Chapter 931: A Roar of a Tiger!

In the film industry, everyone had a unique aura. When a new actor met an experienced one, he would easily feel a strong aura from the latter and it would make him uncontrollably nervous.

Generally, a new actor wouldn't be able to perform as well as usual when faced with an experienced actor.

Thus, everyone was waiting to see how well Fang Qiu could perform and if he would be outshone by the experienced actor, though he performed quite well in the second scene.

To them, it was okay that Fang Qiu was outshone by the experienced actor, but they would be disappointed if Fang Qiu performed too worse.

Naturally, Chen Xiaogang was worried about Fang Qiu's performance as well. He was afraid that Fang Qiu couldn't speak his lines well.

However, after thinking that the shooting went on well that day and they had completed the shooting of the first two scenes in a short time, he was relieved.

"Get ready! The third scene starts," he said after a simple rest.

"The third scene: Yang Yizhi argued with Zhu Yuanzhang in anger! Action!"

As the script supervisor closed the clapperboard, the shooting of the third scene started.

On the screen.

Yang Yizhi killed eighteen killers and returned to the thatched cottage with blood all over his body.

However, when he opened the door and entered the room, he found that there was nobody in the room and the window was left open.

Obviously, that businessman had left!

Staring at the empty room, Yang Yizhi was bursting with anger, and his eyes turned icy.

He had put his life on the line to save that businessman, but that man left him behind and ran away alone.

Fang Qiu was completely immersed in playing the role.

Seeing that Fang Qiu was bursting with emotions through the monitor, Chen Xiaogang clenched his fists tightly.

“Well done!” He secretly cheered for Fang Qiu.

He didn’t expect that Fang Qiu could handle this subtle emotion so well.

On the screen, furious, Fang Qiu immediately left the room and went to chase Zhu Yuanzhang.

Then, Fang Qiu’s solo part was completed.

The following part would involve both him and the experienced actor.

Everyone’s attention was focused on him.

Soon, Yang Yizhi reached the back mountain, and there, he found Zhu Yuanzhang, who was hiding in the grass.

Thinking that the killers had caught up with him and were looking for him, Zhu Yuanzhang held his breath nervously and didn't even dare to open his eyes, hoping that he could survive.

However, he heard footsteps approaching him and stopping beside him.

He opened his eyes in despair, only to see Yang Yizhi, who was covered in blood.

He was shocked at first, and when he saw Yang Yizhi's face, he froze.

He quickly stood up and felt relaxed in an instant.

He thought he was safe.

However, the next second, he saw an icy and even hostile look in Yang Yizhi's eyes.

"Haha."

Zhu Yuanzhang guffawed and quickly cupped his fists at Yang Yizhi, saying, "You're young yet a hero. It seems that you have killed those bandits for me. How should I express my gratitude?"

He then added, "How about going with me and joining my business? We'll make a fortune."

Upon hearing those words, Yang Yizhi shouted at him angrily. "Zhu Yuanzhang! You're about to become the emperor of this country! Don't you think it was shameless for you to trick a 16-year-old boy?"

Hearing this, Chen Xiaogang, who was watching the monitor, immediately stoop up.

“Good. The emotions in the tone were accurate.”

Chen Xiaogang became excited.

He was surprised to see that Fang Qiu wasn't outshone by the experienced actor, and instead, he played the role perfectly.

As a new actor, he was really amazing!

On the screen, Zhu Yuanzhang was startled by Fang Qiu's words and took a step back. He reached for the saber that was hidden by his waist and stared at Yang Yizhi, saying, “Did you mistake me as someone else?”

“No.”

Yang Yizhi sneered and replied, “When you broke into the city, I saw you from afar. If I hadn't recognized you just now, you would already be dead. I wouldn't have helped you without knowing who you are.”

The expressions of Li Baoguo, the performer of the role Zhu Yuanzhang, kept changing as he listened to Fang Qiu.

Fang Qiu showed no fear.

He said in a tone of disappointment, “People always say that you're a hero, but now, I can tell they are wrong. You can go now, and I won't see you off!”

He snorted in disappointment and turned to leave.

Zhu Yuanzhang looked hesitant and his expression became even more complicated.

Soon, the scene was finished.

Chen Xiaogang was finally relieved.

Everyone present applauded again.

“Not bad! Fang Qiu knows how to perform!”

“Well, he not only knows how to perform but also performed much better than those handsome idols.”

“He is awesome! He wasn’t outshone by Li Baoguo; instead, he performed so great and steadily. He is really awesome!”

Chen Xiaogang was no longer worried.

He believed that Fang Qiu would perform well in the following scenes, judging by his previous performance.

“Guys, let’s work harder to make a great movie for the people of our country and even the whole world,” Chen Xiaogang said excitedly.

Everyone present was excited and in high spirits.

“You performed well.”

He Gaoming walked to Fang Qiu after the third scene and said with a smile, “But not as well as me. And your role is just a nobody, while my role is an emperor. Do you envy me?”

Hearing that, all the people present were speechless and thought that He Gaoming was being funny.

At this moment, Chen Xiaogang suddenly felt a little doleful.

“This... is hard to handle.”

Looking at the scenes that had already been shot, Zhao Xiaogang smiled bitterly and thought, “A movie is only about 120 minutes long. The shooting has just started today, and scenes about seven or eight minutes long have been finished. We shot too fast, and this makes me feel worried.”

Zhao Rulong saw through Chen Xiaogang’s mind.

Immediately, he stepped forward and patted Chen Xiaogang on the shoulder. “Our actors are all professional martial arts practitioners. It is natural we could shoot so quickly. Most importantly, they all performed well, so we could work so fast.”

Chen Xiaogang’s eyes lit up and he immediately became excited, saying, “If we continue to shoot at this speed, the movie might be released during the summer vacation!”

Summer vacation was also the Domestic Movie Protection Month, which was a prime time for movies.

“That’s the best.”

Zhao Rulong laughed and said, “In any case, we have to strive for it. Maybe the ticket sales of this movie will break the record.”

“Haha,” Chen Xiaogang laughed loudly and said, “I hope so.”

The purpose of making a movie was to make money.

Both Chen Xiaogang and Zhao Rulong certainly had high expectations for the ticket sales of the movie.

Despite that, what they needed to do most was to guarantee the quality of the movie!

He continued to shoot the scenes involving Fang Qiu and Li Baoguo.

It was about how Zhu Yuanzhang returned and begged Yang Yizhi to protect him and escort him to the campground.

After those scenes were finished, all the actors were resting.

Because the shooting of this part was finished, all the crew would have to go to Jiangnan for the shooting of the next part.

On the way there, Fang Qiu seized every minute to practice, not daring to waste even a second.

While other crew members were heading to Jiangnan by train, Fang Qiu applied to go back to school. After all, there was still some time before the whole crew could arrive in Jiangnan and the school had already started, so Fang Qiu had to go back and show up.

As soon as he arrived at the school, Fang Qiu went straight to Chen Yinsheng, the principal, to apply to take the exit exam of the semester again.

Certainly, Chen Yinsheng agreed.

Fang Qiu's teachers were already used to it, so they didn't think there was anything wrong with it.

What surprised Fang Qiu most was that the teachers had already prepared the test papers for him since they had long been used to it.

Fang Qiu walked out of Chen Yinsheng's office.

After that, he went straight into the examination room prepared by the teachers and took the exit exam directly.

This time, Fang Qiu got an A in each subject just like he did in previous years.

After the exam, Fang Qiu left the school at once. Looking at Fang Qiu's exam papers in the school, his teachers couldn't help sighing with emotion.

After leaving school, Fang Qiu took a plane to meet the crew members.

Before he asked for leave, he already knew that the crew was heading to Shiqiu Film and Television Base, so he went straight there by air.

The other crew members also arrived at the Shiqiu Film and Television Base that night.

After all the crew members, as well as the big trucks that carried the instruments, arrived, they had a meal together.

In the evening, the actors were talking about the following plot of the movie and practicing their lines, while others were preparing for the shooting of the following part.

“Roar!”

Suddenly, a tiger's roar rang out.

The ordinary crew members didn't feel anything strange, but when those people of Wulin heard it, they all stood up at the same time.

They could clearly feel that the roar was unusual!

They thought that the roar probably came from a guardian beast.

Their expressions changed slightly, and they looked at each other as if they were hiding something.

In their opinion, this unusual tiger roar probably indicated the existence of Heaven and Earth Treasures around. After all, guardian beasts would only appear where there were Heaven and Earth Treasures.

Fang Qiu remained calm and collected in the crowd.

He pretended to be confused when everyone suddenly stood up.

He Gaoming looked more serious than anyone else. After standing up, he immediately took out his mobile phone, opened the map, and checked the surrounding mountains on the map.

“Crouching Tiger Mountain?”

Seeing the name, He Gaoming immediately frowned.

“What’s going on?”

Chen Xiaogang cast a puzzled look at them. He did not understand why they suddenly became so vigilant!

Chapter 932: The Reappearance of the Heaven Treasure!

“What’s wrong?”

Looking at the group of people led by He Gaoming who suddenly stood up, Chen Xiaogang asked in confusion, “What’s the matter?”

Fang Qiu and Zhao Rulong also stood up.

“What’s going on?”

Zhao Rulong also asked in confusion, “Why are you all looking so serious? What happened?”

“Are you alright?”

Fang Qiu pretended that he didn’t know what was going on.

“I’m fine.”

He Gaoming smoothened his brows and suddenly laughed, saying, “Didn’t you hear the tiger’s roar?”

“Yes, I heard it.”

Chen Xiaogang nodded his head and said, “There is a mountain named Crouching Tiger Mountain near this base. It is surrounded by mountains. It is said that in order to prevent people from going up the mountain to set fire, the forest guardians would often play the record of the tiger’s roars at night. Thus, the local people are used to it.”

“I see.”

He Gaoming scratched his head in embarrassment and said, “We overreacted as it’s our first time here.”

As soon as he said that, everyone laughed and sat down again.

“Will there be any danger?” asked He Gaoming again.

“You martial arts practitioners are afraid of tigers?”

Zhao Rulong glanced at He Gaoming in surprise and then said, "Even if there are wild tigers in the mountains, we'll be safe as they are still far away from here."

"I can put down an ordinary small tiger with one finger," said He Gaoming proudly.

Everyone knew that he was going to brag.

But the next second, He Gaoming frowned and tried hard to recall the roar he heard just now.

The more he thought about it, the more he felt that something was wrong.

He quickly took out his mobile phone and used navigation to check the distance between Crouching Tiger Mountain and the place where they were, like a detective.

The distance was about ten kilometers.

How could the voice of an ordinary tiger reach so far?

"No, I have to go there and have a look."

He Gaoming waved his hand and shouted to everyone present. "Let's go to check whether there is a tiger or not."

The group of people stood up and walked out together.

"Are you really going there?"

Chen Xiaogang looked quite confused.

“We are experts, so we’ll be fine. We’re going there to have a look and we can clear the hidden danger for you,” He Gaoming said with a smile.

Chen Xiaogang and Zhao Rulong exchanged a glance and could not help but smile wryly after hearing that.

“They must have nothing better to do. I’ve told them that it was a sound recording.” they thought.

He Gaoming had already driven to Crouching Tiger Mountain with his fellows.

“Don’t do anything stupid.”

Seeing that he was unable to stop them, Chen Xiaogang gave a wry smile and warned them.

Soon, the group of people drove to Crouching Tiger Mountain.

“Roar!!”

Just as they arrived at the foot of Crouching Tiger Mountain, an earth-shattering roar came again, ringing in the ears of He Gaoming and the others.

Everyone’s face froze.

“It seems to be a real tiger, not a sound recording at all!” He Gaoming said solemnly.

The group of people got out of the cars and Li Boqing, who was standing beside He Gaoming, said with a frown, “Sounds like this tiger is not an ordinary one.”

“Let’s go up and have a look first.” He Gaoming pursed his lips at the top of the mountain.

The group of people immediately went up the mountain.

Halfway up the mountain, they saw a huge black shadow.

They took a closer look and found that it was a huge tiger standing at the top of the mountain.

The tiger was as large as an elephant!

This scene frightened everyone.

Even though they were not weak, they felt terrified out of their instinct and were at a disadvantage when they were faced with a fierce beast like a tiger.

