

Medical Princess 81

Medical Princess

Chapter 81: You are Not General Qin's Daughter, are You?

Qin Huaiyong was getting married again? This was a great news among the officials in Jiangzhou.

Plenty of news was bombarding Ningyuan Army General's Mansion recently, and all of them were bizarre. So people remained watching when they heard Qin Huaiyong was marrying.

Madam Di was cherished by Duke Yong in the capital city and was not someone that could be bullied easily. People didn't understand why Qin Huaiyong would do something like this to make Duke Yong feel angry.

But when news of Jingxin Monastery on that day was spreading all over the entire Jiangzhou city, they suddenly understood Qin Huaiyong.

He didn't marry a virtuous wife, and he couldn't divorce with her due to Duke Yong mansion in the capital city. Therefore, it was reasonable to marry another one to take care of his young daughter and old mother.

Now due to Madam Di's plotting, he had to visit General's Mansion.

Ningyuan Army General was a good guy, but it was unfortunate for him to marry a Madam like her, he really had no choice. Regarding his pain and suffering, many officials in Jiangzhou resonated with him and felt he suffered a lot.

Who could imagine how vicious Madam Di was as she looked like a gentle and elegant person in the surface, and she even disliked Second Miss who was not her daughter and asked people to kidnap her. How vicious could she do something like this?

Although she didn't give birth to her, the Second Miss kept regarding her as her mother.

At this moment, many people felt pity for Qin Wanru, especially some Madams who met her before. They all thought Second Miss Qin was an innocent girl, beautiful and cute. All in all, she was only a kid, though she was 11 years old, she still looked childish.

Although she looked childish, she was an adorable kid.

Everyone would think Madam Di was too vicious.

Madam Li from Magistrate Qi, in particular, kept talking about it with anyone she met wherever she went. On the one hand, she lamented Second Miss Qin for having a mother like this, and on the other hand, she abused how vicious Madam Di was because she didn't want other's daughter to have a good life only because her own daughter was living miserably.

Madam Di's bad intentions hurt second Miss Qin and her daughter.

Qin Wanru was calmed when rumors from the outside went into her ears. She asked Nanny Duan to order people to spread gossips, thus, to a large extent, words from people inside Jingxin Monastery would be spread to more people to outside.

The consequence was the public was happy to see that Qin Huaiyong married Shui Ruolan and nobody thought they could grasp anything they did wrong in this wedding.

Even Madam Li from magistrate Jiang reiterated in front of others that Shui Ruolan was a mild person and was plotted against, and she had to marry into General's Mansion to serve Old Grandma and Qin Wanru. If it were not Madam Di, she was living as a widow, leading a simple and everyday life.

Because of Madam Li's claim, they all thought Shui Ruolan had high morality and good characters.

In the early morning, Qin Huaiyong brought a bridal sedan chair with him to pick up Ruolan. People clustered in the yard. Old Grandma was in good spirit, and she anchored the wedding in the backyard. Qin Wanru was helping her and treating Young Madams in her age.

Old Grandma considered everything. She knew Young Madams would feel uneasy because of the attendance of all the madams, so she arranged a hall for Qin Wanru to treat Young Madams on the other side.

People all thought it was a good thing for Qin Huaiyong to get married. Guests were a large number, and many Young Madams arrived as well. In Jiangzhou, Ningyuan Army General and Magistrate Qi enjoyed the highest social status, but since Qi Rongzhi didn't come, Qin Wanru was the most prestigious and honorable one. Many Young Madams who had a good relationship with her came.

But the Young Madams who were friends with Qin Yuru was absent, and other Young Madams felt comfortable because of this.

"Second Miss, she was not your biological mother, was that true?" A Miss sitting around her, young enough with her eyes blinking, approached to her and asked curiously.

Qin Wanru knew her. She was the daughter of a vice-general working for Qin Huaiyong, and her name was Yue Yuqing. She was very young, months younger than Qin Wanru and she was only ten years old but a little bit taller than Qin Wanru. When they were standing together, Qin Wanru was half head lower than her which made Qin Wanru look like the younger sister.

There were so many rumors outside about her life background, and other Young Madams on-site were curious about it. However, others were embarrassed to ask, so Yue Yuqing, as the youngest one, took the lead.

Now, other Young Madams in seven or eight years old were staring at curiously.

"She was not my biological mother!" Qin Wanru shook her head, her small face wrinkled up, and her pinky lips were tightly closed, which made her look pitiful.

"So... so who is your biological mother?" Yue Yuqing was too young to understand the complexity of the society, so she threw another question which everyone wanted to know to Wanru.

"I don't know neither." Qin Wanru shook her head, and her buns were bouncing as well, and then she lowered her head.

"How could you don't know, did you ask your father? I bet general would surely know?" Yue Yuqing became much more curious, so she blinked her eyes and continued to rub salt in the wounds.

Although all the Young Madams were listening carefully, they all sighed that she was so young and insensible that nobody would blame her!

"There was not a trace that could prove my mother had lived here before, and I asked many... people, they all denied meeting her. It seemed that I suddenly emerged in this mansion." Qin Wanru lowered her head and was languid.

"How could it be!" Several Young Madams couldn't help exclaiming, and everyone was guessing that Qin Wanru's mother was a concubine of Qin Huaiyong.

He was not here in Jiangzhou, but when he arrived in Jiangzhou, he had two daughters already. Therefore, nobody knew the background of Qin Wanru clearly.

"Truely, I didn't know who was my genuine mother, and what's her identity, and why she abandoned me!" Qin Wanru bowed her head slightly and said in a low voice. However, this didn't stop those Young Madams who were eager to listen to some gossips.

Hearing her words, everyone was looking at each other.

"You couldn't be General Qin's biological daughter, can you?" A miss thought for a while, and suddenly, an idea came into her mind.

"Can I?" Qin Wanru lifted her head in a daze. She looked a little bit stunned because this assumption struck her.

"General Qin likes Second Miss so much, how can't it be." Another miss stood on the side of Qin Wanru and helped her.

They just found Madam Di was not her biological mother and how poor she could it be if General Qin was not her biological father!

"That was only an assumption, and I said that randomly, don't take it seriously. You don't have a biological mother, and that is weird. Second Miss Qin, maybe your mother is special!" The previous miss thought her assumption was isolated from reality, so she forced a hollow laugh and comforted Qin Wanru in a hurry and said.

"I... I don't know!" Qin Wanru shook her head.

"That was weird... why she suddenly didn't have a mother!" Yue Yuqing mumbled by her side, and then suddenly her eyes lit up, "Second Miss Qin, can't you be the abandoned kid that was adopted by General Qin?"

"I... "Qin Wanru raised her head, and her eyes were red.

"That was nonsense, total nonsense." Yue Yuqing saw she look so wronged and sad, and she shook her hands in a hurry.

"Alright, stop guessing here. Today is the wedding day of General's Mansion, so Second Miss has got a new mother from now on. I heard Miss Shui is a very gentle and good-tempered person so that she would take care of Second Miss from now on. We could stop thinking about that."

Other elders and more mature Young Madams intervene this awkward conversation, and they said it was the big day for General Qin, so please stopped making Second Miss sad. Otherwise, they would get criticized after they went back home.

Instantly, many people started to comfort Qin Wanru, and soon Qin Wanru cheered up and took them to hang around in the yard happily.

Assumptions could approach reality on most occasions. Although Young Madams felt embarrassed to say anything now, they wouldn't feel awkward to talk about it with their fathers. Qin Wanru had doubts about her life background and had no clue to figure it out, so she spread some rumors and elicited people to think. Whether it would contribute to a positive result or not, she first let the news fly!

At this moment, it was said that the bridal sedan chair arrived at the front gate.

Young Madams were pushing to watch the big sensation, so Qin Wanru took them from the backyard and sneaked to the front yard where crowds were in a large number, nobody would notice they were out.

Even if they were seen, nobody would blame them because it was not a big deal and it was a wedding ceremony, so rules were relaxed somehow.

Qin Wanru was standing behind a pillar, watching Qin Huaiyong leading Shui Ruolan to walk inside with red silk in his hand. She rubbed the handkerchief in her hand, a thrill and profound deepness could be told in her eyes.

In her previous life, Shui Ruolan suffered a lot of pain because of Wanru, and now this time Wanru wanted to see her having a happy life and protecting her to have her own offsprings.

A gentle smile showed on Qin Huaiyong's face where stern expressions always dominated, and it could be told that he was also satisfied with Shui Ruolan as well. They entered into the hall and bowed in the singing of the host of the wedding.

Old Grandma, sitting on the significant position, had her eyes red when she saw they were bowing to her, but then she smiled as well. It was evident that she was in a good mood, and then they were sent into the room.

Old Grandma reached out her hand and waved to Qin Wanru who stood aside and she ran to the Old Grandma with a smile on her face.

"Zhuzhuo, why are you hiding there?" Old Grandma smiled and said to her. She seemed in a good mood and she coughed less.

"Watching father and Aunt Shui." Qin Wanru leaned towards Old Grandma and said in a respectful attitude.

"Why you're still calling her Aunt Shui, you should call her Mother!" Old Grandma patted her head and said.

"Then what should I call my... previous one?" Qin Wanru pouted her mouth and said after a hesitation.

"I talked with your father, and you just called the previous one Madam!" Mentioning about Madam Di made Old Grandma's smile disappeared a little bit.

"Yes, Grandma, Zhuozhuo'll listen to you." Qin Wanru smiled, and her smile was flourishing like a booming flower because at that moment that smile came from the bottom of her heart.

"Look at this girl!" Someone in the crowd sounded unhappy and that person patted someone's hand beside and sneered, "Go, find this girl here!"

Medical Princess

Chapter 82: Should Childe Be Allowed to Have a Look at the Wedding Bedroom?

Qin Wanru supported Old Grandma to go into the flower hall, and then she came out again.

She took a rest outside the flower hall. There were many visitors today, and Old Grandma's health was not in good condition. Qin Wanru was worried that Old Grandma couldn't make it through, but fortunately, it was about noon and the wedding lunch was starting soon. After the dinner, most of the guests would go back.

Jiangzhou had a different tradition compared with other places. Wedding Lunch started in the noon, and only best friends and close relatives would stay until evening, so there were fewer people in the night.

"Second Miss, Second Miss." Someone was pulling her sleeves and Qin Wanru felt surprised, she turned around and found a servant was behind her.

A servant, wearing the uniform of General's Mansion, added a red coat on him, which could tell his difference with other servant brought by other guests.

This servant looked familiar.

"Second Miss, our Sir asked you to go see him." The servant said in a low voice, and he pointed to his right side in front of him where Qin Wanru could see another servant.

Seeing that beautiful lad's face which seemed to only appear in the ink-painting, Qin Wanru's eyes concentrated on his cloth... what is he wearing?

"Second Miss, please hurry up, our Sir will be angry!" Xiao Xuanzi lowered his voice and pointed his childe whose face was bulging slightly.

Qin Wanru looked around her and turned around reluctantly.

Chu Liuchen was standing in the corridor where a not large fake mountain was there, and it hid half of his figure, and he was wearing the servant uniform of General's Mansion, so it was not weird for him to walk in the inner yard in today's bustling condition. He lowered his head slightly when he was walking, and Xiao Xuanzi was answering flexibly, so nobody found there were two outsiders here.

"Childe, why you're here?" Qin Wanru stood in front of him and asked him in a lower voice.

"What? So I can't come? What did you hide in the General's Mansion and you didn't want me to see?" Chu Liuchen pulled Qin Wanru to sit next to him impatiently.

Standing by the rail in the corridor was at leisure.

Qin Wanru didn't expect he could reach out his hand all of a sudden and she was dragged to stagger for a few steps before she sat down. Her sitting movement was too swift that she felt a little bit painful, and her beautiful slender eyebrows were wrinkling together.

"What? You're not happy and dared to show your impatience to me?" Chu Liuchen sneered and lifted his beautiful face, and he looked at Qin Wanru's unhappiness.

"Childe, I'm occupied now? There are only my grandma and me treating the guests in the backyard!" Qin Wanru whispered with patience.

"I'm not a guest?" Chu Liuchen said with unhappiness.

