Chapter 1271: Devouring Black Ogre Emperor

“What’s going on? How could Black Ogre Emperor be slayed by Firmament Holy?”

“Even though it’s an avatar, but he’s still far stronger than a quasi-Empyrean. How could he be slayed by Firmament Holy?”

“That’s an Empyrean. Firmament Holy mercilessly killed his avatar. Does he want to fall out with an Empyrean?”

“...”

The spectating Holies inhaled a breath of cold air when they saw Black Ogre Emperor’s avatar being slayed.

The seven quasi-Empyreans hidden in the void also inhaled a breath of cold air, not daring not act rashly.

Yang Feng took a step, unleashed spatial fluctuations, and disappeared.

Inside a warship above Dark Canyon, a warp gate opened, and Yang Feng walked out and looked into the distance.

Ruler series battle robots frantically besieging the ancient bronze coffin. But no matter how they try, their attacks can’t break the cyan barrier.

In the ancient bronze coffin, strange runes shone, and a large hand covered in black fur extended, burst out with terrifying black qi, and ground everything in its way into powder.

Yang Feng smiled icily: “Black Ogre Emperor, since I found your true body, today is the day you die.”

Ripples surged in the void, and a mechanical sphere with a diameter of 10,000 kilometers flew out.

From the mechanical sphere, 1,000 ruler series battle robots flew out at once. Each of the 1,000 ruler series battle robots emanates Holy rank fluctuations of power.

The 1,000 ruler series battle rulers emanating Holy rank fluctuations of power blurred into motion and flew towards the ancient bronze coffin.

100 Holy rank Dazzling Rulers resonated, radiated dazzling light, and formed a beam condensed to the extreme that blasted into the ancient bronze coffin.

In response, the ancient bronze coffin’s barrier trembled, blurred, and collapsed.

In a flash, 100 Holy rank Blade Rulers appeared in front of the ancient bronze coffin, brandished their blades, and left wounds on the large hand covered in fur, and black blood spilled.

“1,000 Holy rank mechanical golems! How is that possible? How can there be so many Holy rank mechanical golems? Even Golem Lord didn’t have so many Holy rank golems!”

An startled and voice transmitted from the ancient bronze coffin. The large hand covered in black fur extended, and a huge claw thousands of kilometers in length emerged and shot towards the Holy rank battle robots.

100 Vajra Rulers suddenly emerged, resonated with each other, and shone with countless runes, and a huge energy shield appeared.

When the huge claw slammed into the energy shield, it only managed to set off ripples.

Strange Devour Rulers jumped on the ancient bronze coffin and began devouring the coffin's materials.

The ancient bronze coffin was gradually devoured by the Devour Rulers.

100 Holy rank Seal Rulers flew to above the ancient bronze coffin and resonated with each other, and sealing light derived from the technologies of the xizu, the Shidna civilization, and the world of Warlocks fell down from the sky and shone on the ancient bronze coffin.

Strange seal runes constantly eroded the large hand covered in black fur, melting and sealing his power bit by bit.

"You ants are not qualified to kill me!"

With a bellow, the lid of the ancient bronze coffin opened, and Black Ogre Emperor covered in black fur, with a ferocious face, a horn, and four arms, appeared.

Once Black Ogre Emperor appeared, terrifying immortal Empyrean might emanated from him. When the sealing light approached him, it twisted and broke. As if spears, countless black hairs rose, ejected, punched the Blade Rulers full of holes, and sent the ruler series battle robots flying thousands of kilometers away.

The 100 Dazzling Rulers resonated, and a terrifying beam capable of wiping out a quasi-Empyrean barreled towards Black Ogre Emperor.

"Distort!"

With an icy shimmer in his eyes, Black Ogre Emperor flicked a finger, and distorted light sundered the firmament.

Swept by the distorted light, the beam capable of wiping out a quasi-Empyrean distorted, brushed past Black Ogre Emperor, and slammed into the earth, and a large, bottomless pit appeared.

A dignified shade flashed in Yang Feng's eyes: "Amazing! As expected of an Empyrean!"

Even if it's Yang Feng, he would have to expend great effort in order to deal with the beam fired by the 100 Dazzling Rulers. But Black Ogre Emperor could easily distort the void and evade the blow. His control of power is simply terrifying.

"Firmament Holy, kneel! I'll spare your pathetic life if you swear allegiance to me!"

In the ancient bronze coffin, Black Ogre Emperor's eyes flickered fiercely and his black fur rose. His gaze crossed heavy fog, passed through the warship's alloy walls, and locked on Yang Feng's true body aboard the flagship.

A creepy sense of danger welled up inside Yang Feng, as if Black Ogre Emperor would tear him to pieces in the next moment.

“Black Ogre Emperor, if you were in your top condition, you might be able to kill me. But do you think you can kill me now?”

Yang Feng smiled derisively and waved his hand. The 100 Blade Rulers pulled out the black hairs that pierced them, and then turned into streams of light and shot towards Black Ogre Emperor.

“Stubborn fools! Go to hell!”

In the ancient bronze coffin, with a ferocious shimmer in his eyes, Black Ogre Emperor erupted with countless runes all over his body, emanated immortal Empyrean might, and tore the void with his hands.

In an instant, a terrifying cosmic storm emerged and swept in all directions.

The 100 Holy rank Blade Rulers were blown 100 kilometers away by the terrifying cosmic storm.

The 100 Holy rank Vajra Rulers flew to the front of the flagship and opened a defensive boundary guarding Yang Feng. The Vajra Rulers are battle robot specially developed for defense. If 100 of them are combined, they can somewhat withstands even the attacks from an Empyrean.

With a flash of cyan light, the ancient bronze coffin turned into a stream of light and shot towards the hole torn in space.

Yang Feng uttered frigidly, a look of contempt in his eyes, “Black Ogre Emperor! Now is still not the time for Empyreans like you to wake up. A forceful waking will do you a lot of harm, right?”

Terrifying spatial fluctuations surged, and Holy rank Space Rulers appeared on the other side of the hole torn in space.

The hole in space healed at once.

The Blade Rulers appeared in front of the ancient bronze coffin in a flash and brandished their blades.

“Firmament Holy, don’t go too far!”

With a fierce shimmer in his eyes, Black Ogre Emperor bellowed and stabbed a Blade Ruler lightning fast. Frenzied black qi erupted, and the Blade Rulers exploded and turned into powder that could no longer combine together.

After instakilling a Blade Ruler, a wrinkle appeared on Black Ogre Emperor’s face and traces of aging and decay appeared on his body.

Blade Rulers and Dazzling Rulers rushed towards Black Ogre Emperor dauntlessly one after another.

With a fierce glimmer in his eyes, Black Ogre Emperor extended a claw again and again, blasting a Blade Ruler or a Dazzling Ruler apart each time. At the same time, black light shone and formed a distorted magic barrier guarding him.

In a short dozen plus breaths of time, the 200 Holy rank ruler series battle robots were nearly wiped out, leaving only 50 plus intact.

“Truly impressive! Despite being under the siege of 1,000 Holy rank rulers, he was still able to destroy about 150 units. Ne’s Black Ogre Emperor not for no reason!”

Aboard the flagship, Yang Feng looked at the seemingly invincible Black Ogre Emperor with a dignified color in his eyes. If he was faced with the siege of 1,000 Holy grade rulers, he would have to run away.

“Firmament Holy, since you want me to die, then let’s die together!”

With a fierce flash in his eyes, Black Ogre Emperor took a step out of the ancient bronze coffin, and overbearing Empyrean pressure emanated and swept in all directions.

As soon as Black Ogre Emperor stepped out of the bronze coffin, an aura of decay of the soul emitted from him. He took a step, braved the siege of the rulers, appeared in front of the flagship, and sent a claw barreling towards the flagship.

The 100 Vajra Rulers shone, and a huge shield appeared in front of the flagship.

Boom!

The terrifying claw ran through the huge shield, stabbed into the flagship, and tore the flagship’s magic barrier together with the alloy armor apart.

“You don’t have what it takes to kill me!”

Yang Feng’s eyes shimmered fiercely. He immediately entered the fourth form and brandished the Warbringer Halberd, and countless heroic spirits emerged from the river of time and shot towards the terrifying claw.

The terrifying claw broke out with endless light, smashed the countless heroic spirits, and slammed into Yang Feng.

In an instant, Yang Feng was blasted thousands of kilometers away, the right half of his body smashed. Countless wisps of demonic qi, as if they have a life of their own, turned into countless runes and eroded Yang Feng’s body.

“Almost!”

Black Ogre Emperor’s eyes flashed with unwillingness, and he sighed and dropped from the sky. His life ran out and he died.

A black hole emerged, shrouded Black Ogre Emperor, and devoured him, and a stream of Empyrean origin flowed into Yang Feng.

Chapter 1272: Empyrean’s Death Shakes the World

When Black Ogre Emperor died, in the universe, a soul brand containing the essence of ghosts collapsed and turned into nothingness.

Stars dropped down from the sky like meteors and fell towards Cangzhi Plane.

Countless blood colored dark clouds gathered, and a rain of blood poured down from the sky.

“An Empyrean died! Who was it?”

In a strange river of time, Primal Chaos Mother Spider opened her eyes, erupted with countless runes, and look into the void.

“An Empyrean died! Who the hell was it?”

“Who died?”

Old monsters sleeping in different space-times and different danger zones opened their eyes and perceived everything.

“Black Ogre Emperor died!”

“Firmament Holy Yang Feng killed an Empyrean!”

“What a fierce character! Without that person having to step in, he was able to kill an Empyrean! How dreadful!”

“To interfere with the main world ahead of time, that fool Black Ogre Emperor brought this upon himself.”

After obtaining information through various secret methods and fallbacks arranged in the world, the Empyreans hid themselves even better.

Primal Chaos Mother Spider’s figure blurred. She spat out countless threads and formed a huge cocoon. The cocoon blurred and disappeared.

“Stars fall, blood pours down from the sky! An Empyrean died!”

“The laws of heaven and earth have changed! An Empyrean of our universe died!”

“These visions represent the fall of an Empyrean. Which Empyrean died?”

“...”

On Cangzhi Plane, powerhouses above the Warlock Monarch realm looked at the visions in the sky, and their complexion changed greatly.

Stars fall, blood pours down from the sky, these are visions that will appear when an Empyrean dies.

“An Empyrean died! Could it be Black Ogre Emperor?”

“The Empyreans are sleeping in different places. Only Black Ogre Emperor showed himself! Was Black Ogre Emperor the one who died?!”

“Did Firmament Holy kill Black Ogre Emperor!”

When the Holies and Great Holies around Godslayer Mountain saw the visions, they felt their blood run cold.

“Black Ogre Emperor died!”

“A road opened. However, it’s not of much significance.”

“With Firmament Holy present, this era’s Empyrean throne is his for the taking!”

“...”

The seven quasi-Empyreans hidden in the void gazed at the visions with a dignified color their eyes.

The quasi-Empyreans can sense that a path’s soul brand collapsed. Now others can be promoted to an Empyrean via that path again.

Battered and bruised all over due to the siege of Cosmic Eyes Tiger Great Holy, Starmoon Sky Snake Great Holy, and Cyan Thunderbolt Great Holy, Babatarok spewed out a mouthful of blood, and then shouted at the top of his lungs, a ferocious look on his face: “How is it possible! My lord, how could my lord have died!”

