Chapter 641: Sky City's First Class 4 Creation Master

Master Hong Shen's words utterly befuddled Xin Ying.

Although Zhang Xiaobai was reliable at crucial moments, this matter was linked to Meng Xu of the Savage Snake Guild Club's main team.

Zhang Xiaobai should not have been able to contribute much during such an incident.

Once he was done speaking with Xin Ying, Master Hong Shen walked over to Lu Pinru and said, "Does your soul feel strange in any way?"

Master Hong Shen shot Lu Pinru an envious look.

Since Lu Pinru had lost all her five senses, she had been unable to judge her reaction to determine if her soul had been fully healed.

Thus, when Lin Yuan had been treating Lu Pinru, he had not held back on the amount of Cold Snow Pine resin he used. He had used a significant amount of Cold Snow Pine resin to ensure that Lu Pinru's soul injury was fully healed.

Master Hong Shen was of the opinion that Lu Pinru's soul injury was not severe. It could not compare to his own that had been plaguing him for 15 years.

However, Lin Yuan had used much more Cold Snow Pine resin on her than him.

Thus, Master Hong Shen could not help but feel jealous.

Lu Pinru had felt exceptionally comfortable when she awoke. It was as though she was being continuously nourished by something. She could still remember how she felt when she was hit by the Savage Snake Guild Club's leader's Soul-Shattering Hedgehog's attack.

Given her power, her soul should have been wounded.

However, she could not detect any damage to her soul at all. In fact, she felt better than ever.

When Master Hong Shen saw Lu Pinru's expression, he knew that her soul had been strengthened by the Cold Snow Pine resin's nourishment.

Having her soul strengthened also raised her chances of being able to comprehend a Willpower Rune.

Master Hong Shen sighed and said, "Pinru, you better thank Lin Yuan properly later. I'm envious of your friendship. Lin Yuan was even willing to use the spiritual ingredient from a Suzerain fey to treat your soul injury."

His words cleared up the situation for the confused Xin Ying, Lu Pinru, and Tan Ran.

They now knew that Zhang Xiaobai had approached Lin Yuan for help.

However, when they heard about the spiritual ingredient from a Suzerain fey, the three of them were extremely shocked.

A surge of warmth simultaneously washed over all of them.

Spiritual ingredients from Suzerain feys were priceless, yet Lin Yuan had deemed them more valuable than priceless.

Master Hong Shen surveyed the half-organized treatment center and said, "The three of you aren't patients anymore. Lend me a hand to clean up the treatment center. You should also return your feys to your spiritual spatial zones! Xin Ying, your Gold Swift Cat has already scratched up two of my chairs! I'll go and concoct some nourishing spirit fluids for you to strengthen your bodies."

Master Hong Shen walked into the breeding room that he had already cleaned up.

He was not used to having such a clean breeding room and felt that its previous unkempt state was more comfortable.

Master Hong Shen took a few basic nourishing spiritual ingredients out of the fey storage box on his wrist and started to concoct a nourishing spirit fluid that even a Class 1 Creation Master could create.

While he was circulating his spirit qi, Master Hong Shen felt something shift inside the depths of his soul.

Suddenly, the strength of his soul seemed to mix with his spirit qi and entered the spirit fluid.

Shortly after, his soul stopped moving, and he looked between the spirit fluid and his hands.

A toothy smile spread across his face, and two large beads of tears rolled down his face. He could not believe that he was blessed so quickly!

On the day that he had been set free from his 15 years of pain, he actually became a Class 4 Creation Master.

The emotions accumulated over the past 15 years overwhelmed him. Not only was he happy about the increase in power, but he was also even more grateful to Lin Yuan.

If not for Lin Yuan, his soul would never have been healed.

He would also not be the Class 4 Creation Master that he was now and be crying happy tears.

Master Hong Shen wiped away his tears and fished out his phone.

He dutifully called the number that he had just recorded.

Lin Yuan was the center of attention of 200,000 people. Even the guild club teams who participated in the S Tournament were focused on him.

Lin Yuan spotted many familiar faces such as Long Tao, Zhao Xiaochun, and Shi Xu. They had fought alongside each other and could be considered friends.

However, they had known him as Black, not Lin Yuan.

The Return from Faraway Mansion people had been stunned so many times that they had become used to it.

Although they were shocked, they did not find the power that Lin Yuan had just displayed to be inconceivable.

However, Zhang Xiaobai and Chu Ci did not feel the same way.

During her fight, Chu Ci had satisfied Lin Yuan. She had defeated a reserve team member from an A-level guild club and had basked in the cheers. As such, it was natural for her to be proud of herself.

But after witnessing Lin Yuan's performance, all of Chu Ci's pride vaporized.

Lin Yuan had proved himself using his actions to show Chu Ci that no matter the situation, even when she was receiving the attention of hundreds of thousands of people, she needed to remain clear-headed and exhibit restraint.

He also showed Chu Ci that in order to match his footsteps, she needed to pump her legs much harder and sprint as hard as she could.

Zhang Xiaobai would never have expected that in half a year, Lin Yuan's power had increased to the point where even he saw no hope in chasing after him.

Zhang Xiaobai could not understand how Lin Yuan had fought the way he had just done.

If Lin Yuan had delivered a miracle to the people of Millstone Town then, he had done so once again.

At that moment, Lin Yuan and Zhang Xiaobai's phones rang at the same time.

Lin Yuan picked up and heard Master Hong Shen announce excitedly, "Young Master, I've become a Class 4 Creation Master."

When he heard what Master Hong Shen said, Lin Yuan balled his fists tightly, and his eyebrows raised as a brilliant smile appeared on his face.

His rows of pearly teeth were even more radiant than fire.

Chapter 642: Creating a Basement

With so many eyes on him, Lin Yuan's smile dazzled many middle-aged ladies.

These middle-aged ladies suddenly became fans of Lin Yuan.

Lin Yuan did not expect Master Hong Shen to surprise him with such splendid news so soon.

Now Sky City, or rather Lin Yuan, possessed a true Class 4 Creation Master.

The newly Class 4 Creation Master no longer needed to make do with limited power. He could now perfectly assist Lin Yuan in any way.

The combination of Master Hong Shen and Lin Yuan's abilities to evolve feys was equivalent to that of a Class 5 Creation Master.

Lin Yuan said to Master Hong Shen, "I'm going to send you an address. Head there when you're done packing up."

After he hung up, Lin Yuan noticed that Zhang Xiaobai had also put down his phone and was looking up at him happily.

“Lin Yuan, I’m leaving the Radiance Palace now. Xin Ying and the rest are awake, and I’m going to see them,” said Zhang Xiaobai anxiously.

This time, Lin Yuan did not say that he wanted to go with Zhang Xiaobai. Initially, Zhang Xiaobai had single-handedly carried the responsibilities as the other three were unconscious.

Now, they were awake. The four of them needed to meet up to discuss and handle the situation regarding the Extreme Guild Club together.

“Go ahead. I’ll wait for you at my Dome Guild Club,” replied Lin Yuan.

Zhang Xiaobai was slightly taken aback.

‘This is the second time that Lin Yuan is inviting me!’

Since he had joined a business guild club like the Extreme Guild Club, Zhang Xiaobai knew that Lin Yuan had more than enough resources and power to attract better reserve team members than himself.

Lin Yuan’s first invitation could have been interpreted as a friend trying to help out another friend who was in a bad situation.

However, his second invitation could only mean that despite Zhang Xiaobai’s lack of power, Lin Yuan sincerely hoped for him to join his Dome Guild Club.

Zhang Xiaobai was chained to the dueling ground and had no reason to reject Lin Yuan. He forcefully patted Lin Yuan’s shoulder and said, “I’ll go and ask the three of them. No matter what their decisions are, I’ll be joining.”

