

Medical Princess 61

Medical Princess

Chapter 61: Who Is the Oriole?

"Young ... Young Lady!" The servant panicked but did not dare run away. He came forward tremblingly and saluted.

"What did you take from Shui Ruolan?" Qi Rongzhi coldly said as she set her sights on the servant. Coincidentally, she caught him red-handed.

"Perfume ... perfume satchel!" The servant dared not conceal the truth. He told her after stammering for a while.

"What do you need it for?" Qi Rongzhi blinked.

"To ... to trick Miss Shui into coming outside." The servant had received a hint from Qin Yuru's old woman.

"And then?" Qi Rongzhi narrowed her eyes.

"And then... send people to take Miss Shui away. Shui ... Miss Shui is just an outsider in the General's Mansion... She is not an important person." He said such things based on Qin Yuru's old woman's hint and his own guesses.

Shui Ruolan was nothing but a distant relative. Even if she had an accident and disappeared, it would not be a big deal for the General's Mansion.

Old Grandma, the only person who had some kinship with Shui Ruolan, was seriously ill. Even if something really happened to Shui Ruolan, she was powerless.

Qi Rongzhi immediately understood Qin Yuru's thoughts. "Who sent you here?"

"First ... First Young Master!" The servant lowered his head and muttered.

"This bitch really is a fox spirit. She obviously doesn't intend to spare my brother at this point." With this, Qi Rongzhi gritted her teeth severely. In the truth was found out, Qin Yuru's involvement would not be discovered, but the Qi Family would probably be exposed.

Fortunately, she stayed alert and approached to the servant. Otherwise, she and her mother would only have found out after her brother had created trouble.

"Give the perfume satchel to me!" Qi Rongzhi said coldly.

"I..." The servant put his hands behind his back.

Chunxi walked forward and stretched out her hand. She said sternly, "Take out the perfume satchel and give it to the Young Lady right now. Do you expect Miss Qin to protect you?"

Qin Yuru might protect a servant in Ningyuan Army General's Mansion. However, in Magistrate Qi, all the servants knew that the Young Lady was the most favorite.

The servant dared not conceal it anymore. He stretched out his hand and revealed a delicate perfume satchel.

Chunxi immediately took it and gave it to Qi Rongzhi.

Qi Rongzhi received it casually with a sneer rising from the corner of her mouth. "In order to set Shui Ruolan up, Qin Yuru took advantage of my brother. So, let me be the oriole."

"Since you're sent by my brother, you should know something, right?" Qi Rongzhi had a grim smile on her face.

"Yes ... I really do know some things..." The servant was panicking.

"Come here!" Qi Rongzhi waved her hand.

The servant did not dare to stay there. He came over and nodded as he listened. His face blanched with fear, but he had to listen...

"Young Lady, the Eldest Lady has sent someone to you with an invitation!" Qing Yue came in and reported.

Qin Wanru looked at the sky outside the window. It had not turned dark yet but it would be dark soon. Buddhist pilgrims who had not stayed overnight in the mountain should have gone downhill by now. Most of those who stayed there had come back at this time.

The people who remained were all women, and the people living around here were villagers. Even if the ladies were not from respectable families, it was inconvenient to go out at this time.

"Let's go have a look!" Qin Wanru stood up.

"Young Lady, are you really going out at this time?" Qing Yue was very worried.

"Let's go. We won't be gone for too long." Qin Wanru went out as she smiled faintly. Qing Yue hurried to follow her.

Outside the door, an old woman, who was sent by Qin Yuru, immediately smiled when she saw Qin Wanru come out, then said, "Second Lady, the Eldest Lady specially invited you many times because she has some important things to tell you. If you really don't want to know, I'll report back to the Eldest Lady."

She pretended to leave after she spoke, but she kept her eyes on Qin Wanru as if searching for something.

The old woman was wicked. It was very useful method when dealing with an unsophisticated girl because everyone had curiosity. Moreover, the girl was not yet grown. After hearing this, she would definitely swallow the bait.

Qin Yuru was good at choosing the right person.

"Let's go have a look!" Qin Wanru said.

"Second Lady, please follow me!" The old woman was pleased upon seeing Qin Wanru getting hooked.

"Where is my eldest sister?" Qin Wanru asked like an innocent lamb.

"She is in a pavilion nearby." The old woman led the way with a smiling face. Indeed, it was not too far.

"What does my eldest sister want to tell me?" Qin Wanru casually asked while following the old woman. She walked slowly, so the old woman needed to stop and wait for her after taking several steps.

"About this... I don't know either. She just said it's important. Perhaps something unknown... between you and her!" The old woman cooked up a reason.

"Something unknown between us?" Qin Wanru seemed to think it over as she stopped.

The old woman, as well as Qing Yue who was following her, stopped spontaneously.

"Second Lady, let's go first!" The old woman looked anxiously at the direction they were heading in. The Eldest Lady asked her to bring the Second Lady back quickly.

When Qin Wanru stepped forward again, the old woman sighed with relief. In order to make it feel realistic, the Eldest Lady had invited the Second Lady before. Now was the best time to invite the Second Lady. At this time, the Second Lady could testify for her. If the Second Lady was late, it would not work.

"Ah, I think I remember. Does she want to tell me something about Miss Qi?" Qin Wanru came to her senses and commented, then she suddenly stopped after taking several steps.

"..."

The old woman felt a headache and had to give a hollow laugh. "Second Lady, I really don't know. How could the Eldest Lady tell such an important thing to me? I'm not a stewardess in the Eldest Lady's yard."

"Oh, you're not an old woman trusted by my eldest sister?" Qin Wanru came to her senses and looked the old woman up and down. "It seems that I haven't seen you before. Are you really an old woman sent by my eldest sister?"

"I have only served the Eldest Lady for a few days. Moreover, I'm very common. Therefore, it's normal that you haven't seen me," the old woman said. She became more and more anxious when she thought of the Eldest Lady's promise.

"Second Lady, please follow me if you want to know!" If she did not take the Second Lady there, she would not become a stewardess. The Eldest Lady had made a promise to her.

"Let's go!" Qin Wanru stepped forward without obstructing the old woman this time. The old woman was relieved and hurried to lead the way again.

Qin Wanru did not ask the old woman any more questions as they walked the rest of the way. After a while, she saw Qin Yuru in a roadside pavilion off in the distance.

It was a prominent position. All the Buddhist pilgrims could see it when they came out.

Whoever passed here could see it clearly.

"Second Lady, look, the Eldest Lady is right there!" The old woman was relieved. She pointed and smiled at Qin Wanru.

Qin Wanru stopped again her arched eyebrows wrinkled. "Why are there other people in the pavilion?"

Besides Qin Yuru and her servant girls, there was a very ordinary looking man. He wore the villager's clothes and stood with his back to Qin Wanru. She could not see his face.

"Eh..." The old woman was also stunned. She never thought that a man would suddenly appear in the pavilion.

"Wait a minute! Don't go over until she finishes what she is doing!" Qin Wanru took a step back and came to the gate of the Moon Cave. Qing Yue hurried to follow her.

After hesitating for a moment, the old woman also retreated to the gate. She did not know what Qin Yuru wanted to do.

However, she felt worried, so she secretly peeked from behind the gate to look outside.

After talking with the man, Qin Yuru stood up and glanced in the direction where Qin Wanru was. However, Qin Wanru knew that Qin Yuru could not see her. Although Qin Yuru had a good view from the pavilion, she could not see clearly when she turned around.

Qin Yuru seemingly said a few words to the villager. After that, she hurried off with the man.

When Qin Yuru and her servant girl left, the old woman was also dumbfounded. "That's not the Eldest Lady's plan. What's going on? What shall I do with the Second Lady?"

"Why did my eldest sister go out with that man just now?" Qin Wanru came from behind the old woman's back with a severe look. "Who's the man?"

"I... I don't know either. This... this is..." The old man's mouth trembled.

"You're my eldest sister's servant. If you don't even know, why should we keep you here?" Qin Wanru's face grew darker and darker. Even at an early age, she already had such an imposing manner.

She quickly walked towards the pavilion. When she reached it, she only saw a teapot and two teacups on the stone table.

"Go find if something is wrong!" Qin Wanru ordered.

The old woman and Qing Yue immediately obeyed the order. They looked around but found nothing.

"If my eldest sister has an accident, you're done!" Qin Wanru stared at the old woman and spoke coldly.

The old woman trembled. "Second Lady, I... I come to invite you. I... I really don't know what's happened to the Eldest Lady."

The old woman was panicking and had a blank stare.

"Go and report to my grandmother. Let her send people to find my eldest sister." Qin Wanru angrily rebuked her.

That reminded the old woman. She started to run to Old Madam Qin's yard. Her panicky look startled many pilgrims who stayed overnight. From the situation, they knew there was something wrong. Some busybodies followed the old woman to Old Madam Qin's yard.

Everyone immediately knew that there was something wrong in Ningyuan Army General's Mansion. What was going to happen this time?

Recently, many bad things seemed to be happening over and over again in the Ningyuan Army General's Mansion. Therefore, many people wanted to watch the fun.

Qin Wanru had not returned with the old woman. After thinking it over, both she and Qing Yue went after Qin Yuru.

Medical Princess

Chapter 62: Our Eldest Lady Is Your Employer

After hearing that there was an accident, Qin Yuru pondered for a moment and decided not to wait for Qin Wanru. She would deal with Shui Ruolan first.

She moved forward hurriedly with the man and headed towards the forest behind the mountain. That was the best place to launch an attack.

Originally, Qin Yuru planned to trick Shui Ruolan into coming out by using her perfume satchel, at which point they would take her away. However, the man told her that Qionghua, Shui Ruolan's servant, noticed something strange and ran away.

If she escaped successfully, it would be terrible.

Qin Yuru felt uneasy and ran over in a hurry because she wanted to help find Qionghua.

She was very anxious, so she was unwary and followed the man in front of them inside. However, Mei Xue, her servant, felt there was something wrong while they were walking. She could not help but pull her sleeves.

As the sky had already dimmed down, the woods appeared more and more dark and deep, and strangely quiet.

"Young Lady... It's... It's too quiet... Could Qionghua have escaped?" Mei Xue hinted at Qin Yuru in a low voice.

Qin Yuru stood still and looked around. There was not a sound. Except herself and Mei Xue, there was only the man who was dressed like a villager.

The others thought he might be a real villager. However, Qin Yuru knew that he was a ruffian. Qi Tianyu helped her find the man. Her face also changed slightly.

"Young Lady... We... We'd better go back. About Qionghua, we can figure it out later. She is merely a servant girl. Even if she speaks out... you can deal with..." Mei Xue was pretty scared because she saw the ruffian had turned back and strangely laughed at her.

However, since her back was towards the ruffian, Qin Yuru could see nothing.

"Well, okay!" Although she could see nothing, she also got worried. The surroundings were so quiet that she began to feel panicked.

Regardless of the consequences, she had just rushed into the woods. But now, she felt there was something wrong.

With a handkerchief in her hands, she planned to tell the ruffian that they would go back after turning her head. However, a blow struck the back of her head, causing her vision to blur. Mei Xue's panicked look was the last scene in her eyes.

"Young Lady, Young Lady!" Mei Xue hurried to hold Qin Yuru while screaming.

"Shut up. Do you think there is someone who will save you at this time?" The ruffian laughed and raised a brick in his hand. He had knocked Qin Yuru out with the brick.

"You... You can't do this. This... This is our Eldest Lady. Don't you want to live?" Mei Xue fought back the terror and shouted boldly.

"Somebody's trying to take you away and sell you because Your Eldest Lady offended him or her. After that, we'll get a sum of money and leave for a faraway place. So what if your Ningyuan Army General's Mansion is so powerful?" The voice came from their back. While holding Qin Yuru, Mei Xue turned sideways and saw the other ruffians.

These two ruffians, who were originally hired by Qin Yuru. One dealt with Miss Shui while the other handled her servant girl.

It was a piece of cake for these two men to deal with two women, but they were afraid that only one would be taken and the other would run away. Even though this was a concern with Shui Ruolan, it was not a problem when facing Qin Yuru.

