Chapter 1311: On Its Deathbed

As long as Shark Awn left, Silver Umber Black would take the two sea-king experts under it and flee for their lives. The sea was so boundless that it would be impossible for Shark Awn to find them as long they hid in earnest.

As such, Silver Umber Black fiercely shrieked, “Do you know who you just attacked? Are you trying to break the agreement between the Radiance Federation and the Eight Clans of Sea Emperors and start a war?”

Shark Awn shot Silver Umber Black a look of derision and replied, “The First Emperor Cutlass Clan is now one of the lesser five clans. It’s no wonder that the members have become short-sighted.

“In the entire world, 30% of it is land which is cohabited by humans and feys. The remaining 70% is the sea, which is under the jurisdiction of the sea clans. The sea clans have no use for the land’s resources. The agreement only exists because the sea clans don’t want to cause unnecessary trouble.

“As long as I have the ability to take down everybody here and prevent the information from leaking, who will find out that I’m the perpetrator? If the Radiance Federation decides to pursue the matter, they should come after you as the most likely target, given that your territory is closest to them. But if you’re dead and the whale fall is gone, they’ll assume that you’re guilty and on the run. When that happens, the First Emperor Cutlass Clan will be chased out as punishment for your actions.”

Silver Umber Black took a deep breath. It had not expected Shark Awn to be trying to bring about the downfall of the entire First Emperor Cutlass Clan as well.

If Lin Yuan and An He’s group had not been fighting with Silver Umber Black over the whale fall’s resources, Silver Umber Black might have encountered the black thorns when it went underwater to check on the formation of the whale fall.

If that had happened, it would not be the Moon Empress’ disciple’s Myth Breed fey that the black thorns had pierced, but Silver Umber Black.

Silver Umber Black had only just come of age and did not want to die yet.

It thought about An He, Lin Yuan, and Liu Jie’s status before glancing at the elderly man behind An He. Silver Umber Black gathered its courage and shouted, “Shark Awn, you’re only Immortal VIII. This human elderly man’s fey is at pinnacle Immortal. Although you have an advantage in the sea, you won’t be able to catch the old man if he makes a run for it. When that happens, the people from the Radiance Federation will realize that you’re behind all of it. Even if I die, you won’t be able to use me as your scapegoat.”

Shark Awn’s expression of menacing amusement intensified as it replied, “Silver Umber Black, do you think I’m as dumb as you? Coincidentally, I reached Immortal IX not long ago and gained my Immortal body!”

A few dark red aquatic plants that resembled tentacles squirmed their way out of Shark Awn’s hand. Shark Awn flipped its hand over, and the aquatic plants dripped into the sea like blood.

From the moment that Shark Awn rose from the sea, the Sea Emperors immediately released their pinnacle Immortal aura.

Shark Awn softly said, "Weave and drink, Crimson Tentacle Algae!"

Suddenly, red algae shot out of the sea and grew to almost 10,000 meters tall. The twisting tentacle-like Crimson Tentacle Algae weaved together until they formed a cage that trapped this area of the sea.

It was as though they had formed a giant theater where the red waves were performing the play of tragedy that was about to unfold.

The red algae cage sealed this area of the sea off, and its aura was completely cut off from the rest of the world.

The elderly man's face fell.

Even if he used all the power within him, he had no confidence in safely delivering An He from a pinnacle Immortal Sea Emperor. Moreover, this pinnacle Immortal Sea Emperor had already unleashed its sacred source lifeform.

The elderly man also had a sacred source lifeform. He might not be a Creation Master, but he could use his 6 Stars sacred source lifeform to sense how many Stars this Immortal expert's sacred source lifeform had.

Unfortunately, the elderly man anxiously realized that compared with the aura of his sacred source lifeform, the Crimson Tentacle Algae was slightly stronger. This meant that the Crimson Tentacle Algae was at least pinnacle 6 Stars.

Shark Awn was stronger than the elderly man while they were in the sea, and its sacred source lifeform was also more powerful than the elderly man's sacred source lifeform. The odds were stacked too unfavorably against them, and there was no point in trying to use brute force.

The elderly man looked at the playful Shark Awn and sneered. "Looking at you, you're probably a member of the First Emperor Shark Clan. Given your power, you must be one of their more powerful experts. So, you must know the truth about the agreement that the other sea clans might not know about. What you said completely differs from what the leader of the First Emperor Shark Clan said when it signed the agreement. The person standing before you is Young Lord He. He's Long Lamplight's disciple. If you leave quickly now, I can pretend nothing happened today."

Shark Awn's expression changed, and it stared at Silver Umber Black. It did not understand how Silver Umber Black had suddenly come to be in the company of the disciples of the Radiance Federation's royalty.

Shark Awn frowned slightly as it weighed the costs and benefits of its future actions.

Meanwhile, Shadow had left Lin Yuan's shadow.

Lin Yuan, Liu Jie, the Kill Food Sky Butterfly, and Shadow surrounded the Mother of Bloodbath. Their eyes were so red that it seemed that blood would drip from them at any moment.

From the moment the Flame-Footed Light Smoke Beast brought the Mother of Bloodbath back to the island, Lin Yuan rested his hand on the Mother of Bloodbath's wrist.

He circulated his spiritual power to use spirit qi to sense the Mother of Bloodbath's condition. The deeper he searched, the more terrified he became.

Lin Yuan realized that the black thorns had almost ripped the Mother of Bloodbath to shreds from the inside out.

He was a Creation Master and had seen more than his fair share of feys in a near-dead state. However, this was the first time he was coming across such serious injuries. At that moment, the Mother of Bloodbath's body was nothing more than a mutilated pile of flesh.

The Mother of Bloodbath was now well and truly on its deathbed, and death was knocking right on its door.

Lin Yuan desperately unlocked his Vitality Imprint. The burgeoning vitality flowed from Lin Yuan's palm into the Mother of Bloodbath's wrist and to the rest of its body.

However, despite a wave of vitality being injected into its body, the Mother of Bloodbath's condition did not take a turn for the better, and the Mother of Bloodbath's root vitality continued to slip away.

The injection of vitality did fill the Mother of Bloodbath with strength.

The Mother of Bloodbath tried to talk. But, it realized that it did not have the strength to verbalize words.

It looked deeply into Lin Yuan's eyes. Usually, its eyes were filled with cold sharpness. But now, its gaze was soft and filled with lonely reluctance.

Chapter 1312: I Want You to Die!

In order to speak, the Mother of Bloodbath removed its human form and reverted to its fey body. It now looked like the bristly red crystal spider that Lin Yuan had encountered in the beginning.

The Mother of Bloodbath struggled to lift its legs to pluck out the thorn lodged in its throat. It said weakly with that strange yet pleasant voice Lin Yuan had grown accustomed to hearing, "Lin Yuan, I finally feel like I'm your Path Protector."

Lin Yuan's eyes clouded over with tears.

Every person's greatest fear was the death of their loved ones.

This especially applied to someone like Lin Yuan, who could produce any resource he needed and was regarded as the cream of the crop of his generation.

He had healed the roots of countless feys. Yet, Severed Limbs Growth, which he had always counted on, was useless now. He had even activated the Vitality Imprint.

Helplessness gripped Lin Yuan's heart.

Is the Mother of Bloodbath really going to leave me today? Is it going to leave the Return from Faraway Mansion and Sky City to head to the Netherworld?

The mist in Lin Yuan's eyes turned into droplets of tears as his sorrow became more apparent.

Suddenly, a thought struck Lin Yuan, and a glimmer of hope flashed in his eyes.

He hurriedly yanked the Blood Brew Grapevine out of the Diamond Fey storage box and anxiously said to the Mother of Bloodbath, "Mother of Bloodbath, your roots are injured and need blood energy to heal them. Quickly, absorb the blood energy inside the Blood Brew Grapevine."

