Chapter 771: Awarded Top Ten Youths!

Unexpectedly, Fang Qiu found that after the battle with Diwu Qian, the internal Qi of his 12 standard meridians in his body overflowed naturally at a much faster speed. It was even faster than when he intentionally stimulated it in the battle.

The moment this feeling occurred, Fang Qiu immediately closed his eyes to explore. As a result, he found that he was only one step away from breaking through to the seventh class.

“Spur with long accumulation?”

Enjoying the feeling that he was about to make a breakthrough, Fang Qiu beamed in surprise.

Under these circumstances, it seemed that his strength had suddenly improved a lot.

But in fact, that was not the case.

After reaching the peak of the sixth class, Fang Qiu still practiced every day. During this period of time, he also experienced numerous battles. During these battles, his strength was enhanced, little by little.

Although he had broken through to the seventh class once, the re-cultivation this time opened up the 12 standard meridians in his body, so that they were much wider than before. The Internal Qi that he needed to accumulate would also be much stronger.

As the 12 standard meridians turned into Eight Extraordinary Meridians, the first change would happen in this body. Only when his body was strong enough would he have a chance of impacting the Eight Extraordinary Meridians. Otherwise, his body would explode before the meridians could be opened.

In this case, after breaking through to the peak of the sixth class, the Internal Qi that should have overflowed would naturally spread to the whole body to strengthen it.

And now, after the two continuous battles, Fang Qiu's body had been completely strengthened. Then, all the internal Qi that had overflowed had accumulated and was about to make a breakthrough.

It was also because of this that Fang Qiu had reached this stage in such a short time.

"It seems that I don't need to struggle to cultivate. I just need to wait quietly for the day of the breakthrough to come."

After feeling it, Fang Qiu opened his eyes with a grin and left Yaowang Mountain.

Two days later, the winners of the Top Ten Youths awards in the world were officially announced.

Fang Qiu was on the list and was the only person in Huaxia who had ever received this award.

Of course, this award was a symbol of world-class honor and there were no so-called rankings among the ten people on the list.

As soon as the news came out, there was a heated discussion online in Huaxia.

Everyone was exceptionally thrilled.

In particular, some Weibo celebrities even reposted the news one after another, gushing forth with all kinds of flattering remarks about Fang Qiu.

The netizens were also celebrating.

"As I said, Fang Qiu would definitely be selected!"

“Haha, Fang Qiu is awesome.”

“He is one of the Top Ten Youths in the world. This is not a national selection.”

“Fang Qiu is incredible. Those foreigners are not in favor of Chinese Medicine and it is not even recognized by them. But Fang Qiu managed to bring Chinese Medicine to the world stage. He even won the honor of being one of the world’s top ten outstanding young people with his Chinese Medicine skills. He is really awesome!”

Not only Fang Qiu’s fans but also those who barely knew him praised him wholeheartedly.

After all, there were only ten people in the world who could receive this honor every year. Few people could win one of the places on behalf of Huaxia.

At the University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine.

“Beep, beep, beep...”

Fang Qiu’s cell phone kept ringing.

Of course, it was not a phone call.

Instead, there were many WeChat messages and text messages.

In the beginning, Fang Qiu wondered if something serious had happened, but when he checked the message, he eventually knew that he had received an award.

Immediately, he checked the text messages, one by one.

The first person to send his congratulations was Director Li Huawen.

“Congratulations, you’re one of the top ten outstanding young men in the world now. You’re going to be a hit again, haha.”

Seeing this message, Fang Qiu smiled slightly. He did not expect that Director Li Huawen still remembered him.

However, after thinking about it carefully, he did rise to fame through the Young Chinese Medicine Doctor show. Although he was already slightly famous before that, he did gain popularity while participating in the show.

He continued to swipe his phone.

It was a text message from Jiang Mengjie.

“Congratulations, smart guy. You have not finished college yet. But you are already one of the top ten outstanding young people in the world now. It might be difficult for you to exceed this achievement in the future. So I want to congratulate you on reaching the highest point.”

It was followed by text messages from Xu Miaolin, Dr. Shen Chun, Zhao Shanlin, Liu Feifei, Qi Kaiwen, Chen Yinsheng and many others. Fang Qiu checked them one by one and replied with thanks.

As he was checking his phone, it suddenly rang.

“Beep, beep, beep...”

“Dad?”

Seeing the caller ID, Fang Qiu suddenly became serious.

Since he was in high school, he had been away from home for many years. It was always his mother who called him. He had never received a call from his father.

Without hesitation, Fang Qiu immediately answered the phone.

"Dad?"

Fang Qiu could not believe it. After answering the phone, he asked cautiously.

"Yeah."

As expected, Fang Qiu's father's voice came from the other end of the phone. He said, "I asked your mother to call you, but your mother forgot to pay her phone bill."

"Oh." Fang Qiu gave a wry smile.

"Well."

Fang Qiu's father said, "I'll just say a few words to you. After that, I'll let your mother talk to you."

"Okay."

Fang Qiu nodded and immediately listened carefully.

"A person can't be too high-profiled or too low-key in his life. He can't have too much honor, but might still need a little of it. I've seen your efforts in the past few years and I hope you can continue."

Fang Qiu's father's tone was very serious and he spoke rather slowly. It seemed that he wanted Fang Qiu to hear every word clearly.

“However, people can’t only live for the honor. You are an individual. What you need to do most in your whole life is to live for yourself. It is the most important purpose to spend your life in the most comfortable way. Many people get lost and go astray because they encountered too many external effects and temptation.”

“Do you understand what I’m saying?”

Fang Qiu’s father asked.

“Never forget how I started out.”

Fang Qiu said with a smile, “Dad, your son is definitely focused.”

“Okay.”

Mr. Fang smiled and said, “I’ll let your mom talk to you.”

As soon as he finished speaking.

“Son, you’re amazing.”

On the other end of the line, his mother’s voice came.

Fang Qiu said with a grin, “Mom, don’t get too excited.”

“How can I not be excited?”

Fang Qiu’s mother said, “You’re one of the top ten outstanding young people in the world. How can I not be excited? I heard that there’s going to be some kind of ceremony. You must put on something nice when you attend it. Don’t embarrass me.”

“Let’s talk about it later.”

Fang Qiu had not decided whether to attend the award ceremony or not.

With the reposting of various influencers on Weibo and the heated discussion among fans and other people following this matter, Fang Qiu once again surged to the top of the trending topic on Weibo.

The number of his followers on Weibo was also close to 40 million!

Even many celebrities became Fang Qiu’s fans.

After having the phone call with his parents, Fang Qiu replied to all the messages and WeChat messages. Then he logged into Weibo with his phone. Amidst the well wishes from everyone, he sent a post on Weibo, which only had three words written in it—Thank you all!

That afternoon,

“Beep, beep, beep...”

Fang Qiu received a phone call from an unknown foreign number. Worried about the high expense of the international direct dial, he hung up several times in a row. But the unknown caller would not stop calling. He had no choice but to answer the phone.

“Is it Mr. Fang Qiu?”

A respectful voice came from the other end of the phone. It was someone speaking in English.

“Yes, I’m Fang Qiu.”

Fang Qiu nodded in response.

“Hello, this is the International Youth Chamber of Commerce. First of all, congratulations to you for winning the award of being one of the Top Ten Youths in the world, which was held by our organization. Also, thank you for your contributions to the world this year.”

The person said on the phone.

“Thank you.”

Fang Qiu responded politely.

“Our awards ceremony will be held in three days. I hope you’ll be there at that time.”

Fang Qiu hesitated for a moment and then declined the invitation.

This trip would require him to go abroad. Fang Qiu still had plenty of important things to do next. There was not much time left before his battle with Yun Yangzi. Prior to that, Fang Qiu had to break through to the seventh class before he could have a big fight with Yun Yangzi.

Under these circumstances, it was better not to go abroad.

Only Fang Qiu knew about the invitation. The International Youth Chamber of Commerce did not make it public.

That night, the outside world was still filled with congratulatory messages for Fang Qiu.

Fang Qiu then received another call.

This time, it was also an unknown number, but this number was from Huaxia.

“Hello?”

Fang Qiu answered the phone.

“Is it Fang Qiu?”

A slightly anxious sounding voice came from the other end of the phone.

“Speaking. What’s the matter?”

Fang Qiu asked.

“I’m the representative of Bamboo Forest Group. We met each other at your advertisement auction.”

The person on the other end of the line said.

“Hello.”

Fang Qiu nodded.

“I’m calling to ask you something. After the auction, are you still keeping the promise you made to us when you asked us 10 companies to establish a health management department?”

The man asked.

Fang Qiu immediately thought of the condition he had promised the ten companies before—A chance to cure cancer!

“Hmm?”

Fang Qiu was stunned.

The man reminded him.

“Of course.”

Fang Qiu nodded immediately.

“Okay.”

The man’s tone relaxed. He immediately explained, “Actually, our chairman’s father has just been told that he is in the middle stage of cancer, so the chairman asked me to contact you. He hopes you can help with the treatment.”

“No problem.”

Fang Qiu nodded immediately and said, “Tell me the address. I’ll be there right away.”

“No. 18 of the 3rd building in the Imperial Garden, Capital.”

The man said.

“Okay, tell your chairman that I’m coming right now. I’ll be there tomorrow morning.”

After saying that, Fang Qiu hung up.

Then he booked a plane ticket and rushed to the airport.

Early the next morning, when Fang Qiu arrived at the place, he found that it was actually a private sanatorium.

This sanatorium was really big. Every old person who lived here had a small courtyard. It seemed that it catered specially for the rich.

When Fang Qiu arrived at the sanatorium, a middle-aged man and a middle-aged woman came out to greet him.

“Hello, Doctor Fang.”

As soon as the middle-aged man came to him, he immediately shook hands with Fang Qiu and said, “I’m Lin Jinzhu and this is Zhang Yuan, the director of the sanatorium.”

“Doctor Fang, you are finally here. If you did not turn up, President Lin will be worried to death.”

Medical Master

Chapter 772: They Even Want To Worship You!

“How can I not be anxious?”

Lin Jinzhu took a deep breath and his brows were tightly furrowed.

“Director Zhang, nice to meet you.”

Fang Qiu greeted Zhang Yuan with a smile and studied the two of them.

Lin Jinzhu, the chairman of Bamboo Forest, was a renowned entrepreneur in the country. He treated his employees well and often gave benefits to them. It was due to this that he was much more famous than some business tycoons.

He wore a white shirt and a thin coat. He had a buzz cut and a square face. He was in his forties and was in good shape.

Zhang Yuan, who was standing next to him, was a woman in her thirties.

She wore a protective suit which covered every part of her body and was bespectacled, Nothing could be seen. At first glance, she seemed like a very meticulous woman.

“Dr. Fang, let’s go in and have a look at my father first.”

Lin Jinzhu said nervously.

“Okay.”

Fang Qiu nodded.

“Mr. Lin, don’t worry. Dr. Fang has cured so many terminal diseases. With him here, your father’s illness will definitely be cured.”

After saying that, Zhang Yuan turned to look at Fang Qiu and asked, “Is that right, Dr. Xiao Fang?”

“I’ll try my best.”

Fang Qiu answered modestly with a smile.

Then.

Led by Lin Jinzhu and Zhang Yuan, Fang Qiu walked into the sanatorium, where there was a yard with a rockery and a small lake.

At this time, an old man in his 60s with grey hair was lying on a hospital bed in the room. There was also a woman in her 20s in the room who was taking care of him.

“Well, Yang, you can leave now.”

After entering the room, Zhang Yuan directly asked the staff of the sanatorium to leave.

“President Lin, I’ll leave this to you and Dr. Fang. Call me if you need anything.”

Zhang Yuan did not even enter the room. She said this with a smile as she stood at the door.

“Okay.”

Lin Jinzhu nodded.

Fang Qiu smiled to himself when he saw that.

It was evident that Zhang Yuan was a little afraid.

Although Lin Jinzhu was not short of money, as the head running the sanatorium, it was not a good idea for her to get involved with this kind of matter. Therefore, she asked the staff to leave and she also left. In this way, no matter what happened when Fang Qiu was giving the treatment, it had nothing to do with her sanatorium.

How could Lin Jinzhu not be aware of this?

“Dr. Fang, what do you think?”

After they left, Lin Jinzhu pointed at the sleeping old man on the bed.

“Let me have a look first.”

