Chapter 761: Greater Capability, Greater Responsibility!

“Humph!”

After sending Luo Qingcheng flying with a punch, Fang Qiu snorted. Under the watchful eyes of everyone present, he walked slowly toward Luo Qingcheng. As he walked, he said in a cold tone, “Military force is not a means for anyone to get any privileges. Since Luo Yin Sect wants to be superior to others and has been forcing others by using illicit means, then you should be a normal guy!”

“There are countless normal people in the world who do not have any privileges. They live happily and I believe that you will also live happily like them.”

“At that time, you will realize how miserable the person you bullied is!”

He kept talking while approaching him.

Seeing Fang Qiu walking toward him step by step, Luo Qingcheng’s expression changed into one of desperation. He was seriously injured and laid on the ground. The dignity of the First Elder of Luo Yin Sect had long dissipated, replaced by panic, which could not be concealed.

“Stop him, stop him!”

Luo Qingcheng shouted in panic.

Several leaders and members of the Luo Yin Sect immediately rushed forward in an attempt to protect Luo Qingcheng.

Unfortunately, they were too slow.

When they rushed up, Fang Qiu took a step forward and darted directly toward Luo Qingcheng.

“Bang!”

He did not hesitate at all.

When Luo Qingcheng struggled in his attempt to beat a retreat, Fang Qiu clenched his right fist, aimed it directly at his Dantian and punched with all his might.

The terrifying flow of internal Qi, which was as destructive as a natural disaster, erupted from Fang Qiu’s body like a torrent. When it reached Luo Qingcheng’s body, it poured out and smashed his Dantian into pieces, in an instant.

When his Dantian was shattered, the terrifying torrent of internal qi, carrying with it a destructive spirit, wantonly crashed into Luo Qingcheng’s body and dispersed in all directions.

“Bang, bang, bang...”

Under the impact of internal Qi, Luo Qingcheng’s eyes bulged. All the meridians in his body were shattered. He spat out a mouthful of blood which landed several meters away. He collapsed on the ground, as if he had lost his soul.

However, Fang Qiu had no intention of stopping there.

The moment he maimed Luo Qingcheng, he immediately turned and charged toward the other members of the Luo Yin Sect.

“Bang, bang, bang...”

There were continuous loud noises.

The people of Luo Yin Sect could not resist Fang Qiu at all.

In the eyes of all the onlookers, John Doe was like a devil at this time. Wherever he went, the people from Luo Yin Sect were all sent flying. There was no chance for them to fight him at all.

“Aargh...”

In front of countless Wulin peers, Fang Qiu destroyed the people from Luo Yin Sect, one by one!

Everyone’s Dantian and meridians were shattered.

Not a single one of them was spared!

All the people present were shocked by this scene.

They were not only amazed by the words that John Doe had just said, but they were also astounded by the powerful strength, means, and decisiveness that John Doe had shown!

This was the Luo Yin Sect.

That was the First Elder of Luo Yin Sect, Luo Qingcheng.

This was an eighth-class Martial Superior with three meridians and he was about to breakthrough to the ninth class.

How could he get maimed like that?

The look in everyone's eyes changed when they watched Fang Qiu.

In their eyes, John Doe was no longer the rising star who suddenly appeared in the martial arts world, but a man who did what he said and had great strength and a cruel heart!

They were all aware of this.

After tonight, anyone in Wulin had to think carefully about whether they would be able to bear the consequences before provoking John Doe!

People from Luo Yin Sect collapsed on the ground.

Standing in the field, Fang Qiu looked at all the onlookers with a cold expression and said, "Everyone, I want to say something."

Hardly had he said that when everyone was immediately brought back to reality from their shock.

All eyes fell on Fang Qiu.

"First of all."

Fang Qiu did not hesitate and said directly, "No matter who you are, don't get my friends and relatives involved. Don't ever drag my relatives and friends into Wulin matters. If there's anything, just come straight to me!"

"If you dare to cross the line, then don't blame me for being brutal. This is the consequence!"

"Second, the greater the capability, the greater the responsibility. Force should not be used to bully the weak, but to maintain the kindness and justice that are rarely seen in this world. Don't use force to eliminate kindness and justice!"

“That’s all. I’m leaving.”

After that, Fang Qiu cupped his hands and prepared to leave.

But right at this moment...

“Wait!”

A shout suddenly sounded.

Fang Qiu stopped.

All the people present turned to look at the person.

It was a woman who was under the spotlight at the scene—Diwu Qian!

“Hmm?” Fang Qiu turned around and looked at Diwu Qian.

“Mr. John Doe is very powerful. I want to take this rare opportunity to have a battle with you. Could you give me a chance?”

Diwu Qian asked with a smile.

As soon as she said that, the expressions on all faces of the people at the scene changed.

“Diwu Qian wants to challenge John Doe?”

She personally challenged him in front of so many people, which would be a great show.

If John Doe accepted Diwu Qian's challenge, there would inevitably be an unprecedented battle. But if John Doe refused, Diwu Qian would be embarrassed. As a genius of the Diwu family and a super master who ranked second on the Wulin Genius List, although Diwu Qian looked gentle and knowledgeable on the surface, she also had her own pride.

If John Doe turned her down, something serious would definitely happen!

That was to say, whether John Doe accepted it or refused, the onlookers could still watch a great show. But for the two people involved, it was different.

Therefore, would John Doe accept it?

Hearing Diwu Qian's invitation to battle, Fang Qiu was also slightly stunned. He still remembered He Gaoming's information about Diwu. That she belonged to the Diwu family in the south and she was also a super master who ranked second on the Wulin Genius List.

Fang Qiu did not expect that Diwu Qian would take the initiative to challenge him.

Because of this, Fang Qiu frowned while looking at Diwu Qian. He glanced at the people from the Luo Yin Sect and asked, "Do you want to stand up for them?"

"No."

Diwu Qian immediately shook her head and said with a smile, "It's just for the sake of learning from each other. We can fight tomorrow."

"In this place, proposing a battle at this time will be regarded as standing out even if you don't mean it."

Fang Qiu said, "But I won't fight women."

Diwu Qian gave a faint smile.

She was not irritated by Fang Qiu's words at all. Instead, she asked with a smile, "Are you sure you can beat me?"

However, Fang Qiu did not answer her question. Instead, he turned to look at the people from Luo Yin Sect lying on the ground and suddenly said, "By the way, I forgot one thing. The cost of challenging me is 20 million. That is to say, your sect owes me 20 million yuan. Transfer this money into my account within 24 hours, or I'll personally come and collect it!"

The people around were stunned.

Wasn't Diwu Qian asking for a fight?

How did the topic of money come up in the blink of an eye?

That was Diwu Qian!

Many people would crave to speak to her, but they did not have the chance. There were even many people on the Wulin Genius List who were her admirers, not to mention those who would choose to have a fight with her.

John Doe, was it really good for you to ignore Diwu Qian, the popular master who ranked second on the Wulin Genius List?

Not just the onlookers, even Diwu Qian was stunned for a moment. She did not expect that Fang Qiu would change the subject so abruptly.

She was not hasty.

She believed that whether he accepted it or not, John Doe would definitely give her an answer!

As expected.

After he finished talking to the Luo Yin Sect.

Fang Qiu turned his head back, looked at Diwu Qian and said, "If you want to challenge me, prepare 20 million first!"

Everyone was dumbfounded.

It turned out that John Doe suddenly changed the topic all because of money.

Of course, some of the people understood what was going on.

What John Doe meant was that he was sure that Diwu Qian would not give him the money, so he wanted to use this as an excuse to turn down Diwu Qian.

As soon as he finished speaking.

Fang Qiu glanced at all the people present, then left directly.

He did not want to stay here any longer. He Gaoming was still waiting for him to set his bones.

After John Doe left, the crowd began to disperse.

At this time.

"Why did you challenge John Doe?"

When the top ten talents on the Wulin Genius List gathered together, Chen Yunzhu asked the question that the other people were curious about.

"I want to see how powerful he is."

Diwu Qian smiled faintly and said, "I did not see his strength clearly in this battle, so I want to test it personally."

Everyone was nonplussed.

When Diwu Qian said this, it meant that she thought that her strength was even more powerful than Luo Qingcheng, the master of Yu Yuanhao. Luo Qingcheng was an expert who was about to break through to the ninth class. If she was more powerful than Luo Qingcheng, it would mean that she was close to the ninth class or even beyond it.

Everyone was astounded when they thought of this.

A woman was able to work so hard. As men, how could they fall behind?

There were talents appearing in every generation. If they did not work hard, they would be eliminated!

Although everyone felt a bit stressed, the thing that drew everyone's attention the most was still this challenge. Was Diwu Qian lacking in money?

It was obvious that she had money.

In that case, would the challenge happen?

It was very likely!

Everyone was looking forward to it.

Fang Qiu went into a room at the edge of the city and began to treat He Gaoming.

Meanwhile, the Wulin forum also had a follow-up report of the great battle between John Doe and the Luo Yin Sect. The final result was announced, which shocked everyone in Wulin.

What horrified them was that John Doe not only maimed Luo Qingcheng who was the First Elder of the Luo Yin Sect, but also crippled three leaders and five members of Luo Yin Sect.

His practice was extremely ruthless!

Meanwhile, everyone was even more shocked by John Doe's strength.

Even Luo Qingcheng had been maimed. How strong was John Doe?

There were more people who were thinking about what Fang Qiu had said.

"Force isn't a privilege to rule over normal people. The greater the capability, the greater the responsibility!"

On the forum, people were having a heated discussion about all kinds of topics.

Among them, the most popular topic was John Doe's challenge fee.

Everyone was very curious about what would happen next. Would the Luo Yin Sect, which had most of its members maimed, pay 20 million for the challenge, according to John Doe's request?

If they paid for it, how was the Luo Yin Sect supposed to live in Wulin?

But if they didn't pay for it, John Doe would definitely come to collect it in person. The auction house that snatched John Doe's Earth Treasure last time was an example!

But it was different from the last time. Did John Doe really dare to come and take it this time?

Chapter 762: Times Up!

“Did John Doe really maim Luo Qingcheng?”

“Luo Yin Sect took advantage of their numerous members to bully the weak. Were they all crippled by John Doe?”

“Luo Qingcheng is a super expert as an eight-class Martial Superior with three meridians. How could he be so easily defeated by John Doe?”

“This time, John Doe is really at war with the Luo Yin Sect. Not only did he destroy Yu Yuanhao, who was trained by them as the future Sect leader, but he also crippled Luo Qingcheng, a powerful figure of their sect. Following John Doe’s actions, the overall strength of the Luo Yin Sect will be greatly reduced. As people of Luo Yin Sect are so narrow-minded, how can they not avenge such a disgrace?”

“Although the Luo Yin Sect has suffered a great loss, they will not be so easily bullied by others. I wonder if they will grit their teeth, swallow their anger this time and obediently send 20 million yuan to John Doe. Or will they fight him head-on again?”

As soon as the news spread, all the forces in Wulin began to talk about it.

In Wulin, Luo Yin Sect was not quite a powerful sect, but it could not be compared with those ordinary small sects. Because of the narrow-minded members and their insidious means, the Luo Yin Sect had made many enemies in Wulin and had done many bad things. However, most of the people who offended them could only swallow their anger and dared not say anything in the face of their revenge, allowing themselves to be bullied.

They did it time and again. In the case of such incidents happening nonstop, the Luo Yin Sect became more and more shameless in the eyes of the martial arts practitioners and no one dared to provoke them.

Just as they were at the peak of their power, the Luo Yin Sect found John Doe, who was also a rising star in Wulin.

Originally, everyone thought that this time John Doe was in great danger. He was destined to become the stepping stone for Yu Yuanhao and Luo Yin Sect.

But who would have thought that the final outcome would be like this?

Undoubtedly, John Doe's strength was far beyond the expectations of all the people in Wulin.

Even the Luo Yin Sect was defeated. How powerful was John Doe?

Of course.

While people were shocked by this outcome, what John Doe said at the scene was also widely spread in Wulin.

"Force isn't their privilege to rule over normal people!"

"The greater the capability, the greater the responsibility!"

"That makes sense. But I can't totally agree with that."

"Force is indeed not a privilege which makes one feel superior to normal people, but it doesn't have to be used to protect the so-called kindness and justice. No one can distinguish the meaning of force. No one can do that."

"The common practice of martial arts depends on human nature. What John Doe said proves that he is a very righteous person. It's good to know. At least he won't be a troublemaker!"

At this moment, many people in Wulin began to admire John Doe.