The Mother of Bloodbath looked at the Diamond X/Legend Blood Brew Grapevine in Lin Yuan's hand. It thought about the Platinum III/Elite Blood Brew Grapevine that Lin Yuan traded for in Indigo Azure City all that time ago.

The Mother of Bloodbath knew how much Lin Yuan had sacrificed to nurture the Blood Brew Grapevine and why Lin Yuan had been able to provide it with Blood Brew Grapes in bunches.

It smiled innocently at the anxious Lin Yuan. At that moment, all of its confusing emotions cleared up.

The Mother of Bloodbath opened its mouth but did not reveal the revelation that had just come across it. It used to be ignorant of these feelings. But now that it was aware, it also knew that some emotions were meant to be kept to oneself.

When the Mother of Bloodbath sensed its condition, it knew that it was not as simple of a matter as damaged roots. Even if it absorbed the pure blood energy from the Blood Brew Grapevine now, it would be futile.

The Blood Brew Grapevine was a Heaven and Earth Fey and was flourishing under Lin Yuan's care. There was no need to drag the Blood Brew Grapevine down with it when it was destined to walk through death's door.

When the Mother of Bloodbath did not absorb the Blood Brew Grapevine, Lin Yuan became even more distraught.

He immediately crushed all the spirit qi crystals in his possession and directed the spirit qi into the Mother of Bloodbath's body.

The Mother of Bloodbath felt its spirit pulse.

Lin Yuan had lost all control of his emotions and screeched, "Mother of Bloodbath, your only hope now is to activate your Sky Sundial Jade Spider bloodline. I don't want you to die. I want you to live. The blood energy inside all the sea-clan experts here will become the key that unlocks your transformation into the Sky Sundial Jade Spider."

Lin Yuan rose to his feet and looked straight at Shark Awn, who was still deep in thought. He punctuated each word with frigid hostility as he growled, "I want you to die!"

While Lin Yuan was standing, the Mother of Bloodbath's gentle gaze fell on the image of his back.

When Lin Yuan told it that he did not want it to die, the will to fight to live ignited within the Mother of Bloodbath.

After so much pure spirit qi had flowed into the Mother of Bloodbath's body, it could circulate the pure spirit qi to make contact with the restricted area it had never dared to touch in the past.

This restricted area was the Sky Sundial Jade Spider bloodline buried in its body.

Meanwhile, Shark Awn continued to contemplate the best course of action. Should it go ahead with its plan to kill everyone and push the blame onto Silver UMBER Black and the First Emperor Cutlass Clan? Or was it better for it to back off and pretend like nothing happened, just as the elderly man had said?

Shark Awn was afraid that Long Lamplight would come after it if it retreated and returned to its territory. Additionally, if the Radiance Federation brought up the agreement, the First Emperor Shark Clan's position as one of the top three Eight Clans of Sea Emperors would be jeopardized.

As such, Shark Awn's murderous intent became stronger. It was currently fully leaning toward killing everyone present.

What Lin Yuan had said to it set off its murderous intent, which exploded and made everyone present seem insignificant.

Who cared if some of them were the disciples of the Radiance Federation's royalty?

Shark Awn ferociously smacked its lips together and beamed.

"You think you have what it takes to kill me? Take a good look at yourself first. Hehe. You're lucky. Thanks to your looks, I've decided not to kill you. I shall lock you up at the bottom of the sea where you'll play with my Crimson Tentacle Algae every day and night!"

Shark Awn waved behind its body, and the sea-king experts behind it raised the black thorns in their hands to prepare to attack.

Ever since Lin Yuan said that he wanted to kill Shark Awn, a bad feeling came over Gu En. He knew that the situation was becoming worse.

Gu En decided to strike first by summoning another pinnacle Immortal fey.

Even if he had to sacrifice the lives of two of his feys, he would guarantee that Lin Yuan and An He made it out alive.

Normally, as An He's Path Protector, Gu En only needed to ensure An He's safety. If it was a matter of the status as the disciple of a member of royalty, Gu En should take An He, Lin Yuan, and Liu Jie with him. In fact, taking another person on top of An He would increase the risk. However, he decided to include Lin Yuan because he did not want the misunderstanding between the Moon Empress and Long Lamplight to deepen due to Lin Yuan's death.

If that happened, Long Lamplight would truly never be able to show his face to the Moon Empress again.

But before Gu En could summon his other pinnacle Immortal fey, he saw Lin Yuan's entire aura change.

12 amber pillars of water shot out of Lin Yuan's feet and intertwined around Lin Yuan. In the meantime, Lin Yuan had transformed into an elemental state.

He now had a slender and graceful tail and long hair that resembled waves. At that moment, he was just like the extinct mermaid from the legends.

Just as Gu En was about to investigate what was the change that had taken place in Lin Yuan, a white-haired young man in white armor appeared in front of Lin Yuan.

Chapter 1313: All-Out Attack!

This was not the first time White Speak saw Lin Yuan in his elemental mermaid state.

Previously, Lin Yuan had transformed abruptly. His overflowing faith power and the fact that he had turned White Pavilion into an Apostle had convinced White Speak that he was a Dictator.

Later, White Speak received the dictator's prize from Lin Yuan. This made White Speak realize how big the benefits one could receive if one became the subordinate of a Dictator.

At first, White Speak had wanted to stay by Lin Yuan's side. But eventually, Lin Yuan had instructed it to take over the scorpion's territory.

In the time that White Speak had taken over the territory, it had split its time between continuously increasing its power and maintaining the territory to prevent any strong lifeform from coming near and disturbing Lin Yuan in the nearby base.

As a result, White Speak had even killed a Class 11 dimensional lifeform.

With the dictator's prize in hand, White Speak's ability to store faith power had improved by 10%. White Speak had never dared to dream of such ability in the past.

If White Speak could continue to receive the dictator's prize from Lin Yuan, it would be able to store up 100 years' worth of faith power in only 90 years.

With the help of the dictator's prize, White Speak felt that its faith power would be able to evolve from higher average to below strong. It would gain a new faith ability called Faith's seed when that happened.

Once the Faith's Seed sprouted and bore fruit, White Speak would be able to break past the Apostle level to reach the Dictator level.

After personally experiencing the benefits of Faith Water, White Speak decided to stay by Lin Yuan's side and gain as much of his favor as possible.

This decision did not come about solely because Lin Yuan had not despised White Speak's background as the Marsh Crocodile, but also because White Speak could see a bright future for itself if it continued to follow Lin Yuan. Otherwise, it would have been impossible for White Speak to make a name for itself in Marsh East Circle.

Alas, White Speak had not been able to find the right time to curry favor with Lin Yuan.

Not long ago, a strange person that had clearly died but was being manipulated by a foreign parasite had come to fetch White Speak. He had said that Lin Yuan needed White Speak and to wait at a specific position. At that moment, White Speak knew that the time to gain Lin Yuan's favor had come.

Although this was not the first time White Speak was seeing Lin Yuan in an elemental mermaid state, seeing it again still filled White Speak with the same amount of marvel.

But when White Speak sensed the overwhelming faith power swirling around Lin Yuan and saw his murderous gaze, White Speak's chest panged. It knew that Lin Yuan was angry.

After sensing this, White Speak let rage take over it, and its aura exploded. It wondered which the stupidly brave person had dared to anger its Dictator.

White Speak knelt before Lin Yuan. As it was faced with Lin Yuan in his Dictator's body, it did not exhibit a shred of the pride of an expert.

White Speak said in an unusually calm tone, "I'm here. Please give me an order."

When Lin Yuan first transformed into an elemental mermaid, all the people present first looked at him with shock, then with mesmerization.

One of them included the Mother of Bloodbath that was directing the spirit qi in its body to activate the Sky Sundial Jade Spider bloodline.

