"I..."

Sun Fuchen wants to, but his strength doesn't allow it!

Seeing this, Zhu Laoer got up and made a round of it, and said, "Dr. Sun, sit with my eldest brother first, and I'll see doctor Xiao off."

Then he got up and accompanied Xiao Chen out of the Shenwu hall.

At the door.

"Doctor Xiao, I'm sorry about my eldest brother today."

Xiao Chen waved his hand. "Nothing," he said

"Shenwu hall invites you to participate in the martial arts practice in five cities. You're still considering it."

Of course, Xiao Chen doesn't think it's less than 500000, but the rules of the Xia family. He can't help it.

He chatted a few more words.

Xiao Chen turned and left.

It was already afternoon.

Xiao Chen was a little hungry in her stomach. It happened that there was a roadside stall on the street. There were a lot of people selling noodles.

He stepped forward and asked for a bowl of noodles in clear soup.

Five or six minutes later, a bowl of steaming clear soup noodles was sent to him.

Xiao Chen was about to eat.

I only heard two noodle eaters at the next table. The conversation attracted him.

"Have you heard that the martial arts show of the five cities will be held in Binjiang. There are many martial artists from other places these days."

"No, these martial arts practices are very arrogant. Yesterday, the owner of the hotel on East Street was beaten by several martial artists."

"You said that North Korea is at war with southern Chu outside. What kind of martial arts is Binjiang doing? Alas! It's really an eventful time!"

"Yes, we ordinary people can only be careful by ourselves. I think this mess is certain."

Xiao Chen ate noodles and listened to their words. She was a little worried about her own medical school.

He busily settled the face money.

The East Street is where the Xia family medical school is located. You just left by yourself. Don't have any martial artists to find trouble.

This way he hurried and just turned the corner.

I nearly bumped into three people coming up.

"You're blind!"

Xiao Chen looked at the three men. They were dressed like local people. Plus they're armed.

Looking at the dress and the weapons, the warrior was no doubt. Xiao Chen nodded and said, "I'm sorry."

He doesn't want trouble.

But the other party is unwilling to let go.

"Sorry? Hum, you think you're just sorry. Give me the money!"

"What?!"

How can there be such a reason? I didn't hit it and asked for money?

"What are you looking at? Take the money. It's a silver dollar. You scared us, you know?"

One of the elders, a bearded warrior, pointed to Xiao Chen's nose and said.

"I have no money."

"No money."

The man said and pulled out a machete from his waist.

Put the knife on Xiao Chen's neck.

He reached for his clothes.

This is a robbery.

Unfortunately.

This man really didn't touch anything on Xiao Chen.

"What a poor man!"

His beard was disappointed. He pushed Xiao Chen away.

The three swaggered past him.

Binjiang seems to be really in chaos.

Wushi martial arts was originally an internal competition in the martial arts and Taoism circles. How can these martial artists be such hooligans one by one?

It's no different from a robber.

Xiao Chen thought and returned to the hospital.

He didn't wait to get near the house.

I only heard someone shouting inside: "give me money, no money; I'll smash your medical school today!"

Xiao Chen's heart tightened and walked into the room. He saw five or six martial artists dressed like the one who had just stopped him asking for money standing in the room.

These people have bright weapons in their hands.

There is a knife and a sword.

One of them had a metal wrist guard on his arm with sharp teeth like barbs of wild animals. Extremely sharp, this person seems to be the leader of these people.

He was standing in front of the counter, shouting with Xia yunshang inside.

Xia yunshang saw that it was Xiao Chen.

"How did you come back?"

Xiao Chen had no time to elaborate.

The man with wrist guard saw a man and said coldly, "are you her man?"

"I am."

"Well, don't say we bully women. We're here to participate in the martial arts show in the five cities. Let's get some sponsorship from you."

"Sponsorship?"

"I don't understand. We don't need money to eat, drink and play here? You do business. How much sponsorship? Don't worry. We'll pay the bonus."

What the man said is true.

But Xiao Chen is not really stupid. The money is wasted on them. Let's not say whether they can win or not. Even if you lose, if you really ask for money.

These people won't return it. If they don't say it, they may beat you up.

But if you don't give it now, they will come every day unless you can't open the business.

Who can afford to spend it with these people?

To support their families.

Xiao Chen nodded and said, "how much?"

"Xiao Chen?!"

Xia yunshang had just been deadlocked for a long time. Seeing Xiao Chen asking, he thought he was going to promise each other.

"Five hundred silver dollars, temporarily. If the flowers are gone, our brothers will come."

"The price is reasonable."

"Hahaha. OK, you are better than this woman."

Xia Yunshang was angry.

"Xiao Chen, why did you promise him?"

"No, what if they smash the store?"

"I'll call the police."

"The police can't watch here every day."

"But..."

Xiao Chen went to the counter.

"Spend money to avoid disaster."

Xia Yunshang looked at Xiao Chen and took out five hundred silver dollars from her.

She stared at Xiao Chen.

"Loser!"

Xiao Chen didn't explain.

He walked out of the counter and handed the silver dollar to the man with the wrist guard.

"OK. Is that right?"

The man looked at Xia Yunshang and said, "your man is more sensible than you. Let's go."

Wait for these people to leave.

Xia Yunshang pointed to Xiao Chen and said, "are you still a man? Aren't you quite able to fight? Why, do these people scare you like this?"

"Miss, he is a loser. If someone else changes, they dare!"

Aunt Wang said and stared. Xiao Chen said, "go back and don't get in the way of the young lady's eyes here."

Xiao Chen could only walk into the back room with her head down.

However, he didn't really do any work, but walked out from the back of the hospital. Before going out, he took a piece of black cloth.

Bypassing the hospital, he soon saw the martial artists who had just taken the money. Xiao Chen covered his face with black cloth.

Followed several people into an alley.

"Boy, OK, dare to follow us in the daytime?"

It turned out that Xiao Chen had long been discovered by these people.

In the alley.

These people blocked Xiao Chen in the alley.

"Come on, what do you want to do?"

"Give me your money."

"Oh, it's still on the green forest road. OK, but you rob the money and don't see who we are." The wristband man reached out and shook his wristband.

This is actually measuring your identity.

Those who can carry weapons are mostly people in the martial arts.

Xiao Chen said faintly, "don't talk nonsense, pay and leave."

"I'm still a man without eyes. OK, brothers, let's be polite. If we catch him and send him to the official, we can exchange some reward."

"Yes, yes!"
