Chapter 871: One Against Two!

“It seems that I’m going to make a breakthrough today!” Fang Qiu sneered.

As the killer attacked, he immediately put away the Cyan Dragon Lock and moved forward to fight against the two.

Under the dark night, the whole island was instantly covered with a chilling atmosphere!

The sea turtle was on the right while the killer was on the left.

They showed no mercy or hesitation.

“Bang, bang, bang...” Once the killer appeared, the battle between the three instantly caused a blast between heaven and earth.

The killer and the giant sea turtle fiercely attacked Fang Qiu at the same time!

“Good timing!” Confronted with the guardian beast and the killer who had ninth-class strength, Fang Qiu’s eyes were full of thrill. He had an overwhelming urge to fight.

A gust of powerful Qi power burst out of his body!

One hand met one enemy.

Like an impeccable warrior in the world, he didn’t only defend against the powerful attacks of the two but also kept looking for opportunities to fight back.

The strong internal Qi was surging rapidly in his meridians, bursting out with tremendous power.

Under the cover of internal Qi, Fang Qiu no longer dodged. His right hand, which was clenched into a fist, directly hit the water-formed arrow shooting out from the giant sea turtle.

“Bang!” As the waves breaking, powerful internal Qi flowed out from Fang Qiu’s fist and quickly condensed into a blue energy shield when they collided with each other. While he crashed the water-formed arrow, the shield could help block all the water.

On the other side, the killer struck with a cold light.

Fang Qiu also clenched his left fist and fearlessly collided with the killer’s dagger emitting cold light.

The strike fell.

The water-formed arrows were crashed while the killer was directly forced back one step!

“Hmm?” As the killer looked at the young man who stood straight in the wind at night with strong fighting intent, the killer’s expression gradually changed.

“How is that possible? There is actually someone in this world who can use his fists to block my Cold Dagger.”

Looking at the dagger shining with a cold light in his hand, the killer couldn’t help but be stunned. He glanced at Fang Qiu’s left fist and found that he was not injured in the slightest, which made him feel intimidated and unbelievable!

Countless experts died under his Cold Dagger, and even A-level experts were also killed by this dagger.

But the killer had never seen anyone resist this sharp blade with his fists!

“What level was this person at? He couldn’t be a simple A-level expert!”

But at this moment, Fang Qiu, who was fighting against two people, suddenly turned around and focused all his attention on the killer.

Seeing this, the killer was shocked.

“Since you’re out, let’s have a good fight!” Fang Qiu sneered and ignored the sea turtle beside him. He moved his body and rushed straight toward the killer.

Fighting against a large sea turtle didn’t have much meaning to him. If he wanted to improve, he had to fight with others!

“Whoosh!” In an instant, Fang Qiu dashed to the killer. His hands, wrapped in internal Qi, directly collided with the killer.

“Kill!” The killer immediately focused and knew that he would get killed if he was distracted at this moment. He shouted coldly, waved the dagger with a cold light in his hand, and furiously fought with Fang Qiu.

When the sea turtle saw the two of them tangle together, it immediately shot out water-formed arrows violently and tried to strike them fiercely with no difference.

For the sea turtle, these were all its mortal enemies who wanted to steal his treasures!

Under the fierce attack of the sea turtle, Fang Qiu and the killer were disturbed to different degrees.

The killer’s original strength was weaker than Fang Qiu’s. With the interference of the sea turtle, the killer became angrier as he was fighting.

“Bloody sea turtle!” Without the interference of the sea turtle, he could at least tie with John Doe.

But as the sea turtle continually distracted him, he didn't know why he was gradually placed at a disadvantage in the fight, which made him furious.

The longer they fought, the more obvious his disadvantage was.

The killer's anger kept growing.

But even so, he still remained calm. This was an essential element of being a killer!

He knew that the current situation was against him, so no matter how furious he was, he did not dare to attack the sea turtle because it was a triangular fight, and the sea turtle was injured by him. If he struck the sea turtle again, the triangular situation would be easily broken and the sea turtle would attack him crazily. At that time, it would be a two-to-one fight. He was already at a disadvantage and he would have no way out if he did that!

But now the only way to withdraw from his disadvantage was to hide again!

He directly escaped from the battlefield and let John Doe whose strength he didn't know about fight with the sea turtle first. When he was almost recovered and the battle was coming to an end, he would join in again and reap the benefits.

With that thought in mind, the killer waved the dagger in his hand, pulled Fang Qiu directly in the fight, and rushed to the back of the sea turtle.

Undoubtedly, he immediately irritated the sea turtle.

What the giant sea turtle hated the most was someone jumping onto its shell because it was extremely difficult for it to attack when someone standing on its shell.

However, the sea turtle was not stupid.

“Clatter...” Its four palms-like feet suddenly moved and instantly retreated to the sea. At the same time, it opened its mouths wide, trying to bite the two people.

The killer's eyes narrowed. At the moment when the sea turtle was about to bite him, he rapidly retreated, attempting to withdraw from this fight as the sea turtle was attacking.

“You want to leave?” With a snort, Fang Qiu directly reached out and grabbed the killer's arm. Then, he burst out a huge force and directly threw him to the sea turtle's mouth.

“Hmm?” The killer's eyes widened and the look on his face changed dramatically.

He didn't expect that John Doe could burst out such terrifying power, which was so powerful that he couldn't resist it at all.

Seeing that he was about to fall into the sea turtle's mouth, a gust of incomparably strong Qi power burst out from the killer's body. With a wave of the dagger, a blast of terrifying sword Qi immediately erupted from the dagger. It carried a gust of penetrating energy Qi as it shot toward the giant sea turtle's mouth.

“Bang!” With a loud bang, the Sword Qi hit the sea turtle's mouth fiercely, causing its head to tilt.

The killer took the opportunity to turn around and successfully escaped.

“Swoosh!” But then, with the sound of wind breaking, Fang Qiu was already coming in front of him.

The killer moved and instantly jumped on the back of the sea turtle. Fang Qiu followed closely.

While the sea turtle felt dizzy after being stunned by the Sword Qi, the two rushed to the back of the sea turtle.

The killer originally thought that by standing on the back of the sea turtle, the fight between him and John Doe would reduce a lot of interference.

But unexpectedly, as soon as he reached the back of the sea turtle, it immediately turned around and swam into the sea.

The two of them were rising in the air again.

“Humph. Go to hell!” Noticing that the sea turtle was in the water and waiting for an opportunity to move, the killer snorted. He did not expect that his strategy would be learned by a beast.

What a shame!

However, without the interference of the sea turtle, he could have a good fight with John Doe.

Maybe he could finish the task and also obtain the Heaven Treasure!

He started to fight.

After snorting, the killer immediately swung his dagger and rushed to Fang Qiu. With a blast of an extremely powerful force, he attacked Fang Qiu at a blindingly fast speed.

Fang Qiu sneered as he saw this and instantly met his strike.

What he needed was this great battle!

Only in such a great battle could he improve.

In an instant, the two collided with each other violently.

“Bang, bang, bang...” The sounds of fierce fighting resounded through the island.

Fang Qiu still confronted the blade with his fists.

The more he fought, the more intense his battle intents grew, and the greater his strength became!

“Why?” In just a dozen moves, the killer’s expression changed again because he found that John Doe’s strength would increase a little with every punch. Even without the intrusion of the sea turtle, he was still suppressed by John Doe and fell into a disadvantage.

He was particularly shocked when he felt the overwhelming battle intent of John Doe.

He even felt a chill down his spine!

As he looked at the sea turtle, it still remained motionless.

The killer couldn’t bear it anymore. After their fists collided, he immediately flew back and landed on the sea. Then he raised the dagger in his hand high in the air, and his internal Qi rushed in. The dagger was condensed into a huge half-moon ring in his hand.

“Die!” The moment it condensed into a half-moon ring, the killer swung his hand in the air.

The half-moon ring flew out of his hand. The tremendous power and internal Qi directly divided the sea under his feet into two halves, revealing a gap of more than ten meters. He could even see the giant sea turtle hiding its head in the shell. With the half-moon ring slashing, a white cut was actually left on the shell!

Confronted with the killer’s fierce attack, Fang Qiu was not afraid at all. He directly drew all his internal Qi on his right fist, moved his body, and punched fiercely toward the killer.

“Bang!” There was a loud noise.

The fist ruthlessly collided with the half-moon ring formed by energy.

Dazzling light suddenly burst out!

“Crack.” Then, a crisp sound like glass shattering rang out.

A human figure, flew like a sharp spike, directly smashed the half-moon ring into pieces like glass debris, and then rushed out from it. Before the killer could react, Fang Qiu violently punched the killer in the chest.

“Puff...” The killer opened his mouth and spat out a mouthful of blood before Fang Qiu exerted his strength. Then, he was sent flying.

“Go to hell!” But at this moment, the killer, whose mouth was covered with blood, suddenly raised his left hand. Another half-moon ring appeared and tried to attack Fang Qiu again.

“Humph!” Fang Qiu snorted and swung his fist again.

“Crash!” But at this moment, the surface of the sea suddenly churned. A huge water-formed arrow suddenly shot out from the sea and went straight up to Fang Qiu.

He took a closer look.

Under the huge water-formed arrow, there was a bloody mouth full of sharp teeth.

“Hmm?” The sudden attack made Fang Qiu raise his eyebrows.

He smashed the half-moon ring in front of him with a punch and hurriedly used his body to block the huge water-formed arrow. When the sea turtle’s mouth was about to bite him, he exerted force all over his body and rapidly rose into the air. The moment he dodged the sea turtle’s bloody mouth, he fell straight down.

He then swung his right hand.

The surrounding Qi of Heaven and Earth quickly gathered and formed a palm the size of a tire in front of him. After which, it was swung along with his arm.

Without any hesitation, the energy palm directly slapped the wound on the sea turtle's neck!

As the palm struck, the wound on the sea turtle's neck immediately gaped, and blood gushed out.

After this, the sea turtle panicked.

It dived into the sea and immediately swam to the depths.

It didn't dare to stay any longer. Fang Qiu's strike tore its wound. If it took more blows from him, it was afraid that its head would be directly cut off.

The sea turtle fled.

Fang Qiu immediately looked at the killer in the distance.

At this time, the killer was floating on the sea as if he had lost all his strength.

"Whew..." Taking a deep breath, Fang Qiu shook his fists and looked a little pale.

In the battle just now, he was like a mighty warrior, using his fists to resist the opponent's dagger and energy Sword Qi several times. Although it seemed that his fists were not injured, his body couldn't bear it.

After several head-on blows, he already got an internal injury. Coupled with the sneak attack of the sea turtle, Fang Qiu also suffered a lot in this great battle!

He walked over to the killer, grabbed him, and was about to bring him back to the island.

“Ah!!!” The killer suddenly roared and raised his right hand. In a flat box tied to his wrist, several dark needles burst out and shot directly toward Fang Qiu’s throat.

It was the killer’s final strike!

Either the enemy would die, or he would die!

Chapter 872: The Killer Ranked Third in the WorldJin Shihai!

If Fang Qiu were anyone else, the killer might have succeeded.

But he was confronting Fang Qiu, an expert in the Guru Realm!

“Swoosh!” Fang Qiu dodged sideways and kicked him back to the island directly.

This kick was truly powerful.

The moment the severely injured killer fell to the ground, his vision went blurred and he passed out completely.

“Humph!” As Fang Qiu returned to the island, he directly destroyed all the kung fu and meridians of the killer.

Then he lifted the killer, walked to where they trapped the killers who got captured earlier and tossed him into the crowd casually.

When everyone saw Fang Qiu, their eyes narrowed.

They stared at him with awe.

Everyone had witnessed the great battle. Although it was at night, everyone could see it clearly because of the blast of various kinds of energy. After all, the majority of these people were not ordinary folks, and their eyesight was far better than ordinary people's.

Fang Qiu had defeated two people on his own. His impression of being invincible was deeply engraved on their minds.

Ultimately, they realized that they had provoked someone they shouldn't have.

Seeing the killer thrown over, all the captives looked at him subconsciously.

They were eager to see how this expert looked like.

After taking a look, the others shook their heads and sighed, while the two brothers looked at each other and saw the great shock in each other's eyes!

"This... this is the third-ranked killer on the Killer List, Jin Shihai?"

"Evil Blade Assassin, Jin Shihai?"

People around lapsed into silence.

Everyone widened their eyes, staring at the killer who fainted.

"Is this the famous killer, Jin Shihai?"

"Jin Shihai's most striking feature is that there is a cyan scar on his face, which was caused by a poisonous blade. In this world, no one has this scar except him!" Niro Brothers took a deep breath and said with shock in their eyes.

Everyone looked carefully at the killer.

Sure enough, they saw a cyan scar on the face of the unconscious killer.

“Is he really Jin Shihai?”

“A big shot ranking third on the World Killer List?”

“How is this possible? How? Even Jin Shihai...”

At this moment, everyone present was dumbfounded.

