Chapter 851: A Famous Director Is Going to Make It into a Movie!

“Oh my God! There is gold!”

“Wow! The gold is heavy enough to crush a human being! Where is the gold now? Why wasn’t it said in the show?”

“Director, why don’t you tell us where the gold is now? Did you hide it?”

“Where is the island? I’m going to search for treasure!”

“I’m going to look for the gold and worship that hero!”

“They should tell us how they handled the gold, shouldn’t they? After all, the gold is so precious.”

“I’m still stunned by what happened in the show! The poor python! It’s the first time I’ve seen a python got dehydrated and died in seawater.”

“Yeah. Only Fang Qiu was capable of that. Other people wouldn’t be as brave as him, and even if they were brave, they couldn’t kill that python.”

On the Internet, everyone began to discuss it.

What they talked about the most was the guard, Yang Yizhi.

They wondered if it was true that the man had killed all the pirates on his own, as suggested in the article that was engraved on the wall.

They were curious if there was really such a powerful man in ancient times.

After all, in the eyes of modern people, this kind of thing was really difficult to achieve.

The Internet was a wonderful thing that one could find all kinds of strange things on it.

As soon as the episode ended, a person really found Yang Yizhi's name in some ancient books and records. Thus, it was confirmed that there was really such a person in history. It was recorded in the books that he followed Zheng He to the west, but there was no record about what happened later.

His story was found in many ancient books.

Now, everyone was finally sure that his story was true.

Those who paid special attention to this matter were extremely shocked.

None of them expected it to be true or expected that there would really be such a person in history.

In their eyes, even if the show's crew managed to make up such a story in those books, they couldn't fake such a large amount of gold.

Yang Yizhi quickly became well known on the Internet.

Even some historians, professors, and teachers in universities also participated in the discussion.

Some people tagged those historians and professors on social media to ask them what had happened back then.

Some people even tagged those famous directors at home and abroad, asking them to write a script based on it and made it into a movie.

All kinds of discussions flooded the Internet.

At the same time.

In a room of a complex in the capital.

“Hmm?”

A grey-haired man who looked like in his fifties heard about this variety show on the Internet, and after he watched the show, his eyes lit up.

This man's name was Zhao Rulong.

He was a relatively well-known screenwriter.

That was because he had a long collaboration with a famous director in the country.

A screenwriter always worked behind the scenes, so did Zhao Rulong. So, some people might know his name but did not know who he actually was.

Recently, Zhao Rulong was very depressed, and some of his hair even turned grey.

That was because the director he collaborated with hadn't produced any new works for a long time and was urging him to write a new script. Having been in the industry for dozens of years, Zhao Rulong had no inspiration now, so he wanted to buy some popular Intellectual Properties, such as novels, so as to adapt them to scripts.

However, to his disappointment, many popular Intellectual Properties he wanted to buy had already been purchased by others. His company did not want to buy other less well-known Intellectual Properties because they thought they were worthless.

This put him in a particularly difficult situation.

Without any inspiration or Intellectual Property, what should he do?

He could only stay at home and wait for the inspiration to come to him.

After waiting for so long, he finally got it.

He never expected that he would get inspired by a variety show.

“Hero, Zheng He, ocean, island, treasure...” he murmured.

His eyes became even brighter.

All those elements were interesting!

Moreover, those elements were now very popular among the audience. If he managed to write a script based on those elements and start propagating it immediately, the audience, who was interested in Yang Yizhi’s story, might keep following the news of the movie until the day it was released.

“I finally have an inspiration!”

Zhao Rulong stood up excitedly in an instant. He walked out of the room and ran to the next room.

The famous director, Chen Xiaogang, lived in that room.

However, as soon as Zhao Rulong rushed out of his room, he saw Chen Xiaogang run out of his own room.

They bumped into each other with great excitement.

"I thought of a new theme for my script!" Zhao Rulong said.

"I got an inspiration!" Chen Xiaogang said almost at the same time.

They looked at each other and said in unison, "Zheng He and the guard!"

After saying that, they laughed out loud.

"We need to hurry up. We must finish it as soon as possible."

Zhao Rulong urged Chen Xiaogang. "Director Chen, I think you should go to find the show crew of Run Wild&Survive as soon as possible. We must reach an agreement with them ahead of others. After all, they are the direct witnesses of the event. With their permission, our script and movie will be legal, and if others copy the idea, they will be breaking the law!"

"You're right! We must settle this matter as soon as possible."

Chen Xiaogang nodded and immediately took out his mobile phone to make a call. He asked someone to get the contact information of the show's crew. He could imagine how many people would try to obtain the legal right to produce works based on this theme.

At this time, the rating of the third episode of Run Wild&Survive was announced.

On a list of the ratings, Run Wild&Survive was ranked first.

Its rating actually reached an amazing 8.9%!

The crews of all variety shows, TV stations, and the press were amazed after hearing the news.

Even some individual social media accounts also expressed their admiration.

The netizens were stunned by the rating.

“Oh my God! I didn’t expect a show to have such a high rating after the show ‘Young Chinese Medicine Doctor’.”

“It’s so amazing! I’m wondering how big its market share would be.”

“As expected, Fang Qiu is awesome. He is always in the spotlight wherever he goes.”

“After Young Chinese Medicine Doctor, will Run Wild&Survive become popular as well?”

“Well, this is not all about the show becoming popular. Instead, it’s about that the JZ TV has become one of the A-list variety show TV stations with the help of Fang Qiu and Run Wild&Survive.”

After reading the rating list of all channels, the netizens were even more stunned.

They were shocked to find that almost all the audience chose to watch Run Wild&Survive, and only a few of them chose to watch other shows. As a result, the highest rating of other shows was only 0.2%.

Everyone was dumbfounded by this.

The crews of other variety shows all felt upset.

However, they also thought that Run Wild&Survive deserved those ratings because nothing in the show was hyped.

Besides, even if some things in the show were hyped, no one else could come up with those ideas.

No one would think about producing a show with content such as fighting a shark and searching for treasure.

The crew of JZ TV cheered excitedly when they saw the rating of the show.

They achieved the highest rating after the show was aired.

At the same time, the show became very popular among the audience because of the last three episodes.

Even if the rating of the next episode dropped by half because Fang Qiu was not in it, it would still be higher than that of all other variety shows.

Thus, the crew thought they should thank Fang Qiu.

Without hesitation, the overjoyed director of the show called Fang Qiu immediately.

“Hello?”

Fang Qiu answered the phone.

“Hey, Fang Qiu, it’s Liu Guobin.”

Liu Guobin continued enthusiastically, “The three episodes that you participated in were all aired.”

“I heard it as well,” Fang Qiu replied with a smile.

Liu Guobin thanked him sincerely and said, "To be honest, I really didn't expect the ratings of those three episodes to go higher and higher, and I must thank you for this. Without the traffic you brought to the show and the hot topics you created, we wouldn't have achieved such a high rating. Thank you so much."

"Glad I could help."

Fang Qiu answered with a modest smile, "I really can't take credit. All of you have made contributions to it."

"Yes."

Liu Guobin smiled as well and continued, "Our contributions account for 10% while yours account for 90%."

"Please don't say that, Director Liu."

Fang Qiu shook his head with a wry smile. What happened in the show was accidental.

He did not expect so many accidents to happen after going to the sea.

"Stop calling me Director Liu."

Liu Guobin said in a straightforward tone, "We're friends and I'm older than you, so you can call me Brother Liu."

"Okay, Brother Liu," Fang Qiu answered.

"I have something to tell you."

Liu Guobin grinned and continued, “We both had a good time during the cooperation, and I believe we would achieve greater success if our cooperation continues. So I want to invite you to join our show again. What do you think?”

“Brother Liu, I’m sorry. I can’t join you this time.”

Fang Qiu gave a bitter smile and shook his head repeatedly. “I think I’d better stay away from variety show now. I’m a doctor of Chinese Medicine, and I don’t want others to regard me as a variety show star. Besides, I think I should give these chances to other celebrities. I don’t want to be cursed.”

“Haha.”

Liu Guobin laughed and said, “Okay. When you want to join a show again after having a good rest, please consider our show first.”

“Okay.”

Fang Qiu quickly nodded in agreement.

He really didn’t plan to get on any variety show now, so he decided to wait and see.

At this moment, in a complex in the capital.

“Whoa...”

Looking at the final rating of Run Wild&Survive, Li Huawen, the director of Young Chinese Medicine Doctor, felt relieved. “It’s lucky that their ratings didn’t surpass my show’s.”

In fact, Li Huawen had been quite nervous before.

He thought, “Fang Qiu almost caused trouble for me. I must invite him to my show next year. Even if he couldn’t participate in every episode, I must make him participate in the first and last episodes.”

An idea suddenly popped into his head. He now was the director of the New Year’s Gala, and he was racking his brain, trying to think of an idea for the gala. He could invite Fang Qiu to the gala since he was so popular among the audience now.

“Fang Qiu, the New Year’s Gala...”

Li Huawen murmured and couldn’t help laughing.

The topics about the show were still hot, and there was no sign that people would lose interest in them.

People were talking about it even at midnight. They browsed the comments of the show on their computers or mobile phones. Some people even started to watch the show for the second time and even the third time.

However, just as everyone was discussing it, someone posted a long post on social media.

The title of the post was “The Treasure on the Island: A Horrifying Detail”.

The post analyzed the details of many things that happened in the show.

The content of the post included:

“Don’t you think that Fang Qiu was furious the moment he saw the python?”

“Why was he so furious?”

“It could be seen that Fang Qiu respected Yang Yizhi very much and the remains of Yang Yizhi had been touched, so they were scattered on the ground. I guess that Fang Qiu was furious because he thought the python swallowed part of the remains of Yang Yizhi. Except for this, I couldn't think of any other reason for what he did later.

"Let's not talk about why Fang Qiu would think that way first. He must have his reasons. We all know that he is very smart and quick-witted. He mastered so much knowledge of Chinese Medicine in just one year. He must have noticed some details, so he came to that conclusion.

"However, all these things don't matter. What matters is that Zheng He's story happened six hundred years ago, which means that the python had lived for six hundred years. It's horrifying! Was this python a demon?"

Chapter 852: Fang Qiu Acts in a Movie

No sooner had this long post appeared on Weibo, then it immediately attracted the attention of numerous people.

All who read it were dumbfounded.

"When he saw the big python, did Fang Qiu get angry? How come I don't remember?"

"Back then, I also felt that Fang Qiu's expression changed a little, but it didn't necessarily mean that he was furious, did it?"

"Although I feel that what the blogger said was a little dramatic, it seems possible after I gave it a second thought."

"Let me see if Fang Qiu is angry or not."

Everyone hurriedly went to watch the last episode of Run Wild & Survive a few more times.

Some of them even froze the picture of Fang Qiu's expression continually.

After watching it, everyone was even more astounded.

“Damn, Fang Qiu is really mad!”

“When I watched it for the first time, I wondered why Fang Qiu was so bold that he dared to fight with the python. I didn’t expect that he was actually mad.”

Just when everyone was talking about it, a verified account holder who was a micro expression expert joined the discussion.

“Although Fang Qiu’s expression looks calm, when you look carefully you can tell from his eyes that he is not afraid of the big python, but was furious. Besides, at that moment, we can see that Fang Qiu’s nostrils had clearly widened, so we can conclude that Fang Qiu was really very angry at that time.”

His words directly proved that Fang Qiu was indeed furious at that time.

That long post also went viral.

But why was Fang Qiu so furious?

The more times people watched the last episode, the more they thought it was possible.

Therefore, everyone reposted it one after another. In merely ten minutes, the number of reposts on this long Weibo had exceeded 10,000.

The netizens in the comment area were also quite enthusiastic and all kinds of comments kept popping up.

“Fang Qiu is really pissed off. If what the blogger said is right, it will be terrifying!”

“The more I think about it, the more scared I get.”

“A snake that has lived for 600 years? You’re really stretching your imagination. Fang Qiu is so bold. He even managed to defeat a python.”

“I think we will not know the truth no matter how hard we try to analyze it. In general, putting aside whether what the blogger said is true or not, there is one thing that we have to admit. That is, Fang Qiu’s respect for the sages is true. For that, I’ve become his fan!”

“A 600-year-old python. How could it be so small? It should at least be the same size as those pythons in movies. It should feel like it could even engulf a skyscraper. That’s what a giant snake that has lived for 600 years should be like. Although the python Fang Qiu killed looks huge, it doesn’t seem to be 600 years old no matter how big it is!”

“I used to watch this on TV. The big snake cultivating for 100 years would have transformed itself. This big python has been practiced for 600 years. How could it be killed so easily by Fang Qiu?”

“The big python died so miserably. If it really lived for 600 years, it would suffer. It was trapped on a small island for 600 years. It couldn’t get into the water at all. It would be a relief if it died.”

