Chapter 751: Build Up the Popularity of the Desert Cistanche!

“Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation?”

Under the impetus of Yang Ningyuan and Li Qihua, the news that the two companies had announced the merger soon made the headlines of commercial news.

Of course, it directly made it into the top 10 of the trending topics of Weibo.

Although they paid someone to heat up the topic, the matter of the Siqi Pharmaceutical Company and Taikang Pharmaceutical Company had really caused a great reaction. As soon as the news of the merger of the two companies came up, it immediately attracted the attention of many netizens.

After all, everyone was waiting to see what would happen next.

After being acquired, would they be able to make a comeback?

However, after hearing the news of the merger, all the netizens were shocked.

“Merged?”

“It’s good for them to merge! The two major financial groups are working together.”

“Li Qihua and Yang Ningyuan, a first-rate rich man and a rich man... With such an alliance, I think they have the ambition to rule the pharmaceutical world.”

“Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation? This name sounds quite awesome, but I wonder how the product is. If it is still the same as Siqi and Taikang, this company won’t be so successful even with the support of the Tianqi Group and the Zhiyuan Group.”

“Not only did they merge, but they also launched a new medicine. Everyone, go to its official website to check it out.”

Although most of the people were not in the mood to see the new medicine, there was still a small minority of people who were particularly curious and went to take a look at the official website of Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation.

After entering the official website, the first thing that caught the eye was a photo of Desert Cistanche.

“Desert Cistanche!”

“One of the nine magic herbs in Daoism!”

Upon seeing this, all the people who looked at the official website became even more curious.

Many people also went to search on Baidu.

It turned out that Desert Cistanche was really one of the nine magic herbs in Daoism. Moreover, it was also a very precious Chinese medicinal herb. It could only be cultivated in the desert of Beijiang. However, it often got stolen by people, so the production of Desert Cistanche was always in short supply and the price was also raised quite high.

After learning the value of Desert Cistanche, people felt that it was not bad.

What kind of medicine could Desert Cistanche help to make?

Everyone continued to read.

In this photo, there was a single bottle, a box, and a big gift box of a kind of pill.

There were several big words written on the photo—Trillium Root-Securing Pill!

“Wow, this name sounds awesome.”

“Trillium? Does it mean longevity?”

“Can people live a few more days after taking this medicine? Haha.”

“It’s the first time I’ve heard the name of this kind of medicine. This name is fabulous. Isn’t it better to just name it Immortal Pill?”

As people were teasing, they began to take a look at the introduction of the Trillium Root-Securing Pill.

The introduction was written according to the effect of the formula given by Fang Qiu. In addition, there were some modifications added, which made the introduction look incredible. Everyone was confused while reading it.

“If there is really such an effect as described in the introduction, it is likely to prolong one’s life.”

“To put it simply, doesn’t it just mean that it is good for the body and the five internal organs?”

“It sounds so incredible. Why do I feel that by taking this pill, I can become an immortal?”

“Does it mean that if you take this medicine, you will definitely be in good health and will not get sick?”

“Is it so magical?”

“Why do I feel like I’m watching TV Shopping?”

In the midst of the discussion, they found that there were no pictures below. All that was there was two large words—Coming soon!

The news about the Desert Cistanche and Trillium Root-Securing Pill was soon spread on Weibo, attracting more people’s attention and generating heated discussions.

“Desert Cistanche is indeed a very good Chinese medicinal herb. After these two companies merged into one, they directly chose to use precious herbs to process medicine. It seems that they want to take this opportunity to make a name for the company in one fell swoop.”

“Nine magic herbs in Daoism? Why does it sound so familiar?”

“I know nine magic herbs in Daoism. Tianshan Snow Lotus is also one of them. I heard that the nine magic herbs are all very precious.”

“I remember that when the incident of a woman kneeling in front of UJCM happened, Fang Qiu seemed to say that the days when he disappeared, he went to cultivate a kind of medicine, which was one of the 10 ancient magic herbs. It can’t be Desert Cistanche, can it?”

“Among the 10 ancient magic herbs, there seems to be Desert Cistanche as well.”

“Does the Desert Cistanche of Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation have something to do with Fang Qiu?”

“Both Siqi and Taikang have been exposed by Fang Qiu as having an issue with their medicine quality, and these two companies ended up being acquired because they slandered Fang Qiu. What’s more, the one who purchased these two companies happened to be Yang Ningyuan, a rich man who has a connection with Fang Qiu. Now the two companies are united into one, and the main product is one of the magic herbs. It is very likely to be the same as the magic herb that Fang Qiu has publicized before.”

“Connecting the dots... Why do I feel that it has something to do with Fang Qiu?”

During the heated discussion, some netizens actually connected Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation with Fang Qiu.

However, they would never just sit there suspecting but do nothing.

While having a heated discussion, many kind netizens immediately began to investigate the registration of Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation, its detailed background, shareholders and employees, and so on.

Soon, all the relevant information about Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation had been investigated and put on the Internet.

As people looked at it, they found that Fang Qiu was not on the name list of Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical's shareholders and staff members at all. Looking at it carefully again, they found that there was no one related to Fang Qiu on the list.

“Eh? How come he isn't on there?”

“Could it be that Fang Qiu is helping with the purchase of medicine?”

“It's impossible that it has nothing to do with Fang Qiu. Li Qihua and Yang Ningyuan have never been involved in the pharmaceutical industry before. None of the people they know practice Chinese Medicine except for Fang Qiu. I think this matter must have something to do with Fang Qiu.”

“I don't care if it has anything to do with Fang Qiu. Anyway, Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation has managed to attract my attention. I'm really looking forward to it. Is the effect of this Trillium Root-Securing Pill as good as what they said? Don't become the second Siqu Pharmaceutical Company.”

“That's right. If the effect of the medicine is as great as they said, it will be amazing!”

As people were having a heated discussion, the price of Desert Cistanche on the market rose rapidly soon because of the heat of this matter. That was because before this, almost no one paid any attention to Chinese medicinal herbs. Very few people knew that Desert Cistanche was one of the top 10 ancient magic herbs and one of the nine magic herbs in Daoism and so on. After this incident, people spontaneously searched it and found that the efficacy of Desert Cistanche was really powerful. For a moment, people who happened to have such symptoms were ready to buy some. Many of them had already placed an order.

In this case, there was no doubt that Desert Cistanche was very much in vogue all over the country.

Many merchants were beginning to accumulate goods.

There were also numerous manufacturers that used Desert Cistanche to make medicine. They came out one after another to make a name for themselves, claiming that the Desert Cistanche they used was the same as that of Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation, which was better than that of the market.

In the office on the top floor of the building of the former Siqi Pharmaceutical Company in the capital, Yang Ningyuan and Li Qihua were sitting and drinking tea as they saw Desert Cistanche trending on the Internet.

"It's almost time. Have them send it," Li Qihua said.

"Yes."

Yang Ningyuan nodded and said, "This is the first time that I have done something like pushing something to make it a trending myself. Unfortunately, I can't mention Fang Qiu's name. Otherwise, even if I don't buy what is trending, this matter will definitely be more popular than now."

"Let's not mention Fang Qiu. When the effect of the medicine comes out, we will be able to make a name for Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation so that it can have a solid foundation in the pharmaceutical business and we will not be regarded as laymen," Li Qihua said with a smile.

"Yeah."

Yang Ningyuan nodded, went to the desk, picked up the phone, and said, "Post it."

After that, he hung up the phone.

After a while, Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical's official Weibo account was officially registered and verified, and then it immediately posted its first Weibo.

"The Desert Cistanche that my company uses is not any of the ones that can be bought on the market. Instead, it has been cultivated in a brand new way. Its medicinal properties are unchanged, and its efficacy is more than 10 times that of normal Desert Cistanche, which is a super Desert Cistanche. Any company that claims they are affiliated with our company or uses the same Desert Cistanche as our company is a fraud. We hereby certify that we have exclusive rights to use this Desert Cistanche."

As soon as this Weibo was posted, it immediately suppressed the uproar of the Desert Cistanche on the Internet.

"It's exclusive?"

"I knew it. How could an ordinary Desert Cistanche have such a good effect?"

"A newly-cultivated super Desert Cistanche with 10 times the normal effect? No wonder these two rich men are working together. They can really put in a lot of money!"

"That is to say, the effect of ordinary Desert Cistanche isn't that good?"

Not long after, as Desert Cistanche's popularity was suppressed, the price of Desert Cistanche, which had just risen on the market, quickly dropped.

Under these circumstances, many of the merchants who were collecting their goods started to curse.

Some people were complaining everywhere because they didn't know how to deal with it. They had stored too much Desert Cistanche.

“10 times? How is that possible?”

“10 times the effect of the drug? Can they really do that? If it’s 10 times the effect of the previous drug, what’s the point of making it into medicine? Just sell Desert Cistanche directly!”

“You’re so good at fooling people. There is no such thing as Desert Cistanche with 10 times the effect. I’d like to see how you’re going to blow it!”

The netizens were not affected by the comments of the merchants. Instead, they enthusiastically went to leave messages on the official Weibo of Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation.

“When will the Trillium Root-Securing Pill be released?”

“You make it sound so powerful. Take it out and let us have a look.”

“We haven’t seen 10 times the effect yet. Even if you don’t release it, you should at least show some of the Desert Cistanche to prove it.”

With everyone’s enthusiasm, the official Weibo of Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation released a second post.

Only two words were written—Coming soon!

In Beijing, Fang Qiu was also paying attention to the movements of Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation.

After all, he was starting to run a company now. He had to see how these big shots in the business world operated. He needed to learn how to draw the audience’s attention and make the best publicity.

When Fang Qiu saw the two messages posted on Hua Yuan Pharmaceutica Corporation’s Weibo, he couldn’t help shaking his head and exclaiming, “It’s true. All business people are profiteers!”

“It’s obvious that they are trying to maximize the benefits. Instead of launching the Life-prolonging Earth Pill that anyone can take, they chose to release the Trillium Root-Securing Pill, which can’t be taken by people who have a weak spleen or stomach.

“These two guys really live up to their reputation as sophisticated figures in the business world. Every move they make is cunning!”

Medical Master

Chapter 752 Being Nominated As One of the Top Ten Youths of the World!

The more Fang Qiu thought about it, the more he felt that these two business giants had really thought things through so thoroughly.

“First, they introduce the Trillium Root-Securing Pill and arouse the interest of the media with these trending topics on Weibo. After the Desert Cistanche becomes popular, they immediately register and verify via official Weibo. Then they take the opportunity to publicize it. Once everyone’s curiosity about the Trillium Root-Securing Pill is triggered, they come forward to suppress the Desert Cistanche’s popularity. They then use the topic they publicized as stepping stones, telling everyone that they are using exclusive special Desert Cistanche. In this way, not only will they reduce the popularity of Desert Cistanche, but they will also reduce the possible consequences, which is that people might not be satisfied with the Desert Cistanche. Meanwhile, this helps promote their products.”

“It sounds impossible that there should be a Desert Cistanche which is ten times better than the current one, but this impossibility will easily attract people’s attention because the Desert Cistanche will eventually be used to make medicine, so everyone’s focus will naturally be shifted from Desert Cistanche to the Trillium Root-Securing Pill.”

“With the words—coming soon, it really leaves people in suspense.”

“In the following days, the Trillium Root-Securing Pill will be put on the market, with numerous people looking forward to it. As soon as the Trillium Root-Securing Pill is released, they will tell people that those who have weak spleens and stomachs can’t take it. Then, it will definitely make those people furious and then they can only look on with envy.”

“At that time, Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation will take the opportunity to launch the Life-prolonging Earth Pill that can resolve the problems pertaining to the spleen and stomach. After this, those who have weak spleens and stomachs will definitely spend money to buy the Life-prolonging Earth Pill in order to take the Trillium Root-Securing Pill. In addition, after buying the Life-prolonging Earth Pill, they will definitely buy the Trillium Root-Securing Pill too.”

“Those who buy the Trillium Root-Securing Pill will realize the efficacy of the drug and will very likely buy the Life-prolonging Earth Pill. This is because the pill does not have any restrictions. They can even send it as a gift. It will not be a problem for them to buy these two kinds of pills at one time.”

“The way they are launching the drugs is incredible.”

“If they change the sequence of these two pills, the Trillium Root-Securing Pill will be sold at a much lower price, while more Life-prolonging Earth Pills will then be sold. In general, the effect will be adverse. According to this order of the promotion, these two pills will definitely sell well!”

“What a cunning businessman!”

In the office, Fang Qiu had to shake his head in admiration for Li Qihua and Yang Ningyuan’s marketing plan.

They were so remarkable.

However, even if Fang Qiu could see through the marketing scheme of Li Qihua and Yang Ningyuan, he could not interfere.