Everyone subconsciously looked up at Fang Qiu in shock.

They didn’t expect that even Jin Shihai, who ranked third on the World Killer List and had once assassinated an A-level expert, was defeated by John Doe.

“He even did it under the suppression of the giant turtle!”

“One of his opponents was defeated while the other escaped.”

They couldn’t help but think to themselves, “How powerful is John Doe? What kind of strength was this? A level? No, it’s impossible!”

They had never seen that anyone with A-level strength could beat Jin Shihai like this!

Jin Shihai was an expert from Markleby. The strongest and the proudest feature of this nationality was their physical prowess. Jin Shihai’s body was far stronger than his strength, but even so, he was still knocked unconscious by Fang Qiu, which proved how incredible Fang Qiu’s attack power was!

“With his movements, even Jin Shihai couldn’t hurt him. He was so remarkable!”

All the killers wanted to slap themselves in the face!

What kind of mission did they take?

They thought that they were simply digging their own graves to provoke such a powerful target.

Fang Qiu didn’t care about the remorse of these people. Instead, he recalled and summarized the battle just now.

In the battle with Jin Shihai, he could clearly feel a burst of great pressure.

This kind of pressure was not from Jin Shihai’s strength. It was an extremely tricky force as if Fang Qiu was encountering the pressure of countless needles. It was also under that kind of pressure that Fang Qiu chose to fight head-on in the battle because he intended to break the suppression of this kind of feeling.

He was fully aware that only top-notch killers would possess this kind of exceptionally powerful killing aura!

In terms of strength, he was not afraid of Jin Shihai at all. However, Jin Shihai was a killer. He attacked with various means as if he had thousands of eyes staring at every fatal spot of Fang Qiu’s body!

This was an invisible, spiritual pressure.

However, Fang Qiu still broke it.

Not only did he break the suppression, but he was also greatly improved through the pressure. Hence, he quickly felt a surge of the breakthrough.

The internal Qi in his meridians was surging, which seemed that it would rush toward the next meridian uncontrollably.

He thought to himself, "I can't resist it any longer. I'm about to break through!"

Fang Qiu quickly suppressed the urge to break through. He immediately cupped his hands to everyone who came from all over the country and said, "Thank you for your help. It's all settled here. From now on, we are all brothers. If you need any help, just come to me. I, Lin Yu, will definitely try my best to help you!"

The sturdy man stood up and muttered, "You made it sound as if you owe us! I never admire others except you! In the past few days, apart from helping to dig traps, we have only done a few simple things to help you. You are the only one who has done all the other things. We are grateful that we didn't hinder you. In fact, we didn't offer much help!"

Everyone nodded.

It was a bit awkward to say it out loud. They chose to stay here to help, but in fact, Fang Qiu was the one who helped them a lot.

"You've chosen to stay and help me, which also means that you're helping," Fang Qiu smiled and said, "Besides, I have one more thing to ask you for help."

Everyone said one after another, "Go ahead."

Fang Qiu swept around and remembered everyone here.

He was certain that these people would truly help others when they were in danger, who were worth making friends with!

"These people have been maimed," Glancing at the crowd, Fang Qiu pointed at the captives and continued, "Next, please take them with you and hand them over to the police when you come back home. Someone will take care of the rest."

"No problem." Everyone nodded. This was not a big deal.

Fang Qiu turned to look at He Gaoming.

He Gaoming took the lead to ask, "Master, aren't you coming back?"

Fang Qiu nodded and said, "I have something important to do. I'll leave the rest to you. If anything happens, help me deal with it. I'll leave Liang Fen and the others to you."

"Okay, no problem." He Gaoming nodded immediately.

"Okay!" Fang Qiu nodded. Taking a deep breath, he cupped his hands to everyone and said, "See you in Huaxia!"

With a movement of his body, he rose into the sky and rushed quickly toward the depths of the sea.

Since this matter had been settled, no one could threaten the people on this island anymore. The sea turtle had also escaped, he could leave in peace.

On the island, everyone cupped their hands and watched Fang Qiu leave.

Looking at John Doe's back, they all sighed with emotion.

Especially when they thought of John Doe's invincible strength he presented in the past few days, they were filled with a sense of awe.

First, he drove away the people from the Southeast Region. Then, he formed a giant water-formed arrow to shoot the fighter. In addition, he was confronted with countless killers on his own. In the end, he didn't only defeat Jin Shihai, who ranked third on the World Killer List, but also drove the thousand-year-old sea turtle away!

"This kind of strength was too incredible!"

"He was indeed the top expert among the younger generation in Huaxia Wulin!"

Seeing Fang Qiu go far away, everyone was ready to leave.

Just then, He Gaoming suddenly stood up, cupped his hands, and said to everyone, "I suggest that we all leave our contact information so that it's convenient for us to reach each other in the future. If you need my master's help, just come to me directly if you can't find him. I can help you contact him."

As people heard that, they believed this was also a way to contact John Doe, and for now, it seemed to be the only way.

Without further consideration, everyone took the initiative to exchange their contact information.

Then, they took the group of killers who looked devastated, tied them up with ropes, and left with them.

As Fang Qiu entered the vast sea, he flew all the way forward. After he was running for a while, a huge spray suddenly spurted out from the sea.

When he took a closer look, he found that there was a huge black shadow under the water.

"Blue Whale?" Fang Qiu's eyes lit up.

Unexpectedly, the first time he went out to sea alone, he encountered the largest animal in the world.

To his surprise, this blue whale was 90 feet long. Although it was lean and long, it still looked magnificent!

He smiled slightly.

Fang Qiu descended quickly and at last landed on the back of the blue whale. He stood in the wind for a while and then sat cross-legged on the back of the blue whale with a grin.

The blue whale, who had taken a breath and was about to dive, seemed to feel something on its back. After sinking a little bit, it immediately floated up again and took Fang Qiu forward swiftly as if riding the wind and cleaving the waves.

At this time, Fang Qiu opened his eyes with a smile.

He took out the Cyan Dragon Lock and swallowed it in one gulp.

As the Cyan Dragon Lock entered his mouth, Fang Qiu only felt that the jade pillar melted, and his mouth turned cold.

It was as if Fang Qiu had held the thousand-year-old ice crystal in his mouth. In an instant, he was freezing and began to tremble. But then, the vines of the Cyan Dragon Lock also swiftly melted and turned into a relatively soft force, integrating into the energy transformed by the jade pillar and sweeping away the cold air.

The feeling of the cold being dissipated made Fang Qiu tremble and feel extremely comfortable.

“Break!” When the energy began to flow in Fang Qiu’s body, Fang Qiu released the feeling of breakthrough that he had been suppressing instantly, and then all the internal Qi in his body immediately began to surge, rushing toward the Yangwei Meridian like a running river.

Not only did Fang Qiu not block it, but he also controlled his internal Qi to increase the impact of the energy because he could feel that when the energy transformed by the Cyan Dragon Lock circulated in his body, most of it gathered on his Yangwei Meridian.

Recalling the effect of the Cyan Dragon Lock that Li Ji had mentioned before, Fang Qiu immediately drove his internal Qi to impact to break it without hesitation.

Since he had opened his Yangwei Meridian before, he didn't need to exert much effort on it at all this time. What he needed to do was to reopen his meridian directly!

Sure enough, under Fang Qiu's control, the violent gust of internal Qi directly rushed into the Yangwei Meridian.

Medical Master

Chapter 873: Continuous Breakthroughs! Sword Enlightenment!

"Woo..." On the sea, a sudden gust of wind blew and dark clouds covered the originally bright sky.

Not long after, dark clouds gathered and lightning flashed while thunder crashed and boomed.

The Qi of Heaven and Earth roared and rushed over in all directions like gusts of wild wind, rolling up the waves.

On the back of the blue whale, Fang Qiu closed his eyes and knew nothing about what was happening between heaven and earth.

In the distance, people of the Huaxia Wulin led by He Gaoming were about to take the boats along the island. When they heard the roar far away, they immediately turned their heads and looked at it in surprise.

"Is that where Senior John Doe headed for?"

"It's just early in the morning, and the sky has just brightened. Why did dark clouds gather all of a sudden?"

“What’s going on over there? How can the morning light be covered?”

“Is Senior John Doe about to make a breakthrough?” The man who had broken through to the fifth-class by a tap given by Fang Qiu widened his eyes wide and said in shock.

“Breakthrough?”

“It should be. Otherwise, Senior John Doe wouldn’t have left in such a hurry.”

“But, this is so amazing. Senior John Doe’s breakthrough can actually cause such a huge unusual phenomenon.”

Everyone was astounded.

“Are you envious?” Looking at the shocking crowd, He Gaoming let out a laugh. While drawing everyone’s attention, he asked loudly.

Everyone nodded.

It would be a lie to say that they were not envious!

“If you’re envious, then acknowledge my master as your leader. I’m sure you’ll be able to enjoy a good life.” He Gaoming said while proudly raising his head.

Everyone’s eyes suddenly lit up after they heard that.

Nowadays, people in Wulin had already reached a consensus that John Doe would definitely become a guru. It was just a matter of time. It was bound to be a great thing to have a leader who could become a guru!

Seeing the expressions on everyone’s faces, He Gaoming snickered.

He thought to himself, “Master, I’ve recruited a lot of people for you. I have to get some profits from this!”

Fang Qiu’s internal Qi was like a torrent.

Since he didn’t need to put much effort on reopen his meridian, he directly poured the internal Qi into the Yangwei Meridian. Just like he reopened his meridian before, the huge flow of internal Qi instantly caused the Yangwei Meridian to swell, and numerous cracks instantly spread out.

At this time, a layer of cyan energy suddenly flashed on the meridian. Under the protection of this layer of energy, countless cracks on the meridian began to heal at an extremely fast speed!

“Break!” With the help of cyan energy, the cracks on the Yangwei Meridian inside his body swiftly healed. When the Yangwei Meridian was completely reopened, the internal Qi in Fang Qiu’s body continued to rush toward the next meridian like a running river!

He became a seventh-class Martial Superior with two opened meridians.

Fang Qiu didn’t expect that re-open of the meridians could be so simple.

It was so simple that he didn’t consume much internal Qi.

“What? That’s weird.” Just as he controlled his internal Qi to impact the next meridian, he surprisingly found that the cyan energy, which had enveloped Yangwei Meridian, quickly poured into the next meridian after healing the wounds of the Yangwei Meridian, which was ahead of the movement of his internal Qi.

With the flow of this energy, Fang Qiu clearly felt that the flow of internal Qi under his control was rapidly enhancing!

He was making a breakthrough, not cultivating.

The internal Qi in his body was stable. After breaking through Yangwei Meridian, he did not consume too much internal Qi. Instead, it was increasing. What was going on?

An idea struck him.

He immediately drove his mental power to check.

It turned out that the suddenly strengthened internal Qi in his body was transformed by the power of the Cyan Dragon Lock, which was drawn from heaven and earth.

In other words, the Cyan Dragon Lock could actually draw the Qi of Heaven and Earth into his body!

This discovery amazed Fang Qiu.

He had seen and eaten numerous Heaven and Earth Treasures, but he had never encountered such a magical one!

Generally, after swallowing it, the Heaven and Earth Treasure would directly turn into energy and enter the body. It could simply be regarded as a mass of energy. However, the Cyan Dragon Lock could not only turn into energy and flow into the body but also attract the Qi of Heaven and Earth into the body. The effect was exceptional!

“No wonder the legendary top 10 Heaven and Earth Treasure are so magical. It really has such an amazing efficacy!” Fang Qiu was appalled.

Just like how he helped the special forces, Li Ji, He Gaoming, Liang Fen, and others to improve their strength, he forcefully gathered a large amount of Qi of Heaven and Earth around the people who needed help, and even drove the Qi of Heaven and Earth into their bodies, so as to promote their strength.

It was this efficacy that made the Cyan Dragon Lock so special!

How much could Fang Qiu improve a person's strength with the power of a guru? Could he make a first-class Martial Superior improve three classes in a row?

Obviously, he couldn't!

But this Cyan Dragon Lock was different.

Even a seventh-class Martial Superior could break through to open two meridians in a row by taking this treasure. If a first-class Martial Superior took it, he or she would be able to break through all the way to become a fourth-class or even fifth-class Martial Superior!

At this moment, Fang Qiu once again deeply felt the exceptional power of the top 10 Heaven Treasure.

And the condition inside his body also made him understand why the previous sense of breakthrough could be suppressed for several days, but this time it couldn't be suppressed at all.

It was because of the Cyan Dragon Lock!

The energy transformed by the Cyan Dragon Lock could draw the Qi of Heaven and Earth into his body and also attract the energy inside his body to impact the next meridian that needed a breakthrough and reopened. This was why he had difficulty suppressing it.

"What if I don't control it?" Thinking of this, Fang Qiu began to try to release the control of internal Qi in his body.

