of surprise and suspicion, Fang Qiu shook his head very resolutely and said, "I'm not the eldest son. My friend and I robbed their letters. Don't get anyone involved in this matter today."

As soon as they said that, everyone present was shocked.

Who would have thought that the eldest son's invitation letter had been stolen?

But the thing was that since Fang Qiu didn't have any money, why did he steal the invitation letter?

He just came here to cause quite a stir.

"Since you are so upright, then I will just cut to the chase. How do you think this matter can be solved today?" Xuan Yiqing asked.

"I have an item and I don't know how much it can be sold." While Fang Qiu was talking, he flipped his right hand and immediately took out the Earth Bead that he had just obtained not long before.

Medical Master

Chapter 446: I Have One More Thing To Sell!

"What is that?"

"A bead?"

Seeing Fang Qiu take out the black bead, everyone felt confused.

Why did he take out a bead?

How much would a bead be worth?

However, just when everyone felt stunned, a shout came.

“Earth Bead... is this Earth Bead?”

They looked around.

A middle-aged man fixed his eyes on the fruit in Fang Qiu’s hand.

“That’s right.”

Fang Qiu immediately nodded and said, “This is the Earth Treasure ranked 10th, Earth Bead!”

His words immediately stunned everyone present.

“Is that Earth Bead? The Earth Treasure ranked 10th and heard only in the legend?”

“Holy cow! He’s got another Earth Treasure?”

“A Earth Treasure ranked 10th... he should have such a thing?”

Not only the audience below the stage, but also Xuan Yiqing on the stage couldn’t help feeling surprised at the sight of Earth Bead.

“Sir.”

Xuan Yiqing looked at Fang Qiu and said, “Though the Earth Bead is rare, it can’t possibly be sold at 22 million.”

Fang Qiu said, “I’ve got 10 million in my card.”

Xuan Yiqing shook his head and said, “It can’t be sold at 10 million either.”

Fang Qiu said, “It doesn’t matter. I’ll have whatever a price it’s sold at.”

Xuan Yiqing nodded and signaled the old man beside him to fetch the Earth Bead. “Alright... then.”

“Everyone.”

When the Earth Bead was presented on the stage, Xuan Yiqing performed a hold fist salute to everyone present and said, “I didn’t expect something like this to happen today either. Please forgive us. Now the auction has already ended. You can leave at any time if you need to. Of course, you’re also welcome if you’re willing to continue to stay and bid at our auction.”

Below the stage, everyone was enthusiastically discussing.

None of them left.

He must be joking.

It was not every day that they would run into such a good show. How would they leave so easily?

Furthermore, what was up next was Earth Bead!

Though the fruit couldn't compare to the previous Heaven Treasure Mei Leaf, it was, after all, relatively rare in all the Heaven and Earth Treasures. Moreover, it had very unique effects. Therefore, many people were estimated to bid.

Anyway, it's already this late. Everyone was willing to stay for the show.

"Next, I'll personally hold the next auction."

Seeing no one had left, Xuan Yiqing immediately nodded to the audience with a grateful smile and then said, "The lot is this Earth Bead.

"I'm sure everyone has known about the background, effect, and other features of the Earth Bead. So I'll skip the introduction.

"Because it's put up just now, we don't have a reserve price for the lot."

Xuan Yiqing opened his mouth. "Now let us begin. Please bid!"

One of them immediately said, "500 thousand."

Another one bid. "500 thousand for an Earth Bead? Wishful thinking. One million."

"1.5 million."

"1.8 million."

"2 million!"

After all, it was an Earth Treasure ranked 10th, plus the audience consisted of Wulin people.

In front of such a huge temptation and alluring thing, how could these Wulin people resist?

They immediately started to fight for it.

In the competition, the price of Earth Bead also soared.

In a blink of an eye, it reached 2 million.

Soon after, it became 4 million.

After a few minutes, the price of the Earth Bead was 4.5 million.

Of course, this was merely a price when everyone's trying to suppress it.

After all, they all knew that Fang Qiu was now short of money and he would sell at whatever a price.

However, being allured by the Earth Treasure ranked 10th, they still lost themselves and brought the price to 4.5 million.

The price really suited the lot.

The auction ended.

Xuan Yiqing looked at Fang Qiu and slowly said, "You've got 10 million in your hands. With the selling of Earth Bead, you'll have 14.5 million. You'll still need 7.5 million. When you deduct the premium, the gap will be even wider."

Fang Qiu calmly replied. "I have one more thing to sell."

Hearing that, the audience became stunned!

Could he have another Earth Treasure?

He Gaoming had been nervously standing beside Fang Qiu. Now, he also became surprised.

When they headed off, he didn't see John Doe packing many items.

When everyone felt stunned and confused, Fang Qiu turned his wrist around and took out a notebook.

Fang Qiu asked, "This is the leveling-up experience of a man comparable to a guru when he broke through from fourth-class to fifth-class Martial Superior level. I wonder how much this is worth."

Just as he finished, the audience first fell silent.

Then, all kinds of shocked voices thunderously rang.

"Leveling-up experience?"

"Heck. Experience from an expert comparable to a guru. If that's true, it'll really be amazing!"

"It's not just cultivation experience. The leveling-up experience is much more amazing than a normal cultivation experience."

"I remember that once there was a fifth-class Martial Superior's cultivation experience, and it's sold for 4 million. This is the experience from a guru-like expert, and it's leveling-up experience. It must be more expensive than the previous one!"

"Yeah. Martial Superior's leveling-up isn't that easy. With the experience, it'll be much easier."

"It's completely an urgent necessity for fourth-class martial Superiors."

Everyone was discussing it. In the remarks and discussions, the value of the experience book causally kept rising.

It was just at that time.

“Hmph!”

Ling Tianxiao suddenly snorted and said in disdain, “If you said he’s like a guru, will that be the truth? Who knows if it’s fake or true?”

Hearing that, everyone nodded in agreement.

Xuan Yiqing asked, “Are you sure the experience book is real?”

Fang Qiu nodded very positively. “I’ sure.”

What a joke.

He himself was a real guru.

The experience book came from him. If this wasn’t even true, then what was?

“Alright.”

Xuan Yiqing instantly nodded and said, “Everyone. Please stay seated. I’ll have this verified.”

Soon, the head steward stepped off the stage to where Fang Qiu was. After taking the book, he directly went backstage.

Behind the curtains, the steward took the experience book to an elder, who had been sitting cross-legged all the time.

The steward said, "Sir, please verify."