After all, there were business rules in this field. They were merely operating a normal business. It was understandable for them to do some marketing for profit.

After all, every industry has its own set of rules. When you were doing business, you have to follow the business rules.

However, Fang Qiu also saw a lot of netizens' speculations on the Internet, whether he had something to do with Desert Cistanche.

With regard to this, Fang Qiu was quite surprised.

He did not expect that the netizens would connect this to him.

However, if it was just speculation, Fang Qiu did not care about it.

As for him, this was not the right time to stand out. He still needed to keep it a secret for a while.

Thinking of this, Fang Qiu nodded secretly and looked out of the window at the students who were in the last year of their medical studies, working in the factory of the cultivation area.

"In the blink of an eye, I've been here for more than half a month."

Fang Qiu thought for a moment and said, "Since the cultivation base and company have been established and running so smoothly, it's time to reward them."

After that, Fang Qiu walked straight out of the office and went to the newly built cultivation base.

Although it was called a base, it was just a large factory, like the one in Jiangjing. After all, it was large enough to cultivate seedlings and it had a factory and a few research facilities.

In order to make it easier to manage the planting, Fang Qiu deliberately segregated a spot to serve as a cultivation section, when he was building the base.

In the future, if the seedlings were successfully raised, they could be transplanted immediately to the cultivation base, which would not only save on the transportation time and expenses along the way, but also cut down the time to grow the seedlings.

Soon, he arrived at the cultivation section of the factory.

“Everyone, gather round.”

Fang Qiu found Zhao Shanlin and asked him to gather the people together.

After a while, all the interns gathered in a relatively spacious spot near the gate.

“What’s the matter? Go ahead.”

Zhao Shanlin said.

“Okay.”

Fang Qiu nodded and said to everyone, “The purpose of asking all of you to gather here is to tell you two things.”

“The first thing, I believe that everyone has seen the news online now. The Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation has established and also announced that it will launch a new drug that uses Desert Cistanche as its main composition. Yang Ningyuan has come to our base many times, so I believe that you are aware that the Desert Cistanche used by Hua Yuan is supplied by us.”

Everyone nodded.

Of course, they knew that.

If it were not for the cooperation, would it be necessary for Yang Ningyuan to visit the base time and again?

“What I’m asking for is that,”

Fang Qiu looked at everyone and said with a serious expression, "I want to ask you to keep this a secret. No one is allowed to reveal that we are the supplier for Hua Yuan Corporation."

"Can you do that?"

Fang Qiu asked.

"Yes."

Everyone nodded in unison and agreed.

"Okay, thank you."

Seeing the affirmation on everyone's faces, Fang Qiu nodded with a smile and said, "Now, let's talk about the second thing."

"The second thing is that I want to thank you for your efforts."

"Without your joint efforts, our cultivation base would not have been able to start operating so quickly and develop into this state in such a short period of time. In order to thank all of you for your efforts, this month, in addition to the basic salary, each person will receive another 10,000 yuan as a reward!"

Everyone was dumbfounded.

"Really?"

"I'm not dreaming, am I?"

"10,000? It's even higher than my salary each month!"

Everyone was in a state of shock and looked at Fang Qiu strangely, wondering if Fang Qiu had inadvertently made a mistake in his speech.

“This...”

Zhao Shanlin also asked hurriedly, “Is it ten thousand per person, or ten thousand for some of them?”

“Ten thousand for each person.”

Fang Qiu said.

“What?”

Zhao Shanlin was stunned.

He also thought that Fang Qiu had made a slip of the tongue, so he wanted to help Fang Qiu find a way to change it. However, he did not expect that Fang Qiu was serious in giving each person 10,000 yuan as a bonus.

This was simply too generous.

It should be noted that one intern only had a salary of two to three thousand yuan a month and the internship lasted about three months. Ten thousand was equivalent to paying their salary for several months.

“It’s true, it’s true!”

“Yeah...”

When they heard the confirmation from Fang Qiu, all the interns immediately cheered ecstatically.

Ten thousand!

In addition to the salary of three months of internship, it was close to 20,000 yuan.

This was the first pot of gold in their lives. If they saved all of it, they could invest in some small businesses.

“Well, we’re done talking about these two things. You can get back to work.”

Looking at everyone cheering, Fang Qiu was in a good mood.

After walking out of the cultivation section,

“Why did you suddenly think of giving them a bonus?”

Zhao Shanlin asked.

“You cultivated the Desert Cistanche from the very beginning. I only showed up occasionally, but I could only help out a little. To put it bluntly, what we have achieved now is reliant on their strength. Without them, our progress would have been greatly affected. Although they are interns, they are indeed our first group of our employees. As leaders, we’ve made a lot of money, so we have to reward them.”

Fang Qiu said.

“Actually, I’ve also thought about it, but I still think that it’s the same if you give the bonus on the third month of internship. At that time, I can also ask how many people are willing to stay. After all, they are already familiar with the process of cultivation and they are all students practicing Chinese Medicine. They are now more proficient in cultivation. I don’t want to have to recruit other people and start teaching them all over again after the internship ends.”

Zhao Shanlin said.

“I think they will stay.”

Fang Qiu nodded with a smile. Then he looked at the workers working in the cultivation area in front of him and said, “These workers are all recruited from nearby, aren’t they?”

“Yes.”

Zhao Shanlin nodded and said, “They’re all locals and they’re all good at farming on the sand. They’ve done sand prevention work before. After a little training, they’ve learned how to grow Desert Cistanche. They have done a good job.”

“Let’s gather everyone.”

Fang Qiu said.

“Are you going to do that again?”

Zhao Shanlin was bewildered and said, “Money can be earned, but we can’t spend it like this!”

“Don’t worry. I will not be giving them another bonus.”

Fang Qiu grinned.

“All right then.”

Zhao Shanlin nodded and then quickly gathered all the workers.

“Good job, everyone.”

Fang Qiu first paid everyone compliments and then said to them, "Our cultivation base is a very friendly place. As long as you work hard enough, you will be amply rewarded. Of course, because the base has just been established, the salary at the beginning is not much, but I saw your tenacity and passion for work, so starting from this month, everyone's salary will be increased by 1,000!"

The workers cheered together.

Zhao Shanlin also beamed.

He was opposed to the bonus, but he was willing to raise their salaries. Not only did it give the workers the motivation to work hard, but it also retained the people. Why not?

Undoubtedly, it worked.

As soon as Fang Qiu finished his announcement, all the workers worked much harder.

Fang Qiu smiled with relief.

At this time,

"Beep, beep, beep..."

His cell phone rang.

Fang Qiu took out his phone and found that it was a call from Chen Yinsheng.

"President Chen?"

Fang Qiu quickly answered the phone.

“Fang Qiu, congratulations.”

On the other end of the phone, Chen Yinsheng chuckled.

“What?”

Fang Qiu was confused.

Congratulations for what?

“Kid, you must have been busy with your company recently. You don’t pay attention to what’s going on outside, do you?”

Chen Yinsheng asked with a smile.

“Indeed.”

Fang Qiu replied.

Chen Yinsheng said, “This is a world-class big award. Only ten people will get this award per year and you will only see a thousand in a hundred years.”

“Top Ten Youths?”

Fang Qiu was even more confused.

How could he suddenly get nominated?

Why was there no news about it at all?

After chatting with Chen Yinsheng for a while, Fang Qiu ended the call and then checked the Internet. As a result, he found that he had really been nominated as one of the Top Ten Youths of the year. However, the final result would be announced ten days later.

Medical Master

Chapter 753: Im Still On the Way

The news that Fang Qiu had been nominated as one of the Top Ten Youths of the world this year spread online.

All the netizens were talking about it.

“There are only ten people in the world that can be the Top Ten Youths, but I think Fang Qiu is qualified!”

“Not only is he qualified, but Fang Qiu must be one of the Top Ten Youths in the world this year. Fang Qiu deserves it!”

“Congratulations, Master Fang Qiu. You’re going to be on the world stage again.”

“Fang Qiu is so awesome. One of the Top Ten Youths in the world award is an honor that one can get only after being approved by people in the whole world.”

“It must be Billion Fang!”

“Who can revive traditional medicine in one fell swoop at the World Medical Conference? Only Fang Qiu!”

“His thesis shocked the whole medical field. Not only did he personally confirm the existence of Qi, but he also applied it to normal medical treatment. This is definitely the biggest breakthrough in the medical field at present!”

“Not only did he prove the existence of Qi, but he also proved the existence of meridians to everyone in the world. If Fang Qiu can’t win this award, who can?”

No matter if it was on Weibo, post-bar, or on all kinds of forums, everyone was discussing about this matter. They all supported Fang Qiu fully and thought that Fang Qiu would definitely win the award.

In the cultivation base of Beijiang.

Back in the office, Fang Qiu turned on one of the newly bought computers on the desk. He checked online and saw the support of the netizens. Then he immediately logged in and posted something on Weibo.

“I’m flattered. I just heard the news that I was nominated and also saw everyone’s support for me. Thank you for your support. I’m still on the way...”

After he sent it on Weibo, it immediately caused a huge reaction.

After such a long time, the number of Fang Qiu’s followers on Weibo had grown to more than 35 million and was even close to 40 million.

Therefore, once this Weibo was posted, it would immediately attract millions or even tens of millions of people’s attention.

“Finally, you updated your Weibo again.”

“I’m here to do an interview. What do you think about being nominated as one of the Top Ten Youths in the world?”

“You really live up to your reputation as Billion Fang. You’ve been recognized by the world!”

Even as people were teasing him, many of them began to interpret what Fang Qiu had posted on Weibo.

“What does he mean by on the way?”

“Isn’t it obvious? On the way means that he just got nominated, but has not won this award yet, so he is on the way!”

“I don’t think so. Master Fang Qiu is not a person who cares about reputation. I think the meaning of Master Fang Qiu’s words is that he is still practicing Chinese Medicine and he will continue to work hard in the future.”

The two comments received a lot of likes.

There were more people who approved of the second comment because they felt from the bottom of their hearts that Fang Qiu was such a person.

He was a person who was willing to devote himself to Chinese Medicine, a person who could save people relentlessly until he fainted, and a person who had the medical ethics that others could not reach!

No matter what kind of interpretation people supported, their main intention was to support Fang Qiu.

“Master Fang Qiu, you can achieve it!”

“Come on!”

However, as people were cheering Fang Qiu, a few people suddenly brought forth another topic.

“Master Fang Qiu, are you the supplier of the Desert Cistanche used by Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation?”

“Didn’t you say before that you were cultivating one of the top ten ancient magic herbs? Is it Desert Cistanche?”

“Desert Cistanche, used by Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation, has a medicinal effect that is ten times stronger than that of an ordinary Desert Cistanche. Do you believe it?”

Seeing these questions, everyone became curious.

They followed up with questions, one after another.

Below these numerous questions, many people commented, “Hey! You guys are changing the topic.”

For a moment, people were having a great time viewing Fang Qiu’s Weibo comment area.

While everyone was joking with each other, they asked about the Desert Cistanche while leaving comments on Fang Qiu’s Weibo, to increase its popularity.

Fang Qiu read some of the comments and some of them even made him laugh out loud.

However, after reading the comments, Fang Qiu did not reply, nor did he want to reply to questions about the Desert Cistanche.

For this matter, it was better to remain silent for the time being.

“Beep, beep, beep...”

Just as Fang Qiu logged out of Weibo and turned off his computer, the phone in his pocket suddenly rang.

This time, it was He Gaoming.

“Hello?” Fang Qiu immediately changed his voice to that of the mysterious man’s.

“Master, Master.”

He Gaoming’s voice came from the other end of the phone. “I’m about to make a breakthrough. Where’s my sword? Where is it?”

Fang Qiu was reminded that he had not given him the sword yet.

“I’ve been too busy recently. I forgot about it.”

Fang Qiu sounded nonchalant and said this without any embarrassment or guilt, “But I’ve made the sword for you. It’s placed under a big five-ton stone one kilometer away from the West Hill Forest of Jiangjing. You can go and get it yourself!”

“Okay, what’s the class?”

When He Gaoming heard that the sword had been cast, he was not in a hurry. On the contrary, he began to ask expectantly.

“Seventh-class!”

Fang Qiu replied.

“Really?”

Hearing this, He Gaoming was surprised and said, “Thank you, Master. I have not been waiting in vain then these days, haha.”

He could tell that He Gaoming was jubilant from his tone.

“Okay, I’m hanging up.”

Fang Qiu hung up.

As soon as He Gaoming put away his phone, he could not wait to rush to the place that Fang Qiu had mentioned. A seventh-class sword was simply too tempting.