“Even if it’s an Empyrean, if they’re my older brother’s enemy, only death will await them!”

Along with a melodious voice, three dragon heads emerged from the void, bit hard, and tore Babatarok into pieces.

Three radiances shone, swept Babatarok’s torn body, and sealed it in jade boxes.

Cosmic Eyes Tiger Great Holy and Cyan Thunderbolt Great Holy looked at the jade boxes in their hands with satisfaction in their eyes.

The remains of a quasi-Empyrean are definitely a rare treasure of heaven and earth, a treasure among treasures. Whether it is used to refine secret treasures or top elixirs, it is a top material. It’s enough to tempt even quasi-Empyreans.

Quasi-Empyrean rank powerhouses such as Cosmic Eyes Tiger Great Holy and Cyan Thunderbolt Great Holy can naturally sever a limb and squeeze out blood essence to refine secret treasures and precious elixirs. However, the cost involved is great, and the gains do not make up for the loss.

“From now on, this is Firmament Holy’s era!”

“...”

Along with flashes of light, the Holies and Great Holies gathered here turned into streams of light and disappeared.

Bai Bingxian sighed: “From today on, no one in the whole universe will be able to compete with Firmament Holy anymore. The ninth human Warlock Emperor.”

While remaining silent, Mofeceraja turned into a green radiance and disappeared.

Cangzhi Plane, the magic network.

“Firmament Holy returned, devoured Heaven’s Devourer Tyrant Dragon, defeated three quasi-Empyreans, and slayed Black Ogre Emperor, who is an ancient Empyrean!”

An explosive piece of information spread through Cangzhi Plane’s magic network.

“How is that possible? Heavens’ Devourer Tyrant Dragon is Eternal Sovereign age’s powerhouse second only to Empyreans. How could he be defeated?”

“Firmament Holy has returned? Has came out from Eternal Ancient Road already? Even if he came out from Eternal Ancient Road, he may not be the opponent of three ancient quasi-Empyreans.”

“This information is absolutely false. Ancient Empyreans are incomparably powerful and invincible. How could Yang Feng have killed one such being?”

“But the information that Firmament Holy returned should be true!”

Discussions spread within the magic network. Few people believe that Yang Feng can defeat Heaven’s Devourer Tyrant Dragon, three quasi-Empyreans, and Black Ogre Emperor at a stretch.

“Did Heavens Devourer Tyrant Dragon, three ancient quasi-Empyreans, and Black Ogre Emperor really die at Yang Feng’s hands?”

“That’s right! I saw Heaven’s Devourer and three ancient quasi-Empyreans die at Yang Feng’s hands with my own eyes. He also killed Black Ogre Emperor’s avatar. Soon after, the visions of stars falling and blood pouring down from the sky appeared. If I’m not mistaken, Black Ogre Emperor’s death should be Yang Feng’s doing.”

“How is that possible? Firmament Holy is just a Great Holy. No matter how strong he is, how could he slay an Empyrean?”

“Firmament Holy can’t kill an Empyrean in top condition. But if it’s an Empyrean whose soul is close to decay, it’s another story. Firmament Holy must have found the hiding place of his true body, finally forcing him to step in. Consequently, his soul to decayed, and he died.”

“Even if he was forced to step in, an Empyrean should be able to escape from Firmament Holy.”

“That only shows that Firmament Holy’s terror exceeds our expectations by far.”

In the Holy Forum, where only Holies can participate, a group of Holies are secretly communicating. Many Holies who didn’t go Godslayer Mountain for various reasons listened to what happened.

The Holies and Great Holies felt a chill go down their spine. Yang Feng’s terror is far beyond their imagination.

“To have three quasi-Empyreans following him, he must be invincible in Eternal Ancient Road.”

“Who has news regarding Eternal Ancient Road?”

“You guys guessed right. Almost half of Eternal Ancient Road’s eternal empyrean races have signed a treaty with Firmament Holy and became his allies.”

“Are you sure that they’re just allies and not subordinates?”

“With Firmament Holy’s strength, what’s the difference between being ally or subordinate? It’s just a title, that’s all. Perhaps being ally is even worse than being subordinate.”

Eternal Ancient Road has appeared in the world of Warlocks and become another center second only to Cangzhi Plane. Many powerhouses returned from Eternal Ancient Road and brought back a lot of information about Eternal Ancient Road.

Ever since Wall of Eternity shattered, half of Eternal Ancient Road’s eternal empyrean races have joined Yang Feng’s camp and became his subordinates and allies.

Cosmic Eyes Tiger Great Holy threw in his lot with Yang Feng and became his subordinate. Cyan Thunderbolt great Holy chose to become Yang Feng’s ally.

Yang Feng assimilated countless powerhouses of Eternal Ancient Road into his forces, which is why he didn’t appear at an earlier time.

“Firmament Holy is already invincible! In this era, there’s no one who can match him anymore.”

“Not necessarily. As long as he hasn’t advanced to an Empyrean, there is still a chance that someone will surpass him.”

“That’s right! Back in the day, Star Lord was stifled by another! But in the end, he relied on a chance, ascended the Empyrean throne, and suppressed all enemies!”

The Holies and Great Holies discussed on the Holies Forum.

Cangzhi Plane, outside Battle Demon Sect’s branch floating continent, there are countless robots flying in the air. One after another, stars are being seized from the starry sky by Battle Demon Sect’s powerhouses, and then transformed by engineering robots.

In an interstellar port built outside the floating branch continent, there are countless warships moored. These warships are of different shapes and styles.

The gate of a ship-type warship opened, and a man with a vertical eye on the forehead and extraordinary temperament slowly alighted.

“I, Shi Yu, greet All-Eyes Great Holy!”

The beautiful Shi Yu with extraordinary temperament came to the warship and said with a sweet smile, a fragrance wafting out from her.

Behind Shi Yu, there are a dozen plus beautiful angel soldiers.

All-Eyes Great Holy smiled and said, “Shi Yu Great Holy, where’s Firmament Holy?”

Shi Yu said with a smile, "Firmament Holy is still practicing cultivation in seclusion. If it were anyone else, they wouldn't be able to see him. But he ordered to take you to him if you came."

All-Eyes Great Holy's eyes flashed with enigmatic slight, and he uttered unhurriedly, "Practicing cultivation in seclusion? Does he want to break through, take that step, and advance to a quasi-Empyrean? Or does he want to directly step into the Empyrean realm and become the ninth human Warlock Emperor?"

In theory, pinnacle Great Holies can already advance to Empyreans. In fact, quasi-Empyreans are powerhouses that have taken half a step into the Empyrean realm.

Among the eight human Warlock Emperors, Star Lord was a pinnacle Great Holy before he stepped into the Empyrean realm.

Shi Yu smiled and avoided the topic: "Only big brother knows what he wants."

"What a sight!"

As he wandered inside the interstellar port, All-Eyes Great Holy saw that there are powerhouses of countless races gathered here, making the interstellar port extreme bustling.

Chapter 1273: Tier V Hive Explodes

In the interstellar port, there are powerhouses of countless races.

Ever since the news that Yang Feng devoured Heaven's Devourer Tyrant Dragon, defeated three ancient quasi-Empyreans, and slayed Black Ogre Emperor spread, Battle Demon Sect's branch floating continent has become the center of the universe.

Countless races bring all kinds of treasures of heaven and earth here to trade here. At the same time, many races are eager to meet Yang Feng, either to throw in their lot with him, or to form an alliance.

Shi Yu smiled sweetly and said, "The stronger older brother is, the stronger our Human Supreme Council will be, right? After all, older brother is a member of the human race."

All-Eyes Great Holy's eyes shimmered with a scorching shade, "That's right. When Firmament Holy promotes and becomes the ninth human Warlock Emperor, the human race will be able to become the overlord of the universe again."

With Shi Yu leading the way, All-Eyes Great Holy came to the golden lake in the center of the branch floating continent.

In front of the golden lake, golden water churned and surged towards the center of the lake.

In the middle of the lake, with eyes closed, Yang Feng covered in countless runes is surrounded by transparent threads, forming a rune cocoon.

Yang Feng emanates terrifying aura, like he's a unique direbeast undergoing metamorphosis and evolution.

"What incredible aura! He's only a Great Holy!"

When he saw Yang Feng in the center of the golden lake, All-Eyes Great Holy's eyes shimmered with envy. He felt great pressure from the fluctuations of power that emanate from Yang Feng.

"I, All-Eyes Great Holy, greet Firmament Holy!"

When All-Eyes Great Holy arrived in front of the golden lake, he saluted Yang Feng.

Sitting cross-legged in the center of the golden lake, Yang Feng opened his eyes and asked slowly, "All-Eyes Great Holy, what can I do for you?"

All-Eyes Great Holy's eyes shimmered with a complex color, and he answered unhurriedly, "I would like to know why the Wheel of Time is in your possession."

The Wheel of Time is the defensive Empyrean grade secret treasure of the First Warlock Imperial Court's Time Lord. It is an unequaled secret treasure and a symbol of Time Imperial Court.

When Time Lord disappeared, the Wheel of Time disappeared together with him. After that, many powerhouses fought over Time Imperial Court's throne, which eventually led to the collapse of the First Warlock Imperial Court.

The Wheel of Time is the symbol of the First Warlock Imperial Court's legitimate successor.

Yang Feng told All-Eyes Great Holy how he got the Wheel of Time.

All-Eyes Great Holy was silent for a long time before saying slowly, "Firmament Holy, the Wheel of Time is the symbol of Time Imperial Court's legitimate successor. Since you have the Wheel of Time, it means that you obtained the recognition of Time Lord. From now on, Time Imperial Court will follow your lead."

Yang Feng uttered, "I won't treat you badly!"

All-Eyes Great Holy flicked his finger, and a blue crystal flew into Yang Feng's hand: "This is the inventory of Time Imperial Court's treasury. I bid you goodbye. If you have any instructions, just contact me."

"Alright!"

All-Eyes Great Holy saluted Yang Feng, then turned around and strode away.

"Elder brother, Time Lord is really amazing. With a will, he was able to make Time Imperial Court submit to you."

Michaelia walked out from the side, picked up the Wheel of Time, and played with it while laughing beautifully.

Yang Feng smiled and said, "Time Lord is indeed amazing. However, it wasn't his will that made Time Imperial Court submit to me. It was the fact that I'm strong enough for Time Imperial Court to submit that All-Eyes Great Holy was willing to swear allegiance to me."

Yang Feng slayed Black Ogre Emperor. With his infinite potential, he is already recognized as the future ninth human Warlock Emperor. Once he ascends the Empyrean throne, Human Supreme Council will fall completely under his control.

All-Eyes Great Holy just used the Wheel of Time as an excuse to throw his lot in with Yang Feng.

Since Time Imperial Court actively joined his camp, Yang Feng will have to pay him back in the future.

The main world's central starfield.

Suddenly, the Tier IV Hives sticking to the Tier V Hive shone, broke out with countless runes, and poured tremendous power into the Tier V Hive.

Boom!

After absorbing the tremendous power, the Tier V Hive trembled slightly, and then collapsed abruptly and exploded.

In an instant, a terrifying energy storm tore the firmament and destroyed everything.

"Not good! Something's going on in the central starfield! Gumana Universe's guys are going to attack!"