This was not surprising as Lin Yuan had never used Faith Application in the main world, so this was the first time Liu Jie and the Mother of Bloodbath was seeing it.

Besides White Speak, the only person who had seen Lin Yuan in this state was the Kill Food Sky Butterfly.

Silver Umber Black had been gripped with fear that Shark Awn would suddenly take its life.

But now that it was seeing Lin Yuan in his elemental mermaid state, it remembered the legend its mother had told it when it was young.

The legend told of mermaids whose hair was made of waves and bodies were made of water. These mermaids had features beautiful enough to steal the hearts of every creature in the sea and voices that could calm the sea itself.

After Silver Umber Black grew up and came to understand the nature of the sea, it realized that legends were only legends and that mermaids did not truly exist.

Silver Umber Black had even gone to ask its mother only to receive a reply that this was one of the legends of the sea.

But now, as Silver Umber Black was looking at Lin Yuan, it felt that it was looking at a legend that had come to life.

Shark Awn looked at Lin Yuan with concentrated greed and longing.

Before the people present could adjust to the shock of Lin Yuan's transformation, White Speak's appearance swept all of them off their feet.

This especially applied to Gu En, who had two pinnacle Immortal feys.

From the moment that White Speak appeared, Gu En noticed that White Speak was just as strong as him.

If Lin Yuan had a pinnacle Immortal expert, combined with Gu En's two pinnacle Immortal feys, they were more than capable of safely fleeing with An He, Lin Yuan, and Liu Jie in tow.

When White Speak appeared, Silver Umber Black and Shark Awn's expressions changed in opposite directions. Silver Umber Black's countenance was overtaken by elation while a grim look came over Shark Awn.

If only another ordinary pinnacle Immortal fey had appeared, Shark Awn would not be this nervous. It was easy for a Sea Emperor to kill three terrestrial Immortal feys.

But now that White Speak had appeared, Shark Awn realized that its power to control the sea was no longer unparalleled as this white-haired young man that Lin Yuan summoned had the same power over water. It was apparent that this white-haired young man was an aquatic fey.

Shark Awn hurriedly held up its hands with its palms facing up, and both water and blood energy erupted from its body.

It immediately used its Immortal body, and the silhouette of a giant shark appeared behind Shark Awn. The shark's body was entirely red, and black thorns protruded from its gills and fins.

When the silhouette of the shark moved, the entire sea became activated, and even the smallest wave rose to a height of ten meters.

A skyscraping tsunami rolled up almost immediately.

Without Gu En's protection, the tsunami would probably have destroyed the entire island.

Just as Shark Awn was about to strike first, a bone-chilling voice called out, "White Speak, go and kill all the lifeforms in the air above the island. Once you're done, drag their bodies over to me."

Before White Speak could even reply, Lin Yuan opened the shrine in the depths of his soul and activated all the faith power in his body.

Chapter 1314: The Activated Sky Sundial Jade Spider Bloodline

Lin Yuan noticed that his faith power had tripled after a mere few days. Apparently, the commotion caused by the blood pact ultimate fight between the Sea Bliss Clan and Connected Beast Park had enabled Lin Yuan to reap significant benefits.

Lin Yuan injected the faith power into the water around him. He intentionally instructed Dark Blue to use the water to separate the faith power.

With the immense amount of faith power within the water, the twirling ribbons of water shone with deep amber.

Using his tail, Lin Yuan swung the 12 deep amber pillars at White Speak's body. When the enormous amount of water entered White Speak's body, White Speak immediately felt a change in its totem.

At that moment, White Speak was beyond surprised. Although White Speak had never seen any other Dictator, Dictator Everything had once arrived at the Palace of Everything in Marsh East Circle and spread its might and glory.

According to the information given by the Apostle at Marsh East Circle, White Speak came to understand the power of a Dictator. It found out that Dictators could change into their Dictator's bodies and give Apostles the dictator's prize.

However, White Speak had never heard of a Dictator being able to evolve the faith power in an Apostle.

A thought crossed White Speak's mind. But this was enough to set its excitement alight.

Could Lin Yuan be more than a Dictator, something that was only the stuff of legends? At this point, White Speak decided not to think about it any further. It could not be certain if this idea was right or wrong. Perhaps it was just Lin Yuan's natural skill as a Dictator to be able to inject faith power into Apostles.

But regardless, White Speak just needed to stick by Lin Yuan's side and ensure that Lin Yuan remained comfortable.

White Speak took a deep breath and said with a wild yet respectful tone, "Your wish is my command."

White Speak leaped into the air.

Instead of dodging the incoming thorns shot by the sea-king experts under Shark Awn, White Speak transformed into a 3,000-meter-long giant white crocodile.

.....

When the black thorns pierced White Speak, its body turned into soft white clay and sucked the black thorns in.

Finally, White Speak swung its tail, and the black spikes sprouted from the back of its tail. White Speak swung its tail again and ferociously slammed into the theater weaved by the Crimson Tentacle Algae.

Under White Speak's full force attack, a large hole appeared in the wall of the theater.

Shark Awn's expression changed when it saw that the Crimson Tentacle Algae was injured.

It could not give White Speak another chance to hurt the Crimson Tentacle Algae again. The Crimson Tentacle Algae was not a combat-type fey and could not withstand much damage.

The Crimson Tentacle Algae's first ability was to separate aura. Its second ability was to absorb the vitality of all the near-dead creatures within the cage into the Crimson Tentacle Algae. Eventually, the Crimson Tentacle Algae would temper the vitality and transfer it back into its contractor to increase its contractor's power.

Shark Awn was able to evolve to Immortal IX so quickly because of the Crimson Tentacle Algae.

Shark Awn had caged this area because it was afraid the news would get out and wanted to use the energy within Gu En and Silver UMBER Black to increase its power further. Even if it could not break through to Eternal, it would also be satisfied with stabilizing its quality.

Shark Awn fiercely ordered the sea-king experts, "Unlock your Immortal bodies and kill the people on the island!"

Next, Shark Awn directed its aura toward White Speak. Three black thorns shot out of Shark Awn's hand and turned into three black sharks.

The three black sharks crossed until they resembled two pairs of scissors and charged toward White Speak.

Shark Awn looked at Gu En, who had summoned another pinnacle Immortal fey and was currently controlling two pinnacle Immortal feys, the helpless people on the island and the sea-king experts that Gu En's feys had injured. A wicked glare appeared in Shark Awn's eye as it was certain that the battle's conclusion was all but set.

People who can't help are just useless! If you're of no use in a battle, at least try to help in another way.

Shark Awn slowed down in its charge toward White Speak until it came to a stop. It touched the red skin on its forehead and pushed in with its nail until blood was flowing freely down its face.

Then, Shark Awn started to sing loudly.

While Shark Awn was singing, the sea-king experts grappling with Gu En halted in midair, and terrified expressions came over their faces.

Before the sea-king experts even had the chance to beg for mercy, Shark Awn shrieked, "Shark Glutton Imprint, return!"

The Immortal bodies of the sea-king experts started to quickly shrivel up until they eventually turned into balls of flesh.

These balls of flesh were condensed forms of the sea-king experts' energies.

A fountain of blood spurted from the balls of flesh and sailed straight into Shark Awn's body. Shark Awn's aura started to rise when the blood entered its body.

Shark Awn started to guffaw with laughter as it felt the change in its power.

"I used to be Immortal IX. But now that I'm pinnacle Immortal IX, no one below Eternal can hope to beat me!"

Shark Awn's words caused Gu En's expression to change.

On the other hand, White Speak, who was lightly injured after forcefully consuming the three thorns, looked more stubborn than ever.

“Stupid woman. Your laughter is so unpleasant to the ear. I ate three of your thorns without putting up any defense. But, it seems that their attacks aren’t anything impressive! Even my muscles are still intact. If you’re only capable of this, you should quickly lie down and wait for me to crush you.”