Before this, most of them felt that what John Doe did was only for fame and gain. Otherwise, why did he do so many earth-shattering things repeatedly and kept making waves such as an auction of Earth Treasures, sword auction, challenge fees and so on?

Indeed, from what John Doe had said, he seemed to be a man who loved money.

Love for money did not seem to be a great character trait. The moment people heard about this, they would always think of it in negative terms. Therefore, most of the people in Wulin did not have a good impression of John Doe.

But now.

Only when they heard what John Doe said in the battle, did everyone realize that John Doe was not the kind of person they imagined. On the contrary, he was a very kind and righteous person.

This kind of person was worthy of recognition and respect!

Just when everyone was talking about the feud between John Doe and the Luo Yin Sect, another piece of news came out and completely set off another round of heated discussion in Wulin.

“Diwu Qian wants to challenge John Doe!”

As soon as this news appeared, it attracted everyone’s attention.

On the Wulin forum, some people who were at the scene even wrote out the conversation between John Doe and Diwu Qian, without missing a single word.

After reading the conversation between the two of them, everyone on the forum was stunned.

“John Doe actually thinks that he can defeat Diwu Qian?”

“Isn’t he too cocky?”

“He will not fight with women. Why does it sound like he is certain he will win?”

“John Doe can’t compete with Diwu Qian in terms of the resources she has. Since she dares to challenge John Doe, it means that she is confident to a certain extent. In other words, her strength must be greater than Luo Qingcheng. Under these circumstances, could John Doe still say that he will not fight with women? Isn’t that a little pretentious?”

“Diwu Qian is ranked second on the Wulin Genius List and she is only second to Yun Yangzi. Although John Doe has never entered the Wulin Genius List, it is also because the Wulin Genius List has not been updated yet. It only took John Doe three moves to defeat Chen Yunzhu, who is ranked fifth and he also maimed Luo Qingcheng. From the battle record and the strength he showed, if he wants to enter the Wulin Genius List, John Doe can at least rank among the top three. But we can’t be sure which place he will be in.”

“Yeah, after this battle, what John Doe has to deal with will be the battle with the top three on Wulin Genius List!”

In the blink of an eye, everyone became more and more curious about this matter.

Would Diwu Qian give him the challenge fee?

Would John Doe accept the challenge?

In an old room at the edge of Jiangjing,

“Whew...”

After treating him for a long while, Fang Qiu finally let out a long sigh and moved his hands away from He Gaoming’s chest.

“Master, do you also have medical skills?”

He Gaoming was surprised.

“You don’t?”

Fang Qiu rolled his eyes at He Gaoming.

“Of course not.”

He Gaoming stood up and rubbed his chest. After making sure that all his injuries were healed, he said, “I know that internal Qi can treat people’s injuries, but the effect is not so good, is it?”

“That’s because you’re weak.”

Fang Qiu replied.

“Uh...”

He Gaoming gave a wry smile. He couldn’t refute that at all.

While he was smiling bitterly, He Gaoming suddenly thought of something. He immediately turned to look at Fang Qiu and shouted, “Master?”

“Hmm?”

Fang Qiu was confused.

He Gaoming asked, "Where's the money?"

Fang Qiu was stunned at first, then he patted his forehead and said, "Sh*t. I forgot to add the eight million yuan cost of your sword!"

"Are you kidding me?"

He Gaoming's face immediately fell. With a sad face, he said to Fang Qiu, "Master, I suffered so much because of you. That monster almost killed me. You have to make it up to me."

"What do you want?"

Fang Qiu asked.

"I'm not asking too much. I just need a Guru Sword."

He Gaoming's eyes lit up.

"Guru Sword?"

Fang Qiu was stunned. He did not expect that this guy would be so bold that he wanted the Guru Sword as soon as he had a chance to ask for it.

However.

He thought about it carefully.

He Gaoming's strength was indeed a little weak.

If he was stronger, he would less likely encounter the same incident in the future.

Thinking of this, Fang Qiu said, "A Guru Sword is not suitable for you. I will give you a sword of the eighth class with three meridians!"

"Okay."

He Gaoming did not even think about it before he immediately nodded with a smile.

He was aware that he could not just get one even if he asked for a Guru Sword.

Therefore, he did not really want a Guru Sword. The reason why he made the request was because he wanted to make it a higher demand so that Fang Qiu would give him a higher compensation.

"What, what about the money?"

Meanwhile, He Gaoming continued to ask, "Is it also mine?"

While they were talking, He Gaoming deliberately showed those horrible scars on his chest.

Fang Qiu replied helplessly, "Yours, yours. It's all yours."

"Haha."

He Gaoming laughed out loud and hurriedly saluted. "Thank you, master!"

"Let's go."

Looking at the night sky outside the window, Fang Qiu, "Follow me to cast a sword in Longquan."

In the presidential suite of a four-star luxury hotel in Jiangjing,

A beautiful figure was sitting on the sofa, holding a mobile phone and making a video call.

This person was none other than Diwu Qian of the Fifth Family!

“Are you in the hotel now?”

When the video call was connected, a middle-aged man appeared on the screen. He looked energetic, dressed in an ordinary Chinese tunic suit and wearing a pair of antique round glasses.

“Yes.”

Diwu Qian nodded.

“Where’s Ah Ying?”

The middle-aged man asked.

“I asked her to sleep in the same room with me, but she did not want to. I can only get her another room downstairs.”

Diwu Qian gave a wry smile.

“With her around, I can be assured of your safety.”

The middle-aged man said with a smile.

“Dad, I’m a kid anymore.”

It was rare for Diwu Qian to act like a little girl.

“Haha, you are my daughter.”

The middle-aged man laughed, then paused and asked, “By the way, why do you want to challenge John Doe?”

“I’m very curious about him.”

Diwu Qian thought for a moment and said, “No one knows his background, whether in strength or origin. I think there must be a powerful figure or force hiding behind him, for them to be able to cultivate such an exceptional man. And he has been obscure for more than a decade. So I’m a bit worried.”

Diwu Qian bit her lip lightly. There was a trace of anxiety on her face.

“Are you worried about that organization?”

“Yes.”

Diwu Qian nodded and said, “So I want to challenge him and see if I can figure out his background.”

“Okay.”

The middle-aged man nodded and said, “No matter what your purpose is, since you decided to challenge him, as a martial arts practitioner, you should try your best. In this way, you will be able to respect yourself and your opponent.”

"I understand."

Diwu Qian nodded in agreement.

The next afternoon.

Accompanied by Long Qiyun in Longquan, Fang Qiu forged an eighth-class sword with three meridians on the spot. Moreover, it was cast in the way that He Gaoming described in person.

Of course, He Gaoming really loved the sword in the end.

Long Qiyun liked it even more.

After casting the sword, Fang Qiu took out his phone and checked his bank account information.

There was no money yet!

It seemed that Luo Yin Sect did not intend to pay.

However, Fang Qiu was not worried.

Now, there were still a few hours left before the 24-hour deadline.

While heading to Longquan overnight and casting the sword, Fang Qiu had already asked He Gaoming to find out the location of the Luo Yin Sect, which was in Luo Cheng!

Luo Cheng was not only one of the 4 ancient cities in Huaxia, but also known as the capital of 13 dynasties!

Fang Qiu had heard a long time ago that this remarkable place was filled with outstanding people.

The main reason why the Luo Yin Sect could develop to such an extent was due to the geographical advantage they had in Luo Cheng, as their enemies did not dare to come to them so easily.

However, Fang Qiu did not care.

When the time came, if they did not pay, it would be exactly what he wanted!

Chapter 763: Come to Fight!

Luo Yin Mountain, located 30 kilometers away from downtown, was a huge mountain range covering 100 kilometers with an altitude of more than 50 kilometers in Luo Cheng. Therefore, most parts of the range did not face the sun, so people who entered it would feel a sense of gloom, which was why it was called Luo Yin Mountain.

Due to the high altitude, the mountain was cold and enveloped in mist. The trees in the forest were towering and the mountain was steep and lofty.

The Luo Yin Sect was located at the peak of the mountain, a place that received very little sunlight.

The people of this sect lived in the cold all year round, so wherever they went, they carried with them a cold aura. Maybe their sinister temperament was also related to the place where they lived.

At this time, the golden sun was setting in the West.

“Pitter-patter...”

Halfway up the mountain, a group of people was racing up the mountain.

A group of ten people supported each other and pain was written all over their faces.

Taking a closer look, these ten people were from the Luo Yin Sect, led by Luo Qingcheng and Yu Yuanhao.

Having lost their Kung Fu, the ten of them could only endure the pain and return to the mountain.

Ten minutes later, these people arrived at the peak of Luo Yin Mountain. It was in a sunken area.

In fact, it was more like something at the back of the mountain had been broken by something, forming a huge dent. The other side of the mountain facing the hot sun had a steep and vertical rock wall. This wall extended from east to west, which could block out all the sunshine for a whole day. Occasionally, there would be light, but there was only sunlight at dusk.

Because the space was huge, there was a wooden pavilion built in this place.

They finally arrived at the top of the mountain.

Seeing the familiar wooden wall and the black plaque engraved with “Luo Yin” hanging on the north gate, Luo Qingcheng, Yu Yuanhao and the other eight people breathed collective sighs of relief and hurriedly helped each other to walk in.

They crossed the gate.

The first thing that came into sight was a round square which was about the same size as an ordinary basketball court. It was surrounded by two floors of pavilions. Although there was a large space on the top of the mountain, Luo Yin Sect needed plenty of rooms to accommodate its numerous members. Therefore, it was quite good to have such a spacious area.

In the distance, there was the main hall of the entire duplex building facing the north like the gate.

At this moment, the main hall was already packed with people.

Although they saw Luo Qingcheng and Yu Yuanhao coming back with their men, no one went to greet them. On the contrary, these people actually had displeasure all over their faces.

“Sect Leader, Sect Leader.”

As soon as he entered the door, Luo Qingcheng crawled toward the chairman’s seat. A middle-aged man with grey hair at his temples rushed over.

“Sit down!”

The middle-aged man shouted, glanced at Luo Qingcheng and said, “Everyone knows about it.”

Luo Qingcheng immediately stopped, gritted his teeth and felt that something was off. Then he walked to the side, ready to sit in the seat that belonged to him.

But as soon as he turned around, he found that the seat of the First Elder, which belonged to him, had been taken by someone else.

The person sitting in that position was the Second Elder.

Just as Luo Qingcheng was about to lose his temper, the Sect Leader said. “You may leave.”

Luo Qingcheng was stunned.

He glanced at the Sect Leader before walking down the stairs in a daze. Together with Yu Yuanhao and the others, they stood in the hall.

“We can’t give him the money!”

The Sect Leader glanced at Luo Qingcheng and the others and said, "Once the money is given, how are we supposed to live in Wulin? Since we have decided not to pay, we should discuss how to deal with John Doe next!"

"Sect Leader, I have something to say."

Luo Qingcheng took a step forward.

"Oh?"

The Sect Leader narrowed his eyes.

"Humph."

The Second Elder snorted, "What can you do? If you had any ideas, why did you end up like this?"

"You!"

Luo Qingcheng's face changed. He was so angry that his face turned red.

"What? Don't forget that you're useless now."

The Second Elder snorted disdainfully, "You are a loser, bringing disgrace to our sect. Do you want to fight with me now?"

Luo Qingcheng was so irritated that he almost could not catch his breath.

"Enough."

Seeing that Luo Qingcheng was so agitated, the Sect Leader opened his mouth, "Let him continue."

Only then did the Second Elder shut his mouth.

Luo Qingcheng closed his eyes and took a deep breath. Then, he said, "Sect Leader, on the way back, we have discussed that the only way to deal with John Doe is to use poison!"

"Only one way?"

The Sect Leader raised his eyebrows.

"That's right."

Luo Qingcheng continued, "You must be clearly aware of my strength and Yuanhao's strength. There are ten of us going to battle and we are facing only one opponent. Everyone has seen the final outcome. No one in our sect can compete with him!"

"That's because you're useless!"

The Second Elder said.

In the elders' seats, the other elders were also looking at him with cold eyes. They had no intention of speaking up for Luo Qingcheng.

"Yes, I'm maimed."

Luo Qingcheng turned his head, stared at the Second Elder and said, "Since the Second Elder thinks I'm useless, please avenge us and kill John Doe!"

The Second Elder's face darkened.

He only had the strength of an eighth-class Martial Superior with two opened meridians, while Luo Qingcheng was an eighth-class Martial Superior with three opened meridians. They ended up like this when ten of them fought John Doe. If he went alone, wouldn't he be courting death?

"Elder Luo."