"To detonate a Tier V Hive, how extravagant. Gumana Universe's powerhouses are really extravagant."

"..."

The eyes of the human Warlocks keeping watch in the central starfield shimmered with horror. They quickly sent intelligence reports to their headquarters.

"Something's going on in the central starfield!"

"Gumana Universe detonated the Tier V Hive!"

"..."

This news was sent back to the major races. The major races attach great importance to this matter.

Powerhouses cast spells and flew towards the central starfield one after another.

Once Gumana Universe's powerhouses occupy the universe of the world of Warlocks, they are bound to carry out a great purging. They will use the vast majority of this universe's powerhouses as sacrifice to fuse the two universes and upgrade the universe energy level.

In the center of the explosion of the Tier V Hive, a distorted hole appeared.

Countless fat, distorted insects 100 meters in length gnawed at the distorted hole, gnawed at the universe barrier between the two universes in order to form a channel.

A hyperion powerhouse engraved with countless mysterious runes, with naked upper body and animal hide covering the lower body, a ferocious face, and a huge bone club in hand, walked inside the distorted void.

With every step the hyperion powerhouse took, terrifying backlash force transmitted from the void.

Subjected to the terrifying backlash force, countless huge insects burst apart and turned into mucus that scattered in the void.

After about a dozen breaths of time, the hyperion powerhouse arrived at the edge of the universe barrier and took a step with great difficulty.

In an instant, countless huge insects burst apart. Subjected to tremendous backlash force, cracks appeared all over the hyperion powerhouse's body, blood ejected from the cracks, and his soul weakened greatly.

On Gumana Universe's side of the channel, a huge eye full of endless mysteries opened and locked on the hyperion powerhouse.

The hyperion powerhouse's bloodline was stimulated, and he roared, took a step, crossed the universe barrier, and came to the world of Warlocks.

At the moment the hyperion powerhouse crossed the universe barrier and came to the world of Warlocks, his body split apart.

Seven radiances flew out of the hyperion powerhouse's body.

A flamewell powerhouse shrouded in flames swept the hyperion quasi-Empyrean, who has no soul fluctuations, and frowned slightly: "Sure enough, the universe laws have loosened enough for quasi-Empyrean rank powerhouses to be able to come. However, to sacrifice a hyperion quasi-Empyrean to send us here, that's really cruel."

A ghostblade quasi-Empyrean covered in blades said coldly in a harsh tone: "The universe great tribulation is related to the survival of the two universes. Except for Eternal Sovereigns, we all are chess pieces. Didn't Boyan Lord sacrifice himself, as well?"

A handsome starspirit powerhouse surrounded by bright starlight frowned slightly and said, "Boyan Lord did lose his life. This universe is far more dangerous than we imagine. If an Empyrean appears, none of us will be able to survive."

A redstone powerhouse uttered coldly, "That's impossible! This universe's Empyreans are sleeping. Unless an Empyrean from our universe descends, they won't appear."

A greenstone powerhouse said, "Our task is to stick to this hole for seven days! As long as we can hold on for seven days, the barrier insects will be able to open a channel enough for quasi-Empyrean rank powerhouses to pass through. With our universe's resources, as long as we can throw a stream of quasi-Empyreans into this universe, we can deal it serious damage."

A shirake powerhouse shrouded in endless dark light smiled faintly and said, "With Yingzhao Kongwu here, no matter how many powerhouse of this universe come, only death will await them."

The rest of the powerhouse nodded and looked at the shadowclaw powerhouse covered with a distorted shadow.

Yingzhao Kongwu is ranked in the top six among Gumana Universe's quasi-Empyrean rank powerhouses. Together with the other five, they are known as the Six Champions. Yingzhao Kongwu is one of the most formidable prodigies of Gumana Universe as well as one of the powerhouses most hopeful to advance to an Empyrean.

Yingzhao Kongwu uttered coldly, "If we guard here passively, we will only be defeated! We should kill everyone in the central starfield. Let's make them confused about our purpose. If we go on the offensive instead of the defensive, we will have higher chances of completing our mission. Let's go unleash a massacre, let's not leave a single person alive in the central starfield!"

"Okay!"

"That's right! Let's kill everyone in the central starfield!"

"Ha-ha! Let's show those lowly creatures how scary we can be!"

"..."

The seven Gumana Universe's quasi-Empyreans revealed ferocious and excited smiles, and then turned into streams of light and disappeared.

Central starfield.

"Human ants, turn into ashes!"

Ripples rose, and the flamewell powerhouse appeared, smiled ferociously, turned into a scarlet sun, and shot towards the star.

Boom!

Accompanied by loud noise, the star was swallowed by endless flames.

Chapter 1274: Retreat

In an instant, a Warlock Monarch and 20,000 powerhouses above the Starry Sky Warlock rank stationed at the star were swallowed by endless flames and burned to ashes.

"A bunch of ants!"

The flamewell quasi-Empyrean's figure fluttered, and he flew to the outer space and disappeared.

In a star's outer space, light shone, and the ghostblade quasi-Empyrean appeared and flew towards a fleet.

"Enemy attack! Enemy attack!"

Alarms rose, and countless battle robots flew out of the fleet and rushed towards the ghostblade powerhouse.

Ever since the war between the two universes broke out, the major forces of the world of Warlocks have ordered a large number of weapons from Battle Demon Sect. Many powerful forces already have their own fleets.

Along with flashes of light, a rain of light submerged the ghostblade powerhouse.

In an instant, the huge fleet disintegrated, turned into countless fragments, and scattered.

The ghostblade powerhouse passed through the huge fleet and slammed into the star.

Boom!

Distorted blade rays erupted and sliced the star into countless chunks in an instant.

Countless human Warlocks turned into a rain of light, escaped the star, and fled in different directions.

As if there was an invisible hand in the void, one-forth of the rain of light exploded and turned into countless fragments, and blood splashed about.

“324th star was destroyed! The opponent is suspected to be a quasi-Empyrean rank powerhouse!”

At the headquarters of Human Supreme Council, intelligence reports arrived one after another.

The seven chairmen of Human Supreme Council looked at each other, at a loss for what to do.

Wu Meiyong sighed faintly, and her eyes shimmered with the shade of determination: “Sure enough, strength is everything. The chairmen can’t command Holies, let alone Great Holies.”

Wu Meiyong’s talent is outstanding, no worse than Regina’s. However, since she craves power and influence, she chose to become a chairmen of Human Supreme Council. After becoming the chairman of Human Supreme Council, the progress of her strength became slow, and the gap between her and Regina widened.

A quasi-Empyrean rank powerhouse by far exceeds the scope of Human Supreme Council.

Voidholy Mountain is virtual forum located in the deepest part of the magic network built by the humans. Only quasi-Empyrean rank powerhouses can enter this forum.

In the center of Voidholy Mountain, there are 14 seats. With a flash of light, the virtual projection of All-Eyes Great Holy appeared in a seat.

Lights shone, and the projection of a dashing man with an aloof, sacred air about him appeared in the void.

The projection of the dashing man with an aloof, sacred air about him uttered slowly, “All-Eyes Great Holy, I heard you went to see Firmament Holy.”

All-Eyes Great Holy replied flatly, “That’s right! Wind Deity Great Holy!”

The dashing man is Wind Deity Great Holy, a quasi Empyrean rank powerhouse of Transcendent Imperial Court. He is one of the eight deities subordinated to Transcendent Lord.

Wind Deity Great Holy spoke, “All-Eyes Great Holy, my lord will soon wake from his slumber! Wasn’t it rather hasty of you to make a decision at this time?”

All-Eyes Great Holy answered indifferently, "The one who owns the Wheel of Time is the legitimate successor of Time Imperial Court. I have no reason to disobey my lord's will."

Wind Deity Great Holy's eyes shimmered with enigmatic light, and he uttered, "A will. It seems that Time Lord has really fallen. Since he has fallen, my lord will be the only one to set foot into eternity in the future. For the sake of Time Imperial Court's future, I hope you will consider it some more."

All-Eyes Great Holy sank into his thoughts.

Lights shone, and a projection shrouded in starlight appeared at Voidholy Mountain.

The projection made of starlight is Myriad Stars Great Holy, a quasi-Empyrean rank powerhouse of Star Imperial Court.

Myriad Stars Great Holy glanced at the empty seats and said with a faint smile: "It seems that there are only the three of us."

All-Eyes Great Holy frowned slightly and sighed slowly: "Those guys want to see Gumana Universe weaken the strength of us humans, want to preserve their strength through schemes. What a bunch of short-sighted fellows."

Wind Deity Great Holy uttered, "All-Eyes Great Holy, can Firmament Holy take action? If he does, then those guys will be no different from dancing clowns who can't withstand a blow!"

Myriad Stars Great Holy nodded and revealed the shade of expectation in his eyes.

When he took action previously, Yang Feng killed four ancient quasi-Empyrean rank powerhouses and slayed Black Ogre Emperor. He is now regarded as the No. 1 expert of the world of Warlocks.

All-Eyes Great Holy responded flatly, "He's undergoing transformation! He's preparing to take that step!"

Wind Deity Great Holy's expression flickered: "He wants to take that step?"

Myriad Stars Great Holy sighed faintly: "That's Firmament Holy for you! What should we do now? We're faced against seven quasi-Empyrean rank powerhouses. Among them, there's an individual that even if it's me, I'm not their opponent.

Wind Deity Great Holy's eyes flashed with a dignified color, and he asked, "Even you are not their opponent? Is that person really that strong? Who the hell are they?"

Star Imperial Court, whose powerhouses are proficient in prophecy, is ranked first among the eight Warlock Imperial Courts when it come to the ability to seeking luck and avoiding calamity. Even though they haven't fought, Myriad Stars Great Holy can still predict the strength of the enemy through prophecy.

Myriad Stars Great Holy uttered, "It's the shadowclaw powerhouse."

All-Eyes Great Holy said decisively, "In that case, we will shrink the line of defense and pull back all our forces. Let's stick to our foundation and give up the line of defense in the central starfield."

Wind Deity Great Holy uttered with a smile, "Alright! Since they aren't willing to help, then we don't have to care about them either!"

Myriad Stars Great Holy frowned and glanced at the empty seats, yet remained silent.

In the world of Warlocks, there are 14 quasi-Empyrean rank powerhouses that resuscitated. However, only three quasi-Empyrean rank powerhouses appeared at Voidholy Mountain. Obviously, the other powerhouses don't want to step in. They want to see the humans and the powerhouses from Gumana Universe consume each other's strength.

In the central starfield, countless lights flashed as the fleets of human Warlocks retreated one after another and returned to the strategic locations of Human Supreme Council.

"The humans are retreating!"

"Damn it, those human bastards!"

"Those damn human Warlocks have withdrawn!"

All over the universe of the world of Warlocks, the other races were struck dumb and felt a chill rise inside them when they saw the humans retreat.

The powerhouses of Gumana Universe, who have been stifled by the humans Warlocks in the central starfield, poured out and surged towards all parts of the world of Warlocks like locusts.

Fights broke out one after another.

"The humans have retreated!"

"Since the other races of the universe only think about maintaining their strength, unwilling to cooperate with the humans, the humans naturally won't fight on the front lines."

"Sure enough, offense is the best defense."

"Yingzhao Kongwu, do you want to gather our strength and attack Human Supreme Council? They are only guarded by three quasi-Empyreans."

