

MGE 421

Chapter 421 – Terrifying Black Steel Warship

After the warship was destroyed, the Dragon Bones Island looked like an ant heel doused in hot water, and countless pirates poured out and rushed towards the port where their pirate ships were located.

From the Dragon Bones Island came Dragon Skeleton Pirate King Lionel's voice: "I am Dragon Skeleton Pirate King Lionel. Which friend has come to visit my Dragon Bones Island? Might there be come misunderstanding?"

Boom!! The 897 millimeter heavy artillery fired again, and a 100-meter-long warship of the Dragon Skeleton Pirates was smashed, and sank to the bottom of the sea.

A rain of railgun beams bombarded numerous warships anchored at the port. Riddled with holes, the warships slowly sank to the bottom of the sea.

Arlet stepped forward and spoke in a majestic voice: "I am Arlet, the Black Dragon Country's holy daughter. His Majesty is leading an expedition to conquer the East Sea! Lionel, offer your Dragon Bones Warship and submit to the His Majesty, and you can live. Otherwise, you scum will die today!"

Reclining on the Black Steel Warship's bridge, propping his head up with a hand, Yang Feng looked at the majestic Arlet with amusement in his eyes: "A beautiful diplomat is really pleasing to the eyes."

Lionel shouted anxiously: "Stop! Isn't it common sense to stop attacking when negotiating? Stop, and I'll consider your proposal!"

Even when Arlet was speaking, the Black Steel Warship never stopped its shelling. A dense barrage of beams bombarded the Dragon Bones Island, annihilating pirates and warships alike.

Arlet responded: "You have no leeway here! Either surrender, or die! Our offensive won't stop until you made your choice."

A gloomy expression on his face, Lionel uttered coldly: "In that case, let me show you the Dragon Skeleton Pirates' real strength!"

Lionel's words have just fallen, when terrific dragon might rose from the Dragon Bones Island, and a silver dragon more than 50 meters long flew out and headed towards the Black Steel Warship.

In the sea, an adult silver dragon could even defeat many human demigods. This was the Dragon Bones Island's trump card.

Intense light glimmered in Obin's eyes, and he said gravely: "Your majesty! Please allow me to take this fellow on!"

Yang Feng responded lightly: "Very well, go ahead!"

"Yes, Your Majesty!" Obin blurred into motion and flew out. In mid air, he shimmered with black light and turned into a 50-meter-long black dragon exuding demigod rank aura.

“You’re Obin!! Traitor Obin!” When the silver dragon saw the black dragon form Obin, there was a flash of surprise in his eyes.

“That’s right! Royk, you still haven’t made a progress. Hundreds of years have gone by, yet you still haven’t stepped into the Starry Sky Warlock realm. And now you’re a cheap thug hired by pirates, a disgrace to dragons. Let me wash off this disgrace of dragons!” Obin smiled ferociously, flapped his wings, and rushed towards Royk in a gust of wing.

The inheritance of dragon experts was much more complete than that of humans. Dragons were clear about the grading of the 36 primary material planes. As the Plane of Dragons was previously suppressed and controlled by human Warlocks, the grading dragons employed was strictly based on the Cangzhi Plane’s grading.

Royk snarled back: “Obin, you’re the disgrace of dragons. I was ordered by the race to assist Lionel in dominating the East Sea. Since you’ve come to intervene, do you want to wreck the plans of the race? Even though you’ve already advanced to the Starry Sky Warlock rank, but you’re not a match for the Elders of our race!!”

Obin smiled ferociously. No longer speaking any more rubbish, he threw himself at Royk, and the two dragons engaged in a wild fight in midair.

Among dragons, silver dragons were second only to golden dragons. Silver dragons were a grade higher than black dragons. In the same realm, silver dragons were a notch stronger than black dragons.

However, Obin was a Starry Sky Warlock rank black dragon, while Royk was merely a quasi-Starry Sky Warlock rank silver dragon. Even though silver dragons were in general a notch stronger, but Royk still wasn’t Obin’s opponent. When the two sides collided, Royk was completely suppressed, suffering many wounds all over his body.

Meanwhile on the sea, the Black Steel Warship’s artilleries rumbled, and numerous beams blasted into the warships docked at the Dragon Bones Island’s port.

At every moment given moment, there were warships being pulverized by the artillery fire coming from the Black Steel Warship. The pirates tried desperately to board the warships, yet as a result, sank to the bottom of the sea together with the warships. Afraid of the Black Steel Warship’s firepower, many pirates chose to escape, or hide somewhere. Faces pale, they watched as one warship after another sank.

Suddenly, a wave rolled out from the side of the Dragon Bones Island, and the Dragon Bones Warship appeared from behind the island, speeding along. Fearsome dragon might gushed out, and a pair huge wings extended from the Dragon Bones Warship. In a gust of wing, the legendary warship flew into the air.

Of the legendary warships the God of Pirates Gethron left behind in the secular world, only three could fly for a short time, and the Dragon Bones Warship was one of them.

When the Black Dragon Country’s naval troops saw the legendary warship fly in the air, their faces fell at once.

“Interesting! Let me have a taste of your legendary warship!” Sitting on the Black Steel Warship’s bridge, Yang Feng dressed in a military uniform showed a smile, blurred into motion, and, while walking on empty air, strode towards the Dragon Bones Warship.

“His Majesty! His Majesty went to fight!”

“It’s His Majesty!! He went to attack personally!”

“ ... ”

The dragonborn watched Yang Feng head towards the Dragon Bones Warship while walking on thin air, and excitement flashed in their eyes.

Apart from a few officers, no one had witnessed Yang Feng fight. The dragonborn were full of expectations for Yang Feng, who killed five dragon god experts.

Light congregated on the Dragon Bones Warship’s bow cannon, patterns lit up on the cannon, and the cannon fired a terrific pillar of light capable of directly erasing a demigod rank powerhouse shooting towards Yang Feng.

A fearsome spatial fluctuation converged outside Yang Feng’s body, and the space around him distorted.

When the pillar of light crashed into the distorted space, it shuttled about inside the distorted space, and then finally flew out, slammed heavily into a 100-meter-long warship of the Dragon Skeleton Pirates, and directly destroyed it.

Seeing this scene, the Black Dragon Country’s naval troops and the pirates of the Dragon Skeleton Pirates were dumbstruck, their eyes overcome with shock. “So strong!!”

“That’s His Majesty for you!! So powerful!”

“This power is just too impressive! His Majesty must be the incarnation of a real god treading in the secular world!”

“ ... ”

The dragonborn soldiers were filled with excitement, and their morale was greatly boosted.

“Monster!! How can we win against this monster!”

“Even the dragon breath cannon can’t hurt him! We’re not his opponent!”

“ ... ”

The eyes of the pirates on the Dragon Bones Warship filled with fear, and their morale was greatly reduced. The dragon breath cannon was the strongest weapon on the Dragon Bones Warship. But this strongest weapon couldn’t injure Yang Feng at all, which left them despairing.

Yang Feng’s figure flashed, and he appeared on the Dragon Bones Warship.

When the fierce pirates saw Yang Feng, they couldn’t help but to grasp their weapons and take a few steps back. Fear shimmered in the abyss of their eyes.

Yang Feng's eyes moved and fell on a pirate mixed in with the ordinary pirates, and he uttered indifferently: "Lionel, come on out! Since you're not willing to submit, then let me send you on your way to hell!"

The Dragon Skeleton Pirate King Lionel hid shamelessly amid the ordinary pirates in order to mount a sneak attack on Yang Feng.

The bones of an old-looking pirate with a thin and short build issued crackling sounds, and he became a tall and handsome man with a wicked temperament. This man was the Dragon Skeleton Pirate King Lionel.

Lionel stared at Yang Feng with a dignified expression and uttered while stressing each syllable: "Your Majesty, I am Lionel. The Dragon Skeleton Pirates have never looted ships of the Black Dragon Country. There is no enmity between us. Your Majesty, why have you attacked the Dragon Skeleton Pirates?"

"There's also no enmity between the merchant ships and you pirates, so why do you attack them?" Yang Feng glanced at the pirates, a flash of contempt in his eyes, and he continued with a sneer: "I came to annihilate you. On behalf of the heavens, I am going to wipe you scum out and preserve the order in the East Sea."

Lionel sneered back: "On behalf of the heavens? Those are some highfalutin and hypocritical words. You fancy the East Sea, this big piece of meat, and want to have a fierce bite of it!"

Extremely vast, the East Sea bordered on the Morrince Empire, Titan Empire, and many neutral principalities and kingdoms.

Each of the three pirate kings was extremely wealthy, having more than 10,000 pirates under their command. They planted numerous moles and set up numerous bases in the coastal states thanks to the ample riches of the East Sea.

Chapter 422 – Defeating the Dragon Skeleton Pirates

Yang Feng smiled and said in response: "You're right! I do indeed fancy the wealth of the East Sea! As such, you pirate kings are an eyesore! You must die!"

Lionel's eyes flashed, and he said: "You want to wipe us out? Are you sure about that? Your Majesty, we three pirate kings, no, we two pirate kings have powerful forces backing us. The Dragon Skeleton Pirates are backed by the Country of Dragons!! If you destroy us, you will become enemies with the Country of Dragons! The power of the Country of Dragons isn't something that you can imagine. Leave now, it's not too late!"

Yang Feng spoke with a sneer: "Too much nonsense! Lionel, come at me! Let me see how strong the Dragon Skeleton Pirate King who runs amuck in the East Sea is!"

"Are you sure you don't want to reconsider? My father is the ancient golden dragon Robertan! He possesses strength that rivals that of gods..."

A legendary enchanted air cleaver surrounded by a copious amount of dragon qi, which seemed to form a roaring dragon coiling around the air cleaver, slashed at Yang Feng with fearsome power capable of cutting open Starry Sky Warlock rank dragon scales.

The Dragon Slash was the crystallization of Lionel's decades of cultivation. Within 10 meters, even a Legend Wizard could be instakilled.

In the face of that fearsome strike, Yang Feng extended his index finger and, while seemingly moving extremely slowly, though in reality moving very quickly, touched the air cleaver.

Ding!! With a clear sound, under everyone's astonished gazes, the air cleaver bounced back from Yang Feng's finger. Lionel was sent tumbling backwards. He spat out a mouthful of blood and briskly retreated by a dozen meters, eyes filled with shock.

Yang Feng lowered his head and looked at his index finger. There was only a white mark on his forefinger.

