

Merchant 321

Chapter 321: Wen Yu Who Took Over The Five Others' Resources

When Bai Hao heard that, he put down the clothes in his arms and pulled Liu Jie out. Liu Jie sighed. Bai Hao seemed to be serious!

Bai Hao really liked the Sparrow Voice Loli Goddess and not the feeling of rewarding in her live-streaming room, but that was what made it even harder.

Bai Hao did not know who the Sparrow Voice Loli Goddess was. He had only heard her voice. He did not have the mood to shop anymore and went back to his guild club.

Liu Jie also returned to the mansion with the fresh spiritual ingredients he had just bought.

In over a month's training outside, Liu Jie had become accustomed to the Insect Queen's Platinum ability inscribed with the Hurricane Owlet Moth's model. This gave Liu Jie the confidence he could rank among the Radiance Hundred Sequence's top 30.

It might even be possible to say that Liu Jie could reach the top 20 if he had a burst of strength. Nonetheless, Liu Jie did not dare to guarantee all this.

Although Liu Jie had become stronger in these three years, would other Radiance Hundred Sequence members have stagnated?

Thus, Liu Jie did not intend to expose his full strength in this Sequence ranking. He would just strive for Radiance Hundred Sequence's top 30.

This training session's strength increase boosted Liu Jie's confidence a little after finding out Lin Yuan was Black.

When Liu Jie arrived in the mansion, he saw Lin Yuan eating fruits and drinking tea with Wen Yu and Hu Quan. Liu Jie hurried to greet the three of them and took the fresh ingredients to cook. It was really not early now.

The sun was sinking to the west, and even the afterglow had disappeared. It was replaced by faint stars that dotted the sky.

Lin Yuan and Wen Yu hurriedly went to the kitchen to help, but Liu Jie chased them out. He didn't want them in the kitchen.

Although Liu Jie was not a chef, he was more than willing to turn his joy into food to share it with his comrades. This was the passion of Liu Jie, a man who was not very good with words.

Lin Yuan hurriedly rushed into the kitchen and shouted, "Big Brother Liu, make more. Two more people will come for dinner tonight."

When Liu Jie heard that he came out of the kitchen and looked at Lin Yuan before asking seriously, "How much do they eat?"

Lin Yuan did not know how much Endless Summer ate, but upon thinking of how much the Mother of Bloodbath ate, he replied, “A lot. Really a lot.”

Upon hearing that, Liu Jie immediately asked with a tinge of disbelief, “More than Wen Yu?”

Wen Yu was next to Liu Jie and felt like a bolt striking her head out of the blue. Liu Jie, a guy who failed to understand women, was hopeless. Lin Yuan was still a little more normal.

At that moment, Lin Yuan said, “Even if Wen Yu can eat four bowls of rice per meal, she can’t eat half the amount of food that one of our guests can eat!”

Upon hearing that, Liu Jie calculated the amount of rice he should prepare and returned to the kitchen to cook.

Wen Yu felt that the earlier bolt that had struck her head had turned and returned to the sky only for a thunderstorm to descend from the sky right after.

What did he mean by I can eat four bowls of rice per meal?

Wen Yu could not help but sigh in her heart.

Unfortunately, Liu Jie was not the only guy that failed to understand women—even Young Master Lin Yuan was such a person.

However, a doubt arose in Wen Yu’s head.

When have I ever eaten four bowls of rice?

The most I ate was only three and a half bowls!

While Liu Jie was cooking in the kitchen, the Mother of Bloodbath and Endless Summer arrived in the mansion.

This time, when the Mother of Bloodbath returned to the mansion, it did not immediately revert to its spider form and lie on the beam.

It was because Endless Summer had come to the mansion, and even though the Mother of Bloodbath knew everyone in the mansion, they did not know it.

Other than the time the Mother of Bloodbath had shown up in its human form to send back the unconscious Lin Yuan, it rarely had a sense of existence in the mansion. It was time to get to know each other after so long.

When the Mother of Bloodbath and Endless Summer came in, Wen Yu and Hu Quan immediately went forward to greet them. Even Liu Jie, who was cooking in the kitchen, also poked his head out and greeted them.

However, Lin Yuan could clearly feel a sense of restraint from Endless Summer and the Mother of Bloodbath. It was like the feeling of someone who had just visited someone’s home and was a bit formal when meeting the host.

This was really not like the style of Suzerain/Myth Breed experts like the Mother of Bloodbath and Endless Summer.

Lin Yuan was aware that although the Mother of Bloodbath and Endless Summer could take human form, it had not been long since they could do so. They both had been able to turn into human form during the past two months. Therefore, they were unfamiliar with interacting with humans.

Unlike other feys, the Mother of Bloodbath and Endless Summer had not formed a contract with humans when they were young. Instead, they had comprehended the Willpower Runes and became Myth Breed feys in the wild. They had little experience interacting with humans.

The most direct way to solve problems was speaking with strength. The Mother of Bloodbath and Endless Summer had to get along with the people in the mansion in the future.

Liu Jie cooked swiftly, and in less than an hour, the completely jade-textured wooden table was filled with food.

According to what Lin Yuan had said in advance, Liu Jie had purposely fried three large plates of chicken wings. There were sour, sweet, salty, aromatic, and spicy dishes on the table except for the bitter flavor.

This sumptuous meal seemed magical. It had allowed the Mother of Bloodbath and Endless Summer to get acquainted with Liu Jie, Wen Yu, and Hu Quan.

Just as Lin Yuan thought that the Mother of Bloodbath would once again change into its spider form and lie on the beam after the meal, Wen Yu had started to help the Mother of Bloodbath and Endless Summer tidy up an empty room.

Upon seeing this, Lin Yuan felt that he had really been negligent. He had always been under the impression that when the Mother of Bloodbath returned to the mansion, it would be lying on the beam outside. It was its unique lifestyle.

However, he did not know that it was only because the Mother of Bloodbath was not familiar with everyone, so it was lonely. But it was not too late to find out.

The addition of the Mother of Bloodbath and Endless Summer made this mansion more lively.

When they played the Fey Battle Flag game at night, each of the six parties attacked each other, and everything became chaotic.

After playing a few rounds of the game, Lin Yuan discovered that Wen Yu could win no matter how they played. She could even consume the least amount of resources and money to take over their resources and become the final winner.

Chapter 322: Celestial 1-Star

When Lin Yuan had previously played the Battle Flag game, he felt that Wen Yu was impressive, but not to this extent!

However, he could see her ability in deploying resources, which was simply a game of chess. It could be used in business and even in the planning and operation of a faction.

Lin Yuan intended to establish his faction. He had a powerhouse, Endless Summer, but he did not have a suitable strategist. If Wen Yu had the ability to deploy resources, plan, and operate, it could help Lin Yuan solve many problems.

Lin Yuan was meticulous in the establishment of his faction. Given his character and way of doing things, he decided he would never be someone who asked others to work but did nothing himself in his faction. He planned to find time to talk with Wen Yu about some ideas about his faction.

After playing this Battle Flag game, everyone returned to their rooms. At that moment, Lin Yuan found that Hu Quan had yet to return to his room to rest. Instead, he began to carefully carve those fine, completely jade-textured wood fragments in the living room.

Lin Yuan could not help but remind him, "Uncle Hu, it's late. Do it tomorrow. Your health matters."

Carving the completely jade-textured wood would not produce any noise. Lin Yuan was just afraid that Hu Quan's body might not be able to take it if he stayed up continuously.

When Lin Yuan enhanced feys for days and nights, he would even ensure that he had five hours of rest every day.

One's body was the capital to do everything. If one's body collapsed, then  $\tau\eta\epsilon\upsilon$  would have nothing.

Hu Quan replied with a smile, "I'm processing the fragment shape I need to make the Mother of Bloodbath's and Endless Summer's figures on the feature wall first. This way, it can all be arranged on the feature wall tomorrow."

As Hu Quan said this, his eyes betrayed warmth and profound meaning. The warmth was because Hu Quan had been by himself for so many years and had been used to solitude due to his profession.