Lin Yuan frowned when Shark Awn used its ability or exclusive skill to end the sea-king experts that had accompanied it.

When he saw the faint sunlight shining out of the Mother of Bloodbath’s body, Lin Yuan knew that it was starting to trigger the Sky Sundial Jade Spider in its body.

The Mother of Bloodbath badly needed a large amount of blood energy at this moment.

Usually, Lin Yuan would be completely helpless against such injuries. But, the idea that struck him was tied to the types of the sea-king experts behind Shark Awn.

As a member of the First Emperor Shark Clan, Shark Awn was both blood- and water-type.

Blood-type feys had more blood energy than ordinary feys. But, this also made it easier for them to absorb feys of the same type. Hence, Lin Yuan’s idea was to take the lives of the sea-king experts behind Shark Awn and use them as steps that the Mother of Bloodbath could tread on until it unlocked its Sky Sundial Jade Spider bloodline.

Chapter 1315: Besides the Martial Morals

If they were not blood-type feys, the Mother of Bloodbath would not be able to absorb them.

The blood energy within the sea-king experts was currently gathered within Shark Awn’s body, and continuing to fight would cause the amount of blood energy within Shark Awn to fall.

This was bad news for the Mother of Bloodbath. It was possible that the amount of blood energy would fall to a point that it would not be enough to help the Mother of Bloodbath fully unlock its Sky Sundial Jade Spider bloodline.

As such, Lin Yuan anxiously yelled to White Speak, “White Speak, end the battle quickly! Use your strongest attack and end this.”

White Speak’s expression turned solemn, and it stopped wasting time saying useless things to Shark Awn.

Its 3,000-meter-long body shone with a sacred light, and the totem above its left eye started to spin until it became a black hole.

Now that White Speak was in its source sacred body form, it appeared midair. Instead of immediately attacking White Speak, it excitedly tested out the faith power that Lin Yuan had injected into its body.

The large amount of faith power gathered at the black hole, and something that seemed to be beating like a heart emerged from the black hole.

Previously, White Speak and Shark Awn’s auras had been equally matched. But now, White Speak had the upper hand.

Plumes of clouds enveloped White Speak and turned into images of giant crocodile heads. It seemed as though these menacing crocodile heads were about to swallow everything in the world.

Shark Awn's expression looked the most displeased that it had ever been when it sensed White Speak's aura.

Shark Awn felt an indescribable pressure from White Speak's aura, to the point that it wanted to flee immediately. However, there was no reason for Shark Awn to back down now.

There was a disciple of a member of royalty present. If Shark Awn left now, the Radiance Federation would find out about everything that transpired today.

Shark Awn was attacking an area of the sea that was within the Radiance Federation's territory in order to steal the whale fall. If this incident was made public, it would definitely be taken as Shark Awn trying to break the agreement.

Silver Umber Black was still alive. Although it was ostracized by the First Emperor Cutlass Clan and the First Emperor Cutlass Clan was no longer as powerful as they used to be, Silver Umber Black was still a member of the Eight Clans of Sea Emperors and was acknowledged to be a Sea Emperor.

If Silver Umber Black accused Shark Awn, the Radiance Federation would definitely take up the matter with the sea clans. At that point, even if Shark Awn tried to escape, the First Emperor Shark Clan would have to pay for its actions.

The sea was so vast and so full of resources that fights broke out everywhere. The sea was never peaceful. Naturally, the fights between the top three clans were more violent than those between the bottom five.

The First Emperor Shark Clan had always been the second-ranked clan, with the First Emperor Ray Clan trailing closely behind.

If the Radiance Federation came to seek justice, the First Emperor Shark Clan would have to bear all of the consequences.

If that happened, the First Emperor Ray Clan could use the opportunity to attack First Emperor Shark Clan and push them down from the second position to the third position so that the First Emperor Ray Clan could pull themselves up from the third position to second place.

The ranking of the Eight Clans of Sea Emperors was linked to the sea resources they received. If Shark Awn caused the First Emperor Shark Clan to drop in rank, it would be hated by the entire clan.

Shark Awn was the younger sister of the leader of the First Emperor Shark Clan and was considered to be a princess. It was afraid that it would be reduced from being respected by every member of the First Emperor Shark Clan to a street rat.

Additionally, the Crimson Tentacle Algae was done weaving the theater. It needed time both to build and take down the theater. If Shark Awn escaped now, it would have no choice but to abandon the Crimson Tentacle Algae.

Sacred source lifeforms were precious to both spirit qi professionals and feys. No matter what happened, Shark Awn was unwilling to forsake the Crimson Tentacle Algae.

A maniacal look came over Shark Awn's face as it felt the pressure pressing down on it. At that moment, Shark Awn used its strongest move.

Dark red color accumulated in Shark Awn's mouth, and a dark red giant shark was spewed out of Shark Awn's mouth.

The giant shark seemed to carry the aura of a bloody sea as it rode the waves and made a beeline for White Speak.

When White Speak saw the blood-colored giant shark, it bellowed, "I've been waiting for you to show your hand!"

White Speak stood its ground. When the dark red shark neared, White Speak reached out and grabbed it before stuffing it into its mouth.

When White Speak swallowed the dark red shark, a cloud of red mist rose from its body. Rivulets of blood flowed out of the White Speak's orifices. Evidently, swallowing the shark had injured White Speak significantly.

Under Shark Awn's astonished gaze, White Speak suddenly opened its mouth. A beam of red and white light shot out and barrelled through the air toward Shark Awn.

Even though Shark Awn tried to dodge, the beam still landed squarely on its body.

White Speak's sacred ability was Replay, and it needed to swallow an opponent's attack in order to combine its attack with its opponent's attack and send it back to its opponent. Its opponent's attack would act as the guide to navigate the attack.

Normally, when White Speak was faced with an opponent of equal strength, it would not swallow its opponent's attack as it could easily injure it.

But since Lin Yuan had ordered it to end the fight as soon as possible, White Speak threw all caution to the wind.

After being attacked by White Speak, Shark Awn vomited a fountain of blood and collapsed.

Although Shark Awn was heavily injured, it was not dead. It was not easy to kill a pinnacle Immortal Sea Emperor.

At the same moment that Shark Awn fell, White Speak flashed itself next to Shark Awn.

As an Apostle that lived in the perilous marsh world, White Speak always lived its life on the edge. Hence, it was not used to upholding any martial morals when it came to the way it treated its enemies. White Speak always went with the most extreme method. If it could kill its enemy, it would go ahead and do so.

White Speak's totem swirled, and the crocodile within the totem spat out 12 flares of sacred light. The 12 flares of sacred light hit the most important joints on Shark Awn's body and shattered them.

Before this attack, Shark Awn still had one ounce of fighting spirit left within it. But now that all its joints had been wrecked and it could no longer move, Shark Awn had been truly defeated by White Speak.

White Speak reached down and grabbed Shark Awn. It squeezed Shark Awn's head forcefully.

As Shark Awn felt death creeping up upon it, it could no longer hold back as it screeched, "You can't kill me! I'm the younger sister of the leader of the First Emperor Shark Clan. I'm the First Princess of the First Emperor Shark Clan! Does the Radiance Federation want to start a war with the sea clans!?"

Chapter 1316: Since We Pride Ourselves on Martial, Why Not Seek Revenge?

Gu En sternly hissed at Shark Awn. "You're the one who disregarded the agreement. If you cared about the agreement, why would you enter the Radiance Federation's territory of the sea and attack mercilessly?"

"By mentioning the agreement made by the royalty of the Radiance Federation and the sea clans now, are you treating it as a joke? Moreover, you just tried to kill disciples of the members of royalty. What right do you have to bring up status now?"

