Chapter 821: Note from Air Hostess

At Jiangzhe TV Station Tower, in the hall on the first floor, for the recording of this episode, all the things in the hall on the first floor were temporarily taken away, and even a small red stage was set up in the center.

On the background board on the stage, there were the images of the six members and the publicity of the show.

In front of the stage, a large group of staff surrounded the stage in a half-moon shape.

“Start!”

As soon as the director gave the order, all the well-prepared departments of the show immediately began to work. The cameraman also directly turned the camera to the six members standing on the stage.

“Hello, everyone. Welcome to the show.”

Liu Qingshi, who was in charge of the production, stood in the center. As soon as the camera was turned on, he immediately took a step forward and said to the camera with a big smile, “You’re right. I’m still the host.”

He warmed up the show.

The six fixed members began to chat with each other on the stage.

They were chatting.

“Hey, I heard that there is a mysterious big star coming to our show. It’s so heated on the Internet. Why don’t we see him?”

Ying’er, who was the only female MC, looked around as she spoke.

The camera also turned.

It can be seen that on the right side of the stage, there was a small red carpet.

Three words also appeared on the TV screen: Could it be?

“Ying’er is right.”

Liu Qingshi immediately replied, “Today, we have indeed ushered in the two most important guests of this season’s show.”

“The two most important guests?”

Zhang Junhe, who was a little short, stood up and asked in a panic, “Will the stage collapse?”

“Ha-ha.”

Because of Zhang Junhe’s vivid and lively performance, everyone burst into laughter.

“I’m embarrassed.”

Liu Qingshi quickly stood up and said, “Can you not use such an old joke?”

Zhang Junhe chuckled.

“Okay.”

Liu Qingshi continued to say, “Who are our mysterious guests today? Welcome Fang Qiu, who won the champion of the Young Chinese Medicine Doctor, and our little princess, Song Yaqi!”

After that, the camera turned.

They saw that Song Yaqi held Fang Qiu’s arm. They walked out of the red carpet with a smile on their face. After waving to the camera to say hello, they went on the stage and shook hands with the six members one by one.

“Have you thought of it?”

Liu Qingshi’s eyes widened as he asked the other members, “Have you thought of it?”

“No, I didn’t think of it at all.”

Zheng Weilian looked silly, but he said in an extremely serious tone, “I really didn’t expect that the director would find a doctor for us. Was he afraid that we would break our legs while recording? In order to participate in this show, I took an accident insurance!”

“Ha-ha.”

Everyone burst into laughter.

“In fact, this is the first time I’ve seen Fang Qiu. Although I really want to know him, I’m very afraid of seeing him. Do you know why?”

Liu Qingshi asked.

“Why?”

Ying'er was curious.

Fang Qiu and Song Yaqi also looked at Liu Qing Shi curiously.

“Because I’m always worried that I’ll see “you’re sick” in his eyes. When I saw him looking at me, I felt that he was telling me that ‘you’re sick, you’re sick!’”

As Liu Qingshi spoke, he pretended to shiver.

On the other side, everyone was amused by him.

The camera also turned to Fang Qiu.

“Is that so?”

Looking at the camera, Fang Qiu laughed loudly. Then he immediately glanced at the six members and asked, “So, how about I diagnosing you one by one?”

As soon as these words came out, “Don’t!”

The six members immediately shook their heads and waved their hands.

“Don’t say it.”

Liu Qingshi said in a serious tone, “If you openly talk about their illness, it will spoil their image. Anyway, I am quite normal.”

This immediately caused the other members to be unhappy, and they all spoke out to blame him.

“For the sake of the high image of you, I’ll talk about it privately. You can’t hide your illness and avoid medical treatment,” said Fang Qiu with a smile.

Hearing that, they immediately pretended to be angry.

“Fang Qiu, you’re wrong. Didn’t it mean that we’re sick?”

Gu Jianguo, who had a sinister look on his face, immediately stood up and said discontentedly.

“We’re not sick!”

Zheng Weilian immediately raised his arms and shouted.

However, because the voice was too loud, it immediately attracted everyone’s attention. The scene became still for a while, which made everyone very embarrassed.

“If you’re not ill, then I’ll make it public.”

Fang Qiu showed a playful smile. With a simple sentence, he immediately resolved the embarrassment.

Hearing that, all of them changed their expressions and rushed up to cover Fang Qiu’s mouth to stop him.

Outside the mirror, everyone in the director’s group was very happy when they saw members were in harmony.

Although he only said a few words, judging from Fang Qiu’s current performance, he was obviously not a dull person.

This was a good thing for the show. At least, it could make the show look interesting and the audience would not think that the show had wasted such a big star as Fang Qiu.

“Everyone, calm down.”

When the members on the stage were playing, the director suddenly said, “As I said before, in order to thank you for your efforts, the program group is going to reward everyone. At the same time, in order to welcome Fang Qiu and Song Yaqi, from tomorrow on, we will offer you a beach tour in Southeast Asia for three days and two nights.”

The sixth members immediately cheered. It seemed that they believed it.

After all, both Fang Qiu and Song Yaqi were not people who could stand suffering. To invite such big stars, they had to treat them well.

Fang Qiu and Song Yaqi looked at each other and showed a playful smile at the same time.

They knew very well whether it was a three-day two-night beach adventure or a torture.

That night, after filming the beginning of the show, they settled in a luxury hotel near the Jiangzhe TV Station Tower.

Early the next morning, the staff of the show woke up the six members one by one. When they were about to call Fang Qiu, they found that Fang Qiu had just run back.

It was only six o'clock in the morning.

It shocked the six members.

Early in the morning, the show began recording.

Six members, each carrying a suitcase, appeared at the airport in fashion clothes. Obviously, they were ready to have a vacation.

On the other side, Fang Qiu was wearing a set of sportswear.

It was because he knew the purpose of this episode that Fang Qiu chose sportswear in order to conveniently move about on the island.

However, when they saw that Fang Qiu was wearing sportswear, the six members immediately began to complain about the program group, blaming them for not informing Fang Qiu and not preparing casual clothes for vacation.

On the other side, Fang Qiu nodded repeatedly in agreement.

When Song Yaqi appeared, she was also dressed in sportswear just like Fang Qiu, and the program group was scolded by the members again.

In the end, the program group could only raise their hands and surrender.

“Well, in order to not affect the order, everyone, please prepare to board.”

The director informed.

There were a lot of people at the airport. Since so many stars came, it became even more crowded.

Everyone was well aware of this.

So they all got the tickets sent by the staff and were ready to board.

When he was getting the ticket, “Like ascending the throne?”

When Fang Qiu got the ticket, he suddenly said, “Hey? Why do I feel like ascending the throne?”

The six members were stunned, and then they immediately said to Fang Qiu and Song Yaqi, “Welcome the emperor and the empress to board the plane.”

This time.

Fang Qiu and Song Yaqi were both embarrassed.

“Why did I say that?”

Fang Qiu gave a wry smile.

“Look, Fang Qiu blushed.”

Ying’er pointed at Fang Qiu surprisingly.

“Ha-ha...”

All of a sudden, all the members burst into laughter.

On the other side, the director took a look.

All of a sudden, his eyes lit up.

“Among all the variety shows today, the favorite thing they like most is to take couple’s love as speciality, isn’t it?”

“If editing was well done, it would definitely heat up the discussion on the couple and be able to blow up the topic!

“This must be kept in mind!”

Then, everyone boarded the plane.

They didn’t know whether it was because of the big stars or because the show was so rich. Anyway, their plane tickets were all first class.

They checked in and sat down.

On the plane, when the hostesses saw a group of stars coming, they were all surprised.

However...

They were not too excited. They just nodded to these stars with a smile and didn’t disturb them. It seemed that they were very decent.

However...

When they saw Fang Qiu, their eyes really lit up.

Shortly afterward, the plane took off and flew steadily in the air.

A hostess began to push the dining car out to serve the passengers. She pushed it to Fang Qiu and asked him. When she found that Fang Qiu didn’t want anything, she actually handed him a note.

There was not only a note, but also a pen!

It happened to be seen by the members who were about to sleep. Suddenly, everyone became interested. They all turned their heads with a faint smile and looked at Fang Qiu with interest.

Looking at the paper and pen that the hostess handed him, Fang Qiu was also very embarrassed.

“I’ve been on the plane so many times, but I didn’t meet anyone who gave me the contact information. After all, I’m a star. It’s so depressing.”

On the other side of the aisle, Liu Qingshi covered his forehead, looking depressed.

Hearing that, Fang Qiu was even more embarrassed.

Beside him, Song Yaqi also stared at Fang Qiu with a smile, waiting to see the note in Fang Qiu’s hand.

He had no choice.

Fang Qiu could only open the note under the gaze of the members and Song Yaqi.

He took a closer look.

On the note, it read, “Doctor Fang, how to treat dysmenorrhea?”

In the end, she even drew a smiling face.

Seeing the words on the note, Song Yaqi and other people almost burst into laughter. They quickly covered their mouths and tried their best to hold back their laughter. They turned their heads away from Fang Qiu.

It was obvious that they were secretly laughing.

At first, everyone thought that she was secretly convey her love and wanted to get the contact information. However, they didn't expect that she was looking for a medical treatment!

It was so funny!

He looked helplessly at the people around him who were laughing.

Fang Qiu shook his head bitterly, then picked up the pen and wrote: The pain before period was mostly caused by cold. During period was stasis of Qi and blood, and after was deficiency of Qi and blood. No matter which one, you should directly soak your feet in hot water at night, and then use moxibustion for 30 minutes on Shenque acupoint, Qihai acupoint, Guanyuan acupoint, as well as Mingmen acupoint. It would be effective in a month.

He finished writing, and pressed the call button directly.

The hostess quickly came over. Fang Qiu closed the note and handed it over with both hands.

Seeing this, the hostess doubted.

She seemed to be asking Fang Qiu.

Fang Qiu could only nod.

"Thank you."

The hostess said happily and left with the note.

Chapter 822: Director, Were Scared. Let Us Go Back!

“Hey.”

As soon as the hostess left, Liu Qingshi immediately moved closer to Fang Qiu through the aisle. He whispered, “Have you written your contact information on the note?”

“I wrote yours.”

Fang Qiu replied.

“Terrific.”

Liu Qingshi gave Fang Qiu a thumb-up seriously and said, “Bro, I’m sure I’ll make you my friend!”

Fang Qiu was speechless.

A few hours later, the plane landed.

On the plane, no one mentioned it, because there were other passengers in the first class cabin. They were afraid of disturbing others because many people were sleeping. But it was different when they got off the plane. Liu Qingshi even adapted a little and made the whole thing a joke. When Liu Qingshi talked about it, everyone suddenly laughed crazily

“Listen carefully.”

While laughing, Liu Qingshi put his arm around Fang Qiu’s shoulder and said, “From now on, this is my brother, because he left my contact information on the note, ha-ha.”

“I’ll tell my sister-in-law!”

Ying'er immediately rushed out and said.

Hearing that, Liu Qingshi, who was laughing out loud, stopped in an instant with a hiccup.

This time, everyone else was laughing their heads off.

“Ha-ha, you went too far.”

The fat man, Zheng Weilian, laughed out loud.

“You’ll have to kneel on the ground when you get home, right?”

Huang Huachao, who had been silent for a long time, came up and burst out laughing.

Seeing that, Liu Qingshi glared at them fiercely, and then immediately went to the camera and said, “Honey, I’m just kidding. Fang Qiu wrote his own information, his own.”

However, when he just finished half, he was dragged away by a group of people.

Seeing that they were getting farther and farther away from the camera, Liu Qingshi still stretched out his hand and shouted, just like when Bai Suzhen and Xu Xian were separated by Fa Hai.

After being pulled out for more than ten meters, Liu Qingshi was still shouting.

After that, the director group took everyone to get on the bus that had been prepared for a long time.

They didn’t even go to the hotel, but directly took everyone to the beach.

They came to the beach.

All of a sudden, they crazily played.

They were all running, playing with water, and playing beach volleyball. They were having a good time.