Fang Qiu made a gesture of keeping quiet, indicating that they should not disturb the old man’s rest.

Lin Jinzhu nodded with understanding.

Then.

Fang Qiu then went straight to the old man’s bed.

He gently placed his hand on the old man’s chest. His internal Qi surged out and his mental power followed closely behind.

He channeled his mental power.

The condition of the old man’s body appeared in Fang Qiu’s mind right away.

The old man was suffering from lung cancer.

The lung tumor was not big, but his entire lung was black. It seemed that his condition was very serious.

“How is it?”

Lin Jinzhu asked in a low voice.

“Has your father been smoking for a long time?”

Fang Qiu asked.

“Almost all the people from the older generation smoke. And he basically smokes tobacco leaves.”

Lin Jinzhu nodded.

“In addition to smoking, your father also suffered from rheumatic pains when he was young, right?”

Fang Qiu asked.

In the examination just now, he clearly discovered that most of the joints of the old man’s hands and feet were very damp and his arthritis was also very serious.

“Yes, yes, yes.”

Lin Jinzhu nodded his head repeatedly.

How could Fang Qiu diagnose his father’s illness so clearly simply by putting his hand on his father’s body?

“Dr. Fang, can this be cured?”

Lin Jinzhu frowned and whispered in Fang Qiu’s ear, “I’m ready. No matter what happens, you can tell me. I can accept it.”

“Don’t worry.”

Fang Qiu said with a smile, “I can cure this.”

“Really?”

Lin Jinzhu was extremely surprised.

“Well, let’s not disturb the old man’s sleep. Let him rest.”

Fang Qiu nodded in agreement.

“Thank you, thank you.”

Lin Jinzhu was so excited that he did not know what to say.

“I’ll start.”

Fang Qiu walked to the edge of the bed and reached out his right hand gently to where the old man’s lungs were. Then, he mobilized his internal Qi again and slowly channeled it into the old man’s body.

With the flow of internal Qi, the old man’s body moved a little, but he seemed to be sleeping soundly.

Lin Jinzhu stood at the side and looked at Fang Qiu’s treatment, not daring to breathe heavily.

It was like what he did before.

After the internal Qi was directed into his body, Fang Qiu immediately began to treat the old man with the blood circulation method and removal of blood stasis. Because the tumor was not too big, Fang Qiu did not spend too much internal Qi to help the old man resolve it.

Then.

Fang Qiu also mobilized his internal Qi to clean the old man's lung and detoxify the toxins. After that, he transported the internal Qi to all the joints of the old man's hands and feet to treat the inflammation and eliminate the dampness at the same time.

After doing all this, Fang Qiu stopped.

Beside him, Lin Jinzhu was so thrilled that his face turned red.

He found that in the process of Fang Qiu's treatment, his father's face, which had been pale for a long time, turned ruddy. He also seemed to be in a much better state than before.

It was obvious that his father's condition had improved. As for whether he would recover or not, it would depend on what Fang Qiu said.

The treatment was complete.

Fang Qiu pointed to the outside, indicating that they should go out first.

Lin Jinzhu nodded with understanding, followed behind Fang Qiu and went out.

Outside the room.

"Dr. Fang, how is my father?"

Lin Jinzhu asked.

"He's all right now."

Fang Qiu said with a smile, "There were too many toxins in your father's lung, so that caused a tumor to form. Although I've cured the tumor for your father and removed the toxins in his lung, according to what you said before, you'd better help him quit smoking. This is very essential for his health."

“Is he really cured?”

Lin Jinzhu asked in surprise.

“Yes.”

Fang Qiu nodded affirmatively and said, “After your father wakes up, you can bring him to have a thorough examination. I have also cured his rheumatism. Apart from quitting smoking, remember to let him do more exercises every day to enhance his immunity.”

“Okay.”

Lin Jinzhu smiled jubilantly and said, “Please be assured. I will definitely make him quit smoking and exercise with him every day.”

“That’s good.”

Fang Qiu nodded and said, “If there’s nothing else, I’ll leave first.”

“Dr. Fang, since you’re already here, why don’t we have a meal together and talk about our next cooperation?”

Lin Jinzhu said with some expectation.

“Okay.”

Fang Qiu nodded.

In fact, Fang Qiu knew that the main reason why Lin Jinzhu wanted him to stay was because his father's condition had not been confirmed yet, so he asked him to stay.

Fang Qiu did not refuse.

Since he had made a promise, he had to fulfill it.

Anyway, Fang Qiu did not have anything important to do, so he could afford to wait for one or two hours.

Then.

Lin Jinzhu booked a restaurant to treat Fang Qiu to a meal.

On the way to the restaurant, he deliberately made a phone call and asked someone to take his father to the hospital for an examination.

Soon, the results of the examination came out while they were having dinner.

His father's disease was cured. When they got the result, not only the people he sent, but even the doctors in the hospital were stunned.

The doctor discovered that the old man's lungs seemed to have changed completely, which was entirely different from before.

Even his arthritis was cured.

From an old man who was sick from head to toe, he had turned into a very healthy old man. This change shocked everyone.

In the restaurant.

“Dr. Fang.”

After answering the phone and confirming that his father’s illness was completely healed, Lin Jinzhu did not hesitate at all. He immediately took out a check and handed it to Fang Qiu, saying, “The limit of this check is 100 million. In order to thank you for curing my father, you can fill in as much as you want, within 100 million yuan.”

“No need.”

Fang Qiu directly shook his head and refused, saying, “We have already agreed that this is a condition between me and the ten companies. If I accept this check, the meaning of this treatment will be completely altered.”

“It seems that Dr. Fang is a very cautious man.”

Lin Jinzhu said jokingly, “I also heard that Dr. Fang treated Yang Ningyuan and collected 100 million yuan for his treatment. That’s why I wanted this chance for the treatment. But since Dr. Fang is unwilling to accept it, I will not force you. I just hope that we can continue to cooperate in the future. You need to count me in if there’s any business opportunity.”

“I will.”

Fang Qiu smiled.

He was not annoyed by Lin Jinzhu’s actions because he was also doing business now. He also knew that if he was a businessman, he would try his best to gain benefits for himself.

“I can assure you.”

Lin Jinzhu said, “Your seniors, who are from the Department of Chinese Medicine of University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine, will never be treated unfairly in our company.”

“Thank you very much, Mr. Lin.”

Fang Qiu thanked him.

Then.

After dinner, Fang Qiu left the restaurant directly, but he did not go back to Jiangjing. Instead, he booked a plane ticket to Beijiāng and went there directly.

Not long after Fang Qiu left, the news that he had cured Lin Jinzhu’s father quickly reached the ears of the chairmen of the other nine companies and the three video websites.

The chairmen of the 12 companies were overjoyed.

In the beginning, they were really after the unique condition set by Fang Qiu. After all, no one in the world dared to make such an offer except for Fang Qiu.

But later, they began to doubt whether Fang Qiu could really cure cancer.

Now, when this piece of good news came out, they were even more positive.

Fortunately, they had agreed at the beginning. Now it seemed that this condition was equivalent to a life!

In Beijiāng.

As soon as Fang Qiu got off the plane, his cell phone rang.

He took out his phone and had a look.

It was a call from Yang Ningyuan.

“Hello?”

Fang Qiu answered the call.

“Haha, Dr. Fang, you’re awesome. Now those advertisers are going to worship you.”

Yang Ningyuan’s voice came from the other end of the phone.

“You’re exaggerating.”

Fang Qiu smiled modestly.

“That’s not exaggerating.”

Yang Ningyuan shook his head with a smile and asked, “By the way, my Desert Cistanche should be mature now, right?”

Medical Master

Chapter 773: Trillium Root-Securing Pill Was Done!

“I just arrived at Beijiang. If things are going well, it should be time.”

Fang Qiu responded and then added, “I’m on my way to the cultivation base. I’ll call you when I get to the base.”

“Okay, I’ll wait for your good news.”

Yang Ningyuan laughed with satisfaction.

He hung up.

Fang Qiu took a taxi and rushed to the cultivation base.

When he arrived at the base, he found that the staff of the cultivation base was harvesting the Desert Cistanche under the guidance of Zhao Shanlin.

“Are they mature?”

Fang Qiu felt overjoyed when he entered the base.

The cultivation base was located in a remote place, so there were very few cars or pedestrians. Therefore, as soon as the taxi arrived, it attracted Zhao Shanlin’s attention.

Catching sight of Fang Qiu, Zhao Shanlin immediately came up to him.

“Isn’t the school holiday just over? Why are you here all of a sudden?”

Zhao Shanlin asked.

“I calculated the time and figured that the first batch of Desert Cistanche should be mature, so I came to have a look.”

After saying that, Fang Qiu added, “Well, I just got off the plane and Yang Ningyuan has already called to ask about the supply time.”

“Haha.”

Zhao Shanlin laughed and said, "It's just the right time. The first batch of Desert Cistanche is a great harvest!"

"Let me have a look."

Fang Qiu nodded with a smile and stepped into the cultivation area.

"It is still a little small."

Gazing at Desert Cistanche being picked by the workers, Fang Qiu said with some regret.

"This is not considered small."

Zhao Shanlin shook his head and said, "These Desert Cistanches are already very big. Of course, the older they grow, the better their efficacy will be. However, there is no need to think about the efficacy of the Desert Cistanche we grow. Even those old plants that have been growing for 20 or 30 years may not be as good as our plants. Although they don't look big, they are not small either. If they are wild Desert Cistanche, it is good that they were able to grow from seedlings in such a short time."

"Mr. Zhao, what I mean is that if the Desert Cistanche is a bit bigger, our company's profits will be a bit higher."

Fang Qiu asked with a smile, "Is there any other chance to make it grow bigger without losing any of its property?"

"No."

Zhao Shanlin immediately shook his head and said, "All the methods related to making it ripen faster will cause great harm to the medicine itself. Haste makes waste."

"However, there are no absolute rules."

Speaking of this, Zhao Shanlin grinned and added, "Although I don't have the method now, let me study it for a while. Maybe I can find out more."

"Thank you very much, Mr. Zhao."

Fang Qiu nodded with a smile.

"That's what I should do."

Zhao Shanlin responded and said, "You can watch here. I have to supervise these workers. I can't let them spoil my plants. And I also need to prepare for the preservation."

"You don't have to store it."

Fang Qiu thought for a moment and said, "I'll go to the warehouse to have a look. If it's almost the same, I'll call the truck directly and supply the first batch. After all, I've collected the deposit."

"That will do. Desert Cistanche in the field can be collected in two hours at most. You can take them out when the time comes."

As soon as Zhao Shanlin finished speaking, he immediately went to supervise the workers.

Looking at Zhao Shanlin's back, Fang Qiu was glad that he had found such a good partner.

Not only was he skilled, but he was also extremely responsible for the Desert Cistanche that he cultivated. With such a partner, they were bound to succeed.

Fang Qiu believed that even if there was no terrain, with Zhao Shanlin's strength and great responsibility, he would definitely be able to establish the company!

After Zhao Shanlin left, Fang Qiu immediately strode toward the warehouse.

As soon as he arrived at the door of the warehouse, a burst of anxious cries could be heard.

“Coo, coo...”

It was the Tianshan Rat Hare.

Hearing the little fellow’s cries, Fang Qiu quickly stepped into the warehouse, for fear that the little fellow would be brash enough to secretly eat Desert Cistanche in the warehouse.

When he walked into the warehouse, he found that the little fellow was running back and forth in front of the shelf where the Desert Cistanche was stored. It cried out anxiously as if its treasure had been taken away.

Fang Qiu could not help but chuckle when he saw that.

“Coo, coo, coo...”

Hearing Fang Qiu’s laughter, the Tianshan Rat Hare turned its head. When it saw Fang Qiu, it kicked its strong hind legs and immediately jumped in front of Fang Qiu. It stretched out its short forelimb, pointed at the Desert Cistanche being picked and cried out loudly.

“Okay, I know.”

Fang Qiu squatted down and looked at the little hare with a smile. Then he reached out to point at the harvested plants and said, “These things were originally planted to be sold, not for you.”

“Coo, coo, coo!”

Upon hearing this, the little hare immediately straightened up and put on a very domineering look. It pointed to the outside and cried out as if it were saying that if it weren't for me, those poisonous insects would have eaten up all these Desert Cistanche!

"Don't worry."