Lin Yuan looked at the Mother of Bloodbath, who was painfully struggling to trigger its Sky Sundial Jade Spider bloodline. He swept his fishtail and ordered White Speak, "White Speak, don't waste time talking to her. Just kill her."

Lin Yuan glared sharply at Shark Awn. Just as White Speak was about to end Shark Awn's life, Lin Yuan sneered. "This doesn't end with your death. If the Mother of Bloodbath dies today, I will do everything in my power to ensure that the entire First Emperor Shark Clan dies along with it. Even if the Mother of Bloodbath lives, the First Emperor Shark Clan must pay the price for spilling its blood. From today onward, the First Emperor Shark Clan has made an eternal enemy of me."

Lin Yuan's voice was resounding and brimming with resolution.

With the final shreds of Shark Awn's consciousness, its soul shivered. Before it could form a single thought, it drew its final breath.

Meanwhile, the rest of the people present started to take in Lin Yuan's words.

Liu Jie, the Kill Food Sky Butterfly, and White Speak were on the same side as Lin Yuan and always deferred to him as the decision-maker. As such, it was their goal to achieve his will.

Gu En knew that Lin Yuan was the Moon Empress' disciple and understood that everything he said carried unimaginable power.

It did not matter if the Moon Empress would help Lin Yuan destroy the First Emperor Shark Clan after the heavily injured spider-species fey died or if Lin Yuan even had the means to bring down the First Emperor Shark Clan. Regardless, the grudge between Lin Yuan and the First Emperor Shark Clan had been formed.

Lin Yuan had said that even if the spider-species fey lived, he was still ready to grind the First Emperor Shark Clan to dust.

He had won the Martial Arts Stage and obtained an Order of Radiant Light. Given the amount of power he had at his young age, it was clear that he was even more talented than Zong Ze, Gu Lang, and An He.

With this talent, it would only take him two years before he pulled ahead of Zong Ze, Gu Lang, and An He. As long as no accident befell him in the next two years, it was all but certain that he would become a Radiance Envoy.

As for now, Lin Yuan's power could not represent the entire Radiance Federation. It could only represent the Radiant Moon Palace at the very most. But once he became a Radiance Envoy, his words would represent the will of the entire Radiance Federation.

It was possible that what Lin Yuan said today would lead to a war between the Radiance Federation and the Eight Clans of Sea Emperors.

While Gu En was mulling, An He said, "I will make sure to inform my Master of how a member of the First Emperor Shark Clan tried to kill us today. Since the First Emperor Shark Clan openly tried to break the agreement, the sea clans have to pay for this."

Gu En clapped a hand over his mouth. Just from the words they said, the difference between An He and Lin Yuan was blatant.

An He always mentioned Long Lamplight and the entire Radiance Federation, whereas Lin Yuan only included himself. Clearly, Lin Yuan was much more independent than An He Whenever An He met with any trouble, he preferred to seek help from Long Lamplight. On the other hand, Lin Yuan handled all his problems on his own, even if he had to face the entire First Emperor Shark Clan.

But this difference in the way they spoke about the same matter made it clear who had better character. It seemed that An He not only lost to Lin Yuan in power but also in character.

Silver Umber Black had been delighted to witness Shark Awn's death as it meant that Silver Umber Black no longer had to worry about being hunted down and killed.

However, Shark Awn's death also meant that Silver Umber Black needed to testify on behalf of the Radiance Federation in order for the Radiance Federation to spare its life.

But if it testified that Shark Awn had broken the agreement, it was not only the First Emperor Shark Clan that would have to suffer the consequences but all the sea clans would be branded with the accusation of being treacherous.

Three disciples of members of royalty had almost died during the fight with Shark Awn. There was no way that the Radiance Federation would take this lying down.

It seemed that right after escaping the scythe that had been hanging over its head for some time, Silver Umber Black would be forced to betray the sea clans. Nonetheless, it would be more beneficial for it to testify on behalf of the Radiance Federation.

Regardless of whether testifying on behalf of the Radiance Federation was right or wrong or how much Silver Umber Black would gain from it, the sea clans' standpoint would definitely lead to the conclusion that it was in the wrong.

As such, Silver Umber Black knew that if it wanted to continue developing or living, it would need to cling to the Radiance Federation with all its might. If it failed, the First Emperor Shark Clan would be the first to knock on Silver Umber Black's door to force it to give up its life to avenge Shark Awn.

Silver Umber Black thought about the treatment and ostracization it suffered at the hands of the First Emperor Cutlass Clan before thinking about the decaying state of the sea clans' internal affairs.

Silver Umber Black could not help but clench its fists. A daring and even crazy idea formed in its head.

The vast sea was filled with Sea Emperors, and there had to be at least a thousand within the Eight Clans of Sea Emperors. There were much more Sea Emperors in the sea than there were members of royalty in the terrestrial federations. This was the sea's secret weapon.

However, the sea clans had never banded together to face an issue together. If the Eight Clans of Sea Emperors had teamed up, they would not have had to sign the agreement with the Radiance Federation.

Since the sea clans were splintering from the inside out, the Sea Emperors could rise and carry the sea clans to a new age of prosperity.

This idea became tangible in Silver Umber Black's mind and took root.

Lin Yuan had not considered the repercussions or his identity as the Moon Empress' disciple when he said what he said. The words had come purely from his heart.

From the moment that the black thorns turned the Mother of Bloodbath into a porcupine, a vicious aura rose from Lin Yuan like it never had before.

The battle with Shark Awn allowed Lin Yuan to understand that when a person reached a certain level of strength, they would be able to break any rule or agreement.

This was the reason Shark Awn had the gall to ignore and break the agreement between the Radiance Federation and the Eight Clans of Sea Emperors.

Lin Yuan now understood the true meaning behind 'priding oneself by martial'.

Since this world prided itself on martial, there was nothing wrong with him seeking revenge without holding back.

At that moment, Lin Yuan's perspective shifted.

White Speak kept Lin Yuan's order in mind. After killing Shark Awn, it hurriedly carried Shark Awn's body back to Lin Yuan.

Chapter 1317: Ribbon Falling From the Sun

Lin Yuan picked up Shark Awn's body without hesitation and tossed it to the struggling Mother of Bloodbath as he said, "Mother of Bloodbath, the members of the First Emperor Shark Clan are both blood- and water-type feys. Try and absorb the blood energy within Shark Awn's body. Let me know if you need spirit qi. You have to hold on, overcome this, and live."

At that moment, the Mother of Bloodbath was being tortured by the Sky Sundial Jade Spider bloodline to the point that it could not produce a word. In fact, its mind had already descended into a blurry state.

The Mother of Bloodbath sensed the colossal amount of blood energy within Shark Awn. The blood energy was just what the Mother of Bloodbath needed at that moment.

When it made contact with Shark Awn's body, it tried to use one of its legs to pierce Shark Awn's body. However, Shark Awn was still a pinnacle Immortal fey, and although it was dead, the Myth Breed Mother of Bloodbath was still unable to pierce Shark Awn's skin.

The Mother of Bloodbath managed to sense the hole that White Speak's sacred light had shot through Shark Awn's body. Its legs entered the hole and swiftly absorbed the blood energy within Shark Awn's body.

Now that Silver Umber Black understood its circumstances, it furtively glanced at Lin Yuan and noticed his expression was even more solemn.

Lin Yuan no longer needed White Speak.

He noticed that White Speak had been eyeing An He and Liu Jie.

In the dimensional worlds, Apostles were only able to maintain human form in their source sacred body form.

As long as White Speak was not dim, it would notice that the situation was not right.

Lin Yuan did not want White Speak to continue to remain in the main world as he was afraid that White Speak would discover something that led to it becoming doubtful of Lin Yuan's identity as a Dictator.

He retracted the faith power he had injected into White Speak and removed Faith Application.

Lin Yuan said, "White Speak, stay here for a while."

