

Merchant 1211

Chapter 1211: Lin Yuan Changed Into a Mermaid!

Lin Yuan had pondered the link between source-type items and the dimensional world ever since he first found out that source-type items came from the dimensional hub.

The main world had never been able to come up with an accurate answer to this question.

Lin Yuan had even intentionally asked the Moon Empress about this when he first became her disciple. But all she did was smile and go on to explain the relationship between the dimensional hub and the dimensional world.

He did not know if the Moon Empress was unsure of the answer or if she felt that he had been so weak that there was no need for him to learn such knowledge.

This question had always troubled Lin Yuan.

At first, he had only been curious about the relationship between the dimensional world and source-type items.

But after he found out that sacred source lifeforms came from Class 5 dimensional rifts and that every sacred source lifeform possessed astonishing powers, he developed a burning desire to know everything about sacred source lifeforms and the dimensional world.

He had just witnessed White Speak kill the Dark Scorpion. The dead Dark Scorpion's totem had lit up with rainbow light and transformed into a sacred source lifeform.

Now, Lin Yuan finally knew how sacred source lifeforms came about, as well as the relationship between sacred source lifeforms and the dimensional world.

Apparently, sacred source lifeforms came from the totems of dead Apostles.

However, Lin Yuan did not know if the strength of the Apostle's faith power when it was still alive had anything to do with the formation of the sacred source lifeform. He would have to look into this matter more.

Another question had arisen in Lin Yuan's mind as he watched the fight between the Dark Scorpion and White Speak.

The hole in Dark Scorpion's neck had not released a significant amount of faith power. In fact, it had been less than 1% of the amount of faith power stored in the shrine in the depths of Lin Yuan's soul.

Lin Yuan started to ponder this point of confusion, and he quickly came up with an extremely likely answer.

He currently had three Apostles, Rising Lizard, Wendy, and the White Evil Marsh Crocodile.

Lin Yuan knew that Apostles needed to use some of their faith power in order to use their totems to accept believers. It was only after the Apostle accepted the believer that they would be able to draw faith power from the believer.

They also needed to use the faith power in the totems to change select believers into Favored Believers.

As such, Apostles needed to carefully plan before they decided to accept any believers or change believers into Favored Believers.

Hence, although the Dark Scorpion's faith power had reached below average and had unlocked its source sacred body, it did not have many believers and Favored Believers.

On the other hand, due to Lin Yuan's presence on Star Web when he was in the Radiance Federation, he could easily gain the admiration and adoration of others which would all turn into faith that would be stored in the shrine in the depths of his soul.

Moreover, he had many identities. Firstly, the combat-class spirit qi professional Black. Secondly, the Moon Empress' disciple Lin Yuan. Next, the owner of Purchase With No Loss store Deep Mountain Elder Lin. Finally, the City Lord of Sky City.

All four identities had their own fan club.

Although most of the fans in Black's fan club were male fans who imitated female fans' speaking style, the faith power they contributed was very pure.

All four of his identities drew a staggering amount of faith power in the extremely populated Radiance Federation.

This meant that not even 100 Dark Scorpions could match up to the power of the faith power he possessed.

Only two types of power mattered in the dimensional world, source-type power and faith power.

Lin Yuan was able to wield both of these powers.

Thus, there was no way he could not pass off as a Master.

The Dark Scorpion's totem shot toward the sky but was caught by White Speak in midair.

White Speak flapped its sleeve and stored the sacred source lifeform inside its sleeve before turning its gaze onto the Invisible Demon.

White Speak wanted to see what ignorant creature dared to release its aura during its fight.

However, White Speak spotted the broken white scales by Lin Yuan's feet.

White Speak's face fell, and its fury boiled over. Self-reproach and sadness were all also present on its frowning face.

The cloud that swirled around White Speak also started to cry as rain poured down.

White Speak had not used much faith power from the hole above its left eye during its fight with the Dark Scorpion.

But now, faith power was pouring forth from the hole above its left eye.

The pressure from the faith power shattered the shield that the Invisible Demon had formed with its aura.

In order to protect the lives of the lifeforms in the territory, Lin Yuan had to hold his ground against the might of White Speak's faith power.

Suddenly, he remembered Dark Blue, which had been in the Spirit Lock spatial zone all this time absorbing heavenly-maiden-grade elemental pearls.

By now, Dark Blue should have reached pinnacle Gold grade.

Dark Blue's Faith Application would allow him to fuse with Dark Blue and make use of all of Dark Blue's strength.

He would also be able to inject the faith power within the shrine into the Moving Source Water to strengthen its abilities.

Essentially, once he fused with Dark Blue, he would turn into water. He would not have to be worried about physical attacks in the liquid form.

Lin Yuan did not care that he would also change into a female mermaid once he used Faith Application.

In order to prevent White Speak from becoming aware of the truth, he did not summon Dark Blue out.

Instead, he entered the Spirit Lock spatial zone himself and used Faith Application with Dark Blue while in the Spirit Lock spatial zone.

Lin Yuan appeared next to the Invisible Demon again with Faith Application activated in less than a second.

However, no one recognized this being as Lin Yuan.

A body wrapped in tens of thousands of faith stood in Lin Yuan's place.

This being seemed to encompass every type of faith of every creature in the world.

A slender blue fishtail gently swished the amber waters of faith power.

The flowing faith power moved upward from the fishtail and weaved itself into a faith sacred garment.

Chapter 1212: Greetings, Lord Dictator!

The mermaid draped in faith sacred garment had an exquisite countenance.

This face still belonged to Lin Yuan, but all the lines on his face had softened significantly.

Previously, Lin Yuan's looks had been about an eight out of ten. It was his charisma that boosted him to a nine.

But now, his features were a ten out of ten, both as a male or a female.

Beauty or handsomeness were both inaccurate to describe his current countenance.

It was a description that could only be understood in terms of deep adoration and admiration.

Lin Yuan stared at White Speak, who had a look of incredulity on his face.

His long hair, which was composed of faith power, floated up, and thick faith power once again blanketed the entire territory and marsh.

The might from White Speak's faith power was like a weak baby banging against the shield formed from the faith power in the shrine in Lin Yuan's soul.

As White Speak took in Lin Yuan's appearance and sensed the faith power that covered his body, White Speak murmured, "F-Faith body? Lord Dictator!"

White Speak's aura immediately weakened.

However, its eyes still betrayed sorrow as it gazed at the scattered white scales by Lin Yuan's feet.

But no matter how sad it felt, it dared not make any move against Lin Yuan.

Dictators were like gods to Apostles, and it was an innate absolute authority.

Although White Speak assumed that Lin Yuan had killed its son, it could not help but keep its head low.

However, this was because White Speak had never been in the presence of another Dictator.

In the dimensional world, the rulers always kept themselves hidden and rarely even crossed paths with each other.

If any Apostle that had the favor of a Dictator spotted Lin Yuan and realized that he was not actually strong, it would definitely attack him.

At that time, it would be exposed that he was just a phony Dictator.

Lin Yuan's eyes shone as he looked at White Speak.

When he sensed the admiration coming from White Speak, he moved his hand away from the Extreme Token.

It seemed that White Speak was dumbfounded by him.