Fang Qiu reached out and patted the hare's head, saying, "These things can be planted again. We will have more after they are picked up. After we finish collecting it and send it away, the new batch will soon be planted. At that time, you can still eat it. And I will definitely keep some for you to ensure that you get to eat it every day for the next few days. What do you think?"

"Coo..."

The little hare nodded and then pointed to the ground outside.

"Don't worry. The ones in the middle will not be picked. It will not affect your sleep."

Fang Qiu said.

Hearing these words, the little hare turned his head and unwillingly glanced at the full shelves. After that, it jumped all the way out and went to sleep.

After he comforted the little hare, Fang Qiu glanced around the warehouse and then called Yang Ningyuan.

"Mr. Fang, how is it?"

Yang Ningyuan's teasing voice came from the other end of the phone.

"We have harvested a lot from the cultivation base. It's estimated that we can deliver them in two hours. You can prepare for it. I guess you can start work tomorrow or the day after tomorrow."

Fang Qiu said.

“Okay.”

Yang Ningyuan said in surprise, “You should know that the pharmaceutical factory has been suspended for nearly a month and the workers can hardly wait any longer. Now there’s finally news. I’ll tell the news to the workers of the factory and ask them to make preparations first. They need to check the equipment and set up the production line!”

He hung up.

The two of them started their work.

Fang Qiu found a big truck and watched it carry away the Desert Cistanche. On the other side, Yang Ningyuan started informing the employees of the pharmaceutical factory to collect data about the factory, test the machines of the factory and so on.

The workers who had stopped their work for a month, were jubilant and excited when they heard that they could start working.

The company’s business had been in a mess for so long and they were worried that they would lose their jobs and would not be able to support their families. Now they were finally reassured. At least they were able to keep their jobs.

The trucks carrying the Desert Cistanche drove into the pharmaceutical factory.

All the departments in the factory also began operations and started to process the herbs.

That night, Fang Qiu came to the factory with Yang Ningyuan to have a look at the first batch of Trillium Root-Securing Pill that had just been produced.

Although since the beginning of the announcement, the pills had nothing to do with Fang Qiu.

But Fang Qiu was also well aware.

Sooner or later, his identity as the supplier would be made public.

Therefore, no matter what it took, he had to thoroughly examine the effects of this Trillium Root-Securing Pill to see if it would work.

They arrived at the pharmaceutical factory.

Fang Qiu accompanied Yang Ning to walk around the factory. When they arrived at the finished product package area, he picked up a box of the packed Trillium Root-Securing Pill and scrutinized it.

It turned out that the serial number on the package was not the number of the medicine.

“Why is this serial number for the health product but not for the medicine?”

Fang Qiu asked.

“Do you think it’s easy to get the serial number for the medicine?”

Yang Ningyuan shook his head and said, “It’s very troublesome to make the new medicine. It will take at least a few years and there will be a lot of clinical experiments. I spent quite a fortune to buy the serial number for this health product from others. If I follow the normal procedure, it will take at least two and a half years to get it.”

“Is it that difficult?”

Fang Qiu didn’t expect it either.

He had just learned about the serial numbers of medicine and the health products. He knew that it was very difficult to get the serial numbers of medicine, but he didn't know that it would also be so hard to get the serial number for the health products.

"Of course."

Yang Ningyuan sighed softly and said, "As for the serial number, in fact, the serial number for food is the simplest. Now there are a lot of health products that actually use the serial number of some foods, but they term them as health products. This method is just purely to fool customers. When I knew that the serial number of the medicine and health product was difficult to get, I originally wanted to turn it into food, but after thinking about it, I found it inappropriate. After all, this is a medicinal product and the advertisement has been made, so I simply bought a serial number of the health product."

"Oh, I see."

Fang Qiu nodded with understanding.

Although he wanted to start a company and intentionally wanted to learn something about the serial number, Fang Qiu didn't expect that there were so many things behind it.

He had to keep these things in mind. In the future, he would have to apply them when he was developing medicine.

"This product is ready. Shall we find someone to have a try?"

Yang Ningyuan took the packed Trillium Root-Securing Pill from Fang Qiu's hand and said with great expectation.

"Okay."

Fang Qiu smiled faintly.

Just now, when he got the Trillium Root-Securing Pill, he clearly sensed that it contained the Qi of Heaven and Earth. Although it was rare, it did exist.

Since there was the Qi of Heaven and Earth, then he did not need to worry about the effect of the Trillium Root-Securing Pill.

It could be said that Fang Qiu had examined it, so there was no longer any sense of expectation.

Soon, Yang Ningyuan found someone to test the pill.

When he took it, Yang Ningyuan rubbed his hands and looked forward to the results.

Fang Qiu, on the other hand, was smiling faintly.

More than ten minutes later, Yang Ningyuan received a report and found that the effect of the Trillium Root-Securing Pill was very obvious!

Hearing the report, Yang Ningyuan could not help being excited because all of this was developing according to his and Fang Qiu's plan.

The Trillium Root-Securing Pill, which would be their first step to shock the medicine industry, was launched!

Medical Master

Chapter 774: Expensive Promotion!

"Thank you, thank you."

After confirming the efficacy of the pill, Yang Ningyuan was so excited that he held Fang Qiu's hand and said, "Brother Fang, your Trillium Root-Securing Pill is really a good thing!"

“Are you trying to give me an extra bonus by thanking me like that?”

Fang Qiu asked with a smile.

“Well...”

Yang Ningyuan looked at Fang Qiu and said, “We’re brothers. We don’t need those things to show our relationship.”

Fang Qiu laughed out loud.

“By the way.”

Fang Qiu stopped, pursed his lips and asked, “The factory is restarting and the pills will be in production. Now it’s time to do the marketing. How are you going to play the game?”

“Hehe.”

Yang Ningyuan laughed and said, “I’m going to create a big statement!”

“Oh? A big statement?”

Fang Qiu was curious.

“Just wait and see.”

Yang Ningyuan said mysteriously.

That night.

After Fang Qiu returned to Jiangjing.

On the official Weibo of Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation, a notice was released.

“The first-batch production of our company’s main product—Trillium Root-Securing Pill has been completed. I will not describe the specific efficacy of the product here. If there are any friends who want to know more, you can check out the official website of Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation. Although the first batch of products has been completed, in order to dispel any doubts about our company’s product, our leaders had a discussion and decided that we will not put it on the market for the time being.”

“Also, in order to prevent anyone from questioning the effect of Trillium Root-Securing Pill, our company has decided to gather 100 people to try out the medicine. Those who are qualified to try it will get tickets, accommodation and meals for free. Every volunteer who comes will get 3,000 yuan as a volunteer fee, issued by our company on the spot. The cutoff time will be 12 p.m. tonight. After that, volunteers will be randomly selected and their tickets will be booked immediately.”

“Gentle reminder: Those who suffer from asthenic yin causing excessive pyrexia, Yang heat, or weakness of spleen and stomach, please do not sign up.”

That was a long post.

They listed all the relevant information, time, location and other details very clearly on Weibo.

Although it was late at night, it immediately attracted a lot of attention as soon as this post appeared.

“It’s been produced?”

“If it really has the same effect as what you said on the official website, this thing is comparable to an elixir.”

“I always thought it was fake, but I didn’t expect it to really be produced?”

“What the f*ck. Let’s put aside the actual effect of this Trillium Root-Securing Pill. Just look at this gesture. It’s so generous! They actually dared to directly select 100 people. The expense of food, accommodation, tickets and so on might cost millions. One could easily spend about ten thousand for one person. Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Company is really rich. It’s really generous!”

“Awesome! I’ve tried cakes, drinks, milk and so on, but this is the first time I’ve heard of trying drugs!”

“Aren’t you afraid of killing someone in the trials?”

“They must be so confident of their medicine that they dare to do this.”

“How on earth would anyone dare to do this? It will be fine if nothing happens during this event, but if anything happens, it would cause death!”

“The most important thing is that they are giving people money. They are giving 3,000 yuan to each person and it would be 300,000 yuan for 100 people. People can make money and get free travel. How generous!”

Within half an hour, the number of comments had reached 100,000 and was still growing wildly under the official Weibo account of the Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation. As people spread the news, more and more people came to know about it. The number of people who signed up for it kept increasingly at a rapid rate.

Fang Qiu returned to Jiangjing and got off the high-speed train.

He immediately took out his mobile phone and logged into Weibo.

He knew that if Yang Ningyuan wanted to make a big statement, he would definitely not be able to avoid Weibo and the news media because, in this era, the platform with the fastest spreading speed and a wide range of audience was Weibo.

As soon as he logged in, Fang Qiu instantly saw the official Weibo post of the Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation.

“Such a generous move.”

Viewing this Weibo, as well as the heated comments and registration numbers, Fang Qiu was stunned.

He did not expect that Yang Ningyuan would make such a move.

“Trial to take the medicine?”

This had never happened in the history of both the business world and the pharmaceutical industry.

The medicine tryout would attract numerous people’s attention because it was a very novel thing in the first place. Could the medicine be used as a trial?

“Can the medicine still be classified as drugs if it can be tried?”

While attracting the public’s interest, they even gave out money.

This was purely using money to gain attention. What was the most attractive thing in this world? It was something that one could benefit from. 3,000 yuan was a month’s salary for an ordinary white-collar worker. Even for a white-collar worker who had a decent salary, it was not a small sum of money. It was enough to pay for a car loan, a house mortgage, or a credit card bill.

Moreover, there were a total of 100 people. Although the number of people who signed up was very large, the chances for the number of people who would win the lucky draw was also very large. The chances of winning the prize was not as small as expected.

Most importantly, they even included air tickets, food and accommodation, which was unbelievable.

This could be regarded as a vacation.

How could people not pay attention to it? How could they not be tempted?

“Amazing!”

Fang Qiu could not help exclaiming, “It became a hit on the Internet right away. Although it may not be very tempting when they offer free accommodation and food, the round trip tickets and the money are indeed mouth-watering baits. Besides, in addition to the benefits that can be seen clearly, the 100 people who are selected to participate in this event will inevitably become the focus of attention of the society!”

“Anyone who is paying attention to Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation will focus on the Trillium Root-Securing Pill. As they follow the medicine, they will inevitably follow the 100 people. After all, the effect of the Trillium Root-Securing Pill has been hyped up on the Internet. So everyone would be eager to find out if such a powerful medicine can really be produced in this world.”

“It is a known fact that the 100 people who have tried it will have the greatest say on the effect of the pill!”

Just the fact that they could become the focus of everyone’s attention was enough to make many people flock to have a try!

After all, in this era, there were countless people who wanted to be famous. Otherwise, there would not be so many Internet influencers. Some people would even do anything for fame.

It was evident that this move of the Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation gave those people a chance to directly become the focus of attention and make themselves known to the public. For many people, they could not afford to lose such an opportunity!

At least, those who wanted to be online celebrities would definitely sign up for it.

Indeed, Fang Qiu was right.

Many Internet influencers reposted and signed up in order to gain popularity after seeing Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation's Weibo.

After all, they would not encounter such a big event several times a year.

For example, the female internet influencer named "Little Flying Man" specialized in Costume Play. Because she was quite good-looking and had a good figure, she attracted a lot of fans. Her fans on Weibo numbered more than 500,000.

Taking a closer look, Little Flying Man had been following people with a high popularity rate on Weibo in the past two years, such as Fang Qiu, Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation, Siqi Pharmaceutical Company, Taikang Pharmaceutical Company and so on.

It was also because of this, she immediately reposted and signed up after seeing what the Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation posted on Weibo.

Just after she reposted it.

There was already a group of her fans cheering for her on Weibo.

"Come on, FF. You'll definitely be selected."

"Haha, Ms. FF also signed up?"

"FF, you will definitely get the spot."

In addition to these regular Internet influencers, there was also a group of medium-level Internet celebrities online.

An online influencer anchor playing electronic sports directly reposted Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation's Weibo and said, "I want to sign up! If I am lucky enough to become one of these 100 lucky people, I will immediately send 10 red packets containing 10000 yuan in total to thank the people who support me. Please support me!”

Because of the fact that electronic sports attracted many young people, the number of followers of this anchor on Weibo exceeded a million.

As soon as this Weibo was posted, it was immediately reposted and commented on by many fans.

Seeing that the anchor would be sending 10 red packets with 1,000 yuan each, many people who did not know him immediately followed him and commented.

With such simple actions following the trend, he immediately gained a large number of fans, at least tens of thousands of people.