A few minutes after Zhang Xiaobai left, Lin Yuan’s phone rang again.

Once he was done with the call, Lin Yuan turned to Liu Jie and said, “Big Brother Liu, add two sets of place settings to tonight’s dinner table. There will be two people coming to the mansion.”

Liu Jie replied, “Leave it to me. I’ll be cooking a seafood feast tonight. I plan on cooking the Silver flounder I bought.”

Lin Yuan was certain that today was a lucky day—two blessings at once!

Lin Yuan had acquired Master Hong Shen as a Class 4 Creation Master, and the emperor-class Duan He. They were both coming to the Royal Capital.

The Allstar Match was still ongoing. Most of the following lucky participants chose challenge matches but were hopelessly weak.

The whole group had decided to come to the Allstar Match after being riled up by Chu Ci.

After winning her match, even she felt that the current matches were getting more and more boring.

Thus, they returned to the Return from Faraway Mansion even before the Allstar Match ended.

Wen Yu was hurriedly setting up the two rooms next to Hu Quan's room.

Shortly after he arrived at the mansion, Lin Yuan received calls from Duan He and Master Hong Shen.

He did not expect both of them to arrive together.

Lin Yuan personally went out to the mansion's entrance to usher the both of them in.

Duan He was an emperor-class expert, and Master Hong Shen was a Class 4 Creation Master. As such, they had garnered an indeterminable amount of life experience.

They immediately knew that this mansion was special.

It was deep into winter, and the plants outside the mansion were frozen. Yet, it was as warm as summertime inside the mansion.

Duan He knew that Lin Yuan was the Moon Empress's disciple, while Master Hong Shen knew that Lin Yuan could casually produce spiritual ingredients from Suzerain feys. Thus, both of them knew that he was wealthy and did not register much shock.

However, they were stupefied when they entered the building and saw the furniture made of jade-textured wood and the three Mountain River Eternal Life Carp inside the fish tank.

Duan He had once entered an elite faction's main mansion.

It was decorated in a similar fashion.

The enormously luxurious feature wall gave the entire mansion a cozy feeling.

During the course of one meal, the group became fast friends.

Although Duan He had become accustomed to life in Indigo Azure City and frequently ate various sea-type feys, he could not help but be amazed by the cooking.

After the meal, Master Hong Shen saw the room that Wen Yu had organized and the clean mansion.

He pondered to himself before saying, "Young Master, I'm used to being messy. I'll become an annoyance to the rest of the people staying here. I saw a plot of land for sale next to the mansion. I'm thinking of buying it and turning it into the mansion's breeding ground. The two plots of land are so close, and there isn't anyone else nearby. We can dig a basement under these two plots of land. It's humid underground and full of earth and water elements. It's the best environment for cultivating plant-type feys. You have so many precious plants in the mansion. When they bear fruits, the basement space will be useful."

Master Hong Shen said this because he did not want to be constrained by his living environment.

Although his intention was simple, the listener had picked up on something.

Once he heard what Master Hong Shen said, Lin Yuan's eyes lit up.

Although there was plenty of space in the Return from Faraway Mansion, he would eventually build the Dome Guild Club's base. This would require the empty land to the north of the Return from Faraway Mansion, as well as some space from the man-made lake.

If they built a fey breeding base to the mansion's west, the layout would seem cramped.

However, Master Hong Shen had provided a perfect solution to this problem.

Lin Yuan was happy about this suggestion to build a basement and felt that they had to do it because he had a Golden Lotus Brocade Pearl.

By opening up a basement, they would solve the issue of cultivating the Golden Lotus Brocade Pearl. It would also be easy for them to control the situation if they connected the basement to the outside of the mansion. There would be no chance of cunning factions finding out about the secret of the basement.

The Space Tunnel linking the mansion to the Divine Wood Federation could also be set up in the basement.

Chapter 643: The Almost Fantasy Breed Genius

As long as the basement was large enough, he could transport resources through the Space Tunnel and not be noticed by outsiders.

Hu Quan had used a fair amount of Spatial Magnets and Floating Silver Strands to craft the fey carriage. The remaining Spatial Magnets and Floating Silver Strands could be used in the Spatial Magnet and allow it to be completely shielded from invading spies.

After the Spatial Magnets and Floating Silver Strands were used to set up the barrier, not even Suzerain/Myth III feys like Endless Summer would be able to sense anything.

"Okay, you can go ahead with it."

Lin Yuan's hand jerked, and he took out an embroidered satin brocade box.

"You can take what you need from here. You can also use the highest quality materials to construct your breeding room."

Lin Yuan took out another Silver fey storage box and handed both boxes to Master Hong Shen.

Master Hong Shen did not look inside the two boxes immediately. He quickly replied, "Don't worry, Young Master. I always make sure to do a good job. I'll definitely perform perfectly!"

Master Hong Shen turned and walked out of the mansion to start on his task.

It was already around 6:00 p.m., too late to start doing anything physical. All he could do for the moment was buy the plot of land.

After walking out of the mansion, Master Hong Shen opened the box and was nearly blinded by the radiance of the pearls inside.

A few drops of saliva dripped out of Master Hong Shen's mouth and landed on the elemental pearls inside the box.

However, the liquid could not obscure the pearls' radiance in the slightest.

Master Hong Shen looked like he was carrying a box full of the glow of a sunset. He looked inside the Silver Fey storage box and found 20 elegant Flower Brocade Pearls inside.

Master Hong Shen was loyal to Lin Yuan and already felt grateful toward him.

However, Master Hong Shen felt that he would never be able to return the favor, not even if he dedicated the rest of his life to it!

The happiness of being rich made Master Hong Shen more than willing and happy to be working for Lin Yuan for free.

He seemed to be constantly showered with blessings by Lin Yuan.

Wen Yu led Duan He to his room, and he was extremely pleased with what he saw.

Once he was done looking around his room, Duan He sat down on the water rhinoceros leather sofa and chatted with Lin Yuan for a while.

Later, they went to the training room together.

When they arrived at the training room, Duan He used the three Law Runes he had comprehended and swore his loyalty to Sky City. He was now officially Lin Yuan's Protector.

Lin Yuan could faintly feel the three law powers entering his body and combining with his energy. He could feel that his ability to sense heaven and earth had increased by three levels.

Previously, the Willpower Rune related to wisdom had caused Lin Yuan to be stuck in the middle. It was extremely uncomfortable to be neither here nor there.

Now, the obstacles that were blocking him seemed to be cracking.

Lin Yuan felt that he could break through using the cracks at any time. He was certain that he would be able to finish comprehending the Willpower Rune within the next two days.

There was even the chance that he would be able to comprehend it in the next second.

This overjoyed Lin Yuan. Genius could finally evolve to Fantasy Breed.

1

Lin Yuan asked Duan He, "Senior Duan He, can you summon your Six-Headed Sea Demon Snake and Thunderwave Sky Chaos Snail?"

Duan He smiled.

"Other people would never be able to dream of seeing my feys. However, you can do so anytime."

Duan He waved his hand, and a snake around 10 centimeters long appeared in his palm.

Lin Yuan stared at the snake's purple scales and faint magical glow.

The purple glow seemed to trap you inside a dark and raging deep-sea whirlpool.

The snake had six heads, and each was of a different color. One of the heads in the middle was a dark blue, and it contained terrifying water-elemental energy.

An exquisite sapphire-colored sea snail was resting on top of the six-headed snake's blue head. It was cone-shaped and had many sharp needles sticking out of it.

The needles were covered in silver lightning patterns, and they sparked with electricity.

Once a Myth I fey was able to overcome the first World Cleansing, it would gain the ability to easily camouflage itself.

Lin Yuan knew that both feys were in a state of camouflage.

If the Six-Headed Sea Demon Snake exhibited its actual giant size, it would probably take up all the space in the mansion.