White Speak had ample experience in the dimensional world and was like an encyclopedia of marsh world knowledge.

After Lin Yuan and Dark Blue used Faith Application to fuse together, he gained superhuman sensitivity to water.

As such, he almost immediately sensed the White Evil Marsh Crocodile that was hiding amongst the branches of the Water Demon Support Willow.

The White Evil Marsh Crocodile's head was buried underneath the mud, and it was clear that it was terrified.

Lin Yuan looked at White Speak in confusion.

The sorrow in White Speak's eyes when he looked at the shattered white scales was not fake.

So was the White Evil Marsh Crocodile so fearful because White Speak was a strict parent?

Lin Yuan could not allow the White Evil Marsh Crocodile to keep hiding in such a situation.

Even if White Speak regarded him as a Dictator, it would be difficult to communicate with it if the White Evil Marsh Crocodile continued hiding.

Lin Yuan immediately yelled, "White Evil Marsh Crocodile, come out! I just transformed you into an Apostle! Why are you hiding?"

The Class 2 White Evil Marsh Crocodile heard Lin Yuan's call and felt the tug of Lin Yuan's faith power.

It set aside its fear of White Speak and poked its head out of the water next to Lin Yuan's tail. It wagged its tail as it produced a gurgling noise in its throat as though it was waiting for Lin Yuan to pet it.

When White Speak saw its enlarged son, all sadness disappeared from its eyes and was replaced with surprise and anger.

But soon, the anger overtook the surprise.

If Lin Yuan were not present, White Speak would have started to beat the White Evil Marsh Crocodile.

White Speak had always been dissatisfied with this talented son. White Speak was hedonistic and considered handsome amongst all the Marsh Crocodiles. None of them were able to escape White Speak's charm.

However, White Speak was only able to gain one offspring that had inherited its mutated bloodline. In fact, its son's bloodline was even better than its own.

White Speak had initially doted on its son. But soon, it realized that something was wrong.

Its son was always restless and took every opportunity to slip out of its line of sight. There were even times when its son would use its natural skill to camouflage itself amongst a group of Marsh Crocodiles.

This was fine as it could be understood as the playfulness of a child. However, White Speak was most outraged by the fact that its son had no interest in increasing its power at all.

White Speak had put its son through strict training in the hopes that its son would have a bright future.

Yet, its problematic son had been transformed into an Apostle by a Dictator.

This was such a miraculous opportunity.

With the favor of a Dictator, its son was now in a better position than it was. White Speak's anger turned into pride.

White Speak looked at Lin Yuan with admiration and gratitude.

When it realized that it was still in the air while the Dictator was on the ground, White Speak hurriedly flew down to kneel before Lin Yuan.

It lowered its arrogant head and said, "Greetings, Lord Dictator!"

White Speak's current attitude made Lin Yuan marvel at the reverence that Dictators received.

White Speak was truly and completely defenseless in front of Lin Yuan.

But given that Lin Yuan was a fake Dictator, he did not know how a genuine Dictator would react in such a situation.

After Lin Yuan did not respond, White Speak broke out into a cold sweat and wondered if the Dictator was looking down on it.

White Speak was a Marsh Crocodile that had become the White Evil Marsh Crocodile after its bloodline mutated.

It acted so arrogantly that it seemed that it did not care about its background. But actually, its background had always been a sore spot for it.

White Speak had encountered some Apostles in East Vast Large Lake that had the favor of Dictators. Those Apostles all had weaker faith power than it did. Yet, all of them acted high and mighty and looked at White Speak with scorn.

Chapter 1213: Soul-Stealing Lin Yuan

A lifeform's bloodline was decided by its parents, and it had no choice in the matter.

But if the lifeform received the favor of a Dictator, it did not matter, even if it was the Marsh Crocodile. No one would look down on a lifeform that had the favor of a Dictator.

White Speak badly hoped that this Dictator would grant it the dictator's prize, which represented the Dictator's favor.

However, White Speak knew that it came from a lowly background and dared not explicitly make the request for fear of offending Lin Yuan.

One of them didn't dare to speak while the other was at a loss. As such, they were both stuck.

Although the White Evil Marsh Crocodile was afraid of White Speak, it was still White Speak's child. The White Evil Marsh Crocodile had started asking for mercy on White Speak's behalf.

Lin Yuan looked vexed by the White Evil Marsh Crocodile's pleas for mercy.

At that moment, the Marsh Ground Sphagna said in its raspy voice full of respect, "Lord, this crocodile sure is greedy. How dare it kneel and ask for your dictator's prize!"

The Marsh Ground Sphagna sneered arrogantly at White Speak, "How dare you ask for our Lord Dictator's dictator's prize before even dedicating your loyalty to him?"

Previously, the Marsh Ground Sphagna never even dared to breathe before White Speak. But now that it had Lin Yuan by its side, it could be as pompous as it pleased.

Predator plants were at the bottom of the food chain. Although the Marsh Ground Sphagna had mocked White Speak, its words also served as a reminder.

White Speak immediately took out two balls of rainbow light and lifted them up toward Lin Yuan as it said, "Lord, the one in my right hand is the Dark Scorpion's source totem while the one in my left hand is a source totem I stole from another Apostle. I'm not sure exactly what totem this source totem came from. These two are my most precious possessions. Please accept them!"

Lin Yuan realized that sacred source lifeforms were known as source totems in the marsh world.

He badly wanted the two sacred source lifeforms that White Speak was offering. However, he did not immediately receive them from White Speak.

Instead, he nonchalantly said to the Marsh Ground Sphagna, "Marsh Ground Sphagna, you know quite a lot. What is a dictator's prize?"

It seemed like Lin Yuan was praising the Marsh Ground Sphagna, and it smugly said, "When I was following that stupid scorpion, it once used me as a carpet for its cave. It was then that I happened to hear some secrets regarding the dictator's prize. Apparently, the dictator's prize is a prize that comes from a Dictator's body. Every dictator's prize has its own abilities, and it can grant Apostles great benefits, and it's the thing that every Apostle dreams of obtaining one day.

"However, these are all just things I heard. I have no idea if what that stupid scorpion said was true. It's not like that stupid scorpion had the right to come into contact with a dictator's prize. Lord, exactly what is a dictator's prize? What can it do? I'm sure you know best!"

Lin Yuan's eyes lit up.

Suppose the dictator's prize was just something that could greatly benefit an Apostle and was completely separate from the Dictator itself. In that case, it could be said that Faith Water had very similar abilities to a dictator's prize.

Faith Water was a warm stream of water formed from faith power and could nourish a lifeform that relied on faith power. It could also enable the lifeform to rapidly recover its faith power and slowly increase the faith power in its body.

When Faith Water was distributed out then recollected, one would also obtain the faith power that the target which had been granted the Faith Water had gained.

Lin Yuan looked up at White Speak and saw that its gaze was brimming with admiration and pure longing. It looked like an ignorant fey that was yearning for spirit qi.

The moment that White Speak and Lin Yuan's eyes met, White Speak was lost in Lin Yuan's azure eyes. White Speak's face flushed, and it dipped its head.

White Speak's faith power was higher average, and its source sacred body was flawlessly beautiful.

The source sacred body was an ability that Apostles gained when their life rank was promoted, and it refined their life as a whole.

