Chapter 961: Encircled by Nirvana Organization!

The young man left.

Fang Qiu watched him leave.

Just as he said, the Qinghai Lake was so big that it looked like a sea. It was rare for him to come here. He must take a closer look to get a full view of Qinghai Lake.

Fang Qiu stayed.

He was sitting cross-legged on the shore of Qinghai Lake, which was less than 3 meters away from the Ambergris Grass.

“The Qi of Heaven and Earth is so thick.” As he closed his eyes to rest, Fang Qiu could clearly feel that the Qi of Heaven and Earth above the Qinghai Lake was obviously much fresher than anywhere else.

In this case, the energy that Fang Qiu consumed in the previous battle could be easily recovered.

The minor injuries he had suffered before were all healed.

Because the Ambergris Grass was located in a small corner that had not been developed in Qinghai Lake, no one showed up here at all.

He had been sitting cross-legged there for an entire day.

“Buzz, buzz...” At noon the next day, the Qi of Heaven and Earth above the Qinghai Lake suddenly began to surge.

“It’s about to mature!” Fang Qiu narrowed his eyes and stared at the Ambergris Grass which didn’t change at all.

But right at this moment, the sky above Qinghai Lake, which was sunny, suddenly darkened.

He looked up and only saw an extremely thick layer of clouds appear in the sky above Qinghai Lake. This layer of clouds was very thick, but it was not dark clouds. In fact, it was rather white in color.

However, no matter how white it was, it still gave people a huge sense of suppression because the clouds were too thick.

“Could it be...” An idea occurred to Fang Qiu.

A vortex actually emerged in the center of the thick layer of clouds in the sky.

It was indeed a vortex formed by clouds.

“This is... the Qi of Heaven and Earth!” Fang Qiu lightly sensed it.

He immediately noticed that it was the surging Qi of Heaven and Earth that caused this vortex. After the Qi of Heaven and Earth formed a vortex in the sky, it attracted all the Qi of Heaven and Earth in all directions.

As the Qi of Heaven and Earth was accumulating, the Qi of Heaven and Earth that was swirling in the clouds high in the sky and could not be seen by ordinary people began to extend down.

It was very fast.

In the blink of an eye, it reached the surface of Qinghai Lake.

Then, the water in Qinghai Lake was directly sucked up by the huge force caused by the rapid swirl of the Qi of Heaven and Earth. Like a tornado, it spun wildly and rushed swiftly to the sky.

“Is this Dragon Absorbing Water?” Fang Qiu was stunned by the scene of nature.

He mumbled, “But why is the Qi of Heaven and Earth surging? Is it because of this?”

Fang Qiu shifted his gaze to the Ambergris Grass again.

Fang Qiu found that the Qi of Heaven and Earth that formed the Dragon Absorbing Water seemed to be attracted by something after connecting to the surface of Qinghai Lake. It actually gathered at the spot where Ambergris Grass was and quickly poured into it.

With the infusion of a considerable amount of Qi of Heaven and Earth, the Ambergris Grass also became more and more crystal clear. It looked bright and shiny as if a jade turned into water, which looked extremely delicate!

“It’s worth the trip.” Fang Qiu smiled.

He didn’t expect that either.

It was the first time that he had come to Qinghai Lake, and he actually encountered Dragon Absorbing Water which could barely be seen once in a lifetime.

He supposed that the reason why it was so rare to see Dragon Absorbing Water was that the Heaven Treasure hardly appeared.

It was once reported on TV that there was a spectacle of Dragon Absorbing Water. At that time, like the water column in front of him, nine water columns appeared in the place.

If the Dragon Absorbing Water at that time was formed because of the Heaven Treasure, how rare would the Heaven Treasure be?

He was quietly admiring this marvelous spectacle.

It wasn't until the Ambergris Grass had fully matured that the spectacle of Dragon Absorbing Water completely dissipated.

At this moment, three meters in front of Fang Qiu, the soft Ambergris Grass in the water stood up, looking like a piece of fine jade that had been carefully carved.

Fang Qiu was about to reach out to pick it up.

"Whoosh!" All of a sudden, the sound of a huge stream of water splashing suddenly rang out.

He took a closer look and only saw that in Qinghai Lake, a water column that was nearly 5 meters thick blasted to the sky. Within the water column, there was a black figure that jumped out from the lake swiftly.

As he looked carefully, the figure had four legs and didn't look like a creature living in the water at all!

"What's the guardian beast of the eighth Heaven Treasure?" Fang Qiu observed carefully.

As soon as the thick water column dissipated, a creature with four legs and a tail, which looked like a mouse or a seal, was stepping on the water. Its black eyes were glued to Ambergris Grass.

"An otter!" Fang Qiu narrowed his eyes.

He recognized it. When he was a child in the countryside, he heard from people of the older generation that there were numerous otters that were often caught by them at that time. But now this creature was placed in the Red List of Threatened Species.

The otter was a kind of weasel. Their bodies were long and their tails were short. Their eyes were slightly bulging and round. Their ears were very small. With short legs, their backs were brown, and their bellies were grayish-brown.

Otters mostly lived in the caves. Basically, they would rest in the day and only come out at night. They were good at swimming and diving. Their hearing, sight, and sense of smell were very keen. They mainly lived around the rivers and lakes and especially liked living in the stream areas with flourishing plants on both shores of the stream.

“There is actually an otter in Qinghai Lake, and it’s such a big one.”

Fang Qiu was surprised.

Ordinary otters were between 56 to 80 centimeters. With a tail of 30 to 40 centimeters, they were at most 1.2 meters long. Their size was almost the same as cats and dogs raised at home.

Now, the otter in front of Fang Qiu, whose body length reached at least 3 meters without taking its tail into account. Its four feet were almost as big as a normal person’s palm, and its claws were particularly sharp.

“Patter.” Staring at Fang Qiu, the otter suddenly took a step forward.

Fang Qiu sat still.

He knew that this otter wanted to get the Heaven Treasure, but he didn’t think that it was able to take the Heaven Treasure away from him. The reason why he remained still was that he was waiting.

Since the clue was taken out to be sold, there must be someone else who would come whether it was the seller of the clue or the people who bought the same clue as him.

He did not believe that he could encounter a person who happened to head to the same destination as him in this world!

“Pitter-patter...” The otter constantly tried to move forward step by step, getting closer to the Ambergris Grass.

When it was only 2 meters away from the Ambergris Grass, it was staring at Fang Qiu as it stretched out its forefoot to the freshly matured Ambergris Grass and tried to pluck it.

“Swish!” But right at this moment, a harsh whoosh of air was heard.

He came!

Fang Qiu abruptly turned his head.

Not far away, the young backpacker who walked with him just now indeed came back. This time, he didn’t come alone, but a group of people was following him. There were at least seven or eight people!

“Little thing, the Ambergris Grass is not something that you can take away.” The young backpacker smiled at the otter that had taken a step back in fear and then turned to look at Fang Qiu.

“Swoosh!” Just as he turned his head, Fang Qiu, who had been sitting still, moved at the moment.

Since they had already come, when could he take it if he did not take it now?

Like a flash of lightning, he moved and leaped over 3 meters in an instant. He shot over the lake and then returned to the shore in no time.

As people took a closer look, the freshly mature Ambergris Grass in the lake was gone.

Then, they looked at Fang Qiu’s hand, which was holding nothing but the Ambergris Grass.

“Whoosh.” Just as Fang Qiu was about to snatch the Ambergris Grass, the sound of something breaking through the air was heard.

The young backpacker rushed to Fang Qiu instantly and tried to grab the Ambergris Grass in Fang Qiu's hand.

He was here for the Ambergris Grass.

He first stopped the otter because he wanted to show his strength to Fang Qiu so that Fang Qiu wouldn't dare to make a move recklessly. However, he didn't expect that his intimidation didn't work at all.

Besides, he was far away from the Ambergris Grass. Although he had sensed Fang Qiu's intention of snatching it in the first place, he still couldn't stop him in an instant because Fang Qiu was too fast.

"Smack!" Under the young man's attack, Fang Qiu stepped on the ground with his right foot and immediately took a few steps back to keep a distance of about 2 meters between himself and the man.

Then, he placed the Ambergris Grass directly into the inner pocket of his shirt.

"Nirvana?" Putting away the Ambergris Grass, Fang Qiu stared at the young man and asked with a sneer as he was frowning.

The young man nodded and said with a smile, "Yeah. We've deliberately leaked the news that we're the ones who auctioned off the clue of the Ambergris Grass to the Sword Sect. This time, we planned to trap the Sword Sect, but we didn't expect that they would actually sell the clue to you. When God closes a door in front of you, there must be a window opened for you!"

"What about now?" Fang Qiu darkened his face.

The young man smiled faintly and said, "Now? Since you're here, don't think about leaving."

"Oh?" Fang Qiu smiled.

The young man said with a smile, "However, although two of our people have been killed by you, we have the same aspirations. We had a good conversation just now, so I can make an exception and give you a chance to join in so that we can help more people who need help in this world. As long as you are willing, everything is negotiable."

"What if I don't want to?" Fang Qiu asked.

"I'll kill you!" The young man's tone turned cold in an instant and he said, "People who are stubborn must be converted!"

"What if I don't want to be converted by you?" asked Fang Qiu teasingly.

The young man looked cold and said, "Then you can go to hell."

"Chirp!" On the surface of the lake, the giant otter became furious after losing the Ambergris Grass. With a swoosh, it turned around and rushed to the young man who stopped it from getting the Ambergris Grass, waving its claws angrily to attack the young man.

Seeing this, the people behind the young man immediately rushed out to face it and fought with the giant otter.

The young man stared at Fang Qiu fiercely, but Fang Qiu was not afraid at all.

They seemed to get into a fight at any moment!

After a while, the otter got beaten away.

The large group of people who followed the young man began to quietly move towards Fang Qiu.

"Do you want to block me?" Seeing this, Fang Qiu laughed suddenly and said while smiling, "Catch up with me first!"

“Swoosh!” As soon as he finished speaking, Fang Qiu didn’t hesitate and suddenly turned around and ran away at an exceptionally fast speed. With a swoosh, he fled far away.

Seeing this, the young man was stunned at once.

He was extremely gloomy.

It was said that no matter what kind of opponent John Doe met, he would always fight head-on, which was definitely not like how he reacted right now.

Medical Master

Chapter 962: Breakthrough to the Ninth Class with One Opened Meridian!

“Chase him!” The member of the Nirvana Organization, who was disguised as a backpacker, was suddenly dumbfounded when he saw John Doe running away without hesitation.

Because he learned that John Doe had always been the kind of person who would never run away when he encountered trouble and would always face it head-on. Therefore, they did not expect that John Doe would run away. From the beginning, they wanted to besiege and kill John Doe, not considering what to do if John Doe ran away.

However, John Doe actually ran away, which was beyond their expectations!

John Doe, the noted John Doe, ran away just like that.

“What the f*ck! Hurry up and chase him. No matter what, you must get him!” The young man roared, leading the people to chase hastily in the direction of John Doe’s escape.

However, compared with Fang Qiu, they were too slow.

Now, without using the strength of a guru, Fang Qiu’s recultivation strength had reached the Completion of the eighth class with two opened meridians.

Whether in terms of strength or speed, the strength he recultivated was far stronger than that of an ordinary eighth-class Martial Superior with two opened meridians.

After all, his internal Qi was several times more powerful than that of experts at the same level!

“You want to chase me?” As he charged forward rapidly, Fang Qiu directly employed his Divine Consciousness and found that the people of the Nirvana Organization were chasing him, about three kilometers away.

“How powerful should the Nirvana Organization be to cultivate such an expert who reaches the peak of the ninth class? He is even more talented than Yun Yangzi.” As he fled, Fang Qiu was shocked inwardly.

He could sense very clearly that this young man’s strength was at the peak of the ninth class.

Fang Qiu noticed that when the young man came back and showed his strength. Before that, the young man had disguised himself so perfectly, for he pretended to be rather innocent and scared. The most important thing was that Fang Qiu didn’t even sense a trace of energy from him.

If he hadn’t directly speculated the young man’s possible identity and asked about his aspirations, he would have been fooled by him.

However, although he was a super expert at the peak of the ninth class, he obviously couldn’t hide his strength from Fang Qiu. The only possibility was that there were stronger people in the Nirvana Organization, who were so strong that they were capable of helping this young man thoroughly suppress his energy aura. Even a guru couldn’t see through it.