When they were having a good time, "Everyone, quiet please." the director shouted, "It's almost time. We'll take you out to sea and enjoy it!"

Because they were having so much fun, the six members didn't expect it to be a trap at all. Immediately, they boarded the ship under the arrangement of the director group.

In the beginning, everyone was cheering.

But as time went by, everyone couldn't stand it anymore and began to feel dizzy.

"Director, when are we going back?"

"How far have we been out? I'll throw up if we went farther."

"I'm afraid I can't hold on."

Everyone appeared to be in a rather miserable state, and they all asked bitterly.

"Okay."

The director thought for a moment and said, "There is an island ahead. Since no one can stand it, let's have a rest on the island in front of us and have a picnic. How about that?"

“Okay.”

Liu Qingshi immediately spoke on behalf of all the members. He said, “As long as we can get off the boat, we can agree with anything.”

Sure enough.

Soon, the boat arrived at the island.

Everyone got off the boat one after another.

After getting off the boat, some of them walked forward in a daze, and some of them squatted down directly, looking like they were about to vomit.

“Shall I massage your acupuncture points?”

Fang Qiu said, and then immediately went up. He pressed the acupuncture points for them one by one and said, “I’ll help you massage them with my Qi. You should be fine soon.”

Sure enough.

As soon as Fang Qiu finished massaging, Liu Qingshi, who was the first to be massaged, woke up from a severe coma.

“Wow, I’m not dizzy at all.”

Looking at Fang Qiu, Liu Qingshi said with a shocked face, “It’s true. I’m not dizzy at all. Fang Qiu is so awesome.”

Then, the rest and Song Yaqi also woke up from the coma one by one.

The people who were dying just now were suddenly sober again.

But right at this moment, everyone found that except for several PDs and cameras, the people of the director group didn't disembark.

He turned to have a look and found that the ship of the director group had run far away.

It seemed that they understood what was happening. The director, who was far away from them, picked up the sponsor's mobile phone and dialed Liu Qingshi.

"Director, don't joke around. Really, come back soon."

As soon as he answered the phone, Liu Qingshi shook his head and said, with an awkward smile on his face.

"Welcome to the uninhabited island."

On the other side, Director Liu Guobin did not answer Liu Qingshi's question at all. Instead, he said directly, "You will spend three days and two nights on the uninhabited island. I wish you good luck!"

Upon hearing these words, except for Fang Qiu and Song Yaqi, everyone else was stunned!

"Is this a three-day two-night trip on the Southeast Asian beach?"

"This is not the beach adventure that I'm looking forward to!"

"Let the ship come back. I really don't want to stay here for three days and two nights. Come back quickly!"

“Director, if you don’t come back, we won’t record it!”

In the blink of an eye, they used all kinds of methods to threaten the director.

But on the other side, Director Liu didn’t listen to them at all.

“No, director... I’m begging you, we’re scared, we’re scared, okay? At least come back and give us our mobile phones, let us tell our family that we’re safe.”

Liu Qingshi said.

“Yes, director. If we were out of contact for more than 24 hours, we can be registered as missing people. At least please give us a chance to call.”

Gu Jianguo, who had a sinister look on his face, frowned and said bitterly.

“Don’t worry.”

The director’s voice came from the other end of the phone, saying, “Your assistant will help you call your family. Don’t worry, everything has been arranged.”

When the assistant was mentioned, all of a sudden, everyone was even angrier.

This is obviously a trap. Why didn’t he tell them in advance?

“By the way.”

The voice of Director Liu came again, saying, “Your agent has gone to the beach replacing you. They will have fun in the next three days.”

This time, all the members were dumbfounded.

“Director, you’re too tricky. Are you trying to trick us? Fired! If we go back, you’ll be fired!”

“What the f*ck, we’ve been tricked by them!”

“Don’t do that. Director, can you let us off?”

“That’s right. We didn’t bring anything with us. How did we survive here for three days and two nights?”

All of them begged for mercy.

In the end, it was useless.

Seeing that the director was determined, all of a sudden, everyone became tough again.

“What if we fall ill and what will you guys do?”

“That’s right. Needless to say we dress like this on the island for three days and two nights, we’ll catch a cold in one day!”

“You’ll have to pay for insurance!”

“I have a large-scale production of hundreds of millions of dollars. I’m the main actor. If I’m absent because of illness, can you afford it?”

As soon as these words came out, they even began to brag.

The more they talked, the more they laughed.

On the other end, Director Liu laughed and said, "Don't worry. You don't have to worry about getting sick at all, because Fang Qiu is your private doctor. He won't let you get sick!"

"About your schedule. I've already communicated with your agent. No problem!"

"Even if there is a big production of hundreds of billions of dollars, we will help you to push it back!"

Everyone was stunned.

"I see! We've been set up! This is a trap! We've been set up. Fang Qiu himself is a trap!"

Liu Qingshi said loudly, looking at Fang Qiu, "A private doctor? This is what the program group specially found Fang Qiu in case that something will happen to us. Look at the clothes of Fang Qiu and Song Yaqi. They don't seem to dress clothes which are suitable on the beach."

When everyone looked at it, they found that it was true.

While they were all in a flowery shirt and a pair of undershirts.

All of a sudden, everyone pretended to be angry.

They immediately rushed forward and surrounded Fang Qiu.

"Tell us honestly. You knew in advance, didn't you?"

Liu Qingshi pretended to be angry and asked, "Is that so?"

It seemed that they were not coming with good intentions.

Fang Qiu quickly raised his hand to surrender and said, "I do know in advance, but I don't know you don't know. Before you start, you'd better think it through. I am your private doctor for the next three days and two nights. You'd better be careful, hmph."

Everyone stopped in a hurry.

After all, never offend a doctor.

It was okay if the minor illness was not cured, but it would be a problem if serious illness were caused.

The most important thing was...

Everyone knew that Fang Qiu's medical skills were excellent.

In this case, Fang Qiu was able to make them suffer well when he treated them. Anyway, no matter what kind of injury Fang Qiu could cure, it would be easy for him to let them suffer.

With that thought in mind, they immediately began to surround Fang Qiu and kept trying to please him.

Some of them were massaging Fang Qiu's back; some were massaging his shoulders and legs; and some of them kept praising him.

In the middle of the crowd, Fang Qiu looked very pleased.

Beside him, Song Yaqi was so amused by them that she covered her mouth and laughed.

"Well..."

After flattering Fang Qiu for a long time, Ying'er saw that Song Yaqi was smiling on the side. She immediately got out and asked Song Yaqi, "Do you think that this group of people is too unscrupulous?"

Song Yaqi nodded repeatedly.

“Alas, I’m used to it.”

Ying’er shook her head with a sigh and said, “I’m a tough girl, but I’m almost taken away by them.”

Song Yaqi looked at Ying’er with a smile and expressed her sympathy.

On the other side, “Good luck to you.”

A voice came from a loudspeaker, which sounded in everyone’s ears.

Everyone turned their heads to have a look.

The director was standing on the bow of the ship with a loudspeaker in his hand, laughing out loud.

This scene made them so angry that they were about to lose their temper.

Immediately, they picked up the stones under their feet and threw them hard at the ship where the director was on.

However, the distance was really too far.

In addition, while laughing the director gave the order. As soon as the engine rang, the ship disappeared.

All of a sudden, everyone was dumbfounded.

All of them stared at each other.

They had never experienced this before.

In the past, even if there were similar programs recorded, the director group would suffer with them and live with them on the island. But this time, they did not give them anything and threw them down.

The real feeling of being exiled made everyone at a loss.

Medical Master

Chapter 823: Qigong Master, Show Us

“What should we do?”

Seeing that the director group really left, Huang Huafeng, the idol group member, suddenly spread out his hands and said bitterly, “How can we live on this island for three days and two nights without food and water?”

In the blink of an eye, the six members were a little embarrassed.

Although they could act at the show, and they were indeed acting, they were really very angry now.

They didn’t even give a reminder of such a big thing, which made them feel as if they had really been deceived.

However, no matter how angry they were, what’s done is done. They had indeed signed the contract with the program group, and it was not suitable for them to stop recording. They could only see what they should do.

“Alas...”

As the main member of the show, the purpose of Liu Qingshi's existence was to control the rhythm of the show. Seeing that the current situation was not right, he could only let out a long sigh. Suddenly, he pointed at the beach in the front, "There is a coconut tree!"

After that, he ran to it.

Everyone followed closely behind.

"That's what I think."

After bringing everyone to the tree, Liu Qingshi opened said, "Since this is the case, we can't just admit defeat. The program group wants us to make a fool of ourselves, but we can't do as they wish. We must touch it off to the nines."

"Yes!"

"That's right. We're capable."

"Without them, we can still live on our own hands!"

Everyone echoed him.

"There was nothing to eat. Let's find it ourselves. Isn't there a coconut here?"

Liu Qingshi raised his head, pointed at the coconut on the tree, and said, "Let's get two coconuts first. Who's coming?"

"Let me try."

Huang Huachao rolled up his sleeves, revealed his strong arms, and began to climb up with the tree in his arms.

However, the tree was really too high, and there was no place to step on it. After climbing up a little, he fell down accidentally.

When he wanted to climb up again, he found that he had no strength left.

The others also took turns.

No matter how hard they climbed, they couldn't climb up.

After a while, everyone was exhausted. They could only look up at the coconut, which was so close to them, and swallowed their saliva out of exhaustion.

"We have so many people, can't we even get a coconut?"

Liu Qingshi smiled bitterly.

"The main reason is that the tree is too slippery," said Huang Huachao.

"It's hopeless."

Gu Jianguo said sadly, "This is an island. Now the sun is so hot, we can go into the sea to relieve the heat. But in the evening, there is no sun, and the sea breeze is so strong. Won't we be blown into dried meat?"

"You're right. If we want to survive here, we have to set up a camp first. We can't just sleep on the beach, can we?"

Ying'er said.

"It's physical work to set up a camp. Now we don't even have anything to eat. Everyone is exhausted. How can we set up a camp?"

Zheng Weilian said.

Hearing that, the others also nodded in agreement.

Everyone had used too much strength to climb the tree just now, and now they had no strength at all.

"Oh."

Just when everyone was particularly distressed, Liu Qingshi suddenly thought of something. He turned his head to look at Fang Qiu and said, "Fang Qiu, don't you know Qigong? Come on, it's time for you to show us. Hurry up and use your Qigong to shake down a few coconuts for us. Even if you knock down the tree, it's not your fault. At that time, let the program group compensate for it!"

As soon as he said, everyone turned to look at Fang Qiu.

"Yes, you know Qigong."

Ying'er's eyes lit up. She patted Fang Qiu on the shoulder and said, "Our dinner counts on you. Don't starve us to death."

"Well..."

Under everyone's gaze, Fang Qiu gave a wry smile and whispered, "My Qigong is used for health preservation."

However, they didn't care about it at all.

They went straight up to surround Fang Qiu and stood in a row in front of him.

“Next, please welcome Mr. Fang Qiu, an international Qigong master, to perform picking up the coconut with Qigong for us. Please applaud!”

Liu Qingshi teased.

Applause.

Everyone applauded.

Fang Qiu opened his mouth as if to say something.

The five men didn’t give him any chance.

“Come on, applaud.”

The applause rose again.

They directly interrupted Fang Qiu.

Fang Qiu knew that he had no choice.

He smiled bitterly and say, “Well, I’ll throw all caution to the wind today. I’ll show you what Chinese Qigong is!”

After that, he strode toward the coconut tree with his head held high.

Everyone looked at each other.

All of them had expectant looks on their faces.

At the same time, everyone was very curious. Was Fang Qiu's Qigong really as powerful as in TV series?

The more they thought about it, the more excited they became.

On the other side, Fang Qiu seemed to be well prepared.

"Hey, ha..."

After performing the basic movements of a whole set of Qigong standing stance in front of everyone, a burst of warm applause immediately came to Fang Qiu's ears.

"Amazing!"

Liu Qingshi exclaimed in admiration and led everyone to clap.

"Your performance is really eye-catching. If I had money, I would definitely reward you."

Zheng Weilian said seriously.

Everyone burst into laughter.