The Sect Leader asked, "Is John Doe really so powerful?"

"Yes!"

Luo Qingcheng immediately replied, "Sect Leader still needs half a month before reaching the ninth class. If you break through to the ninth class, you should be able to fight with him face to face. Unfortunately, there is not enough time, so the only thing we can do now is to use poison!"

"I can prove my master's words."

Yu Yuanhao, who had not dared to make a sound, also quickly echoed.

"Tell me about your plan."

The Sect Leader said to Luo Qingcheng.

"Consume his energy!"

Luo Qingcheng said, "John Doe's strength is very strong, but no matter how strong he is, there will be a time when he gets exhausted. So when John Doe comes to us, the first thing we have to do is consume his strength. After consuming his strength to a certain extent, we will let the six elders join forces to attack him and take the opportunity to poison him. If he dares to step into our sect, we won't let him leave in one piece!"

After telling He Gaoming to stay in the Long family for the time being, Fang Qiu left alone.

24 hours had passed!

At one o'clock in the middle of the night, Fang Qiu logged into the Wulin forum with his phone and sent a post.

"It's overdue. At 8:00 tomorrow morning, I will personally come to get the money!"

There was no content, only a simple title in the post. Not long after it was sent, it attracted the attention of all Wulin people.

Originally, Fang Qiu did not have to send a post. The reason why he did this was to make this into a big affair and build his prestige!

Even though the battle of Yangshan Mountain had already helped to establish himself in Wulin, he might as well stick it to the end.

On the forum.

"Sure enough. They did not give the money."

"20 million isn't a small sum of money. Luo Yin Sect might not be able to afford it."

"Even if they have the money, they will not give it. If they pay for it, wouldn't it mean that the Luo Yin Sect is afraid of John Doe?"

"Is the Luo Yin Sect afraid of John Doe?"

"Although John Doe's strength is beyond everyone's expectation at the moment, I'm afraid that the Luo Yin Sect is now discussing ways to kill John Doe."

"Finally, someone has come out to fix this group of sinister bastards."

“That’s right. With Luo Yin Sect’s conduct, it’s quite a risk for John Doe to come to them in person this time.”

“They use vicious and sinister moves. I don’t know how the Luo Yin Sect will deal with John Doe this time.”

With the ongoing heated discussion, everyone became more expectant.

Would John Doe really go look for them in Luoyin Mountain? Was the Luoyin Sect really going to confront John Doe head-on?

Was John Doe more powerful? Or the Luo Yin Sect?

Would the dirty moves of the Luo Yin Sect work on John Doe?

After sending the post, Fang Qiu rushed directly to the high-speed railway station of Longquan, bought a ticket and rushed straight to Luo Cheng.

Many Wulin people who were close to Luo Cheng, went there too.

The top 10 on the Wulin Genius List also rushed over.

Meanwhile, the heirs of the Four Great Families also rushed to Luoyin Mountain as soon as they received the news.

In everyone’s eyes, this was the real top-notch battle.

Previously, at the top of Yangshan Mountain, the battles of Yu Yuanhao and Luo Qingcheng were just appetizers. When the actual main dish was served, who did not want to have a taste of it?

In a hotel in Jiangjing,

“Tomorrow morning at eight o’clock, John Doe will go to Luoyin Mountain.”

Diwu Qian sat quietly on the sofa. A gust of wind suddenly blew into the empty room and a figure appeared. It was the woman who followed her in Yangshan Mountain.

“Let’s go and have a look.”

Diwu Qian opened her eyes and woke up. She smiled slightly, stood up and asked, “Ying, is the money ready?”

A Ying handed her a bank card.

“Let’s go.”

Taking the bank card, Diwu Qian nodded gently and walked out of the hotel.

“John Doe, you really did what you said.”

In another hotel in Jiangjing, Yun Yangzi, who was sitting cross-legged on the bed, shook his head and chuckled as soon as he heard the news. He got up and rushed to the Luoyin Mountain.

From Longquan to Luo Cheng, it was more than 1,100 kilometers. Even if he took a high-speed train, it took him nearly six hours to get there.

When Fang Qiu arrived at Luo Cheng, it was still early. He first walked around the city and admired the ancient buildings in the ancient capital of 13 dynasties. Then, he found a place to eat breakfast. After that, he went out of the city and headed for Luoyin Mountain.

When he arrived at the foot of the mountain, it was 7:50 am.

Fang Qiu went up the mountain at a steady pace.

When he reached the peak of Luoyin Mountain and saw the main gate of the Luo Yin Sect, it was exactly eight o'clock in the morning!

It was supposed to be the time to enjoy the warm sunshine in the morning, but there was no sunlight at the top of Luo Yin Mountain. It was freezing cold.

"Luo Yin Sect..."

Facing the gate of the Luo Yin Sect, Fang Qiu was about to shout.

"Patter, patter."

Suddenly, the sound of footsteps could be heard.

A group of people rushed out of the gate of the Luo Yin Sect and quickly surrounded Fang Qiu who was standing in front of the gate. All of them were wearing the same kind of black tight suits as Yu Yuanhao, glaring at Fang Qiu.

"Hmm?"

As he looked at this group, numbering about 20 people, Fang Qiu pursed his lips and said, "The old don't dare to come out, they are letting the younger ones take the lead?"

Fang Qiu asked, "Do you know what the senior of your sect has done?"

"I know."

In the front, the leader glared at Fang Qiu fiercely and said, "Compared with my seniors and elders, you are the one who has no conscience by being so ruthless!"

Medical Master

Chapter 764: People Who Cant Distinguish Between Right and Wrong Should Be Punished!

"Oh?"

Fang Qiu chuckled, then looked at him with great interest and asked, "Since you know, let's not talk about my right or wrong doings. Do you think what your senior did is right?"

"My senior must have his own reasons for doing things."

The man snorted coldly, "You've done such a cruel thing to my senior and senior uncle master. You're so evil!"

"You can't tell right from wrong."

Fang Qiu shook his head with a sigh and said, "In that case, none of you should be left here!"

After that, with a movement, Fang Qiu directly started to attack.

Although these 20 people were all Martial Superiors, the most powerful one was at least a third-class Martial Superior, while the weakest one was even a first-class Martial Superior.

In the beginning, Fang Qiu pitied them for cultivating so hard, but he did not expect that they had been completely brainwashed by the Luo Yin Sect. Their minds were completely distorted. Therefore, no matter how weak they were, Fang Qiu could not let them go. If he let them go, they would definitely hurt other people!

One minute passed.

Twenty people were all maimed!

Of course, Fang Qiu only stripped them of their Kung Fu. He did not hurt them, nor did he cause them any physical damages.

After handling these 20 people, Fang Qiu patted his hands and continued to walk in.

At this moment, the martial arts practitioners who came from all over the country had long arrived at the pavilion in the Luo Yin Sect's main gate.

In such a situation, it was obvious that the Luo Yin Sect would not allow these people to enter the gate. However, they had to deal with John Doe and had no time to drive these people away. Moreover, among these people, there were Yun Yangzi, Diwu Qian, the heirs of Four Great Families and many others. They could not drive them away even if they wanted to.

Because of this, even if they had discovered the arrival of these people, the people of the Luo Yin Sect could do nothing about it. They could only let these people stay in the pavilion.

"As soon as he came, more than 20 people have been maimed. John Doe's ruthlessness is no worse than that of the Luo Yin Sect."

"This is the most heated battle I've ever experienced!"

"I'm afraid that the Luo Yin Sect messed with the wrong person this time!"

"He strikes out the moment they meet without any hesitation. John Doe is amazing."

"Is he going to wipe out the whole sect?"

Looking at John Doe, all the Wulin onlookers standing on a higher spot sighed with emotion.

Walking into the main gate, Fang Qiu naturally saw the crowd who came to watch.

But before he could see clearly how many people had come.

“Pitter-patter...”

Another burst of hurried footsteps came.

He turned to have a look.

Dozens of people rushed out of the pavilions from all directions. Some attacked from the first floor, others directly jumped down from the second floor, wielding their sabers at him.

In this round.

The strongest one had reached the fifth class, while the weakest had reached the third class.

There were quite a lot of people in the Luo Yin Sect and their strength was not weak. No wonder they could be so domineering in Wulin for so many years.

“Answer my question.”

In the face of the second wave of sudden attacks, Fang Qiu flashed and dodged their attacks. He asked, “Do you think what Yu Yuanhao did is right?”

“Of course, senior is right!”

The answer from this group of people was more resolute than that of the previous group!

“People who can’t distinguish between right and wrong should be punished.”

Fang Qiu shook his head. In front of everyone, he made another move to destroy the Kung Fu of all the dozens of people in the second wave!

All the martial arts practitioners who had come to watch were dumbfounded when they saw this.

“What’s going on with the Luo Yin Sect?”

“I don’t understand!”

“One group after another, it’s basically sending people to die.”

“So what if they give him 20 million? How many lives and fifth-class Martial Superiors can you buy with 20 million? It’s not worth dying for it.”

“Alas, what a pity for these Martial Superiors.”

“Where there’s life, there’s hope. If they send all the people out to die, what’s the difference of being destroyed?”

On the third floor of the main building.

“Sect Leader, John Doe has already broken through the gate. He is now in the square. All the disciples under the fifth class have been maimed by him.”

One person reported.

“Okay, I got it.”

On the leader's seat in the room, the grey-haired Sect Leader nodded with a serious look. He glanced at the six elders in the room and said, "Don't panic. The sacrifice of this battle is inevitable. In order to win this battle, we must consume almost all of John Doe's energy before we can make a move!"

In the hall, the six elders nodded in agreement.

"Elders, are the poisons ready?"

The Sect Leader asked.

"Don't worry, Sect Leader. I promise he'll die as soon as he touches it!"

All the six elders began to laugh coldly at the same time and each one of them felt rather confident.

In the square, dozens of people were maimed.

Fang Qiu went straight to the center of the square, surrounded with an invincible aura. When he faced the highest pavilion, he was about to say something.

"You're digging your own grave for disturbing the peace of our sect!"

A shout came.

Fang Qiu followed the direction of the voice.

About ten people walked out of the hall.

The auras from these ten people were very strong. They were all sixth-class masters!

"This Luo Yin Sect is really ruthless."

“Even their backbone has been sent to fight. This is going to be a life-and-death fight!”

“Isn’t it a little too much for them to deal with John Doe alone with all the members of their sect? Even if they win in the end, they can only win by a slim margin.”

The onlookers could not figure it out.

Why did the Luo Yin Sect make such a choice?

In the field, facing ten sixth-class Martial Superiors who were fully armed, Fang Qiu was not worried at all. Instead, he asked the same question again.

“Answer me. Do you think Yu Yuanhao is right or wrong?”

He asked this question again.

“Humph!”

One of them said with a cold snort, “What Luo Yin Sect did is right. Anyone who dares to go against my sect will die!”

Fang Qiu narrowed his eyes after hearing that.

“From the looks of it, the more powerful the member is, the more difficult it is to distinguish right from wrong!”

Looking at these six people, Fang Qiu kept shaking his head.

On the pavilions.

“They’re possessed.”

“If the Luo Yin Sect was back in the ancient times, it would be considered a cult, wouldn’t it?”

“Why do I feel that this Luo Yin Sect is just like an organization with a pyramid scheme. The higher one’s level is, the deeper they will be dragged into it.”

“No wonder they’re so cruel and merciless that they can’t even distinguish right from wrong. They’re thoroughly brainwashed!”

All the onlookers shook their heads.

This was the first time they had seen such a sect!

“For the sake of the doctrine, kill!”

Before Fang Qiu could make a move, the ten sixth-class Martial Superiors rushed up with their swords.

“You deserve to be beaten!”

Fang Qiu snorted and darted straight up to them.

Even Luo Qingcheng, an eighth-class Martial Superior with three meridians, was no match for him, let alone these sixth-class Martial Superiors.

One person was taken down by one punch.

There was no chance to resist at all.

All ten of them were destroyed in just a minute!

After knocking down the six people, Fang Qiu looked up at the main hall and found that there was no one in the hall.

He instantly turned his head and glanced at the crowd on the pavilion. He cupped his hands and said to the hall of the Luo Yin Sect, "I came to collect my money. Is Luo Yin Sect going to pay for it? Or should I destroy it?"

"Besides, you broke my friend's sword which was worth 8 million. Now it's 28 million in total!"

When people heard that,

"Damn it, what kind of sword is so expensive?"

"A sword worth 8 million?"

"It's good that he did not say it was worth 300 million. Not to mention 8 million yuan."