“Every time I watch it, I admire Fang Qiu even more. I am a person who is particularly afraid of snakes. I think most people in the world would be afraid of snakes. Even a small snake can startle me. If I see such a big snake, I will literally wet myself, let alone beat it.”

“I have to say that Fang Qiu is not only brave, but also respects the sages. He deserves our admiration. This is the Huaxia spirit. This is the role model of our ancient doctrine.”

There were various remarks, but basically, they all complimented Fang Qiu.

Fang Qiu’s performances in these three episodes were really impeccable. He was modest, polite, caring, and had powerful martial arts skills. At each critical moment, he would step forward bravely. His knowledge was so profound that it made a strong impression on others.

Although Fang Qiu had enough fans, he really gained a new group of fans after this time. These new fans called themselves “Wild Fan”, which meant to survive in the wild.

They were all ordinary netizens who only started getting to know Fang Qiu, but they were strongly impressed by him this time.

In the past, they thought that Fang Qiu was no more than a pretty young man when they looked at his face. Who would have expected that he would be able to attract numerous fans with his actual strength this time?

He was even more masculine than a tough man!

Fang Qiu’s number of followers on Weibo had also exceeded 50 million.

As a large number of fans flooded to his Weibo, the number of comments also soared again.

It didn’t matter if they were old fans, Wild Fans, or regular followers. They were all curious and kept asking questions at the comment area of Fang Qiu’s Weibo.

“Master Fang, what were you thinking about the moment you faced the big python?”

“Master, were you really mad at that time?”

“I think, master, you must have a kind heart that respects the sages. I think that you must want to avenge that hero, so you summoned up your courage to attack the big python, right?”

Before Fang Qiu could answer everyone’s questions, a director, Chen Xiaogang, who was well known for being the leading director in Huaxia, directly announced a decision on his Weibo which had over 30 million followers.

“From now on, I will carry out a series of cooperation with the crew of Run Wild&Survive, based on the story of Mr. Yang Yizhi. The most important thing is to collaborate in a movie.”

“After hearing the story of Mr. Yang Yizhi, I was deeply moved and proud of the righteousness of our people. Thus, I will try my best to shoot the soul-stirring story of Yang Yizhi. Hopefully, it can come out at the end of next year!”

When Chen Xiaogang sent out this new post, many people immediately saw it.

“What the f*ck? Chen Xiaogang is about to shoot the story of Master Yang Yizhi?”

“Wow, Director Chen is a renowned director!”

“I didn’t expect that Director Chen would actually decide to do this. I’m looking forward to it! I like Master Yang so much!”

“Director Chen’s movie is absolutely a great production. The righteousness that Master Yang Yizhi showed is absolutely earth-shattering. I hope Director Chen will film this wholeheartedly.”

“I’m looking forward to it!”

“I’m really looking forward to it. With Director Chen’s directing skills, the image of Yang Yizhi would definitely reappear!”

There was no doubt that Director Chen’s post not only made the show more popular, but also instantly aroused the peoples’ interest.

Many fans also knew that this was a good opportunity for their idols to gain popularity. This movie was definitely a top-notch resource, so numerous fans began to recommend their idols.

However, there were some who retorted and some who agreed.

Everyone had their own image in their hearts about Master Yang Yizhi and felt that the recommendation was not suitable.

Fans kept debating with each other, and the popularity of the show also kept soaring.

However, one bold netizen completely ignored this and directly began to write the plot under the director's Weibo.

"Director Chen, I'm a novelist. I've written some plots. Can you shoot it like this? A group of popular stars gathered in a variety show by chance. In the process of filming the show, they found a treasure. From this, they made a grand and heroic historical discovery that was not known to people. Then the picture shifted and the historical scene appeared..."

As soon as the comments appeared, it trended quickly.

Some people approved and gave their likes, while some opposed it.

"You can't shoot it like this. Since we want to film the story of Master Yang Yizhi, we should focus on him and not involve him in the modern world. In recent years, those movies related to the modern world were a disaster. Don't ruin Master Yang Yizhi's reputation. Okay?"

"I agree on filming a memoir!"

"I think Director Chen should do some thorough research about the life of Yang Yizhi, such as how he entered the military, when he started to practice martial arts, how he joined the Voyages to the West, and how he stayed on the island."

"In fact, I think the most important thing about Master Yang Yizhi is not his life experience, but that he stayed alone on an isolated island to ensure the safety of the surrounding areas of the sea. It would be a magnificent scene, when he was confronted with countless pirates alone!"

"I hope it won't be a mythical film."

“I want to see the real-life Yang Yizhi like a mortal with all kinds of emotions! I think I can play this role. I hope Director Chen can consider having me in the movie. Give me a chance, and I will even get you an Academy Award!”

“Get lost!”

While everyone was discussing about the script and straying away from the topic, a brand new comment suddenly captured everyone’s attention.

“I think it’s best to let Fang Qiu play the role of Yang Yizhi. Anyway, he’s the one who discovered the story about this hero. Besides, Fang Qiu admires and respects the sages so much. I think he can definitely show the essence of Master Yang Yizhi when he was young!”

The moment this comment appeared, it immediately attracted countless people’s likes.

“Damn, why didn’t we think of it?”

“Fang Qiu is definitely the right person for the role!”

“Think about it. Fang Qiu has learned Qigong and also knows about martial arts.”

“His performance in the variety show was so courageous. He slashed the shark and killed the snake, which was exactly what the heroes did in ancient times.”

“The most important thing is that he is so handsome! He would look dashing in an ancient costume.”

All of a sudden, a group of female fans immediately supported Fang Qiu in playing the role of Yang Yizhi, for they were eager to see Fang Qiu in ancient costume!

One of the netizens who had just left a comment suddenly found something amazing.

“Mr. Zhao Rulong gave a like to the comment about Fang Qiu!”

“What?”

“Damn, it’s true. Is it Director Chen’s screenwriter, Mr. Zhao Rulong? He really likes this comment.”

“Does this mean that Mr. Zhao Rulong also agrees to let Fang Qiu play Yang Yizhi?”

“Haha, it seems that it’s settled. This role must be played by Fang Qiu!”

“I’m looking forward to it so much. Every variety show of Fang Qiu brings great surprises. If he really stars in this movie, it would definitely be awesome.”

“Why so soon? Even if Mr. Zhao Rulong thinks it’s okay, it’s up to Director Chen to decide who he wants to use. And even if Director Chen wants Fang Qiu to play, you don’t know whether Fang Qiu is willing to accept it or not.”

“Fang Qiu will definitely take it. He respects Yang Yizhi so much. How can he tolerate those young actors who don’t have any acting skills to ruin Yang Yizhi’s memoir? Besides, although Fang Qiu doesn’t have any acting skills now, he is a straight-A student. He must be a quick learner!”

“That’s right. Fang Qiu has even taken part in variety shows. Isn’t it natural for him to act in a movie?”

“Zhao Rulong is one of Chen Xiaogang’s best screenwriters. Director Chen will take what he said seriously. I think that Fang Qiu will surely act in this movie!”

“I’m looking forward to Fang Qiu’s performance!”

The heated discussion was still growing on the Internet.

As a result, without Fang Qiu knowing, #Fang Qiu Acts in the Movie# was inexplicably on the trending list on Weibo, and it directly rushed to the first place on the real-time trending topic on Weibo. It was also about to make it to the top 5 of the topic list at an extremely fast speed.

Director Chen Xiaogang and Zhao Rulong had gathered together. Seeing the heated discussion and topics on the Internet, both of them burst into laughter.

“We really chose the right subject. It is trending rapidly. As long as we do it right, it will definitely be a top-notch intellectual property!”

“As for whether we should use Fang Qiu, we can leave it as one of our choices.”

“Well, in fact, his image is also quite suitable.”

While the two of them were discussing, the whole Huaxia Wulin was also in an uproar because of this show.

Chapter 853: Shake the Whole Wulin!

This was modern society.

Even if Wulin still existed, it was no more than a part of modern society.

Like ordinary people, people in Wulin also had to live and they also watched TV.

Wulin people also watched the third episode.

All the people in the martial arts world were astounded when they saw Fang Qiu’s translation of the last note and the rare corpse and body of Yang Yizhi.

“An expert! The guard named Yang Yizhi is definitely a first-class expert.”

“At least he is a super expert in the guru Realm!”

“Ordinary people may feel this note is mythical, just like the TV show. But we all know that this expert definitely has the ability to protect the surrounding areas of the sea!”

“I didn’t expect that there would be such a powerful expert in ancient times.”

“He killed all the pirates with a saber alone. It is true. The senior named Yang Yizhi is really awesome!”

On the Wulin forum, numerous people were involved in the discussion of this matter, like what the other people did on Weibo. The only difference was that there were many different heated topics about this matter on Weibo, but there was only one hot topic on the Wulin forum, which was about Yang Yizhi’s strength!

He was the ancient master who they were most likely to approach and get familiar with.

Of course, for the martial arts practitioners, there were plenty of issues that they could discuss about.

For instance, an ancient guru-level expert meant a great treasure in Wulin. Maybe this ancient guru had hidden something in that cave, which ordinary people could not find.

It was highly likely that the human-shaped patterns in the cave which were presented in the show were the legendary ancient secret martial arts books!

There was a strong possibility!

It was perfectly possible that a guru who could not return to his roots would leave his cultivation methods to the world!

Moreover, even if he didn't leave it, the relics of a guru were definitely worth exploring and worshipped by many Wulin people!

Many people in Wulin had thought of this point, but no one took the initiative to mention it.

They only talked about the guru's strength.

However, behind the scenes, they all played waiting games.

Four Great Families in Wulin, as well as the major forces, and some masters who pursued the supreme power and were attracted by the ancient guru, also took action when they heard the news. They began to book flight tickets to the uninhabited island country which the show's crew had publicized earlier.

Something serious was about to happen in Wulin.

In the manor of the Diwu family in Nanjiang, a maid stood outside the oval carpet on a pavilion, holding a tablet in her hand and spoke to Diwu Qian who was playing the Chinese zither on the carpet. "Miss Qian, Master wants you to watch TV."

"TV?" Diwu Qian stopped playing the Chinese zither, turned her head, and said with a faint smile, "What's wrong with my father? He knows I don't like watching TV."

The maid said, "Master said that he knew that you didn't like watching TV, but he could guarantee that you would like this show."

"A show?" Diwu Qian was confused.

"This is a variety show."

As the maid spoke, she handed the tablet to Diwu Qian.

"All right." Wu Qian smiled helplessly. She took the tablet computer, clicked on it and began to watch it.

During the whole process of watching the video, Diwu Qian chuckled a few times and she was also impressed by Fang Qiu's performance.

It was exceptionally challenging for an ordinary man to do this.

However, when Diwu Qian saw the situation in the cave, the smile on her face disappeared and was replaced by a solemn look. Sometimes, she even clicked the pause button and paid special attention to the video. Under the illumination of the flashlight, the human-shaped pattern was vaguely engraved on the rock wall of the cave.

The maid didn't dare to disturb her.

"How is it? Do you like it?" When she watched till the end, Diwu Mingchuan, who had appeared without her noticing, stood behind her with a smile. The maid who had been serving her had already left.

"I like it." Diwu Qian put down the tablet, rose to her feet, and answered with a smile.

Diwu Mingchuan laughed and said, "I knew you would like it. What are you going to do?"

"Nothing for now." Diwu Qian shook her head.

"Yeah." Diwu Mingchuan nodded and said, "Let's wait and see. The other three families have also sent someone to check it out. We don't know much about the situation in Pear Garden yet. I have also instructed people to search for it. We'll decide what to do when we get some information."

"I want to see the first two episodes of this variety show." Then, Diwu Qian clicked to watch the show.

"An ancient expert? Judging from the corpse, this senior named Yang Yizhi must at least have the guru-level cultivation. Moreover, his skeleton is so big. At that time, he indeed has a talent for guarding."

“But, among the relics of this guru-level expert, what kind of things can’t be seen by ordinary people? And what do these blurred patterns mean?”

In a quiet wooden house in Pear Garden, Yun Yangzi was sitting on a futon, facing a painting on the wall. He frowned slightly and pondered for a while. Then he shook his head, saying with a smile, “People will wait until they see what the others are doing. Well, I’m going to do it in my own way!”

Some people remained calm, while others already took action enthusiastically.

That night, numerous Wulin people swarmed to international airports all over the country. When they ran into each other, they all looked a bit embarrassed.

“Hey, why are you here? Didn’t you say that you would be doing closed-door training in seclusion for three years and could not go out?”

“Yeah, I’m bored. So I’m going abroad for a trip.”

“Where are you going? I’m going to Europe.”

“I’m going to America.”

At the airport, all kinds of awkward conversations could be heard everywhere.

Wulin people almost met all their fellow citizens at the same airport.

Of course, they were all perfunctory conversations.

No one would tell their real purpose.

However, as soon as they boarded the plane, they were all dumbfounded.