His question made Qin Wanru speechless, and she turned to check his servant's uniform after a while, and she thought the person who wore a servant's cloth was not her guest.

"Childe, where did you get this outfit?" Qin Wanru knew she couldn't leave for a while.

"Ask Xiao Xuanzi to get it!" Chu Liuchen answered naturally, and he pulled his clothes with detestation, which made it messy and skewing, and this really didn't look like a well-behaved servant.

"If childe wanted to watch the wedding, why you didn't tell father? Won't my father allow you to watch it?" Qin Wanru looked at him and asked in confusion.

Although it was a secret that Chu Liuchen came to Jiangzhou, her father surely knew.

The reason that she said this childe was for watching the wedding for fun was that he didn't seem to do any dangerous things, so he was watching the show! He always found a broad and opened place early for watching the show, and this time could be the same.

"I want to watch it secretly." Chu Liuchen leaned back and look lazy, the servant's outfit showed certain elegance and simplicity on him.

Anyway, how could he manage to sneak into the yard without getting found by anyone? Qin Wanru found it weird, and how could he look like a servant?

"So childe meant?" Qin Wanru bit her pinky lips and asked carefully. He was here already and the point was how to send him home after he finished watching the wedding show.

"I want to see the wedding bedroom." Chu Liuchen flipped his sleeves naturally and squinted at Qin Wanru. His smiled contained mildness and courtesy.

However, the implication in the sentence didn't show anything regarding courtesy!

Xiao Xuanzi's eyeballs were bulging due to astonishment, "Sir, you... you can't violate the rules, you can't go."

"Obeying the rules? Then when can I take a look at the wedding bedroom following regular rules?" Chu Liuchen smiled, and his voice fraught with sarcasm was floating in the air.

Qin Wanru didn't know how to continue this conversation. He was so determined to watch the wedding bedroom and the wedding show, and he even felt wronged if he couldn't.

“Are you taking me there or not? I remembered you promised to take me to travel through Jiangzhou!” Chu Liuchen blinked his beautiful eyes, and his facial expression implied his blaming, “are you breaking your promise?”

Breaking promise? Qin Wanru dared not!

Even she wanted to say that, she dared not to speak it out directly.

She was moaning in her heart. Today was busy enough, and he still found trouble with her. She couldn’t get rid of him by coaxing, and now she was dragged here, if she didn’t take him there, he wouldn’t let her go smoothly.

Actually, she would instead accompany grandma in treating guests than stay with this arrogant, beautiful lad who seemed harmless because of sickness and weakness, but who knew when he would make troubles, and perhaps he could ruin father’s wedding ceremony!

“Fine, if you were willing to do so, I won’t force you, and I’ll go have a look myself!” It seemed that Chu Liuchen did feel her respond unexpectedly. He stood up and shook his skewed servant’s outfit, and then he was walking forward to insert himself into the busy crowds in front of him.

Qin Wanru got astonished and pulled his sleeves back unconsciously.

“Childe, hold on!”

“What? You don’t allow me to go?” Chu Liuchen squinted at her, and his voice sounded lazy.

“Childe, I’ll go with you.” Qin Wanru bit her teeth and made up her mind. She should have an eye on him in case this childe made any troubles in her own mansion or other accidents.

It was better for her to stay there than not!

Understanding this, Qin Wanru stood up and she dragged Chu Liuchen’s sleeves to walk backward, “we go this way, it has fewer people and it leads to the wedding bedroom.”

“OK!” Chu Liuchen smiled and said, and he looked more obedient like a well-behaved lad.

Certainly, Qin Wanru knew all of these were only his presentation. He was not a quiet and obedient person!

No matter how beautiful and gentle he showed on his face, he was misleading people, and if someone annoyed him, he would be extremely vicious.

She pulled Chu Liuchen to hide at the back of the corridor, even people standing outside the corridor couldn’t find them.

“Childe, you can just go have a look. But after that, you must leave, Ok?” Qin Wanru was still worried, so she exhorted deliberately and listed out the requirements.

“Fine, I’ll all listen to you!” It was hard to talk with Chu Liuchen when he was easily to get persuaded. He kept smiling, indicating his good mood.

“Childe, do you think it would be fine to have a look at the back of the room? It... it’s inappropriate to have a servant stepping into the wedding bedroom!” Qin Wanru looked at Chu Liuchen up and down and said.

Usually, servants were not allowed to enter the backyard. They could only enter it with the command of its master even in particular conditions. For masters, Qin Wanru was excluded because she was too young to be experienced.

In the past, when she asked Nanny Yu’s son Wang Feng to do errands for her, she had to ask Nanny Yu or Qing Yue to deliver her message to the yard outside.

“Back of the room? Then what to see!” Chu Liuchen was not happy again, so he pulled back his sleeves and wanted to leave.

Qin Wanru pulled his sleeves back in a hurry, “if you could wear girl servant’s dress, then maybe I could take you into the wedding bedroom from the front door.”

“What? You asked me to wear a woman’s dress?” Chu Liuchen’s beautiful face was shrouded in grey.

Suddenly, Qin Wanru felt if this childe could wear a girl’s dress and makeup, he could have the beauty to overthrow the entire nation. His bloodless lips may make him transform into a super beauty which could appeal to people’s cherishing heart. Thinking of this, she had a smile on her face, and she couldn’t help but smile laugh out.

It was suitable for him, a beautiful childe, to dress up like a woman.

“What? You want to look me dressing like a woman?” Chu Liuchen laughed gently, but carrying with his own dignity and elegance.

“No, how dare me. I thought if you wanted to enter from the front door, this was the only way. If my father caught you, I’m afraid that you would be embarrassed and rude!” Qin Wanru returned to her stern expression and said seriously.

But her slender beautiful eyes were smiling, and her smile was lucid, it made people understand that she was still smiling. Her lips were bending up, and her eyelashes were fluttering, reflecting on her pinky and jade-like skin, her smile came from the bottom of her heart and was different from her normal one.

People felt it comfortable when looking at it!

Xiao Xuanzi was standing by the side of his sir, and was afraid that he would be angry. When his master became angry, nobody could stop him, and maybe he would only listen to the Queen in the palace. But now they were not in the palace, and the Queen was nowhere to be found.

He was terrified that he would make chaos recklessly.

“What can I see at the back?” Chu Liuchen smiled, and his eyes squinted as well. Unexpectedly, he was not angry, which made Xiao Xuanzi on guard by his side got relieved.

“You may see many things, and you’ll not be afraid of getting discovered. After you finish checking the wedding bedroom, you could even hang around in other fun places!”

Qin Wanru lifted her head and said seriously. She mentioned other funny places randomly.

“OK, I’ll follow you and take a look at the wedding bedroom! For other funny places, you could take me to have a look later!” Chu Liuchen smiled, and he approached Qin Wanru’s ears and whispered, “you must ensure that other fun places I have never experienced before!”

Suddenly, Qin Wanru didn’t want to take him to have a look at the wedding bedroom at all...

Medical Princess

Chapter 83: Weird, Overhearing in the Fishbowl

The wedding bedroom was located in the yard where Shui Ruolan lived before.

This yard, alongside with Madam Di’s yard were located in both sides of the Old Grandma’s.

The largest main yard in the backyard of General’s Mansion belonged to Madam Di, and it could be regarded as the one dominated the center while Old Grandma’s yard was built on the left, and the one where Shui Ruolan lived was further left than Old Grandma’s yard.

It was a little bit isolated already, but Shui Ruolan would like to live here although it was too remote and too tranquil, Shui Ruolan liked it very much.

Qin Wanru was familiar with Shui Ruolan’s yard because her own yard was behind it and she was close to Shui Ruolan, visiting her from time to time.

Passing through the yard of Qin Wanru, it would be closer to walk into Shui Ruolan’ yard through the back door, in this case, the back door was rarely closed only for Qin Wanru’s convenience in visiting.

Taking Chu Liuchen with her, Qin Wanru came to the back door after they walked from the far side and took many unnecessary steps. Qing Yue pushed the door gently, and it was open.

Therefore, they went into the yard through the back door.

Few people were visiting Shui Ruolan’s yard and some new servants participated into the group this time, and some else were helping for this wedding. All of them were busy at the front, and none of them noticed that there were more visitors at the back of the wedding room.

Qin Wanru could never imagine that she would break the rules and do something like standing and watching behind the window of the wedding bedroom.

She was short, so that she couldn’t see clearly, and Qing Yue lifted her a little bit to help her climb on the window sill.

Chu Liuchen made it easier to climb to the window sill than her and now he was watching in good mood.

When Qin Wanru reached to the window sill, she took a glimpse into the room and her facial expression became weird because she really didn’t understand what to look.

It was quiet inside the wedding bedroom, and Shui Ruolan was sitting on the large and red wedding bed with her red cover removed from her head.

There were few people in the wedding bedroom, only two girl servants standing there to serve her and they were both in red, and... there was nothing? This really had nothing to peek!

They were at the back window, with a curtain hanging on it, and their faces were close to the curtain. If the people inside did not notice them, they would not find out that there were someone behind the back window.

They stayed there for a while and people inside were standing still. Shui Ruolan lowered her head in silence and her girl servants didn't make any movements, so Qin Wanru didn't thought this was fun for watching at all.

She pulled Chu Liuchen's sleeves slightly, but he neglected her, so she tried harder but Qing Yue failed to support her and started trembling. Qin Wanru managed to cling to the window sill, and she turned around to indicate her willingness for putting her down to the ground as she didn't want to watch.

Qing Yue understood and she slowly put her down by holding her waist.

"General." Suddenly, a girl servant's voice delivered into their ears which made Qin Wanru fell into panic and she could barely support herself but dropped onto the ground, so she reached out her hand desperately to hold something for keeping herself in balance.

How could her father be here at this moment? Shouldn't he stay by the side of the guests on the wedding feast?

Because she was in panic, she didn't pay attention to the thing that she clung to, she was just clinging to it in her full strength.

Chu Liuchen was relishing the scene with high interest, and suddenly, he felt someone pulled his cloth, so he fell over by the dragging, and it was too late for Xiao Xuanzi to hold him, so they both fell and landed in a heap.

"Who?" Qin Huaiyong asked loudly and angrily, and then they both heard his heavy steps storming towards the back window.

Qin Wanru pulled up Chu Liuchen in a hurry and she trotted to the empty fishbowl and jumped into it. Qing Yue and Xiao Xuanzi followed her and did the same, they both jumped into another one.

Shui Ruolan's two large fishbowls were gifts from Qin Wanru, and there was a story in it.

There was a time when Qin Wanru went outside and saw lotuses were raised in the giant fishbowl, and fishes were swimming beneath the lotuses. This beautiful and elegant scene attracted Qin Wanru, so she prepared to raise fish like this in the next spring. She begged Old Grandma to buy four large vats as fishbowls and she gave two of them to Shui Ruolan, keeping the other two in her own yard.

However, it was not the best season for raising lotus, so there were both empty.

The vat was large enough to keep two people.

With her hands still clinging to Chu Liuchen's sleeves, she leaned her head to the edge of the fishbowl and listened to the outside nervously.

The window was opened and there were steps again, it was Shui Ruolan's gentle voice," cousin, what's wrong?"

"Nothing, maybe I misheard!" Qin Huaiyong looked at the empty backyard and frowned. Was he mishearing just now?

In fact, Shui Ruolan followed him because she heard something as well. She heard his words and checked outside the window, it was quiet and empty, so she maybe misheard it!

Qin Huaiyong pulled down the curtain calmly, "cousin, you should eat lunch right now. I'll ask people in kitchen to prepare you something plain, similar to what you usually have."

"Thanks, cousin!" Shui Ruolan blushed. From now on, he was not her cousin but her husband!

Qin Huaiyong enjoyed her blushing face, because it made him moved. Holding her hand, he took her to sit in front of the bed, "I need to treat other guests later, so I don't have time to accompany you. If you were tired, you could take a rest."

"I... I know!" Shui Ruolan lowered her head, and her face was as red as blood. Although she married once, the one she was marrying to was different. It was Qin Huaiyong, who grew up with her together, and childhood memories which only shared between them were flooding back in her mind, among them, some she felt familiar, while some were strange.