"No. The six Warlock Imperial Courts, who possess formidable underlying strength, are comparable to our sacred races. With our strength, we can overcome only one Warlock Imperial Court at most. Everyone will die in the process. But there's one place we must attack at all costs!"

"Where?"

"Battle Demon Sect! Firmament Holy wants to become a Perfect (Warlock Emperor) step powerhouse! We absolutely cannot let him succeed! Or else, once he becomes an Empyrean, who knows how many life forms of Gumana Universe will die at his hands. We must kill him!"

"That's right! Firmament Holy must be eradicated!"

"..."

In the void, seven terrifying wills reached a consensus and gathered together.

In the central starfield, Tier IV Hives flew out one after another, gathered countless powerhouses of Gumana Universe, and disappeared without a trace.

Battle Demon Sect's branch floating continent.

A terrifying aura suddenly rose into the sky and sundered the firmament.

Within 1 million light-years, a tremendous amount of universe energies converged here.

"What's going on?"

"Someone is attacking the Empyrean throne!"

"This direction, it's Firmament Holy! Firmament Holy is attacking the Empyrean throne! He wants to be promoted to an Empyrean!"

"That's Firmament Holy. He wants to attack the Empyrean throne. How dreadful! He has been practicing cultivation for less than 5,000 years. Has he already reached this stage?"

"Empyrean! He wants to attack the Empyrean throne!"

"Will the ninth human Warlock Emperor be born?"

"..."

Within 1 million light-years, when the powerhouses above the Warlock Monarch realm sensed the changes of heaven and earth, their expression changed dramatically, and they looked in this direction.

Along with flashes of light, numerous Holies and Great Holies rushed this way.

The birth of an Empyrean is a rare sight.

Brilliant Great Holy's eyes flashed with a complex color, and he sighed: "Unexpectedly, he's already trying to advance to a Warlock Emperor. That's so fast."

"Empyrean! He's going to advance to a Warlock Emperor! Ha-ha! I, Huang Yihe, have taught a Warlock Emperor! Ha-ha! My luck is really great! Ha-ha-ha-ha!"

When Huang Yihe sensed the overwhelming aura, his eyes flashed with ecstasy, and he lost all composure.

"Empyrean! Warlock Emperor! Is our Battle Demon Sect going to give birth to a Warlock Emperor?"

Yu Jingang and the other former great elders of Battle Demon Sect looked in that direction absentmindedly, a look of incredulity in their eyes.

Chapter 1275: Breaching the Empyrean Gate

Yuan Yi sensed the fluctuations of power that coming from the distance, and his eyes surged with a peculiar glint: "So fast! He's going to promote to an Empyrean!"

When Yuan Yi was a Glorious Sun Warlock, Yang Feng was just a Great Warlock. With the help of a massive amount of resources provided by Battle Demon Sect, he has advanced to only an Infinity Warlock. Yang Feng, however, has already begun to attack the Empyrean realm. This naturally filled Yuan Yi with complex emotions.

Terrifying light shone, and a figure flew out of Battle Demon Sect and soared into the sky. It is Yang Feng.

The energies within 1 million light-years gathered, combined with the laws of the universe, and formed a gate engraved with countless runes and emanating abstruse aura in the void.

“The Empyrean Gate!”

“As long as you open the Empyrean Gate and engrave your soul and essence on it, you will be able to advance to an Empyrean.”

“That is the legendary Empyrean Gate. An aggregate of the laws of the universe. Firmament Holy, he actually reached this step!”

“As long as he takes this last step, Firmament Holy will become the ninth human Warlock Emperor.”

Gazes full of enigmatic shade focused on the Empyrean Gate that appeared out of nowhere.

All-Eyes Great Holy flew towards this side, and his eyes flashed with a peculiar gleam: “The ninth Warlock Emperor! What fast speed!”

“Well met, All-Eyes Great Holy!”

With a flash of light, a handsome powerhouse with a bloody rune engraved on the forehead, countless strands of hair that seem to have life, and chrysanthemum like teeth walked out of the void and stood in front of All-Eyes Great Holy.

All-Eyes Great Holy said coldly, “Bloodhair Snake Great Holy, I’m going to protect Firmament Holy! Are you trying to get in my way?”

Bloodhair Snake Great Holy uttered coldly, “That’s right! Not only me, but everyone in the universe doesn’t want to see Firmament Holy advance to an Empyrean. You humans have dominated the universe for too long. The opportunity to advance to an Empyrean cannot be given to you humans! This is the consensus of all life forms in the universe.”

All-Eyes Great Holy said flatly, “You’re no match for me!”

As a quasi-Empyrean rank powerhouse of Time Imperial Court, All-Eyes Great Holy possesses fierce combat power. Only a powerhouse second only to Empyreans like Heaven’s Devourer Tyrant Dragon can easily defeat him. All-Eyes Great Holy doesn’t fear the rest of quasi-Empyrean rank powerhouses.

“I’m indeed not your match, All-Eyes Great Holy. But my task is only to stall you!”

Bloodhair Snake Great Holy's figure blurred. He surged with countless wisps of blood qi, and an untold number of blood-colored hairs flew out of his head, turned into bloody snakes, and rushed towards All-Eyes Great Holy.

All-Eyes Great Holy's eyes flashed with a frigid shade. The vertical eye on his forehead shone with runes, and light beams shot towards the bloody snakes.

In a tract of the starry sky, a 10,000-kilometer-long blackshine ebony tortoise made from Blackshine Rock stood in front of Starmoon Sky Snake Great Holy.

Blackshine Ebony Great Holy said, "Starmoon Sky Snake Great Holy, Firmament Holy is attacking the Empyrean realm! Why are you trying to help him? As long as he dies, you and the starmoon sky snake race will be free."

Starmoon Sky Snake Great Holy uttered coldly, "Blackshine Ebony Great Holy, since I have recognized Firmament Holy as my master, I must serve him. Stop talking! Move out of my way! Otherwise, I will fight you!"

"Let's fight then! My task is to stop you!"

Blackshine Ebony Great Holy's eyes flashed fiercely, and he surged with countless runes and rushed towards Starmoon Sky Snake Great Holy.

Starmoon Sky Snake Great Holy changed into a terrifying direbeast as big as a star.

Terrifying shock waves spread in all directions as the two direbeasts as big as stars fought in the starry sky.

In a tract of the starry sky.

A devastatingly beautiful woman with red hair and a pair of crane wings on the back stood in the void and quietly looked at Cosmic Eyes Tiger Great Holy.

Cosmic Eyes Tiger Great Holy sighed, saying: "Soaring Crane Great Holy! You really want to stop me? Are you aware that if Firmament Holy takes that step and promotes to an Empyrean, your soaring crane race will be in risk of extinction?"

Soaring Crane Great Holy advised, "Cosmic Eyes Tiger Great Holy, there is a blood debt between Firmament Holy and the cosmic eyes tiger race. Now is the best chance. So long as you join us and take advantage of this chance, you will be able to kill Firmament Holy. With the exception of humans, no one else in the universe is willing to see Firmament Holy step into the Empyrean realm."

Cosmic Eyes Tiger Great Holy sighed: "It's too late! If we joined forces at the time of Firmament Holy's rise, we would have a 70 to 80% chance of defeating him. But now, no one is his opponent anymore. Firmament Holy exceeds your imagination by far! Listen to my advice and stop!"

There was a glimmer of enigmatic light in Soaring Crane Great Holy's beautiful eyes, and she said, "Cosmic Eyes Tiger Great Holy, judging by your words, you don't want to serve Firmament Holy. As far as I know, Firmament Holy didn't set up a restriction on your soul. This is your best chance, your only chance."

“Yes, I don’t want to serve Firmament Holy. Unfortunately, he’s just too strong! Strong enough to frighten me. Soaring Crane Great Holy, since you stand in my way, we can only fight! Otherwise, if Firmament Holy asks me for an explanation in the future, I will be in trouble. Besides, seeing that we are friends, I don’t want you to go there and throw away your life!”

Cosmic Eyes Tiger Great Holy shone with countless runes, took a step, and attacked Soaring Crane Great Holy Soaring Crane Great Holy creased her slim eyebrows. Feathers flew into her hand and changed into a white crane blade. She took a step and engaged with Cosmic Eyes Tiger Great Holy.

In a tract of the starry sky.

Countless cyan bolts of lightning interwove with a sea of light, and terrifying shock waves spread in all directions.

“Cyan Thunderbolt Great Holy, why are you helping Firmament Holy?”

“He is the only being one who can step into eternity. Our universe needs him! Guang Hai Great Holy, you should stop with this! It is the will of the universe for Firmament Holy to step into eternity. If you continue with this, then once Firmament Holy succeeds in his advancement, the guang hai race will face the danger of extinction.”

“No! Although Firmament Holy ventured to the Empyrean Gate! However, he didn’t built up enough resources and is doomed to fail. This is our best chance. It is our only chance!”

In the void, countless powerhouses fought fiercely.

Yang Feng’s reinforcements were blocked by different forces. Once Yang Feng advances to an Empyrean, others will have no hope of advancing to Empyreans. The humans will welcome the ninth Warlock Emperor and suppress countless powerful powerhouses. Moreover, with his consummate level soul and incredible fighting strength, once he becomes an Empyrean, Yang Feng will be infinitely close to unequaled overlords like the seven human Warlock Emperors.

Most of the Empyreans sleeping in the river of time have decaying souls. They don’t want an unequaled overlord to compete with them for the chance to step into eternity.

In Battle Demon Sect’s outer space, everyone focused their eyes on Yang Feng.

“Come!”

Yang Feng bellowed and pointed down.

A copious amount of golden water rose from the golden lake and poured into Yang Feng.

Following fluctuations of the law of karma, the golden lakes of the other branch floating continents churned, and a tremendous amount of golden water rushed towards Yang Feng according to a mysterious law.

The strong races didn’t interfere with the flow of the golden water.

“Open!”

After absorbing a tremendous amount of golden water, Yang Feng's eyes flashed fiercely, and he roared, erupted with countless runes on his fists, and sent his fists containing the essence of power barreling towards the Empyrean Gate.

"He attacking the Empyrean Gate! How brave!"

"Isn't the correct way to open the Empyrean Gate not to unleash you strength, but to manifest your path and connect with the Empyrean Gate? This is the correct way that the eight human Warlock Emperors passed down is textbooks!"

"That's the Empyrean Gate, a manifestation of the laws of the universe! Is he out of his mind?"

"..."

The spectating Holies and Great Holies were struck dumb by this scene.

Boom!

The Empyrean Gate, which is the manifestation of the laws of the universe, burst out with silver light that illuminated Yang Feng.

In an instant, numerous wounds appeared on Yang Feng's body, the Xi Shen Armor cracked, and a large amount of blood gushed out and spilled into the sky.

"Interesting!"

Yang Feng raised the corners of his mouth into a smile of excitement and erupted with countless runes. The wounds on his body healed quickly, and he flew towards the Empyrean Gate again.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Yang Feng frantically attacked the Empyrean Gate. With each strike, the world shook, and terrifying backlash force surged. Cracks appeared on his body again, and blood spilled into the sky.

"Is he crazy?"

"Firmament Holy, is he crazy?"

"..."

The spectating Holies and Great Holies looked at Yang Feng with expressions of incredulity.

"Fourth form! Open!"