.....

He took out the Jeweled Cave Golden Toad and stored White Speak within it instead of returning White Speak to the dimensional world through the Spirit Lock spatial zone.

This was because Lin Yuan still did not fully trust White Speak.

Although White Speak had already passed through the Spirit Lock spatial zone on its way here, the Spirit Lock spatial zone was too important for Lin Yuan to allow White Speak to pass through it again.

When White Speak heard what Lin Yuan said, it nodded and said to Lin Yuan with disappointment and respect, "Call me any time you need me. I will carry out any order you give me."

White Speak had indeed realized that something was off.

It had already sensed that it was now in a new world because this world's laws and basic energy systems were completely different from that of the marsh world. It had realized this during the fight against Shark Awn.

White Speak was naturally suspicious but did not start to doubt Lin Yuan's identity. Rather, it placed Lin Yuan on an even higher pedestal after it was brought to a new world. It assumed that the Dictator it had chosen to follow was in the midst of conquering a new world.

When Lin Yuan injected the large amount of faith power into White Speak's body, White Speak had felt that its Dictator was the strongest person in the world.

Previously, White Speak's faith power was at higher-average. But after Lin Yuan injected the faith power into it, it had reached a higher level. Lin Yuan couldn't be anything but a Dictator with all that power.

Even if Lin Yuan was not a Dictator, White Speak would assume that he was a being higher than Dictator.

But given that Lin Yuan was asking it to return now, it was obvious that he did not trust it.

White Speak knew that if it could not gain Lin Yuan's trust, he would never come to rely on it.

However, White Speak had spent all its life living a solitary existence in the marsh world. As such, it did not know how to begin currying favor with a person, much less a Dictator!

White Speak felt that it needed to ask its Favored Believers how they came up with ways to gain its favor when it returned to the marsh world. It would then apply the methods to gain favor with its Dictator.

White Speak had crossed paths with Shadow and felt that it was leaps and bounds stronger than Shadow. So why did Shadow get to stay by Lord Dictator's side while White Speak did not?

White Speak decided it was because it was not as skilled at bootlicking as Shadow.

When White Speak entered the Jeweled Cave Golden Toad, Lin Yuan suddenly sensed that the glowing dots supplied by White Speak in the shrine had multiplied significantly. The dots were shining brightly and had grown larger on top of increasing in quantity.

This set Lin Yuan at ease as it meant that White Speak's loyalty and faith in him had increased. He now knew that he could trust White Speak in the future.

However, Lin Yuan was confused about the reason behind this as he had not done anything to lead to it. He sighed to himself about how strange faith was.

Regardless, Lin Yuan did not expect White Speak to resolve to become Lin Yuan's obedient puppy after carefully sizing him up.

It seemed that the Mother of Bloodbath did not need any martial force to aid it in unlocking its Sky Sundial Jade Spider bloodline. It would all solely depend on the Mother of Bloodbath. The most that Lin Yuan could do would be to provide it with blood energy and pure spirit qi.

After Shark Awn died, the Crimson Tentacle Algae started to shrivel slowly, and it could no longer maintain the red theater it had weaved.

Since the Crimson Tentacle Algae started to shrivel without dying, it meant that there was no marrow contract between Shark Awn and the Crimson Tentacle Algae. They had only formed a normal contract.

This was good. If the blood energy within Shark Awn was insufficient for the Mother of Bloodbath, the blood energy in the 6 Stars Crimson Tentacle Algae in a near-dead state would be the perfect supplement for the Mother of Bloodbath.

However, it was this reason that made Lin Yuan even more nervous. He was more afraid of the risks he would not be able to handle than he was the risks he was already handling.

From the results of True Data, Lin Yuan knew that the Crimson Tentacle Algae was only a pinnacle 6 Stars sacred source lifeform. It was one step from reaching 7 Stars and growing from its adolescent stage to the mature stage.

The pinnacle 6 Stars Crimson Tentacle Algae had even more blood energy in its body than the blood- and water-type Shark Awn. The presence of the Crimson Tentacle Algae would ensure that the Mother of Bloodbath had enough blood energy to awaken its Sky Sundial Jade Spider bloodline.

This allowed the tightly wound Lin Yuan to relax slightly.

But before the shriveling Crimson Tentacle Algae could fall from the sky, ribbons of sunlight descended from the heavens.

Chapter 1318: Tearful Blood New Moon

The ribbons of sunlight cascaded down. The sun was setting, but the ribbons of light filled the space with so much light that it was no different from high noon.

The ribbons of sunlight burned up the air and caused it to start twisting. As the air twisted, it burned into a red afterglow that flowed and looked like red armor draped over the sun.

The chains of sunlight scattered all over the Mother of Bloodbath and turned its red crystal body with a layer of orange jade.

The black thorns that were stuck firmly within the Mother of Bloodbath's body started to turn to dust under the chains of sunlight.

The chains of sunlight seemed to be healing the Mother of Bloodbath's injuries. Yet, the Mother of Bloodbath let out a blood-curdling howl.

At that moment, it felt as though its organs were on fire, and every cell in its body was a spirit being hauled to Hell by grim reapers.

The sunlight chains rapidly awakened the Mother of Bloodbath's Sky Sundial Jade Spider's bloodline.

The Mother of Bloodbath's original bloodline was that of the Blood Red Bird-Catching Spider. However, the Sky Sundial Jade Spider's bloodline was like an empress, while the Blood Red Bird-Catching Spider bloodline, which was the most elite bloodline amongst spider-species feys, seemed plebeian by comparison. It had no choice but to submit to the Sky Sundial Jade Sundial bloodline.

Now that the Sky Sundial Jade Spider bloodline was awake and entering the Mother of Bloodbath's body, the Mother of Bloodbath's burning sensation was intensifying.

Previously, the pain caused black thorns had been graded as 1, while the pain experienced by the Mother of Bloodbath at that moment was graded as 100.

The clash of the two bloodlines within its body and the burning caused by the chains of sunlight caused the Mother of Bloodbath's consciousness to fade away slowly. It was in so much agony that it begged to be killed a hundred times instead.

As a spider-species fey that lived a hard life that was constantly in danger from the moment it was born, the Mother of Bloodbath's will was strong. But even the strongest beings had a limit when it came to pain. The amount of pain being experienced was the key point.

Just as the Mother of Bloodbath was about to black out, a voice said from the deepest part of its soul, "I don't want you to die. I want you to live."

This voice reverberated in the Mother of Bloodbath's soul until the image of a young man took shape in its mind.

When the pain reached a peak, a willpower that was even stronger than the pain exploded from within the Mother of Bloodbath's soul.

The Mother of Bloodbath opened its eyes and struggled to return to human form as it leaped into the air. It broke through the ribbons of sunlight and headed straight for the sun.

At that moment, the Mother of Bloodbath's gaze was overtaken by sharp resolution. There was not a shred of fear or hesitation.

This sudden occurrence startled everyone present besides Liu Jie and Lin Yuan. The two of them were the only ones who knew that the Mother of Bloodbath had the Sky Sundial Jade Spider bloodline.

With one of the three most elite bloodlines amongst the butterfly-species feys, the Kill Food Sky Butterfly could sense the aura coming from within the Mother of Bloodbath. Its eyes widened, and the words 'Heavenly Family Fey' came crashing down in its mind.

It would never have expected the fey it had almost killed when it was the Kill Food Worm to turn out to have such an elite bloodline.

It was a Heavenly Family Fey!

The Kill Food Sky Butterfly was well aware of what Heavenly Family Feys represented.

The terrifying legendary Heavenly Family Cottage supported every Heavenly Family Fey.

The Heavenly Family Cottage held equal power as the three major federations, Epoch Secret Collective, and Tower Canon. However, the Heavenly Family Cottage had not surfaced in many years.