The corners of his mouth rose: "The strongest Warlock path, it's indeed worthy of the name strongest! The power of the Primal Chaos Imperishable Body matched with a semi-plane sure is impressive!"

"Lionel, since I received your strike, it's only fair that you receive a strike of mine!" Yang Feng murmured, then blurred into motion, appeared in front of Lionel, and punched that the other side's abdomen before he could react.

With a loud sound, a terrifying force rushed into Lionel and reverberated throughout his body, and he exploded into a mist of blood that scattered all over the Dragon Bones Warship.

When the pirates saw this, terror gripped their hearts.

Yang Feng slashed with his hand and a spatial gate suddenly appeared.

A spatial gate also suddenly appeared on the Black Steel Warship.

Arlet and the dragonborn soldiers, who were already prepared for battle, quickly passed through the spatial gate and reached the Dragon Bones Warship.

Arlet pointed at the pirates with the Legend grade silver dragon spear and shouted: "For His Majesty, kill them!"

"For His Majesty!"

The dragonborn roared and followed Arlet towards the pirates.

Yang Feng walked towards a seat on a dais specially set up on the Dragon Bones Warship.

"Kill him!!"

"Let's go together and kill him. That's our only chance to come out from this alive!"

"..."

The eyes of the pirates flickered ferociously, and they pounced at Yang Feng, dauntless.

After being cornered, the pirates showed their ferocious nature.

Yang Feng didn't seem to see those fierce pirates. As more than 100 pirates were rushing towards him, strange distortions suddenly appeared in the space.

The more than 100 pirates were instantly cut by the strange distortions in space.

In the next moment, as if flowers blooming, copious amounts of blood burst out from the pirates.

Seeing this, fear shimmered in the eyes of the remaining pirates. They didn't dare to approach him.

Yang Feng walked to the seat on the dais and sat down. Reclining in the seat, a large caliber gun in hand, he looked down at the pirates like a god overlooking the secular world.

Bang! A pirate with excellent martial prowess had just sent the greatsword of a dragonborn soldier tumbling and was about to kill him, when a gunshot rang, and the pirate's head exploded, and blood splattered about.

"Thank you, Your Majesty!" The dragonborn soldier looked at Yang Feng sitting on the dais with excitement in his eyes and shouted, and then picked up his greatsword and continued to attack the pirates.

Every time a dragon born soldier faced a critical moment, there would a gunshot would rung and a pirate's head would explode.

Under these circumstances, the morale of the pirates dropped to the extreme.

Arlet was also a particularly important factor in the demoralization of the pirates. Wherever her silver dragon spear passed through, pirates would be easily ran through and cut apart. No one could withstand a single strike from her.

"Surrender!"

"I surrender!"

"..."

After just a short desperate battle, the pirates fell to their knees and surrendered, while the most rebellious pirates jumped into the sea.

Shortly after the Dragon Bones Warship was taken over, it turned around, aimed at a warship at the Dragon Bones Island, and shot from its dragon breath cannon, and a beam of light blasted into the warship.

Boom!! With a loud blare, the warship was ran through by the beam of light, and then sank to the bottom of the sea.

Seeing that the Dragon Bones Warship turned against them, the pirates on the Dragon Bones Island showed a look of despair, and fled in disarray and hid on the island.

In the sky, completely suppressed by Obin, the silver dragon Royk was covered in injuries.

When the silver dragon Royk saw the Dragon Bones Warship defect, he felt that things were going south, and silently recited an incantation, and a spatial fluctuation enveloped him. He was trying to escape via a spatial spell.

“You want to use spatial spells in front of me, how presumptuous!” The spatial fluctuation has just enveloped the silver dragon Royk, when it strangely disappeared, and Yang Feng’s voice sounded from beside Royk.

Royk turned his head and saw that Yang Feng has appeared in front of him.

Yang Feng smiled and punched at Royk’s neck, and a horrifying force broke out in an instant. With this blow, Royk’s neck was pulverized, and his dragon head and dragon body fell down separately.

The black dragon Obin was dumbfounded by this scene, his eyes overcome with fear: “So strong! He’s just a Great Warlock, so how come he’s so terrifyingly strong?!”

The black dragon Obin was a demigod rank dragon. Even if he punched Royk in the neck with all his strength, he still wouldn’t be able to pulverize his neck. The terrifying strength Yang Feng has displayed greatly exceeded Obin’s imagination.

Yang Feng glanced at Obin and said indifferently: “Obin, you and Arlet go capture the pirate scum and carry out a trial. Kill those with serious crimes, and spare the rest.”

Obin became more respectful, and responded: “Yes, Your Majesty!”

Obin immediately blurred and turned back into his human form, and then flew towards the Dragon Bones Island.

The Black Dragon Country’s warships also landed on the Dragon Bones Island, and numerous dragonborn soldiers rushed out.

Before the demigod rank black dragon Obin and the Legend rank dragonborn Arlet, the pirates of the Dragon Bones Island couldn’t withstand a single blow. When they were found in their hiding spots, they either died or surrendered.

Yang Feng rescued 20,000 women and children from the Dragon Bones Island.

The three pirate kings not only attacked merchant ships in the sea, but also landed on land from time to time, where they would capture women and children from coastal cities to give vent to their desires. They were scum, and Yang Feng had no qualms to kill them.

After a simple trial, of the pirates who surrendered, 10,000 pirates were directly hung, while 5,000 pirates, whose crimes weren’t as serious, were disorganized and temporarily relegated to slavery.

The next day, at a secret chamber on the Dragon Bones Island.

Yang Feng pushed open the door to the secret chamber, and saw piles of gold coins and gems shine brilliantly.

Solely the gold coins and gems in the secret chamber were worth tens of millions of gold coins.

He swept the secret chamber with an indifferent gaze, and then went to the deepest part of the secret chamber. He silently recited an incantation and pressed his hand on an ordinary unadorned wall.

The wall distorted and ultimately split open, revealing a dark passage.

He walked directly into the dark passage. When he reached the end of the passage, he saw a huge bronze gate in front of him.

He flipped his hand, and a Legend rank greatsword suddenly shot out, and a sword ray flashed, and the bronze gate fell apart.

When the bronze gate fell apart, brilliant light poured out of behind the bronze gate and illuminated the dark passage.

When he entered the cave, Yang Feng saw mountains of gold, silver, and gems as well as trunks of precious ore, magic stones, magic ore, precious plants, and all kinds of other treasures. If all the treasures inside the cave were sold, they would net him about 10 billion gold coins.

Chapter 423 – Routing the Black Skeleton Pirates

“Not bad, the three pirate kings are really rich!” Yang Feng smiled faintly. His eyes scanned the treasury before finally showing a look of delight, and he went to in front of a pile of ore and grabbed a handful of ore.

His eyes flashed with joy: “These are top grade inert atlam stone! Ha-ha, that’s great!! These are enough to make half a top grade warp gate.”

At present, with the level-2 mobile fortified stronghold, he could only synthesize low grade inert atlam stone to produce low grade warp gates.

With the top grade inert atlam stone he got from the treasury, Yang Feng had enough to produce a fifth top grade warp gate.

Each additional top grade warp gate meant that he could control an additional plane, obtain more resources, and have more choices.

At present, his four top grade warp gates were respectively placed on the Feisuo Plane’s Desolate Islands, inside the Turandot Subcontinent’s underground base, and the Astral Boundary’s planar star river. He carried the last top grade warp gate on his person. Once the fifth top grade warp gate was manufactured, Yang Feng could freely travel between more planes.

He looked at the inert atlam stone and revealed a smile: “The Feisuo Plane is indeed one of the 36 primary material planes, there’s so much top inert atlam stone here. I just need to secure a few more treasuries, and the number of top grade warp gates in my grasp might increase to a dozen. It would be great if I could place a top grade warp gate in each of the 36 primary material planes.”

For him to be able to find so much top grade inert atlam stone in this treasury, it meant that the Feisuo Plane must be fairly rich in terms of top grade inert atlam stone. As such, it wasn’t impossible for him to get his hands on top grade inert atlam stone here.

The Ghost Skeleton Island, within the Black Skeleton Pirate King's castle.

The Black Skeleton Pirate King Kalim spoke, a gloomy expression on his face: "Lionel was killed!! Are you sure?"

In front of Kalim sat a naga great cleric with the upper body of a strikingly beautiful woman and the lower body of a snake: "This is a divine decree of the mighty Goddess of Nagas. Are you questioning the veracity of the Goddess of Nagas' divine decree, Kalim?"

Kalim's heart shook, and he hastily responded: "I wouldn't dare, I believe in the great Goddess of Nagas with all my heart and am willing to sacrifice everything for the great Goddess. I would never question a divine decree of the mighty Goddess! I will do as you ordered, great cleric. I'll have everyone be more vigilant."

Boom! Boom!! Kalim's words have hardly fallen, when the sound of mountain-shaking explosions reverberated on the Ghost Skeleton Island, and the castle shook.

Kalim was alarmed: "What's going on?"

Cutting a sorry figure, the first mate rushed towards Kalim's side and shouted: "Your Majesty, Your Majesty, it's bad!! We're under attack! The Dragon Skeleton Pirates are here!! Those scumbags Dragon Skeleton Pirates are here!"

Kalim grabbed the collar of the first mate, lifted him up, and snarled ferociously: "The Dragon Skeleton Pirates?! Fool, calm down and speak clearly!! Why do you say that the Dragon Skeleton Pirates are attacking us?"

The first mate screamed: "Dragon Bones Warship! The fleet attacking us contains the Dragon Bones Warship!"

The three legendary warships were the symbols of the three pirate kings in the East Sea. When the first mate saw the Dragon Bones Warship, it was normal for him to think that the Dragon Skeleton Pirates were attacking them.

Kalim shouted, a gloomy expression on his face: "Has the fleet the Dragon Skeleton Pirates flag raised?"

The first mate quickly replied: "No, they have a black dragon flag raised!"

Face gloomy, eyes flickering with a glint of wisdom, Kalim uttered: "It's just as you said, great cleric, the Dragon Skeleton Pirates were subdued. Even the legendary warship Dragon Bones Warship fell into their hands. The strength of the Dragon Skeleton Pirates is not much different from that of our pirate group. The Black Skeleton Pirates won't be able to resist a fleet capable of subduing the Dragon Skeleton Pirates. Please help us, great cleric! Otherwise, I can only order my brothers to scatter and escape!"

