Chapter 741 – Capturing the Three Dawn Blazing Angels

“World force! How unexpected, Heart of Fury actually has a Warlock genius like you! No wonder you dared to fight with our Battle Demon Sect’s genius disciples!”

A trace of surprise appeared in Yang Feng’s eyes, then he smiled and took a step forward. With a blur, he appeared on the head of the Golden Crow, and then extended his hand to pat the head of the Golden Crow.

A sense of danger immediately welled up inside Chi Meixian, who had transformed into the Golden Crow, and she struggled frantically. She suddenly fired a beam of fire, which is capable of burning Bright World Warlocks to ashes, barreling towards Yang Feng.

A black vortex suddenly appeared on Yang Feng’s right hand, and then it swallowed the beam of fire.

Yang Feng took this opportunity to pat the close to 100-meter-long Golden Crow on the head.

Boom!

The Golden Crow Chi Meixian has transformed into fell heavily on the ground and blasted open a huge hole in the earth like a meteor, and then spewed out a large mouthful of blood.

Countless black runes emerged on the Golden Crow that Chi Meixian has transformed into, completely sealing the power inside her.

After more than a dozen breaths of time, the Golden Crow disappeared and Chi Meixian appeared in her human form.

“Submit, or die!”

As if snakes, two streams of black gas lifted the severely wounded Chi Meixian, whose power was sealed. At the same time, Yang Feng’s merciless, ice-cold voice sounded beside her ears.

Chi Meixian hesitated for a while before finally gritting her teeth and saying: “I am willing to submit!”

Warlocks have a long lifespan, are knowledgeable, and enjoy a high status, they naturally don’t want to die.

Only Warlocks who have received great favor and have been nurtured with great care have a strong sense of identity with their sect and are willing to die together with it.

Heart of Fury is a Warlock group that believes in the principle – weak are prey to the strong. As such, the internal struggle inside it is extremely fierce. Chi Meixian has gone through countless struggles and hardships before becoming a peerless genius of Heart of Fury. She doesn’t have a strong sense of identification with Heart of Fury, which is why she chose to surrender that easily.

Surprise flickered in Yang Feng’s eyes, and then he took out a vial of Liquid Metal Nano Robot Elixir and injected it into Chi Meixian.

Liquid Metal Nano Robot Elixir is not effective against powerful existences who have already promoted to the Bright World Warlock rank. But it is very effective against Chi Meixian, who is a pinnacle Glorious Sun Warlock.

After quelling Chi Meixian easily, Yang Feng's gaze fell on the middle of the battlefield.

At this time, the battlefield is divided into two parts. On one side, two Blazing Angels are besieging Zhuge Ding, while on the other side, Yang Feng's god clone, Alexia, and Yu Yan are besieging a Blazing Angel.

Barely holding on, the Blazing Angel that was besieged by Yang Feng's god clone and the other two can be defeated at any time.

"It's time!"

The corners of Yang Feng's true body's mouth rose slightly, then he flipped his hand, and the Shoot the Heavens Bow immediately appeared in his hand. He frantically extracted world force from the nine small worlds in his body and poured it into the Shoot the Heavens Bow in his hand, and intermediate Bright World Warlock rank might spread in all directions.

"Bright World Warlock!"

"Junior Disciple Brother Yang Feng has already promoted to a Bright World Warlock?"

"Bright World Warlock, how is this possible?"

"..."

When the genius disciples of Battle Demon Sect sensed the terrifying aura, they were dumbfounded, unable to believe their eyes.

A bright World Warlock rank powerhouse can already become a great elder of Battle Demon Sect, enjoying endless honor, gaining tremendous authority, and wielding the fate of countless creatures.

An enigmatic glint flickered in Zhang Hanshan's beautiful eyes, and a complicated smile appeared on her face: "Bright World Warlock, amazing!"

Zhou Feng smiled bitterly and uttered: "There are people that you can never measure up to!"

Zhuo Yifan sighed slightly: "Bright World Warlock! It's such a hopeless gap that you can't even get envious!"

Zhang Hanshan, Zhou Feng, and Zhuo Yifan are all personal disciples of three of Battle Demon Sect's four great elders. They are unique geniuses selected from hundreds of thousands of Battle Demon Sect's talented disciples. They watched Yang Feng surpass them step by step from when he was a Great Warlock, and now he has already advanced to a Bright World Warlock.

With the fortuitous encounters Zhang Hanshan and the other two had in Time Sky City, they have a chance to promote to Glorious Sun Warlocks. But it is already extremely difficult to promote to a Glorious Sun Warlock, let alone to promote to a Bright World Warlock. Now that Yang Feng has advanced to a Bright World Warlock, they feel both excited and envious.

Warning suddenly went off in the mind of the Blazing Angel fighting with Yang Feng's god clone and company, and he looked at Yang Feng's true body.

In an instant, an arrow that shattered the space in its wake shot towards the Blazing Angel like a shooting star.

Doing his best to fight against the three powerhouses who are besieging him, the Blazing Angel could barely condense a Dawn Light Shield in front of him.

In an instant, the Shoot the Heavens Bow's arrow stabbed the Blazing Angel and nailed him to the ground.

Yu Yan silently recited an incantation and flipped her hand, and a level-9 secret treasure Lock Dragon Nail flew out, stabbed into the Blazing Angel, and sealed his power completely.

"Let's retreat!"

The complexion of the two Blazing Angels, who have already severely wounded Zhuge Ding, changed greatly. With a sword slash, they split open the violent gale that Zhuge Ding has transformed into, and then turned into two rays of dawn light flying into the distance.

At this moment, in an empty space, countless seven color petals appeared. The seven color petals superimposed on each other, surged with power, and formed a Seven Color Rose Petal Seal Boundary.

Seven Color Rose Garden's Garden Master suddenly appeared. With the Seven Color Rose in hand, sitting amid countless seven color rose petals, exuding an unearthly temperament, Seven Color Rose Garden's Garden Master looks like a beautiful goddess who descended into the secular world.

The two Blazing Angels waved their sword and slashed the Seven Color Rose Petal Seal Boundary, and Fire of Purification burned countless seven color rose petals to ashes and opened a path inside the Seven Color Rose Petal Seal Boundary.

More seven color rose petals appeared and blocked the escape route instantly.

With a flash of black light, Alexia's figure shook slightly, and she appeared in front of a Blazing Angel and swung her sword slashing towards him.

Yu Yan's figure shook slightly as well, and she turned into a stream of light and blocked the other Blazing Angel.

Yang Feng's god clone changed again, and his divine force fluctuations became those of a God of War.

"God of War Divine Domain, comprehensive strengthening!"

Yang Feng's god clone shouted, and divine force halos appeared on all of his allies.

The divine force halos respectively boost strength, agility, morale, soul force, among others. Even if an ordinary person is boosted by the divine force halos, they will possess enough power to slay a level-1 Warlock.

Boosted by the divine force halos, the fighting strength of Yu Yan, Alexia, Zhuge Ding, and Yang Feng's god clone suddenly soared by 30%.

Alexia, who was originally suppressed by the divine force of the Dawn Blazing Angel, immediately suppressed the Dawn Blazing Angel instead.

Among the four strong divine force rank gods, the Ruler of the Night is the strongest in assassination, the God of Massacre is the strongest at frontal combat, the God of Fire has the strongest destructive power, and the God of War is the strongest at support.

Besieged by the four powerhouses, the two Dawn Blazing Angels are at a complete disadvantage.

Seven Color Rose Garden's Garden Master's Seven Color Rose Petal Seal Boundary sealed the two Blazing Angels inside the boundary's space, making it difficult for them to escape.

Suddenly, the ultimate form Six-winged Sun-devouring Centipede flew out from behind Yang Feng's god clone and sprayed a brilliant stream of Sun God Fire shooting towards a Blazing Angel.

The Blazing Angel tried to evade, but half of his wing was still burned to ashes by the Sun God Fire.

At that moment, scarlet light flashed behind Yang Feng's god clone, and Yang Feng's kindred grand duke avatar suddenly flew out, slashed the Blazing Angel with the God Blood Sword in his hand with lightning speed, and cut open a deep wound on his body.

A copious amount of gold blood flew out of the Blazing Angel's wound and entered the God Blood Sword.

The violent gale Zhuge Ding has transformed into formed a huge wind blade containing divine force of wind that slashed the Blazing Angel and directly severed half of his arm.

Yu Yan took the opportunity to stab her spear and another level-9 secret treasure Lock Dragon Nail into the Blazing Angel and sealed his power.

The level-9 secret treasure Lock Dragon Nail is a small secret treasure that can seal the power of an infinity Warlock rank powerhouse. Great Cloud Dynasty's Secret Treasure Division can produce more than 100 pieces of this secret treasure each year.

Although Lock Dragon Nail can be easily broken by an Infinity Warlock, but once it is stabbed into the body, even a quasi-Warlock Monarch rank powerhouse won't be able to break the sealing. The virtual world of Infinity Warlocks who have formed a virtual world will also be sealed, unable to provide any power.

"Heretics, you dare to profane messengers of the might Dawn Lord! Let's die together!"

There was a flash of fury in the eyes of the remaining Blazing Angel, then his aura became unstable and his heart throbbed. He wants to detonate himself.

The explosion of an Angel's heart contains terrifying power. As for the explosion of an Infinity Warlock rank Blazing Angel's heart, it can even severely injure a Warlock Monarch rank powerhouse if hit directly.

At this moment, an arrow fired from the Shoot the Heavens Bow stabbed the last remaining Blazing Angel and nailed him to the ground. The arrow was fired by Yang Feng's true body.

Yu Yan stepped forward and added a Lock Dragon Nail to seal the Blazing Angel's power.

Chapter 742 – Arriving at Red Rage Plane

After quelling all the enemies, the figures of Seven Color Rose Garden's Garden Master, Yang Feng's god clone and kindred avatar, the ultimate form Six-winged Sun-devouring Centipede, Alexia, and Yu Yan fluttered, and they disappeared.

A force hidden in the dark will make people more apprehensive. If Alexia and Yu Yan fight with all their might, it will be easy to associate them with Undying Mountain's Fallen Blazing Angel and Great Cloud Dynasty's traitor Marshal Yu.

Since Yang Feng doesn't want to deceive Zhuge Ding, he can only have them leave quickly and preserve a bit of mystery.

Looking in the direction of the Infinity Warlock rank powerhouses who have suddenly disappeared, Zhuge Ding asked abruptly: "Who are they?"

Yang Feng answered with a smile: "They are my friends."

Zhuce Ding gave Yang Feng a meaningful glance: "You have a good group of friends!"

Zhuce Ding looked at the three sealed Dawn Blazing Angels, frowned, and uttered in a deep voice, a solemn gleam in his eyes: "What do we do with these guys?"

The three Dawn Blazing Angels called themselves the messengers of the Dawn Lord. If this is indeed the case, then Battle Demon Sect may be destroyed by the other party at any time.

