Chapter 1041: Radiance of a Clear Day and Darkness of a Cloudy Day

Now that Gray had eaten 14 fish, a question popped into Lin Yuan's head.

After eating so much, how was Gray going to void all that food? Would a pile of feces suddenly fall from the sky?

While Lin Yuan was thinking, Gray had stopped eating and said, "Dad, I'm so full! I'm going to fly for a while."

Lin Yuan brought Gray out of the Spirit Lock spatial zone.

'The Spirit Craftsmen working on the Submerged Flood Dragon Lake saw Lin Yuan.

Now, there was a young mermaid and a cloud next to him.

"Dad, it's clear skies now. I want to eat the clear weather!" said Gray.

Lin Yuan grinned.

'There was no way that he would be against Gray wanting to increase its power. He wanted to see what changes would happen after Gray absorbed weather phenomena.

Gray squawked, and a ray of light emerged from the clear skies.

Contained within the ray of light was all the loveliness of the clear skies, and Lin Yuan felt as though he was gazing at an unending stretch of clear skies.

Gray's cloud was originally around five square meters. But now, it looked more like a cloud that had descended from the sky and had expanded to 100 square meters.

As Gray absorbed the light, Lin Yuan could see the beauty of clear skies staining Gray's cloud.

However, Gray did not seem satisfied after absorbing the ray blinding light, and it continued to absorb as much light as it could.

The loveliness of clear skies within Gray seemed to grow heavier.

Lin Yuan knitted his brows, but he did not check to see what ability Gray had obtained.

No matter what ability Gray had gained or how strong it was, Lin Yuan would not be overly happy as Gray's cloud would gain the aura of that type of weather.

Hence, Gray would lose its ability to obscure itself.

If it had been a rainy day, Gray's cloud would stand out from the rest of the surroundings and draw everyone's attention.

Moreover, if Gray had absorbed rainy and snowy weather, it would become even more prominent.

However, Lin Yuan could not prevent Gray from absorbing weather as it would cause Gray to be unable to evolve.

After absorbing so much clear weather, Gray had evolved from Normal/Normal to Normal IV/Elite.

Lin Yuan wondered if he had mistaken or if the skies had become darker.

Gray was clearly delighted by the change in weather.

As the skies darkened, a dark gray ray of light descended.

Gray immediately absorbed the translucent gray ray of light.

Now, there was cloudy darkness within Gray's cloud as well.

Lin Yuan raised an eyebrow. No one could say that Gray was picky.

Even after absorbing the clear skies, Gray could still blend in in the sky.

But after absorbing the cloudy skies as well, Gray would stand out in the sky.

Lin Yuan used True Data to check on the abilities that Gray had gained from absorbing the two types of weather.

[Radiance of a Clear Day]: In an area covered by clouds or after changing the weather to that of clear skies, all the lifeforms in the area will be stamped with a clear weather imprint. Friendly lifeforms' light-type abilities will be able to generate more damage while enemies will sustain sunstroke, burning, and other negative effects.

[Darkness of a Cloudy Day]: In an area covered by clouds or after changing the weather to that of a cloudy day, all lifeforms in the area will be stamped with a cloudy weather imprint. Friendly lifeforms' dark-type abilities will be able to generate more damage while enemies will suffer confusion, fear, and other negative effects.

Lin Yuan was elated when he saw the two abilities as they all benefited him while weakening his enemies.<sup>2</sup>

Everything under clouds would be his territory, and the abilities could be used on top of one another.

With the clear weather imprint, he would not need to be afraid that the abilities would counter each other.

'The Radiance of a Clear Day was very compatible with Chimey as Bathed in Light would be able to quickly heal other lifeforms, as well as increase the damage dealt by Chimey's light-type abilities.

If Radiance of a Clear Day could become stronger, Chimey would not die as long as it had enough spirit qi and used its blood-locking and Bathed in Light abilities.

Darkness of a Cloudy Day was even more useful to Lin Yuan.

Although Lin Yuan did not have any dark-type feys, many of the Sacred Sword Wielding Queen's skirt laws were dark-type, and the Dark Death World was also dark-type.

Lin Yuan would be able to deal more damage when he used Night Crow Wither Attack with the Darkness of a Cloudy Day.

He also really liked the confusion and fear that accompanied the use of Darkness of a Cloudy Day.

Confusion would reduce the opponent's sense of direction, while fear would lower their fighting spirit.

Although these two effects would not produce significant effects during a group battle, they might be able to turn the tables during a battle between experts.

As happy as Lin Yuan was with these two abilities, he was still slightly melancholic about Gray losing its obscuring ability.

Lin Yuan saw that the dark clouds had gathered together, and it seemed as though snow was going to fall at any moment.

Chapter 1042: Spend the Whole Night in the Snow With You

The clear weather changed to cloudy weather, then snowy weather in the span of tens of minutes.

Such weather changes usually took an hour to occur. Thus, this quick development had to be connected to Gray.

However, Lin Yuan did hope that it would snow so that Gray would be able to gain a third ability.

Lin Yuan ignored the stunned expressions of the Spirit Craftsmen and instructed his Source Sand to create a chair.

He sat down on the chair and looked up at the sky.

The sky was filled with thick dark clouds, and Lin Yuan wondered if the snow would last the entire night.

Lin Yuan planned on staying here with Gray for the entire night as it absorbed the snowy weather. He wanted to see if the Normal IX/Flawless Gray would be able to gain another ability as it evolved toward Bronze grade.

Soon, feather-like snow drifted down and landed on Lin Yuan's shoulders before tumbling to the ground.

Lin Yuan took out his phone and called the Mother of Bloodbath.

After attending the Guard Ye Banquet, his address had been revealed to all the top factions.

Long Tu's loud and unabashed visit had drawn the attention of many veteran and top factions.

Now, there were definitely veteran and top factions that were snooping around.

The sky had darkened, but it was not night yet.

Hence, Gray's cloud still did not stand out as much.

But once it turned to nighttime, anyone who looked up would immediately be able to tell that Gray's cloud was different from other clouds.

Lin Yuan planned on instructing the Mother of Bloodbath to use its Blood Law to shade the sky.

If those snooping veteran and top factions were curious about why the Mother of Bloodbath was shading this area, they would not dare to break through the Mother of Bloodbath's Blood Law for fear of offending the Moon Empress' disciple.

After the call, there was a red flash, and the Mother of Bloodbath appeared beside Lin Yuan.

"Mother of Bloodbath, put up a shade above the Return from Faraway Mansion, Don't let anyone see what's going on inside," said Lin Yuan.

The Mother of Bloodbath immediately leaped into the sky, and its Suzerain/Myth I aura burst forth from it.

The Blood Law formed a barrier that enveloped the Return from Faraway Mansion.

Lin Yuan rarely bothered the Mother of Bloodbath. Hence, the Mother of Bloodbath knew that Lin Yuan must have a good reason.