"Okay."

The elder man opened his eyes and nodded. He took the notebook and opened it to carefully read for a while. Then, he nodded and said, "The man who wrote this is no weaker than me. Judging from the quality of the experience, the book can increase the rate of one's advancing from fourth class to fifth class at least by 50%!"

Soon, the steward returned to the auction stage with the book.

He told everything the expert backstage said to Xuan Yiqing.

Below the stage, everyone was looking forward to the answer.

Xuan Yiqing announced. "After our verification, I'm telling you that the notebook is real. And the book can increase your rate of leveling up from fourth-class to fifth-class Martial Superior level by 50%."

After that, everyone present was shocked!

No one expected the experience book to be true!

Among them, without a doubt, Ling Tianxiao felt the most shocked.

He had been craving the Heaven Treasure Mei Leaf and came up with many ways to destroy Fang Qiu's auction so that he could regain an opportunity to buy it.

However, who knew that Fang Qiu could set things up for auction one after another? Ling Tianxiao couldn't even possibly stop him.

“1 million!”

When Ling Tianxiao was feeling resentful on his own, the auction had started.

“1.1 million.”

“1.5 million!”

“2 million!”

This time, thought the experience was specifically designed for fourth-class Martial Superiors. That being said, after making sure the experience was real, everyone present stopped holding back and started to bid one after another.

It was like the previous one.

The price quickly rose.

Though the amount didn't match that of the Earth Bead, many people were still bidding.

After all, everyone wanted to level up their strength deep down.

Those below the fourth-class Martial Superior level thought they might breakthrough to fourth-class level in the future, and they could use it as a stepping-stone to a fifth-class level at that time.

Those who had enough power or above fifth-class level didn't want to miss it either. After, it's rare, and they might not bump into one in a few decades. They wouldn't lose anything if they bought it. Even if they couldn't use it, it would still be nice to leave it to their juniors.

It was after three minutes.

The bid had rose to five million.

Ling Tianxiao had been frowning before that. At that time, he suddenly seemed to think of something. His eyes lit up and he swooshed up and shouted. "Everyone!"

Hearing the shout, everyone turned around to see him.

Ling Tianxiao gave a hold fist salute with a smile and said, "This won't work out if we continue to bid. This is not a consumable item, instead, it's duplicable. How about this? Now, I'll offer 5.1 million and you don't bid anymore. After the auction, I'll copy the book and give it to all of you at a price of 90 thousand each. How about that?"

He had already calculated this.

There were 50 to 60 people present. If everyone bought it at a price of 90 thousand, he would get nearly 5 million.

No matter for him or the audience present, it was the best.

They heard this.

"90 thousand for an experience book. It's a real bargain!"

"He didn't ask for much. If everyone buys one, he'll get less than 5 million."

"It's a good idea and we can all stop fighting."

“I agree.”

“Me too. Anyway, it won’t be a secret in the future. As long as we can share it, there’s not a problem.”

At the same time, hearing their discussions, Ling Tianxiao smugly smiled.

He was already at the fifth-class level and even was about to reach a sixth-class level. Therefore, he didn’t need the book Fang Qiu put up for auction at all.

The reason why he did this was to cut off Fang Qiu’s money resources, to stop Fang Qiu from buying the Heaven Treasure Mei Leaf!

“5.1 million first.”

On the stage, Xuan Yiqing bitterly smiled.

He also hoped that Fang Qiu’s lots could sell at a higher price to at least make up for the 20 million gap. However, who knew that Ling Tianxiao could act to such an extent.

He could act so boldly.

Unfortunately, though he was the auctioneer, the auction was put up temporarily. It wasn’t a proper auction. Therefore, even Ling Tianxiao acted so boldly, he couldn’t say anything to stop and only watched on.

Xuan Yiqing shouted. “5.1 million second.”

Below the stage, no one made a sound.

Everyone had agreed on the price.

When they could buy it at 90 thousand, why having it exclusively at a price 100 times higher?

“Last chance!

“Sold!”

When he hit the hammer, Xuan Yiqing couldn't help shaking his head. If the lot was put up in a real auction, it would be sold at a much higher price. The price would double or even triple!

Medical Master

Chapter 447: Shocking Sixth Class to Seventh Class Experience!

“Haha.”

Hearing Xuan Yiqing announce it was sold, Ling Tianxiao immediately laughed out loud, gave a hold fist salute to everyone present, and said, “Thank you for trusting me.”

While saying that, he kept darting smug glances at Fang Qiu.

He seemed to say: How will you collect money now!

In the meanwhile, Fang Qiu ignored Ling Tianxiao's pretentious laughter and twisted around to face Ling Tianxiao.

Ling Tianxiao didn't hold back to mock Fang Qiu. “What can 5.1 million do? You're still short of money.”

Hearing that, He Gaoming, who had been standing beside Fang Qiu, got angry.

He knew clearly that if Ling Tianxiao hadn't screwed up the auction, the fourth class to fifth class promotion experience could at least be sold at a price higher than 7 million.

In the end, after Ling Tianxiao messed it up, the price became only half of the expected one.

How could He Gaoming not get angry from this?

Compared to He Gaoming's anger, Fang Qiu, under the mask, secretly sneered.

"You've sold all your stuff. Now it's time to deliver, right?"

Ling Tianxiao kept ridiculing Fang Qiu. "Show us your money. Why attend an auction when you have no money, beggar?"

Hearing that, the entire audience got stunned. Someone followed to laugh and waited for Fang Qiu's embarrassed face as if it were a show. Some raised their eyebrows, thinking that Ling Tianxiao had taken it too far. Some were expressionless as if they hadn't heard it.

It was on the auction stage.

"Sir."

Xuan Yiqing shouted to Fang Qiu and said, "This might be awkward but I have to say it. Even with the 5.1 million, your money still isn't enough."

"What's the hurry?"

Fang Qiu calmly replied and added, "I have one more thing."

After that, Xuan Yiqing and the entire crowd couldn't help feeling stunned.

What the heck!

Still?

How many items did he bring over?

While saying, Fang Qiu didn't hesitate. With a turn of his wrist, he showed another notebook.

Fang Qiu said, "This is an experience notebook on advancing from third class to fourth class. Like the last lot, it's still from a guru-like expert."

Hearing that, the steward immediately came over and fetched the book in Fang Qiu's hand to check backstage.

It was after a short while.

"After our verification, the third class to fourth class leveling-up experience is real. With the help of the notebook, a third-class martial arts practitioner can at least increase his promotion rate by 60%."