Hence, there was no ugly source sacred bodies.

White Speak had come across many Apostles' source sacred bodies during its travels in the East Vast Large Lake. It had even seen Brilliant Star's source sacred body once. Brilliant Star's source sacred body was considered the most beautiful source sacred body in the Marsh East Region.

Ever since then, White Speak had never forgotten that image of Brilliant Star that it had glimpsed from afar.

But now, Brilliant Star paled in comparison next to Lin Yuan. Its gorgeous smile and beauty that could rival the constellations in the sky was a far cry from Lin Yuan's soul-stealing emotionless expression.

Many powerful Apostles in the Marsh East Region had given up everything they had in order to gain favor with the breathtaking Brilliant Star.

If any of those Apostles saw Lin Yuan's faith body, they would not be as impressed by Brilliant Star's source sacred body.

Suddenly, White Speak had the urge to ask Lin Yuan to participate in the Marsh East Region's beauty contest.

The Marsh East Region's beauty contest winner won the right to live in Marsh East Palace.

But given that Lin Yuan was a Dictator, White Speak pushed this notion away.

Suddenly, White Speak sensed Lin Yuan's mysterious faith power surging. The faith power seeped out of the water and draped over Lin Yuan's body like a gossamer vest of faith power.

The vest extended ten miles behind Lin Yuan, and the train was almost as large as Lin Yuan's territory.

Lin Yuan was also astonished by the might of his faith power.

He had never activated his faith power in the main world. Yet, he felt that he would be able to produce an equally large impact if he activated his faith power in the main world.

The might of the faith power should be enhanced by the faith power's close tie to the dimensional world.

Lin Yuan activated all his faith power now in order to use Dark Blue's Faith Water.

He had been rather unsure when he used Faith Water as he did not know if White Speak would truly accept it as a dictator's prize.

All of a sudden, Lin Yuan felt heat bloom in his chest, and a curved amber stream burst forth from his chest

Chapter 1214: Marsh East Circle, Palace of Everything

The stream of twisting Faith Water flowed endlessly out of Lin Yuan.

Lin Yuan silently tossed the Faith Water to the kneeling White Speak.

In spite of his cold expression, he was panicking internally.

White Speak received the Faith Water with delighted shock. It was as though it was gazing upon something incredible.

Lin Yuan's panic spiked, and he thought, Did White Speak notice something about the Faith Water? If it's suspicious in any way, I'll have to use the Extreme Token.

Just as Lin Yuan was about to use his spiritual power to trigger the Extreme Token, White Speak cried out, "Thank you for your dictator's prize, Lord Dictator! I didn't expect your dictator's prize to have such powerful effects. I'm slightly overwhelmed. Please excuse my behavior! You must be in a cycle. Please allow me to stay by your side!"

Lin Yuan's expression did not change, but he made a mental note of what White Speak said.

He did not understand what being in a cycle meant but could not ask White Speak about it at such a time.

Lin Yuan made a mental calculation of whether it would be worth it to keep White Speak by his side.

His conclusion was that it would not be best to keep White Speak by his side.

Although it would greatly increase Lin Yuan's combat power to have White Speak by his side, he would not be able to take White Speak to the main world, and there was no contract between him and White Speak.

Their current relationship was based on White Speak's assumption that he was a Dictator. If he allowed White Speak to stick close to him, it was likely that White Speak's suspicions would eventually be raised.

Lies were best left untouched. As such, it would be best if he kept White Speak at arm's length.

"White Speak, if you want to follow me, why don't you take over the Dark Scorpion's territory? Now that the Dark Scorpion is dead, its territory is left without a ruler."

White Speak looked disappointed by Lin Yuan's words as it meant that it would not be able to stay by Lin Yuan's side.

White Speak carefully took stock of the situation in the Dark Scorpion's territory and said, "Lord Dictator, the Dark Scorpion's territory happens to be right outside your territory. Anyone who wants to enter your territory has to first pass through the Dark Scorpion's territory. I will stay in the Dark Scorpion's territory to act as your first line of defense."

White Speak glanced at its son, who had been rolling affectionately around Lin Yuan to plead for mercy on its behalf.

He's truly my son. He knows that he has to stay on my side!

As White Speak thought about its young and blessed son, it said to Lin Yuan tentatively, "Lord, I plan on expanding once I settle the Dark Scorpion's territory. It'll be best if I manage to take control of the entire East Vast Large Lake. While I'm expanding the territory, it won't be convenient to keep White Pavilion with me. Why don't..."

Lin Yuan immediately knew what White Speak was getting at.

He never had the intention of allowing White Speak to take the White Evil Marsh Crocodile away as he needed a lot of help from the White Evil Marsh Crocodile in order to expand his territory. If White Speak took the White Evil Marsh Crocodile away, where would he find the labor to replace the work he had intended for the White Evil Marsh Crocodile? How would he be able to develop his underwater combat power?

Although he had already come to a decision, he did not immediately agree to White Speak's request. Instead, he asked, "Do you have the means to obtain source totems?"

White Speak hurriedly handed the two sacred source lifeforms to Lin Yuan again.

This time, Lin Yuan accepted them and stored the unknown sacred source lifeform in the amber-button-shaped Diamond Fey storage box, while the Dark Scorpion's source totem was placed in the Spirit Lock spatial zone.

Although the Dark Scorpion's source totem was wrapped in rainbow light now that it was a sacred source lifeform, Lin Yuan could still use the totem's appearance and the Apostle's sacred abilities to come up with hypotheses regarding what the sacred source lifeform would look like once it was contracted.

White Speak immediately spilled the beans on the situation, "There are two ways to obtain source totems. First, kill an Apostle that can unleash its source sacred body. Once it's dead, it will leave behind a source totem that corresponds to its totem. The other method is to the Marsh East Circle, where only Apostles are allowed to enter and trade with the Palace of Everything. You can take anything to be appraised at the Palace of Everything, and a suitable price will be set. The Palace of Everything will then offer resources in exchange for the appraised item."

White Speak paused. But when it saw Lin Yuan gesturing at it to continue speaking, it gingerly went on. "The Palace of Everything is not a faction that is native to the Marsh East Circle. However, the Palace of Everything is ranked even higher than the Marsh East Palace where the 10 great Apostles live. Dictator Everything built the Palace of Everything, and it can be found in every region of the marsh world. Any item in the Palace of Everything that catches Dictator Everything's eye can be traded for a dictator's treasure."

From what White Speak just said, Lin Yuan learned how he could obtain sacred source lifeforms in the marsh world.

It would be much more convenient to obtain sacred source lifeforms in the marsh world than waiting for a Class 5 dimensional rift to open in the main world.

Additionally, White Speak also confirmed Lin Yuan's hypothesis that Apostles that had below average and above faith power would be able to unlock their sacred source body and gain a sacred ability. Once they died, their totem would become a sacred source lifeform.

Lin Yuan noted down the information about Marsh East Circle, Marsh East Palace, Palace of Everything, and Dictator Everything.

He knew that he still did not have enough power to enter the Marsh East Circle.

To be on the safe side, he could not enter the Marsh East Circle as a Dictator. Otherwise, it could result in a mess that he had no means of cleaning up.