Fang Qiu was also speechless.

"Just now, it was just a casual performance."

Fang Qiu waved his hand and said, "It's time to perform!"

He took a step forward, faced the tree, and made preparations.

In fact, Fang Qiu had already decided that he didn't use internal Qi!

Anyway, the variety show was just for fun. If the coconut couldn't fall down, he would say, "I pursue the harmony between men and nature and the coconut tree is belonged to nature. So we can't hurt it."

"If you don't believe it, then hit yourself to see if it hurts. You will feel pain, and the tree will also feel pain."

"So, in order to take care of the feeling of the tree, I held back 99 percent of my strength!"

With that thought in mind, Fang Qiu also thought of a perfect ending for himself.

That was to make a compassionate expression to everyone and to the camera.

Thinking about it carefully, this was really a perfect explanation.

To be able to think so much, Fang Qiu couldn't help but praise himself in his heart.

However, no matter how much he thought about it.

He still had to move his hand.

"Hiss..."

He took a deep breath.

Fang Qiu put on a good posture and then slapped the tree in front of him.

Just as he was about to finish his work, “Bang!”

A coconut fell from the tree.

Fang Qiu was dumbfounded.

The six members, together with Song Yaqi, were all dumbfounded.

They didn’t expect that Fang Qiu was so awesome. They couldn’t pick it up for a long time. How could Fang Qiu make it so easily?

“It is amazing, isn’t it?”

“Wow!!!”

After waking up from the shock, everyone immediately exclaimed.

The five male members went straight up and surrounded Fang Qiu. Then, they lifted Fang Qiu up and threw him up with great excitement.

In their opinion, Fang Qiu was really amazing.

Qigong was amazing. It was exactly the same as the one on TV. It could even shake the coconut down from the tree.

“Look, look, this is the hand of our Chinese Qigong master.”

Holding Fang Qiu’s hand, Liu Qingshi excitedly raised his mouth and was about to kiss him.

Seeing that, Fang Qiu was so frightened that he quickly took back his hand.

The others were shocked, while he himself was completely stunned.

Because he didn't use any Internal Qi at all in that palm. It was just an ordinary slap. Why did the coconut fall down?

Beside him, Ying'er and Song Yaqi looked at Fang Qiu with great admiration.

"Master Fang, how did you do it? It's amazing!"

Ying'er asked with worship.

"Yeah, it's amazing."

Song Yaqi also showed her admiration.

"Coincidence, it's a coincidence."

Fang Qiu gave a wry smile and quickly said, "In fact, I just gave an ordinary slap. It's a coincidence that the coconut could fall."

"Don't be modest. How could there be such a coincidence?"

Liu Qingshi said.

"It's true."

Fang Qiu smiled bitterly and said, "Why don't you see it again?"

He gave another slap to the tree.

However, another coconut fell down.

This time, Fang Qiu was completely confused.

And on the other side, the crowd cheered at once.

“You’re still saying that it’s fake?”

“My brother, you really have strength!”

“If it’s all fake, wouldn’t I be blind?”

The members spoke one after another.

Although they said so, in fact, they were also full of shock and doubt. Because they was right next to Fang Qiu, they could clearly feel that the power of Fang Qiu’s slap was indeed no different from an ordinary slap.

But even if they knew it, anyway, as the hosts of the variety show, they had to show enough performing effect.

“Really?”

Seeing that no one believed him, Fang Qiu quickly continued to explain, “I really just casually clapped my hands.”

Everyone still didn’t believe it.

“In my opinion, Fang Qiu is definitely a Wulin expert.”

“His internal Qi is as strong as that of White-browed Master!”

“Be careful, everyone. Stay away from him. Maybe we’ll lose half of our lives after Fang Qiu’s palm strike.”

Everyone started to kick up a fuss.

“If you don’t believe me, come and beat it.”

Fang Qiu smiled bitterly, “Maybe you can also beat it down.”

“Let me try.”

Liu Qingshi immediately walked up and slapped his palm at the tree.

However, nothing happened!

Without another word, Liu Qingshi turned around, cupped his hands at Fang Qiu, and shouted, “Master!”

After that, Zheng Weilian went up to the tree and gave it a slap, but still nothing happened.

“Master!”

Zheng Weilian greeted Fang Qiu with a cupped fist salute like Liu Qingshi.

“God, are you playing with me?”

Fang Qiu was about to cry.

On the other side, the camera just caught this scene, and the expression on his face was really funny.

Beside the coconut tree, everyone was still trying.

Even Song Yaqi slapped her hands, but no coconut fell.

After all the people trying, everyone turned to look at Fang Qiu.

It was obvious that they were asking, “What else do you say, Master?”

“It seems that this time, it should be very firm. If I try again, you will know that I didn’t lie to you.”

As he spoke, Fang Qiu walked up to the tree.

Medical Master

Chapter 824: Its Not True. You Have to Trust Me!

After two consecutive tries to run Qi, Fang Qiu began to doubt if he failed to control his strength properly.

However, that couldn’t be right, for he was a guru after all.

Wasn’t it a simple matter of controlling his strength properly for him?

He still needed to be cautious. Under everyone's gaze, Fang Qiu walked to the coconut tree and patted it gently as if patting a watermelon.

Everyone immediately looked up, only to find that no coconut had fallen off.

Fang Qiu immediately laughed out loud and said, "Haha. I've told you that it was a coincidence, wasn't it?"

"Pa, pa, pa..." But as soon as he finished speaking, the remaining four or five coconuts on the tree all fell with a whoosh.

Witnessing the coconuts falling like a heavy shower, Fang Qiu was completely stupefied. He stood straight under the tree, his eyes bulging, for he found it hard to believe what he had seen.

"Haha." People around couldn't help but burst into laughter.

Everyone covered their stomachs, pointed at the coconuts all over the ground, and laughed heartily.

"Fang Qiu." After laughing for a while, Liu Qingshi held back his laughter and walked to Fang Qiu. He threw his arm around Fang Qiu's shoulder and said, "Master, now you can't pretend it, can you?"

"You deserve to be the master of Qigong in Huaxia. You made all the coconuts fall with such a light pat. Awesome!"

The other members also came over one after another.

They stared at Fang Qiu in a state of shock.

"You're amazing!"

Gu Jianguo gave Fang Qiu a thumbs-up.

“Master Fang, you’re awesome.” Ying’er acted like a fangirl, gazing at Fang Qiu with her bright eyes.

“Master, please take me as your disciple,” Zheng Weilian shouted at Fang Qiu with cupped fists, looking rather like a reckless man.

“Master, I’m here to pay my respect!” Without saying anything else, Zhang Junhe directly knelt down on the ground.

“Please don’t,” Fang Qiu quickly reached out to hold him while saying to everyone, “it’s really a coincidence. What do you want me to say so that you can believe me?”

No sooner had he finished his words than everyone turned their heads in unison and didn’t listen to Fang Qiu at all.

“Master Fang is too powerful. We don’t have anything to be afraid of now.”

Liu Qingshi said to the others, “For the next three days and two nights on this uninhabited island, we can all rely on Master Fang. With Master Fang here, we don’t need to be afraid even if we meet a beast.”

“Since we are on this uninhabited island, the island belongs to us now. Master Fang sounds a bit like a fortune teller. Why don’t we call him Mentor Fang?”

Huang Huachao turned to Liu Qing Shi and said, “How is it, Island Owner Liu?”

The moment he said that, everyone immediately began to call each other by nicknames.

Having teased for a while, Liu Qingshi waved his hand and claimed. “Okay. Since I am the island owner, I will be responsible for my people. Although we don’t have food, water, or a bed, we have Mentor Fang. As long as Mentor Fang makes a move, we can also fight wild beasts. With Mentor Fang Qiu, we are not afraid of anything!”

Seeing that everyone was having fun, Fang Qiu had no choice but to rush up and say, "No. It's not real. You have to believe me. Can you please trust me?"

However, everyone dispersed in an instant, and no one paid any attention to him.

They picked up coconuts from the ground and went to smash them.

Even Song Yaqi was pulled away by Ying'er.

Only Fang Qiu was left under the tree.

Looking at the people who scattered, he was overcome with frustration.

It was true that he simply exerted a bit of ordinary strength just now.

This coconut tree was definitely messing with him!

Soon, everyone came up with many ideas. At last, they managed to smash the coconuts, drank the juice, and eat the flesh. Only then did they recover some energy after being worn out.

Under the lead of Liu Qingshi, everyone gathered together to discuss the situation.

"According to the current situation, it's certain that we have to live in this uninhabited island for three days and two nights. Since we want to survive, we must make correct arrangements so that we can live well during this period," Liu Qingshi added, "To survive, the first thing we need is food, the second one is water, and the last is the place to stay. I'll divide now."

After all, he was the main MC.

In private, Liu Qingshi was regarded as everyone's big brother. Undoubtedly, what he said weighed the most. Also, everyone was willing to listen to him naturally.

“The first group: Zheng Weilian, Gu Jianguo, and Zhang Junhe.”

Liu Qingshi pointed at the three of them and said, “You guys can be called Comedian Trio. You are responsible for getting familiar with the terrain of the island and looking for what can be eaten on the island. You can also search for some branches and leaves. It’ll be the best to choose the most suitable spot to put up a place for us to spend the night.”

“The second group: Huang Huachao and Ying’er. You two need to find us water. Because we’ll only live here in a short period, water is much more important than food.”

“The people of the last group will be me, Fang Qiu, and Song Yaqi.”

Speaking of which, Liu Qingshi smirked and said, “The three of us will be hunting for food. Look at the sky. In another two or three hours, it will darken. Guys, we have to move quickly. Try to settle our food, drink, and shelter before it is dark.”

Hearing that, everyone nodded at once.

Beside him, Fang Qiu couldn’t help but secretly pay Liu Qingshi a compliment after hearing his arrangement.

He must admit that Liu Qingshi, as the main MC, did have great EQ, for he was fully aware of how to lead the show going.

Since he learned that they would live on the uninhabited island for three days and two nights, the first thing Liu Qingshi did was to guide everyone to get rid of the negative emotions so that the show could continue. Then he used Fang Qiu as a laughing stock to make them completely forget their dissatisfaction. Then, not until it was almost dark did he begin to arrange the work. In this way, due to the lack of time, the audience would have a sense of urgency and thus become more interested in the show when it was broadcast.

Apart from this, Liu Qingshi also made Huang Huachao and Ying’er in one team. They were the youngest and most energetic ones among the six members, who were also considered a TV couple. Fang Qiu and Song Yaqi, two prominent figures, also teamed up with him. In this way, there would be two pairs of TV couples. Because he was the main MC, Fang Qiu and Song Yaqi must have the most shots. It would be easier for them to create highlights when they were together with him. Thus, more material could be used in the show.

After the division, everyone began to move separately.

"Let's look around first and see if we can find any tools. Maybe we can find some crabs," Liu Qingshi said.

Fang Qiu and Song Yaqi nodded in unison.

But after looking around for a while, Fang Qiu and Liu Qing Shi didn't find anything except for dead branches.

Song Yaqi, however, walked over with a lump of stuff.

"I found some ropes." Stopping in front of them, Song Yaqi raised her hand, where laid a lump of messy and thin ropes which seemed to be used to make up a net.

"This will do," Liu Qingshi hurriedly praised her and said, "This rope is of great use. If we want to set up a place to live at night, this rope can help us fix the branch."

"Unfortunately, I didn't find anything to eat." Song Yaqi gave a wry smile. Then she walked to the beach and said, "I'll go and see if I can pick up some seafood."

"Alas!" Liu Qingshi shook his head and sighed bitterly. "If we didn't eat anything, we wouldn't have the strength to work. We only ate coconuts just now. But it was as if we hadn't eaten anything. It was a pity that we didn't have any tools while facing such a vast and boundless sea. It would be great if we could go fishing. A tuna fish can definitely fill our stomachs!"

"Ah..." As soon as he finished speaking, a scream suddenly sounded.

The two of them turned their heads to have a look.

Song Yaqi, who was walking by the sea, was covering her mouth in amazement.