"You... You are mistaken. This is our Eldest Lady. She asked you to deal with Miss Shui rather than herself."

Mei Xue felt there was something wrong. She shouted, "You won't get paid for this. Our Eldest Lady is your employer. You've got the wrong person."

The two ruffians looked at each other in speechless despair.

"That's true. You made a mistake. Our Eldest Lady asked you to abduct Miss Shui. She let an old woman tell you that you can escape far away. Then, she will give you a lot of money. You can take Miss Shui away. Let her never appear in Jiangzhou. We gave you a perfume satchel. Have you forgotten?"

Mei Xue felt anxious for fear that the two ruffians would not believe it. What she said was true.

The two ruffians were also confused. Only the employer knew these things. Anyone else would not know these things. How could this... be a mistake?

"The servant told us there was a perfume satchel, but later he said there's no need. As long as we mention it, you can deceive us. Do you know something? That must be why you deliberately said that." A ruffian uttered an exclamation of disbelief.

"Don't talk nonsense with them! Take them away! Even if we don't get paid, we can sell them for a good price since they're good-looking. After that, we can still run far away from here. You don't need to care about what's going on."

Ruffians like them would not care about fairness. Even if it was wrong, they would hold on to the last. Qin Yuru had to accept her bad luck.

“Right! They look so beautiful! ” The first ruffian turned around and looked at Qin Yuru’s face. He touched her face flirtatiously and chuckled. Then, he pinched Mei Xue’s face. “You’re good looking too. Come on. Do you want to be knocked out and taken away? Or will you walk on your own?”

Mei Xue’s facial expression greatly changed. She was too scared to stand.

“You... You’re mistaken!” In a panic, she took a few steps back and leaned against a tree behind her.

“So what? Anyway, we’ve also abducted a young lady and a servant girl. You two are not bad. Let’s go!” The other ruffian stretched out one hand from behind her and patted her on the shoulder as he spoke proudly.

“I... I...” Mei Xue rolled her fishy eyes and pushed Qin Yuru, who was in her arms, forward roughly. After that, she leaned over and started to run.

The two ruffians were stunned and immediately raged as they yelled out, “Catch her!”

They ignored Qin Yuru, who fell heavily on the ground, and immediately chased after Mei Xue. If the servant girl really ran away, it would be a big problem.

Mei Xue desperately tried to escape. She knew if she was caught by the two ruffians she would not have a good ending. However, she was only a woman, a young lady’s personal servant girl. Therefore, she was always pampered. She could not run far.

After a short distance, she was caught by the two ruffians. They gave her two severe slaps and brought her back while cursing.

Qin Wanru had arrived earlier when Mei Xue was shouting in an attempt to defend herself. Qin Wanru had stood behind a big tree while staring at a big tree in front to the right, where a servant stood.

He had stood there for a while. Qin Wanru arrived here by following Mei Xue’s voice. At that time, she saw the servant, who seemed to be sneaking around. Therefore, she followed him.

No matter what happened in front, the servant did not go forward. He just hid behind the tree and watched the fun.

When he saw Mei Xue run away with the two ruffians chasing after her, he dashed out towards Qin Yuru, who had fallen to the ground. He took out something from his bosom and threw it on Qin Yuru’s body. After that, he immediately ran back and hid again.

It was extremely short. The two ruffians were chasing after Mei Xue, so they had not noticed what happened behind them.

Only Qin Wanru and Qing Yue saw what happened clearly.

She noticed the thing thrown by him. It was a perfume satchel, which she stealthily substituted. If it was really Shui Ruolan’s perfume satchel, Shui Ruolan would be involved if Qin Yuru had an accident.

To kill two birds with one stone.

Qin Yuru suffered from her own actions, but Shui Ruolan was being unfairly made into the scapegoat. Without a doubt, the servant was Qi Tianyu's. However, it was Qi Rongzhi rather than Qi Tianyu behind him.

Qin Yuru had preyed on Shui Ruolan, without being aware that Qi Rongzhi was behind her. Qi Rongzhi subtly put the blame on Shui Ruolan.

The two ruffians had already brought Mei Xue back. It was the perfect time. Qin Wanru crouched down slightly, picked up a big stone from beside the tree, spotted the servant who was craning his neck to peer around the tree, and threw it towards him.

The upbringing in the General's Mansion was not as strict as that of other aristocratic families. Moreover, Madam Di never really control her actions. In addition, Old Grandma's health was not very good. In her childhood, Qin Wanru often followed Qi Baiyu to shoot birds and climb up walls.

Although it had been many years since she last threw stones, she still had good eyesight.

"Ouch" was heard from the front right. The two ruffians were alarmed and their facial expression changed greatly. After they looked at each other, a ruffian strode over and pulled the servant out from behind the tree.

"It's you!" The ruffian was relieved when he saw the servant who ordered them. "Did you come here to pay us? How about taking a look at what we've done? The Young Lady and servant girl. Both of them are here!"

"Qi Hai, go, go ask your First Young Master to save our Young Lady." Mei Xue was stunned. At this moment, she felt hopeful when she saw Qi Tianyu's servant. She began to cry loudly.

"I..." Qi Hai shivered. He did not know what to do now.

He was First Young Master's servant, so he should help Miss Qin. But now, because of the Young Lady's order, he could not help Miss Qin.

"What's wrong with you? Do you want to act shamelessly?" The ruffian sneered.

"No..." The servant shook his head quickly. He was panic-stricken because he had been discovered so suddenly.

"Hand over the money. We've caught the master and her servant. After this, we'll sell them. So, you'll pay us, right?" The other ruffian sneered too and took two steps forward to force the servant.

The two ruffians also realized that there was something wrong, so they just wanted to take the money.

"I... I..." The servant stepped back. He had no money at all. Originally, Miss Qin was going to pay after this. His own Young Lady never thought to pay.

"You don't want to admit to it? If you dare not admit it, we'll release the story. Your master asked us to abduct the young lady of the Ningyuan Army General's Mansion." The ruffian reached out his hand and grabbed the servant.

“Qi Hai... You... You and First Young Master of the Qi Family plotted against our Young Lady? Why did you do that?” Mei Xue came to her senses at this time. Seeing this scene, she screamed out.

Qin Wanru looked at the scene quietly. Behind her, a faint voice was heard...

Medical Princess

Chapter 63: So Embarrassed to Fall into a Pile

“Our, our young master didn’t...” The servant waved his hands in panic and hurried to explain.

“Do your First Young Master hold a grudge against our Elder Miss? Even so, he should not do such a thing. You’re trying to destroy her.” Due to fear and panic, Mei Xue could not control her voice at all and cried out loudly.

“Bitch, shut up. Do you want us to be caught?” A ruffian had turned back and fiercely slapped Mei Xue twice before the servant reacted. He pulled Qin Yuru who was on the ground to his arm while he held Qi Tianyu’s servant with the other hand, saying to the other ruffian.

“Let’s go! It’s not safe here.”

Mei Xue’s scream travelled so far in the empty woods. There was nobody at this time, but they were panic.

“Help, help, save me quickly.” Mei Xue went ahead regardless and began to yell.

The ruffian wanted to stop Mei Xue’s mouth but he could not find anything. He directly reached to tear Qin Yuru’s light and colorful sleeve. It looked easy to tear. He ripped a large piece of her cloth, and a part of her arm was exposed.

He stopped Mei Xue’s mouth with the torn sleeve.

The two ruffians dragged these persons and wanted to leave.

“Release my elder sister!” A howl was spread from behind these persons. They were shocked and looked into the distance. Qin Wanru ran out from behind a tree, followed by Qing Yue.

“Here comes two more people. It’s a good deal.” The ruffians were panic at first. Then, they were amazed.

They were younger than those two. The person who ran in the front was just a child.

A ruffian put Qin Yuru into the servant’s arms and ran to Qin Wanru, preparing to catch Qin Wanru and her servant girl.

The servant was caught off guard that the ruffian would push Qin Yuru toward her. He was knocked down and kept beneath Qin Yuru.

While Mei Xue seeing Qin Wanru, her eyes sparkled with hope. She severely kicked the ruffian, who caught her, and the ruffian stepped back. Unexpectedly, Qin Yuru suddenly fell down and he stamped her feet.

As his feet slipped, he just fell down on Qin Yuru's body. The servant who wanted to get up fell heavily with a shriek of anguish.

Many people ran out from behind the shadow of the trees. They became speechless when they saw that Qin Yuru was caught between two men and looked so embarrassed. Although the servant was only 13 or 14 years old, he was a man. Not to mention that the ruffian was a 20 or 30 years old man.

Qin Yuru was sandwiched in with most of her hand exposed. She was heavily hit by the ruffian. At this time, she had slowly woken up and opened her eyes blankly.

"Hurry up! Hurry to save my Elder Sister!" Qin Wanru shouted to the stunned crowd.

Qing Yue immediately rushed forward and bravely stood in front of Qin Wanru. She picked up a stone and threw to the coming ruffian's face.

The ruffian never thought that the servant girl was so fierce and rascally threw a stone to him. Taking no notice, he was heavily attacked. When he looked back, he saw many people. Then, he felt a disaster is imminent. He turned around to pull up the other ruffian and left as quickly as possible.

Someone chased after them.

They were local people, so they knew the roads well. In a moment, they ran away from those people.

"Eldest Sister, Eldest Sister, are you ok?" Qin Wanru ran to Qin Yuru and stretched out her hands to support Qin Yuru. As she should be, her face was full of panic.

"You..." Qin Yuru was propped up. Being confused, she looked from Qin Wanru's face to herself with heavy leaden eyes.

"How could Qi Tianyu's servant be here?"

"Young Lady, it's First Young Master of the Qi Family who sent people to catch you." Mei Xue came over, hugged Qin Yuru and started crying. After surviving a disaster, she was out of control. She pointed to the servant and said angrily.

The servant had been in a panic for a long time. Now, he was pulled up by several old women from Qin Family, with his hands behind his back. Hearing Mei Xue's words, he shook his head and debted loudly.

"Miss Qin, it's not our First Young Master. I found that someone would hurt you, so I wanted to help you. You're mistaken!"

The servant was always shrewd. He dared not say that it was Qi Rongzhi's idea, so he stated categorically that he happened to pass by.

"Young Lady, our First Young Master asked to see you. How can he hurt you? Don't you know his affection for you?"

The servant was anxious and said such words, for fear that he was got involved.

The others could not understand but Qin Yuru knew. She looked pale and was muddle-headed. She had no idea why things changed a lot.

"Yuru, what happened? What's wrong?" A gentle voice was heard. Qin Yuru raised her head and saw Shui Ruolan. The corner of her eyes twitched violently. "You... How can you be all right?"

"I... I'm not supposed to be okay?" Shui Ruolan was shocked as she asked.

"Just now, I heard that you had an accident. Thus, I ran over. Aunt Shui, I'm cheated." Qin Yuru blinked, suddenly threw herself to Shui Ruolan's arms and cried out. "Aunt Shui, that is ok if you have no trouble. I thought something was wrong with you."

"You thought something was wrong with me?" Shui Ruolan frowned and asked.

"Yes, the two men told me that. Where are the two men?" Qin Yuru had recovered herself now. She gnashed the teeth in anger as she knew her plan fall through. Right now, she knew what she could do was to shirk responsibility to Shui Ruolan.

"Eldest Sister, is the servant First Young Master of the Qi Family's? Why is he here? Does he have something with you?" Qin Wanru pulled her sleeves and pointed to the servant. Qin Yuru followed her finger and saw Qi Tianyu's servant. She did not know how to explain.

"Shall I put the finger on Qi Tianyu or not?"

"When is Elder Miss Qin on good terms with Miss Shui? Only one man can make you run out even without asking."

Qi Rongzhi came in with the crowds. Hearing they talked about her brother, she could not restrain herself. She came out of the crowds and said in a voice dripping with sarcasm.

Although she disliked her brother's obsession with Qin Yuru, she did not want to get him involved.