Even the branches of a Dictator's faction could enter the Marsh East Palace in the Marsh East Circle.

As such, it was likely that there were no Dictators in the Marsh East Region.

Chapter 1215: The Hope of Exploration and Charging Forward

Lin Yuan's experiences today made him aware that the marsh world was not a mess dominated by warring Apostles.

There was a bigger and more perfect world waiting for him. It made him want to explore and charge forward.

He also found out where source-type items came from.

There were two ways to create a sacred source lifeform. First, Apostles that had yet to unlock their sacred source bodies would turn into source-type items. Secondly, when the believers and Favored Believers of Apostles whose faith power had reached below strong and above died, they could also turn into a source-type item.

It was more likely for Favored Believers to turn into source-type items than it was for Apostles.

This type of source-type item was known as a believer byproduct and was sold in the Palace of Everything.

However, it was not difficult for Lin Yuan to obtain source-type items in the main world. Thus, he was no need to trade for source-type items in the Palace of Everything.

Unless Lin Yuan encountered something like the Fairy's Heart, which had substantial strategic significance, it would be better for him to save those resources to go toward trading for sacred source lifeforms.

Sacred source lifeforms could not be bought with money in the main world.

Lin Yuan sent White Speak away to the Dark Scorpion's territory and also told White Speak to return to his territory once a month.

He would use the opportunity to learn about the situation in Dark Scorpion's territory during White Speak's visits and give more Faith Water to White Speak that it could use to increase its power.

The sudden crisis had ended, and Lin Yuan had come away with enormous benefits. He not only obtained two uncontracted sacred source lifeforms but also information about the marsh world.

He had been in the marsh world for a few hours, at least.

It was not difficult for him to use Faith Water, and he prepared some for Wendy, Rising Lizard, and White Pavilion.

With all the Marsh Crocodiles worshiping the talented White Pavilion, Lin Yuan had a huge incoming supply of faith power.

This incident made him aware of how important the faith power that he never took seriously was in the marsh world.

Dark Blue's power had been continuously increasing.

Given the current strength of his faith power, Dark Blue was already able to use Power Water Steal to consume strange water and change the elemental properties of the strange water into Willpower Runes.

However, it would be a long and tedious process for Dark Blue to use this method to gain Willpower Runes and evolve to Fantasy Breed.

Dark Blue was formed from the mutation of 12 balls of water.

As such, it needed to gain 12 willpowers from the 12 types of strange water to evolve into Fantasy Breed.

Lin Yuan also required an enormous amount of faith power to enable Dark Blue to comprehend willpowers from strange water.

Given the current level of Lin Yuan's faith power, Dark Blue would be able to comprehend two willpowers at the most.

What Lin Yuan needed to do next was to try to come up with a way to increase his faith power in the main world. From now on, obtaining faith power from the main world would become a long-term goal for Lin Yuan.

After he sent the 50 Hundred Questions Beasts to a breeding room and stationed Liu Yanshan outside, he gave each of the Hundred Questions Beasts a Diamond fey storage box.

He also assigned the fat ginger to lead the Hundred Questions Beasts in Genius' absence.

The 50 Hundred Questions Beasts would remain here to concoct various spirit fluids for Lin Yuan.

Once the Floating Island Whale took flight, he would be able to build a large resource storage on the Floating Island Whale's back.

Lin Yuan let out Feng Shuang and Elder He from the Jeweled Cave Golden Toad.

All the other breeding rooms were incomplete except for the one that the Hundred Questions Beasts were using.

It was impossible for Feng Shuang and Elder He to use that breeding room alongside the Hundred Questions Beasts.

Lin Yuan decided to leave Elder He and Feng Shuang outside to help with the territory's expansion and work alongside the 35 Spirit Craftsmen.

He also wanted them to assess the territory and make suggestions based on the perspectives of Creation Masters.

Given Feng Shuang and Elder He's experiences, they instinctively guessed that this place was a marsh dimensional rift.

But after careful observation, they noticed that this place lacked the characteristic spatial fluctuations that were present in dimensional rifts.

It did not take long for them to guess that this place was the marsh world.

They were curious about how Lin Yuan had managed to enter the marsh world. Could a Class 6 marsh dimensional rift have opened in his underground palace?

Lin Yuan did not have the time to explain to Feng Shuang and Elder He how they ended up in the marsh world. After all, all they needed to do was focus on working.

If they dared to slack off, Liu Yanshan and the Kill Food Sky Butterfly would teach them a lesson they would never forget.

With Feng Shuang and Elder He walking free outside, they would be able to help the Medusa Snake Demons look after Endless Summer's Barren River Orchid Bud by concocting spirit fluids to fertilize the soil and slowly improve the Barren River Orchid Bud's growth. This would increase Endless Summer's power.

When Lin Yuan did not assign Feng Shuang and Elder He any jobs, Feng Shuang flipped her hair and asked, "Lord, what should the two of us do now? Please instruct us! Elder He and I will definitely do our best to complete the jobs you give us!"

While Feng Shuang was speaking, her actions indicated her passion and determination.

She had been indignant that Lin Yuan had assigned Hu Tian as their manager.

Now that Hu Tian was back at the underground palace in the Divine Wood Federation, Feng Shuang felt that this was her chance to prove herself.

She felt that she was a more likely candidate to earn Lin Yuan's favor than the quiet Elder He.

Lin Yuan did not tell her what she would be doing in the marsh world.

Instead, he waved over the Kill Food Sky Butterfly.

The Kill Food Sky Butterfly instantly appeared by Lin Yuan's side.

Lin Yuan introduced the Kill Food Sky Butterfly to Feng Shuang and Elder He and said, "You just have to do whatever the Kill Food Sky Butterfly tells you to do."

Chapter 1216: Connected Beast Park Issues Another Blood Pact Ultimate Fight

Lin Yuan said to the Kill Food Sky Butterfly, "I assigned a thearch-class expert outside the breeding room. You can send him out to do any tasks that involve danger. I have amassed many earth-type heavenly-maiden-grade elemental pearls. They should be enough to heal you."

He placed a wooden chest at the Kill Food Sky Butterfly's feet.

With a wave of his hand, earth-type heavenly-maiden-grade elemental pearls filled the wooden chest almost to the brim.

Lin Yuan bent down and looked through the wooden chest. He eventually picked out the Over the Rail Coral elemental pearls.

He did not find any Heavenly Maiden Sleet elemental pearls.

Feng Shuang and Elder He were stunned when they saw the chest full of earth-type heavenly-maiden-grade elemental pearls.

Three questions popped into their heads.

Since when did heavenly-maiden-grade elemental pearls become available by the chestful? How much is that chest of earth-type heavenly-maiden-grade elemental pearls worth? How many elemental pearls does the City Lord have in his possession!?

The Kill Food Sky Butterfly was only slightly shocked when Lin Yuan produced even more heavenly-maiden-grade elemental pearls.

It looked at Liu Yanshan before saying gently, "With these elemental pearls, I'll be able to reach Sovereign grade in less than a week. Leave everything in the marsh world to me. I'll send Purple Afterglow to fetch you if anything crops up."

The Kill Food Sky Butterfly was elated after Lin Yuan told it to send the thearch-class expert to do any tasks that involved danger. This meant that Lin Yuan cared about it.