“What should we do now?”

Li Boqing asked in a low voice, “Should we continue to go up the mountain?”

“This is a guardian beast.”

He Gaoming looked at the big tiger with shining eyes and said, “Since there is a guardian beast, there must be some Heaven and Earth Treasures. Let’s go up the mountain and have a try first. It’s best if we can handle it on our own. If we fail, I’ll call my master!”

“Okay.”

Upon hearing this, the group of people immediately became excited and were eager to go up the mountain, ready to take action.

“Li Boqing, go up the mountain with a team of men first and test the strength of this guardian beast. Let’s see if we can put it down!” He Gaoming ordered.

Li Boqing didn't hesitate at all.

He immediately rushed forward with a team of men and charged at the giant tiger without saying a word.

He Gaoming and the others followed closely behind.

"As we have expected!"

While Li Boqing and his men were fighting against the giant tiger, He Gaoming and the others were attracted by a stone behind the giant tiger on the top of the mountain.

It was an oval-shaped, green stone that one could encircle with both arms.

Taking a closer look, they found that there were some extremely fine, silky purple vines on the surface of the green stone. These vines were as thin as ordinary needles.

The stone was covered by the vines.

After observing the stone carefully, they saw a thumb-sized purple crystal at the center where those purple vines intersected.

This crystal was octagonal and extremely beautiful, and it was purple all over.

"Heaven Treasure! It's a Heaven Treasure!"

He Gaoming became excited.

He could feel the strong Qi of Heaven and Earth in the surrounding air. Although he had never seen such a stone before, he was sure that it was a Heaven Treasure because it was impossible for an Earth Treasure to emit such strong Qi of Heaven and Earth!

The others also became excited.

Heaven Treasure! It was a real Heaven Treasure!

They were all martial arts practitioners.

They all knew very well how lucky it was to meet a Heaven Treasure. Some people couldn't even find an Earth Treasure in their lifetime, let alone a Heaven Treasure!

Now, a Heaven Treasure really appeared in front of them. How could they not be excited?

"Bang, bang, bang..."

Just when everyone became extremely excited, the sounds of a violent collision were heard.

They saw that the purple vines on the stone began to shine with red light, and the giant tiger became furious. Li Boqing, who was originally a fifth-class expert, and his men managed to fight neck and neck against the tiger, but when the tiger became furious, its momentum suddenly soared. Its roars resounded through the place as it sent Li Boqing and his men flying with a few punches.

"Are you alright?"

He Gaoming quickly led other people to protect Li Boqing and his men.

Fortunately, no one was injured.

"This tiger is very strong!"

Li Boqing took a deep breath and said, "We are no match for it. If we annoy it, I'm afraid we will suffer a lot."

"Roar!"

At this moment, the giant tiger roared again!

It looked at the people around with an aggressive look in its big eyes, preparing to pounce on them!

"Retreat!"

He Gaoming immediately shouted.

Everyone retreated one after another.

They didn't stop for a rest until they were halfway down the mountain.

The tiger had been on the top of the mountain all the time and did not chase after them. After all, the Heaven Treasure was there.

"Let's take a break here first and keep an eye on the mountain. The tiger roars were a bit loud, so they might have attracted other experts' attention. We have to keep a close eye on it, and we can't let our guard down."

He Gaoming looked at the top of the mountain and said, "I'll call my master!"

After that, he immediately took out his mobile phone, walked aside, and dialed John Doe's number.

However, he couldn't get through!

He was anxious and dialed the number again and again.

Fang Qiu felt the phone vibrating in his trouser pocket. He took it out and found that He Gaoming had called him several times.

"Excuse me, I have to make a phone call." Fang Qiu held his mobile phone and walked to a remote corner with a smile. After making sure that no one was around, he immediately dialed He Gaoming's number.

"Hey, master, I've finally got through."

He Gaoming's anxious voice came from the other end of the line.

"What's wrong?" Fang Qiu asked in John Doe's voice and tone.

"I found a Heaven Treasure!"

He Gaoming said excitedly, "I don't know its name, but I'm sure it's a Heaven Treasure."

"Heaven Treasure?" Fang Qiu was stunned.

"Yes."

He Gaoming immediately nodded and said, "I don't know its ranking, but I'm sure it's really a Heaven Treasure. The guardian beast is a tiger as big as an elephant. We can't defeat it!"

"Where is it?" Fang Qiu asked.

"It's in Crouching Tiger Mountain near the Shiqiu Film and Television Base in Jiangnan," He Gaoming immediately replied.

"Wait for me," Fang Qiu answered and then hung up the phone.

"A Heaven Treasure."

Looking in the direction of Crouching Tiger Mountain, Fang Qiu gently let out a sigh and murmured, "I didn't expect that there was really a Heaven Treasure. God is helping me! I was just worried about how to improve my strength! And this is also a good opportunity to dispel people's doubt that Fang Qiu is John Doe."

In fact, when he heard the roar of the tiger, Fang Qiu had already begun to think about it.

Now, everything was just as he had expected.

He knew it was the best opportunity to dispel people's doubt that Fang Qiu was John Doe.

Thinking of this, he immediately called Li Ji.

"Hello?" Li Ji answered the phone.

"I need your help," Fang Qiu said without hesitation. "I need you to pretend to be John Doe!"

Fang Qiu made such a request because he had always felt that he and Li Ji had similar figures.

The next morning, a piece of news spread quickly in Wulin.

"John Doe showed up in a high profile at the airport in the capital."

As soon as the news came out, it quickly spread among the major forces in Wulin.

All the major forces were curious about it.

“John Doe appeared at the airport in the capital?”

“It’s strange. Hasn’t John Doe always kept a low profile? Why did he suddenly show up in a high profile?”

“I haven’t heard any news of John Doe for a long time. I’m wondering what trouble would come after his showing up in a high profile.”

Just when everyone was talking about it, another piece of news came.

“John Doe took a plane to Jiangjing.”

Jiangjing was the place where John Doe first appeared in public, so no one was too curious about it. What was more, his disciple, He Gaoming, was also from Jiangjing.

When people inquired further, they found that He Gaoming and the others had actually followed the crew to Jiangnan, together with Fang Qiu.

Then, people in Wulin were more certain that Fang Qiu and John Doe were two different people since they had appeared at two places at the same time.

He Gaoming, who had stayed on Crouching Tiger Mountain all day long, quickly returned to Shiqiu Film and Television Base and found Chen Xiaogang.

“Director Chen, I’m sorry, but the shooting of the movie has to stop now because something happened nearby.”

“Is anything going wrong?”

Chen Xiaogang was stunned and asked with a puzzled expression, “What happened?”

“Do you know Crouching Tiger Mountain? There is a big tiger on the mountain,” He Gaoming said.

“Is there really a tiger?” Chen Xiaogang was shocked. He quickly took out his mobile phone, wanting to call the police.

“Director Chen, the police can’t solve it.”

He Gaoming immediately stopped him and shook his head, saying, “No one else can solve it.”

Medical Master

Chapter 933: John Doe and Fang Qiu Meet Each Other!

“Why?” Chen Xiaogang became even more puzzled.

“Didn’t you say there were tigers around? We have more than 30 martial arts practitioners on our side. Do you think that we would be scared of an ordinary tiger?”

He Gaoming frowned and continued, “It’s not an ordinary tiger but a huge one, very huge. Do you understand now?”

Chen Xiaogang was shocked by the words.

Then, his expression began to change.

He understood what He Gaoming meant.

He Gaoming and his men were people of Wulin. If they said that it was a huge tiger, then it must be a very huge one.

“Then, then what should we do now?” Chen Xiaogang asked in shock.

“Those electric tools that could put down ordinary tigers don’t work on this huge tiger.”

He Gaoming took a deep breath and then added, “Although we can’t solve the problem, the person who can is coming here.”

Chen Xiaogang finally breathed a sigh of relief upon hearing those words.

“Then, should we leave first and return after the place become safe again?” Chen Xiaogang asked.

“No need.”

He Gaoming shook his head and said, “That huge tiger has something important to do, so it won’t leave that mountain easily, and this place is still safe. You can continue the shooting without worries, but I’m afraid that the shooting of the action part has to stop now. You can continue with the other part.”

“No, I think we’d better wait for some time first,” Chen Xiaogang thought for a moment and said worriedly, “we can afford to wait for some days. The most important thing is to guarantee that the actors are safe.”

John Doe arrived that afternoon.

Wearing his iconic clothes, John Doe went straight to the shooting base.

“Master...”

Seeing John Doe, He Gaoming hurried to greet him.

“I want to see Fang Qiu first.”

John Doe waved at He Gaoming, who walked up to him, and then turned to look at Fang Qiu in the crowd.

Fang Qiu stood up.

John Doe walked up to him.

The two of them stood together.

“Hello, nice to meet you. Fang Qiu, can we go in and talk?”

John Doe pointed to the room beside them.

“Of course.”

Fang Qiu pretended to be confused and nodded with a puzzled look on his face.

The two entered the room and talked while the others, including Chen Xiaogang and He Gaoming, were waiting for them outside the room.

“This is the person that you said could solve the problem?”

After seeing John Doe, Chen Xiaogang asked He Gaoming with a puzzled face, “A person so young?”

“What? You don’t believe that he can solve the problem?”

He Gaoming raised his head proudly and said to Chen Xiaogang, "Director Chen, the man in black who just went in is my master. He is the best among the younger generation in Wulin."

He continued, "I'm not bragging. Huaxia is a large country with many people, and my master is recognized as the best among the younger generation. So you can imagine how awesome my master is!"

Chen Xiaogang was shocked after hearing the words.

The young man he saw just now was recognized as the best among the younger generation in Wulin?

If what He Gaoming said was true, then the young man was really awesome.

He Gaoming and his men were already very powerful, so the young man had to be extremely powerful.

After Fang Qiu and John Doe entered the room, Fang Qiu immediately put on John Doe's clothes and mask while Li Ji put on a skin mask that was made in a hurry. The mask looked as same as Fang Qiu's face.

They switched their identities in secret.

After that, the two of them walked out of the room together.

No one noticed anything wrong. After all, the mask was made with the most advanced technology in the world and was far superior to the masks used by the crew.

"Roar!"

As soon as the two of them walked out of the room, another tiger roar was heard in the distance.

This time, the roar startled Chen Xiaogang. Ordinary people might find that the roar was not that loud and clear, but Chen Xiaogang, who had learned the truth from He Gaoming, was scared and in a panic.

“Over there?”

As soon as Fang Qiu, who had disguised himself as John Doe, walked out of the room, he looked up in the direction of the tiger roar.

“Yes.” He Gaoming nodded at once.

“Take me there,” Fang Qiu said.

“Okay.” He Gaoming nodded at once again.

However, just as he was about to set off, John Doe suddenly stopped walking, turned back, and looked at Chen Xiaogang before saying, “Director Chen, I’m sorry, but I have to consult Fang Qiu about some pathology issues, and it may take several days.”

Li Ji, who had already prepared a voice changer, also came forward and said, “The issues are a little complicated. I need to go back to the library of the University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine to find some references.”

“Okay.”

Chen Xiaogang immediately nodded his head in agreement and said, “We won’t be able to continue the shooting in the next few days anyway. Since you have nothing to do, it will be safer for you to go back to school.”

“Thank you.” John Doe nodded at Chen Xiaogang with gratitude.

Then, carrying He Gaoming in one hand and Li Ji in the other, John Doe stood on tiptoe and flew into the sky with a whoosh like a superman. In a few seconds, he flew away.

All the people present were shocked after seeing this.

“What the f*ck!”

“What the f*ck!!!”

“I... I... F*ck!”

“What did I see?”

“Is... is he flying??”

The crew members were all stuttering!

Chen Xiaogang and Zhao Rulong were also dumbfounded.

“Is this how the people of Wulin look like?”

Chen Xiaogang and Zhao Rulong exchanged a glance and saw a shocked look in each other’s eyes!

At this moment, Chen Xiaogang finally understood why the higher-ups didn’t want him to propagate that they were using the people of real Wulin to shoot the movie.

That was because the people of Wulin were not like ordinary human beings but like immortals!

“Whoosh!”

There was a whooshing sound.