Each one of Cangzhi Plane's Eight Warlock Emperors was extremely powerful as well cruel and merciless. They had no qualms in killing enemies.

In his later years, the Dawn Lord even more so became famous for his cruel methods, which finally resulted in a backlash, and countless Warlocks besieged him while he was weakened.

Although Zhuge Ding joined hands with Yang Feng to quell the three Blazing Angels that proclaimed themselves messengers of the Dawn Lord, but once he calmed down, he felt that he got himself in a very sticky situation.

A fierce ray flashed in Yang Feng's eyes and he responded coldly: "Since we have come this far, then we either go all in, or give up. Let's destroy Heart of Fury and Graveyard of the Dead at the fastest speed and take all of their resources. They won't expect us attacking them at this time."

Yang Feng brought so many Infinity Warlock rank powerhouses here because he has harbored malicious designs to begin with. If Heart of Fury and Graveyard of the Dead's Infinity Warlock rank powerhouses dared to do anything suspicious, he could directly kill the opponent.

Every Infinity Warlock rank powerhouse possesses great wealth and is themselves a mobile treasure.

Now that he slayed two Infinity Warlock of Heart of Fury and Graveyard of the Dead respectively, Yang Feng immediately became interested in annexing the two Warlock groups.

Infinity Warlocks are the core and the strongest combat power of a Warlock group. Heart of Fury and Graveyard of the Dead had to join forces to contend with Battle Demon Sect. Now that they collectively lost two Infinity Warlocks, they are at their weakest. Yang Feng will never let go of such an opportunity.

Zhuge Ding frowned slightly and hesitated for a while, before saying: "Heart of Fury and Graveyard of the Dead hold the grade 4 planes Red Rage Plane and Submerged Tomb Plane respectively. Although the two are inferior grade 4 planes and are far from being comparable to our Battle Demon Sect's superior grade 4 plane – Battle Demon Plane. But there still are many gods on those two planes. Moreover, with the support of the plane origin will, it's not that easy to attack them! To make a decision on such a major event, we have to convene a meeting of great elders."

There are more than a dozen great elders in Battle Demon Sect. As such, it is fundamentally impossible for a single person to decide to fight a Warlock groups of a similar level.

Yang Feng's eyes flickered for a while, and then he uttered with a smile: "If that's the case, then forget it!"

Since Battle Demon Sect is unwilling to make a move, then it's even better for Yang Feng. As long as he can conquer Heart of Fury and Graveyard of the Dead, then the two grade 4 planes will belong to his Undying Mountain. He won't have to share anything with Battle Demon Sect.

"Zhuge Ding, I still have something to do, so I'll take my leave now."

Yang Feng grabbed the three sealed Dawn Blazing Angels, then his figure shook slightly, and he disappeared.

"Let's go!"

Zhuge Ding took a deep look at Yang Feng's back, and then took Battle Demon Sect's genius disciples to board the Battle Demon Airship and left the celestial body, preoccupied.

In Astral Boundary, there is a huge fleet consisting of three Blazing Sun Battlestars, 30 Star Destroyer Battlestars, and 60 Interstellar Carriers flying slowly.

Inside a Blazing Sun Battlestar, in a laboratory, Yang Feng stood in front of a crystal pillar and looked inside it.

There is someone sealed inside the crystal pillar, and that someone is a Blazing Angel.

Watching the Blazing Angel, who is nailed by a Lock Dragon Nail, Yang Feng asked unhurriedly: "I am Yang Feng, I am from Battle Demon Sect. What is your name?"

The memories of the Dawn Blazing Angels have been sealed by formidable power of dawn. Even Yang Feng, who is proficient in countless secret methods, cannot break the power of dawn and obtain information from the head of the Blazing Angels.

The Dawn Blazing Angel responded with a grim smile: "There's no use, you won't get anything out of me. Since you dared to attack us, the great Dawn Lord will never let you off! All the heretics related to you will die."

Yang Feng sneered: "A Blazing Angel under the Dawn Lord doesn't even dare to tell me their name? Or is it that the Dawn Lord's subordinates are all cowards?"

The Blazing Angel replied with a cold smile: "My name is Sebas, a Dawn Blazing Angel subordinated to the great Dawn Lord!"

Yang Feng smiled and continued to ask: "Sebas, why have you conspired with Heart of Fury and Graveyard of the Dead against Battle Demon Sect?"

The Dawn Blazing Angel just sneered and stared at Yang Feng with resentment in his eyes, not saying a word.

Yang Feng then asked a few more questions, but to no avail. Even when Yang Feng threatened to destroy his heart, he still didn't respond.

Seeing that the interrogation yielded no result, Yang Feng couldn't help frowning: "Sure enough, Blazing Angels made by the gods are really troublesome!"

As the best weapon of the gods, Angels are loyal to their god, unless they are corrupted. Other powerhouses can kill them, but they cannot make them betray their master.

It is because of this that most gods choose to make Angels as their strongest weapons.

Yang Feng frowned slightly: "It looks like the Fallen Angel Pool has to be created as soon as possible. By corrupting the three Dawn Blazing Angels in a Fallen Angel Pool, I can get information on the Dawn Lord as well as three Infinity Warlock rank subordinates. After this is over, it seems that I have to take a trip to the endless Abyss."

The first Fallen Angels were created by fiends in the endless Abyss by corrupting Angels. In order to refine a Fallen Angel Pool, you have to go to endless Abyss to look for materials.

The power Fallen Angels wield is dark force, while the power Angels wield depends on the god they serve. Angels are far more loyal than Fallen Angels. Therefore, gods like to create Angels the most, while Abyss's abyssal fiends can only choose to make Fallen Angels.

The three Dawn Blazing Angels are loyal to the mysterious Dawn Lord, making them more difficult to deal with than gods. Yang Feng can only turn them into Fallen Angels to get the secrets of the Dawn Lord from them.

The huge fleet flying in the distorted Astral Realm suddenly decelerated, and then knocked against a twisted membrane.

Ripples rose on the twisted membrane, and then the huge fleet suddenly passed through it and appeared in a space.

A blue celestial body ten times as big as Earth but seven times smaller than Battle Demon Plane appeared in front of Yang Feng.

In an instant, the already charged main artillery of the Blazing Sun Battlestars and Star Destroyer Battlestars flashed, and beams blasted towards the astral body in a magnificent spectacle.

There is also a floating continent in the center of Red Rage Plane, which is the headquarters of Heart of Fury. There are many Warlock towers and countless Warlock geniuses on the floating continent.

Under the bombardment of the brilliant beams, the several 10-story-tall Warlock Towers collapsed and crumbled.

The 9-story-tall Warlock towers were also destroyed by the bombardment of the Star Destroyer Battlestars.

“What’s going on?”

“Enemy attack! Enemy attack!”

“There are enemies! Damn it! Who the hell is it! Who dares to attack us!”

“Quick, launch the defensive barriers!”

Rays of light shone as countless Warlocks flew out of the floating continent and flew in all directions.

The secondary artillery of the Star Destroyer Battlestars and Blazing Sun Battlestars shone brightly, and a dense rain of light barreled towards the Warlocks.

When the beams hit the Warlocks, they broke their magic shields and pierced through their body.

Some Warlocks who possesses death substitution secret methods luckily escaped a disaster, while even more Warlocks died directly.

“This is the headquarters of Heart of Fury! Who are you?!”

A furious roar was transmitted from the floating continent, and Infinity Warlock rank fluctuations of power spread.

“We are from Undying Mountain! People of Heart of Fury, surrender, or die!”

A cold voice came from the sky, and swarms of fighter aircraft and battle robots flew out of the Interstellar Carriers like a tide and formed a terrifying torrent of metal flying downward.

Chapter 743 – Gold Freak

“How brazen! Since you want to die, then I’ll oblige you!”

From the floating continent where Heart of Fury’s headquarters is located came an angry voice.

All of a sudden, stars in Red Rage Plane’s outer space lit up. Divine countries shone and revealed themselves.

A grade 4 plane can hold no more than 100 gods. As an inferior grade 4 plane, Red Rage Plane can hold 60 gods.

At this time, 23 stars have lit up. They are the divine countries of 23 gods of Red Rage Plane. Huge warships filled with Angels flew out of the divine countries one after another.

Although Heart of Fury has occupied Red Rage Plane for millennia, but only 23 people have ignited divine fire and become gods.

Among the 23 people, there are only 3 intermediate divine force rank gods, while there isn't a single strong divine force rank god. Nevertheless, their divine legions are nothing to scoff at.

For gods, even if they have a grade 4 plane's intelligent life forms, it is extremely difficult to become a strong divine force rank god without a strong divine force grade godhead.

Of course, as long as you have a way to ascend to godhood, it is far easier to become a feeble divine force rank god than a Moonlight Warlock.

The further you advance on the god path, the harder it is to progress. Many strong divine force rank gods are specializing in a single divine authority in order to purify their power and obtain an opportunity to promote to mighty divine force rank gods.

"The divine legions were mobilized!"

"These damn invaders are toast!"

"Go and die!"

"..."

The Warlocks hiding behind the barriers on the floating continent showed looks of excitement when they saw the Angel legions emerge.

As the strongest weapons of the gods, as long as the heart of Angels is not destroyed, they will not die. Moreover, they can accumulate combat experience and evolve into more and more powerful existences.

A swarm of Type II Undyings blurred into motion and rushed towards the Angel legions.

A Type II Undying plunged into an Angel legion and, like a black thread, shuttled back and forth within the Angel legion.

In the wake of the black thread, the heart of Angels was chopped into pieces.

The black thread traveled for a dozen plus kilometers before a Moonlight Warlock rank Fire Blazing Angel suddenly erupted and slashed the black thread with a sword ray containing fire force, splitting the Type II Undying into two. Violent flames broke out and burned the Type II Undying to ashes.

Following flashes of blade rays, Great Warlock rank Angels, which constitute the main force of the Angel legions, fell like raindrops. Numerous Angels are being chopped into pieces at every moment. Only the Moonlight Warlock rank Angels can compete with the 4th generation battle robots.

Although there are countless Angels fighting frantically in the sky, but they are still being pushed back step by step.

Under the siege of the 4th generation battle robots, the Angels are disappearing almost at a speed visible to the naked eye.

“How is this possible?”

“Angels are one of the strongest weapons in the world, how can they be defeated by those golems?”

“What’s going on? Those are Angels! How can the strongest weapons be defeated by those golems?”

When Heart of Fury’s Warlocks saw this scene, despair flashed in their eyes.

Yang Feng swept the battlefield with a glance and revealed a smile: “Not bad! It seems that this plane has cultivated several outstanding Blazing Angels!”

Faced against Yang Feng’s mechanical legion, the Angel legions in the starry sky battlefield are being sliced and diced almost like tofu. However, in the midst of this, there are still four Bright World Warlock rank Blazing Angels fighting desperately and forcibly blocking Yang Feng’s mechanical legion.