After the check backstage, Xuan Yiqing publicly announced.

As a result, hearing what he said, everyone had their own idea about the book.

Though those present were generally above the fourth class and they would find the book useless even if they bought it, for the juniors in their families, this one would be more helpful than the previous fourth class to the fifth class book.

Especially, now when everyone had access to the fourth class to fifth class leveling-up experience, they wanted the third class to fourth class promotion experience book even more.

After all, with this book with the previous one, they would have detailed instruction on how to advance through two ranks.

It was practically a must-have for those who wanted to break through and level up!

“Hang on.”

Just when Xuan Yiqing on the auction stage was ready to start, Fang Qiu suddenly had something to say, “Since it’s an auction, it should go by the rules of an auction. That is to say, as a client, I’m qualified to set a reserve price for my lots, right?”

Hearing that, everyone understood that Fang Qiu was trying to stop their suppressing the price and sharing the experience.

After all, without a reserve price, then in the entire audience, there must be only one bidding. At that time, Fang Qiu would even have to feel grateful for his lot worth a few million to be sold for 100 thousand.

Fang Qiu was not stupid.

Therefore, he took the initiative to set a reserve price.

“Well.”

On the auction stage, Xuan Yiqing hesitated for a second and then said, “On regular occasion, it’s indeed so...”

It was before he finished.

“Now is not on a regular occasion.”

Ling Tianxiao chimed in. “The auction here has ended. When Mr. Xuan showed up himself, he already made this clear. So the lot now isn’t included in the original entrust, irrelevant to the auction agency. It’s just they kindly offered to help you because you’re short of money.

“Under such circumstances, do you have the nerve to set a reserve price?

“What’s more, what if after you set a reserve price, no one wants the lot and it can’t be sold. How will the agency charge you?”

After that, the audience immediately echoed.

“That’s right. If there’s a reserve price, we won’t buy it.”

“Right. Everyone, don’t buy it. I’ll see who he’ll sell it to.”

“Set a reserve price? We haven’t started to force the price down, and now you want to lift it. Are you playing tricks on us?”

Obviously, everyone supported Ling Tianxiao.

He was the young master of the Ling Family, besides, they wanted to share once again.

After all, it’s duplicable.

They didn’t need to fight for it and ended up not necessarily having it.

If they could obtain it without money and effort, why would they spend money and put effort into getting it?

It was on the auction stage.

“Well...”

Seeing that the entire audience agreeing with Ling Tianxiao, Xuan Yiqing helplessly sighed and said, “What Master Ling said indeed makes sense. Therefore, the auction this time still doesn’t have a reserve price. But the auction rules are still the same. Every scale shouldn’t be less than 100 thousand.”

Hearing that, Fang Qiu got furious.

These people were too shameless.

They were clearly expressing that they would rob him.

“Alright.”

Feeling raged, Fang Qiu suddenly smiled. Nevertheless, because of the mask, the audience didn’t see it. He smiled coldly for a few seconds and then said, “Let’s begin.”

“Let the auction begin!”

On the auction stage, Xuan Yiqing shouted.

“100 thousand!”

Ling Tianxiao immediately bid. After his offer, he especially told everyone. “I’ll share it with you all.”

Hearing that, everyone present instantly smiled.

On the stage, Xuan Yiqing felt very helpless.

“100 thousand. Any bid?”

“100 thousand first.

“100 thousand second!”

Two consecutive sounds of the hammer hitting the auction block rang.

It was just when Xuan Yiqing raised the hammer and wanted to hit it the third time.

“Raise the price. 1.5 million!”

Fang Qiu quickly patted He Gaoming’s hand and whispered.

Hearing that, He Gaoming, who had been feeling anxious and angry, suddenly realized.

“1.5 million!”

Without the slightest hesitation, He Gaoming immediately raised his hand and shouted.

Hearing the shout, the entire audience became stunned.

Actually, Fang Qiu also knew that the people present all desired the book of experience. He Gaoming could naturally also tell it. The eyes of everyone present who stared at the stage were all shining.

However, for He Gaoming, it didn’t matter if anyone wanted it; he just wanted to raise the price.

If there’s really no one who wanted the book, at worst, he could buy it for 1.5 million himself!

It was definitely a bargain to buy a third class to fourth class leveling-up experience book with 1.5 million!

The most important was that if he could purchase the experience book, he could definitely get the 1.5 million back.

Not to mention other places, as long as he brought the experience book back to Jiangjing, he didn't even need to put it up for an auction; just by directly selling it to Elder Yi, he could get a few million.

Therefore, He Gaoming didn't feel worried at all.

As soon as Fang Qiu reminded him, he immediately bet all his money on it.

He Gaoming stopped the auction halfway.

After that, the entire audience froze.

Over there, Ling Tianxiao's face instantly became ugly.

Because with the 1.5 million, Fang Qiu would have more than 22 million.

"Humph."

Angrily snorting in his heart, Ling Tianxiao looked at He Gaoming with disdain all over his face and said, "Everyone can bid. The most important thing is, do you have so much money?"

"This is my bank card. The auction agency can verify it."

He Gaoming directly took out a bank card.

Ling Tianxiao's expression turned even uglier.

In his eyes, He Gaoming definitely didn't have money.

If he really possessed money, why didn't he just give it to Fang Qiu? Why should he put on such a show?

Unfortunately, though following Fang Qiu as his master, He Gaoming never got involved with Fang Qiu in money. Fang Qiu never borrowed from him and would never do that.

Therefore, Fang Qiu directly put up his notebooks for sale without even asking him.

While Ling Tianxiao questioned, the old steward beside Xuan Yiqing immediately took the card to verify it.

It was after a while.

"It's true."

The steward walked out carrying the bank card and said, "The balance on the card exceeds 1.5 million."

"See that?"

Retrieving his bank card, He Gaoming looked at Ling Tianxiao with a smug face and said, "I'll tell you honestly. I have only 1.61 million in total on my card. Now the bid is 1.5 million. If you continue to bid, I'll quit. If you don't, I'll have it to my own. At that time, I don't intend to share it or stuff. If you want a copy, I promise that you won't get it if you offer less than 500 thousand."

Shit!

Hearing this, Ling Tianxiao instantly went furious.

He really couldn't figure out what He Gaoming was doing earlier.

He didn't come to help when they sold the Heaven Treasure. However, he chose to mess up the auction at this critical time. He's really annoying!

"1.5 million first. Any more bid?"