Although Kalim looked like a bear-like muscle-head. But in fact, he was very cunning. According to the intelligence at his disposal, he concluded that he wasn't a match for Yang Feng's fleet. He decided that letting his men escape separately was the best course of action. As for the treasure hidden in the Ghost Skeleton Island, it wasn't important under the current circumstances.

The naga great cleric responded calmly: "Okay! We'll help you! On the sea, no one dares to disregard us nagas!"

When Kalim and the naga great cleric walked out of the castle, they saw the legendary warship Black Steel Warship in the distance fire countless light beams barreling towards the warships of the Black Skeleton Pirates and sink one warship after another.

Flapping its wings, the Dragon Bones Warship swooped down into the midst of the Black Skeleton Pirates' warships, and its huge dragon head frantically bit at a warship, biting off a chunk of it, and the warship sank to the bottom of the sea.

Looking like it had transformed into a dragon, the Dragon Bones Warship continuously swooped down and pounced on the warships. Every time it attacked, a warship would sink to the bottom of the sea.

The Black Skeleton Pirates frantically rushed towards the warships at the port. Some had just boarded the warship, when the warship was destroyed. The pirates had no hope to fight back.

Kalim's expression turned extremely ugly as he watched the Black Steel Warship with fear in his eyes. He knew how strong the Black Steel Warship previously was. But after it was refitted by Yang Feng, the warship was 100 times stronger. Whether it was in terms of firepower, range, or accuracy, the current Black Steel Warship exceeded the original by far.

The Black Steel Warship refitted by Yang Feng could easily defeat 10 original Black Steel Warships, which illustrated the huge gap in technology.

The great cleric naga silently recited an incantation and pointed with her finger, and a blue divine light gathered in the middle of the sky and formed a 20 meter tall projection of her made from water elemental particles.

The projection of the naga great cleric floating in midair spoke solemnly: "I am the Ghost Skeleton Island's naga great cleric Kunna! Your Majesty of the Black Dragon Country, may I have a talk with you?"

Sitting on the Black Steel Warship, Yang Feng watched the projection of the naga great cleric in midair with scorn in his eyes, then smiled coldly and waved his hand.

Arlet stepped forward and said: "I am the Black Dragon Country's holy maiden Arlet. If you have anything to say, please tell it to me, great cleric Kunna!"

Kunna's gaze brushed over Arlet, and her beautiful eyes flashed with anger. As a naga great cleric, her status was sublime, and even human coastal states would give her face. Whenever she went to a human state, the ruler of said state would always be respectful towards her. Now, however, Yang Feng was clearly sitting on the Black Steel Warship, yet only Arlet talked to her, making her feel humiliated.

Aloof, Kunna spoke full of pride and menace: "The Ghost Skeleton Island is the territory of the nagas! Please stop attacking the Ghost Skeleton Island immediately. Otherwise, you'll be enemies with the nagas as well as the myriad merfolk of the East Sea! If you leave now and compensate us for our losses, then today's event can be swept under the rug."

Arlet frowned and turned to look at Yang Feng.

In the East Sea, the most powerful force was not the three human pirate groups, but the myriad of merfolk living in the East Sea.

In order to sail the sea, human ships had to give the merfolk offerings.

If the merfolk gods weren't somewhat fearful of the human gods, it would be impossible for human ships to sail the sea at all. Although the dragonborn of the Desolate Islands were very strong, but there was no way they could contend against merfolk in the East Sea.

The dragonborn looked at Yang Feng with gazes filled with worship and expectation. These days, Yang Feng had led them to crush the forces of the Dragon Skeleton Pirate King, and now they were about to destroy the forces of the Black Skeleton Pirate King, about to dominate the whole East Sea. To the dragonborn feeling adoration for him, every order of his was like a divine decree.

"I'm full of respect for the merfolk gods, and I don't mean to be hostile with the merfolk." Yang Feng glanced at Kunna with killing intent and biting coldness shimmering in his eyes, and he continued overbearingly: "But I want the East Sea! Anyone standing in my way is my enemy! Nagas, immediately leave the Ghost Skeleton Island, and today's event can be swept under the rug! Otherwise, you nagas as well as the rest of the merfolk in the East Sea will be my enemy! I will wipe you out one by one!"

Kunna's face fell, and she looked deeply at Yang Feng with eyes full of cold killing intent: "You!! Very well! Your Majesty Emperor of the Black Dragon Country, I will deliver your words to the Naga Empress!! I await the day when your Black Dragon Country is no more!"

"We're leaving!" A livid expression on her face, Kunna ordered coldly.

The naga warriors inside the temple of the Ghost Skeleton Island immediately followed Kunna and jumped into the sea.

Leaving the legendary warship Ghost Sheep behind, the cunning Kalim took only a few dozen trusted aids and escaped the Ghost Skeleton Island along with Kunna.

Chapter 424 – Naga Empress Stephania

After Kalim and the naga warriors escaped from the Ghost Skeleton Island, the pirates that remained on the island immediately devolved into chaos.

When Yang Feng's forces landed on the Ghost Skeleton Island, the pirates on the island surrendered.

The Black Dragon Country also rescued more than 30,000 women and children from the Ghost Skeleton Island.

After turning over the entire island, Yang Feng found approximately 10 million gold coins worth of treasures. Evidently, the gold coins and all kinds of treasures collected by the Black Skeleton Pirates in recent years were all offered to the nagas in order to obtain their protection.

Arlet pointed at the naga temple and asked: "What should we do with this temple, Your Majesty?"

Yang Feng looked at the naga temple and couldn't help frowning.

The naga temple was dedicated to the Goddess of Nagas Daphne, who was an intermediate divine force rank god, a frightening powerhouse at the same rank as the Fighting Demonic Sect's four Great Elders.

If it wasn't for the planar tide, Yang Feng would't dare to easily offend such formidable goddess even with the treaty of the gods in place.

For the Goddess of Nagas, Yang Feng snatching the Ghost Skeleton Island away from the nagas was nothing. But if he dared to desecrate her idol, then that would definitely give rise to an irreconcilable enmity.

Yang Feng pondered for a while before saying: "Head my command, no one is allowed to desecrate the idol of the Goddess inside. Arlet, you are to personally oversee this matter. Kill anyone who violates this order."

Her heart shook, and Arlet responded: "Yes! Your majesty!"

In the East Sea, 50,000 meters below the surface of the sea, there was a city full of artistic flair extending without end.

Within that city, there were huge spiral houses, coral mountains, and other constructions brimming with merfolk style.

The streets were filled with nagas, who had a human upper body and a snake tail; octopusmen, who had the head of an octopus and the body of a human; and other strange merfolk experts.

In the center of the city, there lied a magnificent and luxurious palace covering tens of thousands of hectares.

This palace was the the East Sea's East Sea Palace. The East Sea Palace was enveloped by a formidable barrier, blocking the water from entering inside. The interior was filled with fresh air and life magic energy. Even humans could live freely and comfortably here.

The four seas – East, West, North, and South Sea, each had a magnificent sea palace. The four sea palaces was where the four Sea Monarchs resided.

In addition to the four sea palaces, there was still a sea imperial palace in the West Sea, which governed the four sea palaces. Unlike the humans, who lived by a separation of church and state, the merfolk governing model was basically a theocracy, where the Sea Emperor was not only the emperor of merfolk, but also the pope appointed by the merfolk gods of the Sea God Church. The four Sea Monarchs were the four cardinals of the Sea God Church.

However, with the passage of time, apart from the West Sea Palace, who was still firmly controlled by the sea imperial palace, the other three sea palaces only paid lip service to the sea imperial palace.

A fierce flash in her eyes, Kunna swam towards the East Sea Palace: "That wretched Black Dragon Country's emperor!! This humiliation, I will repay you a hundredfold!"

In a luxurious palace of the East Sea Palace, a beautiful four-armed naga with the upper body of a sexy and tender woman with a crown on her head and the lower body of a snake sitting on a golden throne coldly looked at the kneeling Kunna.

This gorgeous four-armed naga was the Naga Empress Stephania. Under her leadership, the nagas grew into a strong race capable of contending against merpeople in the sea palace.

As a great cleric, Kunna's status among nagas was extremely high. Originally, she only had to kneel before the gods the nagas worshiped. Yet every time she met Stephania, she would respectfully kneel before her, and that was because the Goddess of Nagas Daphne had appointed her as one of the naga gods.

For gods of the Feisuo Plane, the planar tide was a great disaster, but also a great opportunity. Without the planar tide, Daphne would never dare to go against the strong divine force Sea God Hrehoriy. However, with the planar tide, if the nagas could take this opportunity to produce several new gods, then they could gain independence. Just like the Goddess Lolth established an independent dark elven divine system.

As she listened to Kunna's report, Stephania lightly tapped the golden throne with a finger, a sharp and cold look in her eyes.

Stephania showed a beautiful smile, yet her pretty eyes flashed coldly: "Interesting. The sea is the domain of us merfolk. Even dragons don't act presumptuously in the sea, yet that little ruler of barbarians dares to provoke us merfolk. I want to see what trump cards he has up his sleeves!"

An 8-meter-tall whaleman expert stepped forward and said loudly: "Your Majesty! I wish to lead troops to wipe out those barbarians."

Stephania glanced at the whaleman powerhouse and responded coldly: "Adam! The wisdom apple is about to ripen! Our primary objective now is to have Agatha and them go retrieve the wisdom apple, and not to entangle with the barbarians.

Adam's heart shook, and he stepped back: "Yes! Your Majesty!"

There was a flash of wisdom in her pretty eyes, and Stephania uttered indifferently: "Kunna, go make a trip to the Black Dragon Country. Tell the ruler of the barbarians that for the next three years, we can temporarily recognize his dominion over the East Sea. But he has to cooperate with us and sink all ships heading for the Golden Strait."

Kunna's eyes brightened, and she replied excitedly: "Yes! Your Majesty!"

The Red Earth Wasteland, the Miracle City, in a secret chamber in the city master's mansion, the door suddenly opened, and Yang Feng walked out and headed towards his study.

In the study, there were two seats – one for Yang Feng's use and the other for the manager of the Miracle City Lina's use.

When he entered the study, Yang Feng saw Lina dressed beautifully reading documents and dealing with all kinds of affairs.

It was due to Lina and some other people that Yang Feng was able to travel around and practice cultivation in seclusion, all the while the Miracle City was still thriving.