But if it continues like this, if they don’t escape, the four Bright World Warlock rank Blazing Angels will ultimately be besieged and killed by the mechanical legion.

At this moment, three Interstellar Carriers opened a cabin each, and three Infinity Warlock rank weapons, namely a Gale Giant, a Space Breaker Dragon Whale, and a Scarlet Flame Fenghuang flew out in an instant.

The eyes of the Gale Giant flickered with runes, and violent wind shrouded it and formed wind blades. It took a step and appeared in front of a Bright World Warlock rank Blazing Angel, and the punched out.

Numerous wind blades crushed towards the Bright World Warlock rank Blazing Angel like mountains and seas.

The blazing angel raised his sword and slashed the Gale Giant’s fist with sword rays containing the power of nature.

The Gale Giant’s fist smashed the sword rays containing the power of nature and blasted the Blazing Angel away.

After the Nature Blazing Angel was blasted away, countless Type II Undyings rushed towards the Angels behind him like a flood.

The Space Breaker Dragon Whale opened its maw and enveloped a Berserk Blazing Angel, sealing him away in an alternate space within its body.

The Scarlet Flame Fenghuang rushed towards a Water Blazing Angel, who was forced to evade, exposing the Angel legion behind him.

As soon as the three Infinity Warlock rank weapons were thrown into battle, the Angel legions no longer able to withstand the mechanical legion began to be pushed back and suffered heavy casualties.

Yang Feng suddenly disappeared from the bridge of a battlestar, and then appeared in an empty space in an instant.

All of a sudden, the god armament Curtain of the Night flew out, turned into night, and enveloped the space where the four Bright World Warlock rank Blazing Angels were in.

In an instant, Yang Feng's true body emerged from the night and appeared behind the Nature Blazing Angel, and then pierced through all of the Nature Blazing Angel's defenses with the Dagger of the Night in his hand and stabbed him.

Numerous curses broke out in an instant and weakened the Nature Blazing Angel to the extreme. Then Yang Feng drove a Lock Dragon Nail into the other party's body and sealed their power.

Although Yang Feng's true body cannot manipulate night force like his god clone, who is a peerless assassin that can assassinate Infinity Warlocks at will. But he can still do all kinds of incredible things with the help of part of the god clone's night force.

One of the characteristics of gods is that they can grant part of their power to their divine chosen, god's darling, saints, and the like. Yang Feng's true body can naturally obtain part of the power bestowed by his god clone.

In the night, drawing support from night force and cooperating with the three Infinity Warlock rank weapons, the elusive Yang Feng quelled and sealed the remaining three Blazing Angels one after another.

After the three Bright World Warlock rank Blazing Angels were quelled by Yang Feng, the mechanical legion forced its way into Red Rage Plane's floating continent.

The floating continent is the foundation of Red Rage Plane. Once the floating continent is taken down, Yang Feng's mechanical legion will be able to sweep the divine countries of the gods one by one.

The Warlock towers on the floating continent suddenly lit up and conjured one barrier after another to resisting Yang Feng's mechanical legion.

However, Yang Feng has learned about the position of the most important Warlock towers on the floating continent through Battle Demon Sect's intelligence, and has already destroyed most of them before they could be activated. Due to this, the defense of the floating continent has weakened greatly.

The power of the primary artillery of Blazing Sun Battlestar is terrifying. Even if it is a Warlock Monarch rank powerhouse, if they don't use secret treasures and face it head on, they will be severely injured. Besides, with its super long range, it is most suitable to destroy the defense of fixed targets.

For Blazing Sun Battlestars, it is difficult to deal with ordinary Infinity Warlocks, they may not even be able to win against Bright World Warlocks. However, their destructive power was much greater than that of ordinary Infinity Warlocks. As such, they are excellent siege weapons.

"Undying Mountain! To dare attack our Heart of Fury, go to hell!"

A furious roar came from the floating continent where the headquarters of Heart of Fury is located, then the earth cracked, and a 3,000-meter-tall freak entirely gold in color, with a hideous head and bulky legs, and releasing faint holy light suddenly appeared.

As soon as the freak appeared, it took a step forward and, as if it teleported, appeared above a Blazing Sun Battlestar and stepped on it.

Bright holy light shone, and layers of fearsome force erupted and covered the entire battleship.

Boom!

The Blazing Sun Battlestar, which can fly faster than the speed of light and is made from numerous top alloy materials, exploded. As if thousands of nuclear bombs exploded together, the endless light and heat instantly enveloped the freak entirely gold in color.

The Blazing Sun Battlestars have the function of self-detonation. Once they explodes, even a Warlock Monarch rank powerhouse can be heavily wounded, or even killed.

“No!”

A sorrowful scream came from the floating continent.

After the light dissipated, only two human-looking legs exuding traces of Holy Spirit Warlock rank aura remained.

“These are the legs of the Brilliant Holy! That freak was refined with the legs as its power source!”

The left hand of the Brilliant Holy Yang Feng sealed in a box and stored away is shaking, making him realize that those legs belong to the Brilliant Holy.

Chapter 744 – Annexing Heart of Fury

After the gold freak and Yang Feng’s Blazing Sun Battlestar perished together, the morale of Heart of Fury’s Warlocks on the floating continent plummeted at once.

The terrifying mechanical legion poured into the floating continent like a tide and destroyed one Warlock tower after another like crushing dry weeds.

An Infinity Warlock rank aura suddenly rose from the floating continent, and then disappeared.

“The great elder ran away!”

“We were abandoned!”

“The great elder ran away!”

“Surrender! We surrender!”

“...”

Screams and wails came from the floating continent.

Yang Feng frowned slightly, a solemn look in his eyes: “Escaped? What a decisive fellow! To make such a decision so quickly, impressive!”

Yang Feng only used a few Infinity Warlock rank weapons until now. His Infinity Warlock rank subordinates are still lying in wait, ready to attack the Infinity Warlock at any time.

Infinity Warlocks are really difficult to kill, but that is in a one-on-one fight. However, Yang Feng is quite sure that five or six Infinity Warlocks besieging an ordinary Infinity Warlock will do the trick.

Red Rage Plane's plane origin will have long since been analyzed by Battle Demon Sect. As such, the experts under Yang Feng have come prepared, so there is no need to worry about plane origin will suppression.

"What a pity!" Yang Feng just sighed regretfully, and then no longer cared about it. He shifted his attention to the mechanical legion's offensive.

As long as Yang Feng's power continues to increase, his mechanical legion will continue to grow stronger, akin to a snowball effect. It is because of this that he captures the forces that he can and increases his power.

Red Rage Plane is a grade 4 plane. Once Yang Feng seizes it, it will become another base of his.

Now that the great elder escaped, it caused the morale of Heart of Fury's Warlocks to collapse. The remaining Moonlight Warlocks and Glorious Sun Warlocks cast secret methods to flee towards different directions.

Numerous Type II Undyings entangled them, and then surrounded them along with other 4th generation battle robots and blasted them to pieces one after another.

Divine light shone within the 23 divine countries, and gods flew out, cast divine spells, and flew into Astral Boundary without looking back.

Once gods leave the plane they ascended to godhood on, they will weaken continuously. At the same time, their connection with believers will also be weakened by more than 90%. Finding it hard to absorb divine force, their godhead may eventually crumble, following which they will die.

However, Warlocks who have ascended to godhood, after leaving their plane, can use special secret methods to shatter their godhead and abandon 99% of their power. By doing this, there is a slight possibility that they will get rid of the divine shackles and transform into non-divine beings.

Of course, shattering the godhead, abandoning the divine body, and renouncing everything they have built until now, it isn't something that gods will usually choose to do. For a strong divine force rank god, if they abandon everything, they will very likely ultimately become an ordinary person, and will have to practice cultivation all over again. But after countless hardships, they may not be able to cultivate to the Infinity Warlock realm.

When the 23 gods realized that the situation is anything but reassuring, that they could not compete with Yang Feng, they chose to escape.

The fierce battle lasted for two full hours before Red Rage Plane's floating continent was completely occupied by Yang Feng's mechanical legion.

Next the huge mechanical legion captured the divine countries of the 23 gods one after another.

Since the 23 gods left in a hurry, apart from bringing some treasures, they couldn't bring along a large number of petitioners, saints, divine force crystals, and other resources.

"Let's destroy these divine countries!"

Gazing at the star-like divine countries, Yang Feng smiled coldly, and spread the fingers of a hand. All of a sudden, a black vortex appeared, and a dense swarm of Devourers poured out and rushed towards a divine country.

Before long, the divine country shrank at a speed visible to the naked eye.

A divine country is made from divine force, laws, a semi-plane, and various rare materials. The Devourers can devour anything. Every time they devour a divine country, they will get stronger.

The complexion of a weak divine force rank god of Red Rage Plane flying in Astral Boundary suddenly changed dramatically, and he let out a scream of horror and despair: "No! My divine country! Damn, those wretched bastards! My divine country!"

As he screamed, the weak divine force rank god spouted out a mouthful of gold blood, then his aura weakened to the extreme, and he fell into a coma.

Divine countries are closely connected to the gods. Each divine country is created by using a god's power, countless resources, divine force crystals, laws, and even part of a god's soul.

The closer the connection between a god and their divine country, the stronger the divine country is. Similarly, once their divine country is destroyed, the god will suffer a huge backlash.

The aura of Astral Boundary slowly permeated the god and made him look ferocious. Shortly after, a fierce Glorious Sun Warlock rank astral freak with savage features, containing both astral force and divine force, was born.

When the Devourers have devoured the 10th divine country, they suddenly split into two, and their number doubled immediately.

Devourers are originally one of the strongest kind of weapon of the xizu, a weapon that can evolve continuously. It is because of this that Yang Feng handed the precious 23 divine countries to the Devourers to devour.

At the deepest part of the floating continent, there is a person standing in front of a red door covered in countless runes. This person is Yang Feng.

Behind the red door is Hear of Fury's treasury.

"I wonder how many of Hear of Fury's treasures the great elder took with him when he escaped!"

A thought streaked across Yang Feng's mind, and he pushed open the door of the treasury.

As if it has been swept by a storm, the treasury is a mess. Most of the precious treasures have been taken away, while only a large number of magic crystals remained.

Killing intent flickered inside Yang Feng's eyes. He spread the fingers of a hand, and countless flying ant-like drones suddenly flew out and flew towards the treasury: "That great elder is really a scumbag. If only I could have stopped and killed him."

Those flying ant-like drones are linked to the database of the level-4 optical computer network, which can use the data in the database freely to search for treasures useful to Yang Feng.

Suddenly, a flying ant sent a prompt. Yang Feng followed the prompt and saw a dull bead engraved with mysterious runes lying on the ground.

"This is a Dragon Origin Bead! It seems that my luck hasn't ran out."

Yang Feng took a closer look at the bead, then his heart stirred slightly, and he revealed a smile.