It had already sensed the strange aura when Gray transformed.

At first, the Mother of Bloodbath did not think much of it.

But when the Mother of Bloodbath realized that the strange cloud was absorbing the energy from the snowy weather, its eyes grew wide.

Since it had the Sky Sundial Jade Spider bloodline within it, it knew more about Heavenly Family Feys than others.

Thus, it soon ascertained that a Heavenly Family Fey formed this strange cloud.

Judging from its aura, the Mother of Bloodbath knew that this Heavenly Family Fey was rather weak.

Evidently, Lin Yuan wanted to put up a barrier around the Return from Faraway Mansion so that no one else would realize that there was a Heavenly Family Fey present.

Could this Heavenly Family Fey be Lin Yuan's fey?

All of the Mother of Bloodbath's hair stood on end.

Lin Yuan's growth could only be described as astronomical if this were true.

It had sensed the aura of a Heavenly Family Fey from the Moon Empress, indicating that the Moon Empress had a Heavenly Family Fey.

But even so, there was no need for the Moon Empress to give Lin Yuan a Heavenly Family Fey as well!

Since this matter concerned Lin Yuan's Heavenly Family Fey, the Mother of Bloodbath could only tread carefully.

It put all its effort into activating its Blood Law and releasing intimidation to ward off all experts around the Return from Faraway Mansion.

Shortly after, the Mother of Bloodbath received word from those experts.

The experts were fearful of Lin Yuan's identity and hastily left the Return from Faraway Mansion's vicinity when they received the Mother of Bloodbath's warning.

Lin Yuan quietly gazed at Gray as it absorbed the snowy weather.

As the snowflakes cascaded down, Lin Yuan could not remember when was the last time he sat down and properly admired a natural wonder.

Back when he was at Redbud City, he would often sit by the window and watch the night scenery when he had time.

The ever-flourishing Return from Faraway Mansion was also covered in a layer of snow.

The snowfall seemed to be heavy, but it was spring, As such, the fallen snow quickly melted.

It was only when the snow that previously fell lowered the temperature of the ground that the snow that fell afterward would be able to remain.

After this heavy snow, the Royal Capital was sure to become colder, and the spring would also be delayed by about a week.

Lin Yuan suddenly thought about the plum blossom branch sellers.

This snow would definitely delight them, and they would receive business for at least two more weeks.

Lin Yuan felt extremely content as he stared at the snow, and he could not help but start to sing softly.

Although Lin Yuan was not skilled at singing, he could still stay on tune. Otherwise, he would not have been able to teach Chimey how to sing.

Chimey did not know how to compose songs, and it only learned the songs that Lin Yuan had sung before.

It had been some time since he last sang, and his voice was rather raspy. Nonetheless, his voice was steeped in the exuberance of youth.

The Mother of Bloodbath was surprised to hear Lin Yuan singing.

Love, separation, and steadfastness percolated Lin Yuan's song.

The Mother of Bloodbath could not think of a single person that Lin Yuan had been interested in.

It had also found out that Chimey was Sparrow Voice Loli Goddess and often listened to Chimey's live streams.

The Mother of Bloodbath had also asked Chimey where its songs came from, and the reply was always that Lin Yuan had taught the songs.

The Mother of Bloodbath suddenly realized that most of the songs Chimey sang were also about love.

Could Lin Yuan be a perverted hopeless romantic?3

The Mother of Bloodbath quickly shook its head.

This was impossible for the lone wolf Lin Yuan!

Chapter 1043: Jade Contract

Lin Yuan did not know what the Mother of Bloodbath was thinking. If he did, he would feel extremely wronged.

How was he a perverted hopeless romantic?

If he were, he would not still be single.

Lin Yuan sat in the snow for the entire night. He noticed that Gray absorbed both the snowy weather and cloudy weather together. There was no conflict between the two kinds of weather.

Now, Gray had evolved to Elite IX/Epic.

It only needed one more step up to evolve to Bronze grade.

The night was almost over, and the sky was slowly becoming brighter.

There was less cloudy weather for Gray to absorb. Instead, there was now more clear weather for it to absorb.

The sky was almost completely bright, and the snowfall had slowly decreased.

Gray was now Elite X/Epic, and its cloud abruptly expanded.

It now had three exclusive skills as well for Lin Yuan to choose from.

With this, Lin Yuan knew that Gray had evolved to Bronze grade.

Lin Yuan straightened his posture and solemnly looked at the first exclusive skill.

{Endless Clouds}: When the cloud becomes thinner, it can fuse with and control natural clouds to increase the area covered by its cloud.

Lin Yuan massaged his temple vexedly.

Previously, Endless Cloud would have struck all the right chords with Lin Yuan.

He had wanted Genius to use Connected Tails to connect Wen Yu and Gray so that Wen Yu would be able to hide in Gray's clouds and use Hear Heaven's Secrets to go out and collect information.

Endless Clouds would be able to execute this idea perfectly.

But now, with three kinds of weather within it, Gray was just like a blinking traffic light. If its cloud expanded, it would only stand out more. Hence, Lin Yuan abandoned the first exclusive skill.

As Gray increased its power, its cloud would also become bigger.

Lin Yuan moved on to the second exclusive skill.

[Flowing Clouds Nirvana]: The cloud will never fade, and its life will never end. If the body is killed, but a wisp of cloud remains, the cloud will turn into an egg that will eventually hatch and revive.

Lin Yuan raised an eyebrow at the second exclusive skill as it suited his needs well.

It was now extremely easy to spot Gray.

If it were attacked before it became stronger, it would likely lose its life.

However, Flowing Clouds Nirvana would increase Gray's chances of survival.

Lin Yuan decided that if the third exclusive skill was just as useless as the first exclusive skill or if it was unusable, he would choose Flowing Clouds Nirvana.

When Lin Yuan saw the third exclusive skill, he immediately started to guffaw.

[Uade Contract]: Condense every type of weather absorbed into a jade. The jade will adorn the feathers. Once the weather turns into a jade decoration, the cloud will no longer carry the aura of that weather. When the jade decoration is activated, every type of weather will turn into a jade beast.

The third exclusive skill solved the issue that Lin Yuan had been grappling with ever since Gray started absorbing weather phenomena.

With Jade Contract, Gray would be able to blend in with the other clouds and shield the Floating Island Whale and Dark Blue as well.

Moreover, Jade Contract also gave Gray a new fighting technique.

Gray would be just like a spirit qi professional while the weather types would become its feys.

It would be able to absorb different weather to evolve its jade beasts.

Now, Gray would be able to fight head-on as well by strengthening itself while weakening its enemies.

Naturally, Jade Contract also had its weaknesses.

Jade Contract would result in jade accessories appearing on Gray. The more weather types Gray absorbed, the more accessories it would gain.

This would make Gray stand out even more.