Purple Afterglow regarded Lin Yuan as its father. This meant that he was the Kill Food Sky Butterfly's father-in-law.

It felt good to be cared for by one's father-in-law.

Lin Yuan always maintained a low profile. He only flashed his wealth for Feng Shuang and Elder He's sake. He wanted to squash all hints of inappropriate thoughts that they could have and understand that their future would only be bright if they followed Lin Yuan.

He had slapped them but now was flexing his wealth in front of them as he needed to bait them at the right times to ensure they did honest work.

Lin Yuan gave Feng Shuang and Elder He two pots of Golden Lotus Brocade Pearls.

Feng Shuang and Elder He could not help but gasp. "Golden Lotus Brocade Pearls! These are Golden Lotus Brocade Pearls!"

Every top faction in the Radiance Federation was racking their brains to come up with a way to obtain Golden Lotus Brocade Pearls from the Moon Empress.

Feng Shuang and Elder He had been members of the Zheng family and had no authority to even go near something like the Golden Lotus Brocade Pearl.

However, Zheng Kaiyuan had made bold remarks which included the Golden Lotus Brocade Pearls when he had been convincing his grandfather to agree to the blood pact ultimate fight with Sky City.

From then, Feng Shuang and Elder He had yearned for this incredible item that was a treasure to all Creation Masters.

In spite of their shock, they were still confused.

Don't the Golden Lotus Brocade Pearls come from the Moon Empress? Is it possible that Sky City is connected to the Moon Empress? How else are they able to get their hands on the Golden Lotus Brocade Pearls?

Given that Lin Yuan had additional Golden Lotus Brocade Pearls to give to them, it indicated that he had many Golden Lotus Brocade Pearls on hand.

Lin Yuan ignored Feng Shuang and Elder He's shocked and suspicious expressions.

There was almost no chance that they would be leaving the marsh world in the future.

Even if they did stumble onto any secret, Lin Yuan would not have to worry because there was no one in the marsh world they could tell their discovery to.

Lin Yuan had a deeper intention behind giving the Golden Lotus Brocade Pearls to Feng Shuang and Elder He.

The Golden Lotus Brocade Pearls could increase the success rate and speed of concoction of their spirit fluids. This would increase Lin Yuan's Creation Master resources as well.

Now that he was done with everything he had to do in the marsh world, Lin Yuan left the Spirit Lock spatial zone through Klein Hub.

There was a time difference between the Startling Lines Continent and Radiance Federation. The Astronomical Parliament parliamentary meeting was about to start soon.

After he left the tent, he asked Hu Quan if he was ready to return to the Radiance Federation.

Hu Quan said no and asked Lin Yuan to bring more Spirit Craftsmen with him on his next trip as it would take forever for only five Spirit Craftsmen to construct the underground palace.

Lin Yuan stored Liu Jie back into the Jeweled Cave Golden Toad and walked deep into the underground palace.

He used a large number of spatial crystals and returned to the Return from Faraway Mansion through the Space Tunnel.

After another long-distance trip, Lin Yuan collapsed to the ground in a dizzy state that lasted for five minutes.

Once the dizziness faded, Lin Yuan smiled wryly and climbed to his feet. He shook his head and thought, I'll have to endure this pain of long-distance travel very often from now on.

He let Liu Jie out of the Jeweled Cave Golden Toad, and they left the basement together.

There was a Sunlight King Lotus planted every 100 meters along the basement. As such, the basement was as bright as the daytime.

Once they left the basement, Lin Yuan realized that the sun had just started rising and darkness still dominated the sky.

Liu Jie breathed in deeply and stretched as he said, “Wen Yu, the Mother of Bloodbath, and the rest haven’t eaten my cooking in two days. I wonder if they miss it. It’s still early, so I won’t return to the mansion just yet. I’ll head to the spiritual ingredient market to buy three Gold Shallow Stream Carp so I can cook fishball noodles seasoned with white pepper. The Mother of Bloodbath likes to eat chicken wings, so I’ll buy some back and grill them. The chicken wings will be done by the time we’re done eating the fishball noodles!”

Lin Yuan felt his saliva pool in his mouth.

He gulped and replied, “Big Brother Liu, forget about the rest of them in the mansion. I’ve been with you all this time, but I haven’t been able to eat your cooking either. I miss your cooking badly!”

While Liu Jie headed to the spiritual ingredient market, Lin Yuan returned to the mansion.

When he walked in, he saw Wen Yu was sitting on the water rhinoceros leather sofa organizing a stack of documents.

Her bloodshot eyes were a clear sign that she had not slept a wink.

She lifted her head when she heard sounds coming from the entrance.

When she spotted Lin Yuan, she looked surprised yet burdened.

She hurriedly handed a pile of papers to him and said, “During your absence these two days, many things happened in the Royal Capital! Connected Beast Park has issued a blood pact ultimate fight challenge to the Sea Bliss Clan!”

Chapter 1217: Time to Reap the Harvest!

Wen Yu yawned and rubbed her eyes. Clearly, she was exhausted after a sleepless night.

After Lin Yuan received the documents from Wen Yu, she could not help but murmur, “Since Connected Beast Park lost two veteran thearch-class experts to Sky City, the smart thing to do now is lay low and not cause any trouble. After all that has happened, all eyes are on Connected Beast Park now. They’re all waiting for Connected Beast Park to provide an explanation. Yet, they’re doing the exact opposite by being antagonizers. Are they really unaffected by the loss of two veteran thearch-class experts?”

A look of realization came over Lin Yuan.

He was definitely part of the reason the Sea Bliss Clan was in such a predicament.

He wondered if the Sea Bliss Clan was stupid. When they realized that there was a lack of Aurora pollen, they could have properly investigated the situation and found out about Sky City and Condense Fairy Orchard’s collaboration.

Yet, they immediately assumed that Connected Beast Park was to blame.

The Sea Bliss Clan had given Connected Beast Park significant grief recently.

The Sea Bliss Clan made use of Connected Beast Park's loss of two thearch-class experts to target them.

It was humiliating for a top faction to be targeted by a veteran faction.

The last time Lin Yuan had visited Connected Beast Park, he had given them Law Crystals that would enable them to create seven new thearch-class experts.

The new thearch-class experts would definitely be able to fill the gap in power that they needed badly as well as squash negative rumors.

Thus, despite laying low being the smart thing to do, Connected Beast Park chose to attack the Sea Bliss Clan.

They aimed to use the Sea Bliss Clan to build up their might again.

Miao Zhenshan was the head of the Miao family and could not participate himself as it would cause the Miao family to appear weak.

It was the same for the female thearch-class expert that looked after the Miao family's treasure vault.

Hence, it was likely that the Miao family would dispatch the new thearch-class experts to participate in the blood pact ultimate fight against the Sea Bliss Clan.

Lin Yuan had not informed Wen Yu about his visit to the Miao family. Thus, no matter how strategic-minded Wen Yu was, she would not be able to figure out the plan that Connected Beast Park had.

"Connected Beast Park has a reason for acting so boldly. Not long ago, they traded with me and obtained a few Law Crystals, which they used to gain seven new thearch-class experts. If they produce seven new thearch-class during a time of crisis, not only will their reputation be unaffected by the Zheng family's blood pact ultimate fight loss, but the other top factions will also be clamoring to work with them after witnessing their power. It might seem like they're targeting the Sea Bliss Clan, but this is actually all part of their plan."