No matter the memory was familiar or strange, she was shy to all of them.

"Ruolan, since then, I have to bother you with the business in the backyard, don't blame me!" Qin Huaiyong held her hands and sighed.

"Cousin, I know. I'll do my best to help you manage all the businesses in the backyard." Shui Ruolan answered, "I'll take care of Mother and Wanru!"

Nanny Duan told everything happened earlier to Shui Ruolan and reported all the vicious schemes of Madam Di. Hence, she knew Qin Huaiyong grounded madam Di, and that was why she didn't appear today.

"Mother was not young anymore, and Wanru... was still young so that Madam Di would raise her!" Qin Huaiyong said. He wanted to clarify somethings now in case there were troublesome accidents in the future, "Yuru was born by Madam Di, and it's grateful that Duke-Yong married their daughter to me when I was beneath them... "

Because of these, even it was him, he had to bear misgivings, and it concerned about official issues in his career which made Qin Huaiyong felt inconvenient to tell Shui Ruolan in detail. Therefore, he mumbled his words and took Madam Di's marrying issue in the past as an excuse. Qin Huaiyong felt shameful when he was talking, and he lowered his head.

He was selfish too.

"Cousin, stop, I understand!" Shui Ruolan said mildly. She was quiet and elegant and didn't feel wronged at all, " since now I married you, I'll listen to you in everything. I'll be respectful to mother and take care of Wanru. I'll listen to your words outside, and Madam Di should stay because of Yuru."

Shui Ruolan's words were reasonable, and she was a woman of sense, Qin Huaiyong felt relieved. He held Shui Ruolan in his arms and didn't know what to say.

He had misgivings, and he was selfish. He found it embarrassed to talk about something, so he was grateful that Shui Ruolan was so considerate and didn't further her questions aggressively.

Initially, he was affectionate to Shui Ruolan, and this time, he was marrying someone so considerate and as beautiful as her. Qin Huaiyong, who was always stern, showed a smile since he was less worried about the sound he just heard from the back window.

Qin Huaiyong whispered with Shui Ruolan, and since they were talking about some casual topics now, they spoke gently which made Qin Wanru hear unclearly in the big vat.

She approached her head to the vat and wanted to hear more. But suddenly, her body was dragged back and bumped into Chu Liuchen. Qin Wanru felt stunned, she turned around in a hurry, wiping her cherry lips to the handsome face of Chu Liuchen.

They both got stunned.

Qin Wanru turned back in a hurry, and her little face went blushed immediately. She pinched Chu Liuchen unconsciously.

"Ah! Why did you pinch me!" Chu Liuchen whispered unhappily. He held Qin Wanru's little hands tightly.

His grasp was so powerful that Qin Wanru felt painful, and she almost cried. She turned to look at him angrily and reached to hold Chu Liuchen's the other big hand with her little hand.

He stared at Qin Wanru who looked nervous, and her beautiful moist eyes were flowing. He got astonished and he understood, so he loosed his hand a little bit, but he was still holding her hands and pulling her to his side. He approached his head to her, "did your father like this bride earlier?"

"What?" Since the pain was still tingling Qin Wanru hands, and she became bolder because of this, so she answered impatiently.

"I'm only asking because I found it weird!" Chu Liuchen leaned his head and his voice became much lower. Qin Wanru felt uncomfortable because his beautiful and flawless face was too close to hers, she took another her hand to push his pale but handsome face away slightly, indicating him to stay away a little bit from her.

Chu Liuchen ignored her and reached out his hand to catch hers. Now both of her hands were in his big hand. Although Qin Wanru struggled for a while, she couldn't struggle off his grasp and she dared not to move violently anymore.

"Why it's weird?" Qin Wanru pouted her mouth and said.

"I only felt it bizarre, it shouldn't be like this!" With his heading leaning to Qin Wanru, he looked at Qin Wanru's pinky little face and thought she was really in good condition now. Her eyes were so dark as it were moist and flickering, and how could her lips be so bright-colored, which was different from her pale face.

He liked this color on her lips and hoped his lips could be as bright as hers!

Long and curl eyelashes were like brushes circling her black eyes, and when he reached out his hand and touched her eyes, he could feel the soft eyelashes wiping his palms. This girl's eyelashes were genuinely long.

He lifted his hand accidentally and touched Qin Wanru's beautiful hair, which felt so comfortable that Chu Liuchen's eyes were almost narrowed together. It felt just like the cat he raised, so comfy!

And her appearance resembled his xenogenic cat, and they were both beautiful!

"What're you doing!" Qin Wanru didn't know why he covered his eyes and touched her hair, so she struggled her hands and goggled her moist eyes and stared at Chu Liuchen to show her anger.

However, her beautiful eyes didn't show any anger and couldn't intimidate him at all. Chu Liuchen thought her eyes were the same to the eyes of the cat he raised, they were both angry, but had nothing to do with him!

It was adorable! He liked it!

Medical Princess

Chapter 84: You are Very Smart, More Intelligent than My Cat!

Chu Liuchen pressed for few more times on her long hair and looked at her moist eyes which were lifting and staring at him. She looked like his cat so much. Since he left the capital city for a while, he missed his cat a lot. This angry girl resembled the cat, with her light-colored lips bending up and her slender smiling eyes.

Qin Wanru opened her water-like eyes widely because she felt she was insane to consider that this Prince Chen was warm when smiling.

Childe, gloomy, cunning, and capricious, gave her the impression that he was smiling warmly. She thought she was dazzled.

So she closed her eyes and reopened.

The voice inside stopped, and they heard Qin Huaiyong was leaving. He stormed out in heavy steps and left them tranquility in every step he was moving.

"Childe, can we go now?" Qin Wanru said, and she moved her tightly held hands. It was a large vat, and it was not necessary for them to stay so close to each other.

This made her feel uneasy.

"Why do you in such a hurry. It's nice here!" Chu Liuchen leaned back to the vat's wall lazily, and he looked up at the sky. It was noon, and it was windless while the sunshine brought them certain warmth. Moreover, it was a great place for bathing the sunlight.

Qin Wanru lifted her head and squinted her eyes, "what to look at, the stars in the evening were better!"

"Hiding in a vat and watching the stars?" Chu Liuchen laughed and raised his eyebrows. He thought it was a good idea, and he would put a vat outside his palace when he went back. In the evening, he could hide in it and watch the stars. A vast sky of stars could be seen in the vat, which made it look less lonely than the entire sky of stars, "have you ever tried?"

"I... I didn't!" Qin Wanru blushed and fought back. She tried, and she tried many times.

After her rebirth, she had insomnia, so she sneaked out and curled her body in the vat in the yard where she felt so secure. When she huddled up at the bottom of the vat, she felt very safe and realized that she had rebirth already and was complete and was not cut half on the waist.

"Next time you came to my mansion, I'll prepare you a large vat. I can carry it to the top of the roof where stars look more beautiful."

Chu Liuchen said with a lad's complacency and laziness.

In the backdrop of the solemn palace, a large vat, sitting on the sharp edge of the stone lion in the high palace, allowed them to look up into the starry sky.

Qin Wanru had to stop her imagination because the scene was so weird to her and she couldn't bear it. If he were found doing something like that, how would the rumors spread?

The future emperor of the magnificent country harbored a hobby to hide in the vat in the middle night, and this would lead this future emperor to a weird road for sure.

It was hard to imagine this, but Chu Liuchen looked grave when he turned around, so Qin Wanru slightly lowered her head as if she understood him and was endeavoring to hide the smile in her eyes.

"Then thanks, child!" She said reasonably and had to thank him not matter she had the opportunity to see that happen.

"Did your father manage to render all of these things only because he liked that bride inside?" Chu Liuchen played his smooth chin and continued their previous subject.

"Don't say nonsense." Qin Wanru felt nervous about what he said and suddenly lifted her head.

"Nonsense?" Chu Liuchen lifted his eyebrows, and a trace of a smile was floating on his face. While he raised his eyebrows, coldness penetrated Wanru's bones, "you're bold now, and you dared to say the word 'nonsense' to me!"

"I.. I dared not!" Qin Wanru's face turned pale, and she defended for herself with her head lowering. Maybe she forgot his cold and scheming characteristics temporarily since they were both in the vat.

"Is that bride inside your father's cousin?" Chu Liuchen didn't further her accusation, and a glimmer of gloom was flashing in his eyes. At this moment, he looked like the noble prince she was familiar with. He was now a cold, emotionless, and powerful prince, rather than a beautiful lad who was sick and arrogant.

"She is my father's cousin. Aunt Shui grew up in our mansion and grandma raised her. Later, she married someone but she didn't give birth to any sons, so grandma took her back and since then, she kept living in a corner in the backyard in tranquility. If Madam didn't plot against her, she was still my Aunt Shui."

Qin Wanru explained and she had to do so in case Chu Liuchen misunderstood Shui Ruolan, and this would be disadvantageous to her in the future.

"So your father didn't do anything before?" Chu Liuchen smiled with satisfaction and implied laziness in his words.

"No, my father could rarely see Aunt Shui because he was a well-behaved and courtesy man. Although they grew up together, they didn't have further relationships under the ground." Qin Wanru weighed her words carefully, and her small white face looked very serious.

"So it was the Madam in General's Mansion made their dream come true, and it seemed that Ningyuan Army General is the one who won the game as the gainer!" Chu Liuchen said randomly.

His analysis made Qin Wanru's heart pounding as if something was sprouting from the soil desperately, but she halted it immediately, "childe, you're kidding me. childe, it's time for us to leave now. If we were found to stay together by anyone, it wouldn't be good, right? Additionally, you're wearing a servant's uniform!"

Qin Wanru persuaded him as she didn't want to get crammed into the vat with Chu Liuchen anymore.

"What, you're scared that someone would see you staying with a servant?" Chu Liuchen loosed his grasp and set Qin Wanru's hands for free. Then he pulled his clothes and said proudly.

Qin Wanru regained free now, and she was speechless when she looked at her red and swollen wrist.

"Did you say you would take me to somewhere funny? And you said it was something I never played before, take me there!" It seemed like he wanted to stand up and follow her reluctantly, "then I'll follow you there and have a look."

Qin Wanru held Chu Liuchen because she was just coaxing him to go to the back window and see the wedding bedroom, how could she have something funny to play and something he never played before!

She rolled her water-like eyes, "childe, did you ever play in a vat?"

"No!" Chu Liuchen shook his head and looked at Qin Wanru with detestation. He followed everything by rules, and how could he do something to break the rules!

"Since not, then this is something you never played before, right?" Qin Wanru laughed smugly, and a smile showed on her cherry lips with some child-like proud.

Chu Liuchen smiled in a low voice, and his gesture was so attractive.

"Won't you want to say that the place you'll take me to for fun is this vat?"

"This... childe didn't think this is fun?" Qin Wanru mumbled.

"Qin Wanru, you are very smart, much smarter than my cat." Chu Liuchen laughed, and his laugh contained profound meaning.

But his praise made Qin Wanru scared a little bit, and she started to sweat on her back. She looked at this lucid and harmless lad with alarm.

“Childe, doesn’t it count?”

“Yes, you can, I’ll let you go this time!” Chu Liuchen raised his eyebrows in a good mood, and he stood up and jumped out of the vat.

Seeing him get out of the vat finally, Qin Wanru felt relieved and she climbed to the edge of the vat. Although it was a high vat for her, she still jumped out of it within a single cling as if she has done this for many times.

Finding both of them get out of the vat, Xiao Xuanzi and Qing Yue followed them to jump out of it as well.

They sneaked out through the backdoor again.

“Childe, are you tired? Do you need to go back and take a rest?” When they took a corner and came to a quiet place, Qin Wanru could finally stand still and check Chu Liuchen’s face which looked worse than minutes ago.

“Master, you need to go back and take medicine, you can’t stay here any longer!” Hearing her words, Xiao Xuanzi got stunned, and he stepped forward and found his master who looked so weak as his lips were almost as pale as snow. Xiao Xuanzi reached out his hands and supported him.

“Go back!” He nodded his head and was rare that he was so easy to get persuaded, “Qin Wanru, you send me to the back door of your mansion.”

So that meant his carriage was at the back door?

