Chapter 601 – Terrifying Undying

In a fight, psyche is a very important part. Many Warlocks from prestigious backgrounds have a powerful cultivation base and astonishing secret treasures, but they are often killed by Warlocks of humble origins weaker than them. That's because their psyche is lacking, and they can't even display 30% of their ability in a fight.

Eight Ogre's words are also a weapon. As long as he can intimidate the opponent, the other party won't be able to exert their full strength.

Unfortunately for Eight Ogre, his threats have no effect against the undying Yang Feng named A-da. Robots have no psyche. They cannot erupt with power that exceeds their limit, nor can they be intimidated. They will only use 100% of their fighting power.

"This guy is a tough cookie." Eight Ogre stared at the immobile A-da, and a dignified glint streaked past his eyes. He silently recited an incantation. Strange patterns covered his body, and he expanded and turned into a three-meter tall Three-eyed Evil Ogre with an eye on the forehead.

Three-eyed Evil Ogres are evil ogres proficient in eye abilities, and their third eye possesses the power of illusions, breaking illusions, and distorting space. They are a powerful kind of evil ogres.

Face expressionless, A-da flipped its hands, and 2 two-meter-long high frequency starlight electromagnetic swords appeared in its hands.

High frequency starlight electromagnetic swords can cut through the life force field of Bright World Warlocks. They are the strongest melee combat weapon that can be mass-produced by the level-3 stronghold.

In front of Eight Ogre, A-da looks like an ordinary human standing in front of a giant evil ogre. It feels like the two are not on the same level.

Bai Yuxian spoke faintly: "Begin the match!"

As soon as Bai Yuxian's words fell, an after image flickered, and A-da disappeared from the spot. As if it went through Eight Ogre, it appeared behind the opponent.

"How, how is this possible! How... so fast!" With a look of horror and despair on his face, Eight Ogre screamed, and then his body collapsed into countless pieces of flesh that fell on the ground.

"Instakill!"

"A Starry Sky Warlock who was instakilled!"

"So fast speed. Is this a Warlock from Undying Mountain? How fearsome!"

The Warlock geniuses outside the arena inhaled a breath of cold air and looked at A-da with complex emotions in their eyes.

There was a dignified gleam in Zhan Mingtang's eyes: "What a formidable Warlock! Is this the underlying strength of the Undying Mountain? Sure enough, it's fearsome. It's worthy of being a Warlock group that once fought with the 6th Warlock Emperor Golem Lord in ancient times."

In addition to being envious, the reason why Zhan Mingtang provoked Yang Feng is because he wants to test the strength of the Undying Mountain.

After the collapse of the 5th Warlock Dynasty and before the establishment of the 6th Warlock Dynasty, the most powerful Warlock group in the Eastern World, the Undying Mountain, once chased the Golem Lord to the end of the world. Regarding the reappearance of this ancient Warlock group, the Warlock groups in the Li Gui Province are apprehensive and even fearful.

With this powerful counterattack to Zhan Mingtang's provocation, Yang Feng hopes to create an image of a silk pants who flings caution to the wind when fighting enemies. This way, anyone who wants to test the Undying Mountain must pay a bitter price. This can discourage the other Warlock groups from probing the Undying Mountain.

Ultimately, the Undying Mountain is a fictional force created by Yang Feng. Once this lie is exposed, he will be hunted down by countless forces. After all, the production method of the Bronze Warrior and Silver Warrior secret treasures can even tempt the Warlock groups at the level of the Five Heavenly Lords and Nine Heavenly Ogres. But with the fictional ancient force at his back, these powerful Warlock groups won't attack Yang Feng rashly.

Yang Feng said: "Zhan Mingtang, next!"

Zhan Mingtang smiled slightly and uttered full of confidence: "Lei Ming, I'm sorry to say, but I've seen through your Starry Sky Warlock. The next match will be your loss."

With that, Zhan Mingtang flicked his hand, and speck of light entered the tall Warlock's forehead.

Zhan Mingtang spoke: "Seven Ogre, go kill him!"

"Yes! Lord!" The body of the tall Warlock called Seven Ogre blurred, and he flew into the arena.

"Does the Undying Mountain's Starry Sky Warlock has a weakness?"

"What weakness can there be? That Starry Sky Warlock is so powerful that he instakilled Eight Ogre."

There was a touch of curiosity in the eyes of the young Warlocks. In their view, the Undying is incredibly powerful. It should be noted that before Eight Ogre joined Zhan Mingtang, he was a ferocious and violent Starry Sky Warlock who killed 10 Starry Sky Warlocks. Yet he was instakilled by the Undying.

As soon as Seven Ogre entered the arena, he silently recited an incantation, powerful spell fluctuation surged around him, and he pointed with a finger.

With a flash of light, air blades invisible to the naked eye yet sharp as knives appeared beside Seven Ogre.

Zhan Mingtang sneered: "This is the defensive spell Floating Blades which specifically restrains Warlocks who use high-speed movement spells. Your Warlock's life force isn't strong, yet he has such a terrifying speed. He must have pursued speed to the limit. However, in this way, he must be lacking in other aspects. As long as a targeting spell is set up, your subordinate will lose."

Yang Feng couldn't help but praise secretly: "He has a good eye. No wonder he's a peerless genius of the Zhan family."

The Undying is a high-speed 3rd generation battle robot that has its speed developed to the limit. The top speed of the Undying is Mach 25, which makes it even faster than some Bright World Warlocks who aren't proficient in flying spells.

Apart from its high speed and undying property, the parameters of the Undying are much lower than those of other 3rd generation battle robots. It has no other special abilities.

Bian Zixin praised with a look of joy on her face: "So that's how it is. As expected, Big Brother Zhan, you're really amazing. You could tell that Warlock's weakness at a glance."

The other Warlocks also showed an expression of realization.

Bai Yuxian said: "Begin the match!"

Bai Yuxian's words have just fallen, when the Undying Yang Feng named A-da suddenly turned into a stream of afterimages as it flew towards Seven Ogre, and then knocked into the air blades in an instant.

With its Mach 25 speed, the Undying was instantly chopped into nine pieces by the air blades. But the most important undying chip was not damaged.

A-da waved the 2 two-meter-long high frequency starlight electromagnetic swords clenched by its severed arms and slashed at Seven Ogre.

In a flash, Seven Ogre turned into numerous bloody pieces that scattered on the ground.

A-da's body chopped into several segments didn't shed a drop of blood. As if dragged by invisible threads, the segments gathered and glued back together. The Undying was completely restored in an instant.

"Shocking, too shocking. Is this a secret method of the Undying Mountain? How scary!"

"He didn't even die with his head chopped off, how awful!"

"Reportedly, some Infinity Warlocks who practice special secret methods won't die even if their head is cut off, their heart is pierced, their limbs are cut off, and their blood is drained. I didn't expect that the Undying Mountain's secret methods are so powerful that even a trifling Starry Sky Warlock can achieve this much.

"Is this an undying secret method? It's so powerful!"

Seeing this scene, the surrounding Warlocks breathed in cold air and discussed spiritedly.

In the world of Warlocks, many Infinity Warlocks who practice life-saving secret methods can preserve their life even if their head is severed, their heart is dug out, and their blood is drained. But in the Starry Sky Warlock realm, only Warlocks who practice special secret methods can accomplish the same.

The 5th Warlock Dynasty's Death Lord cherished the Life and Death Text he created very much. Only the Undying Mountain grasps his Life and Death Text.

After the 6th Warlock Dynasty's Golem Lord destroyed the Undying Mountain, he only got the remnants of two volumes of the Life and Death Text.

Due to the lack of the most essential parts, human Warlocks cannot create more powerful secret treasures from the remnants of the two volumes of the Life and Death Text. Therefore, in the Starry Sky Warlock realm, it is very rare to see a Warlock who has an undying secret method.

Zhan Mingtang inhaled cold air, and his eyes shimmered with apprehension: "Amazing. Is this the secret method of the Undying Mountain? How powerful!"

Bai Yuxian's beautiful eyes glimmered: "Astounding. They have 5,000 of such Warlocks, no wonder they are a Warlock group who could contend against the Golem Lord in the past. Even though they declined, but the secret method is still this powerful."

Yang Feng said flatly: "There's no need for the last match. Zhan Mingtang, please prepare the 10 million high grade magic crystals within one month."

Zhan Mingtang's face twitched, and he responded indifferently: "Fine!"

10 million high grade magic crystals is not a small number for Zhan Mingtang, but for the Zhan family as a whole, it is still manageable.

A-da's body flickered, and it returned to Yang Feng's side and stood silently like a sculpture.

The Warlocks of extraordinary origins looked at the four Undyings standing next to Yang Feng with an enigmatic glint in their eyes. The four Undyings who can even threaten Moonlight Warlocks are just ordinary bodyguards under Yang Feng's command. With this, the young Warlocks have more speculations about the strength of the Undying Mountain.

Chapter 602 – Secret Talks

After the challenge, the atmosphere became peaceful, and no one else came to provoke Yang Feng. Instead, the youngsters were enthusiastic about making friends with Yang Feng.

After the Flower Festival ended, Yang Feng returned to his chambers, and then frowned slightly and said coldly: "Who's there? Come out!"

"No wonder you're the Young Master of the Undying Mountain. To be able to detect my presence, how remarkable." Along with bright laughter, the space in a corner of the room rippled, and the beautiful like a fairy Bai Yuxian came out, smiling. She beckoned with her hand, and a white gauze flew into her lily-white hand.

Yang Feng praised: "Worthy of the Moonlight Seven Stars' Merak Star. To be able to conceal yourself from my servants, I'm impressed."

In fact, Yang Feng's residence is full of countless surveillance robots, and is equipped with various scanning systems. When Bai Yuxian sneaked into Yang Feng's residence, she has been discovered after she crossed the third line of defense.

To cross all the lines of defensive and enter Yang Feng's bedroom without being discovered, only Glorious Sun Warlocks proficient in stealth secret methods may accomplish this. However, Yang Feng naturally won't reveal that he already knew that Bai Yuxian has snuck in. If one day the two fall out, he can take advantage of this point, and give her a big surprise.

Yang Feng asked: "Miss Bai, what can I do for you?"

Bai Yuxian spoke with a smile: "Call me Yuxian. Does the Undying Mountain want to get their own territory in the Li Gui Province?"

Yang Feng's eyes flickered with intense light: "Of course we do!"

As a Warlock group who wants to return to the Cangzhi Plane, their biggest desire should be to get a footing in the Cangzhi Plane.

The Cangzhi Plane is a treasure land. But the places most abundant in resources are occupied by powerful Warlock groups. The Li Gui Province is rich in resources as well. Although the Li Gui Province can't produce Infinity Warlocks. However, it is entirely possible to cultivate an Infinity Warlock in some other place in the Cangzhi Plane with the Li Gui Province's resources.

As an ancient Warlock group who wants to return to the Cangzhi Plane, the Undying Mountain cannot possibly not want to gain a foothold in the Li Gui Province.