Hearing this, everyone realized that John Doe was the one who brought the Guru Sword to the auction. A sword that was worth 8 million was really possible.

However.

In the midst of everyone's heated discussion, Luo Yin Sect was still silent and no one stood out to respond, as if all of them had left.

Fang Qiu did not believe that the people sent by Luo Yin Sect would run away, nor did the people who came to watch.

After all, it was better to give up the money than to escape. The cost of building this place was more than 10 million. With the items in it, it would definitely be more than 28 million yuan in total.

Besides, if the leader of the Luo Yin Sect, together with the elders, betrayed their disciples and ran away, it would be shameful for them when the truth came out.

Therefore, everyone knew that the core members of the Luo Yin Sect were still in the pavilion now. They should still be thinking of a way to deal with John Doe.

Fang Qiu was not hasty.

Seeing that no one answered, he directly turned his head and looked at Diwu Qian, who was standing with Yun Yangzi and the others in the pavilion on the left.

“You, are you going to stand out?”

Fang Qiu asked.

“You can deal with your business first. As for the matter between you and me, let’s talk about it later.”

Diwu Qian replied lightly.

“It seems that she doesn’t want to battle with me now.”

Fang Qiu nodded with understanding. Then, he secretly mobilized his internal Qi and shouted at the main hall of the Luo Yin Sect in front of him, “Is anyone alive?”

The onlookers shook their heads and smiled bitterly when they heard that.

“This is just too awesome, right? Is there anyone who dares to attack a sect so wantonly?”

“If the Luo Yin Sect doesn’t send anyone out, they’ll be too ashamed!”

“Let’s wait and see. Although the Luo Yin Sect is ruthless, they also know that being respected is the root of living in Wulin. Since John Doe has provoked them like this, they might not continue to avoid it.”

Just as everyone was talking about the performance of the Luo Yin Sect, one strong aura after another erupted from the pavilion.

“Seven!”

Fang Qiu sneered and said, “Are they finally coming out?”

“Bang!”

Just as Fang Qiu finished, there was a loud noise.

Seven figures flew out from the third floor of the hall.

As he looked at them, the auras of these seven people were extraordinary.

All the onlookers were attracted in an instant.

“Xiang Tianhe.”

The first person they saw was the middle-aged man with grey hair at his temples in the middle of the crowd.

He was Xiang Tianhe, the leader of the Luo Yin Sect!

“All the people have emerged.”

“I heard that Xiang Tianhe has long reached the eighth-class Martial Superior with three meridians. He is only half a step away from the ninth class Martial Superior. His strength is even a little stronger than Luo Qingcheng’s.”

“Perhaps Xiang Tianhe is comparable to John Doe.”

“The six people beside Xiang Tianhe should be the six elders of the Luo Yin Sect, right?”

“Now that Luo Qingcheng is down, there are only six elders left in Luo Yin Sect. However, with their combined strength and Xiang Tianhe, they should be powerful enough to deal with John Doe, right?”

“I’ve long heard that the seven elders of Luo Yin Sect are led by Luo Qingcheng and the other six are all eighth-class Martial Superiors with two opened meridians. It seems that they are living up to their reputations today!”

“Is Luo Yin Sect preparing to have seven people fight against one?”

“Now that things have come to this point, the Luo Yin Sect has no choice but to go all out.”

“Is the war finally about to begin?”

On the pavilions in all directions, the onlookers from all over the country were looking forward to this final battle!

Medical Master

Chapter 765: Go to Hell!

In the field.

“Are you the Sect Leader of Luo Yin Sect, Xiang Tianhe?”

Facing the powerful auras from these seven people, Fang Qiu was not in the least worried. Instead, he turned to look at Xiang Tianhe and said in a playful tone, “Your strength is good.”

“Humph.”

Xiang Tianhe snorted with a gloomy look and said, “John Doe, you hurt my people at Yangshan Mountain. How dare you break into my sect and attack my disciples? Are you trying to deplete the manpower in our sect?”

“Isn’t there quite a lot of people from your sect?”

Fang Qiu sneered, “One wave after another, dozens of you. Aren’t there even seven of you now?”

“You let your disciples rush into the battle and ignore their safety. What you want is to make me use up my energy and then you will besiege me, so that you can attack one person using the joint efforts of many people, right?”

“This is typically what people of the Luo Yin Sect will do!”

Xiang Tianhe’s face darkened when he heard that.

Subconsciously glancing at the crowd on the pavilion, he claimed, “Nonsense. We, Luo Yin Sect, tolerated you many times and I even sent my disciples to settle with you, but you attacked them and even maimed my disciples. You’ve done so many evil things.”

“Haha.”

Fang Qiu burst into laughter.

Xiang Tianhe was really good at defending himself!

Even though everyone had seen the actual facts with their own eyes, he was still trying to defend himself and even distorted the truth. He was really shameless.

“Xiang Tianhe?”

“Interesting, the leader of the Luo Yin Sect is too shameless.”

“Shame on you!”

“This is the first time I’ve heard such an explanation and I am convinced!”

“No wonder the people from Luo Yin Sect are so sinister and cunning. With such a shameless Sect Leader, it’s not surprising that their followers would have that kind of attitude.”

When the onlookers heard Xiang Tianhe’s words, they all shook their heads and laughed.

When he heard the mocking laughs coming from all directions, Xiang Tianhe’s face darkened even more.

“I finally understand. There’s no reasoning with your sect.”

Fang Qiu shook his head and his face turned cold. He asked, “Do you want to pay, or do you want me to take down this place?”

“You’re talking big.”

Xiang Tianhe snorted coldly and said, “Today, I’ll let you know that if you provoke my sect, you will not get out of this place alive!”

Fang Qiu said disdainfully, "If that's the case, the seven of you can come together."

As soon as he said that, all the onlookers were amazed, especially the top 5 experts on the Wulin Genius List.

They could clearly see that Xiang Tianhe's strength had reached the critical point of breaking through to the ninth class. The other six elders of Luo Yin Sect also reached the peak of an eighth-class Martial Superior with two opened meridians, which was almost equivalent to Yu Yuanhao's before he was maimed.

Although it was very easy for Fang Qiu to destroy Yu Yuanhao at the top of Yangshan Mountain, Luo Qingcheng did not make a move at that time. Instead, he did not strike until Yu Yuanhao was severely injured.

Moreover, what John Doe was going to deal with was not just Yu Yuanhao, but six masters who were not inferior to him at all. Furthermore, Xiang Tianhe who was even stronger than Luo Qingcheng had joined the battle.

If the seven of them fought together, even an ordinary ninth-class expert would not dare to deal with them recklessly.

How could John Doe dare to say such a thing?

"Although it sounds incredible, isn't John Doe a little arrogant?"

"That's a little pretentious."

"That's right. This is the backbone of the Luo Yin Sect. If the seven experts work together, even Yun Yangzi would not dare to take it head-on, not to mention the others. If Yun Yangzi and Diwu Qian fought together, there's a possibility of winning."

"Although John Doe was exaggerating, maybe he was deliberately provoking Luo Yin Sect."

“They are even willing to leave their disciples to die. I’m afraid that Luo Yin Sect will really go all out to do it.”

“If they were planning something, the Luo Yin Sect would definitely be up to no good behind the scenes. But now that there are so many martial arts practitioners present, even if the Luo Yin Sect really wants to do something, they will not do it so openly, right?”

Everyone was talking about it.

They were waiting to see how the Luo Yin Sect would deal with John Doe’s provocation!

It was certain that if it was a one-on-one fight, they would definitely lose. Therefore, Luo Yin Sect would not do this. The reason why they kept sending their disciples out was obviously to stall for time and plan their attacks.

Then, what exactly was their strategy?

“They don’t need me to deal with you.”

Xiang Tianhe glanced at Fang Qiu and shouted, “Kill him!”

“Whoosh, whoosh...”

Around him, three of the six elders stepped into the air at the same time as if they were about to break into a formation. They spun quickly and surrounded Fang Qiu from all directions.

“Come on,” Fang Qiu smiled.

This was what he wanted.

28 million?

For Fang Qiu, this small amount of money was nothing.

Was he short of money?

It was obvious that he was not.

The purpose of his coming here was not to get his money, but to establish prestige!

From the beginning till now, it was all due to this goal!

The reason why he kept asking whether they would pay or not was that he did not want people in Wulin to think that he was an unreasonable person. Also, he wanted to tell the world that he had his own principles. If they did not violate his interests, he would not hurt them!

Besides, if Luo Yin Sect gave the money to Fang Qiu, then Fang Qiu's goal was achieved. After all, if Luo Yin Sect, a sinister sect, had to admit defeat under pressure, then the others would not dare to provoke Fang Qiu.

However, this was not what Fang Qiu wanted to see, for this method would not leave a deep impression on people.

Only by ruthlessly attacking and completely suppressing the Luo Yin Sect would everyone in Wulin realize the seriousness of the matter and enable him to achieve this most profound effect of establishing prestige.

Undoubtedly, the development of the current situation was exactly what Fang Qiu wanted to see!

"Kill!"

On the small square, gusts of cold wind blew all around. The shouts of the six elders came from high up in the sky.

Around Fang Qiu, the six people, who were either stepping in the air or racing fast, struck at the same time. Two used swords and two their bare hands, while the rest wielded sabers. From top to bottom, there were strikes coming from six directions in total. They targeted the most vulnerable parts of Fang Qiu's body at the same time!

"Good."

Since Fang Qiu had made up his mind, he would not show any mercy.

"Boom!"

He shouted in his heart.

An extremely powerful aura erupted from Fang Qiu's body.

When the six people were about to attack him, Fang Qiu shifted position, took aim at one of the people who was about to hit him with a sword in the air and kicked him fiercely.

The long sword in the man's hand was kicked away to the side. Meanwhile, Fang Qiu also took the opportunity to turn aside to avoid the attacks from another long sword and two long sabers.

He avoided the strikes from the weapons, but there was still a punch and a kick coming from the left and right.

In the face of such a situation, Fang Qiu stretched out his right hand and swiped wildly.

Before the long sword of the man in the air could be rebrandished, the man's wrist was grabbed by Fang Qiu. He was dragged toward Fang Qiu.

In the blink of an eye, Fang Qiu moved ten meters within three steps.

He directly rushed out of the circle of the six people, holding the elder with a long sword, in his hand.

“Swish.”

As soon as Fang Qiu stopped, the elder of the Luo Yin Sect, who was caught by him, immediately tried to kick him in the back of his head. He wanted to force Fang Qiu back.

But just as he was about to kick, Fang Qiu turned around.

He stared at the elder with cold eyes. Fang Qiu rushed to the man. As they looked at each other, his right hand clenched into a fist. At an extremely terrifying speed, his fierce fist hit the man’s lower abdomen before the other five people could attack him.

“Bang!”

With a loud bang, the man was directly sent flying by Fang Qiu’s punch!

He only used one move.

An elder of the Luo Yin Sect who reached the peak of the eighth-class Martial Superior with two meridians was struck away in an instant.

This power was terrifying!

When the onlookers saw this, all the expressions on their faces changed greatly.

Now, John Doe was even more powerful and determined than when he was at the top of Yangshan Mountain!

Xiang Tianhe also looked amazed.

Even he was shocked by Fang Qiu's reaction speed and sudden attacks, for Fang Qiu was remarkably swift.

Even if he stepped onto the field, he would only barely be able to defend himself.

At this moment, he finally understood what Luo Qingcheng meant. In the entire Luo Yin Sect, no one was a match for John Doe.

Fortunately, although the elder sent flying by Fang Qiu was seriously injured, he was not crippled.

They still had a chance.

They still had the poison!

"Kill him!" Xiang Tianhe shouted.

The six people in the field looked at each other and immediately stopped their attacks. After the person who was thrown away by Fang Qiu stood up, they once again surrounded Fang Qiu from all directions.

This time, they all became much smarter.

The six men no longer attacked using force. They were all testing.

They were constantly testing, trying to find an opportunity to attack.

Although Fang Qiu's strength was much greater than that of the six people, he was also very curious. "These six people obviously have other approaches. Why haven't they used them yet?"

If it was just a siege at this level, Fang Qiu could destroy them all in less than three minutes!

As for Xiang Tianhe, he should be fully aware of it.

In this case, the reason why Xiang Tianhe still did not take action was because they had a backup plan and they looked really positive.

With that thought in mind, Fang Qiu was no longer anxious.

He wanted to see what other tricks Luo Yin Sect could use. He wanted Luo Yin Sect to use all of its moves, but they would still be defeated!

Under the attacks from the six people, Fang Qiu was also constantly looking for opportunities to attack.

However, it was just a test and not a real attack.