Yang Feng's strength suddenly climbed to the extreme. He fused with the strange projection and slammed a fist into the Empyrean Gate.

A torrent of time, spatial gates, stars, a black hole, a net of fate, five visions suddenly appeared.

Boom!

Along with an earth-shaking blare, a hole appeared in the Empyrean Gate.

From the hole, the power of countless universe laws poured out and submerged Yang Feng, strengthening and sublimating his body and soul.

Almost at the same time, a terrifying backlash force shrouded Yang Feng and crushed his right shoulder and right leg. His bones, which are as hard as Holy grade secret treasures, were crushed, as well.

Chapter 1276: Promotion to a Quasi-Empyrean

All of a sudden, ripples surged, and a cyan figure boosted by the essence of speed, exceeding the speed of light, ejected from a cloud thousands of kilometers away, appeared in front of Yang Feng nearly in an instant, and stabbed at him with a dagger.

“Cyan Extinction Great Holy! That’s the fastest quasi-Empyrean rank powerhouse from the Archaic Dark Emperor era!”

“His timing is really ingenious. This is the moment when Firmament Holy is at his weakest.”

The spectating Holies and Great Holies revealed the shade of apprehension in their eyes.

The eyes of Yang Feng, who appears to be seriously injured, flashed brightly. He slapped out with his hand, and a torrent of time, spatial portals, and stars, three visions emerged, distorted time and space, and slammed into Cyan Extinction Great Holy.

A terrifying force broke out, and the dagger collapsed.

“No!”

With a frightened look on his face, Cyan Extinction Great Holy unleashed a miserable scream, and then disintegrated into countless fragments.

In an instant, cracks appeared all over Yang Feng’s body again, and a large amount of blood spilled.

A black hole emerged and swept towards the remains of Cyan Extinction Great Holy.

“Firmament Holy, stop!”

A voice of surprise and indignation came from the distance. A cyan stream of light flashed, and a stunning, refined woman with extraordinary temperament flew over from afar.

The black hole erupted with terrifying devour force, swallowed Cyan Extinction Great Holy, and devoured all his life origin.

“Another quasi-Empyrean fell!”

“How terrible! Firmament Holy can actually instakill a quasi-Empyrean rank powerhouse! That’s really scary!”

“Although he had to pay a price, but his strength is terrifying nonetheless!”

“That’s a monster that can breach the Empyrean Gate for you!”

The Holies and Great Holies drew in a sharp breath and stared at Yang Feng with wary in their eyes.

“Firmament Holy, you killed my husband! I, Cyan Plum Great Holy, swear that I will do everything in my power to kill you! If anyone can kill Firmament Holy, I, Cyan Plum Great Holy, am willing to be their slave.”

With a flash of despair in her beautiful eyes, Cyan Plum Great Holy made an oath full of resentment.

A beautiful Great Holy rank slave, even a quasi-Empyrean rank powerhouse would be tempted by it.

With a flash of cyan light, a figure exceeding the speed of light appeared behind Cyan Plum Great Holy, brandished a sword, and cut off her head.

Along with cyan afterimages, Cyan Plum Great Holy was chopped into countless pieces along with her soul.

“Hee-hee. Now that you have become a corpse, even if you offer to be a slave, no one will be interested!”

Along with a melodic laughter, Michaelia emerged. A blue box appeared in her hand, erupted with a fearsome attractive force, and absorbed the remains of Cyan Plum Great Holy.

The Great Holy rank flesh, blood, and soul are extremely precious treasures.

A drop of Great Holy blood can change the fate of an ordinary person.

A stream of mystical power and laws of the universe gushed out from the Empyrean Gate and strengthened Yang Feng’s body and soul, making him transform and evolve at a fearsome speed.

Intimidated by Yang Feng’s fierce display of killing Cyan Extinction Great Holy in one strike, the enemies hidden in the dark sank into their thoughts, giving Yang Feng a short time to recover.

“Get started!”

A shout transmitted from the void.

Ripples surged in the void, and a fire star covered in flames appeared and shot towards Yang Feng.

The handsome starspirit quasi-Empyrean emerged, recited an incantation, and shone with starlight.

13,600 stars flew out of the starspirit quasi-Empyrean, formed an abstruse barrier, and locked the void.

The starlight within millions of kilometers was extracted by the 13,600 stars to form a barrier that can seal even quasi-Empyreans.

It’s easy to defeat a quasi-Empyrean. But to kill a quasi-Empyrean, that’s really difficult. Now that the starspirit quasi-Empyrean sealed the void, the next step is to fight to the death.

Equipped with a golden battlegear and a golden spear, the redstone quasi-Empyrean appeared at once and stabbed at Yang Feng with the spear in his hands.

Equipped with a green battlegear and a green spear, the greenstone quasi-Empyrean stabbed Yang Feng with his spear.

Shrouded in a distorted sea of negative energy, the shirake quasi-Empyrean pointed to Yang Feng with the staff in his hand and hurled strange curses at him.

Followed by afterimages, the ghostblade powerhouse moved at high speed and approached Yang Feng, looking for a chance to unleash a killing strike.

“Six quasi-Empyrean rank powerhouses! Assassins of Gumana Universe!”

“They are assassins sent by Gumana Universe!”

“Did Gumana Universe send them here to assassinate Firmament Holy?”

When the spectating Holies and Great Holies saw the six quasi-Empyrean rank powerhouses, their eyes flashed with enigmatic light, but no one stepped in. When faced with quasi-Empyrean rank powerhouses, only if they go all out, may these Holies and Great Holies be able to resist their attacks.

Michaelia glanced at the six quasi-Empyreans, a look of ridicule in her eyes.

“If it’s only you guys, you’re courting death.”

There was a flash of derision in Yang Feng’s eyes. His aura trembled slightly, countless runes shone, and quasi-Empyrean rank fluctuations of power slowly diffused from him.

In the sky, the Empyrean Gate collapsed and disappeared.

“Quasi-Empyrean! It turns out that he did not choose to attack the Empyrean realm, but chose to advance to a quasi-Empyrean!”

“I see! If he advanced to an Empyrean, he would be in a weakened state for a period of time. But now, he has become stronger than before!”

“But he gave up a chance to promote to an Empyrean. As a result, the next time he wants to advance to an Empyrean, it will be much harder than this time.”

The spectating Holies and Great Holies discussed and looked at Yang Feng full of apprehension.

“Die!”

Yang Feng beckoned with his hand. The Green Yang Halberd appeared in his hand, and he unleashed a halberd strike at the fire star.

In an instant, 100 green suns suddenly appeared, merged into a green halberd ray diffusing wisps of immortal Empyrean might, and slammed into the fire star.

Boom!

The green halberd ray sliced the fire star together with the flamewell quasi-Empyrean into countless pieces.

A black hole emerged at once, drew in the flamewell, greenstone, redstone, shirake, starspirit, and ghostblade quasi-Empyreans, broke out with terrifying devour light, and frenziedly extracted their life origin.

In a breath of time, the flamewell quasi-Empyrean turned into ashes, his life origin sucked dry.

The other five quasi-Empyreans cast spells and jointly attacked the black hole.

The joint attacks of the five quasi-Empyreans smashed the black hole.

A green halberd ray slammed into the shirake quasi-Empyrean and sliced him into countless pieces, and a black hole drew him inside.

Virtually without any warning, a person who appears like they don't exist jumped out of the shadow behind Yang Feng and sent a claw strike at Yang Feng's heart.

"Shadowclaw powerhouse, you're really amazing! If I didn't know about you, I might have been seriously injured by you this time! It's a shame, but since I know about you. You are doomed to die."

A torrent of time appeared around Yang Feng, and his speed accelerated three hundred-fold. The Green Yang Halberd in his hand turned into a green arc, slammed into Yingzhao Kongwu, and sliced one of Gumana Universe's Six Champions.

Click!

Along with a crisp sound, a Shadow Life Bead broke, and Yingzhao Kongwu disappeared.

Shadow Life Bead is a lifesaving secret treasure of the shadowclaw race. Every Shadow Life Bead can be used to 'die' for you once. Quasi-Empyrean grade Shadow Life Beads are extremely precious. Only after a quasi-Empyrean dies of natural causes, can one bead be produced. In the entire shadowclaw race, there are less than ten quasi-Empyrean grade Shadow Life Beads.

"You want to escape? It's a shame, but you must die! After all, with a top assassin like you around, I won't be able to live in peace!"

Yang Feng creased his eyebrows. With a fierce flash in his eyes, he waved his hand, and the Web of Fate appeared and entered the void.

Threads of fate covered this tract of starry sky.

"Found you! Truly a pity, but this tract of the starry sky is sealed. The starspirit race's Myriad Stars Holy Sealing Barrier is really amazing!"

Yang Feng glanced at a certain place in the void, showed a frigid smile, blurred into motion, and flew towards that place.

Redstone Soulbreaker Spear!

The redstone quasi-Empyrean frenziedly burned his bloodline, and his whole body began to burn. The rhombus crystal embedded in his forehead shone and turned into a red soul spear shooting towards Yang Feng.

Redstone Soulbreaker Spear is a last resort secret method of the redstone race. It's a secret method that can be cast by burning the bloodline and soul. It can kill the enemy in body and soul.

"Die!"

Yang Feng frowned and brandished the halberd in his hands, and 100 suns sundered the space, merged into one, and formed a green halberd ray barreling towards the Redstone Soulbreaker Spear.

Boom!

Green light and red light intertwined, cancelled each other out, and disappeared.

Before the red light completely disappeared, a bloody radiance flew out of the light and entered Yang Feng's sea of knowledge.

Chapter 1277: Slaying Seven Quasi-Empyreans in a Row

In Yang Feng's sea of knowledge, a blood-colored spear containing destructive power emerged, tore the firmament, and stabbed towards the center of the sea of knowledge.

"Break!"

In the sea of knowledge, Yang Feng's figure suddenly emerged, and he punched the blood-colored spear.

A terrifying fluctuation of soul force surged as the blood-colored spear was crushed by Yang Feng.

At the moment when the blood-colored spear was crushed, Yang Feng's true body shook slightly, and then blood trickled down from the corners of his mouth.

A black hole appeared immediately and swallowed the remains of the redstone quasi-Empyrean.

Followed by an afterimage, the ghostblade quasi-Empyrean appeared behind Yang Feng, brandished his blade, and slashed at Yang Feng.

All of a sudden, barriers appeared around Yang Feng.

The ghostblade quasi-Empyrean's blade strike sliced the barriers apart, slammed into Yang Feng, cut apart the Xi Shen Armor, and left a long gush on the person himself.

A large amount of blood spilled.

"Die!"

With an emotionless look on his face, Yang Feng unleashed a halberd strike, summoned countless heroic spirits, and sliced the ghostblade quasi-Empyrean in two.

A black hole emerged and swallowed the ghostblade quasi-Empyrean.

The Wheel of Time flew out at once, and a torrent of time shrouded Yang Feng.

Enveloped by the essence of time, the blood flew backwards and entered Yang Feng's body.

The time of the wound left by the ghostblade quasi-Empyrean reversed, and it disappeared.

“Turn Back the Clock! That’s Time Lord’s most dreadful spell!”

“Thanks to the power of the spell Turn Back the Clock, no matter how badly injured you are, you can recover to the state before you were injured. This is an incredible spell that only Time Lord has mastered!”

