

My Genes Evolve Infinitely

Chapter 1:

AWAKENING, UNLIMITED POTENTIAL

‘This is your last awakening ceremony. If you can’t awaken successfully, then you will spend your life as ordinary people. It may be a bit regretful for you, but it is also far away from most dangers, which is not a good thing... ‘

The sound came into Lu Yuan’s ears, from illusory to real.

He gave a sudden shock and woke up.

Lu Yuan raised his head and looked around, with surprise and uncertainty in his eyes.

This is a classroom. The classroom is full of students, about forty.

On the podium, a teacher who is more than half a hundred years old held the table with his hands and was talking.

‘...here it is? ‘

Lu Yuan was stunned.

‘Am I dead? ‘

Lu Yuan was originally a social animal who had just graduated from university for two years. He enjoyed 996 blessings every day and 007 blessings from time to time.

The internal scrolling is too serious now, and not working overtime is as if I am sorry for the whole world.

In the end, Lu Yuan stayed up too much late and ate takeaway every day. His life was very unhealthy and he got cancer.

After the diagnosis, Lu Yuan’s heart actually didn’t fluctuate much.

life, isn't it just to surprise you when you think it's bad enough?

Although this surprise was great, he was already a little numb.

When he was diagnosed, it was already in the late stage. In order to reduce the burden on the family and his own pain, after tearfully deleting the learning materials he had accumulated for a long time, Lu Yuan finally chose to end his life.

Although it is shameful to escape, Lu Yuan finds it quite useful.

There is a younger brother at home, and Lu Yuan doesn't have to worry that the two elders will not be taken care of. He left peacefully.

Just, maybe the two veterans will be very sad, right?

Lu Yuan looked in a daze for a moment, and then returned to reality.

Then the question is coming.

who am I?

Where am I?

What the teacher said on the stage, Lu Yuan could understand every word, but together, he couldn't understand the meaning.

Awakening?

What awakening?

At this moment, Lu Yuan's brain swelled, and a lot of information merged into Lu Yuan's mind.

The confusion in his eyes gradually dissipated, and he became more clear.

It turned out that he came to another world and became another young man named Lu Yuan.

In this world, everyone has a chance to awaken once a year during the three years from sixteen to eighteen.

If you can successfully awaken, you can activate your own genetic chain and become a magical genetic warrior, and you can also venture into a place called the Land of Origin to obtain strange treasures and powerful powers.

Lu Yuan is not an awakened person. He doesn't know much about the place of origin and the affairs of the awakened person, and has very limited information.

He is an orphan himself. In an alienation incident when he was young, he became the only survivor in the family. Only when he was raised by the empire could he grow up.

Recalling the alienation event in the deepest part of his mind, Lu Yuan's pupils shrank and his body shuddered.

This is the instinct of this body, the body is in fear.

Lu Yuan is already 18 years old this year. If he can awaken and activate the gene chain, he can go to the Gene Warrior Academy to study in the future.

If he can't wake up, then he can take a college entrance examination. Of course, the tuition and living expenses will not be burdened by the Empire.

After all, the empire's upbringing only reaches the age of eighteen.

The memory of the original body disappeared before this class. At the end of the memory, his body fell on the table and lost consciousness.

seems to be dead?

Because the original body was too lonely, there was no friend in the class, and no one found him dead when he was in class until Lu Yuan crossed over.

This made Lu Yuan a little stunned.

Judging from the memory of the original body, because of the alienation incident and the loss of parents, the original body has become very withdrawn, but the body is still very healthy.

How could he suddenly die?

Did he stay up late?

Lu Yuan thought about it and thought that it might be a sequelae of the alienation event. After all, alienation is the most incomprehensible thing in this world, and it is not strange what happens.

Lu Yuan didn't go further.

For him, it is already a good thing to have a chance to come back.

Since it's here, let's accept this new life with peace of mind.

I just hope that I won't be so involved in this life, I really can't stand it.

'Alright, click on the podium with the name to start the awakening ceremony. Wang Yi.'

The teacher's words on the podium pulled Lu Yuan's thoughts back. He looked up at the podium with a hint of expectation in his eyes.

awakening.

It's not that he hasn't read novels before, and he is naturally eager for such extraordinary powers.

I didn't succeed in the previous two times, I hope I can succeed this time.