Thinking of this, Fang Qiu looked rather solemn.

There were actually formidable experts in such an evil organization, which would be a serious problem for both Huaxia Wulin and the country!

“Damn it, how can he run so fast?” The young man chased after John Doe all the way, but he found that even if he tried his best, the distance between him and John Doe did not change, which was still so far.

“It’s the same as combat capability. The speed of an eighth-class Martial Superior with two opened meridians who reached the peak is equivalent to that of an ordinary ninth-class Martial Superior who reached the peak.”

Fang Qiu muttered to himself as he constantly observed the position of his pursuers with his Divine Consciousness.

Without utilizing the strength of the Guru Realm, Fang Qiu’s combat capability already reached the peak of the ninth class while only using the strength after recultivation, which was equivalent to Half-step Guru.

However, Fang Qiu was also well aware that if things went on like this, it was impossible to get rid of the tails.

If it weren’t for the fact that it was a critical moment, Fang Qiu might try to play with these people of the Nirvana Organization. However, at this critical moment when he was about to break through, there was no need for him to be entangled with them at all.

After the battle of Zhongnan Mountain, he temporarily suppressed the surging internal Qi in the meridians, but it could only be contained for three days. Now two days had passed, and Fang Qiu could only hold on for one more day at most.

Therefore, he had to shake off the tail that was hot on his heels, find a place to swallow the Ambergris Grass, and complete his breakthrough!

“If this drags on any longer, I’m afraid it will bring even greater trouble.” A thought came to his mind.

Fang Qiu immediately employed the strength of the Guru Realm. With a movement of his body, his speed instantly surged dramatically, and he suddenly dashed out several kilometers.

“What?” At the back, seeing John Doe suddenly speed up, the young man disguised as a backpacker was immediately dumbfounded.

“How could he be so fast? That’s impossible!” His face was full of disbelief, but he couldn’t stop the figure that gradually disappeared at lightning speed.

The man was gone in only one minute!

The backpacker was confused.

He felt that he seemed to have been completely fooled by the guy named John Doe.

As a top-class expert, the moment they met, he directly ran away without even exchanging blows. He simply ran away just like that.

As the backpacker watched John Doe run away, a sense of depression rose in his heart. He stopped, roared to the sky, and shouted, “John Doe, just you wait!”

In the front, Fang Qiu had already flown dozens of kilometers away.

His Divine Consciousness could no longer detect the aura of the pursuers.

In addition to rushing to make a breakthrough, one of the main reasons why Fang Qiu chose to run away was to save his strength.

After all, the young man was an expert who reached the peak of the ninth class, and he brought a lot of people with him. Although those people were not extremely powerful, they were all seventh-class or eighth-class experts.

If he stopped to fight with this group of people, it would be difficult for him to gain the upper hand unless he utilized the strength of the Guru Realm.

Although Fang Qiu was indeed a guru, he was now facing the members of the Nirvana Organization. Confronted with this evil and powerful organization, Fang Qiu had no intention of revealing his true strength at all, so he chose to run away.

He shook off the tail behind him.

Fang Qiu didn't stop. He continued to rush forward swiftly. He ran over 100 kilometers all the way to an unknown deep forest before he came to a stop.

"There is a chasm surrounded by mountains on all sides." Flying in the air, Fang Qiu glanced around and found that there was a chain of mountains around him. Under his feet, there was a huge gully in the mountain. On both sides of the gully were lofty rock walls and there were stones in the middle. It seemed that there had been mountain torrents or a river here.

"This place is perfect." After sweeping around, Fang Qiu finally fixed his eyes on a cave connecting the left rock wall with the ground at his feet.

He stepped down and came to the entrance of the cave.

Fang Qiu used his Divine Consciousness to explore the cave, only to find that the space inside was not big and it did not seem to be a place where people lived. It should be a cave abandoned by wild beasts in the mountain.

There was nothing in it.

Without further consideration, Fang Qiu directly entered the cave, grabbed a boulder with his internal Qi, and completely blocked the entrance to the cave.

Although the cave was pitch-black, nothing in the cave could escape Fang Qiu's perception with the detection of his Divine Consciousness. Moreover, a guru had a night vision.

When he came to the center of the cave, Fang Qiu directly sat down with his legs crossed.

He muttered, "I wonder how far I can break through this time."

Fang Qiu immediately closed his eyes and unleashed the suppression of the internal Qi in his meridians.

"Boom!" As soon as it was released, Fang Qiu felt that almost all the internal Qi in his meridians surged wildly at this moment as if it had suddenly been attracted by something extremely tempting. It was completely out of Fang Qiu's control and instantly gathered into a stream. With an exceptionally powerful aura, it directly rushed toward the Yangqiao Meridian.

"Pop!" Fang Qiu didn't even have time to react. With a slight sound, his Yangqiao Meridian was directly expanded by the rush of the extremely violent internal Qi and bulged in an instant.

"It's not good." Caught off guard, Fang Qiu was shocked. Without thinking too much, he opened his mouth and took the Ambergris Grass. He swiftly chewed it a few times and swallowed it hastily.

Meanwhile, an intense pain hit him.

The violent internal Qi expanded his entire Yangqiao Meridian to the size of a thumb in the blink of an eye. It seemed that it was about to burst.

Even if Fang Qiu made every effort to suppress it, it didn't work at all.

What was even more terrifying was that when the Yangqiao Meridian was about to completely burst, the violent internal Qi didn't slow down at all. Instead, it rushed more violently toward the next meridian.

That was the Ren Meridian.

Once the Ren Meridian was opened, he could reach the ninth class.

Fang Qiu was stunned by this scene.

He didn't expect that the breakthrough this time would be so terrifying. He broke through from the peak of the eighth class with two opened meridians to become an expert of the eighth class with three opened meridians as he directly opened the Yangqiao Meridian. Then, he was about to hit the Ren Meridian.

Was he going to make continuous breakthroughs?

"Why hasn't it come yet? Where's the energy of the Ambergris Grass?"

As the pain of his meridians bursting grew more and more intense, Fang Qiu found that after swallowing the Ambergris Grass, its energy didn't appear yet.

"I swear that, among all of Heaven Treasures I've ever seen, this Heaven Treasure's effect came the slowest!"

Fang Qiu felt quite bitter.

He suppressed so hard that his neck swelled and his face turned red.

Ultimately, when the surging internal Qi rushed to the Ren Meridian, it suddenly slowed down and gradually stopped. It seemed that it would stop at the Completion of the peak of the eighth class with three meridians.

At this moment, Fang Qiu suddenly came up with a bold idea.

"If I stop here, I have to find another Heaven Treasure to break through to the ninth class. In that case, why don't I take this opportunity to break through in one go?"

With that in mind, Fang Qiu immediately searched in his body for the energy transformed from the Ambergris Grass.

After a short while, sure enough, he saw the energy transformed from the Ambergris Grass flowing slowly towards the Yangqiao Meridian.

“In order to save a Heaven Treasure, I’ll have a bet!” Seeing that the energy transformed by the Ambergris Grass was about to be in place, Fang Qiu gritted his teeth and immediately activated the internal Qi that was no longer surging and stopped at the entrance of Ren Meridian. Then he drove all the internal Qi in his body. At the same time, he directly began to cultivate. Because he reached the peak of the eighth class with three meridians in this breakthrough and had broken through once before, there was no need for him to break the shackles at all. Fang Qiu’s cultivation was equivalent to directly making himself break through to the ninth class.

As soon as he was making the breakthrough, a huge attraction immediately burst out from his body, absorbing all the Qi of Heaven and Earth around him to pour it into his body!

With the infusion of the energy, the internal Qi in Fang Qiu’s body soared. The Qi of Heaven and Earth in his meridians, which had just slowed down, instantly began surging again. Without Fang Qiu’s instruction, it directly rushed to Ren Meridian. As it did just now, the violent internal Qi instantly filled up his Ren Meridian completely.

At this time, the energy of the Ambergris Grass arrived.

Because of the precise calculation, the energy of the Ambergris Grass had completely enveloped his two meridians before Fang Qiu could feel the pain of the Ren Meridian being struck.

As expected, he made a breakthrough and reached the ninth class with one opened meridian!

Medical Master

Chapter 963: The Chinese Medicine Conference Is Postponed for 2 Years

In a residential compound in Jiangjing, as soon as Xu Miaolin returned home, Chu Yunyun handed him an envelope and said, “The letter arrived. They all know that we’re living together, so they only send one letter this time. I haven’t read it yet. Take a look.”

“Is it the result?” Xu Miaolin paused and took the envelope from Chu Yunyun.

“Yes.” Chu Yunyun nodded.

Xu Miaolin took a deep breath and murmured, “Hiss... I hope it won’t delay.”

He immediately opened the envelope and took out a notice.

He took a closer look.

There were only several sentences in the notice. The first one was a pile of data— According to the vote of the 50 highly-skilled doctors and the three holy doctors, 30 votes were in favor of the postponement of the Chinese Medicine Conference while 23 votes were against it. The total votes were 30: 23.

The results of the vote were obvious. Therefore, in response to the needs of most people, the Chinese Medicine Conference this year would be postponed for 2 years!

There were two squares below.

On the left, there were names of 23 people who were against the postponement. On the right, there were names of 30 people who were in favor of it.

Everything was written clearly.

“Alas...” Seeing the final result, Xu Miaolin couldn’t help letting out a long sigh.

He truly didn’t know how to inform Fang Qiu of this result.

Although he had tried his best, things still went against his wishes. He could forcibly change the minds of some people he knew, but he couldn’t change everyone.

“Is it still delayed?” Chu Yunyun came over and glanced at the notice. Then she frowned and said, “It’s settled now. There’s no chance to change it. You’d better think about what to do next.”

“What else can I do?” Xu Miaolin pondered for a long while and sighed bitterly, “I can only call Fang Qiu.”

After saying that, he gritted his teeth, took out his phone, and dialed Fang Qiu’s number.

However, he couldn’t get through.

Helplessly, Xu Miaolin could only send a message to Fang Qiu, saying, “Come to see me quickly when you receive this message.”

In a cave deep in the mountain forest, with the addition of the Ambergris Grass’s energy, the pain Fang Qiu felt instantly decreased a lot. With the nourishment of the Ambergris Grass’s energy, the pain finally disappeared completely.

Fang Qiu also fully immersed himself in a comfortable sense of breakthrough. The thunder and lightning filled the sky. The wind was howling while the frost and snow were falling heavily. No matter how the weather outside the cave changed, Fang Qiu could not feel it at all.

It was as though he was meditating.

After an unknown period of time, ultimately, when the anomaly of the world outside the cave completely disappeared, Fang Qiu, who had been cultivating with his eyes closed, slowly opened his eyes.

He walked out of the cave.

“Phew...” Fang Qiu took a deep breath and felt the mighty power surging all over his body as if he had infinite strength. This feeling was entirely different from the breakthrough before as if he were a different person with a brand-new body.

As he gently clenched his fist, Fang Qiu could easily feel that his fist contained tremendous power which was enough to split mountains and shatter rocks.

“The ninth class with one opened meridian!”

As expected, he managed to merge two breakthroughs into one.

After this breakthrough, the anxiety in Fang Qiu’s heart finally eased up a little.

The Ren Meridian had been recultivated successfully.

Next, he only had one meridian left—Governing Meridian. And he could successfully recultivate to become a guru!

Only after recultivating to the Guru Realm could he begin to cultivate again and head toward the stage where he obtained two flowers in his Dantian!

Although he was thrilled, Fang Qiu still remained composed. In the cave, he completely stabilized his strength as a ninth-class Martial Superior with one opened meridian. Therefore, with only one thought, the surging power in his body quietly died down.

He took out his phone and casually cast a glance.

Fang Qiu found that it had been a day and now it was six o’clock in the morning of the next day.

“Mr. Xu?” As he checked the time, Fang Qiu also saw the text message sent by Xu Miaolin, so he immediately tapped on it to have a look.

“Is it the result of the Chinese Medicine Conference?” Although he was anxious, Fang Qiu didn’t call Xu Miaolin immediately. Since Xu Miaolin asked him to meet face to face, it meant that he couldn’t explain it clearly on the phone in a short time.