In an instant, John Doe took Li Ji, who had disguised himself as Fang Qiu, to a path close to the station. Then he put Li Ji down and said, "I'll go to the University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine to find you in a few days."

"Okay!"

Li Ji nodded in agreement, then turned around, and walked toward the station.

"Master..."

He Gaoming looked at John Doe with a puzzled face and asked, "Are you ill?"

"Alas, I think I'm too talented and I want to weaken my talent a little, so I asked Fang Qiu if there was a way to achieve that," Fang Qiu answered in a narcissistic manner.

As soon as he said that, He Gaoming was rendered speechless.

"Isn't he showing off too arrogantly?"

However, He Gaoming couldn't refute it because what John Doe said was true. John Doe was indeed very talented.

He Gaoming became extremely jealous!

"Is the Heaven Treasure still there?" John Doe asked.

"Yes, but I estimate that it hasn't been ripe yet, but it will be ripe soon."

He Gaoming nodded and continued, "It's a purple Heaven Treasure. When we found it, it just began to emit faint red light. If I'm right, it should be ripe when it completely turns red."

"Purple, red?" John Doe murmured softly and his eyes suddenly lit up as if he had thought of something.

"Let's go."

He grabbed He Gaoming by the shoulder, flew up into the sky again, and flew straight to the mountainside of Crouching Tiger Mountain at an extremely fast speed.

When the people on the mountainside saw John Doe coming there, they hurried forward to greet him.

"Are there any movements?" He Gaoming asked.

"No, but the Qi of Heaven and Earth on the top of the mountain is getting stronger and stronger. I think the Heaven Treasure is going to be ripe soon," Li Boqing said.

"I'll go up and have a look."

John Doe rushed straight to the top of the mountain.

When he arrived at the top of the mountain, he indeed saw a tiger as big as an elephant pacing back and forth under a few big trees and around a stone wrapped in purple vines.

"Fire Element Pill!"

When John Doe spotted the thumb-sized, square, crystal-like fruit at the center of the stone, his eyes lit up! The fruit was turning from purple to red.

It was a Fire Element Pill!

It was ranked 16th on the Heaven Treasure List.

Its root was like fire and would wrap itself around where it grew like a dragon wrapping itself around a rock.

Its fruit was as pure as essence with a strong fire attribute. The Qi of Heaven and Earth it emitted was violent. The fruit tasted hot but had a mild, amazing effect.

“Perfect!”

John Doe exclaimed in admiration in his heart.

This Fire Element Pill was really perfect for him. He was in urgent need to improve his strength now. With this Fire Element Pill, it would be much easier for him to make a breakthrough.

“According to my calculations, this Fire Element Pill would be ripe tomorrow.”

An idea suddenly came into his mind. He looked at the tiger, which stood in front of the Fire Element Pill and looked at him with a fierce look. He then smiled calmly and went down the mountain.

He knew that the tiger roared again and again just because it wanted to scare off other beasts, as well as the human beings who coveted the Fire Element Pill.

In John Doe’s eyes, it was a good thing. This tiger was like a free guard to him.

When the Fire Element Pill became totally ripe, he would drive the tiger away, and everything would be perfect!

He went back to the mountainside.

He Gaoming immediately came up to him.

“Master, what kind of Heaven Treasure is this?” He Gaoming asked.

“Fire Element Pill,” John Doe replied.

“Fire Element Pill?”

He Gaoming and his companions became excited.

“Then, what should we do now?”

He Gaoming, who was extremely excited, rolled up his sleeves and said, “Let’s go up together and fight?”

“Be patient.”

John Doe shook his head and said, “Let’s guard the place first. The Fire Element Pill will become ripe tomorrow. Now we just need to stay here and guard it.”

Everyone understood.

Although they all knew that the Heaven Treasure would eventually be John Doe’s, they were willing to guard it with him.

Moreover, even if they were given a chance to get it, they didn’t have the ability to get it!

Because of John Doe’s showing up, the major forces of Wulin, which had gradually become restless, also learned the news that there were tiger roars on Crouching Tiger Mountain from their inquiries.

At the same time, many powers sent their men to go up the mountain to investigate the matter.

To their surprise, they found that there was a Heaven Treasure on the mountain.

Obviously, John Doe was there for the Heaven Treasure.

This time, all the people in Wulin were stunned.

“Another f*cking Heaven Treasure?”

“John Doe is so lucky. Why does he always find Heaven Treasures?”

“He is really lucky to always meet good things. God is unfair.”

“First, it was an Earth Treasure. Then, it was a Heaven Treasure, and now, it’s a Heaven Treasure again. Has John Doe booked all the Heaven Treasures in the world?”

There was a heated discussion in the entire Wulin for some time.

He Gaoming, who had been paying close attention to the Wulin online forum, also received the news and immediately rushed over.

“Master, the news that there is a Heaven Treasure has spread widely on the Wulin online forum. Many people are talking about it and saying that you’re going to get one more Heaven Treasure,” He Gaoming said in a serious tone.

Upon hearing that, Fang Qiu smiled faintly and said, “Just ignore them. No matter who comes, the Fire Element Pill will be mine!”

Chapter 934: Can All the Wulin People Fly?

“Master, I’ll take everyone back first and get prepared.” Hearing John Doe’s confident remark, the worry in He Gaoming’s heart immediately dissipated. Instead, he was full of expectation.

“Okay.” Fang Qiu nodded.

He was fully aware that it wouldn't be of any help even if these people stayed here. Moreover, since he was going to guard here, he didn't need these people's help at all. Therefore, it was good for everyone to make use of this period of time to make adequate preparation.

Seeing John Doe nod and agree, He Gaoming immediately walked over and gathered people halfway up the mountain. He said, “The Fire Element Pill is going to mature soon. When the Heaven Treasure is ripe, it will definitely attract lots of experts. The news that the Heaven Treasure appears here has spread in Wulin. I think there will be experts coming soon. We have to go back and get prepared before the experts arrive. By then, we can also show our best states and see how powerful the battle between the experts was!”

“Although we weren't seriously injured, we did suffer some light injuries when we exchanged blows with that giant tiger. Go back and give some rest. It's also necessary to bring some medicinal pills.”

Li Boqing also nodded in agreement.

A group of people went down the mountain and returned to the movie set in the shooting base.

There were many crews filming in nearby production sites with numerous extras and staff members. Thus, when they saw He Gaoming and the others coming and going, they didn't pay much attention to them. After all, they all had things to do.

However, Director Chen Xiaogang wasn't going to shoot. Instead, he had the staff check the minor details that they needed to pay attention to during the shooting over and over again.

Returning to the set, He Gaoming directly asked everyone to get ready separately.

“Mr. He?” Seeing He Gaoming bringing everyone back, Director Chen Xiaogang was stunned at first. Then he trotted all the way over and asked, “How is it? Is it settled?”

“Not yet,” He Gaoming shook his head and said, “it’s not the time to solve it now. I just want to take everyone back to have a rest and make some preparations.”

“Your master has been up there for so long, and he still can’t get rid of it?” Director Chen Xiaogang asked.

“It can be solved, but it can’t be solved now.”

He Gaoming shook his head and said with a smile, “Don’t worry. It will be solved tonight. I’ll let you eat tiger meat tomorrow.”

“No, no, no.” Director Chen Xiaogang gulped, quickly shook his head, and waved his hand. He said, “It is good that we can solve it. We can’t eat tiger meat. It is against the law!”

“Haha.” Seeing that Chen Xiaogang panicked, He Gaoming laughed out loud.

Chen Xiaolian did not feel awkward. Instead, he pulled He Gaoming’s arm and walked to the side. He asked curiously in a low voice, “By the way, can all the Wulin people fly when their martial arts skills reach a certain level?”

“Yes.” He Gaoming nodded naturally.

Chen Xiaogang asked excitedly, “Really? What do you think about letting Yang Yizhi fly in the movie?”

“No,” He Gaoming immediately shook his head and said, “there are different levels of strength in Wulin. In this movie, Yang Yizhi is a sixth-class Martial Superior, whose strength has not reached the level where he can fly. If he wants to fly, he has to at least become a guru. If you film it like this, this movie will be regarded as irrational!”

“Guru?” Chen Xiaogang was surprised. Although he did not understand how strict the classification of strength was, nor did he know the exact strength of each level, his curiosity kept urging him to ask. “So your master is a guru?”

“My master is an exception.” He Gaoming thought for a moment, smiled proudly, and said, “My master is remarkable. He can fly before he reaches the Guru Realm, but others can’t!”

Speaking of this, He Gaoming thought for a moment and immediately added, “Speaking of which, I can tell you with certainty that when Hero Yang Yizhi crossed the sea to kill the pirates, he actually flew over because he was a guru at that time. It’s just that you won’t believe me if I say that.”

“What?” Director Chen Xiaogang was shocked.

He didn’t expect Yang Yizhi to be so powerful.

At that time, there seemed to be another story on the internet. First, there were people who questioned how Hero Yang Yizhi killed the pirates because there were no boats on the ocean and no ancient ship remnants could be discovered around the island. Therefore, at that time, a few people suspected that Hero Yang Yizhi had flown over.

However, not long after this speculation was made, it was completely denied.

Because gravity did exist, it was impossible for a person to fly!

Chen Xiaogang was also one of the believers of technology.

But when he saw John Doe flying in person and heard this from He Gaoming, the firm belief in his heart suddenly began to waver.

In fact, it wasn’t wavering but completely shattered because he began to understand Wulin and also saw a real man flying like the superman, which was even more remarkable than when the superman was flying.

“Guru!” Thinking about this, Director Chen Xiaogang suddenly came up with an idea, which made him full of expectations. “I must find an opportunity to make a movie about middle-aged Yang Yizhi. When the time comes, I will let the audience see that real martial arts experts can fly. That would be awesome!”

After resting and adjusting for a few hours, He Gaoming and the others went up the mountain again when they saw that it was dusk.

Soon, they arrived and continued to guard halfway up the mountain.

At this moment, Fang Qiu already arrived at the top of the mountain and sat opposite the giant tiger. The giant tiger was lying on the ground. Although it seemed unguarded, it had been staring at Fang Qiu.

On the other side, Fang Qiu directly sat cross-legged at the edge of the mountain, closed his eyes, and rested.

It was getting late.

The sky, which was originally illuminated by red clouds at sunset, gradually darkened. As the sun set in the west, the round moon rose and appeared in the sky.

Strangely, as night fell, all the clouds in the sky disappeared.

The entire sky was clear and bright.

Starlight began to appear.

On the top of the mountain, John Doe, who had closed his eyes for a long time, slowly opened his eyes.

The giant tiger, which had been lying on the ground and seemed unguarded, also slowly got up. It lowered its forelegs and stared at John Doe with a more terrifying gaze!

“Finally, is it going to mature?” Fang Qiu looked at the stone between him and the giant tiger.

At the moment, the purple vines on the stone completely changed into a bright red color and were emitting faint red light. The square crystal in the center of the stone had completely turned blood-red, looking particularly enchanting.

The Qi of Heaven and Earth around him gradually became thicker.

“Swish!” Fang Qiu stood up.

Fang Qiu smiled blandly and looked at the giant tiger opposite him.

“Roar!” The giant tiger opened its mouth wide and roared.

“Haha.” But right at this moment, a loud laugh rang out suddenly.

With the sound of laughter, a black shadow quickly flew over from the sky. Like a bat in the dark night, it rushed straight to the top of the mountain at a blindingly fast speed and stood on the other side, forming a triangle with the giant tiger and John Doe.

“Fire Element Pill.” As soon as the black figure stopped, he immediately laughed and didn’t take the giant tiger seriously at all. He directly turned to look at Fang Qiu and said, “John Doe, how about leaving Fire Element Pill to me?”

“Get lost!” Fang Qiu didn’t even look at him, but directly shouted coldly.

“Hmm?” The black figure raised his eyebrows. Obviously, he was angry, but he did not take any action. Instead, he continued to stand there calmly and glanced coldly at John Doe.

“Master...” Sensing that something was wrong, He Gaoming asked everyone to keep an eye on the man. Then he quickly walked to Fang Qiu and asked in a low voice, “Do you want us to drive him away?”

“You guys are no match for him.” Fang Qiu shook his head and said, “This man is very powerful. Even Sword Fanatic is only a bit stronger than him!”