The internal Qi being released in his body didn't stop at all. Instead, it gathered more and more, and the impact was getting stronger and stronger. Although it seemed to get rid of the shackles, it didn't hurt Fang Qiu at all. It just passed through the Yangwei Meridian and rushed toward the Yinwei Meridian quickly.

Just like that, Fang Qiu was watching while controlling the situation inside his body via his Insight.

It worked the same as reopening the Yangwei Meridian.

The strong internal Qi rushed into the Yinwei Meridian and instantly opened it!

Then, the internal Qi poured in.

The energy transformed by the Cyan Dragon Lock showed the cyan light again.

The reopened meridian was like a snake that had just shed its skin. Under the cover of the cyan light, there was a faint glow circulating.

He didn't know how long it had taken.

When the Yinwei Meridian was completely reopened and the internal Qi in his body was replenished to a large extent. The energy transformed by the Cyan Dragon Lock was also exhausted. Fang Qiu finally ended the whole process of breakthrough and slowly opened his eyes.

There was a glint in his eyes.

The endless sea and the beautiful sunset in the sky greeted him.

It was as if nothing had happened.

"Ah..." Standing up and feeling the refreshed feeling after the breakthrough, Fang Qiu couldn't help but roar to the sky, expressing his joy.

As he let out a long howl, Fang Qiu occasionally glanced at the sunset in the sky.

The crimson sunset kept changing forms with the sea breeze.

Sometimes clouds gathered but sometimes they dispersed.

Fang Qiu was suddenly stunned as he saw that.

The howl stopped abruptly, and he stood motionless on the back of the blue whale, staring at the sunset in the sky.

“Gather, change...” It had been a while.

Something popped out in Fang Qiu’s mind.

“Gather the energy of heaven and earth and control it in the palm!”

Suddenly, he thought of the last line of words in the cave when he learned the Great Hand of Destruction.

“What is gathering?”

“What is hand?”

“If you can gather, you can disperse, and if you can disperse, you can condense.

“Since you are in control, you shall do whatever you want!”

Suddenly, Fang Qiu smiled.

He smiled heartily.

He was enlightened!

“Since I can do whatever I want, why do I have to make a palm?” As he spoke, Fang Qiu raised his right hand slightly in front of his eyes.

He gently twisted his fingers.

The Qi of Heaven and Earth in the sky above the boundless ocean seemed to have been immensely attracted. Like strips of colorful ribbons in an exhibition, they rushed toward Fang Qiu’s fingertips from all directions.

Unfortunately, there was no one on the sea.

If someone were there, they would be able to see that the thin figure standing on the back of the blue whale seemed to connect the heaven and earth in this area.

Under the sunset, the surging Qi of Heaven and Earth condensed into a flower on Fang Qiu’s fingertip.

It was a huge lotus flower.

Flower petals swayed in the wind as they slowly fell off. After which, they transformed into tiny stars. As the sky gradually darkened, the blue stars were reflecting an enormous creature that was still swimming in the sea, as well as a faint figure.

“Buzz!” At a certain moment, there was suddenly a thump between heaven and earth.

The blue stars all over the sky suddenly stopped, quickly turned back, and fell back to Fang Qiu’s fingertips at an extremely fast speed.

However, strangely, as the Qi of Heaven and Earth returned, the energy gathering on Fang Qiu’s fingertips was only the size of a thumb. With the return of the Qi of Heaven and Earth, the small mass of energy became more dazzling, but it didn’t grow bigger.

At some point, Fang Qiu had closed his eyes tightly.

He merely stood still and allowed the cold sea wind to blow on his face, and his clothes rustled.

Fang Qiu murmured with a smile, "Each flower has its own world; and each leaf has its own greenery. When the flower will fade, when the leaf will wither, we should all give everything back to the earth at the last moment. A glimpse of a spot reveals the whole panther, and a drop of water reveals the ocean. The smallest of things is often a microcosm of the larger world, and the infinite is often treasured in the finite."

He opened his eyes.

As he raised his right fingertips, the thumb-sized energy mass disappeared in a flash.

"This is control." He waved his hand.

The Qi of Heaven and Earth from all directions surged over like a whirlpool and instantly condensed in front of him.

As he looked closely, a long sword formed by the energy floated in front of him.

It was an ordinary-looking long sword made completely of the Qi of Heaven and Earth, whose color was silver.

There was a Taiji diagram on the handle of the long sword!

Suddenly, Fang Qiu said in a low voice, "Space-splitting Sea-cracking Sword!"

At the next moment, Fang Qiu, who hadn't moved for a long time, suddenly swung his right hand, grabbed the silver long sword floating in front of him, and then slashed forward!

“Boom...” The moment he swung his long sword, a gust of extremely powerful energy burst out from the silver sword. It condensed into an incredibly fierce and terrifying sword Qi and charged forward.

Sword Qi surged.

Clouds floated in all directions in the sky.

With a momentum that seemed to split the sky, the terrifying sword Qi rushed through the sea.

Wherever the Sword Qi passed, the surging sea surface was directly cut into two halves, leaving a deep gap. The creatures in the sea swam through it, and the moment a creature entered this gap, it was directly cut into pieces by the remaining Sword Qi.

Chapter 874: Poseidon!

Looking at his palm and the Sword Qi rushing out, Fang Qiu was astounded.

This move was called the Space-splitting Sea-cracking Sword!

It was a powerful sword move created by him in his meditation, based on the Great Hand of Destruction!

But even he did not expect that the move he had comprehended was so extraordinary.

Judged from the scene in front of him and the perspective of a guru, this move was incredibly powerful!

Others might not know.

However, he was fully aware that this move contained the essence of the Great Hand of Destruction. On the basis of the Great Hand of Destruction, it transformed the palm into a long sword, and it also contained an extremely special power, which he had just comprehended.

This kind of power was called— Disperse!

Since he could gather the Qi of Heaven and Earth, he could also disperse it.

Since he could gather such strong power, why couldn't he disperse it?

Therefore, Fang Qiu was enlightened.

After seeing the clouds gathering and dispersing in the sky, Fang Qiu tried flowers, birds, fish, and insects in enlightenment... Finally, the pattern ultimately turned into a sword. Wherever the sword passed, there were Qi blades!

The Qi blade was the energy that emitted the long sword.

This kind of energy could easily destroy ordinary enemies.

But because it was Disperse energy, it was destined that it wouldn't cause extremely powerful offensive force. For experts, it would only be a little threat at most.

However, ordinary people couldn't take the strike of the Space-splitting Sea-cracking Sword.

Even a guru couldn't take it!

"Ah—" As the Sword Qi dissipated on the distant sea, Fang Qiu was so excited that he roared to the sky. As the seawater which was separated into two halves was slowly drawing together, the blue whale was riding the waves and seemed to be very excited because of Fang Qiu's enlightenment.

After a long roar, Fang Qiu smiled, squatted down, and patted the blue whale under his feet, "Thank you. Let's go back!"

The blue whale seemed to understand and immediately stopped, ready to go back.

"My roommates always said that I was so good at confronting people because I must fight back if others challenged me, and I have never lost!" said Fang Qiu with a smile.

"Crash..." A spurt rose to the sky from the blue whale's nostrils.

As the blue whale was making a sound like a train siren, it turned around and quickly returned according to Fang Qiu's request!

Maybe it was because of Fang Qiu's breakthrough or some other reasons, the blue whale turned back rapidly.

Not long after, he was about to reach the island.

Standing on the blue whale, Fang Qiu scanned the island carefully and found that everyone had left. He then nodded gently, squatted down, patted the blue whale, and said, "Wait for me here."

After that, Fang Qiu moved, trod on the water, and swiftly returned to the island.

He picked up a broken sword from the ground, dipped it in the seawater, and wiped it clean.

"So what if it's a broken sword? Let's go kill somebody."

With a swing of the broken sword, Fang Qiu jumped up and landed on the back of the blue whale again. Then, the blue whale carried him and traveled to the western land.

They followed the setting sun all the way to the west.

On the way, Fang Qiu also encountered a lot of fishing boats.

Along the sea, fishermen who relied on fishing for survival would go out to sea for several days every time. During this period, they almost lived on the sea. Therefore, when Fang Qiu encountered fishermen in the vast sea, he was not surprised at all.

However, though Fang Qiu was not surprised, the fishermen on the fishing boats were all frightened.

Under the setting sun, they saw a man standing on the back of a blue whale and driving it to travel.

They could barely believe their eyes.

Almost all the fishermen widened their eyes in disbelief when they saw this scene.

In the beginning, everyone thought they had been dazzled.

However, after rubbing their eyes carefully, they found that it was true!

There was truly a person who stepped on the back of the blue whale and moved forward through the waves!

“Oh my God, is that an immortal?”

“Poseidon is coming!”

The fishermen on each fishing boat all walked to the deck and knelt down.

They were all ordinary people. How could they have seen such a magical scene?

The blue whale was the largest marine animal in the world. In front of the blue whale, a human being was not even as big as its nostrils. How could a man drive a blue whale?

Unless this person was an immortal!

Undoubtedly, everyone on the fishing boat regarded Fang Qiu as an immortal. The scene of Fang Qiu riding a whale was also deeply imprinted in their hearts. They would never forget it for the rest of their lives!

In the face of the fishing boats that he encountered from time to time and the fishermen kneeling to him, Fang Qiu didn't explain and continued to go west.

Ultimately, when the sun had sunk below the horizon, Fang Qiu saw the lights on the land.

"Here we are." Looking at the lights on the land in the distance, Fang Qiu narrowed his eyes, squatted down, patted the back of the blue whale, and said, "Brother whale, the sea is vast. Hopefully, we can meet again!"

"Crash..." A large stream of water was spouted out of the blue whale's nostrils to respond to Fang Qiu.

Fang Qiu smiled.

With a movement of his body, he jumped directly into the sea and stood on the surface, looking at the huge blue whale.

"Whoo, whoo, whoo..." After the huge blue whale swam around Fang Qiu in a circle, it suddenly jumped out of the water and dive into the sea cheerfully, splashing huge spray on the sea surface. Then, it continued to swim around Fang Qiu. After that, it was whining and turned far away.

Fang Qiu waved his hand at the distant blue whale. After the blue whale completely disappeared from his sight, he turned his head and looked at the light on the west coast again. As he calmed down, his eyes flashed with a touch of coldness.

“I’m coming!” After saying that in a cold tone, Fang Qiu tiptoed and flew straight into the air, darting toward the brightly lit place.

Southern Yue was located in the west of the Huaxia Sea.

Because of the lack of fighting capacity on the sea, the government of Southern Yue had built a military base on the coast, which was especially in charge of monitoring the situation of their territory and the sea.

Before Fang Qiu came here, Li Ji had already sent the information of the military base of Southern Yue to Fang Qiu because Li Ji knew that the Huaxia government had intervened in this matter.

Therefore, Fang Qiu asked the blue whale to take him straight to the west.

Although it was getting dark, Fang Qiu could still see the military base clearly.

“Report!” In the monitoring room of the military base at the border of Southern Yue, a radar monitor saw a strange unknown object suddenly appear on the radar, and immediately shouted to the communication device, “We found that an unknown object intruded into the border of our country. I repeat. An unknown object intruded in... The height is 150 feet.”

He shouted three times in a row before coming to a stop.

At this moment, the other monitoring personnel in the radar monitoring room immediately gathered around.

After the report, the monitor immediately clicked on the radar image and then zoomed in to have a look.

“What?”

“Is it real?”

“How is this possible?”

“This, this is a person!”

Seeing the closer image, everyone in the radar monitoring room was shocked.

Through the monitoring device on the radar monitor, they could clearly see that it was a person who intruded into the border of their country and flew at a height of 150 feet!

Moreover, this person came straight to them!

They didn't dare to hesitate.

The radar monitor immediately turned on the red alarm.

In the whole base, the alarm rang out!

“Hmm?” In a room in the base, a middle-aged man was eating at the dining table. The moment he heard the alarm, he instantly frowned and put down the tableware in his hand. He picked up the phone on the table and asked, “What happened? Why did they set off the red alarm?”

As he finished, a frightening voice immediately came from the other end of the phone.

“Report! I found an unknown object intruding into the border of our country. It's 150 feet high. According to the radar image, it seems to be a person!”

The middle-aged man was taken aback as he heard that.

He hurriedly stood up.

The middle-aged man was wearing a military uniform with a shoulder emblem which wrote Lieutenant.

It seemed that he was the commander of this military base!

“Did you say that the unknown flying object that intruded into the border is a person? Are you sure it’s a person?” The Lieutenant asked again.

“Report! It’s a person!” The subordinate confirmed on the other end of the phone.

He was not a short-sighted man since he could be a lieutenant, but he only knew that there was another magical world outside the ordinary world, but he had no further understanding of that world.

When he heard that the unknown object was a person, he suddenly had a bad feeling.

“Person? A fighter? Could it be that the man who destroyed the fighter is here to seek revenge?” The Lieutenant pondered about it carefully.