After reading the message, Fang Qiu immediately opened the map on his phone, located his position, and then found the direction of the nearest big city. He didn't want to go back to fight with the people of the Nirvana Organization, so he directly flew out in a flash.

While rushing to the nearby city, Fang Qiu booked a flight ticket to Jiangjing with his mobile phone.

Shortly afterward, Fang Qiu arrived in the city, took the ticket from the airport, boarded the plane, and returned to Jiangjing.

At 8:30 a.m., Fang Qiu returned to Jiangjing and immediately called Xu Miaolin.

"Where are you, kid?" As soon as the phone got through, Xu Miaolin's voice was heard.

"I've just arrived in Jiangjing. Where are you, Mr. Xu?" asked Fang Qiu.

Xu Miaolin said, "I'll wait for you at the library."

"Okay." Fang Qiu nodded and hung up the phone.

After leaving the airport, Fang Qiu got into the taxi he booked in advance and rushed all the way to school.

He then came to the library.

Xu Miaolin was indeed in the reading room.

"Mr. Xu." Entering the reading room, Fang Qiu called out respectfully.

"Yes." Xu Miaolin nodded with a grim look.

Seeing his expression, Fang Qiu sensed that something was wrong. He frowned and asked, "What's the result?"

"It's postponed." Xu Miaolin heaved a sigh, stretched out two fingers, and said, "For two years."

"What?" Fang Qiu's expression changed dramatically. He gritted his teeth and raged with regret, "Why did I have to do that? I shouldn't have written a book!"

Two years!

Would the old master be able to hold on for two more years?

If the conference couldn't be held on time, he would have to resort to violence!

He would bring everyone to the conference even if he had to tie them up.

A cold light flashed across Fang Qiu's eyes.

"It's not your fault." Xu Miaolin hurriedly comforted him. "No one expected this. Even if you didn't write a book, we might encounter other things that postpone the conference. Now because of your book, all the highly-skilled doctors in the country take you seriously. This is a good thing for you."

"What's so good about it?" Fang Qiu felt bitter.

He knew that Xu Miaolin was consoling him. Although Xu Miaolin's words were really comforting and could calm people down, this Chinese Medicine Conference was too important for Fang Qiu, so he couldn't suppress his anger.

Of course, he was angry at himself.

Xu Miaolin said again, "In fact, even if the Chinese Medicine Conference is delayed, it doesn't mean that we can't do anything. At least we have another way to try."

Fang Qiu hurriedly asked, "What is it?"

"Now, there is still a glimmer of hope." Xu Miaolin pondered for a moment and said, "Since the Chinese Medicine Conference has been postponed, why don't you directly bypass it? Why do you have to wait for the conference? Aren't people all obsessed with your books now? Aren't they all talking about your books?"

"This is your biggest advantage now. We can completely use this as an excuse and say that we want to make more content public, and then I will come out to vouch for you so that we can summon all the highly-skilled doctors!" Speaking of this, Xu Miaolin nodded and added, "In this way, although the Chinese Medicine Conference isn't held, we can also gather the Chinese Medicine doctors to have a meeting."

As Fang Qiu heard that, his eyes lit up.

He knew that Xu Miaolin would be making a great contribution if he vouched for him. At least, he would risk his reputation. If they truly summoned all the highly-skilled doctors and told them that he was looking for a cure, Xu Miaolin's reputation would be greatly affected, and no one would believe what he said in the future.

In order to solve this problem, Fang Qiu himself had to create more valuable content. At least, he had to make all the highly-skilled doctors in the country feel that it was worth a trip!

Obviously, this was the only way out for now.

Before that, Fang Qiu still had the most important thing to do, which was to contact the old master. The reason why he summoned all the highly-skilled doctors was to let them diagnose the old master. If the protagonist was not here, how could they work out a cure?

But the tricky thing was that the last time he saw the old master, he said that he would only meet him when Fang Qiu had only two flowers in his Dantian. Now, Fang Qiu still hadn't met the old master's requirements yet. He didn't know if the old master would show up at this time.

"What do you think?" Xu Miaolin's question made Fang Qiu come back from his deep thoughts.

"Let's do it this way." Fang Qiu immediately nodded and said, "Yes. However, there's one more important thing I have to do. I can only do it according to your plan if I manage to do that."

"Okay, I'll be waiting for your news." Xu Miaolin nodded at once.

After talking with Xu Miaolin, Fang Qiu left the library and came to the dormitory which he had not returned for a long time.

After thinking about it for a long time, he still didn't know how to find the old master. Ultimately, when there was no other way, Fang Qiu made a decision.

He thought that the old master must be doing something significant, and as long as it was of vital importance, it must be related to the government.

Therefore, he asked Li Ji to help him check on it.

It did not matter even if they found out how he acquired his martial arts skills!

He directly dialed Li Ji's number.

Fang Qiu explained the matter.

Only then did Li Ji realize that the master behind Fang Qiu was the old master!

As for everyone, this matter had always been a mystery. Even if the military and Fang Qiu had a profound cooperative relationship, they didn't know where he got his ability as a guru.

After checking for so long, they found nothing.

He didn't expect the source to be like this.

Now the truth came out.

Li Ji felt that it was of great importance, so he was ready to report it to higher-ups immediately and ask for permission for investigation.

"Wait." Hearing that, Fang Qiu immediately stopped him.

"Hmm?" Li Ji was a little confused.

"I met a man from the Nirvana Organization when I got the eighth Heaven Treasure. This was originally a trap they set up for the Sword Sect, but they didn't expect that I would come in."

Fang Qiu told him what he had learned.

After hearing that, Li Ji frowned more deeply.

It was another big deal.

It was related to Sword Sect and Nivanra Organization, but it wasn't something he could deal with. Hence, he had to report it to the superiors as well.

Li Ji said seriously, "Thank you for the information. I will try my best to help you."

“Okay, thank you.” Fang Qiu thanked him and then hung up the phone.

What he could do now was to wait for news.

He thought to himself, “Old master, where are you?”

Fang Qiu looked at the copper coin hanging on his bed, lost in thought.

He stayed in the dormitory for a whole day.

After Fang Qiu finished reading all the ancient books of Chinese Medicine he collected, Li Ji called.

“Any news?” asked Fang Qiu hastily.

Medical Master

Chapter 964: Forcing the Old Master to Show Himself!

“Sorry, I can’t find anything.” Li Ji’s apologetic voice sounded.

“You can’t find anything?” Fang Qiu’s heart sank, and he frowned deeply.

How could they not find him?

The government had access to any resources. How could they not find him?

Li Ji said, “We have employed all our authority, but failed to find anything. There is only one possibility.”

“What is it?” asked Fang Qiu.

Li Ji took a deep breath and said, "The classified level is too high, which is far beyond our clearance."

This was the first time his superior had encountered such a situation. At that time, he was also stupefied.

Hearing that, Fang Qiu instantly understood.

The matter that the old master was doing was extremely profound, and the secret behind it was also closely guarded. It was impossible for officials at the normal level to find anything about him.

Fang Qiu asked, "Is there any other way?"

"If you want to find him as fast as you can, I can't help you." Li Ji said with a wry smile, "We can only report to the higher authorities, but we don't know if they are willing to reveal it, and we can't be sure when we can get it."

Hearing that, Fang Qiu frowned heavily.

A crazy idea occurred to him.

He gritted his teeth and said, "Okay, thank you. I'll handle it myself."

"I'm very sorry," Li Ji apologized sincerely.

Fang Qiu said that it was fine. He hung up the phone, and there was a flash of madness in his eyes.

That crazy idea was to send a post on the Wulin forum!

He believed that as a practitioner in Wulin, the old master must have been paying attention to the Wulin online forum.

He thought to himself, “Old master, since you won’t show up, I’ll force you to show yourself.”

As soon as he thought of it, he did it.

Fang Qiu immediately used his laptop to log into John Doe’s account on the Wulin online forum and then swiftly typed on the keyboard with both hands.

After a short while, a new post appeared.

“Old master, I want to see you!” The moment this post appeared, it drew the attention of many people in no time.

At first, everyone thought that this was an ordinary post without any value. However, when they saw that the person who posted it was John Doe, they immediately focused on it.

Soon, everyone made the post to the top of the forum’s front page.

Under these circumstances, as the number of people who saw this post increased, more and more people began to get curious.

“John Doe’s post?”

“What the f*ck, who is the old master?”

“How awesome is this person? John Doe actually calls him old master.”

“Does this old master represent the force behind John Doe?”

“Finally, is the person behind John Doe coming out?”

Not only ordinary martial arts practitioners, but all the forces in Wulin also took it seriously as the post appeared.

They had been trying to find out John Doe's background countless times, but no matter how hard they tried, they could not find anything. They did not expect that John Doe would personally send such a post. How could they let go of such a good opportunity to find out John Doe's background?

Even the members of the Four Great Families were very confused.

"The old master?" When Diwu Mingchuan heard the news, he immediately frowned and said with a puzzled face, "There is no one in Wulin with the code name—old master."

"Old master?" Diwu Qian sat next to Diwu Mingchuan and muttered with a frown, "I haven't heard of anyone with the code name, old master, in Wulin, but John Doe wouldn't appear on the Wulin forum easily. Every time he shows up, it will cause a serious event. Since he took the initiative to send an invitation to meet him this time, it means that the old master he mentioned is not someone he can meet at will."

Diwu Mingchuan nodded and said, "That's right. The only thing we can get from John Doe now is that the person he is looking for is not a young man. It's very likely that he is an old man."

Diwu Qian chimed in, "John Doe is not weak. If even he has to respectfully call the man old master, then the old master's strength is very likely to be stronger than John Doe's."

Diwu Mingchuan narrowed his eyes and said, "There's another possibility. The old master may not be stronger than John Doe, but his seniority must be higher than John Doe. In terms of seniority, the old master is likely to be a member of a force. But it's strange that if there is such a force, John Doe shouldn't have to find him in this way."

Diwu Qian smiled wryly, "I can't figure it out."

There were simply too many contradictions.

Diwu Mingchuan laughed and said, "You don't have to think about it if you can't figure it out. It's enough for us to know two things. One is that John Doe is not a bad guy, and the other is that we have already formed a good relationship with him."

In the Qian family's courtyard in the capital, on the first floor of a highly modern villa, Patriarch Qian, who was wearing ancient leather armor, was playing chess with a woman sitting opposite him next to a small pool that kept overflowing water like a fountain.

Beside the old man, Qian Xiao, who was handsome as ever, was sitting respectfully on one side, watching the chess game.

"The person John Doe is looking for." Patriarch Qian put down a chess piece and said, "Have you found him?"

"No." Qian Xiao immediately shook his head and said, "No one in Wulin uses the code name of 'old master' at all. Besides, I've asked someone to investigate it carefully, but we still can't find any clues. It seems that this person doesn't exist in Wulin at all. It's simply like John Doe imagined it himself."

"No." Patriarch Qian shook his head and said, "It's not that there isn't such a man, but that we don't have the power to investigate this man!"

Patriarch Qian turned his head and said with a serious face, "The Huaxia Wulin is not as simple as it seems on the surface. The real Wulin is completely beyond your imagination. Originally, Wulin had been peaceful for decades, but since John Doe appeared, Wulin begins to have a sensation."

Qian Xiao nodded and continued to listen respectfully.

"The turbulence at the beginning was like a small stone. Although it fell into the pond like Wulin, it only caused a few ripples on the surface."

Speaking of this, Patriarch Qian gently let out a sigh and said, "I have a feeling that the stagnant situation in Wulin will soon be broken by a huge stone. Next time, it may be terrifying waves!"

“Go on. Continue to investigate. No matter what method you can use, it would be good to be able to find even the slightest bit of information.”

“Yes!”

In the courtyard of an ancient pavilion in the Zhan family, Elder Zhan was lying on a mat, holding a wine gourd in his hand. His nose was red from drinking.

“Grandpa.” Zhan Lin came in, called him, then casually found a place to sit down and said, “I got some news.”

Elder Zhan asked, “What news?”

“John Doe is looking for someone,” Zhan Lin said. “He has sent a post on the Wulin forum, which says, ‘Old master, I want to see you.’”

“Whoosh.” Elder Zhan, who was originally lying on the mat, suddenly straightened up. His drunken expression instantly disappeared and was replaced by a calm look.

For an expert like him, alcohol couldn’t make him drunk at all.