“For Firmament Holy to grasp this spells, that’s really despairing!”

“ ... ”

The powerhouses hidden in the void felt their blood run cold when they saw this.

Greenstone Soulbreaker Spear!

The greenstone quasi-Empyrean’s eyes shimmered fiercely. He combusted his flesh and soul, and the rhomboid crystal on his forehead unleashed innumerable abstruse runes.

Redstone, greenstone, whitestone, and purplestone, these four sacred races of of Gumana Universe are actually four branches of the same race. They have the same ancestors and are proficient in the same secret methods.

“Do you think the same spell can affect me again? Furthermore, your casting speed is too slow!”

With a blur, Yang Feng, whose speed accelerated 300-fold, appeared behind the greenstone quasi-Empyrean in a flash, a smile of derision on his face.

With a flash of a green halberd ray, the greenstone quasi-Empyrean disintegrated, and then was swallowed by a black hole.

The starspirit quasi-Empyrean’s eyes flickered with the shade of fear, and he spoke with a glib tongue, “Firmament Holy, while you were attacking the Empyrean realm, the ones who wanted you to die the most were not powerhouses of our universe, but powerhouses of your universe. Your reinforcements and allies were stopped by people of your universe, which gave us this opportunity. Renounce this universe and join the camp of our universe! As long as you join the camp of our universe, the three Eternal Sovereigns will surely let you promote to an Empyrean in the future.”

Gazes full of wary and fear focused on Yang Feng.

If Yang Feng joins Gumana Universe’s side, the situation of the entire universe will change dramatically. No one will be able to stop Yang Feng’s forces before the Empyreans resuscitate.

“It’s impossible for me to side with your universe! The three Eternal Sovereigns of your universe will never let me advance to eternity!”

With a faint smile, Yang Feng trod in the river of time, appeared in front of the starspirit quasi-Empyrean, and unleashed a halberd ray that crushed the star barrier and sliced the starspirit quasi-Empyrean in two. Next, a black hole appeared and swallowed the other party.

Yang Feng looked at the void. In an empty void, the space distorted, and an indistinct Yingzhao Kongwu suddenly appeared with a blur.

“Firmament Holy, you’re very strong! Unfortunately, you were born in the wrong universe. You are destined to die in this era.”

Murderous intent streaked across Yingzhao Kongwu’s eyes. He blurred, shone with countless runes, distorted, and divided into three.

Emanating quasi-Empyrean rank aura. The three Yingzhao Kongwu blurred into motion, released countless projections, all emitting the same aura, making it so others cannot tell true and fake apart, and pressed on towards Yang Feng.

“What a terrific spell! Unfortunately, no matter how powerful the spell is, it can’t escape the snare of fate!”

Yang Feng’s eyes flashed with mysterious, abstruse light. As if an unequaled god, he brandished the halberd in his hand, unleashed countless heroic spirits, and displayed terrifying battle skills.

A halberd ray sundered the firmament and chopped Yingzhao Kongwu in the void into pieces. All of a sudden, a black hole emerged and swallowed him.

Covered in wounds, Yang Feng swept the void with a cold gaze and uttered with a frigid smile, “I’m right here. If there’s anyone else who wants to take my head, you’re welcome to give it a try.”

In the void, the five hidden quasi-Empyreans remained silent. They left this place directly.

Yang Feng smiled coldly and breathed in from his mouth.

Within tens of thousands of light-years, terrifying energy storms erupted, and countless wisps of energy gathered from all directions and poured into Yang Feng’s body.

1,000 Springs of Immortality suddenly emerged and nourished Yang Feng’s body.

The eyes of the spectating Holies and Great Holies surged with envy when they saw the 1,000 Springs of Immortality.

Mysterious forces and laws intertwined in Yang Feng’s body, transforming and making him more powerful at every moment.

Although quasi-Empyrean rank powerhouses are essentially pinnacle Great Holies, but they have already touched the Empyrean realm.

When he breached the Empyrean Gate, Yang Feng absorbed forces and laws that only Empyreans can absorb, obtaining incomparable benefits. Only then was he able to easily kill the seven quasi-Empyreans of Gumana Universe.

In a void, countless blood-colored snakes covered the firmament and entangled with bright light.

The blood-colored snakes kept exploding, but they stubbornly blocked the bright light.

“What? Firmament Holy breached the Empyrean Gate and advanced to a quasi-Empyrean!”

In the void, Bloodhair Snake Great Holy’s voice of panic and despair transmitted.

“Indeed! With how carefully Firmament Holy conducts himself, there’s no way he would leave a flaw for you guys to exploit.”

In the endless light, All-Eyes Great Holy’s serene voice transmitted.

“All-Eyes Great Holy, give me face and act as if nothing happened today. Cover this up for me. The blood sky snake race will remember your kindness for generations and will never forget it. Besides, the blood sky snake race is willing to offer you 1,000 Springs of Immortality. Please help me out! Help me!”

The endless blood-colored snakes turned into hair and flew back to Bloodhair Snake Great Holy’s head. Bloodhair Snake Great implored thusly, his face pale and eyes shimmering with despair.

All-Eyes Great Holy looked at the imploring Bloodhair Snake Great Holy and responded with a cold smile, “Do you think Firmament Holy will listen to your excuse? Get out of the way!”

Bloodhair Snake Great Holy stepped aside, a look of despair on his face.

In a starry sky, a blackshine ebony tortoise and a starmoon sky snake, both as big as a star, are fighting each other, crushing stars into powder one after another.

The starmoon sky snake unleashed terrifying spears shooting towards the blackshine ebony tortoise. The rocks covering the blackshine ebony tortoise were constantly being broken, and then recovered rapidly.

The strongest spear and the strongest shield entered a stalemate.

The blackshine ebony tortoise suddenly sighed, and then turned into a stream of light and flew towards the depths of the starry sky: “Firmament Holy breached the Empyrean Gate, promoted to a quasi-Empyrean, and even slayed seven quasi-Empyreans of Gumana Universe in succession. Amazing. We lost.”

A complicated glint streaked across Starmoon Sky Snake Great Holy’s eyes, and he sighed faintly: “I knew he wouldn’t be defeated! To slay seven quasi-Empyrean of Gumana Universe in succession, that’s really terrific! He hasn’t promoted to an Empyrean yet!”

In the starry sky.

Soaring Crane Great Holy suddenly turned pale and stopped her attacks. She stood quietly in place, a flash of panic and despair in her beautiful eyes.

With a shimmer of sympathy his eyes, Cosmic Eyes Tiger Great Holy released a faint sigh, then turned into a stream of light and disappeared: “Breached the Empyrean Gate and advanced to a quasi-Eternal! So Firmament Holy is steadily moving forward, without leaving any flaws. However, his feat of slaying seven quasi-Empyreans of Gumana Universe in a row exceeded my expectations. He became stronger. Soaring Crane Great Holy, I did advise you against it. You’re on your own!”

In the starry sky.

Guang Hai Great Holy said with a wry smile, his face ashen: “Breached the Empyrean Gate, promoted to a quasi-Empyrean, and slayed seven quasi-Empyreans of Gumana Universe. Truly formidable!

Firmament Holy has no flaws! He has my admiration! Cyan Thunderbolt Great Holy, can you please put in a good word for me so that Firmament Holy spares the Guang Hai race?"

Cyan Thunderbolt Great Holy looked at Guang Hai Great Holy, a former good friend, and said with a bitter smile, "Do you think Firmament Holy will listen to my advice?"

Guang Hai Great Holy was silent for a while and sighed: "I don't think so!"

"Firmament Holy breached the Empyrean Gate, advanced to a quasi-Empyrean, and slayed seven quasi-Empyreans of Gumana Universe in a row! He is already invincible!"

The news spread rapidly within the world of Warlocks' magic network. When the powerhouses intercepting Yang Feng's reinforcements in different parts of the universe saw the news, they turned pale, a look of despair on their faces.

Chapter 1278: Destroying Tier IV Hives in Succession

At an abandoned star, the earth suddenly cracked, and a huge fleet flew out.

Countless runes shone, and the huge fleet disappeared.

After several space jumps, the huge fleet appeared in the outer space of a deserted star.

Along with flashes of light, Holy Slaying Artillery beams barreled towards the deserted star and wreaked havoc.

"Stop!"

A huge stone wolf 10,000 kilometers in length, emanating a ferocious aura, flew out from the deserted star at once.

Behind the huge stone wolf, there are 36 giant stone wolves, each of which exudes Warlock Monarch rank aura. There's even a Holy Spirit Warlock rank powerhouse among them.

"Waverock Wolf Great Holy, you finally showed up! To dare attack my people, what gall! I happen to lack a watchdog. If you swear to be my watchdog, open your soul, and let me set up a restriction, then I will spare your life!"

In the void, ripples surged, and Yang Feng came out of the void and glanced at Waverock Wolf Great Holy

Waverock Wolf Great Holy's eyes flickered with fear and apprehension, and he said slowly: "Firmament Holy, one-third of the universe's forces were involved in this matter. Do you want to be an enemy of them all? Let me go this time! I will be your ally and fight together with you against Gumana Universe's powerhouses!"

"Since you won't submit, then go to hell!"

Yang Feng sent a fist barreling towards Waverock Wolf Great Holy, a cold look in his eyes.

Countless runes shone, and a terrifying star containing the essence of power shot towards Waverock Wolf Great Holy.

With a fierce flash in his eyes, Waverock Wolf Great Holy broke out with countless runes and sent a claw containing the essence of power barreling towards the star.

Boom!

Terrifying energy waves spread in all directions as Waverock Wolf Great Holy was blasted apart by the star.

A black hole suddenly emerged and swallowed the remains of Waverock Wolf Great Holy.

“My lord!”

“Damn human!”

“How dare you kill my lord! I will fight you!”

“...”

The eyes of the stone wolves flashed fiercely, and they rushed at Yang Feng.

A black hole emerged and swallowed the Holy rank stone wolf.

A huge mechanical torrent swallowed the remaining stone wolves.

One after another, stone wolves were slayed by ruler series battle robots and became the nutrients for their evolution.

“Waverock Wolf Great Holy fell!”

“The whole waverock wolf race has been destroyed!”

“Firmament Holy wants to sweep away all his enemies!”

In the void, a chill welled up inside the spectating Holies.

The races involved in intercepting Yang Feng’s reinforcements surged with fear, scared they will become Yang Feng’s next target.

“Let’s go with the blood sky snake race next!”

With a cold shimmer in his eyes, Yang Feng willed, and the Blue Mirror of Face appeared, shone with countless runes, and emanated the aura of fate.

A world shrouded in a sea of blood appeared within the Blue Mirror of Fate.

Yang Feng looked at the strange blood-colored world, raised the corners of his mouth, and revealed frigid killing intent: “Do you think you can escape my pursuit by relocating the world to Astral Boundary? That’s really naive!”

Originally, if a quasi-Empyrean rank powerhouse wanted to escape, then so long as they went to Astral Boundary or the edge of the universe, it would be difficult for even Warlock Emperors to find their traces.

However, with the Blue Mirror of Light in his possession, unless the one being chased is proficient in the essence of fate, it will be difficult to escape Yang Feng's pursuit.

"What's this?"

Yang Feng suddenly frowned and looked in the direction of the central starfield, and then blurred and disappeared.