Previously, Ruan Changhong borrowed a fighter and two guided missiles here, claiming that he was going to attack the people in that magical world and would never cause a war between the two countries.

Hence, the Lieutenant lent those to him.

After all, he knew that Ruan Changhong was from that magical world, and his background was not simple!

After thinking about it for a while, only those from that magical world would come to them in this way.

“Fire!” With this in mind, the Lieutenant did not hesitate and immediately ordered, “Strike them down. No matter how many people are coming, knock them down even if they are aliens!”

He knew how terrifying the people of that magical world were. He couldn't give them a chance to get close to them!

"Their reaction is quite fast." Fang Qiu sneered and looked at the military base where the alarm was ringing out.

"Swish!" But at this moment, a harsh air-breaking sound was heard.

A dazzling light burst out from the military base.

A guided missile instantly shot over at a blindingly fast speed.

"Humph!" Looking at the missile that suddenly shot toward him, Fang Qiu snorted and immediately dodged it. When he was about to move on, the air-breaking sound didn't stop but get closer and closer to him.

Fang Qiu immediately turned to look.

The missile, which he had just dodged, turned back after making a circle!

"A tracking missile?" Fang Qiu sneered, speeding up to charge to the military base.

He didn't intend to rush in so soon.

However, since they had even used the tracking missile, they couldn't blame him for this.

Although the speed of the missile was extremely fast, it was obviously inferior to Fang Qiu in terms of flexibility.

Under the leading of Fang Qiu, the missile followed Fang Qiu all the way and quickly rushed into the military base.

After entering the military base, Fang Qiu dashed straight to the radar monitor platform.

The moment the missile flew over, Fang Qiu ducked right away.

The tracking missile, which had no time to turn around, directly slammed into the radar monitor platform.

“Boom...” An earth-shattering roar rang out.

Under the bombardment of the missile, the radar monitor platform collapsed instantly!

Chapter 875: One Fighter with One Punch!

“What’s going on?”

The violent shock instantly made the lieutenant general furious.

Through the window, he saw the fire in the base and knew that the base had been bombarded.

As the commander of the base, he was infuriated that his jurisdiction was bombarded by his own people.

But almost in an instant, he became fearful and worried!

He also knew that the person was from that world and could even blow up a fighter. The strength of such a person was so terrible that ordinary soldiers could not defeat him at all.

“Where is he?”

The lieutenant general knew that they were in trouble. He immediately shouted, “Attention! Stay alert and don’t let even a fly get away!”

As he gave the order, the lieutenant general quickly called some people over to protect him.

Then he quickly took out his phone and dialed Ruan Changhong’s number.

“Hello?”

The call was quickly answered.

“Ruan Changhong! The person you provoked with the fighter last time may have come to seek revenge. I’ll send you a video. You need to confirm if he is the one who has a grudge against you!”

While speaking, he was already under the protection of a group of guards. He hurried into the command room and immediately got someone to send the video to Ruan Changhong.

After receiving the video, Ruan Changhong watched it carefully.

The person in the video was indeed John Doe!

“How... how is this possible?”

Ruan Changhong was stunned.

He had offered 300 million dollars to kill John Doe. He heard that countless killers all over the world had set out. In his opinion, no matter what, John Doe could never escape.

But judging by this video, John Doe was not dead at all!

Instead, he came after them!

“He was not killed with so many killers after him?”

Ruan Changhong’s face suddenly turned grave as he was shocked. His heart was also in his mouth. He replied, “It’s him! It’s him. Lieutenant General Li Guangwu. You must hold him back!”

Hearing Ruan Changhong’s words, the Lieutenant General named Li Guangwu really wanted to curse.

“This is all your damn fault!”

If it weren’t for the fact that Ruan Changhong’s father was a general, he would have rebuked him!

“It was all your fault,” suppressing the wrath in his heart, Li Guangwu said angrily, “You are the one who caused this trouble. How dare you ask me to clean up your mess? You’d better think of a solution quickly. We can’t hold on any longer. Once something terrible happens in the military base, the matter will become one at the national level. At that time, not only you but also your father, General Ruan Shibei, will not be able to take the consequences!”

“Don’t worry, don’t worry.”

Ruan Changhong quickly spoke. After hesitating for a moment, he gritted his teeth and said, “I’ll go to find my master. Don’t worry. With my master’s help, he would never be able to escape!”

Hearing this, Li Guangwu immediately thought of the legendary figure.

If that figure came to help, there would be no problem.

No matter how strong the person who came for them was, he would be eventually defeated!

“Go and find your master quickly. I’ll try my best to resist that person.”

As he spoke, Li Guangwu heaved a sigh of relief.

He hung up the phone.

“Have you found the person named John Doe?” Li Guangwu asked.

However, there was no response.

“Hmm?”

With a jolt of his mind, Li Guangwu immediately turned around, and he was shocked by what he saw.

A bunch of people were knocked out without any sound and lying on the ground.

In the command room, in addition to himself, there was only one person standing, the person named “John Doe” in the video.

Seeing John Doe standing in front of him, Li Guangwu was shocked. He immediately took out his gun and shot at Fang Qiu’s head.

But the next moment, he saw it clearly that when the bullet that was shot out of his gun reached John Doe’s eyes, it actually stopped directly in the air and then fell to the ground.

Seeing this, Li Guangwu trembled all over, and his eyes were full of horror and fear.

He couldn't believe that there was such a person in the world that bullet couldn't hurt him at all even though it was fired at such a close distance.

Not even the people in that world he had seen could do it!

"Who is this man?"

While Li Guangwu was so nervous that his whole body was trembling and his legs were limp, Fang Qiu asked coldly, "Were you calling Ruan Changhong just now?"

Hearing this, Li Guangwu trembled all over.

He wanted to deny it, but he found it hard for him to do so.

He suddenly felt that it's none of his business. It was all Ruan Changhong's fault.

It was Ruan Changhong that had a grudge against John Doe.

Li Guangwu realized that not only had he been used as a tool by Ruan Changhong, but also, he had become a victim because of this.

All of this had nothing to do with him. Why should he deny it to protect Ruan Changhong?

Whoever caused the trouble would have to fix it!

"Yes!"

Thinking of this, Li Guangwu admitted it decisively.

"I just heard that Ruan Changhong said that he had a master?"

Fang Qiu asked indifferently, "Where is Ruan Changhong and where does his master live?"

"I..."

Li Guangwu swallowed his saliva, and then boldly asked, "What benefit will I get if I tell you?"

"Benefit?"

Fang Qiu was a little surprised by the question. He didn't expect that in such a situation, he dared to ask for benefits.

However, to think about it carefully, this man was a lieutenant general after all, and he was also an army commander and was in charge of a military base. He must be smart.

"I'll leave immediately if you tell me."

Fang Qiu replied lightly, "However, if you dare to chase me, I will come to your military base again!"

"Really?"

Li Guangwu was delighted to hear that.

He wanted this fiend to leave as soon as possible.

Without hesitation, he immediately told Fang Qiu the addresses of Ruan Changhong and his master.

After getting the addresses, Fang Qiu pointed to the people lying on the ground and said, "Your guards are too weak."

Then he turned around and asked coldly, "Where are the fighters in your base?"

Li Guangwu was stunned and asked in surprise, "What do you want to do?"

He suddenly had a bad feeling.

"It seems that you don't want to tell me," Fang Qiu smiled and said, "Then I'll find them myself!"

...

Then Fang Qiu strode out of the command room.

At this moment, on the field outside the command room, there were people in all directions. These people had already received the alarm and were all ready to take action.

They stared at Fang Qiu with caution. Each of them held a gun in their hands. There were even several sniper teams holding powerful S-class sniper rifles!

Seeing Fang Qiu coming out of the command room, they looked pale.

They were soldiers, but they couldn't even stop the enemy from breaking into their command room and swaggering out. This was a huge shame!

However, they didn't dare to shoot because they knew that the person they were facing was too powerful.

Ordinary people could not resist him at all. Even if they all shot together, they might not be able to hurt him!

Therefore, they could only stare at Fang Qiu and block his way, waiting for their lieutenant general's order.

At this moment, the lieutenant general also came out of the command room.

Seeing the situation, he was shocked. He didn't dare to provoke this person who couldn't be killed even by a bullet.

He quickly waved his hand and let everyone get out of the way!

Fang Qiu nodded with satisfaction and smiled. Then he looked around and finally found an entrance to the underground bomb shelter.

Under everyone's gaze, he stepped in.

Li Guangwu's expression changed.

He didn't know what John Doe was going to do, but he knew that no matter what John Doe wanted to do, he couldn't stop him.

He only hoped that John Doe would leave the base quickly, or Ruan Changhong would come with his master soon!

However, hope was just hope.

Being aimed at by many guns, Fang Qiu walked into the underground shelter.

The lieutenant general also walked in anxiously with the soldiers, afraid that Fang Qiu would drive the fighter away.

"I found it."

Walking into the shelter, Fang Qiu saw a wide field, with a total of 14 fighters there.

A military base like this was usually equipped with at least 15 fighters.

It turned out that the fighter that was shot by Fang Qiu's arrow on the island belonged to this military base!

"What, what do you want to do?"

Seeing Fang Qiu walking toward the fighters, Li Guangwu asked in a panic.

"Keep watching and you'll know." Fang Qiu chuckled.

He walked to the front of the first fighter, clenched his right hand into a fist and waved it violently.

He punched on the fighter!

"Bang!"

A loud noise sounded.

The horrible energy Qi burst out from Fang Qiu's fist like a sound wave, instantly smashing the fighter into pieces.

Everyone froze with terror!

A fighter!

That was a fighter!

Even if it was hit by the missile, it could only be blown into two halves, and there would be debris left. However, John Doe's punch directly crushed it and made it look like the garbage in the trash.

How was this possible?

How could he break such hard materials into pieces with one punch?

Was his strength greater than that of a missile?

Li Guangwu was completely dumbfounded.

What he had seen before was only Fang Qiu's unpredictable body movement and how he quietly defeated his guard team. Now he finally realized that Fang Qiu was as powerful as a nuclear weapon.

He was a guy whose destructive power was comparable to a nuclear weapon!

At this moment, he finally knew how powerful this man was!

He finally knew what kind of jinx Ruan Changhong was!

"How dare you provoke this guy?"

"Bang!"

While everyone was shocked, Fang Qiu had stepped to the second fighter and punched out.

Then it was smashed into pieces.

Seeing this, Li Guangwu's heart ached even more.

These were his fighters, and each fighter had cost tens of millions or even hundreds of millions of yuan.

How could he bear that John Doe destroyed two fighters of his with just two punches like that?

"Bang!"

The third fighter broke in shatter by Fang Qiu's fist.

Fang Qiu's every punch made everyone present shocked.

Li Guangwu felt more and more distressed. When he saw that all the fighters were about to be destroyed by Fang Qiu, he really wanted to give an order immediately to let everyone fire together and kill Fang Qiu here.

However, when he saw how Fang Qiu destroyed the fighters with his fists, he didn't dare to give an order.

He could only watch as Fang Qiu destroyed the fighters one by one.

After destroying all the fighters, Fang Qiu turned his head and smiled at Li Guangwu from afar. Then, he moved his feet and immediately rose up into the air. With a swoosh, he flew out of the underground shelter and left directly.

Only then did Li Guangwu let out a sigh of relief. Under everyone's horrified gaze, he pretended to be calm and returned to the command room.

As soon as he entered the command room, he couldn't suppress the anger in his heart.

He crazily smashed things in the command room and kept cursing Ruan Changhong and Fang Qiu!

After a long time, he stopped and took out his phone to call Ruan Changhong. When he was about to dial, he suddenly stopped and thought about it carefully.

He needn't to remind Ruan Changhong!

It would be best if Ruan Changhong and Fang Qiu could fight each other!!

No matter which one of them died, it would be a good thing for him!

“Go to hell, both of you!”

However, undoubtedly, John Doe's power had cast a shadow in his heart.

This was how the martial arts practitioners of Huaxia were like.

Their strength was beyond his imagination.

From now on, a thought came to Li Guangwu's mind that he no longer dared to covet Huaxia.

Just one expert from Huaxia could destroy his military base.

This was simply too terrifying.

If Huaxia sent a few more experts like John Doe, there would be no need for them to fight.

They would have to give up!

Originally, in addition to the fact that Ruan Changhong's father was a general, he had another idea in his mind that he wanted to make friends with people from another world like Ruan Changhong.

But now it was obviously impossible for him to enter this world.

That was because the people in this world were all f*cking powerful!

A person whom he accidentally provoked might kill him.

Of course, he didn't know how many experts like Fang Qiu there were in the other world.

He let out a long sigh secretly rejoicing that he was still alive, and also began to think about how to report the matter.

Chapter 876: Im Already Here!

After leaving the military base, Fang Qiu took out the address he just got, used his phone for navigation, and flew quickly toward the place marked on the map on the phone.