Luckily, Gray could also obscure itself in its cloud. As such, it would be difficult to spot it even with all the accessories on its body.

‘The jade accessories on Gray’s body would also make it easier for Lin Yuan to follow Gray’s movements.

After Lin Yuan chose Jade Contract as Gray’s exclusive skill, the cloud in the sky dispersed.

As it stretched further, it eventually covered an area of 1,000 square meters.

The silhouette of a crane with a sun-shaped yellow jade accessory, a moon-shaped purple crystal, and a snowflake-shaped blue crystal on it emerged from the cloud.

Lin Yuan knew that Gray was flying toward him, and he stretched his arms out to catch it.

He soon realized that it did not become any heavier despite having evolved.

After absorbing the snowy weather, Gray gained a new ability.

[Frozen Snowy Day]: In an area covered by clouds or after the weather has been changed to become snowy, all lifeforms will be branded with the snowy weather imprint. Friendly lifeforms will be able to produce more powerful ice-type attacks, and water-type abilities can also become ice-type. Enemies will be frozen, numbed, and experience other negative effects. Fire-type effects will also become less effective.

Lin Yuan did not know if it was because Gray had absorbed more snowy weather than clear weather and cloudy weather, but the effects of Frozen Snowy Day were more elaborate than Radiance of a Sunny Day and Darkness of a Cloudy Day.

Lin Yuan immediately thought of Dark Blue.

If Frozen Snowy Day could turn water-type abilities into ice-type, when Dark Blue used Halted Flow, the waterfall that descended would become a mountain of ice instead..

Chapter 1044: The Person with the Elemental Shellfish is Here

‘The pillars of water would disperse upon impact and lose much of their force.

However, the pillars of ice would focus all their impact on one spot and cause maximum damage.

Dark Blue could even manipulate the end so that it was pointed and sharp, turning the pillar of ice into an enormous arrow.

Lin Yuan was looking forward to seeing Gray and Dark Blue work together.

As Gray wiggled about in Lin Yuan’s arms, he said, “Gray, use Jade Contract and summon all the jade beasts.”

Gray immediately flew out of Lin Yuan’s arms, and the three jade decorations on its body lit up.

Soon, an avian-type fey with flames for a tail emerged from the sun-shaped yellow jade.

'A deer-shaped fey with black patterns and purple stripes emerged from the moon-shaped purple jade.

A turtle-species fey with ice crystals all over its body emerged from the snowflake-shaped blue jade.

Lin Yuan noticed that the flaming bird was strongly geared toward combat while the deer-shaped fey had strong controlling abilities, and the turtle-species fey could use the ice crystals for defense.

Although Gray had only obtained three types of weather, it was already prepped for offense and defense.

But since Gray's grade was not high and had not absorbed much weather, the jade beasts were not very strong.

Nonetheless, Gray's powers already far exceeded that of other Silver feys.

No wonder Gray was a Heavenly Family Fey—it was so strong!

Lin Yuan carefully looked through Gray's True Data.

[Fey Name]: Sky Clouded Crane

[Bey Species]: Crane species/Red Crane species

[Spirit-Lifeform Grade]: Bronze (1/10)

[Fey Type]: Natural

(Fey Quality): Normal

Abilities:

{Cloudy Weather}: The body will present itself as a cloud and will be compatible with any weather. The body can absorb the weather. Once the weather is absorbed into the cloud, it will become a new ability. No new abilities will come from evolution.

[Radiance of a Clear Day]: In an area covered by clouds or after changing the weather to that of clear skies, all the lifeforms in the area will be stamped with a clear weather imprint. Friendly lifeforms' light-type abilities will be able to generate more damage while enemies will sustain sunstroke, burning, and other negative effects.

[Darkness of a Cloudy Day]: In an area covered by clouds or after changing the weather to that of a cloudy day, all lifeforms in the area will be stamped with a cloudy weather imprint. Friendly lifeforms' dark-type abilities will be able to generate more damage while enemies will suffer confusion, fear, and other negative effects.

[Frozen Snowy Day]: In an area covered by clouds or after the weather has been changed to become snowy, all lifeforms will be branded with the snowy weather imprint. Friendly lifeforms will be able to produce more powerful ice-type attacks, and water-type abilities can also become ice-type. Enemies will be frozen, numbed, and experience other negative effects. Fire-type effects will also become less effective.

Exclusive Skill:

[Jade Contract]: Condense every type of weather absorbed into a jade. The jade will adorn the feathers. Once the weather turns into a jade decoration, the cloud will no longer carry the aura of that weather. When the jade decoration is activated, every type of weather will turn into a jade beast.

According to True Data, Gray was still only Normal quality.

However, Lin Yuan was not worried as its quality would increase once it absorbed more weather.

Now that Gray had Jade Contract, it would not stand out as much when it was a cloud.

Lin Yuan instructed Gray to stay above the Return from Faraway Mansion to continue absorbing the clear weather.

After Gray flew to the sky, the Mother of Bloodbath was also free to leave.

'The Mother of Bloodbath returned to the training room to absorb the blood energy in the Blood Brew Grapes.

Lin Yuan sat back on the seat and could not help but face reality. He cupped his chin with his hand as he started to brood.

'When he had more than enough heavenly-maiden-grade elemental pearls at his disposal, he could always proceed with confidence.

He had promised to supply the faction he was starting with Zong Ze, Gu Lang, Long Tao, and the rest with all the high-class Creation Master resources and heavenly-maiden-grade elemental pearls they needed.

Lin Yuan had always told Yin Lin that she could order as many heavenly-maiden-grade elemental pearls as she needed when she came over to trade.

The Listening Heron Chamber of Commerce's role was luxury goods, and they would also need a significant number of heavenly-maiden-grade elemental pearls.

When Lu Pinru and Wen Yu were establishing Pinru's Home, Lin Yuan had also suggested to Wen Yu to provide custom services and add heavenly-maiden-grade elemental pearls as accessories on the spirit qi clothes to increase their value.

Lin Yuan had also allowed Listen to manage the Purchase With No Loss store, and he needed to provide heavenly-maiden-grade elemental pearls every day as the group welfare.

Moreover, the Floating Island Whale, Dark Blue, and Kill Food Sky Butterfly needed large numbers of elemental pearls each.

Currently, Lin Yuan needed to supply a mountain of elemental pearls.

Now that Gray had transformed into a Heavenly Family Fey, Lin Yuan had no more heavenly-maiden-grade elemental pearls.

Although the seven Bronze/Legend Elemental Shellfish were continuously producing elemental pearls, their production rate was clearly lacking.

The Spirit Lock spatial zone had recently evolved, and the concentration of spirit qi had increased to the point that it was far more than what the Spirit Lock spatial zone required. Hence, Lin Yuan decided to obtain a few more infant Elemental Shellfish.

