

My Evil Genius Wife

Volume 1

Chapter 13 - Xu Nuan is so sly!

Xu Nuan looked at Gu Zhang and smiled, ‘ Mr.Gu, do you know that the demands I have made, are very reasonable and I have to cut off many items from the list? ‘

She indeed cut her demands short. She was going to ask for a high brand car, casual and party dresses from high-class brands, and other few things.

For her, they were all necessary. After working her ass off, she has earned quite a lot and has formed a habit of spending a lot.

She never felt wrong while spending lots since it was her money that she had earned.

She has achieved such heights in her career that even her cousin, uncle, and aunt were jealous of her. After becoming famous, they asked her to come many times just to endorse their brand.

They know her face value and whatever she uses gets sold out and that’s why she is very expensive when it comes to advertisements.

Her company has earned quite a lot because of her. It won’t be wrong to say that her company was running because of her. The revenue she brings to the company, no other artists could do so.

Lin Ran furrowed her brows and said firmly, ‘ Xu Nuan, don’t be ridiculous. Your father is being gentle with you and you’re acting like a brat? You should be glad that we agreed to fulfill your demands. We treat you as our daughter that’s why we are giving you this much. If you wouldn’t be our daughter, we won’t be wasting our time and money on you.’ She said haughtily while folding her arms around her chest.

Xu Nuan snorted and glanced at Gu Zhang, ‘ Mr. Gu, I told you all of my demands. Since you wanted to settle this situation, I tried to do so. However, if you can’t fulfill my demands, you leave me with no choice.’

‘ Mr. Han, can you help me get the CCTV footage and call the police after that?’ She turned to Han Zihao after that.

Han Zihao, whose hands were folded in front of his chest and back against the wall, was watching the way Xu Nuan was playing with everyone.

He never thought that the timid Xu Nuan could be so sly.

Before he could respond, Gu Zhang panicked and said, ‘ Xu Nuan, what are you saying? I am just trying to find a common ground between us. I am ready to accept all other demands but can’t you ask anything other than a unit in glory building?’

Xu Nuan’s lips curled up as she replied firmly, ‘ No. This was my final deal. I want a unit in the same building, the least I can do is, I can take Xingren’s apartment. However, I need to move there after I get discharged from the hospital. Also, please arrange all the furniture and necessary items. This is the least you can do as a father.’

Gu Zhang gritted his teeth hearing her words. Since when she became so rigid? She is not ready to listen to his words at all.

He glanced at Xingren whose face was pale and frustration was written on her face.

He never thought that Xu Nuan could be this materialistic.

He sighed and said in irritation, ‘ Okay fine. You will get the items just as you have demanded. However, you will have to give me in writing that you won’t speak about this matter to anyone in the future. This deal has been closed for once and all. ‘

Xu Nuan nodded and said, ‘ I don’t mind. Now, if we are done, will you please leave? I am tired. I need to rest.’

Gu Zhang gritted his teeth and dashed out of the room without waiting for Xingren or Lin Ran.

Gu Xingren’s expressions turned dark because Gu Zhang has agreed to Xu Nuan’s demands. Is he going to buy a new apartment for her or is he going to give her one which he had gifted to her?

Lin Ran glared at Xu Nuan before pulling Xingren’s hand.

’ Bam’ Lin Ran slammed the door behind her before leaving the room.

Xu Nuan sighed when they both left. It was quite an introduction for her. She never thought that the day she woke up in someone else’s body, she got to witness this scene.

’ Haa!’ she sighed heavily thinking how eventful this life is going to be.

‘ _ _ ‘

She pursed her lips when she felt someone’s constant gaze on her. She slowly turned to the side and noticed Han Zihao who was staring at her with his piercing stare.

His posture leaning against the wall was lazy, his eyes were indifferent but there was something different about his gaze.

' Why isn't he leaving yet? The drama is over, shouldn't he make a move now?'

' Erm..Mr. Han, do you have something to say to me?' She asked hesitantly.

He shook his head and didn't say anything.

' _ _ '

She gritted her teeth and wondered why he didn't say anything. Just as she was about to ask him to leave, the hospital door slowly opened.

Feng Sheng entered the room while carrying two bags in his hands. She raised her brows and remembered that she had asked him to bring food for her.

A smile popped up on her face as she eagerly waited as she noticed Feng Sheng looking around in surprise while putting food on the side table. He must be wondering what is the result of the main argument.

He pulled the patient food table closer to her, for her to eat comfortably.

He arranged the dishes in front of her. She smacked her lips as her appetite spiked up, smelling the aroma of the food.

She was hungry but the delicious aroma of the food increased her appetite. Just as she has, asked if there was porridge and it seems that ginseng has been added to it. Along with porridge, there is fruit juice. Even though it's not much, however, it's enough for her.

She is hungry but she can't eat everything at the same time. She needs to eat less for her first meal.