Bai Yuxian waved her porcelain finger gently and uttered full of enticement: "100,000 pieces of Silver Warrior and 5 million pieces of Bronze Warrior. As long as you give me these secret treasures, I can guarantee that the Undying Mountain will get a foothold in the Li Gui Province, and their territory will be as large as that of any of the Five Heavenly Lords and Nine Heavenly Ogres."

When he heard that, contempt shimmered in the abyss of Yang Feng's eyes. He responded with a smile: "Is the Great Cloud Dynasty planning to send troops to the Li Gui Province? Three years ago, the Great Cloud Dynasty expelled the Ten Great Sects from the Eastern World. It will take you at least 100 years to recover from this ordeal. His Majesty is wise and mighty. Naturally, he knows that the Great Cloud Dynasty should stay quiet at this time. How could he send troops to the Li Gui Province? If you don't send troops, then how can you seize such a large piece of land from the the Five Heavenly Lords and Nine Heavenly Ogres?"

The Emperor of the Great Cloud Dynasty Bai Wuqing is shrewd. After driving the Ten Great Sects out of the Eastern World, he began to recover his forces and reorganize the Imperial Court.

Everyone knows that the Great Cloud Dynasty will be able to recover its strength or even reach a higher level after several hundred years. During this period, the shrewd Bai Wuqing will never send a large number of troops to the Li Gui Province. Otherwise, if they lose, restless ambitious forces hidden in the Great Cloud Dynasty will rebel.

Bai Yuxian spoke with a sweet smile: "Although the Great Cloud Dynasty won't send an army into the Li Gui Province. However, there are ways for the Undying Mountain to gain a piece of land. Of course, the Undying Mountain must also send troops to cooperate with us when necessary."

Yang Feng asked curiously: "Which force does the Great Cloud Dynasty intend to tackle?"

Smiling silently, Bai Yuxian stared at Yang Feng with her limpid eyes.

Staying collected, Yang Feng picked up a glass of wine and sampled it calmly.

Bai Yuxian spoke with a sweet smile: "100,000 pieces of Silver Warrior and 5 million pieces of Bronze Warrior; give me these secret treasures and I will tell you."

Yang Feng refused decisively: "Please leave."

100,000 pieces of Silver Warrior and 5 million pieces of Bronze Warrior is equivalent to the all-out output of Yang Feng's bases for one month. These secret treasures can make a Warlock group with a single Moonlight Warlock standing guard be able to contend against a Warlock group with a Glorious Sun Warlocks standing guard.

Bai Yuxian wants to take away all those secret treasures by virtue of unreliable and incomplete information. Yang Feng can't agree to this.

Bai Yuxian smiled and said: "10,000 pieces of Silver Warrior and 500,000 pieces of Bronze Warrior. I can ask the higher-ups to grant you the title of major general of the Li Gui Province and viscount."

The Great Cloud Dynasty has inherited the governmental system of the Magic Note Dynasty, and its nobility is organized according to five titles – duke, marquis, count, viscount, baron. Viscount is already an aristocrat of very high standing. A title in the Great Cloud Dynasty is much more precious than that of other forces. No matter where they go, a viscount will have all kinds of privileges.

Yang Feng smiled and refused tactfully: "100 pieces of Silver Warrior and 10,000 pieces of Bronze Warrior, and I can consider it."

Bai Yuxian spoke with a light smile: "It's not impossible. However, I need your help. If you kill Zhan Mingtang, I can ask the higher-ups to confer you the title of count."

Yang Feng's eyes narrowed slightly, and he refused directly: "To kill Zhan Mingtang? Sorry, I don't have that kind of ability."

Zhan Mingtang is a peerless genius of the Zhan family of the Five Heavenly Lords and a future leading figure of the Zhan family. Yang Feng humiliated him and won a great bet against him in the Flower Festival. With the fictional Undying Mountain at his back, the Zhan family won't do anything to him.

However, if Yang Feng kills Zhan Mingtang, the Zhan family will mobilize all their power to kill Yang Feng. Even though he has the support of the Undying Mountain, he cannot resist the Zhan family's revenge.

Bai Yuxian spoke with a solemn expression: "The Great Cloud Dynasty has found out that the Zhan family has colluded with abyssal fiends and wants to destroy all other forces in the Li Gui Province."

Yang Feng said with a smile: "Collusion with abyssal fiends, what is there to fear?"

The endless Abyss runs through countless planes. Legend has it that is the dark side of the universe where the evil force of the countless planes gathers. There are countless powerful beings in the Abyss. But the Abyss is full of slaughter and chaos.

Abyssal fiends like to kill and devour each other the most. The most cruel, ruthless, and cunning abyssal fiends will receive the favor of the Abyss, and evolve very fast.

Without the control of a higher-level fiend, if 10,000 abyssal fiends are put together, they will be down to less than a 100 individuals a 10 plus days later.

The collusion between the Zhan family and abyssal fiends is simply a joke in Yang Feng's view. If the Zhan family opens a passageway for abyssal fiends to come to the Cangzhi Plane, the abyssal fiends will attack the experts of the Zhan family first because they are the closest.

Bai Yuxian said with a grave expression: "If it were ordinary abyssal fiends, there would be nothing to fear. But they colluded with Abyssal Fiend Grand Duke Poydul of the 666th floor."

A dignified gleam streaked past Yang Feng's eyes, and he uttered slowly: "So it's him! If it's him, then things will be tricky."

No one knows how many floors there are in the endless Abyss. But Abyssal Fiend Grand Duke Poydul on the 666th floor is famous throughout the Cangzhi Plane.

Poydul is a pinnacle Infinity Warlock rank abyssal fiend. He is cunning and wise, and has a fallen angel legion under his command.

The fallen angel legion was created by Poydul, who on one hand corrupted the angels of gods, and on the other hand used pure and holy souls and powerful soul stones coupled with a special method to make fallen angels.

Poydul's most famous exploit was when he sent the fallen angel legion to besiege and kill a Warlock Monarch after the 7th Warlock Dynasty Magic Note Dynasty collapsed. Later, when the 8th Warlock Dynasty collapsed, his fallen angel legion barged into the Cangzhi Plane and slayed another Warlock Monarch. Additionally, over the years, more than a 100 Infinity Warlocks died to his fallen angel legion.

Even though Poydul's fallen angel legion has suffered successive heavy losses, but it's still a very powerful army that Infinity Warlocks fear.

Poydul is one of the abyssal fiends of whom human Warlocks are the most apprehensive. In the endless Abyss, there is not a small number of abyssal fiends stronger than him. However, very few abyssal fiend lords have a fallen angel legion guarding them.

The 666th floor is also the most orderly floor of the Abyss. Compared with the rest of the Abyss, it resembles more the Infernal World controlled by devils. If the Zhan family colluded with Poydul, then the Li Gui Province may really fall into Poydul's hands.

Bai Yuxian spoke with an enticing tone: "Young Master Lei, if you kill Zhan Mingtang and expose the conspiracy of the Zhan family, you'll become the hero of the Li Gui Province. The Zhan family will be destroyed by the rest of the heavenly lords and heavenly ogres. In this way, won't the Undying Mountain have the opportunity to get involved with the Zhan family's territory?"

Yang Feng replied: "If there is no concrete evidence, I won't take action."

Bai Yuxian smiled sweetly and pushed an envelope in front of Yang Feng: "As long as you investigate these, you will get the evidence you want."

Chapter 603 – Zhan Ying

In the deepest part of a mine strictly guarded by the Zhan family, a Void Assassin stepped out of the void. After a moment, it entered back into the void.

In the moment it was out in the open, the Void Assassin has scanned the planar passageway under construction inside the mine.

In the mine, there is a Starry Sky Warlock with his eyes closed. He didn't notice that a Void Assassin has appeared here just now.

While examining the data, Yang Feng was thinking: "From the information she gave me, the Zhan family has really colluded with the Abyssal Fiend Grand Duke Poydul of the 666th floor. They want to unify the Li Gui Province. This is really bad news for the 'Undying Mountain' who is in the process of returning to the Cangzhi Plane. Similarly, the Great Cloud Dynasty is reluctant to see the Li Gui province being occupied by an abyssal fiend grand duke."

If the Li Gui Province is occupied by the Abyssal Fiend Grand Duke Poydul, he can use the province as a bridgehead to attack the Great Cloud Dynasty at will.

The Fallen Angels in the Fallen Angel legion require precious and powerful souls as well as soul stones to be produced. The best soul material for making Fallen Angels are the souls of human Warlocks. Therefore, once the Abyssal Fiend Grand Duke Poydul occupies the Li Gui Province, he will definitely attack the Great Cloud Dynasty and plunder the souls of human Warlocks.

Yang Feng sneered in his heart: "However, to have me take the initiative, wishful thinking. Even if the entire Li Gui Province is occupied by the abyssal fiends, I'll withdraw from the province at worst."

With the evidence of collusion between the Zhan family and the Abyssal Fiend Grand Duke Poydul in her grasp, since Bai Yuxian didn't announce it to the world, she clearly doesn't want to offend such a colossus as the Zhan family. She wants Yang Feng representing the Undying Mountain to break the facade and expose the Zhan family's plot, and have the Undying Mountain and the Zhan family become mortal enemies.

If the Undying Mountain really wants to use the Li Gui Province as a base for their return, they won't miss this opportunity. After all, only by getting rid of the Zhan family will space for the Undying Mountain to take root in the Li Gui Province be vacated. This is an irresistible overt plot.

But the Undying Mountain is a fictional force created by Yang Feng. If he can gain a footing in the Li Gui Province, that would be certainly for the best. But if he can't, Yang Feng can withdraw from the Li Gui Province and go to another place.

A crafty rabbit has three burrows. Before he entered the Li Gui Province, Yang Feng has prepared for failure.

10 days later, the Moon Heaven City, in a manor.

Soon after, Bai Yuxian sighed and said regretfully: "Unfortunately, I have to use another pawn now."

With a wave of her hand, a ray of white light entered the void in a flash.

Half a month later, a handsome young Warlock of dignified bearing entered the Water Moon Heaven.

Immediately after, an explosive news came from the Water Moon Heaven and spread to the whole Li Gui Province. The news states that the Zhan family of the Five Heavenly Lords colluded with Abyssal Fiend Grand Duke Poydul of the 666th floor of the Abyss.

When this news came out, a commotion broke out in the Li Gui Province.

Once the abyssal fiends come, it will be a huge disaster for the Li Gui Province. Although the abyssal fiends in the 666th floor of the Abyss are more orderly than the other abyssal fiends. But make no mistake, they won't refrain from slaughtering humans.

The Abyssal Fiend Grand Duke Poydul's Fallen Angel legion is fierce and powerful, but the birth of Fallen Angels is accompanied by the death human Warlocks.

Poydul won't care about the fate of human Warlocks. Once his Fallen Angel legion arrives at the Li Gui Province, they will certainly unleash a massacre and harvest the soul of Li Gui Province's human Warlocks.

When the Water Moon Heaven made a public appeal, apart from the Zhan family, the other Warlock groups of the Five Heavenly Lords and Nine Heavenly Ogres formed a Zhan Subjugation Alliance.

Almost 80% of the the Li Gui Province's Warlock groups joined the Zhan Subjugation Alliance, and Yang Feng has also joined the alliance on behalf of the Undying Mountain.