The boy who called Wang Yi came on stage, looking at the teacher with a little nervousness on his face.

'Don't be nervous, I have awakened twice before, do you know how to do it? Put your hand on the awakening crystal, and then feel your own existence with your heart.'

The king nodded, earnestly placed his hand on a crystal ball on the desk, and then closed his eyes.

The air became dense, and the atmosphere fell silent.

After a meeting, the teacher glanced at his watch and said lightly:

'Well, it's been a minute. The Awakening Crystal has no response. The Awakening failed. Go down.'

As soon as Wang heard this, his eyes turned red, and then he walked back disappointed.

The atmosphere in the class is a bit quiet.

Teacher glanced across the crowd, and said:

‘The probability of an ordinary person being awakened is only 10%, and the probability is lower than once. If there is no awakening in the first two, the probability of successfully awakening in the third time is very low. Don’t expect too much to avoid disappointment.’

Hearing this, the atmosphere in the class became even more dull.

Lu Yuan called a good fellow, this teacher is probably a cold-spot.

Hearing this, his heart was cold.

Then he’s afraid that he won’t be able to wake up?

Is something wrong?

Generally speaking, according to novels, aren’t all the protagonists passing through?

If he does not awaken, he will lose a super powerful genetic warrior in this world, okay?

After the fight against alienation, there is one less pillar to deal with foreigners.

This is a loss that Human Race cannot bear!

‘Next, Li Xi.’

The awakening ceremony continued.

As the teacher said, the probability of the third awakening is extremely low.

About half an hour, 30 students tested, and finally none of them awakened.

Lu Yuan’s heart is also sinking continuously.

‘Lu Yuan.’

Teacher called Lu Yuan’s name, and for a while, everyone in the class looked over.

Lu Yuan is a marginal person in the classroom, and he has no friends to encourage him. Everyone just watched quietly.

The attitude of the teacher is no different from that of other students, the same poker face as always.

Lu Yuan was slanderous, and the protagonist was not treated at all.

Isn't it usually that a lot of people care about him, or someone just jumped out to mock him?

Why are the reactions so plain?

Is this reasonable?

Am I really not the protagonist?

Lu Yuan came to the table, and the teacher repeated the previous words again:

'Put your hand on the Awakening Crystal, and feel your own existence. Don't be too nervous.'

Lu Yuan nodded and put his hand on the awakening crystal.

The surface of the awakening crystal is cold and it feels very comfortable.

Lu Yuan closed his eyes and felt himself according to the teacher's statement.

Then, he felt the darkness.

Time passed in silence, and Lu Yuan's heart gradually became a little nervous.

I didn't feel anything, can't I really wake up?

The world is not safe, a little strength is better than nothing.

Just when Lu Yuan was upset, a little blue light emerged in the darkness.

The next moment, a faint blue translucent cube appeared in the dark, making irregular rotations in the dark.

At the moment the blue cube appeared, the darkness was torn apart and the white mist spread.

A huge double helix beam of light stands in the white mist, with a white foundation below, and a white mist above it.

After the double helix beam appeared, the faint blue cube seemed to be attracted, approaching the beam of light, and rotating around the beam of light.

Gene chain!

Lu Yuan was surprised, am I awakened? !

As expected, it's me!

But what is this cube?

Although he doesn't know much about the awakened genetic warriors, he still knows the basic awakening knowledge.

He has never heard of such a cube when someone awakens.

Lu Yuan stared at the cube. The next moment, as if instinctively, he learned the information of this dark blue cube.

The function of this cube is very simple and outrageous.

evolution.

It is said that the genetic warrior can burn the genes of the monsters of the origin to obtain genetic warfare skills, just like fish can swim and birds can fly. That is an ability carved in genes.

Every time the genetic warrior upgrades a level, a blank gene chain will be created, and there will be a chance of fusion.

After the fusion, the genes are fixed and cannot continue to be improved. Low-level genes do not improve themselves much, and high-level genes may backlash themselves if they are not carefully burned.

Therefore, you must be extremely cautious when selecting genes. Every time you burn the gene warfare skills, you must complement each other.

However, this cube can continue to evolve the genes after burning, which is equivalent to having unlimited potential, even if the weakest ordinary genes are burned, they can gradually evolve to the highest level!

This represents unlimited potential and unlimited possibilities!