"You..." Qin Yuru set her eyes on Qi Rongzhi. Her heart began to pound. "Why is Qi Rongzhi here?"

"Miss Qin, I don't know what's wrong with you. Will you go out with him after a man delivering a message? Is this your family education in Ningyuan Army General's Mansion? As long as a man says something, you can run after him. Now, you want to get my brother involved. My brother is unfortunate. He has no relation with you now, but he is still associated with you. What are you up to?"

Qi Rongzhi sneered and set eyes on Qin Yuru's wrist. "Do you still want to get my brother involved? Just now, you were not properly dressed, pulled and pushed with other men. You have to come here because the two men told you something important?"

Qi Rongzhi did not want to let Qin Yuru go. Standing high, she sneered at Qin Yuru.

"I... I really came here on hearing that it concerns with Aunt Shui. I worried about Aunt Shui." Upon hearing Qi Rongzhi's words, Qin Yuru felt that a disaster was imminent. Qi Rongzhi wanted to frame her up, but she really dared not to get Qi Tianyu involved.

"Does it really concern with Miss Shui?" Qi Rongzhi said coldly.

Qin Wanru did not look up, with an expression that looked faintly ironical at the corner of her mouth. Qi Rongzhi and Qin Yuru were indeed "good friends". Under the circumstances, they acted in harmony.

"It really concerns with Aunt Shui. The man said that she had an accident." Qin Yuru cried with tears dripping down, looking extremely pitiable.

She lowered her head and looked very aggrieved. However, she actually looked at the ground, hoping to find Shui Ruolan's sachet, with which she wanted to fool Shui Ruolan.

If she found the sachet, her words could be mostly confirmed.

"Eh, whose sachet is that?" Qi Rongzhi's girl servant Chunxi suddenly screamed and pointed to a place nearby Qin Yuru.

"Right... Right. The two men brought a sachet to fool our Young Lady. They said Miss Shui had an accident. Our Young Lady worried about Miss Shui, so... so she came here. She fell into the wicked's trap." Mei Xue shouted.

Qin Yuru had trouble now. Whatever the consequences were, she would come to no good end. Therefore, she hoped to make amends for her fault with good deeds. She also knew the sachet. Hearing the sachet was there, she was overjoyed. She wished to express her loyalty by forestalling Qin Yuru.

Shui Ruolan was stunned. She touched her waist subconsciously and found her sachet lost. Her face changed a lot.

"Aunt Shui..." Qin Yuru cried so sadly as if she had an accident because of Shui Ruolan.

Shui Ruolan's hand trembled. A tiny hand reached over and pressed her hand softly. Shui Ruolan turned her head and saw Qin Wanru's big eyes with black and white sharply contrasted. There was a calm smile in her eyes.

Her trepidation seemed to dissipate. Shui Ruolan slowly calmed down.

"Give me the sachet!" She said quietly.

An old woman picked up the sachet and gave it to Shui Ruolan.

She received it and looked through it. Confusion flickered out of her eyes. She gently pushed Qin Yuru away and knitted her pretty eyebrows. "Yuru, why did you think that it's my sachet?"

Medical Princess

Chapter 64: How to End it Up?

"Isn't there a small character 'Lan' on Miss Shui's sachet?" Mei Xue asked in a hurry.

"But there is no such word as Lan on it, and this is not my sachet neither, doesn't it belong to Yuru herself?" After she checked the embroidered character on it, Shui Ruolan got relaxed. Then she raised her eyes and looked at Qin Yuru calmly and asked.

A sudden shock came down to Qin Yuru, and her heart started to pound nervously. She lifted her head with astonishment.

Qi Rongzhi got shocked as well because she remembered asking clearly that this sachet was stolen from Shui Ruolan, and then involuntarily, she turned her eyes to servant Qihai.

Qihai was very panic as well. He too remembered precisely that it belonged to Shui Ruolan. However, unfortunately, he couldn't say a word.

Qin Wanru grabbed the sachet from Shui Ruolan's hand immediately, and she stood up as if she wanted to see it more clearly. She pointed the sachet towards the brightness for examining, and this drew some idle bystanders' attention. Everyone's eyes couldn't help but follow her movement, it then turned out that many people saw the sachet was embroidered with a character "Lan."

"It is Young Lady Qin's sachet."

"It undoubtedly belongs to Young Lady Qin, and how could it belongs to Miss Shui. "

"How... how could this happen? Did that two men collect some Young Lady's troublesome histories? So she directed and performed herself a scene like this? "

Jingxin Monastery was very popular and never lacked faithful pilgrim. It had witnessed a huge visiting flow, and some wives and daughters from prestigious families would often live in it. On hearing this, many people got stunned instantly.

This sounded peculiar!

"I..." Qin Yuru found her face turned pale because she was dying to explain it hurriedly.

"It seems that Young Lady Qin lied again, well, never mind, as long as it has nothing to do with my Big Brother, whatever you did it would be okay. Now that our magistrate has nothing to do with your Ningyuan Army General's Mansion. It would be alright if my eldest brother got involved into this issue and suffered fatigue in dealing with it for only one time. I only hope that Young Lady Qin could think of all that favors he has done for you in the past, and do not drag him in for this time. "

That meant if Qin Yuru still found trouble with Qi Tianyu, they would not be as polite as they did this time. Qi Rongzhi believed that Qin Yuru was sensible enough to understand the current situations. Otherwise, if people found and restarted to talk about this affair, Qi Tianyu could only help her to find some relationships, and Qin Yuru would become the culprit behind the scene who ruined both others and herself.

Although the accident happened, Qi Rongzhi was not the troublemaker. After all, she reacted fast. After she finished the sentence, she came to the servant and put on a face which was both cold and strict, "the eldest brother asked you to find me, why did you follow Young Lady Qin? What happened on her mansion has nothing to do with us now. "

"Let him go!" Chunxi heard Qi Rongzhi 's words, and yelled at the two old women who clung to the servant immediately.

The two old women took a glimpse at Shui Ruolan and said nothing. When Qin Yuru 's old woman delivered the message just now, Old Grandma asked Shui Ruolan to take someone with her, so now Shui Ruolan dominated the situation naturally.

Something like this happend to Young Lady, Second Miss was too young to make any decisions, so Shui Ruolan had to handle with this issue anyway.

Shui Ruolan said nothing yet, and they dared not to let him go.

Qin Wanru stepped in front of the servant, and looked him up and down, which drove the servant much more flustered. Although Second Miss Qin was still as tiny as she was before his eyes, her lucid and bright eyes beamed down certain coldness and made him feel nervous unreasonably.

“You’re the servant by the side of First Young Master of the Qi Family, why are you following the eldest sister?” Qin Wanru asked.

“lackey I... lackey I came to find our Young Lady, I didn’t expect that I saw someone want to kidnap Young Lady Qin.” The servant stammered and lowered his head.

“So you meant that this issue has nothing to do with your First Young Master of the Qi Family?” Qin Wanru showed a faint smile on her lips, but that smile contained a sense of fridginess.

“Qin Wanru, what did your words mean? How could my eldest brother have anything to do with this woman? Since this woman attached to the royal branch of capital Duke Yong Mansion, our mansion had nothing to with her at all. It was this servant that did not get things straight and still thought of helping Qin Yuru.” Qi Rongzhi became unhappy once she understood the allusion in Qin Wanru’s sentence, so she snorted coldly and said.

“Big Sister, what do you think about this?” Qin Wanru ignored her and put her eyes on Qin Yuru.

At this time, Qin Yuru was supported to stand up and became so angry and hateful about Qi Rongzhi’s words that she was anxious to throw some slaps in her face. For that old case, Ningyuan Army General’s Mansion has dealt with it in low key for multiple times, only wishing to diminish the severe issue into a less critical one, and at last, it could better be a disappearing issue that no one could ever remember.

Qi Rongzhi, in front of so many people, mentioned it again unexpectedly.

But being afraid of eliciting the genuine reasons for this issue, she dared not to refute for sure. She gritted her teeth and swallowed her hateful words, “Wanru, let him go, it may have nothing to do with him... but I... I was fooled around by others as well. That person took the sachet and said it was Aunt Shui’s, and I didn’t even check it but followed him here. I never thought of, never thought of...”

Qin Wanru sobbed and cried again.

“But... but this is not Aunt Shui’s sachet! ” When Qin Wanru heard that Qin Yuru still stuck to say that the sachet belonged to Shui Ruolan, she sneered in her mind but did not show any expressions on her face. She held it in her hand and shook it with an innocent and inexperienced look on her face, “Big Sister, this is your sachet!”

“I... I don’t know, and I don’t know why it is mine... maybe... maybe I just dropped it!” Qin Yuru’s tears were falling violently. She felt so wronged.

“Maybe Young Lady was struggling hard when those people caught her and she dropped it off. ” Mei Xue followed Qin Yuru’s words and made it up hurriedly.

But her words reminded people of the scene when the bully pressed himself on Qin Yuru’s body, and some of the bystanders showed disdain on their faces. It was not the thing just happened made people disdained her, the previous issue was odd as well. This Young Lady Qin seemed strange, because the servant girl's words did not match the Miss's, and she behaved in panic. Moreover, their words about this sachet were paradoxical.

"Let him go!" Finally, Shui Ruolan opened her mouth and said, and those two old women instantly drew their hands back and let him free. Qihai jumped and hid behind Qi Rongzhi's back immediately.

"Now that this issue has nothing to do with us, then I take my people away. I hope Young Lady Qin could not get my guiltless Big Brother involved into this issue so that both our mansions could still find words to talk when we meet in the future." Qi Rongzhi warned Qin Yuru repeatedly and then left with servants and servant girls.

The two bullies ran away already and all the people on site were women. It was getting dark and no one dared to rush into the deep woods to find people anymore.

Shui Ruolan asked someone to support Qin Yuru to stand up, and then brought her people to meet the Old Grandma.

People from Ningyuan Army General's Mansion followed her as well, leaving many bystanders who just watched the scene curiously walked out of the woods in groups and still chatted with each other.

In the past, many people present heard about the issues that occurred in Ningyuan Army General's Mansion, but no one has ever seen anything. But this time they watched the whole scene.

Young Lady Qin just got sandwiched between two men and torn her sleeves, and she actually had lost her virginity.

A woman's virginity was much more important than the name of God, and she even lost it in front of the public. If she wanted to protect her reputation, she would rather die to keep herself clean or to be sent to become a nun ending up her life with a single candle and ancient Buddha.

It remained unknown of what this Miss would choose, and this became the focus of the public's discussion. Other talks were about the issue itself. Since this Young Lady was absolutely not clean and she would probably suffer the consequence that she brought to herself.

There were many discussions as people were chattering about it, and nine of ten sentences were distrust towards Qin Yuru's reputation.

"What happened Yuru, why did you follow others to go out?" Old Grandma sat by the bed, and she was so angry that her face was as pale as a white piece of paper. She patted the bedrail vigorously and asked with anger.

And this was the reason for this issue.

"Grandma, grandma... I really thought something bad happened to Aunt Shui, I was deceived." Qin Yuru cried loudly and knelt in front of the bed.

"You could send someone to ask whether anything happened to Ruolan. Why did you follow it? And if Ruolan didn't lose the sachet, would there have anything like losing it?" Grandma didn't believe Qin Yuru's words at all, Madam Di and Qin Yuru never liked Shui Ruolan, especially something like that just happen.

Even if she didn't expect that something terrible happened to Shui Ruolan, she would not save her in such a hurry.

"Grandma, I was truly deceived. I was panic at that moment." Qin Yuru could only assert that she was deceived now.

"You... you did things like this, I could not harbor you. You should just go down the mountain and tell your parents!" Old Grandma felt very sad because she saw Qin Yuru still refused to tell the truth. She leaned back and closed her eyes feebly, "I'm old, and you do not treat me seriously. What you just said... was only for cheating me. Well, never mind, you just leave and go down the mountain."

She had a clear conscience to Qin Yuru, and she kept trying to give everything the best for her. Because Qin Yuru didn't have other relatives, she was always concerned about her two granddaughters. Qin Yuru was Qin Huaiyong's flesh and blood, she could not treat her with negligence. But this time, Qin Yuru really broke her heart. Madam Di and her daughter were fooling others around again and again.