On the auction stage, Xuan Yiqing asked.

Ling Tianxiao immediately shouted. "1.6 million!"

"That's right."

He Gaoming turned his head around, grinned at Ling Tianxiao, and said, "I'll leave this experience book to you. I won't bid anymore."

In the end, the youth sullenly got the book with 1.6 million and planned to share it with everyone after the auction was over.

On the stage, Xuan Yiqing smilingly announced. "I announce that the auction ended."

At that time, Fang Qiu rose again, "I still have one more thing."

Hearing what he said, all the people present turned speechless.

How many fucking things on earth did you bring?

Could it be another promotion experience book?

At first, it's on leveling up from the fourth class to fifth class, then from the third class to fourth class. Now, was it on advancing from the second class to third class?

Just when everyone felt puzzled, as expected, Fang Qiu took another notebook.

“This is the promotion experience of leveling up from sixth class to seventh class.”

Fang Qiu lifted the notebook and waved it in front of everyone.

Just as he finished, the entire audience broke into an uproar!

Everyone couldn't sit tight.

They all knew that at the sixth class, one would open his Twelve Principal Meridians, while at the seventh class, he would open his Eight Extraordinary Meridians. For people in Wulin, opening Eight Extraordinary Meridians was like crossing a big moat.

Many people stopped before they could open Eight Extraordinary Meridians. Many Wulin men closely guarded the secret about advancing from the sixth class to seventh class. Even if they succeeded, they couldn't understand the secret. Those who detected it wasn't willing to disclose it at all.

They didn't expect someone to have experience on advancing to that level!

Not to mention the Wulin people present, even Xuan Yiqing on the auction stage, Ling Tianxiao in the crowd, and even the super eighth-class expert backstage with an opened meridian couldn't sit still.

Medical Master

Chapter 448: Getting the Heaven Treasure!

” How much?”

“Put it up for auction quickly!”

“Why did you hide it when you had such a good item? Put it up for auction and you wouldn’t have been short of money long ago!”

“Name the price. I’ll take it!”

“No matter how much others offer, I’ll add another 1 million. Sell it to me!”

Below the auction stage, they all stood up and wanted to buy the experience notebook on leveling up from the sixth class to seventh class in Fang Qiu’s hands.

It was in the meanwhile.

Backstage, the eighth-class elder with an opened meridians had kept his eyes shut. Hearing Fang Qiu had taken out an experience book on advancing from the sixth class to seventh class, he swooshed open his eyes and couldn’t sit tight anymore.

Because when he leveled up from sixth class to seventh class, he just did it in some mysterious way. When he exchanged his experience with others, he also got the same answer: They all succeeded naturally.

However, no one knew where that natural success came from.

“Swoosh!”

A sound of breaking through the air rang.

Just when everyone was astonishingly discussing, the eighth-class elder man with one opened meridian dashed from backstage onto the auction stage.

He looked at Fang Qiu not far away.

“Young friend.”

The elder man shouted and asked, “Can I borrow the sixth class to seventh class promotion experience book you have to have a look?”

Hearing what he said, everyone present turned to look in the direction of the sound.

The moment they saw the elder man, everyone’s expression changed.

They knew the elder man was the security blanket of the auction agency. He was a super expert.

No one expected that an experience book in Fang Qiu’s hands made the elder come out. They could see that the experience book must be precious.

It was at the same time.

Hearing the voice of the eighth-class elder, Fang Qiu glanced at the surrounding martial arts practitioners again.

“Hehe...”

Fang Qiu suddenly smiled and said, “I wanted to put this experience book up for auction in the second round, but someone had suppressed its price, so I have to fail you. Now since I’ve had enough money, I won’t put this up for auction.”

While saying that, Fang Qiu put away the notebook.

Seeing that, all the people present fell silent.

“Why did you take it out if you don’t want to sell it?”

“Rest assured. We won’t force your price down. We’ll never do that.”

“Right. Just put it up for auction. As long as you’re willing to sell it, we’ll bid.”

They all voiced their complaint about Fang Qiu’s deliberately taking out the experience book to attract them. Some asked Fang Qiu to quickly put it up for auction, and some even wanted to privately trade with Fang Qiu.

It turned out that Fang Qiu wasn’t interested at all.

At that time, everyone present couldn’t help resenting Ling Tianxiao.

It was all because Ling Tianxiao stuck his nose into this.

Otherwise, he would probably put this up for sale when he saw how much money he gained if they didn’t force down the price in the first place.

Now, things got interesting.

Once they forced down his price, he directly offered a defective item.

Now, they could only watch the treasure in other’s hands and didn’t even have a chance to bid for it.

It was too torturing!

“Tsk.”

Seeming to discern their bad mood, Ling Tianxiao immediately snorted at Fang Qiu and disdainfully said, "Experience of leveling up from the sixth class to seventh class from a guru-like master. You can really brag. In my opinion, your experience book is fake and you're bluffing, right?"

Hearing that, all the people felt stunned.

That could be possible.

Then, why didn't Fang Qiu quit selling it?

Fang Qiu asked, "Are you from Ling Family in Ganzhou Province?"

"What? You're scared?"

Ling Tianxiao proudly lifted his head and looked down at Fang Qiu with condescending eyes.

"Hmph!"

Fang Qiu coldly snorted and said, "I'll visit your family in a week about things that happened today!"

This time, Fang Qiu really got angry.

The reason he came here was simple. It was to buy the Heaven Treasure Mei Leaf. When he realized that he was short of money, he especially stayed up to write those experience books, just to buy the things he needed in an honorable way. He didn't need to take advantage of others or be taken advantage of either.

However, who would have known that Ling Tianxiao went against him again and again.

It upset him very much!

Don't mistake his patience for weakness.

It was after Fang Qiu said that.

All the people present broke into an uproar.

"Why is he trying to play tough?"

"The Ling Family is a long-standing martial arts family. You're just a weak third-class practitioner. And you dare to ask for an explanation from his family?"

"Yo. One wants to go against a family. So capable?"

"You're turning your ambition into a joke!"

"Though Ling Tianxiao has taken this too far, you shouldn't brag like this."

Without a doubt, because of Ling Tianxiao, the people here had got some benefits. Therefore, public opinion would naturally favor Ling Tianxiao.

"Haha."

Just like everyone else, when hearing Fang Qiu's words, Ling Tianxiao immediately said as if he had heard a joke. "You're welcome to our Ling Family for an explanation at any time. But I don't suppose you're still alive then. You're just a third-class Martial Superior, but you have an experience book on how to level up from sixth class to seventh class and the Heaven Treasure Mei Leaf. It's a disaster for an average man like you!"