All the onlookers were very confused while looking at this.

“John Doe obviously has the strength to break the formation directly, but why is he not making a move?”

“Just now, he defeated one of them with only one move. If John Doe goes all out, these six people will not be able to stop him at all.”

“Is John Doe waiting for something?”

As expected.

Under the constant attacks from the six people, Fang Qiu was caught off guard and showed a little carelessness, which filled everyone with doubts and curiosity.

Naturally, the six elders of the Luo Yin Sect would not miss such a great opportunity.

Among them, the four people with long swords and sabers threw their weapons at Fang Qiu at the same time.

“Hmm?”

Fang Qiu froze and was about to dodge.

“Go to hell!”

Suddenly, a loud roar sounded.

All the six people stretched out their right hands at the same time. A large amount of colorless powder immediately scattered from their hands, covering Fang Qiu in an instant.

Medical Master

Chapter 766: Its Too Late to Give Money Now!

“Hmm?”

In the thick of the battle, Fang Qiu stood where he was after avoiding the cluster of swords and sabers.

Although he could not see it clearly, he could feel that there was a lot of dense powder floating in the air around him.

After scattering the poison, the six people immediately retreated to a safe place. The caution on their faces disappeared and was replaced by relief. They stared at Fang Qiu with faint smiles on their faces, thinking that their trick was about to work.

At this moment, they did not feel the need to be cautious at all. They just had to wait quietly for Fang Qiu to die after being poisoned.

Outside the field, all the onlookers on the pavilion did not know what was going on.

Everyone saw it clearly. After throwing out their swords, all the six people flung something at John Doe at the same time, but they could not tell what they were throwing at him.

“If it was a hidden weapon, John Doe would definitely have dodged it in the first place.”

“John Doe did not dodge, which means that it is not a hidden weapon.”

“Look, John Doe is standing in the field and he seems to be holding his breath!”

“Maybe what they threw at John Doe is poison.”

“It must be. Otherwise, why would John Doe need to hold his breath?”

“Damn it. They are so despicable!”

“Despicable, shameless!”

“Cunning!”

Diwu Qian was so angry that she almost wanted to help John Doe.

But just as she was about to move, a hand quietly gripped her shoulder. The appearance of this hand magically suppressed the anger in her heart in an instant.

As she turned her head to have a look, A Ying shook her head slightly at her.

“Hmm?”

Yun Yangzi also frowned angrily, but he had no intention of taking action.

“Ha, ha, ha...”

At the edge of the field, Xiang Tianhe suddenly burst into laughter in front of the main hall of Luo Yin Sect. His laughter was very soft.

“Hehe...”

However, just as Xiang Tianhe was laughing, a sneering voice could be heard at the same time.

Everyone turned to look.

Fang Qiu was sneering.

In other people’s eyes, he might be in great danger, but for him, these little tricks used by the Luo Yin Sect had no effect on him at all.

As a guru, how could he be trapped by such dirty means such as using poison?

Besides, the flaw was revealed deliberately by himself. Before he revealed it, Fang Qiu directly channeled the body-protecting internal Qi to completely shield himself from the surrounding space.

At this moment, his body was covered with a layer of internal Qi, which isolated him from all the poisonous powder. Not even a speck of dust could touch him.

As he sneered, Fang Qiu used his mental powers.

A burst of strong mental power poured out.

Everything within a hundred meters was completely enveloped by him. Every speck of poisonous powder was under his control.

He carefully sensed it.

It was obvious that the toxicity was at an extreme level!

Not to mention ordinary Martial Superiors.

Even if a guru was accidentally poisoned, he had to use his internal Qi to neutralize the poison within an hour. Otherwise, he would be either dead or disabled.

If a Martial Superior who was below the level of guru was poisoned, he or she would only end up dead!

Obviously, this poison was really toxic.

Fang Qiu gritted his teeth.

Others might not know, but he was very clear about this kind of poison. Besides, he was still a Poison-making Doctor!

“How vicious you are! How dare you use poison!”

Fang Qiu glanced at the six people and looked straight at Xiang Tianhe.

As soon as he said that, there was an uproar in the surrounding pavilions.

“What the f*ck? Is it really poison?”

“The Luo Yin Sect is f*cking sinister.”

“They have already trapped so many people. But now they even resort to using such a dirty trick in front of so many people. How shameless they are!”

“How can the Luo Yin Sect be so vicious?”

Everyone started to criticize them.

“Where is the poison?”

Xiang Tianhe snorted, narrowed his eyes and said to Fang Qiu, “Maybe you are no match for us, so you came up with an excuse to frame us, didn’t you?”

“Are you trying to deny it?”

Fang Qiu snorted. As he spoke, he stretched out his right hand. His internal Qi surged and directly condensed into a layer around him, drawing all the poisonous powder toward him. It condensed into a ball and dropped into the center of his palm.

“Your Sect Leader said that this is not poison. Which one of you would like to have a try?”

Fang Qiu asked, carrying the powder in his hand.

The expressions on the faces of the six elders changed greatly and they retreated, one after another.

“John Doe!”

Xiang Tianhe stepped forward with a gloomy face and said, "Now that things have come to this point, there is no need for any further entanglement. 28 million yuan, we, the Luo Yin Sect, can afford it!"

"Now you want to pay me?"

Fang Qiu raised the powder in his hand and said, "It's too late!"

As soon as he finished speaking, his face darkened.

The internal Qi in his palm surged forth like a flame and turned the poisonous powder into ashes.

Then,

"Swoosh..."

He moved and attacked the six elders of the Luo Yin Sect, without holding back any of his strength.

"Bang!"

Before the first person could react, he was hit in the Dantian by Fang Qiu's punch.

"Crack!"

There was a breaking sound.

As his Dantian was broken, several wounds appeared on his chest and blood spurted out.

In the blink of an eye, an elder at the peak of the eighth-class Martial Superior level with two meridians had his Dantian and his meridians broken. He was a useless man now.

The other five elders were astonished.

Especially the man who had been injured by Fang Qiu's punch before, he immediately ran to the other people to seek shelter.

"John Doe, don't push it too far!"

Finally, Xiang Tianhe could no longer hold back his anger and charged forward.

"Me? Maybe you are the one that has gone too far!"

Fang Qiu retorted and continued. "Now, I'll take the thing that should have been my repayment from you!"

After that, he flashed again and rushed to the other elder.

Xiang Tianhe's face changed in shock.

He immediately took action to block him.

Unfortunately, he was still a little slower than Fang Qiu. Before he could stop him, Fang Qiu had already rushed to one of them. While the man was resisting, he forcibly broke his defense with a punch and smashed hard on his Dantian.

"Stop it!"

Finally, Xiang Tianhe arrived. As he shouted angrily, he was about to punch Fang Qiu's head.

“I’ll keep you for the end.”

Fang Qiu snorted coldly.

He punched and collided head-on with Xiang Tianhe. As the huge force pushed Xiang Tianhe back, he flashed and rushed to another elder.

At this moment, the remaining four elders of the Luo Yin Sect were all in a state of shock.

How could they have thought of that?

Even with their combined strength, they were powerless against John Doe. At this time, as eighth-class Martial Superiors with two opened meridians, they were as desperate as martial arts practitioners!

Flee.

They could only try to flee!

The four of them scattered in four different directions.

“Do you think you can escape?”

Fang Qiu’s intimidating voice resounded in the air above Luoyin Mountain.

After he finished speaking, there was a loud sound of a collision.

“Bang, bang, bang...”

As soon as the four elders flew upward, they seemed to have suffered a huge blow. One by one, they were sent flying and fell beside Xiang Tianhe.

It scared all the onlookers around.

“What the f*ck, he’s so awesome.”

“I saw John Doe just now. He was right in front of me. He took the elder of Luo Yin Sect as a ball and kicked him back!”

“What terrifying strength. The Luo Yin Sect is finished!”

Just when everyone was shocked, the deafening sounds rang out, one after another, in the field.

“Pa, pa, pa...”

Another four loud bangs sounded.

Xiang Tianhe could not stop him at all. The four elders who were kicked back to the square were sent flying away by Fang Qiu in the blink of an eye.

When they fell to the ground, all four of them spat out blood and all their meridians were broken!

It only took three minutes.

After the poisoning, it only took John Doe three minutes to maim the six elders of the Luo Yin Sect. Moreover, Xiang Tianhe was constantly helping to block the strikes for them.

What kind of strength was this?

Not only the people of the Luo Yin Sect, but also most of the onlookers were nonplussed.

Only Yun Yangzi and Diwu Qian were not stunned. However, their expressions also changed. It was obvious that they did not expect John Doe to be so decisive.

“You’re so despicable. What’s the use of keeping you alive?”

After defeating the six elders, Fang Qiu stopped, stared at Xiang Tianhe and said, “Almost all of them are maimed. You’re the only one left who should be taken down!”

“You, you...”

Xiang Tianhe was also stunned.

Just now, he had tried his best to stop John Doe, but he failed!

In three short minutes just now, he had deeply felt the gap between himself and John Doe. This gap was impossible to make up for, and he would never be able to bridge it!

However, he was unwilling to accept the fact.

He didn’t want to give up!

He was the leader of the Luo Yin Sect. He was a master who could intimidate everyone in Wulin. Why should he lose to a newcomer?

Anger rose in his heart.

“Ah!!!”

Knowing that he could not escape, Xiang Tianhe let out a roar. He summoned all his strength and attacked Fang Qiu fiercely.

Fang Qiu made his move.

They collided with each other fiercely.

However, this time, Fang Qiu did not give him any chance to seize any flaws. It was like how he had defeated Luo Qingcheng. He only used one punch to send Xiang Tianhe flying.

In front of everyone.

He struck Xiang Tianhe's Dantian with one punch!

"Crack..."

When the sound of something breaking was heard, Fang Qiu stopped.

The entire Luo Yin Sect was completely destroyed!

Although everyone was maimed, Fang Qiu did not kill them. Even though many people thought that the people of the Luo Yin Sect deserved to die, in Fang Qiu's opinion, these people had done too many evil things. Fang Qiu believed that living in this world would be the biggest punishment for them because, in the past few years, they had made too many enemies. Having lost their kung fu, they would definitely face the revenge of countless enemies, or ridicule, or other things.

That was the punishment they should receive!

"Today."

Standing in the center of the square of the Luo Yin Sect and looking at Xiang Tianhe who was lying on the ground in a dazed state, Fang Qiu said clearly, "The Luo Yin Sect has been removed from Wulin!"

All the onlookers were stunned.

When they heard this, they realized that the Luo Yin Sect had been destroyed!

Although they saw how John Doe destroyed a sect with their own eyes, they still could not help but be astounded when they heard what he said.

It was a sect.

It was destroyed by John Doe just like that!

Although they deserved it, people still felt shocked when they thought about it.

Chapter 767: Could You Tell Me If There Is an Organization Behind Your Back?

While everyone was still in a state of shock, Diwu Qian took a step forward at the top of the pavilion.

Fang Qiu turned his head, looked at Diwu Qian and asked, "Is it your turn?"

"Please enlighten me."

Diwu Qian smiled and waved her right hand. A bank card flew out of her hand and sped toward Fang Qiu.

Fang Qiu reached out to catch it.

“There is a challenge fee of 20 million in the card and the password is 666666.”

While they were talking, Diwu Qian stood on tiptoe gently. Like a fairy descending to earth, she slowly flew down from the top of the pavilion and finally landed in front of Fang Qiu.

Just like that, the two of them stood in the middle of the square, looking at each other.

Grasping the card, Fang Qiu fiddled with it for a while, then glanced at Diwu Qian and asked, “Why do you want to fight with me?”

“I’m very curious about you.”

Diwu Qian did not try to hide anything and said directly, “I don’t know anything about your past and where you came from, so I would like to ask you to explain your origin to us Wulin practitioners.”

Everyone on the scene immediately pricked up their ears and listened carefully, waiting for Fang Qiu’s answer.

In everyone’s eyes, John Doe was really too mysterious.

The most important thing was that John Doe’s strength was very powerful since the day he appeared and it had increased very rapidly. Such a person was simply a top genius in Wulin. It was not an exaggeration to call him a monster. Why did he suddenly make an appearance, after being unknown all this while?

Out of curiosity, everyone stared at John Doe and waited for his answer.

“I come from nowhere.”

In the face of Diwu Qian’s question, Fang Qiu showed his indifference and said, “Wulin is a place formed by martial arts practitioners and kung fu. As a martial arts practitioner, I belong to Wulin. Where else would I come from?”

Everyone shook their heads when they heard that.

“What he said is so ambiguous.”