"Grandma, you... you just tell my father, I was... hurt because of Aunt Shui." Qin Yuru was begging her in a crying voice.

"I won't say anything, and you tell him yourself if you want!" Old Grandma got exasperated and said. Qin Yuru still wanted to blame everything on Ruolan even at this moment, and this would estrange the distance between Huaiyong and Ruolan.

"Grandma... I'm your granddaughter. How could you... you do..." On hearing Old Grandma's refusal, Qin Yuru rushed to her within steps, and she crawled to grab Old Grandma's hands in front of her bed. A flash of fierce and bitterness was blazing in her eyes, and she wanted to blame the reason for the issue to Shui Ruolan no matter how.

She wanted Shui Ruolan to become the culprit in destroying her.

Qin Wanru reached out hands and hit her hands heavily, which were then thrown to the other side, "Big Sister, you claimed that Aunt Shui was supposed to be blamed for this issue, how much do you hate Aunt Shui on earth?"

Old Grandma couldn't speak out directly. But because Qin Wanru was still young, she could be "ignorant" and speak out bluntly.

"I'll tell father for sure. You keep putting the blame on Aunt Shui even if Aunt Shui saved you, and you even said that was Aunt Shui's sachet made you to follow them. But actually it was your sachet, and you set free the First Young Master of the Qi Family and the servant, both of them clearly related to this issue, and for that servant, he was very sneaky. I think this issue has some relations with First Young Master of the Qi Family, and I'll tell father to talk to Magistrate Qi!"

Qin Wanru went furious, "it's possible to find the two bullies if I really wanted to. I'll ask father to assemble all the people living here and check them one by one, and then we can definitely figure this out. Who did this, and what is it planning to do? When I get this thing straight, I'll make father punish that person."

It seemed that her delicate and girly voice sounded senseless, but every sentence was beating on Qin Yuru's heart and made her shuddering bodily.

No... no, this thing could not be examined further!

Medical Princess

Chapter 65: Separating Madam Di and Her Daughter

Qin Yuru was sent to Jingxin Monastery at that night. Old Grandma couldn't be responsible when something terrible happened like this. She was not her parents but Qin Yuru's grandma, so Qin Huaiyong and Madam Di were supposed to make decisions if anything happened.

Moreover, now she was both disappointed and heartbroken about Qin Yuru, so she decided not to deal with her issue anymore. Since Qin Yuru didn't get Shui Ruolan involved into the event, she sent Nanny Duan by her side to take Qin Yuru away overnight and visit Qin Huaiyong for telling him the situation. Whatever would happen next have nothing to do with her.

Now that Qin Yuru was sent away, Shui Ruolan and Qin Wanru comforted Old Grandma for a while and served her to sleep.

Because of the previous event, Old Grandma began to cough severely after she went to bed. Her uncontrollable coughing made Shui Ruolan sent someone to invite the master from Jingxin Monastery. Then he prescribed the Old Grandma new medicine and asked the girl servant to decoct the medicine in the corridor.

Shui Ruolan sent the master of Jingxin Monastery to the door and expressed her gratitude repeatedly. When she turned back, she found Qin Wanru step out of the room standing there and waving to her.

"Wanru, come here!" She went into the room beside her after she finished the sentence. It was a rarely visited room and nobody was in it.

Qin Wanru responded to her and then followed Shui Ruolan to that isolated room.

"Wanru, what happened?" Shui Ruolan frowned at her and asked after they both stood there. Since she was not stupid, the entire case when connecting each part was bizarre no matter how hard she thought of it.

The sachet disappeared and the one at that moment was not hers for sure. So where was hers? Except for someone bumping into her, the only person approached her was Qin Wanru at that time.

"Aunt Shui, this is your sachet, be careful in the future!" While Qin Wanru was smiling, she reached to take a sachet out of her inner pocket and passed it to Shui Ruolan silently.

Shui Ruolan got stunned. She reached to take the sachet in a hurry and hid it into her sleeves.

"Aunt Shui, it was Big Sister who was conspiring against you and now she suffered the consequence herself." Qin Wanru said briefly.

Her words made Shui Ruolan went into silence and her eyes felt sore. She was worried about Qin Wanru who was trying to protect her although she so small and her height could only reach to her shoulder.

She was never so determined that she wanted to protect this kid. She didn't say anything but combed Qin Wanru's hair by her ears, and suddenly millions of sensations and notions came into her mind. Her eyes became red because of tears but didn't know where to start it.

Qin Wanru went back to her room after Old Grandma took medicine and got so much better.

Shui Ruolan stayed and ordered Qin Wanru to go back to sleep.

Qin Wanru went back to her own room and sat in front of the dressing table after she finished cleaning up herself.

"Miss, why did you save Young Lady?" Qing Yue asked confusedly while she twisted her hair to dry it up.

"If anything terrible happened to her, then grandma should be responsible for that because she followed grandma to live in this mountain!" Qin Wanru picked up a piece of dry towel and passed it to Qing Yue, and then Qing Yue changed the wet one in her hands.

Nothing should ever happen to Qin Yuru. Otherwise, Madam Di would go crazy and could drive her to do anything out of anyone's expectations. Therefore, at least at this moment, Qin Yuru should be safe and sound.

"But now, did anything bad really happen to Young Lady in this way?" Qing Yue changed the towel and asked as if she comprehended it partially.

"This was an accident indeed but didn't get exposed to the public yet. Since we could cover it, Madam Di would think the situation is reversible. However, many people saw her in a mess. It was heard that a large number of pilgrims in Jingxin Monastery were wives and daughters of businessmen in local, and they'll leave someday."

Qin Wanru said carefully and slowly.

"So did Miss mean that they would spread this information?" Qing Yue lit up and understood suddenly.

Qin Wanru nodded her head and touched the end of her hair and thought it was dried enough. Then she pointed out intentionally, "Jiangzhou is too far away from the capital city, and we'll go back to the capital city eventually!"

For her previous life, Qin Huaiyong did well himself, so he returned to the capital city soon by using Duke Yong Mansion's background.

The entirely irrelevant words made Qing Yue blinked her eyes, but thinking of the issue happened in the mansion, she understood, "so Miss meant that Madam and Young Lady would ruin your reputation after they go back to the capital city?"

This assumption made Qing Yue changed her facial expression immediately and she stammered, "but this is... is Young Lady's own business."

"If they wanted to blame things on me and Qi Tianyu would like to take testimony, considering the far distance between Jiangzhou and the capital city, then who'll know?" Qin Wanru sneered and said. The girl in the mirror looked very childish but the pair of water-like eyes emanated profound darkness and depth.

This was not an alarmist talk, but something happened to her in the previous life.

But some businessmen would go to the capital city, so rumors could be spread when it was the right time. Or in other words, someone would say that she was on site during the rumor's spreading.

"Madam and Young Lady are both too... too vicious!" Qing Yue took a deep and cold breath and said in dismay, "Miss... then... then what should we do? General... General and Old Grandma'll say true words, right?"

"Grandma is in poor health... father... although father concerns about me, Big Sister is his daughter after all." A sneer showed up on her lips.

Qin Huaiyong was amiable and couldn't be regarded as an ungrateful man when he was treating her along. But when it comes to his daughter, the situation changed. After all, that was his daughter and Qin Huaiyong would never sacrifice his daughter for someone else's. So guilty as he felt, Qin Huaiyong would watch aside.

She saw it clearly after she experienced in her previous life.

Qin Huaiyong could feel Qin Huaiyong's fatherhood in the absence of any conflicts. But he would make a compromise to Madam Di when she and Qin Yuru had conflicts.

"Then... then what should we do?" Qing Yue was so panic that she almost loosed her grasp of the towel. Miss was helpless and isolated, and none of them in the entire General's Mansion could protect her.

"Don't worry, I'll have Aunt Shui help me!" Qin Wanru said to Qing Yue in the mirror gently. After this issue, Shui Ruolan's hesitation should disappear although she was confused. Actually, just like herself, Madam Di found no way out when she started to scheme.

Qin Wanru was afraid that Shui Ruolan couldn't see it clearly as she just took the sachet out.

They were both isolated and independent. Shui Ruolan was short of legal and decent identity, and she was too young to make others take her words seriously. What she said were only childish things.

"Will Miss Shui protect you?" Qing Yue put a towel on her chest subconsciously.

"Maybe, and Aunt Shui'll protect my grandma and me, and I'll protect them too." Qin Wanru nodded her head and said. Her previous lives were several weak people and for this time, she would never allow others to bully her. If she didn't have the rebirth, it was afraid that she would take the same life she had before.

A girl, lacking protection, was like a useless grass living in the world.

On hearing Miss's words, an inexplicable pain was flowing in Qing Yue's bosom. She felt hurt for her and she thought if Second Miss was not smart as she was, maybe she had lost her lives years ago.

"So, I must be powerful." Qin Wanru's curling and long eyelashes fluttered, dropping untrimmed shadows beneath her eyes and portraying a sense of misery. She showed a smile on her red lips, but it was sad and dismal.

She was floating rootlessly in destiny in her previous life and was finally trampled into hell suffering endless bloody miseries. She died in vain under others' knives and even left no bones or body.

But for her current life, she would never retreat!

Qing Yue looked at Qin Wanru sitting by the dressing table, her gorgeous but tiny face wearing a facial expression that could only be seen on an adult. But Qing Yue didn't find it contradictory to Qin Wanru's style and it even gave her a sense of security as if Qing Wanru could really protect people around her in this way.

She looked calmed gradually.

Feeling the calm of Qing Yue and wearing a faint but mild smile, Qin Wanru lifted her head slightly. Qing Yue was very loyal to her and she required her support to continue going forward. She didn't expect that Qing Yue would have confusion and panic because of her.

Confidence, she would give Qing Yue confidence and courage!

"Second Miss, then how to deal with Young Lady's issue?" Qing Yue looked at Qin Wanru in a respected way that she didn't even notice, and asked.

Although Miss was still underage, she was dignified and her words valued. She had faith in her Miss.

"I'll go to the capital city!" Qin Wanru looked at Qing Yue with admiration. Then she stood up and stroke her beautiful hair.

"Going to the capital city? That fast? Didn't the General say that he had no idea when to go to the capital city?" Qing Yue put down her towel and sat next to Qin Wanru, grabbing a comb and combing her pretty hair.

"Not my father but Qin Yuru'll go to the capital city because she couldn't stay in Jiangzhou anymore!" There was a sneer on her Qin Wanru's lips. In her previous life, Qin Yuru did go to the capital city first, but not for this life. In this life, Qin Yuru destroyed her reputation at all and staying would only things worse.

It is inevitable to go to the capital city and live in Duke Yong Mansion to stay away from the trouble and rumors temporarily.

"What... what about Madam?" Qing Yue asked.

"She won't go, Aunt Shui is still here, and she's worried!" On seeing her hair was combed smoothly already, Qin Wanru stood up and said gently. If that thing didn't happen to Shui Ruolan, Madam Di was supposed to leave. But now she had to stay in Jiangzhou. Separating Madam Di from Qin Yuru was a useful thing for Qin Wanru.

Madam Di was different from Qin Yuru.

After all, Qin Yuru was only a young lady of this large family lacking company of her parents, so her bad words about Qin Yuru could only be heard by several people. Moreover, she had to talk about it implicitly or ask her servants to spread the rumors.

Madam Di was different. She was regarded as the elder in the family by her mother's side, and Duke Yong in the capital city was her mother's family. She knew many people, so she wouldn't be scrupulous when people were gossiping in front of her. But she would surely stir up more trouble if she went to capital city so that it wouldn't have anything good to her.

Separating Madam Di and her daughter was part of her next step's schedule originally.

Qing Yue retreated and Qin Wanru went to bed and thought for a while calmly. At last, she couldn't fight back her tiredness and fell into sleep.

The daytime of autumn lingered some intense heat occasionally, but the night was cold enough to make people shiver. Windows were shut early in case the cold wind would intrude into the room in the evening. However, the tightly closed window made the lowest noise was pierced and opened silently in the midnight...