"Sir Duke, you're back!" Startled, Lina looked up when the door opened and saw Yang Feng. There was a flash of excitement in her beautiful eyes, and she rose to greet him.

"I'm back! It's been hard on you!" Yang Feng looked at the enchanting Lina. Suddenly, he felt a little moved, and drew her into his embrace.

Lina blushed at once, and her tender body shuddered like a timid little rabbit. She hugged him tightly and closed her eyes, looking adorable.

Yang Feng's heart was moved, and he lowered his head and plastered a kiss on her lips.

After a moment of passion, Lina softly lied in his arms, a look of bliss on her face. There were a few bright red stains on the soft sofa.

"Gather ye rosebuds while ye may, Old Time is still a-flying. Breaking rosebuds is such a wonderful feeling!" He looked at Lina with a sweet smile on her face in his arms, and then the corners of his mouth raised, and he plastered a kiss on her face.

For the next two days, Yang Feng stayed with Lina and listened to her report regarding the development of the Miracle City, all the while having fun in the city.

Three days later, within the study.

Wearing a black Warlock robe, looking gorgeous and sexy, Faldina entered the study. Shortly after, her delicate nose twitched and her eyebrows wrinkled. "This room has a strange smell."

The manager of the Miracle City Lina blushed at once and lowered her head, and her heart jumped into her throat, feeling bashful.

Faldina's eyebrows raised, and she elegantly sat opposite Yang Feng and said: "Right, Ian, it's almost time!! If you don't go now, then it'll be too late!"

Yang Feng got up and responded: "I'm ready! Let's go!"

Faldina's beautiful eyes flashed gravely, and she uttered solemnly: "You're ready? Have you prepared a warship and sailors? You need a huge ship to go to the Golden Strait. Once inside the Golden Strait, it's impossible to rise into the air! Even gods will lose all divine force and become mortals! Inside the Golden Strait, naval warfare is key! Without a strong enough ship, it's impossible to reach the center of the strait!"

Yang Feng raised the corners of his mouth and replied lightly: "Don't worry, I'm ready! Are legendary warships good enough?"

Faldina's heart surged with shock, her beautiful eyes flashed with incredulity, and she hurriedly asked: "Legendary warship! Which one is it?"

Every legendary warship required countless resources to be built. On the Feisuo Plane, every legendary warship was famous and belonged to a different major force.

It hadn't occurred to Faldina that Yang Feng, who seemed to be lying low, had got his hands on a legendary warship.

Yang Feng answered with a smile: "Black Steel Warship!"

Faldina's eyes flashed with an extraordinary splendor, and she said with a sweet smile: "The legendary warship of the East Sea's Sword and Skeleton Pirate King! To be able to get this warship, you're amazing!"

Yang Feng continued: "Dragon Bones Warship!"

Faldina's countenance changed, and she uttered: "You wiped out the Dragon Skeleton Pirates? They are backed by the Country of Dragons! Aren't you afraid that dragons of the Country of Dragons will come to you for trouble?"

Chapter 425 – Kunna Pays a Visit

Yang Feng continued faintly: "Ghost Ship!"

Faldina's eyes flashed with horror, and she exclaimed: "You even wiped out the Black Skeleton Pirates? Their backed by the nagas, the most powerful merfolk in the East Sea. Are you out of you mind? You offended the nagas? They control the route to the Golden Strait."

Yang Feng said with a smile: "Now that we have three legendary warships, can we go to the Golden Strait?"

Faldina's eyes flickered for a while before she calmed down. She turned her pretty eyes, showed a smile, got up from the sofa, and came to Yang Feng's side: "Of course we can!"

Yang Feng took Faldina to a secret chamber in the Miracle City.

When she entered the secret chamber, Faldina saw a warp gate full of sci-fi style.

When Yang Feng operated it, a distorted space appeared inside the warp gate.

He smiled and made an inviting gesture, saying: "Ladies first!"

Her beautiful eyes were limpid, and Faldina smiled and directly stepped into the distorted space.

Yang Feng watched Faldina's back with an enigmatic gleam in his eyes. Faldina's courage and insight were beyond his expectation.

He also stepped into the warp gate, and then arrived on the other side.

Faldina silently followed Yang Feng through a dozen warp gates before finally arriving at a secret chamber in the Black Dragon Country.

The two left the secret chamber and went into the palace.

"Greetings, Your Majesty!" When they saw Yang Feng's group of two, the beautiful dragonborn soldiers in the palace knelt down in salute, and worship glimmered in their eyes.

The destruction of the two pirate kings, this accomplishment was disseminated in the Black Dragon Country. The dragonborn experts with black dragon bloodline were full of awe towards Yang Feng.

Faldina looked curiously at the beautiful dragonborn women around her and said: "They are dragons? Is this the Country of Dragons?"

She raised her eyebrows and quickly analyzed: "No! The dragons of the Country of Dragons are loyal to the Dragon Emperor. Except for the Dragon Emperor, no one else would be called 'Your Majesty'. This isn't the Country of Dragons! Besides, they are dragonborn born from the union of dragons and humans. Ian, you subdued these dragonborn, how amazing. There are no traces of dragonborn around the Red Earth Wasteland. So this mustn't be the Red Earth Wasteland, but some secret place. The gates that we traveled through should be spatial gates similar to teleportation portals. Am I right, Ian?"

Yang Feng looked carefully at Faldina, then smiled and said in response: "You are! You're really clever, Faldina!"

Faldina pretty much hit the nail on the head, showing how powerful her analytical faculties and wisdom were.

She uttered with a charming smile: "Now, can you tell me where we are?"

Yang Feng smiled and uttered in response: "We're in the Desolate Islands."

Faldina's pretty eyes suddenly brightened, and she asked, shocked: "The Desolate Islands? You want to intercept the ships going to the Golden Strait?"

The Desolate Islands were fairly close to the Golden Strait. Based on this, it was entirely possible to organize a huge fleet to intercept the ships going to the Golden Strait.

His eyes flashed with a peculiar gleam, and he said: "That's right!"

Faldina was startled, and her beautiful eyes flashed with endless shock, saying: "Are you crazy? Those who go to the Golden Strait are all favored by the gods! There will be divine chosen, gods' darlings, divine descendants, clones of gods, and some true bodies of gods going to the Golden Strait. You're going to offend all the gods!!"

The apple of wisdom was a treasure that even the gods coveted. For the sake of this treasure, some feeble divine force and weak divine force rank gods will personally venture to the Golden Strait.

He wanted to set up a defensive line to intercept the powerhouses who will go to the Golden Strait, this was lunacy. If his plan succeeded, then he would offend all the gods of the Feisuo Plane.

Yang Feng's eyes glimmered violently, and he spoke with a smile: "But it's worth it, right?"

Faldina's beautiful eyes flickered several times, and then she showed a smile and said: "That's right, it's indeed worth it! As long as you get the apple of wisdom, then it's worth becoming hostile with the gods!"

It took 30,000 years for an apple of wisdom to ripen. Besides, of the countless planes, only the Feisuo Plane could bear apples of wisdom. Every time an apple of wisdom appeared, it would lead to countless experts to fight over it.

Anyone who got their hands on an apple of wisdom and ate it would smoothly grow into a weak divine force rank god, or even an intermediate or strong divine force rank powerhouse.

Weak divine force rank gods were existences equivalent to Glorious Dawn Warlocks. For an apple of wisdom to enable a person to possess such strong potential, it would naturally cause countless people to vie over it. For this apple of wisdom, Yang Feng didn't hesitate to turn hostile against the gods of the Feisuo Plane.

Arlet strode over, looked deeply at Faldina next to Yang Feng with hostility in her eyes, and uttered solemnly: "Your Majesty, the naga great cleric Kunna asks for an audience!"

When she heard this, there was a flash of enigmatic light in Faldina's beautiful eyes, and she took a deep look at Yang Feng.

He raised his eyebrows and said: "The great cleric Kunna? Bring her to see me!"

Arlet replied: "Yes! Your Majesty!"

In a rear garden, Yang Feng reclined comfortably on a soft sofa and enjoyed the beautiful flowers in the garden.

Beautiful dragonborn court dancers performed in the garden, their movements filled with temptation and charm.

Sitting unceremoniously next to Yang Feng, Faldina enjoyed the beautiful dance of the dragonborn dancers and ate various fruits.

When Kunna arrived at the rear garden, she took a deep look at Yang Feng, and then said with a charming smile: "Your Majesty, I'm here as a messenger of the nagas. It's my honor to meet you."

A flash of killing intent and biting coldness in his eyes, Yang Feng spoke with a frigid smile: "Did you come to bring me the declaration of war of the merfolk?"

Kunna's beautiful eyes flickered with ridicule, yet her pretty face adopted a gentle smile: "No. Her Majesty the Empress wishes to rule the East Sea together with you. However, in the near future, there will be many outsiders traveling to the Golden Strait. Her Majesty the Empress requests that you join hands with us and wipe all those outsiders out. In exchange, the East Sea Palace will recognize the Black Dragon Country's rule over the sea routes of the East Sea.

Kunna mused with a sneer: "Humph! After you have offended all the gods of the Feisuo Plane, there will be no need for the nagas to act. This trifling Black Dragon Country of yours will vanish in a puff of smoke."

It wasn't impossible for the nagas to intercept all the ships going to the Golden Strait, but they needed a scapegoat. Even the nagas didn't want to offend all the gods of the Feisuo Plane.

Yang Feng shot Kunna a cold look and answered indifferently: "You want to join hands with me? That can be done, but the Naga Empress has to come in person to carry out talks! You aren't qualified! By the way, my fleet is going to leave for the Golden Strait today and set up a defensive perimeter there. Anyone who gets 300 nautical miles of the defensive perimeter without permission will be regarded as an enemy and killed directly! Now, go back!"

Kunna's countenance changed dramatically, and then turned ashen at once. She said stiffly: "Your Majesty, you'll regret this! You'll surely regret today's words! The East Sea belongs to us nagas!! Without our permission, you won't be able to move a single step in the East Sea. You'll see that soon enough!"

After she finished speaking, Kunna turned around and strode away.

Faldina asked curiously: "Ian, why did you refuse their offer?"

Yang Feng answered with a cold smile: "It's simple, they don't want to cooperate in good faith! They just want to find a scapegoat! If they don't want to cooperate in good faith, then why should I let them enter the Golden Strait?"

Faldina's beautiful eyes flashed with worry: "But the merfolk are really powerful!! They are the true masters of the East Sea. Even with the three legendary warships, you're still not a match for them."