But now, with these partners, even the middle-aged Hu Quan managed to experience a kind of thing called 'the serenity of the years' thanks to that meal with his partners.

Time was faint, and people loved to make noise and laugh. No one was an isolated island.

As for the profound meaning, it was because he had discovered that the Mother of Bloodbath and Endless Summer were Suzerain/Myth Breed feys.

Although Hu Quan was a king-class expert without a high aptitude who only possessed a Fantasy Breed fey, and the girl had changed their hair color, he still had rich experience.

Hu Quan felt that he had been unable to see through Lin Yuan, but all this did not matter to Hu Quan. He felt that since he had joined this mansion, he was akin to being a person on Lin Yuan's side. They would share joys and sorrows together.

Hu Quan had the awareness of a follower. He might not be able to help much in other areas, but if there was anything he could do as a Class 5 Spirit Craftsman, he would do it as a matter of course!

Lin Yuan returned to his room and released Genius from the Spirit Lock spatial zone. He wanted to release Genius during the meal to eat with everyone, but Genius wanted to stay with Chimey in the Spirit Lock spatial zone.

Although Chimey always gave Genius a headache, and Genius usually had to help Chimey solve many problems, there was no denying that Chimey was the most important family member to Genius in this world besides Lin Yuan.

Genius knew that Chimey was evolving, improving its quality, and getting stronger. However, Genius was not anxious about itself at all. It felt that it was not an ambitious fey.

Genius knew that Lin Yuan had treated it like a baby when it was ugly at that time. No matter how weak it was, Lin Yuan would not dislike it.

In Genius' opinion, it was already a cat's happiness to be able to follow by Lin Yuan's and Chimey's side.

Genius had the habit of licking its fur, but Lin Yuan still gave it a bath before helping it blow its delicate white fur dry. This habit had come about when Lin Yuan had taken Genius—a Hundred Questions Beast that was not even considered a fey—home.

A few years down the road, the habit had become natural. Even now, Genius no longer needed to bathe. But as long as there were any requirements, Lin Yuan would still give Genius a bath once a month.

After Lin Yuan returned to his room, he did not go to sleep immediately. Instead, he was prepared to have a Celestial Stairway duel on Star Web.

After all, Lin Yuan had not participated in a single Celestial Stairway duel ever since he reached the Celestial Stairway. He was now only at 0-star on the Star Web's Celestial Stairway.

Even if Lin Yuan had a Celestial Stairway's exclusive title, which could extend the Celestial Stairway duels' time limit, he felt there was no need to use this privilege.

He originally wanted to proceed to the Celestial Stairway matching as usual, but he instantly thought of Tian Ningning.

Therefore, he left a message for her on Star Web, saying that he was going to participate in a Celestial Stairway duel. He thought that Tian Ningning would not be on Star Web at that time, but to his surprise, she actually replied to his message within seconds.

After informing Tian Ningning, Lin Yuan matched with an opponent on the Celestial Stairway as usual.

As a matter of fact, if other people enjoyed Lin Yuan's popularity and prestige, they would have started a live-stream on Star Web long ago. This could increase their popularity, as well as the fans' recognition of them.

However, even when Lin Yuan reached the Celestial Stairway, he was still as low-profile as before. Tian Ningning was not disappointed in Lin Yuan's choice. She actually admired him. She knew that this silver-masked youth was always choosing to walk a very 'correct' path at all times, all the way forward without any presumptuous demands or sloppiness. The achievements that others see might only be 1/10 of what this youth revealed inadvertently.

Lin Yuan actually thought that he would be matched with a tough opponent this time, but his opponent only had two Gold IV/Elite feys.

Lin Yuan checked his opponent's information and found that he was also at Celestial 0-Star.

Lin Yuan felt that his opponent had no intention of fighting, so he simply let Chimey use Radiant Body to kill those two Gold IV/Elite deer feys.

It was a duel without any ripples. Lin Yuan took Hak Foo's stance when destroying the parking lot with his signature tornado and won his first Celestial Stairway duel.

At that moment, Lin Yuan checked his identity card.

Name: Black

Gender: Male

Height: 178cm

Weight: 61kg

Star Tower Floor: Celestial Stairway 1-Star

Spirit Qi Occupation: Healing-Type Professional

Occupation Rank: C-Rank

Exclusive Achievement: Straight to Celestial Stairway (No losing streak from Star Tower to Celestial Stairway)

Contracted Feys:

Morbius (Bronze X/Legend)

Thousand Questions Beast (Bronze X/Legend)

Twilight Starbird (Silver I/Fantasy I)

Red Thorn (Silver I/Fantasy I)

Acid Corrosion Queen Bee (Gold I/Legend)

Source Sand (Gold I/Fantasy I)

Duel Record:

(Star Tower) Duels: 100, Wins: 100, Losses: 0, Highest Floor: 100

(Celestial Stairway Promotion Duel) Duels: 2, Wins: 2, Losses: 0

(Celestial Stairway) Duels: 1, Wins: 1, Losses: 0, Consecutive Wins: 0, Highest Star: 1

Lin Yuan found that his Celestial Stairway record and his duel record had changed. There was an additional exclusive achievement.

Chapter 323: Listen's Plead

Lin Yuan's opponent had been wandering between Celestial Stairway and the promotion duels, and Lin Yuan sent him down the Celestial Stairway.

Tian Ningning accessed the Celestial Stairway's video library and watched Lin Yuan's battle. She found that she did not know what to write about this duel record.

For an exclusive reporter, the real difficulty was not to write about a wonder, evenly matched battle. Instead, it was really hard to write about a duel that ended in a few seconds.

Tian Ningning preferred writing the combat reports in the most authentic way. For this two-second duel's battle report, she planned to write two words, 'Instant kill', and be done with it.

After Lin Yuan finished the Celestial Stairway duel, he could not help but be a little confused.

Was it his bad luck to meet such strong opponents as Chen Hongfeng and Poison Beauty during the promotion duels, or was it that his luck was simply too good after he reached the Celestial Stairway that he met duelists that should not have appeared on the Celestial Stairway?

Lin Yuan had only just gone through training and did not intend to hone his combat skills on Star Web again.

Although Red Thorn had become a Silver/Fantasy Breed lifeform, it was clearly ineffective to increase the combat chemistry with Red Thorn in a place like Star Web.

A single-person duel on Star Web was not enough to let Red Thorn showcase its sea of flowers' power after reaching Silver I/Fantasy I. Thus, Lin Yuan did not proceed to the next Star Web duel again.

Instead, he logged out as Black, a combat-class spirit qi professional. Then he logged onto Star Web with his Creation Master identity.

Black usually received Star Web messages from Tian Ningning alone. However, his Creation Master message box was always full.

Lin Yuan could not handle this huge piece of news, so he stopped reading strangers' messages. Anyway, these people messaged him for trivial matters.

It was either they wanted to purchase Elite Spirit-Siphon Goldfish and Silver Usneas in large batches, or they wanted to ask him whether he had any extra Flower Brocade Pearls to exchange.

Of course, the most frequent of these messages were asking him whether he had any Bronze/Epic feys to trade.

After all, nothing could attract the attention of a spirit qi professional who had comprehended a Willpower Rune more than a Bronze/Epic fey. Even if there were any, there were probably only Bronze/Legend feys.

If someone posted a message wanting to receive a Bronze/Legend fey, everyone would probably think that said person was stupid or had drunk and eaten cephalosporin.

At this moment, Lin Yuan noticed that someone on his friend list had sent him messages. The friends that he had added as a Creation Master and as Black were the same. There were hardly a few of them.

Except for the braised egg head occasionally being talkative and Zhou Jiaxin finding him to talk about the store dividends, there were very few added friends who would look for him.

Listen, who was on his friend list, had sent him three messages at once a few days ago. Lin Yuan opened them and raised his brows before furrowing them.

Listen: "Expert, I wonder if you can enhance contracted Bronze/Flawless feys and raise them to Epic?"