Medical Princess

Chapter 66: What You Owed Me, What You Will Need to Pay Back

Qin Wanru woke up early. When she opened her eyes in a loss, she felt as if thousands of weights were oppressing her and she almost lost her last breath. So it was possible that she woke up because of the heavy weight oppressing on her body.

She pushed that thing to the other side for several times subconsciously and was trying hard to push it away from her body. However, her hands were pressed under it and couldn't lift them.

Qin Wanru got worried because she had no idea if she was awake or was still in the dream. Clenching her teeth, she grabbed it hard and pushed it aside. As she was trying so hard, her feet kicked into the air when she exhausted all her strength.

What was binding her seemed to get kicked away and then dropped heavily under the bed. Thus, She got herself relaxed bodily. Qin Wanru exhaled heavily, which made her eyelashes flutter for several times. When she was about to close eyes again, a sudden feeling seized her and made her look under the bed. What she was confronting with was a pair of cold and bloodthirsty eyes.

For a moment, a screaming choked her words. Stunningly, she stared at this messy but beautiful lad in front of her with her wide bright and water-like eyes. It was highly possible that he was never so awkward and messy in all his life, and his gorgeous eyes were filled with ruthlessness and incredibility.

He fell over in front of her bed so hard that the crown on his head skewed off, making the respectable King Chen look awkward.

"Why didn't you pull me up!" They people stuck there for a while before Chu Liuchen said that with a cold and sullen look on his face.

Hurriedly, Qin Wanru supported herself and reached out a hand to him.

Chu Liuchen reached to get her little hand and used his full strength to pull himself up. Without knowing what was happening and all relying on her instinct, she didn't expect his pull was so hard that she failed to pull him up but made herself got dragged off from the bed. She oppressed on Chu Liuchen's body alongside with her quilt.

Chu Liuchen just stood up a little bit but got pressed again, and this almost made him get furious. Now he looked much more gloomy.

Fortunately, Qin Wanru was small and thin and the quilt was not massive as well. Otherwise, Prince Chen was afraid of pressing to spit blood. On thinking of himself, a decent Prince Chen almost got oppressed to spit blood by a woman, his eyes were giving out more than coldness but brutality.

He clenched his teeth with bitterness, "Qin Wanru..."

"Childe, how could you be there? This... this my room, right?" Qin Wanru said and was fully awake after the fall. She jumped to stand up immediately with her hands, reaching to pull up Chu Liuchen with her water-like eyes rolling.

This time, she supported herself on the edge of the bed in one hand and Chu Liuchen was using strength as well, she successfully pulled Chu Liuchen up. After checking this Prince Chen from his top to bottom, she was relieved because he still wore outfits though he fell and made such chaos to himself. However, this idea reminded herself of only wearing the underwear, so she picked up the quilt and jumped into the bed.

She immersed her entire body under the quilt, leaving only one head out of it and a pair of large sharp eyes staring at Chu Liuchen while rolling.

"What are you hiding for, I have seen everything already. There is nothing worthy to see!" Chu Liuchen put on a cold but handsome look then sat on the bed and pulled Qin Wanru's quilt. He said naturally, "I am cold, give me some quilt to keep warm."

Qin Wanru was frightened and said, "childe, a girl and a boy are forbidden to share even the same chair when they are 7 years old!"

Although she was still an 11 years old a child and was impossible to think that Chu Liuchen had other intentions. But she was well educated and the showing up of Chu Liuchen on her bed really examined her bottom line.

Qin Wanru was still somewhat ignorant by then, and she dared to argue reasonably.

"Well, I am not interested in a little fellow like you!" Chu Liuchen sneered and said. He pulled a large piece of quilt to his side and covered it on his body, "if you make me get sick, you think you can be responsible?"

She saw the arrogant childe's pale and bloodless lips by the moonlight outside the window and loosed her grip because she dared not to responsible for that.

A large part of the quilt was pulled to Chu Liuchen's side which left Qin Wanru sat in the corner of the bed poorly. Staying far away from him and curling her body into a ball, she could only cover the back of her foot with the quilt. It was freezing when got dragged out of the warm duvet.

"Childe, do... do you find me for anything?" Qin Wanru was freezing to trembling a little bit, but she still dared not to fight her quilt back.

"Yes, I do!" Chu Liuchen reached out his hands and pulled her little body to his side with a sneer and said, "a little girl like you said something like 'a girl and a boy could never sharing the same chair when they turned 7 years old', you are like an old pedant who is so useless and didactic."

Her little body was pulled into his arms, and Chu Liuchen felt that she was like the cat he raised, which was both soft and comfortable. She resembled that cat when Chu Liuchen was sleeping in his arms. While he touched her beautiful hair which was as sleek as silk and felt like stroking his cat as well.

Qin Wanru got warm in Chu Liuchen's hug, but the child's body didn't seem to get much warmer. It was still cold and his body temperature was even lower than hers.

"Child, what do you want me to do?" Qin Wanru thought that she shouldn't make a fuss about other things with him at this moment. And didn't this child is still at his home mansion? Why did he come to Jingxin Monastery?

"I heard that something happened here last night, so I want to watch the show." Chu Liuchen squinted his eyes and said with a sneer.

Qin Wanru relieved, "child, you are late for that. Yesterday's event passed already. Did you come back because Big Sister was sent back home? This thing was over a long time ago!"

"I don't think it's over!" Chu Liuchen sneered and said.

"So what do you mean, child?" Qin Wanru was stunned and asked carefully. Her fine hair was extremely long and dark, and she loosened her hair during her sleep. While she was sitting there, her spreading hair covered her little body and contrasted with her red lip and white teeth, which showed a kind of charm beyond her age.

Especially her red lips combining with her elegant and beautiful lip shape carried attractiveness even in the dim light of the room.

Chu Liuchen's eyes swept her cherry lips and suddenly laughed, "Qin Wanru, I did you many favors, and didn't I save your life as well?"

"Thanks a lot, child!" Qin Wanru got nervous now.

"It doesn't matter if you thank me, but you have to remember that you owed me and you should pay back." Chu Liuchen smiled lightly and leaned back with his head skewing slightly to the other side. He looked at Qin Wanru like a hooligan, "I will not help others in vain."

"So, you mean?" Qin Wanru asked more carefully.

"Bring him in!" Chu Liuchen's voice raised his voice.

"Yes!" Someone responded in a low voice outside the half-opened window where a servant pushed it and jumped into the room with a man in black in his hand.

That man in black seemed still dizzy and his hands which were lifted by the servant were dropping down feebly.

"Who is this?" Qin Wanru was astounded and her body became rigid because of nervousness.

"Qin Wanru, if it were not me, you got hurt already!" Chu Liuchen grinned and said coldly and slowly.

Qin Wanru's eyes fell on the hands of the man in black and she also saw the servant put trivial on her table which included robes, knives and incense.

Suddenly, an idea came upon her and changed her facial expressions, she was still too careless!

Her negligence almost killed her, and Madam Di was determined that she was ready to kidnap her.

Unlike General's Mansion, many people visited Jingxin Monastery. It was difficult to investigate into the case even if an accident truly happened. Additionally, her father would deal with Qin Yuru's trouble now that something terrible really happened to Qin Yuru. So for herself, that case should be put aside before Qin Yuru's problem was addressed and by that time, her trouble may disappear as well.

Madam Di was so vicious!

Chu Liuchen felt the little body became rigid in his arms, so he patted her on the head for several times and also combed it, "so, I saved you again this time."

"Thank you child!" Qin Wanru expressed gratitude sincerely. Her face was as white as snow and was bloodless.

"The kindness of saving your life is more important than anything, Qin Wanru, you won't forget it right" Chu Liuchen became so mild as the one who was both cold and ruthless just now was not him. Finally, he transformed back to the appearance of a gentle and handsome lad as if coming out of an ink painting.

"I will remember it forever!" Qin Wanru replied respectfully again.

"Now that you didn't forget, then I will go home since I am sleepy as well!" Chu Liuchen pointed at that man in black standing on the ground and said.

Qin Wanru thought for a while, "will he wake up in a second?"

"It should be a while before he wakes up!" Chu Liuchen threw a glimpse at the man in black lying on the ground and said.

"Can I ask child to do me a favor again? Can you please send that man in black to the courtyard under the window and make him fall and faint away there?" Qin Wanru asked. Since Qin Wanru saw many servants encompassing that family when she went out last time, so she knew many people living in the courtyard opposite and guessed it should be a big family.

He took more people with him than she had. She looked out of the window and found that dawn was approaching, so some servants would get up soon!

"Okay, then I will help you one more time!" Chu Liuchen agreed with great enjoyment. He left the bed and covered Qin Wanru's body with quilt and then tidied up himself. Then he asked his bodyguard to clean up the things on the table and dragged the man with him and jumped out of the window.

She sat under the quilt dumbly along and reached to pull her dress. Even at this moment, her face was as pale as snow.

She held a corner of the quilt and felt that nothing around her existed.

Her whole body was shivering like bathing in the cold water. She almost lost her life due to her negligence. If anything terrible happened to her, not only herself but her grandma, Aunt Shui and Qing

Yue would get involved in the trouble. On thinking of this, she clenched her fists slowly and the quilt in her hands was crumpled up.

This event should never happen again. She took a deep breath to calm down and then exhaled turbidness heavily and slowly.

Qin Wanru jumped from the bed and put on a dress beside her after she pulled the quilt from her head. She was so concentrated while wearing that one of the creases on the cloth was flattened under her pressing. She dressed neatly without the assistance of the girl servant as if she woke up early already.

A screaming came from the opposite. Someone was yelling loudly and others broke something seemingly, giving out a crisp sound which was astonishing in the dawn. Many people woke up suddenly.

"Miss, Miss!" Qing Yue rushed into the room in a panic.

Medical Princess

Chapter 67: The Coachman Who Refused to Recognise

"Young Lady, have you gotten up?" Qing Yue walked through the door. Seeing Qin Wanru had well dressed and stood there, she was stupefied.

"I can't sleep on the mountain!" Qin Wanru tugged at her sleeves and explained. Then, she changed the subject, "What happened?"

"There was an accident on the opposite side. It was said that there was a man who entered the opposite womenfolk' window at night. Just in the courtyard opposite us, I feared that something happened to you, so I ran in!" Seeing that Qin Wanru was safe and sound, Qing Yue sighed with relief and hurriedly reported.

"Let's go and see!" Qin Wanru sat down in front of the dressing table. "Just give me a simple one."

Qing Yue nodded and stepped forward. She skillfully twisted Qin Wanru's hair into two buns without wearing jewelry, and only tied two hair bands.

When Qin Wanru took Qing Yue to the opposite room, a lot of people were there, and many people were alarmed. Even the nuns from Jingxin Monastery rushed to maintain order.

The man in black had already woken up. He was held on the ground by two stout old women, with his hands tied behind his back. The black cloth on his face had fallen.

When Qin Wanru came in, she saw the familiar face, but she could not finger out who he was.

"Young Lady, that's a man from our mansion!" Qing Yue was more sharp-eyed than her. She immediately recognized her and said loudly.

She talked rather loudly, and the untidy voice faded. Everyone looked at Qin Wanru and her servant. Until now, they had not known who the black man was. However, from what was found on this man, they could see that his motive was execrable.

All were women on the mountain. Needless to say, he robbed women for selling them to the dirty place. The womenfolk hated such a person.

If a perfectly good woman was sold to that place, there was no good end to them. The man in black had been beaten by many people, but he just clenched his teeth. Therefore, they could not do anything to him.

"This man is... from our mansion?" Qin Wanru was startled and set her eyes on the man, seemingly examining him.

"It's the coachman in our mansion. It's the coachman of the carriage that Madam has been using." Qing Yue looked at the man in black and said affirmatively.

Although the man in black had been slapped a few times, his face was swollen, Qing Yue still recognized him at a glance.