At the same time in Southern Yue, there was a wooden house near the mountain and by the river. It was surrounded by birds' singing and flowers.

A young man had been kneeling outside the wooden house for a long time.

To take a closer look, one would find that the man's face was pale, and his right arm, which had just been broken, was wrapped in gauze, with scarlet bloodstains.

This man was Ruan Changhong, the top one in the younger generation of Wulin of Southern Yue!

His master lived in this wooden house.

After the first encounter with John Doe and being defeated by him, Ruan Changhong was full of jealousy and hatred for him. That was why he used all kinds of means, even including using the national heat weapons, to take revenge on John Doe. But he failed, and that kind of blow made him go crazy!

He even offered a reward of a total of 300 million dollars, which was one-third of his assets, to kill John Doe.

But when he was waiting for the news of John Doe's death with confidence at home, he received a call from Li Guangwu. It was that call that completely shocked him.

John Doe didn't die.

Under the encirclement of many top killers in the world, John Doe did not die and even came to the military base by himself!

Ruan Changhong couldn't accept it at all.

But that was the truth.

He knew that John Doe would come to him soon. He was very afraid of facing a rival he couldn't win against!

Having lost his right arm, he had lost more than half of his strength. He was no match for John Doe at all.

He didn't want to die but to take revenge, so he came here. Even if he had been kneeling on the ground for many hours, he didn't dare to hesitate, because only the person in the wooden house could save his life and help him take revenge!

Having knelt for a few hours, Ruan Changhong looked worse and worse. He was about to faint.

“Come in.”

Suddenly, a voice came from the wooden house.

It sounded like the voice of an old man, a little low but very indifferent.

When Ruan Changhong heard this, his eyes lit up as he was about to faint. Raising his head and standing up, he hurried up and pushed open the door to enter.

The moment he entered, he immediately knelt with a thud,

“Master, help!”

The moment he knelt, Ruan Changhong kowtowed toward his master.

“Help?”

In the middle of the wooden house, a thin old man in a blue cloth gown and a square hat was sitting cross-legged on a yellowish futon. He looked at Ruan Changhong with narrowed eyes and asked, “Is this why you disturbed me?”

“Master, I really need your help!”

Ruan Changhong hurriedly crawled forward and said to the old man, “My arm has been cut off. Master, you must help me, or I will die!”

“What did I tell you the last time we met?” the old man asked indifferently.

“You said that you were at a critical moment and that if you didn’t stop your closed-door training, nobody’s allowed to disturb you.”

Ruan Changhong lowered his head and said, "But Master, I really have no choice. Someone wants to kill me!"

"Humph!" the old man snorted and said, "Tell me, what's going on?"

"It's Huaxia!"

Ruan Changhong raised his head and said to the old man with a painful face, "He is a Huaxia martial arts practitioner named John Doe. It was he who hurt our people and took the Huaxia martial arts practitioners to bully us. I couldn't bear it, so I went to reason with him. But his strength was so strong that I was no match for him at all, and my arm was cut off."

"Really?"

The old man glanced at Ruan Changhong and said indifferently, "In my opinion, it was you who took people to provoke them. However, you found that your strength was not as strong as his. So you came to me and asked me to help you get revenge, right?"

"No one knows me better than my master does!"

"Well..."

Ruan Changhong's expression changed and he said awkwardly, "He killed people of our country."

"Wasn't it because you killed their people and they fought back?"

The old man suddenly widened his eyes and stared at Ruan Changhong. He said coldly, "Although I don't like Huaxia martial arts practitioners, with my understanding of them, they won't attack anyone other than the bad guys."

“Well, indeed... we attacked them first.” Seeing that he couldn’t hide it, Ruan Changhong could only nod and admit it.

“Humph!” the old man snorted, waved his hand, and said, “Since you are my disciple, I will protect you. Stay here, and we’ll talk about revenge later.”

“Master.” Ruan Changhong’s expression changed. He felt a little relieved but did not want to give up the revenge. He immediately said, “Actually, there is another very important reason for this matter!”

“Go ahead.” the old man squinted his eyes again, half asleep.

“Here’s the thing.” Ruan Changhong gritted his teeth and immediately said, “It’s all because of an island. We found a Heaven Treasure – Cyan Dragon Lock on that island!”

Hearing this, the old man trembled slightly and immediately opened his eyes. His eyes glinted brightly, but he did not interrupt Ruan Changhong.

“The one who found the Heaven Treasure is a martial arts practitioner from our Southeast Region.”

“But as that island was often occupied by Huaxia’s fishermen, in order to ensure the safety of Cyan Dragon Lock, the person who found the treasure killed all the fishermen on the island!”

“However, the smell of blood attracted some martial arts practitioners of Huaxia. After seeing the Heaven Treasure, those practitioners superficially wanted to revenge for the fishermen, but secretly wanted to fight against us for Cyan Dragon Lock. Both of us wanted to fight for it, but when we prevailed and wanted to drive all them out of the island, the man named John Doe came.”

“He not only cut off one of my arms, but also seized your Heaven Treasure!”

Ruan Changhong raised his head and said righteously, “I know that you’re at the critical moment of your breakthrough, so I didn’t dare to disturb you at first. I wanted to get the Heaven Treasure for you, but I didn’t expect that it was taken away by John Doe. Moreover, the island belongs to our Southern Yue. It doesn’t belong to Huaxia at all!”

“We were beaten for taking our own thing. Now he even came after me. Master, you must uphold justice for me!”

After the old man listened to Ruan Changhong’s story, his eyes had completely opened, and they were shining!

Heaven Treasure – Cyan Dragon Lock?

That was a super Heaven Treasure ranked 10th on the Heaven Treasure List. With it, he might cure his secret disease, make a breakthrough successfully, and prolong his life.

He had also heard that the top ten Heaven Treasures possessed amazing power.

This was exactly what he needed urgently to extend his life!

The old man instantly had a strong desire to get it.

Ruan Changhong’s words had definitely hit his weak spot.

Of course, he knew that Ruan Changhong was lying. If he really got the Heaven Treasure, he would probably swallow it. It was impossible for him to give it to him.

However, it was not bad news.

At least, he saw the hope of breaking through and prolonging life!

“Alas.” With a sigh, the old man glanced at Ruan Changhong and said, “It’s good for you to be so filial. I’ll help you get revenge.

Then he slowly stood up and stepped out of the door, saying, "Let's go!"

"Huaxia people actually dared to come to our country to provoke us. Since they are here, I won't let them leave!"

But at this moment, a cold voice suddenly came from outside the door.

"There's no need to go. I'm already here!"

The old man's eyes glittered instantly, and he was shocked!

How could he not know that someone was here?

"It seems that this man is indeed an expert! But he shouldn't have come here!"

"Swoosh!"

Ruan Changhong quickly stood up and opened the door. He respectfully let the old man walk out first and then walked to him. He didn't know when Fang Qiu arrived. "Master, it's him. He is the Huaxia martial arts practitioner who cut off my right arm and seized the Heaven Treasure, John Doe!" he said angrily.

Then Ruan Changhong stared at John Doe with a cold smile and said, "John Doe, in your Huaxia's words, you gave up a happy life for a risky one!"

Protected by his master, Ruan Changhong was no longer afraid of John Doe.

On the contrary, he was a little angry.

"How did John Doe find me? How could he know that I'm here? If it weren't for my master, I would be dead now."

After thinking about it for a while, he thought that it must be Li Guangwu who told John Doe about his whereabouts.

“F*ck, as a lieutenant general, he has no courage at all!”

Ruan Changhong cursed in his heart!

However, Fang Qiu glanced at the surrounding scenery indifferently and then said facing the river, “What a beautiful hell!”

“Nonsense!”

Ruan Changhong snorted coldly and then turned to look at the old man. He said, “Master, I’ll go and fight with him first. Please observe his strength and guide me.”

In fact, Ruan Changhong was trying out for his master and showing his filial piety toward his master.

He had no choice.

Since he broke through to eighth-class, his master had been ignoring him for some reason, so his strength had been stagnant. He had always wanted to get some beneficial advice from his master.

Therefore, it was a rare opportunity. He had to perform well.

Hearing Ruan Changhong’s words, the old man didn’t reply.

He just put on a calmer look and stood aside quietly.

“John Doe.”

Ruan Changhong took a few steps forward and stared at Fang Qiu. "You attacked me and cut off one of my arms. Now you will have to pay the price!"

"Ha-ha." Fang Qiu smiled disdainfully.

There was nothing more insulting than such a scornful reply.

Ruan Changhong's face instantly blushed with anger.

Even though he only had one arm now, he still exerted all the internal Qi in his body. With a movement of his body, he waved his left hand and rushed to Fang Qiu with a fierce punch.

Fang Qiu looked at Ruan Changhong and clenched his right fist.

"Whoosh!"

Just as Ruan Changhong was about to hit him, he suddenly threw a punch.

He didn't collide with Ruan Changhong and didn't dodge either. Before Ruan Changhong's fist could touch him, he counterattacked and directly punched Ruan Changhong in the chest at a terrifying speed.

"Bang!"

With a loud noise, Ruan Changhong was punched back and his face turned pale.

It was obvious that he was injured even more seriously.

He could feel that John Doe's strength had increased again!

He was even stronger than before when he fought with him!

“How is this possible?”

“How could he break through so quickly?”

“Yes! The Heaven Treasure! He must have eaten the Heaven Treasure!”

While feeling shocked, Ruan Changhong was also extremely angry.

“John Doe, how dare you eat the Heaven Treasure?”

He wanted to find an opportunity to snatch the Heaven Treasure back from John Doe, but John Doe had eaten it!

This made him unable to suppress the jealousy and hatred, and he attacked Fang Qiu crazily again!

Medical Master

Chapter 877: Seeming to Have Many Secrets!

“Swish!”

The sharp energy Qi came at Ruan Changhong again.

Despite his situation, he, who was overwhelmed by jealousy and hatred, charged at Fang Qiu crazily.

“Bang!” The next moment, there was another loud sound.

A burst of extremely violent energy Qi burst out from Fang Qiu's fist instantly and hit Ruan Changhong's body fiercely. In a moment, the clothes on Ruan Changhong's chest were torn into pieces, and a black and blue fist print was left on his chest.

"Puff!" Under the heavy punch, Ruan Changhong was directly sent flying. He couldn't help spitting out a mouthful of blood.

This time, Fang Qiu showed no mercy at all.

He was here to kill!

As he sent Ruan Changhong flying, Fang Qiu immediately rushed to him again and struck his neck with his palm.

"Humph!" Right at this moment, a cold snort rang out.

The old man, who had been standing by, suddenly moved. Like a gust of wind, he quietly appeared in front of Ruan Changhong and stretched out his right hand.

"Bang!" The palm collided with Fang Qiu's.

However, the next moment, the old man's arm suddenly twisted along Fang Qiu's arm like a snake, aiming a blow at Fang Qiu's chest.

"Hmm?"

Fang Qiu narrowed his eyes.

The old man's attack was so fast that Fang Qiu had no time to react. He was directly blown far away by extremely powerful Qi from the old man's palm.

“At such a young age, you are ruthless enough.” After saving Ruan Changhong, the old man stared at Fang Qiu coldly.

However, Fang Qiu frowned slightly.

Under this collision, he clearly noticed that the old man’s strength was very strong and he was close to becoming the guru, or even he was already a Half-step Guru.

No wonder Ruan Changhong dared to bend over backward. It turned out that he had such a powerful master to protect him.

“Thank you for saving my life, master.” Ruan Changhong, who had been rescued, cried out in pain.

“Shame on you!”

The old man glanced at Ruan Changhong coldly and said, “You are ignorant and incompetent. If you have learned hard from me, you wouldn’t have ended up like this.”

The words made Ruan Changhong lower his head deeply.

There was malice in his eyes.

“If you have taught me hard, maybe I would have surpassed John Doe long ago!”

“You didn’t teach me hard in case that I would surpass you!”

Fang Qiu stood up, glanced at Ruan Changhong, and said to the old man, “You’re right. He is not only ignorant and incompetent but also has poor conduct. You can expel him and save me the trouble.”

“Humph!” The old man snorted angrily and said to Fang Qiu with dissatisfaction, “How dare you intervene in our affairs?”

While speaking, he waved his right hand.

A stone on the ground suddenly shot out toward Fang Qiu fiercely.

“Swoosh!” Fang Qiu quickly moved aside and avoided the stone.

The old man looked at Fang Qiu in surprise.

He didn’t expect Fang Qiu to be able to dodge his attack.

As an expert who was infinitely close to becoming a guru, he clearly knew that the young man in front of him was of seventh-class with three opened meridians.

That was why he scolded Ruan Changhong for being ignorant and incompetent.

After all, Ruan Changhong was an eighth-class martial arts practitioner with three opened meridians, but he couldn’t even defeat Fang Qiu. It really embarrassed him!