He Gaoming's expression changed as he heard that.

He immediately thought of a person!

He Gaoming stared at the black shadow over there and whispered, "If I'm right, according to his strength, clothes, and the tone of his voice, I can almost be sure that this man is Chu Ying, a notorious man of the evil side in Wulin!"

"Chu Ying?" Fang Qiu glanced at the man.

"It should be him." He Gaoming nodded solemnly and said, "This man is very strong. What should we do?"

"You all should go back," said Fang Qiu, squinting his eyes.

"Hmm?" He Gaoming was stunned.

"Take everyone back to the movie set. Leave it to me," said Fang Qiu.

He Gaoming looked upset and wanted to say more.

Fang Qiu said straightforwardly, "No buts. Take everyone away right now. Protecting yourself is the greatest help to me!"

Originally, he didn't have this kind of thought.

However, when he learned from He Gaoming that the man coming here was a notorious evil man in Wulin, he immediately made up his mind. Whether it was for the safety of He Gaoming and the others, or to prevent himself from being threatened, He Gaoming and the others should leave as soon as possible.

He Gaoming immediately understood because he had experienced it in person.

He would never forget the days when he was tortured by the people of the Luo Yin Sect, and the days when John Doe saved him, so he did not dare to hesitate. He immediately nodded and turned to leave.

“Let’s go.” He Gaoming walked down the mountain and shouted to everyone halfway up the mountain.

“Aren’t we going to guard for our master?” One of the men asked.

He Gaoming smiled and said, “No need. He can handle it alone!”

Hearing that, everyone looked up at John Doe, who was standing on the top of the mountain, with great admiration in their eyes.

At first, no one was willing to leave. They all wanted to stay and watch the great battle between the experts.

However, when He Gaoming told them the background of the man in black, everyone panicked a little. When they learned that it was John Doe who instructed them to leave, they naturally understood John Doe’s concerns. Hence they immediately followed He Gaoming down the mountain and returned to the movie set.

On the mountain, Fire Element Pill glowed with a brilliant red light.

With the whistling and surging of the Qi of Heaven and Earth, the strange phenomenon of Heaven and Earth appeared.

Fire Element Pill was mature!

Chapter 935: Eating the Heaven Treasure in the Battle!

The Crouching-tiger Mountain under the starry sky was filled with the chill.

With He Gaoming and the others leaving, the Crouching-tiger Mountain suddenly became desolate, and the cold wind was whistling.

The stronger the bewitching red light emitted from Fire Element Pill was, the stronger the chill grew!

If someone else were here, they would be able to clearly sense that even the cold wind whistling through the mountain was like numerous extremely sharp blades in the bitter chill, which would make one feel that there was nowhere to hide.

John Doe, Chu Ying, and the giant tiger were confronting each other!

Among the three of them, the vines of the stone completely turned red. They kept contracting as if they were alive. They finally merged into one and returned to the Fire Element Pill.

When all the vines returned, the bewitching red light emitted by the Fire Element Pill instantly withdrew. The Fire Element Pill completely transformed into an extremely ordinary crystal-like fruit. It looked like a completely transparent square candy without any impurity.

The Fire Element Pill was mature!

“Swish!” In the midst of the chill, Chu Ying’s figure moved like a sharp blade. The moment this Heaven Treasure matured, he unleashed all his power and darted forward, aiming straight for the Fire Element Pill!

“Humph!” With a snort, Fang Qiu moved his right hand, and a stone on the ground immediately rose into the air. With a wave of his arm, the stone immediately shot out and attacked Chu Ying fiercely.

As he blocked Chu Ying, Fang Qiu moved and rushed to the Fire Element Pill at an even faster speed.

“Roar!” But as soon as he moved, the giant tiger immediately let out a snarl, leaped over, and directly pounced on Fang Qiu.

Soon, the three were going to fight!

Fang Qiu snapped, “Get lost.”

The Fire Element Pill was exceptionally important for him. Therefore, he was determined to obtain it and would not allow anyone to snatch it away from him!

Therefore, Fang Qiu didn’t give Chu Ying and the giant tiger any chance at all. As soon as he made a move, he directly burst out the strength of the Guru Realm. As the giant tiger pounced on him, his body flashed. At the speed that the giant tiger and Chu Ying couldn’t reach at all, he charged to the Fire Element Pill in an instant and grabbed it in his hand.

Only when Fang Qiu got the Fire Element Pill did the giant tiger and Chu Ying come to their senses.

They instantly lashed out at Fang Qiu and tried to strike him at the same time.

Originally, Fang Qiu wanted to leave as soon as he got the Fire Element Pill, but he didn’t expect that the giant tiger and Chu Ying would attack him at the same time and block his way out.

“You’re digging your own grave!” He shouted in a deep voice.

Fang Qiu moved his body to dodge their attacks and then clenched his right hand.

An ancient sword quickly condensed in his hand.

“Three-point Shadowless Sword!” He moved his toes.

Before the giant tiger pounced on him for the second time, Fang Qiu suddenly jumped up and retreated in midair. Meanwhile, he wielded his long sword toward the pouncing giant tiger in front of him!

“Swish!” At the next moment, a crisp sound, like the sound of a long sword being unsheathed, suddenly rang out.

If they took a closer look, they could see that as Fang Qiu waved his arm, there were three streaks of incomparably piercing sword Qi on the long sword in Fang Qiu’s hand, which burst out from the sword. With an extremely sharp aura, the sword Qi directly struck the oncoming giant tiger.

“Boom!” There was a loud bang.

The three streaks of Sword Qi merged into one and collided fiercely with the pouncing giant tiger. The terrifying force knocked the giant tiger to the ground and hit it hard. The giant tiger directly fell to the ground and couldn’t get up. Blood kept gushing out of its mouth. Obviously, it was seriously injured. It lay on the ground twitching. It seemed that it was dying.

“What?” Chu Ying was shocked.

Under the illumination of the bright moon, his face was finally completely exposed.

His face was pointed and thin like a monkey’s. With sunken cheeks, he looked as if he was malnourished. For some reason, he could make one feel that he was sinister at first glance.

Under the moonlight, Chu Ying, who had seen John Doe seriously injure the giant tiger with his sword, suddenly changed his expression dramatically.

His face, which was originally full of anger and disdain, couldn’t help but show a hint of solemnity, and the contempt in his eyes when he looked at Fang Qiu also disappear.

He was at the peak of the ninth class, only one step away from reaching the Guru Realm. Although he was indeed a little weaker than the Sword Fanatic, he was still considered above average among the experts at the peak of the ninth class.

It was also because of his strength that Chu Ying had not taken John Doe seriously from the beginning.

But now, John Doe actually seriously injured the giant tiger with one blow. It was obvious that John Doe's strength had exceeded his expectations. Therefore, he couldn't help but be shocked.

However, after pondering about it carefully, he figured that the tiger's strength might merely reach the peak of the seventh class or the eighth class although it seemed imposing.

At the thought of this, Chu Ying was relieved in an instant.

When he thought that the Fire Element Pill had been taken away by John Doe, his anger rose again.

He stormed, "Give me the Fire Element Pill!"

Chu Ying rushed up directly and attacked Fang Qiu without hesitation.

After obtaining the Fire Element Pill, Fang Qiu was no longer in such a hurry.

Moreover, he was now an eighth-class Martial Superior with one opened meridian, which was not yet perfect. It was the right time to hone himself. When Chu Ying approached him, he immediately withdrew his strength of the Guru Realm and fought with him with the strength of the eighth-class Martial Superior with one opened meridian!

"Bang, bang, bang..." A terrifying sound of collision rumbled and lingered in the air.

The two of them were engaged in a fierce fight.

Neither was willing to yield to the other.

In this case, Chu Ying undoubtedly showed the strength of his evil cultivation methods. He used all kinds of insidious and cruel means to go for the jugular without mercy in the attack on Fang Qiu.

Though Fang Qiu was not afraid, his opponent was too powerful. In the constant defense, Fang Qiu was gradually suppressed by him.

The more Chu Ying fought, the happier he felt.

He had a new understanding of John Doe's strength in his heart. The contempt that had just vanished reappeared on his face.

"Hand over the Fire Element Pill or go to hell!" Chu Ying laughed coldly.

"Humph." Fang Qiu snorted.

It was not that he was pretentious, but he truly couldn't feel any threat from Chu Ying. If he wanted to kill Chu Ying, he could kill him with one slash at any time. However, it was not easy for Fang Qiu to find such a good opportunity to cultivate, so he would rather be suppressed by Chu Ying all the time. In fact, he was merely practicing.

As expected, Fang Qiu's snort immediately angered Chu Ying and caused him to attack seriously.

Now Fang Qiu was completely suppressed.

Ultimately, after a long period of time, Fang Qiu once again felt the tremendous pressure that he had not felt for a long time in a battle.

When this pressure appeared, he began to constantly force himself to improve!

Chu Ying didn't notice at all.

Under such circumstances, Fang Qiu could clearly feel that his strength was improving at an extremely fast speed.

The suppression lasted for an hour.

An hour later, Fang Qiu's strength finally rose to the completion of the eighth class with one opened meridian.

"Hmm?" Sensing John Doe's improvement, Chu Ying's expression gradually changed.

"You want the Fire Element Pill?" But right at this moment, Fang Qiu suddenly asked.

"Hand it over!" Chu Ying stared coldly at Fang Qiu. Just now, he tried to kill John Doe, but what was strange was that although John Doe looked extremely weak and could not resist his attacks at all, he did not get into a fatal situation no matter how Chu Ying attacked.

It was as if all of this were a show.

This kind of feeling caused Chu Ying to become extremely annoyed and irritable!

"Fire Element Pill." Fang Qiu took out the Fire Element Pill from his trouser pocket and put it in his palm.

Chu Ying was stunned.

He immediately reached out his hand, threatening Fang Qiu to give it to him.

"Swish!" Just as Chu Ying reached out his hand, Fang Qiu directly threw the Fire Element Pill into his mouth without hesitation and swallowed it directly.

"You're dead meat!" Chu Ying was furious.

He actually watched John Doe eat the Fire Element Pill.

With a furious roar, Chu Ying crazily rushed forward and snapped, "I'm going to drink your blood!"

As he spoke, he immediately attacked Fang Qiu madly.

After swallowing the Fire Element Pill, Fang Qiu immediately controlled the energy of the pill to store in his body and then continued to fight with Chu Ying.

Although he had reached the completion of the eighth class with one opened meridian, this time, what Fang Qiu wanted was not simple completion, but an opportunity to make a breakthrough!

Even if breaking through during a battle was extremely dangerous, Fang Qiu still had to do this because he didn't have much time to search for a place to break through on his own.

"Bang, bang, bang..." The fierce battle started once again.

Fang Qiu and Chu Ying violently tangled with each other.

No one knew if it was because he had taken the Fire Element Pill or due to some other reason, but this time, under the huge pressure from Chu Ying, Fang Qiu actually sensed the block of breaking through very quickly!

"Break through!" The moment the feeling of breakthrough came, Fang Qiu did not hesitate at all. He immediately controlled his internal Qi and directly broke the barrier. Enormous internal Qi poured into his meridians. Under the protection of the energy of the Fire Element Pill, Fang Qiu endured the pain and continued to fight with Chu Ying!

At this moment, Chu Ying seemed to have noticed something.

His attacks suddenly became even more ferocious, and each strike was fatal!

Fang Qiu kept blocking and retreating.

Three minutes later, he managed to make a breakthrough.

“Swish!” Fang Qiu clenched his right hand. As soon as the pain of reopening the meridian in his body disappeared, the divine sword was instantly condensed.

Confronted with Chu Ying attacking violently, Fang Qiu, who had been suppressed for a long time, suddenly burst out a strong momentum which was more powerful than before. Then he fixed his eyes on Chu Ying and shouted angrily at him as he was coming fiercely to him, “Driving Thunder and Slashing Demons!”

It was the second move of the divine sword!

As he brandished his sword, lightning burst from the sword.

With a fierce wave, the sword strike was earth-shattering.

As he wielded the long sword with destructive lightning, the surrounding space was filled with sparks.