“Yes, on the surface, the term “Wulin” is no different from a forest. But it also refers to everything remaining the same. Even in the forest, someone will suddenly plant a big tree transplanted from another place. It may be a good tree, but it may also be a bad tree that takes away the nutrition of the earth!”

“Tricky. John Doe’s answer is too tricky.”

“If he comes from nowhere, then who taught him kung fu and how to improve?”

The crowd began discussing this.

It was obvious that everyone was not satisfied with Fang Qiu’s answer.

Although it sounded really eloquent, he did not reveal any useful information at all.

No one was satisfied with his reply.

As the person who asked the question, Diwu Qian was also not content.

She needed to continue to question since she was not satisfied with his answers.

“May I ask, is there any organization behind you?”

Diwu Qian asked.

She sounded as if she was asking a simple question.

But in Fang Qiu's eyes, that was not the case.

At least.

When Diwu Qian asked him this, Fang Qiu clearly saw a trace of tension in her eyes.

"It seems that you're very curious about this."

Fang Qiu asked with a smile.

"Of course."

Diwu Qian did not panic. Instead, she nodded as if it was a matter of course and said, "Everyone in Wulin here is curious about what kind of organization is able to cultivate such a genius like you?"

"It's an exaggeration to say that I am a genius."

Fang Qiu grinned and said, "Since you're so curious, then I'll satisfy your curiosity."

Diwu Qian's beautiful eyes narrowed.

The others also pricked up their ears in an instant.

"Let's put it this way."

Fang Qiu pursed his lips and said, "In the past, there was a person standing behind me, but now I'm the only one left. Are you satisfied with this answer?"

They did not know what to say when they heard that.

John Doe gave an answer, but this answer did not seem to dispel their curiosity. On the contrary, it made them even more curious.

According to John Doe, there was indeed a person behind him, so who on earth was that person and how powerful was that person?

If he was not powerful, how could he cultivate such an exceptional talent like John Doe?

There was one person in the past, but now there was no one.

Where did that person go?

Did he leave now, or did he leave when John Doe appeared in Wulin? Was the achievement in Wulin made by John Doe himself, or with the help of that person?

There were too many questions, which made everyone feel that John Doe was even more mysterious.

Diwu Qian was even more curious.

“Is there a master behind you? May I know who your Apprentice Plan is?”

Diwu Qian asked.

“I don’t know.”

Fang Qiu shrugged his shoulders and said, “I don’t even know my master’s name. I only know that he is very powerful.”

Immediately, countless people rolled their eyes at him when they heard this.

“F*ck, what kind of answer is that?”

“How shameless. Why do I feel that John Doe is even more shameless than the Luo Yin Sect in concealing the information?”

“Speaking of which, we are also shameless. Why are we so curious about John Doe’s identity?”

“Alas, everyone is shameless.”

“Isn’t this nonsense? If he’s not powerful, how was he able to cultivate a monster like you?”

Everyone was speechless.

John Doe’s answer was simply meaningless.

In the face of everyone’s contemptuous looks, Fang Qiu also felt very helpless.

It was true that he did not know the old master’s identity. What else could he say?

“Since you respect him as your master, how could you not know his name?”

Diwu Qian gazed at Fang Qiu as if she wanted to see through him.

“I really don’t know.”

Fang Qiu shook his head with a wry smile and said, "There's no need to hide my master's name. If I knew his name, I would have scared the Luo Yin Sect by revealing my master's name. No one would dare to touch my family and friends. Why should I waste so much effort to come to Luo Yin Mountain to ask for the money?"

Everyone was baffled by Fang Qiu's question.

"That's right."

"Yes, John Doe's master must be invincible. As long as John Doe shows his Apprentice Plan, most people in Wulin will not dare to offend him."

"But as a disciple, he doesn't even know his master's name. I don't believe it."

"Is his master a hero? He did good deeds without leaving any trace of his identity. After raising such a genius, he just left like that?"

For a moment, some of the onlookers agreed with him, while others mocked him.

Anyway, everyone thought that John Doe was quite shameless.

Seeing the bitter smile on John Doe's face, Diwu Qian pondered for a moment and smiled thoughtfully.

She could see it very clearly.

John Doe's bitter smile came from the bottom of his heart.

In other words, she was very sure that what John Doe said was basically true.

“I see.”

With a chuckle, Diwu Qian said to Fang Qiu, “Since you don’t want to tell me, then let’s start the battle directly.”

“Okay.”

Fang Qiu waved the bank card in his hand and said, “Since the money has been paid, we still have to fight. Although I don’t battle with women, since I have received the money, I will show you enough respect. You have to be careful.”

“That will be the best.”

Diwu Qian nodded.

“Whoosh!”

As soon as she finished speaking, an extremely powerful aura burst from her body.

The moment this aura appeared, everyone around was shocked.

No one had expected that this seemingly gentle and weak body could actually bring forth such a powerful momentum.

This momentum was even more powerful than Xiang Tianhe!

“She is indeed the genius of the Diwu family.”

“The second place on the Wulin Genius List really lives up to her reputation.”

“She is so talented and incredible!”

Cries of astonishment could be heard all around.

From these exclamations, it was evident that there were quite a few fans rooting for Diwu Qian.

“Boom!”

While everyone was amazed by the powerful momentum of Diwu Qian, Fang Qiu also erupted with a compelling momentum.

However, compared to that of Diwu Qian, it seemed to be much weaker.

But when they thought about it carefully, John Doe’s momentum seemed to be like this too when he fought with Xiang Tianhe.

Didn’t momentum represent strength?

Looking at Fang Qiu, Diwu Qian shook her head with a smile.

“You’ll get it.”

“Let’s fight.”

Diwu Qian smiled faintly. When she finished speaking, she shifted her position and waved her hand directly at Fang Qiu.

“Come on.”

Fang Qiu also made a move at the same time to battle with Diwu Qian.

The expressions on their faces changed as they were fighting.

“What a powerful force!”

Looking at Fang Qiu, Diwu Qian felt a little puzzled.

She could feel Fang Qiu’s momentum. Obviously, he was only at the peak of the sixth class or even below the seventh class. But in this fight, she could feel from Fang Qiu’s hands that Fang Qiu’s strength was more than that of the sixth class. He had almost reached the level of the ninth class or even the ninth class with one meridian.

How could a man with the strength of the sixth class be so powerful?

Fang Qiu was also very interested.

Because after this punch, he also clearly felt that the impact of Diwu Qian’s strength and internal Qi was obviously different from that of other masters at the same level.

It seemed that she was stronger than the masters at the same level and her internal Qi was more aggressive.

“Is this the benefit of being born in an aristocratic family?”

Fang Qiu thought to himself.

Even though they were both amazed at each other's strength, the two of them did not stop. Instead, they fought even more fiercely.

Because it was a simple battle, Fang Qiu did not exert all his strength. Instead, he fought directly against Diwu Qian with the strength at the peak of the sixth class after his recultivation.

In Fang Qiu's view, the power after recultivation was his actual strength. The power of the guru was meaningless. Therefore, fighting her with his actual strength was showing respect to her.

When he destroyed the Luo Yin Sect, Fang Qiu had used the power of a guru. Otherwise, he would not have been able to destroy it so quickly and simply.

In a situation where there was no need to use the power of the guru level, Fang Qiu was evenly matched with Diwu Qian!

With the strength of the peak of the sixth class, he would be proud to be able to end in a tie with a master of the ninth class.

After all, Diwu Qian was halfway to reaching the ninth class. She could break through to the ninth class at any time. Her strength was much stronger than Xiang Tianhe's.

The most important thing was that Diwu Qian also possessed the unique cultivation method of the Diwu family, so in terms of real combat capability, she could crush Xiang Tianhe completely.

However, this strength was just right for Fang Qiu to practice.

In the fierce battle, Fang Qiu could clearly feel that more and more internal Qi was flowing out of the 12 standard meridians in his body.

Medical Master

Chapter 768: Youve Won! Ive Learned a Lot From You!

In the field, the fierce battle was still ongoing.

In the surrounding pavilions, all the martial arts practitioners who were there, watched intently as if they were not willing to miss a second.

In the crowd, the faces of the top ten geniuses who had been standing with Yun Yangzi and Diwu Qian from the very beginning had looks that were completely different from the others.

“So powerful!”

Mu Rufeng did not even blink. Looking at the fierce battle in the field, he was so shocked that he could not even utter a word.

For him, it was undoubtedly the most heart-wrenching battle.

On one side, it was the mysterious man whom he had always respected and wanted to fight with. On the other side, it was the woman whom he had always liked, but he did not dare to confess his love to her. He could only admire her from a distance.

Both of them were the ones he was most concerned about, not to mention their battle.

Mu Rufeng thought that no matter how powerful John Doe was, he was at most about the same level as himself. Maybe he was only a little stronger than him. However, in the past two days, John Doe’s performance went far beyond his expectation.

Now, he was even more astonished when he saw that John Doe was executing such smooth moves in the fight with Diwu Qian.

Feng Yiming, who was standing with Chen Yunzhu, was also surprised.

“Am I right?”

Chen Yunzhu gave a wry smile and said, "I knew it. John Doe's strength is incredible. You did not believe it just now. But now you have to believe it."

"Whew..."

Feng Yiming took a deep breath and said, "I did not expect John Doe to be so powerful. Although Diwu Qian has the ability to destroy the Luo Yin Sect as well, John Doe's moves are very smooth and he does not seem to be stressed in the battle with Diwu Qian even if he did not gain the upper hand. From this angle, John Doe's strength is obviously stronger than Diwu Qian's."

"Yes."

Chen Yunzhu nodded and echoed, "John Doe is really terrifying. When he destroyed the Luo Yin Sect, he did not use all his strength. Now he is not using all his strength either. I really don't know how invincible he will be when he goes all out."

The others next to him also nodded in agreement.

Only Yun Yangzi did not say a word from beginning to end. He just stared straight at the ongoing battle in the field and was not in the mood to talk at all.

While the two were having an intense battle, a man on the other side of the pavilion suddenly took out his mobile phone from his trouser pocket, ready to record it.

After all, this was a great battle that was rarely seen in history!

What made it more valuable was that nobody was recording it. That was to say, as long as he recorded this battle and put it online, he would definitely gain a lot of popularity in a short time!

He could not help feeling excited just thinking about it.

He turned on his mobile phone and aimed the camera at the fierce battle in the field, ready to start recording.

However, before he could press the recording button, he suddenly saw a figure suddenly fly over on the screen.

When he took a closer look, it turned out to be Diwu Qian who was fighting with John Doe!

The man was dumbfounded because he found that Diwu Qian was racing toward him.

“Swoosh!”

There was the sound of the wind gushing through the air by his ear.

His mobile phone, which was in his hand and was ready to record, was instantly snatched away by Diwu Qian who rushed over.

Fang Qiu, who was originally in a fierce fight, saw Diwu Qian suddenly pulling away to grab the phone of the onlooker. He could only forcibly stop the blow that he was about to give her!

If he were to attack her directly, it would be too late for Diwu Qian to defend herself.

But Fang Qiu did not do that.

He was never a person who would take advantage of others when they were in danger!

Fang Qiu stopped his move.

Diwu Qian, who had snatched the phone, also turned back and landed in the field.

“Thank you.” Looking at Fang Qiu who forced himself to stop, Diwu Qian smiled and thanked him.

She turned to look at the owner of the phone and then glanced at all the people who were watching. Then she crushed the phone in her hand without any hesitation.

“In this battle, no one is allowed to take photos or videos. I don’t want the same thing to happen again,” Diwu Qian said.

Upon hearing this, everyone fell silent.

Actually, the audience understood.

The identities of these two people were too special. It was really not a good idea to record or take photos of this battle.

John Doe, who had just destroyed the Luo Yin Sect, was a powerful figure and nobody knew anything about his background. Diwu Qian was not only the daughter of the Diwu family in the south, but also a prominent figure who ranked second on the Wulin Genius List.

Maybe for John Doe, taking photos and recordings did not matter to him at all. After all, he was used to keeping a high profile in Wulin.

However, Diwu Qian was different.

It was really rare that she was involved in any battle.

Her identity was special, so it would be fine if she won. But if she lost, it would definitely lead to massive discussions, once the video was released.

The most important thing was that Diwu Qian was a beauty that many people in Wulin yearned for. If this battle was recorded, the speed of the video going viral would definitely be beyond imagination. The faster it spread, the easier it would be to come under scrutiny.

In addition, Diwu Qian did not like to show her face, so she immediately left the battlefield to stop him when she noticed that someone was going to take photos and videos.