Fang Qiu was still watching the situation on Weibo.

When he saw those online celebrities and streamers taking advantage of the situation to gain popularity, he could not help but shake his head and sigh with emotion.

“As expected, none of them are fools.”

With a light sigh, Fang Qiu said with emotion, “Now, even the online influencers and the game lovers who don’t want to go to school will use all kinds of means to hype themselves. Is the principle of surviving in this world really according to the Babbitt psychology?”

At 12 o’clock in the evening.

“It is the cutoff time!”

Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation’s official Weibo released a message and immediately used the lucky draw tool on Weibo to conduct the lucky draw.

After that, the official Weibo also released a video of how they conducted the lucky draw, as well as a list of 100 lucky people selected, so as to ensure the fairness of this event.

Once the list was released, the official Weibo also informed the selected 100 people that in an hour, they needed to bring their ID cards and other necessary information to contact the official Weibo in private. The company would book the tickets for everyone as soon as possible.

There was no doubt that there was another round of heated discussions as soon as the list of 100 people appeared.

“What the f*ck! It was just one step away. I would have been selected if I had commented one second later. Ah!!”

“Why not me?”

“I was looking forward to it until now, but I didn’t get it?”

“Hey, take a shower and go to sleep!”

“I’ve been selected. Haha... I got it.”

“This is the first time in my life that I’ve won a prize. It feels so damn good! Do you envy me?!”

In the blink of an eye, some were happy and some were sad. The people who were not selected were crying and shouting and the people who were chosen were extremely excited. The Weibo of many people who had been selected had comments left by countless people asking for the lottery number for tomorrow. They were all overjoyed.

The game anchor, who played electronic sports and said that he would give out ten red packets with a price of 10,000 yuan, was also selected.

As expected, after being selected, the anchor immediately posted a Weibo, asking people to repost and comment on his Weibo before he conducted a lucky draw.

His action spread quickly again, attracting the attention of many people who did not know him but followed him for money!

10,000 yuan helped him gain a large number of fans!

An hour later, Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation's official Weibo account began to book tickets for those who contacted them. As a result, one person out of the 100 people did not take the initiative to contact them.

In the end, when they could not get in touch with the person, the official Weibo stated that they would choose another person.

Everyone left their comments one after another, hoping to be chosen!

Chapter 775: One Was Happy, the Other Was Worried!

At first, everyone thought that there was no chance, but as soon as Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical's Weibo appeared, they immediately saw a glimmer of hope.

Although it was only one spot, it did not matter to those who had signed up for the selection.

A single spot was also a spot!

It meant that all those who had signed up but had not been selected still had a chance!

"Me! Take me!"

“I’m begging you, give me the last spot.”

“As long as you are willing to select me, I will use Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation’s medicine for the rest of my life!”

“What the f*ck! This is one in 100,000. Whoever gets it will be the luckiest person!”

“What if I get it?”

“Go away, the last place is mine!”

On the comment area of Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation’s Weibo, the netizens’ comments were more intense than when they first announced the lucky draw.

It was obvious that this had become a kind of effect.

Moreover, with the rapid spread of this effect, more and more people knew about this activity. Those who wanted to know more about the Trillium Root-Securing Pill were also growing rapidly. Although these people who had just learned about it did not participate in this activity because there was only one spot left, the publicity effect that Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Company needed had achieved its goal and it was even much better than what Yang Ningyuan had expected.

Soon, under the crazy urging of the netizens, the official Weibo of Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation also released a short video of the lucky draw.

This time, they still used the official draw tool on Weibo.

“Congratulations, @Bai Da Langer. You’ve got the last place. Please contact me in private in an hour and provide your ID card and contact information.”

Seeing this post, the netizens went crazy.

Of course, it was not ecstasy, nor sadness, but endless worship.

Within a few minutes, tens of thousands of or even hundreds of thousands of netizens clicked to enter Bai Da Langer's Weibo and left crazy comments under the post that signed up and participated in the draw.

"What the f*ck, God is really taking care of you."

"Please share your luck with us!"

"You were selected out of the hundreds of thousands of people. Share your luck with me, please."

"Brother, you're awesome. I can't compete with you. I give up!"

"You're so lucky!"

Bai Da Langer was different from the person he had replaced. He had been following the lucky draw from the very beginning, but he did not expect that he would really get it in the end.

At this moment, he was ecstatic.

He did not even think about it.

He immediately sent a post on Weibo.

"It was dumb luck today. I did not expect that I would be so lucky. Ha-ha..."

Under this post, he also attached a photo of someone stepping on dog shit.

As soon as this post was sent, everyone was amused.

“Damn, you should have told us earlier. I’ll step on dog shit to get some good luck tomorrow, too. I’ll especially look for it and step on it!”

“Bro, are you willing to transfer the reward that you got from treading on dog shit? If you are willing to transfer that to me, I will even tread on human shit, not to mention stepping on dog sh*t!”

“What’s the big deal about stepping on human shit? I can even jump into a shit pit.”

“I can swim in the shit pit!”

“Damn it, it’s such a good thing. Why did you have to bring in distasteful stuff like urine and shit with all those comments? It’s so disgusting.”

This happened in the blink of an eye, no one knew whether it was on purpose or for some other reason. Anyway, everyone began to say something disgusting. There were many people discussing it, but more and more people were getting involved.

When the blogger saw this, he was speechless.

“Don’t be disgusting. Can you guys stop? You’re so disgusting. You’re going to jump into a shit pit, aren’t you? Go for it. I’ll come and see you after I give my personal information to the company.”

In the end, he even sent a few cocky emojis on his post.

Undoubtedly, as soon as this Weibo was posted, everyone’s comments became even more obnoxious.

Who allowed him to show off so arrogantly?

As he joked with everyone, @Bai Da Langer quickly sent his personal identity information to the official Weibo of Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation in private.

After receiving the private message, the person who was operating the official Weibo of Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation, immediately booked a ticket for him.

But right at this moment...

All of a sudden, there was an outcry on the Internet!

“Oh my God, what did I miss? @Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation, sir or madam, please give me one more chance. I’m kowtowing to you!”

A person named “Staggering” suddenly emerged and sent a post on Weibo.

All of a sudden, the netizens were overjoyed when they saw it.

“You’re incredible.”

“Bro, I really admire you. I really do!”

“I hope you won’t forget to collect the money when you win the lottery.”

“Haha, it’s so funny.”

“You are really invincible!”

“If you came here ten minutes earlier, @Bai Da Langer would never have gotten the chance. What’s the point of crying now?”

“You had a great opportunity. You totally wasted it.”

It turned out that @Staggering was the only one among the 100 lucky people who had not contacted the official Weibo of Hua Yuan.

The appearance of this person made everyone laugh so hard that their stomachs hurt.

The official Weibo of Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation also replied immediately. "I'm sorry, @Staggering, you're late. The plane ticket and hotel room for @Bai Da Langer have been booked. If there should be another draw next time, I hope you will seize the opportunity."

The man named Staggering was completely speechless.

"Oh, I'm so depressed... I just went to watch a football game. Why are you doing this to me? It's obviously my spot. Why? It's all because of football. I advise everyone to cherish your chance and stay away from football!"

When his Weibo was posted, everyone was even more amused.

It was 1:30 in the morning.

The man operating the official Weibo looked at the time and found that it was almost time, so he immediately sent another post.

"The time of this tryout is set to be at nine o'clock tonight. As we're hosting the event, our company will also start a livestream at the same time. I hope everyone will be watching it."

The netizens were all excited.

"Is there a livestream?"

"That's great. If we can't go to the scene, we can at least watch it, right?"

“It seems that Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation is very confident about the effect of Trillium Root-Securing Pill!”

“That’s amazing. Can you even provide live streaming while trying the medicine?”

“The risks are very high. If there is something wrong with the medicine, the audience watching the livestream will be able to see it when they try it out, right?”

Everyone started to discuss about the livestream online.

The 100 people who were selected packed and followed the instructions of the employees of Hua Yuan. They took the plane or high-speed train to Beijiang at different times because the new pharmaceutical factory of Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation was in Beijiang.

When Yang Ningyuan was about to build a factory, he even left a piece of land to Fang Qiu.

If it wasn’t for the fact that the factory was in Beijiang, the production of Trillium Root-Securing Pill would not have been so fast.

As for the factories that belonged to Siqi Pharmaceutical Company and Taikang Pharmaceutical Company, they had been closed by Yang Ningyuan a long time ago. The two factories were both in the capital. Although they were in the suburbs, they were still located in the capital, which was not a worthwhile site to build factories.

Early the next morning.

“Beep, beep, beep...”

Hardly had Fang Qiu finished practicing, when he received a call from Yang Ningyuan at 6:30 in the morning.

“Hello, Mr. Yang?”

Fang Qiu answered the phone.

“Did you really go back to Jiangjing?”

Yang Ningyuan asked.

“Yeah, I’m running in school now. What’s wrong?”

Fang Qiu asked.

“Come back.”

Yang Ningyuan gave a wry smile and said, “I forgot to tell you yesterday. I was thinking about keeping it a secret at that time and did not tell you about my arrangement. Now you should know that the tryout will be held at nine o’clock tonight. You must be present at such a big event. I personally invite you to come to our tryout with the 100 people!”

“This...”

Fang Qiu hesitated for a moment and said, “I’m afraid it’s not appropriate for me to go.”

“Why is it inappropriate?”

Yang Ningyuan immediately disagreed and said, “You don’t need to show your face. Although it’s an invitation to you, in fact, I need you here. The impact of this 100-hundred-people tryout is huge. If something happens, or if something unexpected occurs, I won’t be able to handle it. I will only be assured with you around.”

“If that’s the case, I’ll come.”

Fang Qiu nodded with understanding.

“You’re such a good friend.”

Yang Ningyuan immediately laughed and said, “I’ve booked the plane ticket for you. It’s 4:30 in the afternoon. You can get ready first. You’ll arrive at Beijiang at around 6:30. I’ll ask someone to pick you up at the airport in advance.”

“Okay.”

Fang Qiu nodded with understanding.

After lunch at school, Fang Qiu talked about the cultivation base with his three roommates and then went to the playground with Jiang Miaoyu. When everyone went to class in the afternoon, he sensed the overflow of internal Qi in his body. He found that it was getting better and better, so he left for the airport with peace of mind.

By the time Fang Qiu arrived at the hotel booked by Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation in Beijiang, it was already seven o’clock in the evening.

He entered through the back door.

“Brother, as long as you are here, I can finally feel at ease.”

Yang Ningyuan greeted Fang Qiu in person and directly took him to the 360 degrees glass-covered restaurant at the top of the hotel. He specially ordered a feast for Fang Qiu.

After enthusiastically urging Fang Qiu to finish his meal, he took Fang Qiu to a room next to the venue and watched the live stream together.

“Aren’t you going to the tryout?”

Looking at Yang Ningyuan, who was sitting with him, Fang Qiu asked curiously.

“I’m not going.”

Yang Ningyuan immediately shook his head and said, “As the chairman, I have to keep an anonymous profile. You don’t understand. I don’t work in an Internet company. What I have to do is to let the professionals handle it. As for myself, the more mysterious I am, the better.”

“I see.”

Fang Qiu nodded knowingly and then watched the live stream with a smile.

At that moment.

Through the live stream screen, Fang Qiu and Yang Ningyuan could clearly see that the 100 lucky people who came from all over the country were all in position. From their expressions, it could be told that these 100 people were very much looking forward to the upcoming tryout!

On the Internet, the netizens were also waiting for it.

When it was time, more than a million people surged into the online live stream room the moment it started!

Medical Master

Chapter 776: Ill Give You the Money First!

Millions of people were watching the livestream.

Such a huge audience was also very rare in the livestream industry. The only one that was larger than this was Fang Qiu’s livestream at the World Medical Exchange Conference.

Millions of people rushed in.

Before the livestream channel was ready, everyone began to post bullet screen comments and the comments just exploded!

“The Feast of Immortality Peaches has begun!”

“It’s a Pill-Trying Conference!”

“I don’t want it to keep me healthy. I only beg you to prolong my life!”

“They make it sound so bad*ss. Do you think you can live for one more day by eating one pill?”

“The one who said it’s the Feast of Immortality Peaches, I’m very impressed with you.”

There were all kinds of comments. Some were expectant, some were mocking, some were teasing and most of them were just watching the fun.

Less than a minute later.

The livestream was ready.