When Fang Qiu’s sword slashed down, the lightning all over the place instantly contracted, forming an incomparably strong pressure. The blade condensed by the lightning instantly burst out from the sword and struck in front of Chu Ying like a meteor.

“What?” Chu Ying’s expression changed.

He felt an enormous threat from the lightning blade.

Without hesitation, Chu Ying immediately unleashed his full strength and raised his hands to block.

“Bang!” But at the next moment, there was a crisp sound.

The huge lightning blade fell, directly cutting off Chu Ying’s right arm as it sent him flying!

Chapter 936: Subduing the Giant Tiger!

This time, Fang Qiu only used the strength of an eighth-class Martial Superior with two opened meridians without using the power of a guru!

It proved the terrifying power of the three moves of the divine sword.

Even a ninth-class expert could be seriously injured in one blow.

“Whoosh!” As a notorious evil man in Wulin, Chu Ying had been hunted countless times. Therefore, when he estimated that he could not kill John Doe or even defeat him, he immediately got up and fled without hesitation!

But for this vigilance, he wouldn’t have been able to survive.

“Humph.” Seeing Chu Ying running away, Fang Qiu snorted and glanced blandly at the dying giant tiger on the ground. Then he took out his phone and dialed Li Ji’s number.

“You have five minutes to investigate a man. This man’s name is Chu Ying. You only need to tell me if this person should be killed or not!” After saying that, he hung up the phone.

Putting away the phone, Fang Qiu took a deep breath and began to regulate his physical condition.

After all, he just made a breakthrough in the battle, and his internal Qi had not been regulated yet. He must adjust his internal Qi well now.

Three minutes later, just as Fang Qiu was almost done regulating, the phone in his trouser pocket rang.

“Hello?” Fang Qiu answered the phone.

“This man has done lots of evil things. You should kill him.” Li Ji’s voice came.

“Okay.” Fang Qiu nodded knowingly and then glanced in the direction of Chu Ying’s escape. With a movement of his body, he immediately burst out the strength of the Guru Realm and chased after him rapidly.

As Fang Qiu expected, in a situation where he was seriously injured, the speed at which he could escape was not quite fast.

Under such circumstances, Fang Qiu caught up with Chu Ying after a short while.

He lost an arm.

With the excessive loss of blood, Chu Ying no longer had any strength to fight.

Fang Qiu didn’t make much effort, nor did he say anything. He took action directly.

“John Doe!” Chu Ying eventually regretted it when he was about to die.

Why did he have to go through all this trouble?

Seeing that there was a Heaven Treasure here on the Wulin forum, he wanted to obtain it. He didn’t believe that John Doe was extremely powerful. He merely won the Sword Fanatic by employing some tricks.

But Chu Ying didn’t expect that he would be killed by this man today.

Regret and reluctance were written all over his face.

With one slash, the notorious Chu Ying died!

After killing Chu Ying, Fang Qiu directly turned around and returned to Crouching Tiger Mountain.

On the top of the mountain, the giant tiger was still lying on the ground and gasping for breath. Its chest was heaving rapidly.

Although it didn't seem to have much time left, Fang Qiu saw a strong desire to live in the giant tiger's huge eyes.

"Do you want to live?" Standing in front of the giant tiger, Fang Qiu asked coldly.

The guardian beasts were practically all capable of hearing human speech. Even if they were unable to understand, they were able to sense the meaning behind the words.

"Woo..." The giant tiger opened its mouth and made a sound.

It seemed that it truly wanted to live.

"If you are willing to follow me, I will save your life," said Fang Qiu.

"Roar." The giant tiger hesitated for a long time and finally let out a soft cry. It seemed that he agreed.

"Okay." Fang Qiu smiled and then murmured, "But you're really a bit huge. It's not easy to carry you."

"Roar, roar..." The giant tiger cried a few times softly as if it wanted to say something.

“Well, I’ll save your life.” As he spoke, Fang Qiu got close to the giant tiger’s chest and abdomen, then gently pressed his right hand on the side of the giant tiger, and began to treat it.

“Pitter-patter...”

“Roar, roar...”

An hour later, there was a burst of footsteps and heavy breathing in the shooting base.

At night, He Gaoming and the others, as well as Director Chen Xiaogang and the crew, were waiting for news.

Hearing footsteps and heavy breathing from outside, everyone immediately opened the door and went out to check.

“Ah!” A staff member who was the first to open the door took a look outside and was instantly stunned. He couldn’t even stand still and directly fell to the ground, struggling to retreat with a frightened face.

“What’s wrong?” Director Chen Xiaogang hurriedly walked forward.

As soon as he arrived at the door, he was stunned and began to tremble all over. He couldn’t even move his feet!

“What’s wrong?” The rest of the director team also ran forward one after another.

Seeing the scene outside the door, everyone was scared out of their wits. Some female staff members were even screaming in a high pitch. Some of them even burst into tears.

He Gaoming and the others hurried over.

When they looked out of the door, they were all amazed.

A pair of huge eyeballs appeared outside the door.

As they took a closer look, it was the giant tiger that had the size of a small elephant!

In front of the tiger's huge head stood a man.

It was John Doe!

"Master, this..." He Gaoming was shocked.

"It's fine," Fang Qiu waved his hand and said, "I've already subdued this one. He won't hurt anyone. Don't worry."

Everyone's eyes widened as they heard that.

This giant tiger was actually subdued by John Doe.

Good heavens!

Was this real?

By then, the staff of the crew had already dragged Chen Xiaogang and the others to the side.

After all, ordinary people would truly be frightened when they saw such a giant tiger.

"Tiger." Different from ordinary people, He Gaoming was excited. When he heard that John Doe had already subdued this giant tiger, he immediately walked up, reached out to pat the giant tiger on the neck, and said, "I'm my master's disciple. Since you're following my master, we're family now."

“Roar...” The giant tiger barely opened its mouth and made a sound as if it was responding.

“Let’s get in first,” Fang Qiu said to the giant tiger and the crowd.

Because the whole group was coming to make a movie, the place where everyone rested was a very large factory. Thus, Giant Tiger could easily come in.

“Go and find a place to play. Don’t hurt anyone!” Entering the warehouse and seeing the terrified looks of the crew, Fang Qiu immediately said to the giant tiger.

The giant tiger was also quite obedient.

He immediately shook his tail, walked to the empty space in the corner of the warehouse, lay down, closed his eyes, and went to sleep.

“Don’t worry, everyone.”

Fang Qiu walked to the crew and said, “it will never hurt anyone. I’m going to find Fang Qiu now, so I’ll leave him here first. He Gaoming will watch him. Don’t worry.”

Without waiting for Director Chen Xiaogang’s answer, Fang Qiu turned around and walked out of the warehouse. He moved and rushed to Jiangjing overnight.

As soon as Fang Qiu left, the crew quickly hid far away, not daring to stay in the same room with the giant tiger.

Because Director Chen Xiaogang and Zhao Rulong knew about this beforehand, they gathered together, processed the information for a while, walked up at the same time, and waved to He Gaoming, who was sitting next to the giant tiger.

“What’s wrong? If you have something to say, come over,” Sitting next to the giant tiger, He Gaoming stroked its neck and said heroically to the two of them.

Although they were still afraid, Chen Xiaogang and Zhao Rulong could only bravely approach him while seeing that He Gaoming was fine and the giant tiger was not angry at all.

“Why is this tiger so big?” Chen Xiaogang asked timidly.

“This?” He Gaoming chuckled and said, “this is a guardian beast, which is a mutated animal that specializes in protecting some rare treasures in the mountains and forests. Of course, its main purpose is to eat it.”

“Is there such an animal in the world?” Hearing that, Director Chen Xiaogang became excited.

Zhao Rulong was also thrilled.

It was the first time that they had seen such a huge animal. It was like a monster!

At the thought of this, the two of them exchanged glances.

They could read each other’s minds from the eyes.

If that was the case, they could definitely film huge monsters in the following movies. Since there was such a huge tiger, what else couldn’t they find?

Although they thought so, the two of them stared at the giant tiger, gathered together, and whispered for a long time. No one knew what they were talking about, but they didn’t seem to reach a consensus in the end.

The next morning, Fang Qiu came to the University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine and was going to meet with Li Ji who disguised as him at Yaowang Mountain.

Soon, he arrived at Yaowang Mountain.

"You finally came." The moment Li Ji saw Fang Qiu, he immediately came up and whispered in Fang Qiu's ear, "I finally know what it feels like to be a star."

As he spoke, he took out a dozen love letters from his pocket and handed them to Fang Qiu, saying, "These are from your fangirls. Do you become the most popular and handsome boy in the school?"

Fang Qiu shook his head with a wry smile.

They then came to the cottage where Zhao Shanlin used to guard the medicine field, quickly exchanged identities, and then returned to the library together.

In order to make the whole show more complete, Fang Qiu was going to find Xu Miaolin, but he didn't expect that Xu Miaolin was not there.

Ultimately, to repay Li Ji for putting on this show and also to make the show more complete, Fang Qiu immediately told Li Ji about Chinese Medicine in Human Body for the whole afternoon in the library, and then talked about how a martial arts practitioner should cultivate and so on.

Li Ji gained a lot after the whole afternoon!

"Amazing. You're truly amazing."

After listening to Fang Qiu's lecture, Li Ji kept praising him and sighed with emotion, "I didn't expect that I can even use this book for cultivation. It's a pity that people don't know about it."

Hearing this, Fang Qiu smiled.

That night, Li Ji directly changed into John Doe and left.

Fang Qiu was also about to return to the shooting base, but when he thought of the giant tiger that stayed in the base, he suddenly found it a little tricky.

“How should I deal with this giant tiger?” After pondering for a long time, Fang Qiu murmured, “I can only place it in Beijiang. I still lack a strong guardian there. With such a tiger comparable to an eighth-class Martial Superior, it should be able to protect the place.”

He nodded to himself.

Fang Qiu immediately took out his phone and called He Gaoming.

“Hello, master?” He Gaoming instantly picked up the phone.

“I’ve finished my work here. As a reward for Fang Qiu’s help, I’ve given the giant tiger left there to Fang Qiu. You can help me transfer it.”

Speaking of this, Fang Qiu continued, “Since this thing is over, I’ll leave first. Next time we meet, I’ll bring you guys some small gifts to thank you for your help this time.”

“Okay.” He Gaoming immediately nodded and said with a smile, “then you have to prepare a good gift for us, preferably a Guru Sword for each one of us!”

Fang Qiu was speechless.

On the Crouching Tiger Mountain, it was not until the daytime that the people sent by the major forces dared to go up the mountain to inquire about some news.

However, they found nothing on the mountain.

Just when everyone was confused, a piece of news came.

Chu Ying’s body was discovered three kilometers away from Crouching Tiger Mountain.

All the major forces did some research.

“John Doe killed Chu Ying!” Soon, the news came out.

This time, all the people in Wulin were shocked!

That was Chu Ying.

He was the notorious evil man, a super master who reached the peak of the ninth class.

John Doe actually killed him.

Chapter 937: A Beautiful Misunderstanding

“John Doe killed Chu Ying?”

“Chu Ying, Mister Evil, was killed by a rising Wulin newbie in these two years?”

“What Mister Evil? He was just a beast! He deserved to die!”

“Although Chu Ying was notorious, he was an expert who had been famous for a long time. He was famous in Wulin more than ten years ago. At that time, he had already reached the super level of ninth-class Martial Superior. After more than ten years, his power has long reached the peak of ninth-class all-over success. He was only one step away from the guru. How could John Doe kill him?”

“John Doe is really too mysterious. How powerful is he exactly?”

“In addition, when the divine sword appeared in the world, John Doe defeated the Sword Fanatic with his swordsmanship. John Doe is now certainly the No.1 next to the guru. His power is really terrifying!”

“Who would have thought that this is a newbie who has just joined Wulin for two years?”

“John Doe killed Chu Ying, which means that he had got the Heaven Treasure on Crouching Tiger Mountain. But there is nothing left on Crouching Tiger Mountain. Then where is the guardian beast of the Heaven Treasure?”

“According to reliable information, the Heaven Treasure on Crouching Tiger Mountain is the Fire Element Pill, and the guardian beast of the Fire Element Pill is a giant tiger. After John Doe took the Fire Element Pill and killed Chu Ying, he also tamed the giant tiger!”

“Tamed the giant tiger?”