Listen: "Expert, if it's possible, I would like to ask for a chance. You can set your price as long as I can afford it."

Listen: "Expert, it's very urgent. Please help me."

Lin Yuan could feel the anxiety from Listen's messages.

Based on his messages, Lin Yuan felt that Listen was pleading rather than saying that he wanted to trade. Listen should have encountered some kind of problem.

Lin Yuan had a dealing with Listen once before. Lin Yuan's impression of Listen was only limited to knowing that he had a very high emotional intelligence and was extremely good at handling interpersonal relationships.

He could integrate into a new group through his emotional intelligence and become the center of collective attention. It was just like Lin Yuan's dealings with Listen.

Listen had found that the exclusive skill, Mind Vulnerability, that his Bronze/Epic fey, Pain Illusory Fox, which Lin Yuan had provided, had comprehended was very good. As a result, Listen had sent an extra cubic meter of Day and Night Spirit Silver as a gift of gratitude.

It was evident that Listen was attentive in befriending him. Among the three messages he had sent, he had used the word 'please'. This was akin to Listen using the friendly relations they had established. He should already be desperate.

It was possible to buy a Bronze/Epic fey on the market through some auctions. If one could buy a suitable Bronze/Epic fey through a trade or auction, it would be like hitting the jackpot.

However, if one wanted to find a Creation Master to help to raise a fey's quality to Epic at Bronze, it was completely different from buying a Bronze/Epic fey.

If one was looking for a Creation Master to help improve their contracted fey's quality, they at least had to be able to invite one.

Being able to enhance a Bronze fey from Flawless to Epic showed that the invited Creation Master needed to be at least Class 4.

They might even have to be intermediate Class 4 Creation Masters and above to be able to say with certainty that they could raise the Flawless Bronze fey to Epic.

In this world, Creation Masters' resources were the most scarce. Otherwise, they would not have been so revered in this world.

There were only a few Class 4 Creation Masters in the entire Radiance Federation, less than 20 pinnacle Class 4 Creation Masters, and only three Class 5 Creation Masters.

Each Class 4 or higher Creation Masters was unparalleled and amazing. If a Class 4 Creation Master wanted to take the order of nurturing feys, countless factions of all sizes would rush to contribute resources just to get the chance to improve the grade and quality of their feys.

Thus, it was difficult to hire a Class 4 Creation Master to help raise feys from Flawless to Epic. Moreover, Listen had not set a cap on the price he could pay in his requested trade. This meant that Listen had not hesitated to take all his resources to exchange for a chance to improve his fey's quality.

Lin Yuan had a rather good impression of Listen. If he could afford to pay enough for this deal, Lin Yuan would not mind helping him.

Chapter 324: Dragon's Mouth Orchid

It might pose some difficulty to an intermediate Class 4 Creation Master to raise a Bronze/Flawless fey to Epic. However, it was not a big deal to Lin Yuan. He could get it done easily.

Lin Yuan replied to him.

Deep Mountain Elder Lin: "I can consider if you have three source-type items."

Since Listen had sent the message a few days ago, Lin Yuan did not expect him to be able to reply to his message now.

Ever since Lin Yuan had received the round item that the Mother of Bloodbath had given him, he had the thought of collecting more source-type items.

This was because the source-type item that the Mother of Bloodbath felt was odd and useless was exactly what Liu Jie needed the most.

The value of source-type items varied from person to person. There were no useless source-type items, only people who were not suitable. Therefore, the source-type items were a very precious and irreplaceable material. In short, there was no harm in collecting more source-type items.

When he logged off Star Web, Lin Yuan found that Genius was lying on all fours on the bed, sleeping soundly. He then gingerly went over and covered Genius with the blanket.

Lin Yuan still felt he was not sleepy. He took the weed-like Dragon's Mouth Orchid that he had picked deep in the Endless Forest out of his Diamond fey storage box. He was prepared to nurture it.

After taking out the Normal Dragon's Mouth Orchid, Lin Yuan examined it for a moment and realized that he could not really tell that it was an orchid fey without using Morbius' True Data.

Most orchid feys were simply no different from weeds when they did not bloom at Normal. There was not much difference between this Dragon's Mouth Orchid and the White Jade Snow Orchid that Lin Yuan had obtained when they did not bloom at Normal.

If he were to really distinguish it in detail, the Dragon's Mouth Orchid's slender leaves had a few faint gradient lines compared to the White Jade Snow Orchid. Their leaves were also more slender.

Although orchid feys were nothing special when they did not bloom, they would live up to the 'nobleman of flowers' reputation.

Among plums, orchids, bamboo, and chrysanthemums, the four most elegant flowers, orchid feys were considered a relatively precious type of fey.

The White Jade Snow Orchid that Lin Yuan had nurtured was not considered a superior-class orchid. However, the Dragon's Mouth Orchid that he was holding onto was a prestigious class of superior orchids.

Lin Yuan entered the Spirit Lock spatial zone with this Normal Dragon's Mouth Orchid. He started to channel his spiritual power into it and enhance it. This Normal Dragon's Mouth Orchid constantly improved its quality and grade bit by bit in Lin Yuan's hands.

When this Dragon's Mouth Orchid actually broke through to Bronze, a thick flower stalk that bore a dark-blue flower bud sprang out of the few slender orchid leaves with gradient colors.

While Lin Yuan was constantly injecting spiritual power into this Dragon's Mouth Orchid, the large flower bud was also unfolding.

When it was promoted to Bronze X/Epic, its flower fully bloomed. The beautiful dark-blue flower was the size of a palm. A Dragon's Mouth Orchid grew only a stalk, while a stalk only bloomed a flower.

The Dragon's Mouth Orchid's flower was unique in shape, just like the tongue of a dragon-species fey. Scale-shaped woody tissues grew in the middle of the flower core. Under the light, these woody tissues would faintly reflect light. It was as if there was a layer of dragon-species scales growing on the surface. Although these scales would reflect light, they had a velvet texture and felt magical.

When the Dragon's Mouth Orchid's flower bloomed, Lin Yuan smelled an intoxicating aroma. The smell was not considered unpleasant, but people found it a little cloying since it was too strong.

However, the value of its flowers did not lie in their smell. Rather, it was the fact that the Dragon's Mouth Orchid's flowers could stimulate a dragon-species fey's latent bloodline. This was why the Dragon's Mouth Orchid could be called a superior-grade orchid among the orchid feys.

Lin Yuan did not hesitate to break off the Dragon's Mouth Orchid's large dark-blue flower from the flower stalk.

If the Dragon's Mouth Orchid wanted to ensure that its flower could awaken a fey with a dragon-species bloodline to the maximum extent, it was necessary to pick its flower when it was in full bloom. Otherwise, if he was a little late, the dark-blue flower would wilt and lose some of its effectiveness.

The Dragon's Mouth Orchid's flower had a very short flowering period. After blooming, the Dragon's Mouth Orchid's flower could only bloom for less than an hour.

Thus, Creation Masters had to be very careful when nurturing Dragon's Mouth Orchids. Otherwise, when they returned after being busy with something, their painstakingly nurtured Dragon Tongue's Orchid flower would likely have withered.

Although Lin Yuan picked the large dark-blue flower from the Dragon's Mouth Orchid, he did not intend to let Blackie use the flower to activate its dragon-species bloodline.

This was because the higher the quality of a fey like the Dragon's Mouth Orchid, the more effective its flower would be in stimulating the dragon-species bloodline.

This orchid flower had condensed when the Dragon's Mouth Orchid was at Epic and not Legend.

Therefore, the dark-blue Dragon's Mouth Orchid flower could not stimulate Blackie's dragon-species bloodline to the maximum extent.

Lin Yuan planned to keep this dark-blue flower as a resource to exchange for other materials.

Most of the Dragon's Mouth Orchids on the market were light blue. They were the Dragon's Mouth Orchid's bloomed flowers at Flawless.