Although the Zhan family denied all the evidence released by the Zhan Subjugation Alliance, but the alliance still declared the Zhan family traitors of humans.

Under the orders of the Zhan Subjugation Alliance, the Warlock groups within the alliance all took people to the Wave Cloud Mountain City.

The Wave Cloud Mountain City is only five hundred kilometres away from the Zhan family's largest fortress Steel Fang Fortress. For Warlocks, this distance can be crossed in one hour.

So long as the Steel Fang Fortress is captured, the hinterland of the Zhan family will be exposed to the Zhan Subjugation Alliance, and the alliance will be able to attack the Zhan family from any direction. The Zhan family will only have left their holy land Wu Hui Tian City as their final line of defense.

The Wave Cloud Mountain City originally had a population of approximately 1 million people. But now 80% of Warlock groups in the Li Gui Province led their Warlock armies here and stationed around the city. Extending for hundreds of kilometres, you can see beautiful palaces everywhere.

Warlock means are incredible. Of course, the place where Warlock armies reside is not a simple barracks, but luxurious palaces. In the palaces, there are many ordinary people who serve the Warlock soldiers.

From the huge warship, 5,000 3rd generation battle robots and 100,000 2nd generation battle robots alighted orderly.

The 105,000 battle robots exude a jagged aura that is unique to elite Warlocks of the Other Plane Development Division, making those who see them bear fear in their heart.

A Warlock came to Yang Feng and said a little respectfully, "Excuse me, are you Young Master Lei from the Undying Mountain? I am Zhao Ming, the alliance's quartermaster. We have arranged an encampment for you outside the city!"

"Get out of the way, we're going into the city. If you don't let the Undying Mountain enter the city, then I will tear the Wave Cloud Mountain City down." Yang Feng pushed Zhao Ming to the side and took the 105,000 battle robots into the Wave Cloud Mountain City, domineering.

The elite troops commanded by the Five Heavenly Lords and Nine Heavenly Ghosts are stationed in the Wave Cloud Mountain City. On the surface, Yang Feng's Undying Mountain is not inferior to the Five Heavenly Lords and Nine Heavenly Ogres. So how can they stay outside the city like other ordinary Warlock groups?

Simulating soaring killing intent, the 105,000 battle robots barged into the Wave Cloud Mountain City together with Yang Feng.

The quartermaster flung aside by Yang Feng had no choice but to give up a place in the Wave Cloud Mountain City. Otherwise, the Undying Mountain's Warlock army would have a fight with a Warlock army inside the Wave Cloud Mountain City.

When Yang Feng returned to his bedroom, he glanced calmly at a corner of the room and said lightly, "Come out!"

"Amazing. I expected nothing less from the Undying Mountain's Young Master." A lady no less beautiful than Bai Yuxian dressed like a man and exuding an astonishing charm came out, a smile on her face.

The beautiful lady smiled sweetly and said: "I am Zhan Ying. Young Master Lei, won't you invite me to take a seat?"

Smiling a bit like a rogue, Yang Feng's gaze as sharp as a knife wandered about Zhan Ying's body: "Miss Zhan, to come to my quarters, I have to commend you for your bravery. Outside my quarters, there are 105,000 elites. As long as I give the order, Miss Zhan, you will be in a bind to get out of here. The Zhan family is now the public enemy of the Li Gui Province. If I capture you, I will make a great contribution to the Zhan Subjugation Alliance."

Zhan Ying is the number one beauty of the Li Gui Province as well as a peerless genius of the Zhan family, her status in the Zhan family even higher than that of Zhan Mingtang. She is the leading figure of the Zhan family's younger generation and the sole female heir of the Five Heavenly Lords and Nine Heavenly Ogres.

Although Hua Xiangxuan is the Young Mistress of the Secret Treasure City, but she is not the heir. She is only the daughter of the City Master of the Secret Treasure City, which is why she is addressed by others as Young Mistress.

The heirs of the Five Heavenly Lords and Nine Heavenly Ogres must be the most outstanding Warlock geniuses of the respective forces. Although Hua Xiangxuan is very remarkable, but she is not the most remarkable Warlock genius in the Secret Treasure City.

Yang Feng responded flatly: "Either you have been hiding here all along, or you have people on the inside."

At this moment, the Wave Cloud Mountain City has a detection barrier opened, and dozens of extraordinary life forms with detection abilities are stationed throughout the entrances of the city. It is extremely difficult for someone to sneak into the Wave Cloud Mountain City without alarming anyone.

Zhan Ying smiled sweetly and said: "Yes, we have people on the inside. If we want, the Warlocks in the Wave Cloud Mountain City can be easily eliminated. I came to invite the Undying Mountain to join the Zhan Family Alliance. As long as we win, the Li Gui Province will be in our pocket."

Yang Feng uttered: "The Five Heavenly Lords and Nine Heavenly Ogres have formed an alliance. Faced against such a force, I fail to see how the Zhan family can win. In the Li Gui Province, even the Great Cloud Dynasty is not their opponent."

Zhan Ying offered a very generous condition: "If a major event takes place, you can choose to stay neutral. After the Zhan family and them have decided the victor, you are welcome to join the Zhan family."

Chapter 604 – Insidious Scheme

Yang Feng pondered for a moment, and then said lightly: "I can consider it."

Zhan Ying smiled, and then her body disintegrated and disappeared: "Then I'll wait for your good news!"

Only the fragrance lingering in the room served as proof that the beautiful girl was here. Sitting on the sofa, Yang Feng revealed a pensive look.

In the Wave Cloud Mountain City, the Cloud Mist Hall is the headquarters of the Zhan Subjugation Alliance.

In the Cloud Mist Hall, there is a dais suspended in midair. The dais is distributing 13 faint Bright World Warlock rank fluctuations of power.

The Zhan Subjugation Alliance is a huge Warlock alliance formed by most of the Warlock groups in the Li Gui Province. If this force is grasped, unifying the Li Gui Province is entirely possible.

The ambitious and ruthless Five Heavenly Lords and Nine Heavenly Ogres naturally attach great importance to this alliance. As such, Bright World Warlocks who won't easily leave their headquarters came here to compete for the leadership of the Warlock alliance.

Underneath the suspended dais, there are 13 seats. The thirteen seats are occupied by the Sect Masters and Patriarchs of the Five Heavenly Lords and Nine Heavenly Ogres. They represent the will of the 13 Bright World Warlocks hidden on the dais.

On the two sides of the Cloud Mist Hall, the leaders of different Warlock groups stand in accordance with the strength of their Warlock group, their numbers impressive.

As the representative of the Undying Mountain, Yang Feng stands on the right side of the hall closest to the Five Heavenly Lords and Nine Heavenly Ogres.

Following the competition between Yang Feng's and Zhan Mingtang's subordinates, the reputation of the Undying Mountain's elite troops spread in the Li Gui Province. The Undying Mountain's army formed by 5,000 Starry Sky Warlock rank 3rd generation battle robots can even daunt Glorious Sun Warlocks.

The strength of the Undying Mountain is deep and unmeasurable, this is a fact recognized by all Warlock groups in the Li Gui Province. The Undying Mountain is regarded as a Warlock group second only to the Five Heavenly Lords and Nine Heavenly Ogres.

Many Warlock groups even think that the Undying Mountain is more powerful than the Five Heavenly Lords and Nine Heavenly Ogres. But the Undying Mountain has never revealed a Bright World Warlock. Thus, it cannot compare to the Five Heavenly Lords and Nine Heavenly Ogres.

The Song family's Patriarch Song Tianxiong of the Five Heavenly Lords spoke unhurriedly: "Since everyone is here, then I will announce our decision. The Zhan family is declared a traitor to the Li Gui Province and to humanity. After destroying the Zhan family, the Zhan family's territory shall be divided according to everyone's contributions in the war."

The Five Heavenly Lords and Nine Heavenly Ogres are the leaders of this coalition, while Song Tianxiong is the nominal leader. The Song family is the weakest force among the Five Heavenly Lords and Nine Heavenly Ogres. Song Tianxiong was able to become the nominal leader of this coalition as a form of compromise of the many forces.

The bland words made the eyes of many Warlock group leaders lit up and flicker with excitement.

The Li Gui Province is a lesser province larger than many of the 36 greater provinces of the Great Cloud Dynasty. As one of the Five Heavenly Lords, the underlying strength of the Zhan family is much greater than that of the entire Fuso Subcontinent.

If the Zhan family is wiped out, these Warlock groups can get land and resources. This is one of the main reasons why the Warlock groups actively joined the Zhan Subjugation Alliance.

Song Tianxiong's eyes fell on Yang Feng, and he said indifferently: "Lei Ming, is the Undying Mountain willing to be the vanguard and attack the Zhan family?"

The Steel Fang Fortress is one of the Zhan family's nine strongest fortresses. In fact, it is rated as the second most powerful fortress.

In the Steel Fang Fortress, there are numerous Warlock towers and Glorious Sun Warlocks standing guard.

If Yang Feng mobilized the 105,000 battle robots to attack the Steel Tooth Fortress, he is sure to run into a wall in front of the Steel Tooth Fortress.

Warlock means are unfathomable. The Undyings aren't completely invulnerable, and may be suppressed by powerful Warlocks with incredible spells. Of course, Yang Feng won't take the initiative to act as the cannon fodder of the Zhan Subjugation Alliance.

A slender Warlock dressed in a silver hat and a white robe embroidered with a silver dragon stepped out and said: "Great commander, I have something to say!"

Yang Feng looked at the Warlock. At a glance, he could tell that the Warlock is a Glorious Sun Warlock, the leader of the Silver War Dragon Warlock group Yue Yinhui.

In many small Warlock groups, the strongest experts are the Sect Masters and Patriarchs. Only in Warlock groups like the Battle Demon Sect who are a huge force with a long history, the ones in power are the Great Elders.

Song Tianxiong said lightly: "Yue Yinhui, speak your mind!"

Yue Yinhui smiled and made an astonishing statement: "I have conclusive evidence that Lei Ming and the Undying Mountain have colluded with the Zhan family."

As soon as this statement was made, the hall erupted into a hubbub, and eyes filled with dread, anger, killing intent, gloating, and other emotions focused on Yang Feng.

His voice frigid and filled with killing intent, Yang Feng spoke: "What evidence do you have that proves that I colluded with the Zhan family? If you don't give me a reasonable explanation, the Undying Mountain and the Silver War Dragon will become mortal enemies!"

"Of course I have evidence! Take a look!" Yue Yinhui raised the corners of his mouth, glanced at Yang Feng with a look of pity in his eyes, and spread the fingers of his hand, and a silver image crystal suddenly flew out and released light that formed a projection in midair.

In the projection, Zhan Ying appeared in Yang Feng's room, sat in front of Yang Feng, had a pleasant conversation with Yang Feng, and then disappeared.

Very cleverly, the recording in the image crystal was made from an angle that concealed Zhan Ying's mouth, making it look like Yang Feng and Zhan Ying are talking about something secret.

While watching the projection of the image crystal, the faces of many Warlock leaders became unsightly, and they gazed at Yang Feng full of hostility.