But in a previous phone call, Gao Feng had said that the wave of spirit qi that had flowed out of the water world dimensional rift had evolved all the infant Elemental Shellfish to Explosive Pearl Shellfish.

As such, it was extremely difficult to obtain infant Elemental Shellfish now.

This was the reason the price of heavenly-maiden-grade elemental pearls had inflated recently.

He let out a sigh.

“No matter how difficult it is to obtain Elemental Shellfish, I have to get my hands on some.”

If he could obtain another seven Bronze/Legend Elemental Shellfish in the Spirit Lock spatial zone, he would be able to double the production of heavenly-maiden-grade elemental pearls.

Even if he ran out of elemental pearls again in the future, he should be able to recoup his stock quickly.

While Lin Yuan was trying to find a way to obtain the infant Elemental Shellfish, his phone rang.

‘When he saw who was calling, Lin Yuan immediately grinned.

It was the person who would give him the infant Elemental Shellfish!

Chapter 1045: Heavenly Family Cottage

Just as Lin Yuan was about to pick up the call, Gray’s continuous absorption of the weather resulted in all the members of royalty in the imperial court and the veteran thearch-class experts frowning as they looked up at the sky.

At the Spirit Guards’ land, a woman wearing a long black skirt with a veil over her face watched as the weather turned from snowfall at night to clear skies in the morning and said, “All the good weather has gathered above the Royal Capital. Is it possible that a Heavenly Family Fey has appeared and is attracting all this good weather?”

Night Leaning Moon quickly shook this thought out of her head. If a Heavenly Family Fey was really causing the weather changes, the results would have been stronger.

This indicated that the Heavenly Family Fey had to be Silver grade and below.

suddenly, Night Leaning Moon inhaled sharply.

She had witnessed Heavenly Family Feys call out to the stars and turn them into bullets that it shot out using its palms.

'When a mature Heavenly Family Fey was absorbing energy from the natural world, the effects would definitely be tangible.

This meant that the Heavenly Family Fey that was manipulating the weather above the Royal Capital had to have just hatched.

Night Leaning Moon smiled helplessly.

If there really was a newly hatched Heavenly Family Fey in the Royal Capital, the calmness that the Royal Capital was still enjoying meant that something incredible had taken place.

All the federations in the main world would turn their attention to the Radiance Federation.

Soon, the Azure Envoys would come to the Radiance Federation,, and events were sure to occur.

In all the chaos, it was likely that someone would use the opportunity to carry out their scheme.

The appearance of a newly hatched Heavenly Family Fey in the Royal Capital was not necessarily good for the Radiance Federation. In fact, it could be the start of a catastrophe.

However, the matter of the Heavenly Family Fey was serious, and the Radiance Federation would definitely do all it could to keep the fey here.

But, there was no way that the Heavenly Family Cottage would allow a newly hatched Heavenly Family Fey to roam free in the wild.

All the members of royalty and veteran thearch-class experts who had sensed the weather changes as well were sharing Night Leaning Moon's sentiments.

Moreover, some experts were investigating the Royal Capital.

Iron Prison and some other thearch-class experts circulated their laws, but all of them avoided the Return From Faraway Mansion.

Ever since Lin Yuan had become the champion of the Martial Arts Stage at the Guard Ye Banquet, his capability and status were known to all top factions, veteran factions, and members of royalty.

Iron Prison did not want to start any bad blood with the Moon Empress because of Lin Yuan.

None of the thearch-class experts from top factions dared look into the mansion where the Moon Empress' disciple lived as it would be no better than trespassing.

Hence, Gray avoided being spotted by the experts who noticed the weather changes.

However, Lin Yuan was completely oblivious to the fact that the experts had noticed the weather changes.

Currently, all was quiet in the Royal Capital. But a few hours ago, as night had been coming to an end and Gray had just been starting to absorb the clear weather, a strange expression came over a short old man in a cave of purple crystals.

He had a kind countenance, and with a wave of his hand, the purple crystals around the cave joined together to form a crystal ball.

Many purple rays of light appeared on the southeast side of the crystal ball.

The short and fat elderly man shouted in the direction of the cave's entrance, "Come here for a meeting. Something is messing up the natural power in the southwest direction. A new little one has appeared."

The short and fat elderly man trembled, and 12 slender yet flexible purple tails extended from him.

He immediately turned into a tall middle-aged woman wearing fox fur with charming features and a stern expression.

Her 12 tails had an immortal quality to them and seemed to be able to disintegrate the earth with one lash.

As the 12 tails swished, stars began falling from the sky.

The falling stars landed on the purple crystal ball, and the area where the natural power had been messed up lit up with the image of the sun, dark clouds, and snowflakes.

The middle-aged woman looked surprised and murmured, "This little one sure is interesting, It actually absorbed three types of natural power."

While the middle-aged woman was receiving information from the crystal ball, the lotus leaves on the lotus pond outside the crystal cave started to move as the water underneath rippled.

A blooming blue lotus flower stopped absorbing natural power from the water.

The lotus flower spun and transformed into a beautiful girl with waist-length blue hair.

She plucked a few persimmons from the growing tree next to the pond and washed them in the pond before stuffing them into her mouth.

As she ate, she walked into the crystal cave.

She managed to eat six or seven persimmons before she reached the cave, savoring the taste of each bite.

On a snow pine, a black silkie that had just absorbed the power of the night lazily tuned and transformed into a tall and sturdy man wearing a netted vest.

He glanced down at his black fingernails and swept his black shoulder-length hair behind him as he smiled impishly, giving him an air of unspeakable charm.

He leaped into the air, and his netted vest billowed behind him like wings, carrying him toward the crystal cave.

A large red and gold spider was resting on a giant scarlet rock.

The spider was as large as a small mountain, and small specks of light dotted its red and gold body..

Chapter 1046: I Want to Raise Little Spiders With You

The specks of light became brighter on the body of the enormous spider that had been absorbing the sun's energy, and it soon turned into a tall and handsome middle-aged man.

His short hair was as red as rubies, and one eye was red while the other was gold.

His body glistened under the sunlight as though he had just stepped out of a painting.

However, there seemed to be a deep-set sadness in his eyes that even bled into the sunlight that fell on him.

The various lifeforms that had been absorbing energy from ice, lava, the underground, plants, and storm clouds transformed into human form and headed for the crystal cave.

17 different beings appeared on the island.

They looked like a slipshod crew that did not belong together.

However, all of them could absorb natural energy.

16 of them gathered together at the entrance of the crystal cave before they walked in together.

'The moment the 16 Heavenly Family Feys stepped in, the middle-aged woman wearing purple fox fur waved her hand and the crystal ball appeared before the people that had just walked in.

The blue-haired woman hurriedly gobbled down the last persimmon and burped before saying, "Sister Purple Love, the only places that are southeast of us are the Startling Lines Continent and Radiance Federation."