“What’s wrong?” Fang Qiu and Liu Qingshi dashed over.

“No, I’m fine,” Song Yaqi said while pointing at her feet awkwardly, “I’m sorry. I was startled when I suddenly saw a dead fish.”

Both of them breathed a sigh of relief at the same time.

“Well, I got it.” As Fang Qiu glanced at the dead fish that was pushed to the beach by the waves in front of Song Yaqi, his eyes rolled.

“What?” Song Yaqi was curious.

“Tell me clearly. What are you thinking?” Liu Qingshi asked in confusion.

“We can go fishing!” said Fang Qiu with a smile.

“Fishing?” Song Yaqi was stunned and said, “We don’t have any tools. How can we fish?”

“Yeah, where’s the fishing rod?” Liu Qingshi also questioned.

“Since we don’t have it, we can make it by ourselves.” Fang Qiu immediately squatted down with a mysterious smile, grabbed the dead fish, ran to one side, found a sharp-angled stone, and began to sharpen it.

Liu Qingshi and Song Yaqi followed closely behind.

Fang Qiu sliced the fish with the stone and found a short but extremely sharp fishbone in the body.

Getting the fishbone, Fang Qiu said to Song Yaqi, "Give me the thread you just found."

Song Yaqi handed the thread to Fang Qiu with a curious look, eager to see how Fang Qiu would make the fishing rod.

After Fang Qiu got the thread, he immediately got up, walked to the beach, and looked around.

He then found a branch.

He tore off a layer of thick and sturdy bark, put the fishbones together with the bark, wrapped them with ropes, and then wound the rope in the middle of them. The bark and fishbones, tightly wrapped together, were quickly separated and turned into a hook. It looked like a tool for a child's game, which didn't seem serious at all.

"Done." After tying it up, Fang Qiu took the dead branch that Liu Qingshi had found before and tied it with the rope. In this way, a simple fishing rod was formed.

"This... can be used to fish?" Song Yaqi asked hesitantly.

"That's all we can do now," Fang Qiu said while shrugging his shoulders, "We can only make every possible effort."

"Even if your fishing rod works, what about the bait?" Liu Qingshi asked.

"Find a bait then," Fang Qiu replied casually, "What's the ecological environment in the sea?"

"What?" Song Yaqi and Liu Qing Shi were stunned at the same time.

“Big fish eats small fish while small fish eats small shrimp.” Fang Qiu grinned and said, “Because the waves on the beach are big and the water flows fast, most of the fish in the sea can’t see whether it is a living fish or a bait, so as long as we catch a small fish, we will have a chance to catch the big fish!”

After that, Fang Qiu caught a finger-sized fish in a rock area with sufficient water.

Medical Master

Chapter 825: Shark!!!

“Why do you know everything?”

Seeing Fang Qiu catching the small fish skillfully, Liu Qingshi asked in surprise.

Fang Qiu smiled and said, “I have watched the show of wilderness survival before. These small fish can’t resist the tide, so it’s easy for them to be knocked out by the tide and pushed to the reef area. This kind of fish is simple to catch, but because small fish will consider the reef a dangerous area, few of them will come here. It’s lucky for us to find one.”

“You’re amazing!” Song Yaqi gazed at Fang Qiu, saying while her face was flushing.

Fang Qiu beamed.

He used the little fish as bait, strung it on his own hook, and was ready to fish.

“I still doubt it,” Liu Qingshi looked at Fang Qiu and said, “You’re not hooking it. It’s more like putting the hook into the belly of a small fish. How can you catch anything like that?”

“When big fish eat the small fish, they normally swallow it.”

Fang Qiu explained, “When they do that, they will also swallow the hook. By then, the big fish won’t be able to get away.”

Liu Qingshi patted his forehead, for he suddenly came to the realization!

As for Song Yaqi, she had been following Fang Qiu and watching how he was going to fish.

Fang Qiu walked to a beach where the water flowed relatively fast. Then he threw the hook with the bait into the sea and sat down on the beach. He gently pulled the fishing rod while waiting for the fish to take the bait.

Beside him, Liu Qingshi kept glancing at Fang Qiu.

Seeing that nothing was happening for a long time, he couldn't help but ask, "Master Fang, I just want to ask, why didn't you choose to dive into the sea and directly knock out the fish with Qigong? Why did you have to take all the trouble?"

Fang Qiu was speechless.

"As I said, it was a coincidence. A real coincidence!" said Fang Qiu with a serious face.

"All right, all right."

Liu Qingshi nodded and waved his hand as he said, "I'll just take what you said as true. Okay?"

"Don't coax me. It's indeed a coincidence!" Fang Qiu gave a wry smile.

The moment he finished speaking, the thread of the fishing rod tightened.

"A fish took the bait!" Fang Qiu felt a strong force coming from the other end of the fishing rod. He immediately rose to his feet and was ready to withdraw his rod.

Beside him, hearing Fang Qiu's shout, Liu Qingshi and Song Yaqi staggered to their feet and stared at the water in excitement.

"Come on." Fang Qiu didn't have much fishing skill, so he simply pulled it directly with sheer force.

Given that he had seen such things on TV, this kind of fishing method didn't require much strength to fight with the fish. Because once the fish was caught, the hook could stick into the fish's internal organs. Therefore, he only needed to pull it directly.

As Fang Qiu pulled, a fish with the width of a palm which was as long as a man's arm was dragged out of the waves by Fang Qiu.

When he pulled it out, the fish was still struggling.

"Wow, such a big fish?" Song Yaqi was uplifted while seeing this fish.

"Awesome!" Liu Qingshi also looked at Fang Qiu in shock, and then he laughed heartily and said, "The director team must have made a mistake for inviting you to this show. I'm sure that they didn't expect you to have such a strong survival ability in the wild. Hahaha... I really want to see Director Liu's face now."

Fang Qiu grabbed the fish hurriedly and took the hook out of the fish's belly.

"Don't gloat too early."

Looking at Liu Qingshi laughing loudly, Fang Qiu said, "Although this fish looks big, in fact, it's just a tiny one. We have eight people here. And I haven't taken the PDs into consideration yet. There are 12 people, including the PDs. This one fish is not enough at all. It will be finished when everyone takes a bite. And it can't fill the stomach at all."

Liu Qingshi's face was filled with confidence as he said, "Since it's not enough, we can just keep fishing. Let me have a try. This time, I'll show the audience how the master of fishing is born!"

Fang Qiu chuckled and handed the fishing rod to Liu Qing Shi, asking him to get the bait himself.

However, they didn't know if it was due to sheer luck or real skill, but Liu Qingshi did catch a small fish in the reef area according to Fang Qiu's method.

"Well, I'll take care of it here." Getting bait made Liu Qing Shi more confident. As he stuck the bait to the hook and began to fish, he said confidently to Fang Qiu and Song Yaqi, "Leave it to me. You guys can go to other places to see if there is any food. Maybe I can even catch a shark for you later."

Fang Qiu shook his head with a wry smile.

He was baffled by Liu Qingshi's bragging. How could he expect the shark to come when this tiny bait wouldn't be able to attract the shark at all?

Song Yaqi took the initiative to say, "Let's go and look for something else."

"Okay." Fang Qiu nodded. Then the two of them began to search around together.

However, they didn't find anything to eat after looking around.

Looking at the time, they found that the sun was about to set in an hour, so they had to go back.

They also met other people coming back along the way.

They went back to the beach.

Fang Qiu saw that Liu Qingshi did catch one fish. In addition to the one that Fang Qiu had caught before, there were two in total.

Although these two fish were not small, it was not enough for so many people to eat.

What should they do?

For a moment, everyone was simply looking at each other helplessly.

Obviously, this group of people usually lived a comfortable life and didn't know how to survive in the wild at all. Even if they occasionally recorded a program of survival in the wild, it was done with the help of the show's crew. They didn't learn how to depend on themselves in the wild in the slightest. Now when they encountered the actual difficulties, this group of people didn't know what to do.

Most importantly, it didn't matter if a normal person didn't eat for three days and only drank some water. However, judged by their looks, they might not make it this time.

"These two fish are obviously not enough."

As they gathered together, Fang Qiu said, "However, although it's not enough, they're still meat. You guys can cook these fish first. Please find a way to wash them and cook them. Let's eat together."

"That's the only way." Gu Jianguo nodded, ready to cook the fish.

"I just walked around and found that there were a lot of reefs around this island. I can swim. Maybe I can dive into the sea and try to get some seafood," said Fang Qiu.

Everyone's eyes lit up as they heard that.

Liu Qingshi immediately vetoed the idea and said, "No. This is too dangerous. We are not familiar with this sea, and there is no one around to come to the rescue. If anything should happen to you, we won't be able to save you. Without a safety guarantee, you can't get into the sea."

As soon as he said that, everyone nodded.

Fang Qiu also grinned.

He didn't expect that at this critical moment, Liu Qingshi was still quite reliable!

"It's okay," Fang Qiu continued, "I'll be in the surrounding area. There won't be too much of a problem. Trust my ability in swimming."

"It's really too dangerous," Frowning, Liu Qingshi looked at Fang Qiu seriously and asked, "Are you sure about that?"

"Don't worry. I'll be just fine," Fang Qiu said while nodding with certainty, "Since the director team trusted you guys with me, I can't let you starve."

While speaking, Fang Qiu walked aside.

He took off his clothes and only left a pair of boxer shorts, revealing his muscular figure. He held the shirt in his hand and tied it around his body to put the seafood.

"Wow!"

"Wow! Wow! Wow!"

At the sight of Fang Qiu's figure, the other members stared at him with their eyes wide open.

The two women began to study him carefully.

"Hey, what are you doing?"

Liu Qing Shi ran in front of Ying'er and Song Yaqi, blocking their sight. Meanwhile, he said, "Master Fang, hurry up and go to the sea. If you're still standing there, these beautiful ladies are going to drool."

Ying'er and Song Yaqi simply ignored him. The two of them went to another side respectively and continued to stare at Fang Qiu.

As Fang Qiu met their eyes, Fang Qiu held the camera in one hand in embarrassment and a strong wooden stick he found in advance with the other hand. Then, he quickly dived into the sea.

No sooner had he got into the sea than Fang Qiu immediately swam out.

After swimming for about 30 or 40 meters, he found that the waves on the surface of the sea were not so distinct. When the water was about four or five meters deep, Fang Qiu got into the water and began to look for seafood in the underwater reef.

He held his breath for two minutes, which made the members waiting on the shore all frightened. Liu Qingshi was ready to go down to the sea to find Fang Qiu, but Fang Qiu popped out his head at the moment. He didn't take time to gasp. He simply took a breath and dived into the sea again.

This time, three minutes passed.

Every time Liu Qingshi was so worried that he wanted to get into the sea, Fang Qiu would stick his head out of the water and tell everyone that he was safe.

It was too easy for Fang Qiu to hold his breath for three minutes.

Of course, he didn't use internal Qi but normally dived by holding his breath.

The longest diving time record in the world was made by a Danish who had taken pure oxygen in advance and held his breath for 20 minutes and 10 seconds in the pool.

Under normal circumstances, those who had the vital capacity of 7,000 to 8,000 could hold their breath for three minutes when they were in a peaceful state. If they were fully prepared, they could hold their breath for five minutes to the maximum.

Even if he didn't use internal Qi, Fang Qiu's vital capacity couldn't be compared with ordinary people's.

Not to mention three minutes, it wouldn't be a problem even if he held it in for five minutes.

The third dive took Fang Qiu five minutes.

At first, he wanted to report that he was safe in three minutes, but he found an abalone attached to the reef under the sea when he was about to do so.

Hence, Fang Qiu directly dived down, took the abalone off the rock with his wooden stick, and then stuck his head out of the sea.

Everyone was rather panicked because they really didn't have any safety protection measures. They were afraid that something unexpected would happen to Fang Qiu.

But the moment Fang Qiu came out of the water, the members were exhilarated because they saw an abalone in Fang Qiu's hand!

He shouted at everyone, "Don't worry. I'm fine. I'll find more abalone. Don't worry about me."

Fang Qiu dived down again.

This time, no one panicked, for they found that Fang Qiu was adept at diving.