Anyone knows that once a traitor appears in the alliance, it will deal a serious blow to the alliance

Yang Feng just wanted to explain himself, when a spell to detect lies cast by the Chen Family's Patriarch Chen Sheng landed on him.

Pinnacle Glorious Sun Warlock rank might spread from Chen Sheng and shrouded Yang Feng, and he shouted in a stern voice: "Lei Ming, is everything depicted in the image crystal true?"

Aware that he fell into a trap, Yang Feng quickly defended himself: "It's true. But..."

"So it is true! In this case, your Undying Mountain colluded with the Zhan family. You wretched traitors! I, Chen Sheng, hate scum like you who collude with other races the most! Now stop resisting and surrender!" Chen Sheng's eyes flashed fiercely, and he extended his hand and grabbed Yang Feng.

"Don't kill..." Suddenly, a black rune seeped out from Yang Feng, and he issued a miserable scream, a look of despair in his eyes.

Rumble! With a loud noise, Yang Feng's body shattered into countless fragments.

Chen Sheng was taken aback: "Dead? What's going on? I didn't want to kill him!"

Song Tianxiong chanted an incantation and pointed with a finger, and a series of detection spells enveloped Yang Feng's original position, and the aura of a collapsed soul filled the area.

From the dais suspended in midair, a gray ray of light shot towards Yang Feng's original location. Countless small fragments flew up and formed a broken Moonlight Core in the air.

A bewildered voice came from the dais: "He's really dead?"

The Undying Mountain is a force with the Empyrean grade secret method Life and Death Text. Among Empyrean grade secret methods, the Life and Death Text has the most profound research on the law of life and death. Of the eight Warlock Emperors, the Death Lord has lived the longest.

The Young Master of the Undying Mountain Yang Feng died so easily. This carries a heavy stench of a conspiracy.

Resolve streaked past Song Tianxiong's eyes, and he ordered: "The Undying Mountain colluded with the Zhan family. I hereby declare the Undying Mountain a traitor to the Li Gui Province. Pass down my order, destroy the Undying Mountain's army immediately."

Now that Yang Feng has died here, the Zhan Subjugation Alliance has become mortal enemies with the Undying Mountain. Under such circumstances, the most proper course of action for the Zhan Subjugation Alliance is to destroy the Undying Mountain's army.

At the moment of Yang Feng's death, the 105,000 battle robots suddenly went crazy and went to break out of the Wave Cloud Mountain City.

Ye Sheng, a Moonlight Warlock of the Ye family, led more than 3,000 Ye family Warlocks to block in front of Yang Feng's mechanical legion and barked: "Stop! I am Commander Ye Sheng of the Zhan Subjugation Alliance! Anyone who moves shall be killed!"

The 5,000 Undying at the front suddenly accelerated to Mach 25. With a flash, Ye Sheng and the 3,000 plus Ye family Warlocks were chopped into numerous pieces.

After slaying the Ye families blockade, the 105,000 battle robots fled away.

"A bunch of idiots. To engage the Undying Mountain's elite soldiers head on, how moronic. To deal with these elites, you must exploit their weakness!" Zhao Kuangfeng, a burly Zhao family's powerhouse smiled coldly, took out a level-7 secret treasure Fire Bottle and aimed the secret treasure at the battle robots, and a fearsome attractive force gushed out from the bottle and sucked 300 2nd generation battle robot into the bottle.

The Fire Bottle flashed with light, and the 300 modified 2nd generation battle robots were burned to ashes.

Chapter 605 – Sudden Change

With his Glorious Sun Warlock rank cultivation base, Zhao Kuangfeng was barely able to chase after the 105,000 battle robots. Urging the secret treasure Flame Bottle to launch attacks, he destroyed 300 battle robots with each attack.

Wanting to fight back, the mechanical legion besieged Zhao Kuangfeng several times, but the opponent escaped easily via strange spells.

Making full use of the maneuverability of a Glorious Sun Warlock, Zhao Kuangfeng employed kiting to grind away at Yang Feng's mechanical legion. Besides, he only fought the mechanical legion when in his best form. Whenever he consumed a bit of life force, he would immediately fall back and restore his strength.

Struck dumb, the Warlock groups stationed around the Wave Cloud Mountain City didn't budge. They just stared blankly as Zhao Kuangfeng hunted the huge mechanical legion.

Inside the Cloud Mist Hall.

When the Warlock leaders thought of the scene where Yang Feng was killed just now, many of them had vague guesses about what is going on behind the scenes.

Among the Five Heavenly Lords and Nine Heavenly Ogres, many forces are unwilling to see the Undying Mountain appear in the Li Gui Province. That is probable why Yang Feng was killed before he could explain himself.

With Yang Feng dead, the Undying Mountain and the Five Heavenly Lords and Nine Heavenly Ogres have no room to mediate. The Zhan Subjugation Alliance can only unite to expel the Undying Mountain from the Li Gui Province.

Even if they saw through things, these clever people kept mum. They are much weaker than the Five Heavenly Lords and Nine Heavenly Ogres. Moreover, they have no ties of friendship with the Undying Mountain. Naturally, they aren't willing to speak out at the risk of offending the 13 top Warlock groups.

"Zhan family's messenger Zhan Ying seeks an audience!" Suddenly, a voice came from outside and sounded in the Cloud Mist Hall.

Song Tianxiong creased his eyebrows and said: "Let her in!"

When two forces are at war, they don't execute messengers. Unexpectedly, Zhan Ying is be the messenger of the Zhan family. Song Tianxiong naturally cannot just ignore her.

As soon as Zhan Ying entered the hall, the hall appeared to brighten up, and an enticing fragrance spread from her.

When the Warlock leaders in the hall saw Zhan Ying, their eyes lit up, and they mused.

The Li Gui province is a lesser province that is larger than many of the Great Cloud Dynasty's 36 greater provinces. Although the Li Gui Province is called a province, but it is much larger than many planes.

Zhan Ying is acknowledged as the most beautiful woman in the Li Gui Province, yet many Warlock leaders only heard of her name, and never saw her. Now seeing Zhan Ying's graceful bearing, the Warlock leaders have to admit that she deserves her reputation.

Song Tianxiong uttered coldly: "Zhan Ying, are you here to surrender on behalf of the Zhan family?"

Zhan Ying replied pitifully: "No, I came to tell you that the Zhan family hasn't colluded with the Abyssal Fiend Grand Duke Poydul. The evidence is forged. The people who falsified the evidence want to provoke a conflict between us. Gentlemen, scrutinize it, and you'll see the truth of the matter."

Song Tianxiong spoke coldly: "Zhan Ying, there's no need to quibble. We checked the evidences with detection spells. However, everything points to the Zhan family. The evidence is definitely not forged. No matter how the Zhan family quibbles, it is useless. If you came to just say this, then please go back."

"Since you won't listen to my explanation, Gentlemen, then please die!" Zhan Ying sighed faintly, then raised her lily-white hand, and a pair of butterfly wings suddenly emerged behind her. The wings flapped slightly, and starlight-like powder permeated the entire hall.

"Idiot! For a mere Moonlight Warlock to act wildly in front of us, how reckless! Since you attacked first, we won't be going against the rules if we kill you." A fierce flash in his eyes, Liu Boen smiled ferociously, and quasi-Bright World Warlock rank fluctuations of power spread from him.

Suddenly, the Ye family's Ye Nanshen waved his hand, and a 10-meter-long sword burst out and slashed out.

Taken off guard, Liu Boen was sliced into two by the giant sword.

In the next moment, an evil ogre Scapegoat engraved with countless runes appeared in the place Liu Boen has been just a moment. The Scapegoat has been cut in two, its vitality wiped out.

The space next to it blurred, and the perfectly fine Liu Boen emerged.

'Scapegoat' is one of the most advanced secret methods of the Nethermoon Ogre Dragon. Via various wicked secret methods, Liu Boen can make a Glorious Sun Warlock into a 'Scapegoat', which can die in his stead once.

Only a Monarch grade secret treasure of karma can kill Liu Boen with one sword strike without Scapegoat activating.

Both shocked and angry, Liu Boen bellowed: "Ye Nanshen, are you crazy?"

If Liu Boen hadn't refined two 'Scapegoats', he would have died at Ye Nanshen's hands at this time.

The giant sword in Ye Nanshen's hand is the level-7 secret treasure Black Death Sword. Once sliced by it, many life-saving secret methods of Glorious Sun Warlocks will be rendered useless, and they will die. Only a peerless secret method like 'Scapegoat' can block the Black Death Sword's killing blow.

Just as Liu Boen had his outburst, Bright World Warlock rank fluctuations of power came from the dais suspended in midair.

The dais exploded, and a violent shock wave spread out in all directions.

14 figures shot out from the dais. The 14 figures are divided into two sides, with seven figures on each side. Among the seven figures on one side, one has a black poisonous needle inserted into the back, while another has a black dagger pierced into the heart, and countless black runes covered his body.

The two severely injured Bright World Warlocks are slumped in the hands of other two Bright World Warlocks, their eyes glazed over.

"What's going on? Isn't that the Zhan family's Great Elder Zhan Hongtao? How did he appear here?"

"The Great Elders of the Seven Stars Abode and the Thunder Demon Sect were taken down by the Ye family's Great Elder Ye Chen and the Chen family's Great Elder Chen Lei. What the hell happened?"

The Warlock leaders of the Zhan Subjugation Alliance watched the Bright World Warlocks in midair with stunned expressions, and an unclear premonition welled up inside them.

The bodies of some of these Warlock leaders blurred, and they attempted to flee outside. A fight between Bright World Warlocks isn't something they can interfere in.

As soon as the Warlock leaders moved, they felt a slight pain in their heads, and their life force was drained continuously.

The Great Elder of the Water Moon Heaven barked with a ferocious expression on his face: “Ye Chen, you colluded with the Zhan family! Why? Why did you betray us?”

The handsome and scholarly-looking Great Elder Ye Chen of the Ye family smiled and answered: “The Li Gui Province is too small to contain so many forces. The Five Heavenly Lords are enough. There is no need for the Nine Heavenly Ogres to exist. It’s not that the Zhan family has colluded with the Abyssal Fiend Grand Duke Poydul, but the Five Heavenly Lords have colluded with the Abyssal Fiend Grand Duke Poydul in order to bury the Nine Heavenly Ogres here!”

Great Elder Song Jin of the Song family silently recited an incantation and waved his hand, and a huge gate appeared behind him. The gate opened, and a dense crowd of beautiful Fallen Angels with black wings on the back exuding temptation flew out.

Each Fallen Angels emits at least Great Warlock rank fluctuations of power, and there are many who emit Starry Sky Warlock and Moonlight Warlock rank fluctuations of power.

When the Great Elder of the Nethermoon Ogre Dragon saw the densely packed Fallen Angels, his heart sunk, and apprehension streaked past his eyes: “Fallen Angel legion? The Abyssal Fiend Grand Duke Poydul’s Fallen Angel legion!”

In the countless planes, in addition to the Abyssal Fiend Grand Duke Poydul, there aren’t many wicked beings that use pure souls and soul stones to create powerful Fallen Angels.