A thought seemed to strike the blue-haired girl, and she said, "Any of the three federations in the Startling Lines Continent is fine. The Divine Wood Federation, Iron Hammer Federation, and Great Lush Federation would never dare to stop us. However, things will become more difficult if it's the Radiance Federation."

'The man wearing a black-netted vest tugged his feather earrings and said with a raspy voice, "Sister Purple Love, is it possible that you're wrong? Last night, I also sensed changes in the weather when I was absorbing the night power. However, it was extremely weak. If it was caused by a Heavenly Family Fey, it's probably newly hatched. The birth of a Heavenly Family Fey will definitely result in severe changes to the environment that we would have sensed long ago!"

A persimmon flew toward the man wearing the black-netted vest.

"White Phoenix, Sister Purple Love's Star Prediction is never wrong! Although the temporary circumstance of messed up natural power doesn't necessarily have to have been caused by a Heavenly Family Fey, it has dragged on for so long that it's clear that it's caused by a Heavenly Family Fey absorbing natural power to increase its power."

White Phoenix was about to speak when a cold voice snapped. "It's enough that you named yourself White Phoenix despite being a silkie, but can you not cluck the entire night while you're absorbing night power? Don't you know that there are people sleeping?"

White Phoenix looked at his companion's dark eye circles before replying, "Okay! I won't cluck at night anymore!"

However, it was clear that he was not being sincere.

His joke angered everyone present.

Just as a fight was about to break out, Purple Love could not help but place her hand on her forehead.

After checking the time, Purple Love sat down.

If a fight really broke out, it would last for at least an hour.

The bickering was giving her a headache, so Purple Love used two of her purple fluffy tails to cover her ears.

An hour later, she removed her tails and said, "Now that you're done fighting, let's begin the meeting."

The red-haired man who had been quiet until now immediately said, "I haven't been sent out on a mission for some time. Let me be the one to bring the new Heavenly Family Fey back. Since the destinations are the Radiance Federation and Startling Lines Continent, I'll be able to visit Jade Sundial as well."

The red-haired man's sorrowful feelings intensified.

Purple Love looked nostalgic and reluctant. "Blood New Moon, you might not have started out as a Heavenly Family Fey but ever since you fused with Sister Jade Sundial's bloodline, you became just like one of us. I should have no problems with you going, but you just underwent a bloodline transformation and your power hasn't recovered. Why don't you wait until your power has recovered before you head to the lava zone in the Radiance Federation to see Sister Jade Sundial?"

Blood New Moon lowered his head, and the pain in his eyes turned misty.

He was originally the Blood-Red Bird Catching Spider, but due to his great talent, his bloodline was activated to its peak when he evolved to Myth Breed. He was a bona fide genius amongst the Blood-Red Bird Catching Spiders.

Although the Blood-Red Bird Catching Spider was one of the stronger spider-species feys, there was still a gap between it and the most elite spider-species feys, not to mention the Sky Sundial Jade Spider.

The Myth Breed Blood New Moon could not help but be attracted to Jade Sundial's aura, and he had charged toward Jade Sundial like other male spider-species feys.

The moment he had seen Jade Sundial, he fell in love at first sight.

Blood New Moon had been the nearest and the first to reach Jade Sundial.

However, Jade Sundial did not immediately eat Blood New Moon.

He did not know which part of him had attracted Jade Sundial as the latter allowed him to live instead of eating him to obtain his energy.

All of Jade Sundial's energy came from the other Creation Breed and Myth Breed spider-species feys that came after Blood New Moon.

Jade Sundial did not end up choosing a bloodline from one of the spider-species feys it had eaten. Instead, it had asked Blood New Moon to inject his bloodline into the eggs.

Blood New Moon could still remember that Jade Sundial had said to him, "You're very good-looking. I want to have little spiders with you."

That was the most romantic thing that Blood New Moon had ever heard.

'The most perfect way that high-grade feys expressed their love was to have offspring together and allow their shared bloodlines to carry on...

Chapter 1047: Fan Jianyi's Good Impression

However, during Jade Sundial's gestation period, she had met Tower Canon's Fifth Page Truth.

Jade Sundial had already been weak during her gestation period. But even if she had been at her optimal condition, she would not be a match for Fifth Page Truth.

Eventually, the Moon Empress and Chief Guard Ye had worked together to prevent Fifth Page Truth from dealing the final blow and stealing Jade Sundial and Blood New Moon's child.

Unfortunately, Jade Sundial's egg was still lost.

Before Jade Sundial died, she injected its Sky Sundial Jade Spider bloodline into Blood New Moon and used her last vestiges of strength to suppress the Sky Sundial Jade Spider bloodline.

Due to the Sky Sundial Jade Spider bloodline in his body, Blood New Moon had been brought back to the Heavenly Family Cottage.

After transforming his bloodline nine times, Blood New Moon and Jade Sundial's bloodlines were finally perfectly combined.

Each of the bloodline transformations was a brush with death, and it was a miracle that Blood New Moon was able to survive every one of them.

The ever-cavalier White Phoenix immediately turned serious. He grimaced in sadness as well as though he was also familiar with the feeling of having to separate from one's mate.

“Sister Purple Love, don’t stand in Blood New Moon’s way. He probably wants to see if he can find their child, Let me and Blue Lotus accompany him to the Startling Lines Continent and Radiance Federation.”

Blue Lotus was about to rebuke White Phoenix as she did not understand why her name had been mentioned as well. However, she swallowed her protests.

Jade Sundial had watched over Blue Lotus as she grew up, and Jade Sundial had also been the one to construct Blue Lotus’ lotus pond that was linked to the four seas.

‘When Jade Sundial had been gestating and left the Heavenly Family Cottage, Blue Lotus had made a fuss about being the child’s godmother.

‘The fact that Blood New Moon had survived was proof of his relationship with Jade Sundial.

Naturally. Blue Lotus was not going to oppose his desire to search for his lost offspring.

Even if White Phoenix had not mentioned her, she would have voiced her opinion.

However, Blue Lotus was slightly upset that White Phoenix had spoken on her behalf.

But now was not the time to fight with White Phoenix.

“L absorb water power from the natural world while this little one absorbs various weather phenomena. Snow turns to water after it falls. I’ll be able to sense the little one much better than White Phoenix. Sister Purple Love, you don’t have to worry. I’ll go with Blood New Moon to carry out the mission.”

White Phoenix rolled his eyes. As if Sister Purple Love will have to worry if I go with Blood New Moon! Stupid woman! How dare you step all over me!?

Purple Love was silent for a moment before she said, “Of course, I have no problems with three of you going together. Blood New Moon, if you’re so resolute, the three of you should just go together.”

A stern look crossed Purple Love’s gaze.

“Heavenly Family Cottage has no grievances with the world. All we ask is for a place to exist in peace. However, if you encounter a problem, don’t be afraid of causing trouble. If you see anyone from Tower Canon, kill them without hesitation.”

