Chapter 950 We Are So Happy

Arissa looked at Jesse in amusement. "I'm not afraid. Are you?" Immediately, Jesse shook her head. "I'm not afraid either!"

Eyeing Arissa, Jasper flashed her a smile. "If you're scared later, just hold my hand, Mommy." The corners of Arissa's mouth twitched. Meanwhile, Benjamin was with Tim and Oliver.

They all looked calm and unruffled, with the exception of Benjamin, who sat stiffly in his seat. He had a tall and muscular physique, but the seat was a bit too small, which made him feel uncomfortable. "Are you two scared?"

Nonetheless, Benjamin still put that question forth to the boys. Tim and Oliver shook their heads. "I'm not scared!" Oliver was excited beyond words.

Tim, on the other hand, had never been on a roller coaster, but it had seemed fun when he watched others taking the ride on the television.

Finding it interesting, he likewise shook his head. "Nope!" Benjamin patted them both on the heads. Subsequently, he glanced over his shoulder at Gavin and Zachary behind him. "Are you both afraid?"

"Of course not!" Zachary said proudly. Gavin was grinning so widely that his eyes were mere slits. He was thrilled, for it was his first time riding the roller coaster with his parents.

In the past, he had no interest in riding the roller coaster, but his parents and siblings were with him then. When everyone rode together, it became meaningful and enjoyable.

"We're not scared, Daddy. Are you?" Gavin deliberately asked. Benjamin snorted softly. "Sit tight."

Hah! I merely find this too childish. I'm not even fearful when I pilot a plane and hover in the sky. Such a trivial ride is nothing!