Giving it another thought, they realized that Fang Qiu was a Qigong master. It was effortless for him to dive into the water.

With that thought in mind, Liu Qingshi was no longer so worried.

And this time, Fang Qiu's diving time was also much longer than before.

Three minutes later, there was no response.

Five minutes passed.

After ten minutes, there was still no sign of Fang Qiu.

Twelve minutes later, everyone began to worry again.

Song Yaqi asked worriedly, "Will anything happen to Fang Qiu?"

"It's been so long. Why doesn't he come out?" Liu Qingshi frowned.

"Ah!" Just when everyone was worried, Ying'er suddenly screamed and pointed to the sea in the distance. "Look, what's that?"

Everyone turned their heads.

When they saw that thing, everyone's face instantly turned pale.

It was a shark!

Medical Master

Chapter 826: Killing the Shark!

On the sea surface more than 30 meters away from the shore, a fin with a height of about 30 centimeters suddenly appeared. It was still circling around as if it was rushing toward the place where Fang Qiu was diving.

"A shark!" Seeing this, the faces of all the members instantly turned pale.

“Fang Qiu, Fang Qiu!!!”

“Come back right now, Fang Qiu. Come back quickly!”

“There’s a shark. The shark is coming. Fang Qiu, come back!”

Feeling rather agitated, the seven people immediately shouted at the sea.

In a hotel on the beach that was dozens of miles away from the sea, all the people in the director group, who had been keeping in touch with staff on the island and monitoring the shooting of the four PDs all the time, were also alarmed by this scene.

How could there be sharks?

If something really happened, what should they do?

Director Liu Guobin was even more anxious!

“What should we do if something unexpected really happens?”

He was fully aware that once something unexpected happened, no one would be able to get away with it.

After all, Fang Qiu’s influence was greater than that of some A-list stars. And the most important thing was that Fang Qiu was regarded as the future of the Chinese Medicine industry. Therefore, if something happened to Fang Qiu, their show would be seriously rebuked by the people of the Chinese Medicine industry and Fang Qiu’s fans, as well as those who were waiting for Fang Qiu’s treatment.

Although they were anxious, the director team didn’t prepare a boat at all.

They didn't expect that Fang Qiu would dare to go down to the sea without any tools. For the recording of three days and two nights, the director group had already put some wild chickens on the island. As long as these members looked carefully on the island, they could eat all day after catching one of the chickens, which was what the director group expected.

But they didn't expect that these people didn't find any wild chickens at all.

Because they had not prepared in advance, it was not easy to get a boat. Moreover, they were dozens of miles away from the uninhabited island. Hence, even if there was a boat, they wouldn't be able to make it.

By the time they arrived, Fang Qiu would have been bitten to death by the sharks.

At this moment, all the people in the director group could only pray desperately, hoping that nothing would happen to Fang Qiu and that he could manage to escape safely.

In the sea, just as everyone stood on the shore and shouted, Fang Qiu, who hadn't come out for more than ten minutes, finally appeared on the surface again.

As soon as he showed up, Fang Qiu raised his right hand, held a huge abalone in his hand, and kept shaking his hands to celebrate.

But when he saw the people on the shore, he realized that everyone was in a panic. They pointed at something, shouting in a loud voice. Given that they were too far away and the sea wind was too strong, Fang Qiu couldn't hear what they were shouting in the slightest.

Although Fang Qiu couldn't hear it clearly, he could sharply see the direction that everyone was pointing at.

Confused, he turned his head to have a look.

"What the f*ck!" The second he turned his head, Fang Qiu widened his eyes and exclaimed, "A shark?"

“Are they going to film the Big White Shark?”

“How could such a thing be encountered by me?”

Fang Qiu hurriedly swam back.

Of course, he was still calm, without worrying anything at all.

Fang Qiu wouldn't be afraid, even if there were a guardian beast in the sea, not to mention ordinary sharks.

However, he was recording a show. He couldn't show his actual strength on TV, so Fang Qiu could only pretend to be panicked and try his best to run away.

However, a human's swimming speed was no match for a shark's.

Seeing the prey escape, the shark swam faster and rushed toward Fang Qiu.

Fang Qiu had no choice.

If he could show his actual strength, the shark would be killed by one blow!

In the case that he couldn't show his actual strength, Fang Qiu could only pretend to be tough.

“Let's see who is going to live!” Fang Qiu raged.

He shouted at the camera in his hand, then threw the camera out fiercely and left it more than ten meters away. When the camera fell into the water, it actually aimed at Fang Qiu facing the shark.

After he threw the camera, Fang Qiu immediately crushed the wooden stick in his hand with his knee and broke it into two pieces, which created a pointed end on each side.

Holding the wooden stick in both hands, Fang Qiu sank directly into the water and stared at the shark.

“Whoosh...” Seeing Fang Qiu, the shark also raced over violently. It opened its mouth, leaned its body against the sea surface, opened its mouth, revealed its saw-like teeth, and bit toward Fang Qiu in an extremely bloody way.

Fang Qiu moved and immediately leaned to another side to dodge it.

Then, he grabbed the shark’s side fin and pulled it up hard with his other hand. With a piercing sound, the stick in his hand stabbed into the shark’s body.

To conceal his strength, Fang Qiu didn’t deeply pierce the stick into the shark’s body, but only the shark’s lower abdomen.

However, this was not the end.

After the shark’s belly was pierced, Fang Qiu drew out the stick and stabbed it hard again.

This time, the stick stuck deeply into the shark’s stomach as if it had pierced through a balloon.

“Woo, woo, woo...” All of a sudden, blood began to flow.

Thick red blood stained the surrounding sea in an instant.

The shark went crazy.

“Splash...” The intense pain made it swing its body wildly and shake violently. Water splashed on the surface of the sea!

Fang Qiu took the opportunity to swim out and darted toward the location of the camera.

When everyone saw the red spreading on the sea surface, they all thought something bad had happened to Fang Qiu.

In the blink of an eye, everyone's face was ashen.

The two women, Ying'er and Song Yaqi, were so intimidated by the blood that their legs trembled. Then they staggered to the ground, crying in panic.

The five men, led by Liu Qingshi, were also gritting their teeth and clenching their fists. They really wanted to save Fang Qiu, but their reason told them that they couldn't go!

Therefore, they could only watch helplessly, unable to do anything.

Fang Qiu swam swiftly while groping in the water.

First, he touched a fist-sized stone. After finding that it was of no use, he immediately threw it away and continued to search. Then he found a piece of wood. Because the shark went crazy, Fang Qiu didn't have time to pull out the stick stabbed into the shark's belly.

He quickly popped out his head to take a deep breath.

Holding the stick in one hand and the wood in the other, Fang Qiu dived down again.

The shark was still going crazy.

It lingered around Fang Qiu and stirred the seawater violently. Meanwhile, it opened its mouth widely, finding the right time to charge toward Fang Qiu fiercely.

In the face of another attack of the shark, Fang Qiu didn't fear in the slightest. He raced straight up to the shark with a wooden stick in his hand. This time, he didn't dodge but hit straight to the shark's mouth.

When the shark rushed to him, Fang Qiu violently pierced two sticks in his hands into the shark's eyes.

In an instant, the shark flew into a rage.

But it didn't continue to attack Fang Qiu. Instead, it turned around and immediately swam toward the deep sea. It seemed that it was going to escape.

At this moment, Fang Qiu heaved a long sigh of relief.

He swam to a spot not far away and picked up the camera again.

"I'm so lucky. This shark is blind now. If I put it back in the sea, it'll die. Besides, I haven't eaten a shark yet. I just happened to meet one. I can only blame it for its bad luck. How can I let go of the food in my hands?"

After that, Fang Qiu immediately took the camera and followed the shark's escape direction.

Fang Qiu elaborated as he swam. "Don't worry. Now the shark has gone mad. It's unwise of us to fight with it at this moment. Besides, I don't have much strength left, so we just need to follow it. Although I'm not a vet, all living things in the world are the same. It'll die if the blood is drained. There are three wounds on this shark's body. It won't take long for it to lose too much blood and die. So don't worry. We can follow it slowly."

Sure enough, after chasing for more than ten minutes, the shark remained motionless.

Fang Qiu carefully rushed up and found that the shark had lost too much blood.

Fang Qiu said nervously, "The smell of blood here is too strong. It's easy to attract sharks. To protect myself, I have to go back quickly."

Fang Qiu grasped the shark's tail and swam laboriously to the island.

This time, Fang Qiu still didn't use internal Qi.

Fortunately, Fang Qiu came back before the smell attracted the sharks.

On the coast of the uninhabited island, all the members were already in tears, and even their vision was blurred.

As they shed tears, they suddenly spotted something.

In the distance, a head popped out of the sea more than ten meters away. Then the head was moving toward them little by little.

Everyone fixed their eyes on it.

The one who was coming seemed to be Fang Qiu.

"Fang Qiu?"

"It's Fang Qiu!"

Liu Qingshi, who had been paying attention to the situation in the sea, immediately shouted when he caught sight of Fang Qiu.

Everyone was stunned.

They looked up.

Sure enough, it was Fang Qiu!

“Is Fang Qiu all right?”

Moreover, it seemed that Fang Qiu was dragging something.

As they took a closer look, it was a huge shark!

Everyone on the coastline was astounded by this scene.

They saw that a figure wrapped the coat in front of his chest, bathed in blood. He held a black stick in one hand and a big shark in the other. He walked step by step from the sea. Under the afterglow of the setting sun, he was like a God coming out of the sea, which was daunting!

“He, he didn’t kill a shark, did he?” Liu Qingshi stammered.

No one spoke, for they were entirely nonplussed.

When the water only reached his waist, Fang Qiu shouted to everyone on the coastline, “Come and help me. Hurry up. I’m so exhausted.”

The six members immediately stood up, rushed over quickly, and helped Fang Qiu pull the shark ashore.

As soon as he went ashore, Fang Qiu took a deep breath with a pale face. Then he fell back and collapsed on the beach with exhaustion.

“Are you all right?” Song Yaqi hurried over to check on him and asked with a worried look, “Did you hurt?”

"I'm fine," Fang Qiu gasped and said, "Fortunately, my physical quality is good."

Everyone looked at the three sticks stuck in the shark's body and then glanced at Fang Qiu. They were so shocked that they couldn't digest the scene in front of them at all.

A shark was killed by one person.

If this got round, who would believe it?

Medical Master

Chapter 827: I Dont Want to Drink Urine

It was on the coastline. Everyone was staring at the shark lying across the beach, which was close to two meters in length, and they couldn't believe it.

They were adults, and they had heard a lot of news about sharks. But they all had heard man-eating shark and had never heard of sharks being killed by people. If they thought about it, even in a movie about sharks, the theme was always a disaster about the narrow escape from the shark's mouth, and there was no plot of killing a shark in the movie.

However, Fang Qiu did it. It was happening in front of them. Fang Qiu had killed a shark all by himself. How could that be?

Even if they met a shark, and it was broadcast on TV, the audience might not believe it, let alone killing sharks.

After all, from the perspective of a normal person, this kind of thing was too ridiculous.

Looking at Fang Qiu, who was lying on the beach with a pale face and gasping for breath, they didn't rush to ask questions but accompanied Fang Qiu when he took a few breaths.

“How did you do it?” After Fang Qiu collecting himself, Liu Qingshi squatted next to Fang Qiu, patted him on the shoulder lightly, and asked in shock.

“What else could I do?”

Fang Qiu gave a wry smile and said, “Fighting for my life!”

After he heard it, Liu Qingshi was taken aback. Then he took the camera from Fang Qiu’s hand and said as he turned it on, “Damn, you are still holding the camera. Did you even record the process of killing the shark?”

The others were all shocked to hear it. They stared at Fang Qiu in shock, waiting for his answer.

“I do not know.” Fang Qiu shook his head and said, “I’ve been desperately fighting the sharks. There was no time to take a video. As soon as I start fighting the shark, I threw the camera away. I don’t know if it was recorded.”