Dragon Origin Bead is a queer object that can be formed after a dragon powerhouse dies by combining part of the dragon powerhouse's soul and the world's life magic energy together. If this Dragon Origin Bead is absorbed by a golem refined with a high grade soul stone, it can transform the golem into a dragon-like existence.

Dragon Origin Bead is a very rare treasure. Even after combing through Li Gui Province, Yu Province, and Bright Moon Province, Yang Feng still hasn't found this kind of treasure, which shows how rare it is.

The Mechanical Black Dragon that has accompanied Yang Feng to this day has only evolved to the pinnacle Glorious Sun Warlock rank. But if it ingests this Dragon Origin Bead, it will be able to break through the bottleneck and evolve into a Bright World Warlock or even an Infinity Warlock rank existence.

Yang Feng's mood became better, not minding that the treasury was nearly swept clean by the great elder: "With this Dragon Origin Bead, I will be able to create another Infinity Warlock rank combatant!"

The grade 4 plane Submerged Tomb Plane.

Spatial ripples appeared in the plane's outer space, and a crimson figure flew out and flew towards the floating continent on Submerged Tomb Plane.

When the crimson figure appeared in this space, as if it touched a boundary, a powerful aura swept it and verified its identity.

"I, Heart of Fury's great elder Yan Pengfei, request an audience!"

When the crimson figure landed on the floating continent, traces of Infinity Warlock rank fluctuations of power surged, and the silhouette of a middle-age man dressed in a red Warlock robe was revealed.

A gray ray flew out from the abyss of the floating continent and enveloped Yan Pengfei, and he disappeared instantly.

In the next moment, Yan Pengfei appeared in a bright and luxurious palace hall. In the palace hall, there sits an old man in a gray robe, with gray beard and hair, and enveloped in darkness.

The old man smiled and said, "Old Yan, what brings you here?"

This old man is Graveyard of the Dead's great elder Ning Wuxin, and he is an Infinity Warlock.

A gleam of resentment shimmered in Yan Pengfei's eyes, and he gritted his teeth and said: "Old Ning, Heart of Fury is no more!"

Killing intent shimmered in his eyes, and Ning Wuxin uttered gravely: "Who did it? Was it Battle Demon Sect? Those damn sons of bitches have just besieged and killed two of our great elders, and now they attacked us again! That's beyond low! They deserve to die 10,000 times over!"

Both Heart of Fury and Graveyard of the Dead possess special secret methods. When their great elders died, they immediately became aware of it. Yan Pengfei escaped so decisively because Zhu Lie was killed.

Chapter 745 – Assassination of an Infinity Warlock

Yan Pengfei shuddered when he thought of the dense mechanical legion, then gritted his teeth and uttered: "It's a force called Undying Mountain! They besieged us with a nearly endless golem tide and defeated our Angel legions!"

A dignified gleam flashed in Ning Wuxin's eyes, and he said solemnly: "Mechanical golems? Are they Warlocks who specialize in the 6th Warlock Dynasty's — Golem Dynasty's — secrets methods?"

The 6th Warlock Dynasty's — Golem Dynasty's — mechanical golems rampaged in the early stage of the dynasty . But after living golems emerged, mechanical golems retreated from the stage of history .

That doesn't mean that the mechanical golems were weak . But the living golems were much cheaper, consuming much less resources than mechanical golems .

Warlocks who study Golem Dynasty won't give up on researching their mechanical golems .

Yan Pengfei replied: "I don't know! The opponent came prepared . As soon as they appeared, they destroyed most of our Warlock towers with warship-like weapons . After they defeated our Angel legions and destroyed the Gold Holy Devil, I saw that the situation was anything but reassuring and thus left . "

A grave gleam flashed in Ning Wuxin's eyes: "The Gold Holy Devil was destroyed?"

The Gold Holy Devil was the gold freak forged using the legs of the Brilliant Holy plus alchemy and various spells . It was a fearsome weapon that could fight true Infinity Warlocks .

The Scarlet Flame Fenghuang, Gale Giant, and other Infinity Warlock rank weapons under Yang Feng's control can exert Infinity Warlock rank destructive power . However, to fight a true Infinity Warlock, you'd need at least four of these weapons .

But the gold freak possesses the strength to slay Infinity Warlocks by itself . If it hadn't been destroyed by the detonation of a Blazing Sun Battlestar, Yang Feng would need to send at least three Infinity Warlock rank top powerhouses such as Alexia to get rid of it .

Yan Pengfei spoke gravely: "That's right . Old Ning, I suspect that Undying Mountain is in cahoots with Battle Demon Sect . Now that they have dealt with my Heart of Fury, it is very likely that the next target will be your Graveyard of the Dead . "

Ning Wuxin smiled coldly, gazed at Yan Pengfei with a flash of superiority in his eyes, and said proudly: "Our Graveyard of the Dead won't be destroyed that easily by those wretches . If they dare come, I will show them how impressive my Graveyard of the Dead is and kill them . "

Although Graveyard of the Dead and Heart of Fury have been on good terms for generations, but Graveyard of the Dead is a notch stronger than Heart of Fury . Ning Wuxin is an intermediate Infinity Warlock, while Yan Pengfei is only a junior Infinity Warlock . Although the two seem to stand on an equal footing, but in fact, Ning Wuxin has the dominant position .

Now that Yan Pengfei lost his foundation that is Heart of Fury, he has become a rogue cultivator, and thus can now compare even less to Graveyard of the Dead's great elder Ning Wuxin in terms of status .

Yan Pengfei raised his brows slightly . With his keen senses, he detected the sense of superiority hidden in Ning Wuxin's words, and then kept the warning he originally wanted to give Ning Wuxin to himself .

"Old..."

Ning Wuxin had just spoken a word, when suddenly a hair-raising premonition of danger welled up inside him, and he pointed at the sky with a finger .

Powerful runes suddenly appeared on the roof of the palace and formed layers of magic shields .

Boom!

Along with an earth-shattering explosion, a bright beam of light blasted into the palace like divine punishment . The beam of light reduced everything to ashes in its wake .

"Enemy attack!"

"Damn it, there are enemies!"

"..."

Panicked voices rose in the palace, and barriers suddenly activated .

Boom! Boom!

The sounds of huge explosions rang incessantly . Inside the palace hall, Ning Wuxin's face suddenly turned gloomy, and he uttered full of killing intent: "How brazen! To attack my Graveyard of the Dead, what reckless fools! Old Yan, you have to help me kill those reckless fools!"

Yan Pengfei pondered for a moment before gritting his teeth and saying: "Okay!"

When Yang Feng captured Heart of Fury, he left Yan Pengfei with no foundation . From now on, Yan Pengfei will be a rogue cultivator . He'll have to struggle hard to establish a new force .

When a Warlock cultivates to the Infinity Warlock realm, they will either choose to rely on a force, plunder and pillage, or create a force of their own . Or else they won't be able to get enough resources for cultivation .

When Yan Pengfei thought of establishing a new force, mad killing intent directed towards Yang Feng welled up inside him .

“I am Lei Ming, the Young Master of Undying Mountain! Graveyard of the Dead, surrender, or die!”

A domineering voice echoed in the space around Graveyard of the Dead .

Two rays of light flew out from the depths of Graveyard of the Dead, and Infinity Warlock rank auras soared into the sky .

Yan Pengfei fixed his gaze at the sky and saw an endless mechanical legion .

48 stars in the sky twinkled, revealing divine countries . Dense crowds of Angels flew out of the divine countries and clashed with Yang Feng’s mechanical legions .

As soon as the ordinary Angels came into contact with Yang Feng’s mechanical legion, they turned into countless pieces, and scattered on the ground .

Only some Moonlight Warlock rank and above Blazing Angels led the Angel legions to destroy one robot after another .

The sound of explosions rang incessantly in the sky, and countless parts and flesh and blood sprinkled on the earth .

The gods of Graveyard of the Dead are much stronger than the gods of Heart of Fury . A total of 12 weak divine force rank and 2 intermediate divine force rank gods left their divine countries . By burning divine force, they cast various formidable divine spells to bless the Angels .

Blessed by the formidable divine spells, the fighting power of the Angels soared . The ordinary Angels are now even able to display Starry Sky Warlock rank battle prowess .

On Submerged Tomb Plane’s floating continent, Graveyard of the Dead’s Warlocks chanted incantations .

Devil corpses of dragons, giants, devils, fiends, evil gods, devil insects, high elves, kindred, astral creatures, and other extraordinary life forms suddenly appeared .

The different devil corpses rushed into the sky and engaged with Yang Feng’s mechanical legion .

The weird devil corpses have just risen into the sky, when countless fighter aircraft fired a rain of light that blasted them apart .

When Ning Wuxin saw the dense swarm of fighter aircraft and countless battle robots in the sky, his scalp turned numb, and a look of fear flashed in his eyes: “This is Undying Mountain! What a terrifying mechanical legion!”

The fighter aircraft and battle robots are unmanned mechanical golems . Not only is their combat power amazing, but their number is also despair inducing .

Ning Wuxin previously looked down on Yan Pengfei, who took flight in the face of danger . But now a solemn glint flashed in her eyes .

At this moment, three Interstellar Carriers opened a hatch each, and three Infinity Warlock rank weapons, namely a Gale Giant, a Space Breaker Dragon Whale, and a Scarlet Flame Fenghuang, flew out and plunged into battle .

When the three Infinity Warlock rank weapons plunged into battle, even though the Angel legions have gods blessing them with divine spells, they were still pushed back again and again .

The two intermediate divine force rank gods burned divine force madly and cast powerful divine spells blasting towards the three infinity Warlock rank weapons .

By madly burning divine force, the strength of the two intermediate divine force rank gods soared at once, and they actually suppressed the three Infinity Warlock rank weapons .

However, the three Interstellar Carriers opened a hatch each again, and three other Infinity Warlock rank weapons, namely a Six-headed Gold Dragon, an Archaic Sacred Dragon, and a grand duke archdevil, flew out and plunged into the battlefield .

As soon as these three Infinity Warlock rank weapons were placed on the battlefield, the Angel legions were pushed back again, suffering heavy casualties .

Ning Wuxin's eyes turned bloodshot, and he roared: "Undying Mountain, you damn beasts are dead! Extinguish Devil Body! Come out!"

Suddenly, a figure flew out from the shadow behind Ning Wuxin and, as if a specter, stabbed him with the god armament Dagger of the Night . The dagger pierced through numerous magic shields and stabbed him in the heart .

Fearsome night divine force instantly erupted, and various curses appeared on Ning Wuxin's body .

"You...!"

Ning Wuxin let out a terrified scream, and then instantly lost all strength and turned into a corpse .

"Strong divine force rank god! The Ruler of the Night!"

Yan Pengfei glanced at Yang Feng's god clone, who assassinated Ning Wuxin, and terror surged inside him . His figure fluttered, and he fled into the distance . Although he is a junior Infinity Warlock rank powerhouse, but he stands no chance against a strong divine force rank god .