Yang Feng revealed a mysterious smile, stood up, and said indifferently: "Let's go!"

Faldina got up and followed next to Yang Feng.

Before long, the three legendary warships – Black Steel Ship, Dragon Bones Warship, and Ghost Ship, anchored at the Black Dragon Country's port formed a fleet and sailed towards the deep sea.

In the vicinity of the Black Dragon Country's port, Kunna emerged from the sea, looked at Yang Feng's three legendary warships, fished out a communications crystal, and said: "Your Majesty, the Black Dragon Country's Emperor refused to carry out talks with me. He said that only you are qualified."

From the communications crystal came the cold and cruel voice of the Naga Empress: "In this case, let's have him sober up! I'll have him understand that the East Sea belongs to us nagas!"

The three legendary warships had just sailed for about three hundred nautical miles, when on the Black Steel Warship, the corners of Yang Feng's mouth rose, and he said with a cold smile: "They came really fast!"

More than 100 meters below the surface of the sea, octopusmen with the head of an octopus, dozen-meter-tall whalemen with the head of a whale, tall and majestic tiger-sharkmen, and various other merfolk powerhouses silently swam underneath the three legendary warships.

Chapter 426 – Defeating the Merfolk Vanguard

Yang Feng said indifferently: "Give them a warning, Arlet."

"Yes! Your Majesty!" Dressed in military uniform that accentuated her curves, Arlet stepped forward, looked down at the sea below, and said loudly: "The merfolk below, this is the fleet of His Majesty Ian of the Black Dragon Country. Please stop at once. Otherwise, we'll regard you as enemies and annihilate you!"

The underwater sound amplifiers installed on the Black Steel Warship spread sound waves towards the merfolk powerhouses below the surface of the sea.

From amid the countless merfolk, the beautiful Legend rank naga general Jenna sneered: "Humph! You want to annihilate us in the sea? How arrogant! The sea is the domain of merfolk. Even if a demigod rank expert entered the sea, they would only serve as food for us. General Mist, give them hell!"

A more than 30-meter-tall Legend rank swordfishman expert with the head of a swordfish and bone spurs cowering his body replied in a muffled voice: "Yes! General!"

“Fire!” Following Mist’s roar, more than 1,000 swordfishman powerhouses suddenly fired the countless sharp bone spurs covering their bodies shooting towards the Black Steel Warship.

The sharp bone spurs fired by the swordfishman experts were harder than steel. On the Feisuo Plane, only the Dragon Bones Warship as well as some other legendary warships forged from most precious magic plants could somewhat resist them. Before the Black Steel Warship was modified, it wouldn’t have a hard time resisting this attack.

But what followed next left the merfolk powerhouses stupefied. When the bone spurs hit the Black Steel Warship, they were directly ricocheted, unable to harm the warship in the least.

Mist’s face fell, and he roared wildly: “How, how can this be? The last time we attacked the Black Steel Warship, its armor definitely wasn’t this strong!”

The Black Steel Warship was one of the three legendary warships running amuck in the East Sea. But for the merfolk, the Black Steel Warship was the least intimidating of the three legendary warships. And that was because the gunfire of the Black Steel Warship that could easily destroy warships was nearly useless against the merfolk inside the sea. Besides, the bone spurs shot by the swordfishman powerhouses, although with difficulty, could still pierce through the Black Still Warship’s armor.

Yet now, the attack of the swordfishman powerhouses didn’t harm the Black Steel Warship in the least. Naturally, the merfolk experts were stunned, unable to believe their eyes.

A cold look in his eyes, Yang Feng order frigidly: “It’s impolite not to reciprocate! Fire!”

Hatches on the submerged part of the Black Steel Warship opened, and a hail of torpedoes shot towards the merfolk.

A tiger-sharkman expert sneered and fiercely hacked at a torpedo with his bone blade: “Humph! Fool, you want to hurt us with these things?”

Boom! With a blare, the tiger-sharkman expert was turned into countless pieces in a flash.

Boom! Boom! Boom! Terrific explosions sounded in quick successions in the middle of the merfolk army. The merfolk powerhouses have never seen anything like torpedoes before. As such, they attacked the torpedoes, and then were blown into pieces.

The face of the beautiful Legend rank naga general fell, and she bellowed: “Don’t attack those things! Dodge, dodge them!! Clerics, do something!”

When the merfolk witnessed the terror of the torpedoes, their faces fell, and they scattered.

“Sea Whirlpool!” Naga clerics dressed in a special dark blue robe swam forward, silently recited incantations, and pointed at the torpedoes with their staffs. Terrifying sea whirlpools suddenly appeared, and the torpedoes were drawn into the whirlpools.

Boom! Boom! Terrific explosions rang continuously as the torpedoes were drawn into the whirlpools and detonated.

Yang Feng looked at the whirlpool and showed a smile: “Interesting. Merfolk clerics sure have some skill!”

Faldina gave Yang Feng the stink eye, and then said unhappily: "You can still smile? Your weapons were neutralized! Now you don't have anything capable of threatening the merfolk!!"

Yang Feng smiled faintly and ordered: "You think so? Release the sea hunters!" Hatches on the Black Steel Warship opened, and sailfish-looking sea hunters about 1.5 meters long, with sharp blade-like fins, blades on the joints, and beast-like sharp teeth swam out.

As if a school of fish, when the dense crowd of sea hunters entered the sea, they immediately released strange whirlpools that propelled them towards the merfolk experts.

With a bellow, a whaleman expert a dozen meters tall holding a large iron anchor weighing more than a dozen tons mercilessly smashed at the sea hunters.

Nearly going against the laws of physics, numerous sea hunters drifting along currents strangely appeared in front of the whaleman powerhouse and pounced at him.

"Ah!! Help!" Accompanied by shrill screams, the whaleman expert was devoured and turned into white bones.

Such scenes continuously repeated amid the crowd of merfolk. As if ferocious monsters, the movements of the sea hunters were very strange, and almost no merfolk powerhouse could hit them. As long as they were surrounded, the merfolk experts would be devoured by the sea hunters.

Merfolk skeletal remains appeared in the sea one after another, giving off a creepy feeling.

"Die!! Trash!" The Legend rank Mist roared, waved a magic blade containing a trace of the law of water, and slashed at the sea hunters.

With the flash of a blade ray, three sea hunters were directly cut into countless pieces that scattered in the sea.

In the next moment, dozens of sea hunters following currents swooped towards Mist like ghosts.

Mist's miserable screams sounded, and within just five seconds, he was devoured by the fierce sea hunters and turned into a pile of bones.

The beautiful Legend rank naga general sucked in a breath of cold air, and shouted: "Retreat!! We retreat!!"

More than 500 naga powerhouses quickly swam and gathered around the beautiful Legend rank naga general.

The beautiful Legend rank naga general tore a magic scroll, and a fearsome spatial fluctuation covered her and company in the blink of an eye. They instantly turned indistinct, and then disappeared.

Yang Feng swept the holographic projection with a glance and said with a faint smile: "They ran away quickly! Kill the rest of the merfolk!"

Following Yang Feng's command, the large numbers of sea hunters merged into a terrifying school of fish that swept towards the remaining thousands of merfolk soldiers

Ten minutes later, there were thousands of skeletal remains of merfolk soldiers in the sea.

After devouring the merfolk soldiers, the countless sea hunters swam back to the Black Steel Warship.

Faldina stared at the holographic projection with horror in her pretty eyes and uttered: “What astounding golems! Amazing!”

Faldina went on to say, a dignified look on her face: “However, Ian, now that you offended the Goddess of Nagas, it will be more difficult for us to go to the Golden Strait! It’s even possible that the Goddess of Nagas will come after us in person!”

Possessing infinite mysteries, the apple of wisdom was something that even the Goddess of Nagas desired to obtain. For the sake of the apple of wisdom, it wouldn’t be strange if she came to attack them in person.

Although there was the treaty of the gods, but if the Goddess of Nagas was willing to pay a huge price, she could break the agreement for a short moment and attack mortals.

Yang Feng responded with a faint smile: “Don’t worry, I already made arrangements for that scenario!”

Faldina took a deep look at Yang Feng, then smiled and said no more.

Inside the East Sea Palace.

The beautiful Legend rank naga general knelt in front of the Naga Empress Stephania, trembling.

Stephania looked at the beautiful general and said coldly: “Jenna, since you were defeated, I will strip you of all your official positions. Go to the front line camp as a soldier and redeem yourself!”

Jenna heaved a long sigh of relief and replied respectfully: “Yes! Your Majesty!”

Stephania uttered coldly: “Take your leave!”

Jenna immediately complied: “Yes! Your Majesty!”

Stephania lightly tapped with her finger on the armrest of her throne. There was a brilliant gleam in her eyes, and she murmured: “Since he can defeat Jenna and her army, then that Ian of the Black Dragon Country mustn’t be underestimated! No wonder he’s a legendary character who established the Miracle City in the Red Earth Wasteland!”

The other merfolk were one thing, but the Naga Empress Stephania was a peerless expert who vied over the entire Feisuo Plane. After Yang Feng’s dazzling performance, with just a little bit of research on her part, she found out about his origins on the Feisuo Plane.

Chapter 427 – Goddess of Nagas Daphne

Stephania hesitated for a moment, then a peculiar light glimmered in her beautiful eyes, and she got up and walked towards the back of the palace.

Deep in the East Sea Palace, there was an exquisite temple.

When Stephania entered the temple, she prostrated herself on the floor, and, without looking up, said respectfully: “Mighty Goddess, we were defeated! Ian killed my troops using mystical golems. I’m not sure if I can defeat him. Only if you go in person, Goddess, can he be stopped from going to the Golden Strait.”

In the center of the temple, on a golden throne, sat a dazzling and noble woman with six arms. This dazzling woman was the Goddess of Nagas Daphne’s clone that descended into the secular world.

In the secular world, only the Goddess of Nagas Daphne was qualified to have the Naga Empress Stephania kneel.

Daphne slowly opened her eyes, which were golden, and golden light slowly shot out of her eyes. When she had her eyes closed, it seemed like she was fused with heaven and earth, just like a stone statue. But when she had her eyes opened, a boundless divine might pervaded the temple.

Under the fearsome pressure from the divine might, Stephania’s pretty face changed, and her delicate body tremble.

The Goddess of Nagas Daphne swept Stephania with her golden eyes and uttered apathetically: “I see! Take your leave!”