After he heard it, Liu Qingshi was taken aback. Then he took the camera from Fang Qiu’s hand and said as he turned it on, “Damn, you are still holding the camera. Did you even record the process of killing the shark?”

After hearing his words, everyone nodded.

Indeed, throwing the camera away would be the reaction of normal people before a desperate fight. Although Fang Qiu was an awesome Qigong master, it would be impossible for him to kill the shark with one hand.

“Let me take a look.”

Liu Qingshi turned on the camera and played it back. It turned out that they actually saw the whole process of Fang Qiu fighting the shark desperately, and the picture was still very clear. Even when the shark’s blood turned the water red, they still could see Fang Qiu’s figure and movements.

“We got it.” Liu Qingshi exclaimed.

Everyone quickly gathered around and watched the replay carefully.

When they look at the video, the thrilling picture immediately made everyone sweat.

They could see clearly that several times, Fang Qiu almost died in the mouth of the shark. It would be doubtful whether he or the shark would have survived if he had not been a good swimmer and a clever man, and had found the shark’s weak spot.

Especially at the end, when they heard the words Fang Qiu had said to the camera when he was chasing the shark covered in blood, all of them couldn’t help admiring Fang Qiu.

“You knew that the smell of blood would attract other sharks. How dare you run after it?” Liu Qingshi asked.

“I had no choice.” Fang Qiu smiled bitterly, and said, “For the first time in my life, I fought with a shark and I was lucky enough to win. Since it didn’t eat me, then I must eat it. If I didn’t bring it back, how can we feed so many people?”

Everyone was particularly moved to hear it, especially Ying’er and Song Yaqi.

The two of them had been very sad before. Now Fang Qiu not only came back alive but also brought them a big meal.

Technically, it was a meal big enough to feed them for three days!

They no longer had to worry about food or risk their lives for food. “Good job.”

Gu Jianguo looked at Fang Qiu and said, “I have never been so impressed by anyone else in my life. You are good!” “Good job!”

Zhang Junhe and others all agreed. "Bravo!"

Liu Qingshi patted Fang Qiu on the shoulder vigorously, and said, "You're an amazing master. Qigong is good, and you even killed a shark with it."

"All right."

Fang Qiu straightened up and said, "Stop praising me. It was a narrow escape and I am still hungry. Now that we have the ingredients, I think we should find a place to live and fill our stomachs first." "That's right."

Liu Qingshi stood up and looked at the darkening sky. He turned to the funny trio nearby, and asked, "Have you found a suitable place for the night?"

"Yes." Zheng Weilian said, "We chose a leeward place with a relatively flat terrain, and it is suitable for overnight stay."

"That place is the most habitable place on the entire island. We have all prepared firewood and stuff, so we can light a fire when we go over." Zhang Junhe added.

"Very good." Liu Qingshi nodded in satisfaction, and said, "Let's go. Take our stone, and go back to the station."

After they arrived at the station, they found that though the trio had usually behaved in a very funny way, they weren't sloppy at all when it came to business. The selection of the location was very good.

It was between two big trees, and there were some small trees around. There was a green lawn at their foot, without any bushes. Of course, it was an island, so this area also faced the sea, but it was a little bit far away from the sea.

Everyone cleaned up, and after simply setting up a rain-proof tent, they started to get busy. Fang Qiu was accompanied by two beautiful women, Song Yaqi and Ying'er, and he continued to rest.

After all, he had just done such a great job and brought back enough food for three days. Everyone couldn't bear to ask him to work again. As for the two women, how could they do the heavy lifting?

Naturally, all the work fell on the shoulders of five male MCs.

On the other side, several PDs, who had taken Fang Qiu's handheld camera, watched the process of Fang Qiu's desperate fight with the shark in the sea. After being extremely shocked and secretly rejoicing, they sent the video to Director Liu Guobin who was far away.

After receiving the video, Director Liu Guobin clicked on it and watched it with other directors.

The director's face turned pale instantly after watching it. "God bless him." He said, flustered.

Then, Director Liu Guobin suddenly became angry and shouted, "Why didn't they stop Fang Qiu?"

With that, he thought about it again, who could have stopped Fang Qiu at that time?

He could only blame his inexperience.

They couldn't blame the director. Who could have expected that Fang Qiu, a sophomore, dared to go to the sea like this, and he was a swimmer as good as a national athlete?

When he thought of it, Liu Guobin suddenly came up with an idea.

"Yes, this is the stunt!"

Suddenly, he laughed.

The scene of Fang Qiu desperately fighting a shark would certainly make a great show. Even if the rest of the show was not interesting, this show would become a big hit, because this picture was so shocking!

Of course, as a senior variety show director in the entertainment industry, Liu Guobin knew very well that after the launch of this show, the first thing he would have to face was the attacks of all netizens. After all, this thriller was caused by the team not taking proper security measures.

He would certainly be seriously criticized.

However, it had happened. Although they could completely suppress this matter so that everyone wouldn't see this section. But this section was the most interesting part of the whole program and couldn't afford to be cut out at all.

In this case, he could only bite the bullet and be scolded. When that happened, he would just have to sincerely apologize to Fang Qiu, all Fang Qiu's fans, and all people who cared about Fang Qiu.

Of course, the most important one was Fang Qiu.

It would be far better to be forgiven by Fang Qiu than to be forgiven by netizens. "At this time, we can't provoke them anymore."

At the thought of it, Liu Guobin nodded secretly.

After what had happened the afternoon, if they continued to give them a hard time, maybe this group of people would be pissed off. "Cancel the next part about obtaining daily necessities by playing games. Just give them the supplies."

Liu Guobin ordered.

On the island over there, the PDs received the order and immediately took out all the pots, buckets of purified water, lighters, and instant noodles that had been hidden on the island in advance, and sent them to Fang Qiu and others.

“Due to your excellent performance at noon, the director team has temporarily decided to cancel the part of playing games to win daily necessities, and replace it with giving you materials for free instead.” Everyone’s eyes lit up to hear it.

After he heard it, Liu Qingshi was taken aback. Then he took the camera from Fang Qiu’s hand and said as he turned it on, “Damn, you are still holding the camera. Did you even record the process of killing the shark?”

“Hmm, you are doing the right thing.” Liu Qingshi said, “I’ll grill the shark. I am good at grilling. Now I finally have a chance to grill the shark. I can’t miss it.”

Huang Huachao suggested, “It’s okay to grill it, but I’m not eating it.”

Fang Qiu sat on the ground, looked at Huang Huachao, and said, “Sharks are only suitable for eating when there is no other food because sharks are not tasty. Sharks are cartilaginous fish, and their meat contains a lot of urea. So, the bigger the shark, the stronger the urine smell in the meat. Urea is not a nutrient for humans, but a toxin, especially for people with poor kidneys. They’d better not to eat it.”

“What?”

With that, everyone was dumbfounded.

They couldn’t eat such a big shark?

“Of course, there are also very good chefs who can cook sharks deliciously. But in our current situation, there aren’t any cooking tools and seasonings, so they can’t be eaten at all. You’d better not eat it. Anyway, the program staff has delivered things. Let’s eat what they gave us first, and keep the shark for now. Let’s eat it when there is nothing else to eat.”

Fang Qiu suggested, “It seems there is no other way.”

Liu Qingshi smile wryly and said, “I don’t want to eat urine.” Others also shook their heads.

Their fantasy about shark meat was soon shattered.

Then they started cooking.

There was a variety of fish, meat, and ingredients from the program staff as well as two fish caught by Fang Qiu and Liu Qingshi. Although there was no seasoning, there were instant noodles.

They could just open a box of instant noodles and take out the seasoning to solve the problem of no seasoning. Dinner was ready.

Everyone gathered together and ate happily. In the evening, the program staff had originally prepared some programs, but they were too tired to be in the mood for them. They just simply worked on a place to stay overnight. After the problem of rain protection was solved, they went to bed early.

Medical Master

Chapter 828: More Importantly, It Hurts the Kidney!

This time, to ensure the safety of the six MCs and two stars, the program staff specially prepared mosquito-repellent supplies for everyone, and then sprinkled insect repellent around the campsite of eight people to prevent them from mosquito bites.

On the next day, Fang Qiu got up early.

After going to the beach for some exercise, Fang Qiu began to make a fire to cook for everyone.

He used those big abalones he had gotten when he went to sea yesterday and the instant noodles he hadn't eaten last night. He used purified water and instant noodle seasoning to cook a pot of abalone noodles for everyone.

Before the noodles were not cooked yet, everyone smelled the fragrance and got up. "It smells good."

Liu Qingshi was the first to get up and washed his face with seawater before he walked over and looked at the pot of noodles Fang Qiu was cooking. He was drooling over the breakfast while saying to the camera in the hands of PD who had gotten up early and started taking pictures, "Thanks to the director team for arranging us a field survival master, a food master, a doctor, and a nanny."

When hearing it, all the other people who had just gotten up laughed.

Seeing the smiles on everyone's faces, Liu Qingshi clenched his fist and said viciously, "I want to punch him."

"Yes, he deserves it!" Zheng Weilian immediately echoed, "A boy dares to cheat me like this. After the show, he has to apologize to me. It's so unkind of him so do so."

"Do you think the director is stupid? He is far away." Zhang Junhe shook his head and smiled, "Indeed."

Gu Jianguo chuckled and said, "We will have plenty of opportunities to do it. We will certainly teach him a good lesson when we catch him!"

While they were talking, they washed up and started to eat breakfast.

The number of instant noodles given by the program staff yesterday was just right, one pack for each person. Although they were cooked in a large pot, it was similar distribution to each other. With the delicious seafood soup, they were full early in the morning.

After breakfast, they took a break at the station.

Then, the staff of the director team came and prepared to play games.

After all, it was a variety show. "Next, we need everyone to play a game with us." A staff member said to everyone.

“Game?” Liu Qingshi stepped forward and said with a smile, “You can play games, but what are the rewards?”

“Here it is!”

The PD did not hesitate, and directly asked the staff to bring a table where there were eight full portions of ice cream on it.

Seeing the ice cream, everyone on the scene’s eyes lit up, especially Ying’er and Song Yaqi whose eyes were gleaming, and they were almost drooling.

This scene made everyone in the director team feel very satisfied.

Judging from the light in the eyes of the eight people, they could already imagine how fierce the battle would be. After all, only in this way could they bring out the highlight of the show and give the audience enough entertainment.

“Next, we will announce the rules.” The staff of the director team said, “This time, this game is a quick answer. Those who get the question and answer it right can eat ice cream, and the loser can only watch.”

He finished and was getting ready to start.

“Wait a minute.” Fang Qiu suddenly raised his hand and stopped aloud.

Everyone immediately turned their heads and looked at Fang Qiu curiously.

“As your health doctor this time, I don’t recommend you to eat ice cream.” Fang Qiu stood up and said, “Ice cream is too cold and it hurts the stomach, and most importantly it hurts the kidney!”

With that, the five male MCs suddenly became angry.

“Damn, you guys are too cruel, right?” Liu Qingshi took the lead, and accused, “How dare your director team do such a thing to us?”

“You’d better have some common sense. Are you doing it on purpose?” Zhang Junhe was also angry.

“You should at least pay attention to our health. You invited this genius doctor over, and now you have been slapped in the face by Doctor Fang.” Gu Jianguo smiled wickedly.

The two women also protested.

Although they liked to eat ice cream very much, they were stars, so they didn’t dare to eat much. In addition, the wind on the island was strong and cold food would take a great toll on their bodies. Along with what Fang Qiu had said, they could only suppress their inner desires and refused the ice cream cruelly.

The director team was severely condemned by everyone!

Now the director team was embarrassed. They had thought that in such hot weather, everyone would want to eat ice cream, and they would fight for it. However, after Fang Qiu gave his advice, the rest of them had become so unhappy with them.

They were unhappy, and they were protesting.

What should they do?

This was the big highlight of the whole show. “We’re sorry. We didn’t think it thoughtfully.”

The staff of the director team apologized immediately, and then said, “Let us discuss it first, okay?” After he finished it, the staff of the director team got together immediately and began to discuss.

He finished and was getting ready to start.

After discussing it for a long time, they couldn't come up with a good idea.