After hanging up, Fang Qiu sat in front of his desk and took out the remaining Earth Treasure—Fairy Desert Cistanche. He was going to use the remaining Fairy Desert Cistanche to make some Life-prolonging Earth Pills and planned to give some to his parents, Zhao Shanlin and Xu Miaolin.

In addition, he also prepared some for Jiang Miaoyu’s parents.

He was about to do it as soon as he thought of it.

Fang Qiu immediately took the Fairy Desert Cistanche and walked to the pharmacy.

Since they needed to research and cultivate, the pharmacy in the base was naturally an indispensable part of the structure. After all, after the medicinal herbs were cultivated, it also needed to be used to produce medicine so as to evaluate its efficacy and property.

The construction of the pharmacy had just been completed, so Fang Qiu could use Fairy Desert Cistanche to get off to a good start.

Arriving at the pharmacy, Fang Qiu put the Desert Cistanche on the table and began to prepare other things.

He had just finished his preparation.

As soon as Fang Qiu turned his head, he saw a little guy with white fur coming to the table. It was staring at the Fairy Desert Cistanche on the table, drooling over it.

“Coo, coo...”

Seeing Fang Qiu looking over, the little creature immediately took a few steps forward, gave Fang Qiu a flattering look and made a sound.

“Wherever there’s good stuff, you will be there.”

Fang Qiu rolled his eyes at the Tianshan Rat Hare and then directly cut off a small piece of the Fairy Desert Cistanche with his knife. Meanwhile, he said to the little hare, “I can’t give you all of it. This is what you will get. I need to use the rest of it.”

After that, he handed the small piece to the hare.

The little hare did not stay any longer. After taking the Fairy Desert Cistanche, it immediately turned around and ran away without looking at the rest of the Fairy Desert Cistanche in Fang Qiu’s hand.

Fang Qiu chuckled.

This little hare was really intelligent and was not greedy. He really did not know how it could mutate into such a strange little creature.

After the little hare left, Fang Qiu began to process the medicine.

In Jiangjing, after leaving the detective agency, He Gaoming took a taxi to the West Hill of Jiangjing. After the taxi left, he glanced around and confirmed that there was no one around. He then ran all the way into the depths of the forest.

In less than three minutes, He Gaoming stopped.

He took a closer look.

Not far in front of him, there was indeed a big stone about one-third of which was buried in the ground. This stone weighed about five tons, which was the same as what Fang Qiu had described.

“Here we are.”

He Gaoming ran up excitedly.

But as soon as he got closer, he saw that the soil at the edge of the boulder seemed to be loose and there were footprints beside it.

“What the f*ck, did someone steal it?”

He felt very anxious.

He Gaoming instantly stretched out and held the boulder. Then he suddenly lifted it up.

With one hand supporting it, He Gaoming squatted to have a check.

If ordinary people saw this scene, they would be scared to death.

This guy squatted directly under the stone. If ordinary people saw it, they would think that he would be crushed to death by the boulder. However, the five-ton stone was not raised entirely. It was not difficult for He Gaoming to push it aside.

“It’s still there.”

Seeing a pit under the boulder and a sword on one side of the pit, He Gaoming was relieved. He quickly took out the sword, then with a flash, he rushed out under the boulder and let it drop.

“Awesome.”

Holding the sword, He Gaoming said with excitement, “This is really a seventh-class sword!”

He Gaoming was overjoyed.

He started practicing in the forest with the sword in his hand. After practicing for about an hour, he put away the sword and went home.

In the evening, because he was about to make a breakthrough, He Gaoming took advantage of the silence of the night to go over to the West Hill with the seventh-class sword and continued to practice with his sword in order to be enlightened.

Because he had reached the peak of second-class, he actually reached enlightenment after practicing with the sword. With the help of the sword, he really broke through to the third class.

“Whoa!”

Enjoying the pleasure of making a breakthrough, He Gaoming roared toward the sky and felt extremely comfortable.

He was even more fond of this seventh-class sword that Fang Qiu had specially made for him because he felt that this sword was very compatible with his aura.

He believed that with the help of this sword, his path for his future cultivation would inevitably be smoother.

However, just as He Gaoming's roared toward the sky faded.

"Whoosh..."

A sound like wind rushing through the air could be heard, together with the sounds of a branch shaking in the breeze.

"Who is it?"

He Gaoming suddenly turned his head.

In the sky, under the moonlight, a young man, who had been sitting on the top of the tree, jumped down directly from the tree. There was a leaf in his mouth, which he had used for blowing.

"Who are you?"

He Gaoming raised his eyebrows and asked, "Do you know John Doe?"

The young man did not answer. Instead, he asked He Gaoming this question casually. As he gently spat, the leaf in his mouth suddenly shot out like a hidden weapon, passing by He Gaoming's ear. With a swoosh, it went deep into the trunk of the big tree behind He Gaoming.

Medical Master

Chapter 754 Threaten to Challenge John Doe!

Hardly had he finished asking his question when the young man turned his head. Under the moonlight, He Gaoming could clearly see his face.

It was a bit small with a round outline and a pointed chin. It was a pretty face or it could be said to be one with feminine features!

However, although he had such a delicate face and smile, there was a trace of intimidating aura between his eyebrows. Not only did he lack any trace of femininity, but he also had a piercing look which made people feel aggressive.

“What John Doe? Who is John Doe?”

He Gaoming asked in confusion, “Who the hell are you? What are you talking about?”

“Are you trying to deny it?”

The young man looked at He Gaoming and suddenly grinned. He took a step forward and said, “I checked the surveillance record of the auction in Chic Cloud Pavilion. You were sitting next to John Doe during the auction, weren’t you?”

He Gaoming was shocked.

Although John Doe’s true appearance had been exposed, it was not something that ordinary people could manage, to be able to check the surveillance records of Chic Cloud Pavilion.

Even though he was frightened, He Gaoming studied the man in front of him.

In addition to his delicate features, he was wearing a black suit, similar to what a monk practicing martial arts would wear. He did not look like a good person, but more like an ancient assassin or killer.

However, this kind of clothing could be seen anywhere in this era, so it was still normal. There were people wearing clothes weirder than this.

“Call John Doe. Ask him to come over.”

The young man said to He Gaoming.

“I don’t know who John Doe is and I don’t know what you are talking about.”

He Gaoming was on the alert. He could see that the young man was obviously looking for trouble and his aura was very menacing. He was definitely not a good person.

After saying that, He Gaoming immediately took a step back and was about to leave.

“If John Doe does not come, you can’t leave.”

The young man reached out and blocked He Gaoming.

“Humph!”

He Gaoming snorted.

This person was simply too arrogant. He was a third-class Martial Superior now. Although he could feel from his aura that he was no match for this young man, he had just made a breakthrough. The power of a third-class Martial Superior was surging in his body. He planned to have a good fight.

He Gaoming snorted and he did not restrain himself now. With a wave of his right hand, he raised the seventh-class sword in his hand. It directly swept across the opponent’s arm.

“Humph.”

As if he did not expect that He Gaoming would dare to resist, the young man sneered disdainfully. Before He Gaoming’s long sword could reach him, he clenched his fists.

With a move of his arm, a wave of powerful internal Qi erupted from his fist and directly struck He Gaoming's chest.

He Gaoming's expression changed greatly.

Originally, he was eager to try his best to fight with the man and thoroughly engaged the full internal Qi in his body. But he did not anticipate that the opponent was so fast that he could not respond in time.

"Bang!"

A loud thump sounded.

In a situation where he had no time to dodge, He Gaoming was punched by the young man in front of him and slammed into the big tree behind him.

"Damn it, what the hell is that?"

He was terrified.

He Gaoming felt miserable. He knew that if he continued to fight, there would be problems.

He had nothing valuable on him. And the young man was not here to rob him. It was better to directly admit defeat. Anyway, no one was there to witness it.

With that thought in mind,

"You're really something."

Rubbing his chest, He Gaoming stood up, grimaced in pain and said, "I'm no match for you. I don't want to fight with you anymore. I really don't know who is this John Doe you're talking about. If you want to find him, you can find him yourself!"

“If I can find him, will I look for you too?”

The young man looked at He Gaoming and the smile on his face gradually disappeared. Instead, he looked a little impatient. He said to He Gaoming, “If you don’t know who John Doe is, give me your phone. If you don’t have John Doe’s phone number, I will let you go right now.”

After that, he was about to reach out for He Gaoming’s cell phone.

But at this moment,

He Gaoming took the initiative to put his hand into his pocket. As he touched the phone, he said, “My phone was shattered by you just now.”

As he spoke, he suddenly pressed hard and shattered the phone into pieces, with all his strength.

“You’re courting death!”

The young man was furious.

Staring at He Gaoming, he raised his eyebrows.

He charged at He Gaoming with a gloomy look.

“Hmm?”

He Gaoming was shocked and immediately wielded his sword to block his move.

Unfortunately, his strength was much weaker than the young man's. As soon as he waved his sword, his right hand, which was holding the sword, was hit by the man's fist. While his whole arm was thrown backward, the young man clenched his left fist and fiercely punched He Gaoming in the chest.

Strangely enough, this punch did not send He Gaoming flying. After this punch, the young man's right hand, which had just been withdrawn, struck again.

"Pa pa pa..."

He punched He Gaoming seven or eight times in a row.

When the last punch fell, He Gaoming was eventually sent flying.

"Puff!"

After being thrown into the air, He Gaoming felt a cold feeling at the back of his head. He could not help spitting out a mouthful of blood in an instant.

He had serious internal injuries!

As he fell to the ground, there was still blood gushing out of his wide-open mouth.

This young man seemed to have held back some strength and did not cause any fatal injuries to He Gaoming. But if this kind of internal injury was not taken care of in a timely manner, he would die in a matter of days!

"Tell me, how to contact John Doe!"

The young man came over, squatted down, reached out to pinch He Gaoming's chin and asked coldly.

"Bah, I don't know."

He Gaoming spat out blood to the side and suddenly burst into laughter. The sight of blood gushing from his mouth would make people looking at him shudder.

“Do you want to die?”

The young man was furious.

He raised his fist and was about to smash He Gaoming’s head, but he did not do it. Instead, he gritted his teeth and grabbed He Gaoming’s seventh-class sword.

“I believe that you should remember how to contact John Doe.”

The young man threatened him with his long sword.

Actually, He Gaoming had Fang Qiu’s phone number in his memory. He even remembered Fang Qiu’s account on the Wulin online forum, not to mention his phone number,

But would he tell him?

“It looks like a precious sword.”

Looking at the sword in his hand, the young man sneered and said, “If you don’t tell me, don’t even think about taking this sword back.”

“I won’t tell you anything!”

He Gaoming was also irritated. He hated it immensely when someone threatened him. The more he threatened him, the more adamant he became in not revealing the information!

“Do you think I’m joking with you?”

The young man was furious.

“Crack!”

With a slight hand movement, the young man directly broke He Gaoming’s seventh-class long sword.

He Gaoming was stunned when he saw that.

“My eight million! Eight million!! You’re going to pay me eight million!!!”

He Gaoming roared furiously.

He still remembered that the minimum final auction price of a seventh-class sword was eight million yuan and this sword had been specially made for him by Fang Qiu. It helped him break through to a third-class Martial Superior when he got it, but it was broken in less than a day. How could he not be angry?

However, so what if he was angry?

He could not defeat the young man. All he could do was simply yell at him.

“Humph!”

After breaking the sword, the young man was not bothered about He Gaoming’s angry roar at all. Instead, he grabbed He Gaoming’s ankle, and with a poker face, dragged him away.

Soon, in the middle of the night, a post suddenly appeared on the Wulin forum, which attracted the attention of many people.

“Fight! John Doe, I am challenging you. You can’t refuse this challenge!”

“Your friend surnamed He is in my hands. If you want him back safely, just accept the challenge. I’ll wait for you at the top of Yangshan Mountain of Jiangjing in three days. If you don’t turn up, I can’t guarantee that your friend will still be alive!”

From the title to the content of the post, it revealed a strong fighting intent.

At the end of the post, there was also a photo of He Gaoming curled up on the ground, spitting out a lot of blood and looking really miserable.

As soon as the post appeared, it immediately attracted everyone’s attention.

“Another one challenging John Doe?”

“What the f*ck, there’s another person who wants to challenge John Doe.”

“This move is a bit inhuman. If you want to challenge someone, why do you have to harm his friend? Isn’t that a little shameless?”

“It doesn’t seem that he wants to challenge John Doe at all. He’s simply an enemy of John Doe!”

Everyone was talking about it.

There were also many people who began to investigate into the identity of the one who posted it.

When they saw the ID of the person who posted it, everyone was astonished.

“Yu Yuanhao!”

“Shadowless Hand, Yu Yuanhao?”