Madam Di's subordinates had always been aggressive. If Qin Wanru went out, he would never drive for her. Even sometimes the other coachmen were absent, he was not willing to and alleged that Madam Di might use the carriage later.

Qing Yue took insults from him many times, so she could recognize him well.

The coachman's brain was in buzz. At this time, he heard the noise of the crowd die away, and raised his head subconsciously. When he was facing Qin Wanru's dark eyes, he immediately panicked and desperately struggled.

He was knocked out and caught for no reason. When he opened his eyes and found that he did not know them, the coachman secretly sighed with relief because he believed that Madam of Jiangzhou Prefecture had a way to save himself, as long as no one found that he was Madam's subordinate.

Although he didn't know why he appeared under the window of a strange woman's harem, the coachman was so glad that he was not found by Second Miss's subordinates.

He found that he went to the wrong place, but he considered himself lucky.

He did not expect Qin Wanru to appear in front of him now, so he immediately panicked.

"You're my mother's servant?" Qin Wanru stared at his face coldly.

Treated with indifference, the coachman trembled with fear. He hurriedly turned his head away and continued to struggle, as if he did not hear Qin Wanru.

"You're really my mother's servant. Why did my mother send you here? Are you looking for me?" Qin Wanru continued.

"Young Madam, you have got the wrong person, I... I neither know what you said nor which lady you are talking about!" The coachman spoke quickly and loudly. He made up his mind that he would not admit.

Qin Wanru sneered secretly.

"Needless to say, this coachman was Madam Di's trusted subordinate. Qin Yuru had an accident, so Madam Di took desperate measures. Unexpectedly, she conceived such a mischievous plan. She figured out that there would be no servant beside me. It would be easy to drug and take away an 11 years old child."

She looked around and found that the people present were puzzled. However, no one spoke again, and the scene was strangely quiet.

"Young Madam, I don't know what you mean. I have never seen you... I just, just see the lady's beautiful... so..." The coachman turned his eyes and pointed to a lady who was crying and landed on a girl servant.

This lady was just held out of the room.

Of two evils choose the least. The coachman was not afraid to be prisoned. Madam was exceptionally adept in trickery, so she would find a solution to release him.

Hearing that, the lady sobbed again. A 30-year-old madam, holding her gently and patting her, knitted her eyebrows.

An old woman behind her came forward, but she waved to stop her.

However, her subtle movement was captured by Qin Wanru. In Jiangzhou Prefecture, Qin Wanru had never seen such a magnanimous lady. The people around her were so disciplined. She could order someone with just one gesture.

This lady was probably not an ordinary person.

"Qing Yue, slap him in the face!" Qin Wanru stopped being shocked and said indifferently. The more unusual at this time, the more beneficial to her.

Qing Yue's face had turned purple with anger. She rushed over and gave the coachman a few slaps.

"Young Madam, what does this matter to do with you? You're meddlesome!" The coachman was beaten to generate a bit of hostility, and he glared at Qin Wanru viciously.

"Lie, you continue to lie. Don't you think that even if you're prisoned, my mother will still have a way to release you." Qin Wanru said coldly as she looked at the coachman without blinking. Seeing the smile in the corner of her mouth, the coachman trembled with fear.

"Is Second Miss not always gentle and affable?"

"Young Madam, I really don't know you. You frequently mentioned a Madam. What are you up to? It's your business that you're on bad terms with her. Don't get me involved. I have nothing to do with your business!" The coachman was very panic, but he struggled to argue loudly.

With a righteous look, he rebuked Qin Wanru like a gentleman. Had it not been for this scene, someone would really believe him. However, everyone was more confused after hearing his explanation. Many people tend to believe in Qin Wanru.

This person brought these things and sneaked under somebody else's window. He was not a good person at first sight. It was really ridiculous that he advertised himself as an upright man.

"It's okay if you don't admit it. I'll let my grandmother send for my father to identify." Qin Wanru talked harshly and her face grew tight. Although she was not tall, she had an indescribable vigor.

The 30-year-old madam looked with wondering eyes at Qin Wanru.

The child was younger than her own daughter, but she could still be calm and self-restraint under such a situation. A lady from a hundred-year-old aristocratic family may not be so graceful and calm at this time.

The coachman was panic and looked sidelong. If the general knew this matter, he must die. Madam warned repeatedly.

He remembered that Madam said the general was busy with First Young Lady's affairs. For a time, the general had no time. He scolded himself for excessive consideration. He immediately became bold.

"Young Madam, please go and ask anyone you want to. A straight foot is not afraid of a crooked shoe." The coachman raised the swollen face that was beaten, and he wanted to show no fear. However, at this time, his look was rather doubtful.

"Qing Yue, let my grandmother's servant ask my father. Tell him that my grandmother is seriously ill, and ask him to come to Jingxin Monastery immediately!" Seeing the coachman still reluctant to admit, Qin Wanru told Qing Yue as her forehead creased for a moment.

"Second Miss, it's unfilial to lie to the general!" The coachman screamed as soon as he panicked, and his face froze when he finished.

First Young Lady's affair was very important. But if something happened to the old lady, the general would inevitably come over for the first time. She was old now, so she should not suffer any slights.

He just worried that the general would appear in Jingxin Monastery, but he was off his guard and called out "Second Miss". He called her Young Madam before.

"Second Miss? You know that I'm Second Miss rather than Young Lady?" Qin Wanru waited for this moment. She changed the subject and said with a stern sight.

Everyone suddenly was enlightened that this man in black was really a bad servant of the General's Mansion. Someone who knew Qin Wanru, or inferred her identity from her words, immediately figured out the whole thing.

Only Qin Huaiyong, Ningyuan Army General, could be called as a general in Jiangzhou Prefecture.

"Second... Second Miss Qin, I... I have seen you before, so I know... you are the second young lady of Ningyuan Army General's Mansion." The coachman was still arguing.

Qin Wanru paid no attention to him, but set her eyes on the window he was caught and looked out of the window. The spotlight shifted with her too.

"Have you got the wrong place? Haven't you made clear the difference between left and right? So this lady was implicated?"

Qin Wanru's gaze moved back from her yard to the yard before her eyes.

Coincidentally, the two yards was face-to-face. Both were very simple yards, and the walls were not high. It was impossible for a man to stay, so the wall was not heightened. Standing in the yard, you could see the room in the opposite yard and the window of the opposite room.

The two windows were almost opposite.

"It's a mistake?" The crowds began to whisper. They suspected the coachman, but they still felt that there was doubt in it. "How could the coachman of the General's Mansion do this kind of thing — do harm to an unknown lady?" They immediately understood now.

"The general's wife wants to hurt her daughter? She's heartless and cruel. Even a vicious tiger will not eat its cubs." Some people lamented.

"Perhaps you do not know that the general's wife is not Second Miss's biological mother." Some people still didn't know this.

"This... This is really too shameful. I heard that the general's wife and First Young Lady had plotted against Second Miss to destroy her reputation. So... she wants to ruin Second Miss again..."

"This woman is really... vicious and horrible. Even if she is not a biological one, how can't she tolerate a child without a natural mother?"

Medical Princess

Chapter 68: Interference by Prince's Madam

"Qing Yue, go to invite Aunt Shui. Don't disturb my grandmother. She's not good enough to withstand such a thing!" Qin Wanru lowered her eyebrows, looked very sad, whispered to Qing Yue.

She looked thin and small, except for a bit fleshy face. As she lowered her head, her long eyelashes drooped, casting uneven shadows on her pink and white face, which was beautiful and heartrending.

And what she said was very sensible. She didn't complain to her grandmother, because she was afraid that her grandmother could not stand it.

She was filial and well-behaved. Inconceivably, there were still people who were so viciously dealing with such a girl. Everyone stood by Qin Wanru.

Shui Ruolan came very quickly as sweat trickled down her forehead.

She ran into the crowd and looked Qin Wanru up and down. When she found Qin Wanru safe and sound, she was relieved and reached out to hug Qin Wanru. She touched her hair as she said pacifically, "Wanru, it's over. Everything's gonna be fine. You can live with me later. I'll protect you!"

As she was hugged by Shui Ruolan, Qin Wanru's eyes suddenly overflowed with tears. However, she still did not cry, but with tears rolling in her big black eyes. At sight of this, the elderly women who were present were distressed.

Pathetically, her natural mother had died when she was at such a young age. However, she was framed by her current adoptive mother. It could be described as miserable.

"Aunt Shui, I... I will be with you later, with my grandmother!" Qin Wanru bit her dark red lip as she whispered.

Nobody saw a flicker of indifference in her eyes. Since Madam Di left a foothold for her, she would not let it go. Madam Di had pinpointed her father and she could not handle Shui Ruolan for a while. Therefore, Madam Di would make some troubles. She had to catch her off guard.

She wanted Aunt Shui to enter into General's Mansion aboveboard, without hearing any gossip.

"Yes... Wanru lives with your grandmother. Your grandmother and Aunt Shui will protect you." Shui Ruolan worried about it and continued to appease her. She really loved Qin Wanru. Hearing something happened to her, she immediately ran over here.

"Aunt Shui, can you marry my father, even for Wanru's sake... I want to follow you." Qin Wanru looked up, with her eyes full of tears. She was both aggrieved and pitiful.

Her words surprised all the people. Obviously, the words meant more than she said.

Shui Ruolan never thought that Qin Wanru would say this at this time, her face stiffened. When she saw Qin Wan's expecting eyesight, she reached out and touched her head. For a time, she did not know how to reply.

Qin Wanru gently pushed Shui Ruolan away, went down on her knees, stretched out to hold Shui Ruolan's skirt. She implored with mournful eyes, "Aunt Shui, my mother framed up you and my father. If you really become a nun, what are my grandmother and I supposed to do? Please marry my father!"

Everyone was stunned, looking at each other in speechless despair. There was so much information. They were shocked and could not come back to earth for a long time.

The general's wife did not only frame up Second Miss, but also Miss Shui who lived in the General's Mansion. If this was said by another person, everyone would not believe it. But now Qin Wanru had a narrow escape from death, so it was justified that such a young girl said such words in the panic.

Everyone consciously had this idea.

Being intimidated by the man in black, even if she held on firmly despite extreme adversity, she was still a small child. When she saw her elders who were nice to her, she immediately found a reliance, and some words burst out.

Shui Ruolan was very shy with her face turned red. She stretched her hand to pull Qin Wanru up and rebuked her in a low voice. "Wanru, you... a little kid, why did you say that?"

"Aunt Shui, you promised to protect me!" Although Qin Wanru had been pulled up, she stared at Shui Ruolan with a childish insistence in her eyes.

"I... I..." Shui Ruolan didn't know how to answer. She was not perfectly justiable in General's Mansion, thus, she could not protect Qin Wanru.

"Aunt Shui, I'll talk to my father and ask his permission." Qin Wanru stop embarrassing Shui Ruolan as she wiped her tears, but she said firmly. "Aunt Shui, ask someone to take the coachman to my father."

"Well, I'll take him down the mountain to your father!" As long as Qin Wanru did not say words to make her shy, Shui Ruolan will give Qin Wanru her promise on everything.

Although she had known a little bit of Qin Wanru's meaning, she was really unable to act impartially.

"Aunt Shui, can you guarantee that this person will not be taken away by my mother when he is taken down the mountain?" Qin Wanru was not at ease, and reached out to tug at her sleeves.

"Er..." Shui Ruolan hesitated. She could not guarantee that Madam Di would not play tricks because Madam Di was not stupid.

"So... what should I do?" Qin Wan was helpless, and tugged at the sleeves of Shui Ruolan. They looked very alone and unprotected. In the General's Mansion, they must have a hard time, because they even could not handle a servant.

One was too young while the other had no status. Everyone present could not help but sigh. They thought that they were pitiful.

The coachman who was kneeling on the ground also heard their words, his face lit up with complacency. The madam would have arranged people at the foot of the mountain to save him. Second Miss's words would be fake for lack of evidence.

"Let me send someone to take him to Ningyuan Army General!" Someone in the crowd suddenly said. Everyone looked back and found out that it was actually the 30-years-old lady.

She was the temporary owner of this yard.