It was almost unheard of that the dark-blue Dragon's Mouth Orchid flower would appear in the market.

The Dragon's Mouth Orchid's quality determined the ability of its flower to activate the dragon-species bloodline. On the other hand, the Dragon's Mouth Orchid's grade determined the time it took for a flower to bloom.

The Dragon's Mouth Orchid was a fey that required a very high concentration of spirit qi. The pure spirit qi within the Spirit Lock spatial zone could allow the Dragon's Mouth Orchid to bloom the next flower again relatively quickly.

Chapter 325: Pitiful Little Fellow

If normal Creation Masters were to nurture the Dragon's Mouth Orchid, the blooming cycle would depend on the Creation Master's capability.

If a Class 3 Creation Master wished to make a Bronze Dragon's Mouth Orchid bloom, it would need around one year.

If it was a Class 4 Creation Master, the time would be cut down to nine months.

However, Lin Yuan was observing the Dragon's Mouth Orchid's condition in the Spirit Lock spatial zone. If he wanted it to bloom again, it would need another four months.

But Lin Yuan didn't mind. He had already decided to upgrade this Dragon's Mouth Orchid from Bronze X/Epic to Bronze X/Legend.

Once the Dragon's Mouth Orchid's quality was upgraded to Legend, it would immediately bloom without a need for the blooming cycle.

Since Lin Yuan wanted to use the Dragon's Mouth Orchid to stimulate Blackie's dragon-species bloodline, he wanted to use the best.

Therefore, Lin Yuan was planning to find time to nurture this Dragon's Mouth Orchid from Epic to Legend quality.

To what extent would the Legend Dragon's Mouth Orchid be able to stimulate the dragon-species bloodline within Blackie? Lin Yuan was looking forward to finding out.

If Blackie was able to stimulate the dragon-species bloodline before upgrading into a Fantasy Breed, it would allow Blackie to have more chances to shift in species due to the bloodline purity when it became a Fantasy Breed.

It would allow the dragon-species bloodline to slowly devour the fish-species bloodline, allowing Blackie to evolve into a dragon-species fey.

Lin Yuan truly wished that Blackie would be able to progress in grade rapidly. If Blackie was able to become a Fantasy Breed and progress in grade, then its Spirit Qi Imprint would have a better effect. It would help to enhance Lin Yuan's ability to accumulate spirit qi in the Spirit Qi Imprint.

Blackie's Spirit Qi Imprint had helped Lin Yuan greatly on many occasions. It was already considered Lin Yuan's trump card.

Blackie was still Bronze X/Legend, and the amount of spirit qi it could release constantly wasn't considered much. However, if Blackie could evolve into a Silver/Fantasy fey, the amount of spirit qi it could gather in the Spirit Qi Imprint would be ten times more than what it could right now.

However, Lin Yuan was rather worried too. He didn't know when he could comprehend a Willpower Rune that was suitable for Blackie.

Lin Yuan wasn't planning to enhance the Dragon's Mouth Orchid and upgrade its quality to Legend right now. Given his current capability, it would still need five days for him to upgrade a Bronze/Epic fey to the Legend quality. It was truly too long, and he had other important matters to attend to first.

Therefore, this matter had to be slightly delayed.

All of a sudden, Lin Yuan recalled that he found that grayish avian species fey in the Endless Forest, which had a wingspan of close to one meter and a height of fifty centimeters.

Back then, with Morbius' ability, True Data, Lin Yuan had already confirmed that the grayish avian species fey was a crane-species fey. However, due to the crane-species fey's genetic model, it was impossible to develop without concentrated spirit qi. Therefore, the crane-species fey had hidden all of its special traits.

As a result, Lin Yuan wasn't able to differentiate the subspecies of this crane-species fey even after using True Data.

Lin Yuan summoned the crane-species fey from the Diamond fey storage box. When inside the fey storage box, the crane-species fey had been weak and listless. When it was suddenly summoned, Lin Yuan could feel its terror and fear, making it look weak and helpless.

Lin Yuan could see this little fellow shrinking its body and doing its best to reduce its sense of existence.

Lin Yuan was about to move, but he paused. This little fellow was obviously nervous and afraid, but it was so weak that it couldn't even make any additional movements.

This sense of deep helplessness was something that Lin Yuan felt when he had been seeking survival with Chu Ci ten years ago.

However, after gritting his teeth, they still managed to survive. Therefore, Lin Yuan understood there wasn't any burden in this world that couldn't be withstood.

Lin Yuan immediately circulated the spirit qi within his body and used both hands to channel a large amount of pure spirit qi into this little fellow's body.

After a long period of time, this grayish little fellow started to become more active.

Once Lin Yuan injected his spirit qi, he realized how bad this fey's internal condition was. At the same time, he was silently shocked and was wondering what subspecies this crane was.

Why would it actually require such a massive amount of pure spirit qi to slowly develop the body's genetic model?

According to the current situation, this crane-species fey would never be able to survive in nature.

This grayish little fellow felt the spirit qi that was provided by Lin Yuan and weakly opened its eyes that had been half-closed.

When Lin Yuan saw this little fellow's eyes, they looked just like the purest black gemstones. They might be a little dim, but they had an intelligent glimmer.

Lin Yuan reached out to tidy up the crane's gray feathers. He noticed there was plenty of dust and some leaves trapped within the feathers.

As such, Lin Yuan took the crane out of the Spirit Lock spatial zone and carefully gave it a shower like how he gave Genius a shower earlier.

Subsequently, Lin Yuan dried up the gray feathers on this little fellow.

After a cleaning session, the crane was still grayish, but it looked to be much more energetic.

Lin Yuan then brought the little fellow back into the Spirit Lock spatial zone and started to inject large amounts of pure spirit qi into the Normal crane-species fey.

After one hour, Lin Yuan stopped.

The little fellow's genetic model was severely incomplete, and it couldn't be resolved quickly. It could only be slowly recovered. Therefore, this little fellow would need to reside in this Spirit Lock spatial zone for a period in order to recover slowly.

Lin Yuan planned to leave this crane-species fey inside the Spirit Lock spatial zone. However, when Lin Yuan was about to leave, he realized that this little fellow was even more reliant than Genius.

Perhaps, it was because it had never received any warmth and care from humans. The crane-species fey was looking at Lin Yuan with intimate and pitiful eyes.

Lin Yuan rubbed its little head and brought it beside the Cinnabar Sweet Osmanthus, which had already grown green leaves on its branches.

A crane-species fey's bloodline evolution path was entirely different from a phoenix's bloodline evolution path.

Chapter 326: New Sequence Exam

The crane-species fey might also benefit from the Phoenix Perching Chinese Parasol Tree, as the tree was able to purify an avian species fey's bloodline. However, Lin Yuan didn't wish for Chimey's quality upgrade to be affected.

Therefore, Lin Yuan made a nest for this grayish little fellow on the Cinnabar Sweet Osmanthus. The Cinnabar Sweet Osmanthus had the special effects of getting rid of the evil and congeal the spirit. It was obviously a good choice for this little fellow, which was rather worried about this unfamiliar environment.

Furthermore, it was very meaningful to make a nest on the Cinnabar Sweet Osmanthus, as the young crane would be considered a new resident. Hopefully, this Cinnabar Sweet Osmanthus would be able to provide some blessings to this young crane that had a life of misfortune.

Lin Yuan looked at this grayish little fellow that truly didn't want him to leave. Lin Yuan involuntarily had the idea to bring this young crane outside. However, after considerations, it was obviously the better choice to keep this young crane in the Spatial Lock spatial zone to nurture its genetic model.

This fellow required the abundance of pure spirit qi in the Spirit Lock spatial zone to repair the genetic model's flaws. Perhaps after a period, this young crane might be able to regain the noble and grand appearance that belonged to a crane-species fey.

But the required period would be rather long.

As Lin Yuan looked at this pitiful young crane, which was reliant on him but afraid of the unfamiliar environment, he couldn't help recalling the time he had brought back Chimey and Genius from the fey market.