Wen Yu's eyes widened.

She had been astonished when she heard that Connected Beast Park had challenged the Sea Bliss Clan to a blood pact ultimate fight.

It turned out that the mastermind was Lin Yuan.

He might not have been in the Radiance Federation, but he had still been the cause of the biggest piece of news in the Radiance Federation.

Connected Beast Park and Sky City were bitter enemies.

Wen Yu did not believe that Lin Yuan would stop at just helping the Miao family to gain seven new thearch-class experts as that would be against Lin Yuan's personality.

Wen Yu pondered for a moment before her eyes lit up, and she asked, “Young Master, Connected Beast Park helped the Zheng family in the blood pact ultimate fight against us. Although they lost thearch-class experts, they still haven’t compensated us. Are you going to help the Sea Bliss Clan in the blood pact ultimate fight against the Miao family?”

Lin Yuan smiled.

Wen Yu and I are on the same frequency!

That exact idea popped into Lin Yuan’s head when he heard that Connected Beast Park had issued a blood pact ultimate fight challenge to the Sea Bliss Clan.

He had helped Connected Beast Park increase their number of thearch-class experts so that he would be able to obtain the World Crystals in the bodies of the thearch-class experts’ feys.

The blood pact ultimate fight the Miao family was initiating would be a good opportunity for Lin Yuan to collect those World Crystals.

Since the Miao family had helped the Zheng family, it would not cause a stir if Sky City helped the Sea Bliss Clan this time. Rather, it would allow other factions to see that Sky City was a vengeful faction.

This would also allow him to obtain more faith power for his identity as the City Lord of Sky City.

Naturally, Sky City would not ask for nothing in return.

The Sea Bliss Clan had the courage to clash with Connected Beast Park because of the lack of Aurora pollen. The deaths of many Angelfish of Bliss had aggravated the Sea Bliss Clan’s emotions.

It was clear from this how easy loss could trigger hysteria.

But now that their lives were in the hands of another, the Sea Bliss Clan was afraid of Connected Beast Park, who was much more powerful.

Currently, the Sea Bliss Clan was desperate to find a way out of this peril.

“Wen Yu, we don’t need to reach out to the Sea Bliss Clan. Connected Beast Park might have lost two veteran thearch-class experts, but they still have Miao Zhenshan. As such, they still have the highest level of combat power.

“Other factions might be able to overwhelm them in terms of money and resources, but they won’t dare to take them on in a physical confrontation. When the Sea Bliss Clan runs out of avenues to seek help, they’ll definitely come to Sky City, which is Connected Beast Park’s enemy. All we have to do is silently wait for the Sea Bliss Clan to approach us.”

“Young Master, once the Astronomical Parliament parliamentary meeting is over, I’ll go to Sky City’s private territory to wait for the Sea Bliss Clan,” replied Wen Yu.

Lin Yuan shook his head and said, “Big Brother Liu has gone to buy fresh ingredients for fishball noodles. You didn’t sleep at all last night, so you should hit the sack once you’re done eating. We’ll begin the parliamentary meeting after you're done resting. The Astronomical Parliamentary meeting will sap your spiritual energy and take too much toll on your body to conduct it in an exhausted state."

Wen Yu smiled sweetly and said, "Young Master, please wake me if I'm not awake by 1:00 p.m. No one can sleep comfortably with issues weighing on their mind. We will suffer a great loss if my rest causes Su Yiren to miss the parliamentary meeting."

Chapter 1218: Sun Ningxiang Asks for Help

As the owner of the Astronomical Parliament, Wen Yu had also looked through Su Yiren's memories as Lin Yuan had done.

As such, Wen Yu was very keen on Su Yiren. After all, she was a Dark Envoy that was available to be controlled amidst the Dark Federation's crisis. This made her even more important than the Azure Envoy Yin Lin.

Yin Lin might be an Azure Envoy, but she was the fourth Azure Envoy and did not have the authority to dictate the events in the Azure Federation.

Su Yiren was one of the seven Dark Federation Dark Envoys that were chosen simultaneously in the Dark Continent.

If Su Yiren made her identity known during this crisis in the Dark Continent, she would have the right to take control of the Dark Continent.

In Wen Yu's eyes, Su Yiren was the equivalent of the entire Dark Continent.

Wen Yu understood that this long-term strategic resource was of the utmost importance.

She was so afraid of being late that she skipped eating Liu Jie's fishball noodles and headed straight to her room to sleep.

Once Liu Jie was done cooking, Lin Yuan, the Mother of Bloodbath, and Liu Jie were the only people at the table.

Listen and Zhou Luo were busy liaising with Zheng Kaiyan and taking over all of the Zheng family's luxury resources. As such, they were currently on their way to Indigo Azure City.

Endless Summer had gone with them to protect them.

Duan He was training with the white-clothed followers while Hu Quan was building the underground palace in the Divine Wood Federation.

Chu Ci had gone with Cold Moon to increase her power.

Hence, it was not possible for there to be full attendance at the mansion.

After breakfast, Lin Yuan gave the Mother of Bloodbath a fey storage box that contained the ripened Blood Brew Grapes and fallen old Blood Brew Grapevine leaves.

The Mother of Bloodbath received the fey storage box.

When it saw that there were several times the number of Blood Brew Grapes in the box than usual, the Mother of Bloodbath asked, “Lin Yuan, just how many Blood Brew Grapes do you have? Your Blood Brew Grapevine is growing way too quickly!”

Lin Yuan smiled.

This was thanks to the Fantasy V Red Thorn. Now that Red Thorn’s quality had evolved, the blood energy in the Eyes of Relinquish had also been increased.

Red Thorn now had three Mouths of Relinquish, and the number of Eyes of Relinquish had also increased by three times.

Red Thorn’s consumption and digestion abilities had also been improved. This meant that it could produce Eyes of Relinquish much faster than before.

Thus, the Blood Brew Grapevine, which was receiving many more Eyes of Relinquish now, could also produce a much higher number of Blood Brew Grapes.

“Mother of Bloodbath, I will be providing you Blood Brew Grapes at an even higher rate from now on. You should be able to reach Myth III soon.”

Lin Yuan thought about the 500 Spirit-Mouthed Peonies that were growing in the Pure Land of Bliss.

He was nurturing so many Spirit-Mouthed Peonies for the Moon Empress and the Mother of Bloodbath.

Gray’s need for pure spirit qi allowed Lin Yuan to learn the lesson of being prepared in advance.

The flowers of the Spirit-Mouthed Peony that were filled with spirit qi could be stored after they were plucked.

Stocking up on such pure spirit qi that could be used at any time would ensure that he would not have to panic if he ever needed a large amount of spirit qi.

The Mother of Bloodbath stood up and said, “Lin Yuan, I know I’m too weak to perform my duty as your Path Protector properly. However, I’ve still decided to go to the Divine Wood Federation with you.”

In the Mother of Bloodbath’s life up till now, the most exciting part was the time it spent in the Return from Faraway Mansion.