Qin Wanru gently pushed Shui Ruolan. Shui Ruolan immediately made a respectful bow. "Madam, can I ask who you are?"

"My husband's family name is Luo, and my family name is Xin. You have to call me Mrs. Xin. As a matter of fact, my daughter almost get burnt. Since this person is the coachman of Ningyuan Army General's Mansion, it is necessary for Ningyuan Army General to give us an explanation. Come, send this man to the Ningyuan Army General's Mansion, and offer my name card. If someone wants to take him away halfway, you should beat them away directly."

At the thought of her daughter almost having an accident, Mrs. Xin darkened her face and said harshly.

"Yes, Madam!" An old woman walked out of the crowd and bowed to Mrs. Xin. She waved to the two stout old women. At her commanding, they pulled up the coachman. Then, four other old women come over and stood behind them.

At sight of this, the coachman was panic. "Hey, Jiangzhou is a legal place. What do you want to do..."

He had not finished his words yet. An old woman came over and blocked his mouth with a handkerchief. The two old women put forth their strength, and the stalwart man was immediately pulled down.

They were proficient in action. No ordinary households could train such servants.

Qin Wanru looked up and set her eyes on the lady. She knew who the lady was.

In her previous life, she had never seen but heard this princess. The family name, Xin, was rare. Such a person Qin Wanru knew in the last life was Duke Yangqu's eldest son's wife.

The princess's parents' home was a family of military officers, so she was more straightforward than ordinary ladies. The reason why Qin Wanru remembered so clear was due to the princess's daughter. She involuntarily looked at a young madam who was sobbing. She should be Mrs. Xin's daughter Luo Xiaowan.

Mrs. Xin herself was strong, but she had a weak daughter. Miss Luo was gentle, but she was tortured by her cruel husband. She was badly ill but she dared not to tell her mother.

Later, Mrs. Xin doubted and sent someone to look into the matter. As a result, she was so raged that she made a scene in Luo Xiaowan's husband's family. She gave him a few slaps, and forced him to sign divorce deal on the spot.

With her daughter and dowry, she returned to Duke Yangqu's Mansion overnight.

This incident triggered considerable controversial. Some people said that Mrs. Xin was overbearing and rude. The other people said that Mrs. Xin loved her daughter earnestly.

This matter spread over the capital city. Even some people presented memorial to the throne to accuse Duke Yangqu. Mrs. Xin was also summoned to the Queen's palace.

This matter ended up with nothing definite. However, it had provoked much discussion. Qin Wanru, who was in the boudoir, heard many rumors about Mrs. Xin.

Unexpectedly, she could encounter Mrs. Xin in Jiangzhou. With this decisive and straightforward Mrs. Xin's help, Madam Di could not escape this time.

"Thank you, Mrs. Xin." Shui Ruolan did not know who this lady was, but she was not stupid and also saw that Mrs. Xin's extraordinary behavior. Seeing that she voluntarily handled this matter, she heaved a sigh of relief.

If nobody was willing to deal with this matter, she had to trouble with Nanny Duan, who was the dowager's servant. She and Qin Wanru had the same idea that try not to let the dowager know. She was in poor health and could not stand too many things. If Nanny Duan knew it, the dowager would know.

The coachman was taken away. The crowds went away. Shui Ruolan pulled Qin Wanru's hand and wanted to retire, but she was left by Mrs. Xin.

"Miss Shui, can you come in and talk?"

Shui Ruolan was very grateful to Mrs. Xin. Hearing that, she immediately nodded and let Qin Wanru go. "Wanru, you go back first. I'll talk to Mrs. Xin."

"Second Miss Qin don't leave either. Can you talk with Xiaowan?" Mrs. Xin's eyes fell on Qin Wanru, who looked smaller than her daughter. However, Mrs. Xin appreciated her very much. "This child is very popular. She is different from ordinary people."

She originally wanted to nurture her daughter to be magnanimous. However, her daughter was too gentle, so that Mrs. Xin sighed with emotion.

This made her appreciate Qin Wanru more and more!

Medical Princess

Chapter 69: There Was No Natural Mother in General's Mansion

She was popular because she had an extraordinary temperament at a young age.

"Xiaowan, go to talk with Second Miss Qin. I have something to talk with Miss Shui." Mrs. Xin turned back and gently told her daughter.

Luo Xiaowan bit her lip, raised her head and carefully looked at Qin Wanru. Her eyes were still red because she had been crying.

Seeing that Qin Wanru, who was much younger than herself, looked at her with her big black eyes, she was a little shy, took a handkerchief to wipe her tears. She walked over and said, "Second Miss Qin, please follow me!"

Actually, she was very embarrassed. She did not want to entertain any guest because she just cried. Moreover, the guest was a younger lady than herself. She had witnessed everything herself. When things went wrong, she only cried. However, Second Miss Qin dealt with it calmly. Therefore, she admired Qin Wanru.

Meanwhile, she felt more and more embarrassed. She played her handkerchief a few times. She took Qin Wanru into a wing-room, called people to serve tea and snacks.

She was a little less scary because of Qin Wanru's composure.

"How old are you?" They sat at the table. Luo Xiaowan looked at her up and down, whispering curiously.

"Miss Luo, I'm eleven years old." Qin Wanru blinked and replied. Inexplicably, she was also very fond of this gentle Miss Luo. It could be seen that Luo Xiaowan was really gentle, not like Madam Di and Qin Yuru.

"You're eleven years old, but you look a little bit younger! I thought you were at most ten years old." Luo Xiaowan also calmed down, covered her lips with a handkerchief, and chuckled.

Qin Wanru was really thinner and smaller than her peers. Fortunately, when she grew up, she was not short.

"Miss Luo, how old are you?" Qin Wanru smiled and asked curiously.

"I'm thirteen years old!" Luo Xiaowan twisted her handkerchief again, quite embarrassed. "I'm older than you but I can't compare with you. I'm scared to cry!"

Although she blushed with shame, Luo Xiaowan was very straightforward.

"Miss Luo is protected by Mrs. Xin, she will help you. Moreover, you have never encountered such a thing. In fact, if this person ran to my window, I'll cry with fear too."

Seeing Luo Xiaowan's embarrassment, Qin Wan said with a smile.

These words could be regarded as self-exposure. They looked at each other and could not help but laugh. The friendship between girls was sometimes very simple.

They felt the same way about each other due to a sentence or an action.

Luo Xiaowan was not so cautious. Thinking that she was older, she was not that embarrassed. "My name is Xiaowan, you can call me Sister Xiaowan. What's your name?"

"Sister Xiaowan, my name is Wanru." Qin Wanru said briskly. She was very fond of this really gentle Luo Xiaowan.

"Then I call you sister Wanru! We have the same character in our name, so we're destined together." Luo Xiaowan laughed.

"We're really predestined!" Qin Wanru also laughed. They had never seen each other in the last life. However, they met in Jiangzhou in this life. Her rebirth had changed many things.

This also made Qin Wanru more confident in her future.

She must be able to reverse the ending.

"Sister Wanru, is the general's wife not your biological mother? Who is your biological mother?" Luo Xiaowan asked in astonishment.

Qin Wanru lowered her head and shook it silently. She did not know exactly til she died in the last life.

"I don't know!"

"How can you not know? Is your biological mother not in the General's Mansion?" Luo Xiaowan asked in surprise. She thought that Qin Wanru's biological mother was a concubine in the General's Mansion. In order to improve her status, the general asked her wife to adopt her and make her a daughter born of the legal wife.

"My biological mother doesn't live in the General's Mansion!" Qin Wanru shook her head again.

"Is it possible that... she was Ningyuan Army General's former concubine, but now... she has died?" Luo Xiaowan knew that she inadvertently hurt Qin Wanru. To rectify, she said hurriedly. However, the more she said, the more hurt Qin Wanru got.

A old woman behind her was helplessly pulling her sleeves, suggesting that she said the wrong.

This was the stewardess that Mrs. Xin arranged for her, for fear that her daughter did bad things with a good intention.

"Sister Wanru, I had no disrespect. I'm just curious. Sister Wanru, don't be angry!" Luo Xiaowan felt that she was wrong as she finished. She stretched out to pull Qin Wanru's sleeves.

"Sister Xiaowan, I'm fine. I just can't find my mother. My mother does not live in the General's Mansion. There is no died concubine there." Qin Wanru looked up, and shook her head with some bitterness.

Qin Huaiyong had few concubines. It was easy to investigate.

"Sister Wanru, don't be sad. Maybe you'll know who your mother is in a few days." Luo Xiaowan comforted her. "And even if you don't have a mother, it doesn't matter because you still have a father, a grandmother, and your Aunt Shui!"

Luo Xiaowan also witnessed that how Shui Ruolan protected Qin Wanru.

“Well, I still have a grandmother, Aunt Shui and a father!” Qin Wanru nodded with her thick and curled eyelashes flicked twice, hiding serenity in her eyes. In this life, she would not muddle along without any aim. From her biological mother and the seal in her hand, she suspected that she was not Qin Huaiyong’s biological daughter.

She guessed from many clues in the previous world.

“Wanru, let’s go back!” Shui Ruolan’s voice suddenly came from the door.

Qin Wanru stood up.

“Sister Wanru, I’ll return to the capital city in a few days. If you come there in the future, come and play with me.” Luo Xiaowan stood up reluctantly.

“Well, I must find you to play after I go to the capital city!” Qin Wanru laughed and nodded hard.

Seeing that she answered seriously, Luo Xiaowan was also happy. She reached out and touched Qin Wanru’s head like an adult. “Don’t forget it!”

“I won’t!” Qin Wanru narrowed her eyes as she smiled.

Looking at them, Mrs. Xin couldn’t help but laugh. Her daughter was always weak, so she would be sad for many days after something like this happened. But now, it seemed that she was not sad at all. It was a good thing.

She inquired about Shui Ruolan’s matter because she was indignant that Madam Di’s servant had almost hurt her daughter. Now, she really wanted to free Qin Wanru from persecution.

Coincidentally, she was still a victim. Thus, she was justified.

Qin Wanru followed Shui Ruolan to the dowager’s yard from Mrs. Xin’s yard. The old lady was in poor health and had not got up in the past few days. Even though she was better now, they tried to protect her from wind. In the middle of the day, they helped her to walk and bask in the gallery.

After they amused the old lady in the room for a while, Qin Wanru let Shui Ruolan go to rest. Yesterday, Shui Ruolan did not rest well.

Shui Ruolan originally didn’t want to go, but the old lady and Qin Wanru let her go back together. She was really tired. Moreover, there was nothing to do now. Thus, she agreed to go back to sleep for a while, thinking that she would still keep watch at night for the old lady.

“Zhuzhuo, something has happened?” When Shui Ruolan left, the old lady stopped smiling. “Don’t tell me that nothing happened. Right now, your Aunt Shui left so fast. Obviously, something was wrong.”

The old lady said in a low voice.

As soon as Qin Wanru heard it, she knew that Shui Ruolan gave the game away. She shook her hand and behaved in a spoiled manner. “Grandma, the coachman in our mansion brought some bad things like secret fragrance and rope. He climbed to a young lady’s window to frame her up. She lived opposite me. In the end, he was founded.”

Originally, she wanted to tell her grandmother after the end of the matter. Until then, her grandmother would not be worried.

“Madam Di, this evil woman!” The old lady understood it as soon as she heard it. She was trembling. It was clear that he wanted to deal with Qin Wanru, but he got the wrong room.

Thinking that Qin Wanru was almost robbed by Madam Di, the old lady was ashamed and sad. She reached out and held Qin Wanru into her arms. She was distressed with tears falling down.

“Grandmother, my father may come later. I lived opposite a fair lady from the capital city. It provoked big trouble!” Qin Wanru patted the old lady’s back. When she saw her little granddaughter comfort her like an adult, a lump came into her throat.

This child was always sensible, but Madam Di had prejudice against her. Unexpectedly, she thought of such a vicious plot to destroy Zhuozhuo.

She would not agree. Even if she died, she would protect the child.