A trace of doubt flashed across Elder Zhan’s eyes as he murmured, “Old master? Is it the force hidden behind John Doe?”

Zhan Lin shook her head and said, “I don’t know. As soon as we got the news, our family sent someone to check it out, but we found nothing.”

Without hesitation, Elder Zhan immediately said, “Check on it. Continue to check on it. We must keep a close eye on John Doe’s every move and all the information related to him on the Wulin online forum. Don’t let go of any piece of information. Since John Doe voluntarily exposed it, we must seize this opportunity. This is the only chance we can find out about him!”

“Okay.” Zhan Lin nodded.

In the Xi family, a refined young man was sitting on the ground. He was wearing Chinese-style clothing. With delicate facial features, he gave off a refreshing and attractive feeling.

Opposite the young man, a woman was also sitting on the ground, slowly fiddling with a string of buddha beads in her hand.

The woman was none other than Xi Fengling.

The young man said, “We found nothing.”

“Old master...” Xi Fengling nodded gently and said, “Now, the whole Wulin is in an uproar because of this old man, isn’t it?”

“Yes.” The young man nodded and said, “The Qian Family, the Zhan Family, the Diwu Family, the Pear Garden, and other forces are all inquiring about the old master. Some large forces even come to us to buy news. The reward they offer is very tempting.”

Xifeng Ling shook her head and said, “Our family doesn’t rely on this to make money. However, since you guys can’t find any information about this person, other people can’t find it either. Now that you can’t find anything, don’t look into it anymore. Some news might bring trouble to you once you get it.”

“Yes.” The young man bowed and nodded to Xi Fengling while sitting, and then he stood up and left.

“It seems that John Doe has got the Heaven Treasure.” In the Pear Garden, as soon as he received the news, Yun Yangzi laughed and said in a low voice, “It’s the eighth Heaven Treasure, Ambergris Grass. If he didn’t get it, how would John Doe have the time to send a post on the Wulin forum? However, this old master is worth paying attention to. I wonder if he will be the same as the old man in our Pear Garden. Perhaps he’s even more formidable?”

At the same time, people were discussing on the Wulin forum.

“Did John Doe get the Heaven Treasure?”

“I haven’t heard anything about a big battle or anything unusual in any place. Did John Doe really obtain the Heaven Treasure so easily?”

“It seems that he might have got it, otherwise, how would he be in the mood to send a post here?”

“Who is this old man?”

“Who is the old master?”

“He might be really powerful since John Doe calls him old master.”

“Do you think this old master is the mysterious force behind John Doe?”

After the post was sent, Fang Qiu kept refreshing and reading the reply.

He was waiting.

He was waiting for the old master to reply.

It turned out that everyone was discussing who this old master was, and a small part of them was also discussing whether he really got the eighth Heaven Treasure.

He kept reading.

All of a sudden, Fang Qiu stopped refreshing when seeing an inconspicuous reply among the numerous comments.

Looking at this short reply, he actually burst into tears in an instant!

His eyes grew suddenly misty.

He kept staring at this short reply.

Medical Master

Chapter 965: Two Years, Two Flowers!

“Two years, two flowers, let’s stabilize it for now.”

looking at the message.

He knew this message was from the old master, because only the old master had told him about the two flowers.

It was the agreement between him and the old master!

“Two years, two flowers, now let’s stabilize it at first.”

He understood the old master’s meaning at once.

The old master expected him to stabilize the realm and not be in a hurry to breakthrough. Old master also told him that he had to completely stabilize his realm first in two years and then proceed to the two flowers of Dantian.

In two years, his Dantian must form two flowers.

At this moment, his troubled heart finally relaxed.

He was well aware of the old master's strength and personality. Although the old master wasn't willing to see him, the old man would never lie.

Therefore, the old master said he could hold on for another two years, and he could do it.

At the thought of this, Fang Qiu held back the hot tears in his eyes and hurriedly posted a post.

"Alright."

Although just one word, Fang Qiu didn't reply directly under the old master's post. Since the old master replies to him by a comment, it meant that the old master didn't want to be exposed.

Therefore, Fang Qiu decided to post so that the old master could see it immediately.

As soon as the post was sent out, everyone was dumbfounded on the Wulin forum.

"What is he doing?"

"Damn, is John Doe practicing how to post and playing joke with us all the time?"

"What's good about it? What's good about it?"

"Who is John Doe replying to?"

"Is this a reply?"

For a moment, everyone checked every reply carefully one by one in John Doe's post.

But, Fang Qiu secretly deleted the old master's reply.

Therefore, everyone searched for a long time, but they didn't find any useful information.

However, the Four Great Families had been paying attention to Fang Qiu's post. Almost all comments would be recorded, including screenshots.

Without a doubt, the people of Four Great Families also noticed the old master's reply.

And this reply was also immediately known by four Patriarchs.

When the four patriarchs saw this reply, they were all shocked!

"Who is he?"

"Who sent this reply?"

The patriarchs of the four major families asked someone to find some information about the poster, but they didn't find anything, the ID of the forum was canceled after replying a word as if it had never existed.

"Two years, two flowers?"

"Does this mean that there are two flowers in my Dantian?"

"It is impossible for John Doe to become a guru and form two flowers in his Dantian in two years?"

"Who the hell is this person?"

"Flower? Flower? No one in Wulin knows how to form flowers. Even if John Doe is a genius, he definitely can't achieve the degree of forming two flowers in two years!"

The patriarchs of the four major families were all deeply shocked.

Because they knew very well that no one was able to reach the realm of guru, and no one knew how to form flowers after being a guru!

However, Fang Qiu was asked to finish in two years in this reply.

“Who... who on earth is the person behind John Doe?”

All that was left for them was astonishment.

They thought that they could know John Doe in a short time, but he had given them a bombshell.

The patriarchs of the four major families quickly inquired and discussed with each other in shock. However, the more they discussed, the more terrifying they felt that the person behind John Doe was too mysterious and terrifying.

A storm was going on in Wulin.

However, Fang Qiu didn't care about that, Instead, he set his mind at ease and prepared to stabilize himself.

Since the old master had already said that, there must be a reason behind his words.

He thought about it carefully.

During this time, the speed of his breakthrough was too fast. But for the old master's reminder, he would've kept breaking through despite everything. But after that, Fang Qiu felt that it seemed to be a little too much.

After so many rapid breakthroughs, now he should stop to stabilize himself.

Now, he was a ninth-class Martial Superior with one opened meridian.

After re-cultivating, the ninth-class Martial Superior with one opened meridian was different from that of a normal ninth-class Martial Superior with one opened meridian. Even though he had broken through once before, he still needed to calm down and feel the power of a ninth-class Martial Superior with one opened meridian.

After a decision, Fang Qiu gave a call to Xu Miaolin!

"Hello?" Xu Miaolin's picked up the phone.

"Mr. Xu, it's better to hold off on calling all the highly-skilled doctors for a while." Fang Qiu said.

"What's wrong?" Xu Miaolin asked.

"It's fine. Something has happened on my side. I don't need to gather all highly-skilled doctors for the time being." said Fang Qiu.

"Okay."

Xu Miaolin didn't ask any more questions. Instead, he nodded and said, "That's it for the time being. If you need me, the first time to talk to me, no matter when it is not too late."

"Thank you, Mr. Xu."

This summon was his trump card. When he saw the old master, he would immediately summon him!

"Yes."

Xu Miaolin nodded and said, "If there's nothing else, I'll hang it up."

After that, he hung up the phone.

After Fang Qiu hung up the phone, he immediately left the school and bought a ticket to return to the cultivation base of Beijiang.

"Everything is ready, and we wait for you to come back and make the final decision."

As soon as Fang Qiu returned to the cultivation base, He Xue immediately came for him.

Fang Qiu was stunned.

"Merging the company and establishing a group."

He Xue rolled her eyes at Fang Qiu and said, "It's such a big deal, we can't just sign a letter of intent by chatting for a while."

"What else?"

Fang Qiu was stunned.

He didn't have any idea.

In the past, Fang Qiu had paid a little attention to the company and business. But since he handed everything to He Xue, he had no sense of participation in the merger and establishment of the company, even he didn't know the specific process.

"Do you want to be an irresponsible boss?"

He Xue rolled her eyes at Fang Qiu again and said, "We signed the letter of intent to confirm something between the heads of your three companies. But that was not a real contract. We must sign a formal contract."

"I understand now."

Fang Qiu suddenly smiled and said, "Why don't you directly tell me that you will hold a press conference?"

"Yes."

He Xue snapped her fingers and said, "You are the largest shareholder of our company and also will be the largest shareholder and chairman of Renyi Group. So you must personally confirm whether you will attend this press conference or not."

"No."

Fang Qiu immediately shook his head and said, "I'll leave the conference to you. If they need a host, you represent me to hold the press conference."

"Okay."

As if He Xue had already realized it, she nodded her head and said, "What do you think of the name of the group?"

"Renyi?"

Fang Qiu thought for a while and nodded his head, "Yes." Said, Fang Qiu

"It's really good."

He Xue smiled proudly and said, "I discussed the name with Zhao Shanlin, he thought that we must be responsible for making medicine, we also should live up to the name of Chinese Medicine and our hearts. The most important thing about Chinese Medicine is to help the world and save people. It's the kindness of a doctor to a patient, so it's called Renyi."

"That's right."

Fang Qiu nodded with satisfaction and said, "Yang Ningyuan and Li Qihua, you also think it's good, don't you?"

"How did you know?"

He Xue smiled and said, "Yang Ningyuan feels that the name is too good and in line with the reality. Li Qihua also thinks that this name can represent the friendship between the three of you, so both of them agree."

"Haha."

Fang Qiu laughed and said, "Well, you contact them to hold a press conference and sign the contract."

"Okay."

He Xue nodded, she immediately sent a video call to Yang Ningyuan and Li Qihua with a laptop in the office's coffee table.

After chatting for a while, they decided to officially sign the contract tomorrow morning. The press conference venue was set by Yang Ningyuan in Beijiang, and the media and so on would be handed over to Li Qihua. Because he was a super-rich man, as long as he asked, all media of the country would give him face.

The next day, at eight o'clock in the morning.

“The press conference of the Renyi Group starts in Beijiang.”

A day ago, Li Qihua invited a large number of media reporters in the name of his company. At the same time, Yang Ningyuan also invited many media in the name of Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation.

After receiving the invitation, these media reporters were all confused.

“Renyi Group?”

“When did the Renyi Group appear in Huaxia again?”

“They merged three companies and set up a new group?”

“The Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation was jointly established by Li Qihua and Yang Ningyuan’s companies. Now, who are they merging with this time?”

For a while, everyone was extremely curious.

For Yang Ningyuan, Li Qihua, and He Xue, it was undoubtedly a good opportunity to promote themselves. As businessmen, they didn’t want to miss that opportunity.

Soon.

The press conference began.

He Xue represented the Renyi group giving a speech, but she completely concealed all information about the company from the media. Under the witness of all the media reporters, the three companies successfully signed the contract and posed as a model for the media to take photos.

After 30 minutes, the press conference was over, and the three companies officially signed contracts. The Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation also officially merged with the mysterious company represented by He Xue and became a new “Renyi Group”!

At the press conference.

The reporters asked one after another.

After all, Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation was currently the most popular pharmaceutical company. Two drugs were sold very hotly on the market. But, Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation still merged with that mysterious company. There must be some unknown secrets behind it.

At the same time, the reporters were also curious about that mysterious company and asked.

However, He Xue refused the reporters’ questions. In the end, they didn’t get any useful information.

As soon as the press conference ended, the media reporters returned uninterestedly, ready to report slowly.

But at this time, one of the small media reporters suddenly posted news that immediately attracted everyone’s attention on Weibo.

Medical Master

Chapter 966: What Is the Mysterious Company?

“Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation has merged with a mysterious company which holds the largest share!”

The moment the news came out, it immediately attracted everyone’s attention.

According to the reporter who revealed the news, he originally wanted to make a report about the sales of the two drugs produced by the Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation, but when he went to search for all kinds of data on the company's official website, he found that the signature on the official website of Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation had become Renyi Group!

Filled with curiosity, the reporter hurriedly searched for the information of Renyi Group on the Internet, only to find that Renyi Group was actually a new group merged from Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation and a mysterious company. Moreover, this group was established today.