Lin Yuan was the one who made the Mother of Bloodbath aware that life was not all about increasing one’s power. Emotions could play a part too.

It thought back to the young man back at Millstone Town that needed its protection. Now, he had grown so much that he no longer needed its protection.

However, it still wanted to experience the life of adventuring by Lin Yuan’s side like it did back when it was still a small spider perched on Lin Yuan’s shoulder.

Naturally, Lin Yuan would not reject the Mother of Bloodbath’s request.

Besides, he planned on taking it to the Divine Wood Federation for its World Cleansing once it reached Myth III.

He hoped that it would be able to awaken its Sky Sundial Jade Spider bloodline and transform into a Heavenly Family Fey.

Lin Yuan returned to the basement after the Mother of Bloodbath left with the Blood Brew Grapes.

The walls of the basement were covered with Floating Silver Strands, and he cut a small piece of it.

Before he left the Divine Wood Federation, he had asked Hu Quan if he still had any Floating Silver Strands.

Hu Quan had responded that all the Floating Silver Strands were buried in the basement walls, excluding those that were set aside for the fey carriage.

Lin Yuan immediately set his sights on the fey carriage.

Hu Quan had invested a lot of effort into the fey carriage. As such, Hu Quan did not want Lin Yuan to wreck the half-done fey carriage by removing some of its Floating Silver Strands.

As such, Hu Quan told Lin Yuan that he had added additional Floating Silver Strands to the basement walls to prevent the walls from collapsing when under attack.

This tiny piece of Floating Silver Strand was enough. All Lin Yuan needed was a small piece that the Vein Land Imp could use to form a contract with it.

Once he cut the Floating Silver Strands, his phone started to ring. Lin Yuan looked and saw that the call was coming from Sun Ningxiang.

He assumed that Sun Ningxiang wanted to talk about the Aurora pollen when he picked up.

Yet, Sun Ningxiang was sniffing on the other end of the call. She started to sob when he picked up.

Lin Yuan might have faced many obstacles in his life but had no clue how he should respond when a girl was crying on the other end of a call.

He suddenly remembered that she had asked for Legend Muscle Growth Camellia when they first started working together. She had said that she needed it to heal her grandmother.

Only three direct descendants of Condense Fairy Orchard were left.

Sun Ningxiang could only be crying so woefully because something had happened to one of her two remaining family members.

Lin Yuan felt that it was more likely that something had happened to Sun Ningxiang's grandmother.

Her brother was too young to even form contracts with feys. As long as he was properly looked after, there was no way for him to encounter any danger.

As he expected, Sun Ningxiang said in an anxious and helpless wail, "Lin Yuan, can you help me contact the Moon Empress? My grandmother isn't going to make it!"

Sun Ningxiang's desperate voice and choked sobs made Lin Yuan's chest tighten, so he hastily replied, "Don't rush. Speak slowly. I need to know what exactly has happened to your grandmother."

Chapter 1219: Item that Even Members of Royalty were Not Fit to Use

Sun Ningxiang was momentarily at a loss for words. She was not even certain how many hidden injuries her grandmother had sustained from that incident.

When she had asked her grandmother, her grandmother declined to tell her for fear of making her worry.

Sun Ningxiang had been having a meal with her grandmother when her grandmother's eyes suddenly clouded over, and blood spurted from her mouth before she fainted.

Sun Ningxiang flew into a panic.

She was neither a Creation Master nor a healing-type spirit qi professional. As such, she was not capable of finding out what had happened to her grandmother.

She dared not approach any of the Sun family's Creation Masters and healing-type spirit qi professionals.

After that incident, the strongest Creation Master in the Sun family was only pinnacle Class 3. Moreover, she could not let anyone from Condesne Fairy Orchard know that her grandmother had fainted.

Although she had assumed leadership of Condense Fairy Orchard, her grandmother was the true anchor of Condense Fairy Orchard.

Connected Beast Park would have attacked the Sun family without her grandmother's thearch-class power deferring the Miao family.

It was also possible that some unscrupulous people within Condense Fairy Orchard could start scheming.

Sun Ningxiang had once invested many resources in seeking out a Class 4 Creation Master and emperor-class healing-class spirit qi professional to check on her grandmother's situation.

In the end, both of them had said that her grandmother's situation had reached a point that was beyond help.

In her panicked state, Sun Ningxiang immediately thought of Lin Yuan.

Only the Moon Empress would be able to save her grandmother.

Sun Ningxiang and Lin Yuan had a personal relationship, but the way she was speaking to him was over the line and could even be considered offensive.

However, she did not have any other choice. For the sake of her grandmother and the future of Condense Fairy Orchard, she could only and had to plead for Lin Yuan's help.

Lin Yuan's answer would dictate the future of Condense Fairy Orchard and her grandmother.

When Lin Yuan heard Sun Ningxiang's muddled reply, he asked, "Your grandmother must have contracted feys. Were any of her contracted feys outside when she fainted? If so, ask them. They'll definitely know what has happened to your grandmother."

Sun Ningxiang sobbed even louder and replied, "Grandma's feys had all been summoned out. But when she fainted and vomited black blood, they all automatically returned to the spiritual spatial zone. Lin Yuan, what's going on?"

Lin Yuan's brow furrowed even deeper.

Feys did not usually automatically return to the spiritual spatial zone when their contractor fainted.

There could only be two reasons for such an occurrence.

Firstly, their contractor had recalled them to the spiritual spatial zone before they fainted.

Secondly, their contractor was on the brink of death, and the feys were forced to return to the spiritual spatial zone. This state was known as the 'trapped state' by Creation Masters.

If Sun Ningxiang's grandmother were truly in a trapped state, the situation would be dire.

Spirit qi professionals could only live for six hours at the most in a trapped state.

This meant that if Lin Yuan could not fix the situation when Sun Ningxiang brought her grandmother to the Royal Capital to see him, they would not have time to take her grandmother to Leaning Moon Mountain afterward.

However, it was also not feasible for the Moon Empress to make the trip herself.

He had just called the Moon Empress, but Mystic Moon had picked up the call. He had told Lin Yuan that the Moon Empress had locked herself away to train.

Lin Yuan had originally planned to visit the Moon Empress at Radiant Moon Palace this afternoon. But now, he had no choice but to wait till she was done training and contacted him herself.

In such a crisis, he had to tell Sun Ningxiang his thoughts, no matter how difficult to swallow they were.

"Have you heard of the trapped state?"

Sun Ningxiang immediately collapsed onto the wool carpet.

Although she was not a Creation Master, she had heard of the trapped state.

She had called Lin Yuan as he was her last hope. But now, her last strand of hope shattered.

She forgot that she was still on the phone with Lin Yuan in her despair.

"Thankfully, you called me right after your grandmother fainted. My Master has locked herself away to train, but I have one Moon Dew Revival Pill. Even if your grandmother's situation is too serious for the Moon Dew Revival Pill to cure her completely, it should be able to help her regain consciousness and give you time to bring her to the Royal Capital for treatment."

Sun Ningxiang was immediately stunned.

The Moon Dew Revival Pill was the Moon Empress' specialty sacred item, and Sun Ningxiang had definitely heard of it.

It was said that the Moon Dew Revival Pill could bring a person back to life so long as they had one last breath within them.