Although neither fey had reached Myth II, they were at pinnacle Myth I.

Their wisdom had also far exceeded that of a normal human.

The two feys were connected to Duan He's mind and had long been aware of Lin Yuan's presence. Now that Duan He was Lin Yuan's Protector, the Six-Headed Sea Demon Snake, and Thunderwave Sky Chaos Snail had also become Lin Yuan's Protectors. Otherwise, the proud pinnacle Suzerain/Myth I feys would never have allowed themselves to be glimpsed upon so easily.

Duan He noticed Lin Yuan staring at the Six-Headed Sea Demon Snake's heads and explained, "When this fey is evolving, it needs to consume a massive amount of flesh from high-grade feys. Then, it needs to consume heavy water. It will use the heavy water as a medium to absorb the energy from the high-grade feys' flesh. According to the individual element types of the feys it consumes, it will be sealed in the corresponding snake's head."

Duan He sighed.

"Purple Demon is so difficult to nurture. My Silver Electricity is so much easier to nurture. Whenever there's a thunderstorm near the sea, all I have to do is place it there and allow it to be struck by lightning. I don't need to put in much effort or expend many resources on it."

As Lin Yuan listened to Duan He's explanation, he started to carefully study the attributes of each of the Six-Headed Sea Demon Snake's heads. He noticed that the main head was water-type, while the others were earth-type, fire-type, wind-type, poison-type, and dark-type.

The dark-type head was pathetically small. It was clear that the Six-Headed Sea Demon Snake rarely consumed the flesh of dark-type feys.

Lin Yuan did not rush to respond to Duan He. Instead, he cheerfully greeted the two feys.

“Hello, Senior Purple Demon. How do you do, Senior Thunderwave?”

After Lin Yuan greeted them, the Six-Headed Sea Demon Snake and Thunderwave Sky Chaos Snail greeted him back.

Once a fey evolved to Suzerain/Myth I, all feys other than plant-type feys could speak.

Lin Yuan’s politeness left a good impression on the Six-Headed Sea Demon Snake and Thunderwave Sky Chaos Snail.

Chapter 644: Opening the Door to Lin Yuan’s New World

Lin Yuan was surprised to discover that the Suzerain/Myth I Six-Headed Sea Demon Snake was female.

Its voice was rather pleasant as well.

Lin Yuan asked Duan He, “Senior Duan He, is the reason you said that Purple Demon is difficult to nurture that you lack the flesh of high-grade feys and heavy water?”

Duan He said with a miserable expression, “I have no shortage of heavy water. I make sure to gather some whenever I encounter the water world dimensional rift in Indigo Azure City. I can always find a few drops in a Class 3 water world dimensional rift. However, as Purple Demon’s strength grows, it has become almost impossible to find powerful high-grade feys.”

Heavy water was similar to strange fires. One was a special spiritual ingredient produced by the water world dimensional rift, while the other was from the abyss dimensional rift.

Heavy water, which was only produced in the water world dimensional rift that opened next to the coast, was much more precious than strange flames.

Although Lin Yuan did not have any heavy water, he did have the flesh of high-grade feys.

Lin Yuan went on to ask Duan He, “Senior Duan He, do you have any specifications about the high-grade fey flesh?”

Duan He dejectedly glanced at the Six-Headed Sea Demon Snake.

When the Six-Headed Sea Demon Snake noticed Duan He’s despondent look, it said in a sweet voice, “Duan He, you’re such a jerk! You always complain about how much I eat, but you never talk about how well I fight! Don’t you love me anymore? Are you going to stop nurturing me?”

When Duan He heard what the Six-Headed Sea Demon Snake said, he disregarded that he was in front of Lin Yuan and anxiously replied, “My dear, what are you talking about? Who else can I love but you? No matter how much you eat, I’ll lay down my life to continue nurturing you.”

Lin Yuan’s eyes widened when he heard Duan He’s reply. He started between Duan He and the Six-Headed Sea Demon Snake in shock.

Once Duan He finished coaxing the Six-Headed Sea Demon Snake, he looked at Lin Yuan and bashfully scratched his head.

“Purple Demon is my wife. It just hasn’t attained human form yet, so we’re keeping it a secret. Lin Yuan, you have to keep this a secret for me!”

Lin Yuan never entertained the thought that spirit qi professionals could form such a relationship with their feys.

This opened a door to a new world for him!

However, he had no plans on stepping through the door.

Duan He said solemnly, “Purple Demon needs to consume the flesh and absorb the energy of feys that are the same grade as it. Given its power, Suzerain is considered weak. The flesh of higher grade feys will eventually be beneficial for it, but I can’t procure any.”

Lin Yuan pondered over Duan He’s words before waving his hand and summoning two Gold stainless steel caskets.

Lin Yuan said, “Senior Duan He, the items inside this box might be of use to Senior Purple Demon.”

Lin Yuan had a large amount of high-grade fey flesh. However, the flesh of the Dark-Eyed Scorpion Tiger and Dark Spirit Eye Tadpole would not be effective on the Six-Headed Sea Demon Snake.

Hence, Lin Yuan did not take those out.

When the Mother of Bloodbath had separated the Night Calamity Crow and Dream-Eating Bat, it had amassed many spiritual ingredients, blood, and bone marrow.

What had remained was a pile of useless flesh.

Since this flesh was not going to be of use, and Master Hong Shen’s Black Bronze Succulent needed bone marrow while Duan He’s Six-Headed Sea Demon Snake needed fey flesh, Lin Yuan had just what they needed.

He would also be able to get rid of these useless but high-grade resources.

Duan He looked at the two gold caskets that suddenly appeared and immediately knew that they contained fey flesh.

The stainless steel could prevent the flesh from rotting.

Although it was easily warped when force was applied to it, the eroding qualities of elemental energy could maintain the stainless steel’s stability.

The Six-Headed Sea Demon Snake was clearly insatiable. It picked up that there was food nearby and urged Duan He to open the caskets.

Duan He looked slightly embarrassed to be opening the metal caskets in front of Lin Yuan.

The moment that the caskets were opened, Duan He was nearly swallowed by the concentrated dark energy inside.

After collecting high-grade fey flesh for so many years, Duan He could immediately recognize the flesh of a pinnacle Suzerain/Myth II fey.

He sensed the intense dark energy flowing from the flesh and knew that the fey it had belonged to could have evolved to Myth III at any moment.

The Six-Headed Sea Demon Snake excitedly hopped into the caskets.

Two of its heads bobbed about in delight.

Duan He was overcome with emotion as he grabbed Lin Yuan's hands and babbled, "Thank, thank you, Lin Yuan! Thank you for helping me to nurture my wife!"

Duan He was so elated that he was lost for words.

Duan He had worked hard for so many years and spent all his time collecting resources. He did it not just because he wanted to become stronger but also because he wanted to live like a normal married couple.

After consuming the flesh of these two pinnacle Suzerain/Myth II feys, Purple Demon only needed a little more food to evolve to Myth II.

Duan He could see the light at the end of the tunnel. He had been looking forward to this for so many years.

Lin Yuan quickly waved his hand dismissively.

He dared not be thanked for helping someone else's wife.

It had a strange connotation.

Besides, Lin Yuan had no wife of his own!

This was Duan He's first day as part of Sky City and becoming Lin Yuan's Protector. He had received such precious resources despite not having contributed anything yet.

He felt extremely embarrassed.

Yet, this also allowed him to clearly see Lin Yuan's attitude toward him.

When they were having dinner, Duan He used his carefully honed senses to observe this family, of which Lin Yuan was the patriarch. However, Lin Yuan treated every member with the utmost respect.

Every member of this large family also treated each other with genuine sincerity.

Duan He could not help but smile.