Yang Feng's god clone wears a special armor secret treasure that adjusts his divine force fluctuations . With this armor, although he is still suppressed by the plane origin will, but his strength only dropped by about 10% . Nevertheless, this is still enough to defeat Yan Pengfei .

Yan Pengfei has just flown for hundreds of kilometers, when countless seven-colored rose petals suddenly flew out and formed a Seven Color Rose Petal Seal Boundary, trapping him inside .

A tyrannical aura rose suddenly, and Yu Yan, who looks like a goddess of war, flew over from a distance and blocked in front of Yan Pengfei .

Chapter 746 – Defeating Graveyard of the Dead

When Yan Pengfei saw that Yu Yan, who is exuding advanced Infinity Warlock rank fluctuations of power, his expression changed greatly, and he shouted: "Stop! I am willing to surrender and submit to Undying Mountain's Young Master Lei Ming!"

Yan Pengfei first saw Yang Feng's strong divine force rank god clone Ruler of the Night, then he was locked up by Seven Color Rose Garden's Garden Master's barrier, and finally he met Yu Yan, one of the Eight Marshals of Great Cloud Dynasty. It all compelled him to make a prompt decision.

Yu Yan said coldly: "Let me seal your life force with a Lock Dragon Nail!"

Yan Pengfei frowned slightly and said solemnly: "I am Heart of Fury's great elder Yan Pengfei. As long as I submit to Young Master Lei Ming, he can easily take control of Heart of Fury. I can placate the people on Red Rage Plane to quickly hand over control to Undying Mountain, which will save you at least 100 years of time."

When Yang Feng's true body aboard a battleship heard this, ridicule flickered in his eyes.

If it was under normal circumstances, then just like Yan Pengfei said, it would take a huge amount of time and energy to fully take control of a plane.

However, Yang Feng's mechanical legion possesses extremely powerful smart chips, which are controlled by the level-4 optical computer network. The key positions can be filled by the intelligent robots. Therefore, the forces that Yang Feng annexes can quickly merge into his force and transform into his power.

Fuel war with war. Like a snowball that continuously strengthens itself, this is the horror of the xizu mechanical legion.

If it weren't for the incredible Holy grade and Empyrean grade secret treasures, Yang Feng would have crushed all his enemies.

Although the xizu mechanical legion is very powerful, but in this universe, there are freakish powerhouses at the Warlock Monarch, Holy Spirit Warlock, and even Warlock Emperor rank.

As long as a Holy Spirit Warlock takes action, Yang Feng's foundation on Cangzhi Plane will be pulled up by the roots, and he will be forced to retreat to a lower grade plane such as Andrak Plane or Red Rage Plane. Otherwise, only death will await him.

It has been more than 100 million years since the birth of the first true ancestor on God Blood Plane. During the past 100 million years, only 9 true ancestors were born on God Blood Plane. This shows how difficult it is for a Holy Spirit Warlock rank powerhouses to emerge.

"Yan Pengfei, open your soul and let my Lord set up a soul brand. Otherwise, die!"

Along with a flash of black light, Alexia wearing the Fallen Angel Armor suddenly appeared behind Yan Pengfei and spoke with strong killing intent.

Yan Pengfei's face flickered when he saw Alexia: "Infinity Warlock rank Blazing Angel! What a strong foundation!"

An Infinity Warlock rank Blazing Angel is a fearsome weapon that can contend with a human Warlock genius of the same rank who formed a virtual world inside them. She is not an existence that an ordinary junior Infinity Warlock like Yan Pengfei can compete with.

Yan Pengfei's thoughts revolved, and then he gritted his teeth and said: "Fine! I will open up my soul and submit to Young Master!"

Infinity Warlocks stem from common people. Once deprived of their power, they are no different from common people. Except for some Infinity Warlocks, the rest are afraid of death much like ordinary people. Such talents are easy to subdue.

In the world of Warlocks, power has nothing to do with a Warlock's morality, nature, and disposition.

Yan Pengfei silently recited an incantation, and a projection that is a spitting image of him and exudes soul aura suddenly flew out.

The space distorted, and Yang Feng's True God Empyrean Imprint flew out suddenly. Numerous black chains flew out of the True God Empyrean Imprint, stabbed into Yan Pengfei's soul, and formed a weird soul brand in the depths of Yan Pengfei's soul.

As soon as the brand formed, Yan Pengfei vaguely felt that there is something dangerous in his soul and understood that his fate is no longer under his control.

"Scoundrel! Let's retreat!"

When Submerged Tomb Plane's God of War, an intermediate divine force rank god, saw that Ning Wuxin was instantly killed by Yang Feng's god clone, he roared at once, then his figure shook slightly, and he fled into the distance.

An endless night swept towards that area and instantly engulfed Submerged Tomb Plane's God of War.

At the moment when the endless night enveloped the God of War, Yang Feng's Ruler of the Night god clone silently appeared behind the other party and stabbed him with the Dagger of the Night in the heart.

Before the God of War could make a sound, he was eroded by various curse, and lost the power to resist.

Yang Feng's Ruler of the Night god clone stabbed the God of War's forehead with his hand and dug out the other party's godhead.

Yang Feng's Ruler of the Night god clone smiled and put away the godhead: "The godhead of a God of War, that's something that I need!"

The fighting power of gods is immense. But at the same time, it is extremely difficult for gods to advance. If you rely on the faith force of your believers and your own understanding of a certain power, it is 100 times more difficult to advance for gods than for Warlocks. The fastest way for a god to promote is to consume the godheads of gods of the same power.

If Yang Feng can consume a mighty divine force grade godhead, he can easily promote to a mighty divine force rank god. When using strong divine force grade godheads to promote to a mighty divine force rank god, it'll take you at least 10 godheads of the same power.

Intermediate divine force grade godheads also have not a small effect on Yang Feng's god clone.

If it was in a frontal battle, the God of War might be able to barely hold on while fighting Yang Feng. But he chose to flee, and exposed his back, which gave Yang Feng a great chance to assassinate him.

When the God of War died in the starry sky, Graveyard of the Dead's Warlocks lost their fighting spirit and turned into streams of light fleeing in different directions.

"I surrender!"

"I surrender!"

"..."

After fighting for a while, Graveyard of the Dead's Warlocks were finally unable to withstand the siege of Yang Feng's mechanical legion, and surrendered one after another.

Next Yang Feng's mechanical legion seized control of the floating continent.

"This is the Extinguish Devil Body, what a dangerous weapon! Moreover, it is refined from a part of the Brilliant Holy's body! If it is fully activated, I'm afraid it will be more difficult to deal with than the gold freak!"

Yang Feng stands in front a 100-meter-tall freak. Its head, arms, and legs are made from the remains of a Warlock Monarch rank extraordinary life form, while its torso is made from the body of a Holy step Holy Warlock. There is a dignified look in Yang Feng's eyes. The Brilliant Holy's body parts sealed inside his storage treasure are resonating with the torso embedded in the Extinguish Devil Body, which signifies that the torso belongs to the Brilliant Holy as well.

The Extinguish Devil Body is covered with various powerful seals. If it weren't for these seals sealing it, then once it wakes up, the distorted life force field it will release can kill all intelligent life forms below the level-3 Warlock rank.

A gleam of regret flashed in Yang Feng's eyes: "A pity, I made an agreement with Brilliant Holy to help him resurrect! I have to dismantle this weapon!"

Yang Feng waved his hand, and a swarm of Devourers suddenly pounced on the freak.

Under the devouring of the Devourers, the Extinguish Devil Body disintegrated inch by inch, until only the Brilliant Holy's torso was left.

Yang Feng beckoned with his hand, and the torso of the Brilliant Holy flew to his hand, and then he sealed it in a jade box.

After Yang Feng put the jade box away, a thought suddenly welled up inside him and filled him with apprehension towards Holy step Holy Spirit Warlock rank powerhouses: "Holy step powerhouses are really terrifying. I wonder what spell he used to enable me to collect so many parts of his body."

The Brilliant Holy is an old monster from the 1st Warlock Dynasty age. His body, which has a trace of immortality, is a top alchemy material. God knows how many times it has changed hands. For Yang Feng to be able to collect most of his body. Obviously, an incredible spell must be at work.

"Anyway, as long as I don't break my promise, he shouldn't harm me."

As soon as Yang Feng entered Graveyard of the Dead's treasury, he saw an endless expanse radiating the light of treasures. The treasury is filled with treasures Graveyard of the Dead collected since its inception.

As Yang Feng gazed at the treasury, he revealed a smile: "No matter how many times I see the treasury a powerful Warlock group, it never gets boring."

Every time he opens a treasury of a powerful Warlock group, Yang Feng can obtain many useful treasures. It is because of this that he will attack and destroy powerful Warlock groups as long as he gets a chance. Only in this way can he obtain sufficient cultivation resources.

Other Warlock groups, even if they are several levels stronger than Heart of Fury and Graveyard of the Dead, wouldn't dare to rashly go to war with these two Warlock groups. Since once war breaks out, it signifies that Warlocks will die. Ordinary Warlocks don't matter. But if too many Warlocks at the Moonlight Warlock rank and above die, it will damage the vitality of a Warlock group. It is because Battle Demon Sect is concerned about this that they didn't dare to start a war rashly.

But since Yang Feng has the huge mechanical legion, he is able to crush and conquer Heart of Fury and Graveyard of the Dead without taking the losses into account.

Chapter 747 – Information

"This is a Phantom Star Pit, the main material needed to refine xizu top weapon Phantom Ruler! This should be enough for me to refine an incomplete Phantom Ruler!"

While strolling inside Graveyard of the Dead's treasury, Yang Feng's eyes suddenly lit up, then he hurriedly took a few steps forward and picked up a fist-sized ore that radiates eerie light, and his eyes filled with excitement .

Devourers and Phantom Rulers are two of the top weapons of the xizu .

Devourers that have evolved to the pinnacle can devour any energy and possesses terrifying defensive power and proliferation ability . Phantom Rulers are a kind of weapon that can easily confuse intelligent life forms and cause them to fall into an illusion . Unable to extricate themselves from the illusion, they'll eventually pass away .

If Yang Feng had a top Phantom Ruler, he could use it to confuse the three Dawn Blazing Angels, to make them regard Yang Feng as the Dawn Lord, and obediently tell him all the information at their disposal .

Whether it is the Devourers or the Phantom Rulers, their core materials are most precious treasures . Even the tyrannical xizu, whose power span across countless star fields, had to synthesize the materials for about 100 years to create one complete Phantom Ruler .

The corners of Yang Feng's mouth raised into a smile: "Although I can't refine a complete Phantom Ruler, but I can add superior grade soul stones to it and, coupled with the alchemy of Warlock civilization, refine a Phantom Ruler that can evolve continuously . "

Superior soul stones are most precious strategic resources as well as first rate materials for refining Blazing Angels . Yang Feng doesn't possess many superior soul stones .