At this time, the deputy director of the director team suddenly came up with an idea. He pointed at the jet skis on the sea, and said to everyone, "Look at these jet skis, do you want to ride?"

Hearing his words, everyone nodded.

This time, everyone had thought they were here to play, but so far they hadn't had any entertainment. Judging from the current situation, the only entertainment that could be considered as an entertainment project seemed to be to ride a jet ski.

These jet skis had been brought in the morning when someone from the director team came over. The reason why they had gotten a few jet skis was that they were afraid that things like what Fang Qiu had experienced yesterday would happen again and they could not be rescued.

Of course, in the morning, when the eight directors first came, their eyes lit up when they saw these jet skis, but unfortunately, they didn't have the key.

If they had the key, they would have escaped this uninhabited island long ago.

"Great." The deputy director laughed and said, "Since Fang Qiu said it is not suitable to eat ice cream, then we will change the rewards of the game. The winner can get a chance to ride a jet ski to the sea. Of course, we will send a rescue team to follow you to ensure your safety."

"Great." The deputy director laughed and said, "Since Fang Qiu said it is not suitable to eat ice cream, then we will change the rewards of the game. The winner can get a chance to ride a jet ski to the sea. Of course, we will send a rescue team to follow you to ensure your safety."

"All right." Liu Qingshi nodded immediately and said, "That's right. You should have done it earlier. Otherwise, what happened yesterday would not repeat itself."

"Go ahead, what is the question?" Huang Huachao urged, "This time, I will win. I'm going to sea."

Ying'er clenched her fists bravely and said, "I'm going to ride a jet ski with Yaqi!" Other people also started to scramble.

However, "Wait a moment." Just when everyone was looking forward to it and started to prepare for the questions, the deputy director suddenly shook his head and said with a smirk, "Since the rewards have been changed, then our game rules should also be changed. A quick answer is not fun. How about we fight over the key?"

Everyone was surprised.

"As for the rules of this game, the program team will hide the only key to the jet ski on the island. In addition to the real key, there are many fake keys. Only those who find the real key can ride the jet ski. Of course, whether you can drive the jet ski or not depends on whether you can escape from others' clutches. Anyway, there is only one key for you to drive the jet ski away." The deputy director smirked.

After he said it, they realized that there would be a fierce battle.

However, when they thought about it carefully, such a battle would indeed make the whole show a lot more interesting.

After finishing the rules, the director team immediately went to dig sandpits to bury the keys.

Whether it was a real key or an ordinary jammer, they were all packed in small bags.

Some were hidden in trees, some were buried in the ground, some were buried in the sand, and some were hidden in the sea with ropes. Anyway, they were hidden in various places. Everyone couldn't wait to get started.

However, to prevent them from cheating, the deputy director directly asked someone to bring some large canvases to surround the eight of them. They were released after the director team had hidden the keys.

"Now, the game starts. You can go find the key."The deputy director announced.

The eight people were like tigers going down the mountain, and they immediately dispersed in all directions. Once they found a place suspicious, they started digging wildly.

Especially the two women who were looking for the key along the beach, they didn't even have the strength to dig anymore. They had dug more than a dozen places and picked several from the sea, but they had all turned out to be fake keys.

The men who rushed into the jungle on the island were also very unsuccessful. Whenever they found one, they would hide quietly and inspect it, only to find that it was fake.

They found another one, which was also a fake key. This made all MCs extremely depressed.

"This is too hard. It's like finding a needle in a haystack." Liu Qingshi smiled wryly and said, "Why are they still working so hard?"

Fang Qiu and Song Yaqi kept searching in an area over there.

But they couldn't find it.

Liu Qingshi thought about it and walked secretly towards the area where the jet ski was.

However, when he was just about to get near, he found that Fang Qiu had already entered that area.

At this time, the deputy director of the director team suddenly came up with an idea. He pointed at the jet skis on the sea, and said to everyone, "Look at these jet skis, do you want to ride?"

At this time, Gu Jianguo on the beach in the distance dug out a bag from the beach and opened it. There was a red rope like a spring in it, and a plug-in key was connected to the top of the rope.

He got the key.

Gu Jianguo quietly took the key out and put it into his trouser pocket. Then he held the bag in his hand, shouting, "It's fake again. It's ridiculous!"

He finished and was getting ready to start.

After that, he continued to fumble, while moving towards the jet ski. At this time, he did not notice that Fang Qiu and Liu Qingshi were both moving towards that area.

On the way, he also talked with other people. He finally came to the area near the jet ski.

Gu Jianguo turned his head and looked around. He quietly took out the key and immediately rushed towards the jet ski frantically. "What?"

Liu Qingshi, who was nearest to him, sensed that something was wrong, and jumped at Gu Jianguo. He grabbed Gu Jianguo's beach shorts and instantly tripped Gu Jianguo to the ground.

Seeing this, everyone rushed up frantically.

However, Fang Qiu didn't even want to snatch it, so he stood by and watched them fighting. But during the fight, the key to the jet ski, which had been held in Gu Jianguo's hand, suddenly flew out of the crowd and landed directly on Fang Qiu's face.

Chapter 829: They Kidnapped the Director!

"Damn, what is it happening?" Just when the key appeared in his sights, Fang Qiu stretched out his right hand to grab the key, and then turned around and ran without thinking about it.

Everyone who had been fighting over the key was surprised. Their eyes widened suddenly.

They instantly began to chase Fang Qiu, but none of them could catch up with Fang Qiu.

Fang Qiu was a man who had achieved Olympic-level results in college. How could this group of people catch up with him? Even the sea and waves couldn't stop him.

Being chased by everyone, Fang Qiu ran to the jet ski quickly and put the key into the key slot without saying a word. He hung the other end of it on his waist, and then started it immediately, and rushed out in an instant.

"Stop, Fang Qiu, stop!" Liu Qingshi, who had not caught up with him, could only stand on the beach and shouted at Fang Qiu, "Are you our doctor, or are you here to make trouble?" Other people also shouted.

Fang Qiu rode the jet ski around and came back after hearing the shouts of the crowd.

"What did you say?" Looking at Liu Qingshi who was kneeling in the sea and roaring at the sky with a look of loss, Fang Qiu asked with a smile.

At this time, Gu Jianguo, who had been blocked by others, slipped into the sea quietly and moved carefully towards Fang Qiu and the jet ski.

When he was about ten meters away from Fang Qiu, "What do you want to do?" Fang Qiu turned his head and asked Gu Jianguo, who had suddenly emerged from the water and jumped at the jet ski. He accelerated the jet ski, and with a perfect water drift, drove the jet ski away to instantly widen the distance from everyone.

"My jet ski."

Seeing Fang Qiu driving away in the jet ski, Gu Jianguo wailed and fell to his knees.

"Haha..." Fang Qiu laughed loudly.

Fang Qiu rode the jet ski around and came back after hearing the shouts of the crowd.

Then he suddenly came up with an idea. It was rare to for him come to participate in a variety show, so he had to put on some drama, otherwise, he would have come for nothing. In the current situation, he could not only make himself stand out but allow others to put on a good show if he wanted to.

Wasn't it what a variety show was for?

When he thought of it, Fang Qiu immediately had another cool drift, and drove the jet ski back. At a place about fifteen meters from the sea, he shouted to them, "There is still an empty seat on the jet ski. Whoever can swim here first, I will take him out to sea!"

Hearing his words, the people on the beach immediately rushed into the sea one by one and swam over to him quickly.

Liu Qingshi was the fastest and distanced the others by two meters.

When he got to the jet ski, the water was already very deep. So even at a distance of two meters, others could not suddenly exert themselves.

"Pull me, pull me up."

Liu Qingshi held the jet ski and stretched out his hand to Fang Qiu.

Fang Qiu said nothing and pulled him up.

But as soon as Liu Qingshi just came up, he unlocked the key that Fang Qiu had hung on his waist, and then stretched his foot to kick Fang Qiu's butt directly, trying to kick Fang Qiu down.

However, Fang Qiu immediately started the jet ski.

The jet ski was shaking and was immediately thrown off balance by Fang Qiu.

Liu Qingshi almost fell back into the sea, so he could only hug Fang Qiu by the emergency reaction.

Fang Qiu kept on and drove the jet ski directly to the distance.

“Dude!” The speed slowed down, Fang Qiu looked back at Liu Qingshi who was holding him speechlessly, and said, “I wanted to take you for a ride, but you wanted to kick me into the sea?”

“You got it wrong!”

Liu Qingshi immediately replied righteously, and also deliberately extended a hand to help Fang Qiu put the key of the jet ski on the other end of the spring wire back on Fang Qiu’s waist again, and then smiled at Fang Qiu.

“Looking at yourself! I doubt if your slogan is egoism.” Fang Qiu smiled bitterly.

Liu Qingshi chuckled and said, “Here we are! Don’t mention it. I think Director Liu must be nearby. As a director, he can’t leave us alone.”

“It seems so.”

Fang Qiu nodded and asked, “But what do you want to do?”

“Don’t you have any grudges against him?”

Liu Qingshi showed sneered and said, “Think about the sandpits you had dug just now, and the danger of your desperate fight with the shark yesterday. Don’t you want to beat him?”

“Yes, but... can I beat him?”

Fang Qiu hesitated, "Yes."

Liu Qingshi said with a smile, "As long as you don't tell others."

"Well..." Fang Qiu pointed at the camera installed on the front of the jet ski, and said, "Do you think the audience won't know it when it's played later?"

"Even if we can't beat him, we can't go easy on him."

Liu Qingshi vowed, "Let's go. I will take you for a ride and feel the sea breeze first."

Fang Qiu smiled slightly. He knew that variety shows were always full of playful tricks, so he didn't reject the idea. Instead, he nodded his head in agreement.

After taking Liu Qingshi for a long ride, the two of them found a place on a nearby island.

When they took a closer look, they found that it was a big tent.

Outside the tent, there was an instrument, and many wires were connected to the inside of the tent.

"Huh!"

Seeing this tent and the instrument, Liu Qingshi's eyes suddenly lit up. "Is it the camp of the director team?" Fang Qiu asked curiously.

"It must be!" Liu Qingshi said very positively, "I am familiar with this tent."

"Then what shall we do?"

Fang Qiu smiled, "Kidnapping someone. What else can we do?" Liu Qingshi squinted his eyes, then made a motion of cutting his neck and said, "Be quiet. Let's sneak in!"

Fang Qiu immediately drove the jet ski closer to the beach cautiously. After parking the jet ski, without saying anything, the two looked at each other and immediately rushed to the tent.

In the tent, the director and the staff were gathered together, facing several computers and watching the episodes of the programs being recorded by each PD.

With a pit-pat, the two rushed in.

Both the director and all the other staff in the director team were confused. How did these two find this place?

A staff member was about to ask a question when he found that Fang Qiu and Liu Qingshi had started to attack them. The two rolled up their sleeves and rushed to Director Liu Guobin. When the others saw it, they scattered around to dodge them, standing aside laughing and watching.

Director Liu Guobin was shocked. He stood up and ran away. But when he just ran a few steps away, he was jumped at and caught by Liu Qingshi. "Where are you going?"

Liu Qingshi looked at the director with a grin, and said, "You have caused us so much pain. Now it's time for you to pay off the debt."

With that, he immediately grabbed a life jacket from the tent and forcibly put it on Director Liu Guobin.

"Master Fang."

After putting the life jacket on the director, Liu Qingshi immediately shouted to Fang Qiu, "Come on, bring him back."

Fang Qiu saw the director's helplessness when he couldn't resist, and he immediately walked up with a big laugh. Then the two directly mounted the struggling director on the jet ski and sailed away.

As soon as the jet ski started, the director did not dare to struggle. The other directors who came out of the tent could only watch the director being kidnapped by Fang Qiu and Liu Qingshi. They stared at each other. After a while, they couldn't help but laugh.

Fang Qiu rode the jet ski around and came back after hearing the shouts of the crowd.

On the jet ski, Director Liu Guobin was completely stunned.

He hadn't expected that they would go so far. "Fang Qiu, do you think we should throw Director Liu down so that he can also experience the excitement and joy of fighting sharks?"