The livestream camera faced a luxurious meeting hall.

The 100 lucky chosen people were sitting under the stage of the conference hall. In addition to these 100 people, there were only a few staff members.

There was still no one on the stage.

Take a closer look.

One could see that on the background board on the stage, there was a line of big words written on the board, "Trillium Root-Securing Pill". Beside those words, there was also a line of small words: Trial Feast!

"Heck, if there were ten big bowls filled with some food on this stage, I would have thought that this was the site of an eating competition."

"Where are they?"

"Didn't they say that it would start at nine o'clock?"

"Are they going to eat or not?"

In the comments, netizens began to kick up a fuss.

However, right at that moment...

A young man in a dinner jacket walked onto the stage.

"Hello, everyone."

The young man glanced at the 100 people under the stage with a smile and said, "I am the host for today's trial feast. My name is Xiaobai. Next, I will be spending this evening with everyone."

As soon as those words came out.

There was a burst of applause at the scene.

However, the livestream channel was in an uproar.

“Isn’t he just a toy boy?”

“Oh my, spending this happy evening with everyone. It’s so disgusting.”

“Wow, the host is so handsome. It would be great if I were there.”

“Let’s root crazily for the host.”

“What a sissy.”

It had to be said that when there were many people watching a livestream, all kinds of comments appeared inexplicably. No matter what kind of scene appeared, there were always people giving either flattering or complaining comments.

“Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation is the sponsor of this event.”

The host smiled and said, “I know that everyone can’t wait any longer. Therefore I announce that the livestream of this meeting has officially started.”

“First of all, let’s welcome the sales manager of Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation on stage to give a speech.”

Hearing that, all the people present applauded enthusiastically.

The audience was also curious about the sales manager who was a senior executive of Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation.

Under everyone’s warm applause...

A middle-aged man in a suit, about 40 years old, with a square face and looking like a reliable uncle, stepped onto the stage.

“Hello, everyone. I’m Zhang Xiancheng.”

Walking to the center of the stage, the sales manager introduced himself first, then suddenly laughed and said, “I know what everyone wants most now.”

The audience was stunned.

In the livestream channel, all the people who were watching the livestream were also confused.

“What they want?”

“There seems to be something wrong with this person’s words!”

“That’s right. Why didn’t he introduce anything? Why did he say such a thing at first? He doesn’t need to do this to sound natural, right?”

However.

Just when everyone was puzzled.

Zhang Xiancheng laughed again. Looking at the 100 lucky people under the stage, he said, “You want money, don’t you?”

Upon hearing those words.

It was only then that everyone came to their senses.

Indeed.

Money was the most important thing.

However, in everyone's impression, the pie falling from the sky was not easy to get and the money sent by others was even more difficult to get. This kind of view incepted in their minds made everyone feel that the money giveaway would only be given after the end of the food trial. But who could expect that the senior executive of Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation did not play along with the rules? Was he going to give the money as soon as he came?

Amidst the laughter of the 100 people present.

On the stage.

Zhang Xiancheng waved to the staff under the stage and said, "Present the red packets."

Ten tall female staff members walked up to the stage with a tray in their hands and stood in a row.

One could clearly see it in the livestream.

All these staff members had red packets on their trays.

There were ten on each tray.

Each red packet was quite thick too!

"Alright."

When the red envelopes were presented on the stage, Zhang Xiancheng then said, "For the convenience of the next part which is the drug test and to make it easy for everyone to get the red envelopes, now I want all these 100 lucky people from all over the country to go onstage."

After that.

The 100 people under the stage stood up and went onstage, one after another.

Anyway, the stage was so big that 100 people did not even occupy a large portion of it. A row of 50 people stood on the left side of the stage and formed an arc, while the other row of 50 people stood on the right side and formed an arc as well.

Although everyone was standing sideways and their chests were close to each other's backs, at least everyone's faces could be seen in the camera.

"Without further ado, let's give away the red packets first."

Seeing that everyone was standing in line, Zhang Xiancheng waved his hand and they immediately began to give away the red packets.

Each of them had a large cash red packet of 3,000 yuan!

In the livestream channel.

It was rare for the comments to be unified on the same topic.

Everyone was full of envy, jealousy and hatred.

"Dammit. The money is too easy to make, isn't it?"

"Why didn't you pick me?"

"It's more than a month's salary. How nice it would be if I was picked."

"This is fate."

"I expected no less from such a rich company. They're very straightforward to give away the money. It's awesome!"

On the scene, on the stage.

"Now, the money has been given away."

After handing out the red packets, Zhang Xiancheng said, "Next, it's time to officially start our medicine test.

"For the sake of everyone's safety, we need to check everyone's bodies."

The 100 lucky people were all stunned.

"Check bodies?"

"He didn't say that he needed to check our bodies, did he?"

"That's right. Now he suddenly says that we need to have a check-up. What should we do?"

"With so many people, it will take at least a day to go to the hospital for an examination, won't it?"

"Yeah, it's a waste of time. I have to hurry back tonight because I have to go to work tomorrow!"

Everyone was talking about it.

Hearing the dissatisfied voices of the crowd, Zhang Xiancheng laughed and said, "Don't worry, everyone. We won't go to the hospital. We will do the check here. There is a health management department in our company. The people in this department are all Chinese Medicine doctors who graduated from the University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine.”

“University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine. You all heard about it, haven’t you?

“Do you know who also graduated from that school?” Zhang Xiancheng asked.

“Fang Qiu!”

The 100 people present answered in unison.

In the room next to the conference hall.

Seeing that scene from the livestream screen, Fang Qiu, who was sitting with Yang Ningyuan, could not help laughing wryly.

Yang Ningyuan really had nothing to say.

He could really make something irrelevant related to Fang Qiu by some means.

Beside him.

“How’s that?”

Yang Ningyuan laughed and said, “This arrangement is good, isn’t it? It’s publicity for your University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine and also an advertisement for the students who have graduated from your university. It’s great. Maybe the bosses of other companies will set up a health management department and recruit people from your University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine when they see this?”

Fang Qiu thought about it.

That was really an opportunity.

What effect was the strongest in the world?

Herd effect!

That was right.

Because of his existence, the University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine became a top university in Chinese Medicine schools. Also because of his existence, all students who graduated from the University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine managed to find new jobs. Now, it was Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation. Next, if the news about the ten top companies and the three video websites also establishing a new health management system and all recruiting students from the UJCM came out.

In that case, the health management department, which was a new department, would inevitably become a trend in the business world. It would become a standard ordinary people used as a comparison whether a company was a top-notch one.

In that case.

The companies which were not top-notch would inevitably follow that trend to pretend they were.

If there was one, there would be two and if there were two, there would be ten!

Once that kind of trend spread, the “health management department” would flourish everywhere. At that time, the students of UJCM would probably all become like hot cakes!

Although he knew about the benefits of the promotion, Fang Qiu still could not help giving a wry smile and said to Yang Ningyuan, “If you can stop your men from mentioning my name, I will really thank you.”

“Hehe.”

Yang Ningyuan grinned.

At the scene.

The people from Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation’s health management department had already arrived in the hall.

Ten graduates from the University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine started to diagnose the 100 lucky men one by one, using the Four Methods to Diagnose a Disease.

Ten graduates diagnosed at the same time and each of them covered ten people. The examination was very fast.

Within only half an hour.

All the 100 lucky ones had been checked.

The final result was that none of them had an insufficient spleen or stomach.

“The results of the examination are very good.”

Zhang Xiancheng faced everyone and said with a satisfied smile, “It seems that everyone is sincere. You’ve strictly followed our registration conditions to participate in the lucky draw. On behalf of Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation, I thank you for your respect for our company.”

Zhang Xiancheng bowed to the 100 lucky men and then said, “Because the results of the examination are very good, let’s start the trial.

“Before that, we won’t give any explanations in advance, nor will we give any hints.

“Everyone, after you finish taking the pills, you just need to write down how you feel on the paper in front of you in 10 minutes.

“Of course, I very much hope that everyone can write down everything in a fair and just way. If you have diarrhea, please don’t hide it and go directly to use the washroom. If you think it tastes bad, you can directly write ‘tastes bad’.

“What we need most is the actual feedback from you. I hope everyone can cooperate!”

The 100 lucky people present were all surprised. They were invited offstage by the staff and sat back on the 100 sofa chairs that had been prepared for them in advance.

On the other side.

In the livestream channel, comments exploded again.

“What the f*ck. So confident?”

“Indeed, this is medicine. It needs actual feedback. If it’s fake, it’ll be lame.”

In the room next door.

Fang Qiu also nodded in his heart.

Putting aside the exaggerated false promotion and returning to the original core of the medicine was being responsible for customers!

If the effect of the medicine on TV advertisements were all real, then there would be no illness in the entire world and no need for medicine sales either!

Chapter 777: 50 Million in Compensation!

In the meeting hall.

Under the arrangement of Zhang Xiancheng, the sales manager of Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation, all the 100 lucky people were seated.

On the stage.

“This is a brand new drug developed by our company, Trillium Root-Securing Pill.”

Zhang Xiancheng took out a box of Trillium Root-Securing Pills and waved it at the livestream camera. Then, he said, “Now, let’s start the trial.”

As he spoke.

The livestream camera immediately switched from the stage to the audience.

Following the livestream camera, one could see the ten tall female staff members present began to distribute pills to the 100 lucky ones.

Getting the pill, most people first observed it curiously. Because it was solely a pill without a package or instructions, those people couldn’t figure out more details about it by simply looking at it.

After observing for a while, everyone swallowed the pills. Then, they turned left and right to watch other people’s trial tests.

As a result, they found that most of them were looking around, and only a small number of them were especially here for the drug test. They closed their eyes and were carefully feeling the effect of the pills.

Judging from that behavior, everyone didn't have much confidence in the medicine test. To put it bluntly, they were a little scared, but no one wanted to show it.

Time, as the crowd looked around, slowly passed by.

Gradually.

Some people seemed to have found something. They stopped turning their heads and calmed down.

As for those who came here especially for the medicine test, they all opened their eyes one by one, and there was a flash of light in their eyes.

Ten minutes later.

All the people present were no longer as anxious as before. On the contrary, a smile appeared on their faces. They picked up the pens on the tables and began to write.

Five minutes later.

"Time's up."

On the stage, Zhang Xiancheng ordered the staff to collect everyone's trial feedback and said to everyone, "You were nervous just now, but now I'm very nervous. Everyone knows that our company has just been established. Whether our company can have a good start all depends on the paper in front of you.

"Do you... want to change a little bit and put down some nice words for our company?"

Everyone laughed hearing that.

"It's you who asked us to write the real feedback, and now you asked us to change it?"

“Haha, we just don’t change. We are here to test the medicine. Since we have taken your company’s money, we must give you the most critical advice.”

“Yes, I won’t change it!”

In the livestream channel, netizens were all amused.

“Haha, this executive is so funny.”

“I didn’t expect the executive of a big company to be like this.”

“I always thought that the executive of a big company would only make some serious jokes with just a little humor. I didn’t expect that there would be such a funny executive.”

On the other side.

While the netizens were talking about it enthusiastically, Zhang Xiancheng pretended to sigh and said, “Well, now we’ll have the host come onstage and read out the feedback of everyone on the test of Trillium Root-Securing Pill one by one.”

The host stepped onto the stage.

“What’s in my hand is the information collected by the staff just now. The one hundred distinguished guests have given feedback to Trillium Root-Securing Pill. Next, I’ll read it one by one.

“The first one.”

The host said with a smile, then took out the paper on the first page and read, “At first, I didn’t feel anything special, just like an ordinary pill, but after a few minutes, I felt as if there was a stream of air rushing straight to the top of my head, just like when I woke up early to meet the first morning wind after enough sleep, very fresh and energetic!

“The second one.

“I’m very thin, and I’ve always been suffering from anemia and malnutrition, so I feel like I’m feeling muddle-headed every day. After taking this pill just now, I found that my head seems to be clear. My always weak body also became strong. Anyway, I just feel very good.

“The third one.

“I have never stayed up. Yesterday, I flew over and didn’t sleep well, so I was in a particularly bad state. Before I came to try the medicine, I also drank two cans of Bull, but I still couldn’t resist the fatigue. I wanted to finish it as soon as possible and get on the plane to go home. But I didn’t expect that just a few minutes after I took a pill, the tiredness all over my body disappeared. I felt as if I had been reborn. Now I feel very comfortable, nothing uncomfortable at all.