In a private faction like this, they would stick together no matter what obstacles appeared.

This was the feeling he had been hoping to find.

After chatting with Lin Yuan for a while, Duan He suddenly thought of something and took a brocade satchel out of his Diamond fey storage box. He opened the brocade satchel, and a pile of what looked like crushed crystals appeared in Duan He's hand.

Although these crystals had been crushed, they were clearly marked with bright and dark gold engravings.

Chapter 645: The Throbbing Queen

Duan He handed the crushed crystal to Lin Yuan and said, "These are all the Law Crystals that I accumulated over the years. I went through a lot to collect them. They are more or less complete."

Duan He seemed proud as he spoke about the crushed Law Crystals.

Duan He could say with certainty that no other spirit qi professional with feys of similar quality to him had collected an equal amount or completeness of Law Crystals.

The credit for this undoubtedly went to the Six-Headed Sea Demon Snake that was not only skilled at consumption but also fighting.

Lin Yuan was ecstatic to see the crushed crystals in Duan He's hand.

It appeared that there were not just two blessings today, but three.

There were really a lot of crushed pieces of Law Crystals in Duan He's hand. Lin Yuan thought that it must have something to do with the Purple Demon's need to consume a large amount of fey flesh.

The Law Crystal pieces were mostly Myth I, and some of them had very few laws inside.

It was evident that the fey Duan He had killed and taken the Law Crystal from had only recently evolved from Suzerain and survived its World Cleansing.

Nevertheless, these Law Crystals were sufficient to satisfy the Sacred Sword Wielding Queen.

The Sacred Sword Wielding Queen was already throbbing in the depths of Lin Yuan's soul.

Lin Yuan received the Law Crystal pieces from Duan He and said, "Senior, I'll give you the crystals with pure law power."

Duan He shook his head casually.

"Purple Demon still has a ways to go before it evolves to Myth III. I don't have an urgent need for these Law Crystals. There are people in Sky City who need them more than Purple Demon."

Duan He's tone was solemn.

The Law Crystals were Duan He's most valuable items. He gave them away so easily as a gesture of reciprocation. He wanted to repay Lin Yuan for giving him the flesh of two dark-type pinnacle Suzerain/Myth II feys.

Lin Yuan was slightly shocked, but a radiant smile soon returned to his face. He knew the people in Sky City who needed the crystals with pure law power that Duan He was referring to were.

They were definitely Endless Summer and the Mother of Bloodbath.

Duan He's crushed Law Crystals could increase the rate at which the Mother of Bloodbath could evolve to Creation Breed.

Red Thorn's Eyes of Relinquish were very impressive.

Although the Blood Brew Grapevine grew at its own pace, it had produced close to 40 matured Blood Brew Grapes.

The Eyes of Relinquish continued to maintain these 40 matured Blood Brew Grapes, which were growing at a visible rate.

They looked different every day.

By Lin Yuan's estimation, the first Blood Brew Grape should be fully grown in the next two weeks.

At that time, there would be one or two Blood Brew Grapes to harvest each day. They were more than enough to boost the Mother of Bloodbath's blood energy to the level sufficient for its evolution.

If the Mother of Bloodbath could evolve to Creation Breed, the sacred source lifeform that Lin Yuan had reserved for it would come into use.

At that time, Sky City's fighting power would be elevated.

Duan He took out a large bundle and poured out more turbid lifeform crystals from inside.

"It'll be great if you can find a use for these items. They also have law power, but it's so impure that not even a Class 5 Creation Master could do anything about it. Bamboo Monarch's Purple Bamboo Forest often collects various spiritual ingredients. However, it never touches these," said Duan He.

The Sacred Sword Wielding Queen had started throbbing when Duan He took out the pile of crushed Law Crystals.

Now, it anxiously said to Lin Yuan in his mind, "Lin Yuan, I need these crystals badly. They can temper the law power that I absorbed from Law Crystals. It'll help the laws absorbed by Queen's Skirt Hem to finish evolving."

Lin Yuan's eyes narrowed, and he asked Duan He with a level expression, "Senior, what are those turbid crystals?"

Duan He hurriedly replied, "I entered a Class 5 dimensional rift a few times with a team. Although we were not lucky enough to acquire any sacred source lifeforms, we managed to kill some dimensional lifeforms that were about as powerful as Suzerain/Myth I feys. These are called Law Source Crystals. They were dug out of those dimensional lifeforms."

After Lin Yuan listened to Duan He's explanation, he immediately knew what these things were.

Lin Yuan asked Duan He, "Senior, you said that Bamboo Monarch doesn't care for these, right?"

Duan He nodded.

"The law power inside these Law Source Crystals cannot be extracted. Thus, feys can't absorb them, making them useless. At the very most, they can exist as proof that you killed a Class 7 dimensional lifeform."

Lin Yuan's breath quickened.

"Does this mean that most emperor-class experts have Law Source Crystals?"

Duan He shook his head.

"Young Master, Jiao Hanzhong, who you killed, probably didn't have any. He was extremely poor. I have no idea where all his money went. He never went into dimensional rifts to fight. Who knows how he spent his time. He wasn't a Creation Master and sat around so much that it's a wonder he didn't develop hemorrhoids."

Lin Yuan was surprised to find out that Jiao Hanzhong owed Duan He money at the time of his death.

However, Lin Yuan knew where Jiao Hanzhong's money had gone. Jiao Hanzhong had created a beautiful garden in his Diamond fey storage box.

Jiao Hanzhong had spent his days admiring flowers and tending to the soil. He could not be bothered to go into dimensional rifts to fight.

"Law Source Crystals are the most useless things to an emperor-class expert. We can sense the law power inside, but we can't touch it. It's frustratingly torturous. Young Master, if you need them, I know of many emperor-class experts who might be able to sell you some. But, since these are used as tokens of power, they won't come cheap."

Lin Yuan was over the moon.

He had felt that his Sacred Sword Wielding Queen was strong and could do the same things as a Class 5 Creation Master, but it was too difficult to evolve and increase its power.

When it had been born, it required two Law Crystals from pinnacle Myth II feys and two Fantasy V runes to evolve from 0 Stars to 1 Star.

Judging from this trajectory... a mammoth amount of resources would be required to continue increasing its stars!

Although Lin Yuan's wealth of resources was nothing to scoff at, this still presented intense pressure for him.

Chapter 646: The Idea that was Raring to Go

It was a coincidence that Lin Yuan found out the Sacred Sword Wielding Queen could not only use Law Crystals to increase its stars but also the Law Source Crystals from Class 7 dimensional lifeforms.

The information he received from the conversation with the Sacred Sword Wielding Queen told him that there were not any Law Source Crystals with laws that the Sacred Sword Wielding Queen could absorb.

However, the Sacred Sword Wielding Queen could use the Law Source Crystal's energy to strengthen the law power in its skirt.

After a Myth Breed fey died, the laws in the Law Crystal could be preserved in the same state it was in before the fey died.

After the Sacred Sword Wielding Queen absorbed the laws, it could evolve the laws.

It was as though the dead fey had come back to life, and its power had increased within the Sacred Sword Wielding Queen's skirt.

Although the Sacred Sword Wielding Queen could only use the energy from the Law Source Crystals to evolve its completed laws, there was the Night Calamity Crow and Dream-Eating Bat to consider.

The Dead Dream Law and Cruel Dream Law from these two feys were complete and ready to be evolved.

If Duan He could help Lin Yuan collect Law Source Crystals from other emperor-class experts, it would greatly benefit Lin Yuan.

Lin Yuan was drowning in money and resources.

Lin Yuan had no qualms about spending away some of the heavenly-maiden-grade elemental pearls that were constantly being produced in the Spirit Lock spatial zone.

If Lin Yuan spent the elemental pearls once, it would not affect the large markets no matter how much he gave away.

