

Medicine 529

On the dock.

Xiao Chen watched the last ship go away, and she could only sigh.

"Doctor Xiao, if you can't go back, how can your wife kill you?"

Sun muyao was embarrassed to say which two words.

Think of Xiao Chen who just didn't blink his eyelids in front of Long Wei, but now he looks worried and afraid for fear of being beaten by his wife.

"Find me a hotel."

"Go to my house."

"Forget it, I won't disturb you tomorrow morning. I'll be the first boat to cross the river. Maybe I can catch up with the opening of the medical school."

Xiao Chen looked lonely, as if she had foreseen the scene when she was punished by the family law.

One side of sun muyao really wanted to laugh, but considering Xiao Chen's face, she still managed not to laugh.

It's near the dock. Sun muyao found a hotel for him.

There was nothing to say this night.

Xiao Chen ate some breakfast at a breakfast stand not far away from the hotel early the next morning and looked at the time. Just now the hotel owner said that the earliest ship was at seven o'clock, half an hour. I can still get back to Binjiang. It seems that I can catch up with the door.

Feel more secure.

Xiao Chen walked slowly towards the dock.

But just as he was about to cross the road, he saw that a black faced luxury car in the distance seemed to be out of control and rushed to a telephone pole beside the road.

Bang!

The car hit the pole.

Xiao Chen saw that no one came forward. He saw a woman in the driver's seat, as if she was seriously injured. He stepped forward and separated the glass. It was obvious that the woman had been knocked unconscious.

He pulled the door. Because of the collision, the door had been deformed and could not be opened by hand.

People around talked, but no one came forward to help.

Xiao Chen thought for a moment and put his palm on the glass. The true Qi in the diseased pulse burst out of his body in an instant.

Click!

The glass was shattered by his earthquake.

The onlookers around also gave a cry of surprise.

"How did this man break the glass?"

"I don't know. Is the glass broken?"

Xiao Chen pulled the woman out of the window.

When he pulled the woman out, he found that the woman was young and beautiful, wearing a tight white skirt and snow-white thighs, glowing white in the sun.

Even in the bustling crowd, someone exclaimed, "this woman is so beautiful."

Xiao Chen looked at the woman and seemed to shake her head. She needed oxygen so that she could wake up as soon as possible.

I didn't think much. Xiao Chen laid the woman flat and was ready to give her artificial respiration.

But his lips just put on the woman's sexy red lips, and the woman suddenly opened her eyes.

"What are you doing?"

Xiao Chen was stunned.

He raised his head and looked at the woman lying in front of him.

"I'm going to give it to you..."

Pop!

"Why did you hit me?"

"Hooligans!"

"I'm a hooligan. I saved you. Don't you believe it? Ask them?"

The woman sat up and looked at the people around her.

"Yes, he just saved you."

"People want to give you artificial respiration."

"Yes, yes."

Only then did the woman understand what was going on.

"Sorry, I. I just woke up and saw you, that..."

Xiao Chen shook with a bitter smile and said, "well, just wake up. I have something to do here and need to cross the river. You..."

"You cross the river?"

"Yes."

"Take me with you. I'm going to Binjiang, too."

After the two talked, Xiao Chen knew that the girl's surname was Zhang. She was the daughter of Zhang Dasheng, the largest jeweler in Binjiang city.

Her name is Zhang min. she used to go to school here. She's going home today.

"Brother benefactor, we are fellow villagers. That's great." Zhang Min directly carries Xiao Chen.

This is an intimate action. Let Xiao Chen also have some maladjustment.

"I... you..."

"Brother Xiao, let's go. I want my father to thank you well."

She then pulled up Xiao Chen and walked towards the dock.

"What about the car?"

"Never mind. I'll just let someone pick it up later."

the rich.

Xiao Chen could only listen to Zhang Min and follow others on this ferry.

Binjiang.

"Dad, I'm at the riverside wharf."

Zhang Min put down the phone. She walked to Xiao Chen with a smile.

"I really can't go to dinner with you. I have to go back to the hospital."

"I know the Xia family medical school. Wait for the car sent by my father and let his people take you."

"No need."

"Yes."

Soon a long Cadillac stopped in front of them.

Xiao Chen was pulled into the car by Zhang min.

"Miss, we?"

"Go to Xiajia medical school."

Although the driver had some accidents, he turned his car around and drove towards the Xia family hospital.

At this time.

Xia yunshang is looking out the door.

"Miss, he didn't come back all night last night."

Aunt Wang reported Xiao Chen's whereabouts to Xia yunshang.

"Call me when he comes back."

Xia yunshang has many patients, so she doesn't have time to wait for Xiao Chen here, but she can't let go of the fact that Xiao Chen didn't return all night.

"Don't worry."

Aunt Wang said and went to the door.

She is going to guard here. As long as Xiao Chen comes back, she will catch him to see the young lady at the first time.

Not for a while.

Zhang's car stopped in front of the door.

Aunt Wang was stunned first. Why do rich people come to the hospital.

But I saw Xiao Chen get off the car.

"You're back!"

Aunt Wang said and pulled Xiao Chen into the house.

"Stop!"

Seeing that Aunt Wang was not polite to Xiao Chen, Zhang Min stopped her and said, "who are you? Let go of my brother Xiao."

"You, your what?"

"Brother Xiao."

Aunt Wang snorted coldly. Staring at Xiao Chen, he said, "well, you Xiao Chen, it's ok if you don't come back this night. What sister do you have now? Brother Xiao, look, I won't report it to you."

She said and went to the hospital.

Seeing her misunderstanding, Xiao Chen grabbed her and said, "Aunt Wang, you misunderstood. I saved her outside. I wasn't with her last night."

Aunt Wang didn't listen at all. It was a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to put Xiao Chen forward to the medical school. Zhao Youzhen had already told her privately to watch Xiao Chen and drive him out as long as there was a chance.

If this matter is carried out, it will be a miracle of her Aunt Wang.

Aunt Wang, who broke away from Xiao Chen, ran into the hospital.

Xiao Chen thought: No.

I had to follow.

Seeing that Xiao Chen was so nervous, Zhang Min also followed in. She wanted to see what happened.

If someone really bullies Xiao Chen, she doesn't dare. Xiao Chen has attracted her.

"Xiao Chen!"

You can't wait to enter the inner hall.

Xiao Chen heard the voice of Xia yunshang.

"Wife!"

He went into the inner hall and flopped to his knees.

Some doctors in this room are secretly laughing.

Zhang Min followed in at this time.

Seeing Xiao Chen kneeling on the ground, she came forward and helped her.

"Brother Xiao, what's the matter with you? Why should you kneel down for her?"

Xia Yunmin sat staring at the other side.

Xiao Chen saw that she pulled herself and said with a bitter smile, "don't worry about it. I have made a mistake first and will be subject to family law."

"Who is she? Why do you have to obey the family law?"

"She's my wife."

"Wife!?"