“The fourth one.”

The host read one by one.

In the livestream channel.

Upon hearing the host’s feedback, the netizens were all surprised.

“What the f*ck? Is it that effective?”

“They can’t be paid off, can they?”

“It’s so awesome. A pill is more powerful than two cans of Bull?”

“Has this medicine been tested? I don’t think there’s any dope in it, right?”

“If that’s the case, the effect would be great.”

“It’s received ten feedback, and there’s still zero bad feedback!”

“I really want to try it myself. Is there really such a magical medicine in the world?”

In the blink of an eye.

The netizens were all stunned.

Originally, there were indeed a small number of people in the livestream channel who came to see Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation make a fool of themselves. There were also a small number of people who came to see the real property of Trillium Root-Securing Pill.

However...

The feedback given by those people in front of them did not look like that of brand new medicine at all.

How could there be a kind of medicine that was so good that it received zero bad feedback when it was tested for the first time?

While everyone was shocked.

The host continued to read the feedback in his hand.

One after another.

There was no bad comment.

No one said that it had no effect.

All feedback was extremely positive, making people feel as if they were really hired by Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation because the medicine had won unbelievable high praise.

Five minutes later.

He finished reading the 100 pieces of feedback.

In the livestream channel, all the onlookers were shocked.

There was really no bad comment at all. Wasn't this too awesome?

Strangely enough, unlike those who were shocked in the livestream channel, the 100 people present were not surprised by the high praise at all. On the contrary, they all looked like that they thought it natural for the medicine to receive such feedback.

In other words, the effect of that Trillium Root-Securing Pill was really that good?

At that time.

Zhang Xiancheng went onstage again.

"Thank you, thank you very much, everyone."

Looking at the 100 drug testers present, Zhang Xiancheng opened his mouth and said, "On behalf of Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation, I sincerely thank the 100 drug testers present. Thank you for your feedback on our product and for your recognition of us too!"

As soon as he finished speaking.

On the scene, there was a warm round of applause.

“This health care product is made of Desert Cistanche exclusive to our company. It has extraordinary efficacy. All the supplementary herbs are of the highest quality. That’s why it is so effective.”

Speaking of that, Zhang Xiancheng turned around and pointed to the big screen behind the stage, saying, “Now, I’ll announce the efficacy of Trillium Root-Securing Pill. Please look at the big screen.”

They took a closer look.

On the big screen, a picture that occupied the entire screen was immediately displayed.

The medicinal effect of the Trillium Root-Securing Pill was clearly written on it.

“The main function of the Trillium Root-Securing Pill: strengthen one’s foundation, nourish one’s yin, replenish one’s marrow, and strengthen one’s muscles and bones. It can be used to heal one’s internal organs, waist injuries, body fatigue, palpitation, insomnia, haggard skin, early white hair and beard, abnormal menstruation, and lack of appetite.”

Zhang Xiancheng read.

The audience present nodded one after another hearing that.

On the other side.

In the livestream channel, all the netizens also came to a sudden realization.

Previously, the official website of Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation had also published the efficacy of the Trillium Root-Securing Pill, but now it felt completely different from the first time they had seen it.

Looking at it now, they could associate it with the feedback of the medicine test written by those 100 people just now.

“What the f*ck, it’s really a complete match.”

“It’s really the same as what everyone said.”

“It’s true?”

“Even if it’s true, the effect of the drug comes so fast and the effect is so good. I suspect that it has dope in it or some herbs with the effect of dope?”

“It’s possible. There is no medicine that can take effect so quickly, except for dope.”

Someone took the lead.

Soon, the same comments were repeated in the livestream channel. Everyone was questioning if there was really any dope in the medicine.

At the scene.

On the stage.

Zhang Xiancheng seemed to have guessed their doubts.

He took out a test sheet, looked at the audience, and all the live cameras, and said, “This is the test sheet of the Trillium Root-Securing Pill. I especially took it out to clear everyone’s doubts. In fact, if there is something wrong with the test, we can’t get a batch number. If there is a batch number, it proves that there is no quality problem at all. You can have a look at it. According to the test sheet, nothing exceeds the regulatory limit in our Trillium Root-Securing Pill at all, and there is no so-called dope or hormone.

“Here, I promise that everyone can conduct a test on their own. If you find anything that exceeds the regulatory limit or hormone, dope, or other illegal substances, our company is willing to pay 50 million yuan in compensation!”

As soon as those words came out.

Everyone was deeply shocked.

“50 million. What a big sum of money!”

“Since he dared to make such a promise in front of so many people, it seems that this Trillium Root-Securing Pill is really effective.”

“It even makes me a little impatient. I want to see if this Trillium Root-Securing Pill is really that good.”

“Brothers, let’s go. For the 50 million, it’s worth buying a box!”

Without a doubt.

All the people watching the livestream began to look forward to the health care product. Since Hua Yuan’s executive dared to make such a big promise, and dared to let people try it, it meant that they were really confident, which meant that the drug effect was real.

Thinking about it in that way, even if it wasn’t medicine, that Trillium Root-Securing Pill was definitely a top level health care product!

But the problem was, how could they buy it?

Everyone asked one after another.

Nevertheless, at the scene, Zhang Xiancheng, who was standing on the stage, seemed to be able to precisely guess what everyone was thinking every time.

“I announce...”

Facing the audience present and in the livestream channel, Zhang Xiancheng opened his mouth and said, “From the early morning today, preorder of Trillium Root-Securing Pill will be available on our company’s official website. Because the production of the first batch of Trillium Root-Securing Pills is limited, there are only 37.5 thousand pieces in total. I hope that everyone can seize the opportunity to become the users of the second batch of Trillium Root-Securing Pills.

“As for the price...”

Zhang Xiancheng smiled mysteriously and said, “When the time comes, it’ll be announced on the official website.”

Medical Master

Chapter 778: Something Fishy about the Data!

Zhang Xiancheng had just finished speaking.

Under the stage.

Immediately, someone raised his hand.

“Mr. Zhang, there are so few pills in the first batch, only 37,500 pieces. Only 37,500 people can buy it at most. Some people can buy two, five, and ten at a time. What if we can’t get them? We are all selected by your company to test medicine. Can you sell some to us in advance?”

The person who raised his hand paused and said, “We don’t ask for much. How about one for each person? Even if all of us buy it, it’ll only be one hundred pieces.”

“That’s right. We’ve come all the way here. Shouldn’t we get an advantage?”

“I don’t want the 3,000 yuan in the red packet anymore. Can I exchange it for a Trillium Root-Securing Pill?”

“I also want to exchange it.”

Everyone echoed him.

From the expressions of every single one of them, it could be seen that they truly wanted to buy Trillium Root-Securing Pills.

Looking at those people, the netizens in the livestream channel were more looking forward to the Trillium Root-Securing Pill. Some of them even began to object.

“You are here to test the medicine. Why do you have the right to buy it first?”

“That’s right. They’ve given you so many benefits. Why are you still fighting with us?”

“There are few pills. You’ve already eaten it. Why are you still fighting over it? What’s there to fight for?”

In the conference hall.

On the stage.

“I’m sorry.”

In the face of the requests of the 100 people below the stage, Zhang Xiancheng shook his head and said, “Rules are rules. Everyone needs to order. But, the distinguished guests who are present for this test, we will also give every one of you one piece.”

As soon as those words came out.

Immediately, there was a warm round of applause.

The 100 people were all excited.

Unexpectedly, in addition to the red envelope, there was such a benefit. Not to mention the price of Trillium Root-Securing Pill, because it had not been announced yet, the precious thing was that it could not be bought now even if one wanted to. The first batch was less than 40 thousand pieces. There were more than a billion people in Huaxia, and more than ten million people were paying attention to the Trillium Root-Securing Pill.

It was easy to imagine how difficult it would be to get a Trillium Root-Securing Pill.

In the livestream channel.

“What the f*ck? How could there be such benefits on the scene?”

“Dammit. Why wasn’t I picked to go to the conference?”

“It’s such a heart-warming event.”

Next to the meeting hall.

“Something’s wrong, isn’t it?”

Seeing the livestream, Fang Qiu turned his head to look at Yang Ningyuan and said, “37.5 thousand pieces, and two bottles in a box, so that’ll be 75 thousand bottles in total, which is a ton of Desert Cistanche. I remember that I gave you a total of three tons of Desert Cistanche in the first batch.”

“Hunger marketing!”

Yang Ningyuan laughed.

Fang Qiu was stunned.

Then, he shook his head and said with emotion, “A profiteer!

“By the way.”

Fang Qiu seemed to have thought of something all of a sudden. He opened his mouth and said, “It seems that the 75 thousand bottles haven’t been fully produced yet.”

“Isn’t this a preorder?”

Yang Ningyuan answered with a smile, and then said, “However, they’ll soon be produced in the next two days.”

Fang Qiu was speechless hearing that.

However, after thinking about it carefully, he did learn a lot today. From Yang Ningyuan, he learnt a real marketing practice.

While he sighed in his heart, Fang Qiu secretly examined his own meridians with Insight and found that the trace had not been broken through, so he should wait a little longer.

On the other side.

The livestream ended.

Everyone frantically rushed to the official website of Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation.

All the information on the official website had disappeared. Instead, it was replaced by a picture of a countdown.

The countdown to the preorder of Trillium Root-Securing Pill!

At that time, there were two hours left.

Watching the countdown retreat one second at a time, they couldn't click on anything on the official website, so everyone could only wait quietly.

At University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine.

In Dormitory 501.

"The oldest, am I seeing things? Is this the pill mainly developed with the Desert Cistanche we cultivated together with Mr. Zhao?" Zhou Xiaotian asked in disbelief.

"It should be... right?"

Zhu Benzhen didn't believe it either.

"That's awesome."

Sun Hao widened his eyes and said with a look of pleasant surprise, "I finally know why the youngest sold the Desert Cistanche cultivated by us at such a high price. The efficacy is just amazing!"

"Hey."

Zhou Xiaotian suddenly thought of something and asked, "Will we have nosebleeds if we eat a piece of Desert Cistanche every three days?"

"I suppose so."

Sun Hao nodded seriously.

"But that little rabbit doesn't seem to have any nosebleed. It eats it every day, and it eats quite a lot every day."

Zhou Xiaotian pursed his lips and said, "I think we can also eat it. Although it's not delicious, the effect is absolutely good."

"Don't have this bad idea."

Zhu Benzhen rolled his eyes at the two of them and said, "If you eat it and get caught by the youngest, and then the youngest takes back your shares, what should you do?"

The two of them heard him.

All of a sudden, they shivered all over.

"I won't eat it," said Zhou Xiaotian immediately.

"I won't eat it!"

Sun Hao clenched his fists.

Compared with the money represented by the shares, some Desert Cistanche was nothing at all. Moreover, they were doctors of Chinese Medicine themselves, so they didn't need to eat Desert Cistanche to strengthen their bodies at all. Even if they were sick, there was still Fang Qiu.

“With Fang Qiu here, what disease can’t be cured?”

Beijiang.

After the end of the trial meeting.

“Will you go back to Jianghang with me?” Yang Ningyuan asked.

“For what?”

Fang Qiu was stunned.

“Although the headquarters of Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical is still in the capital, the background data is all in our Jianghang. There are still two hours left. So we can go back in time. Come with me to have a look at how the preorder goes on the official website. What do you think?”

“Okay.”

Fang Qiu immediately nodded in agreement.

This was a great opportunity for him to learn, and ordinary people could not see that kind of background data. If Yang Ningyuan invited him to see it, it meant that Yang Ningyuan trusted him.

Then.

The two of them directly boarded Yang Ningyuan’s private plane.

After all, it was normal for such a rich man to have a private plane.

“How much will you charge?”

On the plane, Fang Qiu chatted with Yang Ningyuan over tea.

“A thousand yuan for one box,” Yang Ningyuan answered.

“You’re unscrupulous.”

Fang Qiu shook his head and sighed.

“Isn’t this the price you told me at the beginning?” Yang Ningyuan said with a smile.

“You can’t blame it on me, can you?”

Fang Qiu gave a wry smile and said helplessly, “I meant to charge more from you, so I exaggerated a little bit. But now you set such a high price, will people shrink back and not buy it after seeing the price?”

“Yes!”