Lin Yuan said to Duan He with utter seriousness, "Senior, the Law Source Crystals are very useful to me! If it's possible, can you help me to collect all the Law Source Crystals that you can get your hands on?"

When Duan He heard how serious Lin Yuan's tone was, he immediately matched Lin Yuan's demeanor and replied, "Don't worry, you can leave it to me."

Duan He felt that his reply was too pompous, and he quickly added, "However, different emperor-class experts will value the Law Source Crystals differently. Some of them treat them as useless decorative ornaments and will be willing to let them go at a lower price. But, there are some who treat them as trophies. Although they don't have much use for the Law Source Crystals, they still treasure them. You will need to burn a hole in your pocket to get them to part with their Law Source Crystals."

Duan He could not figure out why Lin Yuan needed the Law Source Crystals.

He narrowed his eyes and contemplated it.

Could it be that the Moon Empress has figured out how to extract the law power from the Law Source Crystals? No, it can't be. If the Moon Empress wants the Law Source Crystals, she can just say so, and a line of emperor-class experts will rush to deliver them to her. There'll be so many of them that the emperor-class experts will probably start to worry that the Moon Empress will reject their Law Source Crystals.

"I'm fully prepared to burn a hole in my pocket. I can use heavenly-maiden-grade elemental pearls and the chance to create a Bronze/Legend fey according to the Willpower Rune of their desire to trade for them."

When Duan He heard this, he almost choked on his own saliva.

Does he need to flaunt his wealth so much? Since when did heavenly-maiden-grade elemental pearls, which are the patent of Class 4 Creation Masters, become common trading goods?

Duan He felt that no emperor-class experts would reject Lin Yuan's offer of using the chance to create a Bronze/Legend fey according to the Willpower Rune of their desire to trade for the Law Source Crystal.

Even though emperor-class experts could find a Class 4 Creation Master to custom-make a fey suited to their Willpower Rune, they would need to call in a favor and bank on their reputation. It would also require them to spend a mountain of resources.

It would also take a lot of effort to source for the rare spiritual ingredients.

When Duan He had approached a Class 4 Creation Master for help, he was asked to search for some rare spiritual ingredients.

Even if the emperor-class experts themselves did not need this chance, their disciples probably did.

With such a good opportunity dangling in front of them, emperor-class experts would be clambering to trade away their Law Source Crystals.

Duan He blinked and asked tentatively, "Young Master, can I ask how many of such chances are you offering?"

Lin Yuan immediately replied, "I'll be offering the same grade of heavenly-maiden-grade elemental pearls I offered at the auction. I'll be taking out 1,000 of them. As for the chance to create a Bronze/Legend fey according to the Willpower Rune of their desire, I can give away as many as needed."

As time went on, Lin Yuan had managed to accumulate around 1,300 heavenly-maiden-grade elemental pearls.

However, he had considered the situation and decided to leave himself some just in case.

Thus, he was setting the limit of trading away 1,000 heavenly-maiden-grade elemental pearls in exchange for the Law Source Crystals.

As for the chance to create a Bronze/Legend fey according to a Willpower Rune, it would only take Lin Yuan half an hour to do each one.

It was also a form of training for Lin Yuan to strengthen feys.

Despite being an emperor-class expert, Duan He was rendered speechless. He had stepped into a world of absolute opulence.

Is there even an end to his wealth?

Wealth was not the most salient factor. Duan He was most astonished by the way that Lin Yuan casually threw out Creation Master resources.

Duan He figured that Lin Yuan must have a well of Creation Master resources at his disposal. The insane idea that he had sealed away was now raring to go again.

However, he did not know how to broach this subject with Lin Yuan because the idea was rather shameless.

Duan He rationalized that as he was Lin Yuan's Protector, increasing his own strength was the equivalent of increasing Lin Yuan's power.

Duan He decided to take the leap and circulated his spiritual energy, and a dark blue Willpower Rune materialized in front of Duan He.

Lin Yuan sensed that this dark blue Willpower Rune carried a pure water-elemental aura. There was nothing especially special about it.

However, flexibility was king.

This dark blue Willpower Rune was probably suited to almost all water-elemental lifeforms.

Lin Yuan had offered three forms of bait when he was recruiting Duan He.

The second bait was that Lin Yuan had promised to Duan He he would nurture a Bronze/Legend fey for him according to the Willpower Rune he had comprehended.

Now that he knew what Willpower Rune Duan He had comprehended, the extremely flexible Willpower Rune was a problem for Lin Yuan.

Lin Yuan turned to Duan He and asked, "Senior Duan He, do you have a fey in mind that you would like to contract?"

Duan He stood there with his face flushed. He had been waiting for Lin Yuan to ask this.

Chapter 647: Fly, Dance of Paper

When Lin Yuan was speaking to someone, he had the habit of paying attention to their eyes. He did the same when he spoke to Duan He.

Lin Yuan noticed the fleeting look of embarrassment on Duan He's face and immediately knew that the fey Duan He needed was special.

As per Lin Yuan's guess, Duan He hemmed and hawed before finally saying, "Young Master, I want a Bronze/Legend fey. May I have the Spirit-Siphon Goldfish with the exclusive skill Spirit Transform?"

A strange look appeared on Lin Yuan's face.

Duan He's face became redder when he saw Lin Yuan's odd expression.

If Duan He had made this request anywhere else, he would have immediately been pegged as a lunatic.

The spirit qi needed to evolve a Bronze/Legend Spirit-Siphon Goldfish was the equivalent of evolving five other Bronze/Legend feys.

Bronze/Legend feys were meant to be seen but not sought as every one of them required an enormous amount of resources.

Duan He might as well have asked for five Bronze/Legend feys.

But this was the idea that had taken root in Duan He's mind after he had comprehended the Willpower Rune.

As the Six-Headed Sea Demon Snake became more powerful, Duan He became more inclined toward using it in fights.

It could be said that Duan He did not have a combat system.

He had nurtured the Thunderwave Sky Chaos Snail all this time because it was easy to nurture.

All he had to do was let it be struck by lightning during a thunderstorm.

The Thunderwave Sky Chaos Snail could attach itself to the Six-Headed Sea Demon Snake's head during a battle and become a lightning rod that could launch lightning bolts.

If a combat system had to be assigned to Duan He, it could be said that he wanted to contract other feys in order to improve the Six-Headed Sea Demon Snake's combat power.

He wanted to hone his advantage.

Moreover, it was always the best choice to evolve one's wife!

Duan He had always been affiliated with water-type feys. Thus, he was capable of forming a contract with the Spirit-Siphon Goldfish.

The Spirit-Siphon Goldfish could replenish the Six-Headed Sea Demon Snake's and Duan He's depleted spiritual power during a battle and increase their endurance.

The exclusive skill Spirit Transform would also allow the target to transform the elemental energy in its body into spiritual power.

The Six-Headed Sea Demon Snake had an ocean of elemental energy stored in its body but had limited spiritual power.

Spirit Transform would be able to amplify the Six-Headed Sea Demon Snake's endurance manifold.

The Spirit-Siphon Goldfish would act as a safety net that could strengthen the Six-Headed Sea Demon Snake during a prolonged battle.

The exclusive skill Spirit Transform was unique to the Spirit-Siphon Goldfish. Thus, forming a contract with it was the only way.

Just as Duan He was about to change the topic to dispel the awkwardness, Lin Yuan replied, "I thought it was going to be some outrageous request. This is easy. There is a Five Fortune Ranchu in the red sandalwood longevity fish tank downstairs with the exclusive Spirit Transform skill. I'll get it out and evolve it for you in a few days."

Lin Yuan had thought that Duan He would be after some type of rare water-type fey. If so, Lin Yuan would be in a sticky situation.