“It’s him?”

“I was thinking who would be bold enough to challenge John Doe? If it’s this guy, it’s possible!”

“Such a dirty trick can only be pulled off by Yu Yuanhao.”

The martial art practitioners on the forum began to discuss this animatedly.

Yu Yuanhao, nicknamed “Shadowless Hand”, was a super expert who ranked sixth on the Wulin Genius List.

This person had always thought highly of himself. Since the appearance of the Wulin Genius List, he had always felt that his strength should not be ranked sixth. He should at least be among the top three.

“Why did this guy appear?”

“I remember last time, didn’t he say that he wanted to challenge Chen Yunzhu, who was ranked fifth?”

“Does he need to challenge Chen Yunzhu? I remember that John Doe defeated him in only three moves, didn’t he?”

“Anyway, Yu Yuanhao’s ambition is huge. It is said that he has not made any moves recently because he has been in seclusion. The purpose of his seclusion is to challenge Chen Yunzhu. It seems that he heard that Chen Yunzhu was defeated by John Doe after he came out of seclusion, so he changed the target from Chen Yunzhu to John Doe, right?”

“I did not expect that this guy would really do that. He said that he was going to challenge him after coming out of seclusion. He really did.”

“Chen Yunzhu has been defeated by John Doe. Yu Yuanhao actually wants to challenge John Doe. He is really confident, isn't he?”

“Most importantly, he can just do it if he wants to challenge John Doe. But he attacked John Doe's friend in order to coerce John Doe to accept his challenge. This is so shameless.”

“It's more than shameless. This is simply a taboo in Wulin. If this guy dares to do this, he will definitely provoke John Doe.”

“I'm also irritated, not to mention John Doe.”

“It's just a challenge, but he makes it seem as if there's a grudge between them. In my opinion, something serious is going to happen in Wulin!”

Medical Master

Chapter 755 Fang Qiu in a Rage!

In the pharmacy at the cultivation base in Beijiang, Fang Qiu came out with a large pack of Life-prolonging Earth Pills after working the whole afternoon. Having informed Mr. Zhao about it, he directly booked a high-speed train ticket and returned to his hometown.

On the way home, Fang Qiu called his parents.

Since Fang Qiu's disappearance for three days during the incident of a woman kneeling at the school gate, Mr. and Mrs. Fang had been very nervous and were looking forward to Fang Qiu's return.

This time, as soon as they heard that Fang Qiu was on the way home, they did not go to work. They immediately took the day off and went home. Fang Qiu's mother no longer told anyone about her son's return.

It was not easy for Fang Qiu to come back. She had to stay with her son. Once the news leaked out, Fang Qiu would be scared away by those people again.

When Fang Qiu's mother got home, she even acted shiftily like a thief. She first went out to check her surroundings and also on the neighbors. After confirming that the coast was clear, she called Fang Qiu and asked him to get out of the car.

Fang Qiu also behaved in the same manner. As soon as he got out of the car, he lowered his head and sprinted into the house.

As expected, he did not attract anyone's attention.

"You're back?"

At home, even though Fang Qiu's father had just returned from work, he still pretended he was on leave and sat cross-legged, reading the newspaper.

"Dad, I'm back," Fang Qiu said with a smile. Actually, what he said was also the title of a song that was mainly about domestic violence.

When he heard this, Fang Qiu's father chuckled, "Kid."

This was a joke between father and son.

He still remembered that when he was in middle school, Fang Qiu heard this song and intentionally asked his father to listen to it. As a result, after his father heard it, Fang Qiu was almost beaten up by him. After his mother heard this song, she laughed merrily.

Until now, this matter was still a topic of discussion whenever Fang Qiu's mother and the relatives gathered together.

"Son, are you alright?"

Fang Qiu's mother locked the door and came into the house. She grabbed Fang Qiu and scrutinized him from head to toe, for fear that something bad had happened to him.

"Mom, I'm not an animal. Don't look at me like that."

Fang Qiu gave a wry smile.

"You are. Your father and I are also animals. Humans are all animals."

Fang Qiu's mother scolded, "If you are an animal, you will get hurt. Although humans have brains, they will also get hurt, especially you. You are so precious now. No matter where you go, you must be careful, got it?"

"Mom, don't worry. I'm 18 years old and I'm an adult now," Fang Qiu said with a grin.

"You are still your mother's good son no matter how old you are."

Fang Qiu's mother rolled her eyes at him.

"That's right."

Fang Qiu's father immediately nodded in agreement.

"Yes."

Fang Qiu smiled and then added, "Mom, Dad, I brought you something."

"What is it?"

Fang Qiu's mother asked.

"It's a kind of medicine, like a health product."

Fang Qiu took out a large pack of Life-prolonging Earth Pills from his backpack and said, "This is the medicine I developed myself, and its medicinal materials are also cultivated by me. It will be sold on the market in a few days, but the effect of those drugs are not as good as this. These are for you. You only need to take one pill each day. Don't give it to anyone else. This thing can't be bought on the market even if you have the money. Just take it yourself."

"Is it really that good?"

Fang Qiu's father stood up and came over. He took the Life-prolonging Earth Pill from Fang Qiu and asked curiously.

"You can try one now," Fang Qiu said.

"Okay."

Without any delay, Fang Qiu's father took out one pill and popped it into his mouth, swallowing it.

As soon as he swallowed it, he felt a particularly comfortable feeling surging in his stomach. Then the feeling began to spread from his lower abdomen to his whole body.

It felt so good.

He felt completely relaxed. He had been in a hurry to come back and was feeling a little tired. As soon as he took the pill, the fatigue in his body was immediately swept away and replaced by great energy.

"Eh? This medicine is really good!"

Fang Qiu's father said with a look of enjoyment.

"Let me try one."

Fang Qiu's mother also took one.

"Mom, Dad, you can only take one pill a day. Your body will not be able to stand it if you take too many. If you take this pack of medicine regularly, your body will definitely be much healthier than it is now."

Fang Qiu reminded them.

Actually, if it was an ordinary Life-prolonging Earth Pill, ordinary people could take three or even more pills a day. However, the main ingredient of this Life-prolonging Earth Pill made by Fang Qiu was an Earth Treasure—Fairy Desert Cistanche. How could an ordinary person's body withstand the powerful energy of the Earth Treasure?

Therefore, Fang Qiu warned them specifically about this.

Although they could only take one pill a day, the effect of this pill was definitely several times better than that of an ordinary Life-prolonging Earth Pill. After all, it contained Fairy Desert Cistanche, which had a huge amount of Qi of Heaven and Earth stored in it. If they took this medicine for a while, not only would they become healthy, but would also be immune to all kinds of diseases.

This was also the reason why Fang Qiu was in such a haste to send these Life-prolonging Earth Pills to his parents.

"Okay, I got it."

Feeling the comfort all over her body, Fang Qiu's mother answered with a broad grin. Then she hurried back to her room with the Life-prolonging Earth Pills, wanting to store it and take it daily.

At this time,

“Beep, beep, beep...”

Fang Qiu’s cell phone suddenly rang.

He took out his phone and saw that it was Long Qiyun, the young master of the Long Family in Longquan.

“Hello?”

Fang Qiu wondered why this guy was calling him.

“Senior, bad news.”

Long Qiyun’s anxious voice came from the other end of the phone. He said, “Hurry, check the Wulin forum. Your disciple has been taken away and he is seriously injured. That person seems to be targeting you!”

“Okay, I got it.”

Fang Qiu nodded with a smile.

After hanging up, he turned to his father and said, “Dad, I have something to do at school. My roommate called me and asked me to go back quickly. Tell mom that I’ll leave first.”

“You’re leaving so soon?”

Fang Qiu’s father was a little upset, but when he heard that something happened in school, he had nothing more to say. He could only say, “Go ahead and take care.”

“Okay.”

Fang Qiu nodded and walked away.

He took a taxi and rushed to the high-speed railway station, while using his phone to log into the Wulin forum to check.

As soon as he logged onto the forum, he saw Yu Yuanhao’s post.

Fang Qiu flew into a rage when he clicked on the post and saw He Gaoming curled up and spitting out blood. As anger swept over him, he clenched his teeth and fists so tightly that cracking sounds could be heard.

There was actually someone who dared to hurt his friend.

Although he and He Gaoming had never formally acknowledged each other as master and disciple, he had always regarded He Gaoming as one of his own.

To be more precise, He Gaoming was like his brother.

How dare Yu Yuanhao lay a finger on his brother?

If it was He Gaoming who provoked him, he would teach He Gaoming a lesson. However, He Gaoming did not provoke Yu Yuanhao at all. Instead, He Gaoming was directly attacked by him and was used as a tool to threaten Fang Qiu.

This person was simply courting death!

Fang Qiu could not restrain his anger!

Never let his family and friends get into trouble. This was Fang Qiu's bottom line.

Now, this Yu Yuanhao had already crossed the line!

He did not think much about it.

Fang Qiu directly sent a post in a rage!

"It won't take three days. Tonight, I'll destroy you at the top of Yangshan Mountain!"

Soon, the post appeared on the forum.

Everyone took a look.

"What the f*ck, isn't this acceptance a little overbearing?"

"Destroy you! John Doe is really awesome."

"It seems that John Doe is furious!"

"Yeah, anyone would be furious if their friend was attacked and used as a threat. After all, John Doe is also a human being."

"Although John Doe is very powerful, don't forget that there is a sect behind Yu Yuanhao to support him!"

"Luo Yin Sect!"

“Yeah, it’s not easy for the Luo Yin Sect to finally cultivate a martial arts genius in decades. If he’s really maimed by John Doe, they will definitely hunt John Doe down!”

“People of the Luo Yin Sect have always been narrow-minded. Some of them are really cunning. It’s a pity that Yu Yuanhao cultivated in this sect but did not learn anything good. Instead, he learned all the bad traits.”

“I heard that the Luo Yin Sect has always treated Yu Yuanhao as if he would be the next sect leader. They think that Yu Yuanhao is the future of the Luo Yin Sect. Besides, Yu Yuanhao indeed has great strength and exceptional martial arts talent. Otherwise, he would not have been ranked in the Wulin Genius List and even reached the sixth place!”

After sending the post, Fang Qiu arrived at the high-speed railway station and took the high-speed train directly to Jiangjing. Along the way, his face was gloomy and his heart burned with rage!

In his opinion, if this man could hurt his friends today, then he would dare to target his relatives tomorrow. Therefore, he must make sure this was the only time it happened and seek justice for his friends. He had to take this opportunity to suppress the thoughts of those people and make them give up this shameless idea completely!

Fang Qiu had been trying his best to keep a low profile in Wulin and just wanted to live a simple life without showing off. But these people thought that it was easy to provoke him and now he was being bullied.

In the past few days, Fang Qiu had completely devoted himself to his business. He felt quite annoyed, as he tried to find a way to vent his feelings. He was worried that he could not find a place to do it. Now someone came to him blindly.

Today, he was going to beat somebody up!

“Hehe.”

In a rented apartment in Jiangjing City, Yu Yuanhao immediately smiled smugly when he saw Fang Qiu’s acceptance on the Wulin forum. Then he turned his head and looked at He Gaoming who was lying in a corner, surrounded by a pool of blood. He had been tortured half to death. Yu Yuanhao stated, "It seems that you mean a lot to John Doe!"

While he was talking, he stepped forward again.

"Bang!"

Another kick landed on He Gaoming's belly.

"Woo..."

He Gaoming did not even have the strength to scream in pain. After being kicked, he only opened his mouth slightly. Blood flowed out of his mouth as if he did not even have the strength to spit it out. He looked thoroughly miserable.

Yu Yuanhao took a photo of He Gaoming with his phone.

Then, he logged into the Wulin forum and sent a post!

"Okay, let's see how you'll destroy me!"

The post was sent.

It showed He Gaoming in a very pathetic state!

From the photo, it seemed that He Gaoming had been horribly tortured and was on the verge of death.

As Yu Yuanhao posted the photo, he suddenly grinned. His face was a little ferocious and he said in a gloomy voice, "Go crazy, just go crazy. We'll have a great fight once he gets crazier!"

Medical Master

Chapter 756 Powerful Figures Gather in the Yangshan Mountain!

On the high-speed train back to Jiangjing, Fang Qiu, who was in a furious mood, had been paying close attention to the situation on the Wulin forum.

He knew that since Yu Yuanhao was targeting him, he would definitely reply after he accepted the challenge. Fang Qiu wanted to see if he dared to turn up tonight.

Of course, it was largely because he wanted to learn more about He Gaoming's condition, in his reply.

In the last photo, He Gaoming had obviously suffered very serious internal injuries. If the man continued to abuse him, He Gaoming would die.