From the moment it became Lin Yuan's subordinate, the Kill Food Sky Butterfly had wondered why the Mother of Bloodbath was worthy of becoming the Moon Empress' disciple's Path Protector.

To put it in a negative way... If Lin Yuan used the power he produced in the fight with An He, there was no way the Mother of Bloodbath would be able to defeat him.

No matter how strong the Mother of Bloodbath became at its current level, it would not be able to compare to Duan He's Purple Demon.

Purple Demon was the Multi-Headed Sea Demon and was accepted as being unrivaled at whatever grade it was at.

But now, the Kill Food Sky Butterfly finally understood why the Mother of Bloodbath was worthy.

If this had all been arranged by the Moon Empress, she had planted a major move with respect to the big picture.

The Kill Food Sky Butterfly had always noted the way Lin Yuan helped the Mother of Bloodbath.

Despite only being Myth II, Lin Yuan had already given it a sacred source lifeform. This was an honor that no other Myth Breed fey could enjoy.

The Mother of Bloodbath usually used Blood Brew Grapes to increase its power. Any other blood-type fey would be green with envy if they heard of this.

Even Shark Awn, the princess of the First Emperor Shark Clan, had not consumed blood-type spiritual ingredients at the same rate that the Mother of Bloodbath did.

After spending time with Lin Yuan and the Mother of Bloodbath, the Kill Food Sky Butterfly knew how deep the bond ran between them. Even if the Path Protector contract did not exist between the Mother of Bloodbath and Lin Yuan, they would still be inseparable.

From a certain angle, the Mother of Bloodbath allowed Lin Yuan to be linked to the renowned faction that was Heavenly Family Cottage.

An He, Gu En, Sun Jiang, Zhang Cheng, Silver Umber Black, and Silver Umber Black's two sea-king experts were staring at the Mother of Bloodbath in astonishment.

Eventually, Gu En was the first to come to his senses. He looked between Lin Yuan and the Mother of Bloodbath, but he still could not figure out how a fey awakening its Heavenly Family Fey bloodline had come to be by the Moon Empress' disciple's side.

This Heavenly Family Fey was of the spider-species and was affiliated with the sun. Could it be the descendant of that spider-species Heavenly Family Fey from the lava-filled place north of the Radiance Federation?

A few months ago, the Azure Federation had dispatched a team to attend the Radiance Hundred Sequence selection.

A week ago, before Long Lamplight left, the Freedom Federation had also dispatched a team to the Radiance Federation.

The Freedom Federation and the Radiance Federation had never seen eye to eye. As such, they had to have an ulterior motive for sending the Freedom Envoys to the Radiance Federation.

As a result, the Radiance Federation had become a hub.

However, now that a Heavenly Family Fey was interacting with the sun within the Radiance Federation, it was likely that Heavenly Family Cottage would immediately send a team to the Radiance Federation. It was even possible that they would use this messy circumstance and other hidden factions to make a move on the Radiance Federation.

The Radiance Hundred Sequence would take place in a month, and the Royal Capital would probably be the center of an earth-shattering event.

There was only one sun in the main world, and the entire main world would feel the effects of anything that happened to the sun.

Above an island...

A red-haired and red-eyed young man was looking at the strange sun activity with tear-filled eyes.

Chapter 1319: My Child is Still Alive!

The red-haired and red-eyed young man was not alone. The blue-haired young girl who had ordered the sea to swallow the island and the well-built man dressed in fishnets frozen in the sky also looked overjoyed when they sensed the sun's strange activity.

The two of them had quickly killed everyone within Tower Canon's secret base before following the red-haired and red-eyed young man.

At that moment, the two of them were so emotionally overwhelmed that they did not even know how to congratulate Blood New Moon. All they could do was stare at Blood New Moon, who had a steady stream of tears flowing down his face.

The tears eventually slipped down his face and fell down to the island.

All these years, Blood New Moon had not stopped thinking about Jade Sundial for a moment. Ever since Jade Sundial died, the only thing that motivated Blood New Moon was revenge.

Although everyone around him had comforted him by telling him that his and Jade Sundial's child was still alive, Blood New Moon knew they were only trying to comfort him.

Yet, that child was still alive! Moreover, that child was currently activating the sun to unlock its bloodline. This was the best news.

When Blue Lotus and White Phoenix managed to compose themselves and were about to celebrate with Blood New Moon, they saw him smile warmly.

They had never seen such a warm smile appear on his face before.

Suddenly, Blood New Moon broke out into uproarious laughter as he announced, "My child is still alive! She's still alive! Jade Sundial and my child is still alive!"

Blood New Moon continuously repeated this line.

Blue Lotus and White Phoenix slowly noticed the warmth in Blood New Moon's eyes being replaced by hope.

Blood New Moon pulled Blue Lotus and White Phoenix over and said to them ecstatically, "Our child is still alive. She must have suffered so much hardship all these years."

.....

Blood New Moon could not help but blame himself. If he had immediately gone to the Radiance Federation to search for their child after awakening in Heavenly Fey Cottage, he could have saved their child from some of the hardship.

White Phoenix and Blue Lotus were happy for Jade Sundial, who they respected, and Blood New Moon. However, Blood New Moon did not seem like a father but a child.

Blue Lotus flipped over her hand and tossed a persimmon to Blood New Moon as she said with a smile, "The strange sun activity is in the direction of the Radiance Federation. That's the same direction that we're headed. It should take us a month to reach the Radiance Federation if we travel at maximum speed. After a month, you'll be able to see yours and Sister Jade Sundial's child."

As opposed to Blue Lotus' optimism, White Phoenix's brow was deeply furrowed.

Heavenly Family Feys were at their weakest when they were unlocking their bloodline. At such a time, feys and humans would try to attack them.

If they were close, one of their own could rush over to help. But now that they were so far from Jade Sundial and Blood New Moon's child while it was unlocking its bloodline, White Phoenix wondered if the child would really be able to make it out unscathed.

Blood New Moon and Jade Sundial's child had half Blood Red Bird-Catching Spider and half Sky Sundial Jade Spider bloodline in its body.

Even Blood New Moon had almost lost his life. Eventually, Purple Love had to step in and give up half its tail to help Blood New Moon transform his bloodline.

Blood New Moon quickly quieted down after his abrupt euphoria. Now that he was calm, this issue also dawned on him.

Jade Sundial had been targeted by Fifth Page Truth when she was pregnant and eventually lost her life.

It would be difficult for his daughter to avoid being attacked by others while she was unlocking her Heavenly Family Fey bloodline.

He was powerful, yet he was too far away to do anything. It would not help even if he now charged to the Radiance Federation at full speed. It would take only an hour for the event to come to an end.

The sense of helplessness and worry weighed down heavily on Blood New Moon and gnawed at his heart.

He had been powerless when his wife had been attacked. Rather, he had had to be protected by her.

Now that his daughter was in danger and he had gained power, he was too far away to help.

These two different kinds of helplessness squeezed and pulled at Blood New Moon's heart. He felt like both a useless husband and father.

Suddenly, Blood New Moon noticed that the chains of sunlight descending from the sun had darkened.

The darkened chains of sunlight caused Blood New Moon's heart to skip a beat. He had also experienced this when he awakened his Sky Sundial Jade Spider bloodline. As such, he knew the link between the sunlight's ribbons and the bloodline's awakening.

The chains of sunlight represented the relationship between the sun and the Heavenly Family Fey that was supposed to subjugate the sun.

The darkening of the chain meant that the link was weakening!

Is my daughter in a very bad state? Could she have run into some trouble?

On the island outside of Raging Waves City...

Lin Yuan assessed the Mother of Bloodbath's condition before releasing White Speak from the Jewelled Cave Golden Toad.

The Mother of Bloodbath absolutely could not be disturbed at this moment.