Although Lin Yuan needed to expend more effort on the Spirit-Siphon Goldfish, it was not difficult for him.

Duan He had assumed that Lin Yuan would reject him, so he was surprised by how casually Lin Yuan agreed. Thus, Duan He was extremely excited and touched.

After climbing to the level that he was at now, Duan He had come to understand how difficult it was to gather Creation Master resources.

However, Lin Yuan had unconditionally agreed to the request that Duan He had thought was over the line.

This filled Duan He with a sense of loyalty and determination to serve the kind Lin Yuan to the best of his abilities.

Duan He did not express his thanks. He felt that there was no rush to express it verbally.

Lin Yuan noticed that the sky had gradually darkened through a small window in the training room.

After pondering for a moment, he said, "Senior Duan He, you should go to the Listening Heron Chamber of Commerce to live with Listen for a while. The Zheng family has been making a move there recently."

Duan He nodded vehemently.

"I'll be staying at the Listening Heron Chamber of Commerce then. I'll go and make the arrangements for the Law Source Crystals in the daytime."

Duan He had witnessed the hostility between Lin Yuan and the Zheng family and had seen the progression of all the events.

Jiao Hanzhong had attacked Lin Yuan and wanted to kill him.

Lin Yuan had in turn killed Jiao Hanzhong and the Zheng family's Nightmare VI. As long as the Zheng family did not know Lin Yuan's identity, they were destined to continue clashing to the death.

If the Zheng family found out about Lin Yuan's identity, the Zheng family would probably do all that they could to beg for Lin Yuan's forgiveness.

But from the way Lin Yuan spoke about it, he clearly had no intention of revealing that he was the Moon Empress' disciple.

Since that was the case, the Zheng family was doomed.

After interacting with him, Duan He learned that Lin Yuan did not put on any airs, nor did he intend on relying on the Radiant Moon Palace.

This made Duan He slightly suspicious. If Lin Yuan did not rely on the Radiant Moon Palace, then where did his wealth of Creation Master resources come from?

It was impossible for him to achieve so much just by relying on Master Hong Shen.

However, Duan He did not dwell on it. He was now a part of Sky City, and he would go through thick and thin with Lin Yuan, no matter what resources he gained along the way.

If Lin Yuan had more resources, it would benefit Duan He as well.

Once Lin Yuan was done chatting with Duan He, he realized that Listen and Zhou Luo had already left the mansion.

The Listening Heron Chamber of Commerce had been very busy of late as the luxury goods they had accumulated were about to go on sale. Hence, Listen and Zhou Luo were too busy to even come to the mansion to have meals.

Duan He set off for the Listening Heron Chamber of Commerce and prepared to deal with the obstacles that could be overcome with brute force.

Just as Lin Yuan was about to return to his room and enter the Spirit Lock spatial zone to feed the Law Source Crystals to the Sacred Sword Wielding Queen, Wen Yu walked up to Lin Yuan and said, "Young Master, I want to go to the Hidden Moon Pavilion tonight. I've finished organizing all the information regarding the Zheng family. As such, I want to get a jump on preparing the information about the Miao family that's been supporting the Zheng family. It's always better to be prepared in case of an emergency."

Lin Yuan nodded and replied, "Go ahead. The private territory will be opening on Star Web tomorrow, and the faction's role will be announced. We will also be giving away 100 Fate Letters. If you can make it back in time, I'll take you with me to explore the completed territory."

Wen Yu quickly quipped, "Young Master, I'll definitely rush back by tomorrow morning."

Wen Yu softly said, "Fly, Dance of Paper."

2

Wen Yu turned into a piece of paper and was carried away by the wind.

Lin Yuan was shocked by the transformation, but he soon started to smile.

Chapter 648: One-Woman Intelligence Network

Lin Yuan did not know that Wen Yu had been spending the past two days collating information on the Zheng family. She had even gone with them to the Radiance Palace to watch the Allstar Match today.

She had not had time to rest at all.

Yet, she had used the little spare time she had to nurture the paper-elemental source-type lifeform into Bronze/Elite.

By the time Wen Yu transformed into a piece of paper, Lin Yuan had already checked the source-type lifeform's attributes with True Data.

[Fey Name]: Elemental Paper (Blossoming Paper Flower)

[Fey Species]: Elemental/Sand

2

[Fey Grade]: Bronze (3/10)

[Fey Type]: Source

[Fey Quality]: Elite

Abilities:

[Dance of Paper]: Transform the body into a piece of paper that is immune to physical attacks. However, it is especially vulnerable to elemental attacks. The paper has a teleporting power. The teleportation can be used every five seconds and has a radius of three kilometers.

[Paper Crane's Promise]: The paper will be stacked to form a paper crane that can send messages. The paper crane will be engraved with the aura of the person receiving the message. If a person other than the receiver touches the paper crane, it will burst into flames. The paper crane has a teleporting power that is ten times more powerful than that of Dance of Paper.

Exclusive Skill:

[Hear Heaven's Secrets]: The contractor will become a book of secrets that is linked to the flying piece of paper. When the book's pages are turned, it can transfer any knowledge within to the flying piece of paper.

When Lin Yuan saw the Elemental Paper that Wen Yu had nurtured, he was astonished.

In terms of its fighting ability, Lin Yuan could only say that it was garbage.

The Elemental Paper had basically no fighting ability.

The only ability that could be used in battle was the Dance of Paper that lit up every five seconds.

It could be used for teleportation.

As for the Dance of Paper being immune to physical attacks, Lin Yuan felt that it was a good self-protection ability.

However, it was susceptible to double the effects of elemental attacks. Such a limitation rendered the self-protection aspect null.

After all, all spirit qi professionals could contract multiple feys, and most spirit qi professionals had feys that specialized in elemental attacks.

Wen Yu was a Creation Master by trade, and none of her feys were suited for combat.

Thus, the Elemental Paper's inept fighting skills made no difference to Wen Yu.

From a non-fighting standpoint, the Elemental Paper was an extremely precious treasure when it came to espionage.

The Silver Messenger Pigeon that was used to deliver secrets had been caught in a tree at the Listening Heron Chamber of Commerce and had delivered them some news about the Zheng family.

The ability Paper Crane's Promise was like a Messenger Pigeon each time it was used.

The Messenger Pigeon was a mere fey. If a high-class Creation Master used a special technique to trick it, the Messenger Pigeon would no longer be secure.

However, Paper Crane's Promise would remove such a risk.

The Paper Crane's Promise was being controlled by Wen Yu; ergo, there was no danger of the secrets being leaked.

The Paper Crane's Promise had a teleporting power that was ten times stronger than that of Dance of Paper. In other words, the Paper Crane's Promise could fly 30 kilometers every five seconds and 360 kilometers in one minute.

As the Elemental Paper's power increased, its abilities would also become stronger.

The Paper Crane's Promise's teleportation ability would also grow stronger.

That said, the Paper Crane's Promise was much faster than most feys. It was already a few times faster than the Messenger Pigeon.

The Paper Crane's Promise could be used as Sky City's unique method of delivering messages.

It would allow Sky City to add another layer of mystery around itself.

As for Hear Heaven's Secrets, it allowed Wen Yu to turn into an exceptional intelligence agent.

Lin Yuan, who had come from another world, knew full well that the devil was in the details.

The Elemental Paper's Hear Heaven's Secrets saved Wen Yu from missing out on careless details when recording information. If her powers of detection were strong enough, Wen Yu would be able to become Sky City's one-woman intelligence network.

Lin Yuan suddenly thought of Gray.

Its transformation into the Sky Clouded Crane had been a pleasant surprise to Lin Yuan. It would be able to provide a perfect shrouding effect for the Floating Island Whale that was about to hatch.

It would hide the Floating Island Whale from external spying and sensing.