This was also the main reason why Fang Qiu immediately replied that he would accept the challenge tonight!

If he could not even protect his friends and could only watch his friends being killed by others because of him, Fang Qiu would go crazy!

As Fang Qiu expected, Yu Yuanhao replied instantly with a photo of He Gaoming.

In the photo, He Gaoming was still curled up in the corner, looking half dead. His face was extremely pale and his mouth was slightly open with blood trickling out. It seemed that He Gaoming spat out very little blood this time because he had already lost too much blood.

The moment he saw this photo, Fang Qiu, who was already furious, suddenly turned cold. An inexplicable cold killing intent erupted from his body, which made the people around him feel as if an extremely chilly wind was blowing through. They hastily added on extra layers of clothes, one after another.

The person sitting next to Fang Qiu turned to look at Fang Qiu and was stunned because he saw that Fang Qiu's face was so cold, without a trace of any emotion.

His eyes were also so cold that they made people feel as if they were suffocating!

Of course, before getting on the high-speed train, Fang Qiu had already taken on Lin Yu's identity. He also used Lin Yu's ID card to buy the high-speed train ticket so that no one would discover his identity.

That was to say, even if someone knew that Fang Qiu had entered the high-speed railway station, they would never connect Fang Qiu with Lin Yu, because Lin Yu had never appeared at the station.

On the high-speed train, it was freezing cold.

However, Wulin was already in an uproar!

“What the f*ck, are they really going to have a fight?”

“The time and place is already stated. Isn't it clear that they want us to go and watch?”

“It's so miserable. Yu Yuanhao is too cruel. Why did he beat him up like that and even post the photo? Doesn't he know that by doing this, it will surely make John Doe furious?”

“The people of the Luo Yin Sect are very sinister and cunning. Yu Yuanhao, who has been raised by those shameless people of the Luo Yin Sect, is even more callous and shameless. This kind of dirty trick is something that he does regularly, isn't it?”

“I'm afraid John Doe will be furious this time.”

“We can't miss this battle. It's not too late to go now.”

In the heated discussion, all those who were curious about John Doe booked flight tickets or high-speed train tickets, dashing to Jiangjing!

At the same time,

In the Qian Family in the capital city,

“Young Master.”

In the gym of a large-sized company, when Qian Xiao dressed in sportswear, was working up a sweat. A man who looked like a director stood outside and waved to him.

Qian Xiao stopped, so the trainer blew his whistle.

“What’s the matter?”

Qian Xiao walked out of the gym, took the sports towel without appearing to be breathless or red in the face from the exercise, wiped the sweat from his face and neck and asked.

“There’s still half an hour left. The meeting for the signing the contract is about to start. You should get ready,” The director said.

“Where’s my phone?”

Qian Xiao nodded. He took the phone from the director’s hand and clicked it open, only to find that there was a reminder message.

He clicked on it.

“Tonight, at the top of Yangshan Mountain, John Doe will fight against Yu Yuanhao.”

When he saw this message, Qian Xiao narrowed his eyes and immediately said, “Postpone the signing meeting. Book a flight ticket to Jiangjing for me. The sooner, the better!”

“Vroom, vroom...”

In a motorcycle club in the capital city, several motorcycles revved back and forth on the wide square, leaving black tire marks on the ground!

In the club next to the square, a group of people sat by the floor-to-ceiling windows, talking about something animatedly.

On the sofa, a woman with clear blue pupils and an Asian appearance was holding a seven-colored drink in her hand and smiling happily.

This person was Zhan Lin, the eldest daughter of the Zhan family in the capital city.

At this time, her outfit was slightly different from her usual attire. What she was wearing was no longer the extremely sexy dress, but a racing suit. Even so, her face still looked good, combined with her short silver hair. It made people feel that she was a very eye-catching character who could be in a cartoon series.

“Beep...”

When they were having a good chat, Zhan Lin’s phone on the tea table suddenly rang.

“Hello?”

Putting down the drink, Zhan Lin answered the phone.

“Tonight, on the top of Yangshan Mountain, John Doe will have a fight with Yu Yuanhao!”

A voice came from the other end of the phone.

“Okay, I got it.”

Zhan Lin was a little surprised and then hung up.

“Lin, we’ve decided. Let’s go to the East Dam to race tonight. Don’t be late.”

A man who had the look of a rich second-generation at a glance, said with a smile.

“I’m not going.”

Zhan Lin shook her head with a smile. While browsing through the news on the Wulin forum with her phone, she added, “I have something more important and interesting to do tonight. You guys go ahead.”

“No way. Is there anything more important and interesting than racing in this world?”

A rich second generation young man asked.

“There are many interesting things in the world. If you only focus on one thing in your life, you will become a good-for-nothing.”

Zhan Lin stood up, said this with a faint smile and then stepped away.

In the manor of the Diwu family in Nanjiang,

“Ms. Qian, you’ve finished your seclusion?”

A girl guarding outside a stone gate in the back garden looked at the woman who had just walked out of the gate. She had long hair and wore a long blue practicing robe. Her eyes were beautiful and her skin was as fair as snow. Her facial features were stunning.

This woman was the genius born in the Diwu family, Diwu Qian.

“Yes, I’ve come out of seclusion.”

Diwu Qian nodded to the girl with a smile and asked, “Why are you here?”

“The Patriarch asked me to wait here. He said that Miss Qian would come out of seclusion soon. After you are out, he wants me to give you a message.”

The girl replied.

“Tell me, what is it?”

Diwu Qian nodded and asked.

“Yu Yuanhao from Luo Yin Sect issued a challenge to John Doe. John Doe accepted the challenge. They will fight tonight, on the top of Yangshan Mountain. Today, the whole of Wulin is in an uproar. Everyone is rushing to Jiangjing,” The girl said.

“Does it mean that the Patriarch wants me to go?”

Diwu Qian smiled and looked at the girl in front of her in a meaningful way.

“Emm.”

The girl curled her lips and said, “The Patriarch said that whether you will go or not is up to you. I am only responsible for telling you this news.”

“I’ll go.”

Diwu Qian responded with a smile.

In a villa somewhere in Huaxia,

“Father.”

A young man in a suit with a buzz cut, sat on the sofa in the hall and said to the middle-aged man who was drinking tea opposite him, “Are you really willing to let me out?”

The middle-aged man nodded slightly and said, “However, you have to remember that you can just watch this time, no participation and no fighting. Do you understand?”

“Understood.”

The young man immediately became excited.

“Also, Diwu Qian will be there this time. I hope you can stay away from her.”

The middle-aged man said seriously.

“Okay, I’ll just look at her from a distance.”

The young man chuckled.

“Mu Rufeng, our Mu family is depending on you. Don’t ruin the future of our family because of your romantic affairs!”

The middle-aged man rolled his eyes at the young man.

“I understand.”

The young man named Mu Rufeng replied with a bitter smile on his face.

It wasn't just these people.

The other young experts on the Wulin Genius List also rushed to Jiangjing after hearing the news, because they were very curious to find out how powerful John Doe really was.

Even Chen Yunzhu, who had fought with John Doe and ranked fifth on the list, was very curious.

Even though he had fought with John Doe in person, he was still not sure how powerful John Doe was. He was more curious than the others and wanted to see with his own eyes how powerful John Doe could be!

After all, the last fight between John Doe and him was still like a dream. He still felt as if he had been in a trance and had not come to his senses at all.

Meanwhile, all the major families and forces in Wulin made their way to Jiangjing.

At six o'clock in the evening, many people started appearing on the top of Yangshan Mountain in Jiangjing.

Those who arrived first were all unknown Wulin people. They had nothing to worry about. When they heard the news, they immediately rushed over. Not only did they want to see the battle between John Doe and Yu Yuanhao, but they also wanted to see who the big shots in Wulin were.

Of course, the first to arrive was naturally the local martial arts practitioners in Jiangjing.

With the arrival of the martial arts practitioners from other provinces, the local practitioners of Jiangjing immediately began to talk to everyone, telling a lot of stories about John Doe!

While they were talking, more and more people gathered at the top of Yangshan Mountain.

Fortunately, the top of the Yangshan Mountain was very wide. It was a huge mountain with a vast plain, far away from the city. There was a large plateau on the top of the mountain, about the size of a football field. There were some big trees around the field.

All the people who came to the top went to the trees on the periphery of the plain and left the plain to John Doe and Yu Yuanhao.

Soon, it was nine o'clock in the evening.

Some major forces also came, one after another.

Because most of the younger generation were present, the arrival of every middle-sized family and middle-sized force was met with instant exclamations.

As for the members of these families and forces, they naturally found a place to settle down, proudly.

At ten o'clock in the evening, the major forces also arrived, one after another.

Whether it was in terms of words or momentum, the large-sized forces were much powerful than the medium-sized forces.

This caused all of the younger generation to exclaim in astonishment. Their gazes were filled with envy as they looked at the major forces.

"Whoosh." When it was almost 10:30 in the evening, a sound like wind rushing through the air was suddenly heard.

Everyone turned to look in the direction of the sound.

A shadow dashed over. Under the bright moonlight, it landed in front of everyone.

“Zhang Jiu!”

“The No. 10 on the Wulin Genius List, Zhang Jiu?”

“Is he Zhang Jiu?”

“He looks so powerful!”

Medical Master

Chapter 757 Top Ten Geniuses of Wulin all Gathered!

“They really live up to their reputation as the top 10 geniuses. Their auras are completely different.”

“In the entire Wulin, there are only 10 people who can get on the list. Of course, they are remarkable.”

People started to talk about this matter.

But right at this moment,

There was a lot of noise coming from the people on the other side.

Everyone turned their heads to take a look.

“Ma Jincheng!”

“Ma Jincheng, ranked ninth among the top 10 geniuses!”

Hearing this name, everyone could not help exclaiming.

“Wang Yu is also here. Wang Yu, ranked eighth among the top 10 geniuses, is also here.”

“Is that... Wu Yuzhu, ranked seventh?”

The people on the Wulin Genius List came one after another, which made people gathered there exclaim excitedly, non-stop.

“Don’t tell me all of the top 10 geniuses are here?”

“Half of them are here.”

“That’s right. Coupled with Yu Yuanhao, who is ranked sixth, half of the top 10 geniuses are indeed here.”

“Will the top 5 come?”

Just when everyone was talking about it and looking around,

“Patter, patter.”

The sound of footsteps could be heard.

People turned to have a look.

Three people came together.

“They are... Chen Yunzhu? Feng Yiming?”

“They are really here. The fifth and the fourth persons placed on the Wulin Genius List came together. But who is the young man with them?”

“He is able to come with Chen Yunzhu and Feng Yiming. This young man must not be any ordinary person.”

Everyone was confused.

They took a closer look.

The young man was wearing a white T-shirt and a pair of ripped jeans. He had a buzz cut, which gave him a fashionable look.

This man was none other than Mu Rufeng ranked third on the Wulin Genius List!

Because he had been in seclusion in his family home in order to cultivate all year round and was not allowed to go out, few people had seen Mu Rufeng. Coincidentally, Chen Yunzhu was one of them. He once attempted to compete for the third place on the list which belonged to Mu Rufeng, but he was defeated. Therefore, the two of them got to know each other.

“This young man looks so young. Is he 20 years old?”

“Is he a martial arts practitioner?”

“Maybe he is the disciple of Chen Yunzhu or Feng Yiming.”

“And he’s wearing ear studs?”

Everyone made various comments about Mu Rufeng.

However, Mu Rufeng did not care about it at all. Instead, he walked to an open space with Chen Yunzhu and Feng Yiming and they began chatting with each other.

At this time.

“Pitter-patter...”

Another series of footsteps could be heard.

Everyone looked in two different directions.

Two groups of people appeared in the north and west at the same time.

The one who appeared in the north was a young man in sportswear, with two or three bodyguards and a secretary behind him.

“Qian Xiao!”

People looking at the north could not help shouting in amazement.

How could the eldest son of the Qian Family, Qian Xiao, who lived in the faraway capital, come here in person?

Just as the people in the north were shouting, there was an even louder exclamation from the west.

Feeling confused, everyone followed the sound and took a look.

They caught sight of a young man.

This young man was wearing an ordinary casual suit, followed by three or four people. Compared with Qian Xiao, this person was a little taller and leaner and his face was slightly longer. At first glance, there was nothing remarkable about his appearance and he looked just like any normal person.

However, such a normal person made everyone's eyes open wide, as if they had seen something impossible.

"Xi Yeting!"

"The young master of the Xi Family, Xi Yeting?"

"Even the young master of the Xi family is here? John Doe really has a huge influence!"