“Holy cow! Is he really this powerful?”

“He could even tame a guardian beast. Amazing!”

“The guardian beast of the Fire Element Pill should have the seventh-class or eighth-class power at least. How could it be tamed by John Doe?”

All kinds of rumors appeared one after another and were spread quickly in Wulin.

And almost all of these rumors had been verified. Some people even took photos of He Gaoming with the giant tiger.

Seeing that giant tiger, all the people in Wulin were shocked.

John Doe was really awesome!

He was even able to tame such a huge tiger. No one could compete with him.

Pear Garden.

“He even killed Mister Evil?” Yun Yangzi, who had received the news, couldn’t help having a bitter smile that he hadn’t had for more than ten years. Especially when he heard that Fang Qiu had got the Fire Element Pill, he muttered with a depressing face, “I can’t catch up with him, I can’t!”

He knew that Wulin had changed.

From now on, as long as John Doe was there, no one in Wulin dared to claim to be the God’s favored one. John Doe’s appearance was not to suppress one or ten people, but to suppress an entire generation of people!

News came one after another.

However, what attracted people most was the meeting between John Doe and Fang Qiu.

“I inquired that after killing Chu Ying and obtaining the Fire Element Pill, John Doe returned to the University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine to meet Fang Qiu. They discussed the Chinese Medicine in Human Body in the library of UJCM. Fang Qiu alone explained the book to John Doe for the entire afternoon. As for the specifics, I still don’t know. But John Doe listened very carefully during Fang Qiu’s explanation!”

As soon as the news came out, all the people in Wulin were confused.

“John Doe listened to Fang Qiu explaining Chinese Medicine in Human Body?”

“Isn’t Chinese Medicine in Human Body the new book that Fang Qiu just published?”

“Did John Doe find something, or did Fang Qiu know something?”

“Could it be that there are other secrets of Wulin hidden in Chinese Medicine in Human Body?”

“I’ve been paying attention to Fang Qiu before. Although Fang Qiu is not a martial arts practitioner, he seems to have practiced Qigong for many years. Not only does he know Insight but also meridians. It seems that he has something in common with us martial arts practitioners.”

“Could it be that John Doe went to find Fang Qiu because he knows Insight and meridians?”

“Since John Doe appeared in Wulin, he has not done anything that has nothing to do with his interests. He suddenly asked Fang Qiu out and even asked him to give him a lesson on the book. Does this mean that this book can help John Doe solve his doubts and even improve his power?”

There were more rumors reaching more people.

With rumors going on, a beautiful misunderstanding occurred in this way.

That night, public opinions on Wulin Net were still extraordinarily heated.

Everyone was still talking about everything of John Doe.

The bookshops’ sales volume also rose wildly at the same time!

As the rumors spread, in the country, those martial arts practitioners who were only obsessed with cultivation and had no interest in the outside world, especially the Chinese medicine, all ran to the nearest bookstore to buy Chinese Medicine in Human Body!

At Dangran, after several rounds of limited pre-orders, the sales of Chinese Medicine in Human Body, which was almost stable and gradually began to decline, actually had a reverse growth. The sales rose up again instantly.

This made all the publishers in the country very speechless.

They watched this huge “cake” placed in front of them, they wanted to touch it, or just have a lick. But no matter how hard they tried, they couldn’t have a bite of it, because ISBN was not authorized to them!

All major publishers could only smile bitterly towards this situation.

The next day, at Shiqiu Film and Television Base in Jiangnan, Fang Qiu returned in Director Chen Xiaogang’s full expectations.

The reason why Chen Xiaogang was looking forward to it was because that there was not enough time!

Fang Qiu had told him that he only had one month to shoot the movie. Now he had been delayed by what had happened at Crouching Tiger Mountain for two days, which made the shooting time even shorter.

Therefore, Chen Xiaogang had been hoping that Fang Qiu would come back as soon as possible. So the film crew would be back on track, and they can continue the shooting!

Chen Xiaogang was anxious, and Fang Qiu felt the same way too.

Time was what he valued the most. Because it was something that couldn’t be compensated from other aspects.

Hearing that Fang Qiu was coming back, Chen Xiaogang waited outside the base early in the morning.

At the warehouse of the base, the giant tiger was still lying on the ground. There was a big iron basin by its mouth, inside was filled with bloody beef. Although the smell of blood was very strong, the giant tiger didn’t eat much at all. It looked like it had no appetite at all.

A motor trike specially used at the base stopped outside the warehouse.

Fang Qiu got off the car.

Seeing Fang Qiu, Director Chen Xiaogang hurried to welcome him and said, "you are back."

"Yes. Sorry to have kept you waiting." Fang Qiu nodded with a smile.

"Let's go in first," Chen Xiaogang said.

After the motor trike driver had left, Chen Xiaogang dragged Fang Qiu into the warehouse.

He attempted to scare Fang Qiu with the giant tiger.

"Look over there!"

Walking into the warehouse, Director Chen Xiaogang stretched out his hand and immediately pointed at the giant tiger lying on the ground. He looked at Fang Qiu with expectations, waiting to see Fang Qiu's frightening look.

But Fang Qiu just nodded and said, "I see it." without any fear.

"Aren't, aren't you scared?" Chen Xiaogang looked at Fang Qiu surprisingly and asked, "aren't you afraid of such a huge tiger?"

"John Doe has told me in advance," Fang Qiu shrugged his shoulders and said with a smile. "I've made mental preparations. And this tiger is so well-behaved. It seems that there is no need to be afraid."

Chen Xiaogang was speechless.

Compared with what they looked like when they first saw this giant tiger, Fang Qiu's reaction was too calm.

Comparisons were odious!

“Oh, you are back?” He Gaoming’s voice came over.

Fang Qiu turned and saw He Gaoming came out of the prop room, holding a mane brush and was about to go to the giant tiger.

“What are you doing?” Chen Xiaogang was surprised and asked, “what are you doing with the mane brush?”

“I am going to pick that giant tiger bro’s teeth,” He Gaoming grinned and said, “I’ve prepared such a big basin of meat for it, but it didn’t eat. Maybe because it has a toothache?”

Hearing this, Chen Xiaogang and Fang Qiu looked at each other. Both of them seemed speechless.

That giant tiger had a toothache?

He was such a huge tiger. He could eat people without spitting out their bones. How could it have a toothache?

“By the way, has my master told you?” Looking at Fang Qiu, He Gaoming closed his lips lightly and said, “this ‘giant tiger bro’ of mine will follow you from now on. You will be its master.”

Fang Qiu nodded and said, “okay.”

“Are you scared?” He Gaoming patted Fang Qiu on the shoulder and asked, “do you want to go and have a look with me?”

Whoosh.

The giant tiger, which had been lying on the ground, suddenly got up and looked back at Fang Qiu and the others. There was a bit of confusion in its huge eyes.

It could clearly feel the smell of Fang Qiu.

At the same time, he could also understand what these people were talking about.

The reason why it suddenly got up was that it had heard that it was going to have its master changed.

It was no ordinary tiger.

Its master had to be an extraordinary person, too!

How could something like a master be changed so casually?

But when the giant tiger got up and felt the energy of Fang Qiu, it was confused.

This was its master!

The appearance could deceive people, but the smell couldn't.

Humans didn't have enough understanding of smells, but animals in nature had a very special sense of smells. It was like if this was a place where ferocious beasts lived, other wild beasts could smell and sense them easily and wouldn't dare to overstep boundaries.

Therefore, animals, especially ferocious beasts, couldn't recognize people at all! What they recognized was smells!

The giant tiger felt the smell of its master from Fang Qiu, so it made sure that Fang Qiu was its master, just with a different appearance.

“Purr, purr, purr...”

“Purr, purr, purr...” the giant tiger made a strange sound, as if it were clearing its throat.

Then it trotted all the way to Fang Qiu happily.

Seeing this, Director Chen Xiaogang as well as other staff were all shocked.

For some reason, every time they saw the giant tiger running, they felt flustered. As if the giant tiger was going to hurt people when it ran. They were worried that the giant tiger would hurt Fang Qiu.

After all, Fang Qiu was the protagonist of this movie. Once injured, the movie would be delayed for a long time!

Just as Chen Xiaogang was about to ask He Gaoming to stop it, the giant tiger had already run to Fang Qiu. But it did not hurt Fang Qiu as everyone had imagined. Instead, it kept running around Fang Qiu twice, and pretended to be an obedient kid. It stuck out its tongue and licked Fang Qiu’s hand. And Fang Qiu touched the giant tiger’s head by taking this chance.

This time, everyone, including He Gaoming, was really surprised!

They all didn’t expect this giant tiger to be so gentle to Fang Qiu.

“Did you see that? Doesn’t it know human?” He Gaoming looked to Chen Xiaogang and said proudly, “I just said it, it already understood.”

“Yes,” Chen Xiaogang nodded and said with certainty, “you are right!”

Chapter 938: A Challenge Letter from the Ten-year-ago God’s Favored One!

With Fang Qiu coming back, the shooting restarted.

The whole shooting process had been going steadily.

Fang Qiu was meticulous about both his acting and martial arts parts. Although he hadn't learned any professional acting, he read some books about acting before the official shooting.

For example, he also read the famous book An Actor Prepares word by word.

Of course, he also read many other books.

Although it was not as effective as studying in professional schools, Fang Qiu still found many important points in these books. He also had some understanding of acting. In addition, with the help and guide of Director Chen Xiaogang during the acting, he gradually became proficient in acting.

This kind of change greatly increased his confidence.

In the beginning, Li Baoguo didn't think Fang Qiu would make a good actor. But after having seen Fang Qiu's growth day by day, he gradually changed his opinion of Fang Qiu. He thought that Fang Qiu was actually quite good. At least he was much better than those young actors who had no acting skills at all.

Of course, everyone, including the giant tiger, still lived in the warehouse during the shooting.

As the director, Chen Xiaogang saw that the giant tiger really regarded Fang Qiu as its master and listened to him, he immediately thought of the issue he discussed with the scriptwriter Zhao Rulong.

That night when John Doe sent the giant tiger to the warehouse, Chen Xiaogang and Zhao Rulong learned from He Gaoming that there really existed mutated ferocious beasts like guardian beasts in the world. He Gaoming didn't hear clearly that night, but in fact, the issue Director Chen Xiaogang and Zhao Rulong discussed was to find an opportunity to let the giant tiger participate in the movie.

That night, the director and editor's discussion was fruitless.

Because it was the first time they saw the giant tiger, and they were afraid that the giant tiger would be disobedient and cause catastrophic damage to the crew.

But now, the giant tiger was so obedient that it seemed their previous misgivings were gone.

Chen Xiaogang had always felt that since there were such powerful animals existing in Wulin, he might as well find an opportunity to let this giant tiger participate in the movie.

After all, this would be the first time in the movie history. Such a huge tiger would definitely attract a lot of attention and thus attracting more box office.

Thinking of this, after finishing one scene and shouting out "Cut!", Chen Xiaogang quickly walked towards Fang Qiu. As he accompanied Fang Qiu to take a rest, he said, "I have a suggestion. Please listen and tell me how do you think of it."

"What is it?" asked Fang Qiu curiously.

"It's that I want that giant tiger to act in our movie. After all, this is also a very big selling point. I believe that with the giant tiger, the movie will definitely be better."

After saying that, Chen Xiaogang looked at Fang Qiu with expectations, waiting for his reply.

"Well..." Fang Qiu pondered for a moment. Let the giant tiger participate in the film?

Having a guardian beast in the movie would be the first time in the film industry of the country and even in the whole world.

He was not worried that the audience would think it was a true creature. After all, few people dared to believe that there was such a huge tiger in the world.

The only problem was that could this giant tiger be controlled as easily as a human being?

If there was something wrong, no ordinary man could control it.

But since he came back to the base, he had used various ways to feed the giant tiger meat every day. In the past few days, the giant tiger had eaten a lot of meat and its stomach was still bulging.

It was time for it to do some exercise.

But he couldn't starve it. If it was hungry, it would want to eat meat. It wouldn't be good if it hurts people.

"What do you think?" Director Chen Xiaogang asked.

"It's okay for it to act in the movie, but the problem is its meals. We have to feed it until it's full every day. Otherwise I'm afraid that it will hurt people," Fang Qiu said.