All 16 Heavenly Family Feys exploded with an intense immortally murderous aura.

“Hello, I’m Fan Jianyi from Cage of Brahma Insects. Do you still remember me?”

Lin Yuan raised an eyebrow.

The call from Cage of Brahma Insects was just what he needed, and he had heard Fan Jianyi’s name before.

After establishing Sky City, Lin Yuan had read up on information regarding the various veteran factions, top factions, and even rising factions.

Naturally, he knew the significance of Fan Jianyi when it came to Cage of Brahma Insects.

However, he had not been able to place a face to information he had read. But now, he was certain from the voice on the other end of the call that this was the silver-haired old woman who had the Creation Dominate Sky Snake Dove he had encountered at the outskirts of the Royal Capital.

Fan Jianyi had hesitated for an entire night before she decided to make the call.

Her hands were trembling uncontrollably and beads of sweat had arisen on her forehead. This call would determine the attitude that Lin Yuan had toward Cage of Brahma Insects.

If Zong Ze or Gu Lang had been the ones that Fan Jianyi had offended, she would not have been so worried about making an apology.

Since Cage of Brahma Insects had been depending on the Moon Empress, even if she affronted the Bamboo Monarch or Chef Supreme, the repercussions would not be serious as long as they did not specifically target Cage of Brahma Insects.

However, offending Lin Yuan would not only enrage the Moon Empress but also make them come across as ungrateful.

Once they lost the Moon Empress' support, it would be a challenge for Cage of Brahma Insects to increase their combat power.

Additionally, Fan Jianyi had called with a task in hand, which was to try and obtain the Golden Lotus Brocade Pearls from Lin Yuan.

'The Golden Lotus Brocade Pearl was a necessity for all veteran and top factions as it could change the style of the Creation Master profession.

Cage of Brahma Insects was already a step behind other factions, which resulted in great losses.

Cage of Brahma Insects which had been a top three faction for over 30 years could not withstand or wanted to withstand such a loss.

No one wanted to return to earth after becoming accustomed to being amongst the clouds.

Fan Jianyi said in a quivering voice, "Young Lord, you called me first and said that all visitors were guests."

Lin Yuan replied with a chuckle, "You're right, all visitors are guests. Thank you for giving Endless Summer the Sky-Covering Weeping Willow's tree core. It gave Endless Summer the chance to transform. Both Endless Summer and I want to thank you!"

Lin Yuan did not mention the Kill Food Sky Butterfly as he did not want to let Cage of Brahma Insects know that the Kill Food Sky Butterfly had evolved to Creation Breed.

Thearch-class combat power was an extremely serious matter to top factions.

If Fan Jianyi found out that the Kill Food Sky Butterfly had evolved to Creation Breed, she would definitely resent Lin Yuan. Her gains would definitely be unable to make up for her losses.

'When she heard what Lin Yuan said, Fan Jianyi's tightly wound nerves finally relaxed. She could not help but have a good impression of Lin Yuan..

Chapter 1048: No Time Like the Present

Fan Jianyi hurriedly said, "No, not at all. Cage of Brahma Insects was the one that lost the Kill Food Worm and caused you trouble. Do you have any time for me to visit you to express my apologies?"

Lin Yuan's eyebrow twitched

Fan Jianyi sure was smart. She pushed all the responsibility onto the Kill Food Worm and off herself.

Lin Yuan now had a faint idea of why Fan Jianyi wanted to visit his mansion.

If she just wanted to express her apologies, she could just say so over the phone.

But since she wanted to visit him personally, it meant that she wanted to show her sincerity as well as discuss business.

The only things Lin Yuan had that Fan Jianyi needed were the Golden Lotus Brocade Pearls and pure Law Crystals.

There was no way that Coiling Dragon's Valley and Dark Clouds Bird Shrine would reveal that he had pure Law Crystals.

Hence, it could only be the Golden Lotus Brocade Pearls that Fan Jianyi wanted.

Lin Yuan needed Elemental Shellfish badly and was waiting for someone to trade with him.

"All visitors are guests. If you're willing to visit, I'll welcome you with open arms!"

Fan Jianyi replied enthusiastically, "Young Lord, do you have any time today or tomorrow?"

"Just call me Lin Yuan. There's no time like the present. It's clear skies all around today, so there's no better time to entertain guests," replied Lin Yuan.

Lin Yuan would not have wanted Fan Jianyi to come tomorrow.

In just a day's time, a fair number of elemental pearls would be produced in the Spirit Lock spatial zone.

Lin Yuan, who no longer had any elemental pearls after Gray transformed into a Heavenly Family Fey, did not want to waste a single elemental pearl.

His friendliness made Fan Jianyi excited.

Cage of Brahma Insects had already prepared the gift they were going to give to Lin Yuan as an apology, and all she needed to do was deliver it.

Lin Yuan stretched out on the sofa as he calculated how many Golden Flower Brocade Pearls were worth one infant Elemental Shellfish.

Although there was no guarantee that the Cage of Brahma Insects would have infant Elemental Shellfish, it would be easy for them to use their position and power to obtain infant Elemental Shellfish from other factions.

Thus, by trading with Cage of Brahma Insects, Lin Yuan would essentially be trading with all the top and veteran factions in the Radiance Federation.

At first, Lin Yuan only wanted seven or eight infant Elemental Shellfish.

But since Cage of Brahma Insects was taking the initiative to visit him, he would not waste this opportunity.

Lin Yuan planned on trading for as many Elemental Shellfish as he could.

After the Spirit Lock spatial zone evolved, he tried his best to make full use of the space by filling it with shelves full of wood and coral jades.

For the wood to become jade-textured and the coral jade to become spotted, a large amount of spirit gi was required.

Although the Spirit Lock spatial zone was packed to the brim, it did not use the full amount of spirit qi that the spirit pool was releasing.

Gray, who used to require a large amount of spirit qi, no longer needed as much anymore.

Hence, Lin Yuan planned on obtaining as many Elemental Shellfish as possible to use up the excess spirit qi. Otherwise, the high concentration of spirit qi would be wasted.

Since the high concentration of spirit qi did not exist anywhere else, Lin Yuan was not going to waste any of it.

The high concentration of spirit gi was Lin Yuan's ticket to obtaining resources.

Both Qin Lun and Qin Yu needed the Polar Night Blue Sky Scorpion, and Lin Yuan planned on asking Cage of Brahma Insects if they had any.

He had not used the Jasmine Lily's Severed Limbs Growth to activate the Polar Night Blue Sky Scorpion bloodline inside Qin Yu to awaken his beast pattern.

Qin Yu was young and in no rush. However, Qin Lun had awakened his beast pattern and had reached 16-years-old.

Without the Polar Night Blue Sky Scorpion, Qin Lun would be wasting his talent.