The old man slowly walked to the door and sat down on the ground. He was not as tough as before. His tone softened a little as he said, “At my age, there is not much resentment that can’t be resolved. I won’t get involved in your younger generation’s affairs. As long as you give me the Cyan Dragon Lock, I will let you go.”

“Ah?” Upon hearing this, Ruan Changhong was anxious and said, “Master, we can’t let him go. He killed the people from our country. He is our enemy!”

“Shut up!” the old man shouted coldly and then looked at Fang Qiu, waiting for his answer.

“Since you don’t want to get involved in our business, then leave him to me.” Fang Qiu pointed at Ruan Changhong and said, “As for the Heaven Treasure, you’ve already got involved in the matter since you asked me for it. You’d better not go back on your words.”

The old man's expression suddenly changed.

It seemed that John Doe was scolding him for going back on his words.

If Zhou Xiaotian were here, he would definitely say, "There he is! Fang Qiu can depress you with words."

"Kid," the old man stared at Fang Qiu angrily and said, "Let me tell you, no one in your country dares to talk to me like this!"

"Oh, really?" Fang Qiu looked at the old man indifferently and said, "Then you should go there. I promise that you will hear people talk to you like that every day."

"Boom!" As soon as he finished speaking, the old man's Qi power burst out.

His strong Qi power shot into the sky.

It shook the surrounding sand, stones, and grass, causing them to sway and fly in all directions and causing ripples on the originally calm surface of the river.

"Kid, you just don't appreciate my kindness!"

"Today, you must give me the Heaven Treasure!"

In the face of such strong Qi power, Fang Qiu smiled and asked, "What if I say no?"

"You have no choice!" the old man snorted.

"There's nothing else to say. Let's fight!"

Fang Qiu's eyes turned cold, and the internal Qi in his body instantly surged. A burst of Qi power as strong as that of a ninth-class expert with two meridians burst out of his body.

Although it felt like Fang Qiu was a seventh-class expert with three meridians, his Qi was obviously stronger than that of a ninth-class expert with one meridian!

"His Qi power is so strong!" Feeling Fang Qiu's aura, the old man narrowed his eyes.

Only then did he understand why Fang Qiu, who was a seventh-class expert with three meridians, could defeat Ruan Changhong!

Judging from his Qi power, his capability was more than that of an eighth-class expert with three meridians.

"This young man seems to have many secrets!

"Well, the more secrets, the more I like it!"

"You're asking for a beating!" the old man immediately shouted coldly. He moved like a shadow and directly charged at Fang Qiu.

Fang Qiu was not afraid at all.

Fang Qiu also rushed to the old man with all his strength.

In an instant, the fist and palm collided!

"Boom!" With a loud sound, the two collided. The incomparably powerful energy Qi spread out in all directions from the place where they collided, forming many blasts of terrible energy Qi, which cut the nearby flowers and trees into pieces.

“What?” After this collision, the old man suddenly became suspicious.

Originally, he wanted to seriously injure Fang Qiu with one strike and let him surrender. However, he didn’t expect that Fang Qiu could actually resist his blow. Moreover, he also felt strong strength in Fang Qiu’s fist. Although the strength couldn’t compare with his, it was no worse than his.

He really couldn’t understand why Fang Qiu not only had strong Qi power but also had strong strength.

“What a powerful boy!”

The old man’s eyes became colder, and his heart became more eager. He wanted to know the secrets of this guy!

Even though Fang Qiu was powerful, the old man thought that he could suppress him in terms of strength!

The fight was continuing.

The old man didn’t give Fang Qiu any chance to react. He attacked him again and again and slapped toward Fang Qiu’s face.

“Fight!” Fang Qiu was totally excited.

This old man was a Half-step Guru. It had been a long time since Fang Qiu last felt such great pressure. Only when he fought against such a strong expert could he make great progress.

At this moment, without hesitation, Fang Qiu activated all the internal Qi in his body, exerted almost all his strength, and fought against the old man based on the experience he accumulated from countless battles “Bang! Bang! Bang!” The sounds of collision rang out one after another.

The old man moved as fast as the wind, and his attack was extremely swift and violent.

Fang Qiu tried his best to resist.

He warded off the old man's blows in a row.

It was very difficult for Fang Qiu to defend, yet the old man was not happy.

A young man of seventh-class with three opened meridians could actually ward off so many attacks from him in front of his disciple.

If people found out that he couldn't even kill a man of seventh-class with three opened meridians, they would laugh at him.

He was instantly enraged.

With his internal Qi, he struck Fang Qiu with his palm.

"Good!" Fang Qiu was not afraid at all. He immediately raised his fist to meet the attack!

"Bang!" There was an explosion.

This time, the old man's power was even stronger than before!

After all, Fang Qiu was of seventh-class with only three opened meridians, so he couldn't resist the attack anymore. He was hit by the palm and stepped back. He felt a pain in his chest, and there was a taste of pain in his mouth. Blood ceaselessly gushed out of his mouth.

Despite that, Fang Qiu laughed.

Knocking back Fang Qiu with the blow, the old man didn't continue his attack. Instead, he stopped and said to Fang Qiu indifferently, "It seems that you are also a genius. How about being my disciple?"

"I guarantee that you will become a guru within ten years!"

In fact, he was very shocked by Fang Qiu's strength during the fight.

At the same time, he could tell that Fang Qiu was very talented. Originally, he thought that his disciple Ruan Changhong was already a rare genius, but he didn't expect that Fang Qiu was even more talented.

Because of Fang Qiu's potential, he was in no hurry to kill him.

"If you don't obey my words, you will die today because you hurt my disciple!" The old man stared at Fang Qiu.

There was a threatening tone in his voice.

In fact, he had a great plan.

As long as Fang Qiu was willing to be his disciple and hadn't eaten the Cyan Dragon Lock, he would be able to have one more disciple and obtain Cyan Dragon Lock at the same time.

Although Ruan Changhong was talented, he had lost one arm and was useless now. Moreover, he had a bad character.

"Puff." Faced with the old man's threat, Fang Qiu took a deep breath and said with a smile, "Thanks to your blow, I have spat out the poison in my body."

The old man was stunned.

Obviously, he didn't understand what Fang Qiu meant.

In fact, every breakthrough was a purification for the human body. When breaking through, one's body would automatically gather the impurities to a certain part of it and slowly remove them through daily practice.

Fang Qiu didn't expect that the old man's blow just now could actually help him remove the impurities from his body in advance, which was a good thing though he was injured.

The old man seemed to have guessed something. His face suddenly clouded, and he asked directly, "Kid, are you going to do it or not?"

"Are you so sure that you can kill me?" asked Fang Qiu with a sneer.

"Stubborn!" Next to the old man, Ruan Changhong stood up, pointed at Fang Qiu, and scolded him. "My master gave you a chance, but you don't cherish it."

"Master, he's so stubborn. Just kill him! He is not one of us, so he must have bad intentions!"

Medical Master

Chapter 878: Gu Guru!

Ruan Changhong didn't expect that his master would propose taking John Doe as his disciple.

How could he not be shocked and livid?

Once he accepted John Doe as his disciple, Ruan Changhong would not be able to take revenge.

Moreover, with his broken arm, he would have a hard time in the future if his master really took John Doe as his disciple.

Therefore, he was saying those words to irritate his master!

As expected, as the old man saw that Fang Qiu actually ignored his threat and was also provoked by Ruan Changhong, his face darkened and he said to Fang Qiu, "In that case, hand over the Heaven Treasure and I will let you die painlessly!"

"Hehe..." Fang Qiu suddenly smiled and said to the old man, "Do you want the Heaven Treasure? Sorry, I've eaten it!"

Hardly had he finished his words when the old man flew into a rage.

"What? He ate it?"

The reason why he was willing to help Ruan Changhong was that he wanted to take the Heaven Treasure from the young man so that he could make a breakthrough and prolong his life. He didn't expect that the Heaven Treasure would be directly eaten by him.

"Then go to hell!" The furious old man no longer held back. He moved his body and directly launched an all-out attack on Fang Qiu.

He thought. "Since I can't have the Heaven Treasure, why should I keep you alive?"

Seeing that his master had been successfully irritated, Ruan Changhong was overjoyed. Although he felt devastated for losing the Heaven Treasure, it was worth it since he could let John Doe die.

"John Doe, meet your death today!" Ruan Changhong's lips were spread in a sly smile.

Although he couldn't beat John Doe, his master could definitely do it!

As the top expert among the younger generation in the Southeast Region, he was defeated by John Doe in public and even lost an arm. In the end, he fled in panic. This made him, who had always been so proud, felt as if he had lost everything, including his dignity.

Also, he had been hunted to his own country!

He firmly believed that his master would definitely kill Fang Qiu!

Confronted with the livid old man, Fang Qiu unleashed all his strength again and fought back with the power of a seventh-class Martial Superior with three opened meridians!

After all, this kind of opponent was too rare!

It wasn't easy to meet such a powerful opponent, so he had to grasp this opportunity. Even if he couldn't sustain the fight for a long time, he could inspire himself and help refine his internal Qi at the same time!

"Bang, bang, bang..." The sound of collision rang out instantly.

The old man launched fierce attacks while Fang Qiu responded quickly and effectively according to his moves.

Ruan Changhong stared at the battlefield.

Witnessing that Fang Qiu could exchange blows with his master, he felt astonished.

The resentment he had after being defeated by Fang Qiu finally lessened a little.

However, as time went by, Fang Qiu was still violently resisting.

Ruan Changhong's expression slowly changed.

"How is this possible? How can he be so resilient?"

John Doe actually exchanged nearly 10 moves with his master in such a fierce confrontation.

If the previous 10 moves were counted, then there would be a total of 20 moves!

How could a seventh-class Martial Superior with three opened meridians do this?

Even Ruan Changhong himself couldn't withstand his master's three all-out strikes!

On the battlefield, the old man was also surprised.

Just now, he had already injured this man, but how could this man's resistance become stronger after he was injured?

"12 moves!" The old man had been calculating the moves they exchanged.

As the number of moves increased, his expression became more and more gloomy!

"Your resistance is quite strong! However, no matter how strong it is, you must die today since you ate my Heaven Treasure!" While the old man was furious, his attack became increasingly fierce.

At last, after 15 moves, Fang Qiu could no longer resist the old man's intense attack. He was sent flying by the old man's strong strike and fell heavily to the ground.

Seeing that Fang Qiu was finally defeated, Ruan Changhong burst out laughing.

He thought to himself. "John Doe, it's time to die!"

"Whew..." As soon as Fang Qiu fell to the ground, he immediately struggled to stand up.

As he wiped the blood in the corner of his mouth, he said in a low voice with a smile, "It seems that the seventh-class Martial Superior with three meridians is still not enough. Only when I reach the eighth-class Martial Superior with one opened meridian do I dare to say that I have the strength to fight. The Half-step Guru Realm is really powerful!"

"Humph!" The old man snorted and walked toward Fang Qiu. He clenched his right fist and shouted coldly. "Boy, get ready to die!"

"Hehe!" Fang Qiu suddenly chuckled, stood up, and looked at the old man who was walking over. He then said indifferently, "Then let's see if you have the ability. Now that things have come to point, I will show you my real strength!"

A look of surprise flashed across the faces of the old man and Ruan Changhong.

"Real strength? Was John Doe still holding back his strength? Did he dare to hide his strength in front of a Half-step Guru?"

"Did he just try bluffing since he is about to die?"

"How dare him still talk big?"

Eying John Doe who got beaten up awkwardly by his master, Ruan Changhong sneered and said, "John Doe, the Huaxia people are really stubborn before they die!"

He turned to look at the old man. "Master, kill him!"

He was extremely jealous.

He was jealous that John Doe was stronger than him and that he had taken so many moves from his master.

He always wanted Fang Qiu to die!

At this point, there was no need to talk nonsense. They would be finished if he could just kill John Doe.

“Shut up!” The old man glanced at Ruan Changhong coldly and then clenched his right fist.

“Crack, crack...” A bright energy light suddenly burst out from his right fist, like a mass of lightning, flashing constantly.

As a destructive aura spread from the fist, it made people feel as if they were in hell.

The old man narrowed his eyes, and his right fist, shining with lightning, immediately charged toward Fang Qiu’s head with an extremely strong force!

He had killed many geniuses in his life, who were all geniuses that could compete with him when they grew up.

This made him become the most powerful person in Southern Yue.

But he had never killed such an outstanding genius in front of him.

Killing a genius was actually enjoyable!

Today, he was about to kill a genius who would definitely surpass him in the future!

In the face of the old man’s attack, Fang Qiu didn’t retreat or dodge.

Instead, he raised his hand gently.

“Pa!” There was a crisp sound.

When the old man's fist was about to land on him, Fang Qiu directly grabbed his fist with his palm.

As he grasped his fist, the destructive lightning on the old man's fist faded a lot.

"Hmm?" The old man's eyes widened.

His eyes were instantly brimming with shock!

What was going on?

"Hmm?" Seeing this scene, Ruan Changhong's expression changed.