"Can you promise that it won't hurt people if it is full?" Chen Xiaogang asked.

"Yes, I can," Fang Qiu nodded his head and said.

"That's good," Chen Xiaogang immediately waved his hand and said, "all its meals would be on the crew. As long as it is willing to eat, we will pay for all the meals!"

"Alright, then it's settled," Fang Qiu smiled and said.

It was okay to let the giant tiger take part in the movie.

Yang Yizhi has sixth-class power, and it should not be a problem for him to cope with such a huge tiger. After all, the power of the ancient predecessors was not as weak as that of modern Wulin people of the same level.

There was no exaggeration in having the giant tiger act in the movie. Additionally, the audience could clearly realize the power of Yang Yizhi and prove him. Why wouldn't Fang Qiu do it?

Most importantly, such a huge animal really existed in Wulin.

"Great! This is great," hearing Fang Qiu's consent, Chen Xiaogang immediately laughed excitedly and said, "I'll go find Zhao Rulong right away and ask him to revise the script. We'll let you see after he finishes it."

"Okay," Fang Qiu nodded and said.

In Wulin, the popularity of various public opinions was still particularly high.

Everyone was very interested in the news that John Doe killed Chu Ying and tamed the giant tiger.

But, just as everyone was talking about it heatedly, a person who had disappeared in Wulin for a long time, and even made people in Wulin almost forget him, suddenly appeared.

Somewhere in Huaxia, in a bungalow in no man's land. "The No.1 next to the guru?" A man had long gray hair but he didn't look old. He logged into the Wulin online forum through an old-fashioned computer and saw the news.

"John Doe?"

"In the past two years, there has always been news about this boy. Judging from his achievements, his power should be really strong. However, I'm afraid that it's not easy to be the No.1 next to the guru."

Speaking of this, the man suddenly laughed and said, "titles give people pressure. I remember that the last time the man who was given this title seemed to be me. Unfortunately, ten years have passed, and I haven't made a breakthrough. I have waited for ten years. Now I have finally found the most suitable whetstone."

The man murmured, immediately reached out his hands, and typed on the keyboard.

Soon, a post quietly appeared on the Wulin online forum.

John Doe, Please Have A Fight with Me!

As soon as the post came out, it caused a big sensation on the forum.

Everyone was shocked. At the moment when John Doe killed Chu Ying and got the Fire Element Pill, someone would dare to stand out and challenge him?

Everyone was curious.

Who on earth was this audacious person?

When they clicked on the post and saw the ID of the person who posted it, they were all shocked!

“Lin Rusheng!”

“It’s him?”

“Oh my God! How come this man suddenly appeared?”

“Is, is he going to come back to Wulin?”

In Wulin, some experienced people exclaimed one after another.

No one had expected that this person would appear.

“Who is Lin Rusheng?”

“Who is this person? It sounds like that he is really powerful.”

“According to the seniors, has this person secluded a long time ago? Otherwise, why would someone say that he is going to come back to Wulin again?”

“This man is too bold, isn’t he? Is he very powerful? How dare he challenge John Doe?”

The young martial arts practitioners were all confused.

“Lin Rusheng, the God’s favored one of Wulin ten years ago. Although he became famous late, his strong power was recognized by the whole Wulin. He was also known as the strongest existence next to the guru at that time!”

“Lin Rusheng, ten years ago, his power was at the peak of the ninth class, even stronger than the Sword Fanatic now. In order to break through to become the guru, he has disappeared in Wulin for ten years. I didn’t expect that he hasn’t made a breakthrough until now. But even if he hasn’t made a breakthrough, his power must have strengthened again after ten years of accumulation. I think he should be the No.1 next to the guru. John Doe’s chances of winning against him are very low!”

Some seniors’ explanations made the young martial arts practitioners know the power of Lin Rusheng. At the same time, they were shocked that he had not yet made a breakthrough.

He couldn’t reach the guru level within ten years. The Guru Realm was indeed beyond the reach of ordinary people!

In the post, it said, “I’m ashamed to say that I still haven’t broken through to become the guru after ten years of hard work. My power hasn’t improved. Now I’m back in Jianghu and I heard that there are many talented people in the younger generation. So I invited you to fight with me. Let’s see who is the No.1 next to the guru. John Doe, do you dare to have a fight with me?”

Although the Challenge Letter was brief and there was a hint of bitterness among the words, the last sentence still got a lot of power, as if he wanted to prove who would be the winner with John Doe.

Actually, in recent years, Lin Rusheng always felt that he could break through at any time, but he always couldn't grasp that feeling. So he had been trying to grasp it all these years. It wasn't until recently that he finally figured it out. What he needed was a fight, a fight that could push him to the Guru Realm!

Therefore, he chose John Doe.

In his opinion, this wouldn't be bad for John Doe at all.

If he succeeded in breaking through in the fight, John Doe would still be the No.1 next to the guru and his reputation would not be damaged at all. If he failed, it could only prove that his power was inferior to John Doe, which also proved that he did not have the ability to break through to become the guru.

After knowing Lin Rusheng, the discussion on the Wulin online forum became more heated.

At the same time, everyone also became extremely excited because of this Challenge Letter.

"Will John Doe accept it or not?"

"This is the fight of 'No.1 next to the guru'. Whoever wins can prove that he is the most powerful next to the guru!"

"This title sounds awesome, although I don't think this title will stay with John Doe for a long time. After all, this guy's power grows too fast."

"Both of them are the best below the level of the guru. If they really fight, it will be much better to watch than the fight between John Doe and Yun Yangzi!"

On the Internet, everyone was paying attention to it. They were waiting for John Doe's reply. They wondered whether this fight could be finalized or not.

At the filming base, Fang Qiu was reading the script that was just revised when He Gaoming's loud voice rose on the set.

Medical Master

Chapter 939: The Battle of Ascension!

"Oh? Another one looking for being defeated? How dare he challenge my master?"

He Gaoming, who was holding his mobile phone, seemed to have been hit by something. He said emphatically, "You think you're awesome just because you used to be the No.1, don't you? Just wait and see. I'll let my master beat you to death!"

The crew all looked at He Gaoming in confusion, not knowing what he was talking about.

However, He Gaoming directly took out his phone and called John Doe.

But it didn't get through!

"Master might have gone to the deep forests to find Heaven and Earth Treasure again."

Seeing that the phone could not get through, He Gaoming calmed down a little. Then he began to study the information of the person who issued the Challenge Letter to John Doe.

"What the f*ck." After studying it for a while, He Gaoming suddenly raised his voice and exclaimed, "It turns out to be an expert who has been famous for a long time. He hasn't shown up for ten years. Fortunately, I couldn't reach the master just now. Otherwise, it would be too shameful if I couldn't even tell who he was when my master asked."

Fang Qiu heard every word He Gaoming said. Knowing that someone had issued a Challenge Letter to him on the Wulin forum and that he was a well-known expert, he wanted to agree without hesitation.

What he needed most now was to quickly enhance his strength through numerous battles!

An hour later, with the excuse of going to the restroom, Fang Qiu directly logged into the Wulin forum with his phone.

“I’ll fight!” He made a simple reply below Lin Rusheng’s Challenge Letter.

After the Challenge Letter was issued, Lin Rusheng had been waiting for John Doe’s reply.

He didn’t expect that John Doe’s reply came so fast.

Meanwhile, everyone saw John Doe’s reply on the Wulin forum.

The Wulin forum was in an uproar!

“Did John Doe agree?”

“Is it really John Doe?”

“John Doe agreed. He truly agreed!”

“Haha, we finally have a great battle to expect!”

When everyone was extremely looking forward to it, Lin Rusheng replied to Fang Qiu’s message. “Sure enough, you have guts. Since you agree, I’ll leave a month for us to adjust ourselves and then bring out our best game. This will be my battle of ascension. Please give me a chance!”

As soon as this reply came out, it caused a sensation on the forum.

“What the f*ck. The battle of ascension?”

“Lin Rusheng is so modest, but his words are domineering. He deserves to be a super master of a generation.”

“The battle of ascension means that Lin Rusheng is about to break through to become a guru, right?”

As soon as he mentioned the battle of ascension, the attention of this battle in Wulin was instantly increased dramatically.

Not only the martial arts practitioners on the Wulin online forum but all the major forces in Wulin were also shocked by this battle.

What did the battle of ascension mean?

People of all the major forces were aware of it!

After ten years of secluded cultivation, was Lin Rusheng truly about to break through to the Guru Realm?

Maybe this battle could inspire him or let him comprehend something so that his strength could be improved and he could eliminate the bottleneck that he hadn't broken for ten years and become a real guru!

Was there going to be another guru in the world?

Everyone was talking about it in Wulin.

In the restroom of the shooting base, as soon as Fang Qiu finished replying, he was about to leave. But he received a reply again. He immediately clicked it and took a look. Although he vaguely guessed the intention of this sudden challenge, he couldn't help but admire him when he saw that the expert admit it in person.

Only a righteous person would be able to be so upright!

Fang Qiu didn't think much about it and replied directly, "I'll fight with all my might!"

"Thank you." Lin Rusheng responded immediately.

In this way, the battle between the most powerful people below the Guru Realm was settled as the two were replying to each other!

"I'm really looking forward to it."

"I really don't know what the battle between these two super experts will look like."

"When John Doe fought Yun Yangzi at that time, it was already terrifying. Lin Rusheng is obviously much stronger than Yun Yangzi. I'm afraid that the battle between the two this time will surpass John Doe's battle against Yun Yangzi. I can't wait to see it."

"I'm really looking forward to it. Although I know that the battle between the two is very dangerous, I still can't help wanting to see it. I can't help hoping that the two of them can have an earth-shattering fight!"

On the Wulin online forum, everyone began to discuss again.

They all felt that a battle at this level was simply too rare.

After receiving Lin Rusheng's reply and confirming this great battle, Fang Qiu directly logged out of the Wulin forum and sent a text message to He Gaoming.

"I will go into seclusion, doing closed-door training for a month. Do not disturb me!"

After sending a message, Fang Qiu directly locked this phone number, and then changed the number into Fang Qiu's before coming out of the restroom.

When Fang Qiu just walked out, He Gaoming also came out.

As He Gaoming washed his hands, he glanced at Fang Qiu in surprise.

"Tut-tut..." He Gaoming shook his head in amazement before he said, "You've been squatting for almost an hour. Aren't your legs numb?"

Fang Qiu rolled his eyes at He Gaoming.

Obviously, he didn't expect that He Gaoming would ask such a question.

He immediately thought about it and didn't know how to answer. After a long while, he could only say, "I'm young and healthy!"

After reading the newly revised script, Fang Qiu also felt that the new plot was great, so he directly confirmed it and officially started shooting.

"All right." When everything was ready, Director Chen Xiaogang personally went forward to instruct the actors. He said, "This scene is about Yang Yizhi escorting Zhu Yuanzhang down the mountain. On the way, they encountered a huge tiger. In order to protect Zhu Yuanzhang, Yang Yizhi had a big fight with the tiger!"

As this was a new part of the storyline, Chen Xiaogang had to specially introduce it to everyone. After all, this plot did not exist in the script given to them earlier.

“Fang Qiu.” After finishing describing the scene, Director Chen Xiaogang called Fang Qiu and said, “I want to see how strong this giant tiger is. Can you let him demonstrate? After all, only when we understand it can we design the most appropriate battle.”

“Okay.” Fang Qiu nodded with understanding.

Then he motioned the giant tiger, who had already been brought to the set and was sleeping on the side. He said, “Go, show me your strength.”

“Roar!” The giant tiger let out a cry, got up, walked straight behind Fang Qiu, stopped in front of a tree with more than 30 centimeters in diameter, slowly raised its claws, and slammed on the trunk of the tree!

“Pa! Crack!” There was a loud bang.

As the tiger’s claw fell, the tree with a diameter of more than 30 centimeters was broken by the giant tiger’s blow. The tree fell directly to the ground after being broken.

This scene seriously frightened the staff on the spot.

“All right, all right.” Seeing that, Director Chen Xiaogang quickly waved his hand and asked them to stop.

He was a little scared.

The strength of this giant tiger was simply terrifying.

What if the giant tiger slapped people when they started shooting? What should he do by then?