Seeing the information, the reporter was immediately stimulated. He screenshotted the Renyi Group's information, posted it on Weibo, and released it as breaking news.

As expected, this revelation immediately attracted considerable attention and instantly became a hot topic on Weibo.

However, those reporters who attended the press conference saw the breaking news online before they prepared their articles. They were totally dumbfounded. They did not expect that such a boring press conference they attended could cause a great sensation on Weibo.

In fact, as media reporters, they also knew very well that this was big news, but they didn't know what the mysterious company was. Therefore, these mainstream media reporters wanted to inquire about it carefully and were busy searching for information about this mysterious company. They didn't expect that someone would reveal the news in advance.

These reporters were speechless.

But now that the news had come out, they couldn't only watch and do nothing!

The reporters then began to make their moves one after another.

They posted the information they had recorded at the press conference, and meanwhile, they made all kinds of speculations and searched for answers. They drew the attention of people who followed this matter to that mysterious company.

As the mainstream media did this, public opinion on Weibo suddenly became more intense.

Not only on the Internet but some large pharmaceutical companies and all the mainstream media in the country also frantically searched for the information of this mysterious company at the same time, trying to obtain the biggest news.

However, after searching for a long time, they realized that no matter how hard they tried to search and find connections, they couldn't get any information at all as if the mysterious company didn't exist at all.

However, when they looked into how the two companies merged, they discovered that the mysterious company was very generous. In terms of this level of amalgamation, it could be considered that the mysterious company had completely swallowed up Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation.

Everyone was shocked as they found out this news.

Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation was a joint-stock company owned by Yang Ningyuan and Li Qihua. Both of them were now in the top 30 of the richest people in Huaxia, and Li Qihua was even in the top 10 of the list.

With the strength of these two people, how could there be a company that could directly swallow up the Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation?

What was the background of this mysterious company?

"The revelation of this small media company was made by Yang Ningyuan, wasn't it?"

In the office in Beijing, Fang Qiu browsed Weibo on his computer while asking He Xue, who had just returned.

"Of course." He Xue nodded and said naturally, "What we want is business while reporters want breaking news, but you insist that we don't reveal the information of our company, let alone yours. It's obvious that you are going to make all the reporters who attended the press conference come here in vain."

“These days, reporters also bear grudges. Without enough attraction, why should they help you expose? Unless... their interests are damaged.”

Fang Qiu shook his head.

Yang Ningyuan, Li Qihua, and He Xue were indeed business people. They were truly willing to do anything to make money.

As the news revelation spread on the Internet, all the media and pharmaceutical companies in the country tried all kinds of methods to investigate, but they found nothing.

This made them even more astounded.

A mysterious company suddenly rose and directly swallowed up the Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation with enormous capital. It even hid all the information, making it impossible for people to find any information about this company.

Where on earth did this company come from? How could it manage to cover everything so flawlessly?

In the eyes of other people, all of this seemed terrifying.

But in fact, as for Fang Qiu, it was just a matter of saying a few words.

Before the press conference, he called Li Ji and told him that there was likely to be some public opinion related to the Renyi Group online. He also asked Li Ji to help him cover all the information about his company and not expose it for the time being.

After all, his current reputation was too big. If it was exposed, it would cause a lot of trouble.

Obviously, the reason why these mainstream media and pharmaceutical companies couldn't find any information about his company was that Li Ji had made a move.

After chasing the news for a long while and realizing that they couldn't find any information about that mysterious company, the chief editor of one of the mainstream media outlets soon saw the hot topic on Weibo.

He suddenly came up with an idea and then called the reporter who attended the press conference over.

"Chief editor." The reporter came to his office.

"Write an article immediately and elaborate the whole process of the Renyi Group's press conference that you attended. Remember to be fast. Don't mention too much about the information of that mysterious company. Just focus on its mystery. The more mysterious the company is, the better," said the chief editor.

"Hmm?" The reporter was stunned.

Then, his eyes suddenly lit up.

"That's right. Why didn't I think of this?" The reporter instantly understood the chief editor's intention.

"Because you felt that this press conference would not cause a sensation, you're misled and chose to check the background of that mysterious company," the chief editor shook his head and said, "it's strange though. Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation hasn't done anything particular recently. They've already lost popularity among the public, and not many people have been following them. But as soon as the news spread on Weibo, it suddenly attracted so many people's attention."

The reporter shook his head and said with a wry smile, "I can't figure it out either. Normally, this kind of press conference is of no value at all. Even if the news about it is released, we'll be considered to do them a favor. In the future, if there is any news, they will also think about us. But the situation on Weibo is really strange."

The chief editor shook his head and said, "Forget it, who cares. Since it has attracted so much attention, it means that this news is valuable. Since it is valuable, we should expand its value and seize this opportunity. Hurry up and write it. After you finish writing it, you can go straight to post it on our official Weibo account!”

“Okay.” The reporter immediately rushed to write the article in high spirits.

After an hour, the article was released.

Considering that it was the mainstream media and was followed by numerous people, this news immediately caused a sensation on Weibo as soon as it was released.

Originally, everyone on Weibo was merely having a brief discussion.

But now, as this article was leading, everyone indeed shifted all their attention to that mysterious company as the chief editor of this media outlet expected.

When writing this article, the reporter specifically introduced the background and financial resources of Yang Ningyuan and Li Qihua to people and told the public that although Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation was only a sideline of the two, the money they earned from this company was comparable with the main business of these two rich men.

Under these circumstances, how could these two big shots willingly let others swallow up such a profitable company? They were not short of money at all.

It immediately aroused the curiosity of everyone.

People also started to have discussions on the Internet.

“What the f*ck, the company of Yang Ningyuan and Li Qihua got swallowed up?”

“No way. Both Li Qihua and Yang Ningyuan are so rich. How could their joint-stock company be merged?”

“If I remember correctly, it has only been a few months since Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation was established. How could it be merged in just a few months?”

“Despite the fact that they only established for a few months, the most important thing is that Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation is extremely profitable. A pack of medicine sells at 2,000 yuan, and there is no need to worry about sales at all. As I do a rough calculation, the gross profit of Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation every year is more than 10 billion. With this profit, this company can be regarded as a giant in the country. How could it be swallowed up so easily?”

“Could it be the government?”

“If the government wants Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation, they don’t have to conceal the information at all. They can directly buy shares or invest. Why do they have to be so secretive?”

“If it’s not the government, then what else can this mysterious company be? In the whole country, which company has the capacity to directly swallow up Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation?”

Everyone on the Internet was talking about this mysterious company.

Whether it was the netizens, the mainstream media outlets, or those related to the pharmaceutical industry, they were utterly astonished by this news.

In their opinion, Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation was a joint-stock company owned by Li Qihua and Yang Ningyuan, so it was not strange that the two rich men would open a company together. However, with the presence of these two immensely wealthy people, it would be a little terrifying that a company could come out and directly swallow up Hua Yuan.

Of course, while they were staggered, many netizens also went to the official website of Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation and searched for information about Renyi Group online. Some netizens even began to search for that mysterious company.

However, after searching for a whole day, everyone found that they couldn’t find any information about this mysterious company at all!

The netizens were even more shocked.

What kind of company was it? It had such great power that it didn't only directly swallow up the joint-stock company owned by two rich men, but also completely hid its information, making it impossible to find out.

"Is this an overseas company?"

"Could it be a foreign company which chose to hide the information in order not to cause a public resistance?"

"Maybe it's a company of illegally-obtained money. I heard that those companies are very rich, and they specialize in merging this kind of company that can make a large sum of money. Their purpose is to do money laundry."

"That's awesome. Is there such an awesome company hidden in Huaxia?"

"I hope it's owned by Huaxia people."

"Hua Yuan's medicine is really effective, but I don't know if the effect of the medicine will be reduced after this merger. Hua Yuan is such a good brand. I hope it won't be ruined."

Netizens were making all kinds of speculations and nearly took everything into consideration.

Meanwhile, after spending a lot of effort to investigate, numerous big shots of all the companies in the pharmaceutical industry were taken aback.

"What on earth is the mysterious company?"

"How could such a company come out of thin air?"

“Mysterious company? Isn’t it a good thing to merge with a company and establish a group? Why should they hide the company name? Most importantly, all the registration information of the company on the Internet is an asterisk. We can’t see any information about this company at all. We don’t even know the company’s name. Which company has such great power?”

“This mysterious company feels like a giant.”

“That’s right, the giant is coming!”

Because of the release of the news, the whole country was lively all day.

Since they couldn’t find anything about the mysterious company no matter how hard they tried, the netizens, mainstream media outlets, and even various companies in the industry began to name the domestic giant companies one by one.

However, every time people named a company, it was denied.

Ultimately, nearly all the giants denied it.

This situation made everyone even more confused.

Since none of these giant companies got involved, what on earth was this mysterious company?

Chapter 967: The Wolf Is Coming!

A day passed just like that.

As the hands of the clock passed midnight, no one found any information about that mysterious company.

The more mysterious it was, the more people paid attention to it.

Since they still couldn't find out anything and their curiosity kept growing, many netizens moved to the separate Weibo accounts of Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation, Yang Ningyuan, and Li Qihua, leaving all kinds of comments asking for inside information.

Some people even went to Fang Qiu's Weibo and asked for some inside stories. After all, everyone knew that Fang Qiu had a good relationship with Yang Ningyuan, so they believed that Fang Qiu must be aware of some inside information.

Seeing that netizens were so enthusiastic, Fang Qiu, who was sitting at his desk, was nonplussed.

Fortunately, he wasn't exposed. If he was, then there was no doubt that it would absolutely cause a sensation.

By comparison, it was better to stay quiet as it did now.

At the thought of this, Fang Qiu immediately closed the Weibo page and no longer cared about it.

The Internet was still as lively as ever.

One night later, the official Weibo account of the Renyi Group was also officially launched early the next morning.

All the major media outlets immediately publicized it in the first place.

After learning about it, the netizens also went to follow its Weibo and left comments, asking which corporation the mysterious company was.

However, the first news released by the Renyi Group had nothing to do with the mysterious company. Instead, it directly promoted its product.

The first main product of Renyi Group was the Holy Flowers Formula!

Holy Flowers Formula was produced with the Tianshan Snow Lotus, a valuable herb and also one of the nine magic herbs in Daoist, as the main ingredient. It could lighten human bodies and make people move and jump freely. It also could cure all kinds of illnesses, help people retain their youthful looks, prolong people's lifespan, and make people more energetic.

Its main effect was to retain people's youthful look and beautify people.

Whether it was skin allergy, sunburn, or skin problems caused by residual makeup, they could all be resolved effectively. Not only could it retain people's youthful look, but it could also beautify people and make every user radiant and energetic!

The attached picture was a picture with the ancient style of traditional Huaxia characters on it.

This was the first post on Renyi Group's official Weibo after it was officially registered.

Seeing this Weibo, the netizens were in an uproar.

"What the hell? It already began to advertise as it just registered Weibo?"

"This is its first appearance on Weibo. Without even greeting people, it directly starts advertising. Is it okay to do that?"

"It seems that Renyi Group has inherited the ancient style of Hua Yuan Corporation. There were Trillium Root-Securing Pills and Life-prolonging Earth Pill before, and now Holy Flowers Formula comes out. It sounds similar, but I don't know if the effect is still so good."

"Whoever runs this account, please tell us quickly. Who on earth is that mysterious company?"

"That's right. You don't even announce the company's information and now you want to advertise and make us buy things?"

“Please tell us the information of the mysterious company.”

“You should announce that company’s information first. Otherwise, we don’t dare to buy your products. We can’t be sure if you will sell counterfeit and inferior products in the name of Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation.”

The male netizens complained one after another.

While complaining, they also asked for inside information about the mysterious company.

Meanwhile, seeing this , females instantly got excited and wild!

“Retain youthful looks and beautify people? Is it true?”

“Can it really beautify people?”

“Is it true to help keep a youthful look? If it can really do that, I’ll definitely buy it. And I’ll use it for the rest of my life!”

“I’m not asking for much. It’ll be enough as long as I’m able to maintain my youthful look.”

“Can it really cure sunburn and heal the residual effects of makeup on the skin?”

“I believe in the product quality of Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation, but can the product of Renyi Group continue to be as good as they made before?”

“Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation is also one of the companies under the name of Renyi Group. This Holy Flowers Formula is produced by Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation. It won’t be fake!”