He instantly widened his eyes and stared at Fang Qiu in disbelief.

Just now, John Doe barely managed to resist every move, but now he suddenly caught his fist with ease.

What was going on?

How was that possible?

In front of Fang Qiu, the old man's pupils contracted rapidly.

This move was created by himself, the most destructive punch. Even an expert at the same level might not dare to take it head-on.

But the young man in front of him actually blocked it!

"You, you..." The old man was so shocked that he could not utter a word.

“Hehe.” Fang Qiu raised his head slightly and stared at the old man with a sneer.

“Boom!” At the next moment, a terrifying aura surged out of Fang Qiu’s body like an erupting volcano. It was also like a raging fire that was about to burn down the world. It caused one’s body to tremble, carrying pressure that made one cave in instantly, which enveloped the whole place!

As the incredible pressure appeared, the old man couldn’t help trembling and his expression changed dramatically!

The old man said with shock, “Gu... Guru!”

Ruan Changhong’s whole body suddenly quaked and his expression changed greatly.

“What? Gu... Guru?”

In a flash, both of them were dumbfounded!

They couldn’t believe it in the slightest.

“This man, John Doe, is actually a guru? A guru! How old was he?”

Ruan Changhong was falling apart.

The strength that John Doe presented had completely trampled his pride again and again.

How old was John Doe?

He didn’t seem to be in his twenties with such a face and a body!

It turned out to be a guru. Even Southern Yue didn’t have one!

But what about him?

He said to himself, “Impossible. No, that’s impossible... it’s absolutely impossible. He can’t be a guru!”

The old man was stunned.

He was nearly 100 years old.

He had cultivated for his whole life, and his talent was second to none in the martial arts world of the Southeast Region. However, a few years ago, he had just reached the bottleneck of the Guru Realm, and then he began to try to break through to be a guru. In the past few years, not only did he fail to break through, but also consumed a lot of precious time in his life, so he only had a limited life left now.

But even so, it was enough for him to dominate the entire Southern Yue and the Southeast Region.

But compared with the person in front of him, he was nothing.

How old was John Doe? He was only a fifth of his age, but he had already become a guru. How was he supposed to accept this?

It was impossible for such a young guru to exist!

Especially in Southern Yue, this country didn’t have a guru for hundreds of years. He had become a legendary figure in the martial arts world of Southern Yue. He was the only super expert who could have a chance to break through to become a guru.

But this man in front of him was a guru at such a young age!

Was this the profound foundation of Huaxia?

How did he do it?

As the old man was taken aback, he quickly stopped and stepped back with a rather serious look.

On the other side, Ruan Changhong suddenly thought of a possibility. "Heaven Treasure! Yes, it must be the Heaven Treasure! John Doe had eaten the Heaven Treasure to achieve this stage!"

Thinking of this, he quickly shouted to the old man. "Master, he ate the Heaven Treasure!"

The old man froze.

He immediately thought of this possibility too.

It seemed that there was no other possibility!

Thinking of this, the old man immediately burst into laughter, stared at Fang Qiu and said, "I almost forgot this. It turns out that you're simply bluffing!"

He could basically be sure now.

John Doe must have eaten the Heaven Treasure to achieve this stage.

Thinking of this, he felt devastated.

How nice would it be if he ate that Cyan Dragon Lock?

Not only could he prolong his life, but he could also become the first super expert to break through to a guru in Southern Yue and become the legend of the martial arts world in the Southern Yue and even in the Southeast Region over hundreds of years!

He hated John Doe, but he hated his disciple even more.

If Ruan Changhong had told him earlier, the Cyan Dragon Lock would have been taken by him a long time ago. How could John get the chance?

“You’re such a young guru. If you hadn’t taken the Heaven Treasure, you must also have been promoted by other means forcibly. No matter what, your realm must be unstable at this time. It’s impossible to scare me!”

The old man laughed out of anger.

Normally, the old man could have detected that Fang Qiu’s Guru Realm was actually stable, but he had suffered so much today that he couldn’t think straight.

First, it was the Heaven Treasure. He was full of hope and then his hope was shattered.

Then, the person who was about to be destroyed by him turned out to be a guru. The realm that he had dreamed of reaching in his life was actually achieved by this young man.

How could he not be deeply stimulated?

Therefore, he rejected to accept the truth and didn’t believe it was true!

“Short-sighted!” Fang Qiu snorted.

“We’ll know if you’re stupid or not after trying one more fight.” The old man snorted with confidence.

As he finished his words, his body moved, and his fists flashed with lightning. With the extremely horrible destructive aura, he tried to attack Fang Qiu fiercely.

No matter what, he didn’t believe that a person could become a guru at such a young age.

Therefore, he felt that John Doe must be pretending, and he would definitely win the fight!

“Bang!” At the next moment, Fang Qiu snorted and met the old man with his right fist when the old man was about to reach him.

“Boom...” In an instant, the extremely violent energy Qi burst out.

A gust of terrifying internal Qi surged out of Fang Qiu’s body like a tsunami and hit the old man violently.

“Oh!” Blood gushed out of the old man’s mouth. Under Fang Qiu’s punch, the old man was directly sent flying.

Medical Master

Chapter 879: The Old Man Got Crazy!

“Hmm?” In mid-air, the old man who was sent flying gritted his teeth and immediately mobilized his internal Qi to steady his body. He didn’t want to fall too awkwardly.

In the end, he flew back to the wooden house and sat down, as if he had been sitting in front of the door and never moved.

A trace of blood flowed out of the corner of his mouth.

It seemed that he was slightly injured.

Ruan Changhong, who was watching the battle, was astounded. He widened his eyes and stared at Fang Qiu with a look of horror on his face.

“Gu... Guru... Is he a guru?”

As Ruan Changhong knew, his master was already the most powerful person he had ever seen. He never thought that there was someone more powerful than his master in this world.

No matter he was in the Southern Yue or the entire Southeast Region, his master was invincible. He was the legend that countless people acknowledged and the most powerful one in the eyes of countless martial artists!

But now, he witnessed that his master, the sacred existence of the martial arts world in the Southeast Region, was thrown away by a young man who was not even 20 years old from Huaxia.

Moreover, he only gave one blow!

“How is... How is this possible? Run! I must run!” A hint of fierceness flashed across Ruan Changhong’s face. John Doe wanted to kill him, so he had to flee. With his master fighting in front of him, it was very likely that he could escape.

Thinking of this, Ruan Changhong slowly stepped back.

“Haha, haha...” In front of the wooden house, the old man reached out to wipe the blood from the corner of his mouth, and then laughed inexplicably. Looking carefully at his eyes, they could see that his eyes were indeed filled with excitement.

The old man could feel that John Doe’s punch was not something that he had improved after eating the Heaven Treasure!

This also proved that John Doe had forcibly broken through to the Guru Realm for a period of time. Obviously, it was because of the forcible breakthrough that John Doe had been hiding his strength and did not dare to fight with all his strength.

Originally, this was bad news for the old man.

After all, even if John Doe forcibly broke through, the sooner he broke through, the stronger he would be. Therefore, it would be harder to fight with him.

However, compared with this bad news, another message greatly excited the old man!

Since Fang Qiu had broken through to the Guru Realm before taking the Heaven Treasure, it meant that Fang Qiu must know the way to break through to the Guru Realm!

The reason why he wanted to break through and become a guru was that he was eager to prolong his life.

“Good, good... Haha.” While laughing excitedly, the old man slammed his hands on the ground, and his whole body immediately rose into the air. Like a sword-shaped light, he tried to attack Fang Qiu fiercely again.

He wanted to make every effort to defeat John Doe.

He wanted to know how John Doe forcibly broke through to the Guru Realm. He could barely wait to become a guru.

At this moment, he was already in a state of madness because he didn’t get much time to live!

“Pa, pa, pa...” In an instant, he rushed to the front of Fang Qiu. The old man attacked wildly with great excitement and fought with Fang Qiu fearlessly.

“Humph!” Fang Qiu snorted. He also noticed that the old man’s physical condition and his unusual state at the moment.

When he was confronted with Fang Qiu’s power, everything he wanted was simply wishful thinking.

After blocking the old man’s crazy strikes, Fang Qiu clenched his right fist again and punched out violently, colliding with the old man’s fist.

“Bang!” A huge blow sounded.

The old man was thrown back by Fang Qiu again.

After he struck the old man, Fang Qiu turned his head and glanced at the front of the wooden house, only to find that Ruan Changhong had run far away.

“Your disciple ran away,” said Fang Qiu to the old man.

“Humph!” The old man snorted at Ruan Changhong who ran away and then said cheerfully, “I don’t care about that loser. It’ll be fine as long as you don’t run away!”

Fang Qiu shook his head and said, “My target isn’t you. Get out of the way. I can spare your life. You’re insane!”

“Haha.” As if he had heard a great joke, the old man laughed out loud. He said, “Get out of the way? It took me a lot of effort to catch this glimmer of hope. Do you think I will let you go? I’m not crazy. I want to live a long life.”

He had already detected that if he didn’t reach the Guru Realm, he might not survive this year.

This sense of crisis made him extremely anxious. It was because of this that he had been in seclusion here for several years. His purpose was to make use of the last few years of his life to break through and become a guru. However, it was almost the end of his life, but he still could not do it!

He was anxious. He was also afraid of death because he was only human!

Now, through John Doe, he saw the hope of becoming a guru and continuing to live.

He had no chance to get the Heaven Treasure now.

Then he had to cling to this glimmer of hope in front of him.

Therefore, he would never let Fang Qiu go no matter what he had to do!

He was crazy about prolonging his life. There was nothing wrong with that.

“Kid, you have broken through to be a guru at such a young age. No matter who you are, you must be staggering in this realm. So today, you must die and I’ll live!”

“Humph!” Fang Qiu snorted and ignored him.

His target was Ruan Changhong!

“Swoosh.” Fang Qiu made a move, ignored the old man, and directly chased after Ruan Changhong.

“Don’t even think about leaving!” At this moment, the old man immediately rushed to Fang Qiu and stopped him without hesitation.

Fang Qiu made a counter-attack and continued to chase in the direction of Ruan Changhong’s escape.

However, the old man came again.

Again and again, the old man crazily stopped Fang Qiu!

With the old man’s hindrance, Ruan Changhong ran further and further, and Fang Qiu was temporarily stopped.

“Hiss...” Confronted with the continuous block of the old man, Fang Qiu narrowed his eyes, took a deep breath, and said with a sigh, “Since you want to die, don’t blame me for being ruthless!”

The moment he finished his words, the old man came to strike him again!

It made Fang Qiu furious.

He gave him a chance, but this old man did not listen to him at all.

“Get lost!” Seeing that the old man was about to attack him, Fang Qiu clenched his right hand. In an instant, all the internal Qi in his body gathered on his right arm. Not only did it envelop his fist, but his whole arm was also covered with a dazzling silver light as if flesh and blood had transformed into a body made of steel.

With tremendous force, he punched the old man as he got close to him.

“Bang!” The loud noise of the collision sounded.

As their fists collided, the old man trembled and was once again sent flying far away. While flying backward, he opened his mouth and spat out blood.

“Crack!” His body that was blown away fell on the wooden house like a cannonball. The massive force directly overturned the entire wooden house.

The old man also fell into the pieces of the wooden house!

“Puff...” No sooner had he landed than he spurted another mouthful of blood.

He merely took two moves!

When he took the first blow, he got minor injuries.

When he took the second blow, he was seriously injured and vomited blood, close to death.

Maybe he was frightened by Fang Qiu's invincible posture, or he felt a real pain from his body. Maybe it was because of the strong smell of blood in his mouth. The old man finally regained his composure.

Looking at Fang Qiu, he was scared!

At this moment, he realized that his previous speculation might be wrong!

It was impossible for a person who had forcibly broken through to the Guru Realm to have such a solid foundation, and it was also impossible for him to show such terrifying combat capability.

John Doe was obviously a guru with a solid foundation!

"Why? How is this possible?" The old man was dumbfounded.

A guru who broke through by force would definitely have flaws and he couldn't be more powerful than him.

If that was not the case, it could only mean that the young man who was less than 20 years old broke through to become a guru by himself, not by force.

Thinking of this, the old man was even more astonished.

It was impossible that there was such a person in this world a guru who was less than 20 years old.

Not to mention this era, even in ancient times, when martial arts were popular, it was impossible to cultivate such a person!

He was not a genius.

This man was simply a monster!

If the old man knew that Fang Qiu was only 18 years old and that he had recultivated to stage of the seventh-class Martial Superior with three opened meridians while he was a guru, he would probably be scared to death!

Fang Qiu walked toward the old man.

As far as he was concerned, this old man was not a good person. First of all, the disciple he taught was an evil man. Secondly, the old man wanted to kill him, so he was not a good man, either.

Even if this kind of man lived, he could only bring disaster to Wulin!

Especially for a person whose life was in danger, he wanted to save his life so much. He would use any wicked means to save his life even if there was a faint glimmer of hope.