At the thought of this, Chen Xiaogang looked at He Gaoming and his men. He thought to himself, “No, I have to stay away from Wulin in the future. They are a group of fu*king supermen. If we stand with them, we are no different from ants. If we are accidentally injured or disabled, we don’t even dare to ask for compensation.”

After confirming this scene, He Gaoming immediately began his action direction and led everyone to design the movements for Yang Yizhi's battle with the giant tiger.

Soon, the action design was completed.

Everyone thought it was good.

Fang Qiu also thought that it was fine and immediately began to communicate with the giant tiger.

Although he couldn't speak, the giant tiger was psychic. He could easily understand what Fang Qiu said and the meaning of his words. Therefore, after a simple explanation from Fang Qiu, the giant tiger completely comprehended.

The shooting officially began!

The giant tiger's acting skills were completely beyond everyone's imagination. He put on a great show. No matter how hard the actor beat it, the fists hitting it were like scratching for him. It didn't hurt at all. But even if it didn't hurt, the giant tiger still pretended to be beaten and screamed painfully during the shooting.

In the end, he was beaten to death by Yang Yizhi barehanded while roaring at the sky.

They passed with one take.

"Cut!" After it was done, Director Chen Xiaogang got up and cut it in satisfaction.

As soon as he finished, the giant tiger stood up lazily, shook its body, and then went straight to the large basin of meat that the crew had prepared for him in advance.

Fang Qiu came over and asked, "Director Chen, how is it?"

“Very well.” Chen Xiaogang quickly gave him a thumbs up and said, “Your acting skills are getting better and better. That big tiger’s acting is not bad either. You perform a great scene. Very good!”

People rested for a while.

In this scene, Yang Yizhi and Zhu Yuanzhang didn’t have enough money to eat, so Yang Yizhi robbed Shen Wanshan’s mansion related to Zhang Shicheng at night, and his whereabouts were exposed.

The plots were filmed continuously.

Time went by.

When he didn’t need to go shooting, Fang Qiu did not forget to ask for two days off from Director Chen Xiaogang. He found a Chinese Medicine hospital to see patients for 24 hours.

When netizens learned that Fang Qiu had asked for leave from the production team to see patients, they praised Fang Qiu’s medical ethics. Even though he was extremely busy, he did not forget his promise to treat patients.

Soon, there was a frenzy on the Internet about Fang Qiu!

After Fang Qiu saw patients for 24 hours, he continued to shoot the film.

As time passed by, Fang Qiu accumulated more and more experience and his acting skills improved a lot. During the whole shooting, everyone worked hard.

Because everyone had the same feeling, the film they were shooting this time would definitely be a high-quality movie. It was worth spending all their energy on!

The most important thing was that everyone in the crew got along very well with each other. Even the Wulin people were having a good time with the crew though the staff thought that it was not easy to get along with them in the first place. Except for the fact that they excelled at martial arts, they seemed to be no different from ordinary people.

Besides, He Gaoming was a chatterbox.

Chapter 940: Setting the Date to Release the Movie!

A month passed by quickly.

In the shooting base, all the staff worked hard and did their job meticulously during this month.

In addition, He Gaoming's martial arts team was amazing, and the actors excelled at acting. They nearly filmed every scene with one take.

Even in some delicate shots, they wouldn't retake them more than three times.

This kind of shooting speed didn't only amaze Director Chen Xiaogang, but also the actor who played Zhu Yuanzhang, Li Baoguo.

"I've been filming for most of my life. This is the first time I've filmed a movie so smoothly. It's finished in a month."

Li Baoguo, who was the first to finish filming his scenes, could not help but exclaim as he looked at the last scene filmed by Director Chen Xiaogang.

It was the last scene of the movie.

Sitting in front of the monitor, Director Chen Xiaogang stared intently at the monitor screen.

On the screen, Yang Yizhi, played by Fang Qiu, walked away against the morning sun.

“Cut!” Just as Fang Qiu walked to the exact position, Director Chen Xiaogang immediately stood up excitedly and shouted to everyone, “It’s a wrap!”

As soon as he said that, all the actors and staff cheered with smiles.

Fang Qiu also smiled.

A month finally passed.

As expected, the movie finished shooting on time, which was in line with Fang Qiu’s schedule.

“All right.” Director Chen Xiaogang excitedly called everyone and said, “Thank you for your hard work, everyone. Don’t leave today. Let’s have a celebratory drink tonight!”

It was already a common thing to have a celebratory drink and banquet in the entertainment circle.

These two were different. A celebratory drink represented the completion of one thing. For instance, a musician finished the production of a record. A TV drama director finished the shooting of a TV show.

Having a celebratory drink was to express appreciation to all the staff members, while the celebratory banquet was different. The celebratory banquet represented a gratifying achievement, such as the film box reaching hundreds of millions, etc.

After having the celebratory drink, it was very likely that everyone would gather together again at the celebratory banquet.

In the evening, all the actors removed their makeup, and the staff put away all their instruments. Everyone took a shower, changed into clean clothes one by one, and went to a rather famous restaurant outside the shooting base.

Under the arrangement of waiters, everyone gathered together.

“To tell you the truth.” After the dishes were served, Director Chen Xiaogang was pouring wine while saying, “I have made a number of movies in my life. However, this is the first time I’ve finished shooting a movie in such a short time!”

Speaking of this, Chen Xiaogang stood up and raised the goblet that he had just filled to the brim. Putting on a toasting posture, he said to all the actors and staff members, “Thank you for your efforts. This is a movie that you have successfully created. Without everyone’s assistance, there will be no miracle of a movie being completed in one month. Thank you all. I’ll finish my drink to show my respect to you first!”

“Okay!” The actors and staff got up to drink.

Fang Qiu also took a few sips.

They didn’t eat much food, but they drank a lot.

As Wulin people, He Gaoming and the others showed their strong capacity for liquor in front of everyone, which intimidated all the members of the crew.

There was nothing they could do about it. After all, they were overjoyed.

It was a total of one million.

They earned one million in a month, which was real money.

How could they not be overjoyed when this group of Wulin people, who had little money, made such a large sum of money in merely one month?

Everyone had a great time having the celebratory drink.

At the party, the actors who acted in the movie were happily taking photos with each other to remember the moment.

The celebratory party was still going on.

Some actors already posted photos of everyone gathering at the celebratory drink party after finishing filming the movie on Weibo.

As soon as the photos came out, they immediately attracted numerous netizens' attention.

"It's finished?"

"Didn't they just announce that the shooting officially started?"

"I remember that the opening ceremony was held a month ago. Did they finish the shooting in 30 days?"

"Damn it! It normally takes Director Chen Xiaogang half a year or three seasons to finish filming a movie. How could he finish this one in just one month?"

"Isn't it too fake since he made it so fast?"

"It took 30 days to film a movie. Is this an online TV drama?"

"Alas, it seems we were all fooled by Chen Xiaogang this time. A movie was made within one month. How good could it be?"

“Chen Xiaogang is too brainless. He is a renowned director. How could he make such a shitty movie? It’s simply impossible to watch a movie which was only made with one month, right?”

“I don’t want to watch it anymore. I feel like I’ve been cheated. How can a fu*king movie made in a month be counted as a movie? Even a variety show can’t be finished in a month, can it?”

“Chen Xiaogang has betrayed the professional ethics of a director!”

Countless netizens were discussing it.

Everyone felt that it was too unbelievable.

Though people didn’t know the exact process of making a movie, they heard about how it should be done.

In entertainment news, any shitty movie would take 3 to 5 months to finish, and some would even take 2 to 3 years to finish.

The first impression of the movie that was made in such a short time was that it must be awful!

Chen Xiaogang, who drank too much at the celebratory drink party, was woken up in the middle of the night by thirst. When he got up to drink water, he picked up his mobile phone and had a look. However, he saw that the notification of the headline of the news section on his mobile phone was that his movie was finished shooting.

As he was curious, Chen Xiaogang quickly logged into Weibo with his phone and saw the heated discussion and comments coming from the netizens.

“How can they say that it’s shitty and awful?” Seeing the comments made by the netizens, Chen Xiaogang became furious.

He pinned great hope on this movie.

He carried out everything with the strictest requirement. Whether it was the acting skills of the actors or the props required in the movie, he tried his best to deliver it perfectly.

He thought that if he could finish shooting a movie in a month, everyone would look forward to it even more. And he would receive more attention and praise.

He did not expect such an outcome.

Perhaps it was because he had not fully sobered up.

With anger in his heart, Chen Xiaogang sent a Weibo on impulse.

“The movie, Yang Yizhi, is officially finished shooting today. We temporarily decide that it will be released on August 2nd in the summer holiday!”

He posted it.

Even in the middle of the night, a large number of people were shocked by this post.

Of course, those who paid the most attention to it were the other directors.

“August 2nd? Did he set the date to release since he just finished shooting?”

“Not bad. Director Chen Xiaogang is really awesome. Ordinary people cannot afford to do that!”

“Director Chen is going to trap himself.”

“He’s opposing the audience. Director Chen is indeed a top-notch director. He dares to do such a thing. Amazing!”

“Haha, that’s a good move! I don’t believe that you won’t fall this time, Director Chen. If you fall, we can get a chance to rise.”

Soon, the directors in the show business were all thrilled when seeing the news.

Being a director was different from being an actor.

An actor could make a name for himself or herself through a good movie, a good TV series, or a good character. But a director was different. Even if they rose to fame with a masterpiece, it was still difficult for people to recognize them because they didn’t appear on TV, let alone remembering them.

Generally speaking, famous directors were prominent figures among all the directors.

However, with the existence of these top directors, many young directors couldn’t even make it to the top. Without decades of experience and several earth-shattering masterpieces, they wouldn’t be able to make a name for themselves.

Therefore, while showing respect to Chen Xiaogang, the directors were also hoping for an opportunity to surpass him.

Now, this opportunity came!

This time, Chen Xiaogang was finished!

Excited about the completion of the shooting, Zhao Rulong, who had not slept all night, finally felt a little sleepy after writing his scripts for most of the night.

He lay down on the bed and was about to check his phone before falling asleep.

But when he checked online, he immediately saw the public opinion about this movie which had been finished shooting too early. He also felt upset. However, as he saw the Weibo that Chen Xiaogang had just posted, the drowsiness he felt disappeared in an instant.

“Swish.” Without hesitation, Zhao Rulong straightened his back. He was scared out of his wits and quickly gave Chen Xiaogang a call.

“Zhao, what’s the matter?” Chen Xiaogang answered the call.

Zhao Rulong asked anxiously, “Xiaogang, our movie has just been finished shooting today. We haven’t done post-production yet. There are still various editings etc. We still have a lot of things to do, and it’s almost April. You directly announce that it’ll be released on August 2nd. There are only four months left. Can we make it?”

Chen Xiaogang immediately said, “Don’t worry. Since people don’t believe in us, we will give it all and let the audience watch carefully. No matter how short the time I take to make a movie, it will definitely be of the highest quality!”

“Although that’s the case, I still think that it is a bit too rushed to finish the movie in four months.” Zhao Rulong was still worried.

“Haha.” Chen Xiaogang laughed out loud and asked, “Don’t you think that after I make this move, it will save us a lot of publicity fees?”

“Hmm?” Zhao Rulong was stunned, and then he instantly came to an understanding and exclaimed with shock. “Incredible! You’ve forced yourself and also fooled everyone at the same time. Amazing!”

“Haha.” Chen Xiaogang laughed out loud.

The next day, everyone left one after another.

There were only Fang Qiu and the others left in the shooting base.

“Beep, beep, beep...” In the afternoon, Fang Qiu, who was looking at the giant tiger in the warehouse, suddenly received a call from He Xue.

“Hello?” Fang Qiu answered the phone.

“I heard that your movie has been finished shooting, right?” He Xue’s voice came from the other end of the line. “Perfect. The thing you asked me to deal with has been settled. When are you coming back?”

“I’ll be back in a few days,” answered Fang Qiu.

“Okay, I’ll wait for you.” He Xue nodded in understanding and hung up.

Hanging up the phone, Fang Qiu continued to stare at the innocent giant tiger in front of him. He was at his wits’ end.

How could he transport such a big tiger back since he couldn’t bring it out in broad daylight?