"I remember that when Chic Cloud Pavilion auctioned the Guru Sword last time, Xi Yeting did not show up. Instead, he asked Lu Zhiyuan, the director of the Xilian Chamber of Commerce, to attend on his behalf. I did not expect that this time, Xi Yeting would come in person."

"It is said that the reason why Xi Yeting is not ranked among the Wulin Genius List is not because he is not talented, but because he has never fought before. Therefore, even the people working on the rankings do not know how powerful he is, so they can't judge at all."

"How could he not know martial arts when he was born in the Xi family? However, as the young master of the Xi family, no matter what happens to Xi Yeting, he really doesn't need to deal with it himself. He has a powerful background!"

People were discussing this animatedly.

At this moment, Qian Xiao and Xi Yeting exchanged glances and nodded to each other politely.

"Two of the Four Great Families are here. Aren't the rest coming?"

When someone asked about it, almost all the people present turned and looked around, looking for the members from the other two families.

Actually, what everyone was concerned about was not whether the people from the Zhan family in the capital city and the Diwu family in Nanjiang would come, but whether Diwu Qian would make an appearance!

Undoubtedly, the reputation and beauty of Diwu Qian were well known in the martial arts world. Everyone wanted to see with their own eyes whether she was as beautiful as the legend stated.

“They’re coming! They’re coming!”

Just as everyone turned their heads and looked around, a shout suddenly sounded.

Everyone turned to look.

Another group of people came from the foot of the mountain.

Looking carefully, they found that there were only three people.

As people took a closer look, they spotted that all three of them were women.

Two of them walked in the front while the other followed behind.

“It’s Diwu Qian!”

The first woman everyone saw was one of the two women walking in the front. The woman was wearing a pair of very ordinary stiletto heels, a tight pair of jeans and a white T-shirt. She looked exceptionally young. Her long hair was tied into a ponytail, which showed off her perfect face. Not only was she beautiful, but she also gave off an extremely competent air.

Next to her was a woman with silver hair and bright red high heels.

This woman was Zhan Lin!

At this time, what Zhan Lin was wearing was the same as what she wore the last time when she attended the auction of Chic Cloud Pavilion, which was extremely attractive and was a sharp contrast to Diwu Qian. One was pure and lovely, while the other was extremely charming.

However, the spotlight had always been on Diwu Qian.

It was not only because of Diwu Qian's beauty, but also because Diwu Qian was a super master who ranked second on the Wulin Genius List. As for Zhan Lin, although she looked very attractive, people felt that she was too aggressive. No matter how beautiful she was, ordinary men would assume that they would not be able to deal with her.

When they arrived at the top of the mountain, Diwu Qian, along with the middle-aged woman who had been following her, glanced at everyone, with Zhan Lin. When she saw that the space around Chen Yunzhu was wide enough, she immediately walked toward them.

"Did you see her?"

Placing his arms around Mu Rufeng's shoulders, Chen Yunzhu said with a grin, "She's coming over. Do you want to go up and say hello?"

"Hmm?"

Mu Rufeng quickly withdrew his gaze which had been fixed on Diwu Qian and then he shook his head nervously and trembled.

"Haha."

Chen Yunzhu and Feng Yiming looked at each other and both of them were amused by Mu Rufeng's behavior.

At this time.

Diwu Qian and Zhan Lin stopped next to them.

After nodding and greeting the three of them, the two of them also found a place and quietly waited for the battle to begin.

In the crowd, a heated discussion broke out.

"Now that Diwu Qian is here, only the third place, Mu Rufeng and the first place are left."

"Who has seen Mu Rufeng before? No one here has seen him at all. I guess that even if he came here, no one would recognize him."

"If Mu Rufeng does not count, then Yun Yangzi will be the only one who has not made an appearance among the top 10 tonight."

"The coming of the top 10 has nothing to do with today's battle. The purpose of our trip here is to see if John Doe is really as powerful as the legend said."

"This is also the reason why the top 10 geniuses are here."

"John Doe appeared out of thin air and created a stir in Wulin. Now he is entangled with the top 10 geniuses. First, Chen Yunzhu challenged him and now he is going to fight against Yu Yuanhao. Next, will he fight with Feng Yiming, Mu Rufeng, Diwu Qian and Yun Yangzi?"

In the midst of the heated discussion, people were looking at the sky, waiting for the tremendous battle tonight.

Some people had even waited for four or five hours. It was already eleven o'clock in the evening. No one knew whether it was due to a tacit understanding or other causes, but John Doe and Yu Yuanhao, the two protagonists, had not yet appeared.

“Why are they not here yet?”

“In another hour, it will be the next day. Is John Doe not that punctual?”

“Why do I feel that John Doe will not come deliberately?”

“Does John Doe know that there are too many people coming to watch the battle, so he decided not to come?”

Just as everyone was whispering and discussing, another sound of footsteps could be heard.

Everyone turned to look.

A group of people strode forward, completely ignoring all the people at the scene. They went straight to the east of the top of Yangshan Mountain, driving away all the people who had occupied the spot of the east.

“Luo Yin Sect!”

“There are so many people. Are they going to besiege John Doe?”

“That one seems to be the leader of the Luo Yin Sect. The First Elder of Luo Yin is also here. He is Yu Yuanhao's master. It seems that the Luo Yin Sect is not going to let John Doe off so easily this time.”

In the midst of the discussion, almost all the people who came to observe had retreated to the side and stayed far away from the people of the Luo Yin Sect because this time, the thing that Yu Yuanhao did was too despicable.

He even used John Doe's friend to threaten him. How shameless was he!

In addition, this was always the way Luo Yin Sect handled things, so no one was willing to get close to them.

"Clatter..."

When the people of Luo Yin Sect come to a stop, there was a sudden rustling sound of the wind blowing through one's clothes.

Everyone looked up.

A white figure hovered in the air. After taking a few steps in the air, he landed naturally on the ground.

This person wore a long white robe and did not have a belt around his waist. His movements were extremely unhindered. His long hair was fastened to the back of his head with a hairpin. He held a folding fan in his hand. At a glance, he looked quite graceful.

After landing on the ground, the man smilingly walked into the field and greeted the people he knew, one by one.

"Yun Yangzi!"

"It's Yun Yangzi!"

"Even he is here?"

"Amazing. He has actually reached the level where he can walk in the air. This can be considered a short-distance flight, right?"

"If Mu Rufeng was present, all the top 10 geniuses would have gathered!"

Everyone cried out in surprise.

No one had expected that Yun Yangzi would come in person. He was the first among the top 10 geniuses and the real top-notch talent among the young generation in Wulin!

At this moment, everyone's eyes were fixed on Yun Yangzi.

But right at this moment,

“Hey, Mu Rufeng?”

After greeting Chen Yunzhu and Feng Yiming with a smile, Yun Yangzi's eyes fell on Mu Rufeng and he shouted in surprise.

Medical Master

Chapter 758 Strong Aura on Each Step! John Doe Arrived At Yangshan Mountain!

“Mu Rufeng?”

“Is that Mu Rufeng?”

Everyone present was stunned. No one had expected that the young and well-dressed young man would be the person ranked third on the Wulin Genius List.

“You're here too?”

Yun Yangzi asked in surprise.

“I just... came to have a look.”

Mu Rufeng chuckled.

“Oh.”

Yun Yangzi nodded in understanding and then turned to say hello to Diwu Qian.

With Yun Yangzi’s arrival, all the top 10 martial arts geniuses who had been standing around, gathered together. The nine of them stood in a row and began to chat with each other.

“It should be about time.”

Feng Yiming, who was dressed like a white-collar elite, said, “I remember that when Mr. Chen challenged John Doe last time, John Doe also appeared at night. However, I did not expect Mr. Chen to be defeated by John Doe. Before Yu Yuanhao went into seclusion, his strength was equivalent to Mr. Chen’s. I think this seclusion should have helped him improve his strength greatly. Who do you think will win this battle?”

“Although I don’t want to say that, I still think that Yu Yuanhao has a greater chance of winning. After all, there are so many people from Luo Yin Sect here. With their characters, it is impossible for them to let Fang Qiu leave in one piece.”

Wu Yuzhu who was ranked seventh said, “Yeah, I think so.”

Wang Yu, who was ranked eighth, also nodded in agreement.

“I don’t think so.”

Mu Rufeng said, “I think John Doe is very powerful. Actually, I’ve been paying attention to him, but he’s too mysterious, so I’m not sure. I’ve always thought that I’m no match for him.”

Everyone expressed their own opinions.

The strange thing was that among the top 10 geniuses, all the four people ranked below fifth place thought that Yu Yuanhao could win, while the five people ranked among the top 5 did not give any forthright answers.

Feng Yiming, who was the one who started the discussion, turned to ask Chen Yunzhu.

“Mr. Chen, you have been defeated by John Doe before. You should have a general understanding of John Doe’s strength. Who do you think will win this battle?”

Feng Yiming asked. Everyone looked at Chen Yunzhu, waiting for his answer.

“Well...”

Chen Yunwu smiled wryly. Feng Yiming always brought up the fact that he had been defeated by John Doe, but he could not refute it, which made him very depressed. However, when he saw that everyone was so concerned about his answer, he thought about it seriously and answered.

“First of all, it’s a certainty that John Doe’s strength is very exceptional. Being able to defeat me in three moves is enough to prove that his strength is far beyond our imagination. But since Yu Yuanhao dares to coerce John Doe into accepting his challenge, he must have something to rely on. Otherwise, he would not have been so ruthless. So I don’t know who will win in the end either.”

After that, Chen Yunzhu smiled bitterly and added, “In that case, why do I feel that John Doe is taking the bullet for me? If John Doe did not defeat me, the first thing that Yu Yuanhao would do after he came out of seclusion should be to challenge me.”

Everyone shook their heads and smiled bitterly.

What Chen Yunzhu said was true.

“The blessing lies in the misfortune while the misfortune lies in the blessing. No one in this world can explain it clearly.”

Yun Yangzi said with a smile.

Everyone nodded.

At this moment.

At the foot of Yangshan Mountain.

A figure emerged from the darkness.

It was none other than Fang Qiu!

If it was some other matter, he would have arrived later or arrive exactly on time!

But he could not do that in this instance!

Today, he wanted everyone in Wulin to see what would happen if he provoked his friends!

“Pa!”

He started to ascend Yangshan Mountain!

With each step Fang Qiu took, his aura increased a little.

That kind of incomparably fierce and sharp killing intent was so strong that it made people scared!

On the top of the mountain.

“Someone is coming!”

When everyone was talking about it, Yun Yangzi, Diwu Qian, Mu Rufeng, the several masters and the First Elder of Luo Yin Sect turned their heads at the same time and looked in the same direction!

They could sense an aura that was growing steadily stronger.

Everyone looked over curiously.

But after gazing at it for a long while, they did not see anything.

However, the experts from Luo Yin Sect, Yun Yangzi, Diwu Qian and Mu Rufeng were still staring in that direction. With every passing second, the expressions of these experts became even more solemn.

Everyone was very confused.

What was going on?

But just as no one knew what was happening, an incredibly powerful aura suddenly descended!

In the beginning, because the distance was too far, only the experts could sense Fang Qiu’s aura. But as the aura became more and more intense and the distance was narrowed, people gradually felt it.

“Who, who is it?”

“What a powerful aura!”

“How terrifying!”

“Is, is this killing intent?”

The practitioners were all shivering with fear because of the powerful aura. Especially when they felt the incomparably sharp killing intent hidden in the powerful aura, they were even more frightened.

“John Doe!”

Yun Yangzi narrowed his eyes.

As soon as he finished speaking, a figure walked leisurely out from the darkness.

“Pitter-patter...”

With every step he took, everyone could feel his aura getting increasingly stronger.

The figure was gradually revealed, while everyone was in a state of shock.

“John Doe!”

“It’s John Doe. I remember what he looks like!”

“Oh my god, what a terrible killing intent!”

Fang Qiu stepped forward.

All the people on the periphery stepped back to give way to him.

When Fang Qiu passed by, the chilling aura became even more real and made the people shudder!

Fang Qiu’s power was still rising.

When Fang Qiu walked to the plain on the top of the mountain, his aura reached its peak.

Everyone was very surprised when they saw Fang Qiu. No one was expecting John Doe's aura to be so strong!

Just when everyone was extremely astonished by Fang Qiu's aura.

"Whoosh."

In a flash, as if a flow of cold wind had blown by, Fang Qiu's extremely powerful aura was instantly retracted into his body. Fang Qiu, who looked like the warrior of revenge just now, turned into an ordinary person in the blink of an eye.

The top 9 of the Wulin Genius List could not help being amazed when they saw that.

Especially Yun Yangzi, there was a faint trace of a fighting desire in his eyes when he looked at Fang Qiu, as if he regarded Fang Qiu as an opponent.