Qin Wanru thought reluctantly, but according to his health condition, it seemed that he really couldn’t support himself. Without any hesitation, she took them to a path. After some detours, they came to the back door.

The back door was left ajar, and because the mansion was very busy today, the old woman who guarded the entrance went to treat the guests and was absent.

They were pushing the back door, a wide and large carriage waiting outside went into their sight. It looked like an ordinary wagon, but it was too large, hanging carriage curtain and window curtain which embroidered dark patterns. Those patterns were made with golden silks; if one didn’t check them carefully, people wouldn’t tell that and would think they were dyed with colors.

It was in low-key but looked luxurious.

Xiao Xuanzi supported Chu Liuchen to get on the carriage, and Qin Wanru could tell that he was weak so she reached out her hand and helped Xiao Xuanzi to support him getting on the carriage.

After Chu Liuchen got on the carriage, Qin Wanru was relieved when she saw cart driver turned around deftly and left slowly. She was too scared that childe made any accidents in the mansion, because nobody could afford to be responsible for that.

She went back to the mansion with Qing Yue until the carriage disappeared utterly, and she closed the door from inside.

The carriage was driving slowly, Chu Liuchen, who was leaning back in the bed, reached out a hand and took the bowl filled with dark and thick medicine from Xiao Xuanzi's hands. He took it and drank all of it, then he put it down and rubbed the place between his eyebrows.

"Sir, are you exhausted?" Xiao Xuanzi took the bowl and looked at the master's face carefully and asked.

Chu Liuchen closed his eyes and answered with a "huh" in a low voice.

"Master, we'll go visit Jingxin Monastery master a while later. I think it worked. Normally, if you didn't rest for such a long time, you would feel terrible! Don't you think so?"

Xiao Xuanzi asked his opinion after he took medicine carefully.

"What's the use? It's only for temporary!" Chu Liuchen closed his eyes, and his jade-like face looked calm as if he was talking about another person's body, which he didn't care at all.

"Sir, even it's temporary, we still need to give it a shot. Maybe we'll find the person doctor Qi has mentioned before, and by then you'll recover!"

Xiao Xuanzi said.

For this time, he didn't make any sound at all, and he waved hands to make Xiao Xuanzi shut up.

Xiao Xuanzi hesitated but couldn't help and ask, "so according to your willingness, are we going to Jingxin Monastery?"

"Go!" He replied in an indifferent voice.

"Yes, I get it!" Xiao Xuanzi felt thrilled because his master didn't refuse him this time. He nodded his head continuously, and was so happy that he almost cried. Doctor Qi has mentioned before, if his master wanted to have good health, he had to use external forces, and he should rely on himself and try his best. If he didn't pay any attention to his own body and unwilling to follow doctor's prescriptions, how could he recover...

Medical Princess

Chapter 85: The Troublemaker Qu Le

The wedding feast went through smoothly, and Madam Di didn't make any troubles while everyone thought she would deliver some accidents this time. However, she was found nowhere, and it was said that she was sick.

Indeed, few people believed her pretext of "getting sick", and there were well-informed ones said she was not sick but grounded.

After the wedding ceremony of Shui Ruolan, Qin Wanru and Old Grandma returned to Jingxin Monastery.

Old Grandma required to take a good rest, and Qin Wanru volunteered to serve her. Therefore, from now on, Shui Ruolan was taking everything in control in the mansion.

There were not many cart drivers in the mansion, and all of them were involved in the accident this time. So she changed several of them, and after they went back to the mountain, Qin Wanru took more girl servants with her.

Naturally, Qing Yue was following them and a new second-level girl servant called Qu Le and another two little girl servants. They had more servants than last time.

When they arrived in Jingxin Monastery, and they remained living in the room they lived before. Initially, they were only planning to get down the mountain and anchor the wedding ceremony for General's Mansion. Old Grandma and Qin Wanru left many of their belongings in Jingxin Monastery, so it was unnecessary for them to carry too much luggage.

Qin Wanru took leisure time on the mountain for the next half month.

Old Grandma's health condition was recovering gradually, and Qin Wanru's medical skills were improving dramatically. Relying on her previous life's foundation in medicine, she forged ahead with strong momentum, and her techniques in acupuncture were developing fast as well. Her progress made Mingqiu Nun exclaimed that she adopted an excellent student for herself because Qin Wanru was so talented in learning medicine!

She was taking her medical learning very seriously. When people down the mountain visited Jingxin Monastery for medical care, Qin Wanru would sit beside her in the room and observed Jingxin Monastery master's treatment and prescriptions.

"Miss, Qu Le sneaked out to meet someone again!" Under the lamp, Qin Wanru was reading her medicine book carefully, but Qing Yue came in and whispered to her.

"How many times this month?" Qin Wanru looked at the shadow of the lamp and asked.

Qing Yue understood her intention, "this is the third time, and I have followed your order and warned her several times."

"Since then, you take her here!" A coldness was flashing in Qin Wanru's eyes. Even Madam Di didn't expect the emergence of Qu Le. Therefore, Madam Di was asking to take Qu Le by her side for many times. But Madam Di couldn't even protect herself so that she couldn't help Qu Le neither.

Qing Yue nodded her head and took Qu Le with her after a second.

Qu Le knelt in front of Qin Wanru immediately once she stepped into the room, "Second Miss, I... I am just missing my mother so much, and I didn't do anything bad."

She finished her sentence and burst out crying. "There is really nothing, please forgive me Second Miss."

"Qu Le, I told you last time. After you came into the mansion, you belong to General's Mansion because you were sold to serve here. You need to cut off all the connections with the people you knew before, even if you wanted to visit anyone, you need to tell miss and earned the permission from the miss, then you're allowed to meet it. However, you sneaked out to meet someone, have you ever taken your miss seriously?"

Qing Yue reprimanded harshly.

"I certainly listen to miss for everything, but... but my mother was sick, and my father knew I am here in Jingxin Monastery, so he went up to the mountain and told me, but... but that's all!" Qu Le argued and defended herself. She was crying, and she looked very disheartening.

She was not only feeling sad, but she was somewhat angry as well, she thought Qin Wanru was unreasonable and cold blood.

"Your mother is sick, but your father didn't visit General's Mansion and came to Jingxin Monastery? Your father was really magical!" Replying indifferently, Qin Wanru took her teacup and took a sip.

Qu Le looked panicking because she didn't expect Qin Wanru would suddenly jump out of the subject they were discussing and replied like this.

"Maybe... maybe someone in the mansion told my father this news!"

"You're new here in General's Mansion and knew few people. Only people from your yard know you. When I left, I told Nanny Yu deliberately, do not spread the news about you following me to Jingxin Monastery. So how could your father know it?" Qin Wanru looked gloomy, and she examined Qu Le with indescribable dignity and sternness.

"I... I... don't know!"

"I heard that your father came to you the second day you went up to the mountain. He was responding so fast, and if nobody told him, he couldn't find you anyway. So Qu Le, tell me, what did your father want you to do, and who asked him to find you?" Qin Wanru said in a cold face.

Her childish face looked nervous, and her facial expression became rigid. Her cold and chilling eyes could penetrate the heart.

Qu Le's eyes were wandering and dared not to look into Qin Wanru's eyes. She stammered and explained, "I... I don't know... maybe it is a coincidence. My mother was sick, so my father came to Jingxin Monastery to pray for her, and we... we met by coincidence!"

"Praying for your mother?" Qin Wanru sneered and put down her teacup heavily on the table which shook the table and made a sharp and piercing sound.

"Qu Le, do you think I'm so young that I don't know anything and I'm easy to be messed up? Qu Le, you belong to General's Mansion now. If you were unsatisfied with me, I have every reason to sell you. The person who takes in charge is my mother, not Madam, don't you know it!"

Qin Wanru didn't speak in a high voice and carried with a childish voice in her age, but it sounded cold in Qu Le's ears, and made Qu Le fail to support herself, she kneeled on the ground.

"Qing Yue, go to old woman Ya and sell her tomorrow far away because I don't want to see her anymore on the land of Jiangzhou!" Qin Wanru sneered. With her words, nobody in Jiangzhou Prefecture could buy Qu Le, and she could never see her mother and father again.

"Yes, Miss. I'll ask people to go down the mountain and find old woman Ya!" Qing Yue nodded her head and she took a glimpse at Qu Le with a sneer. She didn't want to keep Qu Le at all.

"Second Miss, Second Miss, I'll say, I'll tell you all, please forgive me, Second Miss." Qu Le went into a panic because she realized Qin Wanru was punishing her severely this time. She reached out her hands and held Qin Wanru's leg, but she was pushed away by Qing Yue, and another two girl servants came to her and wanted to drag her out.

Qu Le was struggling violently, "Miss, what do you want to know? I'll tell you everything, and please let me go!"

It seemed that Qin Wanru didn't hear her words or she didn't care at all. She picked up a medicine book on the shelf and disregarded Qu Le's words at all.

"Miss, Miss. My father got my news from Madam Di. Miss, it's Madam Di." Qu Le was thinking about sounding out her intention, but it seemed that Qin Wanru didn't care at all. Now she held the door frame and yelled out without any hesitation in a hurry and dared not to cover any truth.

"Take her back!" Qin Wanru lifted her slender eyebrows indifferently, and she looked at Qu Le calmly again.

Qu Le dared not to conceal anything in front of Qin Wanru who looked so chilled when looking at her, and she said, "Miss, it's really Madam Di who found my father here, and my mother was really sick, Madam... Madam Di asked people to send my father money and told my father that I'm Jingxin Monastery, and... and..."

"And ask you to keep an eye on me?" Qin Wanru's long eyelashes fluttered, and her eyes became much cold now.

"Yes... that's what she said." Qu Le was so scared just now, and she lowered her head after Qin Wanru finished her question.

"To ask you keeping an eye on me for what?" Qin Wanru raised her eyebrows and asked indifferently.

"She... she said, if you did anything abnormal, tell my father instantly and then he would tell Madam Di."

"What did you find for other times? You father was visiting you for so many times?" Qin Wanru asked.

"I... I didn't find much. I was only eager to know how was my mother's illness. So I told my father when he was not occupied, went up to the mountain and visit me frequently. Miss, please trust me, I said nothing. Whenever my father reported to Madam, he didn't say anything either!" Qu Le shook her head in a panic, and the truth was she truly found nothing. Qin Wanru spent all her time at Jingxin Monastery master for meditation and serving Old Grandma.

"So you ask your father to come here, and your father will report to Madam?" Qin Wanru said.

"Yes... yes. Every time my father meets me, and he must visit and report to Madam because this is Madam's order and Madam paid money for my mother's illness treatment..." Qu Le's voice became lower, and she lowered her head too.

Qin Wanru frowned, and she knew Qu Le couldn't probe into anything, but why Madam Di took this so seriously? She had a feeling, and she didn't understand what Madam Di was scheming for.

She was standing opposite to Madam Di's stance for many years, and this was known to both father and grandma. If Madam Di were thinking to target her, it was useless to collect some rumors only based on some girl servants' news.

But she insisted on doing this. Nothing happened to Qing Xue in the mansion, but Qu Le, who was not suspicious before, kept making troubles. This was so confusing.

From the information she collected before, she knew Qu Le was here only by accident, which neither Qin Yuru nor Madam Di had expected. Now, Madam Di was approaching to Qu Le madly, and was Madam Di's real intention was to collect some rumors and misbehavior from her Qin Wanru?

A second level girl servant who just entered mansion had nothing different from other ordinary and rough servants. How could she know anything valuable?

Maybe it was not because of Qu Le, but it related to the business happened in Qu Le's family? Her intuition told her it had connection to herself for sure.

Madam Di wouldn't be so idle, so there must be significant events, which she had to pay attention to even if she was now grounded, this matter could not be mistakenly treated.

"When'll your father go up the mountain?" Qin Wanru sneered, and she looked gloomy in the dark corner. Maybe she should change her mind, this issue had nothing to do with Qu Le but was it because of her family?

"Three days, three days later, my father said he would visit me in three days and told me how my mother was." Qu Le kneeled in an upright position, and she wiped her tears and said!