Once they boarded the plane, everyone was surprised to find that they were the people who had awkward conversations with them just now. Nearly all of them were on the same plane, and their destination was Southeast Asia.

No one was going to Europe or America.

The atmosphere on the plane was so awkward that no one could stand it. The Wulin people in the plane also stopped talking to each other as they knew what the others were thinking.

They all acted as if nothing had happened before.

Fang Qiu didn't follow the movements of Wulin.

Early the next morning, after finishing his breakfast, he bought breakfast and went straight to look for Wei Dong.

When he arrived at the door of the basement where Wei Dong lived, Wei Dong just came back on his three-wheeler.

"Here, eat something." Fang Qiu handed the two steamed buns and a packet of soy milk to Wei Dong and asked, "Have you dealt with it?"

"Everything is done," Wei Dong immediately said while nodding, "You eat. I don't need to have breakfast."

"I've eaten." After saying that, Fang Qiu shoved the breakfast into Wei Dong's hand and added. "I'll come and visit the elders you're taking care of."

Wei Dong smiled and said, "No need. That slum is about to be demolished. The news has been going around for a long time. It wasn't confirmed until the last few days. After the demolition, they will get the compensation fees and be assigned to better houses. They will have a good life by then."

Fang Qiu nodded knowingly and said, "That's good. Let's go. Come to the capital with me."

Wei Dong still needed to pack, so Fang Qiu let him do it.

After all, he didn't have many things to pack. There was only a stool, a teapot and a pot in the basement.

In the end, since Wei Dong couldn't resist Fang Qiu, he could only get on the plane with Fang Qiu.

In the capital, Fang Qiu found a place to let Wei Dong take a shower, and he went out to buy a few sets of sportswear that were not quite conspicuous, but quite in line with Wei Dong's style. He then asked Wei Dong to change into one.

After all, they were going to the publisher to meet people. In the past, Wei Dong didn't have money to buy fine clothes because he spent all his money to help others. Since he had already come out of that place, he naturally needed to wear something smart.

After taking a shower, he put on new clothes.

Wei Dong looked much fresher and did not look so tired. He looked ordinary, but his eyes were strikingly bright and clean.

He followed Fang Qiu to the publisher.

After they met Zhang Xingjie, he directly took them to the warehouse in the suburbs outside Fifth Ring Road.

At the door of the warehouse, Zhang Xingjie pointed to the door and told Fang Qiu and Wei Dong, "This is our warehouse. The books here are only one-tenth of the total books. The rest are in warehouses all over the country. It will take some time to transfer all of them here."

Fang Qiu nodded and said, "No need. I believe you. I've already transferred the rest of the money to you."

Zhang Xingjie immediately beamed when he heard that.

He was not worried that Fang Qiu would welch on the money. After all, Fang Qiu was so well-known. Considering that it would be a scandal if he didn't pay him, he would never do that.

Fang Qiu looked at Zhang Xingjie with a smile and then said to Wei Dong, "Okay. You can talk directly to Mr. Zhang. As for how to do it, it's up to you. You can do it once you set your mind on it. No need to be fast. We just want to do it right."

"Okay." Wei Dong nodded seriously and smiled at Zhang Xingjie.

"Then, I'll leave the rest to you." Fang Qiu nodded and took out a bank card from his trouser pocket. He handed it to Wei Dong and said, "There is 3 million in this card, which is your initial funds, including carriage fees, etc. If you don't have enough money, I will send you more. Remember that you are working for all the children in the poor mountain areas now. If you want to be a role model for them, you must treat yourself well. How can a person who doesn't even treat himself well be a role model for others?"

"I see."

Wei Dong nodded heavily. He bowed deeply to Fang Qiu and said, "On behalf of the children in the mountains, thank you!"

Fang Qiu gently moved away.

Although he didn't say anything to Wei Dong, he said to himself, "On behalf of traditional Chinese medicine, thank you!"

“This is just a trip. After the books are delivered and all the places are located, the following supplies will be delivered according to the path you have planned.” Fang Qiu said to Wei Dong. Then he handed everything over to Wei Dong and watched Wei Dong discussing the plan with Zhang Xingjie.

For example, where would the books be sent to? How many books should be sent to each place? These were all the delivery channels of the publisher. As for the roads at the grassroots level, Wei Dong had to find out by himself.

This was a heavy burden, but Fang Qiu believed that Wei Dong could do it well.

Even if Fang Qiu did it himself, he believed that he could not do it as well as Wei Dong because there was only one goal in Wei Dong’s life—to help more people!

When the two of them finished their discussion, Wei Dong officially began his work.

Fang Qiu took out his phone and called Li Ji.

“Hello?” Li Ji answered the phone.

“I...” Fang Qiu said.

“There’s something you need my help with, right?” Before Fang Qiu could finish, Li Ji spoke first.

“Yeah, how did you know?” Fang Qiu felt a little embarrassed.

“Tell me, what’s the matter?” Li Ji gave a wry smile, thinking to himself, “You won’t call me unless you need my help.”

Fang Qiu said, “I hope that the government can provide me with a list of the poor mountainous areas and their locations. I have some books and wanted to distribute them to the children from these poor areas. If possible, I hope that the higher-ups can take care of this matter secretly, at least there will not be any problems.”

Medical Master

Chapter 854: News about Publishing a Book Got Exposed!

Li Ji said, "No problem. This is a good thing. Our country is busy developing in all aspects, so we haven't covered this aspect yet. What you have done will make up for this gap. The higher-ups will definitely support you."

"That's great." Fang Qiu was relieved.

He was worried that it would take a long time if he merely let Wei Dong explore the paths. However, with the help of the government, it would be much faster.

When he was about to hang up, Li Ji suddenly asked, "The thing you discovered in Southeast Asia attracted lots of attention. Are there really guru-level cultivation methods on that island?"

Although Li Ji was a soldier, he was inevitably curious.

"Yes, but it's not complete," Fang Qiu had no intention of concealing anything and said, "I suppose that Master Yang Yizhi didn't want people not from Huaxia to get what he learned, especially the nearby pirates, so he left the incomplete methods on purpose."

"I see," Li Ji understood and said, "Then we won't send anyone there."

Fang Qiu hurriedly said, "No. You have to send someone to take good care of the body of Master Yang Yizhi!"

Li Ji immediately nodded and said, "No problem. In fact, as soon as the show was broadcasted, the country where the island is situated has begun negotiations with us. They want treasures and gold. Our government is now discussing this with them. Master Yang Yizhi, including the so-called treasure, are ours. How can we give it to them?"

“Yes!” Fang Qiu nodded in agreement.

Li Ji said, “Although the guru has no cultivation method, the guru left this world in that place. There might be a lot of people in Wulin who think that there will be martial arts secret books. By then, it will be inevitable for the Huaxia Wulin to fight with the local forces.”

“People in the world will always scramble for profits. This is normal,” Fang Qiu said with a faint smile.

Fang Qiu had already seen through this kind of matter. As long as no one damaged the master’s body, they could fight with each other if they liked.

Anyway, they couldn’t get anything in the end.

On the other end of the phone, Li Ji said in a serious tone, “You have to intervene if they can’t settle the conflicts!”

“People in our Huaxia Wulin won’t be so inferior, right?” Fang Qiu said jokingly and then added. “Will they get bullied?”

“Of course not,” Li Ji immediately laughed and said, “I’m just saying. We have to be prepared in case anything should happen.”

Fang Qiu sneered and said directly, “I didn’t see that. I think you want me to do something, right?”

Li Ji laughed and said, “Well, we’ll talk about it later. I’ll send you the information you want. I have to report it to the superior first. Bye.”

After that, he hung up.

Looking at the phone, Fang Qiu shook his head helplessly.

This guy was obviously holding back something.

However, since he didn't say anything, Fang Qiu didn't bother to ask. When it was the right time, he would naturally tell him.

In just three days, the experts from Huaxia Wulin who had gone to the uninhabited island fought with the local people.

There was no doubt that the Huaxia martial arts practitioners naturally played a much more powerful role in this fight. They showed remarkable power, suppressing the local forces completely.

However, due to the intervention of the local government, the tension between the two sides was temporarily eased.

After these three days, the small island which was usually empty all year round was now occupied by all kinds of forces.

Different from the other forces, every Huaxia martial arts practitioner would first go to the cave and pay his respects to Yang Yizhi.

Looking at Yang Yizhi's last note on the rock wall, everyone had mixed feelings.

They wished they could have gone out to sea with Yang Yizhi to kill the bandits at that time!

However, they could only regret that they had been born too late!

In Huaxia, even though three days had passed, people from all over the country were still engrossed in the Run Wild&Survive series.

While everyone was still enthusiastically discussing about all kinds of topics brought about by Run Wild&Survive, a piece of news suddenly came out. This was the big move that the publishing house had been planning to reveal to the public.

“Fang Qiu wrote a book, which will be released in a month!”

Everyone who heard this news was totally dumbfounded.

“Fang Qiu? Writing a book?”

“It’s impossible. Fang Qiu is a doctor. It’s okay for him to join variety shows. After all, he is famous, but it’ll be too much for him to write a book.”

“That’s right. Even an excellent student from a liberal arts university may not be able to become a writer. Fang Qiu is a medical student at the University of Chinese Medicine. What can he write about?”

“What is Fang Qiu going to do?”

“Why can’t Fang Qiu write a book? Our Master Fang is omnipotent in all fields! I’m rooting for him!”

Meanwhile, in the Beijiang cultivation base, looking at the news online, Zhou Xiaotian was stunned.
“What on earth is Fang Qiu going to do now?”

“A book? Does Fang Qiu know how to write a book?” Sun Hao was also very surprised.

“I don’t think it’s strange for Fang Qiu to write a book. What’s strange is why he suddenly wants to write one. Why did he suddenly want to be a writer?”

Zhu Benzhen agreed and added, “Think about it. Fang Qiu is the kind of person who can recite dozens of ancient medical books. This means that he has some literary skills. It’s not odd for him to write a book, but why is he doing it and what kind of book is he going to write? This is what we need to focus on.”

“A book?” In the capital city, when Director Li Huawen heard that Fang Qiu was going to publish a book, he was amazed.

Naturally, he knew that one of the proposals he gave to Fang Qiu was to invite Fang Qiu to write a book. After all, he had read these proposals in advance. Before he handed them over to Fang Qiu, he had to scrutinize them first.

While he was reading those proposals, he could only think of Fang Qiu joining any variety shows, but he couldn't come up with any reason for Fang Qiu to publish a book.

But what happened now was exactly what he had never expected.

"This kid really intends to publish it." he thought.

"I only wanted to offer him more options back then. I didn't expect that he really liked this proposal. But what kind of book could this kid write?"

"Fang Qiu, you've been in the limelight recently." In a female dormitory in a university, Jiang Mengjie smiled slightly and murmured to herself while browsing Weibo, "After causing such a scene with a female singer on the variety show, now you even want to write a book. Will it be a romantic novel?"

"Miaoyu, Miaoyu." In Comores, Africa, a girl from the medical team ran to Jiang Miaoyu, who had just finished her shift. She handed the phone to Jiang Miaoyu and said, "Look."

"What?" Jiang Miaoyu was curious.

But when she took a look at the phone, she found that Fang Qiu was going to publish a book.

"Write a book?" Jiang Miaoyu smiled slightly. She was not surprised about Fang Qiu doing anything because she knew that Fang Qiu was capable of managing numerous things.

"Your boyfriend is so awesome. He can even write a book?"

Beside her, the girl from the medical team said with a smile, and then asked, “Do you know what kind of book he will be writing?”

“I don’t know,” Jiang Miaoyu shook her head and said while smiling proudly, “But I know that no matter what book he is going to write, it must be so professional!”

“One month. It’s close.”

In the library of the University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine, Xu Miaolin breathed a sigh of relief and murmured to himself after putting down the nameless book that was stapled together, “Just wait to be shocked!”

On Weibo, Fang Qiu’s fans were all overjoyed when they heard the news.

“Our Master Fang can even write a book?”

“Haha, Billion Fang is capable of anything!”

“Master, you’re amazing. You’re the most talented person I’ve ever seen outside the entertainment industry.”

“I’m looking forward to it. Master Fang is going to publish a book. I wonder what kind of book he is writing. Could it be a book that will teach everyone about Chinese Medicine?”

“With our Master Fang’s scholarly look, he definitely will not be writing love stories. Let’s wait for it!”

An intern working in the publishing industry heard the news.

Helplessly, he took out his phone, clicked on the WeChat group, and complained, “Another famous person will be writing a book. This is obviously an amateur trying to earn money.”

In the WeChat group, everyone echoed his sentiment.

“Alas, this is how the world works now. Where there is profit, there will be people.”

“Profit? What else can they gain since our publishing business is in such a state?”

“Maybe Fang Qiu can improve the business of the publishing industry.”

“I hope so.”

When they heard that Fang Qiu would be writing a book, all the people from the publishing industry only had negative comments.