Lin Yuan needed to be careful of both Silver Umber Black and even Gu En. He needed to be on guard in case they did anything that affected the Mother of Bloodbath's transformation.

An He regained his senses and immediately instructed Gu En, "Grandfather Gu, Lin Yuan's subordinate will protect the sea outside of the Radiance Federation. You can forget about me and protect the area in Raging Waves City's direction. Don't allow anyone from there to come to this island. If anyone insists on coming, you can kill them after exhausting all other methods of persuading them to leave."

Next, he said to Zhang Cheng and Sun Jiang, "Uncle Zhang, Uncle Sun, each of you head toward the opposite ends of the island. You have to prevent any feys above Myth Breed from emerging from the sea and stop any light-type fish-species feys from coming up to the surface to absorb the light energy. Otherwise, the energy in the ribbons of sunlight could dissipate."

Gu En hesitated slightly when he received An He's order. But when he saw the determined expression on An He's face, he led his two feys and leaped into the air to head toward Raging Waves City.

While he was flying, Gu En thought, if anyone comes to cause trouble now, Lin Yuan will probably go insane. He declared that he would kill a Sea Emperor from the Eight Clans of Sea Emperors and even decided to wholly crush the First Emperor Shark Clan all for the sake of his subordinate.

If anyone comes to the island now to disturb the spider-species fey unlocking its Heavenly Family Fey bloodline above the island, Lin Yuan will probably wipe their faction off the face of the earth.

When Lin Yuan heard what An He said, he said to An He with gratitude, "An He, thank you so much."

Chapter 1320: Sun Goddess and Leaping Waves Turn to Ice

An He felt his ears grow hot as he waved his hand and said, "It's nothing. You don't need to thank me! My Country Governor Kui's injuries aren't serious. I'll use it to help guard one of the sides of the island."

An He jumped into the air and grabbed onto the Country Governor Kui's long horns to swing himself onto its back. The Country Governor Kui carried An He toward the other islands.

Lin Yuan did not have time to stand on ceremony with An He, but he made sure that he would remember what An He was doing for the rest of his life.

As he sensed the Mother of Bloodbath's condition, he found it was not in a good state. Even its aura was starting to weaken.

At that moment, the Mother of Bloodbath said weakly, "Lin Yuan, I've used up all the pure spirit qi you transferred into my body. I badly need a large amount of pure spirit qi and blood energy."

Lin Yuan looked at Liu Jie, and the two of them leaped into action.

Liu Jie immediately ordered the Dimensional Light Moth to spit out the Insect Queen to produce an army of Hurricane Owlet Moths.

Next, Liu Jie summoned a new insect-species carcinoma fey.

If anyone from Golden Edge City saw the insect-species carcinoma fey that Liu Jie summoned, they would immediately start to tremble in fear. The insect-species carcinoma fey that Liu Jie summoned was their nightmare—the Sawtooth Devour Ant.

If Chef Supreme had not produced the Soldier Ration Radish during the disaster, 2/3 of the people in Golden Edge City would have died.

Liu Jie ordered the Sawtooth Devour Ant to use its strong jaw to chew up the Crimson Tentacle Algae's body and split it into pieces that the Diamond X Hurricane Owlet Moths would be able to carry. The Hurricane Owlet Moths would then act as suicide deliverers as they would carry the pieces of the Crimson Tentacle Algae to the Mother of Bloodbath before destroying themselves.

While Liu Jie was busy with this, Lin Yuan was not idle either.

He entered the Spirit Lock spatial zone and plucked out all the Spirit-Mouthed Peonies' buds. Next, he used his powerful resistance to fire elements and used the wings made of Day and Night Spirit Silver to fly to the Mother of Bloodbath.

.....

Lin Yuan was no different from a moth making a beeline to a flame. However, he was smarter than a mere moth.

He stopped flying the moment the wings started to melt. From where he was, he injected the remaining vitality in the Vitality Imprint into the Mother of Bloodbath while tossing the Spirit-Mouthed Peonies full of spirit qi toward the Mother of Bloodbath.

When the large amount of blood energy and spirit qi entered the Mother of Bloodbath's body, the strips of sunlight lit up again.

At that point, Lin Yuan had done all that he could, and the rest was up to the Mother of Bloodbath.

The Sky Sundial Jade Spider bloodline became increasingly active as the sunlight fed energy into the Mother of Bloodbath's body.

One of the Mother of Bloodbath's eyes started to turn orange while the other was red. Slowly, the red crystal armor on the Mother of Bloodbath's body started to sublime. A long orange-red skirt appeared on the Mother of Bloodbath's body, and a crown formed from light appeared on its head.

At that moment, the Mother of Bloodbath resembled a sun goddess that was carrying all the radiance of the sun.

Just as the Mother of Bloodbath's condition started to improve, more chains of light fell from the sky.

All of a sudden, the Myth III World Cleansing materialized and snaked along the blazing sky. Although there were no clouds in sight, it was somehow apparent that thunderclouds were forming.

Three chains of sunlight simultaneously landed on the Mother of Bloodbath, drawing a strangled cry of excruciation out of it.

Half of the Mother of Bloodbath's body turned to ashes a moment later.

The Mother of Bloodbath said with a strained and hoarse voice, "Lin Yuan, enough spirit qi. I need to cool down desperately now. I think I'm at the most important point in unlocking the Sky Sundial Jade Spider bloodline. I need to hold on for a minute and ensure that my body doesn't become destroyed by the three belts of sunlight. If I can do that, I will be able to overcome the Myth III World Cleansing. The World Grace will then descend."

Lin Yuan immediately knew what he could do for the Mother of Bloodbath.

The Kill Food Sky Butterfly was guarding the ground. Given that it was Sovereign I/Creation I, it was perfectly capable of helping the Mother of Bloodbath overcome the World Cleansing without the Mother of Bloodbath having to sustain any injury. All the Mother of Bloodbath needed to do was sit tight and wait for the World Grace to arrive.

However, the Kill Food Sky Butterfly was unable to bring down the temperature.

But they were currently in the middle of the ocean, and seawater was the best instrument for decreasing temperature.

An even better method would be to turn the seawater into ice as it would allow the temperature to drop at a quicker rate.

At that moment, Lin Yuan was glad that he had instructed the Sacred Sword Wielding Queen to absorb the Vast Sea World Crystal and that he had used Night Crow Wither Attack instead of the new Sword Skill Attack of the Sea Leaping Whale in the fight with An He.

If he had used Attack of the Sea Leaping Whale, he would have no way of helping the Mother of Bloodbath decrease the temperature of the ribbons of sunlight.

Lin Yuan took a deep breath, and the sacred sword appeared in his hand once again. But this time, the sacred sword swirled with the light blue aura of a fusion of water and ice instead of the purple aura of a dark night.

He swung the sword, and a roiling wave could be heard around the island.

Lin Yuan flapped his wings and flew down to the surface of the water to activate Attack of the Sea Leaping Whale, which gathered the power of the sea.

Blue waves kicked up below Lin Yuan's feet seemed to be gauging the size of the water.

The seas a distance away from Raging Waves City were wide and lacked any ocean ridges or large islands.

When the waves split apart, a resounding whale cry could be heard coming from the bottom of the sea. Along with the cry of the whale embryo, this whale cry was longer and more drawn out.

The Island Whale embryo's cry was the cry of a young whale, while the whale cry coming from below Lin Yuan was the roar of an enormous whale when it was at its strongest.

When Lin Yuan opened his eyes, the might of the seawater kicked up a gust that caused his clothes to billow.

When Lin Yuan swung his blade toward the Mother of Bloodbath, two 2,000-meter-tall waves rose from two directions.

The two giant waves were so strong that they seemed to be able to crush everything in their path.

But instead of continuing to roll, the two whales stopped five meters away from the Mother of Bloodbath and solidified into 2,000-meter-tall waves of ice.