Gray's Cloud Morph would also grow stronger along with it and eventually be able to cover as much space in the sky as the earth itself.

It would be best if Wen Yu's sensing ability could be linked to Gray's Cloud Morph.

If so, the Elemental Paper's Hear Heaven's Secrets would be able to record all the happenings of the area covered by Cloud Morph and provide infallible information.

Lin Yuan thought it over before smacking his forehead. He felt that his imagination had gone wild.

Hu Quan had come out of his room only to see Lin Yuan smacking his own forehead at the entrance of his room. He thought to himself that Lin Yuan looked rather stupid.

“Does it feel good to smack your own forehead? Do I need to make a smart hand for you that will smack your forehead a hundred times every few seconds? Will that increase your joy?” asked Hu Yuan.

1

Lin Yuan, who was about to enter his room, had a suspicious look on his handsome face.

What’s wrong with Hu Quan’s brain? Why did he say such weird things? But if we sell a smart hand that can smack something a hundred times every few seconds, I bet it’ll be popular.

1

As the sun disappeared below the horizon, the crimson-stained sky was being taken over by the darkness coming from the east.

It was like a weak flame in the sky that refused to be extinguished.

Four people, two men and two women, were sweating buckets and panting heavily as they stood on the peak of a mountain.

It was clear that the four of them had used up all their strength climbing up to the steep peak.

Zhang Xiaobai lay on the ground and shouted, “Damn that Extreme Guild Club! I must revive myself.”

Zhang Xiaobai had vented all his frustrations with that hollering and released all his feelings toward the Extreme Guild Club.

He failed to notice that Xin Ying, who had sat down next to him, was gazing at him lovingly.

Zhang Xiaobai did not feel satisfied after only shouting once, so he yelled again, “I can’t revive! The wretched Xin Ying has trapped me—”

Before Zhang Xiaobai could finish shouting, he received a mighty attack from a hand that was powered by love.

Chapter 649: Collective Epiphany

A series of mournful screams seemingly frightened the sunset hues, causing it to quickly bury into darkness.

Right now, the sky was slowly turning dark.

Zhang Xiaobai was rubbing his stomach as though he was a young wife who had just gotten bullied.

Xin Ying had a cold face and no longer looked at Zhang Xiaobai.

Lu Pinru and Tan Ran were already used to this as though the quartet would always go through such things multiple times a day. It felt like they were already numbed to it.

Lu Pinru said, "Once we get off the mountain later, let's go have a good meal. By then, we can all discuss our thoughts of the future."

While Lu Pinru was speaking, she was looking at the lights at the foot of the mountain while her eyes didn't stop glistening. It was obvious that Lu Pinru's current feelings weren't as calm as she looked on the surface.

Previously, when the Extreme Guild Club had omitted Zhang Xiaobai because of the accident and had a change of attitude toward Xin Ying, Tan Ran, and Lu Pinru, they were all disappointed by it. But when Lu Pinru was commanded to use her body to block the ability that would cause spiritual damage, their hearts had already died.

From a long time ago, Lu Pinru had already realized that something was wrong with the Extreme Guild Club and didn't wish to stay in a guild club that was completely operated by a merchant organization.

However, Zhang Xiaobai, Xin Ying, and Tan Ran had all been working hard for the S Tournament back then. Lu Pinru also wanted to stand on the tournament stage together with this trio, who supported each other all the time. As such, Lu Pinru had been suppressing her grudge toward the Extreme Guild Club all this time.

After learning what the Extreme Guild Club had done after the accident, Lu Pinru was actually the calmest person.

At present, Lu Pinru's pulsing feelings were filled with gratitude toward Lin Yuan and also the fond memories of the time she sacrificed her youth to the Extreme Guild Club.

After hearing Lu Pinru mentioning their thoughts of the future, Zhang Xiaobai quickly said, "I have already mentioned this to all of you. Lin Yuan has also established a guild club and wishes to recruit the four of us. I have already agreed. What do all of you think?"

After hearing Zhang Xiaobai's question, Xin Ying rolled her eyes at him. "What do you mean?"

Zhang Xiaobai was startled by Xin Ying's question and rather confused.

Immediately after, Zhang Xiaobai heard Xin Ying saying, "Do you still want to abandon me? I have already signed the documents at the Extreme Guild Club. Tomorrow, I will go to the Extreme Guild Club and confirm the contents of the agreement. I will be a free person in three days."

Tan Ran sat up from the ground and said, "I want to go to Lin Yuan's guild club too, but I am not young like before."

Tan Ran's words made Zhang Xiaobai and Xin Ying silent.

It was true. The youngest person among them was Tan Ran, and he was already 24 years old. They were no longer those youths back in the days.

Zhang Xiaobai turned around to look at the waning lights at the foot of the mountain and suddenly hesitated.

At that moment, a calm and determined female voice echoed. "Why are all of you suddenly dejected? Isn't our dream to be on the tournament stage? Just treat it as though we are going to relive our last ten years."

Zhang Xiaobai, Xin Ying, and Tan Ran were digesting Lu Pinru's words. At that moment, Lu Pinru started humming lightly but was a little off-tune.

"The answer to my dream is always in my own hand. I am the only person that can give energy to myself."

After singing one line, Lu Pinru continued saying, "Do all of you still remember the Sparrow Voice Loli Goddess' song? Lin Yuan has placed the answer to our dreams in our hands. Are we not going to grab it?"

"Even if our strength isn't enough and we cannot be reserve team members, it is also good to be a staff member of Lin Yuan's guild club.

"I owe so much to Lin Yuan that I cannot repay in this lifetime. I will be an odd job worker at Lin Yuan's guild club for the remaining half of my life."

Lu Pinru was very quiet during normal days and rarely talked. However, the words that Lu Pinru said gave off limitless power. She had dispelled the doubts of the trio and lit up the path ahead.

After finding the path, Zhang Xiaobai let out an improper smile and giggled as he said, "Later on, let's go to the Arsenal to eat! I found a great shop!"

When Xin Ying heard Zhang Xiaobai's words, she felt her fist getting itchy again.

Tan Ran didn't understand what the Arsenal Zhang Xiaobai had mentioned was and thought he heard wrongly. He then asked, "Brother Xiaobai, what kind of place is Arsenal? Can we have a meal there?"

Zhang Xiaobai squinted his brows and giggled as he said, "Guns, bullets, cannons, cow-species fey, goat-species fey, everything. It is simply beautiful. Let me tell you every time I finish eating there, Xin Ying will—"

Before Zhang Xiaobai finished his words, he received a heavy punch from Xin Ying.

Tan Ran still didn't understand, and when he wanted to continue asking, Lu Pinru covered his ears.

Lu Pinru quickly said, "A new buffet restaurant has opened in the Royal Capital. It is said to have rather good food. I wonder if it will close down mysteriously like other buffet restaurants. We need to seize the opportunity to have a good meal there."

After having a good laugh, the quartet watched as the thousands of house lights lit up. The quartet who found their aspiration again had this unspeakable carefree feeling in their hearts.

All of a sudden, the four of them entered a state of epiphany.

By the time Zhang Xiaobai opened his eyes, he noticed that the three others were staring at him.

Zhang Xiaobai coughed and stood up as he said proudly, “I accidentally comprehended a Willpower Rune earlier.”

After speaking, Zhang Xiaobai circulated his spiritual energy, and a Willpower Rune of hope shot out of Zhang Xiaobai’s spirit.

Zhang Xiaobai just finished flaunting and saw the trio was staring at him as though they were looking at a fool.

Immediately after, Xin Ying, Tan Ran, and Lu Pinru circulated their spiritual energy at the same time. Three Willpower Runes appeared and floated together with Zhang Xiaobai’s Willpower Rune.

At that moment, the quartet was flabbergasted. They looked at each other and felt it was rather unbelievable.