Medical Princess

Chapter 86: A Young Master Who Missed for Years

Three days passed quickly, and when Qin Wanru came back from Old Grandma's yard, she saw a middle-aged man was standing with Qu Le outside her yard. Seeing her arrival, Qu Le stepped forward in a hurry.

"Miss, this is my father."

The middle-aged man came forward and bowed to Qin Wanru, "Second Miss! I'm Qu Le's father!"

Qin Wanru looked at him. This was a man in his thirties and maybe forties, and he was wearing like an ordinary countryman. Lowering his head, she couldn't see his face clearly, but he was taller than average countryman, and although he was standing with his head down, he didn't seem panic at all.

"Are you from the capital city?" Qin Wanru looked up and down at him and asked indifferently.

"Yes, I'm from the capital city!" The middle-aged man nodded his head and replied.

"Why did you come to Jiangzhou?" Qin Wanru looked at him coldly.

"I came here for finding someone, and I heard the person I kept finding appeared in Jiangzhou." He explained hurriedly.

"So you and your wife are both from the capital city?" Qin Wanru asked him again.

"Yes, both of us!" The middle-aged man didn't hide the truth.

"Madam asked your daughter to keep an eye on me and reported everything about me to her?" These sentences didn't contain any doubting points, so she asked directly without avoiding. Her eyes kept lingering on this man.

"Yes... "His lowered his head much more.

"You should know, if I punished your whole family, it would not be news here in Jiangzhou!" Qin Wanru sneered and her childish voice sounded cold, "Ningyuan Army General's Mansion is in Jiangzhou, if he wanted to punish them, even killed them all, it is only a piece of cake!"

In the capital city, Qin Huaiyong was nothing because he didn't have a high status in his career, and he was not very powerful, and many high-ranking officials could control him.

But here was Jiangzhou and he could control the military here. If he wanted to get rid of someone, he could do it by stealth.

"Second Miss, I said nothing about her, and Madam didn't ask too many things about you." The middle-aged man was in a panic, and he knelt on the ground and said in a hurry.

He came to Jiangzhou for so many years, and he certainly knew Qin Wanru was not scaring him.

"If you didn't mention me, then what did Madam say about me? Why did she ask you to report to her about me? I didn't even know what did I do and how could you have so many things to report to Madam!" Qin Wanru sneered and said.

"I... I..." His head became even lower, and he hesitated.

"Say it!" Qin Wanru took a glimpse at the middle-aged man and tightened his pressure gradually. She threatened him already, and if he were smart enough, he knew what to do!

"Madam... Madam asked me something about why I came to Jiangzhou." This middle-aged man didn't look stupid, so he said after a hesitation. He mumbled his words which made Qin Wanru heard some hidden information in it and she went into contemplation.

"Your thing, what business?"

"She... she asked me who I'm finding for in Jiangzhou! And did I find it? And other trifles." The middle-aged man started to sweat. At the very beginning, he thought she was only a young miss, how could imagine she gave him so much pressure. Her judgment made him panicking, and he dared not to hide all the useful information.

However, for some issue, he didn't dare to utter, even in front of Second Miss and Madam.

"What has it to do with Madam since you're searching people here in Jiangzhou?" Qin Wanru didn't change her facial expression; she contemplated and asked.

"It has nothing to do with Madam. I came from the capital city to Jiangzhou and the person I'm searching has no connection with Madam at all. I didn't know why Madam was concerned about my issue.” The middle-aged man was confused as well. The Madam from General’s Mansion found his issue interesting without any reasons.

Although she pretended to be interesting about Second Miss’s personal life, this middle-aged man was very smart. He could tell Madam Di’s intention from her words, but he delayed to answer Madam Di’s question, or he pretended that he didn’t understand and replied her a mumbling answer.

However, he had an intuition that this suddenly emerged Second Miss seemed to be tricky to handle with.

“Can you talk about your issue?” Qin Wanru asked him directly.

The middle-aged man felt he was sweating more severe now, and although this miss grew up in Jiangzhou, she was not a miss from a well-known family. However, she looked so distinguished and dignified that all of her questions were right to the point.

“This... allowed me not to say anything, this relates to my personal issue.” The middle-aged man answered her carefully, “this is my own business and has nothing to do with anyone!”

“Why Madam wanted to know?” Although he answered her with respect, he sounded determined. Therefore, Qin Wanru knew it was not convenient for him to tell the truth, so she changed the subject.

“I... I didn’t know neither.” He shook his head because he didn’t know why Madam Di had to get involved in it, this issue really had nothing to do with Madam Di.

“Will... it have some connections with Madam?” Qin Wanru reminded him, and she rolled her water-like eyes which looked so bright, “will the person you keep finding have any relationship with Madam?”

“No... impossible!” He got stunned and shook his head in a hurry.

“Why not?” Qin Wanru was curious.

“This... this is impossible, absolutely impossible, this... impossible!” The middle-aged man kept shaking his head, “in fact, I’m finding two people, not only one, but... but Madam is only one person, and the miss from Duke Yong had nothing to do with my issue!”

He was in a hurry, so he added one more sentence for the explanation.

“Miss of Duke Yong mansion?” Qin Wanru pondered on those terms and bit her pink lip.

The middle-aged man suddenly changed his facial expressions, and his hand trembled a little bit.

“You know Madam is the miss from Duke Yong, and most people rarely know this in Jiangzhou since many of them only heard that Madam was born in a renown family in the capital city, but they didn’t know which one. You’re a normal countryman, how could you be so erudite and even know where she was born. Did you ever meet her before?”

“I... I never met Madam before!” He looked in panic.

“Didn’t you live in the capital city before? Haven’t you ever met Madam when you were on the street?” Qin Wanru stared at him and asked indifferently.

"I... I was just a nobody by then, so how could I meet Duke Yong Madam." He shook his hands in a flurry of panic.

"But Madam recognized you!" Qin Wanru smiled, and her voice was clear and determined.

"How come... impossible, I was a servant by then, how could she recognize me." The middle-aged man looked scared, and he got stammered. But when he finished the sentence, he got shocked because he kept talking wrong things, and now was really in a panic.

"So, which mansion you were serving?" Qin Wanru seized the loopholes in his words immediately and asked in a cold voice. Then she snapped, "are you the escaping servant from the well-known mansion in the capital city?"

If he were a fugitive slave, he should be caught back and get punished to and characters would be written on his face, and he would be distributed to an isolated place.

"No, no, I'm not the fugitive. I'm really looking for someone, for... for my master. This was known by all the people in the mansion!" He couldn't cover up his panic, so he had to say more.

"Finding your master? But failed for so many years? I heard that you came to Jiangzhou for a while, so you never heard from him, and you didn't plan to go back?" Qin Wanru continued the topic, sentence after sentence. She asked Qu Le before and knew they came to Jiangzhou for many years.

Finding a person here for so many years, and they refused to go back home but relocated here in Jiangzhou after they failed to find the person. Something like this was never heard about.

"Did you find your master and killed him, so... dared not to go back to the mansion." Qin Wanru smiled. Although her smile was gentle, her words made the confident middle-aged man's face turned as pale as white snow.

If this charge was real, how could he survive?

"Second Miss Qin, how could I kill my master. If that were real, I would die to prove my innocence! But my master got lost for so many years... When I left the mansion and embarked on the journey to find him, my older master told me if I didn't find him, I wouldn't be allowed to go home. Now my master could be found nowhere and my older master deceased as well... I... I don't know what to do!"

The middle-aged man sobbed and cried, wiping his tears. A big man like him was kneeling on the ground and crying, and it was pitiful to think about what he said.

Qing Yue, standing aside, felt him so miserable.

"Actually, my master met the miss in Duke Yong mansion for several times. I first followed my master, but Madam maybe recognise me, so she asked me about my master. However, I was here in Jiangzhou for so many years but failed to find him. Even if I wanted to tell her something, I had nothing to say. So no matter what Madam Di asked me, I could only say this."

He continued to say it without hiding any information except his master's name.

This issue was a secret for a big family and it had no connections with others. Qin Wanru was a weak girl spending most of her time in her room, so it was not beneficial for her to know much and maybe she would get into troubles and gossips.

"Madam was so desperate to know it?" Qin Wanru asked slowly and gently.

"It seemed yes. I don't know why she was so persistent. Even if she knew, what could she do? And the older master was gone now, and nobody cared about my young master anymore."

The middle-aged man wiped his tears and said in bitterness.

"You take Qu Le away and move home!" Qin Wanru didn't further her investigation. She paused and looked very gloomy, "I don't want Madam to hear anything about me from you!"

Medical Princess

Chapter 87: Panic, Our Master was Sick

Her words made the kneeling father and daughter got stunned. But then the middle-aged man shook his head, and half lifted it, "Second Miss Qin, you're a kind person, and Qu Le told me already. She said you're a perfect miss and since now you know we are threatened by Madam, and you didn't beat nor criticize Qu Le, it was great for her to follow Second Miss."

"Second Miss, please let me follow you!" Qu Le lifted her tearful face and cried out.

"Isn't it great for a family to stay together?" Qin Wanru looked at this man in confusion. The man, looking ordinary was not special in a crowd.

"Reporting to Second Miss, I have to find my master, and I have to work as well. My wife is now sick. I can't raise so many kids, so initially, I was planning to sell them, and after I found master, if he could be generous, I repurchase them if possible."

The middle-aged man said in bitterness. It could tell that he was speaking honestly as his eyes were red now.

His words showed both his loyalty to master and his affection towards his daughter. However, under this condition, anyone would think this was his only method.

A servant, even if he took money with him when finding his master, but ten years passed, how could he still have money!

Without any methods, he could only sell his daughter.

Staying together, then nobody could survive, but selling them out, if they had the fortune to get bought into a good family, they could survive.

"Qing Yue, give him some money." Qin Wanru took more glimpses on this middle-aged man's face and said after a temporary silence.

"Yes, Miss!" Qing Yue went back into the room for money in a hurry.

"You take the money and move home. Don't make Madam find you, and I'll keep Qu Le. But I don't keep idling people or unloyal by my side." Qin Wanru looked at Qu Le with contemplation, "if you couldn't do it, you should leave the mountain, and the money is my sponsor fee for you!"

"Miss... I'd like to follow you, and I would only listen to you." Qu Le was a smart girl and she said with tears in her eyes. She was grateful to Qin Wanru.

She didn't know father's things clearly, and now Qin Wanru didn't blame her but asked Qing Yue to give them money, she was despondent. Now she was demonstrating her loyalty to Qin Wanru with sincerity.

She didn't live in the mansion for a long time and had fewer connections with Qin Wanru. Actually, she didn't feel anything about her, but now she was moved.

She finished her sentences and kowtowed three times sincerely to Qin Wanru.

"Second Miss, don't worry, I'll move home after I go back and Madam'll never find me. Qu Le will follow you since now!" He wiped his tears and said decisively.

Qing Yue came out of the room and passed the money to Qu Le's father, and then she stepped aside.

"How could you avoid Madam's investigation? Madam's words mattered in Jiangzhou!" Qin Wanru asked him while frowning.

"Don't worry, Second Miss. I heard that Madam didn't get along well with general, so now she was busy dealing with her own problem, sparing her less time to care about me. I'll move home when I go back instantly. I'll avoid talking with neighbors, so she couldn't find me, and I'm just worried about..."

Qu Le's father had a clear train of thoughts, and he only hesitated when he mentioned Qu Le. He could shun away from Madam Di, but Qu Le who lived in General's Mansion couldn't shun away from her.

"She is my people now, and I'll protect her. As long as she is loyal to me, I won't allow anyone to mistreat her." Qin Wanru said gently, and her eyes were still lingering on Qu Le's father with contemplation.

He was smart as he could tell the current condition of Madam Di facing in General's Mansion. Qin Wanru believed not all people in the mansion were gossiping and would not tell a random person about Madam Di. So his conclusion came from his investigation. Only three times' visiting on the mansion, he knew the condition of the master who lived in the inner yard, he was not a simple person!

"Then thanks, Second Miss, I'll leave now!" Qu Le stood up and wiped away his tears. Lifting his head and staring at Qin Wanru, he paused for a little while and looked at Qu Le as he was reluctant to part with her. But finally, he still left.

Nobody would know if they could meet each other again after this separation.