Lin Yuan had accepted Qin Lun into Sky City. Hence, he did not want to see Qin Lun's talent go to waste.

While Lin Yuan and Fan Jianyi were talking, the snow that had fallen in the Return from Faraway Mansion had mostly melted.

As he padded through the snow and gazed at the strips of green that were already poking through, Lin Yuan felt energized despite having been up all night.

'Wen Yu had used the Cinnabar Sweet Osmanthus' flower buds, the Bronze/Legend Golden Curtain Peony's leaves, and the Sunlight King Lotus' sunlight dipped dew drops to create Cinnabar Peony Tea.

Although the Cinnabar Peony Tea was not as refreshing as the Three Treasures Tea, it had the fragrance of osmanthus and peony.

One sip of the tea and one would feel as though they were bathing in flowers.

'The Osmanthus Peony Tea could be served to Fan Jianyi.

Lin Yuan thought about the way Fan Jianyi had spoken to him, and he shrugged.

He was afraid that Fan Jianyi would beat around the bush and be too embarrassed to bring up the Golden Lotus Brocade Pearls.

Lin Yuan placed one Golden Lotus Brocade Pearl on the jade-textured coffee table as an obvious prompt. Fan Jianyi would definitely ask him about the Golden Lotus Brocade Pearls when she saw it.

Lin Yuan had placed only one Golden Lotus Brocade Pearl on the coffee table and not multiple because he knew that the rarest items were the most valuable.

With only one Golden Lotus Brocade Pearl, Fan Jianyi would be able to gauge the price of the Golden Lotus Brocade Pearl for herself to see how many Elemental Shellfiss were worth one Golden Lotus Brocade Pearl.

No matter how many Golden Lotus Brocade Pearls were decided as the price, it would not be a problem for Lin Yuan.

Brocade Zither was the hardest worker in the Spirit Lock spatial zone as it nurtured Golden Lotus Brocade Pearls endlessly.

Now, Lin Yuan had close to 100 Golden Lotus Brocade Pearls, and he had more than enough to trade with Cage of Brahma Insects.

Lin Yuan returned to the mansion and made a pot of Cinnabar Peony Tea before bringing Gray back to the Spirit Lock spatial zone.

If he left Gray outside when Fan Jianyi, a thearch-class expert, came to visit, Gray's identity as a Heavenly Family Fey would be exposed.

Lin Yuan had heard from Mystic Moon that Cage of Brahma Insects depended on the Moon Empress's support.

Nonetheless, he did not feel comfortable with letting Cage of Brahma Insects know about Gray..

Chapter 1049: Hansheng and the Smelly Golden Turtle

After Fan Jianyi ended the call with Lin Yuan, she went straight to Fan Linglong and told him that she was going to visit the Moon Empress' disciple.

Fan Linglong finally felt assured.

Since his sister was going to the Return from Faraway Mansion to apologize to the Moon Empress' disciple, the matter would finally blow over.

As long as Cage of Brahma Insects could keep the Moon Empress' support, all would be well.

'When she saw Fan Linglong's expression, Fan Jianyi relaxed. Her brother had been full of worry over the incident she had caused.

"Linglong, I plan on bringing Hansheng with you to the Return from Faraway Mansion. He's the top young member acknowledged by the Elders of Cage of Brahma Insects, and he's being brought up to become the next leader. It'll be a good opportunity for him to meet the Moon Empress' disciple."

Fan Linglong started to ponder Fan Jianyi's words.

Fan Linglong was extremely pleased with Fan Hansheng.

Although he was only 23 years old, Fan Hansheng stood out amongst the young members, and he was filled with a sense of righteousness that elderly people could not comprehend.

If Fan Jianyi brought Fan Hansheng to see the Moon Empress' disciple and accidentally displeased the Moon Empress' disciple, this opportunity would not only be wasted but the situation would even worsen.

However, Fan Linglong eventually nodded.

Cage of Brahma Insects needed the Moon Empress' support, and they never had to worry about such matters when they were unaware that she had accepted a disciple.

Now that she had a disciple, they could pull their relationship even closer through Fan Hansheng and Lin Yuan's acquaintanceship.

After Lin Yuan drank two cups of tea, strange insect noises could be heard from outside the Return from Faraway Mansion.

He immediately knew that it was Fan Jianyi.

Wen Yu came downstairs when she heard the insect noises and said, "Young Master, the guest is here. I'll go and greet them."

Lin Yuan nodded.

He had told Wen Yu that Fan Jianyi was visiting the Return from Faraway Mansion when he was making the Cinnabar Peony Tea.

It would be best if Wen Yu went to greet a thearch-class expert from a top faction like Fan Jianyi.

'The moment Wen Yu walked out of the mansion, she saw nine insect-species feys with golden bells growing out of their abdomens in the sky.

These were Cage of Brahma Insects' representative feys that they had specially nurtured—Sanskrit Insects.

All the major factions in the Radiance Federation knew that the appearance of the Sanskrit Insects meant that Cage of Brahma Insects was out on business.

Cage of Brahma Insects' Sanskrit Insect fey carriages were divided into ten ranks.

The fey carriage with 10 Sanskrit Insects was only used when they went to the Leaning Moon Mountain to visit the Moon Empress.

By using 9 Sanskrit Insects to pull the fey carriage, this meant that Cage of Brahma Insects was trying to express their greatest sincerity.

Fan Jianyi instructed Fan Hansheng the entire journey and he listened intently.

Fan Hansheng had to possess capabilities that the other young members of Cage of Brahma Insects did not possess to be chosen to be the next leader of Cage of Brahma Insects.

He had also attended the Guard Ye Banquet with Fan Linglong.

Fan Hansheng had already gained a deep impression of Lin Yuan from the beginning, especially when he won the Martial Arts Stage.

Although he had not stolen the spotlight at the Guard Ye Banquet, he had participated in the Martial Arts Stage.

He was still regretting participating in such a strange Martial Arts Stage.

He felt that if he had participated in the Martial Stage, he would have been able to win a prize.

Although Fan Hansheng was already a Class 3 Creation Master, he felt that his Creation Master ability was far weaker than the combat-class spirit qi professionals.

He had struggled considerably during the Arts Stage portion of the Martial Arts Stage.

Fan Hansheng had picked the topic he least wanted, which was to heal feys with wounded roots.

Unfortunately, one of the wounded feys had been a Gold Smelly Golden Turtle.

Its shell had been cracked, and its wings were tangled up.

Due to its pain and stress, it released its stench to protect itself.

After breathing the stench for close to 20 minutes, Fan Hansheng had been seeing stars and still could not enjoy the fragrance of food.

Just as he had been about to move on to heal the Smelly Golden Turtle, the Arts Stage portion of the Martial Arts Stage ended.

At that moment, Fan Hansheng had wondered if the top three were actually not humans as they had finished their topic in the time he took to finish less than half of his.