“I’m looking forward to it. I want to try it out right now.”

Of course, the female customers did not lose their minds. Many people were still skeptical. However, some people felt that Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation had not disbanded. Instead, after merging with another company, its strength would be stronger than before. With a company as well-known as Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation, numerous people were willing to believe in the effects of this Holy Flowers Formula.

Most importantly, the effects of the Holy Flowers Formula, which could help retain people's youthful looks and beautify them, were extremely tempting to every woman. It was something that women could barely resist.

As for females, as long as it really had such effects, they believed it was worth it no matter how much money they spent. Even if they did not know if it would work, they were willing to spend money to give it a try.

Those who were rational were always in the minority.

Soon, more and more females were attracted by the drug effects on Weibo.

Below the official Weibo account of Renyi Group, the problem of the mysterious company that attracted the most attention was soon suppressed by the females' expectation and desire for the drug effect.

Half an hour later, they started to ask.

"When will the medicine be sold?"

"Can you tell me the price first so that I can save some money for it?"

"Don't be too expensive. If it's about the same as the Life-prolonging Earth Pill, I can accept it. But if it's too expensive, I can't."

"Do I need to pre-order it? Can I do it now?"

“Are there going to be a limited number of the products? I can spend more money. Can you save a place for me to buy it first?”

As the words were spreading, more and more women were attracted by the Holy Flowers Formula, and some of them even began to worry about whether they could buy it or not.

In this case, below the official Weibo account of the Renyi Group, all kinds of comments about urging them to sell the drug, inquiries about prices, and paying for pre-order appeared, completely occupying the entire comment area.

This scene shocked all the male netizens.

“What the f*ck, if this is true, my wallet will be empty again!”

“It seems that my salary next month is going to be used up again.”

“We are working so hard to earn money. I hope this Holy Flowers Formula is fake, or we will be doomed.”

“You’re wrong, dude. It’s better if the Holy Flowers Formula is real. In this way, your girlfriend can save money on cosmetics. This medicine should not be too expensive.”

“Why do I feel like this thing is even more popular than lipsticks?”

“Alas... women!”

Of course, not only the men but people working in the pharmaceutical industry were also shocked.

In the beginning, when people in this industry all over the country heard that Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation had been swallowed up and merged into a group with a mysterious company, everyone was stunned because they knew clearly that since Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation was established, both the Trillium Root-Securing Pill and Life-prolonging Earth Pill had a great impact on the pharmaceutical industry even though they claimed that the drugs they sold were health products.

After all, the effects of the two items with the label of “health product” were indeed impressive.

Because of this, Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation, which had only been established for several months, was directly elevated to a top-class pharmaceutical company.

With the joint efforts of Yang Ningyuan and Li Qihua, the two wealthy men, everyone in the industry thought that the future of Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation was promising. They all thought that it would not take long for Hua Yuan to make a fortune and then directly be listed.

However, they didn’t expect that Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation was actually swallowed up.

After being merged, the company directly announced a brand-new product, Holy Flowers Formula, immediately.

While being stunned by the fact that the Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation had been merged, the big shots in the industry were even more shocked by the appearance of Holy Flowers Formula, because the target of this product was far too obvious. Moreover, they didn’t hesitate to promote its efficacy at all!

“This is like a f*cking wolf coming!”

“They chose to make this move as the company is just founded?”

“What the f*ck, the Renyi Group is very aggressive. Are they going to predominate the market as soon as they arrive?”

“There are also a lot of products which help women retain the youthful looks on the market, but they need a certain amount of time to have some effects. And even if they work, the effects won’t be very obvious. This leads to the fact that although there are female consumers buying the products, the number of them is relatively small. Now the Renyi Group launches Holy Flowers Formula. With the good impression that Trillium Root-Securing Pill and Life-prolonging Earth Pill left on the consumers, it's obvious that they want to attract all the female consumers."

"Haven't you heard that women's money is the easiest to earn?"

"It deserves to be a top-class large group. It has just been established, but it already made its first move. It seems that this move is going to make them popular!"

"Why do I feel that Renyi Group is a hungry wolf trying to rob us of our food?"

"What is the company behind the Renyi Group that has swallowed up the Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation?"

Undoubtedly, the appearance of Renyi Group and Holy Flowers Formula gave a warning to the people in the pharmaceutical industry.

However, even if alarm bells rang, they would not be able to stop what was about to happen.

Hence, they could only pray in their hearts that the effect of the Holy Flowers Formula wouldn't be as good as it was promoted by the Renyi Group.

In Beijiāng, as the outside world was talking about it, Fang Qiu, who was sitting in the office, was not worried at all. He called He Xue over.

"What's the matter?" When she arrived at the office, He Xue asked.

"Yeah." Fang Qiu nodded, took out a piece of paper, handed it to He Xue, and said, "These are the detailed production process of Holy Flowers Formula and Fine Jade Paste. I have written down all the details and all the things people need to pay attention to. I'll give it to you. Remember to tell people that they must follow this process to produce medicine no matter what. Don't miss the steps in the slightest. Anyone who does that would be fired directly!"

“Okay.” He Xue nodded and took the note, reading it carefully.

Fang Qiu said with a smile, “All right. I’ll leave everything to you then.”

“No problem,” Nodding her head, He Xue replied, “actually, there’s nothing serious to deal with now. We only need to do sufficient publicity and wait for the first batch of products to start selling.”

“Okay.” Fang Qiu nodded.

He placed great trust in He Xue so he was not worried about the following sales.

Besides, in addition to He Xue, there were also Yang Ningyuan and Li Qihua, two old foxes in the business world. These two owned a lot of shares of the group. In order to make more money, they would definitely not sit back. Maybe Yang Ningyuan would make some big events in the business world like he did when promoting the Trillium Root-Securing Pill and completely popularize the Holy Flowers Formula!

“Where are you going this time? What are you going to do?” He Xue looked at Fang Qiu who instantly stood up in front of the desk after making all the arrangements.

“I have to deal with some personal matters.” Fang Qiu smiled and walked around the desk. He said while walking outside, “I’ll rely on you guys to run the company. I believe in your strength!”

After he finished his words, he asked an employee of the cultivation base to drive him to the airport.

“Alas, what kind of boss is he?” He Xue smiled wryly, shook her head helplessly, and started preparing for what she needed to do next.

After arriving at the airport, Fang Qiu asked the worker to drive the car back and then bought a flight ticket to Longquan.

Two hours later, when he arrived in Longquan and walked out of the airport, Fang Qiu already disguised himself as John Doe.

Getting out of the airport, Fang Qiu got into a taxi and rushed to the Long family's mansion.

The Long family was particularly well-known for their casting skills in Longquan, so the taxi driver was familiar with the place. Soon, he drove Fang Qiu to the gate of the Long family's mansion.

The people guarding the entrance were still the two guards he met last time.

Last time, they stopped Fang Qiu outside. After that, they were severely reprimanded by Long Qiyun.

This time, as soon as they saw Fang Qiu, the two looked at each other. One of them hurriedly greeted him with a smile, while the other trotted into the courtyard and reported to Long Qiyun.

Chapter 968: Going to the Auction to Exchange for Heaven Treasures!

"Boss, you came." Before Fang Qiu walked through the gate of the courtyard, Long Qiyun came out from the attic of the mansion to greet him with laughter.

"Hmm?" Fang Qiu froze.

Why did this guy also call him like the people led by He Gaoming?

"Don't just stand there. Come on in." Long Qiyun stepped forward and took Fang Qiu's arm. As he walked to the lobby of the attic, he said, "Last time, He Gaoming brought some people here to hang out for two days. I heard them all call you boss, so I follow them. After all, this is the era of science and technology. It's a little inappropriate to call you senior all the time. It doesn't sound intimate, right?"

"Who wants to be intimate with you?" Hearing that, Fang Qiu immediately rolled his eyes.

Long Qiyun laughed and said, “Haha. It’s just a slip of the tongue.”

“You seem to know that I’m coming?” When they sat down in the attic and Long Qiyun asked the housekeeper to serve tea, Fang Qiu asked curiously.

Long Qiyun chuckled and said, “Yes. Didn’t you just come to the auction before? At that time, you cast ten swords, all of which were Guru Swords. You then exchanged all of them at the auction. I think that since you have used these ten swords, you will definitely come again and continue to cast Guru Swords.”

“How could you be so sure?” Fang Qiu asked with a smile, “Maybe I don’t lack money at all.”

Long Qiyun chuckled and replied, “I know. You don’t lack money. What you lack is the Heaven Treasure, and you are so poor that you can only cast swords!”

Fang Qiu was speechless.

He thought to himself, “What makes you think I’m poor?”

“But I’m not sure either,” Long Qiyun took a sip of tea and continued. “But I really hope that you can come, because the best sword in the world can only come from our Long family.”

Fang Qiu smiled.

He had never noticed this point before, but it was indeed quite important for Long Qiyun.

After all, the Long family was a sword-forging family.

If they wanted to maintain their Long family’s reputation, they had to cast great swords. This was the era of science and technology, and many families whose casting skills were inferior to the Long family caught up with them for they relied on mechanical devices. It seemed that they would be able to surpass the Long family.

Under such circumstances, the only way for the Long family to maintain their reputation was to cast a better sword, which other families couldn't make!

In this era, what kind of sword was the best?

Undoubtedly, it was Guru Sword!

Although it was not made by Long Qiyun himself, at least he could say that all the Guru Swords came from the Long family.

There was no need to say too much. With this simple statement and John Doe's nod, the Long family could suppress all the other sword-forging families who tried to catch up with them!

"The Long family's casting technique is indeed remarkable." Fang Qiu said with a smile and then added, "However, as the young master of the Long family, your cultivation speed is a bit slow. Why are you still a sixth-class Martial Superior now?"

Long Qiyun quickly shook his head and said, "I'm not slow. I'm a genius in casting, and I don't pursue high martial arts skills. It's already very good for me to be able to improve to this level."

"Although that's the case, it's impossible to cast a good sword without sufficient strength." Fang Qiu shook his head and continued, "Look at your ancestors. Although your father and grandfather are not super experts, they are not inferior at all."

"I understand what you said." Long Qiyun nodded, sighed softly, and said, "In fact, as it said on the casting books of our family, if you want to cast the best sword, you must not only learn from the casting book, but you also need to improve yourself while enhancing your casting techniques. However, I only have a talent for casting, and I really have no interest in the realm of martial arts."

"Let's go, follow me to the backyard." Fang Qiu stood up.

Long Qiyun's eyes lit up. "Do you want to cast a sword?"

Fang Qiu nodded and said, "Yes. However, before casting the swords, I want to fight with you."

"What?" Long Qiyun was stunned.

Then he was dragged to the backyard by Fang Qiu with a reluctant look.

"Use all of your strength and have a proper fight with me. I'm not going to hold back," said Fang Qiu.

"But..." Long Qiyun couldn't react for a moment.

Before he finished speaking, Fang Qiu made a move directly.

When he saw Long Qiyun just now, Fang Qiu found that his strength had reached the peak of the sixth class, only one step away from the seventh class. However, Long Qiyun didn't really have a talent for martial arts, so he failed to make a breakthrough. It seemed that he had been stuck at this stage for a long time.

Because Fang Qiu noticed this, he took the initiative to ask to fight with Long Qiyun. In fact, his purpose was to help Long Qiyun make a breakthrough.

He wanted to use his powerful strength to suppress Long Qiyun and unlock his potential.

As they started to fight, Fang Qiu didn't hold back at all. He directly suppressed Long Qiyun and crashed him with his powerful strength.

Long Qiyun cried out in pain as he was beaten. He raised his hands to surrender again and again, but Fang Qiu didn't give him a chance at all and kept attacking.

In this case, Long Qiyun felt a great deal of pressure from Fang Qiu.

Knowing that admitting defeat was useless, he could only make every effort to resist Fang Qiu's attack.

Ultimately, after being forced into a corner and stepping out of the desperate situation repeatedly by himself, Long Qiyun finally felt the barrier of the seventh-class Martial Superior and successfully broke through to become a seventh-class Martial Superior!

“I’ve made a breakthrough.” Long Qiyun’s eyes widened when he knew that his breakthrough was completed. He could hardly believe it himself.

“I’m going to cast swords. Don’t let anyone disturb me. You should go back and stabilize your realm and strength.”