It was after he said that.

Eyes of the surrounding people brightened.

Indeed, they couldn't touch Fang Qiu inside the Fang Qiu, however, after they went out of it, things would be different. Moreover, Fang Qiu was merely a weak third-class Martial Superior. For those present, most of who were above the fourth class, it's a piece of cake to easily get rid of Fang Qiu.

"Are you threatening me?"

Fang Qiu's eye became chilly. He coldly stared at Ling Tianxiao and said, "Didn't you say my experience book is fake?"

Ling Tianxiao froze.

"Hmph."

Fang Qiu disdainfully sneered and said, "I'll tell you this. If I dare to put it up for sale, I can guarantee that no one snatches it from me."

"In a week, I'll see you in Ganzhou!"

After that, Fang Qiu ignored Ling Tianxiao and directly turned around to look at Xuan Yiqing on the auction stage. He asked, "Now that I've had enough money. When will we trade?"

"Since you've had enough money, you can directly trade backstage now."

Xuan Yiqing nodded and said, "As for the commission, there's no need for it. You should take it as a friendly gift."

In fact, because Fang Qiu didn't set a reserve price for his previous lots, it couldn't be counted as a business of the auction agency. Therefore, naturally, there would be no commission.

The auction ended.

The crowd dispersed.

People who had bought things went backstage to trade under the guidance of the auction agency clerks.

Soon, the buyer paid and the seller delivered.

Fetching the Heaven Treasure Mei Leaf, Fang Qiu walked out of the auction agency and took the same route back.

However, it was soon after he left the agency.

Fang Qiu felt that many people followed him.

Among them, there was the young master from the Ling Family, Ling Tianxiao!

It was in the meanwhile.

It was behind the curtains of the auction auditorium.

The eighth-class elder with an opened meridian sat on a block of rock, while Xuan Yiqing standing beside him.

Xuan Yiqing asked, "Elder Jin, since you're interested in the sixth class to seventh class promotion experience notebook. Should we also chase after him and snatch it when a good opportunity appears?"

"There's no need."

Elder Jin faintly shook his head and said, "We haven't verified the authenticity of the book yet. If it's fake, it won't make sense if we snatch it from him. If it's true, we'll be in great trouble."

"Oh?"

Xuan Yiqing felt stunned and said, "How is that?"

"I won't elaborate on the situation where it's fake."

Elder Jin frowned and explained. "If he can consecutively take out three promotion experience book, it means the three books are very likely to come from one same person. I've seen the former books. They're indeed from a guru. If the third one is real too, there's a 90% chance that it's from the same person too."

"If he can get three leveling-up experience books from a guru expert, he must be close to that guru. And he just casually took out the books, it means he has support. Once we follow him and mess up with the guru expert behind him, we'll suffer a great deal."

Hearing that, Xuan Yiqing felt his muscles all over his body tightened. His forehead was covered with beads of sweat.

A guru expert!

If they really messed up with a man like that, it'd be more than suffering a great deal.

Thinking like that, Xuan Yiqing immediately denied the idea of sending people to catch up with Fang Qiu.

It was outside the auction auditorium.

Fang Qiu and He Gaoming went all the way out of the garden.

Because it was already 10:30 at night, the sky was pitch-dark.

While walking, He Gaoming asked, “Master, should we go back to Jiangjing today or tomorrow?”

Hearing the question, Fang Qiu didn’t answer and just turned his head to scan the surrounding situation.

He found there was a small supermarket in front.

Meanwhile, the lights were still on at the supermarket door. When he looked closely, he discovered there were two surveillance cameras respectively on the left and right sides.

Seeing those, Fang Qiu had an idea and smiled.

Then, he said something to He Gaoming in a low voice.

“No way. There are really people following us?”

Hearing Fang Qiu out, He Gaoming felt startled and hurriedly looked around.

Fang Qiu nodded. “Sure.”

He Gaoming hesitated and said, “But even if it’s like that, won’t this method be too harsh?”

Fang Qiu pursed his lips and asked, “Will you go or not?”

“Of course. I have to.”

He Gaoming grinned and excitedly trotted into the supermarket.

At the same time, Fang Qiu stood not far away from the supermarket, a dark place where the surveillance cameras couldn't record.

It was three minutes later.

"Beep beep beep..."

Fang Qiu's cell phone suddenly rang.

He took out his phone and found it was none other than a text message from He Gaoming.

There was only one word in the message. "OK."

Seeing the message, Fang Qiu faintly smiled and strode into a place where the two surveillance cameras could clearly record. Then, he casually glanced around and said, "Everyone, show yourselves. Don't hide anymore."

He finished.

No one showed up.

"You won't show yourselves?"

Fang Qiu slightly smiled and said, "If you don't, then I'll burn it."

While saying that, Fang Qiu really took out the notebook and acted like he was going to burn it.

Seeing the scene, those martial arts practitioners hiding in the dark instantly became anxious.

"Swoosh."

One jumped out of a dark place beside Fang Qiu. Then, he dashed forward Fang Qiu. He reached out and tried to seize the notebook in Fang Qiu's hand.

Seeing someone coming out to snatch it, Fang Qiu immediately put on a startled face. He kept stepping back until he was against the wall beside the supermarket door. His back was against the wall and he looked fretful all over his face.

In the meanwhile, the man who reached out to snatch had dashed right in front of Fang Qiu. It looked like he'd cornered Fang Qiu and he was still reaching his hand to Fang Qiu.

Medical Master

Chapter 449: Mr. Policeman, They Robbed Me!

Being cornered, Fang Qiu dodged with a startled face.

The man before Fang Qiu quickly reached out to snatch.

However, every time he was about to get it, Fang Qiu would suddenly avoid him.

“Patter patter...”

Another series of footsteps rang.

Those martial arts practitioners hiding in the dark all rushed forward, trying to snatch the experience book in Fang Qiu's hand.

After all, there was only one experience notebook.

Once someone else got it, the rest of the people wouldn't have it.

Furthermore, they were now all fighting on their own. Whoever wanted to share would be a fool.

If when they could have it to their own, they chose to share. Wasn't that being foolish?

Everyone knew clearly about the value of the experience notebook.

When they snatched it, they could totally copy it to sell at a price of a few million each.

Even if they didn't need money, they could still exchange it for a few Earth Treasures.

Apparently, the notebook was a treasure.

In the entire world, who would share a treasure with others?