In the central starfield, in front of the huge hole, 14 Tier IV Hives activated powerful barriers that distorted the void, making it so that everything here is hidden from prying eyes.

In the huge hole, there are countless fat barrier insects gnawing at the universe wall.

Originally, not even an Eternal Sovereign can break through the barrier between two universes. The barrier insects are no different. However, now that the two universes are devouring each other and fusing together, the laws have changed. The barrier insects can devour the barrier from a rift between the universes and establish a channel.

Ripples rose in the void, and Yang Feng stepped out of the void and looked in the direction of the huge hole. That area is distorted by a mysterious force, making it so people can't see clearly what's going on there.

Three Tier IV Hives shone with countless runes. Of the three Tier IV Hives, one changed into a centipede-like monster 1,000 kilometers in length and covered in strange eyes; another changed into a monster 1,000 kilometers in length, with a scorpion tail and a vicious aura; and the last one transformed into a 1,000-kilometer-tall giant with three heads and 100 arms.

Yang Feng's eyes flashed frigidly, and he brandished the halberd in his hands. 100 green suns emerged out of thin air and shot towards the centipede-like monster like meteors.

The eyes of the centipede-like monster covered in strange eyes shone, forming a distorted barrier in front of it.

A green sun slammed into the distorted barrier and blasted it apart. Another green sun slammed into the monster covered in strange eyes and blasted it apart, and terrifying green sunfire swallowed the monster.

Along with flashes of light, the strange eyes covering the monster's body flew out, and then were ignited by the green sunfire and turned into masses of green fire.

The monster with a scorpion tail and the three-headed giant were also swallowed by the green sunfire and turned into ashes.

The remaining Hives shone with countless runes and changed into giant monsters more than 1,000 kilometers in length, emitting Great Holy rank fluctuations of power.

The 11 Hive monsters can fight even quasi-Empyreans.

"Come out!"

Yang Feng brandished his halberd, countless runes shone, and a spatial gate appeared out of thin air, and Cosmic Eyes Tiger Great Holy, Starmoon Sky Snake Great Holy, and Cyan Thunderbolt Great Holy emerged from the spatial gate.

Cosmic Eyes Tiger Great Holy and Starmoon Sky Snake Great Holy glittered with countless runes, changed into direbeasts the size of a star, and engaged the Hive monsters.

With a lightning spear in hand, Cyan Thunderbolt Great Holy cast all kinds of lightning secret methods and attacked the Hive monsters.

When the three quasi-Empyreans stepped in, they tied down the 11 Hive monsters.

Yang Feng traveled between the Hive monsters. Every time he brandished his halberd, a halberd ray would slice a Hive monster into numerous pieces.

Countless engineering robots emerged from the void and collected the remains of the Hive monster.

The Hives are the crystallization of Gumana Universe's technology. The Hive monsters, who are treasures refined from various rare treasures of heaven and earth, are extremely precious.

After being processed, the remains of the Hive monsters can be made into treasures comparable to level-9 secret treasures.

"What are those?"

"What are those things?"

"..."

After slicing the Hive monsters to pieces, the giant hole the Tier V Hive blasted open appeared in front of everyone. The Holies and Great Holies spying via various spells surged with a hair-raising feeling of danger when they saw the hole with the countless barrier insects.

"Stop!"

A shocking roar transmitted from the terrifying hole.

A jade bottle engraved with countless runes emerged on the other side of the hole, and frost qi flowed out and crossed the universe barrier.

In the wake of the frost qi, all barrier insects were frozen into ice sculptures.

Almost in an instant, the frost qi, flew out and slammed into Cosmic Eyes Tiger Great Holy.

Tremendous frost force surged and froze Cosmic Eyes Tiger Great Holy into an ice sculpture.

"Eternal Sovereign! It's Frost Eternal Sovereign!"

"Gumana Universe's Frost Eternal Sovereign stepped in!"

"So much power, despite attacking from another universe! What a terrible monster!"

"Sure enough, only an Eternal Sovereign can contend against another Eternal Sovereign!"

“ ... ”

The spectating Holies and Great Holies felt their blood run cold when they saw this scene.

As a quasi-Empyrean rank powerhouse, Cosmic Eyes Tiger Great Holy is ranked as a terrifying being. For such a powerhouse to be frozen by Frost Eternal Sovereign from across another universe, that's simply appalling.

Yang Feng frowned and waved his hand, and countless Devour Rulers flew towards the ice sculpture.

Countless runes shone as the Devour Rulers frenziedly devoured the frost force.

The Devour Rulers can devour virtually all energies. But after devouring a massive amount of frost force, they were frozen into ice cubes.

After 10,000 Devour Rulers were frozen into ice cubes, the 100 Holy grade Devour Rulers forcibly digested and fully absorbed the tremendous amount of frost force Crack!

Along with brittle sounds, Cosmic Eyes Tiger Great Holy broke free from the terrifying ice and flew out into the open. He is covered in frost and his aura has become really weak.

Chapter 1279: Redstone Lord

“Firmament Holy, thank you for saving me!” His face ashen, Cosmic Eyes Tiger Great Holy flew up to Yang Feng, and an icy breath ejected from his mouth and turned into ice chunks. If Yang Feng hadn't saved him, Cosmic Eyes Tiger Great Holy would have been frozen for 100 years by the terrifying frost force. “Your vigor was injured! Go back!” Yang Feng waved his hand, and a spatial gate appeared at once. “Thank you, Firmament Holy!” Without standing on ceremony, Cosmic Eyes Tiger Great Holy's figure fluttered, and he flew into the spatial gate and disappeared. The frost qi contains immortal Eternal might. Although the amount is small, but its energy level is very high. Cosmic Eyes Tiger Great needs to spend a lot of resources and energy to completely remove the frost force. “Firmament Holy, you're pretty good. I am Frost Eternal Sovereign. I will give you a chance to join my camp. So long as you submit to me, I will help you promote to an Empyrean and establish a sacred race in our universe. In the future, you will be able to become the master of the entire human race. You will be the sole person in charge of the human race. I won't interfere.” A voice full of dignity transmitted from the other side of the universe channel. Yang Feng responded coldly, “I'm sorry, but I'm not interested in joining Gumana Universe's side.” From the other side of the universe channel came the cold, callous voice of Frost Eternal Sovereign: “In that case, you will perish together with your universe!” Redstone Lord, a redstone Empyrean, equipped with a scarlet battlegear and a scarlet spear, with a scarlet rhombus crystal embedded in the forehead, appeared in the universe rift and walked towards this side. “Empyrean! Another Empyrean wants to cross into our universe!” “What should we do? The Empyreans of our universe are still sleeping! Will Frost Arcane Emperor come to our rescue this time, as well?” “Impossible. When Frost Arcane Emperor woke up from the river of time and slayed Boyan Lord, she suffered the backlash of time. If she awakens again, only death will await her.” “Frost Arcane Emperor won't wake up. Is there someone who can save us this time?” “...” When the spectating Holies and Great Holies saw Redstone Lord, they felt their blood run cold. They finally understood why Gumana Universe detonated the Tier V Hive. Gumana Universe detonated the Tier V Hive not to send seven quasi-

Empyreans, but to send a Warlock Emperor rank powerhouse, Redstone Lord, to the world of Warlocks. Once Redstone Lord arrives at this universe, unless an Empyrean of the world of Warlocks resuscitates and fights him to the death, no one in the entire universe will be his match. Many Empyreans from ancient times have survived to this day. The longer they have lived, the more the Empyreans cannot take action. Take Primal Chaos Mother Spider as example, if she leaves the place she is hiding in, her soul will be eroded by time, and she will die. Shi Xue is a reincarnation and thus was barely able to resist the backlash of time. Even so, she was forced to hide in the river of time. "Fortunately it was discovered early. If it was a little later, there would be really nothing that could be done." Yang Feng looked at Redstone Lord, who exudes an invincible aura, and his eyes flickered with the shade of elation. "I'll go!" Starmoon Sky Snake Great Holy flew to in front of the giant hole and cast a secret method, and 10,000 stars flew out and absorbed countless strands of starlight. The starlight within millions of light-years converged and formed a starlight seal barrier that blocked the giant hole. "Break!" In the channel, Redstone Lord's eyes shimmered fiercely. The rhombus crystal on his forehead radiated dazzling light and formed a scarlet beam that slammed into the starlight seal barrier. Boom! Under the attack of the scarlet beam, the starlight seal barrier formed from 10,000 stars shattered and collapsed. A terrifying beam tore the firmament, stabbed into Starmoon Sky Snake Great Holy, and blasted open a giant, bloody hole, and a large amount of blood filled with starlight spilled into the starry sky. The giant bloody wound on Starmoon Sky Snake Great Holy, which is 10 kilometers in diameter, shone with scarlet light, making it so it cannot be healed. After unleashing the attack, cracks appeared on Redstone Lord's handsome face, and a large amount of blood flowed down his face. "Universe backlash! Fortunately, he's not an Eternal Sovereign!" "No, even if it's an Eternal Sovereign, they will have to pay a great price if they want to attack from across another universe all the same. Otherwise, they would have killed our people already." "... The spectating Holies and Great Holies secretly heaved a sigh when they saw this, and their eyes flickered with the shade of elation. Yang Feng glanced at Starmoon Sky Snake Great Holy and said indifferently, "Starmoon Sky Snake Great Holy, step down!" "Thank you, lord!" Starmoon Sky Snake Great Holy heaved a sigh, and then retreated, absorbed countless strands of starlight, and began to heal himself. He was afraid that Yang Feng would use him as a pawn to consume the power of Redstone Lord. Ripples rose, and two figures came out of the void, one of whom is All-Eyes Great Holy. All-Eyes Great Holy introduced: "Firmament Holy, this is Myriad Stars Great Holy!" Myriad Stars Great Holy saluted Yang Feng and uttered, "Greetings, Firmament Holy!" Yang Feng smiled faintly and said, "Hello!" All-Eyes Great Holy uttered, "Three quasi-Empyreans of our Human Supreme Council have resuscitated to date. The last one is called Wind Deity Great Holy and is guarding Human Supreme Council. We came to help you. If you have any instructions, please don't hesitate to tell us." Yang Feng replied, "Alright!" All-Eyes Great Holy said, "I saw everything that happened just now. I have mastered a sealing secret method, which I can use to seal the channel and consume Redstone Lord's power. Even if it's an Empyrean, they will have to pay a huge price to attack from across another universe." "Perhaps later!" Yang Feng shook his head, and then waved his hand, and 100 Holy grade Seal Rulers appeared. The 100 Holy grade Seal Rulers shone and unleashed seal light that shot towards the giant hole. The terrifying hole blasted open by the detonation of the Tier V Hive began to heal inch by inch. "Break!" In the universe channel, Redstone Lord roared, and the scarlet crystal on his forehead radiated brilliant scarlet that slammed into the seal barrier. Boom! The 100 Holy grade Seal Rulers tremble slightly, and cracks appeared on their bodies. In the universe channel, Redstone Lord's right shoulder burst strangely, and a large amount of blood spilled. A Seal Ruler alone wouldn't be able to withstand the all out strike of Redstone Lord. But with the 100 Seal Rulers sharing the burden equally, even Redstone Lord can't do anything about them. "Impressive! So this is Firmament Holy's mechanical golem legion! Truly fearsome!" "100 Holy grade mechanical golems! Those are terrifying beings comparable to human Holy Spirit Warlocks!" "To be able to forge Holy grade mechanical golems, Firmament Holy's attainments in alchemy are incredible. He already surpassed Golem Lord in terms of golem alchemy." "... The Holies and Great Holies were shocked when they saw the 100 Seal Rulers, feeling both happy and apprehensive. In the channel, the scarlet crystal embedded in Redstone Lord's forehead glimmered and radiated dazzling light that bombarded the hole's entrance. The 100 Seal Rulers trembled, and cracks continue to appear all over their bodies. But at the same time, wounds appeared all over Redstone Lord's body, and his vigor was greatly damaged. "Fortunately, it was discovered in time! It seems that Redstone Lord has been blocked!" "Fortunately, Firmament Holy found it in time, or else we would be in a perilous situation!" "... The spectating Holies and Great Holies who spied on the goings on via all kinds of spells heaved a sigh of relief. If it were somewhere else, the 100 Seal Rulers would not be a match for Redstone Ruler. Only in this specific situation can they contend against Redstone Lord. "You want to stop me with this? You're too naive!" In the universe channel, Redstone Lord smiled coldly and waved his hand, and an ancient silver-white box emanating wisps of Eternal aura flew out and slammed into the barrier formed by the 100 Holy grade Seal Rulers like a meteor. "Retreat!" As soon as he saw the silver-white box, warnings went off in Yang Feng's head, and he bellowed. He broke out with defensive barriers and retreated. All-Eyes Great Holy and company followed Yang Feng without hesitation and disappeared. Boom! At the moment when the silver-white box hit the barrier, it exploded. The terrifying explosion set off bursts of energy storms that spread in all directions. The 100 Holy grade Seal Rulers were directly vaporized by the explosion. Even their core chips could not be preserved. The terrifying explosion expanded the huge hole by a bit. In the universe channel, Redstone Lord's right side of the body burst, and a large amount of blood spilled. Even with a Warlock Emperor's perfect grade immortal body, it's still hard to heal such an injury. Ripples glimmered, and Yang Feng and company appeared in the void. All-Eyes Great Holy, Cyan Thunderbolt Great Holy, and Myriad Stars Great Holy are covered in wounds, with blood flowing down their bodies. Only Yang Feng, who is covered by the Xi Shen Armor, is unharmed.