As he spoke, Fang Qiu went straight into the underground sword-forging plant.

Long Qiyun also hurried back to practice and stabilize his cultivation.

In the sword-forging plant, Fang Qiu directly began to cast his swords without any hesitation.

However, he was not as obsessive as he was last time. He did not expect to cast more Guru Swords. It was already earth-shattering that he could cast ten of them last time.

Moreover, the last time he did it, it was for the sake of the eighth Heaven Treasure, Ambergris Grass. This time, Fang Qiu didn’t need so many swords.

Hence, after casting one Guru Sword, Fang Qiu lowered the standard a little and cast nearly 30 eighth-class swords.

After finishing casting all of them, Fang Qiu planned to transfer the money to Long Qiyun at the price of 500,000 per sword, but Long Qiyun refused to take it.

After all, Fang Qiu helped him break through to the seventh class, which was something that couldn’t be bought with money!

“What are you casting so many swords for?” In the hall of the attic, Long Qiyun curiously looked at the pile of swords that Fang Qiu had just cast and asked.

Fang Qiu answered, “They’re gifts. I’ve got one for you. You can choose one.”

“Really?” Long Qiyun was pleasantly surprised and hurried forward to choose a sword.

Fang Qiu then dialed He Gaoming’s number.

“Hello, master?” The phone was picked up in an instant. He Gaoming’s voice sounded.

“I’ve cast all the weapons you need. Except for the nine of you, each of the rest will get one sword. Take them to Long Qiyun’s place to collect the swords. This can be regarded as gifts of repaying for their help in the Crouching tiger Mountain,” said Fang Qiu.

“Alright, I’ll bring them there right away.” He Gaoming replied and then immediately added, “What do you mean by repaying? You are my master and the boss of all of us. It is our duty to help you!”

“I’m hanging up.” Fang Qiu answered with a smile and hung up the phone.

When he cast the swords, the reason why he chose to cast eighth-class swords was that he wanted to give them to these people.

Originally, with his strength, he could have given each of them a Guru Sword, but the strength of He Gaoming’s men was too weak. It was not suitable for them to use a Guru Sword now, and he did not dare to give them an extremely powerful sword. After all, Guru Sword was very rare in Wulin. If he truly gave them one, it would definitely be coveted by others. It was better to do it step by step. Anyway, he could cast Guru Sword at any time when he needed it!

As soon as Fang Qiu finished the phone call, Long Qiyun exclaimed, “They are eighth-class swords! All of them?”

Fang Qiu nodded and said, "Yes. I've already informed He Gaoming. He will bring people here to get them. Including yours, the number of the swords is just sufficient."

"So they are made for those people." Long Qiyun nodded with understanding and then immediately said with a smile, "It's really lucky to be your sidekick. Why don't you also take me as your sidekick?"

"You're the young master of the Long family! Can't you have some dignity?" Fang Qiu rolled his eyes at Long Qiyun and then stood up. He said while carrying a wooden box containing Guru Sword on his back, "I'm leaving."

He then ignored Long Qiyun who relentlessly tried to ask him to stay and went straight to the high-speed railway station.

He bought a ticket and got on the train directly to the capital.

Fang Qiu remembered clearly that the old guru made a verbal agreement with him on the night of the end of the auction.

This time, he cast Guru Sword in order to fulfill his agreement with the old guru.

When he arrived in the capital, Fang Qiu didn't waste any time and went straight to the Chic Cloud Pavilion with a stone table.

He entered the familiar room.

"It's you?" In the room, the moment the familiar man behind the counter saw Fang Qiu, he immediately stood up. Looking at the wooden box on Fang Qiu's back, he seemed to understand something. He instantly smiled and asked, "Mr. John Doe, do you want us to help you put something up for auction?"

"No." Fang Qiu shook his head and said, "I want to see the guru here. He asked me to come and find him."

Since he didn't know the old man's name, he would just say that he was the guru here!

The man's expression changed as he heard that. "Oh... Please wait a minute. I need to report it."

Fang Qiu was led to a guest room in CCP Hotel to have a rest, waiting for the reply.

Soon, the message was also quickly reported to the old man.

The staff of the auction house was ready to take Fang Qiu to see the old man, but they didn't expect that the old man would take the initiative to come to see Fang Qiu. In the end, led by the staff, he came to the guest room where Fang Qiu rested.

"Senior." When the old man arrived, Fang Qiu held a fist salute to him.

"You didn't fail me," The old man laughed and said. "You're really fast."

"Please don't laugh at me," answered Fang Qiu.

"It seems that you really need a Heaven Treasure." The old man stepped forward, received the wooden box from Fang Qiu, opened it, and took out Guru Sword that Fang Qiu had just cast. He nodded and praised with eyes shining with excitement, "Great! Good sword. Good craftsmanship!"

It could be seen that the old man was rather pleased.

After making a few moves with the sword casually, the old man put away the Guru Sword, then took out a sheepskin scroll and handed it to Fang Qiu!

Medical Master

Chapter 969: Women Make Money for Beauty!

“Who is the old master?” While handing over the sheepskin scroll to Fang Qiu, the old man asked casually with a smile.

“What old master?” Fang Qiu took over the scroll, looked at the old man with a puzzled face, and pretended that he didn’t understand what he was saying at all.

“Haha,” The old man laughed heartily.

He was aware that John Doe didn’t want to answer.

However, he couldn’t force John Doe to answer. If they confronted each other like this, both of them would inevitably be embarrassed. Hence, he could only laugh off.

The old man changed the subject. “This guru sword is indeed remarkable. I can take it back to my little grandson.”

“You start to train him since he’s a child. You’re truly far-sighted, Senior.”

Fang Qiu gave a thumbs-up and exclaimed.

“Even if he has been training since he’s a kid, he may not catch up with you.” The old man shook his head and sighed with emotion.

Fang Qiu smiled.

He put away the sheepskin scroll, held a fist salute to the old man, and said, “Senior, if there’s nothing else, I’ll take my leave first.”

“Okay.” The old man nodded and said, “Please.”

After saying that, he personally walked John Doe to the gate of the CCP Hotel.

Soon, the manager of the hotel and the person in charge of the auction house also came.

They watched Fang Qiu leave.

The old man held the wooden box containing Guru Sword in one hand and said to the two people next to him, "Remember, be polite to John Doe in the future. Don't provoke him if you don't have to. This person's potential is enormous. He will definitely surpass me."

What!

Hearing this, the faces of the restaurant's manager and the head of the auction house changed dramatically in an instant.

This old man was the guardian of their auction house and most of the people in Wulin looked up to him. It was because of him that no one in Wulin dared to cause trouble in Chic Cloud Pavilion.

With such huge deterrence, it could be seen that the old man's strength must be formidable.

However, the old man said that John Doe would definitely surpass him in the future!

If that was true, it was certain that they couldn't provoke John Doe.

While they were shocked, what the old man said was engraved on their hearts. They regarded John Doe as a key figure in their hearts. No matter what happened in the future, they must not provoke such a man with terrifying potential. If there was a chance, they must try their best to draw him over to their side!

After he left the Chic Cloud Pavilion, Fang Qiu opened the sheepskin scroll and took a look on the road.

He found that the information recorded on the scroll was more detailed than what he got from the previous auction.

“Qinxi, Mount Hua?” Taking a closer look at the information and map recorded on the sheepskin scroll, Fang Qiu found that the Heaven Treasure recorded on it was actually in Mount Hua.

“According to the information recorded, it will take another three days for it to mature.”

After reading it, Fang Qiu counted the time, nodded gently, and bought a plane ticket to Beijiang with his phone. He planned to go back to the cultivation base first to see how everyone was doing.

Two hours later, Fang Qiu returned to the cultivation base.

“Eh?” Seeing Fang Qiu come back, He Xue was stunned. She immediately followed Fang Qiu to the office and asked, “What a surprise that you come back so soon.”

“I come back to see how your preparations are going,” replied Fang Qiu.

“Everything is ready.” As soon as they talked about work, He Xue immediately became serious and said, “We’re about to start production and the pre-order plan will be announced two days later. The pre-order will officially start in five days.”

Fang Qiu nodded with satisfaction and asked, “Quite fast. Did you set the price?”

He Xue nodded and said, “It’s settled. According to the data given by Mr. Zhao Shanlin and the data provided by the employees of Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation, we finally set the price of every box of Holy Flowers Formula to be 1,500.”

“Is it that expensive?” Hearing this price, Fang Qiu couldn’t help but be amazed.

This price was 50% higher than that of the Trillium Root-Securing Pill.

One box of Trillium Root-Securing Pill was only sold at 1,000 yuan.

“Isn’t the price too high? Will anyone buy it?” Fang Qiu couldn’t help asking.

“Tut-tut.” He Xue glanced at Fang Qiu scornfully and said, “How can anyone think the things they sell are expensive? And you’re looking down on the women of this era. Even if it costs 3,000yuan, people will still buy it, let alone only 1,500yuan. This price is far less than that of a big-name bag.”

“Women are so fierce now?” Fang Qiu was taken aback, for he never expected that women’s purchasing power would be so high now.

He Xue asked, “Why do women make money?”

“I don’t know.” Fang Qiu shook his head.

“The purpose of women making money is for beauty!” He Xue knocked on the desk as she said, “The purpose of men making money is to make women beautiful! Do you understand?”

Fang Qiu gave a wry smile and muttered, “Well... Doesn’t a man make money to contribute to society?”

Hearing Fang Qiu’s muttering, He Xue once again gave Fang Qiu a scornful look and said, “This is modern society. In this day and age, everyone is thinking of themselves. If you become rich, it’ll be considered making contributions to society. How can you be so old-fashioned? You’re such a male chauvinist!”

Fang Qiu gave a wry smile.

If she thought he was, he got nothing to say.

Anyway, he didn’t think he was wrong.

Pouting her lips, He Xue replied, “All right. I’ve already reported everything. I still have a lot of work waiting for me to do, so I can’t sit back like an irresponsible boss like you.”

Fang Qiu answered, "Go ahead with your work. I'll wait and see."

Two days later, at eight o'clock in the evening, the official Weibo account of the Renyi Group finally sent the second post as everyone was expecting.

"As the main product of the first batch in our group, the Holy Flowers Formula, will officially start pre-ordering three days later. Because the medicinal materials needed by the Holy Flowers Formula are very precious and rare, the first batch of products is limited. By then, we hope our customers can go to the official website of Renyi Group to place orders."

As soon as the post appeared, it immediately caused a heated discussion on Weibo.

"What the f*ck, another preorder?"

"Damn, they're following the previous trick again."

"What the hell? We've been waiting for so long and even the money is ready. How can you let me pre-order it?"

"I've suffered a lot in the pre-order. I haven't got a chance to buy the Trillium Root-Securing Pill and Life-prolonging Earth Pill even once. Now when I see the word 'preorder', I'm terrified. Can you stop this kind of sly trick?"

"It seems that we may not be able to buy it."

"It can't be the same 37,500-pack sh*t again, can it? So many people want to buy it. If you dare to only offer this small amount, I'll f*cking kill you."

"It's terrible. This hunger marketing is too annoying. Can you not play this kind of trick and directly let everyone buy it?"

“We strongly demand a complete purchase for all. Even if the amount is not enough, we strongly demand for letting everyone buy it. We can pay the deposit, and then you can produce the product according to the order of the deposit. You guys can send the product as soon as you produce it. In this way, we don’t have to worry that we can’t buy it and won’t get annoyed because we have to scramble for it!”

“I strongly request an open purchase.”

In the blink of an eye, the netizens’ sentiments were quickly aroused. Everyone asked the company to have an open purchase.

Seeing the netizens so excited, the official Weibo account of the Renyi Group released the third post an hour later.

“Dear customers, thank you for your concern about the Holy Flowers Formula. Renyi Group also understands everyone’s needs and hopes that everyone can buy the product. But in order to ensure the quality and remarkable effects of the Holy Flowers Formula, we can’t make a mass production about this product. Renyi Group is a corporation centering on the quality of goods. We will never decrease the product’s quality for profit. Hence, we’re sorry, but we can’t make open sales. Thank you for your patience and understanding!”

This post.

Although it sounded like a cliché, the key points were clearly listed, making it impossible to refute.

Should they choose quality or quantity?

This was a multiple-choice question.