However, he got 43 Blazing Angels and a large number of saints and petitioners as spoils of war . He can use secret methods to transform the saints and petitioners into soul stones .

In fact, once you take down a god's divine country, then as long as the divine country isn't pulled into Astral Boundary, you can capture the saints and petitioners inside within and refine them into soul stones . This is one of the best spoils of war for Warlocks when fighting gods .

Soul stones is a kind of resource that won't devalue no matter the plane it is placed on . Many secret treasures and weapons with all kinds of incredible abilities require the use of soul stones .

Yang Feng continued to treasure hunt inside Graveyard of the Dead's treasury . There are indeed many treasures in the treasury . But compared to the treasury of a kindred grand duke, it is still far too lacking . There are very few treasures here that can make his heart race .

"This is the corpse of a grand prince rank abyssal fiend lord, that's Graveyard of the Dead for you . Looks like they are best at grave robbing . This must be the most valuable treasure of Graveyard of the Dead . If I am not mistaken, this treasure is sealed here because no one can control it!"

When Yang Feng reached the deepest part of Graveyard of the Dead's treasury, his eyes suddenly lit up . He saw a three-meter-tall abyssal fiend lord with a horn and a sinister appearance, engraved with wicked runes, looking like it is sleeping, in a transparent crystal coffin . The coffin is sealed by countless runes, and Monarch grade might is slowly diffusing from it .

The various secret methods practiced by Graveyard of the Dead can enable Warlocks to command all kinds of devil corpses . However, after being refined by these secret methods, the devil corpses are transformed into a different kind of extraordinary existence .

Once the grand prince rank abyssal fiend lord is activated by a weaker Infinity Warlock, with the abyssal fiend's chaotic nature, the Infinity Warlock will suffer a backlash and die .

The corners of Yang Feng's mouth rose slightly: "It seems that I have lucked out . This corpse is excellent for my next plan . "

Andrak Plane, in a palace hall .

Playing with a storage ring containing the most precious treasures of Heart of Fury, Yang Feng asked Yan Pengfei: "Yan Pengfei, do you know the origin of the three Blazing Angels?"

Yan Pengfei replied respectfully: "Young Master, the three Blazing Angels are reportedly the messengers sent by the Eighth Warlock Emperor, the Dawn Lord . "

Yang Feng frowned slightly and uttered: "The Dawn Lord is a human Warlock, not a god . For him to have Blazing Angels under his control, don't you find this suspicious?"

Yan Pengfei smiled bitterly: "Our Heart of Fury is a subject of the Dawn Lord . The Dawn Imperial Seal cannot be faked . It is a genuine Dawn Imperial Seal . We have a special secret method that detected the aura of the living Dawn Lord within the Dawn Imperial Seal . Besides, we can ascertain the the aura was infused into the seal not long ago . How can we disobey his orders?"

The human Eight Warlock Emperors of Cangzhi Plane suppressed countless planes . Among the countless planes, the powerhouses at Moonlight Warlock rank and above know of the prestige of the human Eight Warlock Emperors .

Heart of Fury and Graveyard of the Dead are Warlock groups who are only second to Great Cloud Dynasty's Ten Great Sects and Eight Great Families in terms of strength . However, compared with the 8th Warlock Emperor, the Dawn Lord, they are ants that can be crushed at any time .

Only Holy Spirit Warlock rank powerhouses are qualified to talk with Warlock Emperor rank powerhouses .

Yang Feng asked, "What did they want from you?"

Yan Pengfei smiled bitterly and gave Yang Feng a deep look: "Resources, they had us hand in a greater part of our resources to them every year . At the same time, under their protection, we could freely expand outwards and annex other Warlock groups . "

Yan Pengfei already knows that Undying Mountain's Young Master Lei Ming is Battle Demon Sect's Yang Feng . Much like Heart of Fury and Graveyard of the Dead eyed Battle Demon Sect covetously, Yang Feng also eyed these two Warlock groups covetously . In the end, they became Yang Feng's prey instead .

Yang Feng continued to ask: "What else can you tell me?"

Yan Pengfei pondered for a while before saying: "We didn't have much contact with the Angels, and thus don't have much information on them . However, every time they appear, they are led by three Infinity Warlock rank Blazing Angels . We've seen 12 Infinity Warlock rank Blazing Angels . "

Yang Feng couldn't help taking in a breath of cold air, and a dignified ray flickered in his eyes: "12 Infinity Warlock rank Blazing Angels!"

Blazing Angels wielding the power of dawn are undoubtedly one of the strongest kinds of Blazing Angels . There is almost no attribute whose power can restrain them . In order to get rid of a Blazing Angel that wields the power of dawn, you must crush them with absolute power .

Even though there are differences in Infinity Warlock rank Blazing Angels . But even the weakest Infinity Warlock rank Blazing Angel is comparable to a Warlock prodigy who has formed a virtual world .

If 12 Blazing Angels attack Heart of Fury and Graveyard of the Dead, they can level them completely . Faced against absolute power, coupled with the Dawn Imperial Seal, Heart of Fury and Graveyard of the Dead had no choice but to submit .

Yang Feng asked: "Is there anything else?"

Yan Pengfei shook his head and responded: "There isn't!"

Yang Feng asked a few more questions, but didn't get any more information from Yan Pengfei .

Yang Feng frowned slightly, and worry flashed in his eyes: "Is it really the Dawn Lord? If it really is him, then I'm in trouble! Could it be that I have to conceal and change my identity and hide?"

Each of the Eight Warlock Emperors was a terrifying, unequalled existence . Even the weaker Dawn Lord was a peerless prodigy who suppressed all other prodigies on Cangzhi Plane, a mighty and unparalleled Warlock Emperor . If he is alive, even if he's at his weakest, then as long as he locks on the position of Yang Feng's true body, he can cross a great distance and kill Yang Feng in an instance with a single finger .

The endless Abyss, on the 7th floor .

A black sun is strangely suspended in the air, the earth is dry and cracked, strange-shaped abyssal plants are growing everywhere, and the air is filled with a corrosive abyssal force . If an ordinary person breathes this air containing abyssal force in, they will get seriously ill at the least, or die at the worst .

Although it looks like there are no creatures on the ground . But when you look closely, you can see that there are actually demonic creatures exuding ferocious and brutal temperaments concealing themselves .

Every once in a while, fighting breaks out in some place on the ground . Then the loser is consumed along with hair and bones .

Black like ink, exuding a vile stench, an abyssal river formed from negative energy of the countless planes is flowing quietly here .

Every so often, a black water spray suddenly rises in the abyssal river and rolls towards the shore .

Each time a water spray rolls out, it contains a large number of black abyssal insects approximately 20 centimeters long, with distorted faces on the back and a sharp, chrysanthemum flower-like mouthpart .

As soon as the abyssal insects appear, they devour each other .

Many imps with a child-like face and beast-like sharp teeth darted out happily, grabbed the fat abyssal insects, and stuffed them into their mouth .

"So this is Abyss? What a cruel place!"

The abyssal insect a part of Yang Feng's soul is parasitising just glanced around, then opened its extremely sharp mouthpart and bit into an abyssal insect next to it . He consumed the abyssal insect in a few large mouthfuls .

When he consumed the abyssal insect, Yang Feng felt his body swell up a bit and a bit of power well up inside him .

Without any hesitation, Yang Feng arched his body, and then immediately shot out and pounced at another abyssal insect . He bit off the head of the abyssal insect and devoured it at once .

After consuming more than 30 abyssal insects in a row, Yang Feng's body suddenly expanded to 30 centimeters long, brimming with power .

Chapter 748 – Infiltration of the Endless Abyss

Suddenly, the scarlet eyes of an imp flashed fiercely, and it licked its lips and strode towards Yang Feng.

A fat and full of power abyssal insect like Yang Feng is the favorite food of imps. As long as an imp consumes enough abyssal insects, the abyssal force inside it will be stimulated, and it'll evolve into a different kind of demonic creature.

Abyssal insects and abyssal imps, who are formed from the negative energy of countless planes endlessly, are the foundation of the endless Abyss.

A sense of danger welled up inside Yang Feng. He manipulated his insect body to arch slightly, and then shot out with all his power like an arrow, opened his chrysanthemum flower-like mouthpart, jumped onto the imp's face, and bit down.

The abyssal insect's sharp teeth pierced deep into the abyssal imp's face, and blood drops emerged from the latter's face.

As its face twisted in pain, the abyssal imp grabbed Yang Feng's plump insect body and squeezed it hard.

A sharp pain assaulted Yang Feng, as if his insect body is about to burst. At this moment, Yang Feng used a strange secret method of conducting power, and his insect body squirmed. He consumed the last trace of abyssal force inside him, and his sharp mouthpart exploded with tremendous strength and bit through the abyssal imp's face.

A large amount of black blood flowed down from the abyssal imp's face. Suffering great pain, it fell to the ground and struggled for a while before losing all its strength and dying.

Enduring the severe pain coming from his insect body, Yang Feng consumed the abyssal imp corpse bit by bit.

Since the abyssal imp corpse is a great supplement to abyssal insects, the surrounding abyssal insects crawled towards it.

As he consumed the abyssal imp corpse, Yang Feng devoured the abyssal insects that approached one by one. Four hours later, his insect body has grown to about 1 meter long.

When Yang Feng's body reached 1 meter in length, he felt a powerful abyssal force well up inside him and combine with his soul.

He twitched, then a hand suddenly extended from the abyssal insect Yang Feng has transformed into and tore open his insect body, from within which an abyssal imp covered in mucus crawled out.

As he sensed the changes in his body, the corners of Yang Feng's mouth rose into a smile: "Finally, I have a body that resembles that of a human. Next I can practice secret methods to improve my strength."

Even though Yang Feng has mastered countless top secret methods, but there are very few that can be practiced while in the abyssal insect form. They can at most only make it easier for him to control the body.

Now that he evolved into an abyssal imp, Yang Feng is able to practice various abyssal secret methods developed by Warlocks.

The Eight Warlock Emperors have all previously suppressed the endless Abyss. Every time a Warlock Emperor climbed the throne, they have gone to the endless Abyss on a punitive expedition to slay its top powerhouses.

Because the endless Abyss runs through countless planes, it collects the negative energy of virtually the entire universe. According to the classification of human Warlocks, the endless Abyss is equivalent to a grade 1 plane, since it can give birth Warlock Emperors.

There is clear historical record of human Eight Warlock Emperors slaying four Warlock Emperor rank wicked abyssal creatures.

Although many weird demonic creatures are born in the endless Abyss every day, but some of the most powerful, commonly seen demonic creatures have been thoroughly studied by human Warlocks, and various incredible secret methods have been developed for them.

