

Merrier 942

Chapter 942 Did It on Purpose

"There's no hurry," Benjamin said calmly, not looking the slightest bit anxious. Arissa smiled at him in amusement. He's really waiting to make fun of Kingsley!

Sure enough, the school did not allow Kingsley to pick up the children no matter how hard he tried to explain. "Sweethearts, explain to the teachers quickly. Don't we know each other very well?"

The six children merely stared at him and refused to cooperate. "Mommy said she would come to pick us up!" Kingsley swept his gaze over them before turning to point in the direction of the cars.

"Your parents are here too!" "But why can't we see them?"

Gavin and his siblings looked around, but all they could see were cars. If Daddy and Mommy are here, there's no way we can't see them! Kingsley also took a few glances, mystified.

Didn't Boss and Arissa get out of the car? Where did they go?

to come and bring the children over. Could you kindly let them go? It's not my first time here, and you to blush, but they still stood their ground. "I'm sorry, to persuade the teachers to let the kids go, but they won't budge, and the kids also refuse to leave our parents are here? Then go and call Mommy over!" Despite saying that, Zachary six children did not believe

The two were in the car. Arissa chuckled in amusement when she saw Kingsley knocking she opened the car door. "You guys best go there because the teachers won't let me take them!"

nodded with her out of the car, Kingsley scrutinized the couple and stated suggestively, "Were you guys hiding opportunity!" Kingsley was dumbfounded.

up the children. All six of them were overjoyed to the couple. Arissa embraced them while Benjamin patted