“What the f*ck? How can he write a book?”

“This is robbing me of my job.”

“Fang Qiu. This is the first time that Fang Qiu made me speechless. You should stay in the Chinese Medicine field and the variety show circle. It’s not as if you can’t earn money by doing this. Why do you have to interfere in the publishing business?”

“It doesn’t matter. Just write it. He can’t write a good book anyway. Why would a medical student write a book?”

“Yes, writing relies on talents. Especially paper books, you can’t sell books well just because you’re famous. Many celebrities suffer losses when doing this.”

“Fang Qiu is only 18 years old. What kind of book can he write at such an age? He has no experience at all, and he doesn’t have enough experience in life. What book can he write?”

“I’d like to see which company signed up for it! I’m dying to see how they will lose money.”

Apparently, the people in the publishing circle were not optimistic about Fang Qiu's book.

They could not deny Fang Qiu's influence, nor did they doubt that he had a large number of fans. However, having so many fans didn't mean anything. If each of his fans really spent 30 yuan buying his book, wouldn't that cost 1.5 billion yuan in total given that Fang Qiu had 50 million fans?

In this day and age, no matter how popular the writer was, it was already good that they could sell over ten thousand or several hundred thousand books, not to mention a layman like Fang Qiu.

Not long after, the people in the publishing industry who looked down on Fang Qiu and thought he was making a fool of himself and didn't have the ability to write received slaps in the face because the introduction to Fang Qiu's book came out!

"There is a fundamental difference between Chinese Medicine and Western Medicine. In addition to treating the human body, Chinese Medicine also treats the human's vital essence, Qi, and spirit. What is vital essence? What is Qi? What is the spirit? How do they exist and operate in the human body? What is the difference between the internal organs of Chinese Medicine and Western Medicine? What is the change process when Chinese drugs enter the human body? What is the structure that the human body looks under Insight? This book will help to answer these questions, one by one."

Medical Master

Chapter 855: Frenemy!

Once the introduction was released, it went viral rapidly.

There was no doubt that people working in the publishing industry were the first to receive the information.

Earlier, some of them were still despising Fang Qiu and thinking that Fang Qiu couldn't write a proper book, in the Wechat group. Soon, someone reposted the book introduction to this group.

Seeing this introduction, most of the people in the group fell silent.

“This... this book was written by Fang Qiu?”

“This introduction looks quite professional. The book should have been written by Fang Qiu, right?”

“As far as I’m concerned, in order to create a buzz, the publishing house must have asked someone to write the introduction for Fang Qiu. After all, there are a lot of editors in the house. It’s a piece of cake for them to do some research and write a fantastic introduction. As for the content, it’s not a problem to write by imitating the CG animation that Fang Qiu made before. Finding a ghostwriter is easy!”

“I don’t know if the introduction was written by Fang Qiu, but I heard that the book was written by Fang Qiu himself. The publishing industry of Jiangjing has spread the news. Fang Qiu spent more than ten days doing research and writing the articles in the library of their school. After a thorough investigation, every word of this book was indeed written by Fang Qiu.”

The people in Jiangjing’s publishing circles appeared immediately to confirm the news.

Now, people in the big Wechat group in the publishing industry suddenly lapsed into silence.

It was so embarrassing!

Earlier, they were saying that Fang Qiu was only out to make money and couldn’t write anything profound. In the blink of an eye, they were slapped in the face when they saw the introduction to his book!

It was an incredibly professional book about Chinese Medicine.

They had forgotten how peerless Fang Qiu’s medical skills were!

However, when it came to the matter of losing face, people always made every effort to deny it.

“That’s right. Looking at the introduction, I can tell that it was the editor who helped him to rephrase it so that it will attract readers. It seems to be quite professional, but being professional will also mean that the book will be obscure. Moreover, it’s his first time writing a book. Even if it was published, there will be many people who can’t understand it!”

“Totally! Taking up a new job doesn’t mean that he will definitely succeed.”

“Maybe Fang Qiu will meet his Waterloo in our industry.”

“That’s right. No matter how excellent Fang Qiu’s medical skills are and how capable he is in the variety show, he is no more than a newcomer in the publishing industry. What I can think of is that the only book he can write is about Chinese Medicine. But in this day and age, how many people will read medical books? Ordinary people can’t even understand them. This medical book is only for students in Chinese Medicine schools.”

“Absolutely. People don’t even have enough time to read e-books these days. Who will spend money to buy a medical book that they can’t understand at all?”

The awkward atmosphere seemed to have been completely lightened, and everyone began to discuss enthusiastically.

At this moment, someone suddenly said.

“In fact, it’s not necessarily a bad thing to integrate into a new industry. After all, the current business in our industry is slack. It’s tough for us to make money in this industry now. Apart from that, we also have to respectfully treat those writers who have a market. To sign a popular writer, we almost had to go down on our knees. All of this is because the paper book market is too slack now.”

“There’s nothing we can do about it. Technology is developing, and the paper book will be eventually replaced by the e-book one day. We’re simply struggling and on the brink of collapse.”

“I hope that Fang Qiu can bring the slack paper book market back to life.”

The other members of the group also started to speak out when they heard that.

“Impossible.”

“Can anyone improve the paper book market?”

“Yes. Everyone knows what the paper book market is like now. It’s impossible to rely on one person to bring back the paper book. Unless the e-book completely disappears, the paper book market will continue to shrink.”

“If a star could bring a market back to life, the paper book market would have been very popular. Over the years, many big stars who were more popular than Fang Qiu tried writing books, but the market has been sluggish, and there is no improvement in sales at all.”

“No one can improve the paper book market!”

As they were talking, people in the group became dispirited.

They were working in this industry. It was true that the paper book market was shrinking. They were also dying to bring the market back to life again, and they wanted to greatly increase the readers’ passion for paper books.

Unfortunately, they couldn’t do it.

They didn’t believe that anyone could do it either!

People were still discussing on Weibo.

“He’s indeed a scholar. Is he writing a monograph?”

"I am eager to read it after reading the introduction. I'm really curious to find out what the book is about!"

"Although I don't think I can understand this book, I will buy one to keep when this book is published. Maybe this will be the only book written by our Master Fang in his lifetime!"

"Haha, the master is so awesome. The introduction makes me feel as if there is a medical professor teaching us."

"The introduction is out. What about the title of the book?"

"Why are they keeping the title a secret?"

"What Fang Qiu does is always confusing. I can't figure it out at all," Zhou Xiaotian said with a wry smile.

"Totally." Sun Hao nodded repeatedly and echoed. "This guy can do anything for no reason. The key is that we don't even know what is his purpose for doing all these things. I'm so depressed."

"Fang must have his own reasons for doing this. Maybe we can't see through it now. When we do, maybe it will be mind-blowing." Zhu Benzhen chuckled.

"This introduction?" In the medical team in Comores, Jiang Miaoyu managed to get a break in her busy schedule. She quickly took out her phone and logged on to Weibo to check the situation at home. As soon as she logged in, she saw the brief introduction of Fang Qiu's book on Weibo.

After reading it carefully, Jiang Miaoyu smiled.

Just as she had expected, Fang Qiu's book must be particularly profound!

It seemed that it was different from any Chinese Medicine book in the market.

She knew that Fang Qiu would have written something profound about Chinese Medicine.

“It seems that the contents might be impressive.” In the Jingbei University of Chinese Medicine, looking at Fang Qiu’s introduction, Jiang Mengjie smiled. “It is indeed a good subject for a book.”

She added. “However, I will continue to follow in your footsteps. I hope that one day I can catch up with you.”

Meanwhile, Liu Qingshi reposted Fang Qiu’s book introduction and said, “My brother, Fang Qiu, is going to write a book. Guys, you must support him. My brother is a master, and the book he wrote must be the best. But he is still in college, so it is inevitable that he might have typos. Don’t forget to help him check the typos.”

As soon as this Weibo was posted, netizens left comments below happily.

“Haha, it’s indeed a fake brotherhood.”

“This is not called brotherhood, but frenemy, isn’t it?”

“Liu Qingshi did have some unique thoughts.”

“One is Master Liu and the other is Master Fang. Neither of them is easy to deal with. Haha, now I feel sorry for the director!”

Gu Jianguo, Zheng Weilian, Zhang Junhe, Huang Huachao, Ying’er, and the others also reposted Fang Qiu’s book introduction, helping him to promote his book.

After all, it was also because of Fang Qiu’s presence in the show that Run Wild&Survive’s ratings soared, which helped them gain enormous popularity.

How could they not seize the opportunity to help Fang Qiu?

At least, they had to build a good relationship with Fang Qiu.

No matter what happened in the future, it would be easier for them to do things if they had such a popular star as a friend.

Apart from these people, Song Yaqi also reposted initially. "I'm looking forward to Fang Qiu's new book!"

It was just a simple sentence.

But it was enough publicity for Fang Qiu's new book.

After all, Song Yaqi was also a celebrity with huge followings.

Fang Qiu was also browsing through the heated discussion on the Internet, but he didn't intend to reply.

After browsing through Weibo, he checked on Douban.

He then found that most of the comments on Douban were positive, with most of the people looking forward to the book. Although there was only a brief introduction of the book without a title or cover, a lot of people still left their comments.

In addition to most of the people who expressed their expectations, there were also many people who said that they were waiting for Fang Qiu to be slapped in the face. They said that Fang Qiu was not capable of writing and that he was merely trying to make money by becoming involved in the publishing industry.

Fang Qiu was not in the least irritated by these comments. He just smiled.

"A month later, you will know what kind of book I have written. I'm sure you will all be shocked."

With a smile, he turned off Douban and returned to Weibo.

He left his comments below the Weibo of those celebrities who reposted his introduction and helped him to promote his book. “I’ll send each of you a book. Don’t forget to recommend it to your fans.”

The netizens caught his comments immediately.

“You do live up to your reputation as Billion Fang who once attracted a large sum for investments. Your business sense is exceptional!”

“Damn. You won’t suffer any loss, will you?”

“It’s a good deal to give a book in exchange for a large number of fans buying it, isn’t it?”

“You are incredible, Fang Qiu!”

Seeing everyone’s replies, Fang Qiu couldn’t help laughing.

Then, he clicked on the private message.

After reading the private messages, he looked at the comments on Weibo that asked him where he would see patients next in the nationwide consultation. Then he quickly swiped down. Although there were too many private messages, Fang Qiu was very fast and read every message clearly.

In the end, he confirmed where he would do his next consultation—Lingchuan, Zhongzhou Province!

He thought to himself, “It’s about time to do consultations in the Chinese Medicine Hospital.”

After calculating the time, Fang Qiu called the Chinese Medicine Hospital. He wanted the people of the Chinese Medicine Hospital to help him contact the Chinese Medicine Hospital in Lingchuan. However, he was told to contact the hospital himself because they had tried to contact many hospitals in various places. The people from those hospitals were only willing to talk to Fang Qiu personally and did not accept the agreement among the hospitals.

He had no choice.

Fang Qiu could only ask for the phone number of the Chinese Medicine Hospital in Lingchuan and then took the initiative to contact them.

The call was connected.

Soon, someone answered.

“Hello, this is Lingchuan Chinese Medicine Hospital.”

An official sounding voice came from the other end of the phone, asking, “May I help you?”

“Hello, I’m Fang Qiu,” Fang Qiu said directly, “I want to discuss with your hospital about my consultation arrangements in your hospital.”

“Beep, beep, beep...” As soon as he finished speaking, the call was disconnected.

He seemed to hear something before he was disconnected. “Lunatic!”

Fang Qiu was speechless.

Medical Master

Chapter 856: Snow Lotus Can Be Planted on a Large Scale!

It was the first time that he had been cut off so decisively.

Fang Qiu was stunned at first.

Then, he smiled helplessly and quickly called again.

“Hello, this is...” The call was connected again.

“I’m really Fang Qiu. Could you please not hang up on me?” Fang Qiu gave a wry smile and said, “I really want to go to your hospital to treat the patients.”

“What a lunatic!” A curse came from the other end of the phone and then the call was disconnected again.

This time, the curse was quite clear.

Fang Qiu was baffled.

Couldn’t she at least give him a chance to prove it?

Fang Qiu yelled to himself, “I’m really Fang Qiu! Have you ever heard of Master Fang? Billion Fang?”

“Alas!” Even though he felt slightly depressed, Fang Qiu had no choice but to call again.

“We are a municipal hospital and we are under the jurisdiction of the government. Please do not keep harassing me, or I will call the police!”

As soon as the call was connected, a furious voice came from the other side.

“If you don’t believe me, I can’t blame you. To prove that I’m really Fang Qiu, how about making a video call to confirm it? Give me your phone number. I’ll make a video call to you now,” Fang Qiu said.

“Isn’t your way of hitting on girls too shabby?” The receptionist at the front desk of the hospital, who had answered the call, sneered but was a little hesitant.

She was also not sure whether the person at the other end of the phone was a fraudster or not.