As for the public, of course, they would choose the first one.

For most companies, the most correct choice was the latter, but for Renyi Group, they only had one choice, which was quality!

Although the response of their official Weibo account could be considered perfect, it still caused a large number of netizens to complain about it.

“What the f*ck. If you can’t produce a certain amount, why do you promote the pre-order?”

“That’s right. If the quantity is not enough, you can sell it when you make enough products. Why do you always launch pre-order?”

“That’s too shameless. It seems high-sounding. In fact, this is hunger marketing!”

Netizens all left comments to attack the company.

As they were criticizing, they actually set the alarm and reminders of their mobile phones to remind them, for fear that they would forget it and fail to make a pre-order.

“Beep, beep, beep...” In the office of the Beijiang cultivation base, Fang Qiu was skimming Weibo. While looking at the heated discussion caused by the pre-order announcement, the phone in his trouser pocket suddenly rang.

He took out his phone and had a look.

“Song Yaqi?” Fang Qiu was surprised.

Why did this celebrated singer suddenly call him?

“Hello?” Thinking of this, Fang Qiu immediately picked up the phone.

“Fang Qiu?” Song Yaqi’s familiar voice came from the other end of the line.

Fang Qiu nodded and asked with a smile, "Yeah, I am. Superstar, why do you have time to call me?"

"I don't have time to call others, except you." Song Yaqi answered with a smile and then asked, "In fact, I'm calling to ask you if you can get the Holy Flowers Formula which goes viral these days. I heard that you have a good relationship with Yang Ningyuan, so..."

"I should be able to get it before the pre-order starts," Fang Qiu replied after pondering for a while.

"Really?" Song Yaqi was delighted and immediately asked playfully, "Do you want free advertising?"

"What do you want to do exactly?" Fang Qiu gave a wry smile.

Song Yaqi said, "Can't you see it? I want to ask you to help me let Renyi Group sell me a set of Holy Flowers Formula in advance. In exchange, I can help advertise it on Weibo for free."

"Do you think that they need people to advertise it with the current popularity of the Holy Flowers Formula?" asked Fang Qiu with a smile.

Song Yaqi said with frustration, "Just tell me if you're gonna help me ask or not."

Fang Qiu thought for a moment and said, "All right, all right. Give me your address directly, and I will get a set for you no matter how hard I need to try this time. Then, I will deliver it directly to you."

Song Yaqi was rather exhilarated and said, "Really? Thank you, I will definitely help you advertise for them and not let you owe them a favor."

After Fang Qiu hung up the phone, he gave a wry smile, "I own the Holy Flowers Formula. Why would I owe anyone a favor?"

After muttering a few words, Fang Qiu shook his head with a sigh. Then, he forwarded the specific address that Song Yaqi sent him to He Xue on the phone and wrote, "Send a few boxes of Holy Flowers Formula to this address."

However, not long after the text message was sent, Fang Qiu instantly received He Xue's reply. "Picking up girls? I despise you!"

Fang Qiu was speechless while seeing the message.

After a while, He Xue sent another message.

He tapped on it and found that it was a delivery tracking number, which meant that the package had been sent.

After receiving the message, Fang Qiu immediately reposted the tracking number to Song Yaqi.

Not long after he sent it, Song Yaqi actually screenshotted the tracking number of the express delivery to a chat group set up with the MCs when she participated in Run Wild&Survive.

As soon as the MCs read it, they went wild.

"@Fang Qiu, Master Fang, can you get the Holy Flowers Formula?" Liu Qingshi was the first to react, asking repeatedly, "Bro, if you can really get it, you must get some for me. I don't need this thing, but my wife needs it. No matter what, you must sell some to me in advance. Please."

"@Fang Qiu, I want it too. It doesn't matter if the price is higher, even if it's only one box."

Ying'er was the second to pop out and even sent a few kowtow stickers to Fang Qiu.

The other MCs also mentioned Fang Qiu one after another and requested that Fang Qiu must give them some of the product in advance no matter what.

Under a bombardment of their messages, Fang Qiu felt helpless and bitter.

He didn't expect that Song Yaqi would send it to the chat group.

Now, it was too late to regret it!

Helplessly, Fang Qiu could only ask everyone in the group for their addresses and then send all of them to He Xue.

The moment he sent He Xue the message, He Xue replied, "The company will suffer a loss sooner or later if you keep sending the product for free!"

It was a warning.

Looking at He Xue's reply, Fang Qiu smiled wryly.

Although he said that, He Xue didn't delay. As soon as she received the address, she immediately asked someone to pack up the products. Shortly afterward, she sent all the tracking numbers to Fang Qiu.

"Well, the goods of Renyi Group have been sent. This is your tracking number of the delivery. Remember to collect the package." Fang Qiu sent the tracking number to the people in the group.

Seeing that the package was being delivered, everyone in the group thanked Fang Qiu.

"You deserve to be a master. You can get such a popular product for us. You are my brother. If there is any new product in the future, I will count on you."

"Yes, our Master Fang has infinite magic power. We don't need to scramble for things anymore. With Master Fang here, we don't need to do that."

“How lucky am I to meet you? Master Fang, you’re my lucky star! I love you so much!”

In the group, people were expressing their gratitude with all kinds of sweet remarks.

However, looking at the messages sent by these people, Fang Qiu always felt that he seemed to have fallen into a trap.

Especially Liu Qingshi said that he would count on him if he needed to buy any products.

It was equivalent to robbing him.

Fang Qiu was even more speechless about this.

Everything was done.

Fang Qiu sent another message to He Xue, “I’m leaving.”

He Xue immediately replied, “Don’t come back until there’s a sufficient supply of the product!”

While feeling extremely gloomy, Fang Qiu left the cultivation base and went to Mount Hua.

Mount Hua, known as Western Great Mountain in the past, was one of Huaxia’s noted Five Great Mountains. It was the birthplace of civilization. The word “Hua” of Huaxia also originated from Mount Hua.

Mount Hua was located in Huayin city, Qinxi province, with Qinling in the south and Huangwei in the north. Since ancient times, there had been a saying that it was the most dangerous mountain in the world.

In the eyes of all the people in Huaxia, this place was exceptionally sacred.

Therefore, Fang Qiu was not surprised that Heaven Treasures would grow in this place.

He took the plane.

Soon, Fang Qiu arrived at the Qinxi Provincial Capital Airport.

After leaving the airport, Fang Qiu directly found a private car and headed to Mount Hua.

In addition to all kinds of titles and legends passed down from ancient times, Mount Hua was also listed among the first batch of key national scenic spots, national 5A-class tourist attractions, and national key cultural relic protection units in modern times.

Mount Hua was mainstream in Taoism and the sacred land of the Quanzhen Sect. In Taoism, it was called the Fourth Paradise. There were 72 overhang caves and more than 20 Taoist temples in Mount Hua.

Meanwhile, the east peak of Mount Hua was also known as the Chaoyang Peak, whose Chaoyang Platform was also one of the nine recommended places where people observed the sun in Huaxia.

Therefore, there were numerous tourists coming to Mount Hua all year round.

In this case, Fang Qiu was also worried that the guardian beast would hurt the tourists.

However, when he arrived at Mount Hua, Fang Qiu found that he didn't need to worry at all.

After all, how could the Heaven Treasure grow in a place where there were so many people? Hence, it was impossible for the guardian beast to meet so many people. Even if it occasionally appeared, it would definitely be driven away by the authorities as soon as possible. It was absolutely impossible for it to hurt tourists.

Fang Qiu took a walk on Mount Hua.

According to the map and information on the sheepskin scroll in his memory, Fang Qiu came to one of the peaks of Mount Hua where there was no one around, quietly feeling the surge of energy between heaven and earth and the fresh air. Then he secretly released his Divine Consciousness, covering the mountain range within a radius of 40 kilometers.

As soon as he used the Divine Consciousness, he immediately found the location of the Heaven Treasure.

There were still two days left before the Heaven Treasure was mature.

Fang Qiu didn't hurry to the place where the Heaven Treasure was located to guard it.

Instead, he found an inn at the foot of Mount Hua and had a good rest, adjusting his condition to its peak.

The next day, at three o'clock in the morning, Fang Qiu got up to exercise as usual. He leaped all the way from the foot of the mountain to the peak. When he reached the Chaoyang Platform of the Chaoyang Peak, he sat down on the platform to practice, waiting for the sunrise.

As time went by, more and more people came to the Chaoyang Platform.

Fang Qiu opened his eyes and watched the sunrise with people on the Chaoyang Platform.

"No wonder it's one of the recommended places in Huaxia that can see sunlight. The scenery of sunrise is indeed unique in the world."

After sunrise, Fang Qiu left quietly.

He came to another mountain and was ready to sneak into the depths of the mountain to have a look at the place where the Heaven Treasure grew.

“Aargh!” Just as Fang Qiu was about to go deep into the mountain, someone shouted on the other side of the Chaoyang Platform.

Fang Qiu turned his head to have a look in a hurry.

On the Chaoyang Platform, all the tourists looked down, and their faces were full of shock.

Fang Qiu also looked down and actually saw a tourist fall off the platform.

The platform was at the top of Chaoyang Peak. The entire place only covered an area of about ten square meters. Due to the terrain of the cliff, the platform stretched out in the air. It looked like the mouth of an eagle in the distance.

It was a gaping abyss below.

If this person fell down, he would definitely die!

Seeing this, Fang Qiu came up with an idea. Without hesitation, he immediately flew out, stepped on the thick clouds, and flew over quickly.

On the Chaoyang Platform, everyone’s eyes were fixed on the man who was falling.

The person who was falling declined halfway down the mountain. A figure treading on the cloud immediately attracted everyone’s attention.

As they took a closer look, this person was like a legendary immortal. He flew in the air and quickly dashed toward the person who was falling.

Everyone on the Chaoyang Platform was deeply shocked by this scene!

“Imm... immortal?”

“Is that an immortal?”

“Oh my God, what am I seeing?”

“He, He’s flying!”

They couldn’t see the person’s face clearly. They could only see his figure as if his face were covered with a layer of glass. No matter how hard they tried, they couldn’t see his face clearly at all.

Fang Qiu charged to the man who fell off the cliff and grabbed him.

The man was in despair. He was scared to death before even landing on the ground, almost losing his breath.

He didn’t expect that when he was less than ten meters away from death, he was saved.

The tourist’s face was ashen. He couldn’t react at all and was sent to a flat road at the foot of the mountain by Fang Qiu.

Even after Fang Qiu left, he still didn’t regain his composure from the shock.

On the Chaoyang Platform, when the family and friends of the person who fell off the cliff saw that he was all right, they instantly burst into tears and ran down the mountain to find him.

However, the other tourists were all dumbfounded.

All the eyes were fixed on Fang Qiu. They attempted to see Fang Qiu’s face clearly.

However, Fang Qiu didn’t give them any chance at all.

Actually, when Fang Qiu was ready to save the man, he controlled his internal Qi and formed a water-like shield around himself. Under the barrier, ordinary people couldn't see his appearance clearly. They couldn't even tell how tall he was or whether he was a man.

It was also because of this that Fang Qiu could fly out to save people in broad daylight.

After saving the man, Fang Qiu directly flew up and went deep into the clouds like an immortal.

Seeing this, everyone on the Chaoyang Platform was deeply shocked again.

Everyone stared at the clouds, remaining motionless.

It was not until a few minutes later that everyone came to their senses from the complete shock.

"Is, is that an immortal?"

"Did I see an immortal? Quick, slap me in the face and tell me it's true!"

"There is an immortal. Are there really immortals in this world?"

"Is it an immortal or am I hallucinating?"

"Did you see that?"

"Did you see that too?"

Numerous people were talking about it on the Chaoyang Platform.

Everyone doubted that they had seen it wrong. They all asked the people around them if they were hallucinating. However, when they asked, they found that others were the same as them. They all saw what had happened just now.

“Did anyone record a video?”

“Did anyone record it?”

Suddenly, someone asked in the crowd.

Everyone turned their heads to see if the person next to them was holding a mobile phone. They all wanted to see what had happened just now again to confirm if there was really an immortal.

“Me.” A young man raised his phone and said excitedly, “I’ve recorded it.”

As soon as he finished speaking, all the people on the Chaoyang Platform immediately rushed over and huddled together, watching the video just recorded on the young man’s phone.