They all had their own idea about the book.

Everyone came to snatch it.

The crowd excitedly rushed forward and surrounded Fang Qiu. Then, they used all their strength to try to take it.

It was in the supermarket.

“Well, it's really like that!”

He Gaoming was watching the monitoring screen. When he saw Fang Qiu being robbed on the screen, he immediately grinned and mumbled. "What a shame! It'll be even better if they have weapons in their hands."

Outside the supermarket, Fang Qiu's figure quickly flashed in the crowd that had besieged Fang Qiu.

When there were so many people, he even secretly slipped his wallet into the pocket of one of them.

Then, he took an opportunity to rush out of the crowd, and immediately ran.

Seeing that, the group of Wulin men instantly chased after him.

The strange part was Fang Qiu kept running in front of them. He was neither too ahead of nor too close to them. Nevertheless, they couldn't catch up with Fang Qiu all the time.

When they got close to him, Fang Qiu would run faster; when they got too far away from him, Fang Qiu would run slower.

At that time, the group felt that they were donkeys with a cob hanging in front of their heads.

Fang Qiu was playing tricks on them!

After a while of chasing, everyone felt angry from the running.

How would that happen?

All these experts couldn't even catch up with a merely third-class martial Superior. Wasn't that embarrassing?

While anger was welling up in their hearts, their faces all gradually turned ugly.

The further they pursued, the angrier they became.

In the end, they didn't run for long.

Before they realized, Fang Qiu led everyone to run to the door of the police station.

The group of people who were drunk with anger didn't discover it at all.

It was in the front.

Fang Qiu rang all the way at full speed into the police station.

Fang Qiu turned his head back and looked at the crowd charging toward him. These Wulin people directly rushed into the police station. Fang Qiu immediately shouted regardless of everything. "Help. Robber!"

Hearing the shout, the people who caught up with him all felt dumbfounded.

They looked around and saw on the gate behind them, it was none other than a police badge that was hanged. The two words on the gate read: Police Station!

Seeing this scene, everyone dramatically changed their faces.

How could they have thought that Fang Qiu could be so vicious? He's completely playing tricks on them!

As Wulin people, they all had to follow a rule, which was that they did not use martial arts in governmental departments. Whoever dared to do it would be doomed!

This was the premise that the state's allowing Wulin's existence was based on.

Otherwise, how could Wulin be so primordial, without any interfering and management from the state departments?

Everyone was aware of that.

Going against the country with one man's power was purely calling for death!

Exactly because of that, those villain outlaws who committed crimes at home would rather choose to go abroad than continue staying in the country.

“Patter patter...”

Fang Qiu shouted.

Inside the police station, a large group of policemen immediately swooshed out.

These Wulin people were dumbfounded.

When they found they were tricked, it was already too late.

Some of them wanted to run.

Nevertheless, before they lifted their feet, a few policemen rang over and directly shut the gate.

Since they couldn't use martial arts, it meant that could not jump over the walls.

Looking at the tightly shut door, everyone looked bitter all over their faces.

They felt bitter!

It was at that time.

“What’s going on?”

A policeman came up to inquire.

“They robbed me!”

Fang Qiu immediately pointed at these people and accused them. “They robbed me of my wallet and they wanted more. They chased me down the streets.”

One of them instantly shouted. “We didn’t.”

“Right. We didn’t.”

“We have money. Why would we rob you of your wallet?”

“Do you have evidence that we robbed you?”

“Mr. Policeman, this is slander!”

“He’s slandering us.”

They accused him in a row.

Nevertheless, it was when everyone was very excitedly accused Fang Qiu of slandering them.

“Thump thump thump...”

Someone suddenly knocked on the gate of the police station.

A familiar voice rang, and the man said, “Anyone there? I want to report. I just saw a bunch of people robbing someone.”

As hearing those words, the Wulin practitioners who had been accusing Fang Qiu in a row all shut their mouths as if they had been struck by thunder. They looked in the direction of the gate in disbelief.

At that time, a policeman opened the gate.

A man walked inside through the door and he was carrying a memory card in his hand.

“Eh? They’re here!”

Seeing Fang Qiu and the Wulin practitioners who chased after and tried to rob Fang Qiu, He Gaoming first appeared stunned. Then, he pretended to look terrified and hid behind a policeman, saying, “Dear policeman, it’s them who robbed that guy. I saw it myself when I walked past the supermarket. The supermarket owner has to look after his store, and he has especially asked me to send you the video of the surveillance cameras at the door of the supermarket.”

While saying that, He Gaoming passed the memory card in his hand to a policeman beside him.

Meanwhile, those ill-intentioned Wulin practitioners heard that, and they nearly wanted to die immediately.

They understood that they’d been framed!

There were surveillance videos. They couldn’t justify themselves at all!

The director of the police station appeared and said while pointing at those Wulin practitioners. "Get them under control!" Then, he reached his arm to point at Fang Qiu and He Gaoming and said, "You two follow me!"

Soon, the bunch of people was dragged into an interrogation room.

Fang Qiu and He Gaoming were brought into an interview room outside the interrogation room.

The door of the interrogation room was open.

The director of the police station connected the memory card He Gaoming brought to a computer. He clicked on the video file in it. As expected, he saw at around 10:40 p.m., Fang Qiu was cornered in front of the supermarket. Then, a group of people charged toward Fang Qiu and robbed him.

"Boy. It's really a robbery!"

Watching the video, the director of the police station changed his face and stared at all of the people in the interrogation room.

Everyone in the interrogation room all fell speechless.

They didn't have to see the surveillance video to know what that scene looked like.

"A bunch of people robbing one man? Won't you feel; shameless?"

The director of the police station coldly looked at the bunch of people and shouted. "Robbing in my area? You're all detained. I'll see how you get out to do evil things!"

The bunch of Wulin people felt more awkward.

At least, they were famous experts.

They should have been lured into the police station by a merely third-class Martial Superior.

It's too embarrassing!

That being said, things had developed like this.

What could they do?

There was no other way.

They could only admit defeat.

Who could have thought that a private fight in Wulin should get the government involved?

Wulin had never been involved with the government since ancient times.

This masked guy was so shameless!

In the crowd, Ling Tianxiao hated Fang Qiu even more!

He was the Young Master of the Ling Family. If this matter was spread out, it would be a big joke. It was okay that he became a laughing stock of others, but the Ling Family would also be dragged down. This was not something he could afford to do.

“Both of you, come here to make a statement.”