What if he was really Fang Qiu?

Fang Qiu smiled wryly and said, “Even if I want to hit on you, you can also block my number at any time, right? I’m pressed for time. If you don’t believe me, please transfer the call to your director’s office immediately.”

“Well, I can make a video call with you.” The receptionist was instantly alert and gave him her phone number worriedly.

Just as she finished speaking, Fang Qiu hung up.

Then, she received a video call request on her phone.

Feeling nervous and worried, the girl at the front desk answered the video call.

It was really Fang Qiu who appeared in the video!

“Ah!!!” When she saw Fang Qiu, the girl at the front desk couldn’t help being surprised. Then, when she thought about her initial suspicions about Fang Qiu, she immediately blushed and said awkwardly, “I’m sorry. I thought you were a fraudster.”

“Do you believe me now?” Fang Qiu smiled and said, “Could you pass your phone to your director or give me the number of your director’s office?”

This was the only way.

People from Jiangjing Chinese Medicine Hospital did not have the director's number in the Lingchuan Chinese Medicine Hospital.

"Wait a minute!" It was rare for the receptionist to have a chance to have a video call with Fang Qiu. How could she end it so easily? She immediately said, "Don't hang up. I'll go to the director's office immediately."

After that, she started running.

She finally arrived at the director's office and handed her phone to the director who looked at her, confused.

As soon as the director saw that it was Fang Qiu, he became excited.

"Hello, Director." At last, Fang Qiu managed to have a formal discussion with the director of Lingchuan Chinese Medicine Hospital.

"Okay, no problem," A few minutes later, the director of Lingchuan Chinese Medicine Hospital said with a smile, "We feel honored to have you come to our hospital to treat the patients. Welcome!"

"Thank you, Director. In addition, I have another request, but I don't know if..." Before Fang Qiu could finish his words, the director answered directly, "No problem."

"Jiangjing Chinese Medicine Hospital has already stated the rules that we must abide by when you are seeing patients, so you don't have to worry about the crowds and too many registrations."

"That's great," Fang Qiu nodded and said, "But what I wanted to say is not this. I hope that your hospital can give priority to the patients with serious diseases and those with minor illnesses to be last in the queue."

The director assured him. "Don't worry. Our hospital will cooperate with you and try our best to fulfill your needs."

“Thank you.” Fang Qiu thanked him and hung up.

After the director hung up, he knew that this was a great opportunity to publicize the hospital. He was afraid that Fang Qiu would go back on his word, so he intended to announce the news as soon as possible.

He immediately asked someone to announce that Fang Qiu would be coming to treat patients in their hospital.

Fang Qiu also logged into Weibo and sent a post.

“The first stop of the nationwide consultation: Zhongzhou Province, Lingchuan Chinese Medicine Hospital!”

It was a simple post on Weibo.

While it attracted the attention of countless people, it also surprised the netizens of Lingchuan.

Although they had been asking Fang Qiu to come to Lingchuan, the other cities also had a particularly high supportive rate. Compared with the other cities, Lingchuan had no advantage at all.

Therefore, many people didn’t expect that Lingchuan would actually be chosen as the first stop by Fang Qiu!

They were all thrilled when Fang Qiu made this announcement.

“Finally, I can see Master Fang in person!”

The netizens in the other cities were depressed. “Why didn’t he come to our place?”

“We have strikingly beautiful scenery. Why don’t you come here?”

“We have the best springs in the world. Why don’t you come, Fang Qiu?”

“We’ve got various kinds of delicious cuisines. Fang Qiu, why don’t you come?”

The following comments from the netizens were basically asking why Fang Qiu was not visiting their cities.

People who read the comments couldn’t help chuckling.

Everyone understood. After all, Huaxia was so big that Fang Qiu couldn’t take it all in at a glance himself, so he could only do it one at a time.

Those who had serious diseases could go directly to the city where Fang Qiu was treating patients. Anyway, patients with serious diseases had priority!

Having sent the post, Fang Qiu also received maps of the poor areas across the country sent by Li Ji, and then he sent it to Wei Dong who had already set off. Then he bought a plane ticket to Lingchuan and flew directly to that city, ready to treat patients.

He soon arrived in Lingchuan.

Under the arrangement of the Chinese Medicine Hospital, Fang Qiu spent the night in the hospital.

When he was about to start his consultations the next morning, Fang Qiu was faced with the same situation as in Jiangjing although he was in a different city.

The day before the day when Fang Qiu saw patients, there were already countless people waiting in line at the hospital, ready to register.

This was indeed the first grand occasion since the establishment of Lingchuan Chinese Medicine Hospital.

There had never been so many patients in this hospital.

As a result, on the morning of the day of the consultation, Lingchuan Chinese Medicine Hospital was packed with patients from all over the country. Even the square outside the hospital was crowded with people.

“Hey, hey.” On the street, an old man, who was about to cross the road, grabbed a young man who was riding a bike and rushing to the Chinese Medicine Hospital and said, “Young man, what’s the matter with you? Do you know that you almost bumped into me?”

“Sir, I’m sorry for startling you,” The young man quickly apologized and said, “I’m in a hurry to go to the hospital. Today’s situation is special. I won’t rush on the road anymore. Sir, I’m sorry!”

After that, the young man got on the bike and was about to leave.

“Wait, wait,” The old man still held on to the young man’s arm and asked curiously, “Kid, what’s happening? Why are there so many people over there? Is there another patient making trouble for the doctor? Why does it sound like a big event?”

“Sir, you did not hear the news?” The young man was stunned and quickly explained, “Fang Qiu is coming. He’s here to see patients in the Chinese Medicine Hospital.”

“Who?” The old man was confused.

“Fang Qiu, the champion of the Young Chinese Medicine Doctor,” the young man said.

“It’s him!” The old man suddenly understood and said, “Well, he’s a very good young man. No wonder there are so many people here. Go ahead. How can you be sick at such a young age? Go and see Fang Qiu and get better soon!”

The young man looked at the old man who waved at him with a wry smile.

He thought to himself, “Oh my! I just want to see my idol! Do I look sick?”

Similar incidents like this happened everywhere in Lingchuan.

Soon, everyone in the city knew that Fang Qiu had come to see patients. Everyone rushed to the Chinese Medicine Hospital, regardless if they had a serious illness or a minor one.

The scene was comparable to that of top stars in the country coming to the city. Moreover, Fang Qiu might be even more popular than those top stars.

As for Fang Qiu, he made every effort to treat every patient like he did at Jiangjing hospital.

It lasted for 24 hours.

After seeing all the registered patients with serious diseases, he left quietly without even saying goodbye to the director.

At seven o'clock in the morning, he had received a call from Zhao Shanlin in Beijiang before the hospital opened.

He said that the total number of snow lotuses seedlings had reached a certain level.

If he wanted to, they could start planting now!

When Fang Qiu heard this good news, he directly bought a ticket and flew back to Beijiang after he finished seeing all the patients.

Calculating the time when Fang Qiu would arrive, Zhao Shanlin asked someone to pick him up at the airport.

Fang Qiu soon reached the cultivation base.

“Let’s go and take a look at the snow lotus seedlings first?” After Fang Qiu got out of the car, Zhao Shanlin didn’t waste any time to exchange a few words of greetings with Fang Qiu. They were already so familiar with each other. Besides, Fang Qiu was the boss of the company, so what he was most concerned about must be the company’s products. Instead of making small talk, it was better to take Fang Qiu directly to see the finished product.

“Let’s go.” Fang Qiu was in high spirits.

Even though Fang Qiu had been seeing patients for 24 hours and then traveled by plane, he didn’t feel fatigued at all. Instead, he felt energetic and motivated.

After all, Tianshan Snow Lotus was his second trump card and also one of the nine magic herbs in Daoist. The cultivation and planting of snow lotuses were also a powerful tool to support the development of the company.

Most importantly, he had to check on the quality of the snow lotuses they cultivated. His purpose in building a base and opening a company was to make high-quality medicine, so Fang Qiu was truly concerned about the medicine.

Led by Mr. Zhao, Fang Qiu went to the underground ice room in the warehouse.

As soon as Fang Qiu entered, rows of dense snow lotus seedlings came into his sight.

The two small icebergs in the underground ice room had disappeared. They were replaced by layers of cultivating tanks like a bookcase. There were earth, stones, ice and snow in them. This kind of cultivation environment was created by Zhao Shanlin after careful research.

With only one glance, Fang Qiu could feel that these snow lotus seedlings were indeed full of vitality.

This amount should be enough.

“Hey, what is this?” At this moment, a familiar voice sounded.

Fang Qiu turned his head and saw He Xue coming in with a puzzled look. She said, “I came to see you when I heard that you were here. I didn’t expect that there was a basement in the warehouse.”

“It’s because you never come to the warehouse,” Zhao Shanlin chuckled and said, “We can’t take out the things in here for the time being.”

“What are these?” He Xue asked.

“Tianshan Snow Lotus,” Fang Qiu answered.

“This is the Tianshan Snow Lotus!” He Xue looked at it curiously and became more confused. “But why did you cultivate so many Tianshan Snow Lotus?”

“Why?” Fang Qiu shook his head with a smile and said, “If I tell you that the effect of the Tianshan Snow Lotus is comparable to that of Desert Cistanche, can you figure out why?”

When she heard this, He Xue’s eyes lit up instantly.

“Money!” She didn’t care about these at all, nor did she know anything about the snow lotus seedlings. At this time, in her eyes, they had become money making assets!

This was all money!

Medical Master

Chapter 857: He Xues Special Constitution!

After seeing the seedlings, Fang Qiu asked Zhao Shanlin to go to the land near the snow-capped mountain with him. When Zhao Shanlin confirmed that the land was suitable, Fang Qiu asked people to start transporting the Snow Lotus seedlings to the land.

While the seedlings were being transported, Fang Qiu created a terrain similar to a cultivation base in this area.

After the terrain had been formed, the Snow Lotus seedlings also arrived.

They began the planting.

While people were planting the seedlings, Fang Qiu carefully selected a Tianshan Snow Lotus, took it to the center of the terrain, and planted it as the Formation Eye.

After the Snow Lotus was planted, the whole terrain immediately began to move. The surrounding Qi of Heaven and Earth surged from all directions and began to gather, entering the ground and forming a circulation.

After Fang Qiu was done, the others had almost finished planting the Snow Lotus seedlings. When the last batch of Snow Lotus seedlings arrived, they would be able to finish the cultivation.

“This is a nice place.” Looking at the Tianshan Snow Lotus seedlings planted in the land, Zhao Shanlin smiled with satisfaction and said, “It’s a natural cultivation place for Snow Lotuses. It usually takes the Snow Lotus five years to mature, which is a bit long.”

“That’s not right,” Fang Qiu said with a smile.

“Indeed,” Zhao Shanlin laughed and added, “Although it takes the Tianshan Snow Lotus five years to mature, due to the weather, the Snow Lotus only has eight months to grow within five years.”

“Yes.” Fang Qiu nodded.

He was clear about this. Since he had decided to cultivate the Tianshan Snow Lotus seedlings, he would surely have done relevant research before the planting.

However, the Tianshan Snow Lotus seedlings he planted were different from the normal ones.

With a large amount of Qi of Heaven and Earth attracted to the terrain, Fang Qiu felt that the Tianshan Snow Lotus seedlings here only needed about a month to mature.

“Only the last batch is left. They’re already on the way,” Zhao Shanlin said. He then added, “Although it’s rare to see people here, the Tianshan Snow Lotus is a precious medicinal herb after all. If we just leave the seedlings here, I’m afraid they will be stolen.”

“Tianshan Snow Lotuses will become a major business of our company in the future, so I plan to build another cultivation base here,” Fang Qiu said.

“That’s what I mean.” Zhao Qingshan nodded in agreement.

Suddenly, the roar of a car engine could be heard.

The last batch of Snow Lotus seedlings had arrived!

Both of them looked over.

The moment the car stopped, He Xue jumped out of the car.

“Why are you here?” Fang Qiu was stunned and asked curiously.

“What? I can’t come?” He Xue looked around and said, “I’m a senior executive of the company. Since it’s our business, I have to come and do an inspection.”

“All right.” Fang Qiu couldn’t refute.

He Xue ignored Fang Qiu and went straight to the foot of the snow-capped mountain. She closed her eyes and raised her head to take a deep breath. Then, she stretched herself comfortably, turned back, and said to Fang Qiu in surprise, “Why do I feel that this place is not cold at all although it’s under the snow-capped mountain? It’s similar to the feeling when I was in the cultivation base. It feels so fresh.”

“Hmm?” Fang Qiu was surprised.

“Yes, it’s a refreshing feeling.” He Xue nodded affirmatively and continued, “Except for the cultivation base and this place, I don’t have this kind of feeling at other places. It seems that the other places are quite normal!”

Fang Qiu was amazed when he heard that.

He couldn’t help eyeing He Xue curiously.