Qu Le looked at his figure and couldn't stop crying.

"Go and send your father away!" Qin Wanru turned around and walked inside while saying.

Qu Le got stunned, but then she was exhilarating. Kowtowing to Qin Wanru again, she stood up and chased after her father.

"Miss, this... "Looking at her figure running away, Qing Yue was at unease, and she turned around and followed Qin Wanru to walk back into the yard.

After they went into the room, Qing Yue made another cup of tea for Qin Wanru and she was standing aside as if she had something to say.

Qin Wanru took the teacup and took a sip, and then she put it down and rolling her water-like eyes to Qing Yue. She smiled and asked, "do you have anything to ask me?"

"Miss, can we... trust Qu Le from now on?" Qing Yue heard her question and replied in a hurry.

"I'd consider her as a useable person temporarily, but I still need to examine her for a while." Qin Wanru contemplated and said.

"So is her father telling the truth?" Qing Yue still had doubt. She thought Qu Le was reliable, and Miss was her and her family's benefactress now. However, Qing Yue dared not to lose alarm on her.

"It's true! He is a loyal servant. So many years have passed, he is still finding!" Qin Wanru sighed, and said with implications, "he did that at the cost of sacrificing his own daughter!"

His was a smart person, a brilliant one. He even knew how to speak in a way that was not overemotional and could arouse people's sympathy within several short sentences. If he could support himself dedicated to working in many fields, it was impossible that he couldn't raise his kids.

However, he ended up like this!

He deserved people's sighing and admiration, but no matter how much he should be paid appreciation to, Qin Wanru wouldn't be so a kind but silly person, and she wouldn't allow others to scheme on her freely.

"So Miss meant what he said was true, but what person would make him find for so many years!" Qing Yue asked in surprise.

"His master maybe was dead! Otherwise, it won't take him such a long time to find him and find nothing!" Qin Wanru shook her head. She thought this was weird as well. However, it concerned about other mansion's issues, and it had nothing to do with her.

Madam Di should have paid much concentration on this issue, and she was even thinking to rearrange Qu Le to her and Qin Yuru's side. Nevertheless, Madam Di didn't expect she took the opportunity before others as the person was sent to her own place. Therefore, she managed to send this person out or put her aside to others.

Later, she inquired about some issues from Qu Le's father, and it seemed that she was concerned about his master's condition. However, Qu Le's father was smart, he didn't reveal any secrets, and she unveiled her intention of paying attention to this issue.

This had no relations with her, but she had a very unspeakable fantastic feeling and she even felt pity about this father and daughter...

Qu Le came back fast, but she came back while wiping her tears on her way back.

After she went into the room, she kowtowed to Qin Wanru for three times, and Qin Wanru asked Qing Yue to support her standing up.

"Do you know about your father's secret?" Qin Wanru held her medical books in her hands and asked casually.

"I don't know about my father's issue, and he never mentioned it with me nor my sisters, I didn't.... expect he was hiding a secret like this. I used to hate him for being a terrible father." Qu Le cried and said. She didn't know much about her father before and always thought her father was useless.

"Your father... is a loyal servant!" Qin Wanru sighed, but didn't continue, "leave and wash your face."

"Yes, Miss!" Qu Le nodded her head and replied with respect. Her father kept advising her repeatedly. Since now she entered Ningyuan Army General's Mansion and enjoyed the protection from Second Miss Qin, she had to be loyal to her and could absolutely do anything behind her back.

Qing Yue took Qu Le to leave for washing her face, and Qin Wanru's eyes went back to her books. However, she felt those characters were jumping away from her, and the scene when Qu Le's father was looking at her came back into her mind.

He paused at that moment!

That was weird as if for that moment, he looked confused but his confusion floated away.

Did she take it wrong or misjudge it? She felt that glimpse meant profound implications! Her heart was pounding at that moment too as if something slipped through her heart but then, nothing, just nothing!

She reached out her hand and rubbed her forehead. She felt some of the memories collected from her previous life were not consistent but were in fragments. It seemed that she could catch something by her intuition, but she couldn't find anything.

For the next few days, Qin Wanru was living her life as usual. But Qu Le was attached to much attention gradually. For some issues that Qin Wanru didn't want others to know, Qin Wanru would like to ask her to do it.

After she asked Qu Le to do many works, she found Qu Le was smart and sometimes a decisive person, and she also responded fast. Although she was a second level girl servant, her behaviors never showed inferiority.

This was a surprise to Qin Wanru. Since there were fewer people to use by her side, and she didn't feel secure using other people who she never approached in the mansion.

Xiao Xuanzi stopped Qu Le when she picked up the lunch basket. Qu Le at first thought he was a hooligan and dared not to take him in front of Qin Wanru. But Xiao Xuanzi was pushing her hard, so she had to take him in front of Qing Yue.

Qing Yue saw it was Xiao Xuanzi, so she pulled Xiao Xuanzi to the other side for whispering. After they crammed into the same vat, they were familiar with each other now.

"Xiao Xuanzi, what do you want to talk to my Miss?" Checking nobody was around, Qing Yue stopped and asked him. Miss has told her not to make others know the existence of Xiao Xuanzi, so Qing Yue was cautious

"Our sir was sick!" Xiao Xuanzi was in a rush, and he was sweating on his head. He felt Qing Yue was his kinship, and his eyes were red. He then pulled her closer inside.

"Isn't your master sick all the time?" Qing Yue became careful when she heard it was news about the young child.

In her perspective, Chu Liuchen's complexion was always terrible, and he was sick all the time naturally.

"It was worse this time, he... he was too tired that day, the day when Ningyuan Army General getting married!" Xiao Xuanzi was afraid that Qing Yue didn't understand, so he described it with further details.

"What happened to that day?" Qing Yue didn't understand.

"That day... he became much sick. Now he doesn't want to take medicine, so I want to invite Second Miss Qin to go and have a look." Xiao Xuanzi said in a hurry.

"My... my miss couldn't give medical advice!" Qing Yue looked nervous and was afraid to leak the news that her miss could do medical treatments.

With his identity, her miss couldn't afford to be responsible for it!

"I didn't ask your miss to help with our master's disease treatment, and I only want her to persuade my master. It seemed that he has a good relationship with her!" Xiao Xuanzi clenched his fists and looked around. He approached Qing Yue's ear and whispered. Xiao Xuanzi clenched his fists and looked around. He approached to Qing Yue's ear and whispered.

Qing Yue was so frightened that she almost fell over!

Medical Princess

Chapter 88: Arrogance, None of Your Business!

"What? Your master was so heavily sick?" Qing Yue was in a panic.

"He didn't wake up until now if anything terrible happened to him, it... was horrible!" Xiao Xuanzi stamped his foot.

"Then you hang on a second, I'll find my Miss!" Qing Yue couldn't delay anymore, and she said in a hurry.

She asked Xiao Xuanzi to wait there, and she walked out. Qu Le dared not to ask more even though she noticed that Qing Yue's countenance changed dramatically.

"Miss, Xiao Xuanzi's master was so sick that he didn't eat anything for a whole day!" Qin Wanru was picking out a well-shaped maple leaf from her book when Qing Yue rushed in. She was preparing to make a bookmark. Her maple leaf was punctured by scissor while she was trimming the edges.

"What happened?" asked Qin Wanru without even looking up.

"I don't know either, Xiao Xuanzi ran towards me and invited you to go and have a look." Qing Yue said.

"Go, let's have a look!" Qin Wanru put down her scissors and maple leaf, lifting her dress and walking outside. She happened to meet Qu Le holding a lunch basket in her hands.

"Miss, are you going out at this time?" Qu Le put down the lunch basket in her hands and asked.

"I need to go out with Qing Yue now for some business, and I'll eat my lunch later. You clean up the maple leaves in the room." Qin Wanru replied randomly.

"Yes, Miss!" Qu Le accepted her order and she stepped aside to clear the way for them.

Qin Wanru was rushing outside, and Qing Yue caught up with her by trotting forward. Leading the way, she took Qin Wanru to find Xiao Xuanzi.

"Second Miss Qin, I..." Xiao Xuanzi was so thrilled when meeting Qin Wanru that he was about to cry.

"Come, let's go and have a look at your master!" Qin Wanru whispered. If anything happened to Chu Liuchen in Jiangzhou, then the whole Jiangzhou would fall into disaster.

Regarding his social status and identity, the emperor in the capital city had to do something for compensation in a high key because the consequence equaled to assassinating the future emperor.

Otherwise, nobody would believe the truth, and the history would record this event.

If he were not so young, he would be the one wearing the crown and living as the emperor. Theoretically, he was the genuine prince. Therefore, though there were some other princes, none of them were confirmed as the official prince who could inherit the throne in the future.

All the officials in palace were observing and watching.

If anything happened to Chu Liuchen now, the emperor had to punish some people and convict someone, if not, the entire country would be reduced to the tumult. And for those who would get punished, officials working in Jiangzhou would be first taken into consideration, and Qin Huaiyong would be the first one on the list.

The yard didn't change, but the large lounge chair disappeared. Xiao Xuanzi took Qin Wanru inside, and after they took a turn at the nine folding screens, they went into the inner room where Chu Liuchen was lying in his bed, wearing a bloodless face. Qin Wanru felt panicking of seeing this.

He couldn't have any accident. If any accident came down to him, Qin Huaiyong would get into trouble, and maybe all his relatives and kinships would be killed!

Taking a deep breath, she stepped forward and pulled his hand on the quilt. After she calmed her mind, she started to feel his pulse carefully.

His pulse was trembling slowly as something was blocking it.

She immediately knew he had severe sick. Qin Wanru opened her eyes and saw a bowl of medicine was put on the table. The liquid inside turned to as cold as stone.

"Why did you give your master cold medicine?" Qin Wanru touched the bowl, and it was freezing, and then her facial expression looked terrible.

"Second Miss, it's my master he didn't want to take medicine, so it was put to cold. There was some new medicine boiling on the stove, and I'll serve him another one." Xiao Xuanzi took the bowl and cried, "Since this morning, he didn't want to eat medicine or food!"

"Who gave him this prescription?" Qin Wanru was frowning, and her slender eyebrows were tangling together. She didn't mean the medicine was terrible, but it was Chu Liuchen who didn't take it on time.

"It was Jingxin Monastery master. It worked actually, but he didn't want to take it!" Xiao Xuanzi has tried all the methods, but Chu Liuchen kept ignoring him. Without any solutions, he came up with Qin Wanru.

In Jiangzhou, only Second Miss Qin had a good relationship with his master, so he could only try everything he thought of.

"Go get another bowl of medicine!" Qin Wanru trusted Jingxin Monastery master's prescription. Although she thought Jingxin Monastery's prescription was less detailed and comprehensive than Mingqiu Nun's prescription occasionally, it was a good one to a large extent.

"Yes, I'll go now!" Xiao Xuanzi retreated.

Qin Wanru held Chu Liuchen's hand again. It was a big hand which could wrap her two small ones, and she then checked his tightly closed eyes. Qin Wanru didn't even hesitated but used her sharp fingernails and scratched on the point between his thumb and forefinger severely.

She must have used a lot of strength on it!

"Ah!" The one in bed screamed due to the pain, and his long eyelashes fluttered. Chu Liuchen opened his eyes where coldness was still haunting, and people could feel a kind of gloomy sensation in him that refused everyone to approach him. He stared at Qin Wanru without any warmth or countenance.

His facial expression scared Qing Yue to lower her head in panic. Even though Chu Liuchen could only stay in bed because of his illness, he still gave people an impression of coldness and fear, which were flowing on people's backbones.

"You are sick, so you must take medicine. If you didn't, how could you recover?" There was a stool by his bedside, so Qin Wanru took it and sat down, and she also put down his hand.

Chu Liuchen looked at Qin Wanru with any emotion, his thin and bloodless lips were pressed together.

It was the coldness that no life was able to survive in it, and it was much weirder than his usual bitterness, and that triggered people's body numbing. The whole room's temperature decreased.

"Xiao Xuanzi will bring you medicine soon, and you drink some and then eat lunch!" Qin Wanru put on a face as if she didn't see Chu Liuchen's emotionless expression or his gloomy face. She took his waist and felt his pulse again.