Stephania responded deferentially: “Yes, mighty Goddess!”

With a flash of brilliant azure light, the Goddess of Nagas Daphne disappeared.

The East Sea.

Yang Feng was sitting on the Black Steel Warship’s bridge, Arlet was kneel sitting in front of him, and two top dragonborn beauties were peeling fruits for him. There were still two other dragonborn beauties behind him carefully massaging his body.

All of a sudden, waves billowed and roiled, and the Goddess of Nagas Daphne with a peerless complexion and noble temperament suddenly emerged from the sea. Staring coldly at Yang Feng, she headed his way while treading on waves.

“A god!! That’s going too far!! How come a god came to take care of me? That’s too shameless! And it’s the Goddess of Nagas Daphne to boot! She’s an intermediate divine force rank god!” When he saw the Goddess of Nagas Daphne, Yang Feng’s face suddenly fell. He had expected that the Naga Empress would lead a merfolk army to fight against him!

Even if the entire East Sea came to fight him, Yang Feng wouldn’t be the least bit afraid. But the one who came was the Goddess of Nagas Daphne. Even though it was just a clone whose power was suppressed to the demigod rank, but he still didn’t feel assured of his victory.

There was a flash of horror in Faldina’s pretty eyes, and she exclaimed: “The Goddess of Nagas!”

“The Goddess of Nagas!” When these words were spoken, the faces of the surrounding dragonborn fell, and they looked at the Goddess of Nagas Daphne coming their way with fear in her eyes.

Gods were supreme, this was a fact that all intelligent life forms on the Feisuo Plane learned when they were young. When the dragonborn experts heard that a clone of a true god descended into the secular world and appeared right in front of them, they naturally were overcome with shock and fear.

Daphne appeared and disappeared above the sea. She seemed to be moving extremely slowly, though in reality was very quickly approaching the Black Steel Warship. A boundless and terrifying divine might spread with her as the core.

Under the pressure of the terrifying divine might, the dragonborn on the three legendary warships involuntarily knelt on the ground, trembling all over, their eyes filled with fear.

After receiving Yang Feng's nurture, Arlet made great progress in her cultivation. She was already a quasi-Starry Sky Warlock rank expert. Nevertheless, she still shivered and knelt on one knee, unable to budge.

"Well met, mighty Goddess of Nagas!" Despite the pressure of the divine might, Yang Feng got up and gave a salute to Daphne in the distance.

When she saw that Yang Feng was able to resist her divine might, Daphne's majestic golden eyes flickered with an enigmatic gleam, and she uttered aloofly: "Petty mortal, to be able to resist my divine might, you are a genius among mortals. I'm very appreciative of you! Renounce your old faith and believe in me, and I will grant you endless power and glory. The whole East Sea shall be your domain. In the future, I will grant you power and let you become a true god!"

Yang Feng spread his hands and uttered, a pious expression on his face: "Mighty Goddess of Nagas! I am a most devout believer of the great Goddess of the Weave Gargarstave! I have already resolved myself to dedicate everything of mine to the mighty Goddess of the Weave Gargarstave. I can feel her gaze on me at all times!"

The Goddess of Nagas Daphne frowned. A strong divine force god wasn't someone she would easily offend. If it was in normal times, she would fully abide by the rules of the game of the gods and let the Naga Empress lead countless merfolk experts to besiege Yang Feng. But for the sake of the apple of wisdom, she resolved herself to send her clone.

Daphne pondered for a while, then her majestic golden eyes sparked with golden light, and she looked directly at Yang Feng.

Yang Feng's heart shook, and he operated a secret method to securely conceal the Warlock life force inside him and simulate the path of magic and martial dual cultivation.

The golden light inside the Goddess of Nagas Daphne's eyes extinguished, and she said coldly: "Mortal, I command you not to go to the Golden Strait! Return to your Black Dragon Country!"

Yang Feng responded politely yet decisively: "I'm very sorry, but I must get the apple of wisdom! Even someone as great as you can't make me change my will!"

The Goddess of Nagas Daphne frowned and uttered coldly: "The East Sea contains countless natural disasters! You would do well to take care!"

A wave rolled over, and Daphne disappeared.

Yang Feng secretly loosened a breath.

Just then, roiling dark clouds covered the entire sky and plunged the world into darkness. The originally calm sea erupted with billowing wind and waves. Accompanied by rumbling thunder, silver lightning danced in the dark clouds. A dense hail dropped down from the sky.

The dragonborn experts aboard the three legendary warships hid inside.

When the hail hit the three legendary warships, it gave off a sound similar to when rain hit banana leaves.

The temperature instantly dropped to below zero, and everyone was forced to urge their power to resist the biting cold.

Amid the billowing wind and falling hail, a violent tornado formed in the distance, getting bigger and bigger.

A copious amount of seawater was drawn in by the tornado, forming a huge whirlpool.

The horrifying tornado capable of devouring the three legendary warships swept their way at an amazing speed. This natural disaster was even more powerful and terrifying than a level-5 divine spell.

Once the three legendary warships were drawn into this horrifying tornado, even if they weren't destroyed, they would be carried away, and might even be blown out of the East Sea all together.

The Goddess of Nagas Daphne exploited the unique geography and climate of the East Sea and unleashed divine force. Combining divine force with the force of nature, she formed this exceedingly terrifying tornado.

"Dispel! Advanced Dispel!" Faldina's countenance changed, then she silently recited an incantation and pointed at the tornado, and magic light entered tornado.

When Dispel and Advanced Dispel capable of dispelling sustained spells entered the huge tornado, they disappeared without any effect.

The giant tornado formed from the combination of divine force and the force of nature was not something that ordinary Dispel could dispel.

Yang Feng spoke with a cold smile: "Sure enough, before large enough benefits, any agreement is null and void! Dive!"

Armor extended from the Black Steel Warship, and, as if a Transformer, the warship quickly transformed into a huge submarine.

The Ghost Ship and Dragon Bones Warship immediately arrived next to the Black Steel Warship. Armor extended from the Black Steel Warship and formed two huge ship's hold that wrapped around the two legendary warships, and then they quickly dived towards the bottom of the sea.

Despite the billows in the sky, the interior of the sea was tranquil.

The terrifying tornado was approaching with increasingly greater speed.

Inside the sea, a fearsome whirlpool was quickly approaching.

When the three warships were 400 meters away from the bottom of the seabed, the fearsome whirlpool formed by the tornado enveloped the tail of the Black Steel Warship, and a terrifying suction force suddenly shrouded the tail of the warship, dragging it slowly towards the whirlpool.

Yang Feng ordered coldly: "Drop the tail armor!"

As if a lizard shading its tail, the Black Steel Warship's tail broke off, and then was swallowed by the frightening whirlpool, carried up, and tossed into the sky.

The one-third of the Black Steel Warship that wasn't swallowed by the tornado continued towards the Golden Strait.

The Goddess of Nagas Daphne strangely appeared behind the Black Steel Warship. Her golden eyes shimmering gloomily, she pointed with the blue spear in her hand at the Black Steel Warship, and a terrific divine force fluctuation suddenly formed on the blue spear.

In a split second, a fearsome whirlpool suddenly formed, swept towards the Black Steel Warship, and enveloped the warship. Winding around the Black Steel Warship, the whirlpool dragged the warship towards the whirlpool formed by the tornado.

Chapter 428 – Seriously Injuring the Goddess's Clone

Yang Feng's countenance changed, and he ordered: "Acting directly, how shameless! Release the sea hunters!"

Hatches on the Black Steel Warship opened, and the sea hunters poured out, parted their sharp teeth, and bit at the huge whirlpool.

The pretty eyes of the Goddess of Nagas Daphne flickered with scorn, and she sneered: "Fool! That's a divine spell! Physical attacks are useless!"

In the next moment, an incredible scene suddenly took place.

The frightening whirlpool strangely disappeared. The sea hunters had the ability to devour energy, and divine force was no exception. This was their most terrifying characteristic.

When she saw this, the complexion of the Goddess of Nagas Daphne finally changed slightly.

Yang Feng mused with a sneer: "My sea rippers naturally aren't simple. They're battle robots capable of devouring any type of energy!!"

After the sea rippers devoured the huge whirlpool, the large positron artillery on the Black Steel Warship aimed at the Goddess of Nagas Daphne.

Although the large positron artillery wasn't as powerful as the super large positron artillery on the ark battlestar, but it could still pierce through the life force field of Moonlight Warlock rank experts and seriously injure them.

The eyes of the Goddess of Nagas Daphne shimmered angrily, and she spoke coldly: "Petty Mortal! You want to attack me? Attack a mighty true god!"

Ever since the Goddess of Nagas Daphne ascended to godhood, no one has dared to attack her. Even if it was just a clone, no one dared to attack her.

Yang Feng scanned the holographic projection of the Goddess of Nagas Daphne and sneered, not saying a word. Annoyed, he didn't care that Daphne was a true god.

Now that the planar tide has arrived, dark times were imminent. In these chaotic times, Legend rank experts were everywhere and demigods were common, and you could randomly meet clones and even true bodies of gods. The gods were no longer as majestic as they used to be.

The gods possessed far longer life spans and greater strength than other experts of the same rank. They were at the summit of virtually every plane. Even on the Cangzhi Plane, only the most outstanding genius could deal with gods of the same realm.

But the gods also had many weaknesses, the biggest of which was the planar tide. Gods were at their weakest during the planar tide.

Yang Feng said coldly: "Great Goddess of Nagas, please stop. Considering that you are a god, I can sweep what happened today under the rug. Otherwise!"

When he said this, Faldina's complexion changed, and she stared at him as if at a stranger. This was the first time that she saw someone disrespect a true god. Moreover, it wasn't a feeble divine force rank god like the God of Pirates, but an intermediate divine force rank merfolk god.

"How brazen!! Petty human! How dare you threaten me!! Threaten a true god!! You can go and die!" Furious, the Goddess of Nagas Daphne pointed at the Black Steel Warship with the god armament Spear of the East Sea, and a fearsome fluctuation of power emerged from the spear.

A copious amount of water elemental particles frenziedly converged on the Spear of the East Sea, and then three water blades slashed towards the Black Steel Warship at the frightening speed of 10 times the speed of sound in an instant, ignoring the laws of physics.

Practically at the same time, a dense number of sea hunters opened their energy shields and gathered together to form a huge energy shield to block in front of the three water blades.