Of course, he knew why He Xue felt so invigorated here.

It was the enormous amount of Qi of Heaven and Earth in these two places that made her feel this way!

However, ordinary people could not sense the Qi of Heaven and Earth. How could He Xue feel it so clearly?

“Come here. Let me feel your pulse,” Fang Qiu said.

“Why?” He Xue was stunned and said, “I’m not sick. Why do you need to feel my pulse? Didn’t you cure me?”

“Let me see if it recurred,” Fang Qiu replied with a smile.

“Go to hell!” He Xue roared at Fang Qiu, but she still came over and stretched out her hand obediently to let Fang Qiu feel her pulse.

Fang Qiu thought to himself, “Does she have the legendary special constitution?”

Filled with doubt, Fang Qiu reached out to feel He Xue's pulse. He immediately mobilized his mental power and let it seep into He Xue's body. Then, he began to examine her carefully.

He found that He Xue's constitution was indeed very special.

Under normal circumstances, to sense the Qi of Heaven and Earth, one must break through and become a Martial Superior. Moreover, even a Martial Superior could only sense it little by little. For instance, if a normal person could sense 1% of the Qi of Heaven and Earth, then a Martial Superior could sense more than 30% of it!

In addition, there was a special human constitution in Wulin, which could help people have an inborn sense for the Qi of Heaven and Earth.

Every part of these people, who had this kind of constitution, was particularly sensitive to the Qi of Heaven and Earth, including their skin, their cells, and even their spirits.

Once they were born, they could sense more than 50% of the Qi of Heaven and Earth!

This was the constitution that all the people in Wulin dreamed of.

Unfortunately, this was not a choice that could be made by human beings, nor could it be obtained by hard work.

He Xue had such a constitution!

When he learned about this, Fang Qiu couldn't help being astounded!

Those with this kind of constitution could cultivate rapidly. Although they could sense the Qi of Heaven and Earth, they still needed to get through the martial arts practitioner stage. Once they broke through the peak of the martial arts practitioner stage and reached the Martial Superior Level, their cultivation speed would definitely increase by leaps and bounds!

“You are indeed sick!” Fang Qiu said as he withdrew his hand.

“What?” He Xue was startled. She immediately pulled Fang Qiu aside and asked in a low voice, “Didn’t you say that if I did as you said, my illness would be cured?”

“Your illness has been cured. I’m not talking about that,” Fang Qiu said.

“Don’t lie to me. What’s the matter with me?” He Xue raised her eyebrows and looked a little solemn.

“Don’t be nervous.” Fang Qiu chuckled and added, “This will not affect you at all. On the contrary, it has a lot of benefits. In fact, it can’t be called an illness. It can only be regarded as a special constitution.”

“You scared me.” He Xue patted her chest and rolled her eyes at Fang Qiu.

“I have a question for you.” Fang Qiu turned his head and looked around. After making sure that there was no one else around, he then asked, “Do you want to practice martial arts?”

“Practice martial arts?” He Xue was confused.

Fang Qiu nodded affirmatively and said, “Yes. Your constitution is very special and really suitable for learning martial arts.”

He Xue suddenly understood and said, “I see. Can you tell me what’s the benefit of learning martial arts first? Can I become beautiful? Can it make my complexion better and my skin fairer?”

“Well...” Fang Qiu pondered about it carefully. The first image that came into his mind was Diwu Qian.

Diwu Qian was indeed as stunning as a fairy.

It should be due to the benefits of practicing martial arts.

Thinking of this, Fang Qiu nodded and said, "I suppose so!"

"Okay." He Xue didn't hesitate. When she heard that she could become more beautiful, she immediately nodded and asked, "How can I learn?"

"I'll teach you." Fang Qiu smiled slightly and then directly started making some movements. He said as he made the moves, "Follow my instructions."

Of course, what Fang Qiu taught her was not any ordinary martial arts, but the moves left by Master Yang Yizhi in the cave. Although it seemed that he merely taught her some simple moves, it was not so easy for ordinary people to master them.

However, what he didn't expect was that He Xue was surprisingly talented in practicing martial arts.

Fang Qiu only demonstrated the moves twice.

However, He Xue mastered them completely. She didn't miss any moves and did everything very well.

Suppressing the shock in his heart, Fang Qiu said to He Xue, "Congratulations, you've mastered them."

He Xue was surprised and asked, "What? Is that all?"

"This is just the beginning." Fang Qiu shook his head with a smile. Then he said, "Keep on practicing. You need to practice these moves every day. It won't be long before ordinary people are no match for you."

"Can I beat you?" He Xue asked with a smile.

"You may do it in your next life!" Fang Qiu replied indifferently.

“Tut-tut,” He Xue looked at Fang Qiu with contempt and said, “Sure enough, if there is something good, you’ll never share it. You only offer something meagre. You are so stingy.”

“Do you know how many people will fight for the good stuff I taught you? You even despised it.”

Fang Qiu gave a wry smile and thought to himself, “At this moment, almost all the countries around the South Sea are about to get into a fight because of this.”

He Xue asked, “Then why don’t you learn it yourself, instead of teaching me?”

Fang Qiu replied, “I’ve learned Qigong. I can’t study too many types of martial arts. It will get mixed up. If I learn this, I’ll have to give up my Qigong halfway.”

He Xue nodded with understanding and said, “That’s true. I practice martial arts, and you practice Qigong. One day, I will definitely beat you, humph!”

After that, she walked aside to practice.

Fang Qiu thought to himself, “Martial arts... Qigong... Your logic... It does make sense!”

Watching He Xue doing her practice, Fang Qiu did not disturb her. He walked to the side and helped the staff plant the last batch of Snow Lotuses.

In fact, he taught He Xue with a motive in mind. On the one hand, it would be a waste not to cultivate since she had such a constitution. On the other hand, he thought that maybe he could cultivate an expert. In this way, there would be someone to take care of the cultivation base.

However, he was thinking too far ahead. He should take it slow.

Now he was looking for helpers. He Gaoming and the others needed time to grow. Maybe one day in the future, his identity as John Doe would be made public.

Everything had to be prepared.

After they finished the cultivation, Fang Qiu planned to stay and guard the area for three days to see if there was anything that could harm the Snow Lotus. If not, he could leave without any worries.

If there was, he had to try to find another guardian beast. If he failed to find one, he could only get the Tianshan Snow Hare here. After all, this was its territory, so it should be able to defend this area.

The next day, Fang Qiu observed the growth of the Tianshan Snow Lotus with Zhao Shanlin. He was checking whether there were any factors that would affect their growth near the cultivation area.

“Beep, beep, beep...” The phone in Fang Qiu’s trouser pocket suddenly rang.

He took it out and had a look.

It was from Li Ji.

“Hello?” Fang Qiu answered the phone.

Li Ji’s serious voice came from the other side of the phone. He said, “Something happened in the South Sea!”

Medical Master

Chapter 858: Tell Wulin that John Doe is about to Take Action!

“What’s wrong?” When he heard what Li Ji said, Fang Qiu frowned and was a little surprised. He didn’t expect that something would actually happen in the Southeast Region.

“But our country is still justified,” Li Ji took a deep breath and said, “Previously, our Huaxia martial arts practitioners confronted the people of the Southeast Region on the uninhabited island. Due to the intervention of the country, the tensions on both sides eased. Later, everyone came and explored the island, but they couldn't find anything valuable. Then everyone on the island began to expand their range of search."

Fang Qiu was not surprised.

He could imagine how tempting an ancient expert was to these martial arts practitioners.

Furthermore, that sea was protected by Yang Yizhi, so apart from that island, there could be other islands connected to him.

If Fang Qiu weren't a guru now, he would also have gone to check it out.

"And then? What did they find?" Fang Qiu asked. Only by finding what those martial arts practitioners wanted would a fight ensue. Otherwise, there was no reason!

"Heaven Treasure!" Li Ji said grimly.

Heaven Treasure? Fang Qiu was stunned.

He never expected that these people could actually find a Heaven Treasure on the sea. No wonder they were fighting.

Li Ji took a deep breath and said angrily, "The people of the Southeast Region found an island in our sea. That island is the supply station of fishermen from our country. No one expected that a martial artist of the Southeast Region would come to that island and spotted a Heaven Treasure there!"

"Originally, he found the Heaven Treasure purely due to his good luck, so he had a better chance to pick it than the others. If he didn't tell anyone, no one would know that he was a foreigner, so it was not easy for us to investigate. But beyond all the expectations that this person would directly kill all the fishermen on the island to prevent the news from being leaked out, so that he could get the Heaven Treasure himself!"

“If our Huaxia martial arts practitioners hadn’t arrived and witnessed that carnage, we wouldn’t have known that these people would be so savage that they even killed ordinary people. Unfortunately, it’s too late. In retaliation, our martial arts practitioners tried to kill him.”

Li Ji’s tone became solemn and he sighed. “Unfortunately, that man escaped.”

“After he escaped, he realized that he had already lost the chance to get the Heaven Treasure, so he called for reinforcements. The news that he slaughtered the fishermen has also spread in our country. The martial arts practitioners of our country were so furious that many of them also rushed to that place.”

“In this case, the two sides have drawn their daggers. The situation is obviously tense, and a war could erupt at any time.”

Fang Qiu snorted angrily when he heard that.

He said to himself, “Bastard! How could he kill innocent people? He even killed Huaxia people!”

He flew into a rage instantly!

He could imagine how desperate those fishermen must have felt before their deaths, and they were so innocent!

They had been working hard to fish and support their family. Their families’ only wishes were that they could return home safe and sound, but they had been killed in their own waters!

Many families would be destroyed because of this!

He could imagine the desperation of those people!

“That’s the situation now,” Li Ji controlled his anger and said in a low voice, “What’s troublesome now is that the Huaxia martial artists who went there aren’t experts. However, there are many experts in the Southeast Region and almost all of them appeared. We can barely resist them now!”

“Do you need me to be there?” Feeling livid, Fang Qiu asked directly.

“It’ll be the best if you can do it!” Li Ji nodded with certainty and said, “The Heaven Treasure is not important. What’s vital is that they killed our people in our waters and made trouble in our territory. This is absolutely intolerable.”

“Yes!” Fang Qiu nodded.

“Thank you for your understanding. If you get the Heaven Treasure this time, you can take it directly.”

Li Ji let out a deep breath and continued, “However, it won’t be easy to get this Heaven Treasure, because according to the inside information we received, this Heaven Treasure is ranked 10th on the Heaven Treasure List. There must be a lot of experts coming from the other side.”

“So what if it ranks 10th?” Fang Qiu asked curiously.

Was there anything special about the 10th Heaven Treasure?

He knew the secret that Heaven Treasure could strengthen meridians. Were there other secrets apart from what he knew?

“You don’t know?” When he heard Fang Qiu’s question, Li Ji asked in surprise.

“What should I know?” Fang Qiu was even more baffled.

“Oh my, you really don’t know. But you are now the top expert of the younger generation!” Li Ji said in surprise.

“Does it have anything to do with this?” Fang Qiu asked.

Li Ji was speechless.

Li Ji said to himself, “In fact, I want to state that you are already the top expert. You should know a lot of things about Wulin.”

But he didn’t say it out loud and then organized his thoughts so he could explain.

“It is said that the Heaven Treasure ranked 10th on the Heaven Treasure List has reached the legendary Magic Fruit level, beyond the category of ordinary Heaven and Earth Treasure.”

“Legend has it that the top ten Heaven Treasures can directly increase one’s level for those who are below the level of guru. Even an eighth-class Martial Superior with one opened meridian can directly break through and become a ninth-class Martial Superior without any hindrance if he takes one of the top 10 Heaven Treasures!”

“Although they also need to cultivate, there will never be any bottlenecks in the cultivation process. This is the remarkable power of the top 10 Heaven Treasures!”

Fang Qiu was amazed when he heard that.

He didn’t know that.

The top 10 Heaven Treasures were so exceptional.

Even though he had acquired the Scroll of Heaven and Earth Treasures long ago, it did not have any record of these things. There was even no mention about the strengthening of the meridians, so he did not know anything about it.

“Is it really that amazing?” Fang Qiu asked, in shock.

He had to use his own strength and talents to cultivate arduously to become a guru. Naturally, he knew how difficult it was to cultivate and make a breakthrough below the level of guru. If the top 10 Heaven Treasures truly had such an effect, it would be marvelous!

Li Ji said, "Of course, not all the Heaven Treasures have this effect. After all, it's just a legend. It might not have such a powerful effect. No one knows how great the effect is because the top 10 are so rare. We have only found one in recent years. The government hasn't broadcasted this news in Wulin yet. Therefore, they only know that there is a conflict due to the Heaven Treasure. Otherwise, it will definitely cause a great disturbance!"

"But it's certain that the top three on the Heaven Treasure List are sure to have this effect. The fourth to tenth place might also have this effect, but the effect is not as strong as the top three. That is to say, the higher the ranking among the top ten Heaven Treasures, the stronger the effect will be. It's said that the top one Heaven Treasure can directly let one transcend several classes and become a guru instantly!"