Yang Ningyuan nodded with certainty and said, “After all, this is just a health care product, and the price is indeed a little high. There should not be too many people who dare to try it first, so there is such a part like the trial meeting. Of course, I still have other ways.”

“Then I’ll wait and see,” said Fang Qiu with a smile.

Soon.

The two returned to Jianghang.

At that time, it was just early in the morning.

On the official website of Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation, the last second of the countdown had passed.

Immediately, it was replaced by a preorder page of Trillium Root-Securing Pill.

He took a closer look.

On the preorder page, the price was actually one thousand per unit!

“One unit, just two bottles?”

“Five hundred a bottle?”

“What the f*ck. This is simply robbery!”

“It’s so expensive!”

“I wanted to buy one and try it. I didn’t expect it to be so expensive!”

“Is this thing really so good? I don’t want to buy it and find that it doesn’t work. Then it’ll be a big loss!”

At that time, people were all saying things like that.

After seeing the price, everyone hesitated.

But even so...

The number of “available preorder unit(s)” on the purchase page was rapidly changing.

The number was rapidly reduced from 37,500 in the beginning. In the blink of an eye, it fell to 32,000, and it continued to drop at an extremely fast speed.

Seeing that, everyone instantly became anxious.

However, many people were still hesitating.

After all, the price was indeed high.

Nevertheless...

Within short one minute and a half of hesitation.

The number of remaining units directly fell under 20,000, dropping to 18,000.

In less than 90 seconds.

20,000 units were preordered?

At first, everyone was not in a hurry, but when they saw that situation, they couldn't help but become anxious with red eyes.

“F*ck, everyone else is buying it. I'll buy too!”

“If you don't buy it now, there'll be none.”

“We don't know when the next batch will be available!”

“Just buy it, just buy it!”

“Even if I don’t eat it myself, I can sell it to others. I’m sure I can make money out of this!”

At that time, people were all saying things like that.

Everyone was anxiously clicking to buy.

In the end.

Less than three minutes later.

A total of 37,500 sets of Trillium Root-Securing Pills had been sold out.

Jianghang.

In the data room of the head office of Zhiyuan Group.

Seeing the result, Fang Qiu was also stunned. He asked Yang Ningyuan, who was next to him, “Isn’t there something fishy in it?”

“There’s nothing fishy about it. They’ve really bought all of them, 37,500 sets. There’s not a single one left,” Yang Ningyuan said with a smile.

“That’s not what I’m talking about.”

Fang Qiu shook his head and said, “I mean the number that has been changing since the start of the preorder!”

“Haha.”

Yang Ningyuan laughed loudly, gave Fang Qiu a thumbs-up, and said, “Your eyes are indeed sharp. The data is indeed not real. From the beginning, it was to create a tense atmosphere for customers. The number changed to 10,000, and everyone was anxious. At the same time, at least 50,000 or even 100,000 buyers were making a reservation. What we need to do is to choose a part of those buyers and turn the virtual data into real one.

“Of course, preordering depends on luck too. You won’t necessarily be able to buy it even if you place an order before someone else. It’s pretty random, because only in this way can we create a kind of urgent situation, which makes most of the buyers feel that they can’t buy it at all, causing our products to be particularly popular, and thus attracting more attention.

“It’s just like some domestic entertainment stars selling concert tickets. That’s why when you go to the concert, you always see some empty seats on the floor and the first-level ticket holders are allowed to fill them up.”

Hearing that, Fang Qiu couldn’t help but shake his head and sigh. “You’re indeed an old fox in the business world. You’re a big profiteer. With the way you’re doing things, you would have other tricks up your sleeve, wouldn’t you?”

Fang Qiu finally saw it.

The big action that Yang Ningyuan had said at the beginning was not as simple as a trial by a hundred people. He had made a series of preparations, one after another, to lure the customers into his trap.

“Of course.”

Yang Ningyuan didn’t deny it and directly nodded his head to admit it!

Medical Master

Chapter 779: Public Opinion Can Be Manipulated!

“I guess.”

Seeing Yang Ningyuan nodding as he agreed, Fang Qiu said, “Next, you will pay the Internet trolls and use Weibo, the best publicity platform, to try your best to intensify the frustration of those who did not get the Trillium Root-Securing Pill. Then, you will lure those who got it to send all kinds of photos to show off so as to satisfy their vanity.”

“And you are the one behind all of this!”

After that, Fang Qiu looked at Yang Ningyuan, waiting for his answer.

As expected, “Pa, pa, pa...”

Yang Ningyuan immediately laughed and applauded, saying, “Although it looks very simple, in the business world, this marketing ploy is indeed very useful. The end result is that the buyers get to buy good medicine and I sell the drugs I produced. Whether it’s for the customers or for me, it’s a win-win situation. In this case, why don’t we do it?”

Fang Qiu shook his head with a wry smile and sighed to himself, “It’s true that you will never know what a person is thinking. Public opinion can be manipulated!”

With that thought in mind, Fang Qiu pondered for a moment, then suddenly raised his head, stared at Yang Ningyuan and asked, “It should be more than that, right?”

Hearing this, Yang Ningyuan was stunned for a moment!

Then, an uneasy look suddenly appeared on his face and he said awkwardly, “You’ve guessed it. But since you already figured it out, it proves that you’re not simple. You’re also very astute!”

“I’ve never said that I’m simple.”

Fang Qiu shook his head with a smile and said, "If my guess is right, you will also get someone to send posts to tell all the netizens that they spent quite a fortune and got the qualification to buy the pill. The first batch of Trillium Root-Securing Pill was not sold through direct sales, but through pre-selling. That is to say, before your company officially starts selling the Trillium Root-Securing Pill, they can change the contact information and address they have reserved during the pre-selling. In this case, they can sell the qualification they managed to grab at a high price!"

"As a manufacturer of Trillium Root-Securing Pill, you can pay a high price to purchase the rights. Then you can arouse public interest on the Internet and make everyone think that the pill is an excellent product. Otherwise, no one will be willing to pay a high price for it. For you, buying it at a high price is a piece of cake. If those who are qualified to buy it really sell the spot, you will definitely purchase it and make it a real deal. Then, you will leave a record of the transaction on the Internet!"

"Anyway, each person has been given a big red packet worth 3,000 yuan. It doesn't matter if I lose more money now. It will be fine even if I need to buy all of the spots for myself."

"Because this is the first batch of Trillium Root-Securing Pill, it'll be best if we can make money this time. It doesn't matter even if we don't. Even if we have to lose money, it will be fine."

"The next batch is the most important thing!"

Fang Qiu narrowed his eyes, looked at Yang Ningyuan and said, "In this way, the Trillium Root-Securing Pill becomes even more attractive to the public. In addition to its excellent medicinal properties, it has been very popular since it is coveted by so many people. In addition, this one can be sold at a higher price privately, which is equivalent to the concert ticket sales of those top stars. Countless people will do their best to bid for it. Even those ticket scalpers who have no expectations of the concert will get involved."

"If people know that this can make money, they will definitely go all out for it!"

"As soon as the second batch is released, we don't have to worry about the sales at all. We don't even need to advertise it. With such huge publicity this time, plus the good reputation of Trillium Root-Securing Pill, we will inevitably become the focus of attention in the pharmaceutical industry!"

"This is the real hunger marketing, isn't it?"

Yang Ningyuan did not interrupt Fang Qiu's speech, then he laughed and applauded, saying, "It's Fang Qiu who knows me well!"

"Wait."

Just as Yang Ningyuan reached out and was about to pat Fang Qiu on the shoulder, Fang Qiu suddenly said, "It's not over yet, is it?"

As soon as he said that, the smile on Yang Ningyuan's face instantly disappeared. He froze for a moment. Then he smiled awkwardly, shook his head and said, "You, there are some things that you should only keep to yourself."

"As expected."

Fang Qiu sighed with emotion and said, "You will also find a few of the 100 people who have tried the pills and get them to post online, saying how good the effect is after taking the pill."

"In this way, the pills which are hard to get, can also help people make money and has surprisingly good effects. With these three factors, it's impossible that the second batch will not be sold out. Even people who can't get to buy the next batch will join the people who try to buy them at a high price. And your company can secretly sell the pills for them to hoard. In this way, you end up making more money!"

Speaking of this, Fang Qiu could not help exclaiming, "These days, buyers are not as shrewd as sellers. How can the customers know that? They seem to be free, but in fact, they have been tricked by the commercial empires in the world and are used as pawns."

"As you said, the world has been shrouded by the business."

Yang Ningyuan shook his head with a smile and then reminded him, "This is business!"

Not long after the pre-selling, on Weibo, people began to send all kinds of posts. They whined that they did not get the chance. They regretted that their hands were not fast enough and that they did not have access to computers. Some even hurled abuse at the three mobile operators.

To everyone's surprise, not a single person scolded Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation.

Even if they failed to access the website when they were giving pre-orders, no one blamed the official website for the problem.

People who did not know would think that there were too few of the pills. When they wanted to buy them, they were already sold out, so they could not access the website. Those who knew the truth would not tell others what they knew.

There was no doubt that the number of people who did not get the pills far exceeded the number of people who got it.

In this case, there was a lot of resentment on Weibo.

When those people who managed to access the spots saw that there were so many people whining on Weibo, they immediately posted screenshots of their success in an attempt to show off.

It did not take long before a large number of people started showing off.

Every time there was a screenshot of a successful attempt, there would be a group of people below the comment area asking for the transfer of the spot.

"You're so awesome. Bro, why don't you transfer the spot to me?"

"I'm asking for a transfer. It doesn't matter if I need to pay more."

There were also a lot of people who began to post on Weibo, asking for the spots.

“Who managed to secure a spot to buy the Trillium Root-Securing Pill? I’m asking for one spot. The original price is 1,000. I can pay 1,500 yuan. Anyone who is willing to sell it, please send me a private message!”

“I’m kneeling on the snow to beg for a spot. Without further ado, I’ll offer 1,600. If you’re willing to transfer it, please send me a private message.”

“Damn it, it took me half an hour to find out that they were all sold out in three minutes. Who got the qualification? I’ll pay 2,000 yuan. I don’t believe that I can’t buy things even if I have money. I need only get one spot. Those who are willing to transfer to me, contact me ASAP!”

In the blink of an eye, Weibo was filled with various heated discussions.

Some of them cried for a transfer of a spot, while some of them bought it at a high price and others held on tight to their spots and refused to sell it.

However, people always gave priority to their own interests.

Soon, someone found the man who offered 2,000 to buy the qualification.

The man did not hesitate and made a deal immediately.

He really bought it!

A reserved spot cost 2,000. A place worth 1,000 was doubled in one transfer!

“This is simply daylight robbery!”

Everyone looked at it.

“What the f*ck, there are even scalpers here?”

“Isn’t it so cool to be able to make money simply by getting a spot on the waiting list?”

“There is no need to wait to buy popular phones anymore. Hurry and get Trillium Root-Securing Pill. If you have a phone, you’ll lose a lot of money when the phone is devalued. You won’t even be able to use it. However, even if you get the Trillium Root-Securing Pill, you’ll still be able to keep it and eat it yourself. It’ll be good for your body!”

All the scalpers surged to the Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Company, aiming for the Trillium Root-Securing Pill, which was a hot item!

Many scalpers also went to the official Weibo account of Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation to ask about it.

“Isn’t it too difficult to get one? There are only so few. How are we supposed to get it?”

“When are you going to release the next batch? You can’t leave us like this, can you?”

“Sir or Madam, please answer our question. When are you going to release the next batch?”

It was not just the scalpers.

Many people who could not get it also left messages to inquire about it.

The Weibo of Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation did not respond immediately. Instead, they allowed public opinion to simmer.

It was not until the heat of fallout had reached its peak that the official account of Hua Yuan suddenly sent a post on Weibo.

“Thank you very much for participating in the pre-selling of Trillium Root-Securing Pill. The 37,500 packs of the Trillium Root-Securing Pill were sold out in just three minutes, which showed our customers’ recognition of Trillium Root-Securing Pill and trust in our company. There are still many customers who have not been able to buy it yet. Our company has decided to accelerate the production. While ensuring the better effects of the pill, we promise that everyone will be able to get more. The pre-selling of the second batch of the pills will be set in the early morning, three days later. We hope that each person will manage to get a pack of the pills.”

As soon as this post was sent, all the netizens were thrilled.

Although they failed to get the spot for the first batch, there was still the second batch.

Although they had to wait for three days, it was not such a long time. As long as they could get it, waiting for three more days was not a problem.