Chapter 1280: Fighting Redstone Lord

All-Eyes Great Holy looked at Redstone Lord in the universe channel with a grave shade in his eyes: "Redstone Lord is really ferocious!" The silver-white box was obviously a broken Eternal grade secret treasure. In order to pass through the universe channel, Redstone Lord went so far as to detonate a broken Eternal grade secret treasure. At the same time, he suffered a terrible backlash. His origin was severely damaged. It is extremely difficult to injure Warlock Emperors. Furthermore, with their perfect grade immortal body, they can easily heal ordinary wounds. However, when it comes to origin wounds that resulted from the universe channel's backlash, even a Warlock Emperor will find it hard to heal it. Back in the day, Time Lord was invincible and suppressed the universe. But because he suffered a serious origin wound, he ultimately died prematurely. In the universe channel, the blood-covered Redstone Lord looked at the other side defiantly, smiled contemptuously, and continued to stride forward. But in the next moment, Redstone Lord's smile stiffened. In the void, ripples surged, and a large number of Seal Rulers and Space Rulers appeared. The Seal Rulers resonated with each other and radiated seal light that illuminated the hole. Shrouded by the seal light, the hole began to be sealed bit by bit. "Break!" The scarlet rhombus crystal embedded in Redstone Lord's forehead flashed, and a scarlet beam slammed into the seal barrier. Boom! The strike smashed the seal barrier, and 1,000 Seal

Rulers exploded and turned into ashes. In the starry sky, there are a total of 500,000 Seal Rulers. On an individual basis, they are far from being a match for the 100 Holy grade Seal Rulers in terms of seal force and endurance. The 500,000 Seal Rulers look like there's no end to them. Although 1,000 units were destroyed, but it seems like their numbers weren't reduced at all. Countless rays of seal light poured into the hole, sealing the hole's entrance bit by bit. In the universe channel, Redstone Lord's eyes flashed fiercely, and a scarlet beam ejected from the scarlet crystal embedded on his forehead and slammed into the barrier. Boom! Boom! Boom! Huge explosions rang continuously. Every time, 1,000 Seal Rulers would blow up and turn into ashes. Every time Redstone Lord launched an attack, a wound would burst open on his body, and blood would spill. "How fierce!" "So this is the universe devour war! Even Emphyreans are forced to fight with all their might." "Only the life forms of one of the two universes can survive." "..."

The spectating Holies and Great Holies felt a chill go down their spine when they saw the miserable appearance of Redstone Lord. In the world of Warlocks, a Warlock Emperor rank powerhouse is an overlord of the universe that can suppress an era. In Gumana Universe, they are an important figure that even Eternal Sovereigns cannot look down on, a big shot at the pinnacle of the universe. Even so, during the universe great tribulation, they must fight with all their might for themselves and the race standing behind them. During the universe great tribulation, some Holies may be able to hide in a corner of the universe together with their race and survive. But if that happens, the decline of the race is inevitable. At the same time, if there's an Eternal Sovereign keeping an eye on them, then even hiding in a corner of the universe is but a pipe dream. It feels like there's no end to the Seal Rulers. No matter how the Redstone Lord attacks, he can't destroy them completely. Standing in the void, Yang Feng watched the 500,000 Seal Rulers being destroyed with an indifferent look on his face. As long as Redstone Lord can be killed, then even if all the Seal Rulers are destroyed, it is an acceptable sacrifice. In the universe channel, Redstone Lord released a long sigh: "It's really hard! As expected of the universe great tribulation! Sure enough, it's not that easy to break through." This time, in order to send Redstone Lord, Gumana Universe detonated a Tier V Hive while the universe laws of the world of Warlocks were changing. Furthermore, it dispatched seven quasi-Emphyreans were dispatched and deployed the newly developed barrier insects. It paid a very painful price, nearly allowing Redstone Lord to enter the world of Warlocks without a hitch. If it were not for the warning from the Blue Mirror of Fate, Yang Feng wouldn't have guessed that Gumana Universe had another Emphyrean force their way into the world of Warlocks. "However, in the face of absolute strength, the resistance of you ants is like a mantis trying to stop a chariot!" Redstone Lord's eyes glimmered icily, his hair rose into the air, countless runes surged, and his blood combusted. As if an invincible god, he began to sprint in the universe rift. Boom! Boom! Tremendous vibrations transmitted from the channel, and explosions erupted on the sprinting Redstone Lord's body. Redstone Lord brandished the spear in his hands continuously and pierced through all obstacles barring his way. Originally, the barrier between the two universes could only permit Emphyreans to pass through when the the world of Warlocks' Emphyreans have resuscitated. If Gumana Universe's Emphyreans want to forcefully break through the universe barrier, they must pay a huge price. At the time, Boyan Lord paid a huge price and even harmed his origin in order to come to the world of Warlocks. The universe channel opened by the barrier insect was unstable to begin with. With him speeding along in the channel, Redstone Lord triggered backlash of the universe laws and suffered severe damage. Scarlet light slammed into the hole's entrance and blasted apart the seal barrier the Seal Rulers just set up. Shrouded by terrifying backlash force, Seal Rulers exploded continuously. "How awful!" "He's gone mad!" "Can anyone stop a mad Emphyrean?" "..."

The spectating Holies and Great Holies felt their blood run cold when they saw this. With a flash of resolve in his eyes, Myriad Stars Great Holy smiled faintly and uttered: "Gumana Universe is not the only one with hot-blooded men. Firmament Holy, I would like to seal the channel. So long as I put my life on the line, I can seal the channel for 500 years." Yang Feng responded flatly, "No Need! Follow my instructions!" "Yes!" Seeing that Yang Feng is calm, Myriad Stars Great Holy's eyes glimmered with a peculiar shade, and he smiled and said no more. Seeing this scene, All-Eyes Great Holy nodded and mused, "As expected of the future lord of the human race! Indeed, he has the bearing of a lord in charge of people!" "We finally reached this stage, you bugs? Are you ready to die?" Standing in front of the universe barrier, Redstone Lord is covered in blood, his left eye missing, yet he still has a domineering air about him. He stared coldly at the Yang Feng and company and revealed a fierce smile. "Fool!" Yang Feng showed a mocking smile and waved his hand. Ripples surged in the void, and 1,000 Holy Spirit Battlestars emerged. Countless lights flashed, and Holy Slaying Artillery beams barreled towards Redstone Lord like raindrops. When he saw this, Redstone Lord's countenance changed dramatically. If he were outside, he has countless secret methods to evade the Holy Slaying Artillery beams. But while in the universe rift, he fundamentally cannot evade them at all. Redstone Lord silently recited an incantation and combusted his blood, and the scarlet crystal embedded in his forehead flew out, radiated dazzling light, and formed a semi-circular scarlet shield in front of him. When the Holy Slaying Artillery beams slammed into the semi-circular scarlet shield, they distorted and blasted into the universe channel. The rain of light exploded in the universe channel. Each beam can severely wound a Great Holy or wipe out a star. After the rain of light disappeared, a perfectly fine scarlet shield appeared in front of everyone. "How dreadful! What terrifying defense!" "No quasi-Empyrean would be able to block the bombardment of Firmament Holy's fleet. Redstone Lord is really terrifying!" "That's an Empyrean for you!" "..." When the spectating Holies and Great Holies saw this scene, they drew in a sharp breath. No quasi-Empyrean, not even a powerhouse second only to Empyreans like Heaven's Devourer Tyrant Dragon, can withstand the bombardment of thousands of Holy Slaying Artillery beams. "Firmament Holy, is that all you got?" The scarlet shield flew into Redstone Lord's hand. With a fierce shimmer in his eyes, he thrust the spear in his hand forward, stabbed a membrane, and pierced through it. The scarlet spear pierced through the universe barrier at once, and wisps of Empyrean might reverberated in the area. With a glimmer of red light, the universe barrier was broken by the scarlet spear. Redstone Lord looked around, an unequaled Empyrean pressure diffusing from him. "Amazing! Redstone Lord!" Yang Feng smiled faintly and waved his hand. Ripples flickered, and the semi-finished level-7 stronghold flew out. A 10-kilometer-long Devastator Cannon protruded from the level-7 stronghold. Devastator Cannon is the most powerful artillery the xizu have developed. Even if it's a Warlock Emperor, they may die if hit by the Devastator Cannon. Countless runes shone. In an instant, a terrifying pillar of light replete with destructive power, capable of destroying everything, barreled towards Redstone Lord. Redstone Lord's expression flickered. The scarlet shield appeared once more and blocked in front of him. When the terrifying pillar of light slammed into the scarlet shield, it smashed the shield, and then swallowed Redstone Lord. "How scary!" "What weapon is that?" "What sort of weapon is that? How is it so terrifying?" "Apart from Empyreans, is there anyone in the world who can withstand a strike from this weapon?" "..." When the spectating Holies and Great Holies saw this scene, their eyes shimmered with incredulity, and a chill diffused from their soul. The Devastator Cannon can severely injure a Warlock Emperor with one strike. Unless the Empyreans wake up, no one in the world of Warlocks will be able to withstand this terrifying artillery.