The director of the police station said, pointing to Fang Qiu and He Gaoming.

Hearing that, the two immediately sat down in the interview room.

“What are you doing? Why did you pretend to be a ninja after entering the police station?”

When he was about to ask, the director of the police station suddenly saw that Fang Qiu was still wearing a mask. He immediately opened his mouth and said, “Hurry up, take off your mask.”

Fang Qiu asked, “This is me. I don’t have to take it off, do I?”

The director of the police station was stunned. “What do you mean by this is you?”

Without another word, Fang Qiu took out his ID card and handed it to the director of the police station. “Here.”

Both an ID card and bank cards were important documents. Fang Qiu packed them with his independent cardholder, and in the wallet he deliberately slipped into the pocket of those people, there was just some money.

The director of the police station was stunned.

He took the ID card and found that he was really wearing a mask in the photo.

“Oh, this is a rare thing. Our police station is the place to get an ID card. Do you think that your ID card can scare me?”

The director of the police station sneered.

Fang Qiu said, “Don’t you just need to swipe it and you’ll know if it’s true?”

“What do you mean by I swipe it? I swipe it?”

The director of the police station got angry and swooshed up at once.

Someone was lying to him with such a low-level fake ID card. Did he treat him as a fool?

“You can check it.”

Fang Qiu looked up at the director of the police station and said, “It’s just a routine. Anyway, you have to check it, right?”

“Hey, are you sure you want to do this or something?”

The director of the police station was so angry that he burst out laughing. He swiped the ID card on the ID card sensor that was connected to the computer.

Just as he was about to insult Fang Qiu, he suddenly found that the ID card holder’s information actually popped up on the computer.

It was exactly the same as that on the ID card.

Moreover, it was valid!

The director of the police station was dumbfounded. “Damn!”

Seeing this, He Gaoming quickly stood up and whispered in the ears of the director of the police station, “He’s the state’s man.”

Hearing that, the director of the police station was shocked.

He didn’t dare to ask any more questions.

At the exact time he sat down, he slapped the table fiercely and glared at the people in the interrogation room. He said angrily, "Oh, well. You even dared to rob him. You are so lawless. You can rest assured that I will give you an explanation!"

At this time, Fang Qiu's wallet was sent out by the policeman who searched those people in the interrogation room.

Fang Qiu asked as he picked up his wallet. "Have you finished the interview? If there is nothing else, shall we go first?"

The director of the police station immediately sent Fang Qiu and He Gaoming away. "Let's go. I'll see you off."

The group of people left the police station.

"Haha."

He Gaoming held back his laughter for a long time. After the director of the police station went back, he couldn't help laughing and said, "Master, we're going to be famous in Wulin this time. Those guys are so embarrassing. But they deserve it since they dare to take advantage of you!"

Medical Master

Chapter 450: To Break Through To Fifth-class Martial Superior!

"Sure it is," He Gaoming said with a grin.

"That's enough." Fang Qiu also shook his head with a chuckle and said, "Let's go back to the hotel to check out and hurry back to Jiangjing."

The auction was over.

Fang Qiu was ready to go back to find a place to make a breakthrough since he had already got the Mei Leaf.

This time, the reason why he took advantage of the police was that he didn't dare to do anything on his own.

Under the circumstances where he didn't make a move, he just used his internal Qi to escape for a while, which caused him to almost lose control of the internal Qi that he had accumulated in his body.

If he continued to stay here, nobody knew if there would be anything unexpected to happen again.

In order to avoid accidents, it was better to hurry back to Jiangjing now.

Soon, the news that a large group of Wulin people had been caught was spread out.

The moment he received the news, Xuan Yiqing was stunned!

"Damn, can he do that?"

"Elder Jin is right. This guy is not someone to be trifled with."

"So many people went after him, but none of them caught him. Instead, he tricked such a large group of people. This kid is really powerful."

Some other people who attended the auction but did not chase Fang Qiu at the end of the auction exclaimed that they were lucky after hearing the news.

Although they were also interested in the treasure that Fang Qiu got, they didn't make a move because of all kinds of reasons.

However, no one expected that things turned out to be like this.

They didn't manage to take the treasure from him but were directly taken into the police station in the end. That was really embarrassing.

However, while they were all shocked, people also had strong curiosity about the masked guy.

“Who on earth is that guy?”

After leaving the hotel, He Gaoming drove Fang Qiu back to Jiangjing overnight.

When they just arrived in the suburbs outside Jiangjing City, Fang Qiu suddenly shouted, “Stop!”

“What's wrong?” He Gaoming hurriedly stopped the car and asked.

“All right, I'll get off here. You can go back first.” As he spoke, Fang Qiu got off the car.

“Okay.” He Gaoming didn't ask any more questions. He nodded directly and continued to drive into the city. Soon, he disappeared in front of Fang Qiu.

After He Gaoming left, Fang Qiu then turned over his wrist and immediately took out the Heaven Treasure he had obtained from the auction— Mei Leaf.

Taking a closer look, he found that the Mei Leaf was impressively a finger-sized bamboo leaf, crystal clear, looking like it was made of jade.

He put the Mei Leaf in his palm and felt it.

Fang Qiu found that there was extremely powerful energy contained in it.

Judging from the quality and quantity of this energy, it should be able to support him to break through two levels in a row.

At the thought of that, Fang Qiu moved.

He immediately rushed into a dense forest in the suburbs not far away.

Choosing a relatively secretive and flat spot, Fang Qiu first used his mental power to carefully check the surrounding within several kilometers around him. After confirming that there was nothing strange, he sat down cross-legged and put the Mei Leaf into his mouth, ready to start the breakthrough!

“Hiss...” He took a deep breath and relaxed.

Then, he let go of the suppression in his body.

“Boom!” A stream of Qi suddenly burst out from Fang Qiu’s body, causing the surrounding flowers and trees to shake.

“Let’s get to it!” With the burst of internal Qi, that extremely urgent sense of breakthrough suddenly rushed to Fang Qiu.

“Break!” As the sense of breakthrough strengthened, Fang Qiu directly controlled the Heaven and Earth energy that surged from every direction, as well as the powerful internal Qi that had been accumulated in his body for a long time. He directly rushed to break through the shackles.

There was no doubt that, like running water in the river, Fang Qiu’s movement immediately helped him break through to the fourth class without any obstruction.

This breakthrough was too easy for him.

Compared to breaking through, the most important thing was to reopen the meridians.