The four Willpower Runes were nearly the same and had the aura of hope.

In the next moment, the quartet held hands and started jumping and cheering on the peak of the mountain. It was truly filled with joy. Their hands were all raised up, and they felt they could touch the horizon.

...

Zhang Xiaobai and the others sat on a fey vehicle to the House of Envable Fragrance and were preparing to enter.

All of a sudden, a loud sound echoed from the House of Envable Fragrance, and there was a surge of water elements from within.

As the water elements burst out, a figure flew out along with the door and fell violently onto the ground.

Immediately after, there was a feminine yell!

“Shi Xu, do you think you are a pork trotter or a pork shoulder? How can this lady like you?”

Zhang Xiaobai, Xin Ying, Tan Ran, and Lu Pinru were so stunned that they gulped down their saliva.

What is this situation?

Did the Radiance Hundred Sequence #6 Thunderstorm Feast Shi Xu actually confessed his love to the Radiance Hundred Sequence #21 Food Hater Zhao Xiaochun?

This is a huge scandal!

Chapter 650: Sacred Source Lifeform, Sin Punishment Inner Mirror’s Indication

On an island laid with gemstones, there were originally eight tall towers with various shapes and sizes on this land.

Seven of the tall towers each had 32 Chanters kneeling down and chanting softly.

Every 32 Chanters had one Lead Chanter whose left hand would be flipping through a cardinal canon that belonged to the respective tower, while the right hand would be brandishing intoxication.

However, at one of the towers, the 32 Chanters and the Lead Chanter had stopped chanting, and they were standing up. Right now, the tower had already lifted off the ground and was suspended in midair.

Inside the tower, there was a giant throne made up of all sorts of strange bones, and there was a giant bizarre flesh sphere there.

Not far away below the throne, a short-haired young lady with vacant eyes was slowly shaking her head.

The short-haired young lady's left ear had an earring that would emit a clear and crisp sound with each shake. This earring was very special and had three colored crystals that were the size of a fingernail.

Each of the three crystals had a mystical and extraordinary alien beast roaming within, and it contained a concentrated aura of law.

Furthermore, the laws from the alien beasts were so concentrated that a single law could dictate an entire world. However, three of such alien beasts were trapped in colored crystals that were only the size of a fingernail.

All of a sudden, the giant bizarre flesh from the bone throne let out a clear and resounding voice. "Sister Third Page, why are you standing there and shaking your hair coquettishly? It seems like you have seen a love letter that doesn't have an address?"

"That is so disgusting!"

"Furthermore, your expression seems like you have a losing money item that you didn't get to sell last century, and it landed back in your hand this century."

The purest voice said the harshest words, as though it was telling the truth that remained unchanged since ancient times.

Even though the short-haired young lady had absolute beauty, it seemed like she had turned into an ugly person who didn't dare to look at the mirror.

Upon hearing that statement, the short-haired young lady's vacant eyes flashed violently with sinful radiance, "Gegege, Fifth Page Truth, you are about to leave the holy land and head to the Startling Lines Continent. This big sister is kindly sending you off, and you actually dare to say that this big sister is ugly?"

"Are you not afraid that this big sister will rip open your layer of rotten flesh and destroy the garden inside you?"

When Third Page Eternal Sin finished her words, the giant bizarre flesh on the bone throne immediately cracked open. An abnormally exquisite-looking young boy walked out, and he looked just like a porcelain doll.

Looking at the young boy's back, one could see inside the crack of the giant flesh—it was an amusement park filled with childhood.

One could even see the little toy ducks and the half-eaten strawberry cake on the table.

“Don’t worry, Sister Third Page. It is rather ruthless to observe an ugly person closely. This baby isn’t looking at you anymore.”

After hearing Fifth Page Truth’s words, Third Page Eternal Sin’s expression was withdrawn completely, and her eyes reverted to their vacant state.

After a long time, Third Page Eternal Sin said, “Big sister originally wanted to tell you something, but it seems like you don’t need to know it.”

Fifth Page Truth responded as though it wasn’t a matter, “You better worry for yourself! The Totem Moon that is illuminating the Dark Stone Continent from above has released radiant moonlight and disintegrated half the Dark Stone Continent.

“It has basically destroyed all the establishments laid down by the Seventh Page War on the Dark Stone Continent. Do you think this is related to Cheng Wu, the one you recommended to Sister Seventh Pag?”

Third Page Eternal Sin suddenly flashed in response and used her finger to gently point at Fifth Page Truth’s forehead.

Third Page Eternal Sin’s movements startled Fifth Page Truth and immediately revealed a grave expression.

At that moment, Third Page Eternal Sin let out a chuckle. “The Radiance Federation’s Moon Empress has reached that level, and Seventh Page War needs to be apprehensive. As for this big sister, I do not.”

Fifth Page Truth took a deep breath and no longer used the same reckless treatment given to Third Page Eternal Sin earlier on.

“It turns out that apart from Brother First Page and Sister Second Page, Sister Third Page has also reached that level! Congratulations!”

Fifth Page Truth was still using the pure voice to speak convincing words that sounded like the truth. However, the tone didn’t have any hint of a congratulatory feeling.

Third Page Eternal Sin turned and walked out of the tower. When she was at the entrance, she shook the earring on her left ear for a final clear sound. “When shifting the Tower of Truth to the Startling Lines Continent’s Great Lush Federation, you have to be careful.”

After speaking, Third Page Eternal Sin leaped off and landed on the ground, which was embedded with gemstones.

Hearing Third Page Eternal Sin’s words, Fifth Page Truth waved his hand, and an ordinary and simply bone scepter appeared.

Without paying any attention to Third Page Eternal Sin’s words, Fifth Page Truth rubbed the bone scepter in his hand and pouted as he said, “The Great Lush is a place where this baby already sowed the seeds a long time ago. The seeds have already germinated.

“It is time for this baby to pull up all the buds in the Great Lush!”

As Fifth Page Truth’s voice turned silent, the Tower of Truth that was suspended in midair burst into the sky.

Third Page Eternal Sin was standing on the ground and watching the Tower of Truth as she muttered, “Strange, Fifth Page Truth’s sacred source lifeform can be considered as this world’s most terrifying existence.

“All things in this world have sins! But why is my sacred source lifeform, Sin Punishment Inner Mirror, indicating that Fifth Page Truth’s sin will vanish completely after a period?

“Strange! Truly strange!”

...

With Hu Quan’s help, Lin Yuan had fished the Five Fortune Ranchu out of the red sandalwood fish tank. It was because Duan He required the Five Fortune Ranchu’s exclusive skill, Spirit Transform.

Lin Yuan realized that the Spirit-Siphon Goldfish had already reached Bronze IV/Flawless. Duan He wasn’t in a hurry to contract a new fey.

Just the flesh of the Suzerain/Myth II Night Calamity Crow and Dream-Eating Bat would allow Duan He to be busy for a period.

However, Lin Yuan was rather puzzled as each head of the Six-Headed Sea Demon Snake had its own individual personality.

Normally, the main head that contained the most elemental energy would be in control of the thoughts. However, after consuming the flesh of the Night Calamity Crow and Dream-Eating Bat, the control of the Six-Headed Sea Demon Snake’s thoughts would start to shift to the smallest and most pitiful dark-element head. It would allow the dark-element head’s personality to control the body.

Even though the soul of the Six-Headed Sea Demon Snake didn’t have any change in feelings toward Duan He, each personality was independent and a completely different existence.

Didn’t it mean that when Duan He and the Six-Headed Sea Demon Snake were together, Duan He actually had six wives?

As the Six-Headed Sea Demon Snake’s strength increased, it was possible that Duan He might possess his seventh, eighth, and ninth wife!

Duan He was truly a person that could describe himself as a justified and reasonable scumbag.