"Become a guru instantly?" Fang Qiu was even more shocked.

A Heaven Treasure could directly turn one into a guru?

Fang Qiu thought about it. It was impossible. He knew how difficult it was to become a guru. How could anyone become a guru instantly?

Li Ji said, "Of course, although the 10th Heaven Treasure found in our waters is not as effective as a Heaven Treasure with higher ranking, according to top-secret files, it can at least promote one or two meridians of the people who are below the eighth-class Martial Superior level!"

Fang Qiu's eyes lit up.

It could help an eighth-class Martial Superior improve the opened meridians! Wasn't this treasure perfect for him?

"This fruit will be mine!"

Fang Qiu thought to himself.

He immediately calculated in his heart.

There were still six months left before the exchange meeting. He had said that there would be two flowers in his Dantian before that!

But now he was still a seventh-class Martial Superior with one opened meridian.

Time stopped for no one. He had to speed up.

He needed to battle it out and he was in urgent need of a Heaven Treasure!

And this time, he felt obliged to seek revenge for the fishermen!

“Okay, I see.” After listening to Li Ji’s explanation, Fang Qiu nodded with understanding and said, “Wait for the good news!”

Li Ji also smiled and said, “Well, I’ll wait for your good news. With your help, the prestige of our country will not be lost!”

Li Ji might not believe that someone else could turn the tide.

But once Fang Qiu made his move, he would never let anyone down.

After all, he was an actual guru-level expert!

He was regarded as a man with devastating power!

Once he hung up, Fang Qiu thought for a moment and dialed He Gaoming’s number.

“Hello, master?” The call was soon connected, and He Gaoming’s voice came from the other end.

“How are the cultivation for the eight people coming along?” Fang Qiu asked.

“Not bad,” He Gaoming chuckled and said, “These guys are all very hardworking. Although their talents are different and a little bit inferior to mine, they all have the determination to become experts.”

Fang Qiu immediately said, “Okay. Tell them to get ready to go to Haidao province. Your training has officially begun.”

“Haidao province?”

When he heard that, He Gaoming couldn’t help being thrilled.

He was a martial arts practitioner and a detective.

What was a detective’s favorite pastime?

He liked to gossip!

Naturally, he was concerned about the situation in Wulin recently.

Before this, when he heard that the relics belonging to an ancient super expert had appeared on the uninhabited island in the Southeast Region, he could not help feeling restless. He wanted to take the eight people there, but after pondering about it carefully, he found that the eight people were not strong enough. Besides, it was not easy to go abroad. By the time all of them got their visas, they might have missed the entire event.

But if he went alone, what about these eight people?

After giving it a second thought, He Gaoming finally decided not to go.

Unexpectedly, just when he was feeling frustrated because he could not go to the uninhabited island in the Southeast Region, he received the news that there was a fight there.

At that time, he yearned to take these eight people over to fight!

Because what John Doe asked him to do was to let the eight people fight with others, so that they could quickly improve their skills during the battle.

But on second thought, those who dared to go there to fight must be experts. Even if they were not, there would be experts coming with them. However, if He Gaoming and his men went there, they would only be defeated.

As soon as He Gaoming decided not to go, Fang Qiu's call came in, which made him ecstatic.

With John Doe backing them up, they didn't need to worry.

They could take down those people from the Southeast Region!

He Gaoming was thrilled and he immediately informed them and set off for Haidao province with the eight people.

One day later, in the south of the Haidao province, He Gaoming brought the eight people to the place to meet Fang Qiu.

At this moment, Fang Qiu had already put on Lin Yu's human skin mask.

He finally saw the eight people again.

Fang Qiu noticed at a glance that these eight people had made good progress under He Gaoming's lead. Each of them had been promoted by one class and broke through to become second-class Martial Superiors.

As the eight people's cultivation guide, He Gaoming's strength was not bad. He had reached the peak of the third class and was about to break through to the fourth class!

"Well, not bad." Looking at the nine people, Fang Qiu nodded with satisfaction.

"Master, are we going to fight for the Heaven Treasure this time?"

He Gaoming's eyes lit up and he couldn't wait to ask.

"You know about it already?" Fang Qiu asked.

He Gaoming nodded and said with a grim look, "Of course! Now, the Wulin forum is in an uproar. Many people are contacting each other, ready to come over. They all want to teach those people in the Southeast Region a good lesson!"

"Great." Fang Qiu nodded with understanding. After thinking for a while, he said, "Send a message now. Tell all Wulin people that John Doe is going to take action!"

Medical Master

Chapter 859: Jump Into the Sea!

"That's my master! Awesome!" Hearing Fang Qiu's words, He Gaoming immediately paid Fang Qiu compliments. Then, in his excitement, he immediately took out his cell phone and logged onto the account of John Doe on the Wulin forum!

"I'm coming, Southeast Region!" The title was rather brief.

There was only one sentence in the post. “Those who murdered our Huaxia people, you’re risking your necks!”

As He Gaoming showed Fang Qiu the post after sending it, Fang Qiu was speechless.

How vulgar his words were! It didn’t fit his temperament as an expert in the slightest. But Fang Qiu wouldn’t bother to change the post since it had been posted.

Originally, everyone on the Wulin forum was indignant because of what had done by those from the Southeast Region. They all yearned to rush over and teach those martial arts practitioners from the Southeast Region a lesson.

But with this post popping, all the martial arts practitioners on the Wulin forum were surprised.

“John Doe is about to make his move!”

“Awesome! You guys are doomed!”

“Didn’t those people from the Southeast Region bully us because they thought we didn’t have experts there? I’d like to see who can fight with John Doe!”

“Master John Doe seems to be furious. Those guys from the Southeast Region are going to suffer.”

“John Doe is right. Since those people from the Southeast Region dared to hurt people from our country, they are done. Wait and see!”

Numerous martial arts practitioners felt exhilarated because of this post!

In addition to those hot-blooded people who valued strong national honor, a small number of people began to satirize Fang Qiu on the forum.

“Well said. On the surface, he’s going to avenge the fishermen, but in fact, it’s about the Heaven Treasure, isn’t it?”

“If you want to take the Heaven Treasure, just say it. How can you use national honor as a cover?”

“You make it sound like you’re a great hero, but in fact, it’s just for your own benefit!”

As soon as the sarcasm appeared, other people immediately retorted.

“The Heaven Treasure belongs to the capable. Why can’t John Doe fight for it? Even if he really wants to seize the Heaven Treasure, as long as he can undermine the confidence of the people from the Southeast Region, I will be rooting for him!”

“Yes, the Heaven Treasure doesn’t belong to anyone currently. It’s better to leave it to John Doe than to let it fall into the hands of others.”

“For the Heaven Treasure, the people from the Southeast Region have killed countless fishermen. As long as John Doe can help take revenge on those fishermen, it’s okay that he gets a Heaven Treasure.”

“Don’t be jealous. If you have the power, go and avenge those innocent fishermen. Don’t blindly troll others online. If you can help those innocent fishermen take revenge, I will also pay my respect!”

“Why do you have to troll John Doe? The more jealous you are, the more I look forward to his performance.”

“I believe that John Doe will definitely show his might and let those bad guys from the Southeast Region take a good look at the mighty power of our country!”

Various forces of Wulin immediately suppressed their impulse to send people to the region after seeing this post.

They were fully aware that it almost ruined the chance of others getting the Heaven Treasure as soon as John Doe made his move.

Therefore, they decided not to get involved in this.

They would simply step back, cheering for John Doe.

Of course, this was also because they did not know that this Heaven Treasure ranked tenth...

If Fang Qiu learned about their reactions to this matter, he would definitely appreciate that it was great to have the government supporting him. At least, the country left this benefit to him.

After sending the post, Fang Qiu immediately took the plane to the Southeast Region with the other nine men, as the region was closer to the island where the accident happened.

Fang Qiu had already booked the tickets in advance.

A few hours later, they arrived at the Southeast Region.

After getting off the plane, Fang Qiu and the others left the airport directly and went to an aviation company.

“Master, what are we doing here?” He Gaoming asked in confusion, “Are we going to the uninhabited island without renting a boat?”

Fang Qiu shook his head and said, “The boat is too slow. Let’s take the helicopter!”

Fang Qiu directly rented a large helicopter from the aviation company.

After paying the rental, they set off directly by helicopter with the pilot and auxiliary trainer.

Soon, they arrived in the sky above the near sea.

“Now, jump into the sea.” In the cabin, Fang Qiu looked at the location and felt that it was almost time to jump off. He instantly asked the trainer to open the cabin door and said to He Gaoming and the others, “The parachutes are ready. Jump one by one!”

The nine people in the cabin were all stunned in an instant as they heard that.

He Gaoming asked in a panic, “Are you serious? Master, do we really have to jump?”

The others also looked a little frightened.

Skydiving? They had never done this before!

They thought to themselves, “What should I pay attention to when I jump? How can I open the parachute? Can I just jump down when I know nothing about skydiving?”

When they boarded the helicopter, each one of them was asked to carry a parachute.

They simply thought that it was for the sake of safety in case of a helicopter accident. It was like wearing life jackets when taking a yacht out to sea. But they didn’t expect that Fang Qiu would actually ask them to go skydiving!

“Jump. This is part of the cultivation!”

Looking at the hesitation on the nine people’s faces, Fang Qiu nodded with certainty and said, “I’ll be the last one!”

Sitting in the first seat at the cabin door, He Gaoming took a deep breath.

The eight people had been practicing under his lead. He had to set an example for them. Besides, his strength was the highest among them except for Fang Qiu. If he didn't jump, the others wouldn't dare to do it either.

Thinking of this, He Gaoming gritted his teeth.

"Okay, let's jump!" Rising to his feet, He Gaoming glanced at the eight people and said, "Stand up, line up, and jump one by one. Don't hesitate!"

The others also gritted their teeth and nodded.

Ordinary people might be afraid to skydive, and they might not dare to jump on the first try. But He Gaoming and the others were not ordinary people, but martial arts practitioners.

As martial arts practitioners, how could they not have the courage?

Standing in front of the cabin, Fang Qiu told them when they should open the parachute and how to open it. Then, without further ado, he directly kicked He Gaoming out.

"Ahh..." A fleeting scream was heard, and He Gaoming went far away in an instant.

The eight of them didn't give Fang Qiu a chance to push them but took the initiative to jump down one by one. Compared with the horror of being pushed down suddenly, they could bear the fear of jumping down voluntarily.

They truly experienced what it meant to be on the verge of death when they jumped down from more than 1,000 meters high.

They would fall to death if they didn't operate the parachute properly.

Even if they would land on the surface of the sea, it was not different from landing on the road, given the height.

But as martial arts practitioners, they quickly calmed down and strictly followed Fang Qiu's instructions.

Finally, all of them opened the parachutes smoothly and landed steadily on the sea.

Under He Gaoming's order, the nine people all untied their parachutes, gathered together, and looked up at the sky.

Fang Qiu heaved a sigh of relief when he saw that all of them had successfully finished skydiving.

At this moment, the helicopter was still hovering in the air nearly 2,000 meters high.

"It's your turn." In the cabin, the trainer handed a parachute bag to Fang Qiu with a smile and said, "I'll help you put on this parachute, and then you can jump down."

In the cockpit, the pilot also turned his head and looked at Fang Qiu through a piece of glass between the cockpit and the cabin, laughing out loud as if he was saying, "You actually kicked your companion off the plane. Now it's your turn. Let's see if you're scared or not!"

However, Fang Qiu refused the parachute with a smile.

Seeing that Fang Qiu didn't take the parachute, the trainer immediately asked with a grin, "Aren't you going to jump?"

Fang Qiu waved his hand with a smile and said nothing.

Instead, he went straight to the front of the cabin door, facing it with his back. Looking at the trainer and the pilot, he waved his hand. Then, he leaned back and fell down.

"No!!!" The trainer's expression changed drastically. He shouted loudly and pounced on Fang Qiu, trying to catch him. But when he reached the cabin door, Fang Qiu had already fallen dozens of meters.

In the cockpit, the pilot turned pale in an instant and he was frightened.

It was nearly 2,000 meters above the ground!

“He jumped down without a parachute? This man was risking his neck!”

If ordinary people fell from a height of 10 meters, they would die. Now Fang Qiu fell from a height of 2,000 meters, he would be directly smashed into pieces by the sea waves!

The pilot and the trainer were so terrified that their faces turned ashen.

While swimming in the water, the nine people who had gathered together were also staring at the black dot that was flying down from the sky like a meteor.

“What the f*ck! Master didn’t bring any parachutes!”

“What, what...”

“Will Senior John Doe... fall to death?”

“Swish...” Just as the nine people were stunned, Fang Qiu reached 100 meters above the sea. He didn’t slow down and plunged down like a cannonball.