Abyssal Fiend Grand Duke Poydul’s Fallen Angel legion has emerged several times in the Cangzhi Plane, each time setting off numerous bloody storms. It even killed a Warlock Monarch rank expert. After going through the baptism of war for more than 100,000 years, the experts in the Fallen Angel legion are comparable to the strongest Warlocks of the same rank. Besides, they are proficient in fighting in a group, which is extremely troublesome.

The Great Elder of the Nethermoon Ogre Dragon yelled: “Kill them! They must not be allowed to summon Blazing Angel rank Fallen Angels. Otherwise, it will be troublesome!”

Blazing Angels are grade 9 angels with almost infinite evolution potential. Pinnacle Blazing Angels are terrifying beings that can fight with supreme gods. Of course, the weakest Blazing Angels have pinnacle Starry Sky Warlock rank power.

A Bright World Warlock rank Blazing Angel is comparable to a Bright World Warlock who has formed a virtual world. Only by using powerful secret treasures can human Warlocks defeat such Blazing Angels.

When Great Elder of the Nethermoon Ogre Dragon yelled, his body blurred, and he turned into a 1,000-meters-long Netherworld Ogre Dragon with one half of its body resembling the Netherworld and the other half resembling both a dragon and an ogre engraved with countless mysterious runes.

Chapter 606 – Dogfight

Netherworld Ogre Dragons are a kind of extraordinary life form that lives in the gap between the Netherworld and the Dragon Plane. Adult Netherworld Ogre Dragons possess Bright World Warlock rank power, and can even compete with some weak junior Infinity Warlock rank extraordinary life forms.

Netherworld Ogre Dragon is the highest level of bloodline in the Nethermoon Ogre Dragon Warlock group.

When the Great Elder of the Nethermoon Ogre Dragon transformed into a Netherworld Ogre Dragon, the Cloud Mist Hall burst due to the dragon's enormous body, and countless barriers collapsed.

The Great Elder of the Nethermoon Ogre Dragon extended his claw enveloped in nether breath towards the gate that is summoning Fallen Angels continuously.

Nether breath contains the law of nether. When contaminated by nether breath, the soul of ordinary people will enter the Netherworld and fall into Styx. The same is true to the Great Warlock rank Fallen Angels.

The Great Elder of the Zhao family Zhao Zihong silently recited an incantation and flipped his hand, and a level-8 secret treasure Mount Tai Shield engraved with abstruse runes appeared in his hand.

The Great Elder of the Nethermoon Ogre Dragon transformed into a Netherworld Ogre Dragon is the expert with the greatest destructive power among the Five Heavenly Lords and Nine Heavenly Ogres, while the Mount Tai Shield is the level-8 secret treasure with the most powerful defense in the Li Gui Province.

When the two collided together, a tremendous blare erupted, and a violent shock wave spread out in all directions.

Riding the shock wave, the Fallen Angels that emerged from the 'gate' spread their black wings and flew towards the Warlock leaders on the ground, forming small attack clusters.

"Mere five Great Warlock rank Fallen Angels want to kill me? You're overestimating yourselves!" A Moonlight Warlock rank Warlock leader looked at the five Fallen Angels and smiled coldly. But suddenly, to his horror, he found out that the life force inside him dissipated at a great speed.

When the five beautiful and sexy Fallen Angels reached the Warlock leader, they waved the swords in their hands, and black rays of light shone. The Warlock leader was cut to pieces in an instant, and then a Fallen Angel dug out his Moonlight Core.

The Fallen Angels that flew out of the 'gate' besieged the Warlock leaders of the Li Gui Province. Except for some Glorious Sun Warlocks who can still fight barely, most of the Moonlight Warlocks feel the life force inside them leave their body. These Moonlight Warlocks cannot resist the Great Warlock rank Fallen Angels.

Not caring about the fate of the Warlock leaders on the ground, the remaining seven Bright World Warlocks of the Nine Heavenly Ogres used their strongest spells and blasted them towards the huge mountain range that is the Mount Tai Shield.

The Great Elder of the Thunder Demon Evil Ogre turned into a 500-meter-tall Thunder Demon Evil Ogre and slammed the Warlock Monarch rank giant's vertebrae in his hand into the huge mountain range formed from the Mount Tai Shield. With every hit, part of the huge mountain range shattered.

The Purgatory Ogre's Great Elder turned into a 900-meter-tall Purgatory Ogre with a horn on his head exuding purgatory breath. Manipulating Purgatory Fire, he engaged with the Great Elder of the Zhan family Zhan Hongtao.

With a flick of the wrist of the Ogre Insect Pavilion's Great Elder, one of the 13 ancient ogre insects Soul Devouring Ants suddenly flew out. Numbering 10 million, the black swarm of Soul Devouring Ants rushed towards the Great Elder of the Ye family Ye Chen.

The Great Elder of the Cool Breeze Abode is an Elemental Warlock. Manipulating wind, water, fire, and earth elemental forces, conjured various elemental disasters and sent them the Great Elder of the Chen family Chen Lei's way.

Operating a level-8 secret treasure Light Soul Seal Mind Bead, the Great Elder of the Secret Treasure City engaged in a fight with the Great Elder of the Song family Song Jin.

The Great Elder of the Water Moon Heaven transformed into a bright moon that distributes moonlight. Illuminated by the moonlight, the mountain range formed from the Mount Tai Shield crumbled bit by bit.

Many Fallen Angels have just flown out of the 'gate', when they were purified into dust by the bright moon.

Despite the frantic attacks of the Netherworld Ogre Dragon, the Thunder Evil ogre, and the moon, the Mount Tai Shield proved that its reputation as the number one defensive secret treasure in the Li Gui province is not in vain and blocked the attacks of the three Bright World Warlocks.

Clenching his teeth, Zhao Zihong operating the Mount Tai Shield absorbed tremendous amounts of life magic energy to supplement his consumption of life force.

Suddenly, the Nethermoon Ogre Dragon's Great Elder who has transformed into a Netherworld Ogre Dragon turned around and sent his claw crashing towards the Great Elder of the Chen family Chen Lei.

Chen Lei was originally suppressed by the Great Elder of the Cool Breeze Abode with various elemental spells, barely able to defend himself. Suddenly, the Netherworld Ogre Dragon's attack blasted through his magic shield, and nether breath began to assail his soul in a flash.

The bright moon the Water Moon Heaven's Great Elder has transformed into flashed brightly, and copious amount of moonlight gathered and formed a moonlight arrow seemingly capable of purifying everything in the world. Tearing through the void, the moonlight arrow shot towards Chen Lei.

Faced with a killing blow, Chen Lei spurted out a large mouthful of blood essence, and then blurred and exchanged places with the Chen family's Patriarch.

The moonlight arrow blasted into the Chen family's Patriarch. A look of horror on his face, his body crumbled and his soul extinguished.

Bloodline Replacement is one of the most powerful life-saving secret methods mastered by Chen Lei. As long as there is a Glorious Sun Warlock rank blood relative nearby, Chen Lei can use this secret method to escape death once. Bloodline Replacement is a secret method that is more advanced than Scapegoat secret method. Of course, its conditions are also more stringent. There has to be a blood relative close enough to trade places with you.

Chen Lei gritted his teeth, his complexion changed several times, and he recited an incantation and turned into a stream of black light that shot into the distance.

The might of the Underworld Ogre Dragon's nether breath is terrifying, eroding Chen Lei's soul and mind at all times. Facing a single opponent isn't a big deal. But when besieged by three Bright World Warlocks, he will be risking his life if he doesn't escape.

The Great Elder of the Cool Breeze Abode controlling the four kinds of elemental force formed four natural disaster and sent them slamming towards Song Jin.

The Netherworld Ogre Dragon sent a claw enveloped by nether breath crashing towards Song Jin from behind.

The Great Elder of the Secret Treasure City aimed the Light Soul Seal Mind Bead at Song Jin, and a beam containing countless tiny chains formed from runes shot towards Song Jin.

Facing the joint attack of three Bright World Warlocks, Song Jin's countenance changed drastically. Suddenly, a white book flew out, and then three sheets of paper flew out from the book.

As soon as the three sheets of white papers flew into the air, they changed into Song Jin's likeness and received the attacks of the three Bright World Warlocks.

When the three attacks landed on the three Song Jin's stand-ins, the stand-ins were blasted apart in a flash.

Via a secret method, Song Jin appeared dozens of kilometres away, a dignified look on his face.

The secret method Song Jin used just now is called Bloodline Cloud Paper Stand-in. It took him a lot of blood essence to refine the three sheets of white paper, which can erupt with an incredible power at the critical moment. However, Song Jin has only refined 10 sheets of white paper. After all, each refinement costs him 10 years of lifespan and damages his origin soul. It's not a treasure that can be made infinitely.

Every one of the three Bright World Warlocks is stronger than Song Jin. Except for Zhao Zihong who owns the Mount Tai Shield, the rest of the Bright World Warlocks cannot resist the joint attack of three Bright World Warlocks.

Zhao Zihong shouted: "Grand Duke Poydul, if you don't send someone to help us, then we will withdraw. Before we leave, we will destroy the planar passageway leading here from the Abyss."

The Great Elders of the Nine Heavenly Ogres are overwhelmingly strong. Although the Five Heavenly Lord incapacitated two Bright World Warlocks of the Nine Heavenly Ogres with their sneak attack, but the remaining seven Great Elders are still astonishingly strong.

In a group fight, the Netherworld Ogre Dragon is particularly troublesome. With his huge body and attacks containing nether breath, he's simply a nightmare for other Warlocks of the same rank. Once the Netherworld Ogre Dragon hits you, nether breath will erode your mind and soul.

From the 'gate' came an unruly laughter full of dangerous aura, and a 1.83-meter-tall, gorgeous Blazing Angel grade Fallen Angel with long purple hair, a curvaceous waist and large breasts, three pairs of black wings, and a Fallen Angel Sword in hand exuding a heroic aura stepped out.

"I, Alexia, captain of the 10th legion, received orders from My Lord to fight our enemies!"

When the Valkyrie-like Alexia stepped out of the 'gate', the 'gate' collapsed and turned into dust.

After all, this 'gate' isn't a true planar passageway, but a temporary gate that was barely opened thanks to a nearby planar passageway that leads to the endless Abyss. For the Bright World Warlock rank Blazing Angel Alexia to cross this gate is already the limit.

As if announcing the will of the gods, Alexia made a declaration. Her beautiful eyes burning with menacing fighting spirit, Alexia flapped her black wings and disappeared from the spot. She strangely appeared behind the head of the Great Elder of the Purgatory Ogre and slashed out with her sword.

Chapter 607 – Blazing Angel Alexia

The darkness force twisting around Alexia's Fallen Angel Sword made the sword nearly invincible. Even a Monarch rank expert wouldn't dare to resist a slash from the Fallen Angel Sword with their body.

Black sword rays slashed the Great Elder of the Purgatory Ogre Transformed into a Purgatory Ogre into countless pieces in a flash.

With the soul of the Great Elder of the Purgatory Ogre attached to it, the Bright World Core suddenly turned into a dazzling meteor and flew away.

Alexia's figure blurred, and a black sword ray slashed the Bright World Core. A wisp of dark force forcefully wrung out the soul of the Great Elder of the Purgatory Ogre attached to the Bright World Warlock. At the same time, powerful soul force entered the Fallen Angel Sword in her hand.