Just like what happened, he was not faint at all, he didn't want to open his eyes.

"I don't want to!" Chu Liuchen looked at Qin Wanru coldly, and this atmosphere made Qing Yue even lower her head and dared not to move.

"Why you don't want to eat?" Qin Wanru opened her eyes and lifted her smiling face. Her face was pinky, and the pink color set a contrast with her white skin and made it more attractive. Smiling was flowing in her eyes, carrying a sense of appealing. But she was still a kid, and her appearance looked more childish than beautiful.

"Your skin color looks so healthy!" Chu Liuchen whispered, and nobody expected that he would raise his hand and touch her tiny face. He could feel her face's warmth and smooth, and it was so comfortable and energetic that he got stunned. His long eyelashes fluttered several times, and it seemed that he was still in astonishment.

Qin Wanru didn't know he would pinch her face slightly, so she watched him stunningly. His face, which looked emotionless just now, looked lazy and relaxed, thus injecting more vivid facial features on his face. An ink painting's native intelligence replaced his gloomy and beautiful face.

Yes, it was exactly that facial expression which looked so gloomy!

"That is nice!" Squinting his eyes, Chu Liuchen reached out his hand and pinched Qin Wanru while she was still in astonishment with her eyes widely opened. His smile became more evident on his pale lips.

"You..." Qin Wanru slapped his hand hard because she understood if he did it on purpose. His last touch was unconscious, and for this time, he did it on purpose.

She used much strength but missed his hands because he managed to escape, and his face looked lazy and relaxed.

"Sir, you finally wake up, sir..." Xiao Xuanzi held a bowl of hot medicine and came in. When he saw the dynamic expression on Chu Liuchen's face, he was so happy that he was about to cry, and he almost dropped the bowl.

"I don't take medicine!" Chu Liuchen turned around with his face facing inward.

"Sir, if you didn't take medicine, how could you get better, if you..." Xiao Xuanzi started his persuading and preaching painstakingly, putting the bowl on the table and wearing a worried look.

"Annoying, leave me alone!" Chu Liuchen was unhappy, and he sneered.

"Sir..." Xiao Xuanzi prolonged his voice because he was so anxious. Without taking any medicine for a whole day, his condition was deteriorating and that made Xiao Xuanzi was worried.

"Sir..."

"Why you were still here, are you annoying me on purpose!" Chu Liuchen didn't only sound cold but angry. He interrupted Xiao Xuanzi's words instantly.

"Sir..." Xiao Xuanzi's eyes were red because of anxiety. Although the content of his moaning was about his master, he was actually looking at Qin Wanru hopefully.

"Xiao Xuanzi, Qing Yue, you two leave first!" Qin Wanru thought for a while, and she waved her hand.

"Miss..." Xiao Xuanzi got relieved, but Qing Yue was in a panic.

"I'll be fine. You leave with Xiao Xuanzi!" Qin Wanru took a deep breath, and she thought it would be better to have Qing Yue and Xiao Xuanzi staying alone. What she was planning to do may make Chu Liuchen unhappy, and he could even be angry. Therefore, she asked them to leave in case he blamed Qing Yue.

"Yes, Miss!" Because of Qin Wanru's insistence, Qing Yue had to retreat. When she came to the entrance of the door, she looked back inside with deep worry.

Qin Wanru waved to her again, and Qing Yue finally went out of the room.

"Childe, why you didn't want to take medicine? There has to be a reason, right?" After everyone left the room, Qin Wanru wrapped her hand with the handkerchief and took the bowl from the table. Then she stepped back to the bed and blew to the liquid inside the container while squinting at the arrogant lad in bed and asked.

"None of your business!" Chu Liuchen sneered with unhappiness and his voice sound angry.

"Actually, I don't want to intervene in your issue, but I have something for help, and if you left me like this, then nobody could help me!" Qin Wanru frowned and her pink lips pressed together. She looked embarrassed, "this concerns about the Queen's disease, and I feel insecure if I asked others to do it. I'm also worried that others would steal my contribution! What should I do?!"

This thing was concerned about the news she heard from her previous life...

Medical Princess

Chapter 89: It's not Done, You Still Owe Me a Lot!!

"What?" After she finished her sentence, it was silence for a long time, and Chu Liuchen finally gave her this question.

"The Fragrance of July!" Qin Wanru got relaxed. If it was easily to deal with once he started to talk. Smiling to his back, she gave him this term.

One day when she was looking through a medical book, and she felt something was familiar. After she thought for a while, an idea came upon to her. She remembered Queen was in poor condition as she had the syndrome of coughing blood, and one of the ingredients that were frequently used was The Fragrance of July.

Because of the soil and environment in the capital city, no The Fragrance of July was cultivated there, but it could adapt to the climate of Jiangzhou. However, there were still some The Fragrance of Julies could be found here, so they were precious and were short of need every year!

"What do you mean?" Chu Liuchen turned his head around and sat up slightly, and Qin Wanru put a cushion behind his back to support him sit up immediately.

Qin Wanru didn't feel weird about his response. In her last life, she has heard that the Queen adored this grandchild a lot, and she loved him much more than all the rest of the princes. Because of her cherish, Prince Chen, who could be considered as the one got removed from the title of Prince, was arrogant in the palace.

No one dared to make him angry.

He had an excellent relationship with the Queen for sure.

The bowl was not burning hot now, so Qin Wanru passed it to Chu Liuchen with her beautiful eyes blinking. Her view then located on the bowl from his face and blinked again, indicating him to drink it!

It was bitter and suffocating, definitely not tasty. Qin Wanru felt it disgusting, so she leaned backward as she disliked drinking any medicine bitter like this.

She was then patted gently on her head, not knowing whether her words worked or her dislike look played a role in it, Chu Liuchen accepted the bowl and drank until the last drop.

After he finished, he passed the bowl back to Qin Wanru, patting on her head again and squinted at her, "so useless!"

Qin Wanru took the bowl and put it aside. She pursed her lips in dark corner, as it was him who played a temper and refused to drink medicine. Qin Wanru, younger than him had to coax him. And now it was shameless for him to define her as a useless person.

"Did you find any old The Fragrance of July?" Chu Liuchen robbed the handkerchief in Qin Wanru's hand and wiped his mouth. Throwing the handkerchief back to Qin Wanru, he wore a natural expression as if the handkerchief he just used belonged to him.

He was really arrogant and had a weird temper!

Speechlessly, Qin Wanru stared at the stained handkerchief, she rubbed it in her hand, pretending that she didn't see anything. She nodded her head, "I find perfect The Fragrance of July!"

The longer the medicine got stored, the better it worked as an ingredient!

She had no idea why Chu Liuchen emerged in Jiangzhou somehow, and The Fragrance of July was one of his purposes in this journey.

"Where is it, and how much do you have?" Chu Liuchen asked.

"I have about five straws, which were about a hundred years old." Qin Wanru smiled and said.

"Where is it?"

"They're some in Jingxin Monastery!" Qin Wanru didn't hide the truth, and they were gifts of Jingxin Monastery master who gave them to Qin Wanru to show her affection towards the younger generation. However, they were still stored in the hands of Jingxin Monastery master.

"Jingxin Monastery master?" Chu Liuchen pondered on those words and touched his chin.

"Yes, Jingxin Monastery master!" Qin Wanru nodded her head and assured him. Then her eyes rolled and looked vigorous, "if child got them, please remember my contribution!"

She had the chance to show off her contribution in front of him, and Qin Wanru would not allow this opportunity to escape from her fingers.

"Alright, I know, I'll give this back to you!" Chu Liuchen said impatiently. Fumbling under his pillow, he found an item and threw it like discarding trash to Qin Wanru.

Qin Wanru accepted it and released it was her stamp. She became totally speechless when she raised her head and saw his disordered pillow.

Someone would think it was a precious item as he even hid it under his pillow when lying in bed.

However, Qin Wanru was still happy for getting it back, so she stood up and bowed to him with profound respect, "Childe, thanks a lot!"

"Qin Wanru, this is not over, and you still owe me a lot!" Chu Liuchen raised his eyebrows and showed a slight smile transforming his beautiful face into a gentle and elegant one. Even his face looked pale and bloodless, he was still as pure as jade and as beautiful as jewelry, bringing out a distinct sense that was above anyone while his long eyelashes were circling his dark eyes.

"Yes, thanks for many times to childe's favor!" Qin Wanru bowed again reluctantly.

Prince Chen was so petty, and he was even calculating every favor he had done for her even when he was so sick. He didn't want others to take advantage of him at all. She couldn't understand, with his honorable identity, he was bound to be a great childe in the future, so why he was finding trouble with her, a little girl, and he had to win everything before hers turn.

Chu Liuchen groaned feebly as a response to Qin Wanru. He squinted at Qin Wanru as well as the stool in front of his bed.

Qin Wanru understood and retook the sit of the stool. She wanted to leave already.

"Give me the food, and I'm hungry!" Chu Liuchen yelled impatiently to the door, and Qin Wanru looked askance at the door, and a piece of familiar cloth was hanging. Xiao Xuanzi was hiding there.

He was worried that her words might irritate Prince Chen!

"Yes... yes, I'll deliver your food right now!" Xiao Xuanzi became thrilled when he heard Chu Liuchen wanted to eat food. He went into the room from the door, heaping up smiles on his face. He didn't expect Second Miss Qin could make him both drink the medicine and eat the lunch!

He really scared of screwing things up before!

"You overheard a while by the door, right?"

Wearing a fixed smile, Xiao Xuanzi shook his hands in panic, "no... no, I, sir, I just came in and I... I didn't hear anything!"

"Really?" Chu Liuchen asked him gloomily.

Xiao Xuanzi didn't have the boldness to lie this time, he lowered his head and said timidly, "sir, I was only worried... worried about you, so I overheard a little bit... really a little bit!"

"You overheard me with only one ear?" Chu Liuchen smiled. Although his smile looked mild, it spread coldness and hid chillness.

"Yes... yes, with one ear!" Xiao Xuanzi stammered.

"Since you only listened with one ear, then what's the use of the other one, cut it off!" Chu Liuchen's face broke into a wide grin.

Xiao Xuanzi was trembling, and his teeth were chattering. He kneeled, "sir... please! Please forgive me!"

"Alright, leave, and serve me food! Remember to use both ears while overhearing next time!" Chu Liuchen patted his quilt and decided not to scare his servant anymore since he was in a good mood.

"Yes... Sir!" Now Xiao Xuanzi could tell that his master was fooling him around, so he started to laugh as well, and he retreated for preparing his food.

Looking at this complacent beautiful lad reluctantly, Qin Wanru thought he was not as weak as he looked like minutes ago when he was playing this gross joke.

Four dishes and one soup were delivered to him, and they were all cooked in plain flavor only to suit his weak stomach of a patient like him.

It seemed that Chu Liuchen had no appetite to eat because he only took a few. When he laughed out with his head raising, he laughed out at Qin Wanru!

"Did you eat?"

Qin Wanru shook her head. She was about to eat, Xiao Xuanzi came, and now she became hungry when she saw him eating.

Biting her pink lips, she pouted and lowered her head. She felt hungry now since she missed her lunch, and all those dishes looked delicious.

"Do you want some?" Chu Liuchen ruminated on these words. He suddenly felt this idea was not bad, so he said to Xiao Xuanzi who served by his side, "give Qin Wanru a pair of chopsticks and a bowl. I'll have lunch with her."

"Sir..." Xiao Xuanzi got stunned because his master didn't like eating food with others, and he even rarely had a meal with the Queen.

"Move fast!" Chu Liuchen squinted at Qin Wanru and said. His stare shifted from her snowy skin to her pink lips. Hearing his words, she pressed her lips together which made her bottom lip very flat and with her cheeks bulging. If he could add some bubbles on her face, she could look like a goldfish's bulging mouth!

She looked ridiculous.

He was fond of her lips' color as well.

Compared with his pale lips' color, he thought hers look vibrant and energetic, which made him envious.

Feeling his stare on her face, Qin Wanru loosened her lips in a hurry.

Xiao Xuanzi served her a pair of new chopsticks and a bowl, and he also filled her half bowl of rice. Looking at the dishes, Qin Wanru decided not to refuse it anymore. Moreover, it didn't seem like she was able to refuse him.