With this thought in mind, everyone tried their best to prepare for the pre-selling three days later!

The next day,

As Fang Qiu expected, among the 100 people who participated in the tryout, there were indeed a few people who posted online explaining in detail the effects of the pill. They claimed that the effect of the pill was very good and even cured the diseases that they had tried to cure for many years.

Hardly had this kind of post emerged when it immediately pushed Trillium Root-Securing Pill to a higher level.

It was a health product that could cure diseases!

There were not many of them.

Meanwhile, more and more people began to look forward to the Trillium Root-Securing Pill.

Having seen what had happened on the Internet in the past two days, Fang Qiu was no longer as emotional as before. On the contrary, he had some form of vague enlightenment.

“In fact, it’s all because of people’s minds.”

“Are you swayed by the trend or tempted by it?”

“They’re tempted!”

“Everyone is tempted by Yang Ningyuan.”

With this enlightenment in his mind, the trace of internal Qi that Fang Qiu had failed to achieve flowed out quietly. The overflow of internal Qi was completely full.

“Next, it’s time to make a breakthrough.”

Medical Master

Chapter 780: Breaking Through The Seventh Class With One Opened MeridianBreaking Meridian!

When the last trace of internal Qi came out of the 12 standard meridians, Fang Qiu’s strength had officially reached the Completion of the peak of the sixth class.

In the case of sufficient Internal Qi overflowing, a strong sense of breakthrough came over him at once.

“It finally came!”

Feeling the sudden sense of breakthrough, Fang Qiu took a deep breath and then suppressed it.

Then, he immediately took out his mobile phone and booked a high-speed train ticket to Jiangjing.

In the past two days, Fang Qiu had been staying in Jianghang at the invitation of Yang Ningyuan. While waiting to see the marketing effects, he also learned some marketing techniques from Yang Ningyuan.

Now he had seen the marketing effects. Everything that was going to happen next could be predicted. Therefore, there was no need for Fang Qiu to stay any longer. Besides, he was about to make a breakthrough. If he continued to stay in Jianghang, there might be some accidents.

Under these circumstances, Fang Qiu could only leave as soon as possible and take the Heaven Treasure to find a place where there was no one around in order for him to make a breakthrough!

When he returned to school, his three roommates were in class.

Fang Qiu took out a small wooden box from the wardrobe in his dormitory.

Inside the wooden box was a Heaven Treasure ranked 17th—Tianling Crystal. Last time, after Fang Qiu got the treasure map from Chic Cloud Pavilion, he picked this from the top of the snow-capped mountain when he went to the Geirangerfjorden in Norway alone.

“With the Tianling Crystal, I’m confident that I’ll be able to break through and rebuild the Eight Extraordinary Meridians this time.”

As soon as he got the Tianling Crystal, Fang Qiu felt inexplicably at ease.

This was because the unique characteristics of the Tianling Crystal suited him very well.

There was no doubt that if all the martial arts practitioners in the martial arts world knew that martial arts could be rebuilt and meridians could be reopened, then the Tianling Crystal would definitely not only be ranked 17th on the Heaven Treasure List.

This thing could enhance the toughness of the meridians, which was really suitable for the re-opening of the meridians.

Getting the Tianling Crystal, Fang Qiu immediately rushed to the airport.

On the way back to Jiangjing, he had booked a plane ticket to Beijiāng.

After thinking about it for a while, Fang Qiu still felt that the depths of the desert in Beijiāng was the best place for him to break through.

After all, no matter how much noise he made in the depths of the desert, he would not attract anyone's attention. And nothing unexpected would happen.

The reason why Fang Qiu was so worried was that he had once broken through to the seventh class, so he knew that the abnormality caused when he broke through to the seventh class was really too strong. Besides, he was practicing again. The abnormality caused when he broke through would definitely be stronger than when he broke through the first time.

Therefore, before he made a breakthrough, he had to be fully prepared.

A few hours later,

At dusk, Fang Qiu had already entered the depths of the desert of Beijiāng alone.

In the situation where there was no one around for hundreds of kilometers, Fang Qiu chose a relatively high sand dune, sat down cross-legged on the top of the sand dune and began his break through!

"Whew..." Taking a deep breath, Fang Qiu opened the wooden box as the strong wind in the desert blew around him. The fruit, which was as big as a thumb, was three-dimensional and formed in a diamond shape. It was as transparent as crystal. He gently put it into his mouth, ready to swallow it at any time.

At the next moment, Fang Qiu narrowed his eyes.

He immediately released the feeling that he was about to make a breakthrough, which he had been suppressing for a long time.

"Buzz..."

As soon as he released the suppression, Fang Qiu's body naturally emitted sounds of gusts of low winds.

The Qi of Heaven and Earth in the surrounding area seemed to be greatly attracted by something. It began to form a whirlpool, surging wildly in all directions and poured into Fang Qiu's body.

The Qi of Heaven and Earth entered his body.

"Boom!" A huge explosion was heard.

An extremely powerful momentum erupted from Fang Qiu's body, blowing the yellow sand around like waves in all directions.

"It's coming!"

Fang Qiu took a deep breath and closed his eyes.

In an instant, all the Internal Qi that came out of the 12 standard meridians gathered together and directly condensed into an indestructible sharp blade of Internal Qi.

Under Fang Qiu's control, the sharp blade surrounded the 12 major meridians and then immediately dashed toward one of the Eight Extraordinary Meridians.

This meridian was called the Breaking Meridian!

The Breaking Meridian was one of the Eight Extraordinary Meridians. It could adjust the blood and Qi of the 12 Meridians, so it was called the sea of the 12 Meridians.

And because it also played a vital role in the adjustment to the 12 standard meridians, so Fang Qiu chose this meridian to make a breakthrough.

The last time he made a breakthrough, the old master also let him break the Breaking Meridian.

From this, it could be seen how important the Breaking Meridian was.

At that time,

The old master told Fang Qiu.

Among the eight opened meridians, there were eight major acupuncture points: Gongsun point, Neiguan point, Linqi point, Waiguan point, Shenmai point, Houxi point, Lieque point and Zhaohai point.

Therefore, an ancient song was passed down from ancient times—Eight Acupoints Song!

Gongsun point and Breaking Meridian mainly cured the stomach, heart and chest. Neiguan point and Yinwei Meridian also worked in the same way. Linqi point and Danjing connected the Dai Meridian. Yangwei point and Waiguan Meridian were connected. Houxi point and Governing Vessel cured the inner part of the eyes and the neck. Shen Meridian and Yangqiao were connected. Lieque point and Ren Meridian cured the lungs. Yinqiao Meridian and Zhaohai point cured the throat.

The reason why the Eight Extraordinary Meridians were known by this name was that they were not directly related to the viscera and had no connection to the exterior and interior of the body. They went through different channels. They could not only adjust the connection between the 12 standard meridians, but also could accumulate and seep the Qi and blood of the 12 standard meridians.

Among them, Breaking Meridian ran through from head to the toe, covering every part of the body.

Therefore, it was the best choice to open the Breaking Meridian first!

His internal Qi surged up.

Fang Qiu controlled the blade formed by internal Qi. It rushed to the top of his head and officially opened the meridian!

The moment his internal Qi came into contact with the Breaking Meridian,

Suddenly, there was a violent explosion between heaven and earth.

It was like a clap of thunder!

At this moment, Fang Qiu was immersed in his breakthrough and did not notice the strange phenomenon of the outside world at all.

As the sound rang out, dark clouds started gathering in the sky.

He could not see the lightning, but he could clearly hear the sounds of explosions, as if a giant was roaring in the sky.

In the depths of the vast desert, with Fang Qiu's body as the center,

"Rumble, rumble, rumble..."

The wild wind roared and formed a huge tornado in the blink of an eye. It enveloped Fang Qiu from the sky to the ground. All around the huge tornado, the fierce wind swept out in all directions.

In just three minutes, deep in the desert, yellow sand engulfed the entire sky. It was as if a sandstorm had occurred. One could barely see anything.

Three minutes later, a terrifying light began to flicker among the thick dark clouds in the sky. Like a power grid, it completely covered the whole sky.

A devastating aura dropped from the sky and pressed heavily onto Fang Qiu, trying to stop him from making a breakthrough.

A hundred kilometers away,

“Hmm?”

A bearded middle-aged man, who was driving a jeep, was about to cross the desert. When he saw the dark clouds in front of him and the fierce wind blowing, he immediately stopped and stood on the top of the car, looking into the distance.

“Is there someone making a breakthrough?”

Feeling the aura coming from the depths of the desert, as well as the oppressive feeling that could be felt from a hundred kilometers away, the bearded man frowned and muttered, “That’s impossible. When I broke through to the seventh class, I never caused such a big anomaly of heaven and earth. It’s even more impossible for the eighth class or the ninth class.”

“Perhaps, it’s just an ordinary natural phenomenon. It’s just that the pressure of heaven and earth is too strong, so I have to avoid it first.”

He murmured to himself.

The bearded man then drove away.

At this time, Fang Qiu had begun to reopen the Breaking Meridian.

Because he had opened it once before, this time Fang Qiu did not need to rush it at all. He just needed to control the flow of internal Qi and then re-open the Breaking Meridian.

With such a large amount of Internal Qi, the Breaking Meridian, which was only as thick as a chopstick, swelled up in an instant like a python swallowing an antelope and looked as if it was about to burst.

It was not only a single part of it, but an entire Breaking Meridian. The whole meridian was swelling.

As more and more internal Qi surged, Fang Qiu closed the gate through which the Breaking Meridian connected with the other meridians. In this case, the Breaking Meridian expanded exceptionally fast.

In the blink of an eye, it had already expanded to the size of a thumb. Under the impact of such a large amount of internal Qi, with a click, the first tiny crack appeared on the Breaking Meridian.

It was just like the icy surface of the South Pole.

As soon as the first crack appeared, it began to spread wildly in all directions with an unstoppable momentum. Soon, the crack spread all over the entire Breaking Meridian.

“Tianling Crystal!”

Feeling the pain, Fang Qiu did not hesitate to bite the Tianling Crystal, breaking it into pieces.

“Gurgle...”

At the moment when the Tianling Crystal broke, it immediately turned into a thin stream of water, pouring into Fang Qiu’s throat.

After entering his body, this current of water-like energy directly rushed to the Breaking Meridian and wrapped it up with one-tenth of the energy. Then, the rest of the energy surged into the 12 standard meridians, as well as several other Eight Extraordinary Meridians that had not been reopened.

This shocked Fang Qiu.

But at the next moment, Fang Qiu witnessed that one-tenth of the energy, like ice, freezing the entire Breaking Meridian. In the ice, the cracks on the Breaking Meridian were rapidly healing. Moreover, Fang Qiu could also feel that under the cover of this energy, the other meridians in his body were undergoing some extremely subtle changes.

That was right.

It was a kind of toughening and strengthening!

In such a situation, it lasted for about 15 minutes.

When the energy of the Tianling Crystal in his body was completely used up, Fang Qiu found that he had successfully reopened the pulse!

The Qi of Heaven and Earth poured in from all directions and surged into his body, filling all the meridians in his body.

Fang Qiu suddenly opened his eyes and there was a flash of light in his eyes.

“Seventh-class Martial Superior with one opened meridian!”

Standing up, Fang Qiu clenched his fists with a grin on his face.

As long as he opened the Eight Extraordinary Meridians, he could break through to the seventh class. Because he had broken through once before, Fang Qiu’s breakthrough this time was smooth. As soon as his internal Qi entered the Breaking Meridian, he made a complete breakthrough.

After breaking through the Breaking Meridian, Fang Qiu’s strength reached the level of the seventh-class Martial Superior with one opened meridian.

“Two meridians will open the Dai Meridian. Three meridians will open the Yinwei Meridian...”

Fang Qiu secretly calculated and murmured, “Yun Yangzi is a ninth-class Martial Superior with one opened meridian and his opened meridian should be the Ren Meridian.”

“The Ren Meridian is indeed stronger than any other meridian. This is also the reason why a ninth-class Martial Superior is much stronger than the peak of the eighth-class Martial Superior. The ninth-class Martial Superior with two opened meridians needs to open the Governing Meridian. Once the Ren Meridian and Governing Meridian are fully opened, it means that the 12 standard meridians and the Eight Extraordinary Meridians are all opened. Only when these meridians are fully opened can one become a guru. But the last step is a real chasm!"
