Chapter 954 Are You Not Sharing It with Me

"Here, I'll carry Jesse." Benjamin took his daughter from Arissa and cradled her in his arms. That aside, he even snagged a blanket and draped it over her.

Quirking a brow, Arissa smiled. "You guys go ahead and eat."

Benjamin gazed down at her, his voice a mere whisper. Noticing that their sister was asleep, Gavin and the rest of the children followed suit, lowering their voices thoughtfully.

"Is Jesse not eating?" Tim inquired. "She's already asleep," Jasper replied. Zachary chimed in, "We'll just save some for her."

Benjamin pinned his eyes on them. "There's more. The bodyguards will be bringing the rest over in a while. Eat first."

Hearing that, the five boys were overjoyed. "Can we eat, Mommy?"

Gavin turned to Arissa, swallowing audibly.

Arissa couldn't resist the temptation either as the fragrant aroma wafted into her nostrils. She carefully took one out. "Let's eat together."

"Sure!"

Excited to the core, Oliver picked up a spoon and handed it to his mother.

"Here, this is for you, Mommy."

"Thank you."

Stirring it for a bit, Arissa inhaled deeply. "How fragrant!"