Anyway, she was hungry, and she was credited!

The consequence was after she finished her meal with relish, she found Chu Liuchen, sitting opposite to her, kept gazing at her as if out of a dream.

Qin Wanru blinked her eyes, with no idea what he was staring for, so she wiped her face with handkerchief unconsciously. Then she saw Xiao Xuanzi who forced himself to stop laughing that he almost twisted his face and Chu Liuchen who could barely hold his bowl because of his crazy laugh.

Her long and curl eyelashes fluttered, and her big bright eyes blinked. Qin Wanru checked her handkerchief under the guidance of Xiao Xuanzi's stare.

What left on the handkerchief was Chu Liuchen's stain after he wiped the medical liquid and her face blushed. She threw the handkerchief and covered where she just wiped unconsciously, and they stood up and walked outside.

Chu Liuchen was surely doing this on purpose. He was scheming because he allured her to wipe the handkerchief on her face and it was needless to say that there was a brown medical stain on her face for sure.

Chu Liuchen was laughing out loud behind her uncontrollably.

"Miss!" Qing Yue stayed outside quietly, and when she saw Qin Wanru walked out, covering her face, she became panicking and stepped forward in a hurry.

"Handkerchief." Qin Wanru ground her teeth in the darkness.

Qing Yue accepted her handkerchief hurriedly, and Qin Wanru reached out her hands wiping on the face in all strength. While she was cleaning and walking outside, she felt someone was laughing viciously.

He was so shrewd because he knew her unconscious behavior and guided her to make herself humiliated!

Maybe he came to this point when she was eating lunch, and he was waiting for him to do the wrong things!

Qin Wanru walked back to Jingxin Monastery in a hurry, but she went to Mingqiu Nun's hut instead of going back to her own yard. There was something that she was required to report to Mingqiu Nun first.

The reason that she didn't tell Chu Liuchen that The Fragrance of July was a gift to her from Jingxin Monastery master was because she remembered an accident in Jingxin Monastery. She had to help Jingxin Monastery to get through it!

Medical Princess

Chapter 90: Similar, and in the Similar Timing!

The hut where Mingqiu Nun lived seemed to get locked all the time in case of interrupting her tranquility.

Now Qin Wanru was familiar with this path, and she took off the hanging lock and walked inside.

It was a Buddhist hall which served a not large Buddha locating in the centre of the room. The Buddha was the image of Guanyin with thousands of hands. It looked vivid, and its image was amiable but also dignified and elegant. People would show sincere respect to her in a simple glance.

Three incenses were burning in the hall, spreading a slight fragrance.

On the rush cushion, Mingqiu Nun was closing her eyes and reciting her Scripture in a low voice, but she looked extremely sincere.

Qin Wanru picked a rush cushion by her side and did her worshipping bow to Buddha. The rebirth made her much respect Buddha.

After her bowing and kneeling, she put her palms together devoutly and listened to Mingqiu Nun's voice in whispering the Scripture.

After a long time, Mingqiu Nun opened her eyes and smiled at Qin Wanru, "why did you arrive so early today?"

Usually, Qin Wanru would take a rest after her meal and then came here.

"I have something to tell nun." Qin Wanru turned her rush cushion to another direction, facing to Mingqiu Nun, and she said in solemn.

"For what?" Mingqiu Nun asked in surprise.

"Nun, last time Jingxin Monastery master gave me five straws of The Fragrance of July, did nun remember?" Qin Wanru asked.

Mingqiu Nun nodded her head with a smile.

"I didn't take them by then, and I said to put them at Jingxin Monastery master. This time, I heard there was someone distinguished coming from the capital city, so I decided to give The Fragrance of July to the person in the name of the Jingxin Monastery." Qin Wanru said while contemplating her words carefully.

"Giving them to the distinguished guest from the capital city?" Mingqiu Nun asked, "Then why you didn't give them by yourself?"

"The Fragrance of July belongs to Jingxin Monastery, and if I sent them to someone from the capital city, I think I should better give them away in the name of Jingxin Monastery. On the one hand, I can't have such a precious gift, and on the other hand, they could win credit from the distinguished person for Jingxin Monastery, or Jingxin Monastery could rely on this credit in the future."

Qin Wanru said in a gentle voice, but her eyes showed deepness in the place where Mingqiu Nun couldn't see.

She was not mystifying, but it was in her previous life where she heard Jingxin Monastery was destroyed, and she was in the capital city by then. This news came from Qin Yuru and Madam Di.

The real reason remained unknown to her, but it was only said that there was an evil thief got harboured by Jingxin Monastery, so all the people in the Jingxin Monastery were arrested and got distributed.

However, it said that more things happened later, and they were all arrested to the capital city.

At that time, she was trapped in her backyard where nobody was useful by her side. After that, she knew nothing about it anymore. Anyway, she didn't want to see Jingxin Monastery where so many people got helped here went into trouble, and she rather not see Jingxin Monastery master and Mingqiu Nun went into trouble!

"Distinguished person?" Mingqiu Nun frowned because she had no ideas what she was talking.

"A distinguished person but got sick. That person is now receiving medical treatment from Jingxin Monastery master and is from the capital city." Qin Wanru couldn't reveal the identity of Chu Liuchen too much, so she had to mince her words.

Based on all the messages and Chu Liuchen's requirements towards Jingxin Monastery master, this thing could be done to a large extent.

"If you would like to have Jingxin Monastery to earn this credit, then I need to thank you." Mingqiu Nun was not stubborn or pedantic, so she smiled to her as a symbol of accepting her favour, and she didn't ask Qin Wanru how she knew this thing.

Then Mingqiu Nun stood up, and she took Qin Wanru to the room next door and started to teach her.

Chu Liuchen was in a good mood when he saw Qin Wanru covering her tiny face and leaving. He even added more rice in his bowl, but this could make Xiao Xuanzi so happy and believed what he chose to do today was right.

Luckily, Second Miss Qin came. Otherwise, childe wouldn't be a lamb and eat his lunch. He made a considerable sensation last time and even shocked the entire palace. This time, he went through it in silence, so it was evident that childe was in a good mood.

After the lunch, Chu Liuchen went to bed happily, thinking of Qin Wanru's brown stain on her face, and then he laughed out uncontrollably. He was not very energetic, so after he laughed for a while, he went back to sleep.

He had a long sleep and woke up in the evening.

Xiao Xuanzi heard him wake up, so he came to open the curtain in a hurry. Xiao Xuanzi touched his forehead to check his average body temperature, and he took a breath to relieve.

Watching Chu Liuchen sit up himself and preparing to get up, he said hurriedly, "Sir, it's about evening now, where are you going? You should take a break."

"I need to visit Jingxin Monastery master and ask her for that five straws of The Fragrance of July." Chu Liuchen said lazily.

"Sir, it was too late to visit her, don't you think so? How about tomorrow, and she could give you further treatment consultations. By then, it would be the right time to tell her!" Xiao Xuanzi took a glance to the outside sky and persuaded him.

Chu Liuchen took a glance outside the window as well since he slept for a long time; it was getting dark now.

"Then, tomorrow!" Chu Liuchen nodded his head and leaned back to the cushion which Xiao Xuanzi took to him, and he found a comfortable position.

"Are you getting better?" Xiao Xuanzi passed a glass of warm water to Chu Liuchen and asked with concerns.

Chu Liuchen took it and took a sip, raising his cold eyes, "the medicine is not bad; it worked."

"That is fantastic. You can stay in Jiangzhou for a long time and ask the master to give you more treatments. Finding the person which Doctor Qi mentioned, and by then you'll be recovered!" Xiao Xuanzi's eyes looked bright, and she started to feel relieved.

"Maybe not, it's hard to say before I find it!" Chu Liuchen narrowed his eyes and decided not to care about this, so he changed a topic, "is there any message coming from the capital city?"

Counting the days that passed and the thing that he plotted earlier, something should be triggered to happen now. This time's leaving from the capital city was not only about separating.

"I'm about to report to you, sir, and there is a message. It said that Empress Dowager furious and even Queen got punished. The Queen, alongside with many concubines kneeled in front of Empress Dowager outside the Ci Ning Palace for two hours! The emperor came to beg for forgiveness, but Empress Dowager still didn't make any compromises. She asked them to find you and said it was them that made you mad and drove you away."

Xiao Xuanzi sorted out all the information and reported.

Chu Liuchen leaned back while pondering, and he looked up at the curtain with his lips bending up in anger, "what did he say then?"

Although he didn't say it directly, Xiao Xuanzi knew he refers to the emperor, so Xiao Xuanzi reported hurriedly, "the emperor only tried to persuade Empress Dowager, and he reprimanded Queen and other concubines. He didn't say anything later but said he'd have you come back as soon as possible."

"It seems that an announcement will come from him soon!" Chu Liuchen sneered.

The country was the check-board, and politics, the chess. He got involved in the game a long time ago!

The moment of moving the chess indicated bloody rain plus riots. Now they were unfolding in front of his eyes.

"What, they moved?" Madam Di stood up and circled in the room for a long time, wearing a livid face. It was so hard for her to find a clue, and now it was gone? It was all Qin Wanru, this b*tch's fault.

"Yes, I checked, and nobody lived nearby knew where did they move. They just said they disappeared overnight and they abandoned some heavy stuff behind them, only packed up light luggage with them." Nanny Zhou frowned by her side as well.

Nanny Zhou came from Duke Yong mansion, and if it not were her, Madam Di couldn't recognize him. Anyway, she was a Miss in a wealthy family. How could she identify a servant?

"Where is Qu Le?" Madam Di turned around and sat back in front of the table, banging the table which made the teacup fell on the ground. The teacup rolled for a while and broke in a crisp sound.

Nanny Zhou dared not to pick up the pieces because of Madam Di's livid look, and she answered in a hurry, "Qu Le is still in Jingxin Monastery, staying with Second Miss."

"That evil kid still keep her? What does she want?" Madam Di was in a panic, "can she know anything?"

"Don't worry, Madam. Second Miss can't know anything. She was young and innocent. So many years have passed and if Old Grandma didn't mention you were not her biological mother, Second Miss still didn't know that!" Nanny Zhou comforted her.

"That poor grandma couldn't protect herself, and how could she dare to poke her nose into other people's businesses? But then, even if she did so, what could she do? She still knew nothing about the thing that happened earlier." Madam Di felt hatred mentioning about this, and she said in anger while gloom flashed in her eyes. She dosed the Old Grandma with so much poison, and how could she get survived?

If the Old Grandma died, Shui Ruolan couldn't marry into this family at this moment. Her eyes bulged out when she thought about something that made her so angry. A gloomy look made her beautiful face looked horrible.

"Madam, don't be in a hurry, and it was not a thing that could be done in a glimpse. Even if he disappeared, Madam still had other evidence to prove it. By then, you can shift your evidence to somewhere useful, and it's all in your disposal! We don't know if it were true?" Nanny Zhou persuaded in a lower voice, but she hesitated at the end.

The entire thing was an assumption in Madam's mind, and nobody knew if it were true.

"It's similar, and it was in similar timing. Moreover, the general described that person before. You ask somebody to find again, if there were any messages, you pass them to me in a hurry. This time, I'll ask someone to take him in case more accidents happen. For other things, I'll talk about it later." Madam Di felt she was too hesitant before. Otherwise, he wouldn't escape from her.

Taking him away and interrogating directly. If Madam Di could know anything, it would be great, even if she got nothing, he was only a servant got lost in Jiangzhou, taking his life was nothing!

"Yes, Madam. I understand!" Nanny Zhou understood and said.

Madam Di felt angry after she thought it for a while, "initially, she came here for serving me, and how dared he send her to other places, is him doing the opposite to me on purpose?"

"Madam, this may be a coincidence. Initially, they were picking girl servants for Young Lady, but suddenly they started to help Second Miss in servant picking up. Therefore, she was sent to Second Miss.” Nanny Zhou shook her head and thought it was impossible. This was a coincidence, but it also had a reason.

“It better be a coincidence or... I will never forgive him!” Madam Di sneered, and she leaned back on the chair, rubbing the centre between her eyebrows, and sneered, “How is that thing going on?”