After such a small incident, everyone on the pavilion gave up the idea of taking photos and recording.

“Let’s continue.”

Diwu Qian walked toward Fang Qiu.

“Yes.”

Fang Qiu nodded.

Then, he took a step forward. With a spring, his body shot out like a cannonball and charged toward Diwu Qian.

Diwu Qian was not afraid at all.

At the same time, she also took a step forward. Then, in a flash, she darted toward Fang Qiu who was rushing over!

“Bang, bang, bang...”

The fierce battle continued.

In the blink of an eye, everyone immediately forgot about the incident just now and focused all their attention on the battle between the two of them again.

“Diwu Qian is getting serious.”

“Although she was very serious just now, she did not utilize all her strength. It seemed that it was because John Doe dealt with it too easily earlier on. This time, she is really going all out!”

“This time, can John Doe still be so calm?”

“He’s still in the sixth class. It seems that John Doe does not intend to use all his strength. Does he think that he can defeat Diwu Qian with his current strength?”

As Mu Rufeng took the lead, several top ten geniuses on the Wulin Genius List began to discuss in low voices.

Yun Yangzi remained silent.

He looked even more focused than before.

“She used all her strength?”

Fang Qiu also felt that Diwu Qian’s strength was obviously much greater than before and the impact of her internal Qi was also much more powerful. Her overall strength was one level higher than before.

This made Fang Qiu very satisfied and excited.

“Hmm?”

Diwu Qian, who had gone all out, suddenly frowned.

Before that, she found that her strength and speed were a little weaker than John Doe’s, so she directly burst forth with all her strength, trying to force John Doe to use all his strength to fight.

But when she exerted all her strength, she found that her strength and speed were the same as John Doe's. It was impossible for her to suppress John Doe at all.

This made her very puzzled.

The strength that John Doe showed was obviously only in the sixth class. How could he do this?

Diwu Qian attacked crazily.

While defending, Fang Qiu was looking for an opportunity to attack.

Every time he struck, he would use a little more strength to stimulate Diwu Qian and the internal Qi of his body at the same time, so that the internal Qi of the 12 standard meridians would flow faster.

All martial arts practitioners had potential.

Some people had reached the peak of the eighth class. No matter how hard they practiced, they could not improve anymore. No matter what kind of stimulation they got, they could not exude stronger power because the eighth class was the peak of their potential.

Some people had greater potential, such as Diwu Qian.

Although her current strength was only halfway to the ninth class, her potential was increased little by little, under the suppression of Fang Qiu's gaining strength.

As a result, while Fang Qiu was increasing his strength, she was also secretly increasing her own.

This was the difference in potential.

Diwu Qian noticed that it suddenly did not feel like a competition now. Instead, John Doe was deliberately stimulating her potential.

She suddenly had a good impression of John Doe.

However, she was not aware that John Doe did this for his own improvement.

“Pa, pa, pa...”

The fierce battle was still going on.

In the blink of an eye, the two of them had already exchanged hundreds of moves.

Both of them enjoyed this battle very much.

Just as Diwu Qian was enjoying her improvement, Fang Qiu suddenly stopped increasing his strength because he found that there seemed to be no need for the battle to continue. Because no matter how he stimulated the internal Qi in his body, the internal Qi would no longer flow out of the 12 standard meridians.

If they continued to fight, it would only be a waste of time.

He said in a low voice.

When Fang Qiu and Diwu Qian were about to collide with each other with their palms and Diwu Qian was about to lift her left hand to attack, Fang Qiu suddenly twisted his body and slipped away like a loach. In an instant, he dodged Diwu Qian’s attack and directly moved to Diwu Qian’s side.

In a situation where he could seriously injure her in one strike, he merely waved his right hand and gently swiped outward. He then took a strand of hair from Diwu Qian’s head and then moved away. He instantly flew two meters away and landed.

“Whew...”

Diwu Qian took a step back and looked at Fang Qiu. She cupped her fists and said, “You win. I’ve learned a lot!”

As soon as she said that, most of the onlookers in the pavilion were shocked.

“John Doe won?”

“What the hell? Didn’t they just fight intensely? How could she suddenly lose?”

“How did John Doe win?”

“Oh my God, if John Doe beat Diwu Qian, doesn’t that mean that John Doe can at least be ranked second on the Wulin Genius List?”

Everyone was talking about it.

Many people did not understand what happened, but those who understood were amazed.

The strength of these two people was so great that they absolutely surpassed the peak of the eighth-class Martial Superior with three meridians!

But just as everyone was talking about it, Yun Yangzi, who had been watching the two people fight with narrowed eyes, suddenly laughed. He took a step forward and went straight to the square in the air, looking at Fang Qiu.

“I want to fight with you!”

All the people present turned to look at Yun Yangzi in an instant!

Medical Master

Chapter 769: Have Some Integrity, Will You?

“I want to fight with you!”

As soon as Diwu Qian admitted defeat, Yun Yangzi’s voice rang out in the field.

Fang Qiu was stunned.

He turned to look at Yun Yangzi.

“I’ll leave this to you.”

Beside him, Diwu Qian glanced at Fang Qiu and Yun Yangzi. Then, she stretched out her hand, indicating that she would make room for them. Then, she moved and floated to the top of the pavilion, ready to watch the battle.

In the field, Fang Qiu and Yun Yangzi nodded to Diwu Qian at the same time and then turned to look at each other.

“Sorry. You are?”

Fang Qiu looked at Yun Yangzi and asked.

“I’m Yun Yangzi,” Yun Yangzi cupped his hands and said.

“Uh?”

Fang Qiu froze and asked, "Where did you come from? I haven't heard of you."

As soon as he said that, everyone's jaws dropped in shock.

"Hasn't John Doe heard of Yun Yangzi before?"

"What's going on?"

"John Doe doesn't even know Yun Yangzi?"

"How could anyone not hear of Yun Yangzi's name in Wulin?"

"It's understandable that you don't know how he looks like, but it's absurd that you have not even heard of his name!"

Everyone, including Diwu Qian, was shocked by Fang Qiu's words.

Yun Yangzi, such a top figure on Wulin Genius List, was definitely a well-known existence in the world. Even those who just entered Wulin would definitely have heard of Yun Yangzi's name in that short period of time. Besides, John Doe had been in Wulin for almost two years. He had never heard of Yun Yangzi's name during the two years, which must be his fault.

Hearing the discussions coming from all around, Fang Qiu could not help being stunned. He said with a little embarrassment, "It seems that I'm very ignorant."

"What are you talking about, John Doe?"

Yun Yangzi shook his head with a smile and said, "It's just a name. Since you have not heard of it, it only means that I am not outstanding. But since you've asked, I'll just briefly introduce myself. I'm Yun Yangzi, ranking first on the Wulin Genius List for the time being."

“I’m sorry, I’m sorry.”

Hearing that, Fang Qiu hurriedly responded with cupped fists.

He ranked first on Wulin Genius List!

Fang Qiu was shocked.

It was not because he was amazed by his identity, but because he was shocked that he knew about the existence of the Wulin Genius List. He knew Chen Yunzhu who ranked fifth on the list and Diwu Qian who ranked second, but he did not know Yun Yangzi, who ranked first, which was really a little embarrassing.

“Since you already know who I am, I wonder if you will be willing to fight with me.”

When he heard this, Yun Yangzi added, “It’s not for seeking fame or vanity. I only want to see what I can learn from this battle!”

“Well...”

Fang Qiu was lost in thought.

On the pavilion, everyone looked at Fang Qiu expectantly. They did not know if John Doe would agree with Yun Yangzi.

After all, John Doe just wiped out the Luoyin Sect and defeated Diwu Qian in succession. It seemed that he had used up a lot of internal Qi just now. If he continued to fight Yun Yangzi, he would definitely suffer losses.

However, given Yun Yangzi’s character, he would never take advantage of John Doe. Even if John Doe agreed, he would give him enough time to recover.

While they were looking forward to it, everyone present was also delighted.

No one had expected that.

This time, they not only witnessed John Doe destroying the evil sect in Wulin—Luo Yin Sect, but also watched the battle between John Doe and Diwu Qian. Next, they might even see the great battle between John Doe and Yun Yangzi. If John Doe agreed to Yun Yangzi's invitation, then this trip would be really worth it!

After pondering for a while, Fang Qiu said under everyone's expectant eyes, "Twenty million!"

While he was pondering, Fang Qiu thought about it carefully. Although he had already destroyed the Luo Yin Sect and achieved the purpose of establishing his prestige, the strength of Luo Yin Sect did not seem to be as powerful as he had imagined. It could not even be compared with Diwu Qian. In this case, it would not take long for everyone to forget that he had destroyed the Luo Yin Sect and the effect of building his prestige would be much lesser.

Under these circumstances, if he wanted to prove that he was not a person to be trifled with, not only did he have to do things that left everyone astounded, he had to present even greater power!

Among all the people present, there was no doubt that the strongest one was Yun Yangzi.

Once he defeated Yun Yangzi, everyone would have a clear understanding of his strength. Only then would they know that John Doe was someone that even Yun Yangzi could not afford to offend.

In this way, people in Wulin would be in awe of him and would not dare to hurt his relatives and friends.

That was why Fang Qiu asked for money.

Since it was beneficial to him and he could earn 20 million yuan for this, he would fight with Yun Yangzi!

"F*ck, he wants money again?"

“John Doe, have some integrity, will you?”

“Although you have confirmed to be in the second place on the Wulin Genius List, Yun Yangzi, who ranks first on the list, has taken the initiative to challenge you. Could you please be more reserved? This is a competition for the first place!”

“That’s right. It’s not good to fight for the first place in the name of money!”

“John Doe, how much money do you lack?”

“Damn, he made hundreds of millions of yuan selling the treasure swords. And he just earned 20 million from Diwu Qian. Now he is asking for money from Yun Yangzi. Do you think you can spend so much money?”

“John Doe can’t be a miser, can he?”

The onlookers started to scold him without holding back.

Fang Qiu also heard everyone’s remarks very clearly, but he did not bother to explain to them. Earning money was the right thing to do. Everyone only knew that he was making money, but they did not know why he was making money. He did not need to explain it either.

However, he felt helpless at having to leave the impression of being a miser.

After hearing Fang Qiu’s request, Yun Yangzi suddenly smiled in a casual and decent manner. He said with a smile, “It seems that I have not earned your respect yet.”

“Twenty million, okay!”

Speaking of this, Yun Yangzi paused for a moment and then added, “Half a month later, on the night of the full moon, we’ll meet in this place, okay?”

Actually, it was not easy for Yun Yangzi to earn twenty million.

In the beginning, he wanted to use his own fame to challenge John Doe so that he could save the twenty million challenge fee. However, he did not expect that John Doe did not know who he was.

He had even to introduce himself and his ranking awkwardly.

However, John Doe did not hold him in awe and even asked for 20 million.

There was nothing he could do.

The purpose of his challenge with John Doe was to prove himself. It was also because there was finally someone in Wulin who was worthy of his challenge. He had lost the feeling of fighting fiercely and wholeheartedly for a long time, so he really wanted to compete with John Doe.

The most important thing was that after witnessing John Doe destroying Luo Yin Sect and defeating Diwu Qian, Yun Yangzi somehow had a feeling that it was very likely that he would gain something after the battle with John Doe.

If all these factors were taken into account, the benefit he would gain would be worth more than 20 million.

“Okay.” Fang Qiu nodded in agreement.

“If that’s the case, may I ask you to make one move to show me your talent first?”

Yun Yangzi asked.

Fang Qiu was stunned at first, but then he suddenly laughed. He gazed at Yun Yangzi with a smile and asked meaningfully, “Why?”

Yun Yangzi was not embarrassed at all. On the contrary, he replied naturally, "Know both the enemy and yourself, that's the gentlemen's battle strategy!"

Fang Qiu grinned again.

"This guy is not easy to deal with."

He made this request in such a vague manner, in order to explore his strength. Moreover, he made it sound like a gentleman's battle.

In a real competition, there was no reason for him to show his actual strength first.

Even if he wanted to know his enemy, he needed to investigate in private.

If they both showed their strength before the battle, then what was the point of having a challenge? Wasn't it better to directly compare their strength with each other?

Fang Qiu also knew.

The reason why Yun Yangzi said this in a roundabout way was that he had too little information about himself in Wulin. No one had ever found out about his background, so Yun Yangzi had no clue. In addition, he did not discover anything during the previous battle, so Yun Yangzi came up with this suggestion.

Although Fang Qiu could figure out what Yun Yangzi was thinking, he did not expose it. Instead, he nodded and agreed, as Yun Yangzi expected.