At that moment, it was the first time for the others to see John Doe, except for Chen Yunzhu. They had only seen his photos on the Wulin forum before.

It was also because of the mystery created by Fang Qiu that everyone had their eyes fixed on him.

While staring at Fang Qiu, someone exclaimed, "This is John Doe!"

Walking to the center of the plain, Fang Qiu glanced around with a cold look and then asked, "Is Yu Yuanhao here?"

On the periphery, everyone was shocked by the sudden burst of coldness from Fang Qiu.

“No, he is not here.”

After a long time, one of the practitioners plucked up the courage to answer.

“Thank you.”

Fang Qiu turned to thank the person who answered him and then stood straight in the center of the plain. He closed his eyes and remained motionless as he waited quietly.

“How do you feel?”

Diwu Qian’s voice rang in Yun Yangzi’s ears.

“There are notable talents in every generation. Let’s see who will be the leader of this generation.”

Yun Yangzi muttered, and then slowly added two words, “Powerful opponent!”

“Yeah.”

Diwu Qian nodded in agreement.

Since the appearance of John Doe’s aura, she had been paying attention and observing him. It was this kind of attention and observation that made her feel that John Doe was very powerful!

Soon, the moon appeared above the treetops.

“Whoosh, whoosh...”

While everyone was waiting expectantly, the sound of wind gushing through the air suddenly could be heard.

“Rustle...”

Along with the sound of the wind breaking through, there was also the loud noise of the violent shaking of the branches.

The sound seemed to be getting closer and closer.

Everyone turned to look in the direction of the noise.

Fang Qiu also opened his eyes.

A dark shadow appeared from the canopy of big trees and came over, with a person in his hand. When he rushed to the top of the mountain, he stepped on a firm branch of a big tree and jumped up. Under the bright moon in the sky, he created an image of falling from the sky and landed exactly opposite Fang Qiu.

Behind him were the people from Luo Yin Sect!

The man was Yu Yuanhao, the person in the sixth place on the Wulin Genius List from Luo Yin Sect!

At this moment.

He Gaoming, who was half-dead and seriously injured, was in Yu Yuanhao's hand.

“Whoosh!”

The moment Yu Yuanhao landed on the ground, Fang Qiu, who had been standing in the center of the plain, suddenly moved like a gust of wind. He dashed forward at an exceptionally fast speed. Before Yu Yuanhao could even react, he grabbed He Gaoming from his hands and returned to his original position.

Everyone present was dumbfounded, including Yun Yangzi!

“What a fast speed.”

“I did not even see that clearly. How did the hostage end up in John Doe’s hands?”

“This, this speed... is too amazing, isn’t it?”

“If he wanted to kill him, at that moment, Yu Yuanhao could have been dead, right?”

Everyone cried out in surprise.

“So fast!”

Yun Yangzi looked at the plain. The shock in his eyes remained, but on the surface, he merely spoke in an indifferent tone.

“Hmm?”

Yu Yuanhao stood up straight and looked at his right hand where He Gaoming was held originally. He was surprised at first and then suddenly laughed. “You are John Doe? You are indeed a good opponent... Haha.”

Fang Qiu completely ignored him. After bringing He Gaoming over, he put him gently on the ground. He stretched out his right hand and gently pressed it on He Gaoming’s chest. He then directly mobilized his mental powers to check on He Gaoming’s condition.

As soon as he used his mental powers, He Gaoming’s physical condition immediately appeared in his mind.

His five internal organs suffered internal injuries, but it was neither serious nor light. It was not fatal either.

However, five of his ribs were broken and there was blood congestion within his chest. His Qi was very weak, so he must have bled too much.

After the examination, Fang Qiu immediately moved his palm over He Gaoming's five broken bones and used his internal Qi to completely dissolve the congestion and then quickly reconnected his five broken ribs.

Then, he began to guide He Gaoming's internal Qi to run inside his body to help him recover his Qi and blood by himself.

With the circulation of internal Qi, He Gaoming, who had been beaten unconscious, finally regained consciousness.

But right at this moment,

“Swoosh!”

The sounds of wind rushing through the air rang out.

Medical Master

Chapter 759 Is That What He Did?

When Yu Yuanhao saw that Fang Qiu was treating He Gaoming, he directly launched a sneak attack toward the back of his neck. The punch carried tremendous power.

If this punch hit its target, not to mention a human being, even if it was an elephant, its neck bone would be smashed in an instant!

“Humph!”

As soon as Yu Yuanhao's attack came, Fang Qiu let out a cold snort.

"Bang!"

The next moment, a loud noise was heard.

Everyone's eyes were fixed on the scene.

They saw that Fang Qiu did not even turn his head. He just leaned to one side and stretched out his left fist, which collided head on with Yu Yuanhao's fist.

Fang Qiu did not move an inch after receiving this punch. On the contrary, Yu Yuanhao, who launched the attack, was directly knocked back by Fang Qiu, when their fists collided!

"What the f*ck! He's so despicable!"

"Shameless bastard!"

"Will you stop being so shameless? John Doe is checking and healing his friend's wounds. How could you launch a sneak attack?"

"He's damn shameless. He's a disgrace to Wulin!"

Everyone nearby began to swear.

Fortunately, John Doe managed to withstand this punch. Otherwise, he would have been a dead man.

"Humph."

In the field, Yu Yuanhao, who was reviled by everyone, did not feel ashamed at all. Instead, he stared at Fang Qiu with a cold smile and said, "Don't waste your internal Qi to heal such a good-for-nothing. I want my opponent to be in his best condition because otherwise, the fight will be so boring."

At this point, under Fang Qiu's guidance, He Gaoming's internal Qi circulated twice inside him and he finally regained consciousness.

The moment He Gaoming, the man who had been beaten to the ground and could not even move to go to the toilet for Fang Qiu's sake, saw Fang Qiu, his eyes suddenly grew misty.

"Master."

He Gaoming opened his mouth and shouted. At the same time, the tears ran down his cheeks.

"Finally, you're here."

He Gaoming cried and smiled at the same time.

"I'm here."

Fang Qiu nodded.

"You have to avenge me."

He Gaoming stopped crying and said, "I did not reveal any information about you. He broke my sword. That's worth eight million! Help me get it back. You must help me get it back!"

"Okay."

Fang Qiu nodded, took a deep breath, turned his head and stared at Yu Yuanhao with an extremely cold look and asked, "How did he hit you? Tell me exactly how he struck you each time."

He Gaoming said, "He asked me for your number. I did not give it to him and wanted to leave, but he stopped me and punched me directly in the chest, which sent me flying."

"I see," Fang Qiu replied.

"Whoosh!"

In an instant, his figure flashed.

At this moment when Fang Qiu vanished from sight, the expression on Yu Yuanhao's face, who was not far away from him, changed. Fang Qiu had already appeared in front of him and thrust out his fist, which was covered with internal Qi.

Yu Yuanhao had no time to dodge.

"Bang!"

There was a loud noise.

He opened his mouth and spat out a mouthful of blood. His whole body flew backward as if he had been hit by a hammer.

"Is that what he did?"

Before Yu Yuanhao's body flew backward and landed on the ground, Fang Qiu's voice rang out.

The crowd took a closer look and found that Fang Qiu had already returned to He Gaoming's side.

Everyone present was utterly shocked this time!

“So fast.”

“He’s too fast. I could not see his movements at all!”

“He made Yu Yuanhao spit out blood with a single punch? Isn’t he too powerful?”

“Is it because he’s fast, or is it because he’s really strong?”

In the midst of the shock, everyone started to talk about it.

“Aargh!”

On the other side, Yu Yuanhao, who was struggling to stand up after falling to the ground, became really angry.

“What else?” Fang Qiu asked.

“He asked me for your phone number and wanted to grab my phone. I crushed my phone and he punched me in the chest several times, making me spit out blood,” He Gaoming answered.

“Mmm.”

Fang Qiu nodded.

“Whoosh!”

He flashed again and rushed in front of Yu Yuanhao in an instant.

At this time, Yu Yuanhao had already readied himself. He planned to launch a preemptive strike and directly threw a punch at Fang Qiu.

But as soon as he made his move, Fang Qiu twisted his elbow and pushed his arm away. At the same time, he clenched his fists.

“Bang, bang, bang, bang...”

Five punches in a row.

“Bang!”

Once again, Yu Yuanhao was sent flying by the great impact.

The so-called onlookers nearby were all gasping with astonishment.

“Puff!”

Yu Yuanhao, who was sent flying again, could not help spitting out a mouthful of blood as soon as he landed on the ground.

At this point, Fang Qiu’s voice rang out again.

Beside He Gaoming, Fang Qiu asked, “What else?”

“He broke my sword,” He Gaoming replied.

“Which hand did he use?” Fang Qiu asked again.

“Right hand!” He Gaoming answered.

“Okay.”

Fang Qiu nodded with understanding. He stood up, stared at Yu Yuanhao with an extremely gloomy and cold face and walked toward him, one step at a time.

At this point, Yu Yuanhao struggled to get up again.

“Do you want to break it yourself, or do you want me to?” Fang Qiu asked as he looked at Yu Yuanhao.

“Humph.”

Yu Yuanhao snorted with a ferocious look and said sinisterly, “Don’t think you’re fast! I was careless!”

While he was speaking, he moved his feet, waved his hands quickly and directly used the Shadowless Fist, which won him fame in Wulin. A strong surge of power erupted from his whole body and he threw his fists straight at Fang Qiu.

“It seems that you have chosen me to break it!”

Fang Qiu narrowed his eyes.

Just as the other party’s indiscernible fists were about to land before him, he held out his hands, curving them into the shape of a dragon’s claw.

“Bang!”

The other side waved his fists in an extremely swift motion, but Fang Qiu grabbed his fists precisely with his own.

After being caught by Fang Qiu, Yu Yuanhao initially tried to struggle to loosen his grip.

However, no matter how hard he struggled, he could not free his hands from Fang Qiu's vice like grip.

Fang Qiu showed no mercy at all.

He pulled the other party toward him with both his hands!

As he pulled the other party over to him, he leaned to one side. Then, his palm landed very quickly with a mighty burst of power.

"Crack!"

A crisp sound was heard.

As Fang Qiu's palm fell, Yu Yuanhao's arms were struck into the shape of an amazing arc in an instant.

If there were any doctors present, they would definitely be able to tell at a single glance that Yu Yuanhao's hands had already been entirely crushed!

"Aargh..."

Screams of pain burst from Yu Yuanhao's mouth.

"How dare you!"

A furious roar was heard all of a sudden.

The crowd saw that all the members of Luo Yin Sect, who had been occupying the eastern side and standing guard behind Yu Yuanhao, rushed over quickly at this moment and shielded him.

“Five of my friend’s ribs are broken. He hasn’t suffered that yet!”

Fang Qiu spoke to the members of the Luo Yin Sect. Then, like a mad bull, he rushed into the crowd and came to Yu Yuanhao’s side. Without saying a word, he kicked his opponent hard in the chest.

“Bang!”

“Crack!”

As the kick landed, Yu Yuanhao was once again sent flying. At least five of his ribs were broken!

The others wanted to stop Fang Qiu, but they could not at all!

This time around, Yu Yuanhao was finally scared.

“Ah, ah...”

Cries of panic and pain came from his mouth. Even as he fell to the ground, his arms were smashed and five of his ribs were broken and he was still struggling to move back.

At this moment, in his eyes, Fang Qiu was simply a devil, who was even more insidious than him!

He had never expected that he had provoked such a devil because Fang Qiu was a bloody powerful man!

Even though he was ranked sixth on the Wulin Genius List, he was nothing but a defenseless ant in front of Fang Qiu. If Fang Qiu wanted to kill him, he could have ended his life tragically with a gentle pinch!

At this moment, he was really scared and regretted it!

“You’re digging your own grave!”

Seeing Yu Yuanhao’s miserable state, the members of Luo Yin Sect immediately flew into a rage!

The eyes of all the people around were wide open and they were dumbstruck!

No one had thought that this fight, in which the two parties were supposed to be evenly matched in everyone’s eyes, would actually end up with Yu Yuanhao being beaten up one-sidedly!

“John Doe is too powerful!”

Among the top ten geniuses, Chen Yunzhu said with a helpless and bitter smile, “It seems that he has hidden his strength. With the strength he’s showing, he did not need three moves to defeat me!”

Diwu Qian looked at Yun Yangzi beside her and asked with a frown, “With such strength, he must be a ninth-class Martial Superior. Even if he is not, he’s almost there, isn’t he?”

“Mmm.”

Yun Yangzi nodded.

He had just become a ninth-class Martial Superior after his closed-door training. Naturally, he knew how terrifying this kind of strength was. It was impossible for an eighth-class Martial Superior to defeat a ninth-class one.