Most of the souls of intelligent life forms killed by abyssal fiends will fall into the endless Abyss, while only the souls of believers of gods at the true believer level or higher will be drawn to the divine country of their god.

As for the souls of intelligent life forms killed by Fallen Angels, they are absorbed by the Fallen Angel Swords and brought back to their master.

Once abyssal fiends, Fallen Angels, and other creatures of the endless Abyss come to a primary material plane, they will unleash a massacre in order to reap the souls of the intelligent life forms of the main material plane.

The strong existences of primary material planes don't wish to see abyssal creatures rampage in their plane. Abyssal Fiend Grand Duke Poydul has invaded the Cangzhi Plane several times and even killed two Warlock Monarchs. But he still cannot find a footing in the Cangzhi Plane, and that is because the human Warlocks of the Cangzhi Plane won't let him have a footing.

"Amazing, so this is a Blazing Angel, an existence with the greatest evolutionary potential and strongest fighting ability among Angels!"

Seeing the Great Elder of the Purgatory Ogre easily slain by Alexia, shock welled up inside the Bright World Warlocks present.

The Great Elder of the Purgatory Ogre was considered a pinnacle expert among Bright World Warlocks, and even other Bright World Warlocks were apprehensive of his Purgatory Fire. For such an expert, even if he is sneak-attacked by an expert of the same rank, he won't be killed that easily.

The fact that Alexia could kill the Great Elder of the Purgatory Ogre this easily only shows that she is far stronger than ordinary Bright World Warlocks.

The countenance of the Great Elder of the Nethermoon Ogre Dragon changed dramatically, and he shouted: "Seal her with Light Soul Seal Mind Bead and continue to besiege the others. We must get rid of them in the shortest period of time."

The Great Elder of the Secret Treasure City silently recited an incantation and pointed with a finger, and the level-8 secret treasure Light Soul Seal Mind Bead suddenly flew out, released bright light, and broke down into nine beads that shone brightly and formed a seal barrier that sealed the space Alexia is located in.

Alexia slashed out with the Fallen Angel Sword, and a black sword ray landed on the seal barrier and sliced open a small crack in the barrier.

The crack has just appeared, when it healed completely.

"So strong! This is a Blazing Angel of Poydul's Fallen Angel legion, no wonder she's an existence that can contend against Bright World Warlocks who formed a virtual world." The face of the Great Elder of the Secret Treasure City flushed, blood trickled down from the corners of his mouth, and his eyes surged with shock.

The Elder of the Secret Treasure City operated the Light Soul Seal Mind Bead virtually to the limit. At the same time, he fused with the Light Soul Seal Mind Bead, barely sealing Alexia.

If it was a Bright Warlock from the Five Heavenly Lords and Nine Heavenly Ogres instead of Alexia, even if it was the Great Elder of the Nethermoon Ogre Dragon transformed into a Netherworld Ogre Dragon, he wouldn't be able to break the seal barrier even if he attacked for five days and nights. However, with just one sword strike, Alexia slashed open a crevice in the barrier formed from the Light Soul Seal Mind Bead and wounded the Great Elder of the Secret Treasure City. The gap between the two is evident.

The Great Elder of the Cool Breeze Abode cast various elemental spells that blasted towards Zhan Hongtao.

Under the attack of the various elemental spells, Zhan Hongtao was suppressed again. He unleashed various secret methods to defend himself and retreat.

The Great Elders of the Nethermoon Ogre Dragon and the Water Moon Heaven besieged Song Jin frantically.

Under the siege of the two Bright World Warlocks, Song Jin has a hard time just falling back.

At this moment, the sound of fighting came from outside. The Warlock armies of the Five Heavenly Lords raised their swords against their allies and attacked the Warlocks from the Nine Heavenly Ogres.

Caught off guard, the Warlocks of the Nine Heavenly Ogres suffered heavy casualties, and were beaten back gradually.

The remaining six Great Elders of the Nine Heavenly Ogres felt the change in the Wave Cloud Mountain City, and their hearts surged with anxiety.

Once the armies of the Five Heavenly Lords and the Fallen Angel legion take care of the armies of the Nine Heavenly Ogres, the armies of the Five Heavenly Lords will come to reinforce the enemy, and the remaining six Great Elders of the Nine Heavenly Ogres will be in a serious bind. Despite his strong their are, they may be injured or even killed.

Abyssal Fiend Grand Duke Poydul's Fallen Angel legion can even besiege Warlock Monarchs, while the rigorously trained Warlock armies can pose a threat to Bright World Warlocks if led by Glorious Sun Warlocks.

Eyes shot with blood, the Great Elder of the Nethermoon Ogre Dragon bellowed: "Go all out! If you don't, we will be killed by these damn traitors!"

Transformed into a 1,000-meter-long Netherworld Ogre Dragon, the Great Elder of the Nethermoon Ogre Dragon opened his maw and breathed in, and a vial of grain-sized Nether Holy Blood entered his maw.

Nether Holy Blood is holy blood left behind by a Holy Spirit Warlock rank Netherworld Ogre Dragon after it died. This is one of the trump cards of the Nethermoon Ogre Dragon. Once he drinks this vial of holy blood, the Great Elder of the Nethermoon Ogre Dragon will have an increase in strength for a shot period of time. But as time passes, the backlash from the holy blood will harm even the Great Elder's foundation

When the Great Elder of the Nethermoon Ogre Dragon ingested the holy blood, his strength increased by 40% at once. He extended his claw. After crossing layers of space, the claw unexpectedly appeared directly behind Ye Chen.

Ye Chen's face fell. He spurted out a mouthful of blood essence, and his body blurred.

The claw of the Great Elder of the Nethermoon Ogre Dragon smashed into Ye Chen, and then crushed Ye Chen into pieces.

Suspended in midair, the Great Elder of the Water Moon Heaven in the form of a moon went all out. The Moon suddenly expanded, and a beam of moonlight full of killing intent descended from the sky and flew towards the void.

Ye Chen has just escaped from the Great Elder of the Nethermoon Ogre Dragon, when the beam of moonlight full of killing intent hit him, and his body crumbled.

Light shone, and the petals of an extraordinary plant Nine Night Silver Flower enveloped Ye Chen's Bright World Warlock Core and turned into a stream of black light that entered the void.

"How can this be?" When Ye Chen fled into the void, he saw the void filled with Yang Feng's 3rd generation battle robot, and shock streaked past his eyes.

Suddenly, Sealers flew out and released seal halos that hit Ye Chen's Bright World Core.

The Bright World Core flying as fast as lightning was suddenly hit by layers of seals, and its speed became slower and slower.

With a flash of light, the Nine Night Silver Flower turned into Ye Chen's body about one meter in size. Ye Chen said loudly: "Which friend is this? I am Ye Chen, the Great Elder of the Five Heavenly Lords of the Li Gui Province. My friend, please do me a favor and let me leave. The Ye family will repay you handsomely!"

The dense cluster of Sealers released seal halos. At the same time, a large swarm of Devourers pounced on Ye Chen and began devouring his life force.

Having lost his powerful body, Ye Chen can only watch in horror and despair as his life force is being devoured by the Devourers before eventually being sealed by the seal halos released by the countless Sealers.

Light twisted, and the battle robots entered stealth mode and disappeared in the void.

The Great Elder of the Cool Breeze Abode roared and urged his life force, and a violent storm and a sea of red fire enveloped Zhao Zihong and Song Jin respectively.

The fighting strength of Elemental Warlocks is slightly above that of other Warlocks. Zhao Zihong has the level-8 secret treasure Mount Tai Shield, so his defense is rock-solid. But his offense is nothing much.

Going all out, the Great Elder of the Cool Breeze Abode can tie down Zhao Zihong and Zhan Hongtao for some time.

The Great Elder of the Thunder Demon Evil Ogre, the great Elder of the Ogre Insect Pavilion, the Great Elder of the Water Moon Heaven, and the Great Elder of the Nethermoon Ogre Dragon stimulated their life force and attacked Song Jin.

Sheets of white paper changed into Song Jin's likeness and blocked the attacks of the four Great Elders. In just a dozen plus breaths of time, Song Jin's 10 sheets of Bloodline Cloud Paper were all used up.

When the last sheet of Bloodline Cloud Paper disappeared, Song Jin sighed helplessly, and then blurred and fled into the distance without hesitation. Confronted by four Bright World Warlocks going all out, if he stays, he can only last a few dozen breaths of time before he's destroyed in body and soul.

When Song Jin fled, the four Great Elders went to besiege Zhan Hongtao.

Chapter 608 – Elemental Lock

The six Great Elders of the Nine Heavenly Ogres are clear that their goal now is to defeat the Five Heavenly Lords, not kill them.

The Great Elders of the Five Heavenly Lords are all Bright World Warlocks. If they want to escape, it is extremely difficult to kill them. But once the Great Elders of the Five Heavenly Lords have been defeated, the six Great Elders of the Nine Heavenly Ogres will slaughter the elite troops of the Five Heavenly Lords.

Even if the Great Elders of the Five Heavenly Lords try to flee, the six Great Elders of the Nine Heavenly Ogres can join forces to stop one of them. After inflicting heavy casualties to the forces of the Five Heavenly Lords, they can take control of the Zhan Subjugation Alliance, greatly increasing their strength.

Zhan Hongtao has already hidden behind Zhao Zihong's Mount Tai Shield.

Under the siege of five Bright World Warlocks, the mountain range the level-8 secret treasure Mount Tai Shield has transformed into collapsed and shattered bit by bit.

"If I don't leave now, it will be too late later!" Zhan Hongtao silently recited an incantation, and then blurred and turned into a stream of light that shot into the distance.

Zhao Zihong's face fell and he cursed: "You sons of bitches!"

The five Great Elders of the Nine Heavenly Ogres let Zhan Hongtao run away, and instead focused on attacking Zhao Zihong, trying to kill him in the shortest time.

A series of spatial spells spread throughout the void and blocked Zhao Zihong's escape.

The level-8 secret treasure Mount Tai Shield is hailed as the number one level-8 defensive secret treasure in the Li Gui Province, and Zhao Zihong is known as Mount Tai Turtle.

The five Great Elders did their best to attack Zhao Zihong. As long as Zhao Zihong dies, the six Great Elders will have the upper hand.

Under the frenzied siege of the five Great Elders, the mountain range the level-8 secret treasure Mount Tai Shield has transformed into finally crumbled into piece.

The Netherworld Ogre Dragon flung the Tai Mountain Shield away with its attack, and a crack appeared on the shield.

When Zhao Zihong was struck by the Mount Tai Shield, he shouted, "I surrender!"

As a Bright World Warlock, Zhao Zihong has a long lifespan. He doesn't want to die just yet.

A dazzling moonlight arrow descended from the sky and blasted into Zhao Zihong. Purified by the moonlight arrow, Zhao Zihong's body collapsed gradually.

Wind blades containing the law of wind sliced pieces off from Zhao Zihong's body.

A purple flame emerged from the void and burned the pieces of Zhao Zihong's body into ashes.