"Thank you."

Yun Yangzi cupped his hands and nodded.

Then, the internal Qi in his body was activated.

"I'm coming."

Waving his right palm, Yun Yangzi gave him a warning. Then, he moved and rushed toward Fang Qiu, striking him.

Fang Qiu did not hesitate.

He immediately struck out his palm to counterattack.

In the blink of an eye, the two quickly gave each other a strike and then separated immediately.

"Hmm?"

The strike was over.

Yun Yangzi retreated to his original position, raised his eyebrows, looked at Fang Qiu, and said, "Your current condition shows that you are no match for me. I hope you will improve by the full-moon night."

Fang Qiu answered with a smile, "When the time comes, I won't let you down."

Yun Yangzi had found out Fang Qiu's strength, while Fang Qiu also knew the extent of his strength.

He was a ninth-class Martial Superior with one opened meridian!

He was indeed a genius.

If he was promoted to the next level, he would be a guru.

To be able to do this at his current age, Yun Yangzi was indeed very capable.

However, it was not so easy to become a guru. It was a real obstacle that was as difficult as getting through a chasm!

Evaluated with his current strength, the strength that Fang Qiu had cultivated to the peak of the sixth class was indeed no match for Yun Yangzi.

If he directly used the power of a guru, the competition would be too dreary.

“It seems that I have to level up.”

He muttered to himself.

Fang Qiu cupped his hands.

Yun Yangzi also saluted in return. Then, under the gazes of all the people present, the two of them went down the mountain separately.

The two of them walked as if nothing had happened.

But there was an uproar on the mountain.

“Did he really manage to issue the challenge?”

“John Doe earned another 20 million!”

“It has nothing to do with whether he makes money or not. The most important thing is that this is indeed a battle for the first place!”

“They will do it here in half a month. I’m really looking forward to it!”

“This should be the biggest battle in Wulin in recent years, right?”

“Also, what happened to the blow just now? According to what Yun Yangzi said, John Doe’s strength doesn’t seem to be as powerful as his!”

“Will John Doe be defeated by Yun Yangzi?”

“It’s almost time. Since he appeared in Wulin, John Doe has been so invincible till now. If there is no one to defeat him, he can never be suppressed.”

In the heated discussion, everyone grew more and more curious about this big battle.

With strong curiosity, everyone went down the mountain. The top ten people on the Wulin Genius List led by Diwu Qian also went down the mountain together. Like the ordinary martial arts practitioners and Martial Superiors, they also looked forward to the full-moon night in half a month!

Medical Master

Chapter 770: Something Serious Was Going to Happen in Wulin!

Soon after everyone dispersed, the news filtered out, one after another on the Wulin forum, which caused an uproar in the whole forum.

“What? The Luo Yin Sect was so despicable to make use of poison in front of so many people.”

“It’s shameless of them to send their disciples to die. How dare they use poison when they already outnumber John Doe?”

“Haha, they deserve it! So what if they used poison? Weren’t they all maimed by John Doe?”

“The Luo Yin Sect has been completely destroyed?”

“John Doe is awesome! He removed an evil sect in Wulin!”

Just when everyone was shocked by the fact that the Luo Yin Sect had been destroyed by John Doe and was removed from Wulin, another piece of news came.

“Diwu Qian fought with John Doe, but she was defeated by him in the end!”

As soon as the news came out, all the people on the forum were even more astounded.

After destroying the Luo Yin Sect, John Doe fought with Diwu Qian right away and won eventually.

When he fought against the Luo Yin Sect, John Doe must have consumed a lot of internal Qi. In his case, even though he lacked the energy, he was still able to defeat Diwu Qian. How powerful was John Doe?

The shock came one after another.

The third message arrived.

“Yun Yangzi invited John Doe to have a fight and John Doe agreed. They are going to fight on the top of Luoyin Mountain in half a month!”

If the previous news was shocking, this piece of news could be regarded as earth-shattering.

Who could have imagined that?

As the top genius on the Wulin Genius List, how could Yun Yangzi lower his status and personally propose to fight against John Doe?

Most importantly, John Doe agreed to it!

This must be an incomparable battle!

For a moment, on the forum, there were some who cursed the Luo Yin Sect for being shameless, some who felt that the Luo Yin Sect deserved to be exterminated and some who were excited about the last piece of news.

In terms of the battle between John Doe and Diwu Qian, most of them only paid attention to it and might not be willing to watch it.

After defeating Diwu Qian, the significance of the battle between John Doe and Yun Yangzi was completely different. After John Doe defeated Diwu Qian, the battle between Yun Yangzi and him would definitely be the top battle among the younger generation.

This battle was definitely worth waiting for!

Many people even booked tickets on the Internet as soon as they received the news.

All kinds of plane tickets, high-speed train tickets and train tickets for that day were booked.

Most of the people who failed to book a ticket for that day could only book tickets which allowed them to arrive one or two days earlier.

It was going to be such a grand occasion.

One could just imagine the kind of lively scene that would happen in Luo City half a month later!

Just as the heated discussion on the forum was going on, Diwu Qian answered the video call from her father when she returned to the hotel.

“It seems that you’re not injured. Do I need to worry about anything?”

In the video, the middle-aged man, who was wearing a Chinese tunic suit and a pair of old-fashioned round glasses, looked very animated. He chuckled after saying that.

“With A Ying around, how could I be injured?”

Diwu Qian replied.

“You made a point.”

The middle-aged man nodded and asked, “How do you feel?”

“Very strong.”

Diwu Qian frowned and added, “But we can’t tell his origin. However, his moves are straightforward, righteous and not evil. He doesn’t have a strong killing intent. He should have nothing to do with that organization.”

“Oh?”

The middle-aged man was confused and asked, “Anything else?”

“I asked him a few questions.”

Thinking of the questions that she had asked Fang Qiu at that time, she told her father what Fang Qiu’s answers and performance were like, in detail. After that, she came to the conclusion, “At present, although this man looks mysterious, he is very decent. But I still can't be too sure. I'll observe him carefully after half a month."

"Okay."

The middle-aged man nodded and then asked, "Who do you think will win the battle?"

"According to the current condition,"

Diwu Qian thought for a moment and said, "I think Yun Yangzi can win, but I always feel that I can't see through John Doe, so I don't know who will be stronger."

"After hearing what you said, I'm now interested in this John Doe."

The middle-aged man said with a laugh.

"Hmm?"

Diwu Qian was stunned.

"It's a pity. If A Ying can be a bit more normal, she should be able to explore more into John Doe's situation."

When the laughter gradually faded, the middle-aged man said, "After half a month, I will go to the peak of Luoyin Mountain."

"Ah?"

Diwu Qian was obviously stunned.

She could never imagine that her father would actually come and watch the competition between the two young men?

Surprisingly, the middle-aged man put on a serious look and said, “We, the older generation, are also looking forward to the battle between the geniuses of the next generation. I’m not the only one who is looking forward to it. I’m afraid that the other patriarchs will also be unable to sit still.”

“If all the heads of the major families come out... I’m afraid something serious is going to happen in Wulin!”

After leaving Luo Yin Mountain, Fang Qiu went straight back to Jiangjing.

At the University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine, this was heaven for medical practitioners. It was a college of traditional Chinese Medicine that all medical students dreamed of entering. All the students here focused on learning Chinese Medicine. They would never know about the heated discussions in Wulin.

The only person that had any connections with Wulin was Fang Qiu.

However, Fang Qiu did not pay attention to it at all.

As for Fang Qiu, the only thing he had to do now was to find a way to improve his strength.

If he wanted to defeat Yun Yangzi with his strength of recultivation, he had to break through to the seventh class in half a month!

Based on the current situation where his Internal Qi was flowing out of the 12 standard meridians, it would take a long time for him to break through to the seventh class.

“It seems that I have to figure out a way.”

Because the National Day holiday was over, Zhu Benzhen and the other two were back to school. Due to the recruitment of some workers and the help of the interns who were in their fifth year in medicine in Beijiang, there was nothing for them to do for the time being. People in Beijiang merely needed to follow Zhao Shanlin's instructions.

Fang Qiu also learned about the progress from the three roommates.

He knew that they would be able to pick the first batch of Desert Cistanche in a week.

After learning the news, Fang Qiu also understood that when the first batch of Desert Cistanche could be picked, it would be the time when the business of Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation officially took off!

That night, Fang Qiu talked with his three roommates about the cultivation base and the company, for a long time.

Then, Fang Qiu stayed in school for another two days and behaved generally as a model student. During these two days, he also took the opportunity to dine with Jiang Miaoyu, chat with her, go to self-study classes, take walks together and so on.

Meanwhile, he also took the opportunity to take a rest and quietly watched the internal Qi of the 12 standard meridians continue to flow out.

The next night,

"Beep, beep, beep..."

Fang Qiu's cell phone suddenly rang.

He took it out and had a look.

It was He Gaoming.

“Hello?”

Fang Qiu answered the phone.

“Master, you’ve tricked your disciple to the extreme, haven’t you?”

He Gaoming’s woeful voice came from the other end of the phone.

“What’s wrong?”

Fang Qiu was stunned.

“Didn’t you ask me to stay at Long Qiyun’s house? I did not dare to go out with my sword these few days and stayed at Long Qiyun’s house all the time. This guy pestered me for my sword every day, saying that he would take it in return for the rent for staying at his house during these days. It’s been three days and I have not practiced my sword properly yet.”

He Gaoming said with a wry smile, “How could you solve all the problems without telling me?”

“Uh...”

Fang Qiu was dumbfounded.

He really forgot about it.

He had assumed that He Gaoming would go back to Jiangjing by himself after hearing the news, but he did not expect that He Gaoming had been fighting with Long Qiyun for the sword in the past three days, so he did not have the time to pay attention to what had happened on the Wulin forum.

“If Long Qiyun hadn’t come to ask me to pay the rent and I hadn’t taken time to check the Wulin forum because I was worried that something had happened to you, I would have had to stay here forever. Sooner or later, I would have been annoyed to death by Long Qiyun.”

He Gaoming continued to complain.

“Long Qiyun has generously lent his place to you to cast the sword. Just take it as compensation. And the 8 million hasn’t come in yet.”

Fang Qiu gave a wry smile.

“You made a point.”

Hearing that, He Gaoming immediately thought it through and said, “Without his help, I would not have been able to get such a good sword.”

“Forget it. I’ve taken advantage of this guy these two days. Forget about 8 million. Since you’ve destroyed their sect, we don’t need any more money.”

He Gaoming changed the topic and immediately became excited. He said, “Master, do you believe in karma? The retribution suffered by the Luo Yin Sect really makes me happy!”

“What kind of retribution is it?”

Fang Qiu was stunned.

“Yeah!”

He Gaoming immediately nodded and said, “What you did can only be regarded as punishment. You maimed them but didn’t kill them, which is very generous of you. Recently, there is news on the forum that those people of the Luoyin Sect have been attacked by their enemies. Those who dealt with them were all the people who were bullied by them back then. In the past, their sects were so powerful that no one dared to provoke them. When people were bullied, they could only shut their mouths and swallow their anger.”

“After you maimed them, they lost their strength and there was no powerful force behind them. Of course, those who had been bullied by them should let them experience the pain of being bullied right away.”

“You might not know that those who have been humiliated by the Luo Yin Sect are now very grateful to you.”

Fang Qiu smiled and said, “This is the spirit of martial arts practitioners. It’s our duty to punish rebels and eliminate the evil.”

“By the way, there’s one more thing.”

He Gaoming paused and said, “A few days ago, I have been getting calls from strangers. I thought that I was targeted by some fraud organization, so I did not dare to answer those calls. Until today, when I saw the news on the forum, I picked up a call from a caller who has been persistently calling me. Only then did I know that these people who contacted me were all martial arts practitioners. They all wanted to get to know you.”

“Do you want to meet them?”

“No.”

Fang Qiu curled his lips and said, “Don’t spend your time on these useless things. If you have that much energy, work harder to improve your power. What if your opponent scares you to death next time?”

He Gaoming was speechless when he heard that.

“Okay, I got it.”

Although he said so, He Gaoming was complaining in his heart, "If you don't create any trouble, I'm sure I'll be fine!"

He hung up.

Fang Qiu, who was walking up Yaowang Mountain, felt a breeze blowing past him. Then, his whole body trembled and he immediately closed his eyes.

"Soon, there's still a trace of internal Qi left!"

Even with his eyes closed, Fang Qiu's face was still filled with surprise.

There was only a little bit left before they were replenished.

However, it would still take a few days to fill this gap. Only when it was full would his meridians be opened!