On the jet ski, Liu Qingshi asked.

"No, no." Director Liu Guobin quickly waved his hand and beg for mercy.

"Hmm." Liu Qingshi snorted, and said viciously to Director Liu Guobin, "Director Liu, didn't you expect it to happen?"

Director Liu could only smile wryly.

He was helpless.

Soon Fang Qiu and Liu Qingshi took the director to the uninhabited island.

Along the coast, the MCs and Song Yaqi was surprised to find that there was one more person on the jet ski. Suddenly, everyone was confused.

When the jet ski rushed over and stopped on the shore, they found out that this extra person turned out to be Director Liu Guobin. Everyone laughed.

Thinking of the things the director had done, everyone immediately looked malicious and gathered around. "Don't you think it's karma, Director Liu?"

"You deserve it!"

"Haha, it's finally happening. My fist can't wait!" Some were rubbing their fists, while others were twisting their necks. Anyway, all of them looked fierce, as if they were going to eat the director alive.

"Now we don't have a director. He is our captive. How do you want to punish him, guys? Go ahead!" Liu Qingshi said. Everyone gave their answers.

"Why don't we ask Qiqi?" Liu Qingshi zeroed in on Song Yaqi and asked, "How do you think we should punish him? It's up to you!"

"How about asking him to dig sand?" Song Yaqi thought for a while, smiled, and said, "Just like before, he could only go if he finds the key."

"Good idea!" Everyone immediately gave Song Yaqi a thumbs up.

"How about it, Director Liu?" Liu Qingshi patted the director on the shoulder and said, "Do you agree?"

"Yes, I do." The director had no choice but to nod his head quickly.

"Well, we won't make it difficult for you." Liu Qingshi said, "We won't ask you to search the entire island. We will give you a range."

With that, he immediately grabbed a life jacket from the tent and forcibly put it on Director Liu Guobin.

He took others and directly circled half an acre of land. Then, he blindfolded the director and hid the key of the jet ski somewhere.

Everything was ready. "Come on. Look for it!"

After he untied the director's blindfold, Liu Qingshi pointed to the half-acre land that had been turned over and spoke. Liu Guobin smiled wryly and said, "How could I find it? Can I not leave today?"

"Good." Liu Qingshi laughed loudly, and said, "Since you are not leaving, then stay and share the joys and sorrows with us!"

Hearing his words, the people on the beach immediately rushed into the sea one by one and swam over to him quickly.

With that, Liu Guobin was even more helpless, so he could only start digging quickly.

Everyone stood by and watched the show.

Chapter 830: Revenge Was A Dish Best Served Cold

Under the gaze of a group of people, Director Liu Guobin stretched out his hands bitterly and rummaged on the beach. He was a bit fat, so when he squatted on the ground and rummaged for the key, he looked even chubbier, which made people laugh.

When he heard their laughter, Liu Guobin was bitterer, and he could only speed up quickly, trying to find the key and leave this damn place soon. But after digging for a long time, he was all covered with sand, but still couldn't find the key.

"You are hiding it too deeply. I've looked all over the place, but I didn't even see a trace of the key." The director complained.

“The key?”

Gu Jianguo, who had been laughing next to him all the time, was surprised to hear it. Then he took out a small yellow cloth bag from his trouser pocket, looked at it, slapped his forehead, and said, “Oh, I forgot to put the key in.”

On hearing his words, Liu Guobin staggered and almost passed away with anger.

Everyone around laughed.

“You guys, are you crazy?” Liu Guobin started at them resentfully.

“OMG!”

Seeing Liu Guobin’s hateful expression, Zheng Weilian, the oldest and funniest one in the show, immediately looked scared. While waving his hands, he looked at Liu Guobin, pretending to be scared, and said, “It’s over. Look at the angry eyes of the director! Oh, I’m so scared. I don’t know how Liu Guobin will punish us in the future.”

“Liu Guobin’s eyes are so terrible.”

Zhang Junhe immediately agreed, “I think the director should be blaming us for punishing him too lightly, and he wants us to increase the intensity of punishment.”

“Don’t be afraid.”

Liu Qingshi stood up and said to everyone, “Maybe we will be punished in the future, but today is the day for us to punish him. Since he wants to punish us in the future, then we can’t go easy on him today.”

Everyone nodded. Although Liu Qingshi was not confident when he proposed the advice, everyone knew that the punishment would come soon as soon as the director left and it would be too late for them to regret it then, so now they had to teach the director a good lesson!

“Come on.”

In response to everyone’s support, Liu Qingshi said, “Bury the key in the sand and ask our director to look for it again.” Everyone immediately became active again. They blindfolded Liu Guobin and plugged his earplugs.

Then they buried the key.

Without any choice, Liu Guobin could only search again.

After all, this was a highlight in the show. It was always bad to get angry in front of the camera. Besides, this show would be more fun when there was a little conflict and confrontation. There were no others on this deserted island, so it was indeed the only feasible way to fight against the director team.

While staring at everyone bitterly, Liu Guobin quickly rummaged about in the sand.

After he knelt on the sand and looked for it for half an hour, Liu Guobin finally found the key to the jet ski.

As soon he got the key, he got up and rushed to the beach without saying anything, and ran away on the jet ski. They didn’t chase after him. They just watched Liu Guobin running away in embarrassment and laughed.

The director was gone. Everyone laughed out loud.

They rested for a while on the beach until noon.

“It’s about time.” Liu Qingshi summoned everyone and said, “Get ready to find ingredients for lunch!”

With that, they returned to the station together, ready to see what was left of what the program team had given yesterday, and then assigned their respective tasks.

However, after returning to the station, they found that everything was gone.

“What are those things?” Ying’er asked in surprise.

“Where’s the pot?” Liu Qingshi was also dumbfounded.

They looked around, but didn’t find anything. In the end, they turned their heads and asked the staff of the program team.

“There is no one else on this island. Isn’t our stuff stolen?” Liu Qingshi asked.

“No.” The staff shook his head and said, “It was an order from the director. After the director returned, he told us to put everything away and ask the directors to take them away.”

Everyone was speechless.

The memory of teasing the director was still fresh.

However, no one had expected that revenge was a dish best served cold in the blink of an eye.

All the pots and pans were gone.

They didn’t even leave the boxes of instant noodles, let alone the seasoning package Fang Qiu had saved when he cooked abalone noodles for everyone this morning. There was nothing left now.

What could they do? Everyone was just stunned. They looked at each other and didn’t know what to do.

At last, they habitually turned to look at Fang Qiu.

Although it was only one day and one night, Fang Qiu's deeds had made everyone silently regard him as the backbone. It seemed that there was no problem that Fang Qiu couldn't solve.

"It's just a meal. Easy-peasy." Fang Qiu smiled.

Hearing his words, everyone immediately cheered up and looked at Fang Qiu expectantly.

"What to do?" Liu Qingshi asked.

"You might not notice it." Fang Qiu turned his head to glance around, and said, "Actually, there are many coconut trees on this island, not just those on the sea, but there are also large tracts of coconut trees on the island. You may not have noticed that there are some traces in the land where the coconut trees are located. Judging from the traces, there should be coconut crabs on this island, which is a legendary delicacy."

Upon hearing it, everyone's eyes lit up immediately.

They were all celebrities. Naturally, they had eaten coconut crabs quite often, so they knew how delicious coconut crabs were.

As soon as Fang Qiu finished it, they couldn't help but begin to swallow.

"However, the wild coconut crab is an endangered animal, so we can't eat it." Fang Qiu suddenly said just when everyone recalled the deliciousness of coconut crabs.

When they heard it, they felt that the news was just like a fishbone in their throat.

They couldn't help but roll their eyes immediately.

"Why did you mention it when we can't eat it?" Liu Qingshi gave Fang Qiu an angry look.

“Then we can only grill fish.”

Fang Qiu shook his head and said, “Sharks are definitely not eatable. Besides, the weather is too hot and the temperature is too high, so the shark meat is probably rotten.”

“How about this?”

“We can cut off the shark’s fin and eat it. After cutting it off, we will drag the shark to the other side of the island so that it won’t pollute our station.”

“The shark fin is not enough for us. Liu Qingshi will be in charge of fishing. I will go offshore to fish for seafood. Others will go to the island to find some drinking water. We’d better find a way to filter it. Our water is not enough now. We can just wash the food with sea water to add a bit of salt.”

Hearing his words, everyone nodded.

Then, Liu Qingshi was responsible for the distribution.

Everyone started to work on their own. Fang Qiu walked around the island first, and after making sure that there was no danger nearby, he found a coral reef area and dived to fish for seafood.

He was lucky.

Liu Qingshi used the same method that Fang Qiu had used yesterday and caught a lot of fish. When Fang Qiu was fishing in the sea, he found some abalones and a prawn weighing three kilos. Everything was ready.

Everyone returned to the station, They were all greedy and excited when they saw so many ingredients.

However, when they were about to start cooking food, they realized that the fire was gone!

“Where’s the fire?”

“D*mn, did they take the fire away?”

“It is outrageous. They could take away the pots and pans, but they should at least leave the fire?”

“They are so cruel to us!”

The six MCs complained bitterly at the camera and accused the director one after another.

“This is so bad. If there is no fire, so many ingredients are useless. We can’t eat them raw, right?” Liu Qingshi said with a wry smile.

“Actually.” Just when everyone was extremely distressed, Song Yaqi suddenly stood up and said, “We can focus on the ignition.”

“Focus on ignition?” Ying’er was surprised.

“What is the focus of ignition?” Zheng Weilian and Zhang Junhe were puzzled.

Liu Qingshi and Huang Huachao also looked at Song Yaqi curiously.

“Smart.” Standing beside Song Yaqi, Fang Qiu smiled and complimented.

Song Yaqi also agreed with a smile.

“What do you mean?” Liu Qingshi asked, “The sun is very hot, and focusing on ignition is a good way to get fire, but where can we find a magnifying glass now?”

“Yes, at least there must be a magnifying glass to focus the ignition, right?” Everyone asked.

"I saw plastic bags in the garbage dump over there." Fang Qiu said.

They froze.

Indeed, this island was uninhabited, but some people regularly came to the island to clean up some of the rubbish that had been washed up by the waves to prevent the rubbish in the seawater from affecting the ecological environment on this island.

"I saw it too, but what about the magnifying glass?" Liu Qingshi asked.

"So, if you bring a plastic bag and fill it with seawater, isn't it the equivalent of a magnifying glass?" Fang Qiu was speechless.

Hearing his words, everyone reacted now.

They seemed to have seen the method in the textbook story in junior high school.

Thinking of it, everyone was embarrassed.

"Fill it with seawater. Good!" Liu Qingshi nodded clearly.

"I thought of it a long time ago. I just didn't say it." Zhang Junhe said.

"It's just elementary school knowledge. Everyone knows it, right?" Ying'er also laughed.

Looking at the hypocrisy of these people, Fang Qiu secretly slandered, I don't believe you at all. They immediately started to do it.

Fang Qiu went to the garbage dump by sea and found a plastic bag that was not too broken with at least a piece larger than a palm, and filled the plastic bag with sea water. He used the rope that Song Yaqi had found yesterday, and tied the plastic bag up so that no water was exposed, just like a transparent balloon filled with water.

“Go find some dry bark, save two better ones, and use stones to grind the rest into powder.” Fang Qiu said.

Zheng Weilian and Zhang Junhe did it immediately.

Soon, they brought the bark.

Fang Qiu sprinkled a layer of bark powder on a whole piece of bark and then focused the sunlight on the water bag. After a while, the powder began to burn and smoke on the bark, and Fang Qiu sprinkled another layer of bark powder to focus on the sun again.

After several times in this way, the powder turned into a kind of fire. Fang Qiu folded the withered grass into small pieces and put them on it, piled up the other withered grass, and then turned it over. He removed the bark to drop the burning and smoking bark powder into the withered grass, held the withered grass, and gently turned it in a circle.

With this turn, he directly used the wind to ignite the fire in the withered grass, and soon a burst of black smoke appeared from the withered grass, and then the flames leaped up!