Among Bright World Warlocks, there are many who have incredible life-saving secret treasures. If their soul clinging to a part of their flesh escapes, they can be quickly reborn.

Black gas wriggled on the Bright World Core inside the black light and issued miserable screams before it was eventually purified.

"Finally dead!"

The five Great Elders sighed in relief when they saw this scene.

There are many ways for Bright World Warlocks to protect their life. Once forced into desperation, who knows what kind of secret method they may display. The five Great Elders let Zhan Hongtao escape previously because their target was Zhao Zihong. Injuring five fingers is not as effective as cutting off one finger. The five Great Elders understand this simple truth.

“Help me!”

Suddenly, a scream rang, and then a black sword ray shoot out from the Light Soul Seal Mind Bead’s barrier. Enveloped by endless darkness, the sword strike sliced the Great Elder of the Secret Treasure City into two.

The body of the Great Elder of the Secret Treasure City blurred, as if some death substitution secret treasure has been activated automatically.

Along with the black sword ray, a terrifying dark force cut the karma threads of the death substitution secret treasures.

The death substitution secret treasures the Great Elder of the Secret Treasure has prepared exploded. At last, the body divided into two parts was eroded, the life force was extinguished, and the soul was shattered by the dark force.

Alexia beckoned with her hand, and the Light Soul Seal Mind Bead flew into her hand and disappeared.

The five Great Elders watched Alexia standing loftily in midair, and their hearts shook. Of the five, some may be able to defeat the Great Elder of the Secret Treasure City, but not kill him. Even if the five of them join forces, they may not be able to kill the Great Elder of the Secret Treasure City who has many life-saving secret treasures.

“We must kill her! Otherwise, we’ll have nowhere to go in the Li Gui Province! I’ll seal her movements! Water Moon Barrier!” The moon the Great Elder of Water Moon Heaven has transformed into combusted, and moonlight descended on the ground, sealed off an area 100 kilometres in radius, and formed a Water Moon Barrier that resembled both moonlight and water.

When the Fallen Angel Sword enveloped by dark force landed on the Water Moon Barrier, it set off ripples. The barrier is still intact.

Alexia couldn’t help but crease her beautiful eyebrows. She is indeed very strong, far stronger than any of the five Bright World Warlocks. In a one-to-one fight, she can kill the five of them one by one. However, when facing the five Bright World Warlocks at the same time, even she isn’t sure that she can take them on.

Most of the Five Heavenly Lords and Nine Heavenly Ogres are Warlock groups with a long heritage and profound foundation. Even the Great Cloud Dynasty’s expeditionary force has lost six Bright World Warlocks to them, and was forced eventually to abandon the Li Gui Province, only leaving a symbolic stronghold in the province.

Each of the five remaining Great Elders has pinnacle Bright World Warlock rank battle prowess. If it was up to her, Alexia would withdraw and join up with the remnant forces of the Five Heavenly Lords, and then kill the five Great Elders one by one and finally seize the entire Li Gui Province.

However, the five Great Elders also understand that once Alexia escapes, she will converge with remaining forces of the Five Heavenly Lords. By then, the five of them can only hide in their bases and let the enemy grind away at their forces. Otherwise, they will be in danger of dying at Alexia's hands.

Eyes shot with blood, the Great Elder of the Thunder Demon Evil Ogre howled, and then he shrunk and turned into a 10-meter-tall Thunder Demon Evil Ogre covered in countless runes, and a pair of wings full of sharp blades extended from his back.

This is the second battle form of Thunder Demon Evil Ogres. To sustain this battle form, the Great Elder of the Thunder Demon Evil Ogre has to consume one year of his lifespan every second. In this form he can even kill a quasi-Infinity Warlock within three minutes. He can maintain this form for up to five minutes.

The body of the Great Elder of the Thunder Demon Evil Ogre fluttered, and he shot towards Alexia in a series of afterimages and stabbed his 30-centimetre-long claws at her vitals.

Alexia released sword rays from the Fallen Angel Sword in her hand and flung away the claws of the opponent. At the same time, she sliced open numerous wounds on the body of the Great Elder of the Thunder Demon Evil Ogre.

Normally, those cuts made by the Fallen Angel Sword cannot be healed due to the erosion of the dark force. But with the fearsome healing ability that came with his second battle form, the wound healed at an alarming rate.

Even though the Elder of the Thunder Demon Evil Ogre is at a disadvantage, but his eyes are bloodshot and his fighting spirit is surging, and he blocked Alexia.

However, the Great Elder isn't a true Thunder Demon Evil Ogre, and his second battle form cannot be maintained for too long. Once his strength drops slightly, he will be slain by Alexia.

Greeting his teeth, the Great Elder of the Cool Breeze Abode flipped his hand, took out a silver chain, and sprayed blood essence onto the chain, and elemental force of the four elements poured into the chain.

The silver chain is called Element Lock. It is a level-9 elemental secret treasure and one of the trump cards of the Cool Breeze Abode. Ordinarily, the Great Elder of the Cool Breeze Abode doesn't have the power to operate the Elemental Lock. But now that he is combusting his blood essence and employing a secret method, his strength has increased, and he is barely able to operate the Elemental Lock.

Suddenly, the Elemental Lock shone and turned into a silver light that flew towards Alexia lightning-fast.

Alexia's calm face finally revealed some emotion, and she silently recited an incantation, and countless black runes coiled around the Fallen Angel Sword in her hand, and she slashed at the Element Lock with all her might.

The violent dark force and the powerful elemental force intertwined and locked in a stalemate.

The Great Elder of the Ogre Insect Pavilion released an insect and blew it away.

A palm-sized insect landed on Alexia's neck without any warning and bit her neck.

Chapter 609 – Yang Feng Takes Action

Black light shone, and the palm-sized poisonous insect was torn apart. Black venom splattered out from the poisonous insect, and then was blown away by the dark force on Alexia's body.

The palm-sized poisonous insect is called Fallen God Insect, and it has an extremely strong venom. When bit by it, even an Infinity Warlock will be paralyzed and eventually eroded, and die. Even beings with extremely high poison resistance such as abyssal fiends can't resist the venom of the Fallen God Insect.

The Ogre Insect Pavilion has spent countless years to just breed a single Fallen God Insect.

Eyes shot with blood, the Great Elder of the Ogre Insect Pavilion growled: "Damn Fallen Angel, you killed my Fallen God Insect. When I capture you, I will turn you into an insect nest!"

There are countless secret methods for breeding poisonous insects in the Ogre Insect Pavilion, among which, there are many methods that use powerful living beings as nests to cultivate insects. This is the most terrifying legal punishment in the Ogre Insect Pavilion.

Countless black runes extended from Alexia's fair neck towards the rest of her body and eroded her body and soul.

The Netherworld Ogre Dragon the Great Elder of the Nethermoon Ogre Dragon has transformed into appeared behind Alexia and sent a claw covered in nether breath stabbing towards her.

A deep darkness flashed in her eyes, and Alexia opened the three pairs of black wings, and countless black light feathers shot in all directions.

The rain of black light feathers ran through the magic shields of the Great Elders from the Nethermoon Ogre Dragon, the Ogre Insect Pavilion, and the Thunder Demon Evil Ogre and stabbed into them. At the same time, they attacked the Water Moon Barrier.

In an instant, the black light feathers turned into black flames that engulfed the three Great Elders, burned their flesh and soul, and injured their origin. The three screamed in agony.

Impacted by the black light feathers the most, the Great Elder from the Ogre Insect Pavilion shrouded in black fire is struggling and screaming frantically.

When the black wings were stimulated, Alexia's aura suddenly declined. The silver Elemental Lock blurred and appeared in front of her, and then turned into silver shackles that locked her firmly.

A powerful dark force erupted from inside Alexia, but then was sealed by the silver shackles and suppressed into her body. Numerous silver runes extended along the Elemental Lock and sealed Alexia firmly.

At this moment, the void 100 kilometres away from the Water Moon Barrier blurred, and 30 Star Destroyer Battlestars and two Interstellar Carriers lying in ambush deactivated their cloaking mode and emerged.

The star destroyer artillery aboard the Star Destroyer Battlestars flashed brightly, and 30 brilliant beams of light slammed into the Water Moon Barrier.

Bombarded by the 30 beams of light, which is equivalent to being struck by a joint attack from 30 pinnacle Bright World Warlocks, the Water Moon Barrier collapsed. Heavily wounded, the Great Elder of the Water Moon turned into a stream of cold moonlight and fled towards the distance.

The Great Elder of the Water Moon Heaven is aware of the world of Warlocks' cruelty. Now that he is seriously injured, if he stayed here, he will not only become prey for enemies, but there is also a high probability that he will become prey for his 'comrades'.

The void twisted, and Void Assassins emerged and pounced on the four Great Elders.

The Great Elder of the Ogre Insect Pavilion spread the fingers of his hand, and a huge dragon-like insect put him into its maw and flew away.

There was a twist in the void, and more than 10,000 Void Assassins flew out and chopped towards the giant dragon-like insect.

Undyings and Sealers towed out of the void by Void Assassins rushed towards the huge insect.

The huge insect roared and spurted out a pillar of fire sweeping towards the surrounding Void Assassins.

The energy shields activated by Void Assassins shattered under the giant insect's fire.

More Void Assassins rushed at the huge insect and slashed it with their swords and cut open countless wounds on its body.

Engines booming, more than 1,000 Undyings lunged at the huge insect in a flash and chopped it into pieces.

Seal halos shot out from the Sealers, slammed into the Great Elder of the Ogre Insect Pavilion, and sealed him inch by inch.

Facing the numerous Void Assassins that appeared suddenly, nether breath enveloped the Great Elder of the Nethermoon Ogre Dragon, and he fled towards the distance.

Eyes shot with blood, the Great Elder of the Thunder Demon Evil Ogre dominated by Thunder Demon Evil Ogre blood fell into a state of madness, rushed into the midst of Void Assassins, and crushed them.

The reaction of the Great Elder from the Cool Breeze Abode was a step slower, and he was chopped into pieces by a dozen plus Undyings.

Although the Great Elder from the Cool Breeze Abode was chopped into countless pieces, but he shed no blood, and instead transformed into a gale and fled away.

Sealers fired seal halos that blasted into the gale, and the gale twisted and eventually formed the shape of the Great Elder of the Cool Breeze Abode.

With a look of fear, helplessness, and regret in his eyes, the Great Elder of the Cool Breeze Abode shouted loudly: "Don't kill me, I am willing to surrender!"

In his peak condition, the Great Elder from the Cool Breeze Abode can easily escape from the Sealers. But he has poured most of his power into the Elemental Lock. Therefore, he already has no power to escape from the Sealers.

A cold voice came from a Sealer: "Don't resist, or you will die!"

The Great Elder from the Cool Breeze Abode released a long sigh and gave up resistance, letting numerous seal halos hit and seal him.

Sealers flew to Alexia, hit her with seal halos, and began sealing her.

If the rest of the Bright World Warlocks escape, it won't matter. The Blazing Angel Alexia with unlimited evolutionary potential is Yang Feng's ultimate prey.

It's very difficult to produce Blazing Angels as it involves the ultimate mysteries of the soul. It takes the purest souls plus countless precious soul stones and a little bit of luck to get a Blazing Angel.