There are also many Fiend Warlocks, Succubus Warlocks, Abyssal Demonic Dragon Warlocks, and other kinds of Warlocks with abyssal creature bloodline. Of course, if those Warlocks fail to control the chaotic and bloodthirsty instincts of the abyss bloodline, they will be eliminated by other human Warlocks.

“The promotion of demonic creatures is much simpler than that of human Warlocks! As long as they keep killing and eating, they can get the favor of the will of Abyss and become more powerful!”

Yang Feng grabbed two abyssal insects, twisted off their head, stuffed them into his mouth, and operated the Devour Secret Method, devouring the two.

“In Abyss, the Devour Secret Method suits me well!”

Yang Feng grabbed abyssal insects, stuffed them into his mouth, operated the Devour Secret Method, and devoured them one after another.

He guided traces of abyssal force into his claws. The claws of his hands gradually changed, becoming longer and sharper.

While devouring abyssal insects, Yang Feng guided the abyssal force he obtained to transform his claws and legs, making his claws sharper and his legs stronger.

In just 1 hour, Yang Feng’s physique has strengthened by 50%, and his claws grew to 10 centimeters long, sharp as daggers. With a swing of his claws, he can easily cut off the head of an abyssal insect.

“It’s time to go hunting abyssal imps!”

Yang Feng looked at his claws with satisfaction, and then turned and strode towards an abyssal imp.

When the abyssal imp saw Yang Feng, its mouth opened at once, revealing beast-like teeth. It raised a hand and ejected 3-centimeter-long claws as a show of strength.

Abyssal imps use their claws as a means of attack as well as a means to intimidate their enemies.

Abyssal imps generally do not fight among themselves. After all, their victory isn’t a sure thing. Besides, if neither side wins, both may become food for abyssal insects. For abyssal imps, the most secure way to pursue evolution is to consume abyssal insects.

Without shrinking back, Yang Feng approached the abyssal imp step by step, like a cheetah hunting its pray.

A fierce ray flickered in the eyes of the abyssal imp, and then it rushed towards Yang Feng and sent a clawed hand stabbing towards his eyes.

Yang Feng stepped sideways, stabbed the abyssal imp in the chest with his right clawed hand, and scooped out the other party's heart.

The abyssal imp's eyes dimmed, and it slumped to the ground, dead.

Yang Feng grabbed the abyssal imp corpse, opened his maw, operated the Devour Secret Method, and devoured it clean.

After killing the abyssal imp, Yang Feng walked along the abyssal river and killed and devoured the abyssal insects and abyssal imps he saw, constantly improving his strength.

After consuming 60 plus abyssal imps and 300 plus abyssal insects, Yang Feng trembled, and formidable abyssal force immediately formed inside him.

Yang Feng learned from the texts of Warlock that now is the time for him to choose the direction of his evolution.

Most of abyssal imps evolve into different queer demonic creatures according to their instincts at this stage. It is a game of chance.

However, human Warlocks have already thoroughly studied this. As Yang Feng trembled slightly, he guided the formidable abyssal force to transform into an abyssal horned.

Yang Feng suddenly grew inch by inch, until he transformed into a 1.3-meter-long youngling horned with a small horn on the head and a muscular body.

Yang Feng clenched his fists, sensed the powerful force flowing in his body, and sighed: "A youngling horned, now I should have combat power of a level-1 Apprentice Warlock. In the endless Abyss, as long you don't die prematurely, your strength will progress at an astonishing rate. No wonder abyssal fiends are akin to an endless locust pest. No matter how many you kill, you can't exterminate them completely. Even the Warlock Emperors had no way around it."

After Yang Feng arrived at the endless Abyss, without using any resources, he reached the level-1 Apprentice Warlock rank within just 1 day by killing anything that appeared in his way. For many common people, this kind of progress is beyond outrageous.

Yang Feng looked at the dimming light of the black sun, and a solemn ray flashed in his eyes: "The icy night is approaching, I must find a cave to hide! I am not an abyssal insect anymore, so I can no longer resist the corrosion on the icy night."

Icy night is the name of the night in the endless Abyss. The black sun emits a strange light, that illuminates the endless Abyss in a dusky color, during daytime. But there is no light at night. During the day, the temperature here can reach upwards of 60 °C. But at night, it drops to below -40 °C.

In the endless Abyss, the difference in temperature between day and night reaches about 100 °C. Abyssal demonic creatures with a weak physique can easily freeze to death at night. Only abyssal insects, who have a queer physique, won't freeze to death at a temperature of -40 °C.

Yang Feng looked around, and then his eyes lit up. He saw a huge cave, which is a nest formed by an abyssal giant worm, in the distance.

Near the abyssal river, there are many abyssal insects that instead of evolving into abyssal imps, evolve into other types of demonic creatures.

The abyssal giant worm is a kind of abyssal insect-type demonic creature that abyssal insects can evolve into.

Abyssal giant worms like to burrow. They move slowly, are huge, and eat abyssal insects that are all around the abyssal river.

The cave of an abyssal giant worm is a most common place that low-level demonic creatures use to take shelter during the icy night.

Yang Feng cautiously glanced around. After confirming that there is no one laying in ambush, he strode towards the cave.

When Yang Feng approached the entrance of the abyssal giant worm's cave, a black figure pounced out from the cave and stabbed towards Yang Feng with a wooden spear in its hands.

Chapter 749 – Succubus Cloris

"A succubus youngling?"

Yang Feng was just about to kill the assailant by stabbing their heart, but when he saw the opponent's face, an enigmatic light flashed in his eyes, and he grabbed the wooden spear instead. Next he grabbed the neck of the other party with his right hand and lifted the other party into the air. As if a god overlooking a mortal, he threatened frigidly: "Submit, or die! If you submit, use your tail to tap on your head twice!"

The succubus youngling looks to be about 7 or 8 years old, has long blond hair and a charming appearance, exudes an enticing temperament, and is naked. As she gripped Yang Feng's hand with her hands and struggled, her tail quickly slapped her forehead twice.

When Yang Feng saw this, he nodded in satisfaction and released his grip. The succubus youngling fell on the ground and coughed.

Gazing at the succubus youngling, the corners of Yang Feng's mouth rose into a smile: "To be able to meet a succubus youngling here, my luck seems to be pretty good."

Succubi are the most beautiful kind of demonic creature in the endless Abyss. They are a most favorite commodity that abyssal fiend lords like to collect. Many abyssal fiend lords like to use succubi as currency to trade in exchange for various resources.

Only in the 777th floor of the endless Abyss, which is controlled by the succubus queen, succubi can preserve a bit of dignity. In other places, they act as playthings of powerful individuals.

With the wooden spear in hand, Yang Feng gazed at succubus loli and uttered in a deep voice: "From today on, you are my property, understood?"

The succubus loli got up from the ground, glanced fearfully at Yang Feng, and responded in a honey-sweet voice: "Yes! Master!"

The succubus loli has just evolved from an abyssal imp, but she has already learned instinctively to obey the strong . A horned like Yang Feng surpasses the succubus loli in terms of combat prowess by far .

Yang Feng asked: "What's your name?"

"I have no name . "

"Then your name shall be Cloris, understood?"

The succubus loli spoke timidly: "Yes, I understand, Master . My name is Cloris . Master, what is your name?"

Yang Feng randomly made up a name: "My name is Warren!"

"Master Warren!"

"Eat!"

Yang Feng threw a decapitated abyssal insect in front of the succubus loli .

Cloris, the beautiful succubus loli, grabbed the abyssal insect and ate it in big mouthfuls, her tail swaying .

Suddenly, a rustling sound of footsteps came from outside . The corners of Yang Feng's mouth rose, and he strode outside with the wooden spear in hand .

A total of eight abyssal imps appeared outside the cave . When the eight saw Yang Feng, they immediately fled in different directions .

Yang Feng suddenly erupted, caught up with an abyssal imp in a few steps, and stabbed it with the wooden spear in his hand, and then caught up with another abyssal imp and stabbed it as well . Next he dragged the two dead abyssal imps back to the cave .

When Cloris saw the two dead abyssal imps, her eyes lit up, unable to tear her gaze away .

Once an abyssal imp evolves into a succubus youngling, their strength will only improve by a bit .

Most succubus younglings wander near abyssal rivers and hunt abyssal insects for food . Only when succubus younglings consume abyssal worms and mature, will they possess level-1 Warlock rank strength and will be able to crush low level demonic creatures . Prior to that, they don't dare to fight abyssal imps to the death .

Yang Feng tossed an abyssal imp corpse in front of Cloris: "Eat!"

The succubus loli cheered, rushed to the abyssal imp, and ate it .

Mature succubi feed on the vigor or other kinds of extraordinary power of males . But before they reach maturity, much like other demonic creatures, they consume other demonic creatures .

If it was outside the endless Abyss, Yang Feng would naturally have other things to give Cloris to eat . But since he doesn't have any resources in the endless Abyss, he can only give the abyssal imp corpse to the succubus loli to eat .

As night fell, the temperature of the entire Abyss suddenly dropped, quickly dropped to 0 °C, and then continued to drop further .

At the entrance of the cave, there are already more than 100 abyssal imp corpses piled up, sealing the entrance shut . Even so, it is still bitterly cold inside the cave .

As a succubus youngling, Cloris has much greater resistance to cold than ordinary humans . But she is still shivering from the cold . She looked at Yang Feng hesitantly, and then crawled into his embrace like a small kitten .

Warmth passed from Yang Feng into Cloris, and then from her into Yang Feng .

Yang Feng curled up into a ball and held Cloris tightly, feeling both the bit of warmth coming from her and the biting cold in the surroundings: "The environment of the endless Abyss is really bad . No wonder so few people divide their soul and enter the endless Abyss . "

If Yang Feng hadn't hidden in the cave excavated by an abyssal giant worm, then with his horned youngling physique, he would freeze to death in the wilderness, and then become food for other demonic creatures .

There have been other human Warlocks who have once separated a trace of their soul and turned into an abyssal insect in order to advance to an abyssal lord step by step . In this way, they would be able to obtain the acknowledgement of Abyss's origin will and the support of a tremendous amount of abyssal force . Moreover, abyssal lords who have reached their position step by step can keep their soul from being corroded by abyssal force .

However, most of the human Warlocks who attempted this failed . Over the years, only dozens of human Warlocks succeeded in becoming an abyssal lord . However, after years of cruel struggle, there currently remain no more than three human Warlocks who have transformed into an abyssal lord .

Abyssal creatures are clearly quite adaptable to all kinds of harsh environments . Besides the little bit of warmth coming from his bosom, Yang Feng felt a bone piercing cold from all over in the first half of the night . But in the second half of the night, he gradually adapted to the biting cold environment, and no longer felt uncomfortable .

Early the next morning, a ray of gray light descended from the sky, passed through a crack in the wall of abyssal imp corpses, and entered the cave .

Yang Feng operated the Devour Secret Method, grabbed the abyssal imp corpses, and a black whirlpool flashed and turned the corpses into ashes one after another .

He showed a look of satisfaction: "This is much better than before!"