It was only after walking out that he learned that the first place was an 18-year-old young man called Lin Yuan.

From that moment, Lin Yuan's name was immediately carved into Fan Hansheng's mind, not to mention that he was dazzled by the fight between Lin Yuan and Zong Ze.

Lin Yuan's final attack had left Fan Hansheng utterly amazed.

After discovering that Lin Yuan was the Moon Empress' disciple, he could not help but regret not joining the group and becoming acquainted with Lin Yuan.

But now, he finally had a chance to get to know Lin Yuan.

Nonetheless, he was well aware of why he had come to the Return from Faraway Mansion.

Fan Hansheng started to think about what would be the best way to talk to Lin Yuan in order to leave the best impression.

'The moment Fan Jianyi and Fan Hansheng climbed out of the fey carriage, they saw Wen Yu at the entrance of the mansion.

Fan Jianyi could immediately feel the air of elegance and dignity radiating from Wen Yu.

Fan Jianyi was very familiar with this aura as every spirit attendant in the Radiant Moon Palace had it.

This girl had to have been a spirit attendant at one point.

If a spirit attendant was at the Return from Faraway Mansion, it meant that she had to be affiliated with Lin Yuan in some way.

Fan Jianyi dragged Fan Hansheng to Wen Yu and warmly greeted her.

'Wen Yu greeted them in response and ushered them in as she said, "Young Master personally made tea and is waiting for both of you."

Now, Fan Jianyi was finally certain.

Since Lin Yuan had personally made tea, it meant that he truly did not blame her..

Chapter 1050: Aren't You Fan Hansheng? I Know You!

Fan Jianyi and Fan Hansheng followed Wen Yu without daring to look around at the Return from Faraway Mansion's interior design for fear of coming across as disrespectful.

At the entrance of the mansion, Fan Jianyi and Fan Hansheng noticed a young man with a prominent aura standing there.

The young man beamed when he saw them like they were his old friends.

"You're here. Come in! It snowed last night and the temperature has dropped. Have a cup of warm tea to warm yourselves."

The young man kept a smile on his face as he spoke. He walked over to the water rhinoceros leather sofa and poured out two cups of steaming fragrant tea.

Lin Yuan's friendliness immediately set Fan Jianyi and Fan Hansheng at ease.

Inside the mansion, a jade-textured golden furnace that glinted under the light was puffing out rings of smoke.<sup>1</sup>

Fan Jianyi and Fan Hansheng immediately knew that agarwood was burning in the furnace.

Moreover, it was not just regular agarwood. It was so fragrant that it had to have been jade-textured, or even completely jade-textured.

Although Fan Jianyi and Fan Hansheng dared not allow their gazes to wander, unimaginable opulence permeated all the decorations in the mansion.

Cage of Brahma Insects also had Bronze/Legend feys, but they had only appeared after Cage of Brahma Insects' pinnacle Class 4 Creation Masters evolved feys for decades.

The Golden Curtain Peony was a decorative fey yet there was a Creation Master that had been willing to evolve it.

The abundance of Creation Master resources that was seeping through the cracks of the entire mansion was shocking enough.

The Five Fortune Ranchus in the red sandalwood longevity fish tank were expensive, but they were common goods to top factions.

However, the three carp inside had eight different 'pure'-colors on their bodies, and each color represented the roots of all beings.

Pure yellow, pure red, pure indigo, pure green, pure blue, pure purple, pure orange, and pure black.

The universe's eight colors contained limitless energy—all life was set by the eight colors.

The eight colors produced six blessings.

Blessed patterns of the mountains and rivers were all prominent on the carp.

The eight 'pure' colors and the six blessed patterns drifted all over the three carp.

Fan Jianyi felt as though she was a child that had just emerged from under a rock.

However, she came from a top faction. So how did she not know about this?

This young man's wealth was beyond even her imagination.

Fan Jianyi drank some tea to soothe her nerves. But the moment the tea touched her lips, she swore that hundreds of thousands of roses and osmanthus were blooming before her.

After one more sip, Fan Jianyi almost started to cough as it finally hit her that the tea had been brewed from the Gold Golden Curtain Peony that was placed not far off from her.

She could not help but suspect that the Gold Golden Curtain Peonies was meant for eating instead of admiring.

Fan Jianyi suppressed her shock and glanced at Fan Hansheng who was staring unblinkingly at Lin Yuan.

Fan Hansheng hurriedly cleared his throat, and his hand shook before he handed Lin Yuan a brocade box.

Just as Lin Yuan was reaching out his hand to receive the brocade box, Fan Hansheng said, "My elders prepared this apology gift for you. I hope you'll accept it."

Instead of opening the brocade box, Lin Yuan placed it on the table and said, "Senior, you already gave Endless Summer a Creation Breed fey's tree core and a pinnacle Myth III Kill Food Worm. I really can't accept anything else."

This made Fan Jianyi slightly anxious.

The reason she had come to see Lin Yuan was to gain his forgiveness to ease her guilt.

His rejection of the apology gift made Fan Jianyi panic.

Lin Yuan noticed how determined Fan Jianyi was, and he immediately picked up the Golden Lotus Brocade Pearl on the table. He gave it to the standing Fan Hansheng and said, "Then, I shall treat this as your gift for coming to visit. This Golden Lotus Brocade Pearl is my gift to you."

Ever since Fan Jianyi tore her gaze away from the Mountain River Eternal Life Carp, her eyes had been lingering on the Golden Lotus Brocade Pearl.

Her fiery gaze made Lin Yuan all the more certain.

But since Fan Jianyi remained silent, Lin Yuan decided to help Fan Jianyi out.

Lin Yuan's actions proved to Fan Jianyi that he had many Golden Lotus Brocade Pearls as he could give away one as a gift without hesitation.

Normally, Lin Yuan could accept the brocade box without any worries.

But while Cage of Brahma Insects was trying to curry favor with him, he also wanted to establish a relationship with them.

Fan Hansheng looked at the Golden Lotus Brocade Pearl in his hands and gently pinched its leaves.

As a Class 3 Creation Master, he could immediately tell that none of the rumors that had been spreading about the Golden Lotus Brocade Pearls were exaggerations.

The Golden Lotus Brocade Pearl could truly change the Creation Master occupation.

When he saw that Fan Jianyi was still silent and had not brought up the matter of the Golden Lotus Brocade Pearl trades, Fan Hansheng said softly, "Lord Lin Yuan, do you happen to have any Golden Lotus Brocade Pearls to spare? Cage of Brahma Insects would like to trade for some with you."

Fan Jianyi immediately frowned.

We only just reached. Isn't it a bit too obvious to bring up the Golden Lotus Brocade Pearl trade so quickly?

Just as Fan Jianyi was about to provide a segway, Lin Yuan said, "Aren't you Fan Hansheng? I know you.."