With his ability, he would cause trouble as long as he was alive.

Therefore, Fang Qiu didn't intend to let him go.

As the old man was taken aback, he gritted his teeth and stood up in fear.

Facing a real guru, he knew that he couldn't get the secret of being a guru that he yearned for.

But he also had to fight with all his might!

He couldn't give up yet!

"Ah!" He raised his head and roared.

It was hard to imagine that his thin body could burst out with such powerful power.

“Hmm?” Fang Qiu stopped.

Looking at the old man who roared at the sky, Fang Qiu suddenly frowned.

He could feel that the old man’s momentum was getting stronger and stronger, and he was approaching the Guru Realm little by little!

“The burst of potential?” Fang Qiu thought to himself.

After exchanging so many moves with the old man, Fang Qiu certainly knew what his limit was. But now, while he was roaring, the old man’s momentum obviously surpassed what he was before.

Fang Qiu didn’t expect it either.

The old man could actually develop his potential before he died!

His strength rose to another level in the suppression. If he needed 100 points to become a guru, he had earned 90 points earlier and now he had 99 points!

He was only 1 point away.

It was also the most crucial point for him to break through and become a guru!

This sudden sense of breakthrough made the old man extremely excited as if the wounds on his body had been completely healed. Also, he even felt that he was as powerful as John Doe.

The secret of being a guru was right in front of him!

“Go to hell!” The old man narrowed his eyes.

He knew that it was the easiest way to grow in a battle. His strength, which he hadn't broken through in the past few years, was about to break through under the pressure of the Guru Realm when he was in the battle with John Doe. He wanted to continue fighting and get the last point to become a real guru, so he wouldn't care too much. He swung his fist again and struck Fang Qiu with all his strength.

"What a pity." Fang Qiu shook his head.

Even if there was only 1 point left, the old man still could not resist a guru.

That final step was also the most crucial part. It was a gift, which people couldn't gain by hard work!

When the old man was about to attack him, Fang Qiu's right arm was once again wrapped in the silver light of his internal Qi.

As he threw a punch, the old man was sent flying again.

He failed to resist it completely.

"Poof..." He spat out a mouthful of blood.

The old man's face instantly turned ashen.

If he still had confidence in the last move just now, his confidence completely disappeared now.

The strength of a guru was not something he could compete with!

He immediately turned around and tried to escape.

He was afraid because he couldn't do it no matter what he did.

He was only one step away.

As long as he was alive, there was still a chance.

If he died here, everything would be done!

But Fang Qiu didn't give him a chance to escape.

While the old man was running away, his right fist wrapped with internal Qi directly punched the old man's back!

One punch went straight through his body.

"Oh..." The old man who had no time to escape felt dizzy. He turned to look at Fang Qiu, and blood gushed out of his mouth like a fountain.

Although he couldn't say anything, the old man roared in his heart.

"Guru... How could he become a guru at such a young age?" The old man fell down with his eyes wide open.

He would not rest in peace even though he was dead!

Chapter 880: The Secret of Guru Makes People Crazy!

"Being a guru is like crossing a chasm. Some people can manage to do it naturally while some can't cross it in their whole lives."

Fang Qiu shook his head, looked at the old man lying in front of him, and said in a low voice, "It's the most painful thing to be stubborn! Sometimes, you can be reborn if you let it go, but who can do that? Alas!"

As for Fang Qiu, the old man was the most powerful person he had ever met, and he was only a step away from becoming a guru.

Even in Huaxia, this kind of strength could intimidate people in a region!

It was a pity. Becoming a guru was not the only approach to acquire all the beautiful and happy things in the world. Unfortunately, some people in the martial arts world failed to understand it.

He sighed lightly.

Fang Qiu flashed and immediately chased in the direction of Ruan Changhong's escape.

This man was the cause of this matter!

Although Ruan Changhong's running speed was fast, Fang Qiu was even faster in pursuit.

While he was chasing, Fang Qiu directly unleashed his Divine Consciousness to investigate the situation within 20 kilometers.

In an instant, he detected Ruan Changhong's energy aura 20 kilometers away in an endless mountain range, so he immediately chased after him.

Under the detection of his Divine Consciousness, Fang Qiu could clearly see that Ruan Changhong was running toward the depths of the mountain range.

When he caught up, Ruan Changhong just arrived at the mountainside of a high mountain.

“Where are you going?” Suddenly, Fang Qiu’s voice sounded.

Ruan Changhong’s expression changed, and he immediately turned around.

John Doe had already caught up with him. He was flying in the air, looking down at him!

Ruan Changhong’s legs went limp as he saw that.

When he left, he clearly felt the excitement and madness of his master as if he would never stop until he defeated John Doe!

But now John Doe caught up with him.

What did this mean?

Did it mean that his master had been defeated or even dead?

Thinking of this, Ruan Changhong couldn’t help but feel even more terrified!

Without hesitation, he turned around and ran away.

He ran all the way down the mountain.

Fang Qiu followed closely behind.

As he saw John Doe getting closer and closer to him, the fear in Ruan Changhong’s heart was gradually amplified.

He madly sped up, trying to stay far away from Fang Qiu.

When he ran to the foot of the mountain and saw the huge valley in front of him, the panic on his face suddenly eased a lot and he continued to rush into the valley.

When Ruan Changhong arrived in the valley, he suddenly stopped, turned his head, and sneered at Fang Qiu who had landed on the ground.

“Whistle...” Just as Fang Qiu chased into the valley, Ruan Changhong instantly whistled.

As the whistle sounded, a group of people immediately came out from all directions in the woods around the valley. All of them walked to Ruan Changhong with grim expressions, staring coldly at Fang Qiu who was standing at the entrance of the valley.

“Hmm?” Looking at these people, Fang Qiu let out a cry of surprise.

Then, he took a careful look and found that none of them was lower than the sixth class. This was simply a team of Martial Superiors.

In the middle of the valley, Ruan Changhong, who had people backing him up, was no longer as panicked as before. Instead, he looked at Fang Qiu smugly.

In fact, this was his backup plan!

However, this was not really a backup plan. He knew his master’s situation, so when he decided to turn to his master for help at the beginning, he thought about what he should do if his master did not agree to help.

That was why he contacted these people in advance and asked them to ambush here. If his master didn’t help him, he would lure John Doe here.

He just had never expected John Doe to be so powerful.

Not only was John Doe more powerful than he had expected, but he also defeated his master!

This additional preparation had actually become a means of saving his life.

Looking at Fang Qiu, Ruan Changhong said coldly, "John Doe! If you leave now, I can let bygones be bygones. I can pretend that nothing has happened, and we will never have anything to do with each other from now on!"

Although his tone was cold, Ruan Changhong was obviously afraid judged by his words.

He didn't have the courage to be the mortal enemy of a man who had defeated his master.

Facing a guru-level expert, people would certainly be intimidated.

Fang Qiu said with a sneer, "Have nothing to do with each other? Sure. Just let these killers kill you! Then I'll drop it."

Ruan Changhong's face changed. He roared while being anxious, "You! John Doe, don't be so shameless. Do you think you're so powerful just because you're a guru?"

"A guru?" The crowd was shocked and a hint of horror flashed across their eyes.

All of them looked at John Doe in complete shock.

"Guru?"

"This man turned out to be a guru?"

"No way, he's too young. How can he be a guru?"

“Ruo Changhong, did you say that he was a guru? You’re not lying to us, are you?”

They could no longer remain aloof and asked Ruan Changhong.

Ruan Changhong took a deep breath and nodded with certainty. “That’s right. He is indeed a guru, and he fought with my master just now. There is only one possibility since he catches up with me!”

Everyone was even more shocked.

They all knew Ruan Changhong’s master.

He was the top expert in the martial arts world of Southern Yue and the legend in Wulin of the Southeast Region!

Was he defeated?

Moreover, he was defeated by this young man from Huaxia.

Ruan Changhong said loudly, “Guys, you need to think it through. If this person lives, he will definitely be a threat to Southern Yue. We can’t leave him alive!”

Hearing this, everyone couldn’t help but ponder and hesitate.

Looking at everyone who was lost in thought, Fang Qiu shook his head indifferently and said to the people around Ruan Changhong, “This is between me and him. I don’t want to get others involved. You guys can leave.”

Everyone really wanted to leave as they heard that.

After all, the legendary guru was terrifying.

Although each of them had great strength, compared with a guru, they were nothing. Even if there were more than 20 people, they might not be a match for a guru.

There was no need to get involved in this mess, which had nothing to do with themselves.

For a moment, everyone wanted to leave.

Seeing that they wanted to leave, Ruan Changhong was flustered. If this group of people left, he would be dead.

Therefore, he shouted loudly, “John Doe, are you afraid? Don’t be scared by him!”

Looking at the people around him, Ruan Changhong shouted. “He had a big fight with my master just now. Even if he really defeated my master, he might be injured himself. You know my master’s power. Even if he won, he must be seriously injured! So, this is the best time to kill him!”

As people heard this, they thought that he was right.

Everyone knew how powerful Ruan Changhong’s master was.

They believed that his master was invincible when encountering anyone below the guru level. Even if he fought with a guru with average strength, he would definitely be able to compete, let alone this young guru in front of them. It was impossible for this young man not to be injured!

But the problem was that they didn’t seem to gain any benefits if they attacked John Doe.

There was no benefit at all. Instead, they would end up putting themselves in danger, which was not worth it at all!

Noticing that everyone was still hesitating, Ruan Changhong knew that his powers of persuasion were not enough.

He immediately added, "Don't hesitate, everyone. If we let him go this time, there won't be such a rare opportunity next time. We are all people in the martial arts world. Don't you want to know how he became a guru?"

Everyone was stunned. "Become a guru?"

Ruan Changhong continued, "He is seriously injured now. As long as we catch him and force him to tell us how to become a guru, it's just a matter of time before we become a guru!"

As they heard that, everyone's eyes lit up.

That was true.

The purpose of everyone's cultivation was to gain powerful strength.

Being a guru was everyone's dream, even the dream of the entire martial arts world in Southern Yue for hundreds of years!

With such a great opportunity to become a guru, how could they not seize it?

For a moment, all the eyes fixed on Fang Qiu were shining with excitement. They were ready to make a move.

Observing these people's expressions, Fang Qiu figured what they were thinking and soon shook his head helplessly.

He wanted to let go of these innocent people, but these people were unwilling to let him do that!

Fang Qiu shook his head and sighed. "The pursuit of self-interest may draw people in, so it can wedge them apart. People die for money while birds die for food. That's true."

“Let’s go together and catch him now!” Ruan Changhong shouted.

In order to become a guru, these people completely lost their minds.

All of them swarmed up and burst out powerful momentum, rushing toward Fang Qiu!

The one at the forefront was a seventh-class Martial Superior with three opened meridians.

“Bang!” Just as he was about to punch Fang Qiu with unstoppable momentum, Fang Qiu punched with his right hand.

A gust of huge power burst out and directly sent him flying.

All the people who had rushed to him were so scared that they stopped abruptly. They stared at Fang Qiu with shock in their eyes!

With only one punch, he threw away a seventh-class Martial Superior with three opened meridians, who didn’t even have a chance to react. It was simply terrifying.

Looking at this group of people, Fang Qiu pointed to Ruan Changhong and said, “Last warning. This is between him and me. You’d better not get involved in this. I don’t want to hurt innocent people!”

These people, who had been hesitating, did not falter when they heard this.

They were all blinded by the secret of being a guru and confined in this thought.

The more he persuaded them to leave, the more they felt that John Doe must be injured and that he must be seriously injured.

Otherwise, why would a guru be so indecisive and persuade them continuously?

A warrior shouted. "He's scared!"

"Yes, he's scared."

"He must have been seriously injured, and that move must have taken him a lot of effort."

"Let's go together!"

As several people were shouting, more than 20 people suddenly burst out again and attacked Fang Qiu.

"In that case, don't blame me for being cruel!" Seeing that these people were still stubborn, Fang Qiu was speechless and took out the broken swords he brought from the island.

"I want to see how strong this move is after the enlightenment!"

When everyone was charging to him, he immediately mobilized all the internal Qi in his body and poured it into the broken sword.

Meanwhile, the Qi of Heaven and Earth violently gathered from all directions and condensed on the sword.

Then, he waved his right hand.

"Space-splitting Sea-cracking Sword!" The vast Qi of Heaven and Earth filled the broken sword and cast it into a long silver sword.

With a wave of his hand, a gust of silver Sword Qi which was shaped like a half-moon burst out in an instant like a tide in a tsunami, rushing toward over 20 people who were coming at him.

“Clang!” At the next moment, the thump of the sword rang out.

The sword Qi swept over them.

Everyone froze in front of Fang Qiu. The remaining Sword Qi in the air suddenly surged and swept up. Before these people had time to react, their clothes were tattered in unison, and their skin seemed to have been cut by an incomparably powerful strike. Blood was oozing out.