It was unknown why Lin Yuan produced a tender affection toward this young crane. He decided that it didn't matter what this young crane was going to become in the future—he was going to keep it by his side!

This young crane was obviously still an infant fey. Lin Yuan felt grief when he thought that this young crane was facing the fate of death when it was just born. But at the same time, he was also very happy.

Because of Lin Yuan's existence, this young crane that had been awaiting death could have a very good future.

After exiting from the Spirit Lock spatial zone, Lin Yuan hugged Genius and went into a deep slumber.

Just as Lin Yuan was sleeping, the Radiance Sacred Hall was in clear light. Everyone there was working extra hours.

“Old Song, this year’s Radiance Hundred Sequence exam has a great change as compared to last year.”

The person speaking was a slender middle-aged man. He didn’t look old and looked to be only slightly above 30. However, his hairline had already receded to the back of his head, making the crown bald.

This slender bald man was currently standing next to a fair and fat man, who looked just like a sesame ball. The fair and fat man was constantly writing on a form.

When the fat and skinny men were put together, they looked to be very harmonious.

The fair and fat man had this excited expression as he said, “Old Feng, you don’t say. The upper echelons are too brilliant. The current Radiance Hundred Sequence exam is all about combat capability in the wilderness. Those incapable can’t even participate.”

The fair and fat man’s voice carried a very excited tone. In his opinion, in order to test a person’s true strength, it wasn’t enough to measure it through duels on a stage. A duel wouldn’t be comprehensive enough to measure a person’s capability.

Only by simulating a genuine dangerous environment and testing the survivability was enough to test a person’s potential in other aspects.

Aspects like facing pressure, adaptability to dangers, determination, and interpersonal interactions.

If survivability was tested under an extremely dangerous environment, then the final survivor would definitely be the person with the strongest overall strength.

In the past, during the Radiance Hundred Sequence exams, the offense-type, and defense-type spirit qi professionals had always had the advantage.

The support-type spirit qi professionals, adept at control and with some offensive capabilities, would also be able to deal with duel-based exams.

However, it would be very unfavorable for those traditionally ‘weak’ support and healing-type spirit qi professionals.

At that moment, the skinny bald man shouted, “What the hell? Old Song, are you insane? Hurry up and revise this proposal of a Class 3 dimensional rift! What if a Class 5 dimensional lifeform appears in the Class 3 dimensional rift? That thing has the strength of a Diamond fey and will kill anyone it sees! What exam will there be!?”

Due to the Moon Empress’ proposal, it had been approved by the Imperial Court. Therefore, the Radiance Hundred Sequence exam had an unprecedented change.

In the past, all the Radiance Hundred Sequence exams had all been conducted in a duel format in the Radiance Sacred Hall.

After the exam, it would ultimately decide the ten young prodigies of the year. They would then be used to replace the Radiance Hundred Sequence #91 to #100.

This new exam format of Radiance Hundred Sequence was placed on the Star Web.

It was no longer going to be conducted in a duel format. Instead, it would be conducted in a giant virtual zone that was designed by the Radiance Sacred Hall and the Star Web's officials.

This virtual zone was designed with various types and various classes of dimensional rifts. Furthermore, this year's Radiance Hundred Sequence exam was very stringent.

The participants would need to survive in the various classes and types of dimensional rifts. The final ten young prodigies that survived wouldn't have to go through other exams and would be immediately promoted to become a Radiance Hundred Sequence.

Furthermore, regardless of gender and age, anyone would be able to view the live stream of this Radiance Hundred Sequence exam on the Star Web.

The ability to survive might have something to do with luck, however, in the opinion of this skinny bald man, if there was a Class 3 dimensional rift among the exam, it would be truly dependent on luck!

If they were to propose such classes and types of dimensional rifts, the two of them might really have to get lost from the Radiance Sacred Hall.

The fair and fat man replied awkwardly, "Old Feng, it is fortunate that you are around. You will always be the ice to make me sober."

The skinny bald man shivered and said, "Stop being disgusting and quickly revise it."

As a result, the skinny bald Old Feng and the fair and fat Old Song discussed the entire night.

Finally, they decided to open up 8 Class 2 abyss dimensional rifts and 12 pinnacle Class 1 alien insect dimensional rifts.

"Old Song, why don't we revise the 12 pinnacle Class 1 alien insect dimensional rifts into marsh dimensional rifts!?"

Chapter 327: How Can You Fish Out Real Gold Without Creating Huge Waves?

At that moment, under the skinny bald Old Feng's dumbfounded eyes, a fair man as fat as a sesame ball—Old Song—took out his pen. He then switched the positions of the abyss dimensional rift and the alien insect dimensional rift on the proposal.

He changed it from 8 Class 2 abyss dimensional rifts and 12 pinnacle Class 1 alien insect dimensional rifts into 8 Class 2 alien insect dimensional rifts and 12 pinnacle Class 1 demon dimensional rifts.

"Old Song, you're too ruthless changing it like that!"

In Old Feng's opinion, such a switch would undoubtedly be akin to adding numerous high-grade combatants while enhancing those low-grade combatants.

The terror of Class 2 alien insect dimensional rifts could not be compared to the Class 2 abyss dimensional rifts. There were at least over five times the dimensional lifeforms.

Those low-grade combatants in the Class 1 dimensional rift had been switched to the strongest abyss dimensional rift. The test's difficulty had increased by several times with this simple change.

At that moment, Old Song said solemnly, "How can you fish out real gold without creating huge waves?"

Just as dawn was about to arrive, that contingency plan, which obviously only had a few words but had been delayed all night, was sent to an ordinary middle-aged man, who had previously been sitting on one of the Imperial Court council's 13 seats.

He looked at the proposal for a long time. He eventually got up and went to the Star Web official. However, all this was hidden in the sunlight with no one knowing.

The rising sun in the early morning shone on Lin Yuan's face, waking him up from his slumber. He stretched and washed up before he went downstairs with the half-asleep Genius.

Genius felt warm in Lin Yuan's embrace, and it soon fell asleep again and snored. Lin Yuan simply put Genius on the water rhinoceros leather sofa in the first floor's living room, letting it have a good rest on the soft sofa.

Although Genius had now evolved into a Thousand Questions Beast, it had evolved from a housekeeping beast, the Hundred Questions Beast.

A cat species like the Hundred Questions Beast was very fond of sleeping. Even if Genius had long broken through a Hundred Questions Beast's limit, becoming a Bronze X/Legend Thousand Questions Beast, it still had the habit of sleeping.

Lin Yuan noticed that at this time last year, Genius could sleep over 16 hours. But now, even though it seemed to be a little lazy every day, it had no problem after sleeping around ten hours.

Liu Jie was currently setting breakfast on the table. Ever since Lin Yuan, Liu Jie, and Wen Yu had started living in this mansion, as long as Liu Jie was there in the morning, he would prepare breakfast.

Today's breakfast was honey pancakes, hot fruit kernel porridge, and freshly squeezed banana milk. However, the strong food aroma made Lin Yuan, who had just woken up from sleep and had an empty stomach, feel hungry.

Liu Jie's breakfast this morning was obviously richer than before. Wen Yu, who was helping Liu Jie set the table, rolled her eyes at him.

Without needing to guess, Lin Yuan knew that Liu Jie must have asked Wen Yu how much she could eat for breakfast again.

He felt that Liu Jie was a guy who simply failed to understand women. How could he ask a girl how much she could eat for a meal?

If Lin Yuan made breakfast, he would certainly politely ask Wen Yu whether four bowls of rice were enough to save her from the embarrassment.

The porcelain tableware made from burning ores or metal had been replaced ever since Hu Quan's arrival.

With Hu Quan's addition, an unfathomable Class 5 Spirit Craftsman, the tableware in the mansion had been carved with completely jade-textured wood.

Lin Yuan looked at the tableware and the honey pancakes on it. He could not help but sigh. There was a natural and fresh feeling using the jade-textured wooden tableware to contain food. It was simply the best choice.