From among 10 billion ordinary Angels, perhaps one Blazing Angel will emerge. Despite their high evolution potential, it's still very difficult for a Blazing Angel to upgrade to the Bright World Warlock rank.

As if they sensed the plight of their commander, the Fallen Angels fighting the Warlocks in the Wave Cloud Mountain City flapped their black wings and flew this way.

3rd generation battle robots stabbed into the Fallen Angel legion like a dagger and started a frenzied slaughter of the beautiful and sexy Fallen Angels.

The beautiful Fallen Angels resist desperately, but before the great strength gap, they are being slaughtered continuously, unable to get close to Alexia.

All of a sudden, the remaining Fallen Angels flew together and detonated, and their flesh and soul burned wildly, and a big hole opened in the void.

Abyssal breath permeated out of the big hole, and a black ray of light flew over and condensed into a 1.8-meter-tall, handsome, blond man wearing a black suit with an evil charm.

"I am Abyssal Fiend Grand Duke Poydul, the lord of the 666th floor of the Abyss. Respected human Warlock, please return me my commander. If you return her to me, I will be your closest ally. Additionally, I will also provide you with a top-notch Succubus Queen."

A strange rune flickered in the eyes of the handsome man with an evil charm, and he looked into the distance. His gaze penetrated a dense fog, and he 'saw' Yang Feng sitting on the bridge of a Star Destroyer Battlestar.

What exploded in the Cloud Mist Hall was nothing more than a golem in Yang Feng's form. The golem was made by cloning Yang Feng's cells and integrating it with soul stones and his soul aura. Since the Bright World Warlocks weren't guarded against him, Yang Feng easily deceived them.

Yang Feng's eyes lit up, and he contemplated for a while, and then spoke with a light smile: "Succubus Queen? It does sound extravagant. But unfortunately, I am more interested in the Blazing Angel, Your Majesty Grand Duke. I will have to decline."

Succubus Queens are an advanced form of Succubi from the Abyss, and each Succubus Queen is a powerful existence at the Moonlight Warlock rank or above. They are the most coveted treasures of males. In the Abyss, Infernal World, and the 36 primary material planes, they are the preferred pets of male experts, ranking even above elves and Angels.

In the era of the 7th Warlock Dynasty Magic Note Dynasty, a Holy Spirit Warlock once offered a grade 8 plane to buy a Succubus Queen, but to no avail.

Chapter 610 – Complete Suppression

When he heard the name Succubus Queen, Yang Feng was only slightly moved. The highest evolution potential of Succubus Queens is the Bright World Warlock rank. Only if the Succubus Queen can evolve into a Succubus Empress, will she be able to break the bloodline shackles and become an Infinity Warlock or Holy Spirit Warlock rank being.

In the long history of the endless Abyss, there have only been three Succubus Emperesses known to the Cangzhi Plane. One was slayed by the Taboo Lord during a struggle, another one was made into the first Succubus Golem by the Golem Lord.

The third Succubus Queen is the master of the 777th floor of the endless Abyss. The 777th floor of the Abyss is a dream land for male experts. There, the rare Succubi can be seen everywhere. Moreover, there are five Succubus Queens serving the Succubus Empress. The Succubus Empress is regarded as the top beauty of the endless Abyss.

The Succubus Empress of the 777th floor of the endless Abyss is a pinnacle Infinity Warlock rank expert. In the 777th floor of the Abyss, even Moonlight Warlock rank experts will be quelled by the Succubus Empress.

Although a Succubus Queen is very rare, but for Yang Feng, the Blazing Angel Alexia who can contend against some weak Infinity Warlocks and has endless evolution potential is much more valuable.

Regret streaked past his eyes, and Abyssal Fiend Grand Duke Poydul said elegantly: "How regrettable, you have chosen to be my enemy. I have already remembered your soul aura. Next time we meet you, I hope to have a good talk with you!"

With a flicker of black light, the body of the grand duke collapsed and turned into a black beam shooting towards Alexia.

Seal halos slammed into the black beam, and the black beam congealed into a wriggling black liquid engraved with countless runes.

Under the bombardment of silver snake-like lightning, the black liquid was purified, and turned into countless black debris that fell to the ground.

The huge hole the Fallen Angels opened by sacrificing their flesh and soul disappeared instantly.

Unless it is a complete planar passageway, not even a path leading to another plane opened by a Warlock Emperor rank expert can last for too long. Although Abyssal Fiend Grand Duke Poydul is a pinnacle Infinity Warlock rank being, but under the current circumstances, he can only use part of his power in this plane for a short period of time.

An Undying grabbed the Blazing Angel Alexia, flew into a battleship, and took her to a freezer where she was frozen at ultra low temperature and sealed with countless seals.

Yang Feng looked at the freezer with excitement in his eyes: "My biggest harvest this time is this Blazing Angel Alexia. If she puts on the evolved Ruler Armor, who knows how powerful she will be!"

The Ruler Armor developed by Yang Feng has already been embedded with an Infinity Core and reinforced with various rare materials.

At this time, Yang Feng's true body can no longer fully exert the fighting power of the Ruler Armor. Only by advancing in rank can he unleash more of its power progressively.

But Alexia is a Blazing Angel who can contend against Infinity Warlocks. If he can control her and equip her with the Ruler Armor, Yang Feng will have an expert who can contend against Infinity Warlocks as his subordinate.

The Great Elder of the Thunder Demon Evil Ogre attacked the Yang Feng's mechanical legion frantically. After destroying 500,000 modified 2nd generation battle robots, his body turned into ashes, leaving only a Bright World Core behind.

The Thunder Demon Evil Ogre's second battle form is not a secret method that human Warlocks can use often. In a moment of carelessness, the Thunder Demon Evil Ogre's evil blood will erode you and turn you into a crazed battle maniac who will eventually exhaust their life and die.

"I am Lei Ming, the Young Master of the Undying Mountain! People in the Wave Cloud Mountain City, listen to me! Drop your weapons and surrender! Otherwise, die!"

From the two Interstellar Carriers, 200,000 Swift Eagle Fighters shot out and chased the Warlocks who tried to escape.

A rain of light shot from the Swift Eagle Fighters bombarded the fleeing Warlock and killed them one by one.

2 million modified 2nd generation battle robots wearing military uniform rushed this way and killed the fleeing Warlocks.

"So strong, is this the power of the Undying Mountain? How terrible!"

"The Undying Mountain is something else! What do we do?"

"The Great Elders and upper echelon of the Five Heavenly Lords and Nine Heavenly Ogres are nowhere to be seen! What else can we do? Let's surrender!"

“Even the Five Heavenly Lords and Nine Heavenly Ogres were defeated by the Undying Mountain, so how can we possibly be their opponent? Let’s surrender!”

When the Warlock groups saw the tremendous mechanical legion, they felt a chill in their hearts, and then surrendered after a moment of hesitation.

In fact, if the Warlocks in the Wave Cloud Mountain City joined forces to fight Yang Feng’s mechanical legion, there is a 70% chance of them destroying Yang Feng’s mechanical legion. After all, within the Wave Cloud Mountain City, nearly one-half of the Li Gui Province’s Warlock elites are gathered.

But the upper echelon of the Five Heavenly Lords and Nine Heavenly Ogres are gone. Besides, the might of the 30 Star Destroyer Battlestars terrifies this leaderless bunch. As such, they can only choose to surrender.

Seeing the huge Warlock legion, the human Warlocks guessed that the Undying Mountain employed several Bright World Warlocks. They simply cannot imagine that among the hundreds of thousands of Starry Sky Warlocks and more than 2 million Great Warlocks, there is not a single Moonlight Warlock nor Glorious Sun Warlock, and much less a Bright World Warlock.

When Yang Feng attacked the Fuso Subcontinent, he subdued many Moonlight Warlocks, but he is now the Young Master of the Undying Mountain, so he cannot summon the Moonlight Warlocks from the Fuso Subcontinent.

Where it not for the protection of the Fuso God Tree coupled with the Great Cloud Dynasty’s fear of Huang Yihe and other Infinity Warlocks hidden in the dark, the Great Cloud Dynasty would have already sent troops to uproot Yang Feng’s force in the Fuso Subcontinent.

Countless battle robots entered the Wave Cloud Mountain City, quickly suppressed any revolt, and accepted the surrender of the Warlock groups.

After the war in the Wave Cloud Mountain City, the situation in the Li Gui Province has changed dramatically. Nearly half of the Warlock groups in the Li Gui Province surrendered to Yang Feng’s Undying Mountain.

Yang Feng’s Undying Mountain took this opportunity to expand wildly towards the scope of influence of the Ye family and Zhao family of the Five Heavenly Lords and the Seven Stars Abode, the Thunder Demon Sect, the Ogre Insect Pavilion, the Secret Treasure City, the Thunder Demon Evil Ogre, the Purgatory Ogre, and the Cool Breeze Abode of the Nine Heavenly Ogres.

Intimidated by Yang Feng’s means, the remaining Three Heavenly Lords and Two Heavenly Ogres sent spies to probe the reality of Yang Feng’s Undying Mountain, all the while very careful, not daring to do anything suspicious. At the same time, they sent emissaries to carry out communications in private.

The Great Cloud Dynasty, the lesser province Ning Province, in an ordinary manor, there is a giant laboratory 3,000 meters underground.

Standing before a crystal coffin, Yang Feng gazed quietly at the mesmerizing Blazing Angel Alexia with a burning glow in his eyes.

“Liquid Metal Nano Robot Elixir injection begins!” A mechanical voice sounded, and a needle pierced into Alexia and injected Liquid Metal Nano Robot Elixir that has been improved continuously into her body.

“The injection failed, all Liquid Metal Nano Robots died.” A cold voice sounded.

Yang Feng sighed with regret: “The Liquid Metal Nano Robot Elixir really doesn’t work. Although it has been improved continuously, but it can only control Glorious Sun Warlock rank life forms at most for now.

Yang Feng said: “How is the clone deduction model going?”

“The clone deduction model has been established and analyzed. According to the analysis, the cells from the life form can be used to make clones that are 99% identical with the true body. However, the mature clones will have Great Warlock rank strength at most. The life form isn’t a natural product, but a weapon of the gods, and it’s main materials are holy and pure souls. It is possible to clone the body, but not the soul.” The cold voice sounded again.

If he can use cloning technology to clone a large number of Bright World Warlock rank experts, Yang Feng would clone a bunch of Blazing Angels to fight for him. Unfortunately, cloning technology is not omnipotent. It cannot clone a soul weapon like a Blazing Angel.

The birth and growth of each Blazing Angel cannot be replicated. It is due to this that Blazing Angels are so precious.

Yang Feng said: “Did you find the mark of the Abyssal Fiend Grand Duke Poydul carved in her soul?”

At the moment of birth, every Angel will have their soul imprinted by a soul mark of their master. In this way, the Angels will not be able to betray their master.

However, an Angel’s soul mark is not indestructible. The Abyssal Lord of the 999th floor of the Abyss Lucifer hailed as the strongest Fallen Angel is a Blazing Angel who betrayed a supreme god. He is a Holy Spirit Warlock rank powerhouse.