The three water blades easily cut through the energy shield formed by the countless sea hunters and cut apart more than 100 sea hunters, and then mercilessly slashed at the energy shield just activated by the Black Steel Warship.

Boom!! With a blare, the energy shield of the Black Steel Warship was instantly shattered, and the three water blades containing the law of water slashed at the Black Steel Warship. The three water blades left three deep gushes on the Black Steel Warship, and a copious amount of seawater poured into the warship.

A large number of engineering robots inside the Black Steel Warship quickly went to the damaged area to repair the warship's armor.

Yang Feng's eyes flashed with a cold light, and he ordered at once: "Since you have shed all pretenses of cordiality, then go to hell!"

A large number of sea hunters poured out of the Black Steel Warship and rushed towards the Goddess of Nagas Daphne in a strange manner.

Concealed amid the sea hunters, space disruptors rushed towards the Goddess of Nagas Daphne as well. These space disruptors have been modified into sea warfare types. And although their movement speed was fairly impaired due to the water environment, but they could still display their function.

“Despicable mortal, you dare to attack me! You’re dead! Today, I’ll show you the consequence for offending a true god!” The Goddess of Nagas Daphne looked at the sea hunters with a fierce gleam in her eyes, and she slashed with the god armament Spear of the East Sea.

A divine country composed by an endless sea with and a dozen islands suddenly appeared, and a boundless aura filled with the law of water spread from the divine country.

Waves churned and roiled inside the divine country.

A 500-meter-long octopus with numerous tentacles exuding Moonlight Warlock rank aura suddenly appeared inside the divine country and climbed out of the opening cut open by the Spear of the East Sea.

As soon as the giant octopus climbed out of the Goddess of Nagas’ divine country, its pinnacle Moonlight Warlock rank aura dropped to the pinnacle Starry Sky Warlock rank.

When the 500-meter-long octopus crawled out of the divine country, it immediately opened its serrated mouthpiece and sucked in.

A terrifying whirlpool emerged from the octopus’s mouthpiece and swept towards the sea hunters.

The sea hunters were dragged into the octopus’s mouthpiece by a fearsome suction force, and then were crushed to pieces and swallowed.

In addition to using its mouthpiece to attack, the giant octopus also had more than 100 tentacles. As if vipers, the tentacles slapped the sea hunters and shattered them to pieces.

“Die!” Yang Feng swept the Goddess of Nagas Daphne with a glance and uttered frigidly.

The large positron artillery on the Black Steel Warship shone, and a brilliant beam of light tore through the sea and barreled towards the Goddess of Nagas Daphne in a split second.

The hidden space disruptors also launched, and spatial disruption ripples spread in all directions, hindering the Goddess of Nagas Daphne from escaping the positron barrage via spatial spells.

The Goddess of Nagas Daphne slashed with the god armament Spear of the East Sea, and a terrifying spatial fluctuation immediately enveloped her.

Using a spatial spell to evade a powerful attack was a subconscious move any god would make. Few gods would stand in place and use defensive spells to resist powerful attacks.

When the spatial fluctuation appeared, it was neutralized by the spatial fluctuations released by the space disruptors.

The Goddess of Nagas Daphne distorted, yet she still stood in her original position. Her expression flickered, and the positron beam hit her at once, directly blasting her lower body apart.

There was a flash of excitement in Yang Feng's eyes: "Is it over?"

Faldina felt her chest constrict as she stared at the holographic projection. To dispose of a god's clone, this sacrilegious action left the fairly rebellious her full of excitement, shivering all over.

There was a ripple in the water, and then water elemental particles bubbled out of the Spear of the East Sea, and then quickly interwove and condensed in the lower body of the Goddess of Nagas Daphne.

"You dare to wound me! You humble human ant, you dare to wound me!" The Goddess of Nagas Daphne was so angry that flames nearly came out of her golden eyes, and her delicate body shuddered. She exuded endless killing intent.

Although the Goddess of Nagas Daphne's body was completely restored, but she was seriously injured by the positron beam nonetheless. If it was an ordinary pinnacle demigod rank expert who was in her shoes, they would have been killed just now. But due to her intermediate divine force rank combat sense, she managed to unleash a spell at the critical moment and forgo annihilation.

"I not only dare to wound you, but also kill you!!" Now that all pretenses of cordiality were shed, Yang Feng had no misgivings any more. He released the Dragon Bones Warship and the Ghost Ship.

The positron artillery on the Dragon Bones Warship and the Ghost Ship took aim at the Goddess of Nagas Daphne.

"There's no use, humble mortal!! I was slightly injured just now due to carelessness. But as long as I'm prepared, you petty ants are fundamentally unable to wound me." The pretty eyes of the Goddess of Nagas Daphne shimmered frigidly, and she spoke with a cold smile. Then, she blurred, and waves rose on her body, as if she had with the sea water.

Yang Feng sneered: "A fool who thinks she's clever! You aren't my target!"

In a flash, two positron beams tore through the sea water, struck the Goddess of Nagas Daphne, and easily passed through her. Then, the positron beams slammed into the octopus's eyes and directly ran through them, and a copious amount of blood shot out of its eyes. The ferocious octopus was seriously injured.

Chapter 429 – Collaboration

Making use of the law of water, the Goddess of Nagas Daphne has fused with the sea water, and even the positron beams couldn't harm her. However, she wasn't Yang Feng's target to begin with. His target was the giant octopus with nearly endless power she commanded.

The giant octopus was a pinnacle Moonlight Warlock rank extraordinary life form. Even after the positron beams ran through its eyes, it still didn't die. Its shattered eyes regenerated at an incredible speed.

Taking advantage of the moment when the giant octopus was severely injured, a school of sea hunters following strange trajectories rushed towards the giant octopus, and then started devouring its hundreds of tentacles.

The sea hunters also swam towards the giant octopus's eyes and frantically gnawed at them, prompting the giant octopus to scream shrilly from the unbearable pain.

Although the giant octopus was far more powerful and talented than ordinary Moonlight Warlock rank powerhouses, but faced with the countless sea hunters, it stood no chance.

In fact, among the countless planes, human Warlocks were most apprehensive of running into intelligent other race experts of the same rank. As for extraordinary life forms who didn't possess much intellect, they weren't that apprehensive of them. Some Great Warlock rank human Warlocks could even kill Moonlight Warlock rank extraordinary life forms with glaring weaknesses by relying on special means.

"Whirlpool Water Blade!" The Goddess of Nagas Daphne slashed with the god armament Spear of the East Sea. A fearsome whirlpool suddenly sprang up around the giant octopus, and countless water blades wildly slashed at the sea hunters around the giant octopus.

Under her precise control, the sharp water blades frantically sliced and diced a large number of sea hunters around the giant octopus.

A large number of sea hunters dauntlessly rushed towards the fearsome whirlpool of water blades, opened their mouths, and devoured the divine force and energy contained inside the whirlpool.

In less than 30 seconds, the frightening whirlpool of water blades was devoured by the fearsome sea hunters.

"Sea God Divine Domain!" The face of the Goddess of Nagas Daphne registered a slight change, and tremendous divine might spread from her as the center.

The phantom of her divine domain rose behind the Goddess of Nagas Daphne, and a beam of azure divine force shot out and entered the goddess.

A boundless aura and azure light spread from the Goddess of Nagas.

Any place the azure light touched was integrated into the Sea God Divine Domain.

Within the scope of the Sea God Divine Domain, countless sharp water blades suddenly shot out and slashed at the sea hunters, slicing hundreds of thousands of sea hunters into numerous broken parts in a flash.

Yang Feng looked at this scene with a look of horror in his eyes, tightly gripping the button for the nuclear launcher: "So strong!! So this is the power of an intermediate divine force rank god. Even if it's just a demigod rank clone, but backed by divine force, the power she can unleash is comparable to that of a Moonlight Warlock."

The Black Steel Warship was equipped with dozens of nuclear warheads. If necessary, Yang Feng will launch the nuclear warheads without hesitation to attack the Goddess of Nagas Daphne.

When the fearsome azure divine domain extend to in front of the Black Steel Warship, Daphne suddenly trembled slightly, and golden blood oozed out of the corners of her mouth.

The phantom of the divine country behind her also trembled, and then collapsed and disappeared.

The corners of Yang Feng's mouth rose: "Well done! To use god rank power during the planar tide, how reckless!"

During the planar tide. The Feisuo Plane's secular world could accommodate pinnacle demigod rank power at most. Once someone used power exceeding the pinnacle demigod rank, they would suffer a backlash.

The god armament Spear of the East Sea in hand, standing atop the huge octopus, the Goddess of Nagas Daphne spoke in an aloof tone of voice: "Ian, your golems have been eliminated! Surrender now!"

After the hundreds of thousands of sea hunters were destroyed by Daphne, the giant octopus healed at an incredible speed, its hundreds of tentacles included. Exuding terrifying aura, it stared fixedly at the three legendary warships.

"Is that right? Mighty Goddess of Nagas Daphne, I still have many more golems! Please go ahead and destroy them all!" Yang Feng's voice rang out in the sea, and countless sea hunters poured out of the Black Steel Warship again and formed a terrifying school of fish confronting Daphne.

When she saw this, Daphne inhaled a mouthful of cold water.

If it wasn't for the planar tide, the Goddess of Nagas Daphne could easily instakill Yang Feng together with the countless sea hunters. However, under the effect of the planar tide, even if her true body descended, she still could wield pinnacle Starry Sky Warlock rank power at most.

In the East Sea, her true body could even kill a Moonlight Warlock rank expert by drawing support from her divine force and comprehension of the law of water. However, she not only had many enemies, but still may not be able to defeat Yang Feng. A misstep could lead to her downfall. It was due to this possibility that she fundamentally wouldn't have her true body appear.

Yang Feng continued with a smile: "Great Goddess of Nagas Daphne, there is no deep hatred between us. Personally, I think it's more beneficial for us to be friends than enemies."

Daphne smiled lightly, and then retracted the terrifying divine might she exuded in an instant, and the Spear of the East Sea in her hand also vanished. She uttered indifferently: "Ian, you really have the qualifications to communicate with me on equal terms. It's more beneficial for us to be friends indeed!"

The giant octopus slashed with its hundreds of tentacles and raised countless currents rushing towards the Black Steel Warship.

Aboard the Black Steel Warship, the numerous dragonborn experts watched the giant octopus with fear in their eyes.