After Liu Jie had witnessed how much the Mother of Bloodbath and Endless Summer could eat yesterday, he no longer felt that Wen Yu could eat a lot.

In the morning, Liu Jie deliberately got up half an hour earlier to cook a few more pans of honey pancakes. He had clearly prepared them for the Mother of Bloodbath and Endless Summer.

In a short while, the Mother of Bloodbath and Endless Summer left their room. The Mother of Bloodbath's nostrils moved, and it came to the dining table. It looked at the breakfast on the table and could not help but gulp.

The Mother of Bloodbath was a foodie in nature and loved all sorts of food. Given Liu Jie's cooking skills, in the Mother of Bloodbath's opinion, the food he made was much more delicious than those the Spirit Food Pavilion's masters cooked.

As the Mother of Bloodbath looked at the breakfast Liu Jie had made, it felt it could quit the food club it had joined.

The Mother of Bloodbath found that the food its food club friends recommended was not on the same level as the one Liu Jie made.

Since Liu Jie had made a lot of honey pancakes and fruit kernel porridge, the Mother of Bloodbath and Endless Summer could eat as much as they wished.

After eating, Lin Yuan thought about his decision to establish a guild club, so he said to Liu Jie, "Big Brother Liu, I want to establish a guild club. Are you interested in joining?"

When Liu Jie heard Lin Yuan's question, he revealed a happy smile. He quickly nodded and replied, "Lin Yuan, if you didn't ask me, I would ask you in the next two days whether you had any intention of establishing a guild club."

In Liu Jie's opinion, Lin Yuan was amazingly talented and powerful. Moreover, Lin Yuan also intended to compete in the Radiance Hundred Sequence, so there was no reason not to compete in the S Tournament.

Lin Yuan's combat style was so comprehensive it was hard to make a conventional definition. He managed to be a healing-type spirit qi professional, support-type spirit qi professional, and combat-class spirit qi professional.

It could be said that his combat style was all-rounded, so in Lin Yuan's case, he could join any guild club he wanted.

As long as Lin Yuan used his identity as Black and expressed his intention to join a guild club, most guild clubs would probably come to invite him.

Although he could join the S Tournament by joining a guild club established by someone else, he would lose the upper hand. Liu Jie felt that Lin Yuan establishing a guild club was undoubtedly the best choice.

Chapter 328: Three Treasures Tea

When Lin Yuan heard Liu Jie say so, he smiled brightly and revealed his teeth.

“Big Brother Liu, I’ll go to the Guild Alliance to apply for the establishment of a guild club in the next two days.”

Liu Jie replied, “Lin Yuan, I’m going to take part in the Radiance Hundred Sequence in two days. I will obtain a place in the Radiance Hundred Sequence at that time.

“At the same time, I will push down one Radiance Hundred Sequence member, so there’ll be 11 Sequence members taking part in the Radiance Hundred Sequence test this year.”

Lin Yuan nodded at his words.

This meant that this year’s Radiance Hundred Sequence test was more competitive than in the past.

The 11 members who were not in the Radiance Hundred Sequence would also take part in the test. If they passed, they would return to the Radiance Hundred Sequence rankings and would not quit.

Every year, a few Radiance Hundred members would return to the Sequence. Therefore, only fewer than ten newcomers could enter the Radiance Hundred Sequence through the test every year. There would only be at least four to five newcomers ranked among the Radiance Hundred Sequence every year and six to seven of them at most.

After all, the Radiance Hundred Sequence members from #90 to #100 were not to be underestimated in strength. However, Lin Yuan did not care much about this.

After seeing the strength of Long Tao, Shi Xu, Zhao Xiaochun, and Fang Duoduo in the controlled Class 3 abyss dimensional rift—even though Lin Yuan knew they had not revealed their trump cards—he could vaguely guess the Radiance Hundred Sequence members’ strength.

Given his current strength, he did not dare to say that he could rank in the top 90 in the Radiance Hundred Sequence. Nonetheless, it was not impossible to compete for the Radiance Hundred Sequence #91 to #100.

Moreover, during the Radiance Hundred Sequence test in two months, Lin Yuan could use the spirit qi crystals condensed on the small limestone bowl through Morbius’ Spirit Qi Condensation to enhance his feys’ grade.

At that moment, Liu Jie said, “I’m going to compete for a spot in Radiance Hundred Sequence #20 to #30 and also find out my old friends’ strength.

“If you want to establish a guild club, I can apply at the Guild Alliance after I become a Radiance Hundred Sequence member.

“At that time, you can save a lot of steps.”

Lin Yuan’s eyes lit up when he heard that. Although it was not difficult to apply for a guild club, there had to be special personnel to review the venue and estimate the guild club’s organizer’s economic level. They wanted to verify whether the daily expenses of a guild club could be supported.

Only when the conditions were met would one then be allowed to establish a guild club. After the guild club’s base was built, special personnel would come for a second review. Only after a successful review would the name of the newly established guild club be recorded by the Guild Alliance before it became a recognized guild club.

If the Radiance Hundred Sequence members applied for the establishment of a guild club, they could save these steps.

Lin Yuan intended to establish the guild club on the vacant land reserved behind the mansion, which would be inconvenient if the Guild Alliance’s people came to inspect.

Since Liu Jie had to go through the Radiance Hundred Sequence’s internal assessment in the next two days, it would be good to wait until Liu Jie was done with it before applying directly.

There was obviously not enough time to contract the source-type item, the Cocoon of Evolution, and use it to enhance the Insect Queen’s abilities. Thus, Lin Yuan had not given the suitable source-type Cocoon of Evolution to Liu Jie yet.

In his opinion, it would be better to wait for Liu Jie to return to the Radiance Hundred Sequence before he gave him the Cocoon of Evolution.

At that time, the Cocoon of Evolution would be a gift to celebrate Liu Jie’s return to the Radiance Hundred Sequence.

Lin Yuan chatted for a while with Liu Jie before the latter went to intensify his training.

Hu Quan used different sizes and colors of completely jade-textured wood fragments to do a collage of his own image on the feature wall.

As Lin Yuan looked at the patterns on the feature wall, he found that Hu Quan had finished the Mother of Bloodbath’s and Endless Summer’s images at some point last night.

Lin Yuan could not help but put his hand on his forehead. Hu Quan couldn’t have been up all night last night, right?

Hu Quan used up all the completely jade-textured wood fragments in his hand and was almost done putting his image on the feature wall.

After he was done with that, Hu Quan stood up and stretched, clearly tired enough.

Despite being tired, Hu Quan looked at this feature wall, his face full of complacency and excitement. It could be seen how satisfied he was with his work.

When Lin Yuan saw Hu Quan stand up, he poured a small cup of hot tea from the teapot on the table and handed it over before saying, "Uncle Hu, have a cup of Three Treasures Tea."

Mystic Moon had sent the Three Treasures Tea before Lin Yuan had left for training.

The Three Treasures Tea was a kind of spirit tea made from three kinds of feys and could relieve fatigue and restore physical strength. The Three Treasures referred to the plum blossoms, Buddha's hands, and pine nuts.

"The color of the plum blossom is not alluring, the fragrance of the Buddha's hand is clear, and the pine nuts have a rich flavor. The Three Treasures taste good."

Each spiritual ingredient in the Three Treasures Tea was Platinum.

The Buddha's hand used were those from Radiance Moon Mountain's garden. The Diamond Buddha's hand flowers were dried and sliced. It could be said to be a rare product.

Hu Quan took a sip of the Three Treasures Tea and said, "Lin Yuan, you have such a good deal of good stuff here. Just this tea alone is absolutely extraordinary. When I visited the house of the Class 5 Spirit Craftsman Master, Fu Zhen, the tea was not as good as this.

"You have to know that besides crafting things as a Spirit Craftsman, the thing he loves most is making and tasting tea."

Upon hearing that, Lin Yuan could not help but shake his head. People who did not love tea might be able to assess whether the tea was good or bad by its value. However, those who really loved tea had their own favorite type of tea.