“Grandmother, please rest assured that my father will marry Aunt Shui this time. Moreover, Aunt Shui’s integrity and my father’s reputation will not be ruined. I begged Aunt Shui to protect me in front of the lady. I also said that my mother framed up Aunt Shui and my father.” Qin Wanru rest her head against his shoulder and acted coquettishly.

The old lady’s heart softened.

This child was really endearing.

“I’m to blame... If I haven’t been sick, I must have made my decision for you and Ruolan... cough... cough...”

The old lady was sad. She couldn’t help but cough severely.

Qin Wanru hurriedly came out of the old lady’s arms and gently patted her back to help her calm down.

“Grandma, don’t be upset. This time you must uphold the justice for Aunt Shui. Aunt Shui will be able to redress the scales for Zhuozhuo.”

Qin Wanru patted her back and pacified her. She knew how to make her grandmother’s mind more determined. There were too many things happening in the General’s Mansion, the old lady was afraid that it would affect Qin Huaiyong’s career, so she put this matter on hold temporarily.

But now there was a legitimate reason, plus what just happened, so it would be successful that Aunt Shui married into General’s Mansion in just ways.

“Zhuozhuo, please rest assured. I’ll definitely make a decision for your Aunt Shui this time.” The old lady regained control herself and pull Qin Wanru’s hand. Even a child saw through it. How could she not see through it?

Since it was so, she would wait for the subsequent message!

Medical Princess

Chapter 70: Spotting the Injustice, An Outsider Forced A Marriage

Qin Huaiyong arrived early. He went up into the mountain before noon, and then he came to visit the Old Grandma first. Old Grandma saw him and asked others to leave the room.

Nanny Duan knew they wanted to have some conversations between mother and son, so she stood and waited outside the door deliberately.

“Huaiyong, how do you want to deal with this issue?” Sitting on the bed, Old Grandma asked him in a sullen look.

“Mother, it was impossible to divorce with Madam Di now!” With only him and his mother staying in the room, Qin Huaiyong found it unnecessary to hide the truth. He gave her a wry smile and replied, “by then, even though I was not rich nor respectable, Duke Yong was so benevolent and generous that they allowed their daughter to marry me, meaning she had to marry someone beneath herself. I couldn’t be so ungrateful!”

Qin Huaiyong replied tiredly.

“I won’t force you to do that!” Before Qin Huaiyong came, Old Grandma has already made this thing straight. It was surely unlike to get rid of Madam Di. Not mentioning that Duke Yong kept emphasising the statement of marrying a daughter inferior to her since Qin Huaiyong was in a critical moment of relocating to work in the capital city, something like this should never happen right now.

Ningyuan Army General’s Mansion was second to none in Jiangzhou. But when it comes to comparing it with other mansions in the capital city, it was nothing.

Moreover, Qin Yuru wouldn’t be taken into consideration and thinking of Qin Huaiyong’s personalities and concerns, it was unlikely that he would abandon his daughter aside.

“You marry Ruolan then. You marry her as your legal wife and ask her to take care of Zhuozhuo. From now on, people living in the backyard would listen to both Madam Di and Ruolan. I’m too old to be useful enough and can’t help you watch all the people living in the backyard.” Old Grandma sighed and leaned back in dismay.

“Mum, I’ll listen to you, and you’ll be healthy soon!” Qin Huaiyong felt heart-rending about Old Grandma’s terrible health condition and facial expressions.

“It won’t be long until everyone in Jiangzhou Prefecture would know that today Madam Di was attempting to frame Zhuozhuo. And people would also know that Madam Di schemed to hurt Ruolan, and you marry her is trying to deal with this accident and gave Ruolan an identity. On the other hand, since Zhuozhuo doesn’t have a mother to take care of her, Ruolan will raise Zhuozhuo. Nobody will gossip about today’s accident at your work, which is the luckiest thing in all of these tragedies.”

Old Grandma continued to say.

“I thought perhaps it’s not a good time to have Ruolan marry you and move into our family, but now the current situation forces us to do so.”

She said reasonably and every word she uttered were considerations for Qin Huaiyong, which made him both shameful and shy. He was grateful about the marriage thing in the past indeed, but he harbored his selfish intentions on specific issues as well.

Old Grandma did not expose him and kept thinking of him; how could he not be ashamed!

“Mother...”

“So there won’t have any problems with Madam Di?” Old Grandma shook her hands and relieved, and she turned to Qin Huaiyong and asked smoothly.

“She did something like this, how could she still be so unashamed and say anything else? It was so vicious for her to think of kidnapping Wanru. Wanru is such a good child, and we have raised her so many years. How could she do that!” Qin Huaiyong sneered and snarled.

The cart driver was sent to stand in front Qin Huaiyong, and then he understood when he saw Madam Di ran to him in a hurry and a mess. He asked someone to interrogate the cart driver immediately.

He grew up as a general and picked up a set of torture tactics in interrogating traitors. The cart driver could not tolerate cruel interrogation and confessed everything. He immediately gave Madam Di two sharp slaps in her face and brought his people to Jingxin Monastery.

Madam Di didn’t have the right to say anything as he never said he would divorce with her. Even if Duke Yong in the capital city knew this, it would be unreasonable for them to get intervened into the issue.

He managed to have Madam Di and Duke Yong in control on this issue now.

“Now that the problem was addressed, you go back to the mansion and get everything prepared. I will leave the mountain five days later. Then we will complete this marriage. You tell Madam Di to have this wedding ceremony done both perfectly and loudly in the mansion.” Old Grandma thought for a while and nodded her head, and said, “I have a house at the foot of the mountain, you could ask Ruolan to live there by then, and you can go there and pick her up on the wedding day.”

That house was far from Ningyuan Army General’s Mansion, and it would take him to walk through more than half of the Jiangzhou city to pick her up. And that was also part of the Old Grandma’s plan which could make Ruolan more respectable. On the hand, it could tell others that this marriage was decent and legal, and it happened naturally in case there were more gossips about this marriage in the future.

“Your son understood now!” Qin Huaiyong promised to do all she asked.

“What about Yuru’s accident? There were many womenfolk on site by then, and that could produce more rumors in the future!” Old Grandma sighed. After all, Qin Yuru was her granddaughter, and she was concerned about her.

“I’ll make Yuru go to the capital city first and live in Duke Yong temporarily. Jiangzhou....she can’t stay here anymore, and her marriage issue would allow me to deal with after I go to the capital city.” Qin Huaiyong felt headache and pressed his temple. His dissatisfaction was piling up towards Madam Di. There wouldn’t have anything like this happened if Madam Di did an excellent job in education.

His good daughter was now largely destroyed, and her reputation in Jiangzhou was ruined as well. He could only hope nobody could mention this anymore when she went to the capital city someday.

Since Prince Duke Yong wanted to marry, then they will get this marriage settled. So this time Qin Yuru went to the capital city was for this engagement.

"We can only do it in this way!" Old Grandma nodded her head and asked with concerns, "how is your job transfer order?"

"Don't worry, mother, I have some solutions now. People from Duke Yong visited me and talked about it with me days ago. News is coming from other sources as well."

Qin Huaiyong mumbled. Those news contained information about that mysterious Prince Chen who has arrived in Jiangzhou. However, Qin Huaiyong dared not to say much even in front of mother! But he thought even if he said nothing, Old Grandma could guess a few things about it!

"Mother, where is the madam who was mistaken by Madam Di's people? She was also in Jiangzhou, and I should meet her." Qin Huaiyong stood up since he finished all the businesses of the Old Grandma. He came in such a hurry with a significant reason as well!

"So was she an important figure?" Old Grandma frowned and asked in a whisper.

"She was the daughter of Prince Yang Quhou and his wife from the capital city." Qin Huaiyong rubbed his centre of eyebrows. It was challenging to handle this issue. Since he saw the name tag of the this Prince's madam, he knew that he should not get over with the issue randomly but take it seriously.

"Prince Yang Quhou!" Old Grandma got stunned and changed her facial expression a little bit. The family of Prince's madam was powerful, "how could it be such a coincidence! Why didn't she stay in the capital city but came to Jiangzhou? What for?"

"I don't know maybe for visiting her relatives!" Qin Huaiyong said.

"Then, you go now." Old Grandma said, and she mentioned Qin Huaiyong after thinking for a while, "This Prince's Madam seems to like Zhuozhuo a lot."

"Thanks, mother, I know what to do!" Said Qin Huaiyong, and he stopped at the door and put his feet on the threshold for a second and nodded his head.

Coming out of Old Grandma's yard, Nanny Duan instructed Qin Huaiyong to the yard of Prince Yang Quhou' Madam. After her people reported, Qin Huaiyong was invited into the room.

They both greeted each other and sat separately, with one in the guest's spot and the other in the host's sit.

"So may I ask General Qin, how to handle the issue?" Madam Xin was a very straightforward woman, so she just said that straight to the point.

"Madam, this issue was a matter of my family business, but it made your precious daughter get into trouble. Luckily, she was safe and sound. Otherwise, I would be so guilty and willing to get blamed and punished." Qin Huaiyong stood up, and he made a palm and fist salute for showing his politeness, and said, "I prepared your generous gifts for you and Miss, only for compensating our misbehaviors."

"You're too polite, General. It's not a matter of gift, but the girl at your General's Mansion had nothing to do with this issue, now she was so poor." Madam Xin said, and she already knew that Qin Huaiyong would do something like this, taking a sip from the cup and smiling slightly.

Her words made Qin Huaiyong went into silence after he retook the sit, "so Madam meant... ?"

"I didn't mean anything. After all, I'm an outsider, but as a mother, whose daughter was almost hurt, felt unwilling to see a poor kid like her. Why not find a mother for her!" Madam Xin turned to Qin Huaiyong and said. But her words and posture carried a certain sense of fierceness.

Qin Huaiyong looked awkward and terrible: "So did Madam Xin intend to intervene in my family business?"

If Old Grandma mentioned this issue, Qin Huiyong would think she was thinking of him. However, Madam Xi was just an outsider, and her words implied the intention of forced marriage.

"Did General Qin thought I was forcing this marriage?" Madam Xi laughed.

"So what did you mean?" Qin Huaiyong asked.

"Of course it's because I think the young girl was pathetic, but your cousin is poor as well because she is a widow and was plotted. If nobody helped her, she was no more than a concubine and maybe worse, a remarried one. No one would respect her." This period was long enough for Madam Xin to hear about Shui Ruolan's situation.

"A poor cousin and a poor young girl. So why don't you find them a solution for survival? This is a good thing which can help you to accumulate your virtue and reputation. I think Miss shui and Second Miss Qin are both kind. If General could show some mercy, you'll be blessed someday!"

After she finished her sentence, Qin Huaiyong kept in silence for a while and sighed eventually. He stood up and posed a palm and fist salute to Madam Xin, "I would like to extend their gratitude to you on behalf of them."

"How would you thank me? I only think this is not fair!" Madam Xin stood up as well, and she bowed politely.

For this issue, everyone understood in hearts.

Although Madam Xin was a straightforward person, she was still a woman. So Qin Huaiyong couldn't stay any longer. After he left, he went to Qin Wanru's yard where Qin Wanru was waiting for him already.

She saw Qin Huaiyong is striding over, so she went to greet him politely in a hurry.

Qin Huaiyong shook his hands and stride into the room. Qin Wanru followed, and she wanted to bow and salute to him again, but Qin Huaiyong stopped her.

"Wanru, your mother was somehow deceived as well. That cart driver plotted something by employing this accident and made trouble like this..." Looking into daughter's dark eyes, Qin Huaiyong was frowning and couldn't go on to preach words only for presenting her a false peace.

Qin Wanru's eyes were so bright and clean that they could reflect a man's heart.

Qin Huaiyong couldn't make up those fake words anymore. He was attempting to hide the fact and sustain the peaceful condition in the surface by speaking some reasonable words because he thought daughter was still young. However, his daughters' clean and bright eyes which could reflect his figure made him feel much more guilty.

Although Qin Wanru was young, she was a smart kid!

He sighed slightly and just skipped this part, “from now on, Aunt Shui is your mother, do you like it?”