Yang Feng threw an abyssal imp corpse to in front of Cloris: “Cloris, stay here and hide . I will go out to hunt!”

Cloris replied in a honey-sweet voice: “Yes, Master!”

Although succubi are fairly weak, but their IQ is much higher than that of other demonic creatures . At this stage, ghost-type and beast-type demonic creatures are fundamentally unable to understand Yang Feng’s words . Their mind is only filled the desire to kill and eat .

Yang Feng gripped the wooden spear, and a flash of excitement emerged in his eyes: “If I want to maintain my high speed of evolution, abyssal imps will no longer cut it . Now that I have this wooden spear, I can go hunting stronger demonic creatures . ”

At this time, there are many abyssal imps eating around the abyssal river . At the same time, there are also different demonic creatures that have evolved from abyssal imps . The horned Yang Feng is one such demonic creatures .

These demonic creatures hunt abyssal imps near the abyssal river as well as fight one another .

Once the demonic creatures near the abyssal river have promoted to level-1 Warlock rank junior abyssal fiends, they will leave the abyssal river area . Junior abyssal fiends cannot evolve further no matte how many low level demonic creatures they consume .

Yang Feng looked around, zeroed in on a level-3 Apprentice Warlock rank abyssal wolf with three eyes, and strode towards it .

When the three-eyed abyssal wolf saw Yang Feng approaching, a fierce glow flashed in its eyes, and it fired a gray ray of petrification from its vertical eye on shooting towards Yang Feng .

As soon as the three-eyed abyssal wolf acted, Yang Feng blocked with his left hand in front of him . The gray ray of petrification hit his left hand at once and enveloped it in a layer of gray stones . Next Yang Feng threw the wooden spear with his right hand, and the wooden spear turned into a shooting star and stabbed through the head of the three-eyed abyssal wolf .

After he instakilled the three-eyed abyssal wolf, Yang Feng stepped forward, extended his hand, operated the Devour Secret Method, and devoured the corpse completely .

After devouring the three-eyed abyssal wolf, Yang Feng’s body expanded, and he grew to about 1 . 5 meters tall . His power has also increased by a large chunk .

The petrified part of Yang Feng’s left hand began to recover bit by bit . Horned is a kind of creature with very strong overall resistance, and so the abyssal wolf’s ray of purification was unable not petrify his arm .

Demonic creatures have high resistance to curses and abyssal spells . Although the petrification spell has a certain impact on Yang Feng, but it cannot truly cause him irreparable damage .

“Sure enough, killing demonic creatures stronger than myself has greater effect on my evolution!”

Yang Feng revealed a smile, then picked up the wooden spear and rushed towards the next level-3 Apprentice Warlock rank demonic creature

Chapter 750 – Junior Abyssal Fiends

The horned that Yang Feng chose to evolve into is a human-type abyssal fiend. It has innately strong magic resistance and tremendous power and is fierce. Coupled with the various secret methods that Yang Feng has mastered, its battle prowess is even more tyrannical.

Yang Feng's avatar of a fierce horned slayed the demonic creatures concentrated near the abyssal river left and right.

After Yang Feng killed the demonic creatures, he devoured them and turned them into his power using Devour Secret Method.

The berserk fighting lasted the whole morning. Yang Feng walked along the abyssal river and killed and devoured all the high level demonic creatures he encountered.

As he slayed the opponents, traces of chaotic abyssal force entered his body, making him stronger.

Yang Feng killed an abyssal orc with a pig head and lion teeth with the wooden spear. After devouring the orc, he felt the power inside him surge, and he realized that he reached the edge of evolution.

"No, I can't just evolve like this! I must lay a sturdier foundation, so that I can transform into a gold horned the moment I evolve into the mature form."

With a thought, Yang Feng operated the Gold Horned Secret Method and conveyed all the power inside him to the horn on his head, dyeing the horn gold.

As royalty among horned, the evolutionary potential of gold horned is the strongest among human-type abyssal fiends. From among human-type abyssal fiends, only they can contend with ghost-type and beast-type abyssal fiends.

Yang Feng can also promote to an abyssal lord as a horned. But he'll be much weaker than ghost-type and beast-type abyssal lords of the same rank.

After the horn was dyed gold, although Yang Feng didn't transform into a mature horned, but his strength increased by a fraction and reached the pinnacle level-3 Apprentice Warlock realm, making it even easier for him to kill demonic creatures.

"Unfortunately, it takes a lot of preparation to evolve into a gold horned! It'll still take me a bit before I can evolve into a gold horned!"

Before the icy night descended, Yang Feng, dragging the orc corpse behind him, strode towards the cave where Cloris is located.

"She didn't escape?"

As soon as Yang Feng returned to the cave, by relying on the horned's tremendous spirit force, he sensed that Cloris is hiding in a hole, and the corners of his mouth rose immediately.

Succubi are a kind of abyssal fiend proficient in charm spells. They are all stunners and very clever, and they like to cling to the strong. Cloris, the succubus loli, clearly understands that it will be difficult for her to survive in this cruel Abyss alone, and so she choose to stay.

Only human-type demonic creatures, before they have evolved into abyssal fiends, will have a good impression of a succubus loli like Cloris, and will be willing to shelter her. But as for the remaining demonic creatures, once they meet a succubus loli, they will consume her without hesitation.

The number of succubi in the endless abyss is extremely low because most of them are eaten by the demonic creatures when they are a youngling.

Yang Feng said solemnly: "I'm back!"

Cloris crawled out of the hole as soon as she heard Yang Feng's voice. Although she is covered in dirt, but she still looks adorable. With a look of joy on her face, she jumped out like a kitten, hopped to in front of Yang Feng, and uttered in her honey-sweet voice while wagging her tail: "Welcome back, Master!"

Yang Feng glanced at Cloris in surprise: "What a high intelligence! To teach themselves to be cute and flattering, no wonder so many abyssal lords like them!"

Cloris has never learned any bodies of knowledge, but even so, she learned some etiquette by herself. It is obviously a heritage carved into her bloodline and soul.

"Ha-ha. A horned youngling and a succubus youngling, interesting. To be able to find two younglings, how lucky. This time I made it big."

A ferocious, quiet voice came from outside, and a junior abyssal fiend about 1.70 meters tall, with two huge eyes, a pair of fiend wings on his back, and a humanoid shape, emerged from the cave's entrance.

When Cloris saw the junior abyssal fiend, her face fell instantly, and she hid behind Yang Feng, shivering. She instinctively felt that the junior abyssal fiend is much stronger than Yang Feng's avatar horned.

Junior abyssal fiends have received an infusion of abyssal force, and their stage of being has undergone a transformation. Junior abyssal fiends are comparable to level-1 Warlocks in terms of strength. Only after they reach the level-1 Warlock rank, are demonic creatures called fiends.

The junior abyssal fiend glanced at Yang Feng, and envy flickered in his eyes. He approached and threatened coldly: "Smelly demonic creature, kneel, lick my toes, and drink my urine. Become my dog, and I will spare your life. Otherwise, I will eat you alive!"

The junior abyssal fiend is just a common mixed breed fiend without any type. Its essence is much weaker than that of a horned. In the same rank, a horned can kill three such mixed breed fiends. It wants to humiliate Yang Feng due to being jealous.

Chaos, massacre, perversion, and madness are the norm in the endless Abyss. In here, if you don't incarnate a part of your soul into an abyssal life form, but come with your true body instead, then even if you're a supreme god, you will be corroded with time and eventually get muddle-headed and degenerate into an abyssal lord.

"Go to hell!"

Killing intent shimmered in his eyes, and then Yang Feng suddenly rushed towards the junior abyssal fiend.

“Idiot! I’m an abyssal fiend! For an inferior demonic creature like yourself to offend me, go and die!”

The junior abyssal fiend smiled coldly, then spread the fingers of a hand, 10-centimeter-long claws ejected from his hand, and he stabbed at Yang Feng’s chest.

The gold horn on Yang Feng’s head shone, his left hand turned gold, and he pushed the abyssal fiend’s claw aside. Next his right hand ejected claws, and he stabbed with his right hand into the junior abyssal fiend’s chest and scooped out the other party’s heart.

An appalled expression overtook its face, blood trickled from the corners of its mouth, the junior abyssal fiend shouted in despair, “This, this, how is this possible!”

“Be my nourishment!”

A devour force spread from Yang Feng’s hand, enveloped the junior abyssal fiend, and devoured it.

A formidable force diffused from Yang Feng’s body, and a tremendous amount of abyssal force mysteriously poured into him from the surrounding.

The gold horn on his head suddenly shone with brilliant light, and an extremely powerful power entered Yang Feng, baptized his life essence, and evolved him into a higher existence. Junior abyssal fiend aura diffused from Yang Feng.

Yang Feng sensed the power inside him and raised the corners of his mouth: “I’ve finally evolved into a junior abyssal fiend and can use level-1 spells!”

Gold horned are royalty among human-type abyssal fiends. Not only is their physique extremely powerful and possesses formidable resistance to various spells, but they also have excellent talent when it comes to magic. They can learn various spells, awaken the gold spells dormant in their bloodline.

Yang Feng sensed the changes in his body: “After evolving into an abyssal fiend, I awakened the level-1 spells Gold Force, Gold Arrow, Gold Curse, and Gold Shield. To have four innate spells after going through evolution, gold horned are indeed far better off than human Warlocks.”

Before they reach Moonlight Warlock realm, human Warlocks must condense spell models in the sea of knowledge in order to cast spells. They can gain one trigger-type innate spell with every advancement in rank.

Compared to gold horned and other similar abyssal creatures, who possess four innate spells upon evolution and can practice magic cultivation like humans, human Warlocks are not in the same league in terms of talent.

Cloris gazed at Yang Feng with a look of admiration and amazement: “That’s amazing! Master, you’re so strong!”

Yang Feng tossed a pouch made of demonic creature leather, silently recited an incantation, pointed with a finger, and suddenly cast the level-0 spell Flame Tongue, and a flame tongue ignited on the pouch.

Yang Feng tossed a simple kitchen knife made of a demonic creature claw and pointed at the abyssal orc, saying: "Roast the meat!"

Abyssal orc meat is the best demonic creature meat Yang Feng has met to date, and it tastes great when cooked. But this is Abyss, where massacre and blood-thirst is the norm, where you can gain power by slaying and eating other demonic creatures raw, most demonic creatures don't cook their food.

"Yes! Master!"

Cloris took the simple kitchen knife made of a demonic creature claw and began to prepare the abyssal orc.

Yang Feng walked out of the cave and found that six junior abyssal fiends are heading his way. The six junior abyssal fiends are all mixed breed fiends. When they saw Yang Feng, who has concealed his aura, their eyes lit up at once, and they rushed towards him.

"Idiots!"

A fierce ray shimmered in Yang Feng's eyes, then his figure fluttered, and he rushed towards the six junior abyssal fiends.