Lin Yuan also took a Dehua porcelain teacup and poured the Three Treasures Tea into it before he scraped the lid twice over the mouth.

When he picked up the teacup, and before it reached his mouth, he smelled the aroma that leaped to the tip of his nose. Lin Yuan felt that this Three Treasures Tea had a warm aroma, but it was not his favorite kind of tea.

Chapter 329: Legend Wood Weaving House Centipede

Lin Yuan had heard before that the best way to eat pine nuts was to make tea. Adding a few pine nuts when brewing the tea would produce a light oil that contained the unique pine fragrance from pine feys.

This could make a pot of tea rich in aroma and smooth in the mouth. One could taste the relaxation of the pine in the mountains and forest.

However, Lin Yuan did not like the rich aroma mixed in this kind of tea. Instead, he liked light tea like the Dark Dream Tea that Cai Cha made.

At that moment, Hu Quan gulped down the contents in the teacup, smacked his lips, and said, "I'm going out for almost half a month. I'll use half my life's savings to see if I can get a Bronze/Epic fey."

Hu Quan said this with some faint melancholy. After Hu Quan had comprehended the Willpower Rune, he had been worrying about this Bronze/Epic fey. If he did not contract a Bronze/Epic fey, it would take very long for him to promote his fey to Legend and fuse it with the newly comprehended Willpower Rune for it to become a Fantasy Breed.

In this case, even if Hu Quan had comprehended another Willpower Rune, it would still be far in the indefinite future if he wanted to become a Class 5 Spirit Craftsman.

After listening to Hu Quan, Lin Yuan put the teacup on the tea table made of completely jade-textured wood next to him.

He asked inadvertently, "Uncle Hu, are there any particular feys that you're looking for?"

Hu Quan lifted his hand and summoned a graceful half-meter-long dark-green praying mantis. The surface of this dark-green praying mantis' armor emitted a texture between jade and metal.

The two scythe-like arms in front did not have barbs like the mantis feys' arms. They were very smooth instead. However, the faint cold flare that appeared on it could show how sharp the scythe was. The most bizarre thing was that the abdomen of this mantis fey was round like a small drum.

Lin Yuan used True Data to check the mantis fey that Hu Quan had summoned. At a glance, he discovered that it was called Jade Severing Blade Mantis. It was a Platinum VI/Fantasy I fey.

Its main function was to swallow metals into its belly, which could then be turned into a special paste for Hu Quan.

The Jade Severing Blade Mantis could also cut metals in any shape like tofu while still ensuring the metal's surface's smoothness during the cutting process.

This was not just due to how sharp the Jade Severing Blade Mantis' arms were. It was mostly because its exclusive skill could allocate and change the shape of the metal at will.

It could be said that this Fantasy Breed Jade Severing Blade Mantis was a fey very suitable for Spirit Craftsmen.

After Hu Quan summoned the Jade Severing Blade Mantis, he said with some remembrance, "I've never wanted to fight with anyone in my life, so my contracted feys are all to assist my Spirit Craftsman abilities."

After he said that, his thoughts moved. Lin Yuan saw Hu Quan's spiritual energy shooting out a glowing purple Willpower Rune that emitted a jade-like luster.

As he looked at this Willpower Rune, he raised his eyebrow. Lin Yuan felt that this Willpower Rune texture was no different from that of a completely jade-textured red sandalwood.

At that moment, Hu Quan said proudly, "This Willpower Rune I comprehended is a treasure. I won't exchange it with any other better Willpower Runes.

"I comprehended this Willpower Rune from the pieces of completely jade-textured wood. It's undoubtedly a very suitable one for a Spirit Craftsman to use.

“You have so many pieces of completely jade-textured wood. If I can still contract a Wood Weaving House Centipede with this Willpower Rune, I’ll definitely be more skilled in using the completely jade-textured wood in the future.”

When Hu Quan said this, he could help but feel melancholy again.

Lin Yuan could tell that Hu Quan was worried about getting a high-quality Bronze Wood Weaving House Centipede.

Lin Yuan knew about the Wood Weaving House Centipede. It was a highly sought-after fey among Spirit Craftsmen.

Many Spirit Craftsmen with an affinity for insect-species fey would choose to contract the Wood Weaving House Centipede. However, most contracted Wood Weaving House Centipedes were of low quality, which were not too rare in the market.

Some Creation Masters were willing to nurture a few highly sought-after feys like the Wood Weaving House Centipede and put them on the market to earn money from the pockets of Spirit Craftsmen.

For this reason, Hu Quan planned to take his savings to see if he could try his luck.

Just then, Lin Yuan said very plainly and casually, “Uncle Hu, leave this matter to me. However, I don’t have any Bronze/Epic Wood Weaving House Centipede here.”

When Hu Quan heard that, he could not help but roll his eyes. If a Bronze/Flawless Wood Weaving House Centipede was useful to him, would he have to worry so much?

At that moment, Lin Yuan added, “Although I don’t have any Bronze/Epic Wood Weaving House Centipedes, I have a Bronze/Legend one here.”

Upon hearing Lin Yuan’s words, Hu Quan widened his eyes. His lips trembled, and it was only after a long time that he responded incredulously, “What did you say just now? A Bronze/Legend Wood Weaving House Centipede?”

Lin Yuan nodded and replied with a smile, “Yes, I’ll give it to you in ten days.”

Even though Hu Quan had received Lin Yuan’s affirmation, he still felt as if he was in a dream. Although Bronze/Legend feys had never appeared in the market, it was not that they did not exist.

However, Bronze/Legend feys were uniquely enjoyed by Class 5 Creation Masters. Even if pinnacle Class 4 Creation Masters could occasionally succeed, how could they put the Bronze/Legend feys in the market after nurturing them?

When Lin Yuan had taken out the completely jade-textured wood, Hu Quan had not understood why.

But when he heard that he could provide a Bronze/Legend Wood Weaving House Centipede, the completely jade-textured wood paled in comparison with it. It was not even worthy of being compared.

This made Hu Quan understand how right his decision to join this mansion was and the amount of energy this cheerful youth contained.

Could Lin Yuan actually have the resources of a Class 5 Creation Master?

How much energy must that be!

Then Hu Quan immediately felt moved. In Hu Quan's eyes, Lin Yuan was going to use a Class 5 Creation Master's precious resources precisely because of him.

Hu Quan could not help but feel an unswerving feeling, which made his eyes redden. He poured himself another cup of Three Treasures Tea and drank it to suppress his overwhelming emotions.

After Lin Yuan left, Hu Quan turned to look at the young man on the feature wall he had pieced together and could not help but say softly, "Since you scratch my back, I, Hu Quan, will scratch yours."

Although it was hard for Lin Yuan to enhance a Bronze/Legend fey, it would only take him about five days to do so. He felt that it was worthwhile to enhance a Bronze/Legend fey for Hu Quan.

After Hu Quan had joined the mansion, he had made a vow, which was akin to signing the rest of his life over to the mansion.

Furthermore, the agreement Hu Quan and Lin Yuan had made before remained the same. As long as Lin Yuan could have enough completely jade-textured wood for Hu Quan to use, Hu Quan would always be Lin Yuan's full-time Spirit Craftsman.

To put it simply, even after Hu Quan became a Class 5 Spirit Craftsman, he would still be Lin Yuan's toolman.

Lin Yuan had witnessed Hu Quan's dedication, so he felt that Hu Quan could afford a Bronze/Legend fey.

Since Lin Yuan had promised Hu Quan to give him a Bronze/Legend Wood Weaving House Centipede in another ten days, he now had to bitterly return to the Spirit Lock spatial zone to start enhancing the Wood Weaving House Centipede.

At that moment, Morbius' voice suddenly sounded in his mind.

"Yuan, the total amount of spirit qi in the spirit qi crystals is equivalent to the amount of spirit qi you can inject to enhance feys for 30 days. Therefore, the amount of spirit qi in one spirit qi crystal can enhance about five to six Bronze/Legend feys.