When the Goddess of Nagas Daphne arrived near the Black Steel Warship, her figure blurred, and she appeared on the deck of the Black Steel Warship.

A flash of light enveloped her and sent her directly inside the Black Steel Warship, into a vast, luxuriously decorated banquet hall.

Inside the hall, there were numerous good-looking dragonborn men and women.

"I'm glad you're able to attend the banquet I threw for you, great Goddess of Nagas Daphne!" With a courteous smile on his face, Faldina wearing a black evening dress holding his right arm, Yang Feng came up to Daphne.

The Goddess of Nagas Daphne spoke indifferently: "Have them take their leave."

"Yes!" Yang Feng waved, and everyone left the hall.

The Goddess of Nagas looked at Faldina next to Yang Feng, and the latter very astutely took her leave. Now only Yang Feng and the Goddess of Nagas were left in the hall.

The two came to a sofa and sat down.

The Goddess of Nagas Daphne stared at Yang Feng and said apathetically: "Ian, you aren't from the Feisuo Plane. If I didn't guess wrong, you should be a human Warlock from the Cangzhi Plane, an Alchemist who inherited the secrets of the 6th Warlock Dynasty, the Golem Dynasty to boot."

Yang Feng replied with a smile: "That's right."

The sea hunters were full of incredible mechanical components. If the Goddess of Nagas couldn't guess Yang Feng's identity after seeing those mechanical components, then she wouldn't have deserved to be a god who wants to establish her own divine system.

The Goddess of Nagas Daphne uttered indifferently: "Did you come to the Feisuo Plane for the apple of wisdom?"

Yang Feng responded without concealing the truth: "Yes, I want to get the apple of wisdom."

The Goddess of Nagas Daphne spoke: "Very well, let's compete fairly! Mine divine chosen Grace will also go to the Golden Strait to seize the apple of wisdom. We can work together to blockade the Golden Strait. Once we reach the Golden Plain, we'll compete for the apple of wisdom according to our abilities. If you can get the apple of wisdom, then I'm willing to ally with you and help you become a god."

Yang Feng contemplated for a while before saying: "Okay!"

The Goddess of Nagas Daphne was an intermediate divine force rank god and the ruler of the East Sea. Even under the influence of the planar tide, she was still very powerful. Yang Feng naturally wouldn't refuse such an ally.

After they reached an agreement, the three legendary warships smoothly traveled towards the Golden Strait.

When they arrived at the Golden Strait, battleships, cruisers, and air carriers emerged from the Black Steel Warship.

Chapter 430 – White Royal Fleet

The apple of wisdom was hidden in the Golden Plain of the Golden Strait. With the Feisuo Plane's origin force as the energy source, the Time Lord has set up a huge array covering the entire Golden Strait. In this area, even god rank experts will be weakened and turned into mortals. Only Great Warlock rank powerhouses could enter the Golden Strait and the Golden Plain.

And before the apple of wisdom ripened, even Great Warlock rank powerhouses could not enter the Golden Plain.

The reason why the gods of the Zaliah divine system could enter the Golden Plain and accelerate the ripening of the apple of wisdom was that they have gathered the power an entire divine system and forcibly opened the road leading to the Golden Plain.

Now that the planar tide has arrived, the gods of the Feisuo Plane have been weakened to the extreme in the secular world. At this moment, even if all the gods of the Feisuo Planes joined hands, they wouldn't be able to break through the Golden Strait and open a road to the Golden Plain.

Because of this, Yang Feng's huge fleet that emerged from the Black Steel Warship only stayed outside the entrance of the Golden Strait. 20 fleets with air carriers as the core patrolled around the Golden Strait, ready to sink any ship that dared to approach.

His goal was to eliminate any warships that were qualified to enter the Golden Strait, to let as few people enter the strait as possible.

Atop the rolling sea, a stunningly beautiful woman dressed in a blue dress accentuating her supple curves, with long blue hair, eyes as beautiful as sapphires, skin white as jade, and a heroic and sensual temperament rode a wave.

<These waters belong to the great Black Dragon Country! Please announce your origins! Otherwise, we will label you as an enemy and wipe you out!> A tremendous voice echoed in the sea.

A warship fleet aimed countless artilleries at the gorgeous woman in a dress. So long as they were given the command, the countless artilleries will tear the gorgeous woman to pieces.

Also eyeing the intruder, countless sea rippers went to surround her below the surface of the sea

With a faint smile on her stunning face, the gorgeous woman parted her cherry lips and uttered in a magnetic voice: "I am Grace, I came to see His Majesty the great Emperor of the Black Dragon Country!"

<Please come in!> The huge fleet moved and revealed a path leading to the Black Steel Warship.

Grace looked curiously at the modern fleet as she drove the wave towards the Black Steel Warship.

When she reached the Black Steel Warship, the wave underneath her extended up and she appeared directly in front of the deck of the Black Steel Warship. With a light jump, she leaped onto the deck of the warship.

On a dais on the deck, there was a luxurious litter, and Yang Feng was reclining on it. Several beautiful dragonborn women peeling fruits for him were kneel sitting beside him.

There were also a dozen beautiful dragonborn dancers dancing gracefully on the deck.

When he had to practice cultivation, Yang Feng would work harder than anyone else. But when he could enjoy himself, he would never mistreat himself.

Grace looked deeply at Yang Feng, then bowed in salute and said: "Well met, Your Majesty!"

Yang Feng reclining on the litter glanced at the beautiful and enticing Grace and uttered in an aloof tone, sounding a little haughty: "Is your merfolk army here? According to my agreement with the great Goddess of Nagas Daphne, if you merfolk don't send troops, then you won't enter the Golden Strait."

When the two forces united, one was bound to suppress the other. If Yang Feng wants to gain the dominant position, then he must be aggressive and unyielding.

By now, the Black Steel Warship's top grade warp gate has been opened, and a stream of sea hunters was pouring out. Yang Feng's forces in the sea increased with each passing moment. Naturally, he had the confidence to speak to Grace in such a tone.

Grace smiled sweetly and uttered: "Yes, Your Majesty! The merfolk army is here. We are ready to cooperate with you, Your Majesty!"

Yang Feng casually pointed to the deck and said: "Take a seat!"

"Thank you, Your Majesty!" Grace smiled, swayed her hips, and sat on a chair on the deck.

"You came just in time! Our enemy is here!" Yang Feng suddenly raised his eyebrows and pushed a button next to him.

From the holographic projector installed on Black Steel Warship, rays shot out, intertwined, and formed a holographic projection of the battlefield above the deck.

They saw a huge fleet composed of more than 100 warships heading towards the Golden Strait being intercepted by the third steel fleet.

Grace's beautiful eyes flashed with a strange light, feeling awed: "This spell is so amazing! Is this a spell of a Cangzhi Plane's human Warlock? How astounding!"

As a divine chosen of the Goddess of Nagas Daphne, Grace's strength has reached the quasi-Starry Sky Warlock realm. Simultaneously, she possessed a sizable understanding of the other planes.

Restricted by the planar law, the true bodies of the Feisuo Plane's gods could not go to other planes, but their subordinates and clones could go to other planes on missionary expeditions.

Some of the lower planes have been occupied by the Feisuo Plane's gods and become the source of their faith. Grace had no reputation on the Feisuo Plane. But on a lower plane, she was known as the naga Valkyrie who once killed a hostile demigod rank expert. The Goddess of Nagas Daphne called this exceptional genius back from another plane and threw her into the battle for the wisdom apple.

When she saw the holographic projection, Grace's keen senses told her that the technology behind it was shocking. This technology enabled people to have a god's-eye view and fully grasp the goings-on on the battlefield. With this technology, even the most stupid person could easily become an unequaled general.

Faldina took a closer look at the huge fleet and smiled, saying: "That's the White Royal Fleet of the coastal state Anlu Kingdom. The fleet's main force is the legendary warship White Steel Warship. The commander of this fleet is the Anlu Kingdom's naval general Bandas! He defeated the West Sea's pirate kings on more than one occasion, and is one of the most formidable naval generals of the West Sea!"

Yang Feng smiled faintly and said with confidence: "What fleet? In front of my steel fleet, it's just a pile of dregs! It will soon be turned into pieces."

Faldina suddenly pointed to the White Steel Warship and said: "That one is Lance, a Legend rank hero who rose to prominence during the democalypse! According to my conjectures, he should be a god's darling or a divine chosen of the Goddess of the Sea Erronia. He's the fiancé of a princess of the Anlu Kingdom. This White Royal Fleet should be here to escort him!"

The holographic projection was really lifelike. Despite the small scale, an expert like Yang Feng could easily perceive even a random cook on a ship. After she enchanted herself with a spell, Faldina could clearly see everyone atop the White Steel Warship.

Yang Feng spoke: "It's a pity that the princess of the Anlu Kingdom will soon become a widow."

On the sea, in the center of the more than 100 warships of the White Royal Fleet, there was a 300-meter-long white warship forged entirely from white steel and covered in countless cannon hatches. This warship that looked kind of like the Black Steel Warship was precisely the legendary warship White Steel Warship.

On the dais of the White Steel Warship stood two men. One was a burly and handsome middle-aged man, while the other one was a handsome young man with short blue hair. The middle-aged man was the Anlu Kingdom's general Bandas, while the handsome young man was Lance.

<The people ahead, these waters belong to the mighty Black Dragon Country. Please announce your origins! Otherwise, we will label you as an enemy and wipe you out!" The steel fleet and the White Royal Fleet have yet to make contact, when a tremendous voice reverberated in the sea.

Bandas frowned and asked curiously: "Black Dragon Country? What sort of force is it?"

Lance responded with a light smile: "That's a force established in the Desolate Islands by six black dragons exiled from the Country of Dragons. Their naval power isn't worth mentioning."

There was a flash of contempt in Bandas's eyes, and he ordered: "So it's just some clowns. Heed my command! Destroy these clowns!"

The aborigines of the Desolate Islands were uncivilized barbarians. Although there may be some formidable experts among them, but on the sea, those experts had no room to give full play to their strength. Naval warfare was all about the comprehensive strength and shipbuilding capability of a state, while the monkey-like barbarians couldn't even build a warship.

Under Bandas's command, the more than 100 warships of the White Royal Fleet spread and rushed in the direction of the voice like hungry wolves, cutting through the wind and waves alike.

Before long, the shocking steel fleet composed of an air carrier, 50 destroyers, and 60 frigates appeared in front of the White Royal Fleet.