“Foot Yin Spleen Meridian!” With a thought in his mind, at the moment he broke through to the fourth class, Fang Qiu immediately controlled the powerful internal Qi flow in his body and rushed it directly into the Foot Yin Spleen Meridian.

All of a sudden, he felt a sharp pain as before.

This time, Fang Qiu didn’t swallow the Heaven Treasure immediately. Instead, he endured the pain and waited for the Foot Yin Spleen Meridian to open completely. Then he controlled the internal Qi and rushed it to the Foot Yin Kidney Meridian.

Two meridians were opened.

A violent pain hit him.

Seeing that under the impact of the violent internal Qi, the two meridians were about to break, Fang Qiu quickly bit down a little bit of Mei Leaf, but he didn’t dare to take more. He only swallowed one-third of it.

After entering the stomach, the Mei Leaf immediately turned into a flow of soft energy, quickly wrapped up the almost broken meridians which were impacted by the internal Qi and began to repair them.

“Go on!” Under the nourishment of the energy transferred from the Mei Leaf, the pain was relieved a lot. Without further thinking, Fang Qiu immediately controlled the internal Qi in his body and rushed to the shackles of the fifth class!

At this moment, the wind was howling.

As if a tornado was coming, the surrounding Heaven and Earth energy rushed over wildly and quickly poured into Fang Qiu’s body.

“Rumble...” The sky, which was originally bright with stars, suddenly became gloomy.

In the sky above Fang Qiu's head, a dark cloud came from nowhere. In the dark cloud, the thunder and lightning flashed wildly, rendering the dark sky so bright.

"Pitter-patter..."

A moment later, it started to rain all of a sudden.

At this moment, Fang Qiu still closed his eyes, not being disturbed by any other factors in the outside world.

"Break through to the fifth class." Just like before, everything was just as smooth as it had been.

"Foot Yin Liver Meridian!"

A few minutes ago, the two meridians that had been reopened when he broke through to the fourth class hadn't fully recovered yet. When the pain still hurt, Fang Qiu directly controlled his internal Qi without any scruple and rushed to the meridian that needed to be reopened after the breakthrough to the fifth class.

The first meridian was opened!

Fang Qiu immediately controlled his internal Qi and rushed to the second meridian, the Foot Yang Bladder Meridian!

The moment the two meridians were expanded, Fang Qiu didn't hesitate and swallowed the rest of the Mei Leaf.

Before the sharp pain fully surged, the energy of the Mei Leaf completely wrapped up the four meridians.

The pain was greatly reduced.

The cracked meridians began to grow and repair quickly.

It lasted a long time.

It rained heavily.

Although his clothes were drenched, Fang Qiu still had no feeling about that. He was completely immersed in the process of re-opening and repairing his meridians after the breakthrough.

Several hours later, the heavy rain stopped.

Fang Qiu opened his eyes.

When he felt that his whole body was wet, he was at a loss.

However, thinking of his continuous breakthrough to the fifth class, Fang Qiu couldn't help getting excited.

“As expected, the Heaven Treasure which is on the top of the list is really amazing.”

Fang Qiu stood up. While using the internal Qi to evaporate the water from his body, he muttered to himself, “A nineteenth-ranked Heaven Treasure allows me to continuously break from the third class to the fourth class, and from the fourth class to the fifth class. The energy is just enough, and it has saved me a lot of pain and crisis.

“Based on this situation, if I need to reach the sixth-class, I have to use a Heaven Treasure that ranks below 20. It can't be higher.”

With that in mind, Fang Qiu nodded quietly.

After all, the top twenty Heaven Treasures were hard to find.

He wouldn't be so lucky as this time. He just happened to know there was an auction.

It was dawn.

The water on his clothes completely evaporated, and his whole body dried out. Fang Qiu immediately set off and returned to the downtown of Jiangjing.

In a luxurious presidential suite of a hotel in Yangzhou, the two rich young men who were knocked out by Fang Qiu, as well as two bodyguards who were protecting them, woke up.

"Who did it?"

"Damn it!"

"Go check it out. Don't let me know who did it, or I'll absolutely make him pay!"

As the two men roared, the two bodyguards immediately went out to inquire about it.

After a short while, the two bodyguards came back.

"What did you find out? Who did it?" the two men asked angrily.

"It's, it's a strange person." One bodyguard smiled wryly and said, "The person who took down us voluntarily admitted it at the auction last night, but this person is very strange. He did a lot of things at the auction and ended up tricking a large group of people."

"Oh?" The two men were stunned and hurriedly asked, "What happened?"

“This man seemed to go for the Mei Leaf. In the end, he also took it for 22 million yuan, but he didn’t have enough money and only took 10 million yuan with him. Xuan Yiqing appeared in person to ask him how he was going to deal with it. So this strange fellow first took out the Earth Bead to bid in the auction, and then took the promotion notes as if they were something that was not worthy and tried to send them away.

“After the money was finally collected, he still had a promotion note in his hand which could teach people to promote from the sixth class to the seventh class. It was like a note from a guru. Everyone wanted to buy it, but he didn’t want to sell it. In addition to the Heaven Treasure, he was followed by a large group of people after the auction. As a result, the weirdo set them up, and put a large group of people who wanted to steal things from him into the police station.”

After listening to the bodyguard, both of them were shocked. “Awesome!”

Was there such an awesome person in this world?

Although both of their families were very wealthy, they were the same as other well-known Wulin families. When focusing on one side, the other side would naturally be weakened.

A rich family’s strength of martial arts would always be weaker than that of others.

Therefore, after hearing the strange man’s means, the two rich men surprisingly chose to be silent.

They didn’t dare to deal with such a powerful figure and even dared not to make a sound.

After all, he had robbed them of their invitations, but he didn’t take any money from them, nor did he hurt them.

At first, a lot of people wanted to spread the news to the Wulin forum.

However, when this matter was spread out, the people who were involved would inevitably be very shameful. Moreover, there was more than one group of people who had been set up.

Once it was spread out, the person who posted it to the forum would be the enemy of the group of people.

In the end, everyone kept their mouths shut as they thought about these.

No one dared to spread the news.

However, even if this matter had not been spread to the Wulin forum, it was still known by a lot of people in private. It was just that no one dared to discuss it in public.

Those people who were detained were also released that night.

They all asked to call their lawyers during the interrogation, but it turned out they were not simply contacting lawyers but the famous figures.

The big shots kept calling to the station, causing the director of the police station to sweat coldly.

“Fortunately, nothing happened!”

Shocked as he was, the director of the police station had no choice but to let everyone go.