"You just need to crush one spirit qi crystal, and I will manipulate the spiritual power in it for enhancement."

Lin Yuan's eyes lit up when he heard Morbius say that.

Chapter 330: Born to Belong to the Horizon

According to what Morbius had just said, it was possible not to waste the spirit qi in the spirit qi crystal when using one to enhance five to six Bronze/Epic feys to Legend.

Lin Yuan would not need five days to do that in the future. This would undoubtedly save him a lot of time.

He had not really thought about using the spirit qi crystal formed by Morbius' Spirit Qi Condensation to enhance the Bronze feys' quality.

When the spirit qi crystal was crushed, it would turn into a huge amount of pure spirit qi. If Lin Yuan controlled such spirit qi and used it on several feys, a part of the spirit qi would undoubtedly be lost and result in waste.

Every single trace of the huge amount of pure spirit qi in this spirit qi crystal wasted was akin to wasting Lin Yuan's time. At the same time, it was also wasting Radiance dollars and resources because the overflowing spirit qi could easily nurture many Bronze/Epic feys.

Although it was very easy for Lin Yuan to nurture such feys, countless people would fight over every Bronze/Epic fey he took out.

Lin Yuan had previously used the spirit qi crystals to enhance his Fantasy Breed fey's grade.

Each spirit qi crystal could help a Bronze X/Fantasy I fey break through to Silver I/Fantasy I and raise a Silver/Fantasy Breed fey's grade.

However, when a Silver X/Fantasy I fey wanted to become a Gold I/Fantasy I fey, it would have to consume 10 spirit qi crystals.

After that, each grade from Gold I/Fantasy I to Gold X/Fantasy I would also require ten spirit qi crystals.

Based on the time required by the spirit qi crystals, if Lin Yuan wanted to nurture a Gold X/Fantasy I fey, he would need two years' worth of spirit qi crystals. This period could be said to be short.

Even if Lin Yuan was riveting resources and used the spirit qi crystals as much as possible, he had reached the limit by enhancing the fey to Gold/Fantasy Breed.

Although Lin Yuan had not tried to use the spirit qi crystal to let a Gold X/Fantasy I fey become Platinum I/Fantasy I—the reason he was unsure how many spirit qi crystals he needed to use—he would need to at least consume 100 of them based on his calculations. One hundred might not even be enough.

Given Morbius' current grade, using the spirit qi crystals to enhance Fantasy Breed feys from Fantasy I to Fantasy II was even more difficult than enhancing Fantasy Breed feys to Platinum.

Therefore, after promoting the feys' grade to a certain level, the spirit qi crystals would have little effect in promoting them again.

Only after Morbius became a Silver Fantasy Breed would the Spirit Lock spatial zone change again. Its strengthened Spirit Qi Condensation would take a turn for the better by then.

Furthermore, it was currently difficult for Lin Yuan to become a B-rank spirit qi professional.

Nearly half a year had passed, and Lin Yuan felt his body's spirit qi was not even a quarter of the way from becoming a B-rank spirit qi professional.

If Lin Yuan wanted an improvement in his overall strength, he would need to step over the hurdle of his spirit qi professional rank and Morbius' grade.

Lin Yuan could still feel his growth little by little by raising his spirit qi professional rank. However, raising Morbius' grade would depend on when he could comprehend suitable Willpower Runes for the Blue Flash Purple Butterfly and Spirit-Gather Goldfish.

If this progress was said to be fast, as long as Lin Yuan could comprehend the will of heaven and earth, then Morbius could become a Silver/Fantasy Breed tomorrow.

If he could not comprehend suitable Willpower Runes for the Spirit-Gather Goldfish and the Blue Flash Purple Butterfly, then Morbius could only be stuck.

Although Lin Yuan still had a Willpower Rune that could be used in his spiritual spatial zone, he would never use a Willpower Rune that was unsuitable for a fey in order to promote it into a Fantasy Breed.

This would not only destroy his potential, but it would also be irresponsible to the fey that followed him for a lifetime.

Even though Lin Yuan wanted to improve his strength now, if he could use the huge amount of pure spirit qi in the spirit qi crystals that Morbius controlled to enhance a few Bronze/Legend feys, it would be of great benefit to the development of Lin Yuan's faction.

Since he wanted to develop his faction into a proud, aloof, and mysterious cloud flowing in the sky, this cloud needed to have the capital to float in the sky and be proud. Otherwise, a few gusts of wind would scatter the clouds into a fog. With a Bronze/Legend fey in Lin Yuan's hand, this floating cloud in the sky was destined to become one.

Since Morbius was able to promote Bronze/Epic feys to Legend using the spirit qi crystals, it would not take as long as five days. A moment's work would be enough.

Thus, Lin Yuan did not need to rush to enhance a Bronze/Legend Wood Weaving House Centipede for Hu Quan now.

He had also made a plan regarding the choice of this batch of feys enhanced to Bronze/Legend.

Since Lin Yuan had planned to enhance the Dragon's Mouth Orchid from Bronze/Epic to Bronze/Legend, it was just right to take it over to be enhanced through this spirit qi crystal.

Furthermore, he still had three to four more positions after including Hu Quan's Wood Weaving House Centipede.

The main thing that the crane-species fey initiated with a damaged genetic model was not to directly absorb a large amount of pure spirit qi. Rather, it needed to slowly warm up under this huge amount of pure spirit qi and make up for the missing genetic model.

Hence, Lin Yuan did not include this little fellow in the list. He then thought of the three Dragon-Phoenix Landscape Carps.

Why not upgrade such auspicious feys to Legend and no longer suppress their grade but let them grow freely?

Although suppressing an auspicious fey like the Dragon-Phoenix Landscape Carp at Bronze could represent supreme wealth after it reached Legend, in Lin Yuan's opinion, with its exclusive skill, the Place of Life, the most important thing for it to do was to bring its auspiciousness to bless the land.

After adding three Dragon-Phoenix Landscape Carps, there were five feys. Lin Yuan intended to choose a random Bronze/Epic fey to enhance, but its promotion to Legend would depend on whether the Dragon's Mouth Orchid, Wood Weaving House Centipede, and the three Dragon-Phoenix Landscape Carp would give the opportunity.

Wen Yu was currently sunbathing in the garden outside the mansion with the source-type item, Earth Rush Golden Lotus.

Lin Yuan originally planned to wait until he finished enhancing the feys before he talked to Wen Yu about his idea of setting up a faction.

Since he was not in a hurry to enhance the feys now, he simply thought of going to talk to her about it. He appreciated her strategic talent of being able to take over their resources in the Fey Battle Flag game the previous night.

Her deployment of resources and judgment of the situation had really amazed Lin Yuan. This was because this talent was, in a sense, a hundred times more useful to a faction than a Creation Master's talent.

Wen Yu, who was basking in the sun with her contracted source-type Earth Rush Golden Lotus, saw Lin Yuan walk over and hurriedly said, "Young Master, look, the lotus core of this Earth Rush Golden Lotus has turned golden. It's going to reach Gold soon."

Lin Yuan took a look and nodded silently. It seemed that Wen Yu's strength as a Creation Master also had quite an improvement recently.

This Earth Rush Golden Lotus' core had become golden and should be able to reach Gold in the following three days. This meant that Wen Yu had become a Class 2 Creation Master.

Lin Yuan remembered that a few months ago when Wen Yu had left the Radiant Moon Palace and become his assistant, she was still an intermediate Class 1 Creation Master. Wen Yu had grown so much during this time unknowingly.

Lin Yuan stood beside Wen Yu. Under the warm sun of the early winter, he told her his idea of establishing a faction. After listening to his idea, she gazed at him with a kind of inexplicable glow.

Wen Yu suddenly understood the saying that she did not quite understand in the past. It turned out that some people belonged to the horizon!

Wen Yu clenched her hand into a fist.

Myriad gusts of fierce wind rose from the ground!

It was time to skyrocket far ahead!