Just as he was about to smash into the sea, a shocking scene occurred.

When he was about to land on the sea, Fang Qiu, who was falling heels over head, suddenly turned upside down in the air.

At this moment, it was as though time were frozen.

In the air, not only did Fang Qiu get his body straight, but his terrifying speed of swooping down also decreased greatly in an instant. His feet were like a fallen leaf, gently landing on the surface of the sea as if he were stepping on the ground!

He didn't even make any ripples!

He Gaoming and the other eight people were all dumbfounded.

"Is he really a human? How could he possibly do that?"

He Gaoming looked at Fang Qiu with his eyes shining with admiration. He couldn't imagine that Fang Qiu could jump from 2,000 meters high without being hurt. He was incredible!

The other eight people were even more astounded.

High in the sky, the trainer was about to call for a search team to rescue him, but he was stunned when he saw this scene through the telescope.

"Good heavens! What did I just see?"

"A man didn't get hurt at all after jumping down from thousands of meters high!"

"Surprised?" On the surface of the sea, Fang Qiu glanced at He Gaoming and the others, and then looked at the island that was neither too far nor too close. It was about ten kilometers away from them.

Everyone nodded in unison.

This was not a surprise, but a shock!

They were extremely shocked!

Fang Qiu said, "You will be able to do it one day. This is training. You were on the verge of death just now. It is not something that can be experienced at any time. It is quite rare. In the future, no matter who you are fighting with, remember this feeling when you are close to death. Don't be distracted and don't think about anything else. Just calm down at that moment and follow your heart! Sometimes, this is the moment to decide whether you can live or not."

Everyone suddenly came into realization.

Only then did they understand why they had to jump.

It turned out that Fang Qiu wanted them to experience this feeling.

He did put in a lot of effort to train them.

It was just that his methods were too brutal!

Fang Qiu continued, "Now let's swim there. First, use your physical strength. Then, you can use the internal Qi when you consume all your strength. I hope you can control the consumption and use of your internal Qi."

"Just now, I've used a lot of internal Qi in the air. Otherwise, I would have died!"

He was telling the truth.

If a guru jumped from such a high place, he would be seriously injured even though he fell on the sea surface. Fang Qiu had to use some methods of controlling his internal Qi to land on the sea safe and sound, but he had also consumed half of his internal Qi.

"Let's begin. I'll wait for you over there," said Fang Qiu.

“Okay!” the nine people answered in unison.

Fang Qiu moved his feet and started running on the sea surface. The eight people led by He Gaoming were chasing after him.

Looking at Fang Qiu’s back, all of them were extremely envious.

“He’s truly worthy of being the top one among the younger generation. When will I be able to reach this stage?”

Everyone, including He Gaoming, was particularly envious and expectant, but they knew that as long as they followed Fang Qiu’s lead, they would surely reach that level one day!

Medical Master

Chapter 860: John Does Here!

For He Gaoming and the others, 10 kilometers was a quite long distance, but not for Fang Qiu.

Less than 5 minutes later, Fang Qiu had already gone ashore.

This island was the place used as a supply spot for the fishermen in Huaxia.

Because it was merely an ordinary supply spot, there were no buildings on this island.

Therefore, as soon as Fang Qiu went ashore, he saw two groups of people confronting each other on the island from a distance.

Standing on the left were dozens of Huaxia martial arts practitioners while on the right side stood the people from the Southeast Region who wore all kinds of strange clothes. Obviously, the latter outnumbered the former.

The leader of the people from the Southeast Region was a dark-skinned bald old man in an orange robe, holding a crutch in his hand.

Next to the bald elder, there were several middle-aged men with strong Qi power. At a glance, Fang Qiu could tell that the people from the Southeast Region seemed incredibly aggressive.

However, when he gazed at the Huaxia side, he saw a seriously injured man who vomited blood while lying on the ground and being taken care of by several people.

Taking a closer look, he saw that many people from the Southeast Region stared at the severely injured man and sneered.

The Huaxia martial arts practitioners stared at them furiously.

“You’re too weak. Huaxia is too weak. And you’re bragging that it’s a big country. You guys can’t fight at all!”

The bald elder waved his hand and shouted in their language, causing the people around him to laugh arrogantly.

“There are indeed many experts from that region. It looks like they are determined to seize it.”

Looking at the extremely arrogant martial arts practitioners from the Southeast Region in the distance, Fang Qiu couldn’t help sneering.

Just now, the two sides might be fighting, so none of them noticed that Fang Qiu had plunged down from the sky.

“Who is the next?” In the distance, the bald elder shouted arrogantly.

The people behind him raised their arms and roared loudly. They all showed supreme arrogance, suppressing Huaxia people.

The people from Huaxia were enraged.

They had never been bullied like this!

“This is Huaxia!

“It’s not a place where you can rampage outrageously!

“We’d rather take one step forward and die than one step back and live!

“Even if we die, we will die with dignity!”

Immediately, they charged forward angrily, about to fight their opponents again.

“Those who are not from Huaxia, get out of here!”

But at this moment, a voice suddenly sounded.

It was not loud, but everyone heard it clearly.

Everyone was astonished.

What came into sight was the familiar face that had shocked the entire Wulin recently!

“John Doe!!!”

Seeing Fang Qiu, the Huaxia martial arts practitioners were exhilarated.

Finally there came an expert!

Their depression was instantly swept away by Fang Qiu’s arrival.

These days, they had been suppressed by the martial arts practitioners from the Southeast Region. They had been on the verge of losing their tempers, and when seeing Fang Qiu, they finally let out their anger.

They couldn’t win before because they were not strong enough. Now that John Doe was here, what was there to be afraid of?

After all, Fang Qiu was the top one among the younger generation of the Huaxia Wulin!

He was the one that could defeat Yun Yangzi, who was at the peak of the ninth class with one opened meridian!

He, who was their backup, finally arrived.

“The bastards from the Southeast Region, the time when you can be arrogant have come to an end!”

“John Doe is here. Just wait to be knocked out!”

A young martial arts practitioner from Huaxia rushed forward angrily, pointed at the martial artists from the Southeast Region, and yelled in anger.

People from the Southeast Region stared at the Huaxia martial arts practitioner in surprise.

“Why is he so excited after that man came?”

“Is that man named John Doe very strong?”

“I’ve never heard of him!”

“Humph!” The bald elder snorted, turned to glance at Fang Qiu, who was walking over from the coast, and said with disdain, “Here is another man who wanna die. Huaxia people are indeed arrogant!”

“Haha.” The group of people laughed out loud, their faces filled with contempt.

Fang Qiu sneered and walked over.

“This kid can defeat me?” Seeing the enthusiasm of the Huaxia people, the bald elder squinted at Fang Qiu. With a hint of cruelty in his eyes, he said, “I’d like to see if you can take my blow!”

While he was speaking, he suddenly charged at Fang Qiu as fast as wind with a powerful aura and slapped toward Fang Qiu’s chest.

“Humph.” Fang Qiu snorted and took a step forward. When the bald elder’s attack was about to land on him, he gently met his blow with his punch.

“Bang!” At the next moment, there was a loud bang.

The moment the fist and palm collided, a gush of extremely powerful energy Qi exploded from the place where the two struck. The air blast swept away, causing the surrounding sand and stones to fly in all directions.

“Puff...” But at the next moment, a sound of someone spitting blood was heard.

The bald elder, who took the initiative to attack Fang Qiu, flushed with anger. He couldn't bear Fang Qiu's huge force at all. The moment he was sent flying, he couldn't help spitting out a mouthful of blood.

Under the collision of this move, the bald elder was sent flying out of the island and fell into the sea by Fang Qiu's punch!

In an instant, the entire place became quiet.

There was a deafening silence.

No one had expected that with only one move... Fang Qiu could knock the bald elder into the sea.

Whoosh!

In an instant, all the Huaxia martial arts practitioners were excited.

"Great! Good job!"

"Kill this bunch of bastards!"

"John Doe, well done!"

"Get them out of our place!"

In the past few days, the martial arts practitioners of Huaxia had been badly suppressed. Their people were killed in their own place. However, the opponents were all experts, so the Huaxia people could only hold back their resentment until today.

Today, they were eventually able to vent their anger!

It felt so good!

“Ah!!!”

“What?”

The martial arts practitioners from the Southeast Region were astounded. They had never expected that there would be such an extraordinary expert in Huaxia. With only one move, the bald elder was sent flying.

One must know that the strength of the bald elder couldn't be underestimated!

The strength of the young man opposite them was completely beyond their imagination since he managed to defeat the elder.

“Interesting.” In the crowd of the people from the Southeast Region, a young man suddenly stepped out with a paper fan in his hand. While flapping it in his hand, he stared at Fang Qiu and asked, “Who are you? You're strong. I wonder what ranking you have in the younger generation of the Huaxia Wulin?”

Fang Qiu smiled indifferently and said, “The younger generation? Probably No.1.”

Fang Qiu had long noticed the young man surrounded by these people.

The man didn't show his strength in the crowd, but he was the strongest one in this group of people!

The young man was shocked and his expression changed. He asked, “Hmm? May I ask, are you Yun Yangzi?”

“No.” Fang Qiu shook his head.

“Haha.” The man was stunned and then burst out laughing. He stared at Fang Qiu with a look of disdain and said, “Do you think that I don’t know the situation in Huaxia? How dare you pretend to be the number one among the younger generation? It seems that you are just a nobody!”

All the Huaxia martial arts practitioners stared at him as if they were looking at a fool.

“Didn’t these people know that John Doe won the battle?”

“Haha, you think you know our country very well, but you don’t even know that the first place on Wulin Genius List has changed. How can you still be so pretentious?”

Everyone laughed at him silently.

Seeing their expressions, the man seemed to have noticed something. He immediately asked in confusion, “Why are you looking at me like that?”

“Humph, what you knew are all old stories. John Doe is the real No.1 now. He defeated Yun Yangzi, and you still had the nerve to say that you know Huaxia Wulin. You’re so ignorant!”

A Huaxia martial arts practitioner stepped forward and mocked.

As the young man with a paper fan heard that, he was shocked and his eyes instantly narrowed.

The people from the Southeast Region were all nonplussed.

They didn’t expect that either.

The top one in Huaxia Wulin actually came.

No wonder he could send the bald elder flying with one punch.

The young man with a paper fan frowned, studying Fang Qiu.

But no matter how he looked at him, he didn't think that Fang Qiu looked like the top one at all.

But if he was really the top expert, his strength should not be underestimated.

In order to avoid accidents, the young man said to Fang Qiu cautiously, "As long as you leave here, we won't accuse you of what you did."

Huaxia people immediately got infuriated as they heard that.

"F*ck, this is our territory. How dare you ask us to leave? You won't accuse him? What the f*ck are you talking about?"

"You're going too far!"

"You should get lost. This is our territory. All the people from the Southeast Region, get out of here!"

The angry roars spread.

The people from Huaxia were aggressive.

"We want to seize this island. It was our country's island before. You've taken it, so now we'll take it back. What can you do?"

"If you can't accept it, let's fight."

The people from the Southeast Region kept provoking them.

The two sides were about to fight.

However, the young man with a paper fan didn't even utter a word and kept staring at Fang Qiu.

"I'll repeat myself." Fang Qiu said indifferently, "Those who are not from Huaxia, get out of here!"

"Yes!"

"Get lost!"

"Get out of this sea!"

"Get out of here, all of you!"

Hearing Fang Qiu's words, the Huaxia martial arts practitioners instantly became imposing and suppressed their opponents.

"So you want us to get out?"

The young man with a paper fan smiled, shook his head, and said, "I wanted to show you some respect, but you don't appreciate it. It seems that you still don't know whose territory this is. Even if you're No.1, so what?"

"If you don't want to take this offer, then don't leave!"

"Originally, I was about to compete with the top expert in Huaxia when I'm free. Huaxia people are so arrogant, so I have to teach you a lesson. Since you don't know what's good for you, I'll show you who has the strongest power today!"

He turned to look at Fang Qiu and added with a sneer, "I'd like to see the power of the so-called No.1 of Huaxia. Let's see who is better, you or me, the No.1 in Southern Yue!"

As soon as he finished speaking, there was a flash of light in his eyes.

His Qi power burst out in an instant.

He was filled with murderous intent!

As he moved his right hand, the paper fan in his hand immediately spread out, looking like he was holding a revolving blade. With a gush of extremely strong energy Qi, he directly charged toward Fang Qiu.

The people on both sides quickly retreated.

They were afraid of affecting the performance of their experts.

In the face of the paper fan with remarkable energy Qi, Fang Qiu didn't move but let the paper fan fly around him.

"Humph." The young man from Southern Yue suddenly sneered and darted over. He grabbed the paper fan, clenched his right fist, and punched hard toward Fang Qiu's head.

"Bang!"

At the next moment, their fists collided.

Fang Qiu still didn't move. On the contrary, this young man was forced to stagger back by Fang Qiu's terrifying force!