A decade ago, the Spacetime Elder had entered a near-death state after a fight with experts from the Freedom Federation.

The thearch-class healers from Ostrich Logistics had all been helpless to heal him.

Eventually, the Moon Empress gifted him a Moon Dew Revival Pill.

It was said that the Moon Dew Revival Pill was formed from the tears of the Moon Crying Sacred Beast and almost 1,000 precious spiritual ingredients. The Moon Dew Revival Pill was activated by the tree sap of the Silver Stamen Gold Luster Cassias.

The Moon Dew Revival Pill had saved the Spacetime Elder and prevented the Radiance Federation from losing a member of royalty.

This Moon Dew Revival Pill was the reason for Radiant Moon Palace and Ostrich Logistics' close relationship over the last decade.

Ever since then, many top factions had been racking their brains trying to obtain a Moon Dew Revival Pill from the Moon Empress.

There were very few factions that had managed to receive a Moon Dew Revival Pill from the Moon Empress.

Even Iron Prison had been rejected and chased out of the Radiant Moon Palace when he asked for a Moon Dew Revival Pill.

Hence, the Moon Dew Revival Pill was termed as the 'item that not even members of royalty were fit to use'.

Sun Ningxiang felt utterly empty when she heard that her grandmother was in a trapped state.

Flower City neighbored Redbud City and was very far from the Royal Capital.

Even if Lin Yuan contacted the Moon Empress on her behalf, she would not have time to take her grandmother to the Royal Capital.

However, she did not expect Lin Yuan to have a Moon Dew Revival Pill, much less he would be willing to give it up to save her grandmother

Chapter 1220: Lovely Young Man Lin Yuan

Lin Yuan did not say anything else when he promised to give Sun Ningxiang the Moon Dew Revival Pill. This meant that Lin Yuan did not expect anything in return from Sun Ningxiang.

Given that Lin Yuan was the Moon Empress' disciple, there was nothing Sun Ningxiang had that Lin Yuan would want.

Sun Ningxiang choked up, and her eyes blurred over with tears.

As tears cascaded down her cheeks, gratitude, preciousness, delight, and vestiges of fear gripped her and prevented her from being able to utter the thanks she badly wanted to convey.

At this moment, Lin Yuan said, "I'm going to hang up now. I'll call you again later. Although spirit qi professionals in a trapped state can last for about five to six hours, your grandmother has other hidden injuries. It's highly unlikely that she'll be able to last for as long as five to six hours. I will contact Ostrich Logistics now and ask to express-deliver the Moon Dew Revival Pill to you within two hours."

The moment Lin Yuan finished speaking, he heard more noise coming from Sun Ningxiang's end.

Lin Yuan's anxious tone had touched Sun Ningxiang again. She was so overwhelmed with emotion that she could not help but curl her lips slightly.

After Lin Yuan hung up, he immediately contacted his dedicated courier, Ah Neng.

Once he explained the situation to her, Ah Neng guaranteed that she would reach the entrance of Lin Yuan's mansion in less than ten minutes and deliver the package to Sun Ningxiang in Flower City within half an hour.

After he put down the phone, he hurriedly headed over to the mansion entrance.

In less than three minutes, Ah Neng rushed over.

She was wearing Ostrich Logistics' standard uniform, and she removed her hat with a smile when she saw Lin Yuan. With her hat in her hands, she waved at him.

Her short red and purple hair shone with liveliness under the afternoon sunlight.

Although she still looked like a rookie, she never made a mistake with Lin Yuan's deliveries other than the occasional incident of leaving the order forms with him.

Lin Yuan solemnly told her again about how urgent this package was.

Ah Neng received the package and gave him a thumbs up after glancing at the order number.

A glowing silver shell appeared in her hand.

She recited the information on the order form toward the shell, and the shell ripped a rift in the space in front of Ah Neng.

Ah Neng waved at Lin Yuan for a final time before disappearing into the rift.

Previously, she would always leave Lin Yuan's sight before proceeding with her delivery as it was one of Ostrich Logistics' regulations.

However, she had heard how urgent Lin Yuan made this package out to be and decided to do away with the regulations.

This was the first time that Lin Yuan witnessed Ostrich Logistics' method of traveling between Radiance Federation within three hours.

According to the information he had received from the Moon Empress, he knew that other factions could not replicate this power of Ostrich Logistics because the Hollow Crystal Shellfishes used by the couriers came from the Spacetime Elder's Spatial Mother Shellfish's ability.

After he sent off the Moon Dew Revival Pill, Lin Yuan called Sun Ningxiang again and said softly, "I've sent out the Moon Dew Revival Pill. It should reach you in half an hour. Don't worry."

As Sun Ningxiang continued to choke back sobs, Lin Yuan said comfortingly, "Don't cry. Your grandmother will be worried if she regains consciousness and sees you crying."

Surprisingly, Sun Ningxiang started to sob even harder.

Lin Yuan was left at a loss. He scratched the back of his head and tried to come up with a way to comfort her.

Unfortunately, the only thing he could come up with was to urge her not to worry.

As the direct descendant of Condense Fairy Orchard, who had assumed leadership of the faction long ago, she knew that she could not wear her true emotions on her sleeve.

As she had been holding up Condense Fairy Orchard on her own all these years, she was stressed with even occurrences that were related to Condense Fairy Orchard.

Things had only taken a turn for the better when she met Lin Yuan on Star Web. It was also Lin Yuan who had given her the Muscle Growth Camellia that gave her hope that her grandmother could be healed.

When Sun Ningxiang had been targeted at the Guard Ye Banquet, those from the other factions all mocked her. With her jaw clenched and at a momentary loss, Lin Yuan had supported her.

Now, Lin Yuan was selflessly giving her a Moon Dew Revival Pill to save not only her grandmother's life but also the entire Condense Fairy Orchard.

Lin Yuan allowed Sun Ningxiang to know what it felt like to have someone to rely on.

As such, it was only with Lin Yuan that she could cry and vent without restraint. At that moment, she was completely vulnerable.

She felt that saying thanks was not enough to express her gratitude for the immense help that Lin Yuan had given her.

Without Lin Yuan's Moon Dew Revival Pill, they would be nothing but a shell of a top faction that did not have any thearch-class experts guarding them. Regardless of her relationship with Lin Yuan, the other top factions would definitely come after them.

Sun Ningxiang glanced at her unconscious grandmother and silently decided that once her grandmother awoke, she would suggest to her grandmother that they place Condense Fairy Orchard under Sky City's wing and become a branch of Sky City.

She felt that this was the only way to repay all that Lin Yuan had done for Condense Fairy Orchard.

As she listened to Lin Yuan struggle to comfort her, a foreign familiar rose within her. It was like the romantic and dizzying blending of midsummer with the sky. It was like fireflies dancing across a crystal clear lake.

Sun Ningxiang was like a fanatic that swung a fan amidst the fireflies. The more she swung the fan, the deeper into her obsession she fell.

While Sun Ningxiang was deep in thought, Lin Yuan did not sense that anything was odd.

He regarded her as his friend, and it was only natural that he helped out his friend in her time of need.

It did not just apply to Sun Ningxiang. He would do the same for Long Tao, Li Xuan, Zong Ze, Gu Lang, and Gao Feng as well