Therefore, he felt that John Doe was also a ninth-class Martial Superior. Even if he was not one yet, he was almost there.

“How dare you beat someone from our Luo Yin Sect?”

In the plain, several leaders from the Luo Yin Sect surrounded Fang Qiu with all their members and said, "You must give us an explanation. Otherwise, our sect won't let you off!"

"An explanation?"

Fang Qiu sneered and added, "I have not finished settling scores with Yu Yuanhao. Don't forget what I said on the forum!"

As soon as he finished, all the people present immediately thought of what John Doe had said when he accepted the challenge on the forum—he was going to destroy Yu Yuanhao!

Initially, everyone thought that John Doe was just blurting out whatever came into his head and no one took it seriously. After all, it was all for the sake of maintaining his dignity. Little did they expect him to be so ruthless this time. What he did now was even more aggressive than the contents of his declaration of challenge. And according to the current situation, could it be that he really wanted to maim Yu Yuanhao?

Yu Yuanhao was a genius who ranked sixth on the Wulin Genius List!

"Humph, stop bragging!"

A voice suddenly sounded at this moment.

A grey-haired old man, who had been standing at the edge of the field, stepped over.

Taking a closer look, everyone found that he was about 50 years old and of medium build, but he had an air of dignity.

"Master."

Yu Yuanhao, who was lying on the ground, vomiting blood and struggling, shouted as soon as he saw the person coming.

“Mmm.”

The old man glanced at Yu Yuanhao. He did not seem worried about Yu Yuanhao’s serious injuries.

“Luo Qingcheng!”

“The First Elder of the Luo Yin Sect, Yu Yuanhao’s master, Luo Qingcheng!”

All the onlookers cried out in surprise.

In the plain, Fang Qiu looked at Luo Qingcheng.

With just one glance, he could clearly tell that Luo Qingcheng was an eight-class Martial Superior with three opened meridians. He was at the peak of this stage and it seemed that he was about to become a ninth-class Martial Superior.

Medical Master

Chapter 760 There’s No Need to Do That in the Future. Just Do It Today!

“How dare you hurt my disciple!”

Luo Qingcheng clearly did not care about Yu Yuanhao’s injury at all, but he came forward, stared at Fang Qiu with a gloomy face, and said word by word, “If you destroy your kung fu and break your arms, I’ll pretend that what happened today never happened.”

“Haha.”

As if he had heard a great joke, Fang Qiu suddenly laughed and said, “What happened today has happened. I just want to use what happened today to tell everyone in Wulin what will happen if someone dares to hurt the people around me. Here’s an example!”

“You’re good at talking big!”

Luo Qingcheng sneered.

In his eyes, Fang Qiu was merely a kid!

“You can give it a try!” Fang Qiu replied in a cold voice.

“How dare you provoke me?”

Luo Qingcheng looked daggers at Fang Qiu.

“I’m not provoking you. I’m stamping on you!” Fang Qiu replied without any fear.

“You’re digging your own grave!”

Luo Qingcheng’s face changed. He moved his feet, and a blast of extremely powerful Qi power burst out of his body. With a swoosh, he dashed toward Fang Qiu fiercely. With the support of his internal Qi, his fists, like huge hammers, carried extremely strong energy Qi and swept toward Fang Qiu.

“Humph.”

With a snort, Fang Qiu moved his hands and clenched his fists. Without any fear, he directly collided with his opponent face-to-face.

“Bang, bang, bang...”

Two pairs of fists, both moving at great speed, collided wildly with each other in a phantasmagorical fashion.

Strong fluctuations of internal Qi spread out continuously from the places where their fists collided.

The eyes of all the people around were fixated on the two people who were fighting.

“They’re too fast. I can’t see them clearly at all.”

The sight of those who had the strength below that of a sixth-class Martial Superior was blurred. Even if those sixth-class Martial Superiors could barely see their movements.

“This is a real fight.”

“John Doe seems to be able to hold on!”

“What do you mean by ‘hold on’? John Doe isn’t at a disadvantage at all, okay?”

“I can only roughly see that they are fighting. How can I see who has the upper hand and who is at a disadvantage?”

Those who had the strength below that of a sixth-class Martial Superior were engaged in a heated discussion.

While those who had the strength above that of a sixth-class Martial Superior were all dumbfounded.

That was because their eyes could keep up with the fighting speed of the two people. They could clearly see that in this fierce fight, John Doe actually gradually gained the upper hand. While attacking crazily, he also moved in the direction of Yu Yuanhao. It seemed that his target was still Yu Yuanhao!

Not only these onlookers who had the strength above that of a sixth-class Martial Superior but also Luo Qingcheng, who was Fang Qiu’s opponent and standing in the field, changed his expression in the fierce collision.

He couldn't help but be shocked when he looked at Fang Qiu because he found that John Doe's attacks were too fierce.

Not only was John Doe's speed surprisingly fast, but it even reached the same level as that of his Shadowless Hand. Moreover, John Doe held him in check with his strength.

To put it in a harsh way, John Doe was entirely suppressing him currently!

The reason why John Doe did not completely suppress him was that his real target was not him, but Yu Yuanhao!

Soon, under Fang Qiu's suppression, the two fought from the middle of the field to a place close to Yu Yuanhao.

"Bang!"

Their fists collided.

Fang Qiu moved and no longer entangled with Luo Qingcheng. Instead, he rushed to Yu Yuanhao in a flash. He was going to maim Yu Yuanhao!

"Holy crap!"

Luo Qingcheng was thunderstruck.

Although he was not interested in his disciple, Yu Yuanhao was, after all, a rare genius of the Luo Yin Sect. Furthermore, he was someone who had been groomed by the Sect Leader to become the successor. Therefore, no matter what, he had to ensure the safety of Yu Yuanhao. Otherwise, as the First Elder, he would completely lose his dignity in the Luo Yin Sect.

"Humph!"

Seeing that it was too late to save him, Luo Qingcheng didn't hesitate at all. He immediately rushed to He Gaoming, trying to threaten John Doe with He Gaoming.

"Whoosh!"

To everyone's surprise, just as he rushed to He Gaoming, John Doe, who was dashing to Yu Yuanhao, suddenly turned around and quickly returned.

His speed surpassed that of Luo Qingcheng in an instant.

Before Luo Qingcheng came to He Gaoming's side, he grabbed He Gaoming and ran away quickly.

As he ran, all those who had the strength above that of a sixth-class Martial Superior were stunned!

"John Doe obviously had the upper hand in this fight. Why did he run away? Did he do that to protect his friend?"

Everyone thought to themselves.

But for those who had the strength below that of a sixth-class Martial Superior, they could only see the surface.

"John Doe ran away?"

"Did the Luo Yin Sect win?"

"The strength of the First Elder of the Luo Yin Sect is quite strong!"

Everyone was talking about it.

No one had expected that this fight would end up with Yu Yuanhao being beaten up one-sidedly and John Doe being beaten away by the Luo Yin Sect. Every turn of events was too dramatic.

“Trying to run away?”

“Where are you running to?”

Over there, when the several leaders of the Luo Yin Sect saw that the situation was favorable to them, they immediately rushed forward and shouted angrily, “How dare you go against our Luo Yin Sect! We must tear your skin off!”

They meant to take their men to chase after Fang Qiu as soon as they finished.

“Don’t pursue a desperate foe!”

Luo Qingcheng quickly raised his hand to stop them.

After stopping his men, Luo Qingcheng turned around and looked at all the people present. He said, “From today on, John Doe is the enemy of our Luo Yin Sect. I hope that all of you here can behave yourselves and not help the wicked!”

“Do you mean that we cannot help you?” Diwu Qian asked with a faint smile.

However, Luo Qingcheng paid no attention to Diwu Qian and directly ignored her words because he couldn’t answer her at all!

Who was Diwu Qian?

She was a genius of the Diwu family in Nanjiang. The Diwu family was as influential as the Xi family in the West. It was not something that the insignificant Luo Yin Sect could afford to offend.

Moreover, despite her background, Diwu Qian's strength was about the same as his. If they were to fight, it was hard to say who would win.

No matter which aspect he looked at it from, he couldn't answer her.

Therefore, he could only choose to ignore it.

"Everyone, listen carefully!"

Luo Qingcheng continued to look at everyone on the scene and said, "For a scumbag like John Doe, I, Luo Qingcheng, will deal with him myself in the future and seek justice for my disciple!"

However, as soon as he finished speaking, a familiar voice was heard.

"There's no need to do that in the future. Just do it today!"

At the same time as the voice sounded, a figure, like a ghost, came crashing through the darkness.

John Doe came back!

All those who had the strength below that of a sixth-class Martial Superior were engaged in a heated discussion when they saw the scene.

All those who had the strength above that of a sixth-class Martial Superior could guess that John Doe would come back, so they had no intention of leaving.

Now, John Doe really came back!

They took a closer look and found that He Gaoming, who had been taken away by John Doe, was no longer with him.

It was clear that John Doe had just left to hide He Gaoming so he wouldn't worry. Now he didn't have to worry about him and could do whatever he wanted!

"Hmm?"

Hearing John Doe's voice, Luo Qingcheng was shocked.

In fact, he was scared too.

Just now, in the fight with John Doe, he was obviously at a disadvantage. It was just that no one noticed. He wanted to take advantage of the time when John Doe left to brag to everyone, and then quickly took his men away. Nonetheless, he didn't expect that John Doe was so fast that he could hide a person so quickly and return, which made him suddenly uncomfortable.

Nevertheless, Fang Qiu couldn't be bothered to talk to him.

After returning to the battlefield, he rushed straight to Luo Qingcheng without hesitation.

"Boom!"

All the internal Qi in his body burst out with a loud bang!

With great power, he rushed to Luo Qingcheng like a meteor falling from the sky.

Luo Qingcheng did not dare to slight him.

He immediately raised his fist to fight back.

This time, in the face of Fang Qiu who fought with all his might, he could only burst out all his strength and didn't dare to slack off at all.

The harsh sound of the collision rang out again.

The earth trembled and the mountains swayed!

Fang Qiu was as fierce as ever or more so than ever.

Under his horrible fist with strong internal Qi, Luo Qingcheng was quickly suppressed.

A minute later!

“Bang!”

There was a loud noise.

With the gradual increase of Fang Qiu's suppression force, a flaw showed up in Luo Qingcheng's defense. This flaw was caught by Fang Qiu in an instant, and he punched Luo Qingcheng hard in the chest.

With one punch, Luo Qingcheng was sent flying.

But Fang Qiu didn't stop.

While sending Luo Qingcheng flying, Fang Qiu did not lose his momentum and directly rushed to the camp of the Luo Yin Sect. He sent all the leaders and members of the Luo Yin Sect, who were guarding beside Yu Yuanhao, flying quickly. Then, he grabbed the neck of Yu Yuanhao, who was lying on the ground, and lifted him up.

“Stop!”

Seeing this, Luo Qingcheng tightened his body and immediately shouted angrily, “How dare you!”

Everyone nearby looked at John Doe in shock.

No one had expected that John Doe would come back and sent Luo Qingcheng flying. Moreover, he broke the defense and caught Yu Yuanhao from so many people from the Luo Yin Sect!

However, did John Doe really dare to maim Yu Yuanhao?

“Humph.”

In the face of Luo Qingcheng’s threatening roar, Fang Qiu sneered. He clenched his right fist and punched Yu Yuanhao’s Dantian hard.

“Crack!”

“Bang, bang...”

This punch not only broke Yu Yuanhao’s Dantian but also shattered all his meridians when the powerful internal Qi rushed into his body!

Yu Yuanhao, who ranked sixth among the top ten geniuses and was also known as the Shadowless Hand that made many people in Wulin shudder the moment they heard about him, was crippled!

“Ah, you’re digging your own grave!”

Luo Qingcheng was completely enraged.

The leaders were also enraged.

Their Luo Yin Sect didn't have a good reputation in Wulin, and they had offended a lot of people. In order to continue to develop in the future, the Luo Yin Sect had been looking for talented disciples, trying to keep the Luo Yin Sect alive.

But now, the successor had been crippled!

Luo Qingcheng, his master and the First Elder of the sect, could not even protect the future Sect Leader. How could he not be angry? How could he not go crazy?

In the blink of an eye, all the members of the Luo Yin Sect madly attacked Fang Qiu and swore to kill him!

However, Fang Qiu was really too strong.

Even under the siege of all the people, he was still able to knock down the people of the Luo Yin Sect one by one.

In the end, Luo Qingcheng, who had already suffered a punch, couldn't resist Fang Qiu's attack at all. He was once again sent flying by Fang Qiu's fierce punch and fell to the ground.

"Puff!"

He spat out a mouthful of blood.
